Tax Accord Thwarted, House Told

AUSTIN (UPI)— House conferees on the committee trying to work out a last-minute solution to Texas' money problems today told lawmakers they couldn't reach a compromise with Senate conferees.

Senate conferees were expected to stay mum on the apparent deadlock that was expected to bring a special session to the 57th Legislature.

The five House conferees signed a report Wednesday that they couldn't reach any sort of agreement with the senators. They indicated the five Senate members refused to yield on any attempt to change the $135 million tax package the Senate sent the House earlier.

A source told United Press International the House will be asked to concur with the sales tax-heavy bill the Senate sent representatives.

Concurrence in that tax bill will force Gov. Price Daniel to carry out his veto threat and cause a special session to start probably July 5.

Rejection of the program will leave the legislature without a tax program for the regular session ending Monday, resulting in the special session.

Daniel voiced some of his late-in-the-session anger and frustration Wednesday in a blast at Ed C. Burris, lobbyist for the Texas Manufacturers Association.

Daniel accused Burris of making "false and distorted" statements about why Daniel threatened to veto the Senate tax bill.

Burris had sent TMA members a letter accusing the governor of wanting "to put more taxes on business."

Daniel countered, "my main objections as to the direct business taxes contained in the bill were that they are written so as to be temporary, while the Senate bill's taxes on the people are permanent."

He called Burris' letter "another lobbyist attempt to scare business people into thinking he and his organization are their only salvation and should be paid accordingly."

Storm Threat Lingers In Area

Forecasts for more isolated thunderstorms late today or tonight were issued from the U.S. Weather Bureau today in the wake of a thunderstorm which brought Pampa .25 of an inch rainfall after 9 o'clock last night.

The local thunderstorm came during the time Pampa was under a "severe weather" alert, but it passed without any turbulence.

Pampa's rainfall was part of a general pattern in which a tornado-bearing thunderstorm moved in from New Mexico and swept across the Panhandle with the following rainfall amounts: Pampa, .25; Borger, .41; Amarillo, .13; Childress, .38; Lubbock, .81; Hereford, .32; Littlefield, .61 and Shamrock, .63 of an inch.

The weather bureau reported a weak cool front moving eastward across the northern half of Texas today.

While the Pampa area was not suffering from a lack of rainfall and wheat and produce crops were reported in good shape for the most part, farmers in areas faced by drought condition hailed the new rains which have fallen over much of the state during the past 24 hours.

The forecasters at the weather bureau in Amarillo said this noon that more thunderstorms and possibly a round of turbulence could develop by nightfall.

Dalhart recorded the overnight low temperature of 50 degrees. Pampa's low was 53.

The violent thunderstorms which raged out of New Mexico last night spawned a cluster of three tornadoes near the South Plains town of Littlefield. Rain and hail were reported in Hereford and Friona. Amarillo also got a slight fall of hail.

SHOWN IN OFFICE — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, is shown in his Washington office with feet propped up on the desk, talking on the phone to Byron (Whizzer) White about racial riots in Montgomery, Ala., Kennedy has been working for the past two days into the early hours of the morning on the Alabama problem. He sent White to head a force of 400 U.S. marshals to help maintain order.

Kennedy Asks Vast New U.S. Spending Program

Congress Told Space, Foreign Aid, Defense Fund Increase Needed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy told Congress today that the United States faces an "extraordinary challenge" requiring new measures of hardship and sacrifice.

In an extraordinary message delivered personally to a joint session of Congress, he called for a vast new federal spending program, including an estimated $7 to $9 billion over the next five years to get a man on the moon and back before 1970.

The additional effort and self-restraint by all American citizens are required in the days ahead, the President said in his nationally televised address.

In addition to the expanded space program designed to beat Russia to the moon, the President submitted recommendations that would involve extra appropriations in the neighborhood of $1.4 billion for fiscal 1962 beginning July 1.

Kennedy asked substantial increases in funds for foreign aid and to strengthen the armed services.

He also called for a new manpower and development training program to teach new occupational skills to hundreds of thousands of workers who are victims of automation and other industrial change.

While the lengthy, prepared message was self-labeled as an extraordinary State of the Union message, the President's emphasis was on foreign affairs and the problems posed by international relations to the conduct of the American government.

He spoke particularly of his forthcoming meetings in Paris with French President Charles de Gaulle and in Vienna with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

He expressed lavish friendship for the "magnificent leader" of France.

He said he wanted to talk with Khrushchev to make sure he understands "America's enduring concern...for both freedom and for peace" and her desire "to live in harmony with the Russian people."

Here were the President's chief recommendations: Space: An additional $531 million to speed the development of lunar spacecraft in the hope of

The second bus, occupied by 14 Negroes and one white man, arrived about two hours later. The group entered the segregated cafeteria and were arrested. Sandwiched into a paddy wagon, they sang hymns on the way to jail.

Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett reported later he was "relieved" at the handling of the desegregation attempt. He said he was "grateful to all citizens of Mississippi for their splendid cooperation."

Said state Public Safety Commissioner T. B. Birdsong: "They (Mississippians) were just as nice as they could be. They didn't jeer, they didn't yell. They didn't do anything bad."

The day's only near incident was at Meridian, where a crowd of about 1,500 persons gathered. They jeered national guardsmen and tossed a few eggs in their direction.

But officials, using a loudspeaker, notified the gathering the "Freedom Riders" had bypassed the city and the crowd dispersed.

Gray County Ready For Saturday Vote

County Clerk Charlie Thut announced today that the election machinery in Gray County is ready for Saturday's runoff election between Sen. William Blakley and John Tower in their race for United States senator.

The polls in Gray county's 12 election places will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Eligible voters are those with a poll tax receipt who have resided in the state for one year and the county for six months.

A heavy absentee vote has been cast in Gray County, the county clerk said. The total when the absentee balloting closed Tuesday night was 205 votes.

"This would indicate," Thut said, "a fairly good vote is in prospect when the general balloting is conducted Saturday."

Results of Saturday's election are expected to be known within an hour or two after the polls close.

Of the 12 voting precincts in Gray county, five of them are in Pampa. Their locations and the election judge for each precinct are:

Pct. 1, Lefors, Mrs. Jimmy Davis; Pct. 2, Pampa Baker school, Mrs. Earl Taylor; Pct. 3, Grandview school, Johnny Johnson; Pct. 4, Alnared, Marvin Hall; Pct. 5, McLean, Charles Cousins; Pct. 6, Laketon, Ben Lockhart.

Pct. 7, Pampa Horace Mann school, O. A. Davis; Pct. 8, Gatlin residence in Hopkins, Charlie Gatlin; Pct. 9, Pampa First National

BLAKLEY IN PAMPA — Sen. William A. Blakley was in Pampa for an hour this forenoon on the first stop of a flying trip through the Panhandle. Shown here with the senator at Blakley headquarters, 117 W. Foster, are, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas and Mrs. W. W. Windsor. Mrs. Thomas is pinning a Blakley button on the senator's coat lapel. Senator Blakley, seeking election in a senatorial runoff race with John Tower in Saturday's election, arrived at Blakley headquarters at 11 a.m. where he was greeted by local supporters and made a short talk. From Pampa he went to Borger and Amarillo and was scheduled for a speech in Lubbock at 7 p.m. (Daily News Photo)

Witness Claims Union Told Him To Close Plant

BORGER (UPI)—C. V. Tyler testified Wednesday that a union official ordered him to help shut down the Phillips Borger refinery during a strike even if he had to blow up a boiler.

Tyler was scheduled to be cross-examined today in the $4 million lawsuit against the International Union of Operating Engineers and Local 351.

Tyler said he had worked for Phillips 11 years when he and 28 other employees were fired during the strike in May, 1958, for shutting down the plant.

He said that L. V. McCarty, business agent for Local 351, told him: "Get the men together and get that plant down, even if you have to blow the blankety-blank tubes out of the boiler."

The union has denied the charges and maintained the men have no case because they are part of the union and actually are suing themselves.

The company's right to fire the workers was upheld by the National Labor Relations Board. Dist. Judge Max Boyer ruled that the company was not liable, and dismissed a cross-action filed by the workers against Phillips.

Three Are Killed In Head-on Crash

LIVINGSTON, Tex. (UPI)—A head-on crash during a light rain Wednesday night killed three persons and critically injured a fourth.

The Department of Public Safety identified the victims as Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Glenn Haygood, both 32, of Genoa, and Charlotte Warrendorf, 37, of Humble.

Mrs. Warrendorf's husband, Richard, was in critical condition in Polk County Hospital at Livingston.

The accident happened nine miles north of town on U.S. Highway 59.

Big Fireworks Display Planned In Recreation Park On July 4

A contract was authorized yesterday afternoon by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce executive board for a giant fireworks display to be presented July 4 in Recreation Park.

E. O. Wedgeworth, chamber manager, said today the fireworks display will be staged by the Burnett Fireworks Co. of Enid, Okla. Norman Burnett, owner and manager of the company, met with the C. of C. board to discuss plans for the Fourth of July fireworks display.

Wedgeworth said due to the fact only 7,000 persons can be seated at Recreation Park, this year's display

Freedom Riders To Stand Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)— Authorities today promised swift trials for 27 "Freedom Riders" who roared into Mississippi from riot-torn Alabama and were arrested for trying to end 99 years of hardcore segregation here.

Negro leaders vowed to continue the all-out assault on Deep South segregation and indicated a third group of "Freedom Riders" might depart today from Montgomery, Ala., for Jackson.

Two white persons and 25 Negroes arrested at the downtown bus terminal Wednesday after their frenetic swing into the state aboard two buses were expected to be tried Friday on charges of disorderly conduct and disobeying an officer. Charges of inciting to riot against all 27 were dropped.

The 250-mile trip from Montgomery, still under martial law as a result of last weekend's racial violence, was made with an escort of police and National Guardsmen. Helicopters and other aircraft hovered over the road, silver and white Trailway buses containing the "Freedom Riders," guardsmen and newsmen.

Those arrested, including James L. Farmer of New York, national director of the Committee on Racial Equality (CORE), refused to post $1,000 bond each and were lodged in the refurbished new jail downtown.

Authorities permitted the group easy access to telephones and other conveniences in the jail. It appeared Mississippi officials were trying to show extreme courtesy to the jailed riders.

The bus made no stops in Mississippi, racing toward Jackson at speeds up to 90 m.p.h. A crowd of curious and about 75 police, several of them holding leashed dogs, watched as eight members of the group entered the "white only" restroom.

They were arrested when they refused to leave. The four remaining "Freedom Riders" were arrested in the cafeteria and removed to jail, just two blocks from the terminal.

The second bus, occupied by 14 Negroes and one white man, arrived about two hours later. The group entered the segregated cafeteria and were arrested. Sandwiched into a paddy wagon, they sang hymns on the way to jail.

Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett reported later he was "relieved" at the handling of the desegregation attempt. He said he was "grateful to all citizens of Mississippi for their splendid cooperation."

What The People Think

Reactions Vary On Cuban Deal

By United Press International

Indifference and anger today greeted President Kennedy's plan to Americans for voluntary "tractors for prisoners" donations to free 1,200 Cubans held by the Fidel Castro regime.

A nationwide United Press International survey of editorial and public reaction showed only a smattering of organized support, and widespread opposition to what the Miami Herald called a dictator's blackmail.

"What has come over the United States?" the Herald said editorially. "After 16 years of doing it, it has now become automatic to sneeze every time a tyrant takes snuff."

Most public reaction was with Kennedy, but against any sort of deal with Castro. Mrs. Walter V. Hickey, a Chicago housewife, said she "would like to have our boys back, but Castro starts with a finger, then a foot, and then the whole thing."

A Pittsburgh attorney said "as far as Americans contributing individually and voluntarily to help these (prisoners), I am not against that. But I have no faith in Castro or in any of his promises and the U.S. government should not engage officially in bargaining with him."

Immediate support was isolated, and centered largely in the East. A New York City citizens committee for "Operation Rescue" included publisher Henry Luce and William Randolph Hearst Jr., actor Ralph Bellamy, department store magnate Bernard S. Gimbel, and union leader David Dubinsky.

Kennedy asked Dr. Milton Eisenhower, United Auto Workers chief Walter Reuther and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to coordinate efforts on a national level.

The New York Daily News called the committee members "well-meaning boys and girls who thought they had a firm deal going with the bearded grasshopper."

The suddenness of the appeal appeared responsible for part of the drive's sluggishness. In New York City, more than half the persons contacted by United Press International had not heard of the proposed exchange.

A Queens housewife, Mrs. Claudia Long, called Castro's offer a "trick of some sort... it puts us on the spot to show whether or not we are altruistic as we claim to be."

Several lawmakers said Congress should — and possibly would — act specifically to keep Kennedy's offer from being implemented.

School Classes End Tomorrow

School days were growing shorter today for some 6,800 Pampa Independent School District pupils who will wind up their classroom work Friday.

For the 264 members of the High School graduating class, it's all over but the Vespers service at 5 p.m. Sunday and the commencement exercises Monday night. Both events will be held in the High School Field House.

The seniors completed their examinations yesterday. Exams were continuing today for juniors, sophomores and freshmen.

High school seniors get the good or bad news tomorrow. Other pupils will get their final report cards next Tuesday, the last day of school. The final day on Tues

Store Group Learns Fox Had Friend

BLADWIN PARK, Calif. (UPI)—Bill Jones and the other employees at a hardware store here have been outfoxed.

For five days they couldn't catch a small wild fox who had sneaked into the store and taken refuge among some crates. Reynard was finally apprehended in a box and plans were to give it to a zoo.

But Wednesday Jones heard some small noises in the back room and a second fox was sighted. "Now we know why it seemed the fox was in six places at once," he sighed.

The hunt was on again.

Solons Dispute Claim Cuban Gifts Tax Free

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional critics of the tractor-for-Cubans campaign centered their fire today on President Kennedy's position that donations would be tax exempt as charitable contributions.

Several lawmakers said Congress should — and possibly would — act specifically to keep Kennedy's offer from being implemented.

They pointed out this could be done by simple legislation or by amendment to any tax bill being considered.

Kennedy appealed Wednesday to all Americans to contribute to the private committee seeking to send 500 tractors to Cuba in exchange for 1,200 rebels captured last month.

He said he had been told that tax exemption is granted to any "charitable" organizations engaged in the rehabilitation assistance of needy refugees.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., top GOP member of the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee, said, however, the law forbids the Treasury from making any quick ruling on the issue and requires a thorough study of the committee's activities and grounds for its exemption request.

Williams voiced doubts the exemption ruling could legally be issued. But if it is, he told newsmen, Congress should seriously consider tightening the law to prevent it.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Notes from the foreign news cables:

ALGERIAN PEACE:
The current talks at Evian-Les-Bains won't bring an independent Algeria overnight, but they undoubtedly will bring an eventual solution because President Charles de Gaulle is clearly determined to get the cancerous Moslem problem off France's neck. The Tunis-based rebel leaders would like a quick transition to independence. But there are too many obstacles and differences in the way, and De Gaulle sees a slow evolution over about a three-year period — even if agreement on basic points is reached at Evian. Under the de Gaulle plan, there first would be a ceasefire. After about a one-year "cooling off" period, a vote on self-determination would be set up. Then, any eventual hand-over would be stretched out over another year or so to avoid violent repercussions.

NEUTRAL SUMMIT:
India's Prime Minister Nehru is not enthusiastic about attending the neutral summit conference proposed by the United Arab Republic's Nasser and Yugoslavia's Tito. He probably would attend, if pressed by the other two leaders and if it appears something constructive might come out of it. But, privately, Nehru fears the conference might be too big and too prone to propaganda.

EAST GERMANS:
East Germany's Communists to drive a wedge between the are stepping up their campaign to drive a wedge between the United States and West Germany. The Reds long have tried to take advantage of the slightest disagreement between the two nations. Now the Communists are being-up their anti-west tirades in the press and radio, concentrating primarily on distorting the role of the West German army in the NATO Alliance.

RUSSIAN STALLING:
The Russians can be expected to mark time at the Geneva Conference on Laos, at least until after the Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting in Vienna. The Soviets have presented their peace plan for Laos, but they can hold up any progress in actual negotiations for weeks to come. Allied officials feel that unless the Vienna talks are a major success, the Russians will be tough and exacting at Geneva.

'Star' Undergoes Throat Operation

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) —Actress June Allyson, 37, will be speechless for about a week from an operation performed Tuesday to remove a growth from her vocal cords.

The former wife of actor-producer Dick Powell was in good condition today at St. John's Hospital.

A spokesman for Miss Allyson said she should be home sometime today but will not be able to use her voice normally for a week.

She underwent surgery for removal of growths about two weeks ago and Tuesday's operation was the second step.

Attorney Starts Battle To Save Condemned Girl And Boy Friend

HOUSTON (UPI)— Defense attorney Jack Knight said today his fight to save Carolyn Ann Limb, 18, from becoming the youngest girl in the history of Texas to be electrocuted has only begun.

Miss Lima, an admitted prostitute, and her homosexual boyfriend, Leslie Douglas Ashley, 23, were found guilty Wednesday night by an all-male jury and sentenced to death for the murder of Fred A. Tones, a Houston real estate dealer.

The jury took the case at noon Wednesday, and didn't reach its verdict until nine hours later. W. F. Fry, the jury foreman, refused to say how many ballots had been taken.

Infant's Rites Planned Friday

Graveside rites will be held for Terry Don Thornburg, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy D. Thornburg of White Deer, at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Baby Gardens in Fairview Cemetery. The Rev. Curtis Lee of the White Deer Methodist Church will officiate.

The infant died yesterday at 2 p.m., a few hours following birth in Highland General Hospital.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Collins; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thornburg Sr., all of White Deer.

Setting Aside Forest

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — A new state forest soon will be developed in southeastern Minnesota. It will be known as the Minnesota Memorial Hardwood Forest and will ultimately embrace 200,000 acres within seven counties, encompassing the wooded bluffs bordering the Mississippi River and tributaries between the Twin Cities and Iowa.

Ashley trembled slightly as the verdict was read. But the pair otherwise showed no emotion. Their mothers were among the few spectators in the courtroom.

Knight gave notice of appeal. He declined to say on what grounds.

"We have more than enough to base an appeal on," he said.

The case was sordid. Ashley and Miss Lima both testified they shot and killed Tones in self-defense when he attacked them with a bayonet during a party at his office.

They said they took his body and dumped it into a ditch, set it on fire with gasoline, and then fled without reporting the killing because of the "lurid" circumstances involved.

Dist. Atty. Frank Brisco and his assistant, Neil McKay, pointed out the defendants had shown no remorse and contended they plotted the murder to rob Tones and steal his car.

GRADUATION SPEAKER—Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College in Canyon, will be guest speaker Saturday night in the White Deer High School commencement exercises. Cornette is a member of the National Education Association, Texas State Teachers Association and the Texas Council of College Presidents. He has been associated with West Texas State since 1948.

District Court's June Term Ends Monday, June 12

District Clerk Helen Sprinkle announced today the January court term will end at 10 a.m. Monday, June 12, and the June term will begin immediately.

The first jury week will begin June 26 with the selected petit jurors to be sworn in at 10 a.m. Gray County's 31st judicial commission will meet prior to June 12 to select a grand jury panel of 16 members. The petit panel will also be selected by the commission at this time.

For the June term, 12 of the 16 members will be selected to serve as grand jurors, the district clerk said.

District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich has set 10 civil cases to be brought before the petit jurors.

History Reveals Extent Of Road Deaths In U.S.

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI) — A reminder of the highway's perils. The national traffic toll in the summer of one recent year took exactly as many lives as the Johnstown flood, the Galveston tidal wave and the sinking of the Titanic put together.

Atty. Gen. David D. Furman made that comparison today as he cautioned drivers about the "summer slaughter" that begins this Memorial Day weekend.

U.S. traffic deaths in June, July and August of 1958 totaled 9,726, he said. The Johnstown flood in 1889 took 2,209 lives, the Galveston tidal wave in 1920 took 6,000, and the Titanic's collision with an iceberg killed 1,517, for a total of 9,726.

lajding a man on the moon and returning him safely to earth, before the end of this decade. He also asked additional appropriations of $23 million to speed development of the Rover nuclear rocket, a new $50 million for communications satellite development and an additional $75 million for world-wide weather observation satellites.

Domestic Economy: A manpower retraining program which he will submit to Congress in detail shortly. There was no cost figure. The President said that while the recession has been halted and "recovery is under way," there was serious need to attack the "major social evil" of chronic unemployment.

Foreign Aid: An additional $250 million for his contingency fund to be used in specific areas in times of emergency, an increase in appropriations for the U. S. Information Agency to a new total of $121 million, and an increase of $285 million for military assistance.

Defense: The army divisional structure will be completely reorganized and modernized to improve its tactical mobility, increase its non-nuclear firepower, to provide modern mechanized divisions in Europe and new airborne brigades in both the Pacific and Europe "to meet any direct or indirect threat." This will involve an extra $100 million for new Army equipment. He also asked an additional $60 million to increase Marine Corps strength to 190,000 men.

Civil Defense: A triple increase in federal appropriations for civil defense in fiscal 1962, along with a highly accelerated program for shelter construction.

Despite the size of his new requests, Kennedy said he was not requesting additional taxes because he felt the present tax structure and resources of the country were more than sufficient to support the needs he outlined today.

From Spelling Bees To Social Clubs Everyone Needs Extra Energy Boost

From the newspaper headlines we note that the old-fashioned spelling bee is back in fashion. Some years ago our parents or grandparents looked forward to the husking bee, the quilting bee, or a raising bee, all of which meant a neighborly gathering of people to engage in a united effort. Undoubtedly these functions began as a means of practical assistance, but later became a competitive sport or pastime. Perhaps it revolved around the fact that all worked together "busy as bees."

The spelling bee today is carried through with more professional acclaim. A trip to Washington, D. C. is a grand prize, but the same effort and spirit of competition is present, as it was those many years ago.

Now we have district, region, state and national competition instead of the country school.

Tenseness and weariness in the most active can be relieved at a mid-program break. That's the time everybody rushes to the milk bar, and returns ready for another grueling period of competition.

Give the contestants the benefit of added energy, by filling the glass of milk with a favorite flavor, such as strawberry, orange or peach, and a tablespoon or more of honey for an added taste of sweet and energy, or a Honey Ice Cream Float that will cheer the most discouraged.

IT'S LOVE AT FIRST BITE

FULL OF TASTEWORTHY FOOD VALUE

HONEY ICE CREAM FLOAT
1 cup chilled milk
3 tablespoons honey
½ cup vanilla ice cream

Combine milk and honey. Add ice cream and stir until part of ice cream is dissolved. Serve. Makes one serving.

But what to serve for hospitality at the get-together which now replaces the "bee"? The same old-time favorite looms up as it did in Grandma's day, in the form of cookies, ices and coffee.

Honey Old Timers are fitting in both name and substance for those who bridge the years from "bees" to "clubs."

HONEY OLD TIMERS
1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons chopped nuts
¼ cup chopped candied or dried fruit

¼ cup margarine or butter
¼ cup sugar
½ cup honey

1 egg yolk, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon; stir in nuts and candied fruit. Cream margarine or butter; beat in sugar and honey; then egg yolk and vanilla; gradually stir in flour-nut mixture. Some honey causes more spreading than others; add more flour if necessary. Drop batter from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. If desired, mix ½ teaspoon orange rind with a little sugar and spread on cookies while still hot. Place 3 raisins on each cookie.

Cheese Cake Strictly Masculine Dessert

Cheese cake is a man's dessert. That's why it's such an appropriate dessert choice for Father's Day, Sunday, June 18. When you look about for a recipe which will please the head of your household, don't be confused by the staggering variety of recipes to be found — baked and unbaked cheesecakes, cream or cottage cheesecakes and on and on in tempting profusion.

You'll delight Dad and the rest of the family, too, with one simple creation, a Cream Cheese Pie baked in a no-fuss Corn Flake Crumbs shell. This crust is so easy to make, and a little of the mixture saved out to use as a topping will dress up the pie attractively.

The rich filling is made by blending sugar, flour and cream cheese with egg yolks, cream and vanilla. Then fold in beaten egg whites and the filling is ready to go into the shell. As cheesecake desserts go, this recipe is relatively economical even through it doesn't skimp a bit on flavor.

Corn Flake Crumbs, so convenient because you pour them ready-to-use from the spout of the package, are a versatile ingredient in all your cooking — on special days such as Father's Day or any other day the year around.

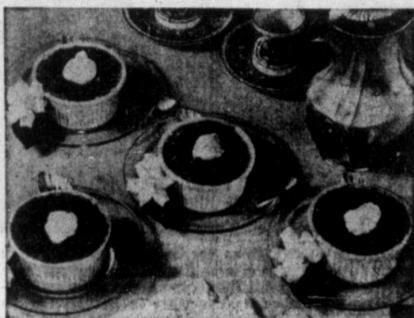

CREAM CHEESE PIE
4 cups Kellogg's Corn Flakes or 1 cup packaged Kellogg's Corn Flake Crumbs
1-3 cup soft butter or margarine
2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons flour

1 8-ounce package cream cheese, softened
3 eggs, separated
1-3 cup light cream
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring

If using Corn Flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Combine Corn Flake Crumbs, butter and sugar; mix well. Press evenly and firmly around sides and bottom of 9-inch pie pan, reserving 2 tablespoons for topping, if desired. Chill.

Blend sugar, flour and cream cheese. Beat egg yolks slightly, stir in cream and vanilla. Add to cheese mixture and mix thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold into cheese mixture. Spread in pie shell. Sprinkle with

Rice Sparks Chocolate Dessert

Chocolate Soufflé is a justly famous dessert. Of real news is the development by home economists with The Rice Industry of a never-fail, never-fall chocolate soufflé with rice which is equally delightful served hot or cold.

Baked and served in individual casseroles, Chocolate Rice Soufflé is an elegant dessert, full flavored with crunchy ground pecans and tender cooked rice grains. The same rice which gives this dessert its special never-fall qualities also appears as a cereal for breakfast or as a luncheon and dinner main dish. It is a versatile staple which is just as good to eat as it is useful.

Chocolate Rice Soufflé
1/2 cup cooked rice
1/2 cup chopped pecans
3 eggs, separated
2 cups milk

Combine rice and pecans and spoon into 6 small buttered baking dishes (2/4 cup capacity each). Beat egg whites till stiff. Beat egg yolks slightly. Add milk and vanilla and mix well. Combine sugar, cocoa and salt and thoroughly blend into milk and egg mixture. Fold in the whites. Pour custard over the rice and pecans. Place dishes in a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) about 55 minutes or until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Serve warm. Good plain or topped with whipped cream sweetened and flavored. Yield: 6 servings.

Saucy Beef Cuts Are Economical

A dish that meets both family and budget needs is Saucy Beef Cubes. Reba Staggs, home economist, says you can take advantage of economical cuts as well as the plentiful supply of beef on the market right now.

Saucy Beef Cubes
2 pounds boneless beef, cut in 1½ - inch pieces
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 bay leaf
¼ teaspoon basil
1 cup water
1 cup tomato juice
12 small onions
Water

3 tablespoons flour
Brown meat in lard or drippings; pour off drippings. Season. Add celery seed, bay leaf, basil and water. Cover tightly and simmer for 2 hours. Add tomato juice and onions and simmer for 45 minutes or until meat is tender and onions are done. Remove meat and onions. Measure cooking liquid and add enough water to make 1½ cups. Thicken liquid with flour for gravy. 4 to 6 servings.

Delicious Bread Gets Day Off To Good Start

How would you like to start a summer day by being served a breakfast of fresh pineapple and strawberries, a choice of crisp presweetened cereals, with chilled milk, freshly baked banana flake nut bread, and plenty of good coffee?

Such a breakfast is not only a joy and delight to eat, but it provides approximately one-fourth of the daily nutritional requirements for most people.

BANANA FLAKE NUT BREAD
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup melted fat
1-3 cup milk
1½ cups mashed bananas (about 4)

1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts, optional
1 cup whole wheat flakes or corn flakes.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, and sugar. Combine egg, fat, milk, bananas, and vanilla; add to dry ingredients and stir just until well mixed. Blend in nuts and cereal flakes. Turn into greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 80 minutes. Cool on rack 10 minutes. Remove from pan. Yield: 1 loaf.

Cake Fashioned For Springtime Partying

Fashioned for spring partying is Rhubarb Pineapple Cake — a three-piece ensemble, pinked and prettied with an ice cream midriff. Cut a baker's (1-pound) loaf pound cake, horizontally, into 2 equal-sized layers. In advance, prepare the middle layer: Cook (and sweeten) ½ pound of rhubarb to a thick sauce and tint with red food coloring. Cool and add 1-3 cup drained, crushed pineapple. Blend sauce into 1 pint of softened vanilla ice cream and place in a waxed - paperlined loaf pan (to fit size of cake); freeze overnight. Top cake with whipped cream and toasted almonds. Keep in freezer until served.

An old-time trick of fine southern cooks Cook tiny fresh or frozen green beans just until tender, drain; spread into shallow casserole. Cover with a rich cream sauce made with bacon drippings. Top with shredded American-made Baby Gouda cheese; broil just until cheese melts.

Retail Merchants And Credit Unit Receive Honors

The Retail Merchants Association and Credit Bureau of Pampa was honored at the 81st annual Business Conference and Credit Sales Clinic held in Waco Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, according to W. L. Veale, manager of the local bureau.

The Pampa Association - Bureau was nominated by other Bureaus in the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, District 3, for outstanding contribution to their merchants in both credit reporting and collection service.

The local Bureau will now compete with eight other Bureaus in the United States and Canada in the same population bracket for the coveted International Achievement Award.

Attending the Conference were Veale, Mrs. Lola Nicholson and Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis of the Pampa Credit Womens' Club.

The latest in charge sales promotions and merchant association credit bureau management relations were stressed throughout the three-day meeting. One afternoon and one full day of the convention were devoted to separate meetings for utilities, wearing apparel, appliance, automotive and finance, furniture, jewelry, hospital, medical-dental, home services and building materials groups.

Columbian Aid To Be Next Job Of Peace Corps

Sometime late this summer or early fall, 64 young citizens of the United States will settle down in the Latin American republic of Colombia as unique Ambassadors of good will.

Their assignment—to live on the economy of the countryside and to work side by side with Colombians toward building a better way of life.

Their project is the second to be assigned to President Kennedy's Peace Corps and the first in Latin America.

They are to help local authorities in the development of small farming, handicrafts, rural construction and sanitation.

Much of their work will be rough and done with their hands, a far cry from marble-hall diplomacy.

But if successful, the results could be far more dramatic than the wispy, and transient, vapor-trail of a jet fighter donated to build up friendly military forces or a treaty made to be broken.

The project also has its risks. The young ambassadors must approach the job with sympathy and understanding if a gesture of friendship at the grassroots level is not to end as a fiasco, gaining more enemies than friends.

Except for the anticipated reaction of the Communist world, response to the Peace Corps idea has been good, from the underdeveloped countries, South America and Africa to India and the Philippines.

The first project to be assigned was a road survey in Tanganyika.

The Philippines has laid out the welcome mat for 300 Peace Corps volunteers to assist in such fields as education and rural community development.

Colombia should make a fitting laboratory for other projects to be undertaken throughout Central and South America.

It is in the midst of a vast social and economic revolution which so far has avoided both the pitfalls of Castroism and the economic ruin

IT'S LOVE AT FIRST BITE

It has been estimated that 8 percent of the hunters in the United States are color blind.

Repeatedly, Colombians emphasized they do not seek United States handouts. But they do ask long-term, low-interest loans. They welcome U.S. Industry and U.S. know-how in all fields.

Many Albanians Reported Jailed By Red Dictator

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI)—Albanian Communist Boss Enver Hoxha was reported today to have jailed 30,000 political opponents since last year when he started siding with Red China against Russia.

But despite the arrests and a series of executions, Hoxha is struggling for his political survival and "lives in fear of his shadow," a former high Albanian official said.

The official, who fled his country, said the current trial of 10 Albanians, charged with plotting Hoxha's overthrow with the aid of Greece, Yugoslavia, and the United States, actually is a cover to wipe out pro-Russian elements.

Foreign observers noted that although the trial began last week, the Soviet satellite countries have ignored it and even Moscow Radio's Albanian broadcasts have not mentioned it. Only the Albanian news agency (ATA) and Radio Tirana have carried reports to the outside world. "There are no Western newsmen in Albania and few foreign diplomats."

Last month a newspaper in Athens said it had reliable information that Hoxha's purge had cost the lives of 60 persons, all Communist party members. Official Albanian figures put the party membership at 53,600 out of a population of 1,825,000.

Dear Abby... Maybe She Keeps More Than House!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a divorcee who is keeping company with a bachelor. He lives in an apartment with a woman he calls his "housekeeper." I have seen her and she doesn't look like a housekeeper to me.

He claims there is nothing between them, yet when he comes to see me, he has to get home early or else she will "worry." I am not to wear any makeup or perfume for fear she will detect it on him. He says (kiddingly) she is very "jealous."

I have never before heard of a housekeeper acting like she owns the man she works for. My boyfriend seems to be afraid of her. I told him I would keep house for him, but he likes this arrangement and refuses to change. Do you think I am being a fool? Why, when I offer to keep house for him, does he need her?

GREEN EYES DEAR GREEN: Whatever he "needs her for," she is filling the bill. With his set-up I can't figure out why he needs YOU!

DEAR ABBY: My wife saves bottles, boxes, bags and rags, and also toys. I gave some of her toys to an 8-year-old girl in our neighborhood, and my wife called the girl's mother and asked for the toys back. We have no children. My wife is 43. Is she all there?

"I WONDER" DEAR "I WONDER": If I were you, I would stop wondering and get a doctor's opinion.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only a short time and already I am getting annoyed with my husband's mother. I work, and the minute I get home, my telephone starts ringing. She calls me every blessed day at this hour and asks a million questions. She talks from 30 to 40 minutes about nothing.

I like to start my dinner as soon as I get home so that I can have dinner ready for my husband when he gets home, but his mother holds me up. It does no good to say, "Something is burning on the stove." She says, "Go turn it down and come back."

Should I complain to my husband and ask him to tell his mother not to call me at this hour? I haven't the nerve to tell her myself.

YOUNG BRIDE DEAR YOUNG: One of the worst mistakes a young bride can make is to complain to her husband about his mother. Gather your courage and ask your mother-in-law nicely to please wait until after dinner time to call you. And tell her why. If your phone rings while you are preparing dinner — let it ring.

CONFIDENTIAL TO NORMAN E.: Your letter was one of the finest I have ever received. Please send me your address.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ruth Millett When Don't Teenagers

Win Arguments???

RUTH MILLETT Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The experts in human relations must figure that if we don't have something new to worry about every month or so we'll get bored and restless and not have the foggiest notion of what to do with our spare time.

So now we are warned that teenagers need to win an argument with their parents occasionally — for the sake of their self-esteem (or something). It is even suggested that, if necessary, we deliberately start an argument we intend to let them win — just to build up their self-confidence.

Personally, I figure the expert who has dreamed up this new worry is going to have a hard time peddling it. The parents of teenagers I know are so unaccustomed to winning arguments with their offspring that they'll never have to throw one, just to make their kids feel good.

After all, what parent today is strong enough to win out against such teen-age arguments as:

"All the other kids are going."

"Want to make your kid different?"

"You're treating me like a child." At fourteen—yet?

"Things aren't like they were when you were growing up."

That's a fact, for sure.

"You just don't understand."

And after all those books you've read, too.

"Nothing's going to happen." Maybe you are being overly protective. And you KNOW that's bad. All the experts agree with Sis and Junior on that.

Versatile Fabric Lends Itself To High Fashion

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Nylon net is truly a boon to women who enjoy the feminine touch in fashion, but who need to watch the pennies.

You can shirr it... tuck it... fold it. You can make capes, overskirts, stoles, yokes, puff sleeves — so many things.

It costs only $1 to $1.50 per yard. One-half yard will make a lovely protective cap for evening wear, or even for daytime when you are dashing somewhere and need to protect your hair from the breezes. Or you can add glamour to a simple sheath dress by making a nylon overskirt.

To make an overskirt, buy a 2 1/2 to 3-yard length of net. Lay a yardstick on the two ends of the net. Chalk a straight line and carefully cut both edges along the line. Turn these cut edges to the right side 1/4-inch.

Make another 1-inch turn, stitch through the center, and you have a milliner's fold (see illustration). A shows how the turn is made, B the center stitching. Gather the top edge of the net. Stitch a ribbon band on the top, allowing enough ribbon — say 3/4-yard — at each end, to make a nice tie.

Wear the overskirt to open center front, or center back as you prefer. If net makes a skirt too long, simply turn a deep hem to make it the length you desire. Net skirt can be seven-eighths length if you wish.

Stitch net over tissue paper, then tear the tissue away. Use 8 to 9 stitches per inch.

Dear Mrs. Picken: Can I stitch two thicknesses of chiffon in a seam? — B. J.

Dear B. J.: Yes, place the two thicknesses of each section of the fabric together. Lay the fabric flat on a table, smooth perfectly, pin all edges together.

Place over tissue paper, with the adjoining two pieces of the second piece of chiffon over the seam line of the first. Pin generously.

Glamour-on-a-budget is yours with use of lovely nylon net.

Then stitch using 8 to 9 stitches to the inch, stretching the fabric slightly as you stitch so the seam cannot tighten. Finish by overcasting with a loose stitch.

Another way is to stitch the thicknesses separately. Then place one over the other. Turn all the raw edges inside before overcasting the seam.

Do you have a sewing problem? Send it to Mary Brooks Picken, care of this newspaper. While Mrs. Picken cannot answer each letter personally, letters of general interest will be answered in the column.

Civil Defense Topic For HD Club Meet

Mrs. Shelby Hood presided at the Friday afternoon meeting of the Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club held in the home of Mrs. Dewey Johnson, 622 N. Sumner.

Roll call was answered with "What can we do to provide shelter at home and, possibly, in our cars."

Mrs. Roy Tinsley, in giving a report on "Civil Defense," quoted from Dan True, weather observer for Channel 10, "we should listen for storm warnings and be cautious. A bomb shelter should have an entrance with a protecting wall. It should be large enough to accommodate just enough people so that each one can have eight feet of space; it should have pipes for ventilation, good underground drainage and supplies to last two weeks." Some of the items to be included in the bomb shelter are food, water, a lantern, flash lights, games, first aid kits, medical magazines, a radio, children's clothing.

It was announced that the next meeting will be with Mrs. Dewey Lunsford, 1029 Duncan on June 2 at 2:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Attending were Meses. Shelby Hood, Stella Wagner, Lester Reynolds, W. G. Kinzer, Boyd Brown, Roy Tinsley, Dewey Johnson and her mother, Mrs. Gussie Archibald and Miss Yvonne Reynolds.

Underrated Kasko 'Glues' Charging Reds Into Winner

By HARRY GRAYSON

CINCINNATI (NEA) —What is that other club up there fighting the Giants, Pirates and Dodgers for the National League lead? Why it's the Reds, and who do you suppose Fred Hutchinson is banking on to keep the surprising Cincinnati package together? None other than Eddie Kasko, who finally has made it as a regular major league shortstop after a dozen years.

The bespectacled Kasko has been a grossly underrated infielder for four campaigns, but necessity at last has made the understudy a star. Kasko is leading the Redlegs at bat with .328 as well as in the field.

In Tampa during the training season everybody but Manager Hutchinson wondered what he intended to use as a second base combination. Johnny Temple had gone to the Indians, Roy McMillan and Billy Martin to the Braves. It was doubted that Chico Cardenas would hit enough to play shortstop. No one had much faith in Jim Baumer, a second basing refugee from the White Sox.

But having managed Kasko in St. Louis, Hutchinson wasn't concerned about the Rhineland shortstop, where Kasko had to go when Gene Freese was obtained from the White Sox to add thump at third base.

When Don Blasingame came from the Giants to ride the range at second base, the Cincinnati infield was set.

"Kasko is the balance wheel of this outfit," said Hutchinson in the Crosley Field clubhouse. "We missed him while he was out with a swollen ankle."

The unobtrusive Kasko attracted little attention last season even though he was adjudged the most valuable member of the Reds, who finished sixth. Eddie has attracted more attention on the golf course than he has in baseball, having won the Ballplayers' Tournament, among others.

I asked him how it felt to suddenly be important. "Great," he said, almost apologetically. "It's wonderful to have a chance."

Kasko, who broke into the organized game as an 18-year-old out of Linden, N.J., has been in the Philadelphia and St. Louis chains. Making conversation, I asked him who taught him the most.

"Al DeSantis, a sports writer in Schenectady, N.Y., was the rather astonishing reply. "I hadn't hit much in a D League and wasn't hitting a lick in an A, so DeSantis suggested that I try glasses. I've been making a good living ever since."

Perfect Game Larsen Switches To Outfield

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's a long shot but pitcher Don (perfect game) Larsen could turn out to be a pretty fair outfielder for the Kansas City Athletics.

There's plenty of precedent for a switch from pitching to an every-day spot in the lineup.

Fella named Babe Ruth was one of the American League's best pitchers when he became a full-time outfielder. George Sisler, Lefty O'Doul, Johnny Lindell, Sam Rice and Johnny Cooney all came up to the major leagues as pitchers and wound up for a long stay at other positions.

Baseball history, however, is loaded with pitchers who were tried briefly at other positions and went back to pitching when they couldn't carry their weight as hitters.

Even Larsen had a previous twirl in the outfield with the old St. Louis Browns — so did Ned Garver — but in those days the big right hander could fire the ball so well there was no thought of making him a permanent fly-chaser.

Now, though, Larsen's pitching magic has flown. The only man ever to hurl a perfect world series game with no hits, no walks and not a man reaching first isn't much of an asset on the mound to any major league club. He was 1-10 last year, 1-0 so far in 1951.

Big Don never was a big winner as a pitcher either with the Browns, Baltimore or with the Yankees, for whom he flipped his perfect game against the Dodgers in 1936. But he was a good hitting pitcher.

Once in '53, he set a major league record for the most consecutive hits by a pitcher (7) and when he reached the Yankees Casey Stengel frequently used him as a pinch batsman.

But a guy will try most anything to avoid another trip back to the minors and there's always a chance Larsen can stick with his bat instead of his arm.

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Eagles, champions of the National Football League, have signed fullback Clarence Peaks and lineman Gene Gossage to 1951 contracts.

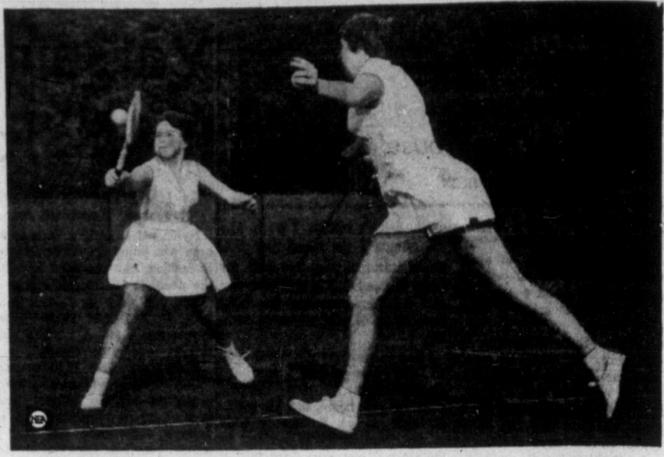

'500' Golf Tourney To Begin

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Pro golf's par-busters, headed by Gary Player, Arnold Palmer and Doug Sanders, teed off today in the $50,000 "500" Festival Open on one of the easier tests of golf in their year-round battle with the game.

It will be the second whirl for the top pros — on the 6605-yard, par 71 Speedway golf course, and unless the course is far tougher than it was a year ago, the scoring could be phenomenal.

Last year there were 463 rounds played on the course and par was broken on 203 of them. But on the last day of the tournament, when only 66 rounds were played, 43 players broke par, and on the third round, 49 of the 101 contestants improved on par.

Fifty-six of the 150 starters and 66 finishers were consistent enough to finish under par of 284 for the 72 holes. They were led by the victor, Doug Ford, with 270, runner-up Jerry Barber with 272, and Sanders and Dow Finsterwald, tied for third at 273.

IN THE FAMILY — It's an impressive sister act as Christine Truman, British Wightman Cup player, and her 15-year-old sister, Nell, swing their way to victory in doubles. The action is in the Connaught Lawn Tennis Tournament at Chingford, Essex, England.

'Old Archie' Plays Cagy About Weight For Fight

NEW YORK (UPI) — The bon-goes throbbed, the flute player riffled a far out passage and the white-robed Nigerian with the gold embroidered fex wacked his African talking drum.

The silent breach when they ceased their thunder.

As mood music for a box fighter, the hammering tempo might have been expected to put old Archie in a vehement mood. Particularly with his June 10 title opponent, Italian Giulio Rinaldi, sitting nearby.

But darned if old Archie didn't wax poetic, due, possibly to the white powder thick in his hair from a brain wave test at the boxing commission's offices. He looked almost benign, and almost as old as they say he is, when he reported he had been to Tombstone, Ariz., and visited Boot Hill. Gently he quoted from an epitaph.

"What you are now, I once was. What I am now, you soon will be."

"Remember me."

It was impossible to decide whether this was aimed at the 26-year-old Rinaldi, against whom old Archie will risk his light heavyweight crown at Madison Square Garden 16 days hence. Archie just wasn't making anything too clear. Such as when they asked him how he was coming in his effort to make the 175 pound weight limit.

"I weigh two more pounds than I weighed yesterday," he fended. "Next?"

If he won, what would he do? "Go to the box office, get my money and go home."

If he lost, what would he do? "Go to the box office, get my money and go home."

Pressed again on his weight problem, Archie relented slightly. "I'm in the 80's," he said. "I started at '06."

The former was not an admission of his age, although there are some who contend snidely that old Archie might have been born in '06, at that. The man who says he is 44 and whose mother insists he is 47 was merely relating that he weighed 206 when he started training and with little more than two weeks remaining is somewhere in the 180-pound bracket. It could be 180 but it also could be 189½, which would mean that Archie has about a pound a day to give away.

What did he think of Rinaldi? "You can't play those young men cheap," Archie confided. "I recall on one occasion when they asked me to take a fight in Oakland against a young man named Leonard Morrow. I said I wasn't trained. They said I didn't have to be for him. I thought I could stall and fake around."

"You know what happened?" Archie said softly. "He put me on the canvas in the first round — to stay."

Archie, the thespian, grimaced painfully at the memory. "I'll not go in under-rating Rinaldi."

The "Drums of Passion" packed up their bongos and flutes and headed out. As anyone in show business can tell you, it's too tough to follow an act like that.

LOW PRICE IS ONLY HALF THE STORY

(The other — and even more satisfying — half you'll discover the first time you drive a Corvair!)

And when we say "low price," we mean more than merely the pint-sized figure on the window sticker of a new Corvair. We mean you're going to be saving like sixty all the time you own your Corvair. On gas, naturally. And come next winter, you'll find yourself not buying antifreeze. Who needs it, with Corvair's air-cooled engine? (That air cooling also means you'll never pay a penny for repairing the radiator or all the hoses that carry liquid coolants through the engine. They don't exist.) And you never know when Corvair's rear engine traction might save you a towing fee. In fact, about the only things Corvair doesn't skimp on are room, smoothness, style, and pure driving joy. But that's the other half of the story. Talk to your Chevrolet dealer about it soon!

ACC Relay Teams Seek World Marks

ABILENE, Tex. (Spl) — To the scene of some of their greatest triumphs look the Abilene Christian College Wildcats this week as they sharpen their edge for the California Relays in Modesto Saturday night.

Coach Oliver Jackson has received invitations to enter the 440-yard, 880-yard and mile relay events, as well as John Lawler in the mile run and Denis Moore in the two-mile run.

The Modesto track was the scene of two world records — 39.7 in the 440-yard relay and 1:22 in the 88-yard relay — in 1958. Two years earlier the Wildcats had tied the listed world record in the 880-yard relay with 1:24.0.

ACC currently leads the nation in the 440 and 440-yard relays with efforts of 40.1 and 1:22.8 the latter which tied the world record set by the Wildcats in 1958 at Modesto.

The same foursome which clocked 40.1 around two turns at the San Angelo Relays — Calvin Cool ey, Dennis Richardson, Pat McKennon and Earl Young — will enter the California event which is run out of a chute and around one turn.

Tigers One-Two Punch Kayo's Minnesota, 5-4

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

There have been a lot of potent one-two punches in baseball down through the years, but for a quick knockout these days, the Detroit Tigers heartily recommend Al Kaline and Rocky Colavito.

Kaline and Colavito may not have the sheer finesse that Paul and Lloyd Waner used to display, nor the brute power of a combination like Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, but they get the job done just the same and that's what is important to the first-place Tigers.

The two Detroit outfielders worked in perfect tandem on Wednesday night and when they were through with their handiwork, the Tigers had won another ball game, 5-4, over the Minnesota Twins, and retained their 4½ game lead in the American League race.

First, Kaline ruined Camilo Pascual's string of 20 consecutive scoreless innings by hammering a homer into the left field bleachers in the third inning. The blow put Detroit ahead, 1-0, and was the first of Kaline's three hits in the game.

Then Colavito highlighted a four-run rally in the fifth inning by smashing his 11th homer of the season with one on. The homer gave Don Mossi a 5-0 lead and although he needed help from Bill Fischer in the seventh, he still was credited with his fifth straight victory against no defeats.

Zoilo Versalles and Harmon Killebrew hit homers for the Twins, while Lennie Green had a double and a single to extend his hitting streak to 21 straight games.

AL KALINE
... Smacks 3 hits

In other AL games, Baltimore swept a two-nighter from Chicago, 2-1 and 5-3; Cleveland defeated Los Angeles, 7-1; Kansas City edged Washington, 6-5, and New York nipped Boston, 3-2.

San Francisco widened its National League lead to a full game with a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati; St. Louis downed Los Angeles, 7-2; Philadelphia beat Milwaukee, 7-1 and Pittsburgh defeated Chicago, 7-3.

The Orioles won both their games from the White Sox on home runs. Gus Triandos' fifth homer of the season off Bob Shaw broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning of the opener and gave Skinny Brown his fourth victory. Ron Hansen's three-run homer in the eighth inning of the nightcap helped reliever Wes Stock gain his first victory. Frank Baumann threw only one pitch in relief but was the loser.

Gary Bell held the Angels to four hits, one of them a homer by Leon Wagner, in recording his second win for the Indians. The Tribe chased loser Jerry Casale with a four-run burst in the third after he had yielded a homer to Johnny Romano in the second inning.

Reliever Pete Burnside of the Senators walked Jerry Lumpe with the bases full in the ninth to force in the winning run for the Athletics. Jim Archer started for the A's — on orders from KC owner Charles Finley — and gave up six hits and four runs in seven innings. Reliever Bill Kunkel was the winner.

Tony Kubek brought the Yanks their victory over the Red Sox with a bases-loaded single in the ninth off Tracy Stallard. Chet Nichols was the loser, however. Ralph Terry pitched a three-hitter and struck out six for his second victory. Roger Maris and Gary Geiger hit homers.

Southpaw Mike McCormick scored his fifth victory for the Giants although the Reds tagged him for eight hits in 7 1/3 innings, including homers by Frank Robinson and Vada Pinson.

In Fixing Games

14 More Cagers Named As Scandal Mushrooms

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ray Paprocky, one of the latest players named in the college basketball scandals, today revealed that "there's plenty more to come."

The New York University court star said that during a half-dozen secret appearances before a New York County grand jury he recognized "a lot of basketball players" who haven't been identified yet in the point-shaving investigations.

"Maybe some of them were just called in for general questioning and released," Paprocky said. "But I think they're going to involve more guys before this thing is over."

Paprocky was one of 14 players from 10 colleges named Wednesday in a 18-count indictment issued by the grand jury against Joseph Hacken, an unemployed 41-year-old New York gambler who is accused of being the "fixer" who bribed or attempted to bribe the players.

Those accused of fixing games were Paprocky, Art Hicks and Henry Gunter of Seton Hall University, and Mike Parenti and Bill Chrystal, former St. John's University players. Hicks and Gunter had previously been identified when Hacken was arrested March 17 with his gambler pal, Aaron Wagman, who is awaiting trial.

One Down, Two To Go In Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — It was one down and three to go for the sponsors of the $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament today in their fight to hold top golfers to their commitments to play here.

Vernon Bell, tournament chairman, revealed Wednesday night that he had been notified golfer Doug Sanders had reversed his stand and would compete in the tournament June 1-4. That left only Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, and Stan Leonard still holding out in favor of a conflicting tournament.

Sanders had asked to be released from the Open to compete in the Odessa, Tex., pro-am event. When he was turned down, he said he would not risk the wrath of the Professional Golfers Association by competing at Odessa, but he said then he definitely would not play here.

Palmer, Player and Leonard are scheduled to compete in the conflicting Canada Cup matches at San Juan, P.R., but Memphis officials claim that a blanket contract with the PGA provides they will play here or not at all.

There have been persistent rumors "our position is unchanged and will remain unchanged." The PGA has warned Player, Palmer and Leonard they will face $300 fines and a six-month suspension from the tour if they bypass the Memphis Open for a non-PGA event. All three have requested a release from the Open, but were turned down.

Webb Elected Captain Off '61 Grid Harvesters

"I could think of no finer selection... or boy."

So spoke Babe Curfman, Pampa's High School grid coach, on the Harvesters selection of end James Webb to captain the grid fortunes of Pampa High School in 1961.

The announcement of Webb's honor came Wednesday morning. Webb, a 6-2, 175 pounder, said "I am overwhelmed by the honor," when contacted at his home this morning.

He added: "I think we'll have a good ball club next year. We're going to surprise a lot of people." A member of the Pampa High School's National Honor Society, the husky, personable youth is a standout in the classroom as well as on the field of play. His 94.5 grade point average places him seventh in his class, and recently he turned in the highest score ever made in a History contest held at West Texas State in Canyon.

Webb, a two-year letterman for Curfman's grid forces, is tackling a rigorous scholastic fare that would even make Albert Einstein wince: Algebra 111, Advanced Chemistry, (his year) and Solid Geometry, Physics, Analytical Geometry next year.

Shifted to end this year after two seasons at tackle, Webb feels he change will help his playing. "It's a lot more work," he says, "but I like the end position." Curfman says: "He's got the tools to make an outstanding end. His improvement during the spring training session was amazing. He's a comer."

Emperor Leon No is said to have devised playing cards in 1120 for the amusement of his wives.

Davies Out To Improve World Mark

STILLWATER, Okla. (UPI) — The tall crew-cut young man from Phoenix, Ariz., found himself the center of world sports attention today, but he already was planning to better the feat that put him there.

Today, the 20-year-old sophomore had his name engraved in sports history. He had become the first athlete to pole vault 15 feet, 10½ inches.

"I felt it was my day," he said. "I knew I could clear it, if I could clear that trailing arm. I must have been vaulting pretty good. I didn't miss until the first two chances at 15-10½."

ADVENTURER LECTURER HERE — Mac J. Jackson of Holly Hill, Fla., is shown here with his scale model of the ancient Jewish temple which stood in Jerusalem in the days of Christ. The former minister — now lecturing on his 1959-60 trip through the Holy Land, Asia Minor and Europe — will be in Pampa for the next three weeks. He will lecture in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Ward and Buckler Sts., on Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week. The illustrated lecture begins at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Odds Against JFK In Meeting Red Chief

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The precedents and the odds are long and hard against President Kennedy in his meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. But the young President will journey to the two-man summit with one big advantage going for him. That advantage is the tradition of failure in such presidential ventures in personal diplomacy on foreign shores. He cannot do less and may do more than did other presidents. Kennedy will be the fifth U. S. president to undertake such a journey to Europe to deal with world politics. The others all came croppers, one way or another. Franklin D. Roosevelt made personal diplomacy work for a time, and pay off. He delighted in it. Then came Yalta where the free nations began the bitter experience of losing the peace. Harry S. Truman experienced the frustrations of Potsdam in 1945 as Hitler's dream faded and Red armies squatted on eastern and central Europe like a plague of locusts. Truman was baffled and unprepared. He knew he had lost that bout with Josef V. Stalin and it irked him. It is upward of 40 years since Woodrow Wilson sailed to Paris and Versailles. The Versailles Peace Conference became a kind of initiation of the young United States into the shrewdly adult society of old world nations. The initiation was complete with painful hazing and humiliation. Wilson's powerfully phrased pledge to "make the world safe for democracy" came to nothing. His high minded mission was a catastrophic bust, so shocking to U. S. public opinion that there followed many years of what was called isolation. The American people expected and demanded great things of Wilson's pilgrimage to France. They expected and for a time did obtain great satisfaction from FDR's adventures in personal diplomacy. Harry S. Truman's 1945 misadventure in Potsdam was not understood by the American public until long afterward. There was hope but little confidence in Dwight D. Eisenhower's two summit efforts. Americans scarcely can expect Kennedy to score.

Lefors Personals

By Mrs. Charles Roberts
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Teel went to Lubbock last week-end after their daughter, Connie, who had spent two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Garland Phillips in Odessa. Mr. and Mrs. James Mote were visitors of their parents, the Frank Motes, recently. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cox and children of Phoenix Ariz. visited in the Aubrey Carlton home last week. Mrs. John Lee Welton, Jefferson, Tenn. is visiting her parents in Pampa, and her brother and family, the Aubrey Carltons. Mrs. Phipps of Amarillo visited relatives in Lefors Wednesday. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cates and Phillip. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webb of Salt Lake City visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sanwig. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Villines, Terry and Douglas of Seattle, Washington visited in the R. L. Henderson home, leaving Tuesday for Arkansas where he will visit his father before returning home. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Garrison, Steve, Wanda, and Walter of Skellytown visited in the home of her parents, the M. F. Giffords Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gifford and Donna, and Mr. Alva Gifford, Duard Lee and Robert of Pampa visited the M. F. Gifford recently. Mr. J. C. Fields, Roy Timms, and Edgar Rosson returned to Seagraves last Sunday evening after a week-end with their families. Mrs. Ruth Allison, of Longview is visiting this week with her sons and families, M. T. and M. E. Allison. Velda and Francis Gifford visited their sister, Mr. Mattie Garrison in Skellytown Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Melton, Wichita Falls visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Allison and family. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rosson, Charlotte, Danny, Sherry, and Denny visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosson in McLean Sunday. Mr. A. C. Sanders took Terry Sanders, Billy McBee, Johnny and David Dunn and Gary Smith to the opening of the Little League season in Pampa Tuesday to see Bob Feller. These boys were representing each of the following Lefors Little League teams: Cubs, Cardinals, and Giants. Florence Taylor of Minco, Okla. visited over the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. Luther Berry. Winfred Nowlin placed second in the District Road-race in Berger, Saturday, and will possibly go on to state in the Boys division. Willa Mae Barndt of Oklahoma City spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Dot Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allison and family made a trip to Quitman recently. The Mother of Marvin and Mamuel Allison returned with them and is visiting both families. Mrs. Bess Carter, and Mrs. Swafford of Portales, N. M., spent a few days with their sister Mrs. P. F. Blankenburg, last week. Betty and George Fogleman are in Okla. and Missouri for a two week fishing trip.

Honor Bestowed On LeTourneau

DETROIT, Mich. (UPI) — Texas manufacturer Robert G. LeTourneau was honored by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers today for his pioneer work in the design of earth-moving equipment. A machine design award was presented to LeTourneau at a lunch in Cobo Hall where the design engineering conference and show is under way. Among LeTourneau's innovations are the first rubber-tired grading machines. During World War II he developed a "jungle destroyer" which crushed trees and undergrowth into a mat-like carpet. The LeTourneau plant is at Longview, Tex. LeTourneau was cited for outstanding achievement and distinguished service in the field of machine design, for innumerable ingenious engineering contributions associated with the design and production of a wide variety of heavy machinery in earth-moving and other heavy duty materials handling. LeTourneau is also widely known for his philanthropic and religious activities. He is a past president of the Christian Businessmen's Committee, International, and in 1954 was named lay

matter of FACT

We need clocks to tell time, but bees don't. If you put out sugar water a few minutes daily, always at the same time, bees soon learn exactly when to come. A bee's "clock" is his body chemistry. Speed up his bodily processes with thyroid injections, and his clock speeds up. He'll show up for feeding hours early.

churchman of the year by the Washington Pilgrimage Association. The American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers gave LeTourneau its "International Progress Award for 1960" last Saturday night in New York. He will receive the Elmer A. Sperry Award Sept. 12. The board which presents the award is composed of representatives of six scientific and mechanical groups.

Airlines Oppose Allowing Women Passengers That Extra Luggage

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sorry gals, but the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) has just about decided that you don't need an extra baggage allowance when you fly. It was the gallant old CAB which first proposed to the airlines that maybe they should let women passengers carry more than the present 40 pounds of free luggage on domestic flights. Logically and chivalrously, the CAB pointed out that women usually weigh less, they generally require more luggage and there's more space for baggage on the newer planes. But today, the CAB conceded that its poll of the airlines on the burning issue had resulted in a 100 per cent, unequivocal and absolute "no." Every airline questioned thought it was a lousy idea because: —It discriminated against male passengers who comprise the majority of customers. —While the new planes have more baggage space, they also have more passengers which cancels out the greater space. —The overwhelming majority of passengers, including women, carry far less than the maximum 40 pounds.

Exclusive Fish
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The brilliantly colored South Park golden trout (salmo gairdneri) the official fish of California, is one of several species of beautiful golden trout native only to the upper waters of the Kern River tributaries in the High Sierra. Similarity of airline opposition indicated "that we have a dead duck."
