Republican John Tower Wins U.S. Senate Seat

Blakley Loses Upset Election By 8,100 Votes

DALLAS (UPI) — Texas elected the first Republican senator in its history Saturday, on the basis of unofficial returns to the Texas Election Bureau.

He is conservative John C. Tower, 35, a professor of government at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls. In a see-saw runoff election, he beat the interim Democrat, senator, William A. Blakley, 62, a Dallas multi-millionaire financier, for the five-and-a-half years remaining in Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's Senate term.

Texas had two Republican senators during reconstruction days, but they were not elected by the people. They were elected by the carpetbagger legislatures.

Returns to the Texas Election Bureau from all of the state's 254 counties, including 194 complete, gave Tower 444,386 votes to Blakley's 436,219.

At the time, Robert Johnson, manager of the election bureau, estimated that a total of 10,000 votes were out. Blakley would have to get nearly all to overtake Tower and the trend was toward Tower.

The vote for Tower was a slap at President Kennedy's New Frontier. Texas has only one other Republican in Congress, Rep. Bruce Alger of Dallas. Texas has cast a majority for Republican presidential candidates three times.

But the vote for Tower was the best indication so far that Texas is becoming a two-party state. Less than half of the state's two million eligible voters cast ballots.

The big majority of the total two million eligible voters are Democrats. The Republicans pitched their strategy on the hope that Democrat apathy would keep the vote down, and it paid off.

"At last report, there are about 10,000 votes out and it appears that we are going to win," Tower said in Wichita Falls, his home town. "I think this will be a great victory for the state of Texas."

But Tower lost his home town vote to Blakley. He won the metropolitan centers — Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, El Paso, San Antonio, Austin, Amarillo — sometimes 2-1.

Tower Wins Gray County

John Tower carried Gray County better than 2 to 1 over Sen. William Blakley in yesterday's runoff election for U. S. Senator.

The total vote in Gray County's 12 precincts was Tower 2,151, Blakley 1,044. Jim Wright received one write-in vote.

Balloting was light in Gray County. A total of 3,196 votes was cast. County Clerk Charlie Thut said there are 8,150 eligible voters in the county. Nearly 5,000 of them did not vote yesterday.

Senator Blakley carried only one of Gray County's 12 precincts. He won out over Tower in Pct. 4 in Alameda, 25 to 24.

Here is the way the county voted:

Pct. 1, Lefors — Tower 77, Blakley 69.

Pct. 2, Pampa Baker School — Tower 129, Blakley 93.

Pct. 3, Grandview School — Tower 39, Blakley 16.

Pct. 4, Alameda — Tower 24, Blakley 25.

Pct. 5, McLean — Tower 150, Blakley 70.

Pct. 6, Laketon — Tower 30, Blakley 5.

Pct. 7, Pampa Horace Mann School — Tower 337, Blakley 152.

Pct. 8, Hopkins — Tower 8, Blakley 2.

Pct. 9, Pampa National Bank — Tower 577, Blakley 284.

Pct. 10, Pampa Courthouse — Tower 428, Blakley 206.

Pct. 11, Phillips Camp — Tower 30, Blakley 8.

Pct. 12, Pampa Lamar School — Tower 178, Blakley 73.

Absentee ballots — Tower 144, Blakley 61.

Freedom Riders Group For New Drive In South

JACKSON, Miss (UPI) — This segregation-conscious city was singled out Saturday as the prime target in a new "freedom riders" campaign that started rolling this weekend.

The first 27 "freedom riders" who were arrested Wednesday moments after they arrived in a virtual armed convoy went on trial Friday and were convicted of breaking the state's segregation laws.

Their convictions resulted in a "summit conference" among the Southern student integration group and a new arm—the "freedom ride coordinating committee."

It was formed to step up the new assault on all forms of segregation encountered by Negroes in bus travel.

Committee spokesman Edward B. King said in Atlanta that at least three "freedom rides" were planned for the weekend. One group of six, he said, would leave Nashville, Tenn., for Jackson; and another group, the number of which had not been decided, would leave Atlanta, bound for Montgomery, and eventually Jackson, and a third group was to have left Jackson, Tenn., Friday night bound for Montgomery.

King said the group that left Jackson, Tenn., apparently had already arrived in the Alabama capital, but was holding off further attempts to "test" segregated facilities until they could contact other "persons on the scene."

The segregation protest took still another form in Montgomery, where 11 persons—seven of them "freedom riders"—were arrested when they attempted to use white bus terminal facilities.

Six of those jailed refused to eat breakfast Saturday morning, kicking off a threatened hunger strike.

Montgomery authorities, meanwhile announced that six white juveniles had been arrested in connection with shooting of an integration leader Thursday just hours after a bus of "freedom riders" arrived. It was this group that was jailed.

The victim of the shooting, Rev. Solomon S. Seay suffered a wrist wound when he stepped out his front door and was met by gunfire. He said the shot was fired from a passing car loaded with white youths.

George Smith, 24-year-old Negro law student at Yale, said local authorities "lack respect for the rights of Negroes."

He complained that the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, whose home served as the staging area for the first two groups of "freedom riders" who rode into Mississippi, was denied permission to phone his wife.

Abernathy was jailed when he went to the bus station Thursday to see off a third group of "freedom riders" bound for Jackson.

This is not much time to change the world, and no one in official circles here foresees any immediate results from that type of meeting.

Conceivably, one or both men could return home convinced it would be impossible to deal reasonably with the other. This could harden the lines of the cold war.

Conceivably, also, the two could strike an understanding solving one of the major issues dividing the world, but that is not expected. The issues have been around a long time. Nor is it the purpose of the meeting.

There is no prepared agenda. But developments in the world have made their own agenda—Laos, Southeast Asia, China, Berlin, nuclear testing, general "disarmament, the Congo, and Cuba. Kennedy may put it up to Khrushchev whether any progress on a nuclear test ban is possible in view of Russia's insistence on "troika"—three-man control, one Western, one neutral and one Communist, with each having a veto.

Khrushchev has demanded this formula for a control body for Laos and as a substitute for the United Nations secretary general. The troika concept could be central to the Vienna talks on issues around the world.

Kennedy is expected to take the opportunity to disabuse the Soviet leader of any idea that the United States, with its recent debacle in Cuba and its hesitancy in Laos, would stand by while the Communist bloc rolls into new areas of the world.

But his top aides say Kennedy is not going to Vienna with a "warning." As one official put it, "I imagine the vital interests of both sides will be discussed, but no one is going to drive a stake in the ground."

Officers Installed By Pampa Key Club

The Pampa High School Key Club closed its year with an annual banquet and Sweetheart's Ball in the Celanese Ballroom last night. Retiring President Bill Beyerly delivered the principle address. Lt. Governor Doy Hutchison installed officers for 1961-1962.

Special recognition was extended to Don Curry, chosen the outstanding member for the year. John A. Curry, in presenting the award to Don Curry, said: "He has worked hard for every project we undertook from sifting a slag pile for scrap iron, to sorting whiteheads from a growing wheat field, to Leadership Banquet, Pampa Pilgrimage, and every action the Club has taken."

The award is given to the member judged to have "served most worked hardest, accomplished best, and stood tallest in devotion to the purpose of Key Club." Curry is a graduated senior, with three years of membership in Key Club. He has attended District Key Club Conventions in Mineral Wells, Dallas and Waco.

The Sandy Nininger Award was presented to Hutchison. It is his first year as a member of Key Club. The sophomore student was elected to the post of Lieutenant Governor, Division VI, Texas, Oklahoma District, Key Club International, in a Division Rally in Berger on March 5. Hutchison was installed in his office in Waco, during the District Convention April 7-9.

Stan Michno, chairman of the Awards Committee, made the presentation of Hutchison's award. Beyerly reviewed the years work, paid tribute to his fellow officers and members, and called on those who will continue in Key Club to expand and grow on "every front."

President-Elect Wayne Denson gave credit to Beyerly for his leadership in the surprise presentation of a Past President's plaque at the close of the banquet.

Special recognition was given guests. Entertainment was by the Rhythm Masters, a high school boys musical group, who also played for the Sweetheart's Ball that followed the meal.

Installed into office for 1961-1962 by Lt. Governor Hutchison were: Wayne Denson, president; Ronnie Rice, vice president; Bill Don Eads, secretary; Don Sears, treasurer; Dale Cox, senior director; and Arnold Phillips, junior director. Faculty Advisor for the Pampa Key Club is Ansel Joyner.

He said the nations receiving funds under the program would have to demonstrate their determination to raise living standards. These nations, he said, will be displaying their own "willingness to take necessary steps to assure a better existence" for their people.

The legislation, he said, was an attempt "by the people of the United States to participate in this effort."

The President noted that his predecessor, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, first recommended the development program.

It provides $394 million in loans to be distributed through the International Cooperation Administration.

Southerly winds will prevail over Pampa and vicinity today, the weatherman said last night. Skies will be fair to partly cloudy.

The mercury is expected to climb to 86 today.

Little change in temperature is indicated for Monday.

Tension Mounts In Austin Over Sales Tax Bill

AUSTIN (UPI) — Tension mounted in the 57th Legislature Saturday as tax conferees worked to at least solve Texas' estimated $63 million deficit if they can't reach a compromise on an overall tax program.

Lawmakers have until midnight Monday to pass an acceptable $350 million tax bill or come back, probably on July 5, for a special session.

Gov. Price Daniel sent word to the legislature Saturday that he has no intention of letting a sales tax, such as the one passed by the Senate, become law either in a regular or special session.

His message was greeted with applause and—sarcastic laughter—in the House and a few tart words in the Senate.

Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas ripped into his comments, saying, "does that mean that the governor of this state doesn't care whether the school teachers get paid or the old folks taken care of as long as he keeps his campaign promise?"

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey gavelled Parkhouse down and said he would accept the governor's message as an "unsworn statement."

House members applauded the message, but many of them were laughing and making side comments to other members.

Daniel messaged lawmakers to debunk a rumor that he would veto a sales tax passed in the regular session, but would let it become law if passed in special session.

He was working in the 36-inch wide shaft Friday afternoon when a piece of cement casing, or lining, fell from somewhere above him.

"I yelled up to my daddy, 'pull me,' and he began to pull," said Burgess.

His father ran for help, and it began to pour into the area in the form of hardy farm workers and townspeople and machines.

It quickly became obvious to the workers that the only way to get the youth out would be to dig a parallel well to the depth at which the youth was trapped and then cut through the wall.

Shortly after dawn Saturday the horizontal tunnel was completed and shored up. Carl Harrell, a man who nearly lost his own life in a well cave-in years ago, broke through to the trapped youth and freed him.

A rope was lowered and tied around Burgess.

With a chant of "easy now... He was pulled out, and shouted his one-word exclamation, "boy," to his wife and his mother.

Laos Tribe Being Kept From Reds

HNOT MOU, Laos (UPI)—Ten thousand women, children and old men in Xieng Khuang Province of Laos are protected from Communist domination and revenge by a slim thread of American aid.

The 10,000 persons are Meo tribal refugees who have settled in and around the "Valley of Pigs" from which Hnot Mou gets its name. It is in territory claimed by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao to have been captured many weeks ago.

Aid which keeps them from starvation and arms their sons and husbands could evaporate and leave them helpless if the United States gave in on any of three crucial points:

—If it halted military aid to the Royal Laotian government, forcing the Meo warriors to defend their families barehanded against the heavily armed Pathet Lao enemies.

—If it agreed to halt flights over territory which the pro-Communist forces claim to hold, cutting off the refugees from the meager half-canteen cupful of rice each day which helps separate them from famine.

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Saturday the United States should withdraw support of plans to trade tractors for Cuban prisoners unless Fidel Castro agrees to free elections Cuba.

Nixon criticized President Kennedy's endorsement of the plan in a news conference prior to an appearance before the Republican state convention.

Nixon said although all Americans are concerned about "the 1,400 young men who risked their lives and their freedom" during the Cuban invasion, Castro's tractor-swap proposal should not have received the "blessing of the President and the stamp of approval of our government."

"In this instance I think the President was wrong," he said. He said the government was giving indirect support to the citizens' movement, by issuing export licenses for tractors.

If the plan is "too far down the road," he said, the government should hold up export licenses until all the prisoners are released "and Castro sets a date for free elections for Cubans."

Nixon said he believed Castro made the suggestion in jest and it should have been treated that way.

The prisoners would not want to gain their personal freedom "at the cost of increasing the power of a tyrant," he said.

"We must think of the freedom of five million Cubans."

MIAMI (UPI)—Ten Cuban prisoners of war flew back to Havana Saturday with what Cuban exile sources called a written commitment from the American tractor-tractor-prisoners committee to meet Premier Fidel Castro's ransom demands.

"Only hope and prayer remain to us," an exile spokesman said. "Everything else that can be done has been done."

The U.S. committee is made up of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Walter P. Reuther and Milton B. Eisenhower. Exile sources said they had agreed in writing to Castro's $20 million ransom demands. In exchange they asked these guarantees:

—That at least one committee member be allowed to go to Havana in connection with the swap deal, involving 1,214 prisoners and 500 tractors.

—That the prisoners be released in batches as delivery of the tractors was made, presumably at the rate of about 12 prisoners per 5 tractors.

—Castro will provide a verified list of the prisoners to be freed.

Exiles in Miami appeared positive the barter exchange would go through shortly. Wives and relatives of the departing prisoners' negotiating committee waved gaily to the 10 young men as they left to report directly to Castro.

Havana radio said Friday the government would demand the death penalty for three of the invaders for the 1956 slaying of Juan Manuel Marquez and not for their part in the invasion itself. They were members of the army of dictator Fulgencio Batista at the time of the slaying. Marquez was a member of Castro's own original invasion force which landed in eastern Cuba in December, 1956.

Despite the reported confidence the men were somber, as they boarded a Pan American plane under gray skies here for the trip home.

A UPI Havana dispatch said they were smiling as they stepped off the plane which had flown them from Miami. They boarded cars and were driven off toward the Naval Hospital in East Havana, where all those captured in the abortive April 17 invasion are being held.

They made a good impression on their return, the Havana report said, and a small group waiting for them patted them on the back. They were met by Capt. Pedro Luis Rodriguez, who is in charge of the prisoners, and 10 members of the militia.

Havana radio reported the return of the war captives but had limited its coverage to the bare announcement they would report to Castro. The men made no statement at the airport on failure or success of the mission.

The broadcast announced formation of a national committee for a public collection to finance a monument to the Castro forces killed during the invasion. U. S. newsmen returning from Cuba estimated 900 to 1,000 Castro troops were killed. Invader casualties were believed under 100.

There'll Never Be Another Hoover Dam, Construction Expert Thinks

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's 26 years this month since the great Hoover Dam was completed.

Other great dams have been built since and more will continue to rise as long as there are rivers to be harnessed for the benefit of mankind.

But there never will be another Hoover, according to President

H. W. Morrison of Morrison-Knudsen Co., Inc. The 726-foot high structure, which still ranks as the highest dam in the Western Hemisphere, was the pioneer, the epochal forerunner of a new era of economic progress in the west through multipurpose river developments, Morrison stated.

Morrison-Knudsen's dam building activities go back much further than the Hoover Dam, 1914 to be exact. Its first dam was Three-Mile Falls in Oregon where steam was used to power the crusher but most of the work was done by hand.

In the nearly half-century since, dam building has been mechanized in the amazing revolution of machine power.

Today's big concrete dams are rapidly constructed by a vast array of machinery, directed and operated by organized forces of hundreds of specialists, performing their skilled tasks with precision, yet never in a monotonous, factory-type production line, according to the Boise, Idaho firm.

Heavy construction cannot be streamlined to that extent, it explained. Rivers, rock walls and the insides of mountains do not respond willingly, or uniformly to man's assaults.

Hence, every skilled workman is a responsible unit of the organization that clears a townsite and builds the camp, diverts the river and digs to the solid bedrock foundation, erects the huge concrete plant and then the trestle or cableway, to place some millions of cubic yards of future masonry.

M-K noted that while concrete dams are the more imposing and monumental structures of river control, their bulk in volume of materials generally is far less than those of the great "fill" dams whose embankments are compacted layers of earth and alike, according to M-K which has built or participated in the construction of close to 100 dams around the world.

From a very broad base the earth-fill dam rises to its peak in a gradual slope—a man-made mountain distributing the water pressure over the incline.

Dams are classified by general types, yet no two dam sites are identical and no two dams are exhaustive engineering studies and surveys, prolonged tests of soils and geology and hydraulic weighty conferences about the most suitable type of structure to perform the needed functions.

Dams are put up usually for flood prevention, irrigation and electricity power production, although important dams are built to supply water to city population or to an industrial plant.

And the story of any big dam's construction is more than just an account of work performed. Usually it is an epochal event in the rural countryside of its river location.

Pampa Student Selected For Science Meet

Recognition of outstanding academic and scientific aptitude has come to a Pampa High School senior, James Webb, 428 N. Wells, who has been selected as one of 350 students throughout the State of Texas to attend the first Texas Nuclear Science Symposium for High Schools, to be held in Austin June 11.

The symposium, sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation in cooperation with the several colleges and divisions of the University of Texas, seeks to supply basic information about nuclear science and the inter-related fields of modern mathematics, radio chemistry and nuclear physics and to give teachers and students an opportunity to discuss aspects of nuclear science with well qualified scientists from several fields.

Gordon Lyons, manager for the Southwestern Public Service Company said, "The Foundation, composed of 11 investor-owned electric power companies, in Texas, of which we are one, has been conducting research for the past several years into peaceful use of the atom as a means of energy to create steam for electric generating stations. The Foundation and the University are cooperating to give teachers and young scientists a front seat to the drama of the atom."

Accompanying Webb will be faculty member, Mrs. Lawrence Turner, who has taught math and science for the past 12 years.

Scout Camp Program To Open June 4

On the basis of early reservations, a record season was predicted today by Hollis W. Alford of Pampa, camp director of Camp Kiowa, operated by the Adobe Walls Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

The camping program will open June 4 after a week's staff training period. At Camp Kiowa, fifteen miles east of Canadian, there will be eight camping periods conducted for Boy Scouts 11 years and older.

Many troops will camp under their own leadership at a fee of $14.00 for each Scout per period. Scouts may register and deposit a $2.00 fee with their Scoutmasters. This summer it is anticipated that 950 boys will enjoy camping at Camp Kiowa. Last year there were 710 campers.

The range of activity opportunities at Camp Kiowa is large enough to please almost everyone. There are nature trails and nature study opportunities. There's hiking, pioneering, riflery, archery, fishing, rowing, canoeing, swimming and lifesaving training.

Loan Shark Bill Urged By Wilson

AUSTIN (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson Saturday urged Gov. Price Daniel to include legislation to curb loan sharks in a special session because the 57th Legislature has failed to regulate the "intolerable situation" in regular session.

Wilson called treatment of the small borrower "one of the gross exploitations in the nation," and said he was disappointed that "the loan sharks were able to dominate the situation in the Legislature and prevent the passage of a good small loan regulatory bill."

'Veep' Favors Change Singer Worried In Foreign Programs Age Producing Musical Morons

EDITORS NOTE:—UPI Correspondent William This accompanied Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson on his Asian tour. This is the first of two parts. This is an article analyzing the results of the 29,000-trip.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There will be some changes made as a result of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's Asian trip. They may not be dramatic — and all may not even be publicly announced. But there is every indication an "action follow-through" lies ahead.

Typically, his recommendations will involve a broad range of activities — military aid, economic assistance and cooperation, U.S. Information Agency operations and a general new diplomatic approach keyed to people-to-people relations.

An immediate result of the Southeast Asian crisis and his trip is President Kennedy's special message asking additional millions for defense of that area. Johnson's trip obviously helped Kennedy frame the terms of this request.

Where is Johnson likely to press for specific action?

He has left little doubt he thinks U.S. diplomats should get out of their "air conditioned comfort" and meet the masses in the countries where they serve. He cites new Ambassador Kenneth Galbraith's activity in India as a fine example. And his own example will not be lost on foreign service personnel if Johnson has anything to do with it. The vice president was tireless in his hand shaking and scored doing it.

Johnson also is expected to call for some kind of reorganization of USIA that will give it greater stature both in countries abroad and in the State Department itself. In a world where communications are about to leapfrog in progress through space techniques, nothing short of the best will serve the free world adequately in the test against communism, Johnson believes. This means personnel improvement, too.

Johnson also will press for swift improvement of the military "shield" against communism needed in Southeast Asia. In this he clearly reflects President Kennedy's concern about the Red guerrilla threat in that area. This means increases in military assistance and advisory forces, as well as a sharp boost in equipment and training for native troops, particularly in Viet Nam. The vice president made it emphatically clear no country on his two-week, 29,000 mile trip asked for American combat troops, and none was promised.

Finally Johnson is concerned about the real underlying need—greater cooperation between Asian governments and the United States, and among the foreign governments of the region themselves. To promote this, he and Kennedy propose a Pacific regional conference, perhaps at Guam, to consider mutual exchanges of knowhow in fields like education, housing, land reform and the like.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Singer Frankie Laine is worried, lest the nation produce a generation of musical morons raised on a steady diet of rock 'n' roll. Frank's concern for America's musical future is such that he suggests composers apply a little do-re-me censorship to their tunes.

"I think composers should write within the bounds of good taste,"

Frank said. "The composer should decide whether he wants his own kids to hear it. That should be his measure."

Frank said there's little that can be done to prevent the recording of objectionable records other than radio stations banning bad tunes.

The competition for audiences, often nothing more than teen-age crowds, has driven record companies to produce rock 'n' roll records at a fast clip. And, young singers warble the stuff with abandon.

"I've heard that some songs weren't recorded because they were too good," said Laine. "You'd be surprised at the number of writers who have had to write that junk under assumed names just to make a living."

Frank almost was angry as he sat eating a lunch of fruit cocktail and hamburger. His dander was up when he talked about what has happened to "Blue Moon," the favorite song of him and his wife, actress Nan Grey.

The song was recorded recently by a singing group which gave that old tune a near mortal blow. It may never recover.

"What they did to 'Blue Moon' is sacrilegious in the sense of distorting a quality song," he complained with a grimace. "It would be like taking a beautiful poem and making a satire out of it.

"The kids may never have heard the original, so they'll accept the distorted version."

Modern day popular music is such that it will give youngsters little exposure to finer tunes, he said.

"This has to have an impact on the kids who are listening." He claimed, "It might be reflected in a kid's musical appreciation for the rest of his life."

But Laine, who has sold millions of records during his career, admits that all may not be lost. "In spite of these difficulties, a good song gets through," he admitted.

Paperback Book Deal Stirs Up Misgivings

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some four years ago, as the tax dollar flies, the U.S. Information Agency (USIA) upped its periscope in the Southern Hemisphere and sighted a large cultural gap.

Our Latin American neighbors, the USIA discovered, were having to struggle along without paperback books.

The publishers of that backward region, it seems, were bringing out books that were okay for reading but were too big to fit into the reader's pocket.

Moreover, they still clung to the quaint, old world notion that the place to sell a book was a bookstore.

As understand the situation, a reader could spend hours searching through food and drug stores without finding a single reprint of Plato's "Symposium" done up in a sexy cover.

All he could find were food and drugs.

It was with a view of rectifying this deplorable condition that the USIA, in 1957, gave Jose Ricardo Torfano, a Buenos Aires publisher, a grant to study U.S. paperback publishing and distributing methods.

You will get some idea of plot when I tell you that the incident was related under the heading of "waste of taxpayers' funds with the publishing firm of Jose Torfano."

Upon his return to Argentina,

Torfano undertook to establish, under a USIA subsidy, a continent-wide network for the publication and dissemination of paperbacks.

The contract, before it was terminated last year, cost the agency about $200,000. Part of that was a dead loss. Just how much the USIA doesn't know.

The reason it doesn't know how much it lost is because it doesn't know how many books Torfano published. The reason for that was explained by G. Lewis Schmidt, a USIA administrative officer.

"Initially when this subject was raised prior to the contract being written, he (Torfano) resorted to a rather characteristic stand on the part of South American publishers," Schmidt said.

"They do tend to resent actual counts being made or inspections of the records being made."

Rather than risk offending Torfano the USIA contracting officer omitted any provision for counting the books. There developed, however, a "strong presumption" that Torfano was fudging a bit.

This suspicion was aroused in part by a report by some printing experts indicating that Torfano's plant was not big enough to print as many books as he claimed to be producing.

Despite the indicated loss, I think it was a fair exchange. We brought paperbacks to South Americans and they taught us something about contracts.

Signs Indicate President Must Decide Soon About Cuban Fiasco

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The time is fast approaching when President Kennedy must either voice confidence in the U.S. joint chiefs of staff or fire them.

That view is rampant in the Defense Department, where there were increasing signs of troubled relations between professional military men and the new civilian leadership.

The immediate, but not the only issue, was the running fire of criticism of the military leaders' role in the Cuban invasion fiasco. The criticism has been attributed to anonymous sources.

The role of the military leaders has not been made known publicly in any detail. Critics within the new administration do not speak for direct quotation.

But there seems to be a steady effort in some quarters to shift the main burden of blame from the Central Intelligence Agency to the joint chiefs of staff.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, who has demanded sharply that military men fully support his policies once he decides on them, has greeted the criticism with silence.

In Pentagon corridors there is beginning to be talk of the need for loyalty-down as well as loyalty-up. That is military jargon meaning that leaders not only are entitled to full support from subordinates but must return it.

One critic who has not chosen anonymity is Sen. Albert Gore, D., Tenn., who said the joint chiefs should be replaced by "new wiser and abler men."

Gore made the statement after a closed-door hearing of the Senate Latin America subcommittee on the Pentagon's role in the invasion fiasco. Senate colleagues gave him no immediate support.

In fact, subcommittee chairman Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said after hearing Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the joint chiefs, that he had "complete confidence" in the chiefs.

The White House said it had no comment on Gore's statement, however, and McNamara apparently ignored it. This stirred new uneasiness in professional military circles.

Wilson's Power Is Threatened

AUSTIN (UPI) — A resolution aimed at taking away Atty. Gen. Will Wilson's power on nearly a score of state boards was approved this week by the State Affairs Committee.

The resolution, by Rep. Tom James of Dallas, would call for a study by the Texas Legislative Council to determine the feasibility of relieving the attorney general's office of such duties.

James was critical of Wilson following the recent investigation into vice in Jefferson County.

The San Francisco Presidio is the largest military reservation within a city's limits. The Presidio is 1,540 acres. It was chosen as headquarters for the soldiers of Charles III of Spain in 1776.

Stella Stevens Wins Stellar Movie Roles

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — "Stella by Starlight" was a song in a Paramount movie. Starlight by Stella is a Paramount campaign which is bringing to a sexy blonde dish named Stella Stevens to the big screens in two starring movies. If she hits the bigtime, and we have a hunch she will — she's curvy and fluffy and almost as improbable as Marilyn Monroe — civic pride will be slurring over in Hot Coffee, Miss. The town is so hot no one ever heard of it — until Stella came along. That's where our Miss was born. The two Paramount films give Stella a pair of roles with the accent on the physical. She's an alcoholic man trap in "Deadlock" and a lost soul who likes jazz, booze and Bobby Darin in "Too Late Blues."

ROBERT DIX ... Coming To Pampa

What took Paramount so long in organizing its Starlight by Stella campaign is something of a puzzle. A couple of years ago Stella played the role of Apollonia Von Klimax in the film version of "L'il Abner" and she came on the screen, as I then reported, "like Marilyn Monroe came on the screen in 'The Asphalt Jungle.'" Like gangbusters. Then — nothing. Stella kept demanding another role or a chance to tear up her contract. While Paramount refused to break the contract, no roles came her way but she did win permission to play a few TV parts. The role of a deaf-mute on "Bonanza" and another performance in William Faulkner's "The Graduation" on GE Theater must have convinced Paramount that Stella shouldn't be sitting on the bench at the studio while entertaining people at home. The bench sitting was a crisis to Stella — but that seems to be the story of her life. Not in Hot Coffee, Miss., but in Nashville, where she grew up. She dyed her hair blond and played the Marilyn Monroe role in "Bus Stop" there. She also met, married and divorced a classmate named Herman Stephens there. They've been fighting by long distance ever since over custody of their 6-year-old Herman Jr. Stella won her two starring movie parts after one studio, 20th Century-Fox, dropped her during an economy wave and Paramount, for a time, acted as if it would do the same. Like Marilyn, she's a quotable miss.

Anti-Communism Film Coming To La Vista May 31

The reality of the Communist take-over of a country... this is the essence of "The Eleventh Commandment" which starts at the La Vista theatre Wednesday May 31. Filmed almost entirely in Formosa and on the besieged island of Quemoy, the picture chronicles the disillusion of a young bride, who had become a Communist agent in the United States, when she realized the horrors of life under communism as lived in Red China. Starring Robert Dix, son of the mainline idol, Richard Dix, as a U.S. Army intelligence officer stationed in Formosa, the plot develops as his bride, a childhood sweetheart, has her eyes opened as to the cruelties of life under the Reds. Dix, a strapping 6-foot three-inch young man, has worked in such TV productions as "Death Valley Days," "Perry Mason," as well as holding the second lead in

Arlene Francis Soon Will Start Work In Europe

NEW YORK (UPI) — Arlene Francis, everybody's all-American mistress of ceremonies and one of the most charming free-hand lady wits ever to ad-lib her way across a picture tube, will be off after Sunday night on her first real holiday from "What's My Line?" since that hardy empanelment began showing that the day's occupations can give us pause. "What's My Line?" is now in its 12th year. Miss Francis has been there from the start, missing only one Sunday each year in the middle of her two-week vacation. But now she's going to take a 10-week holiday from the program and go to Europe and work. She will make a movie in Munich and Berlin, playing opposite Jimmy Cagney ("quite a coup for me, because I think he's marvelous") in a modern high comedy written and directed by Billy Wilder. "I really got the job—it literally happened this way—when Wilder was casting around and said to himself, 'for Cagney's wife why don't I get somebody on the Arlene Francis type?' And then he thought, 'Why not maybe Arlene Francis herself?' And he called me, and I took it."

What is the secret of the art of ad-libbing—just natural talent? "I think it's something you train yourself in," Miss Francis said. Training, for her, has come by doing. Currently, she has shows on four radio networks, including one Peabody Award winner. She is planning a daytime TV show for next season, a brief daily bit called "Appointment with Arlene" with some of the same treatment used in her "Home" show of years past. She has made many Broadway appearances and is hoping a play will come along for her this fall. ("I'd have plenty of time for it—in the past. It would only mean working 24 hours a day.")

Legal Office Staffs Like Barbara Hale

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — It isn't often that an actress becomes a celebrity in the legal profession—but Barbara Hale, the perfect secretary of the "Perry Mason" TV show, is breaking new ground. Miss Hale, who plays Della Street on the CBS series, is in constant demand at meetings of legal secretaries' associations — just as her video boss, Raymond Burr, often addresses lawyers' gatherings. He is Mr. Jay Speck, formerly of Southern High School in South Philadelphia. Now retired, he keeps his ears covered while rock 'n' roll assaults the rest of us. And it's his boys who are rockin' and rollin'. Among his pupils at Philly Southern were Fabian, Bobby Rydell, Jimmy Darren, Buddy Greco and Frankie Avalon. Speck also taught Eddie Fisher and Mario Lanza. What kind of man is this who, like Dr. Frankenstein, built a monster and turned it loose on an innocent populace? "He is a wonderful man," says Avalon. "Mr. Speck was strict and severe, but he really knew music. It was his whole life. The first time I went into his class I was scared to death of him. After hearing me play the trumpet Mr. Speck said I should give it up and become a plumber."

Builder Of 'Music Monster' Now Retired - Hates Rock 'N' Roll

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The man responsible for the onslaught of young singers on the innocent American public has finally been unmasked. He is Mr. Jay Speck, formerly of Southern High School in South Philadelphia. Now retired, he keeps his ears covered while rock 'n' roll assaults the rest of us. And it's his boys who are rockin' and rollin'. Among his pupils at Philly Southern were Fabian, Bobby Rydell, Jimmy Darren, Buddy Greco and Frankie Avalon. Speck also taught Eddie Fisher and Mario Lanza. What kind of man is this who, like Dr. Frankenstein, built a monster and turned it loose on an innocent populace? "He is a wonderful man," says Avalon. "Mr. Speck was strict and severe, but he really knew music. It was his whole life. The first time I went into his class I was scared to death of him. After hearing me play the trumpet Mr. Speck said I should give it up and become a plumber."

Frankie did the next best thing. He became a pop singer. According to Avalon, currently starring in "Sail a Crooked Ship".

"Most of us singers came from within a five block area in South Philly," Frankie said. "Mr. Speck liked us Italian kids and taught us everything we know about music. Most high school kids never had the opportunity to study with a man like him." Maybe that's why almost all the teenage singing idols are from Philadelphia.

Doug Ford Overtakes Palmer In '500' Golf Meet

Leads By 2 Strokes; Burke Has 'Hot' 66

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Doug Ford came from behind with a four-under par 67 Saturday to overtake front-runner Arnold Palmer and hold first place in the $50,000 "500" Festival Golf Tourney with a 54-hole total of 208, eight under par.

Palmer registered a second straight 70 and slipped to a tie for second place with onrushing Gary Player, the Masters champion from South Africa, who earned a 67 also Saturday for a 207 total.

Ford's round put him in good position to claim his first tournament victory since he won this same event, and its $9,000 first place prize, last year with an opening round of 66 followed by three straight rounds of 68. His 67 Saturday was his second best over on the course since he shot 69's in both the first and second rounds this year.

Ford's round, however, was not the best of the day as Jack Burke Jr., from Kiamesha Lake, N. Y., went around in a 66, best score so far in the tourney. But he was so far behind after two rounds that his 54-hole total of 212 was seven strokes behind Ford.

There was a three-way tie at 209, four strokes behind, between Jackie Cupit, Longview, Tex.; Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, N. Y., and Peter Thompson, Australia. Cupit also had a 67 Saturday. Wall took a 69 and Thompson had a 70.

Ken Venturi, San Francisco, Calif., was alone at 210 on a 68 Saturday and at 211 were Billy Maxwell, Dallas, Tex., with a 70, and Bob Shave Jr., Willoughby, Ohio, with a 69.

Gregory Signs With Cowboys

DALLAS (UPI)—The Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League Saturday announced the signing of halfback Glynn Gregory of Southern Methodist University, their No. 7 draft choice.

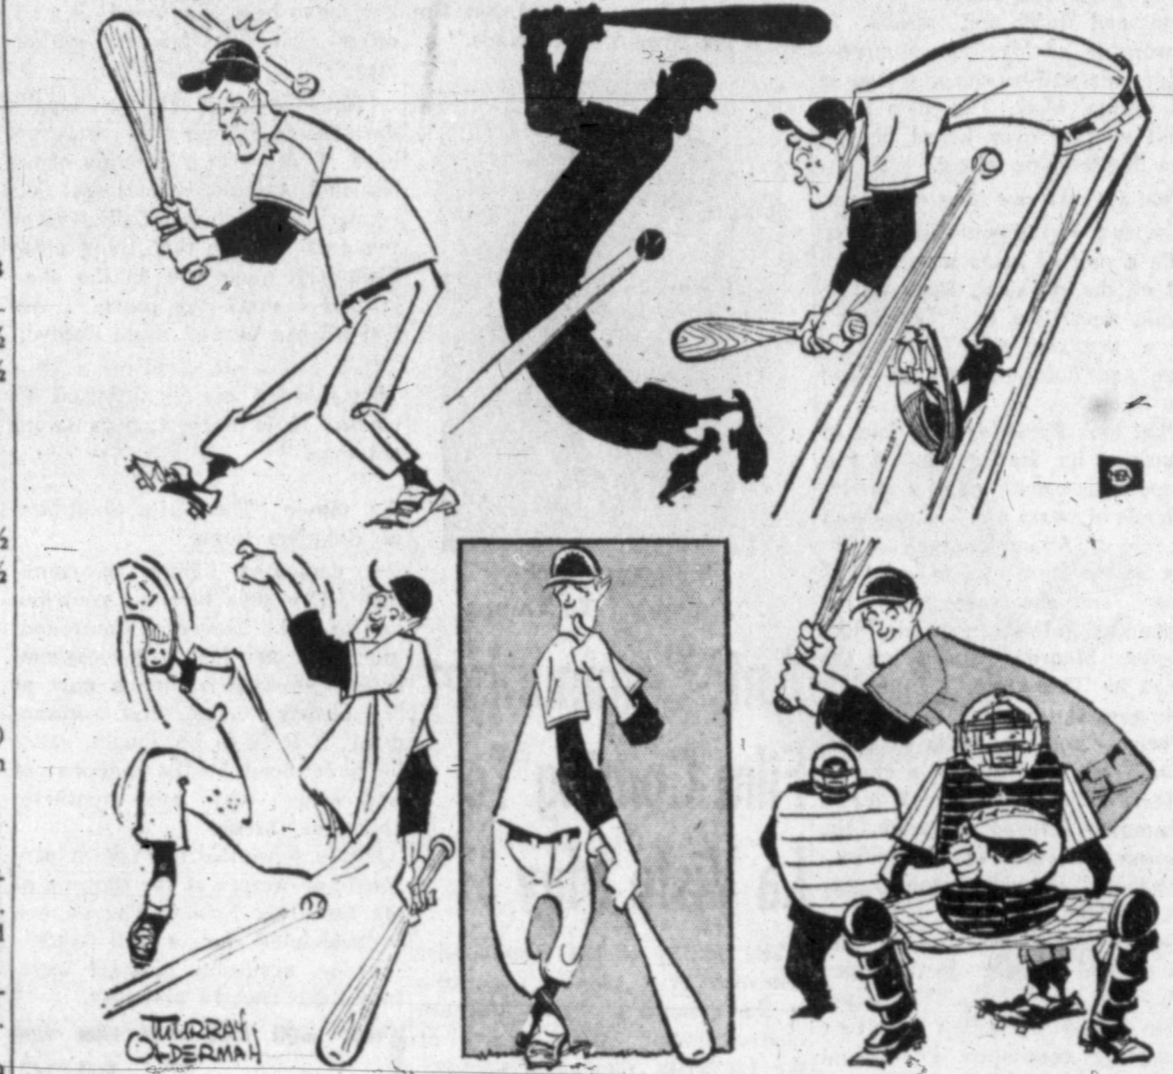

Gregory, a 6-1, 185-pound star from Abilene, Tex., had also been a top choice of a number of professional baseball teams.

Cowboy coach Tom Landry said Gregory "has all the capabilities...for making a fine professional player," and indicated he would try the former All-America prep star at either split end or defensive halfback.

Rathman, Ward, Co-Favored In '500' 200,000 Expected Tuesday For Rich And Fast Derby

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Two tested veterans, Jim Rathman and Roger Ward, stake experience, fettle and courage against the field in Tuesday's 500-mile Memorial Day auto race, probably the richest and fastest gasoline derby ever.

They were installed as co-favorites before an expected holiday crowd of about 200,000, but among the 31 other starters were at least half a dozen other skilled speedsters with top equipment who must be considered serious threats to the Ward-Rathman monopoly of the last two years.

Ward, a displaced Californian who now lives here, for years was the speedway's hard-luck chauffeur. But he crashed through in 1959 to lead runner-up Rathman to the finish by 23 seconds.

Rathman, the baldish lead-foot from Miami, Fla., reversed the result last year, but he was not sure of victory until the final two laps when Ward backed off, to conserve his tires.

Rathman's winning margin over Ward was 13 seconds.

Other top contenders in the hazardous, 200-lap journey for fame and fortune at the "brick yard," with a purse of about $375,000 at stake, include pole-sitter Eddie Sachs, who has yet to finish a race; former "500" champ Troy Ruttman, national champion A. J. Foyt and speedway newcomers Parnelli Jones and Australia's Jack Brabham.

They are part of the fastest starting field ever assembled for the 45th annual speed classic, at an average speed in qualifications of 145,302 miles per hour, 1.3 m.p.h. faster than last year when Rathman averaged a record 138,767 m.p.h. for the distance and split $110,000 with his crew for another record.

Rocky, Joe To Testify In Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Estes Kefauver Saturday lined up some of the most potent sluggers in boxing to help him push anti-racketeer legislation through Congress.

The Tennessee Democrat announced that former heavyweight champions Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano will testify next week before the Senate Monopoly Subcommittee on Legislation to set up a national boxing commissioner with authority to banish underworld ties from the fight game.

The two former champs join Gene Tunney, Jack Dempsey and NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer on the list of witnesses.

Tommy Loughran of New York, ex-light heavyweight titleholder, also will be called. The six ex-pugilists will step up to the witness table Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Boston Sets World Mark; Leaps 27' 1/2"

MODESTO, Calif. (UPI)—Olympic champion Ralph Boston became the first man in history to break the 2-foot barrier in the broad jump Saturday night when he leaped 27 feet 1/2 inch at the California Relay.

Already holder of the world record of 26 feet 11 inches, the Tennessee State athlete had a great night in the jumping pit. He had another leap of 26 feet 9 inches. He set the new world mark in his first jump in the finals.

Boston had an aiding wind of four miles per hour, well within the allowable limit. It was a balmy night and he was being pushed by Bo Roberson of the U.S. Army who was jumping well over 25 feet on every leap.

Until Boston set his 26-foot-11 inch record last year, a mark of 26 feet 8 1/4 inches set by the great Jesse Owens had stood up since 1935.

Dennis Johnson, the Jamaican jet from San Jose State College, got off to one of the poorest starts of his career but still came from far behind to win the 100-yard dash in 9.4. Harry Jerome, Canadian representing the University of Oregon, was second and Dave Styron, Southern Illinois, was third-both, also clocked in 9.4.

Ray Bowls 724 Series At Houston

HOUSTON (UPI)—Louis Ray, a newcomer to the ranks of professional bowlers, and a host of the game's top stars took early leads Saturday in qualifying rounds for the $25,000 Magee charity classic.

Ray, a former Fort Worth bowling lane manager, put together a 724 three-game series with 254, 237 and 213 scores. His five-game qualifying total stood at 1,099, tops among the early finishers in the field of 144 bowlers.

Glen Allison of St. Louis nailed down second place after the first two shirts of bowling Saturday with a 1,094. Jack Hall of Dallas was third with 1,092 and Chuck O'Donnell of St. Louis was fourth with a 1,080 score.

Austin Doctor Blasts Contact Sports For Kids

AUSTIN (UPI)—An Austin doctor said in an article in the May issue of the Texas Journal of Medicine that contact sports such as football should not be offered to school children.

Dr. Morris D. McCauley said reports of studies made recently by the Travis County Medical Society prove that contact sports "have no place in the recommended health program for adolescent and pre-adolescent children."

McCauley suggested school systems use a program of physical education "to benefit all children, including girls, in all grades."

Bonuses Pay Off--

Yastrzemski, Schilling Brighten Red Sox Look

NEW YORK (NEA)—For a decade or more it appeared as though the Red Sox were suffering from blind scouts.

Although Thomas Austin Yawkey tossed bonuses around as though money was going out of style only one youngster worth much more than his carfare showed up at Fenway Park. He is Frank Malone and ironically the bowlegged third baseman was plucked out of the Bronx for the equivalent of green trading stamps.

But there was a wider smile than usual on Mike Higgins' expansive Irish pan as the Boston club checked in for its first 1961 series—at Yankee Stadium.

"Things are much brighter," testified Manager Mike, holding pregame court in the 'Bo-sox dugout. "The pitching has been unexpectedly good."

"And the addition of youngsters like Carl Yastrzemski, Chuck Schilling and Jim Pagliaroni has to have a manager looking up."

Owner Yawkey's record bonuses finally paid off as his foxy foragers regained their sight rather belatedly. Yastrzemski collected $100,000 as a Notre Dame sophomore. Schilling and Pagliaroni also got premiums.

"Yastrzemski is going to be a tremendous hitter and already is an accomplished outfielder," said Michael Franklin Higgins. "Like all kids (21, 5-11, 175) who swing too hard, he went after bad pitches and was a left-hand hitter who had a little trouble with left-hand pitching.

"Yas was overwinging, but Ted Williams' advice was to leave him alone. 'He has a good swing,' said Ted, 'and will learn to cut it down.'"

"This he is doing and he has belted left-hand pitchers of late. He has remarkable wrists. He has extraordinary speed. His swing and hustle are remindful of old Country Slaughter. His hitting is reminiscent of Charley Keller, also a line drive hitter who didn't pull the ball."

Like Yastrzemski, Schilling (23, 5-11, 170) is crashing the majors in his third year of professional ball. Both are Long Islanders. Yas, a handsome Polish lad, is from Bridgehampton. Schilling, who attended Manhattan College, is out of New Hyde Park.

Schilling thus far has filled the yawning chasm at second base that has plagued the Back Bay Millionaires for several campaigns, or since the redoubtable Bob by Doerr called it a career.

"Schilling is smart, has a wide range, is a wizard at completing the double play and gives us an exceptionally swift leadoff man who quickly learned the strike zone," Pinky Higgins went on. "He has Charley Gehring's grace in the field."

"Aw, those guys cry all the time." This was genial Babe Curfman's retort to a press box statement attributed to one of Borger's grid coaches at last Friday night's spring training game between the Exes and Futures. "Their Futures defeated the Exes," 14-8.

Pool Opens At Perryton

PERRYTON (Sp) — The Perryton swimming pool kicked off its season yesterday, May 27, with everyone enjoying a free swim from 1 to 6 p.m., announced Jack Maxey, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. Maxey said the pool this year is being operated by the Y.M.C.A. under contract with the city of Perryton.

Fee for the public swim period, which is from 1 to 6 p.m. each day, will be the same as last year: children under 12, 20 cents; students, 35 cents; and adults, 50 cents. Season passes sell for $7.50 for children under 12; $10.00 for students; and $15.00 for adults. These passes may be purchased at the Y.M.C.A. office.

The Y.M.C.A. is offering swimming courses from beginners to senior life saving. These swimming instruction classes are presented on a Y.M.C.A. basis. An individual membership fee is $10.00 and a family membership fee is $25.00. Applications are now being taken at the Y.M.C.A. office for these swimming classes.

Instructors for these swimming classes are Coach Hopkin, Mr. Bob Queener, Barry Acker, Jack Dyer and Jack Maxey.

The Y.M.C.A. anticipates that with the acquisition of a new vacuum and pump that the water in the pool will not have to be changed each week. Therefore, the water should stay considerably warmer and make swimming more pleasant.

In addition to swimming, table tennis, checkers, chess and dominoes may be checked out by the locker room for use on the deck.

This Weekend Outlook Doubtful For Gulf Fishing

By TRAVIS HUGHES
United Press International
Squally weather on the upper Gulf Coast late this week made the weekend outlook questionable for the area. The Weather Bureau in Houston, however, predicted a clearing of conditions late Friday and Saturday.

Winds should be light to moderate and from the east. Winds from almost every direction roughed up the waters along the upper coast this week but if a break occurs, the Gulf should clear.

The lower coast from Matagorda Bay on southward, escaped most of the winds and rains. With the tides still low, West Bay remained the best spot around Galveston, according to reports. Two and one-half pound trout were being taken there. Lots of live bait was available. From the causeway and jetties, ing weekend, but one out of 22 who participated in the Daily Double, picked four in a row, first time in New Mexico racing history the novel scheme was tried.

The amazing run of winning favorites started Opening Day at the Friendly track, with 7 in 12 races. And it was also Opening day that 51 wagering fans picked all four winners in the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th races.

Pitt Powell, Amarillo's sport sage, says that Borger will probably be favored over Amarillo Tascosa next year. Not so from what we've been hearing. Curfman feels the Tascosa team remains the team to beat. "They've got some greyhounds in their starting backfield," Curfman says.

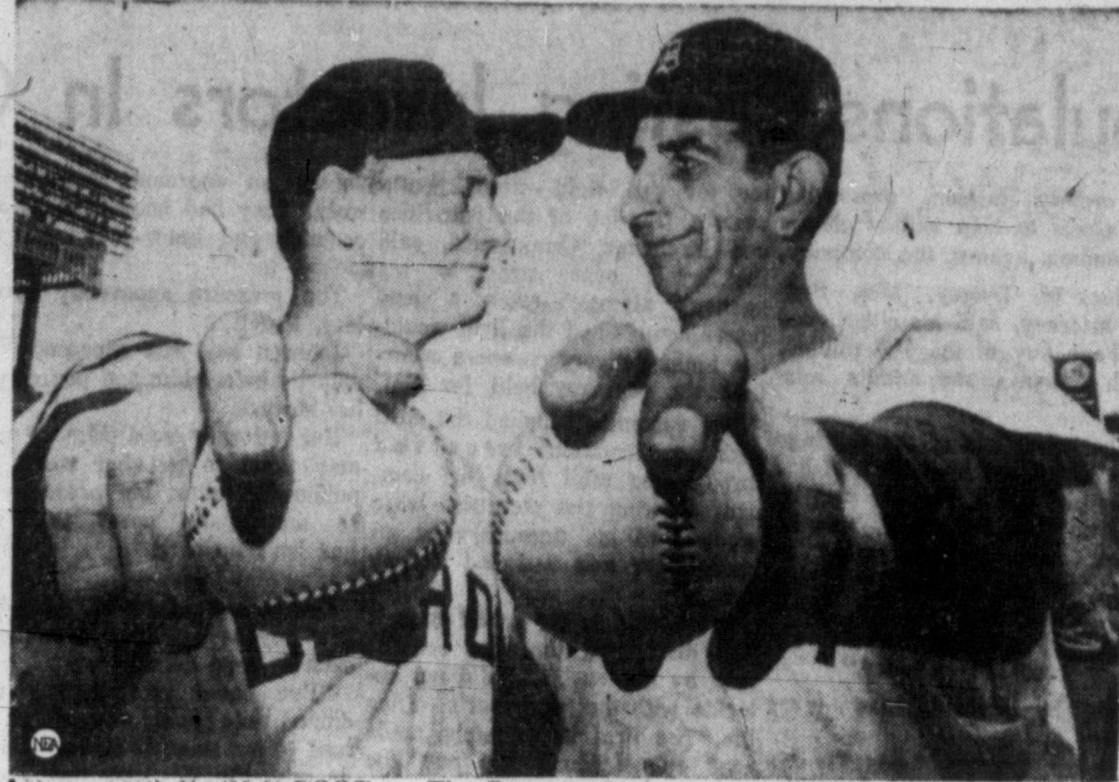

The Dallas Cowboys will go north this summer to conduct their training camp with St. Olaf College at Northfield, Minn., being selected as the site. Those husky Cowboy linemen won't have to worry about eating their fill of meat and milk — the college maintains farms that produce all the beef and dairy products needed for the camp.

The Southwest will host its first National Appaloosa Show, June 15-18, at Fort Worth's Will Rogers Coliseum. Commonly called "Spotted Horses," the best of the nation's breed should make this the most outstanding event in the breed's colorful history.

For Pampa football fans who like their pro football, the Dallas Cowboys have scheduled a pre-season game with the Baltimore Colts Sept. 1 at Norman Oklahoma, game time 8:30 GTS.

Pampa bowlers last week helped organize a new Monday night bowling league at the Lucky Strike Bowling lanes in Wheeler. Eight teams will compete each Monday night — four slated to bowl at 7 p.m. with another quartet of bowling aggregations taking the alley at 9 p.m.

Terry McWhorter, Perryton's fine all-around athlete, was recently named captain on both the Rangers' football and cage squads. Harry Drake and Dan Witt were elected to serve with McWhorter as basketball tri-captains with Don Wagner named the other grid captian.

ARMS AND EARLY FOOT — The Detroit Club has early foot in the American League race and Manager Bob Scheffing is beginning to believe that the Tigers have the pitching with which to keep right on moving. It is headed by Frank Lary, left, and Don Mossi.

Starts June 1 - City Golf Tournament Dates Set

Qualifying for the Pampa City handicap golf tournament will begin on June 1st, according to Grover Haskell, tournament chairman.

Haskell pointed out that the tournament will be June 1-11, and all golfers competing in the tournament at the Pampa country club course must have completed their second round matches by June 18.

"Final round matches must be played by June 25," he said. "Haskell pointed out that the tournament is open to all golfers who reside within a 12 mile radius of Pampa."

A Junior tournament has been scheduled for June 5-6 at the Pampa Country Club. Haskell announced Saturday.

Haskell, tourney chairman, said the tournament will be divided into two brackets: Ages 12-13 will play 7 holes; with 14 and 15-year-olds competing over 36 holes.

The tourney will be medal play, and trophies will be awarded to the winner and runnerup by the Pampa Country Club in both divisions, Haskell said.

Haskell said there will be no entry fee charge. Deadline for entries is June 4th.

Hart Warren, Pampa Country Club pro, will conduct a "free" series of lessons for Pampa's junior linksters next month.

Warren, in announcing the series, said there will be two lessons each Wednesday for four weeks and one make up lesson. Warren said there will be a service charge of 50 cents per lesson to cover the cost of golf balls. The series will initiate on June 6 and Warren urges each participant to register before this date.

Troy Edwards, who relieved starter Dickie Henley with one out in the second, was the winner. Billy Davis was the loser.

Ricky Roach, 3-for-5, was the leading hitter for the Windsor, with Edwards helping his own cause with a home run.

Davis garnered 2-for-3 for the losers.

Hoover Bops Mohawk, 11-7

Hoover Oil Co., taking full advantage of 12 miscues outfield, bopped Mohawk Company 11-7 in a Western League game Friday night at Optimist Park.

Gary Butler emerged the winner. Phillip Savage took the defeat, despite contributing a solo home run himself in the top of the fourth frame.

Teddy Phillips, rapping out 3 hits in four trips, was the games leading hitter as Hoover won their first game of the season.

Game Postponed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Saturday's game between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox has been postponed because of rain.

No date was announced as yet for rescheduling of the game.

Milliron Nips C&M 3 To 2

Mark Franklin clouted a home run in the top of the fifth here Friday night to give Milliron Engineering a 3 to 2 victory over C&M Television and Furniture in a Northern League game at Optimist Park. Both teams are now 2-2 for the season.

John "Buzzy" Franklin, whiffing seven, was the winning pitcher with Ken Ragland (8 strikeouts) charged with the loss.

Mike Pursley (3-for-3) paced the C&M team, who out hit winners, 5 to 2.

Fielding gems highlighted the game's action which saw only four errors committed by each club. John Doucette (only 9) accounted for one defensive sparkler with Danny Darling's fine catch, ending the game in the sixth.

Bankers Clip Hardware, 8-5

First National Bank, capitalizing on 13 walks, clipped Pampa Hardware 8 to 5 Friday night in a Pony League game at Optimist Park.

Both teams are now 1-1 for the season.

Everson, who whiffed nine and allowed only five hits, was the winner. Owens, the second of three Pampa Hardware hurlers, absorbed the loss. He followed Steele, and in turn was relieved by Garrison. Between them they allowed only three base knocks to the winners but wildness and some costly errors proved their downfall.

Sledge-dog teams, oldest form of polar travel, are still used to mowen wastes of the far north and far south.

Rademacher Declares He Could Get Liston Fight With Patterson

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEW YORK (NEA) — Pete Rademacher right now is busier outside the battlepit than he is in it. Rademacher, the greatest salesman ever to wear boxing gloves, is exceedingly anxious to manage Sonny Liston, the number one heavyweight contender who for reasons of self protection has been decreed a social outcast by champion Floyd Patterson.

Rademacher says he can get Liston the match with Patterson, and who is going to argue with the Yakima Valley apple knocker who found a home in Columbus, Ga? After all, balding Pedro got a crack at Patterson's crown in his first professional fight and was guaranteed $35,000 for his second outing in which he was starched by Zora Folley, top ranking contender.

Old Pete, who was 29 when he joined the money ranks, had the direct approach. He is the one fighter who started at the top and worked his way down.

In New York for his initial appearance in the big town against Doug Jones, Rademacher, now 32, recalled his fantastic pro bow against Patterson in the Seattle ball park Aug. 22, 1957.

"The match was conceived before I went to the Olympic Games in Melbourne in December of 1956," he recollected while being examined by Dr. Alexander Schiff at the Boxing Commission headquarters on West 46th Street.

"Patterson and Archie Moore fought for the vacated title in late November, and I honestly figured that I would never again have such a golden opportunity."

It seems that Rademacher, former college football player and coach, fruit grower and Army officer, had the correct line on Patterson from the outset.

"From the way Gus D'Amato was screening his opponents and what I saw on television I suspected that Patterson couldn't take a punch too well," he said, brushing his chin. "I figured I could lick a 21-year-old kid who was hardly more than a light - heavyweight. If Moore won, all I had to do was beat a worn-out old man. So, I made up my mind to get the winner if I won the Olympic championship."

This Rademacher did by flattening a Czech, a South African and a Russian weight lifter all within six rounds.

Rademacher, the super salesman of sock, made a lot of friends and influenced a number of well-to-do people while serving at Fort Benning and assisting in B'oy's Club work in Columbus, Ga., and Phoenix, Ala.

Patterson was left shadow boxing in D'Amato's crusade against James D. Norris and the late and unlamented International Boxing Club. It was about then that the self-managed Rademacher poked his head through the door of the embattled D'Amato's 14th Street gymnasium.

It sounded silly to everybody but Rademacher, but the price was a $250,000 for Patterson. With the help of Mike Jennings, Columbus sporting goods dealer, Rademacher got it up.

Team players and their total series score:
HARVESTER: Gary Laramore, 464; Terry Frazier, 437; Ricky Frazier, 436; and Mike Schale, 475.

49ERS: Dwight Mackie, 497; Charles Anderson, 373; Danny Cox, 455; and Wayne Matney, 412.

Woman Bares Hidden Stock Manipulations Costing Investors In Georgia $1.5 Millions

ATLANTA (UPI)—It was like a bad dream, a nightmare and its horror kept getting worse and worse.

Finally, Mrs. Gertrude M. Pruett, a "pleasant and rather plump" woman in her 40s who with her husband owned and ran Pruett & Co., Inc., an investment firm with 700 customers, ended the snowballing nightmare the only way she could.

She walked into the office of Walter C. Johnson, an investigator for the Securities and Exchange Commission, and told him the story:

How she took customers' funds without their knowledge for her personal use.

How she frantically transferred credits from account to account and hid the shortages from those who asked questions — customers first, then SEC investigators.

How the market rose, making "profits" for customers on stocks she'd been ordered to buy but didn't.

How the shortage grew, and grew, and grew, until it reached $1.5 million.

How, for two years, she kept a second set of books concealed in a desk drawer trying desperately to keep track of it all.

How, finally, the sheer size of the deficit and the faster and faster pace of the questions and investigations overwhelmed her, and she could do no more.

Her attorney said today Gertrude Pruett is hidden away to protect her from "people badly hurt" by her manipulations. He said she is staying within a 20-mile radius of Atlanta and cooperating with government investigators.

The case first came to light last week when the regional office of the SEC filed a complaint in U.S. District Court against Pruett & Co. Mrs. Pruett served as executive vice president and director of the firm. Her husband, Carl, headed the organization.

SEC Investigator Johnson said in an affidavit filed in conjunction with the complaint that Mrs. Pruett had admitted misusing $1.5 million belonging to 38 of the firm's customers.

She covered her actions over a protracted period, Johnson said, by maintaining a separate set of books which she kept in her desk drawer out of the reach of investigators.

Johnson's affidavit said Mrs. Pruett finally admitted to him

"substantially the following: 'That registrant (the company) was at that time, May 9, 1961, insolvent to the extent of approximately $1,500,000 and has been insolvent for at least the last two years; 'That registrant has a shortage of approximately $1,500,000 due and owing to thirty-eight of its customers, which obligations are not reflected on registrant's books and records, and which it is unable to pay; 'That funds and securities belonging to customers had been misappropriated and used, without such customers' knowledge or consent, in the business of registrant, for her personal use and benefit, and to satisfy claims of other customers, whose funds and securities had previously been misused and who were asking for settlement.'"

No criminal charges were immediately filed against Mrs. Pruett. Instead the government, without opposition from the firm, obtained a permanent injunction preventing Pruett & Co. from doing further business, and put the company in the hands of a receiver.

In this way the government hoped to dispose of the firm in an orderly fashion, preserving any assets to help satisfy claims outstanding against the company, and Exchange Commission, said the Pruett case came to his agency's attention when a customer complained the firm would not make delivery on some securities the company held for him.

The customer supplied the SEC with confirmations received through the mail from the company showing the securities were credited to his account, and an investigator was assigned to look into it.

Green said in the initial case it was discovered that the records held by the customer did not coincide with the customer's office file. The firm immediately made good this account. But now the SEC's suspicion was aroused.

It was then the bad financial dream in which Mrs. Pruett was living came on in full horror.

"Without knowing it, we were putting more and more pressure on her," Green said.

Each time investigators called for an account, the books apparently had to be re-juggled to square that account with the $1.5 million discrepancy and the rest of the bookkeeping system.

Green said the bookkeeping was "cleverly done and must have involved an enormous amount of work. They had knowledge of accounting and knew just what we looked for."

The pressure apparently broke Mrs. Pruett.

Johnson said she appeared voluntarily before him and poured out her story.

Her attorney said Mrs. Pruett may want to tell her story for publication later, but presently is so emotionally upset that she just isn't up to it."

Green was asked to speculate how anyone could hope to cover such a large deficit.

"I've never met anyone who dipped into funds that didn't intend to put them back tomorrow," he said. "In this case they eventually had to realize that they couldn't and that it was just a matter of time until they were discovered."

He said it was the largest case of its kind in the history of the region. He joined the SEC here at its founding in 1934.

"Usually," he said, "it's just an employe that's involved."

Mrs. Pruett's husband, its president, has disclaimed any knowledge of the shortage, Green said.

BRRRRRRR... as we sit here contemplating this column, our teeth are chattering and our fingers are stiff from the cold... who would think it was the end of May?... of course, by the time you read this, it will probably be sunny and warm... while we're on that age-old topic of weather, we wonder if the weather predictors realize how much faith we put in them... if they predict rain, we put off washing until the next day... and it usually turns out to be a lovely wash day... if they predict sunshine, we wash even if it is a cloudy day, secure in the weatherman's promise that it will clear... ha!... it usually rains... someday we are going to stop listening and depend upon our own judgment... only the results will probably be the same!

MAINLY ABOUT PAMPANS... Have you seen Paul Keim this week? oh, me, oh, my... he is absolutely gleeful with joy and practically jumping with delight... the reason? why it is all over the son Mary presented him with Tuesday evening... best wishes and congratulations to them both... understand Bob Mitchell had dinner guests recently... and the guests could hardly eat with looking at and enjoying the wonderful antiques with which his home is furnished... heard it is furnished completely with antiques and is absolutely lovely... attractive Kay Howell is radiant these days with her wedding about a week away... and also over the lovely home on Jupiter Street... prospective spouse Jimmy Crouch purchased for their first home... there will soon be an exodus of the college crowd home for the summer... in fact, it has already started... Jack and Adrienne Foster went to Clarendon this week to meet and welcome home their daughter, Sue... the entire Jack Skelly family left this week for Meadville, Pennsylvania to pick up Becky, who is attending college there... and Marian Osborne left recently for Charleston, West Virginia, to attend the graduation of daughter, Vicky Collier... believe Marian was accompanied as far as Chicago by her mother-in-law, Mrs. F. W. Osborne... heard recently that interesting and talented Glenn Miller has a secret love—the theater... and would love to join a drama group... wonder what happened to the little theater group here that was so active a few years ago? spied charming Joan Neef the other day and couldn't help admire her hair... she has had it tipped and it looks so becoming.

Well arranged time is the surest mark of a well arranged mind. — Sir Isaac Pitman.

ABOUT GARDENS... we receive a tip this week that the residents on East Malone have a lovely garden... so we took a look-see... and it really is!... it is wonderful to see so many pretty gardens and attractive lawns in all parts of Pampa... so many not on the main thoroughfares go unnoticed... but the many local gardeners' "green thumbs" deserve a lot of credit for making a big contribution to Pampa's being the most charming of Panhandle communities.

HERE AND THERE... heard Lorene and Don Harmon are being transferred to Oklahoma... there is rejoicing in the Henry Gindorf and the Myron Spencer households these days due to the arrival of a grandson... the parents are Tom and Beth Gindorf, students at Texas Tech... this is the time of year for visiting, taking tours and for visitors... heard Margaret Carlton Welton is back visiting with her parents, the Joe Carltons and that Mrs. Sam Irwin is touring Europe... there will be a showing of modern and antique guns and coins (what a combination) today in the National Guard Armory... sounds interesting... Pampa's Crazy Day was real crazy... seems everyone had a lot of fun... even some of the shoppers got into the spirit in crazy garb... at least it was one day you could go downtown in anything and feel in place... it is a good thing for a community to have a "fun day"... raises everyone's morale... besides, everyone is too serious these days... heard Bill and Martha Lee McComas were dressed as the Flintstones... cute idea... congratulations to Effie Cox and Johnny Carter for their individual awards as the craziest-dressed clerks... heard Carl Caldwell was dressed as a beatnik... and that Sam Jacobson looked "charming" in cowboy boots and short pants.

As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every moment of time. — John Mason.

POTPOURRI... wonder if anyone claimed the cute little porcupine that was lost? how could anyone tame a porcupine? think it would be rather sticky until it got used to you... seems you'd have to be careful to keep it happy as it might have an advantage if it got mad at you... we have heard of pet skunks... that are de-skunked... but we'd be a little leery of this porcupine business... hate to think of the poor thing being done away with, though... congratulations to the John McCauslands on the birth of their son... getting our vote as one of Pampa's nicest persons is Benny Behrman, a very busy person who always has time to help out on civic endeavors... especially where young people are concerned... a nice young Pampa couple we have seen about a bit is Pat and Rowdy Bowers... Rowdy is a young attorney here.

The purpose of learning to employ every minute properly is to unclutter our hours, deliver us of feverish activity and earn us true leisure. — Robert R. Updegraff.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order at this time of year for all the young people graduating from college... we probably don't hear a call of them, but a few we have heard about are... Bobby Wilhelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Wilhelm... who will graduate from the University of Corpus Christi... Malcolm Brown Jr., to graduate from the University of Texas... Carolyn McLaughlin to graduate from West Texas State College... and Eddie Dean Franklin from Texas Christian University... ah, graduation time is always a memorable event... whether from college or high school... the spring formal is a party... not to mention the sense of accomplishment in earning that degree or diploma... and the parents are always so proud... ah, to be young again!

We always have time enough if we will but use it aright. — Goethe.

SMILES IN THE EYES of many Pampa children these days is due to the annual dance recital to be held Tuesday evening... the thrill of wearing that gorgeous costume... a sort of a fist... the nervousness about performing before an audience... the girls in ESA have been working hard on the scenery... Lois Watkins and Bonnie Wheat, to name two... and Lil Hall has been a busy girl as always in the costume department... she is quite a golfer, too... the end of the school year is upon us... not to mention Memorial Day which is the Peg family's annual first picnic... and the young ones wouldn't miss that for the world... we battle the winds, the bugs and the ants... and come home sunburned but happy... this has started us to thinking of the picnic menu... so we better close before such words as potato salad, hamburger, hot dogs, mustard etc. creep in in unlikely places.

of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

ATTENDANTS.
Miss Betty Kuczmariski of Starks, Wis. bridegroom's sister, served as maid of honor wearing a waltz-length dress of blue taffeta designed with a fitted bodice and a chiffon overskirt of tiered ruffles, which formed a triangle in back of skirt.

Miss Elaine Adams, a friend of the bride, attended as bridesmaid wearing a yellow frock designed as the maid of honor's. Both attendants wore veils of illusion net to match their dresses and carried old-fashioned nosegays of vari-hued carnations.

Robert Petta of Starks served the bridegroom as best man. Thomas Norton, also of Starks, was groomsmen. Ushers were Richard Kuczmariski, bridegroom's brother, and Dale Leavitt, both of Starks.

Mrs. Wilfred Robarge, organist, provided the wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Reeves chose an orchid sheath dress with matching fitted jacket accessorized with orchid and bone. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Kuczmariski chose a navy blue shirt with white accessories. Corsages for both mothers were fashioned from orchids.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

Immediately following the ceremony, wedding guests were served breakfast at 11 a.m. in the Pied Piper Restaurant, where a reception was also held later in the afternoon from five o'clock until seven. A wedding dance was held in Starks Town Hall at nine o'clock.

Terry Hollingshead, G. W. Williams Say Nuptial Vows In Home Ceremony

Miss Terry Ann Hollingshead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hollingshead, 906 Twiford, became the bride of Gerald Wayne Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williams of Liberal, Kan., in a ceremony read at three o'clock on May 20 in the home of the bride's parents, Jack T. Boles, North Texas District President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day-Saints (Mormon) read the marriage ceremony.

Wedding vows were solemnized in a setting of white gladioli and stock flanked by urns filled with greenery.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her father wearing a white street-length chiffon dress designed with scoop neckline draped with chiffon, bouffant skirt accented with pleated cummerbund. She carried a bouquet of white orchids showered with white satin streamers tied in Lovers' Knots. For "something old and borrowed," she wore a gold bracelet, a family heirloom of Mrs. Joe Shelton.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the bride's home. The table was appointed with a white grass linen and lace cloth and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with white scallops and tiny white roses topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was encircled at the base with pale yellow Plumarina blossoms from Hawaii. Mrs. Louise Odell presided at the reception service.

For a brief wedding trip, the bride traveled in a blue and white dress accented with a fragrant carnation lei, a gift from her aunt, Dr. Billie Hollingshead, a psychology professor in Hawaii.

The bride will graduate from Pampa High School this Spring. The bridegroom was graduated from Perryton High School and National Electronic's Institute in Denver, Colo. They will make their home in Woodward, Okla.

HD Club Donates To Boys' Home

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — "You can never find time for anything, you must make it" was the highlight of Mrs. E. E. Crawford's program, "Time and Energy" at a recent meeting of the Home Demonstration Club which met in the home of Mrs. W. S. Berry.

The recreation prize "How many fish can you catch?" was won by Mrs. Orvall Wall. Mrs. George Porter, president, directed the business meeting. The club voted to give five dollars to the cancer fund. The members are to donate washcloths, towels and a quilt to Boys Ranch.

Eleven members answered roll call, exchanging recipes for quick meals.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Gerald Huckins with a demonstration on tin can wall plaques. Dad's barbecue project taking forever to get done? Here's a tidbit that will pacify the starving horde. Cut frank into chunks. Thread a chunk of frank on a skewer or a fork, then a generous wedge of American-made Baby Gouda cheese, and a second chunk of frank. Sprinkle with garlic salt and grill until meat is sizzling and the Gouda softens.

Talk For Teens

Jealousy is pure excess baggage on the road to success. It is a miserable emotion and can be very painful to a teenager. To envy someone else is silly and cruel to yourself. Jealousy feeds on self-doubt and brings out inferiority. Teen-agers should throw it out of their lives at an early age. Concentrate on improving yourself and envy of others will, to a large extent, disappear.

The pocket gopher can run backward just as fast and easily as forward.

Sorority Casts Eyes Towards Vacation Time

Gamma Conclave of Kappa Kappa Iota met in the City Club recently for a Bon Voyage Party signaling the end of the current sorority year.

Decorations included trains, boats, automobiles, planes, maps, globes and tickets.

Thoughts for the evening were centered on vacation time and travel with Miss Marika Minelli of Italy and Jarle Molvar of Norway, American Field Exchange students, as guests for the evening.

The two exchange students spoke of the scenery and climate a traveler would enjoy in their countries. They compared the school systems in their countries and that of Pampa High School and spoke of the discipline that wasn't necessary in their schools at home because of the formal atmosphere in the classrooms and the respect shown for instructors.

It was announced that Mrs. B.G. Gordon and Mrs. W. L. Parker as delegates will attend the national convention of Kappa Kappa Iota to be held in Wichita, Kan. in June.

Hostesses for the evening were Miss Alma Wilson, Mrs. D. L. Mackie and Mrs. W. L. Parker.

Guests attending were Miss Elizabeth Enns; Mmes. B. G. Gordon, Houston Price, L. B. Penick, Herbert Coker, T. Humphreys, John Wooders, C. W. Sowell, John Tatum, G. M. Walls, F. N. Smith, Mildred Hoghland, Joe DiCosimo, Charles Meech, Frieda Ross, B. V. Biggers and A. R. Nooncaster.

GETTING READY FOR A WEDDING

Seems everytime we read the papers we find another one of our midst preparing for the new adventure of matrimony.

It is hard to look back and find where the time went when we try to decide when many of these "youngsters" grew up... but inside we feel a "warm glow" as we read of these accounts.

Some of them we know only on sight, some we know by name only; but many of them we have known for many years we want to take just a few minutes out of our day and put in our wish "for the very best" to these newlyweds... and for those others who plan to "take the big step" shortly.

Dear Abby... White's All Right For Bride-To-Be

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a relative who was just about ready to give up when someone asked her to get married. She is 52 and he is 50. Please don't faint, but she is planning to be married in a white wedding gown with a veil, the bouquet, bridesmaids and everything that goes with it. She has gray hair and looks every bit her 52 years. I am afraid people in this town will think she has gone crazy. Don't you think someone in the family should step in and set her straight?

INTERESTED RELATIVE
DEAR INTERESTED: I see nothing wrong with the bride's plans. Someone should set her relatives straight.

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school senior and have never been in trouble before. I have been accused of stealing a purse. I did not steal it, Abby. I found it on my way to school and there was no name or anything in it. I suppose I should have turned it in somewhere but I didn't know where to turn it in, so I took it to school and started to use it. I was called into the principal's office. It was stolen from one of the girls at school. A girl whose name they wouldn't tell me said she heard me tell another girl I stole it and not to say anything. Now the whole school is against me. I swear I didn't steal that purse. How can an innocent person protect herself against gossip?

INNOCENT
DEAR INNOCENT: Quit trying to disprove guilt that does not exist. The word of the girl who claimed she heard you say you stole it should have been disregarded until she agreed to face you with the accusation. Forget it, my dear. And others will.

DEAR ABBY: I was born in America but have been on ships all my life. I have never seen anything like the way the American woman girdle themselves in and strap themselves up. It really gets me. I do not know who they think they are kidding with all those wires, elastic devices and contraptions to hold them in place. When they get home and take their girdles off, they spread out like a baseball field.

WORLD TRAVELED BACHELOR
DEAR BACHELOR: How do YOU know?

DEAR ABBY: It sure enough burns me up to hear the way some of those Yankees make fun of the way we Southerners talk. When we say, "You all," we mean "All of you." No Southerner would ever say what that lady from Brooklyn said to the man from Virginia—"Drop dead, you all"—unless she meant for everyone in Virginia to drop dead. If she can't talk properly, she should hush up her mouth.

Sewing Project Set By New 4-H Club

A group of girls met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Darrell Hogsett to form a new 4-H Club. As yet the girls have not decided upon a name for their club. Mrs. Hogsett will be the leader of the group with the following ladies assisting: Mmes. Dora Cain, W. L. Veal, Ted Atwood, E. L. Henderson and Myron Dorman.

At this meeting, the girls each covered a shirt-box with print material. This will be their sewing box in which to keep all of their equipment. The project for the summer months will be making of simple blouses and skirts. Each leader will work with two girls when sewing. At the completion of this sewing unit, the girls will have a style show at the Home Demonstration Office.

Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, will meet with this Four-H Club on the second Monday of each month. The other group meeting date has not been set.

Girls present at this meeting were: Misses Cynthia Hogsett, Cecilia Swinney, Janet Dorman, Barbara Veal, Dale Cain, Cathy Wilkie, Linda Higginbotham, Phyllis Atwood, Harriett Henderson, Nan Nichols, and guest Judy Cox from Phoenix, Arizona.

Parent Education Club Installs New Officers

Parent Education Club installed its new officers at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. J. Carubbi, 1908 N. Dwight.

Mrs. Jack Osborne, as installing officer, used a Garden Bouquet theme for the installation service. She presented a blue carnation, symbol of loyalty and faithfulness to Mrs. Elmer Wilson, reporter; a yellow galdioli to signify work and uprightness to Mrs. William Arrington, parliamentarian; a white Aster as a symbol of versatility and importance to Mrs. Bill Getting, secretary; a red rose for courage and dependability to Mrs. Jack Osborne, vice president; a purple Iris denoting regality, leadership and strength to Mrs. Bill Derrington, president.

"Let us remember" Mrs. Osborne said, "that this bouquet of garden flowers serves a useful purpose. It imparts beauty to the eye of the beholder. This club was organized to serve a useful purpose. As the flowers in this bouquet, will be short-lived, if it were not for the life-giving water, silent and unseen in the bottom of the container, so this club would soon fail to function effectively without the cooperation and participation of other members."

"If the work done by this organization functions in an acceptable manner, it may be likened to this garden bouquet," she continued.

"We are familiar with the florists' slogan 'Say it with flowers.' I believe the flowers in this bouquet can be indicative of the responsibilities that are to be assumed by the officers for Parent Education this year."

During the business meeting members approved the suggestion to buy two Community Concert Ass'n tickets for deserving students. A donation to the American Field Service for a foreign exchange student was also approved by the club. Plans were discussed for a future Senior Citizens' party.

At a previous meeting of the club held in the home of Mrs. Tom Snow, 207 Gray, the past year's programs were evaluated and plans were made for the programs in the coming year. Thirteen members and one guest attended.

Phillips Enters Plant-Building Pact In Japan

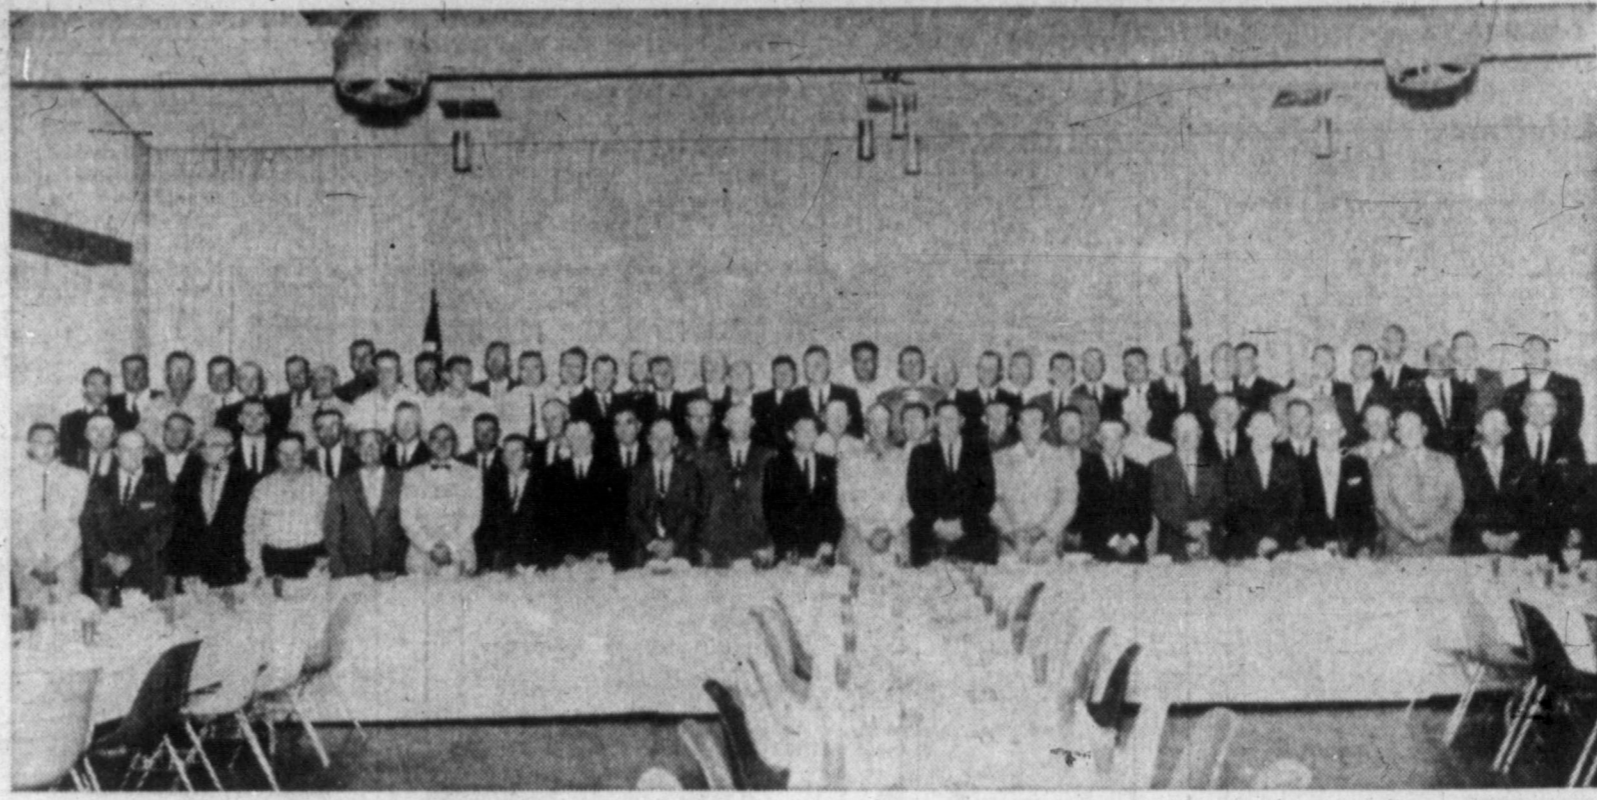

Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Okla., and Bridgestone Tire Company, Ltd., Tokyo, Japan, have announced signing of a Cis-Polybutadiene synthetic rubber licensing agreement under which Bridgestone will build a 10,000-ton-a-year plant in Japan using the Phillips process and technical knowledge.

This new product has been proved by exhaustive tests to be a superior replacement for much natural rubber in heavy-duty tires. The process was first commercialized last year when Phillips began marketing its new rubber at Borger, under the trademark Cis-4.

Bridgestone is Japan's leading rubber company. Mr. Shojiro Ishibashi is founder and president. Mr. Nobutaka Matsudaira, senior manager director, arranged the agreement with Phillips.

As licensor, Phillips will furnish process design to Bridgestone and serve as technical advisor on engineering, construction and initial operation of Bridgestone's plant.

Phillips has licensed its Cis-Polybutadiene process to a number of companies in the U.S. and other countries.

Kerr-McGee Scholarship Award Made

OKLAHOMA CITY — Carol Ann Howell, Mirabeau B. Lamar, high school senior, Houston, has been awarded a four year scholarship to the college of her choice by Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc.

The scholarship established last year by Kerr-McGee, is open to children of employees of the parent company and those of its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Miss Howell's mother, Mrs. J. G. Howell, 6113 Charlotte, Houston, is a key-punch operator at Triangle Refineries, Inc., Houston, a subsidiary of Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., of Oklahoma City, Okla.

The purpose of the scholarship program is to encourage children of its employees to seek their highest level of scholastic achievement. Because of identical grades in qualifying examinations and almost identical scholastic activities, the company also is granting a four-year scholarship to Judith Ketchum, Northwest Classen high school, Oklahoma City.

Miss Howell plans to major in social science, with teaching as an ultimate career.

At Mirabeau B. Lamar, Miss Howell is a member of the Choralette girls' chorus, French club and is chorale of the Niwanna Service club. She also is a member of the volleyball team at West University Methodist Church and is a nurse's volunteer at Texas Children's Hospital. She has served on the council for Teens Against Polio.

Selections for the Kerr-McGee scholarships are made by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, Evanston, Ill., who administers the program for the company.

Limited Growth In Oil Industry Forecast By IPA A Study Group

Limited growth in the petroleum industry is indicated by a slight turn upward in the nation's economy, says a report of the Supply and Demand Committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of America.

The report, copies of which are being distributed throughout the country, was submitted at the annual meeting of the association in New Orleans, La., ending May 2.

The committee was headed by N. G. Dumbros and consisted of 14 members from throughout the nation.

The report follows:

"After studying the changes which have taken place recently in the general economy and within the petroleum industry, the committee has reconsidered the outlook for petroleum supply and demand in 1961, which was originally forecast in October of last year.

"The general economy has been in a state of recession since May of 1960. It now appears to be on the verge of an upturn. However, a careful study of the individual segments of the economy does not reveal any significant forces comparable to those which brought the rapid recoveries of the past three recessions.

"It appears, nonetheless, that economic activity will be rising—though moderately—during the remainder of the year, and that another year of limited growth in the petroleum industry is in the making.

"After evaluating these general economic indicators and considering the trends in demand for petroleum products so far this year, the committee now forecasts domestic demand for all oils during 1961 at an average 9,318,000 bd, an increase of 141,000 bd, or 1.5 percent from the year 1960.

"The committee calls attention to two aspects of this domestic demand forecast:

"1 — The over-all gain in domestic demand in 1961 will stem from an expected substantial increase in commercial jet fuel requirements and greater motor gasoline and specialty product sales. However, demand for distillate is expected to show only modest gains while residual fuel demand may decrease somewhat.

"2 — The increase in domestic demand for all products is less than would have been expected

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet officials who juggle figures will face jail terms up to three years, the Supreme Soviet ruled Wednesday.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev has charged many agricultural officials with providing false figures on quota fulfillments in his criticism of the Soviet farm situation.

The ruling said "deliberate misreporting on the fulfillment of plans should be considered as anti-state actions, harmful to the economy."

PIGGYBACK PREDECESSOR—There may be something new under the sun, but sometimes it's hard to find it. Take piggyback transportation of vehicles, which railroads have concentrated on in recent years. Way back in 1917, Army trucks were moving along Southern Pacific Co. lines in Louisiana in the manner shown in top photo. Below, modern three-level "auto-pack" permits 15 compact or 12 standard-size autos to be loaded on a flatcar. The 83-foot-long unit has three or four times the capacity of a boxcar.

Walter Rogers Reports Sugar Problem Solution Desired Without Furor

The sugar controversy continues with economic murder too long to boil. This is an issue that has its high time that all Americans come to the forefront on numerous s and up for America first. The occasions in his ory. The reason sugar issue is a good place to start is that sugar is controlled by a very few groups. The foreign countries have a preferred position. Approximately 45 per cent of our sugar needs come from foreign countries.

This is not because we cannot grow sugar, but it is because a lot of money is being made by a few groups. I sincerely hope that this entire matter can be worked out without the possibility of creating a furor about our foreign relations. No one wants this. But there are a number of us here in Washington who do not intend to sit idly by and permit American farmers and small business people to be discriminated against.

Until recently, this country was importing more than three million tons of sugar annually from Cuba. At five cents a pound this would amount to $300 million which Cuba was obtaining from this country prior to its plunge into the Soviet orbit.

This business was taken away from Cuba after that country, under its bearded leader Castro, embraced Communism. After this was done, the question was "Where will we get this sugar?" American farmers were clamoring for the opportunity to grow this sugar.

They wanted to get out from under these acreage allotments and they wanted to produce this sugar because it would help in three ways: One, it would provide a means of reducing farm surpluses by diverting acres from surplus crops to sugar beets.

Two, it would help the economy of the farmer and also the general economy of those communities where sugar beets could be grown, because processing mills could be built at a cost of some $15 to $20 million.

Three, it would help measurably to sop the outflow of gold, the critical problem to which the President of the United States has addressed himself on several occasions.

However, sad to say, the sugar interests — or perhaps it would be better to say the sugar monopolies, because that is exactly what it is — refused to agree to permit the American farmer to participate in this market. At long last a bitter battle ensued, these monopolists were able to obtain a 15-months' extension of the Sugar Act which provided that all of this sugar had to be purchased from foreign countries. In other words, the American farmer was denied the right to grow a product that is vital and necessary to life. This is unacceptable and it is wrong.

This is a matter that is so vital to the American economy that all of the people in this country ought to demand action. There is no other major commodity in which this country can be self-sufficient which is required by law to be supplied by foreign countries to the extent of 45 per cent of our needs. Think what would happen if we were required to import 45 per cent of our cattle, 48 per cent of our textiles, 48 per cent of our oil and gas. The fact is that this bunch of monopolists has gotten a way

Families Urged To Check Up On Their Resources

NEW YORK (UPI)—Millions of Americans religiously go to their doctor once a year; see their dentist twice a year and visit their optician every second year. But few, except maybe the wealthy, ever take the trouble to get a thorough financial examination. And very few make it a point to get to know their local banker.

To focus the attention of Americans on the importance of a regular once-a-year financial review the month of May is set across the nation as personal affairs month.

It's time to take stock, check up on finances and find out how you really are doing. Everybody knows about preventive medicine; it forestalls tragedy and heartbreak; it spots small troubles before they become big. So why not practice the same good sense with your finances?

To find out what you're worth today measure your total assets against your liabilities. Keep these figures from year to year and you will know what kind of progress you are making.

Surprisingly, the average family does not know how or where to start on such a program. To figure total assets, add together the market value of everything you own.

To find out liabilities, add the following: Home mortgage and other real estate mortgages or liens; car loans; money due on furniture and appliances; personal loan balances and loans against life insurance; open accounts and current bills unpaid.

The assets should be larger and should grow from year to year. If not, you're headed for trouble. The American Bankers Association has provided a checklist to put your finances in the black. —Set up a spending and saving plan for the next 12 months. Base it on take-home pay.

—Pay major bills by check. This way you will know exactly where your money goes. Also, your cancelled checks are proof of the deductions you take on your income tax.

—Build up savings. Liquid cash is vital to meet unexpected emergencies such as sickness, unemployment and legal bills. Also, it forms a base for retirement. Try to save 10 to 20 per cent of take-home pay. —Invest. Divert some savings into good growth stocks and bonds.

—Buy life insurance early. —Get to know your local banker before you are in financial trouble. Consider him as a family doctor of finance.

Do not try to keep up with the Joneses. Keep installment debt down, and try not to owe more money at any one time than 15 per cent of take-home pay after all deductions.

CENSUS PROSPECT WASHINGTON (UPI) — The postman may ring twice in 1970, once to deliver the mail and a second time to count noses in the national census. Rep. John Lesinski, D-Mich., said Thursday the House census subcommittee of which he is chairman was considering legislation under which mail carriers would serve also as census takers.

Customs Frauds Total $2 Million

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Auditors for the Finance Ministry have uncovered customs duties frauds in four cities totaling more than $2 million (U.S.), it was reported here today.

The frauds reportedly were committed both by employees of private companies and by government agents through various falsifications of reports.

Largest frauds occurred in the northern communities of Tijuana and Chihuahua, the reports said. The other two cities mentioned are Monterrey and Acapulco.

SAFFORD, Ariz. (UPI)—Seven persons, six of them high school students returning home from a school reunion, were killed in a highway collision Thursday night.

The Arizona highway patrol pulled out of a side road on U. S. 88 about 1 1/2 miles south of here. The vehicle was broadside by a car driven by Wayne Williams, 23, of Pima county.

Mexico Airline

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—The Compania Mexicana de Aviacion Airline today denied reports it plans to sell out to the Mexican government.

A company statement said "it is true that Mexicana de Aviacion has not been able to alter its financial situation but there is no project through which the company will cede its stock to the federal government."

Trio Of Pamoans Candidates For Medical Degrees

GALVESTON — Three Pampa residents are among the 152 candidates for degrees when the University of Texas Medical Branch schools hold graduation exercises on Friday, May 26. Candidates for the M. D. degree are Marvin C. Overton, III, and Leo D. O'Gorman. Peggy B. Stewart is candidate for Bachelor of Science in Nursing.

MARVIN C. OVERTON, III
... To intern in Austin

LEO D. O'GORMAN
... To intern in Dallas

Overton, the son of Mr. M. C. Overton, Jr., of 2700 Duncan, served a preceptorship in the office of Dr. Paul Geers in Whittier as part of his senior year studies. He will continue his medical training as an intern at Brackenridge Hospital in Austin. He is a member of the Osteon Honorary Society and is married to the former Pat Rector of McCaulley.

O'Gorman, the son of Mrs. Frank Kunz of Pocomo, Calif., served his preceptorship in the office of Dr. Roy Morris of Elgin. He also worked as an extern in the summer of 1949 at North Hollywood Hospital in California, and will intern in St. Paul's in Dallas.

Overton and O'Gorman are both members of Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity.

Miss Stewart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, of 513 North Christy, will, after graduation, become associate director of Nursing Service in Inservice Education at the Worley Hospital in Pampa.

Misinformation Charged On Bill

AUSTIN (UPI)—Rep. Franklin Spears of San Antonio charged this week that the Texas Municipal League misinformed senators as to cities' cost on a bill to make mandatory municipal contributions to a firemen's pension fund.

The Senate State Affairs Committee heard witnesses three hours and recalled the hearing on the bill by Spears until today.

a move backers said would kill the House-passed measure for this session.

Spears accused the TML of overestimating costs in letters to member city governments and legislators.

Representative of state firemen's groups testified in favor of the bill. Dr. James McCrooklin, mayor of Kingsville and president of the TML, led opposition to the measure.
