WORDS O.E.H. Words are things...

Twinkles Well, of league we apparently have no end, what with the Liberty league, Revive Hoover league...

An independent republican paper says this campaign year is going to center around "personal devils."

Personality politics arouses little real thought, but is far more interesting. Folks are rather tired of trying to think through the depression, anyway.

One can easily imagine, says the West Foster group, how mad the Tories are going to be if a boom arrives before the republicans get a turn at bat.

The average man will be in favor of "sound currency" now when it means he will get a fair portion of it for his labors.

Musing at the moment: The political convention, the platform, the keynote speech, and more intimate contact with the people are inherited from the days and influence of Andrew Jackson.

FROM M. L. H. BAZE, former superintendent of the Hopkins schools, now head of the Brownfield school system, comes the following letter, in part:

"Frankly, I have been working like a Trojan. To begin with, we had a 40 per cent increase in enrollment, which necessitated a complete change in our program and the addition of new furniture and equipment of new rooms."

"You should observe our laboratory of industries. It is simply what the name indicates. Some 30 boys are divided into four classes. Each class is further divided into groups of four each. For one hour each day, these groups are engaged in metal work, electrical work, wood work, and mechanical drawing."

"OUR FOOTBALL team? Well, 'mumps' is the word. We offer no alibi, but we are not ashamed of the record under the circumstances: Three ties, one loss, five wins."

Mr. Baze added that other experiments were being tried as an effort to improve the curriculum. He concluded by saying that Emmitt Smith, principal and former Pampa teacher, was doing well in his new position.

We are always glad to hear from former Pampans. We hope we may be pardoned for believing that living in busy, progressive, enthusiastic Pampa "does something" to a person, though he may live here but a short while, and heightens his interest in sports and public affairs. In short, he is a better citizen wherever he may live.

LESSON IN LAW-MAKING: The conference is so important in the congressional scheme of things, that it is known as the "third house."

The house of representatives, for example, passes a highly controversial bill. It goes to the senate where it may be changed by amendments. The house refuses to accept the amendments, so the bill is sent to conference.

The house appoints three or five members as conferees and the senate names an equal number. The conferees have limited powers. They can deal only with the actual matters in disagreement. They cannot insert new matter or leave out matter agreed to by both houses.

The conference usually is held in the senate wing of the capitol building. The senate conferees agree to

BONUS SPEEDS AHEAD

100,000 SOLDIERS INVOLVED AS ETHIOPIA DEFEATS LARGE SCALE ADVANCE OF INVADERS

ALDRIDGE WILL DIRECT SCOUT FINANCE DRIVE

Pledge Campaign to Begin Here on January 22

Tom Aldridge will head the Pampa district's Boy Scout sustaining pledge drive beginning January 22, it was announced late yesterday.

Mr. Aldridge, after his appointment, assembled an organization committee composed of Chris Martin, Jim Collins, Chas. Maisel, Tom Chesser, Allen Hodges, and Olin E. Hinkle.

Pampa's goal has been fixed at $2,400, out of the $6,000 budget for the 15 counties of the Adobe Walls council. The activities goal is to give at least one in every four boys reaching the age of 12 years a four-year experience in Scouting.

Civic clubs and other organizations are being asked to send workers to a campaign meeting at the city hall on January 20 at 10 a. m., when final instructions will be given and territory allotted.

A. G. Post, president of the council, is heading a special gifts committee. Many persons regularly contributing to Scouting will not be called upon since their pledges are self-renewing each year by agreement. It is hoped that this plan may be so successful this year that no other drives will be necessary.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 9 (AP)—The indictment charging Willie (Smoky) Saunders, jockey who won the 1935 Kentucky derby, with being an accessory to murder of Mrs. Evelyn Sitwinski, was dismissed here today in criminal court.

LONDON, Jan. 9 (AP)—The London naval conference suddenly postponed its scheduled Friday session until Monday after the Japanese in a private meeting with British delegates tonight had demanded that the question of fleet equality be taken up immediately.

INDIO, Calif., Jan. 9 (AP)—Twelve-year-old Alfred Altman of Brooklyn, N. Y., was found in Painted Canyon by sheriff's deputies today, apparently none the worse for having been lost since Tuesday afternoon.

40 AND 8 TO MEET The regular meeting of Voiture 953 40 hommes et 8 cheveaux will be held at the Legion but at 8 o'clock tonight. All members and former members of this Voiture are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Martini left this morning for Wichita Falls to make their future home. The young daughter, Roslyn, has recovered from an attack of pneumonia.

Gray Crude Hiked 7 Cents A Barrel

HOUSTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Texas company today increased its purchase price for Texas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Arkansas crude oil five to fifteen cents a barrel, effective on all purchases since 7 a. m. The Sun and Humble previously had announced increases and other major purchasers were expected to take similar action.

The Texas company's new price schedule follows: East Texas, $1.15; Texas and Louisiana Gulf coast, except LaFitte, below 20 gravity, 92 cents, plus two-cent differential for each degree up to 34 gravity and above, $1.22; LaFitte (Bayou St. Denis) $1.12.

North Louisiana, 28 gravity and below, 84 cents, plus two-cent differential up to 40 gravity and above, $1.08. Conroe, 35 to 35.0 gravity, $1.24, plus two-cent differential to 40 gravity and above, $1.34.

HEAVY RAINS FORCING FACISTS TO WITHDRAW

By ROY PORTER Associated Press Staff Writer Ethiopia's government, informed Addis Ababa sources stated today, has received reports from its southern high command that a large scale Italian advance from the Dolo region has been repulsed after an engagement involving more than 100,000 troops.

Reported dispatches from Ras Desta Denu, Emperor Haile Selassie's son-in-law who commands the southern armies, stated that 43,000 Italians and Somalis who attempted to invade the great African Rift valley west of Dolo had been defeated by 60,000 Ethiopians.

Ethiopia officially announced that heavy rains in the mountainous Tembien region of the northern battlefield have prompted withdrawal of invading fascist troops.

The evacuation, described as "precipitous," augmented previous reports the Italians had abandoned a fortnight ago the posts they held near the capture of Makale.

An Italian communique from Marshal Pietro Badoglio, issued in Rome, said, however, that fascist artillery had broken up an Ethiopian advance on Italian positions north of Makale.

Travelers said the roads between Makale, Addis Ababa, and Debra Tabor, principal city west of the northern lines, have been washed out by the rains.

The fascists left behind one tank and one truck, the Ethiopian communique declared.

Native troops on both sides of the lines on the northern front dropped to their knees when an eclipse of the moon sent terror into their hearts last night.

They were reassured, however, when the moonlight broke again over the rugged country in prayers for the expressed thanks for delivery of the moon, "from the hands of Satan."

Sweetwater Man Dies After Crash

SWEETWATER, Jan. 9 (AP)—Alvin Gray, 46, in charge of the home owners loan corporation at Sweetwater, was fatally injured Wednesday night when his automobile crashed into the rear of a wagon on the highway four miles east of Big Spring. He died in a Big Spring hospital four hours after the accident, death resulting from a fracture of the skull.

Gray presumably was blinded by the lights of a westbound car in which Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davis of Odessa were riding. Will Collier, driver of the wagon, escaped with slight bruises, and Mrs. Davis was uninjured, although her car struck Collier's team of mules, injuring one of them.

Woman Injured In Auto Crash

Because of drivers' inability to control vehicles on slippery roads and streets, numerous accidents have been brought to the attention of city police officers. The worst accident of the slippery period was reported yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. H. Kaaner was taken to Pampa-Jarratt hospital for treatment of serious abrasions about her eyes.

The accident happened at the intersection of Ballard street and East Francis avenue when cars driven by Mrs. Kaaner and Bob Miller crashed, police said.

A local bus and a car met at the intersection of Kingsmill avenue and Somerville street this morning. The car was slightly damaged.

Police are also investigating a report that a youth riding a bicycle was injured and that a truck ran into a boy on South Cuyler street. The truck driver reported the accident, but the boy has not been found.

Japs Complain of 'Insult' to Flag TIENTSIN, Jan. 9 (AP)—The new-born north China administration, already tottering under the impact of renewed Japanese pressure, seemed headed for a crisis today with an announcement that the Japanese army would deliver a vigorous protest against alleged anti-Japanese activities.

Sweeping charges were drawn up by the Japanese military against the army of Gen. Sung Cheu-Yuan, chairman of the semi-autonomous political council for Hopeh and Chahar provinces.

POLO MEETING TONIGHT The Pampa Polo association will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Combs-Worley building, room 308. Members and others interested are urged to attend.

2 KILLED IN ACCIDENTS IN THIS SECTION

Skull Fracture Is Fatal; LeFors Man Burns to Death; Relative Dies.

B. H. Hess, 43, died almost instantly after being struck on the head by a broken casing line while at work on the Hagen No. 1 Smith well two miles south of Kellerville about 10:30 o'clock this morning. He suffered a fractured skull.

According to Pete Chilton, tool dresser at Mr. Hess, the line broke while he, Chilton, was in the engine house. When he returned to the floor he found Mr. Hess, injured and immediately called a physician from McLean and an ambulance from Pampa. Mr. Hess died a few minutes after the physician arrived.

Mr. Hess came to the Panhandle seven years ago. He had resided at McLean for nearly two years. He came from Pennsylvania.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Rebecca, his mother, Mrs. Minnie Hess, Knox, Penn., three sisters, Miss Laura Hess, Knox, Mrs. Guy Rhodes, Emelton, Penn., Mrs. Violet Hiekkok, Geneva, Fla., four brothers, John of Sligo, Penn., Kenneth of Knox, Richard of Salem, Penn., Homer of Emelton.

The body is at rest at Pampa Mortuary. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Death invaded a LeFors home twice within a few hours yesterday when Rex Brown, 27, died in a local hospital from burns received when his clothing became ignited. His sister-in-law, Mrs. James E. Brown, 25, also passed away in a local hospital from a heart ailment.

The bodies are at Pampa Mortuary. Funeral arrangements had not been completed at an early hour this afternoon.

Brown, an invalid, was in the bathroom at the time the accident happened. It is believed he attempted to light the gas and his clothing caught fire. He was badly burned about the head and body before the fire could be extinguished by guests at the hotel who heard his cries.

The accident happened about 4:30 o'clock and death came at 2 o'clock this morning.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Monson, a sister, Mrs. Bernice Black, Chandler, Okla., six brothers, Walter, Denver, Colo., Charlie, Kansas City, Clifton, James E., Max W., and Robert B. all of LeFors.

Death claimed Mrs. Brown after an illness of more than two months. Survivors are her husband, James E. Brown, and three sons, Don, Walter, Denver, Colo., and Charles, Kansas City, Clifton, James E., Max W., and Robert B. all of LeFors.

BIG MAJORITY IS PREDICTED ON TOMORROW

ALL HOUSE FACTIONS LINE UP BEHIND MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—A new cash payment bonus bill rode today on the house floor amid the acclaim of supporters who predicted passage tomorrow by a huge majority vote.

A smooth legislative path apparently lay ahead. Once-hostile house factions were in agreement behind the measure. It had the united support of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans.

While bonus advocates said they expected a flurry of amendments to be tossed at the legislation, they forecast passage with all essential details left unaltered.

The bill would declare the veterans' adjusted service certificates to be "immediately payable." To those desiring not to cash them now, however, it would offer 3 per cent interest on them until Jan. 1, 1945.

A long five hours of general debate began when Chairman O'Connor (D., N. Y.) of the rules committee called up the resolution giving the bonus a right of way.

As house debate began complete silence was wrapped about a senate conference on the question in the office of Democratic Leader Robinson.

It was attended by Robinson, Senator Harrison (D., Miss.), chairman of the finance committee that handles bonus legislation, Byrnes (D., S. C.), co-author with Senator Jackson day dinner. The event was attended by 85 persons, including representatives of nearby towns.

Ringier endorsement of the Roosevelt administration, echoed in the rounds of applause, was given here last night by Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian in the northeastern Panhandle's first Jackson day dinner.

Goal Attained In Work Relief WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Roosevelt reported to congress today that work relief employment on December 28 totaled 3,541,000 persons or more than the original 3,500,000 goal.

The exhaustive summary of activities under the $4,000,000,000 appropriation was prepared by the national emergency council. It was submitted in accordance with a provision of the work relief act requiring that a report of expenditures be made before January 10 to the three succeeding congresses.

The report said the works progress administration accounted for 2,756,000 of those employed on December 28—the remainder by other federal agencies.

It showed that beginning with employment of 573,000 on July 31, the program slowly gathered speed toward a final acceleration during November.

For the first time, it was disclosed that the 3,500,000 goal was not actually attained until December 21, with a total of 3,521,000. On November 30, when "substantial" attainment of the goal was announced coincident with liquidation of the relief administration here actually were 3,284,000 employables on payrolls.

OIL PRICE BOOSTED

DALLAS, Jan. 9 (AP)—Dudley Gillett, president of the International Pipe Line company, announced today that his company had posted an advance of 15 cents per barrel for crude oil in both the East Texas and Bruni fields, effective at 7 a. m. today. The Bruni field is in Webb county.

Amendment Is Suggested to FDR

Before last night's Jackson day dinner, many persons present signed a telegram which was sent to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It was worded as follows: "As are thousands of others in this section, we are grievously disappointed with the supreme court's decision invalidating the AAA program and are thoroughly in accord with the conclusions expressed by the three dissenting justices and in the absence of liberal interpretations of our constitution and in view of the Supreme court becoming tainted with partisan politics we will welcome the opportunity of voting for a constitutional amendment to permit such legislation as will give to the masses economic equality."

'Financial Gangsters' Will Fight FDR With 'Foul Lies' In Campaign, Says Farley

Lead Battle in House for Bonus

FRED M. VINSON Leaders in the fight for the bonus bill backed by the three veterans' organizations are Reps. Fred M. Vinson (D., Ky.) and John W. McCormack (D., Mass.), named

JOHN W. MCCORMACK. jointly to present the measure to the house. Both have been active in the move for immediate payment and the draft carries the name of the Kentuckian.

'Dirtiest Struggle' in Memory Is Foreseen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Chicago appeared to be leading Philadelphia and San Francisco for the democratic convention this afternoon as the national committee reconvenes to make a choice.

Each city was expected to bring the acceptable figure. Chairman Farley announced the convalescence would meet June 23, two weeks after the republican convention in Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Chairman James A. Farley told the democratic national committee today that the approaching campaign would be a "campaign of defamation" financed by "the largest slush fund in history" from the pockets of "those who have neither public conscience nor private scruple."

Addressing the national committee as it approached the selection of a time and place for the party convention, Farley contended that President Roosevelt had saved the country.

Following the same lines as President Roosevelt's Jackson day address last night, Farley appealed for support from republicans and independents.

"It will be a campaign of defamation of the size of our adversary, a simple effort to break down the faith of the people in a president under whose leadership the democratic administration has lifted our nation out of the depths of despair to the broad way of hope and set it on the high road to renewed prosperity," Farley said.

"Let me tell you now that our opponents will make this the bitterest and certainly the dirtiest struggle that any of us here can remember."

"I have not the slightest doubt of its outcome, but I feel it my duty to warn you that you will have to combat misrepresentations, outright lies, and every form of foul whisperings you can imagine."

"Moreover, you must realize that the assault on the Roosevelt administration will be financed by the largest slush fund on record, contributed for the most part by those who have neither public conscience nor private scruple."

"They are men who are interested only in getting back the inordinate privileges which have enabled them to exploit the people in the past and who will hit below the belt, or do anything else that they think may give them hope of regaining their pirate ascendancy."

"In the ranks of our foes you will find not only the financial gangsters whose extractions were so largely responsible for bringing on the Hoover panic but others, who for one reason or another hate Franklin D. Roosevelt, or who are accessories of the exploiters."

MORGAN LAUGHS WHILE RELATING BIG ARMS DEAL

Firm Handled British Purchases in This Nation in War

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—More evidence of close teamwork between J. P. Morgan and the British government while this country was debating whether to enter the world war was presented today to the senate munitions committee.

The financier chuckled as the story unfolded tediously.

Documents were introduced to show that David Lloyd George, then British finance minister and later premier, intervened to place the allies' vast American purchases almost exclusively in his hands.

A cablegram by an agent of W. P. Bonbright and company of New York, which sought a contract to make huge purchases in this country for France, was said the English minister of finance had induced the French to give the business to Morgan's Paris agency.

Senators followed the testimony closely, expecting ammunition for the debates expected soon to divide congress over whether a mandatory neutrality policy should be enforced upon the president.

John Gilbert Of Screen Fame Dies

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Jan. 9 (AP)—John Gilbert, 39, great lover of the screen, died today at his home here from a heart attack.

Gilbert was taken ill only a few days ago. When his condition became alarming this morning his trained nurse summoned his personal physician, Dr. Leo Madsen, and shortly afterwards the actor was dead.

Gilbert died in his mansion in the hills above Hollywood.

Death of the movie actor was disclosed this morning when the John Gilbert fire department was called to his residence in an effort to revive him with an inhalator.

Gilbert was divorced the fourth time last May, when Virginia Bruce, formerly of the Pollies, got a decree after they had been married a year and eight months. She was awarded custody of their 9-month-old baby, Susan Ann Gilbert.

Before this brief romance he had been divorced successively from Olivia Burwell, a Mississippi girl, Leatrice Joy, and Ina Claire, both well known actresses.

Four times married, and for many years one of the most romantic figures in movies, Gilbert was born in Logan, Utah, July 10, 1897. His real name was John Pringle.

His parents both were stage players. One of his first jobs in pictures was as a cowboy extra in a William S. Hart film.

The real life romances of the lambent-eyed actor have been rather brief. He was an extra in March, 1917, when he heard his first marriage ceremony, with Miss Burwell as the bride. But work was hard to get

PEEK TO PUT IDEAS BEFORE FARM PARLEY

WALLACE, HULL FEAR INFLUENCE OF FDR FOE

BY FRANK W. WELLS, Associated Press Staff Writer. (Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—The figure of George N. Peek, sworn enemy of some Roosevelt administration policies, entered the chaotic AAA picture today, leading new denials to fear another storm of disension.

Administration men received word that Peek, former Roosevelt adviser who was stripped of high powers and resigned after clashing with Secretary Hull and others, planned to communicate his ideas to a conference of 70 leaders of farm organizations.

The meeting, opening tomorrow, was called by Secretary Wallace to discuss plans for a program to succeed AAA, scrapped by the supreme court. Peek, whose views on the tariff clash with those of Hull and Wallace, has unquestioned influence with farm groups on such matters. Wallace was known to be uneasy on hearing that the man who proved a storm center as first AAA administrator and later as the president's foreign trade adviser, would put his ideas before the parley.

Peek will not be present in person; his views are expected to be communicated through an intermediary. It is believed he will insist that agricultural tariffs, instead of being lowered as in some instances in the new deal's trade treaty with Canada, should be increased, even to the exclusion of all foreign farm imports.

Other proposals he may stress are (1) that new tariff barriers be raised against certain other imports which could be supplanted by American farm by-products in domestic manufacture; (2) that farm surpluses be exported on a barter basis.

Many of the ideas he is pushing are anathema to Hull and Wallace. Another disclosure today was that Secretary Wallace held a hurried and secret conference yesterday with the house appropriations committee.

Some officials are known to fear that there will be a strong movement among legislators to grant farmers an outright subsidy, without any strings attached. The advertisement, it is generally believed, would prefer any new program to include some kind of farm management, aiming at "balanced agriculture."

It was reported, authoritatively, however, that both Wallace and Chester Davis, AAA administrator, favored continuance of cash payments to the nation's farmers in some form.

The house agriculture committee drafted five proposals for tentative study and the executive branch took two steps.

The AAA announced formally its belief that the supreme court decision did not affect marketing agreements, orders, or licenses under the agriculture adjustment act.

The justice department notified federal attorneys that processing tax injunction suits in which $150,000,000 has been impounded in lower courts should be held in status quo until the supreme court rules in the Louisiana rice case. This decision may determine whether a processor seeking to recover must prove he did not pass the taxes on to others.

NEWSPAPER ADS MOST RELIABLE, PUBLIC STATES

Young Women Make Survey in 21 States

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—A high degree of confidence that newspaper advertising is reliable, found in a wide cross-section of the American public, was reported today by Charles G. Stech in an advertising research study.

More than 5,000 persons from coast to coast were asked 15 questions about newspaper advertising by a corps of young women. The questions were put to oil field workers, professors, radio announcers, physicians, housewives, lawyers, bartenders, beauty shop operators and many other categories.

The survey covered 21 states and 122 occupations.

"To the question," Stech reports, "which do you usually consider more reliable, statements given out by men elected to public office or advertisements in your daily newspapers?" 85 per cent favor newspaper advertisements.

"Answering the question, 'which do you usually consider more reliable, claims and statements made by salesmen or advertisements in your daily newspapers?' 88 per cent declared for newspaper advertising.

"Eighty-four per cent said they get helpful ideas from newspaper advertising.

"To the question, 'are you misled in your beliefs and purchases by the advertisements in your daily newspapers?' 59 per cent said no, 11 per cent said 'rarely,' 26 per cent said 'occasionally' and four per cent answered 'frequently.' These results would indicate that the experiences of the average consumer show a substantial confidence in newspaper advertising.

"In answer to the question, 'do you feel that a concern which spends money to advertise its brand is more likely to keep its product always up to standard than a concern which does not spend money to advertise its product?' 85 per cent said yes, which indicates one reason for the popularity of advertised brands."

Permanent Wave Is Sanity Aid

KANKAKEE, Ill., Jan. 9 (AP)—The permanent wave was recognized today as an aid to woman's sanity.

During the hair of female patients at the Illinois state hospital for the insane proved so effective in helping restore their mental balance that a whole building was set aside for a beauty parlor. Supt. Robert Smith disclosed in an interview.

Patients will make appointments for beauty treatments at the new parlor just as women do in the world outside. Just as they would in normal life, they will wait their turn in a waiting room, complete with magazines and radio.

The success of the idea was explained by Dr. Smith in a sentence: "When you get a woman to look into a mirror and see that her face is prettier, she's feeling better and takes a new interest in life."

NEW VICE FOR GARNER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Vice President Garner acquired a new "wife" today. He was appointed vice chairman of the democratic national committee by Chairman Farley. He is national committeeman from Texas.

MORGAN STILL JOVIAL AFTER BITING QUIZ

JESTS WITH NEWSMEN AND LAUGHS WITH COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Still jovial after two days of grime-and-take before the senate subcommittee investigating causes of American entry into the world war, J. P. Morgan faced questioning today about the major allied loan floated in this country.

So unperturbed was he by a long afternoon of quizzing yesterday that he laughed with the committee, jested with reporters and ended with a shout at one of his aides: "Come on, let's go home."

"Home" is a 49-room suite at a Washington hotel. The Morgan group has engaged it for the two weeks in which senate questioners will try to show—in spite of company denials—that the big bankers helped entangle the United States in the mesh of war with a skin of allied contracts.

The story scheduled for telling today was the floating of a $500,000 Anglo-French loan, by a syndicate headed by Morgan and company, 18 months before American entry into the war.

Explaining his case briefly, Senator Clark (D., Mo.), who planned to question the witnesses, told reporters:

"In 1915 the allies were hard up for money. After long negotiation the bankers got a tacit, though unpublished, ruling from the state department authorizing them to make any kind of loans they wanted to. The Anglo-French loan was the first."

The big bond issue, first of the war borrowings floated among the general public, came after a change in the U. S. neutrality policy which earlier, under guidance of Secretary of State Bryan, had outlawed them.

Committee members argue this change in policy broadened the field of allied financing in America to an extent that made United States military intervention inevitable.

In yesterday's hearing, investigators produced testimony to show American rifle factories virtually were operated by the British following negotiations in which Morgan sat in with the British war council. The Morgan firm was purchasing agent and fiscal representative of the British government.

A DOUBLE SACRIFICE

FEORIA, Ill., Jan. 9 (AP)—One of Walter A. Scheraga's neighbors believes he "thou shalt not kill." His petition for naturalization was dismissed after he explained his regard for the commandment prevented his taking oath to bear arms in the defense of the United States. He said the oath would be filled with membership in a trade union which is dependent upon citizenship.

Mae West Paid $339,166.65 in '35 Pay Checks

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Pay checks in five figures and more, ranging all the way from earnings of movie stars to those of motor plant executives, were open today to eager public scrutiny.

The house ways and means committee figures, as submitted by the treasury, showed, for instance, that Mae West got almost four times as much as Edsel Ford—on the salary rolls. And Bing Crosby drew as much as the Mayo brothers together.

The figures included salaries of corporation employees receiving $15,000 or more for 1934.

Included in the 18,000 pay checks were:

Charles Chaplin, $143,000; S. S. Kresge, chairman of the board of S. S. Kresge Co., $107,000; Henry L. Doherty, $100,000, and William Randolph Hearst, $500,000.

Mae West got $339,166.65 and Constance Bennett, $176,188. Proving that directing movies is profitable, the checks of Norman Taurog, $188,750; and Wesley Ruggles, $121,416. The producing end of the movies paid Cecil B. De Mille $128,000, and B. P. Schulberg, $145,983.

Edsel Ford, president of the motor company, regarded as one of the nation's wealthiest men, received $90,036 while one of the corporation's vice presidents got $107,341.

Mae West's movie appearance gave her $16,600 in 1934.

Mickey Cochrane, manager of the world champion Detroit Tigers receives $31,366.

Scout Executive At Houston Dies In Highway Crash

HOUSTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—George Flowers, field executive for the Boy Scouts of America at Houston, was killed in a highway crash near Corrigan, 25 miles south of Lufkin, early today.

The accident was a collision between Flowers' car and a truck. The highway was covered with a heavy fog at the time.

Flowers was taken to the Angelina county hospital at Lufkin where he died at 9 a. m.

He had recently been transferred from Houston to Tyler, according to his father-in-law, C. P. Reynaud of Houston. He was returning from Tyler to Houston to complete details of moving his family.

Divorce Decree Of Doug, Mary Final Tomorrow

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Jan. 9 (AP)—Movieland speculated today on whether Mary Pickford will marry again after her divorce from Douglas Fairbanks Sr. becomes final tomorrow.

Gossin has linked her name romantically with that of Charles (Buddy) Rogers, the dark-haired Olathe, Kas. actor and orchestra leader.

Miss Pickford emphatically has refused to discuss her friendship with Rogers, who has scoffed at reports of an impending marriage while declaring "I would be proud to admit it if it were true."

But that was before Miss Pickford's freedom was absolute. Just a year ago tomorrow, she was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce ending filmland's "perfect union" after 15 years.

More recently, Rogers said there would be no marriage between him and Mary Brian, pretty actress who used to be his constant companion.

Just now, the movie colony is awaiting Fairbanks' next move, half-expecting a repetition of some of his dramatic gestures toward reconciliation in the past.

Fairbanks, who landed in New York this week, said he would fly immediately to Hollywood to begin production of a new picture but refused to discuss his heart interest, Miss Pickford, or Lady Sylvia Ashley, whom he left in England.

Stable Boy Freed On Murder Charge

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 9 (AP)—Walter Schaeffer, 26-year-old racing stable exercise boy from Chicago Heights, Ill., today stood acquitted of murder in the death of Mrs. Evelyn Shwinski, who was killed by an automobile after a wild party here last October.

A jury in criminal court found Schaeffer "not guilty" after deliberating an hour and 48 minutes last night.

Commonwealth's attorney Merit O'Neal said that dismissal of an accessory charge against Willie "Smoky" Saunders, the jockey who was Mrs. Shwinski's companion on the party, was "under consideration."

SCHOOL BAND TO PLAY AT WHITTENBURG-PAMPA CAGE TILT HERE TONIGHT

GORILLAS WILL PLAY PHILLIPS SECOND STRING

BANDS WILL PLAY AT ALL GAMES FROM NOW ON

Arion Meek who handles tickets at the "cage" for Harvester basketball games today appeared to Pampans to attend the basketball games at the gym—particularly the one tonight between Pampa and Whittensburg.

The Baker school principal and other faithful Harvester supporters cannot see why the crowds at the games are not larger. The 1936 Harvester basketball team is one of the best in history. It has won 10 straight games and lost none—none!

A winning team, it is, and that fact alone should attract the fans. It is believed, up to date, the athletic association has lost money on nearly every basketball game played.

Tonight, and from now on, an added inducement will be offered fans: The various school bands of the city will furnish music. Tonight, the Sam Houston band will play.

Next week, the Junior high band will play martial music. These bands will be followed in order by the Woodrow Wilson, Baker, Horace Mann and high school bands. The bands will play before the game, at intermissions and between halves, and the music will be timed so as not to interfere with the playing.

Also tonight, fans may see a doubleheader for the price of one game—25 cents for adults and 10 cents for students. At 7 o'clock, the Whittensburg second team will play Coach Dick Dennard's Gorillas who displayed better-than-usual ability Tuesday in holding White Deer's elongated Bucks 31 to 28.

4 Games Played In Rack Tourney

Close games marked the opening of the 14 one-rack tournament at Pampa Athletic club last night when four games were played. Tonight at 9 o'clock, Hap Baxter will meet Hales Saltzman and at 8:30 o'clock Carl Stewart will play Walter Moss.

Results of the games last night follow: Lefty Cox defeated Price Chapman, 100 to 84. Lee McConnell won from E. C. Hooker, 100 to 92. Jack Peebles beat Diz Dean, 100 to 83.

Leon Sturgeon defeated Conrod, 100 to 82. The balance of the contestants will play their first round on Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Second round for the winners will begin Saturday night. Consolation play will take place during the day or at night when time permits.

Red Sox to Pay Foxx $25,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox have settled in a simple manner one problem that threatened to be a severe headache to Owner Tom Yawkey and Business Manager Eddie Collins.

They tore up Jimmie Foxx's old contract, which still had two years to run, signed him to a new one-year document reputedly at a somewhat higher salary, and hushed the threat of a holdout that might have had a serious effect on the club.

Before the Athletics sold him to Boston, Foxx had announced he would demand a higher salary if traded. He came into the fold after a brief conference in Yawkey's office yesterday, accepting a reported figure of $25,000 instead of the $17,500 he was understood to have received from the A's.

With Foxx in line it is expected Boston will have little trouble signing up its other stars.

MORROWS IN ENGLAND SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Jan. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth W. Morrow, mother-in-law of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, arrived aboard the liner Bremen with her daughter, Constance, today and left hurriedly for London by automobile. It was believed Mrs. Morrow and her daughter will go tonight to Llandaff, Wales, where Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh and their small son are staying.

Basketball Over The Panhandle

Lubbock Beats Slaton LUBBOCK, Jan. 8.—A last half rally almost caught up with the Lubbock High Westerners last night at their own gymnasium court, but they were unable to retaliate in the final quarter to emerge victorious over Slaton High school's Tigers, 25 to 18. The triumph was Lubbock's third of the new year, against no defeats.

It was the opening game of the season for the Tigers, and they were obviously excited and frightened in the first half, scored only two points. These were by chunky Tommy Gentry, star footballer who bids fair to becoming a big help in the basketball department. Gentry went in with a minute or two to go in the first half, was fouled trying to shoot a basket and made good his free goal shots. The visitors couldn't count a single point from scrimmage.

Lubbock was ahead, 15 to 2, result of shooting by Ollie Upton (Lubbock), Oden, Bruce Chant, Murray Venable, Brummet and Ince. Oden had opened with a field goal. Venable followed with another and Oden made one of two free pitches count. Chant laid up a field goal just before the quarter ended, and Lubbock led, 7 to 0.

Lamesa Wins 48 to 9 LAMESA, Jan. 8.—Scoring heavily in each quarter, the Lamesa High school Golden Tornadoes stampeded the Post Antelopes, 48 to 9, here last night.

Coach Lester Gregg's Tornadoes jumped off to a 11-2 lead in the first quarter, made it 29 to 5 before the half was over, and were ahead 40 to 8 through three periods. Ed Lamesa, center, led the scoring with 14 points. Katal, Post forward, led his side with 7 tallies.

Sandel and Walker played forwards for Lamesa, Kidd at center, Hillborn and Boswell at guards. Gatski and Spence played forwards for Post. Hill at center, Wright and Parsons at guards.

ROAD-RUNNER SELECTED AS OFFICIAL CENTENNIAL BIRD

DALLAS, Jan. 9.—The Chapparral Cock or Road Runner, the only bird which is known to kill rattlesnakes, has been selected as official bird of the Texas Centennial exposition. Announcement of this was made by General Manager William A. Webb today.

The Texas legislature last summer debated the question of supplanting the mockingbird as the feathered representative of the Lone Star state with the sturdy road runner but no final vote was taken on the matter. The exposition adopted the idea and pictures, statuary and murals glorifying the road runner will feature the $15,000,000 show which opens here next June.

The road runner's Spanish name is the Palmano, which means "fellow countryman." Mexican residents of the Southwest regard the presence of this bird near their habitation as a harbinger of good luck.

"The road runner is the most picturesque bird known to the Texas landscape," says Manager W. A. Webb. "It is typical of the Texas pioneer, being wholly individual in habit and characteristics, valiant, swift, cheerful and comradely. He is the friend of man and the foe of man's deadly enemy, the rattlesnake. This bird is celebrated in southwestern song, story and history and it is fitting that the first great southwestern world's fair should recognize his admirable attributes."

The road runner is common throughout the southwestern states. The name comes from the bird's habit of speeding swiftly along country roads ahead of approaching vehicles. That the Chapparral Cock is the sworn foe of rattlesnakes is acknowledged by reputable ornithologists. The bird attacks and kills rattlesnakes wherever and whenever he finds them. The speed of a road runner is proverbial in the southwest and they are almost impossible to capture. Legends and folk lore have grown around this bird from the border states of Mexico to the Texas Panhandle.

Terrible Turks Will Play Here On January 18

TURKEY, Jan. 9.—Coach Al Duncan's Terrible Turks continued their merry way to a conference championship on Tuesday night when they defeated Floydada, 27 to 14. The game was fast with many fouls called because of the terrific play.

Coker, guard, tied Captain Youngs, flashy forward, for high point scoring. Meacham and Lipscom were close behind in points made. Floydada made a valiant stand but could not check the Turkey sharp-shooters.

The game was the fourth of the season for the Turks and all of them were wins for the home club. On Friday night Turkey will meet Quitaque in another conference tilt. Then will come the championship team from Crowell. The Turks will go to Pampa for a game on Jan. 18.

Harold Morgan Gets Shoulder Out of Plaster

Christmas was a happy time for Harold Morgan, quarterback on the LeFors football team last season and selected on the all-district team. The reason—he got his shoulder out of a plaster cast.

The crack little ball totter suffered a fractured shoulder in the game with McLean on the night of November 8. Since that time his shoulder had been encased in a plaster cast. The member is weak and sensitive but exercise is fast bringing out the kinks, Coach Bill Bronson reports.

Morgan, also a letterman in basketball last season, will soon be ready to work out with the Pirates. Miss Hazel Ligon left this afternoon for St. Louis and New York to do spring buying for the women's department of Murfee's store.

CHICAGO CUB CHAMPIONS TO GET PAY HIKE

EVERY PLAYER WILL POCKET HIGHER SALARY

CHICAGO, Jan. 9 (AP)—The big Wrigley bank roll, once the pride and joy of the winter ivory markets, caused a great celebration at Mt. Ida, Ark., and all other winter headquarters of the Chicago Cub champions today.

Instead of being used to buy a player at five or six figures, the famous bank roll was being peddled to give every one of 23 Cubs a pay boost for 1936.

Elated over the proof of his baseball theory that rewards to hustling players are more important to a team's success than the purchase of a star, owner Phil K. Wrigley announced last night that all his players would receive a raise in salary next season. Except to say that no player would be disappointed, he refused to discuss the range of wage increases.

Wrigley's action probably marks the first time in major league baseball history that a whole club from manager down to the lowest paid regular received a pay boost at one time. Colonel Jake Ruppert of the Yankees and the late Frank J. Navin of Detroit have been liberal but neither went as far as Wrigley has gone.

When young Wrigley took control of the Cubs after his father's death, he warned his assistants he was against spending big money for ball players like his father had done. "Get young players, develop them, reward them liberally as they improve," he said. "Such a system will do far more good and bring far greater success than to go out on the market with $100,000 and buy an established star."

He weakened in the fall of 1933, buying outfielder Chuck Klein from the Phillies for approximately $75,000, but he did so probably in emergency to the memory of his father, who sought Klein's services for years. As it developed, Klein has been of little use to the Cubs, who offered him back to the Phils last December for pitcher Curt Davis and were turned down because the Phils wanted cash to boot.

PROFESSOR RESIGNS OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 9 (AP)—Dr. Leon F. Sensabaugh, head of the Oklahoma City university history department, announced today he had resigned effective Jan. 21 to return to the faculty of Birmingham Southern university, Birmingham, Ala., which he left six years ago to come here.

A. L. Porter of Phillips camp is undergoing medical treatment at Pampa-Jerratt hospital.

SATISFACTORY TENNIS YEAR IS FORESEEN

SUCCESS IN DAVIS CUP MATCHES LIKELY THIS SUMMER

By WALTER MERRILL HALL (President, U. S. Lawn Tennis Association)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—I believe we can look ahead to the tennis season of 1936 with assurance of a most satisfactory year.

There has been ample evidence of the continued growth of public interest in the game, not only from the standpoint of attendance at our tournaments and championships but what is more important the constant increase in the amount of play at our clubs, public parks and private courts.

This increased public interest will add to the attraction of the 1936 season which already can be seen to have elements of new flavor, at least by comparison with recent years.

Our American zone of the Davis cup competition will in 1936 receive renewed stimulus and zest from the Australian challenge in this zone which insures a high quality of competitive sport right from the start of our campaign.

It also seems most probable that this year's women's tennis will be enlivened by a return to competition in American tournaments of our former champion and present British champion, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, and that our present champion, Miss Helen Jacobs.

While our men's Davis cup team faltered last year in the challenge round against England and was beaten, it should not be overlooked that they won the inter-zone final against Germany, winner of the European zone, and that there are significant elements of encouragement in the result of our American championship later in the season when for the first time in three years, an American player won our singles championship.

Our association is bending every effort to promote the further development of high grade play among the large number of very promising younger American players, and we have no fears for the future of our representative teams.

I feel that the game has benefited in 1935 from the enactment of the eight weeks rule, which under temperate administration and with younger American players, from the players has raised amateur standards while not checking the development of tournament play and which in 1936 should continue to be a constructive influence.

The experiment of combining our men's and women's national singles championship tournaments into one

Longhorns Loom As Strong Threat In Defeating Owls

KNOX SPENT MOST OF TIME AT COLLEGE TRAINING TABLE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—A four-sports college star, Colonel Frank Knox gets a thrill out of a tight golf match and likes to hunt bears, too.

The tall, husky publisher of the Chicago Daily News, mentioned as a possible republican presidential candidate, has fished and hunted in the wilds of Canada, bagged wild turkeys in Arizona and shot bear from horseback in Colorado.

Reminiscing over his college sports activities, the Colonel said, "It seems as though I spent the whole school year at a training table. After football came basketball and track."

He was a fast and durable half-back for Alma college in Michigan, played second base in baseball, forward in basketball and ran a pretty smart furline in track.

Leaning back in a swivel chair, feet propped on his desk and a battered old pipe hanging in his event last year proved a definite success, judging from the practically unanimous approval of both the players and public, and will be continued in 1936.

It also seems most probable that this year's women's tennis will be enlivened by a return to competition in American tournaments of our former champion and present British champion, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, and that our present champion, Miss Helen Jacobs.

While our men's Davis cup team faltered last year in the challenge round against England and was beaten, it should not be overlooked that they won the inter-zone final against Germany, winner of the European zone, and that there are significant elements of encouragement in the result of our American championship later in the season when for the first time in three years, an American player won our singles championship.

Rice, Conquerors of Baylor, Lose 41 to 32

(By The Associated Press)

The University of Texas Longhorns, easy victors over the Rice Owls, loomed today as a dangerous threat in the Southwest conference basketball championship.

Able to nose out the Baylor Bears, 35 to 33, in their opening conference contest a day previous, the Owls fell 41 to 32, at the hands of the tall and nimble Longhorns at Austin last night.

At one time in the first half, the Longhorns led the Owls, 18 to 4. Although the Rice quintet staged a scoring spree to make the count 30 to 13 at the half, Texas outpointed the invaders all the way through.

Capt. Jack Taylor, Texas forward, was high scorer with 15 points, two less than Collins. Seale, Rice forward, led the Owl scoring with five field goals and a free toss.

The Arkansas Razorbacks and the Texas Aggies will enter the race Friday night in a game at College Station. The quintets will meet again Saturday night. Southern Methodist and Texas Christian will play at Fort Worth at the same time, and Texas and Baylor will mix at Waco.

MR. HOOVER SHOULD GET THE FACTS

In his speech at St. Louis—third of the epochal series—ex-President Hoover zealously supported all of the indictments of the Roosevelt administration handed down to date by the National Association of Manufacturers, the American Liberty League and other Old Guard adjuncts. In none did he inject so much of his newly developed personality as in his attempt at a severe exhortation of what he termed "local relief shifted to a federal bureaucracy thru the exercise of dictation from Washington."

Mr. Hoover should know, and if so he should not disregard the fact that the FERA was never a centralized relief bureaucracy; its only function was to distribute to the states a monthly federal contribution toward the cost of relief. Of course, this was many months after it had been clearly established that the states and local subdivisions of government were no longer able to carry the entire load and only the federal government was in a position to utilize the enormous credit necessary. Under the terms of the FERA, state and local administrators had complete autonomy in spending the money, with a few mutually agreed upon federally prescribed safeguards to make sure that standards of honesty and efficiency were maintained. In only six states Administrator Hopkins was obliged to exercise the authority provided in the Relief Act of 1933 and named federal appointees, for reasons well remembered by the public.

The federal government supplied the essential remainder after states, cities and counties had contributed toward relief to the extent of their ability. Thus the states, cities and counties obtained from the Roosevelt administration what they had petitioned Mr. Hoover for in vain. And now as the respective revenues of the states, cities and counties are picking up again, mothers with dependent children, the blind, the aged and the crippled that compromise the unemployables, that so grate on the nerves of the Liberty League, the G. O. P., aid societies and Mr. Hoover, are being returned to the care of the states and localities, as in normal, non-Hoover times.

Mr. Hoover remains and unquestionably will continue to be the logical Republican to discuss "relief," even what he characterized as "relief" under his own administration. But his astonishing unfamiliarity with this topic which has engrossed the attention of Americans for several years was displayed in his assertion that under the Hoover administration "we provided federal government funds to be distributed to the state governments and by them distributed to the local governments."

The only relief statute enacted prior to the Roosevelt administration was that of 1932 which allocated the pitifully inadequate sum of $300,000,000 and for loans, not grants at high interest rates. It was called the "Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932," and as the name implies was for both relief and public works. This appropriation, which Mr. Hoover at the time solemnly said "went too far," proved to be about one-thirtieth of the sum for relief of which the nation was in dire need. Thus under Mr. Hoover's "relief" system many cities then anxious to borrow for their relief needs were forced to float bond issues at the highest known rates of interest and hand their securities over to the RFC, which under Mr. Hoover operated exclusively for large corporations, before they could obtain a penny. And the situation was so acute that many already heavily bonded cities and counties and states could not even take advantage of federal loans under those burdensome conditions.

Again, switching momentarily from his bitter criticism of relief under the Roosevelt administration to added encomiums of his own personal relief leadership, Mr. Hoover uttered this amazing statement at St. Louis: "There was no important failure to provide for those in real need." Human memory is indeed short but the sickening scenes enacted all over America before the federal government established relief administration have not been entirely forgotten. So it depends upon whether Mr. Hoover would call a complete failure an "important" failure and how he would classify "real" need as applied to a human being instead of a railroad or holding company.—The Young Democrat.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Sen. Bob Wagner of New York, aided by Congressman Henry Ellenbogen in the House, will make real noise at the coming session of Congress for a large scale federal housing subsidy program aimed at providing "decent minimum standards" of shelter for low income groups at low rentals.

On the other hand, there will be some effort to take the government out of the housing construction field entirely and reduce still further the $100,000,000 which Secretary Ickes finally received from the four billion dollar work relief fund for his PWA Housing Division. The PWA Housing Division was established in July, 1933, and assigned $125,000,000 for slum clearance and low-cost housing. To ameliorate a myriad of procedural difficulties, a federal housing corporation was created in November with an allotment of $100,000,000.

The attorney general approved the corporation, but Comptroller General McCarl held it couldn't spend any money and the funds were impounded until the Housing Division got them back in June, 1934.

Meanwhile, the division studied hundreds of applications for long term, low interest loans to limited dividend corporations.

Few of these projects could meet requirements for low rent, good planning, and slum clearance and many were being pushed by shady promoters. In the end only seven such projects were approved and completed.

Then there was thorough reorganization of the division and a new policy was adopted—development of large urban projects sponsored by local or semi-public bodies, built and financed by the federal government.

The division was proceeding with plans and commitments totaling $144,000,000—allocated for projects by the Public Work Board—when late in December, 1934, President Roosevelt suddenly took away $11,000,000 from it to finance direct relief.

Last April Congress passed the big work-relief act, and earmarked $450,000,000 for urban housing, with permission for the president to add to that sum.

But meanwhile the Federal District Court at Louisville had ruled the government couldn't acquire housing sites by exercising power of eminent domain and in July, just as PWA had finally been allotted money from that $450,000,000 for housing, the circuit court of appeals sustained the decision.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Jan. 9. (P)—Trips of Gov. Allred and Lieut-Gov. Walter F. Woodul to California for New Year's day football games occasioned much joking among friends who stayed at home.

At the "inaugural" dinner for Acting Gov. Willbourne B. Collier, president pro tempore of the senate, a fake telegram to Gov. Allred was read.

"Gov. Collier convenes legislature January 2," the telegram said. "Will submit sales-tax only."

If there is one thing to which the governor is opposed especially it is a sales tax.

Senator Roy Sanderford of Belton, office room-mate of Collier in the capitol, was toastmaster. More than 100 guests, including eight or ten senators, members of the supreme court and various department heads, attended.

There was a laugh when Senator Gray Woodruff of Decatur in a telegram inveighed against "extradition proceedings for either Allred or Woodul."

And another one when Edward Clark, Allred's secretary described Mussolini as an unwelcome kisser and expressed the opinion that if he "keeps foolin' around in Ethiopia he probably will get crowned."

Former Gov. James E. Ferguson described an occasion when he met William Howard Taft on a Texas & Pacific train west of Fort Worth.

"I ran into Mr. Taft, who was out on a lecture tour, and sat down for a little conversation," Ferguson said.

"The conductor came through taking up tickets and exclaimed: 'What kind of a train and I running anyhow? Here is an ex-governor and an ex-president."

"The news butch was listening over the conductor's shoulder and couldn't restrain himself.

"Well, boss, you've got another ex, too," he said. "I'm an ex-convict myself."

Former State Senator George Purl of Dallas, the next speaker, for years has been a political opponent of Mr. Ferguson.

"I've been after Gov. Ferguson a long time," he said, "so this place on the program isn't unnatural."

MERTEN CLUB FILLS OFFICE OF PRESIDENT

H. D. CHAIRMEN AND DEMONSTRATORS NAMED

Mrs. Fred C. Fischer was elected president of Merten Home Demonstration club yesterday at a meeting in the home of Mrs. J. C. Brownling. She will replace Mrs. W. R. Taylor, who resigned to accept the office of treasurer of the county club council.

Mrs. O. C. Bridges was re-appointed food supply demonstrator for the year, Mrs. Pete Kelley as program chairman and Mrs. O. C. Bridges as recreation chairman. Mrs. Browning will be exhibit chairman, Mrs. Frank Bailey expansion chairman, Mrs. Alva Phillips membership chairman, and Mrs. Bridges finance chairman. Other officers elected in November will fill the places to which they were chosen.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon with Mrs. Fischer on Jan. 23. Members are requested to bring a live chicken each, to be killed and canned.

Mrs. Otis Brinkman was appointed bedroom demonstrator for Kingsmill Home Demonstration club, when it met Tuesday with Mrs. C. F. Bastion. Because bad weather prevented a large attendance, much of the scheduled business was delayed.

Parts were assigned for a one-act play, "Station WXYZ," which will be presented at the meeting on Feb. 18. Mrs. Chris Baer will be the next hostess, on Jan. 28, for a demonstration of chicken canning. Those attending the meeting were Mmes. E. R. Sunkel, Chris Baer, C. T. Nicholson, Ora Wagner, Earl C. Casey, C. M. Blymiller, Carl Baer, Brinkman, O. G. Smith, and the hostess.

Worth of Gospel Is Subject for Revival Sermon

"If the gospel has done nothing more than to place this great group of young people here, it has done wonders," declared evangelist George Davis last night in his sermon at First Christian church. "If it has done nothing more than to lift Billy Sunday from the gutter and make him a flaming evangelist for Christ, it was worth while."

"When you ask some people to become Christians they will tell you that the church is full of hypocrites. They are wrong. There are some hypocrites in the church, but you must remember that religion is a personal matter. A hypocrite is one who does not measure up to what he pretends.

"One reason why the church has not prospered is selfishness. I know people who, on Sunday, drive up in a large costly car and who don't pay their preacher a living wage and who worship in a little old shack.

"We talk about Christian unity as though it were easy. It is difficult. It is difficult to keep a home unified. Divorce has become a racket in our nation. People take their marriage vows too lightly. It is hard to keep one church unified, but I believe the time will come when we do have Christian unity. I believe it will come because Christ prayed for it. I don't believe He would have prayed for anything that He knew was impossible. He prayed for His church to be one, and because He did, I believe it will come."

Tonight at 7:30 the chart sermon will be "Six Kingdoms of the Bible."

JUNIOR HIGH PLANS CAMPAIGN TO ASSURE ATTENDANCE OF ALL PUPILS AND PARENTS AT DRAMA

Boys' Memory Good, Play Rehearsal Indicates

Members of the Junior High school Parent-Teacher association are completing arrangements to conduct a ticket-selling campaign for "Pingers," four-act play which will be presented as a pay chapel in the city auditorium next Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock.

Practically the entire enrollment of Junior high will be in attendance when the second performance of the play is given in the city. The drama was presented the first time on Dec. 18 in the city auditorium for the benefit of the American Legion post here. Members of the P-TA and Principal R. A. Selby of Junior high requested that the play be given at a chapel program. A drive to sell every Junior high student a ticket will be conducted within the school. The P-TA will urge every member and every parent of Junior high students to see the popular attraction.

Admission will be ten cents for both adults and students. Proceeds will be applied to the band uniform fund.

Yesterday members of the cast which includes 18 boys, all members of a local Sunday school class, rehearsed the play for the first time since it was given three weeks ago. That boys remember well and for a long time what they have learned, was demonstrated in the fact that only three times was prompting necessary, said the director, Mrs. Florence Caskey. All the boys are students in Junior high, and their ages are 13 and 14. Three adults are included in the cast.

The play deals with the amusing and pathetic experiences of a boy's club.

Men Serve 200 At a Methodist Church Supper

More than 200 members of First Methodist church were present last evening for a dinner at which men were hosts to the adult department.

The men prepared and served a supper of chili, pie, and coffee. They also arranged the program over which Travis Lively presided as toastmaster.

A quartet formed by R. B. Fisher, Harry Kelley, A. L. Patrick, and W. C. Burr sang old favorites and new songs during the dinner. Mrs. Mel Davis was their accompanist. Roy Bourland spoke briefly, expressing the church's welcome to Mrs. W. C. House, wife of the minister, who arrived in Pampa last night. Dr. House made a short talk on fellowship.

After the tables were cleared, games were enjoyed with John Hesse in charge. Everyone present joined in carrying out the informal spirit of the evening.

Surprise Party Is Given on Wednesday

A group of friends went to the home of Mrs. Cecil Laneford, 118 W. Albert, yesterday afternoon for a surprise party and shower at which Mrs. Laneford was the guest of honor.

Games were enjoyed with the guests for an hour, then the dainty gifts were inspected, and a dessert course in pink and white was served.

Those attending were Mmes. Dewey Hilliard, R. E. Douglas, L. E. Symmonds, C. E. Simmons, L. T. Anderson, P. C. Cooksey, G. L. Kurtz, Jack Ross, M. D. Dwight, Luther Holmes, the honoree and hostesses.

OIL NEWS AND NOTES Panhandle and Other Fields.

TOTAL PRODUCTION VALUATION IN PANHANDLE SECTION IN 1935 REACHED $55,720,567

AMARILLO, Jan. 9. (AP)—With a total production valuation of $55,720,567 in 1935, the Panhandle oil and gas field enjoyed one of the best years in its history.

An annual payroll for the field's 14,400 employees was shown, making a total of $72,520,569. Indicating that all of the payroll and most of the royalties were retained in the Panhandle, the area's return to normalcy after four drought and depression years was attributed to the oil and gas industry.

Next in line from the dollar value standpoint was the production of natural gasoline. Forty-nine stripping plants produced 305,054,494 gallons for valuation of $10,711,980. The carbon black industry enjoyed a banner year, turning out 125,546 tons of black with a total value of $10,551,680.

Six refineries manufactured 253,470,000 gallons of refined gasoline, having a valuation of $7,401,150. Refinery by-products amounted to 7,600,800 gallons of kerosene and 63,367,777 gallons of road and fuel oil worth $1,267,355.

Natural gas sold through nine major pipe lines averaged 450,000,000 cubic feet daily for a total valuation of $6,570,000. Of the 674 locations announced, 627 wells were completed, 670 for oil and 57 for gas. The other 47 were either dry or were abandoned before drilling was completed.

The development in the western part of the field extended to the north and to the west, with considerable activity in Moore county. The southern part of the Panhandle saw one deep test, the Alma Oil company's Mollie Low near Childress, and another, the Phillips Petroleum company's test in Hall county, which was abandoned after a showing of oil at 5,600 feet. Drilling is to be continued at the Hall county test, where slight showings of both oil and gas have been reported.

Even greater activity in the field in 1936 was predicted with new deep tests and increased exploration for additional oil pools. It pointed out that nothing would be necessary to protect many proven and semi-proven leases this year.

U. S. QUESTIONS PANHANDLE GAS FIELD CONTROL Thompson Says State Doesn't Need Any Outside Help

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (AP)—Chairman E. O. Thompson of the Texas railroad commission met a federal oil commission here today to discuss the proposed federal control of the vast Texas Panhandle gas field today with a promise the state could meet wasteful conditions "without outside help."

Replying to statements in the commission's report to congress that "extension of federal powers" might be necessary, Thompson said: "We're doing the best we can and I know that we will be able to write a valid regulatory order under present legislation; if not, we will get new legislation in short order."

He was referring directly to more than 20 injunction suits in Texas courts attacking the latest attempt of the railroad commission to prevent waste production which the federal report said amounted to 50 per cent of the field's total production of 43,244,000,000 cubic feet through Jan. 30, 1934.

Thompson bitterly attacked what he termed as "glaring discrepancies" in the commission's conclusion that drilling was completed. The new oil wells had a total potential of 349,656 barrels daily, and the new gas wells had a total open flow of 1,569,709,000 cubic feet daily. Completions in 1934 totaled 471.

At the close of the year the field had a daily potential, according to railroad commission figures, of 587,376 barrels daily. Drilling was under way on 178 wells in 11 counties. The year saw a cessation and later a resumption of the "popping" into the air of more than a billion cubic feet of natural gas daily. House bill No. 266, ordering a shut-down of stripping plants and a suitable production to bring about a more equitable distribution of the gas market, succeeded in halting the wastage only temporarily. Pipe lines first and stripping plants next obtained injunctions against enforcement of the law, and the "popping" was resumed.

TRIO HELD IN TOURIST CASE ARE QUIZZED

LETTER CAUSES THREE TO BE ARRESTED IN FRISCO SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9. (AP)—Police today delved into the past lives of three men held for investigation in connection with the disappearance of four motorists in New Mexico last summer.

The men, arrested on an anonymous letter "tip" that their names as Lawrence and Clarence Chanter of Los Angeles, and Dewey Goods of Dallas, Tex.

They denied knowledge of the fate of Mr. and Mrs. George Lorus of East St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herbert of Duquoin, Ill., charred remains of whose clothing was found on the east mesa five miles from Albuquerque some time after the disappearance.

Police Captain George Healy said the three men's handwriting would be compared with that on travelers' checks passed in Texas under Lorus' name. He said it was believed the signature on the checks had been forged.

The letter which disclosed the men's whereabouts was post-marked at Los Angeles. Captain Healy said the writer claimed to have overheard a conversation in which the three men discussed the desert mystery.

Captain Healy said Clarence Chanter told him he believed the letter was the result of "a mother's desire for revenge." He expressed belief the letter was written by a woman who blames one of the trio for her daughter's death.

Man Is in Tenth Year of Semi-Coma SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 9. (AP)—Victim of a disease that has puzzled doctors who have examined him, William H. Lord, 64, is now in the tenth year of a semi-coma from which he has aroused but twice.

Ministered to devotedly by his wife, Lord obeys certain requests but betrays otherwise no signs of realizing what is going on around him. Lord takes food and drink with regularly, obeying his wife, and likewise smokes his pipe on instruction. He is able to arise from his bed daily, but requires help in dressing.

Lord, so far as is known, has never been examined by a specialist. His wife believes his malady is incurable. Lord was taken ill in October, 1926. Five years ago he regained consciousness and in many ways became normal.

FDR TELLS DEMOCRATS 'THE FIGHT GOES ON' AGAINST 'GREED'

AAA DECISION IS MENTIONED BY PRESIDENT

SAYS 1936 ISSUE WILL BE GOVERNMENT BY PEOPLE

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—Democratic party leaders gathered today to select their convention city after hearing President Roosevelt declare that "the fight goes on" against "the forces of privilege and greed."

The chief executive opened his formal campaign at the Jackson day dinner last night with these words. But he tempered them with a conciliatory note toward business men, asserting most of them sought "no special advantage."

In an implied plea for support of persons of all "political affiliations," he said the 1936 issue will be "the retention of popular government."

He made only brief mention of AAA's death, offering no substitute pending further study. The majority and minority opinions of the supreme court, he said, will "affect the lives of Americans for years to come."

Battle For Convention.
A battle royal between three or four cities for the convention seemed in prospect, as the national committee assembled. Bids were expected from Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, and possibly Atlantic City.

There were reports that Chairman James A. Farley favored Chicago and that the trend was toward that city.

The only important business on the committee's program was the selection of the time and place for the convention. Party officials forecast a quiet session, despite the presence of Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia, critic of the new deal.

Talmadge did not attend the $50-a-plate dinner at which the President spoke last night before 2,000 democrats including the cabinet, senators, representatives, and committee members.

There were other conspicuous absences, including two former democratic presidential nominees who have figured prominently in former Jackson day dinners—Alfred E. Smith and John W. Davis.

But sitting at the speaker's table not far from the president were Senators Glass and Byrd of Virginia, who have frequently criticized new deal policies, and scattered through the crowd were such other sometime critics as Senators Gore

(D. Okla.) and Bailey (D. N. C.). Committee members hoped today to receive word that this and 2,000 other such dinners from coast to coast and even beyond had wiped out the party deficit of about $400,000 and cleared the way for raising a powerful campaign fund.

The dinner at which the president spoke was a $100,000 affair alone, out of which the committee expected to realize more than $80,000. Mrs. Roosevelt spoke at another assembly of the same kind here, but at this the charge was $10 instead of $50.

The 2,000 democrats frequently cheered and shouted as the president compared the issues of today with those that faced Jackson and concluded with the words:

"The people of America know the heart and know the purpose of their government."

"They and we will not retreat."

Mentions AAA.
Several times, as he compared today with Jackson's time, the chief executive said that "history repeats."

The first time he laughed with the crowd. The most vigorous applause came when he mentioned the AAA decision and said "the attainment of justice and continuance of prosperity for American agriculture remains an immediate and constant objective of my administration."

"The knot which will not be surprised," he had said, "by lack of comment on my part tonight on the recent decision by the supreme court. I cannot and will not render offhand judgment without studying, with the utmost care, two of the most momentous opinions—the majority opinion and the minority opinion—ever rendered in a case before the supreme court of the United States."

"The ultimate results of the language of these opinions will profoundly affect the lives of Americans for many years to come."

Frequently through his address, the president sought to appeal for support from all parties.

He urged those hearing him to organize—not only a party organization but an organization among all those, regardless of party, who believed in retaining progress and ideals."

Comparing these times with Jackson's, the president declared the real issue "is the right of the average man and woman to lead a finer, a better, and a happier life."

BREAKING IN 1936
CONWAY, S. C., Jan. 9. (AP)—Henry Sawyer and his wife hope 1936 will not be a "leap and fall" year. He saw the year out by breaking his toe against a bed when he tried to catch the cat. Mrs. Sawyer slipped on the ice and broke her leg about the same time.

ROSY RESERVE
RESERVE, Kas., Jan. 9. (AP)—Rose-tinted snow covered Reserve today, leading to speculation that a Kansas blizzard got mixed up with an Oklahoma dust storm somewhere.

NEVER MIND THE LADY

by David Garth

Chapter 14
THE LASH

The little window was seven feet above the floor and had two thick iron bars. A guinea pig would have had to pull in its stomach—

"Not a thing you can do, Bucky," Willett said. "They've turned you loose, but if you keep hanging around they might think better of it."

"Listen," interrupted Corrigan, "this talk is costing me money. What the hell is the matter with you? Come to Terry, you've got a job to do."

"Did you find out what I asked you?"

"Yeah," said Corrigan. "The Americans have checked out on the Vera Cruz packet. It's grunted. 'I hope you know what you're doing.'"

It was raining outside, but the sickly grey light that came through the little window was enough to trace the grim line of unshaven jaw.

"Soft," muttered Willett. "Soft as dough."

"That guy at the Embassy could have gotten you out of this lousy hole."

"I told you once," Willett said patiently, "the police would have tailed anybody I contacted and I didn't want the Embassy mixed up in this. The police would have tailed you to except that they'd get sick hanging around the Redmonte Bar."

"Well, all right," Corrigan agreed. "Now what?"

Willett sat down on his cot and twisted his hands together.

"They've given me a choice of three months or twenty lashes," he said flatly. "Hildex is going to pull through, so they've decided to wash me up on a contempt-of-court charge."

"Three months!" gasped Corrigan.

"No," Terry Willett said quietly. "Twenty lashes."

Bucky stared at him, flabbergasted.

"You're a damned fool."

"Maybe, but I can't stay here for three months. I'd take two thousand belts first."

"But you're crazy!" roared Corrigan. "Lashes—that penalty is only for plugs and lice and phionies, for drunks and cashiered soldiers—they can't do that! They've got no regular law like that any more!"

"No? Well, they dug up an old law for this American. That's the choice they gave me when I tried to get a suspended sentence." He smiled ironically. "I just naturally surprised hell out of those Spigs when I called their bluff."

"His iron control suddenly snapped. He sprang from his cot and seized the bars of his cell door."

"I have to take them, Bucky," he breathed, "because I've got to get out of here. And you have to help me. That banana tramp—" it around his wrist. Something cracked about his back with a stinging snap, brought beads of sweat out on his forehead, sent a million stabbing devils racing up his spine. His cheek twitched, his lips were bloodless. But otherwise his face remained unchanged.

One hard—or was that the easy one? No, the next one was easier. It was delivered with a half stroke from the elbow, but the wiry little man had a wrist of steel. And then the second hard one that snapped and seared and flicked around his ribs.

"Plugs and lice and phionies." A white man who had stayed behind to "cover." A man who had pitied—who was it? Speedie! He'd pitied Speedie, the kanasoked, bewildered kid in Propionol! Pitied?—he had almost scorned him.

Willett bent his head down between his arms. His forehead touched the cold wall. Again now he remembered how his father had looked that day when he'd started on his race against sickness and desperation.

The officer counted on in a methodical, official tone, and the little grey-haired man transferred the whip to his left hand. There was no expression anywhere in that room of stone with the rain rustling outside the wall.

The small part of a beautiful young Irish mother's soul that had crept into him as he stood on the deck of the "Parajabo" fled as the lash fell across his shoulders—hard, easy, hard, easy, one-two, swing your partners, one-two, one-two, a rhythm that pounded in his temple.

"Fire! Must! Swing of power—there was no room for softness in Terry Willett's word. Lay it on. He and his father had bridges to build, rivers to cross, new worlds to conquer—what was that girl to him?"

She was something that had made him feel he was missing something in life, that's what she was.

And if he never saw two heavy wings of honey-colored hair in the reflection of the moon on the Palva, or sensed the fresh young grace of a girl whispered in the breeze through the palms, there would be scars on

TIMMONS SAYS HOOVER LIKELY TO BE IN RACE

THOUSANDS OF DEMOS PRAISE FDR IN BANQUETS

(By The Associated Press.)

Thousands of Texas democrats, who enriched the party fund by buying tickets to Jackson day dinners held in all sections of the state as part of a national rally last night, pledged support to the party and its principles.

In most cases the large crowds pledged to support President Roosevelt, who, at the same time, was firing the opening gun of the 1936 campaign in an address at Washington. Many telegrams of reassuring loyalty were dispatched to the president.

Large crowds gathered at Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, Austin and other places for the dinners.

Bascom N. Timmons, Washington newspaper correspondent, told 1,000 persons at Dallas that Herbert Hoover was a like a republican candidate. Timmons, picturing the coming campaign as a bitter one, said the former president "believed he could win."

Five hundred Houston democrats heard M. E. Foster, Houston editor, answer criticism of the Roosevelt recovery program by asserting that critics were among the foremost purchasers of government bonds.

Mrs. Rutledge Smith of Nashville, Ten., descendant of Andrew Jackson's wife, traced the political and military career of Old Hickory.

Around 1,000 at the Fort Worth dinner cheered speeches predicting

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of aching backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get clogged with more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist.

Marvin Lewis And Employees Given Banquet

Marvin Lewis, local Pentecost dealer, and employees were congratulated last night at a banquet in their honor at the Schneider hotel, on two things: 1. Winning a sales quota contest in this territory; and 2. Living in a city of such brisk activity and stability that such a feat was possible.

It was not the first contest won by the agency, which in many months has sold more cars than any other Pentecost agency in this territory, including Amarillo.

Those present included: Lee Branham, OMAC representative, Pampa; L. S. Mason, OMAC branch manager, Amarillo; Don Whitfield, Pontiac assistant zone manager, Oklahoma City; W. P. Covington, Pontiac district representative, Amarillo; R. Earl O'Keefe, Southwestern Investment company, and W. A. Meyers, of the same company, Pampa; Gilmore N. ### Hughes Explains Pension Provision

The old age pension provision of the Social Security act was explained in a detailed discussion by Dick Hughes in a program before the Rotary club yesterday. He told of the background of the act and the responsibilities of employer and employee.

The act became effective January 1, 1936, and is to be carried indefinitely in the future. There are possibilities of changes in some minor parts and of tests before the Supreme Court. The discussion was in response to questions asked by Farris Oden, program chairman.

Visitors were Bob McCoy, J. O. Gillham, Frank Dial, Milton Elbert of Dallas and Rotarian F. A. Zimpher of Amarillo.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New crop months broke through the 10-cent level during the morning to hit new lows for the life of the contracts and to establish new bottom prices for cotton in many months.

Losses ranged from 15 to 22 points on the decline. January was an extension of the decline in other positions, holding around 5 points higher at 11.43, as traders bought in the spot month and sold distant positions.

Just before noon March sold at 10.96, May at 10.62, July at 10.39, Oct. at 9.93 and Dec. at 9.90.

Hay Fever Keeps Governor Allred In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Jan. 9. (AP)—Gov. James V. Allred's hay-fever kept him in Fort Worth today.

He spoke last night at a Jackson day dinner in Nashville and flew here.

He had planned to leave at once for Austin but awoke with a severe attack of hay fever. Rather than proceed to Austin, where cedar trees make hay-fever sufferers particularly acute, the governor stopped here to see a doctor.

He was to go on to Austin this afternoon.

Between sneezes, Governor Allred found time to comment on politics, President Roosevelt's Jackson day address and his own determination to end the time gambling in Texas.

"That was a great speech," he said of the president's message.

"Most of us in the south believe in operating this country under the letter and the spirit of the constitution," he said. "But we do appreciate the fellow cry of those wolves who parade in sheep's clothing, talking about the constitution and constitutional rights and ideals, which heretofore has never bothered them."

Allred said he had not yet decided whether to call a special session of the legislature to act on the old age pension.

Hewitt Girl Is 'Feeble-Minded,' Says Specialist

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9. (AP)—Authorities investigating the sterilization of Ann Cooper Hewitt, 21-year-old heiress, which is the basis of a $500,000 damage suit against her mother and three doctors, studied conflicting reports of the girl's mentality today.

Mrs. Marcy C. Scully, San Francisco psychiatrist, one of the defendants, stated before the operation in 1934 the girl was "feeble-minded."

Dr. Lawrence A. Collins, senior resident physician at the New Jersey state hospital for the insane, testified he had found the girl "perfectly normal in all respects" when he examined her last November in Hackensack.

Mrs. Hewitt charged her mother, Mrs. Marjory Hewitt McCarter, plotted the operation so the never-fading children to inherit the fortune of a huge trust fund established by her father, Peter Cooper Hewitt.

Assistant District Attorney August L. Courtney and Police Inspector George Engler of the police homicide bureau questioned persons in the case to obtain evidence for possible presentation to the grand jury.

They said the nurses who attended the operation, Miss Anne Lindsay and Miss Grace Wilkins, told them Mrs. McCarter had "shamefully mistreated and browbeaten" her daughter.

Pneumonia Fatal To Mrs. Sheppard

Mrs. D. B. Sheppard, 39, died of pneumonia in a local hospital at 3 o'clock this morning, following a brief illness. She had been a resident of Pampa for nine years.

Surviving are her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reed, Iowa Park, and Joe Reed, Vernon, four sisters, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Hallinger, Mrs. E. C. Hazard, Mrs. H. A. Peebles and Mrs. Bruce Head, all of Pampa.

Funeral services were to be conducted this afternoon in the First Baptist church, with the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, officiating. Burial was to follow in Fairview cemetery in charge of G. C. Malone Funeral home.

Palbearers named were T. F. Martin, Ed Thom, Bill Darty, Neal Gaut, Frank Dial and L. R. Forker.

GRAY CRUDE

companies would meet the new price, in some instances as high as $1.34 a barrel, and Oklahoma sources said many producers expected the increase to spread to that heavy producing state.

Disappointment that the increase was not more expressed in some quarters. D. Harold Byrd, president of the Independent Petroleum association of Texas, referred to the hike as "a bone on the table."

"Independent East Texas producers who have gone along with the constantly dwindling stream of allowable in hopes of a compensating price increase have confidently expected a 25-cent advance now and one of 15 cents in the spring," Byrd said. "I see only a sop, apparently just enough to keep the independents stringing along."

Example's new crude oil price schedule for Gray county is 86 cents a barrel for crude of 35 gravity and below, increasing 2 cents a barrel for each degree above 35 to a top of 98 cents a barrel for 40 gravity and above—a hike from the previous top of 81 cents a barrel. As a matter of previous practice, Wheeler county is expected to be the same as Gray in price.

In Carson and Hutchinson counties, the new price is 81 cents a barrel for crude below 35 gravity, increasing 2 cents a barrel for each degree above 35 to a top of 93 cents for oil of 40 gravity and above—a hike from the previous top of 81 cents a barrel.

Other buyers meeting the increase of 15 cents to $1.15 in the vast East Texas field included the Atlas Pipeline company and the Panola Pipeline company. Panola buys about 7,000 barrels daily.

Advances posted by the Humble included: East Texas, advance 15 cents a barrel to $1.15; Conroe, 15 cents; Gulf Coast, 10 cents; North Central Texas, new prices for 40 gravity and above, $1.15—two cents less for each degree downward; Gray county, 7 cents; Carson-Hutchinson 12 cents; West Texas and New Mexico, new base 75 cents for oil of 26 gravity and below, with an increase of 2 cents for each degree upward to 36 degrees.

Anahuac and Dickinson, advance 10 cents; Sazet, Refugio and Miramonte 10 cents; Tomball, Salt Flat and Darts Creek, 10 cents; Pettus, 20 cents.

The new schedules of the Sun, announced by J. Edgar Few of Philadelphia through the Dallas operating office, provide a 15-cent boost to $1.15 for East Texas; a hike of 15 cents for Conroe on a gravity basis ranging from $1.24 to $1.34 a barrel; a 10-cent increase on Gulf Coast grade B on a gravity basis ranging from $1.02 cents to $1.22; and a flat raise of 10 cents on Gulf Coast grade A and crudes from Duval and Washington counties.

CONTRACT AWARDED

FORT WORTH, Jan. 9. (AP)—A $245,000 contract for construction of a natural history building on the Centennial grounds at Dallas was awarded R. F. Ball Construction company of Fort Worth. Julian Montgomery, PWA director, announced today.

BANQUET

Judge W. R. Ewing introduced the main speaker, using the familiar words of the typewriting classes: "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

On the anniversary of Andrew Jackson's New Orleans victory over the British, it was fitting that another Tennessee—Judge Hoover—should extol the virtues of "Old Hickory," a friend of the average man. The visitor compared the characteristics of Jackson and Roosevelt, and practiced by Andrew Jackson and Thomas Jefferson.

"The new deal, as enunciated by Roosevelt, is that the general welfare must be furthered; that if the social structure as a whole is to benefit, prosperity and security must be provided directly at the bottom of the middle levels, as well as at the top. If America is to be saved from communism, it is this doctrine that we must follow, not passively but exerting our strength and efforts toward this end at all times."

"Big business is again trying to regain control of our government. In 1933, beaten and confessing incompetence, they gave up their throne and abdicated. Now they would again, in the guise of 'saving the constitution,' place the capitol for government in Wall Street."

Three-Dimension Motion Pictures Will Be Produced

CHICAGO, Jan. 8. (AP)—George K. Spoor, veteran Chicago motion picture producer, announced today his company would begin the production of three dimension pictures within 90 days.

Spoor described the newly perfected process as a long stride toward bringing the realism of the legitimate stage to the screen because the new film will give the impression of depth as well as height and breadth.

The cameras used in this natural vision arrangement will first be focused on stage plays as they are acted in a New York studio where the venture will be centered. Later, Spoor said, it was planned to produce operas with the original casts.

The new photography is the result of 20 years of research by Spoor and his co-inventor, P. Paul Berggren, engineer and physicist. The perfected system, Spoor said, represents an investment of $4,000,000.

"I don't see the ship which has carried us out of the troubled waters of depression and down to the man who was at the helm when prices went back above the cost of production. True wealth comes from the soil and it alone supports the man with the tin bucket."

The issue is the battle between the money plutocrats and down-trodden farmers. Let the people of the Panhandle, the finest from all the states assembled in this section, follow the man who "dug up the forgotten man" and who proposes that he shall perpetually be remembered.

Mr. Ketter in his remarks asked the support of all democrats in entertainment of the district Young Democratic clubs here in May. It will be one of the largest local conventions of the year. Part of the profits from last night's banquet will go to convention expense, while the rest will be sent to the Democratic National committee.

Mr. Ketter said in part: "The words which we have heard tonight from our great president will cause us to burn more brightly with courage and faith. Courage and faith in the new deal! Courage and faith in Roosevelt, not because he is the new deal but because he is the agent of events. Our president invented nothing in the new deal. The new deal was necessary. When the American frontier disappeared in the 1890's, it was conceived the growth of industrial power, of mass production, the fall of the birthrate and the end of mass-immigration were signs that it was coming. Teddy Roosevelt sensed it; Woodrow Wilson strove to anticipate it; Harding and Coolidge tried to destroy it, and Hoover attempted to ignore it. But when Wall Street crashed in October, 1929, the new deal was born. It was caused by a very simple fact: That we can produce more than enough for everybody in this country, which is something new in human history."

"The ideas on which Roosevelt rode into office were not new. The method by which Roosevelt has happened ideas of the new deal is also old stuff. They let us state it: the method of Grover Cleveland and the Civil Service reformers, the methods of Teddy Roosevelt and 'the square deal,' the methods of Woodrow Wilson and 'The New Freedom,' and the methods of Andrew Jackson, who said 'Let the people rule.'"

"In addition to these, Roosevelt had the benefit of several other great national experiments. He combined all familiar elements so calmly and so friendly that even after a year there were still people

'Be Good Sports', Kansas Farmers Told by Landon

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 9. (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon called on Kansas farmers today to accept the supreme court invalidation of the AAA in the spirit of good sportsmanship and to work for constitutional means "by which the balance in our national economic life may be restored."

The governor, in his first public utterance on the farm problem since he has been mentioned as a possible republican presidential nominee, told the 66th annual meeting of the state board of agriculture last night "If the time should ever come when the citizens of this country should repudiate the acts of the supreme court, the very foundation of our social and economic welfare of our social and economic welfare will be destroyed."

He declared means should be found to pay the farmers on AAA contracts fulfilled prior to the court's ruling.

and money scarce, so it was not many months before the bride went home to her mother. A divorce resulted in 1922.

The next spring, in March, 1923, the actor by this time had won attention as a screen lover, married Lestree Joy, of the films. To them a daughter was born, and then came a divorce in August, 1924.

MAGNOLIA HIKES PRICE
DALLAS, Jan. 9. (AP)—The Magnolia Petroleum company today announced a price advance of 15 cents per barrel for crude oil in the East Texas district. The new East Texas price is $1.45 per barrel. The advance for East Texas and other fields affected was effective today. For Central Texas, Magnolia boosted the price five cents a barrel. Gray county oil was increased seven cents and Carson and Hutchinson counties were raised 12 cents.

Miss Dixie Lewis, former Pampa resident who has been confined to bed at her mother's home in Wichita Falls since she was injured in a fall last April, is able to be up and to walk with the aid of crutches now, friends here have learned.

MORGAN

that Morgan's house sent to the allies 84 per cent of the arms, steel and steel implements they bought in this country before the United States entered the war.

The huge firm was said to have arranged $1,843,993.175 of the increase recorded in such exports to Europe in 1915 and the succeeding two years. Its spokesmen have challenged contentions that financial interests prompted the United States to join the allies in 1917.

Putting his understating pipe away to explain the concentration of purchases for France and England in his company, Morgan said: "The British were intensely interested in seeing that there was no competition between companies which held agencies. They had great difficulties in making adjustments."

"Lloyd George felt it was necessary to get things in one hand. He told me so."

"You didn't need an ace up your sleeve," suggested Senator Vandenberg (R, Mich.).

"I didn't need an ace up my sleeve and was glad I didn't have any to produce one. I didn't have any as a matter of fact," Morgan laughed.

party movement, or a split among the democrats. Farley recalled a similar move 40 years ago which "spent a lot of money, as a DuPont-financed liberty league is doing now, without any effect on the result of the election."

Farley said the only issue of the campaign was whether President Roosevelt "has done well or ill by his country." The answer, he added, is on the pages of every paper in the land, where the nation's business is reported.

President Will Entertain U. S. Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. (AP)—AAA is a household word in America now, but in one American home it will be taboo tonight. That's the White House.

The annual reception to the supreme court will be held there, three days after the tribunal swept President Roosevelt's farm plan away.

The six justices who condemned the law all are expected to attend but two of the dissenters will not. Justice and Mrs. Brandeis have consistently avoided formal social affairs in recent years. Justice Cardozo, a bachelor, shies away from them, too.

Justice Stone, who sheds the dissent, is expected to attend with Mrs. Stone.

It's considered a sure thing that when President Roosevelt greets Chief Justice Hughes and the others, they will be no mention of any litigation. "It would be against the unwritten law."
