Jaycees Reject Commission's Invitation To Talk Recall Effort

Club's Statement Says The Job Is Done As Far As It Is Concerned

The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon turned down an invitation of the City Commission to meet and discuss their recall effort.

In substance, the Jaycees said they had completed their job and the verdict now rested with the voters of Pampa.

The invitation had been issued this forenoon by Mayor E. C. Sidwell on behalf of the entire commission to sit down and discuss the matter in a "sane and orderly" manner with the hope they could meet on common ground and the recall petitions filed last night possibly could be withdrawn.

Air Force General In Address To CoC Membership

It costs approximately one million dollars a week to operate Amarillo Air Force Base, Gen. Dwight O. Monteith, commanding officer, told an audience at a Chamber of Commerce monthly membership luncheon in Coronado Inn yesterday afternoon.

The base now has a population of some 17,000 compared to 8,000 when it was re-activated in 1959. From this base here in the Panhandle, General Monteith said, men are being dispatched into every corner of the world in active service and to train other airmen both for technical service and as pilots.

"Tentacles from Amarillo Air Force Base stretch out all over the world," he said.

In addition to the training of our own young men, General Monteith said the Amarillo base also trains foreign nationals from many countries.

In 1961 some 293 men from 28 nations were trained, according to General Monteith. This year training plans are set up for 551 trainees from other countries around the world.

As a sidelight in his talk yesterday, General Monteith brought out that the Amarillo base now is using a brand new P-38 jet fighter trainer that is capable of climbing 39,000 feet from a standing runway start in one minute, 35.74 seconds.

"Hold your hats," the general said, as he explained this feat was what you might call getting into the air fast.

General Monteith also explained advances being made in airplanes by showing the contrast of technicians needed for the old F-26s in use at the end of World War II and the present-day F102. It took seven technicians to service (See AF GENERAL, Page 3)

Russians Planning New Series Of Nuclear Tests

If U.S. Does

GENEVA (UPI) — Russia announced today it will stage a new series of nuclear tests if the United States resumes testing in the atmosphere next month.

The Russian announcement came as Secretary of State Dean Rusk called for an immediate crash program of controls to reduce the risk of a nuclear war.

Rusk said he was "encouraged by the minimum of recrimination and vituperation" he had found here in and outside the 17-nation general conference on disarmament.

But even as Rusk made a final speech to the conference before heading back to Washington, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko made a blistering statement over the United Nations radio here.

"If the United States resumes experimental tests," Gromyko said, "the Soviet Union, in the interests of securing its own security and world peace, will be compelled to reply by carrying out its own tests."

This was the first flat Soviet declaration that it would stage new tests if the United States carried out its planned mid-Pacific testing in April.

President Kennedy has said the tests will be made unless an agreement on a test ban is reached with the Soviet Union by the middle of next month.

Gromyko's latest statement, in which he virtually accused Rusk of hypocrisy and the United States of trying to plant spies on Soviet territory under the guise of international inspection to police a test ban, seemed to rule out any agreement in the foreseeable future.

Rusk left a short time later to report to President Kennedy a complete deadlock on the proposed nuclear test ban treaty and no progress on Berlin except in outlining more sharply the areas of disagreement.

The arms conference will continue for months but most of the foreign ministers are leaving within the next day or two, Gromyko said. (See RUSSIANS, Page 3)

Castro Hits Commie For Cuban Problems

MIAMI (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro charged Monday night that Anibal Escalante, veteran Communist secretary general of the Integrated Revolutionary Organizations (ORI) is one of the persons to blame for chaos in Cuba.

In a three-hour talkathon broadcast by Radio Havana, Castro accused Escalante of trying to divert the ORI organization to serve his own personal ends.

Castro's charge marked the first sign of an open break between the Cuban Communist "old guard" and the premier's "Marxist-Leninist" followers. Indications were that the Castroites had won the first round.

Escalante was at latest reports ninth on the list of the ORI's national board. He was publisher of the Communist newspaper Hoy until ousted ex-President Carlos Prío closed it late in the 1940's. The paper was revived following Castro's rise to power.

The ORI is a sort of central committee controlling all national functions of Cuban life and the national board is its directorate.

The bearded Cuban leader said Escalante, behaving as though the ORI was his personal property, sought to create a system of control which focused all power in his hands.

Castro, echoing Premier Nikita Khrushchev's charges against the late Premier Josef Stalin, accused Escalante of trying to set up a Cuban "personality cult."

The premier said Escalante put

Jackie Might Ask The Queen How She Does It

LONDON (UPI) — There is one question Mrs. Jackie Kennedy should ask Queen Elizabeth when they lunch Wednesday at Buckingham Palace, namely: How do you do it?

America's first lady, an athletic 32-year-old, was resting up today from a two-week visit to India and Pakistan which, she said, had left her too tired to do anything but relax.

But Britain's first lady, who is 35, can do this sort of trip standing on her tiara.

Within the past year Her Britannic Majesty has taken part in two journeys, both far more demanding than Mrs. Kennedy's — and returned smiling each time to resume her heavy official duties at home.

In January last year she spent six consecutive weeks in India, Pakistan, Nepal and Iran making speeches, touring factories, attending banquets, riding elephant-back in a tiger and rhino hunt in the jungles. Meeting hundreds of people.

She had an even more hectic time for a solid month last November. (See BIG QUESTION, Page 3)

THE JAYCEES' ANSWER — Shown here is Doug Halley of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce as he stood just inside the door of the commission room at City Hall this afternoon and read the Jaycees' answer to the commission's earlier invitation to meet and discuss their recall petitions. In a few words, the Jaycees turned down the invitation by saying their job had been completed and that the decision now rests with the people of Pampa. (Daily News Photo)

Fronzizi Defies Military Demand For Resignation

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — President Arturo Fronzizi defied a new military demand for his resignation early today, and a provincial commander said the armed forces would oust him without further delay.

Ex-President Pedro E. Aramburu, a retired general whom Fronzizi had asked to mediate his test dispute with Argentina's military leaders, handed the president a letter at midnight saying "in the name of constitution-order, the nation asks your resignation."

"I have not resigned nor will I resign," Fronzizi replied. "I do not resign."

When Maj. Gen. Franklin A. Wilson, commander of the 3rd Cavalry Division, heard of Fronzizi's reply, he radioed a demand to his headquarters in Tandil for the president's prompt dismissal by force.

"Since the president has defied the patriotic mediation of Gen. Aramburu, the command of the 3rd Cavalry Division calls the leaders of the armed forces, in the name of tradition and the dignity of the republic, to force as the only means remaining," Rawson said.

The sharp exchange between Fronzizi and Aramburu brought a team of political supporters of the president to his official residence in suburban Olivos while Fronzizi's chief of staff, chief military opponents conferred at Navy Ministry.

Both sides adjourned their emergency meetings by 2:30 a.m. without announcing further action.

Argentina's generals had conceded earlier without reaching an announced decision.

Among the leaders of Fronzizi's "rainsent" radical faction who led Olivos was Senate President pro tem Jose M. Guido, the next in line for the presidency since Argentina has no vice president.

Guido will not accept the presidency," Guido told newsmen after he talked with the president. Fronzizi also talked with Navy Secretary Recaredo E. Vazquez, the national police chief.

Aramburu had been closeted for an hour and 25 minutes before he drove to Olivos to deliver his message to the president. He has been extremely painful to reach the conclusions

Russian Engineer Who Defected To West Wants To Go Back Home

THE HAGUE, Holland (UPI) — Alexei Golub, the Russian engineer whose defection to the West last year caused a tumultuous diplomatic scene at Amsterdam Airport, now wants to go back to Russia, the Soviet Embassy announced today.

The two-line embassy statement said, "Mr. Golub is now in the embassy and has asked for his passport because he wants to return to the Soviet Union."

An official of the Dutch Foreign Ministry said an investigation was being held as to whether Golub went to the Soviet Embassy freely. Soviet officials refused to say how he came to be there.

Golub and his wife, Alexandra Alexewna, were touring Holland with a group of Russians last year when Golub asked for and received political asylum.

Mrs. Golub elected to return home. At the airport, Dutch officials drew her aside to make sure she was going of her own accord.

While they were questioning her, a band of Russians led by Ambassador Panetimon Ponomarenko charged into the office and tried to drag her out. In the resulting melee, Ponomarenko was punched in the nose.

After Dutch officials were satisfied she was making a free choice they gave their approval.

A few days later, Ponomarenko and two other Soviet Embassy officials were declared unwelcome by Holland and were sent back to Russia.

Soviet Embassy officials indicated today that Golub had tired of his new life, but they gave no specific reasons.

Florida Canal May Become Reality

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — A canal across Florida linking the Atlantic with the Gulf, something Andrew Jackson envisioned before the state joined the Union, may become a reality.

"I am so inspired and encouraged by the reception this project has received in Congress that I predict construction funds will be voted this year," Gov. Farris Bryant said Monday.

Twenty-eight other states which would benefit from the canal are backing it in Congress, Bryant said.

"This is no local pork-barrel project, but will tie together 29 states with more than 29,000 miles of waterway," he told a joint meeting of the cabinet board of conservation, the Florida canal authority, and the cross-Florida canal navigation district.

Bryant also predicted that once the cross-state canal is under way, other waterway projects will quickly follow "as night follows day," most significant among them a Sanford-Titusville canal on the upper East Coast.

The governor called the cross-state canal "the most critical step toward development of Florida's inland waterways."

The cost of a canal between the coast and the interior has been estimated at between $144 and $200 million. A survey now under way with a $195,000

Dallas Woman Falls Four Floors To Death

DALLAS (UPI) — A prominent dentist's wife broke loose from restraining bonds today, crawled out onto a sixth floor ledge at Parkland Hospital and fell backward when she took a swing at a psychiatrist trying to talk her out of jumping.

Mrs. Florence Reed McLaughlin Dillon, 41, fell four stories to the roof of a building below the hospital wing where she was perched overlooking a parking lot. She was reported in critical condition.

Mrs. Dillon, wife of Dr. John L. Dillon, was taken to Parkland Hospital for treatment of a nervous condition.

"She was taken to the sixth floor at 12:15 this morning, and about four hours later she tried to get out by breaking a window," policeman J. S. Hobbs said.

"Attendants caught her and she was brought back and tied to her bed. But somehow, she broke loose at 8:20 and at 8:48 she was discovered out on the ledge."

She sat huddled in a corner of the ledge in her hospital gown and bathrobe. Police and fire department units rushed to the scene with life nets, but did not try to get into her view immediately for fear of alarming her and causing her to carry out her threat to jump.

A psychiatrist, doctor and several nurses were in a window above her head and to her right. They tried to talk to her. One of the doctors raised the window a crack.

"She dangled her feet over the ledge, stood up once, then sat down again with her back to the wall at the end of the ledge," said Sgt. Paul Townsend. "Then she stood up and turned her back to the parking lot. It looked like she was trying to take a swing at the psychiatrist."

"A doctor in the room said she apparently wanted them to close the window. She got alarmed because she thought someone would try to get hold of her through the window."

"Then she toppled backward. She waved her arms frantically, like she was trying to retain her balance."

Mrs. Dillon was bleeding internally when she was taken off the roof of the building four

Determined Cop Gets His Man

HALTOM CITY, Tex. (UPI) — A bullet fired by one of his own men ricocheted and struck Haltom City Police Capt. A. C. Styles in the ankle Monday night while he wrestled with a burglary suspect in a moving car. He did not let go.

Policeman Lloyd McClanahan fired the errant shot. Styles maintained his neck hold and captured the suspect.

Slate Announced

In event Pampa voters are asked to vote on the recall of the mayor and four commissioners, a new slate of candidates already is on file to take their places.

About three or four hours after the recall petitions were filed last night, City Secretary Edwin Vicars said five men came to his home and filed applications to have their names placed on the recall ballot.

The candidates include Herman Whitley to replace E. C. Sidwell as mayor, Joe Fischer to replace Lloyd Simpson as commissioner in Ward 1, W. C. Wilson to replace Newt Secrest as commissioner in Ward 2, Felix B. Fisher to replace Leon Holmes as commissioner in Ward 3, and A. C. Troup to replace L. P. Fort as commissioner in Ward 4.

Movie Planned Of Jackie's Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's adventures abroad are being turned into a $100,000 color movie almost sure to prove a smash hit at the box office. But its producers said today few Americans ever will see it.

Contrary to a Republican charge that the film "probably will wind up as a campaign document," a spokesman for the United States Information Agency (USIA) said that barring a change in the law the film cannot be shown in this country.

Under present plans it will be offered, like other USIA documentary pictures, for showing just about everywhere else in the free world.

The agency's expectation now is that demand will be heavy and that the show will be among its most popular listings.

Doctor, Drug Store Agree To Settlement In Child's Suit

HOUSTON (UPI) — A Houston doctor and a drug store have agreed to a $165,000 out-of-court settlement in the case of a child who was disabled and still is unconscious after the use of a wrong prescription.

The money was awarded to Mr.

and Mrs. Robert Mullins, formerly of Houston now living in Chicago, for their daughter, Lita, who was disabled and still is unconscious after the use of a wrong prescription.

The parents claimed that Dr. Gerald Y. George of Houston ordered the prescription—the proper one—after they called him and told him the girl had been ill.

They filed a $420,000 damage suit against the K G Drug Store of Houston. The firm said the prescription was called in to its office on Hiram Clarke Road.

The couple claimed that even after open heart surgery successfully caused their girl to start breathing again, she has failed to regain consciousness and will never lead any semblance of normal life.

The Mullins did not claim that George was responsible, but he was made a party to the suit by the drug store. The physician did not accept liability, but he agreed to pay $25,500 of

Hazlewood Hits Sales Tax, Merit Insurance Plan

AMARILLO — State Senator Grady Hazlewood has launched into the final weeks of his campaign for re-election with a hard-driving attack on Texas' recently-enacted tax bill and on the merit rating insurance plan for state motorists.

Senator Hazlewood today issued an announcement in connection with his campaign for re-election. First, he takes up the merit rating insurance plan as follows:

"The so-called merit rating plan must be amended where it will be a safe driving plan instead of a premium collecting plan for the casualty insurance companies. Otherwise, it should be abolished. It is time to find out whether the Board of Insurance is going to operate for the benefit of the people. If we have got to have such a plan, then this premium penalty money should be given to the cities and counties where the fines are paid in.

"Why should a motorist who unintentionally drives 22 miles per hour in a 20 mile zone pay a $5 fine to the city, and 12 times that amount to enrich the treasuries of these casualty insurance companies when they have not been out one red penny by way of losses? This type of trivial and unintentional speeding violation costs the motorist three times the amount of tax paid by the average family under the recently enacted sales tax."

Turning to the recently enacted tax bill, Senator Hazlewood said: "I was not privileged to be one of the 'hand picked' members of the Free Conference Committee which wrote that last minute tax bill, and therefore, had no choice as to language and terminology used. The Comptroller has already made 39 different interpretations on this tax bill. Free conference reports cannot be amended by members not on that committee. The rest of us are compelled to accept or reject as handed us.

"House and Senate conferees announced agreement shortly before midnight adjournment, and the Senate, as a body, had no opportunity to study this 25,000 word, $356,000,000 tax bill. If the House ever passes a corrective bill so that the Senate can consider it in floor debate, I intend to see that some common, everyday, understandable language is used to clarify this conglomeration of confusion."

Senator Hazlewood added: "I think my voting record is the best index as to whether I should be re-elected. Anyone can make promises, but the written record is unchangeable."

night entitled "The World of Jacqueline Kennedy," tracing her life.

But in order not to have a same-day conflict with the White House tour, even though the programs would have been shown at different hours, NBC decided to postpone its offering.

At the same time, NBC was compelled to substitute another show of stature for its Mrs. Kennedy telecast, and it did. It reran "The Real West," last year's prize-winner, narrated by the late Gary Cooper.

ABC-TV, meantime, also has been giving special attention to Mrs. Kennedy, broadcasting daily five-minute shows of her Far East trip.

Saturday night, CBS-TV offered "Tonight in Samarkand," a modern fantasy starring James Mason as a circus magician who sees the future in his crystal ball, and Janice Rule as a Greek lady lion-tamer he loves.

The story revolved around Mason's foretelling of Miss Rule's death on a passenger ship, and their vain attempts to sidestep the fatal events that make it come true.

The show got off to a promising start, with circus-music and good camera shots creating an exotic atmosphere of fantasy. But director Garry Simpson's inability to maintain this mood soon allowed the viewer to contemplate the thin, contrived coincidences of the plot.

Mood in a fantasy is everything. If it succeeds, it explains away logical defects. If it fails, the story must stand on its own.

"Tonight in Samarkand" could not—especially in the climax when Miss Rule, thinking her fateful day is past, is told by a messenger of death that it actually has just come, according to the Greek calendar. You remember — she Greek, and... oh, forget it. I'm sure the Greeks have a word for this, the same as our—bad.

Miss Rule's portrayal of a Greek was an apparent attempt to draw a parallel with the ancient Greek tragedies, in which the protagonist's fate is known from the start and the drama comes in the battle to avoid the inevitable. The difference is that the tragedies offered lines that said something great, or stated old themes in a great way.

The acting was the best thing about "Samarkand" — from the leads to supporting players Martin Gable, Betsy Vos Furstenberg and Margaret Hayes. Gabe stood out as another one of those poetic European police inspectors. I don't think they'd get along with our guys.

Veronica Lake's Life At Present Is Vaguely Reminiscent Of Her Movies

By WILLIAM E. TANGNEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — Veronica Lake, whose peek-a-boo hair style made her a favorite pin-up to thousands of lonely GI's in World War II, now is living a life that vaguely resembles many of the roles she once portrayed on movie screens.

The 43-year-old blonde, somewhat faded but still beautiful, has been discovered working for meals and tips in the bar and restaurant of a modest, women's hotel on Manhattan's East Side.

Ever since word leaked out this week that the former glamour queen was waiting on tables, offers have poured in from the entertainment world urging her to try a comeback.

There were telephone calls offering her a $15,000 engagement in Las Vegas, a part in an off-Broadway play, a role in a 20th Century Fox movie and a chance to appear on television in "Naked City."

All of them were refused. The sudden rush of renewed publicity Wednesday caught Veronica off guard. She had, it seems, become accustomed to the obscurity that had fallen upon her in recent years.

Reporters were asked to leave with the promise that they could interview her "in a couple of days" and she firmly insisted that there be "no pictures."

But as the evening wore on, she relaxed and began to talk about everything from her old movies to the effect of St. Patrick upon the Irish.

Sipping Rob Roys, she propped up her aching left leg at a booth in the Colonnade Room of the Martha Washington Hotel, where she works and talks to the customers, many of whom are old fans.

Beside her were crutches to support an ankle set 14 times in the two years since a fellow she was dating fell on it. Wednesday night her leg hurt too much to work. So she just sat and talked instead, although she was reluctant to discuss the possibility of a comeback in show business. "I'll take the right part when it comes," she said, affecting the voice and manner of a prima donna. Then, with a touch of sadness, she added: "I don't know."

The famous locks of hair which hung flirtatiously across her face, covering one eye, now are nothing more than a fading memory.

qualified voter in Pampa, wishes of the entire voting public can now be heard, provided our petitions are accepted and taken in compliance with City Charter.

Our position now is simply to inform the citizens of Pampa to inform themselves of the issue and then to vote their individual convictions. We as Jaycees, both as individuals and as organization, stand ready to serve our community in this or future controversies by actions deemed by us to contribute to community understanding of issues involved, to promote community harmony, and to provide better government."

This afternoon's session was adjourned a few minutes after the mayor Sidwell said the commission was adjourning subject to which places the governing body in continuous session instead of adjourning sine die.

Meanwhile commissioners will furnish with photostatic copies of the recall petitions so studies as to validity can be made.

In the motion to have the copies of the recall petitions, Commissioner Secret said "no." Secret said he didn't have a copy of the signatures.

Before the noon recess and after the adjournment had been issued to Jaycees, Mayor Sidwell made a statement which he also said he would give to Jaycees officials.

To tell you that I am sorry disappointed that the recall petition has been filed would not tell the truth.

To state that there is not a main amount of hurt when you name on a petition of people who have befriended would be a statement.

We believe there is some virtue in having an honest, sound, conservative-operated city government.

We shall continue, however, to face special situations that have set-up; damages caused by misstatements and misstatements against us and continue to do the most good and best job for our city and its citizens.

Recall petitions were filed at 1:15 p.m. yesterday in the office of City Secretary Vicars at City Hall. They were filed, Vicars said, by Bennie Shackelford, Jaycee president; A. J. Carubbi, vice-president; and two or three other Jaycees.

Carubbi said he did not know the names of the others but said they were members of the Jaycees board of directors.

Among the many facets of the recall petition situation which was discussed at this morning's meeting of the commission, legal implications ranked first and secondly took up most of the time.

On questioning by Mayor Sidwell, City Attorney Bob Gordon said that there could be legal possibilities of legal action in connection with the recall petitions presented to the commission.

It was pointed out that the section of the city charter providing for recall election petitions was added in 1925 when Pampa had a mayor and two city commissioners-at-large.

Officers Seek Man Found In Area Store

LEFORS (Spl) — An intensive search was underway today by local and county law-enforcement officers for a man who was seen while attempting to burglarize the Cut Rate Grocery Store here last night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sparkman, owners of the store, told officers that about 8:30 p.m. yesterday they were returning to their home, which is located in the rear of the store, when they saw a man near the check-out counter, Sparkman said when the man saw them he broke out the glass in a rear door and ran.

Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan said entrance to the building was gained by breaking out a window and crawling through.

Bill McBee, deputy sheriff, and W. R. Combs, constable, were summoned to the scene along with Jordan and deputy Jim Bowers of the county sheriff's department.

An intensive search was started for the man who's description was given to officers by Sparkman.

Officers said an attempt to break into the Foxworth Galbraith Lumber Co. was believed done by the same person earlier in the evening.

Jordan said nothing was missing from the Cut Rate Grocery and there was little damage to the lumber yard.

Transistor Radio Stolen From Car

Don Bynum, 820 Reed, reported to police at 10:40 p.m. yesterday, that sometime yesterday afternoon a transistor radio was stolen from his automobile.

He said he thought it was taken while the vehicle was parked on a downtown street.

The legal ramifications of the recall petitions.

Mayor Sidwell and Commissioner L. P. Fort said they saw some names on the petitions which had been signed two or three times.

Crossman stated he did not believe this to be true and that the mayor and commissioner must be mistaken.

At one point in the discussion Commissioner Fort said:

"It is not the Jaycees who are behind all this. They are only the cat's paws. When you get down to the facts of the matter there are about a dozen men in Pampa who want this commission out of office."

Crossman took exception to this statement, too.

Big Question

November-December in Ghana, Liberia, Sierra Leone and Gambia in Africa. She attended durbars, opened a parliament, danced at state balls, laid wreaths — all of this in blazing heat.

And her security people were worried about a possible attempt on her life.

If the wife of President Kennedy is too shy about asking the Queen how she packs so much endurance into her 5 feet 4 inches and 115 pounds, the answer is simply this:

Practice.

Queen Elizabeth has been trained all her life for just this sort of thing. She knows the most comfortable shoes to wear, the easiest clothing (and lets others worry about the list of ten best-dressed women). The most permanent makeup. She walks purposefully but deliberately on her public duties.

General Monteith was introduced by Maj. Louis Hackley of Pampa who explained that the general was the coveted owner of several Air Force "firsts."

Major Hackley said that in 1941 the general helped establish a flying record as commander of one of the B-17s which made the first flight from Hamilton Field, California, to Hickam Field, Hawaii.

In July of 1942, Monteith's squadron, on a mission from the UMC Air Station at Cherry Point, N. C., located and destroyed the first positively confirmed German submarine sunk by aerial action in continental U. S. waters.

Gordon Lyons, chamber president, presided at yesterday's luncheon meeting.

Rusk said the U. S. plan for an interim agreement might avert an outbreak of hostilities while the conference works on long-range plans leading to complete and general disarmament. He called for "quick" agreement on:

—An end to production of all fissionable material for use in nuclear weapons.

—A system of observation posts and other checks to "reduce the risk of war by accident, miscalculation and surprise attack."

—The longer we permit the risk of nuclear war to hang over our heads, the more important it is that the risk be made as small as possible," Rusk said.

He addressed the meeting shortly after he and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko declared in a joint communique that their series of Berlin talks here outside the conference had been "frank and useful."

McLEAN (Spl) — Funeral services are pending for Mrs. Ola Fannie Roberts, 77, who died at 8 p.m. Monday in Highland General Hospital.

Mrs. Roberts was born July 17, 1884, in Mineola and moved to McLean from Pampa in 1949.

Two Fires Are Reported Here

Burning grass ignited a house and a barn Monday afternoon, causing light to heavy damage.

At 12:32 p.m., a house at 630 N. Sumner, owned by Jerry H. Coffin, suffered light damage as the result of burning grass nearby.

And at 2:09 p.m., a barn, located on the Clifford Sullivan property four miles west of town, was ignited by burning grass and destroyed. A fence on the Sullivan property also was damaged slightly.

Oran European Settlers Call General Strike

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — European settlers of Oran called a general strike and demonstrations against French authority today to protest the killing and wounding of more than 250 persons in Algiers Monday.

The protest threatened new violence of the type that turned Algiers into a city of horror.

The Europeans were enraged at reports that French security forces had fired point blank into crowds of Algerians men, women and children. By the end of the day 50 lay dead and 200 wounded.

French military forces in Algiers were alerted for reprisals by the outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS) which is pledged to sabotage the cease-fire between France and the Algerian nationalists.

The Algiers prefecture of police issued a statement Monday night expressing sympathy for the victims but emphasizing that the security forces would continue to keep order as they saw fit.

The statement pointed out that the demonstration was called in violation of law. It said OAS commandos contributed to the slaughter, firing "not only on the troops, but also on the demonstrators."

French newspapers, even those which have supported President Charles de Gaulle's Algerian policy, were highly critical of the action in Algiers.

Le Figaro said the troops "seemed to lose their common sense. They did not know the difference between a commando attack and controlling the crowd."

Free Lecture In Amarillo Tomorrow

The public is invited to attend a free lecture tomorrow at 8:00 p.m. in Amarillo by the Rev. Edmund A. Opitz, it was announced today by Dr. Tom Duke, Amarillo physician.

Opitz is with the Foundation for Economic Education, an organization dedicated to explaining the virtues and necessity of a society that practices a maximum of voluntary relations as opposed to the coercive actions of government.

He is an associate of Leonard E. Read who spoke at last year's Pampa Chamber of Commerce annual banquet.

Opitz' subject is "Where We Are and Where Are We Going" and the meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Amarillo schools administration building at Seventh and Adams street.

Dear Abby....

Tarzan And Jane ... Are Legitimate!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you mean Tarzan and Jane were NOT married. They most certainly were! For your information they were married on page 312 in THE RETURN OF TARZAN by Edgar Rice Burroughs. Professor Porter, Jane's father, was an ordained minister and he performed the ceremony.

LIBRARIAN

DEAR LIBRARIAN: My thanks to you (and to the hundreds of other Tarzan fans) who informed me of my error. Many other librarians have written me that since that letter appeared in my column, there has been a run on the Tarzan books.

DEAR ABBY: The letter in your column, from the wife who worried because her husband mentioned ladies' names in his sleep, reminded me of my own experience. We had been married only a few months. My husband was a receiving clerk on the docks. It was a busy time of year and his responsibilities were very burdensome. One night he was exceptionally restless. He tossed, turned and muttered. Suddenly I heard him say, "But Ruth is coming in tomorrow and I have to be ready for her!" My heart sank. I very quietly whispered in his ear, "Ruth who, Charley?" He replied, "Ruth Alexander, with all that grain." I went to sleep chuckling. The "Ruth Alexander" was a ship of the Pacific Steamship Company, then in service up and down the West Coast.

D.J.

DEAR ABBY: I have the world's worst liar for a husband. He has been seeing another woman for a year now and, you know, you can't get away with that stuff in a small town. Everybody knows it, but he denies it when I question him. He "hides" his car in her garage and pulls down the garage door, but the crazy fool should know that people see him coming out of her garage at all hours. The woman is divorced and he isn't the only one she sees. Should I find myself a sweetheart, too? Maybe if my husband got a taste of his own medicine it would cure him.

DEAR ABBY: Your Italian correspondent is wrong. NO ONE eats pizza with his "fingers." It is eaten with the mouth.

CHEATER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: The kind of "medicine" you are considering has never cured anyone. Some one should collar your husband and try to make him see the light. It's a man's job. Get one of his friends to talk to him.

ANOTHER SON OF ITALY

Stop worrying. Let Abby help you with that problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Bride Should Try Out Bridal Veil With Coiffure Before Wedding Day

By ALICIA HART

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. This is the time for the girl who's to be a June bridesmaid to start thinking of the way she wants to look when the day arrives. The bride is center of attention, true, but more matches have been made at wedding parties and receptions than ever were made in heaven.

A lovely dress, a pretty head-dress and a nosegay of flowers are all a great help but they must be backed by a well-planned program of personal care started well in advance.

There are two areas that should get special attention: your complexion and your feet. Pampered feet are essential if you want to be able to stand for prolonged periods during the ceremony and in the reception line without looking tired.

Weeks before the wedding, begin treating your feet to a regular routine of daily soaking and creaming plus a pedicure. You need not use polish but the pedicure is all-important.

The rewards are these: greater comfort, no calluses or pump bumps, trim nails and smooth cuticles. The steps are nearly identical to those in a manicure. Remove polish, then shape your nails straight across with an emery board. Soak your feet in a basin of warm soapsuds. Then push back the softened cuticle with an orangewood stick. Smooth calluses and bumps with a natural pumice stone. Finish with a body lotion, just as you would use a hand lotion.

Buy the shoes you plan to wear well in advance and wear them around the house for several evenings in order to insure their comfort.

Polly's Quiz

By Polly Cramer

Indications are that the popularity of do-it-yourself projects is on the wane. Be that as it may, it's certain that no other fad has done more to improve the looks of our homes.

Labor is undoubtedly the most expensive part of many home improvement projects. So don't drop the paint brush, put away the hammer and nails and send your sewing machine to the church rummage sale - not if yours is a tight budget.

Our money will buy more beauty if we continue to do as much of the work as possible. What can give more satisfaction than admiring a room your husband has painted or the cafe curtains you have made? Either will help to make yours a prettier house in which to live.

Dear Polly: My bedroom is slowly driving me crazy. Walls are lavender and I do not like lavender. Bedroom furniture and rug are gray. What could I paint the walls and woodwork? What color bedspread and curtains? The room is visible from the living room, which has green walls. - Mrs. A.M.B.

Dear Mrs. A.M.B.: Sunny yellow walls and woodwork would pep up your grays and look well from the green living room. Chintz curtains might have yellow flowers and green leaves on a white ground. Quilt the same fabric for a tailored bedspread and use over a green dust ruffle.

Dear Polly: Very shortly, we will move into our new home. For the living room, I have a brown, beige and white tweed rug. Drapes are champagne. My three-piece sectional is rose beige but I want it reupholstered. What color should it be and what color for walls? I have aqua throw rugs and dollies and am thinking of having a platform rocker done in aqua. What do you think? - Mrs. C.E.D.

Dear Mrs. C.E.D.: Those aqua

New Book Will Give Businessmen Tips On Making Public Addresses

By Jesse Bouge
UPI Financial Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — Today's hardworking businessman, however, pressed for time, has to scratch for an excuse for being unable to tell his story, in speech or writing, whenever he gets a chance.

News dispatches, magazine articles, university courses and business authors with books or pamphlets stand ready to give him tips on how to make an effective speech, write a letter with punch, or even to prepare an article setting forth his views.

There are concerted efforts not only to aid him in delivery, but to prepare his reader or listener — the American public — in a broader understanding of what the businessman deals with and the nature of the economy in which he must work.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bradbury K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohn & Stetson says that recent market action has been inconclusive.

Technically, he states, the odds would now seem slightly in favor of a spring rally but the potential vitality of such a move is being impaired by too much anticipation.

He hopes that this is not a repeat of last December's performance when so many bought stocks expecting a January rally and that when January finally came there were only disappointed would-be profit takers left in the market.

The cause of the machine tool industry's early 1962 slowdown, the Value Line Survey says, is the sharp drop in export demand coupled with the failure of domestic orders to improve. Whether it is only an interim dip or signals the end of the 1960-61 recovery, will be determined by the course of the U.S. economy in the months ahead and on the fate of the administration's proposal for tax credits on new investments, the survey states.

Joseph E. Granville, writing for E. F. Hutton & Co. says that much of the market's irregularity is traced to emotionalism, including troubles in Algeria and Argentina, and the approaching income tax filing date.

Colt 45s Are Surprise National League Entry

United Press International Casey Stengel and the New York Mets are getting the publicity but the Houston Colt 45s seem to be getting the better results.

One of the two newly formed National League teams, the Colt 45s have won six of their last seven games and nine of their last 11. It represents a tremendous start for a team that the experts have unanimously consigned to ninth or 10th place this year.

Bob Bruce, who won a grand total of one game for the Detroit Tigers last season, pitched two-hit ball and struck out eight batters in seven innings Monday as the Colt 45s beat the Los Angeles Angels, 7-0. Former San Francisco Giants Joe Amalfitano and Don Taussig each hit homers—Amalfitano's coming with the bases filled.

It was the first shutout of the spring for the Houston staff which also has turned in four one-run and one two-run games.

Casey and his Mets, meanwhile, suffered through the worst game of their short history—an 18-3 clubbing by the Baltimore Orioles. Former Red Jay Hook was hammered for 17 hits and 16 runs in six innings. Dave Nicholson hit two homers, Brooks Robinson drove in six runs with a double and a homer and Boog Powell and Russ Snyder also homered for the Orioles.

The St. Louis Cardinals ran their winning streak to eight games with a 7-6 triumph over the Reds. The Cardinals scored all their runs in a fourth inning featured by homers by Ken Boyer and Minnie Minoso, a double by Stan Musial and a two-run single by Red Schoendienst. The Cardinals now stand 11-4 for the exhibition season.

The Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Milwaukee Braves, 7-3, to raise their spring record to 11-7. Jim Gilliam, hitting .551 had two doubles and a single and Duke Snider had two singles and a double. Johnny Podres pitched five innings in which he allowed only one run for the Dodgers.

Joe Cunningham hit three home runs but the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Chicago White Sox anyway, 10-9, with Bill Mazeroski and Bob Clemente homering for the Bucs. Juan Pizarro gave up four runs and seven hits but struck out nine over the last five innings for the White Sox.

Mickey Mantle and Johnny Blanchard hit homers but it was a 10th-inning triple by Pedro Gonzalez that enabled the New York Yankees to shade the Tigers, 6-3. Rocky Colavito and Steve Boros homered for Detroit.

Nellie Mathews' two-run homer helped the Chicago Cubs beat the Cleveland Indians, 10-4. Tony Balamo received credit for the victory after blanking the Indians for three innings without a hit.

Outfielder Wes Covington hit three homers as the Philadelphia Phillies beat their Buffalo farm club, 13-11, and Billy O'Dell struck out 11 batters in 7 2-3 innings as the San Francisco "B" team beat the Cubs "B" team, 10-4, in their Monday games.

Marshall To Testify In Grid Suit

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Washington Redskins President George Marshall was expected to testify for the defense today as the end neared in the American Football League's $10 million anti-trust suit against the National Football League.

Marshall was expected to be the NFL's last witness as the trial, being heard by Federal Judge Roszel Thomsen without a jury, moved through its fifth week. Court observers felt testimony could end Thursday.

The AL, now two years old, charges the NFL with monopolistic practices aimed at keeping the younger league out of professional football. The AFL contends that the NFL's expansion was part of the older league's plan.

Monday, Chicago Bears President George Halas testified for the NFL. Halas, made chairman of the NFL's expansion committee in January, 1958, sought to establish that the expansion was not a hastily considered move aimed at countering formation of the AFL.

Halas said he favored expansion and spoke of its imminence as early as 1956, when he spoke before the Touchdown Club in Washington.

Halas said when he was named expansion committee chairman, the plan was to branch to the South and the West.

"Houston and Dallas were the leading cities in the Southwest he continued "and we were heading in that direction."

Halas, in professional football more than 40 years, said that as early as 1939 all the NFL teams except the Washington Redskins favored expansion. Halas said he did not bring the issue up for a vote at the January, 1959, league meeting because he and Bert Bell, the late NFL commissioner, realized it would have been futile. Only one vote was needed then to kill expansion.

Late the same month, Halas said, he contacted NFL owners by telephone to get their approval for a change of the league's by-laws. The change was patterned to allow expansion with only 10 teams favoring it.

Prince Dale Is Oaklawn Winner

HOT SPRINGS, ARK (UPI) — Prince Dale, a 50-1 shot, won a stretch battle from Mameot to capture the $4,000 Johnny Desmond Purse in a photo finish at Oaklawn Park Monday.

It established him as a top candidate for the $25,000-added Arkansas Derby April 7 as nine of the 3-year-olds in the race are derby eligibles.

Prince Dale, owned by Mrs. Helen W. Kellog, paid $108, $25.80 and $10.60. He gained steadily at jockey Robert Craig's urging on the backstretch, reached the lead entering the stretch and nipped Mameot by a nose as Craig used the whip down the stretch.

Mamelot, which paid $4.60 and $3.80, went between horses to move up strongly before the half-mile mark and made a stretch bid on the outside. He is owned by Paxton Harthill and was ridden by Jessie Parsons.

Killoqua, co-favored at 7-2 with Escadal, finished third after leading for more than six furlongs. Owned by John D. Askew of Fayetteville, he paid $4.20. Wayne Chambers was up.

Escadal was never in contention. Time for the mile and 70 yards on a good track was 1:42 1-5. A crowd of 8,352 bet $225,361.

Warriors Hoping To Even NBA Cage Playoff Series

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Warriors, still smarting from a 117-89 loss to the Boston Celtics in Saturday's opener of the Eastern Division final playoffs, hoped to use a return to their home court tonight to even the series.

The Celtics, seeking to take a commanding 2-0 lead in the best-of-seven series, were expected to again rely on a strong defense spearheaded by Bill Russell, which enabled them to dominate last Saturday's game at Boston.

The Celtics held the Warriors' high-scoring Wilt Chamberlain to 33 points with the towering center getting just 12 in the first half.

Pampa Golfers Still In Sixth

Pampa high's golf team wound up sixth once more after the second round of play in the District 3-AAAA golf tournament unreeled in Borger Monday afternoon.

Pampa had a second round total of 327 for a two round total of 655. Borger held the lead with 625.

Pampa individual results included Leonard Hudson, 75; Freddy Howard, 83; Johnny Hatcher, 84; Brian Prigmore, 85 and Gary Stanfield, 86. Hudson tied for seventh in medalist honors with a two round total of 135.

The final round of loop play will be unreeled April 7 in Lubbock.

Pampa Team Will Seek Net Revenge

Pampa high's netmen hit the revenge trail today when they battle Borger on enemy courts starting at 3:30 p.m.

The Harvesters, who lost out to the Bulldogs the last time the two teams tangled in the final set, will be seeking their third net win of the year. They have a 2-2 record thus far.

Against Borger at home, the Harvesters netmen stood 3-3 until the final set when they lost out in the single's competition, giving Borger the match.

Oklahoma Lands Shields, Kelly

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI) — The University of Oklahoma landed the most sought-after Texas schoolboy football player—Larry Shields—and his backfield running mate Mike Kelly Monday from Wichita Falls' Class AAAA 1961 state champions.

Shields, a 200-pounder, was named to the 1961 high school All-America team. He played tailback. Kelly played several positions in the backfield.

Both players signed grant-in-aid agreements with Oklahoma.

It is estimated that the population of the United States is about 83 per cent urban.

Paret Is Given Possible Chance For Recovering

NEW YORK (UPI) — Official St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, in hope that Benny (Kid) Paret will make at least a partial recovery was expressed for the first time today even while an attempt was being made to fly the stricken boxer's aged mother to his bedside.

Doctors at Roosevelt Hospital still listed Paret's condition as "critical and unchanged" but several visitors, including the fighter's pregnant wife, said he had moved his hands and eyes and one of the hospital's three chief surgical residents noted, "The longer he lives the better the odds for partial recovery."

The 25-year-old Cuban fighter has been unconscious since he was given a savage beating and knocked out by Emilio Griffith of Madison Square Garden last Saturday night.

In other developments involving the controversial 12th-round kayo which has aroused worldwide comment and criticism: —Gov. Nelson Rockefeller is expected today to reveal the contents of a secret report made to him by the New York State Athletic Commission.

—Former welterweight champion Barney Ross joined supporters of Referee Ruby Goldstein who had been accused by Manager Manuel Alfaro and other members of the Paret camp of permitting Paret to take an unnecessary beating.

—It was revealed that Paret will have between only $15,000 and $20,000 to his name after expenses and taxes are deducted from his Griffith purse. Alfaro, who disclosed Paret's financial status, said, "He made good money but he gave it away to needy friends."

Dr. John E. Crisp, a neurosurgeon, said Paret's attempts to respond to questions asked by visitors "were a response to stimuli" and added, "If we see a change in the next two or three days it probably will be for the better." He said, however, that the "prognosis is extremely grave" and repeated that complete recovery in such cases occurs "only once in about 10,000 cases."

Alfaro, who has been at or near Paret's bedside since Saturday night, revealed that Mrs. Maxina Crespo, the boxer's mother, had learned of the seriousness of the situation by radio and newspaper reports and wanted to fly from Havana to be with her son. He appealed through the press to Gov. Rockefeller to influence the U.S. State Department to issue Mrs. Crespo a special visa-waiver to make the trip.

Alfaro was the chief source of the hopeful statements that Paret might at least survive but in a moment of deep dejection he also stated:

"I hope very much that Paret lives but I believe he'd be just as lucky to be dead. He won't be able to move or talk. He'll be completely paralyzed."

Gov. Rockefeller received the athletic commission report on the fight late Monday but his office said no announcement would be made until today, if that soon. The report was submitted after nine witnesses, including Referee Goldstein, testified at the closed hearing.

Indications were that Goldstein, a former lightweight boxer and a referee with 20 years of experience, will be cleared of guilt.

Ross, one of the greatest welterweights in history, said he thought Goldstein "should be cleared 100 per cent" and added, "He's a great ref and the last fellow who would want to see somebody hurt."

Other Pampa results included Matson, second in the district; and Webb, sixth in the district; Kenny Hebert, 220, second; Ralph Palmer, 190, fourth and Travis Tucker, 100, fifth; Palmer, 440, sixth; James Webb, high hurdles, fourth and Bill Hughes, 850, sixth.

Matson won the shot put on Saturday with a toss of 57 feet seven inches before rain and snow interrupted the meet and postponed it until Monday.

Martin Sets New Pampa High Jump Record With Six Feet

Bill Martin soared six feet over the bar Monday afternoon to set a new high jump record for Pampa high school as well as a new record in the huge Lubbock invitational track and field meet.

Martin finished in a three-way tie in the high jump. Martin also held the old record of 5 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Pampa finished fifth in the meet with 47 points. Lubbock won with 124 1-3 points.

Other Pampa results included Matson, second in the district; and Webb, sixth in the district; Kenny Hebert, 220, second; Ralph Palmer, 190, fourth and Travis Tucker, 100, fifth; Palmer, 440, sixth; James Webb, high hurdles, fourth and Bill Hughes, 850, sixth.

Matson won the shot put on Saturday with a toss of 57 feet seven inches before rain and snow interrupted the meet and postponed it until Monday.

White Deer Bowler Has 473 Score

Dorothy Osborne of White Deer bowled 473 last week in the 27th Annual Texas Women's Bowling Association championship tournament being held in Tyler.

Other singles series results from this area include Georgian Organ, Pampa, 407; Joy Urbanczyk, Groom 407 and Thelma Urbanczyk, White Deer, 400.

Miss Joy and Thelma Urbanczyk had a doubles series total of 799 while Miss Osborne and Miss Organ had a total of 980 for their doubles series total.

Casper Wins Doral Open Golf Tourney

MIAMI (UPI) — A mere $313 separated pro golf's four top money winners today as result of Billy Casper's come from behind triumph in the $50,000 Doral Open golf championship.

Three shots down with nine holes to play and four down with eight to go, Casper's pressure-proof experience paid off in the $9,000 first prize as he bested 22-year-old Paul Bondeson.

Casper shot a final round 36-35 —71 for 283 and when it all was over—with Bondeson in the same windup threesome—the young blond from Northbrook, Ill., had a 34-39—73 and 284.

That one stroke difference cost him $4,400.

And, despite the fact that he had won only $182.50 in 11 previous tournaments as a professional, the long-hitting Bondeson wasn't too happy with his $4,600 payoff.

"I blew it," he said without alibi, "I was over-eager. I didn't take enough time on my shots on those final holes."

Arnold Palmer, finishing in a tie for 11th to earn $1,230 after a final 77 for 292, still moved to the top of pro golf's money winning list with a total this year of $15,361. He dropped Gene Littler, out of the money in this tournament, to second place.

Third is young Phil Rodgers, the cocky ex-Marine, with Casper moving into fourth place on a $15,948 total.

Bondeson, despite his collapse on the final nine holes, was one of the pleasant surprises of the tournament—along with Bantam Ben Hogan.

Hogan finished in a tie for fourth with veteran Ted Kroll at 286, one shot back to 22-year-old Jack Nicklaus.

Sam Snead, another long-time favorite, finished in the money in his 42nd consecutive tournament. But the Slammer just barely made it—He had a horrendous 80 on the third round—second worst score of his pro career—and just barely survived the cut. He finished with a 73 for a total of 298. That put him in a tie for 48th place and paid him the magnificent sum of $47.15.

When they started the final round, Bondeson was tied with Bob Goalby, a former Illinois gragger, one shot ahead of Casper and Nicklaus. Goalby shot himself out of it with a 76 for 287, four shots off the final winning pace.

Nicklaus closed with a 73 for final third place at 285.

Meanwhile, it appeared that Bondeson had it locked up when he went out in 34 against Casper's 36. That put him three strokes up as they turned for home but the wheels came off when he double bogeyed the 13th and Billy birdied it to take over the lead at that point.

After which they all packed up their gear and headed to Wilmington, N.C., for next weekend's Azalea Open.

Children Barred From Farm Work In School Hours

DALLAS — Farmers and commercial growers in Texas were reminded today that the Fair Labor Standards Act prohibits the employment of children under 16 years of age during the hours when the local school is in session.

The reminder came from Regional Director William J. Rogers of the U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the agency which administers the child-labor provisions of the Federal statutes. He issued it right after the opening of Spring, when Texas farmers customarily hire extra help for planting or harvesting.

The Fair Labor Standards Act applies to farmers who ship crops across State lines or have reason to believe their products will eventually cross State lines, and the only exception to the law involves children working exclusively for parents or guardians on their home farms.

"We are especially concerned with keeping youngsters out of the fields so they will have time to attend school," Mr. Rogers said. "This means children of migrants as well as of local residents."

He suggested that farmers require each youngster they hire to obtain a certificate of age, thereby protecting themselves against unintentional violation of the law. In Texas, these certificates can be obtained as a public service from the Texas Employment Commission.

Further information on how the Fair Labor Standards Act applies to children in agriculture is free from local offices of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions located in Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, and Waco.

Suggestions For Improving Range Land Given By Soil Conservationist

Arneal Scott, soil technician for the Gray County Soil Conservation Department, has listed the following methods for improving rangeland.

"Several methods can be used in improving rangeland which is low in production due to drought conditions and over-use. Range seeding, brush control and deferred grazing are a combination of practices needed in most cases for range improvement. Seeding can be done on depleted areas of rangeland and to convert cropland to rangeland.

"There's a lot of cropland in the Gray County Soil Conservation District that has been turned out for grazing without being seeded. Nature goes through a very slow process of establishing this land to desirable native grasses. Range seeding under the right conditions can speed up nature's process several years. One method which has proven to be very effective in establishing a stand of native grass is seeding the grass in a dead forage sorghum cover in the winter or early spring, usually January through March — another method which has been used on areas with a large amount of perennial grass competition is preparing a seed bed with large sweeps prior to the seeding operation.

"There are several things which should be taken into consideration when plans are being made to seed native grass. Grass seed should be selected that is adapted to the soil where the seeding is to be done. A cultivated dead cover crop or an existing dead cover are very important in getting a stand of grass. Rainfall cannot be controlled but a dead cover will aid in holding moisture and reducing evaporation which will help give the seedlings a chance to develop a root system.

"Competitive weeds should be controlled during the growing season of the grass seedlings by spraying. According to Foster Whaley, Gray County Agricultural Agent, an effective chemical application to control weed competition is: 1/2 lbs. 2,4-D ester, per acre in 7 gal. water when weeds are young and tender and in a good stage of growth. Extreme precautions should be used if susceptible crops are nearby, such as spraying when wind velocity is low.

"Perennial grass competition can be controlled by under cutting with large sweeps prior to the seeding operations. The competitive perennial grass should also be mowed during the growing season.

"Another necessary step in establishing a stand of native grass is deferred grazing. The seeded area should be protected from grazing at least during the first growing season to give the young seedlings a chance to make maximum growth and strengthen the root system.

"Farmers and ranchers interested in improving their rangeland should make plans now to seed depleted areas and old cropland fields to native grass, cost-share is available for range seeding through the Great Plains Conservation Program. For assistance contact the local Soil Conservation Service Office, representing the Gray County Soil Conservation District."

COMPACT JET—Made by a motor scooter company that is reaching for new heights, this new jet plane rests inside a hanger at Genoa, Italy. Built by Piaggio of Italy and Douglas Aircraft of the U.S.A., the 6 to 10-seater is capable of either civilian or military use. Powered by two jet engines on its sides, the plane may go into production by 1963.
