STAND UP FOR JESUS

Ephesians 6:13

In this verse of scripture as well as all the word of God, there is a definite and clear call for those who know the Lord to take a stand for the Lord and His word. There is always the opportunity around us to compromise with the world, but the scriptures are very uncompromising. In fact, we are admonished to contend earnestly for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Certainly this means that we should try to keep things as they were delivered and not to compromise with modernism in any of its various forms and allurements.

Every saved person should take his stand with and for the people of God. This stand begins with his baptism after his conversion. Every saved person should let his life count for Jesus who saved him with an eternal salvation. We would probably get insulted if we were told that our lives could not be depended on and yet that is the truth if we do not let our lives be used for Jesus and His blessed cause.

We also have the privilege of availing ourselves of the armor that the Lord has prepared for His soldiers (Ephesians 6). If we will take this armor unto ourselves then we will be trained in the services of the Master. Those who are trained, then will be able to stand against the wiles of the devil; their lives will truly begin to count for Christ. They will begin to grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord.

Those who have been bought with the blood of Jesus should be activated by His Spirit. There is no place for idleness. There is no place for laziness. There is no place for waiting. There is no place for shifting of the responsibilities of the Lord and His church. There is a place for everyone who is redeemed. There is a place for everyone who has named the name of Jesus. "Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands." 2 Tim. 1:6 God's business needs haste. God's business needs workers who know the value of a soul lost in sin and condemned to hell.

Everyone is needed in this battle against principalities and powers against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. At one time God looked down for a man to stand in the "gap" and found none; how pathetic that none was ready to answer the Lord and His call. We are told that when men perish in sin and we could have warned them and failed to do so that their blood will be required at our hands. This must surely be serious business.

Those who stand for the cause of the Lord should be devoted to His cause and His principles. One of the greatest victories that the devil can win is to get a person to get into the compromising position where he says that it just does not make any difference what we believe and practice. The truth of God yesterday is the truth today. Sin and error yesterday are still wrong today.

With these thoughts before us, let us renew our vows for the Lord. Let us take our place every time the doors of the church are opened for worship. Let us bring our tithes and offerings into God's storehouse that the cause of the Lord may be taken care of as it should; it is the most important and worthy business in the world.

NEW YORK - June has passed now and so have many weddings and a lot of young fellows have discovered by now that the ineffable creature they married is, after all, just a human being with a human being's frailties. But for the new crop of swains, their hearts devotedly aimed at marriage by next June. I have a system for early detection of such frailties. Vanity and greed, for example. Unpleasant attributes that might not show up discernibly in courtship. All you have to do, boys, is go fur - shopping with your heart's desire. A lady I know who had come into a bit of money asked me the other day if I would saunter around with her while she looked at some furs, and having nothing else to do at the moment I fell in with her wishes. First we coursed three Fifth Ave. retailers just, she said, to get our sights high on what was coming. "Anything going for $6,000 with them," she said, "can be had for $3,000 or less wholesale, I deal with furriers direct. Let Fifth down into the West 20s, where the manufacturing furriers abound and after a ride in a rickety elevator, found the seventh floor. The furrier was waiting for her. Apparently she had called and made an appointment. "Now, Eddie," she said, as though addressing the troops, "we are both busy people. Let's not waste time. I want to spend, three Big Ones and not a cent more. You want three Big Ones, in cash, because a man can al ways use that kind of cash. Show me the best set of MBA Autumn Haze you have in stock." He brought out four bundles of furs and plopped them, lead seals and all, on the floor. "Pick," he Said. "All MBA, as the seals show. Natural. Not dved. Quality merchandise. A coat like this on the Avenuesix Big Ones. Pick."

"Any of them tipped?" she asked warily.

"Tipped?" he cried, as though she had mentioned a loathesome disease. With MBA seals on them - tipped? Of course not. Don't irritate me. You know better.
