Foreign Students To Spend Winter Here

The two American Field Service students who will be spending the winter in Pampa attending the Pampa High School and living in the homes of two local families have been selected by the AFS board in New York City and will be on their way to the United States in August. It has been announced by Mrs. Aubrey Steel, president of the Pampa Chapter of AFS.

Miss Maria Luisa Prieto-Carlos of Madrid, Spain, will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morgan and their two children, Douglas, 13, who is an eighth grade student in Robert E. Lee Junior High, and Cynthia, 15, a junior in PHS. The Martins live at 1938 Evergreen.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Veale Jr., 2125 Mary Ellen, Tommy, 17, senior in PHS, and Debbie, fifth-grade student at Stephen F. Austin, will be hosts to Mehmet Turan Soylermez of Nisantasi-Istanbul, Turkey.

Miss Prieto, whose two last names are a combination of her father's name and her mother's maiden name, will be known to the friends she will make here as Louisa Prieto. Her father is an architect in Madrid engaged in the building of churches and hospitals. She has one sister and three brothers. Her mother, she says, is a nurse. She is expected to arrive in New York City on Aug. 15.

Turan Soylermez, who will be staying with the Veales, has two brothers, ages 19 and 12. His father is a businessman in Nisantasi-Istanbul, Turkey. Turan is a member of a folk lore team which specializes in performing all the ancient games and songs of Turkey.

Turan is expected in New York City on Aug. 7 aboard the USS Seven Seas. Both of the students will arrive in Pampa within 48 to 72 hours after their arrival in the United States.

Louisa and Turan bring the number of AFS students who have spent the winter in Pampa to a total of six. The other four were Jarl Molar of Sweden and Marika Minelli of Italy in 1959-61; Cathy Papantasiopoulou of Patra, Greece; and Chris Jansson of Sweden, 1961-62.

Serious Split On Nationalization Shakes Algeria

ALGERIA (UPI)—The Algerian Nationalist Government in Tunis Saturday dismissed the commander of its general staff and two other high officers on the eve of the Algerian independence referendum for "criminal activities."

The surprise announcement from the nationalists' exile headquarters in Tunis followed the resignation of Nationalist Minister Mohammed Ben Khider and the mysterious disappearance of Vice Premier Mohammed Ben Bella in what apparently was a serious government split on the issue of nationalization.

It said that Col. Boumediene, the chief of staff of the nationalist army, and the other two army officers were dismissed for "activities tending to undermine the government's authority."

Nationalist Premier Youssef Ben Khedda was reported to be supporting a softer line toward nationalization than Ben Bella and Ben Khider. They also opposed his willingness to negotiate with right-wing Europeans in Algeria, and instead of going slowly on land reform as Ben Khedda plans, wanted immediate and drastic division of the land to pay off his peasant soldiers after more than seven years of war.

The green and white flag of the nationalist revolution was unfurled across Algeria Saturday as preparations for the independence referendum went ahead. The voting bill will bring an end to 132 years of French rule in this north African territory.

An estimated 6 million Algerians will vote Sunday in the referendum certain to give the country its independence—probably sometime next week—after 7 1/2 years of war and months of last-ditch terrorism by European extremists seeking to keep Algeria French.

Preliminary results of the voting will be known early Monday. Later in the week Algeria will be proclaimed independent by President Charles de Gaulle himself.

JFK, Mateos Proclaim A 'New Era Of Friendship'

No Mention Made Of Castro's Cuba

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—President Kennedy and Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos Saturday climaxed Kennedy's triumphant visit to Mexico City with a proclamation of a "new era of understanding and friendship" between their countries.

In a joint communique issued after Kennedy had three times gone into crowds to shake hands with cheering Mexicans and American residents the two presidents said it is the "responsibility of every sovereign nation to form its own policies without outside dictation or coercion."

No specific mention was made of Fidel Castro's Communist Cuba, an issue on which Mexico and the United States have not seen eye to eye.

The presidents pledged themselves to uphold their commitments to the Rio treaty "to defend the continent and to foster the fundamental democratic values."

The communique was approved at a meeting during which Kennedy and Lopez Mateos witnessed the signing of a $20 million alliance for progress farm aid loan to Mexico.

After the meeting, Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy—stunning in a flamingo pink two-piece dress of silk linen—tendered a lunch for Lopez Mateos and his wife.

From time to time as he brushed from ceremonies at the independence monument to a mammoth housing project and then an American 4th of July party held early in his honor, the smiling, bareheaded president moved into the crowds for personal greetings of his own.

At one point he clasped the hands of little children held up to him.

Interfratris Functions

He interrupted a series of functions during the morning for a private meeting with Lopez Mateos and to witness the signing of what he called an "historic" document—the $20 million loan for the benefit of Mexico's small farmers.

At Satellite City, a housing development on the edge of the capital, Kennedy won more than 100 ovations from members of the American colony. He was greeted there by a huge banner reading "Massachusetts." A homesick American held up a sign bearing the outline of Nanuet Island and the word "Nanuet" emblazoned upon it.

He praised the American colony for contributing to the friendliness of relations between the United States and Mexico.

At one point he chatted amiably with a little girl about the same age as his daughter, Caroline, and even during introductions of some officials he kept chatting with her, admiring a little necklace she wore.

Vietnamese Attack Nets Nine Enemy

SAIGON (UPI)—An offensive by 2,800 South Vietnamese troops near Saigon ended Saturday with the destruction of a training camp used by Communist guerrillas—but only nine Viet Cong killed.

The elusive Viet Cong jungle fighters once again slipped out of a trap laid for them by Vietnamese paratroopers flown into battle with American military advisers by U.S. Air Force planes.

An American military source said net result of the elaborate operation launched Friday was nine Viet Cong killed, several tons of rice captured from a Viet Cong supply dump and destruction of the training camp.

The camp was carried out in neighboring Binh Duong and Tay Ninh provinces near the Cambodian border 40 miles northwest of Saigon. It was aimed at guerrilla bases in the area where the Communists have carried out several costly ambushes of government convoys.

Eight battalions of Vietnamese paratroopers, 350 men to each battalion, took part in the operation in which the drops of paratroopers were preceded by air strikes by A-1H attack bombers.

Large strikes—but not the large-failed in the past when Communist intelligence apparently got wind of the raids and tipped off the guerrillas.

To Span Canadian River Long-Awaited Dam Officially Dedicated

By JOEL R. COMBS
Pampa News City Editor

Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall Saturday morning touched off the blast that officially dedicated the long-awaited Canadian River Dam, 12 miles northwest of Borger near Sanford.

As Secretary Udall's trigger-finger struck, and billows of dynamite dust rose into the air above the north side of the Canadian River, some long-suffering, hard-working men and women in 11 Panhandle-South Plains cities could begin to picture the fruition of a dream originating in many, many years ago.

Already, contractor H. B. Zachary of San Antonio had his men hard at work, constructing a water tunnel and diversion dikes on the flat bed of the Canadian River, nearly 300 feet below Vista Point on the south side of the river, where the dedication ceremonies took place.

Before the dynamized ground-breaking officially dedicated the dam, an estimated 3,000 spectators and visiting dignitaries had been introduced to just about every politician they had ever heard of from this part of the country. On hand and playing a large part in the pre-dedication addresses was Pampa's own Congressman Walter Rogers. Congressman Rogers, a member of the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, introduced other members of the committee, which spearheaded federal legislation enabling construction of the dam, and the other Representative in the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority area, George Mahon of Lubbock.

Others present included former Representative Eugene Worley of Shamrock, one of the first to support the dam project while representing the 18th Congressional district (the now is Chief Justice of the US Customs and Patent Appeals Court); Senator Ralph Yarborough, (who said he was glad to be here and tagged Wess Izzard of the Amarillo Daily News "Wizard Izzard" in obvious rattle over the opposition to him displayed by the neighboring newspaper); John Connally, Democratic candidate for Governor (who introduced Secretary Udall, with whom he formerly served on President John Kennedy's cabinet as Navy Secretary); Preston Smith, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Floyd Duminy, Reclamation Bureau chief; Rep. O. Fisher of San Angelo; Rep. J. Edgar Chapman of Colorado; Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Ohio; Under Secretary of Interior James K. Carr; Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall of Colorado; Rep. John P. Saylor of Pennsylvania; Rep. Hjalmar C. Nyquist of North Dakota; CRMAA director (See DAM, Page 3)

Mobeetie Man Is Killed

Thomas W. Hathaway, 55-year-old lifetime resident of Mobeetie, was killed when the small foreign car he was driving overturned "several times" late Saturday afternoon 13 1/2 miles east of Pampa on State Highway 152.

Highway Patrolman Stanley Schneider of Pampa said Mr. Hathaway was driving his Renault automobile west toward Pampa when it overturned about 4 1/2 miles west of Laketon. The impact threw him out of the car, which rolled over him.

The accident occurred about 5:03 p.m. Saturday.

A Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home ambulance brought the body to Pampa, but it will be transferred to the Kirk Funeral Home in Wheeler, where funeral services are pending arrangements.

Born July 18, 1906, in Mobeetie, Mr. Hathaway farmed until about four years ago when he opened the Highway Cafe there.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth, of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Faye Smith of Mobeetie; five sons, Victor and Joe, both of Pampa, Bill of Abilene, Dan and Glen of Mobeetie; five grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Clara Hathaway of Mobeetie; and a brother, Jim of McLean.

Empire Ends When Trust Made States

USUMBURA, Burundi (UPI)—Belgium's African empire came to an end at 12:01 a.m. Saturday when the trust territory of Ruwanda-Urundi became the two independent states of Ruwanda and Burundi, one ruled by president, the other by a king.

Belgium administered the two states under a 1919 League of Nations mandate but with the stroke of midnight any bugles greeted the birth of independence over the stunted land, giraffe and pygmies and the mountains of the moon.

The two nations border the straits of Congo and Belgian High Commissioner Col. Edouard Henricques told newsmen Friday Belgium had worked out an emergency plan to evacuate Europeans if trouble breaks out with the dawn of independence.

"We learned our lesson in the Congo," he said. "This time we are ready."

Reds Launch Another Satellite

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union launched another unmanned earth satellite Saturday as part of its program to gather information for a possible manned flight to the moon.

A brief press announcement said the satellite was named Cosmos 6.

Tass subsequently added that Saturday's satellite carried scientific instruments aimed at continuing the exploration of outer space.

The Tass announcement said only:

"The Soviet Union, has successfully orbited today another artificial satellite of the earth, 'Cosmos 6.'"

Tass subsequently added that Saturday's satellite carried scientific instruments aimed at continuing the exploration of outer space.

Can Improve

Dirksen said the Republicans can improve on anything the New Frontier's "raucous leader" and imaginative mind can offer.

"The best answer is better government in the states and local communities."

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., said his party can beat the Democrats if GOP candidates will concentrate on what he called "creature issues—like health, education, and dollars."

"I still have confidence in business and I still have confidence in the country," Dirksen said amid applause from Eisenhower and the others.

Plans Talked For Colored Area Of City

Members of the City Improvement Club of South Pampa met late Thursday afternoon with City Manager Harold Schmitzer and City Engineer Monroe Moore to discuss improvement proposals and other matters relating to the city's colored population.

Among things discussed were the area's annual beauty contest, "Keep the City Clean" contest, swimming pool projects, and other planned activities.

Currently the club is interested in sponsoring a play entitled "Job" to raise funds. Tickets now are on sale for the play to be held Friday night, July 6, in Carver School.

Question also was raised at the meeting regarding slowness of development in Bethune Heights. The City Commission and the developer of the Heights addition currently are at odds over the timing of sewer lines. It is stated, this, said, was hoped to be moved out soon.

Residents of the area said they would support the efforts to have their property treated the same as other property in other sections of the city is treated with respect to development rules and regulations.

Also discussed was the proposed removal of property in the (See COLORED, Page 3)

Changes In City Hall Offices To Be Recommended

A request for authorization of improvements to City Hall will go to the business of the City Commission when it meets in regular session at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

The proposed improvement consists in remodeling the present Palm room into an air-conditioned meeting place for the City Commission where larger crowds may be accommodated.

Present quarters of the commission on the City Hall first floor can seat only about 30 persons comfortably.

Under new plans drawn by the city engineer the present meeting room would be remodeled into an office for the mayor and an office for the city commissioners. Currently there is no mayor's office in City Hall.

Estimated cost of all the changes on both floors has been set at $8,853.

The city commission also will be asked to authorize the payment of $34,659.48 to L. A. Purcell for the seal-coating of 114 city blocks of street throughout the City. The job, which was completed last Thursday, ran $749.94 over the original estimate.

The commission also is expected to authorize advertising for bids for garbage collecting for the upcoming fiscal year.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Republican party might improve its minority position in the United States if the party leadership had the wit and the ability to rally the faceless millions of American stockholders.

There are as many or more owners of corporate securities in the United States as there are members of organized labor. The First National City Bank of New York reports that there are 9.6 million registered stockholders of the 100 largest U. S. manufacturing corporation. General Motors stockholders number 86,000.

The faceless millions who have put their money in job-making U. S. industry have another thing in common. They are subject to a system of double taxation by the U. S. government that is not imposed on others.

Corporation members are taxed, the owner bloc would become a political powerhouse. No such is likely, of course. But there is no other multi-million category of voters long around loose for the conservative leaders to cultivate.

They might borrow some words from Australia's Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies who said: "I have a respect for the rights of the top dog and no use for the foolish doctrine of equality between the dog and the pig."

The idea that the top dog's rights deserve respect equal to that accorded the rights of all others seems to be fair and reasonable.

Menzies was not talking of privileges.

Washington window is a weekly column by Lyle C. Wilson, a syndicated columnist. The column discusses current events and political issues from a conservative perspective.

Dividend Taxation
Corporation income is taxed as such at 52 per cent, whereas that part of it distributed as dividends is taxed again as income to the stockholder. This unorganized minority of American citizens takes it on the chin in this way for lack of political power to do otherwise. As an organized minority of 15 million or so voters they probably could do better.

Stockholders are among the savers, the citizens who do not spend as much as they earn but who bank or invest their surplus, large or small, in their money that provides or expanded production in plant and tool facilities, the whole adding up to jobs.

Double taxation of these savers may be right and good and politically profitable, but the savers are not required to like it. Properly organized they might stop it. Properly organized as voting conservatives they might help link the Democratic left wing political coalition born 30 years ago as the New Deal.

Profit Minor Item
These savers seem not to be overpaid for their investment. The First National City Bank in its current news letter broke down the expenditures of the 100 largest U. S. manufacturers. Their gross receipts were nearly $138 billion. Profit was about 6 per cent.

Their greatest expenditure was 57 per cent of the gross for goods and services, the next, 26.7 per cent for wages, salaries and employe benefits. Federal, state, local and foreign taxes absorbed 8.4 per cent of the gross, the federal income tax alone taking 3.8 per cent, or $5.2 billion.

The stockholder owners didn't do as well as the federal tax collector. The 100 manufacturers paid out in dividends 3.7 per cent of the gross, approximately $5.1 billion. The bank estimates there are more stockholders than workers in these corporations.

Nickle a Head
If stockholders could be organized and be taxed five cents a month for a political fund as some

Program Completed For Pampa's Huge July Fourth Celebration

Thousands of Pampans and visitors from neighboring towns and communities are expected to attend Pampa's huge July Fourth celebration next Wednesday night in Recreation Park.

E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce which is assisting in sponsoring the annual event, said Saturday night some 15,000 persons will hear the program and watch the fireworks display.

The brief program is scheduled to begin at 8:45 p.m. and the fireworks display will go into action ten minutes later at 8:55 p.m.

The program will include presentation of the colors, pledge of allegiance to the flag, invocation by Rev. Donald Hauck, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and a brief talk on the Declaration of Independence by Cameron

Marsh, principal of Pampa High School.

Kay Fancher will serve as master of ceremonies.

Traffic to and from Recreation park in all directions will be handled by city, county and State Highway Patrol officers.

Members of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce will man refreshment stands for the dispensing of soft drinks and ice cream to spectators. There will be plenty of parking space.

Chamber of Commerce officials have issued an invitation that extends far and wide across the "Top O' Texas for area residents to come to Pampa and enjoy one of the best fireworks displays ever staged locally.

The fireworks presentation will be under the supervision of the Burnett Fireworks Display Co. of Enid, Okla. The pyrotechnics will run for 35 minutes of continuous display.

Cost of the big show is being underwritten by Pampa merchants and professional people.

Highway Patrol Will Seek Out July Fourth Violators

LUBBOCK (Sp) — The enforcement effort of the Texas Department of Public Safety will be more than doubled during the Fourth of July holiday. Major Harry Hutchison, commander of the Northwest Texas Region, announced today. This means that motorists violating the law and driving recklessly on Texas Highways between midnight Tuesday, July 3, and midnight Wednesday, July 4, will be twice as likely to spend some of their vacation money for paying fines and may even spend part of their holiday time in jail.

"Our objective is to remove all violators from the holiday crowd," Major Hutchison said. "The Highway Patrol strength will be augmented by the assignment of License and Weight Motor Vehicle Inspection personnel and others to the special traffic control effort," he said. "Radar will be used around the clock and all patrolmen will work long shifts, split up and ride single, and will use all the tools at their command, to spread their influence as far and wide as possible."

For the fourth time in the past 11 years, the Fourth will be observed as a one-day holiday in Texas because it falls in the middle of the week. In 1956, the Department of Public Safety forecast of ten was exceeded when 15 traffic deaths were recorded. But in 1961, only six deaths were counted against a prediction of 11. The Statistical Service of the Department of Public Safety predicts eight deaths this year. On the average, about 6 people die each day in Texas traffic.

The economic loss from traffic accidents in Texas is a staggering 350 million dollars annually, but the careless driver may look forward to an actual out-of-pocket expense from $16.50 to $216.50 in fines and court costs if he is convicted of a violation, and he is not likely to escape the Department of Public Safety surveillance during the coming holiday.

Big Rodeo To Open Monday In Canadian

CANADIAN (Sp) — Canadian's 18th annual Fourth of July Rodeo show will get underway Monday night with the first of three performances at the Canadian Rodeo Arena.

The second show is slated Tuesday night, and the final performance of the rodeo will be on Wednesday afternoon, July 4, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Stock will be furnished again this year by Melvin McGarraugh.

The show will feature seven rodeo contests... saddle bronc and bareback bronc riding, bull riding, bulldogging, calf roping and headin' and heelin' events for the cowboys and a Cowgirl's Barrel Race for the girls.

Entry fees are $20 in the bronc riding, bull riding, and headin' and heelin' events; $25 in bulldogging and $30 in calf roping; with $100 added to the purses in each event. Entry fee in the Girls Barrel Race is $15, with $25 added for prize money.

In addition the Panhandle Cutting Horse Association will feature cutting horse contests... $25 entry fee plus $100 added in the open cutting horse events; $15 entry fee and jackpots in the $300 novice class; and $10 entry fee and jackpot in the $150 novice class. Cutting horses will work at each session of the rodeo.

Pampa's Representative To Girls State Tells Of Event

By WANDA HUFF
Pampa News Staff Writer

Johnlyn Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mitchell, 228 N. Faulkner, returned June 22 from living in a mythical 51st state for 10 days.

Located on the campus of the Texas State School for the Blind, in Austin, this mythical state is called the Blue Bonnet Girls State and is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary of Texas.

Blue Bonnet Girls State is organized and administered for citizenship training and is called a "laboratory of government." The 400-girl population from all over Texas spent 10 days learning how to operate, manage and participate in government, at the city, county and state levels.

All high school juniors, they organized two political parties, nominated candidates and elected officials to operate their city, county and state governments. They passed, abolished and pigeonholed bills in their Senate and House of Representatives, had a civil defense drill and lived as citizens of eight cities.

The girls were divided into four counties with two cities in each county. Girls lived in dormitories that doubled as "cities" with a population of 50 girls in each.

Both political parties were represented in the cities. After deciding what type of city government they wanted, the citizens elected all city officials, made laws, set fines, collected taxes, arrested law violators and governed each city just as adults govern real cities.

"We had one way stairs; foot licenses, issued by the traffic commission, instead of drivers licenses; luxury taxes of a penny for everything, such as letters received, irons and hair dryers," Johnlyn said.

"If we failed to give a hand signal everytime we stopped in the hall or turned a corner, our policemen fined us a penny for traffic violations. If we failed to have our bath tickets when we went to take a bath, we were fined a penny.

"Adults had charge of our bank. We deposited nearly all of our money and if we needed any, we wrote checks."

The 50 adults of the staff had been girls state citizens and directed the girls in learning to be the citizens of tomorrow.

In this 15th session of Girls State, the girls discussed nonpartisan political issues and heard lawyers, judges, legislators and teachers instruct them in the duties, privileges and rights of American citizenship.

During the Girls State "hearing" on loan sharks, an Austin lawyer explained the loan shark operations to the all-girl legislature.

The Girls State "governor" appointed Johnlyn as chairman of a three-member Youth Council, a position similar to a place on the presidential cabinet.

"We had four periods of two hours each for functioning of offices. During this time our elected officials acted in their capacities and learned what they would have to do if they ever are elected as real city, country or state officials.

"During this time, I mimeographed a Youth Council questionnaire and asked each girl to fill it out. The council decided that our duty would be to acquaint each girl with the moral issues, scholastic standards, and student government of each school represented in Girls State.

"We were fulfilling the duty assigned to Youth Council to conduct a continuing study of the juvenile delinquency problem and make recommendations to committees and the legislature concerning juvenile delinquency and crime.

"We operated our House and Senate like the state and national congresses. We passed and abolished bills, and had a regular session. I was a member of the House.

"In the House, we passed a bill to abolish capital punishment and struck out the enabling clause of a bill to legalize gambling. This killed the whole bill. We read a resolution to abolish the poll tax, but the vote never got to the floor, because of lack of time.

"No attempt was made to represent the democrat or republican parties. Our two political parties, the federalists and nationalists, were set up to familiarize us with the mechanism of parties and duties of representatives of our two party system," she said.

"At 5:30 one morning, we had an unrehearsed civil defense drill. I was a member of the state militia instructed to evacuate the "cities." The citizens were out in seven minutes. In 30 minutes we had the funeral for the "dead," treated the "wounded," recovered valuables taken by the "robbers" during the raid, and had returned to our cities.

"Each city had one senior and two junior counselors. They acted as the dead, wounded and robbers, who actually took our things and hid them until the raid was over.

"It was so realistic it was horrifying to think how it could be if real citizens ever have to go through a real civil defense raid."

The cities' populations went daily to a flag-raising ceremony and heard a narration of "I'm Old Glory," a tribute to the stars and stripes, at 10 p.m., June 14.

"The last night we were there, each city performed in a stunt. I was narrator for my city, city 'A', in "Patsy Pan in Ever Ever Land."

During one of three talent nights, Johnlyn played piano concert selections.

"The only time we were off the campus, we toured the state capitol building and went to Barton Springs, a natural springs, near Austin.

"Some of our speakers were Jack Co; and John Connally, candidates for governor; Truman O'Quinn, former Austin attorney, spoke to us on city government; Herman Jones, district judge of Travis County, explained county government; Miss Frances Goff of Houston and Girls State director, talked to us on state government; Dr. Andrea Camps, a high school teacher who emigrated from Cuba, spoke on 'Cuba, Then and Now.'

"Dr. Camps' last statement was 'It is better to die with honor than to live without dignity.' She left Cuba because she could not stay and let her children's minds be indoctrinated with Castro Communism. She said the future of any country is in the hands of its youth, and Castro has the Cuban youth believing he is a god."

Little Britches Rodeo On Tap At Canadian Today

CANADIAN (Spl) — Canadian's annual Little Britches Rodeo, featuring rodeo contestants of the future, will get underway with the first of two performances at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The second and final go-round of the Little Britches Show is slated for 2 p.m. Monday at the Canadian Rodeo Arena.

Scores of pint-sized riders and ropers of both sexes are expected to compete. Admission will be 50 cents for each show, with no seats reserved.

There'll be 22 events in four different age groups all the way from 5 to 14 years for the young competitors.

Buckles, trophies and ribbons are offered winners in each event, and the best All-Around Cowboy and All-Around Cowgirl will receive awards.

Travis Hardin and Delbert Harper will be in charge of the show.

COLLECTORS' ITEMS—Three special 5-yen stamps of the Olympics series go on one-month sale in Tokyo, with 5-yen surcharge for the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Fund. From top: Judo, dark red; Water polo, dark green; and Beam, printed dark brownish purple.

Taxes Cut In Transportation

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy has signed a bill which may make it cheaper to use public transportation for next summer's vacation.

The bill signed by the President Thursday extends for another year about $4 billion in federal excise and corporate taxes first enacted as a temporary levy during the Korean conflict.

But it also eliminates a 10 per cent tax on train and bus fares and reduces from 10 to 5 per cent the tax on airline tickets. All become effective this Nov. 15.

How much of the tax savings will be passed on to travelers remains to be seen. But the legislation is expected to mean lower cost travel on Western railroads. Some airlines also have indicated they will pass the tax saving along to travelers.

The legislation barely beat a deadline. If it had not been signed by midnight Saturday, the government would have lost $4 billion a year through expiration of taxes on corporation profits, liquor, cigarettes, automobiles and other consumer items. These taxes were continued for another year.

Included in the bill was a provision which will repeal, effective

Perryton Youth Will Get Award

CANADIAN (Spl)—Don Savage of Perryton, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark of Canadian, has been named to receive the highest State award in the 4-H Club work. The State Fair Honor Award will be presented to 12 Texas Boys and 12 Texas girls at an Honor Award banquet at the State Fair October 5.

Don, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Savage of Perryton, will receive the District I award. One boy and one girl from each of 12 extension districts will be presented the awards which are based on their 4-H records. Don is a 1962 graduate of Perryton High School and plans to attend West Texas State College at Canyon in September.

BRIDGE REPORTED STOLEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—State Finance Director James Ronan reported Wednesday that someone stole from a scrap yard a dismantled 60-ton bridge.

Physician Asks Doctors To 'Let God Take Over' The Incurably Ill

CHICAGO (UPI)—A Mayo Clinic expert has urged physicians to "step back and let God take over" instead of prolonging the lives of incurably ill cancer patients.

Dr. Edward H. Rynearson, an endocrinologist who also is professor of medicine at the University of Minnesota, spoke at an American Medical Association symposium on medical ethics Thursday.

He said when all treatment has been exhausted, the patient is suffering great pain, and he and his family are aware of the hopelessness of the ailment, the "kindest thing to do" is to let him die.

Rynearson said that when his own mother was incurably ill "I made sure she was comfortable and let her die." He said he was not advocating mercy killing.

Neither, he said, was he talking about children. "but if I had a child in this condition, I would let it die." He said he referred to adults who were "pleading for release" from excruciating pain.

"There are too many instances, in my opinion, in which patients in such a situation are kept alive indefinitely by means of tubes inserted into their stomachs, veins, bladders or rectums. The whole scene thus created is encompassed within a cocoon of oxygen, which is the next thing to a shroud," he said.

Old-Fashioned Wagon Train Leaves Pampa For Canadian Rodeo

'Hardy' Pioneers Winding Across Plains Hard Way

It was shades of the Old West here early today when a half dozen or so covered wagons, carrying some 30 or 40 "pioneers", and a group of cowboys rode off from Recreation Park into the wild, gray yonder.

The pioneers, the wagons, and the Leather and Lace Club cow gals and their horses, made up the Top O' Texas Wagon Train that pulled out of Recreation Park Barn shortly after 7 this morning and headed for the annual Canadian Rodeo July 3rd and 4th.

Wagonmaster Otto Mangold said all plans were completed for the trek to Canadian at a meeting held last Thursday night and apparently everything started off this morning as planned.

The first stop of the Wagon Train was scheduled for 11 a.m. today for Sunday church services and lunch at a point 15 miles east of Pampa. The train entourage will stop overnight in Miami, leaving Miami early tomorrow morning, the Monday luncheon stop will be at Seven Mile Park.

An overnight camp-out is scheduled Monday night at the "Y," seven miles south of Canadian. The Pampa Wagon Train will move on into Canadian Tuesday in time to have lunch and take part in the big Rodeo Parade scheduled for 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Wagonmaster Mangold is being aided on the trip by David Richardson, assistant wagonmaster; Jimmy Bean and Bill McIntyre, scouts, and Elmo Wheeler, mule skinner.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Ready or not, independence comes on Sunday to Ruanda and Urundi.

Two more unsuitable or less prepared candidates scarcely can be imagined.

There are many ironies in the story of these little-known former German East African territories lying along the slopes of the Mountains of the Moon.

In the rush toward independence and Afro-Asian determination to wipe out colonialism, whether these new nations can exist in harmony and prosperity becomes secondary to the issue of independence itself. Western nations, including the United States, anxious to avoid a charge of perpetuating colonialism, remain silent.

How Much Blood?

So, in the closing hours of United Nations debate, the question only was one: in the nature of the Congo two years ago, of how much blood would be shed.

Nor was it determined how the nations, poor, over-populated, based on a tribal social structure and not yet emerged from feudalism, would exist.

Together, Ruanda and Urundi, about twice the size of Maryland, have a population of five million. In Russia, there are nine persons per square kilometer, in the United States, 22.

In Ruanda-Urundi the figure is 88. The area is three-quarters mountainous, has no industry and few raw materials. Coffee is its only export, about 36,000 tons per year to supply the import needs of all its people.

The Belgians, who have administered it under League of Nations and U.N. mandate since World War I, are anxious to get out. African neighbors are equally uninterested.

Civil War Likely

In an area noted for conflict, the chances of bloodshed in Ruanda are especially good.

In the area are three ethnic groups, the Watutsi (Batutsi) of Ethiopian origin, the Bahutu who are related to the Bantus of the Congo, and the Batwa pygmoids, related to the pygmies of the Congo.

For at least 400 years, the giant Watutsi, about 6 feet, 6 inches in height, have held the Bahutus and the pygmies in virtual slavery, even though the Watutsi comprised only about 15 per cent of the population.

Only the Watutsi could own cattle, the basis of wealth and prestige.

In 1959, the Bahutus, with at least the silent blessings of the Belgians, threw out King Mwami Kigeri V and sent 200,000 Watutsi with him to refugee camps in Tanganyika, Uganda and the Congo.

Today they carry out guerrilla attacks against the Bahutus and with independence, could pose the threat of civil war.

Urundi's King Mwambutsa V is anti-Belgian but he has asked his people to treat the Belgians as "friends." Meanwhile, he plans to add a swimming pool to the grounds of the governor-general's mansion which he expects to occupy soon.

Sooner or later, a considerable degree of intense testing action to determine the support strength of the 525 area in the industrial average.

The Fitch Survey says the forthcoming period in which the list will be probing for a base should provide opportunity for favorable long-term commitments in numerous issues that have retreated to conservative valuation levels.

Can't Save Cash? Here's Way To Do It

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Money flies through your house so fast it makes you airsick?

It's off to grocer, dentist, car repairman, doctor, insurance company, utility firms?

But most distressing—you can't save? Are you SURE?

"Everyone can save," Mrs. Emily Terrall says, "and that includes the families with the heaviest financial responsibilities during the child-raising years."

Mrs. Terrall—alias Mrs. United States Savings Bonds, of 1962—notes that most families without savings wait-in-vain for the time when they will be rich enough to salt some away.

"In many families," she said, "that day never comes. The only rule is to pay yourself by putting something away every pay day."

Practices Saving

Mrs. Terrall, of St. Helena, Ore., practices what she preaches. An essay on thrift and an extemporaneous speech on the subject during the Mrs. America competition—she was Mrs. Oregon—won her the "Mrs. Savings Bonds" title.

Married for 14 years, she and her husband—parents of three sons—have saved 15 per cent of every pay.

"Managing on what's left," she said, "isn't always easy. But it can be done if you're iron-willed."

She recommended the following ideas for stretching dollars:

—Cutting the children's and husband's hair at home. Estimated saving: $180 a year in the Terrall family. Mom's the barber.

—Saving a heap by making that necessary second car a junker that runs. The Terrall-second car cost $100.

Buy In Quantity

—Stretching the food dollar by buying fresh fruits and vegetables by the bushel when they're a glut on the market. The Terralls have found prices best then. They can and freeze the victuals for consumption year 'round. Powdered milk, in 100-pound quantities, dropped their milk expenses to four cents a quart.

—Making the vacation money go far by camping. The Terralls have saved "thousands" by doing this.

Mrs. Terrall also saves by making most of her own clothes, doing her own housework and buying used furniture.

White Deer Personals

By MRS. ROBERT McALLISTER
Daily News Correspondent

Members of the White Deer Riding Club have accepted an invitation to ride in a parade which will appear in the movie "Hud Bannon," now being filmed at Claude.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wrinkle of Colorado Springs, Colo., have a baby daughter they have named Mary Lunne. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, White Deer, are the maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wrinkle, formerly of Skellytown, the paternal grandparents.

Becky Osborne from the local 4-H Community Club won top honors in the 4-H Favorite Food Show for Carson County, held recently in Panhandle. She won over 23 other contestants with a grade of 190 out of a possible 200.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Williams are vacationing in Nebraska with relatives. Don Vance was honored with a surprise birthday supper at his home recently. Supper was served picnic style with guests from White Deer, Panhandle and Amarillo attending.

Miss Vivian Warminski, junior leader of the White Deer 4-H Community Club, gave a "Favorite Food" program for members of the Conway club recently. Miss Warminski has been placed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring semester at Oklahoma State University. She is enrolled in the school of Home Economics, majoring in education.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith have returned from a fishing trip to Monument Lake, Colo.

Vicki and Connie Anthony of Alaj, Calif. will visit for the next three weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong.

Debbie and Dru Ann St. Clair are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. St. Clair at Lake Whittier.

Mrs. Guy H. Carriker and children are visiting Mrs. Carriker's sisters and families, Mrs. H. H. Kealey and Mrs. Joe Wheeley.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mooney were his two brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mooney of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mooney of Duncan, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Miliken visited relatives in Monahans last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Armour were called to Missouri by the death of Mrs. Armour's sister, Mrs. Dora Grogan, of Mountain Grove. Mrs. Minnie Crider, another sister came home with them for a few days visit before returning to her home in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Ollie Jordan of Floydada visited in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jordan recently. She was accompanied by her grandson, Randall Moore, also of Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gaston and his father L. Gaston were visitors in White Deer last week. They are former residents now living in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams have moved to Lubbock where Mrs. Adams is employed by an auto supply firm and Mr. Adams will enroll as a junior student at Texas Tech.

Jerald Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ballard, enlisted in the navy and left this week for San Diego, Calif., for boot training.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jacques Coe Co. says that just as the law of supply and demand brought down the house of cards in the securities market—the same law is putting up the price of silver metal, which means that some silver shares are doing better than the market and probably will do still better as we go along.

It says world annual consumption is now 350 million ounces and growing, but world supply is estimated at 200 million ounces and holding. The Treasury, it notes, is no longer filling part of the gap. Red China is selling Japan what little it can steal or confiscate from those who have some, and London speculative position is down from a peak of 55 million ounces to a bare 15 million or less.

The brokerage house says "some serious people expect the price to rise steadily for a long time to come—at least until new or old marginal mines come into production—and that takes time."

Benson B. Sloan of Harris, Upham & Co. says another test of the 525-525 level in the D-J industrials now would be perfectly normal, and judging from the market's action toward Tuesday's close, he thinks such a test is imminent.

Thomson & McKinnon says the period ahead should see,

55TH YEAR SUNDAY, JULY 1, 1962

This Could Be One Of Those Rare Years When Yankees Lose Pennant

NEW YORK (UPI)—This could be one of those rare years—the kind in which the Yankees lose the pennant.

Today, Hook is like the losing Stengel of '54 and '59. He keeps looking for the match that'll light the fuse on a Yankee pennant—surge hoping "next week" or the next series will start em roaring.

Gary Player, Jacky Cupit Share Lead In Western Open Tourney

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gary Player emerged from behind with a sub-69 Saturday and Jacky Cupit on top with regulation golf to take first place after 54 holes of the $34,000 Western Open tournament with 3-under par scores of 210.

third holes, but he went over par on the sixth when he missed a five foot try and he three-putted the 18th to go over again.

AMA Okays Opposition To Medicare

CHICAGO (UPI) — American Medical Association delegates have unanimously approved un-compromising opposition to medicare and implied consent to "doc-tors' strikes" by individuals if the bill passes congress.
The 218-member House of Dele-gates, with virtually every mem-ber present, roared its condemna-tion of the Kennedy administra-tion's King-Anderson bill to pro-vide medical care for the aged under the Social Security system at the closing session of the AMA's 111th annual meeting.
The AMA then elected its official anti-medicare spokesman, Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, as pres-ident-elect.
The Louisiana delegation, which had presented a tough resolution calling for "doctors' strikes" in the event of adoption of King-Anderson, or similar, legislation, claimed the wording adopted was "exactly what we wanted."
Opposition to medicare had been expected, but the committee on legislation and public relations in-serted a surprise clause in the resolution, calling special attention to a section of the AMA's "princ-iples of medical ethics."
The cited section states, "A physician should not dispose of his services under terms or conditions which tend to interfere with or im-pair the free and complete exer-cise of his medical judgement and skill, or tend to cause a deteriora-tion of the quality of medical care."

Impressive Memorial Service For Altrusan

A memorial service for the late Mrs. Frank Lard, charter member and past president of the Altrusa Club of Pampa, was conducted by Mrs. Lorene Locke, incoming president, at the club's dinner meeting held Monday evening in the West Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn.

A picture Altrusa Club blue and white emblem draped with flowers in a gold frame was flanked by two white tapers before which Mrs. Locke placed a single red rose and concluded the impressive service with prayer. Mrs. Lard is the first Altrusa Club member to pass away, while still a member, during the club's 10 years of organization.

In the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. L. L. Harkins, outgoing president, the secretary's report was given by Mrs. Clay Coston, who, also announced that perfect attendance awards for the 1961-62 club year had been attained by Mrs. Irl Smith, F. A. Hukill, L. L. Harkins, Mary Wilson, Ila Poole and Clay Coston.

In a report from the corresponding secretary, Miss Evelyn Mason stated that a new Altrusa Club had been formed in Sheffield, Yorkshire England. Correspondence from the Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes was read expressing appreciation to the club for assisting with the Moral Rearmament housing during June.

As an end-of-the-club year program, reports of activities and projects were given by Mrs. M. E. Smith, Information; Ray E. Wilson, Public Affairs; Ruth Sewell for Mrs. Joe Tooley, International Relations; Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Vocational Information; V. L. Hobbs, classification; Lillian Snow, election; F. W. Shotwell, election; Dona Cornutt, finance; Mark Heath, membership; F. W. Shotwell, publicity; Evelyn Mason, corresponding secretary; Louise Sewell, Senior Center; and Miss Rosemary Lawlor, radio.

Following a suggestion by Mrs. Grant Anderson, who stated that she would donate a sink to the Pampa Youth and Community Center to facilitate serving at social meetings held in the Center, if the club would approve installing the necessary water connections, members approved the expense involved.

Miss Jean Chisholm, whose resignation as an active member of the club became effective with the Monday night meeting, was honored by the members for her outstanding work during the past six years on the annual Career Clinic staged in the Pampa High School. Miss Chisholm has served as the original chairman at the beginning of the project and it was through her efforts, in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, the Jaycees and school officials, that four career clinics have been held. Miss Chisholm was presented a certificate of achievement by Mrs. Smith.

In an installation service, conducted by Mrs. Smith assisted by Mrs. Don Kenney, Rufe Jordan, Bonnie McCarley and Mary Wilson, new officers for the 1962-63 club year were installed before a tiered candelabra holding 14 white tapers hung with seven gold keys, which were inscribed with the letters A-L-T-R-U-S-A before a large blue and white Altrusa banner. Each member was given a large gold key attached to a blue and gold ribbon as a symbol of the key to "the golden opportunity for service" for Altrusa members.

New officers are Mrs. Lorene Locke, president; Mrs. Clay Coston, vice president; Mrs. Ray E. Wilson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clyde Vanderberg, recording secretary; Mrs. Don Robinson, treasurer; E. E.

Etheridge and Marian Osborne, directors. Mrs. Locke was presented with the traditional president's pin, which is passed from the outgoing president to the incoming president; and Mrs. Harkins was presented with the past presidents pin and guard.

Plans were approved to hold the July meeting in Lovett Memorial Library and the August meeting in the new Citizens Bank and Trust Co.

Mrs. Heath was awarded the door prize. Miss Cynthia Lewter of Odessa, granddaughter of Mrs. Grant Anderson, was introduced as a special guest.

HONORED — Miss Jean Chisholm was honored for her work on the Career Clinic, which is sponsored annually in Pampa High School, jointly, by the Altrusa Club, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce and school officials. Miss Chisholm, executive secretary for the Cabot Corp., has served as Altrusa chairman for the Career Clinic, since its formation six years ago and has been instrumental in the success of the four clinics held to date. The honor was bestowed Monday night because of Miss Chisholm's resignation from the club due to her forthcoming marriage on July 17 to Ben Martin Jr. of Amarillo. (Photo, Smith Studio)

OES Officers Installed In Impressive Ceremony

Mrs. Coy Palmer was installed as worthy matron and Vernon Miner as worthy patron in an impressive open installation held Saturday evening by the Top of Texas Chapter, 1064, Order of the Eastern Star, attended by relatives and friends of the new officers.

Other officers installed were Jean Monroe, associate matron; R. C. Grider, associate patron; Ina Reading, secretary; Lucile Wagner, treasurer; Mary Price, conductress; Helen Rittenhouse, associate conductress; Margie Miner, chaplain; Ruby Crocker, marshal; Coy Palmer, organist; Jesse Thurmond, Adah; Belva Hayes, Ruth; Dorothy Burton; Esther; Mary Wilson, Martha; LaVerne Coombes, Electa; Hazle Phillips, warder; Iva Trigg, sentinel.

Mrs. Eva Conley, past matron and aunt of Mrs. Palmer, was installing officer assisted by Mrs. Erma Rogers, past grand matron of Oklahoma, installing marshal; Rachel Jones, installing chaplain; Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson, installing secretary pro tem.

Preceding the installation, Mrs. Wilkerson presented a musical interlude. Following a call to order by Coy Palmer, retiring worthy patron, the Lord's Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance were repeated in unison followed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Mrs. Lucile Wagner, retiring worthy patron, extended a welcome to guests.

Grand honors were accorded Mrs. Erma Rogers, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oklahoma and Mrs. Ada Jackson, deputy grand matron of District Two, Section One of the Grand Chapter of Texas.

The worthy matron's chosen colors of red, white and silver were used in decorating the chapter room and reception room. White tapers in candelabra flanked the podium and reflected the beauty of the large basket of white gladioli and red carnations that adorned the East.

The guest registrar's table and the reception table were appointed with white lace cloths over red.

Mrs. Palmer has dedicated her program and year's work to her aunt, Mrs. Conley. Her chosen theme is "To Make This Life Worthwhile."

Chris Jonsson, an American Field Service student, who has been making his home with the Palmers during the winter, was welcomed as a guest.

Miss Linda Meech presented an oboe solo accompanied by Mr. Jonsson on the piano.

Mr. Palmer, husband of the worthy matron, as guest soloist was accompanied by the "Cosmopolitans" in the selections "Wagon Wheels" and "That Long Lost Gold Mine in the Sky." For the benediction, Mr. Palmer sang "Prayer Perfect."

Couple Exchange Vows, Rings In Farmington Home Ceremony

Miss Barbara Jo Maxey, of Farmington, exchanged wedding vows with Ted Sherman Koenig, of Farmington, in a home ceremony in 9:30 a.m. rites on June 9 with the Rev. John Ballof First Christian Church, Farmington, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Maxey, of Farmington. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koenig, 1105 Garland.

Vows were repeated in the Maxey home, 509 Glade Place, with red roses, white candles and white bells decorating the room reserved for the ceremony.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white floor-length brocade accented with a round neck and bell skirt. Her only jewelry was a pin, a gift from the bridegroom.

A white floral headpiece secured her chignon fingertip veil. She carried red roses on a white Bible.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Glen Pyeat of Williams, Ariz., was her only attendant. She wore a street-length dress of red chiffon and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Carroll Crawford, of Farmington, was the bridegroom's best man.

A home reception followed the ceremony. Carrying out the red and white color scheme, the bride's table was decorated with a white lace cloth, red roses and crystal punch bowl.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Maxey, greeted guests in a beige silk dress with matching hat, black accessories and a champagne-colored corsage.

Sandra Faulkner and Cheryl Carpenter served at the bride's table, which was centered with a triple-tiered wedding cake, decorated with red roses, and miniature bride and bridegroom figurines.

Sandie Richardson recorded gifts, and Lois Cummins registered the guests.

For the wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride chose a brown silk suit complemented with a beige silk blouse and a corsage of champagne-colored carnations.

The couple will live in Taos, N.M., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Forest Service at the Carson National Forest.

A June graduate, the bride was active in student council at Farmington High School. The bridegroom graduated from Pampa High School and North Carolina State College, Raleigh, N.C. He is a member of the Society of American Foresters and a second lieutenant in the National Guard.

Members Pledged By Hep Cat Club

Hep Cat Club, social club for junior high age girls, entertained with an Acceptance Tea on Friday evening in the home of Miss Frances Holt, 2010 Charles. The pledging season started on June 23 and was concluded with a Heck Night on Saturday. It was announced that a special pledging session will be held for those pledges, who were out of town during pledge week.

The guy who is as honest as the day is long sometimes has to be watched after dark.

Mrs. Edwin T. Bumpass
nee Nancy E. Stevenson

Miss Nancy E. Stevenson Becomes June Bride Of Edwin T. Bumpass

Miss Nancy E. Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stevenson, west of the city and Edwin T. Bumpass, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bumpass of Anson exchanged wedding vows in a service performed at eight o'clock on June 18 in the University Baptist Church in Abilene.

The Rev. Maple Avery was officiant for the ceremony. Mrs. Karen Swartz provided the traditional wedding music and served as accompanist for Miss Barbara Lunsford, soloist.

BRIDE

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in ballerina-length solid lace over satin taffeta fashioned with a scalloped sweetheart neckline accented with pearlized sequins and pearls and long petal-point sleeves.

Her elbow-length Veil of Illusion was held to a Crown of pearlized flowers. She carried a white orchid set in a carnation spray.

ATTENDANTS

The feminine attendants were Mrs. Paula Morgan of Wichita Falls, sister of the bride as matron of honor and Miss Marilyn Myatt as bridesmaid. Miss Morgan wore a pale pink voile full-skirted street-length dress with a pink organdy eyelet-overskirt. Her dress was complemented with a hat of pink tulle topped with a crown of rosebuds. The attendants carried crescent bouquets of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was self-employed as a rancher and farmer. They will make their home 20 miles northwest of Abilene, where the bridegroom is self-employed as a rancher and farmer.

The bride was an art major junior at Hardin-Simmons University. The bridegroom was a senior chemistry major at HSU.

BETROTHED

Miss Betty Sue Newman and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newman of Mobeetie announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Betty Sue, to Ben W. Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ballard of Claude. A late summer wedding is planned in the First Baptist Church in Mobeetie.

PLANTS

You can go away on vacation and leave your house plants right where they are if you put each one in a plastic bag — the same kind that vegetables come in — and seal them tightly. Don't water the plants before you put them into bags or they will be too wet.

GILBERTS

The Mature Parent

Knowing Limitations Step To Understanding

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

My 11-year-old girl is the child of my ex-husband and has never forgiven me for my remarriage to her stepfather. She sees her father twice a month, and afterward always spends a great deal of time in her room alone. She is very jealous of her half-sister and shows in every way that she does not consider herself part of the family. She rarely shows me any affection. I am frankly afraid that her inferiority feelings may become a serious problem in her adolescence.

ANSWER: Has your daughter asked you for a psychiatric diagnosis of her behavior?

If not, why do you attempt to make one?

To avoid the self-accusations argued by her behavior?

I expect so. One of the great liabilities of the popularization of child psychology is the way we use our surface knowledge of it to evade our own feelings about children's behavior.

Unless you can feel the hurt that her scorn of your affection arouses in you, your psychological diagnosis of her problem will remain useless to you. It will simply enable you to avoid feeling the pain aroused by her distrust, and by placing the responsibility for your poor relationship to her upon her "inferiority feelings," encourage you to continue to believe that your own self-depreciation has nothing to do with the problem between you.

You see, what we are really talking about is what you feel about divorcing her father and marrying a man who is not her father.

I don't think, for example, that you have lived through the guilts, the self-doubts, the whole painful business that is inevitably involved in the failure of one marriage and the establishment of another. Had you really lived through it, you would not be dealing so pompously with her critical behavior.

You would have long since exploded your indignation at her mistreatment of you and found an occasion to cry out, "You are asking too much of me! Though you can love your father, I could not. Just as I can't make you love me if you don't love me, you can't make me love your father if I don't."

"And I don't like being punished for what I can't do any more than you do! You just think about that, because I've had enough of this criticism."

That is how we speak when we have accepted our own limitations.

Harmon-Winkle Pledge Vows Under Taper Arch

Mrs. Hershel Winkle...nee Desiree Jean Harmon (Photo, Call's Studio)

was topped with white satin wedding bells accented with seed pearls.

Mint Green punch was served from a crystal punch service by Miss Baggerman. Miss Annetta Altman, bride's cousin, presided at the cake service.

Other members of the household were Mmes. R. P. Hill, Boise Griffin, Clarence Coffin and Arthur Rohde.

For a brief wedding trip, the bride traveled in a two-piece pink linen suit complemented with white accessories. She wore the rose-bud corsage from her bride's bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Pampa High School this spring and will be employed in bookkeeping and secretarial work in Abilene next fall. The bridegroom attended Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar, Mo.; Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth; John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Ark. He has a scholarship to attend Hardin Simmons University this fall, where he will be a member of the basketball team.

The couple will make their home in Amarillo until September when they will move to Abilene.

TINTS AND DYES

Use tints and dyes to revitalize curtains, sweaters, hand-mendings, gloves, and unmatched hosiery.

Take It From Kathy

Dear Kathy: I'm 19 but to some people I appear to be only 16. This can be a terrific problem. I graduated from high school two years ago but one day when I was buying a shirt at a department store, the clerk asked why I wasn't in school. When I told him how old I was, he looked at me in a funny way and said he thought I was 15 or 16. I'm getting sick and tired of people thinking I'm so young. What can I do to look like a 19-year-old?

Even movie theaters will admit me for the price of a student but if the film is limited to adults, the person in the box office won't believe my age. I have to carry my driver's license all the time to prove how old I am. Looks Younger.

Dear Looks Younger: People who don't know you can judge by only two things — what they see and what they hear when you start talking. Think about this and then look for the differences between older men and high school students.

Are you still wearing the casual clothes that were popular with the gang when you were a student? Do you have a "fad" haircut or have you graduated to the long-on-top look with well-trimmed sides?

When you start talking, is the conversation sprinkled with slang or are your thoughts well expressed? Do you give the impression of a confident man or do people get the feeling that you are still a youngster who isn't sure of himself?

Self-evaluation affects the way you think, feel and behave. If you have convinced yourself that you aren't grown up and don't look that way, it shows to the rest of the world and they believe it's true.

Consider all these things but if they don't add to your outward maturity, you'll have to grin and bear it. It might be consoling to remember that you'll probably look a little younger than you are at 39, 49 and older. At that point you'll enjoy it!

SS Class Has Social Meeting

GROOM (Spl) — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garmon, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Major were hosts for the Methodist Church's Torchbearer Sunday School Class social Monday night in Groom.

Mrs. Ray Copeland and Max Ray Faulkner won high score prizes; Mrs. Carlos Roberts and Curtis Schaffer won low score prizes.

Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Copeland, Messrs. and Mmes. Glyn D. Harrell, Ernest Lamberson, Roberts, Jim Littlefield, Schaffer, Faulkner, Mrs. Ruby Denton and Miss Beulah Shockley.

The First Assembly of God Church was the scene for the nuptials uniting Miss Desiree Jean Harmon and Hershel Winkle on June 15 at eight o'clock in the evening. The Rev. J. S. McMullen officiated for the double-ring service performed in a candlelight setting formed by white tapers set in a white wrought-iron archway entwined with greenery. Pew candles and baskets of white gladioli completed the nuptial setting. Miss Harmon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harmon of Pampa. Mr. Winkle's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Winkle of Everton, Mo. Pre-nuptial music and the traditional processional and recessional were played on the organ by Miss Glenda Winkle, bridegroom's sister. Mrs. John Dawson, bride's sister, as soloist sang "Walk Hand In Hand With Me", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction as the couple knelt on a white satin prie dieu. BRIDE Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in floor-length nylon tulle and lace fashioned with a v-shaped neckline edged with pearls and long sleeves which tapered to petal points over the hands. The bouffant, floor-length skirt of tulle, worn over hoops, featured an overskirt of lace scalloped around the hemline accented with pearls. Her elbow-length veil of illusion tulle was edged with lace and fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried an arrangement of white roses showered with white streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. ATTENDANTS Miss Ronda Griffin attended as maid of honor wearing a Mint Green cotton satin dress designed with a bouffant skirt, scooped neckline, puff sleeves complemented with a matching picture hat and white gloves. She carried a white basket arranged with white pompon chrysanthemums and greenery showered with white streamers. Miss Roselle Baggerman and Miss Rosalee Hollowell served as bridesmaids and were dressed as the maid of honor and carried identical floral baskets. The bridegroom was attended by Gary Lee Holdeman, college classmate of the bridegroom, as best man. Ushers were Kermit Harmon of Amarillo, bride's brother, John Dawson of Palo Duro State Park, brother-in-law of the bride. Candles were lighted by David Harmon, bride's brother and Leroy Winkle, bridegroom's brother. Rings were carried to the bridal pair by Richard Ratliff, nephew of the bride. Renel Smith, as flower girl, wore a gown, veil and headpiece similar to the bride's. RECEPTION Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the City Club Room, which was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli. Miss Glenda Winkle provided background nuptial selections. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over a Mint Green centered with the bride's bouquet. The three-tiered wedding cake

The best way to play up an even-sun tan is to accent your eyes and lips. Brows, penciled in a natural arch, soft, colorful eye shadow, and lashes darkened with mascara bring out the beauty of a golden tan. And lipstick, expertly applied in a pretty summer shade, completes the picture.

But heat and humidity can play havoc with make-up. So repairs throughout the day are necessary. You may feel that it would be cumbersome to carry with you each make-up item, needed to completely re-do your eyes, face and lips. But now that cosmetic houses are packaging many dual-purpose beauty aids in slim, beautiful containers, you can carry a full supply without cluttering your handbag.

Combination foundation and powder can be found in either a slim compact or an almost weightless tube. And now, one manufacturer has brought out a slender case that contains lipstick at one end and eye shadow at the other. It comes in nine color combinations and refills are available.

Hill-Dawson Say Pledge In Double-Ring Service

Mrs. Jerry Glenn Dawson
... Nee Linda Maxine Hill

Miss Linda Maxine Hill of Spearman repeated wedding vows with Jerry Glenn Dawson of Muleshoe on June 1 at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Spearman with the Rev. Luther Berry, pastor, performing the double-ring service.

Miss Hill is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Hill of Dallas, C. D. Hill of Pampa and foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gates of Spearman. Mr. Dawson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Dawson of Muleshoe.

mother, Mrs. Dawson, wore a pink white accessories. Their corsages embroidered linen dress with were fashioned from pink carnations.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over orchid centered with the bride's and bridesmaid's bouquets. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with orchid roses and topped with a bridal couple.

Miss Martha Catherine Hill of Altus, sister of the bride, Miss Janice Smith of Spearman and Miss Hatie Joe Dawson, bridegroom's sister, presided at the cake and punch service.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride traveled in a navy blue silk suit, complemented with white accessories and wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended schools in Pampa and was graduated from Spearman High School in 1960. She will be a junior at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview this fall.

The bridegroom was graduated from Muleshoe High School in 1960 and will also be a junior at Wayland Baptist College this fall. During the summer, he will be employed on a farm near Muleshoe, where the couple will make their home until school begins in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, bridegroom's parents, were hosts for a rehearsal luncheon on Friday preceding the wedding in the dining room of Miller's Cafe in Spearman.

DON'T PUNCTURE PLASTIC

When sewing plastic, avoid unnecessary holes by using cellophane tape instead of pins or basting stitches. A soft pencil marks cutting lines which can be washed off easily.

★ Polly's Quiz ★

By Polly Cramer

Color is a magician, but don't think every decorating trick can be pulled out of a paint bucket. A sparkling color scheme can bring new life to a room, true. But there are other things that can cause trouble. Too many, too few or too - commonplace accessories can be conflicting elements. Often these are the worst offenders, as they look like an odd assembly of Christmas and birthday gifts that were just popped down any old place.

The burning desire for a new color scheme is fine, but look further at the room in question. It may only partially solve the problem. Rearrange the furniture. Take out the accessories and bring back only those that contribute to the room's beauty and usefulness. These changes, in company with new colors, should really work magic.

Dear Polly: We want to paint our living room, dining room and hall. All can be seen from the hall, as well as a lemon yellow bedroom, pink and maroon bath and peacock blue and white kitchen.

Dark furniture, gray rugs and white curtains. The mantel is now Grecian pink like all of our woodwork. I do not tire of it and want to keep the mantel that color. A constant reader.

Dear Constant Reader: You failed to mention the colors in your furniture-upholstery, so I'll have to be as vague as your letter. I cannot be too positive about what you should do, except that I am very sure you would do well to change the pink woodwork and mantel in your living room. Off-white walls and woodwork might be a safe choice for all rooms.

Dear Polly: We are redecorating the bedrooms. Ours is being painted lavender and I would like to know what colors for bedspread, curtains and rugs. Also, what color would be nice for a room for a 7-year old boy and a nursery for a boy baby?—F. R.

Dear F. R.: Shop for a well-covered floral print in blues, lavender, bright pink and greens to use for curtains and dust ruffle. The bedspread and rugs could

Dear Mrs. C. V. G.: Knickknacks or accessories are very personal and should be carefully selected for beauty, usefulness and general personal appeal. It would be impossible to suggest the right ones for your room.

Think before you choose a pink swivel rocker for your living room. Use the pink in smaller doses. How about aqua and white tweed mixture? I would prefer draperies with an aqua or white ground.

Dear Reader: A heavy volume of mail doesn't permit Mrs. Cramer to answer her letters and post cards individually. But she will comment in her column on decorating problems of general interest. She cannot undertake to return floor plans or fabric swatches which are enclosed with letters.

SHOES FOR ALL THE FAMILY

Two large baskets of white and orchid gladioli arranged with orchid chrysanthemums flanked with candelabra holding white tapers formed the wedding scene. Pews of honor were marked with large white bows.

BRIDE

Given in marriage by her foster father, the bride was gownned in floor-length white satin and lace designed with a bateau neckline outlined with re-embroidered lace-medallions accented with pearls. The basque bodice, with its tapered sleeves, was enjoined to a lace overskirt parted to reveal a white satin panel down the length of the gown to the floor.

Her waist-length veil of Illusion tulle was held to a Crown of lace and pearls. She carried a white orchid arranged with stephanotis and showered with satin streamers.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Reba Aline Hill of Altus, Okla., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Neita Faye Smith of Spearman and Miss Lena Pearl Hawkins of Pampa.

Miss Hill wore an orchid taffeta sheath with an overskirt of embroidered silk organza. She carried a colonial nosegay of orchid carnations. Miss Smith wore a turquoise dress of silk organza over polished cotton. Miss Hawkins' dress was yellow organza over polished cotton. Both carried nosegays of white carnations with net and ribbon streamers to match their dresses.

All three attendants wore ribbons in their hair to match their dresses, which was fashioned into bows with long streamers. Dresses were fashioned as the bride's.

Bob Hamner of Plainview was best man. Groomsman were Ted Sanders of Plainview, and Don Devers of Spearman. Ushers were Cyrus Doyle Hill Jr., B. F. De's brother, of Altus, Dale Krebs of Sudan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Miss Cathy Harvey, niece of the bridegroom, of Cloyis and Miss Janice Gates, foster sister of the bride, served as flower girls. They wore dresses of white dacron with white satin ribbons in their hair fashioned into a bow with long streamers. Each carried rose-petal filled baskets of white decorated with orchid ribbon.

Candlelighters were Miss Suzan Gates and Master Truett Gates, foster sister and brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hill wore a pink lace over taffeta dress with white accessories. The bride's foster mother, Mrs. Gates, chose a black silk dress with white patent and pink accessories. The bridegroom's

Dear Abby....

Abigail Defines Title For Real Father!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In this day and age, what should one call his father? Dad, Pop, Papa? Does "Father" denote more respect than Papa? We'd like your opinion.

TWO SONS
DEAR ABBY: I have had a clipping for many years. The author is unknown to me. I'd like to share it with you:

"If he is prominent and wealthy and you stand in awe of him, call him 'Father.' If he sits in his shirt sleeves and sunders at ball games, call him 'Pop.' If he tills the soil and labors in overalls, call him 'Pa.' If he wheels the baby carriage and carries bundles meekly, call him 'Papa,' with the accent on the first syllable. If he belongs to a literary circle and writes cultured papers, call him 'Papa,' with the accent on the last syllable. If, however, he makes a pal of you when you're good, and is too wise to let you pull the wool over his loving eyes when you're not, and if, moreover, you're sure no one else you know has quite so fine a father, you may call him 'Dad.'"

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a nut who insists that I continue bleaching my hair like I did 25 years ago. He says he fell in love with a blonde and he doesn't want to live with a gray-haired old grandmother. Abby, I am sick to death of sitting in beauty parlors. It is expensive and ridiculous. My natural hair color would be a salt and pepper, which would give the "frosted" effect which is fashionable today. But this bull-

headed, blonde-loving husband of mine says NO. What can I do? BLONDIE

DEAR BLONDIE: Get a good blonde wig and watch your husband flip his when he gets the bill.

DEAR ABBY: There is a young married girl in our neighborhood who is very pretty. All she has to do is look at a man and he is under her spell. Well, she has come over here several times right after supper and has asked my husband to go with her to try to hunt up her husband. They are gone two and three hours at a time and I don't like it. (They never seem to find her husband.) I don't want to appear jealous but I'd like her to leave my husband alone. How? Or am I being childish?

DEAR JEALOUS: Your instincts are probably good. Why invite trouble? Next time your neighbor recruits your husband for a man hunt — join the hunt.

DEAR ABBY: I often wonder what the relationship is between new-weds who begin their married life with twin beds. Do these partners go through life never knowing the ecstasy of dropping off to sleep encircled in loving arms? Or the comfort and peace derived from the closeness of a loved one in the night? When my wife and I are forced to accept a motel room with only twin beds, we use only one.

MARRIED TO THE SAME WOMAN FOR 35 YEARS

How's the world treating you? For a personal unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Baptists Convene For Class Social

Mrs. C. G. Miller directed the entertainment for the T.E.L. Sunday School Class of Central Baptist Church Tuesday during the social in Mrs. Pearl Erwin's home, 918 Twiford.

The class sang "What a Friend We Have In Jesus," with Mrs. W. O. Grace giving the opening prayer, Mrs. E. O. Ethridge, president, conducted the business meeting, and Mrs. W. G. Gooding, gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Henry Taylor presented a devotion from the 145th Psalms.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Garland, Grace, L. A. Baxter, Myrtle Enloe, Taylor, M. E. Tucker, R. E. Warren, Ethridge, Gooding, Frank Young, Dora Poe, E. G. Miller, and Mrs. M. B. Hayes, a guest.

The class gave Mrs. Erwin a gift. Mrs. R. E. Turner offered closing prayer.

EXERCISE FEET

Your feet will feel better with a few daily exercises. Try rolling a medium-sized rubber ball back and forth with your bare feet to limber the muscles.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

By FRANK D. SMITH

Why is it that many babies learn to walk in a new pair of shoes?

The most probable reason is that the old shoes were too small. If you will notice, babies use their little toes for balance. When they walk in their bare feet, or sox the little toe of the right foot points to two o'clock while the others point to twelve. After the babies learn balance the little toes become less and less important and close in with the other toes, so they can wear shoes in adult life that do not look like rubbers.

Dark Walls
NEW YORK (UPI) — Paints of medium and dark values have shown an increase in popularity for walls during the past three years, color researchers report. Does it mean dark walls are returning?

Although this is an indication of change from the whites, tans and pastels, the end result is anyone's guess, reports the Color Research Department of a paint manufacturer.
