

Stalin Says Russia Fights War Of Liberation Alone, Pleads For Opening Of Second Front

Says Nazi Losses 4,500,000 Men

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Russia, fighting "a war of liberation alone against Germany" and her allies, is handicapped by lack of a second European front, but "the assistance given by Great Britain and the United States is of great importance and growing continually", Premier Joseph Stalin declared today in an address over the Moscow radio.

(In Bern, Switzerland, listeners heard Stalin say lack of a second front in Europe was one cause of "the temporary retreat" of the soviet armies and, in an apparent appeal to Britain, "appearance for a second front would greatly facilitate our task".)

German losses since the invasion of Russia last June 22 have reached 4,500,000 men, dead, wounded and captured, Stalin said, and "if Germans want a war of destruction, they will certainly get it."

Speaking on the eve of the 24th anniversary of the bolshevik revolution, Stalin said slaughter and plunder were the Hitler policy, and therefore "the policy of the red army is to destroy the Germans to the very last man."

Mentioning in passing that the French government had sold out to Hitler for fear of a revolution, Stalin said, "only the Hitlerite madmen can think they can build a new order under the present conditions in Europe."

"The new order is ready to collapse at any moment and bury Hitler in its ruins," Stalin said. Soviet losses were 350,000 killed and 1,258,000 wounded or missing.

He said the Soviet rear never had been so strong as at this moment and that red army morale was infinitely higher than that of the German army.

The German army has been forced to construct new bases on unfriendly territory, whereas "our army is fighting on its own territory," the Russian premier asserted, "with our people exerting every effort to keep it supplied."

"It is unnecessary to add that the blitzkrieg has failed. "One of the chief factors facing the red army at the present moment is the lack of a second front in Europe."

Stalin continued, "feeling assured that they would not be attacked on the western front, the Germans are throwing in the bulk of their forces in the east. "Our country is carrying on a war of liberation alone against the Germans, Hungarians and Italians."

He declared that "another reason for the temporary red army setbacks is the shortage of tanks. "I can not be said that our tank industry is not working well; it is working very well for its size, but the Germans can throw in more tanks, as they have not only their own factories but also the factories of Czecho-Slovakia, France and the countries of Europe which they occupy."

"Our aviation is superior in quality; our pilots have proved themselves. We have fewer planes, but the quality of our tanks and planes is superior."

He called Hitlerism "the replica of reactionary regimes which have existed throughout centuries. "It is a party of robbery, reaction and obstructionism."

"Hitler's instructions to his people are: If we can only achieve our aims by killing and plunder, we will kill and plunder. No moral reasons restrain Hitler."

Mussolini Rumored Shot, No Confirmation Found

The Associated Press has found no confirmation of a rumor that Premier Mussolini has been slightly wounded in an assassination attempt in which two pistol shots were fired.

In Rome the rumor was authoritatively denied and called "an invention." It was stated in Rome that a similar report was denied two days ago and that since then the premier has received several persons at his office.

The rumor was published in London by Exchange Telegraph, which quoted the Moscow radio as its source.

Brotherhoods Map Next Strike Step

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 (AP)—Leaders of organized railroad workers, disappointed over a recommendation for temporary wage increases far short of their demands, called a conference today to map their next move—possibly the announcement of a strike date.

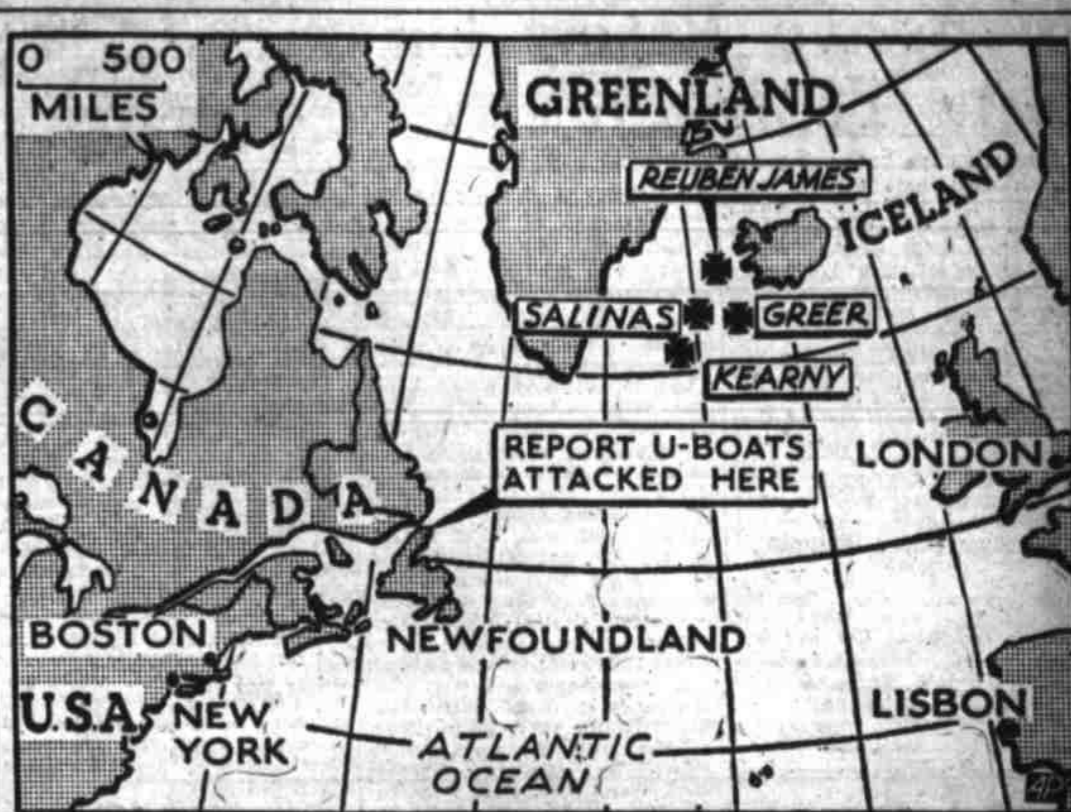

The five operating and 14 non-operating brotherhoods, with a total membership of 1,250,000, previously voted to strike. Enforcement of the vote was held in abeyance, by law, until 30 days after the extensive anti-strike procedure was proposed for the non-operating employees by the board which also recommended wage increases of 7 1-2 cents an hour for 40,000 or more employees of the Railway Express company.

Chiefs of the operating unions described the recommendation as "an engraved invitation for transportation men to leave the service." They said it was "the most disappointing of any recommendation rendered by a federal tribunal during the past 50 years" and that they "regret to advise that they cannot recommend its acceptance."

Spokesmen for the carriers likewise expressed disappointment over the board's report. They estimated their annual payroll increase at $200,000,000 or more under the proposals and said it would be "a much greater burden than the industry should be asked to assume at this time."

JEWIS RESTRICTED VICHY, Unoccupied France, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Petain government in what observers believed to be the first of a new series of measures against Jews, decreed today that they may no longer acquire any profit from businesses they own in most cities.

U-Boats Reported Off Newfoundland—Canadian ships were reported to have attacked the northern tip of Newfoundland. Also located are sites of submarine attacks on the U.S. Destroyers Reuben James, Greer and Kearny and the Navy Tanker Salinas.

London Says Hitler Now Quitting Northern Drives

Outlook For Red Army Is Brightest Yet

By The Associated Press Adolf Hitler's boast that German victory would attend the drive on Moscow in the "last great, decisive battle of this year" has been exploded by tenacious Soviet resistance, informed London quarters said today, declaring that the foe has now abandoned hope of capturing either Moscow or Leningrad this winter.

On the fighting front, masses of Russian reserves were reported to have broken through Nazi siege lines before the U. S. R. capital, while on the southern (Ukraine) front, Soviet dispatches said the Germans were retreating from a corpse-strewn zone of the Donets river basin.

Informed quarters in London said the German air force was withdrawing most of its planes from Moscow, Leningrad and far north fronts, leaving land forces to carry on a "defensive" winter campaign.

Tass, the official Russian news agency, said the Germans had fallen back with heavy losses at several points around Moscow.

There was no immediate indication whether the Russians had launched a major counter-offensive, but Tass reported that red cavalry and infantry had made a series of attacks and that German forces at a point identified only as "KIE" had been encircled.

"On the left flank of the western (Moscow) front, the red army is continuing to push the enemy back for the fourth day and continues to annihilate its rearward "without mercy," Tass said.

In the Moshalsk sector, 57 miles west of Moscow, Tass reported that a mass assault by Nazi tanks had been shattered by red artillery fire.

Altogether, the picture was among the brightest yet painted for Russia's defense armies.

Even in the Crimea, latest advice reaching London indicated that the Germans had made little progress toward the great Black Sea.

Money Pours Into Salvation Army Coffers

R. R. McEwen, chairman of the finance campaign for the Salvation Army, was optimistic Thursday over the outcome of the effort to subscribe $3,000 locally to the work.

Although only nine of the approximately 20 workers had reported, said McEwen, more than $1,400 was in hand in cash and pledges.

There was an unusually substantial amount of cash included in the funds reported by workers.

If the remaining workers do anything like as well as those who have reported, said McEwen, then there would be no difficulty in raising the budget. Those turning in the fruits of their work told of encouraging and liberal response from the public.

Aside from the solicitation underway, McEwen said that he and a special group would make some additional canvasses, doing some clean-up work which was expected to produce $200 to $300.

Litvinoff Named Red Ambassador To US

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Maxim M. Litvinoff, an old-time advocate of Soviet collaboration with the western democracies, will become Russian ambassador to the United States at an early date.

Authoritative sources said today that Litvinoff, former peoples' commissar for foreign affairs, had been chosen to succeed Constantin Oumansky, who is now in Russia.

Litvinoff, when foreign minister, personally negotiated with President Roosevelt at Washington United States recognition of Russia in 1933, after a lapse in diplomatic relations of 16 years. Since 1938, however, he has been in the background of Soviet politics due to his opposition to collaboration with Germany.

150 LAYMEN DUE TO ATTEND AFFAIR TONIGHT

Prospects of 150 men at a city-wide laymen's meeting loomed as final preparations were made for the affair at 7 p. m. Thursday in the First Baptist church basement.

The Rev. O. L. Savage, pastor of the First Presbyterian church and chairman of the sponsoring committee for the Big Spring Pastors Alliance, said that pre-sale tickets indicated 150 would be on hand.

Herschel Summerlin will replace Cliff Wiley as master of ceremonies since Wiley was called to Dallas unexpectedly.

The program was to include the singing of the Doxology, introduction by C. E. Stewart, Jr., invocation of men, a talk on the "laymen's missionary movement" by Dr. G. H. Wood, special music arranged by Irby Cox, an address by W. C. Blankenship and a round table discussion. Buck Tyree will give the benediction.

The meeting is part of the national missionary movement but is being held ahead of the conventional date to avoid conflict with the district Methodist conference here next week.

Community Gas Company Sued

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—R. H. Connally, travelling salesman of Cleburne, today sued the Community Natural Gas company for $10,000 damages, alleging gas to his home was wrongfully cut off.

The suit, filed in federal court, claimed that the company removed its meter and disconnected the gas for a $121 bill without prior notification while he was out of town and his wife ill. Connally claimed he was due $1.85 interest on a $10 deposit at the time.

'Hitler Makes Men Slaves' He Points Out

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today that the American people had made "an unlimited commitment" that there shall be a free world, and called on all free nations to plan for a sound social and economic world order after the war.

The chief executive also assailed a "misguided" few—both industrialists and leaders of labor—for placing personal advantage above the welfare of the United States and for delaying defense output by using their "economic power" to force acceptance of their demands rather than using established mediation machinery.

Addressing 250 delegates representing 33 nations at the concluding session of the international labor office conference in the east room of the White House, the president said:

"The American people have made an unlimited commitment that there shall be a free world. Against that commitment, no individual or group shall prevail."

Declaring that labor under the Nazi system had become the "slave of the military state," and that Berlin today was the "principal slave market of the world," Mr. Roosevelt added:

"The American worker has no illusions about the fate that awaits him and his free labor organizations if Hitler should win. He knows that his own liberty and the very safety of the people of the United States can not be assured in a world which is three-fourths slave and one-fourth free. He knows that we must furnish arms to Britain, Russia and China and that we must do it now—today."

The president said the place of the whole western hemisphere in a German scheme for world domination had been marked on the Nazi timetable, and the choice America had to make was between realism "in terms of three shifts a day" to produce necessary defense materials and the attitude of the "blind and the deluded" who think that business can be done with Hitler and that American armament output is satisfactory.

of hearings on the controversy, there is no legal provision for enforcement of the recommendation.

The board recommended wage increases of 7 1-2 per cent for the 350,000 operating employees who had demanded a bonus of about 27 per cent. The lowest "paid of these new earns $5.98 a day."

For the 900,000 non-operating workers, the board proposed an average increase of 13 1-2 per cent. They had asked for 30 to 34 cents more an hour. They now receive 35 to 35 cents.

of the business men who will be newsies for the day are making contribution of time, effort and vocal chords; the price of the paper will be whatever the purchaser feels free to pay; the sole beneficiary is the Salvation Army.

McEwen said he was lining up some very capable newsboys, and he expects competition for first honors in the sale to be very keen. He requested that any man who would take part in Monday afternoon's street sales get in touch with him immediately.

Food Industry Chairman Asks Healthy Diets

America today more than ever before must protect its health. If men and women are to feel well and be able to work, if children are to be healthy and able to go to school, they must have food enough and they must have the right kind of food. Mr. Ralph E. Lusk, chairman of the Howard County Food Industry Committee said today.

"Speaking of the national campaign to improve America's diet," he said, "I find our local home-makers are cooperating with the efforts of the Surplus Marketing Administration and other federal agencies working in cooperation with the farmers, food industry and consumers in building America's health defenses.

"For clients of the food stamp program many health-building foods are on the 'blue stamp' list and other foods can be purchased with orange food order stamps. But the building of America's health is not confined to clients of the food stamp program, but to everyone in this community as well as the nation.

"I have just read a bulletin issued jointly by the Bureau of Home Economics and the Extension Service of the department of Agriculture, entitled 'Getting the Most For Your Food Money.' It is of prime importance to every homemaker in this community, and I quote from it.

Submarine Menace May Cause Abandonment Of Convoy System

17 American Civilians Lost In Atlantic

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The menace of German submarine raids in the north Atlantic raised speculation in naval circles today that a complete turnaround in strategy, subordinating the use of convoys, might prove the eventual answer to the U-boat wolf pack technique.

The central theory in the various methods being exploded was that mass submarine attacks would be rendered largely ineffective if armed merchantmen traveled singly instead of being bunched in convoys.

The discussions accompanied two fresh developments in the battle of the Atlantic—the announcement that 17 American civilian technicians had been lost en route to England, and the disclosure that U-boats have been operating close to Newfoundland.

The latest American casualties were men who had enlisted in the British civilian technical corps for non-combatant duty abroad. Their loss was made public last night by the British press service on behalf of the Royal Air Force delegations here.

The ship which carried the technicians "is presumed to have been sunk," the British said, and "telegrams have been sent to the next of kin." The name of the ship and the approximate date of the sinking were not disclosed.

Added to other recent casualties in the armed services and merchant marine, the new losses increased to 149 the known toll of American lives in the last three months.

Exponents of the single-vessel strategy to outsmart U-boat packs said that its logical application called for a minimum use of convoys, the routing of ships over a wide variety of constantly changing sea lanes and giving them guns to fight attackers.

That, it was said, would free a large number of naval vessels to patrol the areas north and south-west of the British Isles in search of submarines plying between European bases and their Atlantic hunting grounds.

If, in addition, the U. S. navy increases its effective patrol range beyond Icelandic waters by developing bases on the British Isles, the Germans might find their north Atlantic raids much less profitable.

The convoy system, naval men say, was developed to a high point of perfection in 1917 and 1918. Its successful operation, then as now, depended on the submarine's great risk in attacking a group of ships protected by destroyers.

Official disclosure in Canada yesterday that naval submarines have been operating off Newfoundland indicated how the tactic probably have been able to find their objectives so well after dark in the perilous area west of Iceland.

The generally accepted belief here is that the long-range sub off Newfoundland lies in wait, not to attack, but to spot and trail convoys from a safe distance soon after they leave port.

Food For Defense—Farmers To Revise Planting Plans, Housewives To Try Out New Menus

(Second of three articles)
By JOHN GROVER
AP Feature Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Missus 'Awkins of the bombed-out London 'Awkins and Mrs. John J. Jones of Anywhere, U. S. A. won't know their own dinner tables when this war is over.

Reason is, the Department of Agriculture's whopping food-for-defense program proposes to salvage health and security out of war's incalculable waste.

The plan is nothing more nor less than an earthquake aimed at farm practices and food habits. It will upset past concepts and substitute a planned and orderly farm production plus a radically changed national diet.

In general, the program calls for the reduction of acreage in grain, cotton and tobacco to avoid surpluses. Production of the critical food items such as meat, dairy products and vegetables will be boosted.

Food-for-defense bosses expect the new production quotas to do the trick. Acreage that once was devoted to overproduced foods is earmarked for planting to vital food crops. They figure the output of foods for a balanced diet will soon, the harvest of others will drop.

It's likely there'll be some squawking when the Messrs. Jones and 'Awkins tuck their napkins under chins and cock skeptical eyes at the unfamiliar food.

The nutrition experts aren't worried, though. The squawking, they feel sure, will be brief.

With a bumper crop pouring millions of dollars into Big Spring, business conditions improvements are being accompanied by wholesale settlement of old accounts.

At the county clerk's office, 202 chattel mortgages were released during the month of October, marking that number of major debts to be settled. This figure compares to 98 released during the same month in 1940. Only 90 chattel mortgages were released during the month of November last year.

Through its contact with merchandising institutions, the Retail Merchants association indicated that there was a wave of settlement on old accounts. Many who have not been able to pay on accounts for three or four years have been cutting down the balance or erasing it.

Quits a number of judgments are being released, said Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, operator of the bureau. Aside from the mortgage releases filed at the clerk's office, the RMA has found many others which have not been put on record.

As for general business, the RMA reported installment buying was off, due to the famed "regulation W" about which there may be much misunderstanding. Some of the public, said Mrs. Eubanks, apparently is under the impression that there can be no installment buying. Under regulation W the period of amortization is shortened and down payment requirements strengthened.

At the same time, there has been a noticeable increase in the volume of business on 30-day open accounts. This gain became apparent about three weeks ago and the trend is definitely up, said Mrs. Eubanks.

Even in America, best-fed nation on earth, diet deficiency diseases are widespread.

Second goal is balancing our topheavy agricultural economy, stabilizing farm prices by diversity of output.

Missus 'Awkins and Mrs. Jones, millions of them, will be feeding their families better food, whether they like it or not, if the program works out.

Here's the way they expect it to work: They've drawn a production blueprint for U. S. farmers. They know, county by county, just what needs to be grown.

If the goals are reached, there'll be plenty to eat, but there's a beneficial joker in the foodpile. There won't be plenty of the foods we normally overproduce and overeat, to the detriment of national health. They'll take up the slack with an abundance of health-rich, vitality foods.

Food-for-defense bosses expect the new production quotas to do the trick. Acreage that once was devoted to overproduced foods is earmarked for planting to vital food crops. They figure the output of foods for a balanced diet will soon, the harvest of others will drop.

It's likely there'll be some squawking when the Messrs. Jones and 'Awkins tuck their napkins under chins and cock skeptical eyes at the unfamiliar food.

With a bumper crop pouring millions of dollars into Big Spring, business conditions improvements are being accompanied by wholesale settlement of old accounts.

At the county clerk's office, 202 chattel mortgages were released during the month of October, marking that number of major debts to be settled. This figure compares to 98 released during the same month in 1940. Only 90 chattel mortgages were released during the month of November last year.

Through its contact with merchandising institutions, the Retail Merchants association indicated that there was a wave of settlement on old accounts. Many who have not been able to pay on accounts for three or four years have been cutting down the balance or erasing it.

Quits a number of judgments are being released, said Mrs. L. A. Eubanks, operator of the bureau. Aside from the mortgage releases filed at the clerk's office, the RMA has found many others which have not been put on record.

As for general business, the RMA reported installment buying was off, due to the famed "regulation W" about which there may be much misunderstanding. Some of the public, said Mrs. Eubanks, apparently is under the impression that there can be no installment buying. Under regulation W the period of amortization is shortened and down payment requirements strengthened.

At the same time, there has been a noticeable increase in the volume of business on 30-day open accounts. This gain became apparent about three weeks ago and the trend is definitely up, said Mrs. Eubanks.

BAKED BEANS, KARO STYLE

2 cans baked beans (12 oz. cans)
2 tbsp. chopped onion
3 slices chopped cooked bacon

Remember—Karo Syrup adds food value and flavor to all cooked dishes—'cause Karo is rich in DEXTROSE, food-energy sugar.

A First Line FOOD FOR DEFENSE Against Fatigue

Higher Grade Gasoline May Run Short

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6 (AP)—Automobile drivers may yet feel the impact of war on their driving habits. Dr. John W. Frey, deputy petroleum coordinator, impressed that possibility upon the American Petroleum Institute today.

Motorists may not merely run into gasoline shortages, Dr. Frey asserted. They may have to press longer on the starter to get the engine going; they may have to shift sooner on hills; they may have to keep oil in the crankcase more than the traditional 1,000 miles.

Looking ahead along the highway Mr. Motorist will travel, this is what he foresees:

Increased production of aviation gasoline will take more butane—the stuff that makes gasoline more volatile, helping quick-starting of motors. The need for utane, he said, is likely to push so-called bottled gas distributors to replace with propane, affecting households using the tanked gas for heating and cooking.

Aviation gasoline will take more tetraethyl lead. And army equipment requires premium grade gasolines. When the military needs are met, there will not be enough left to keep up the octane ratings of motor fuels sold to the motorist. So his motor will knock on grades he used to skim over with smooth swiftness.

PURCHASE PRICE SETS RECORD—Colby Hanover (above), two-year-old trotter that ended the 1941 season as leading money and race winner, has just been sold to E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill., the price, $15,000, being the highest sum paid for a harness horse in a decade. This favorite for next year's Hambletonian was owned by the late Eugene Frey, of York, Pa.

KNITS FOR DEFENSE—One million sweaters by Christmas for men in Uncle Sam's service is the goal of the Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy, and you can bet Mrs. Richard Soltman (above) will have several ready, especially with the help of Terry and Jack. Her husband is Capt. Richard Soltman who's stationed at Fort Hamilton in Brooklyn, N. Y.

WHALE OF A STORY—When the old whaling call, "Thar she blows," sounded out in Gloucester, Mass., harbor the sound was a death knell for this 15-foot baby albino whale which was caught in the harbor. The Gloucester harbor police rather than a lookout aloft a whaling ship set up the cry. Capture was made by Anthony Farrell, power cruiser skipper.

OLD TIMER'S HERE—Exterminator, famous old cup horse retired since 1924, returned to Falmouth recently, looking fit despite his 26 years. He was accompanied by Groom Mike Terry and his companion pony, Peanut, the shabby beast in front.

NAMED—Charles Fahy (above), 45, a native of Rome, Ga., has been nominated by F.D.R. to the post of Solicitor General, the job formerly filled by Asst. Gen. Francis Biddle.

DRESSY—That extra hand belongs to Harry Joe Brown, husband of Sally Eilers (above), living in Hollywood. Note her leather headdress, the diamond-and-ruby ear clips and bracelet.

MOST OF THE BLUE—Everyone was happy at the Tuxedo Hunt club's burlesque horse show in Atlanta, Ga., for awards were given everybody—exhibitors, judges, horses. Little Beverly Aronson (above), however, won the most blue ribbons.

SHARP LOOKOUT—In observance of a Chinese custom, big eyes decorated the Alcoa Courier at San Francisco launching.

BLOOD WILL TELL IN THESE BLOODHOUNDS—At nine weeks, these droopy-eyed bloodhound pups give little indication of the firmness with which they'll do their duty later. They're recruits with the New South Wales police force in Brisbane.

SOMETHING ON HER MIND—Translated, the vocal efforts of Adam, prize-winning cock at North Carolina's state fair, may be comments on the south's growing poultry industry. Adam is owned by Mrs. Katy Whitson (above) of Raleigh.

THIS WAS A HAND THAT SHOOK THE HAND—Behind the forbidding hand of an officer at Brooklyn navy yard is the Duke of Windsor, who's about to grip the paw of a navy yard worker. The duke inspected naval operations at the yard.

WHAT THE WATER HIDES—When the new 35,000-ton battleship U.S.S. Indiana is launched at Newport News (Va.) Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. within the next two months, water will hide the most deadly of her battle-line armament.

Irritated At Gasoline Bill, Man Makes Garbage Do Job

PARADENA, Calif., Nov. 6. (AP) A building contractor who turned chemist because he became irritated at the size of his gasoline bills has developed a process to convert garbage, waste lumber and farm products into motor fuel.

J. W. Jean has obtained final patents on the method he developed in a machine shop laboratory here. He says tests of his synthetic fuel have shown it has an octane rating of 84.7, comparable to aviation gasoline, and that it has developed 26 per cent more mileage than the petroleum fuel.

Without any knowledge of chemistry, Jean developed his process after extensive reading on the subject, and then disregarding many of the accepted notions.

The raw material first is fermented into alcohol and then converted into a synthetic hydrocarbon. To produce butyl alcohol cheaply, it was necessary to develop an unpatented bacterium. He met the problem by isolating one from potato peelings.

One hundred fifty tons of bagasse or sugar cane waste, he said, can be converted into 8,575 gallons of motor fuel, 66,160 pounds of carbon dioxide for dry ice, 2,700 pounds of hydrogen gas from which synthetic alcohol can be produced, and 50 tons of humus for the soil.

By-products include ammonia salts which, when blended with fertilizer, provide a high nitrogen content. When the fuel is produced from garbage, a superior lubricant is developed.

Among materials from which the fuel can be produced, Jean said, are molasses, sawdust and shavings, waste from paper and sugar mills, old newspapers, potatoes, fruit, nuts and nut shells, and second and third cotton crops, seldom harvested, including the entire cotton plant.

He said successful tests of the fuel have been made at the United States experimental station at Annapolis, the federal bureau of standards, the army's Holabird quartermaster depot at Baltimore and the naval experimental station at Anacosta, D. C.

Late Editions Of Holiday Dishes Can Be Used Now Or Thanksgiving

Pumpkin pie is a family favorite

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE, AP Feature Service Writer

Even if you are invited out for Thanksgiving dinner, I am sure that you will want these late editions of holiday dishes for immediate or later use.

Stream-lined to suit the most fastidious is HARVEST APPEAL. Serve it now for the opening course at dinner or save for Thanksgiving. Pour a piquant tomato gelatin into one inch layer in shallow pan. Chill and cut into inch cubes. Pile up three per portion, on crisp salad green. Surround by thin slices of avocado, marinated at least an hour in French dressing. Top with thinly sliced pimiento-stuffed olives and pass French dressing with Roquefort cheese mixed in. Accompany by Melba toast, crisp buttered crackers or thin bread sticks. The gelatin is better if made up a day ahead of serving.

Dash of cloves
2 tablespoons molasses
2 cups mashed cooked pumpkin
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Combine egg yolks, milk, 1-2 cup sugar, salt, spices, and molasses in top of double boiler, mixing well. Cook over hot water until mixture coats spoon, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Add pumpkin and gelatin and mix. Chill until slightly thickened. The turkey can be stuffed and made ready for the oven the day before serving and stored, covered with a cloth in a cold place.

RUBY RELISH contributes a special tang to any kind of fowl. Mix together 4 cups chopped cooked beets, 1-2 cup diced celery, 1-4 cup chopped green peppers, 1 cup sugar, 2-3 cup bottled horseradish, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, 1-3 cup vinegar and 1-4 cup lemon juice. Mix and store in refrigerator for 3 days. Stir several times.

Drastic Measures Control Money — — Canada Puts Limits On Wages

By MORGAN M. BEATTY AP Feature Service Writer WASHINGTON — Canada has embarked on the most daring experiment in controlled wartime economy of all the democratic nations, even Great Britain.

been curbed. Banks are required to use more deposits as a reserve. Taxes have been upped drastically. The Treasury is selling defense bonds to the little man. Price Administrator Henderson has set up voluntary agreements with basic industries to peg prices of some raw materials and articles, such as automobiles. to generate enough pressure to overcome pressure groups, especially labor, and labor is the biggest element bucking wage control. The Roosevelt Administration generally favors price controls but not wage controls, on the ground labor is not a commodity to be bought and sold like ribbon over a counter.

How To Torture Your Wife

Canada took drastic action because inflation threatened, and inflation would damage the war effort. It would also cost the taxpayers much more money to wage war, because the government would buy war materials and pay soldiers with inflated money. Prices have risen in Canada more than 15 per cent since the start of the war.

Great Britain has put laws on the books giving government absolute control over the lives of all subjects. Theoretically that includes a man's wages as well as his life, but actually, the British government has NOT applied blanket wage controls. It has achieved the same end by indirect methods, including rationing of food, price controls, etc.

The United States is NOT technically at war. We have not applied a heavy hand against either prices or wages. But the cost of living has risen about 10 per cent since the start of the war. The government has taken some steps to prevent the upward spiral of prices. Installment buying has been curbed. Banks are required to use more deposits as a reserve. Taxes have been upped drastically. The Treasury is selling defense bonds to the little man. Price Administrator Henderson has set up voluntary agreements with basic industries to peg prices of some raw materials and articles, such as automobiles. Henderson has also exposed some dealers who fudged on agreements, or refused to abide by them.

But we are also taking commodities out of circulation and putting them into the defense sector. That creates a scarcity. Scarcities cause panic buying of things people don't need, but fear they can't get later on. This explains why we have an inflationary trend, despite the indirect controls being used by the government.
