Auto Union Pact Effort Stepped Up

DETROIT (UPI) — Increased government pressure today averted a possible new General Motors strike just as GM and the United Auto Workers redoubled efforts to get a quarter-million workers back on their jobs by Monday as President Kennedy suggested.

Federal Mediation Chief William E. Simkin got the International Union of Electrical Workers and GM to agree to an indefinite extension at five GM appliance and parts plants. But a sixth plant at Warren, Ohio, ignored the government request and went on strike.

At the same time, the UAW and GM pledged to increase their efforts to reach a final agreement by Monday — an unofficial deadline set by Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg on behalf of the President.

Sixty UAW-represented plants have settled local contract matters, eight of them Thursday. But not all the factories re-opened and there still were 262,000 workers idled either by strikes or shutdowns at 93 plants. About 89,000 GM workers were not affected.

Referring to the government request to re-open all GM plants by next week, UAW president Walter P. Reuther said "We are working hard" but indicated he was not going to be rushed into setting a deadline.

"You've got to realize that GM has 130 plants—and it takes time to wrap them up," he said.

A decision will be made "in a day or so," he said, on when to convene the union's National GM Council. The 20-man group will meet to ratify GM's national and local contracts. Any plant still on strike then probably would be ordered re-opened.

Goldberg said Thursday that Kennedy wants General Motors back in full production by Monday because "we need our automobile industry back at work" and the nation can't afford a prolonged shutdown at GM.

Leadership Fete Set Tomorrow

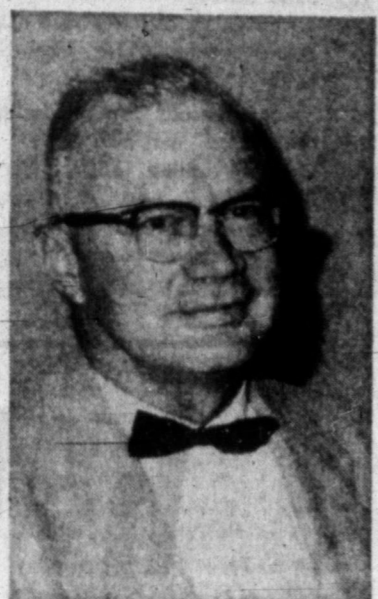

The third annual Leadership banquet, honoring student officers of classes, clubs, athletic squads, and their sponsors, will be held in the cafeteria of Pampa High School at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The "Adult Leader of the Year" will be named, and 14 local adult leaders will be honored as special guests. The leadership banquet is sponsored by the Pampa Key Club. The first adult leader of the year was Cameron Marsh, then principal of Pampa Junior High, now principal at high school. He was recognized in 1959. The 1960 awardee was Melvin T. Munn, a local public relations counsel. The adult leader of the year is chosen by a committee representing the total student body of the high school. The award is based on exceptional leadership in any field; is limited to residents of Gray County, and, is given for demonstrated leadership of the immediate past.

Program Chairman Vince Johnson has announced that the banquet program will be introduction and explanation of the year-long "Youth Freedom Study." Every school organization and class has been invited to join in a strong study of the basic principles of freedom.

Banquet General Chairman John Arthur expects between 150 and 175 student leaders and special guests. Entertainment will feature vocalist Miss Jean Holman, and dinner music will be provided by Mrs. W. H. Fuller at the organ. Wayne Denson, president, will preside at the banquet, and Arnold Phillips, junior director will serve as master of ceremonies.

All Pampa Key Club members, their parents, Kiwanis Club members and their wives and high school teachers are invited to share in the banquet.

NAMED TO FUND POST—Dr. Joe Donaldson, one of Pampa's active civic leaders, today was named chairman of the Professional Division of Pampa's 1961 United Fund Drive. He will head the committee making solicitations among the city's professional men and women. The general fund drive will start Monday, Oct. 23. This year's goal is $68,746.

Vote On Postal Boost Measure Nears In House

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A bill to provide a five-cent stamp and raise other postal rates was expected to pass the House today despite widespread agreement among lawmakers that its terms are unfair.

The chief criticism was that the measure would levy a sharper percentage rate increase on ordinary mailers than on heavy commercial users of the mail. President Kennedy had urged that the heaviest percentage increases be imposed on commercial users, mostly publishers and advertisers.

However, the $520 million revenue-producing bill was cleared by the Rules Committee Thursday night for House action on a take-it-or-leave-it basis with amendments barred.

The administration concurred in the no-amendment strategy which backers of the bill said was necessary to meet minimum terms laid down by Chairman Olin Johnson, D-S. C., of the Senate Post Office Committee.

They said Johnson had served notice he would not permit any other compromise measures to come to a vote in the Senate.

There was divided opinion on whether the Senate would complete congressional action on the dispute compromise before Congress adjourns, probably late next week.

The compromise bill would grant Kennedy's request that postage be hiked from four to five cents on first class letters and from seven to eight cents on air mail letters next Jan. 1.

But it would provide only a fraction of the postage increases Kennedy wanted levied on publications and advertising circulars. Moreover, small, light-weight publications would be hit by a much heavier percentage increase than medium-size and heavy magazines.

The administration supports the measure because it offers a chance for enactment this year of a part of the $43 million a year in extra postal revenue Kennedy wants to hold down huge red-ink spending.

There was no sign of major opposition to the measure from heavy commercial users.

Hospital Board Member Chosen

Richard W. Stowers, 2015 Charles, vice president and manager of Culberson Chevrolet, Inc., has been appointed a member of the board of Highland General Hospital to fill the unexpired term of the late R. E. McKernan.

C. C. Lander, hospital general manager, said today Stowers' appointment was made by the Gray County Commissioners Court and his term will run to December 1962.

Don Conley is chairman of the board and Arthur M. Teed is vice chairman. Other board members include Fred Neslage, J. W. Sparkman, Lefors, and J. M. Meacham, McLean.

Navy Takes Supplies To Storm Area

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—The U.S. Navy brought cases of food, medical supplies and fresh water today to refugees from Hurricane Carla.

The aircraft carrier Shangri-La was anchored a few miles east of Freeport, and another carrier, the Antietam, was off Matagorda Bay. Both flatops were being used as helicopter bases, sending survey teams and medical personnel as needed to coastal communities.

Two destroyers, the Gainard and the Compton, were operating out of Galveston. The Francis Marion, a transport loaded with food, was being readied for use as a "floating motel."

Search parties at Angleton, Tex. still were finding victims of the howling hurricane. The tenth known victim of two related families killed by tideswaters preceding Carla was found Thursday night.

A total of 42 persons were dead or missing.

Forty-five persons suffered injuries in Galveston Thursday when the porch of a Red Cross chapter house collapsed.

One of the first moves by the Navy was to send 75 cases of food to 200 refugees at Port Bolivar, across the bay from Galveston.

Gov. Price Daniel and Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough toured the island and said damage to the city was worse than they had expected.

Daniel said damage would run "several hundred million dollars" along the Texas coast. He said the limited loss of life was "literally a miracle."

Yarborough said damage to Galveston was "the worst I've ever seen. This is a national disaster." He said he planned to make a personal report to President Kennedy upon returning to Washington.

Water still covered a large portion of Texas City. A typhoid inoculation clinic was set up at Freeport High School. Port Aransas was placed under quarantine, and hundreds of dead cattle littered the coast.

The American Red Cross said a preliminary survey showed a total of 42,315 homes, buildings, boats and house trailers destroyed or damaged in 14 Texas coastal counties from Port Arthur to Corpus Christi.

UN, Congo Forces Stage Bitter Battles

LEOPOLDVILLE. The Congo (UPI)—United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld held emergency meetings with his top aides and central government officials today on the next move in the savage battle for control of Katanga Province.

The fierce resistance by the Katangese forces against U.N. troops indicated U.N. officials had miscalculated in their attempt to seize the province for the central government Wednesday.

UPI correspondent Ray Moloney reported from Bancroft, a Northern Rhodesia town on the border of Katanga, that the battle had grown from street fighting to all-out war in Elisabethville.

Katanga President Moïse Tshombe told Peter Youngusband of the London Daily Mail in an interview in Elisabethville that he and his supporters would fight to "the last drop of blood" to keep Katanga independent from the rest of the Congo.

Hammarskjöld appeared to have a choice of sending either more U.N. soldiers or central government troops into Katanga as reinforcements or suing for a truce with Tshombe.

The United Nations already has alerted its non-essential personnel in Elisabethville to stand by for possible evacuation by plane.

Premier Cyrille Adoula's government, moved when the United Nations moved into the province Wednesday, was crestfallen at the violent Katangese reaction.

$986,000 County Budget Studied By Commission

Gray County Commissioners' Court shortly before noon today still was in session considering the county's tentative $986,000 budget for the coming 1962 fiscal year.

The figure is tentative, County Judge William J. Craig explained, until final approval by the commission.

Indications were, Judge Craig said, that only minor changes, if any, would be made at today's budget hearing. The cost of county operation is broken down as follows:

General fund, $149,000; salaries, $261,000; jury fund, $3,700; permanent improvements, $30,000; road and bridge fund for Pct. 1, $97,000; road and bridge fund for Pct. 2, $123,000; road and bridge fund for Pct. 3, $111,000; road and bridge fund for Pct. 4, $85,000; bond interest and sinking fund, $74,000 and hospital interest and sinking fund, $54,000.

The budget being considered at today's hearing calls for no pay raises for county employees.

Immediately following the budget hearing, commissioners were scheduled to set a tax rate for Gray County.

Indications were that the county rate would be set at $1.29, based on a property valuation of $55,000,000 which is slightly higher than last year's county valuation, Judge Craig said.

The $1.29 tax rate would be the same as the county rate for the past six years. There will be no county tax rate increase, Judge Craig stated.

The $1.29 tax rate will be divided as follows:

General road and bridge fund, 9 cents; special road and bridge fund, 15 cents; general fund, 52 cents; farm-to-market and lateral road fund, 30 cents; bond interest and sinking fund; 13 cents; a hospital interest and sinking fund, 10 cents.

An article published today in the America Medical Association's archives of internal medicine said Johns Hopkins researchers found that persons who are subject to fits of depression during illness recover more slowly than those who remain happy.

"It seems likely that depression-vulnerable persons are more apt to respond with some degree of depression-like symptoms to an acute infection than those persons who do not have this vulnerability," the article said.

C-C Announces Leaders In BCD Mail Balloting

Names of the 16 men receiving the highest number of votes in the recent mail balloting for nominations to serve with members of the Board of City Development were released today by Chamber of Commerce officials.

Ballot No. 2 with a list of the 16 names went into the mail today. Five of the following will be elected to serve on the BCD's Advisory Board:

Ballots can be mailed to the Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 1942, Pampa, or, if more convenient, ballots can be taken directly to the chamber office in City Hall.

E. O. Wedgeworth, chamber manager, said today ballots will be counted at 10 a.m., Thursday, Sept. 21.

Chamber members have been advised they can vote for five by striking out the names of the remaining names on the ballot.

Those voting, Wedgeworth said, are asked to draw a line through the names of those for whom they do not wish to vote.

Any ballot having more than five names left on it will not be counted, he added.

Former Turk Rulers Sentenced To Death

YASSIADA, Turkey (UPI)—Turkey's high justice court today convicted and sentenced to death former President Celal Bayar, ex-Premier Adnan Menderes and ten other members of their ousted regime for making a mockery of Turkey's constitution while in power.

The trial ended Thursday after 11 months in which the court heard 1,032 witnesses and examined 19 huge files of evidence. The prosecution demanded death

U.S. And Russia May Soon Start Talks On Issues

The Western Allies got set today for a test of nerves over Communist threats against the use of the air corridors between West Germany and West Berlin.

The United States Thursday quickly fired off a sharp protest against the harassment of two American civilian airliners by MIG jet fighters believed flown by Russian pilots.

The protest was delivered to the Russian officer in the Berlin air safety center set up by four-power agreements in 1945 to regulate air traffic which might interfere with the flights in the corridors.

The Communists have claimed the corridors—three of them, 110 miles long and 20 miles wide—were established for military planes of the United States, France and Britain and that civilian planes have no right to use them. The West disputes this.

Meantime the United States and Russia today approached the first stage of negotiations on Berlin (treading cautiously lest a false step touch off a nuclear war).

The initial contact will take place between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the United Nations—possibly as early as next Tuesday when the General Assembly convenes.

If either side had a concession to offer the other which would allow a diplomatic breakthrough in the mounting crisis, it was not immediately evident.

An effective news blackout kept secret the deliberations of the Allied foreign ministers who were working out strategy in Washington.

There also was no specific word on what went on at a meeting between Rusk and Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov, who just returned from Moscow, late Thursday.

The possibility of a meeting between Rusk and Gromyko at the United Nations was first mentioned by President Kennedy on Wednesday.

Russian Rocket Missed Target, Trackers Claim

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia fired a "new, more powerful multi-stage rocket" more than 7,500 miles over the Pacific Wednesday in the first of a scheduled series of tests. The Soviet agency Tass reported today.

Tass said the launching of the rocket was "successful" and that its operation in flight "fully conformed with the set program."

The rocket landed about 1,000 yards from its target in an ocean area about 1,900 miles southwest of Hawaii, the Soviet agency said, confirming the "high precision of the operation of the rocket's control system."

(Authoritative sources in Honolulu said a plot of the rocket's flight by American tracking stations showed it missed its mark by at least 50 miles.)

The Tass statement did not say whether the rocket's payload was recovered by Soviet ships cruising near the target area.

Russia announced Monday that it would fire rockets "intended for space exploration" into a specified area of the Pacific in a series of tests beginning Wednesday and continuing until Oct. 15. The precise number of rockets to be tested was not announced.

(In another test Thursday, Russia set off a nuclear blast in the Arctic believed to have the force of many millions of tons of TNT. The explosion was the 10th in the current series of Soviet nuclear tests.)

(Despite Tass's claim that Wednesday's rocket was "new" and "more powerful" its reported performance did not match the ranges of 7,700 to 8,000 claimed for rockets the Russians tested last year.)

(None of Russia's rockets so far has matched the 9,000-mile range achieved by the U.S. Atlas rocket in firings which carried it over the Atlantic Ocean and Africa into the Indian Ocean.)

AF Reports Satellite's Cone Caught

HONOLULU (UPI)—The gold-plated capsule of Discoverer XXX was snared over the Pacific by an Air Force cargo plane Tuesday. It was the United States' fourth aerial catch and eighth recovery from an orbiting satellite.

The capsule—armed with radiation-absorbing spores, tissues, cells and metals — was caught over America's satellite "ball park" 475 miles northwest of Honolulu.

The 25-foot-long Discoverer was hurled into orbit from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Wednesday. It made 33 trips around the earth before the 300-pound capsule was ejected for its return from space.

An Air Force spokesman said the capsule fell very close to the area that had been designated by scientists.

"We damn near got a bullseye," said one officer.

Reds Fire Tenth Nuclear Device

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Russia touched off its 10th nuclear explosion in the atmosphere Thursday, another multi-megaton device.

The explosion was reported while congressional sources revealed that the United States will probably resume its tests within a few weeks with a small underground explosion.

The U.S. test, unlike the Russian explosions, will be exploded under the Nevada desert, thus producing no fallout. It will be the first U.S. detonation since Oct. 30, 1958.

It will be the first in a series aimed partly at developing more effective, low yield weapons for battlefield use.

Chairman Glenn T. Seaborg of the Atomic Energy Commission said the United States has no plans now to resume atmospheric tests, but said he "wouldn't want to indicate that this policy will hold indefinitely for the future."

President Calls On Reds To Drop Berlin Demands

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy called on Russia today to drop her demands that the West surrender its rights in Berlin. He proposed realistic negotiations looking toward "a mutually acceptable solution."

Kennedy served flat notice the United States would not negotiate with Russia on Berlin under threat or ultimatum.

He said the United States had absolutely no intention of resorting to force or threats of force but that it was prepared "to meet force with force if it is used against us."

The President outlined his position at length in identical letters handed last Wednesday at the White House to emissaries from the recent Belgrade conference of neutral nations.

The letter was addressed to Presidents Sukarno of Indonesia and Modibo Keita of Mali. They were asked to relay it to the other participants.

The 25-nation conference called on the chief executive to enter into direct negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

At the outset of his letter, Kennedy politely but unmistakably turned down the idea of a quick summit conference without extensive diplomatic groundwork. He said a top-level meeting must have "reasonable chance of success."

Little Theater Group To Meet

Little Theater members will hold a discussion meeting on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the City Commission Room of City Hall. The meeting's purpose is to re-activate the group for a presentation of plays cast with local talent.

Dr. N. J. Ellis, who is a member of the Amarillo Little Theater, will be present to help formulate plans.

All newcomers to the city, former members of the group, and anyone interested in any phase of theatricals are urged to attend.

Germany

statement and said Gromyko would be willing to "exchange opinions."

Moscow Radio today expressed Soviet satisfaction over what it termed the desire of the West to negotiate a German settlement, but it said the Soviet Union could not be "dictated to."

Thus there was no indication that Russia was ready to back down on its basic demands for a German peace treaty that would seal the division of Germany and end Allied rights in Berlin.

Should Rusk's contacts with Gromyko show some indication that the Berlin and German problems actually are negotiable, the next step might be a formal East-West foreign ministers' meeting and then possibly a summit conference.

While Western officials saw some glimmer of hope in the professed Soviet willingness to talk, they were dismayed by other Soviet actions.

This week Soviet defense officials have been boasting about the power of their nuclear bombs and the capability of their rockets.

Nixon Urged To Become A Candidate

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who said he will decide in a week or so whether to run for the governorship of California in 1962, was urged to do so Thursday night by 25 GOP leaders in California.

They met with Nixon in a two-hour closed door session. San Francisco attorney Caspar Weinberger told newsmen after the meeting, "We all strongly urged Mr. Nixon to run."

Weinberger said that the former presidential candidate gave no indication as to what his decision would be, but Weinberger added that he believed Nixon already had made up his mind.

If Nixon seeks the governorship, he must first outpoll former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, State Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell, and former Lt. Governor Harold J. Powers, who have declared their candidacy for the GOP.

State Weather Continues Cool

By United Press International
Showers peppered the Texas Gulf Coast from the Coastal Bend to Mexico today and the Weather Bureau said the rain would probably move as far north as Austin by tonight.

A drizzle fell at El Paso and McAllen. Alice, Brownsville, Kingsville, Beeville and Corpus Christi got heavier showers. Brownsville got 5.75 inches of rain Wednesday night and Thursday.

Official U.S. Weather Bureau rainfall recordings for the 24 hours ended at 6 a.m. included: Amarillo .10, El Paso .03, Brownsville 1.83, and Corpus Christi .42.

Elsewhere in Texas, skies were clear to partly cloudy. Temperatures remained on the cool side with overnight low temperatures ranging between 45 at Amarillo and Dalhart and 74 at Brownsville. Thursday's high was 89 at Presidio.

Warm, moist Gulf air overriding cold Canadian air touched off the coastal showers, the Weather Bureau said.

The Weather Bureau kept a watchful eye on the state's rivers, some swollen as much as five feet above flood stage Thursday after heavy rain in South Texas. Forecasters said the Colorado River would flood lowlands from Wharton all the way to the Gulf at Matagorda.

The Lavaca River was expected to hit a crest of 28 feet by today at Edna and the Navidad was expected to crest at 33 feet today. Both streams were expected to overflow slightly.

The Weather Bureau said the Guadalupe River would rise to about 24 feet at Victoria by late Saturday—two to three feet above flood stage.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
BONN, West Germany (UPI)—Top lieutenants of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer say that at 85 he admits he is getting old. The word is going around that if, as result of Sunday's elections, Adenauer becomes the oldest man in modern times to form a new government of a major power, he will serve only through the next two years at most and probably only through the duration of the present crisis.

This is important not only to West Germany, but to the United States and its other Allies as well. Should election losses or advancing age force the iron-willed chancellor from office, changes in the German approach to certain problems seem not only possible but probable. Franz-Josef Bach, right-hand man to Adenauer, shrugs when asked about the question of the chancellor's age. "After all," he says, "if the chancellor were to finish out his next term, he would be nearly 90. But, if a change must come, I am confident it will be Ludwig Erhard."

Erhard is the economic genius given much of the credit for West Germany's economic boom. Should the Adenauer government fail to hold its clear majority in the Bundestag, it is probable that new voices will be raised in Germany. These will call for continued alliance with NATO, but with a more moderate tone toward the Soviet Union and perhaps a "realistic" approach to the question of the eastern territories across the Oder-Neisse which were lost to Poland. There is agreement that there can be no surrender in Berlin.

Oldtime Rolltop Desks Vanishing

NEW YORK (UPI)—Whatever became of the rolltop desk? Some can still be found—in use—in a few Wall Street area offices where the solidity of tradition may still be a business factor. Some lucky firms may have office room left to keep one around as a memento of a founder, or even because an executive is accustomed to using a rolltop and won't give it up. But the rolltops, and the type of office in which they sat, have almost vanished as the pressure on the office operation in large firms and small has increased, and the office machine—the computer, the copying device, the modern communications channel between office and plant or office and office, have taken over. Dunn's Review and Modern Industry, published by Dun and Bradstreet Publications Corp., made a special report on the problems business faces in turning to the new tools and technique of data handling. Reporting on the results of thoroughgoing roundtables conducted in New York and Chicago among the makers and the users of modern office machinery, the magazine said in its "special report" section: "If top management is the brain of business, the office has become its nerve center. It is a nerve center, moreover, which must function with incredible efficiency...speed alone has become a vital necessity."

A central theme of the "special report" was that time can run out on the executive who takes too much time to choose, because it takes time to set up a properly-functioning operation that will make the most efficient use of all the many tools now available.

Hungary's Red Chief Claims Broad Powers

BUDAPEST (UPI)—Hungarian Communist chief Janos Kadar has assumed sweeping new powers today, becoming formal leader of the government he has steered since the unsuccessful 1956 uprising. An official announcement late Wednesday night said Kadar had replaced aging Ferenc Muennich as premier in the widest government shakeup since the Hungarian uprising five years ago. Other changes included the replacement of former socialist Gyorgy Maros as minister of state (minister without portfolio) by the former premier, long known as a close personal friend of Kadar. Former "Stalinist" Antal Apró remained one of the four deputy premier. Deputy Premier Gyula Kallai—often mentioned as a likely successor to Muennich—also retained his post.

AROUND THE WORLD

DOUBLE DATE—With fierce-looking escorts, German actresses Alice (left) and Helene Kessler, who are twins, enjoy a walk at Fiumicino, Italy. Their dates are extras in the film, "The Fury of the Vikings," in which the Kessler girls play twins.

HEADING WEST—Deidre Coman, 2½, holds her stuffed dog as she bids fare well to New York. Deidre and her family, formerly residents of New Britain, Pa., were waiting at the airport for a plane to San Francisco.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH—Lee Jeffrey Wurzel, 3, resigns himself to the dripping water from this fountain after trying unsuccessfully to get a drink the right way at Manchester, Mass. As the saying goes, "Where there's a will there's a way."

PUTTING UP A FRONT—A touch of Moorish architecture comes to New York with this ornate facade. The building looked like the brownstones flanking it before it had its face lifted.

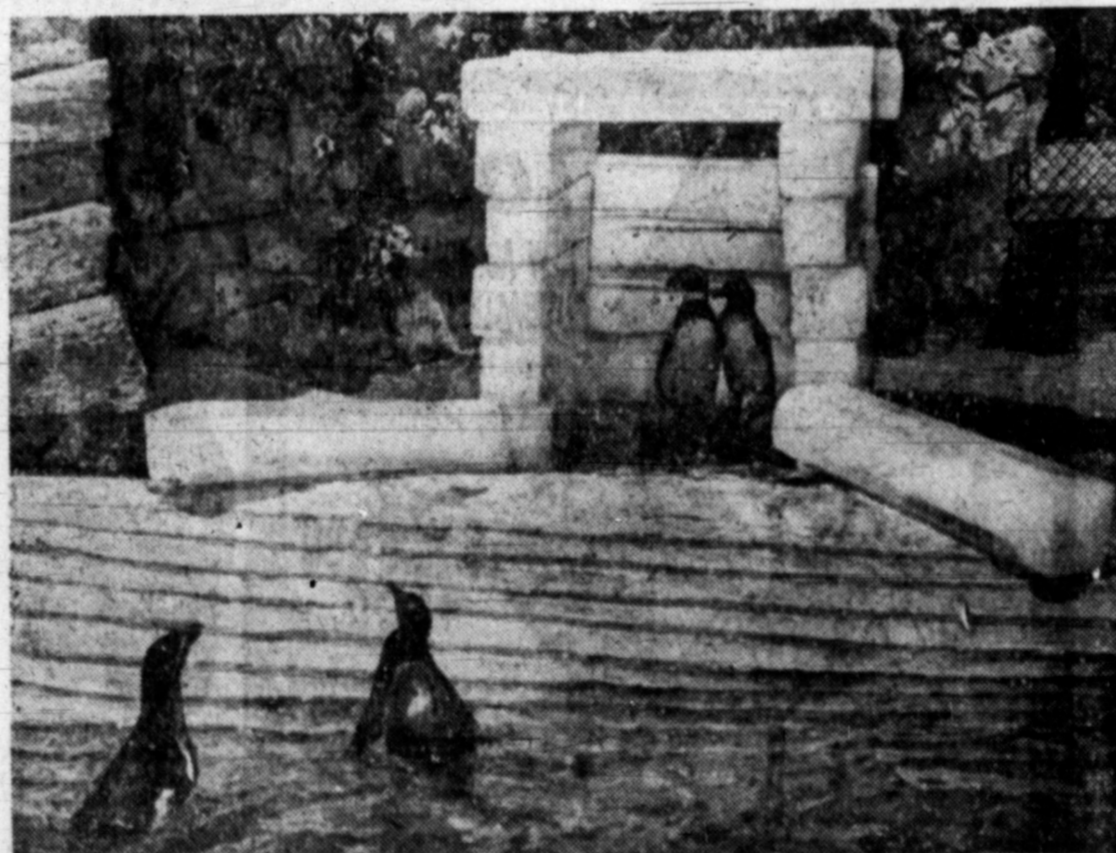

EVERYTHING'S SUNNY—Heather MacVicar, 14, of Sunnyvale, Calif., congratulates the family parrot, Baby, on his giant sunflower. The backyard sunflower shot to a height of 12½ feet in less than two months after the bird accidentally flipped some sunflower seeds from his cage. It's still growing fast in that great California sunshine.

CHANGING SKYLINE—When completed, the Tryvanns Tower will be the highest point in the Oslo, Norway, area, about 1,960 feet above sea level. The structure itself, standing 360 feet tall, will be a radio tower primarily. It will also house a restaurant and a souvenir shop for visitors to the tall landmark.

PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER—It all started when George Hutcheson, 70, of Glendale, Calif., tore down a fence and found a wooden post that was "just too good" to throw away. He carved a crude totem pole out of the post and his wood-carving career was born. Now he is working on exact likenesses of the presidents.

THE ICEMAN COMETH—The penguins of the Rome Zoo are much happier in their enclosure after a visit from the iceman, who delivered special columns of ice to help keep the birds cool. Spectators gazed with envy at the penguins' cool spot in the hot city.

FOR MINOR FIRES?—What youngster wouldn't be thrilled to play at being a real fireman, with real hose and fire engine? The only thing missing is the fire, which is something that nobody should use as a plaything. It all started when the mayor of Sittenberg, Austria, got the idea of a "Junior Fire Brigade." The boys meet three times a week, dressed in authentic uniforms, made by the village tailor.

PATCHING UP THE WORLD—In Dublin, Ireland, David Kwan, 23, displays the patches he has collected in his hitchhiking trip around the world. He started from Singapore in 1957 and so far he has visited 30 countries during his travels.

STEAMING ALONG—This 1914 steam thresher is being adjusted by Shelby Campbell during the Centennial Antique Steam Engine Threshing Bee at McLouth, Kan. Steam engine enthusiasts from a 200-mile radius flocked to the H. C. Watson farm to admire the old-time instruments, ranging from a tiny steam engine to a giant steam-driven calloper.

A FAMILY AFFAIR—High above the street in Braunschweig, West Germany, the famed Traber family of acrobats performs a death-defying act for the fascinated spectators below. Rolling along in a tiny "airplane" on a wire 238 feet high, members of the troupe perform their hair-raising stunts.

Take It From Kathy

by kathy peterson

Dear Kathy: I especially like a guy who has asked me to date him for the first time. His family has an attractive home in a nice neighborhood. Our furniture is shabby and my mother is not the best housekeeper in the world. I'm ashamed of my home. Could meet him someplace else? M.T.

Dear M. T.: If he is well-mannered and knows the rules, meeting him elsewhere would make a poorer impression than a house that isn't beautiful. If your date is pleasant, he will eventually meet your family and see your home anyway. The longer you postpone this, the more you will dread it. The correct thing to do is to have him call for you at home. I'll guarantee that things will turn out best that way.

These thoughts might help:
1. Things that are dirty or untidy always make a poor impression. Go to work on the house and make sure it is spotless.
2. Make sure you look your best and be ready ON SCHEDULE.
3. Introduce him to your parents in the proper way. Manners count a great deal.

4. DO NOT APOLOGIZE for your home or your parents no matter how you feel. This is the most important piece of advice I could possibly offer.
You'll feel happy because you have done things right. Have fun!

Grayson Circle Sets Social Date

The Grayson Tennis Circle of Highland Baptist Church met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Morris Belote, 1217 Darby for a mission study.

Members were asked to bring books and magazines to the next meeting. The reading material will be taken to the local hospitals as a community mission project.

Mrs. Gene Wingeart conducted the business meeting, which opened with prayer by Mrs. J. T. Pre-witt.

It was announced that a new time and place for the circle social has been planned. It will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Sept. 27 in the home of Mrs. D. W. Tracy, 601 E. 18th.

Bible Study will be given at the last meeting by Mrs. Morris Belote. The next circle meeting will be held with Mrs. Harry Muns.

Mrs. Ray Jackson presented the fourth and fifth chapters of the mission study book, "Christian Sharing Of Possessions."

Mrs. Tracy dismissed the 10 members present with prayer.

Dear Abby...

Either Give Up Dancing Or Give Up Boy Friend!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a boy friend who is a head shorter than I am. When we dance together I have to keep my chin up because if I put it down it looks as though I am trying to hide. But just try dancing with your chin up all evening, and you will get a pain in the neck. It is really painful, but I love to dance. I know it looks funny for a girl to be dancing with a boy when she is a head taller than he is, but that doesn't bother me so much as the stiff neck I get from it. Have you any advice?

STIFF NECK
DEAR STIFF: If dancing with this boy is painful - give up dancing. If it is more painful to give up dancing, give up the boy.

DEAR ABBY: I would like a full-time sleep - in position in a motherless home. It must be between 40 and 50 (no older). And he must be 6 feet tall as I am a well-proportioned 5 ft. 8 in. and don't feel comfortable with short men around me. I am considered attractive, dress well and enjoy good music and dancing. I am in excellent health and 35.

LOOKING
DEAR LOOKING: Are you looking for a position or for a man? If it's a position, place your ad in the classified section of this newspaper, or register with an employment agency. If it's a man, your approach is clever, but obvious.

DEAR ABBY: Can you tell me when it is proper to wear a hat, and when it is all right to go without one? I always seem to guess wrong. Even in church some women go hatless. I have felt so foolish wearing a hat that I have left it home on similar occasions. Then I find everyone else is wearing one, and I feel embarrassed. Please advise me.

HAT PROBLEM
DEAR HAT PROBLEM: If you are to be properly dressed there are occasions when a hat is absolutely mandatory. Church attendance is one. Solemn occasions, such as funerals, christenings and graduations, require a hat. Wear a hat to lunch, tea, shopping, club meetings, to the theater (a small one), or any occasion where you want to look your best. With few exceptions, like going to bed or playing touch football (even then some wear helmets), a hat always shows smart grooming.

CONFIDENTIAL TO NOT-SWEET - 16: Never trust a boy who urges you to sneak out to meet him. He's the type who will sneak out on YOU one day. Married or not!

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

The Berrys Feted

At Farewell Party

LEFORS 25th) - Rev. and Mr. Luther Berry war guests of honor at a going away party in the Baptist Church Fellowship Hall following church services Wednesday evening.

Sept. 4 was the Berry's last Sunday with the Lefors congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Berry and Rennie are moving to Spearman, where he will be pastor of the First Baptist church, beginning Sept. 6.

Members of the church presented them with a gold lamp. A gift was presented to Mrs. Berry by the Young Married Department where she had served as teacher for several years.

Ice cream and cake were served. One hundred-thirty-five persons attended.

Packing for a weekend away from the college campus, this coed takes along hand cream in convenient plastic tube.

Efficiency Should Keynote Packing For Weekend Trip Off College Campus

ALICIA HART
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Once a coed reaches the campus, she seldom stays put. For weekend invitations begin to materialize almost immediately.

Whether it's a big football weekend or an invitation to stay with her roommate's family, she's used to packing on a moment's notice. And she's not as determined as her mother to travel with a small trunk, two suitcases and an overnight suitcase for one weekend.

Usually, she's efficient about packing, has learned to make one fashion do the work of two, and likes to travel light. Far from carrying one of those cosmetic cases on which her mother seems to dote, she tucks smaller sizes of cosmetics into odd corners of her suitcase.

She prefers her cosmetics packaged in the squishy plastic that won't dent or break. That's why she'll take to a new-wind and weather hand cream that comes in just such a plastic tube that's lightweight and won't take up much precious space.

Most likely, she uses those pink foam rubber rollers made now by several companies and available in the five-and-dime. They're washable, easy to tuck in odd corners and easy to sleep on.

Altogether, she's bent on enjoying Mother or Dad often need a handy measuring rod for materials. This is easy to acquire if there is a work table in the house. Resurface the table and mark off inches on the wood as they are readable when a finishing coat is applied.

NO SMOKING FAT
Obey the "No Smoking" sign when heating fat to brown or fry meat if you want a perfect product. Meat is best when browned at a moderate temperature.

Do You Want To Be A Wife Or A Widow?

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Want to do all in your power to keep from joining America's increasing number of widows?

Then be on the lookout for the time in life when your job as a homemaker becomes easy, yet, your husband's job remains as hard as ever—perhaps, even harder than in his younger days because of increased responsibilities or because of diminishing physical strength.

The time when the man of the family is carrying a heavier load than his wife usually comes during the middle years, when all or most of the children are grown and gone from home.

That leaves the homemaker with an easy job and plenty of leisure time and the chance to do all that she can to make her husband's life easier.

She can do this in any number of ways. She can take over some of the extra jobs he assumed during the years when her work days were longer than his.

She can lighten her husband's financial load by taking a long hard look at their living expenses and figuring out ways to cut down on the monthly bills.

She can help her husband figure out a retirement plan so that he isn't nagged by worry about the time when he can no longer work.

She can cut the pattern of their social life to suit her husband, realizing that since he is carrying the heavier load he probably needs more rest than she does.

She can encourage her husband to find some relaxing hobbies, whether she shares his particular outside interests or not.

GOD IS OUR STRENGTH

"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."

As we look at our world today there is trouble on every hand. There is the threat of Russia as they test the nuclear bombs. Just the thought of a nuclear war makes one to shudder. There is damaging effect of Carla on the Gulf coast. This alone causes pain in our hearts.

As we look at these events, how are they to be interpreted? Certainly God is still on His throne. I still believe Romans 8:28.

Look at God's word and you will find that when the people turned their backs on God and their lives were controlled by evil, then they were chastized. The sad thing about it is this, that the good suffer with the bad. Because it rains on the just and the unjust. All these events ought to cause us to check our own lives and ask for a closer walk with God.

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Also I realize that there are events which seem to have no cause. But in every event of life there can be strength from God. He has promised never to leave us or to put anything on us that we could not bear. With His help all things are possible.

My prayer for our country is that we repent of our sins and seek first the Kingdom of God. Then "all nations shall call you blessed; for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the Lord of hosts."

Pampa Harvesters And Phillips Battle Tonight

BETTERS WORLD-MARK

AIZU-WAKAMATSU, Japan
(UPI) — Kenjiro Matsumoto, a Japanese high school senior, swam the 200-meter breaststroke in 2:36.1 Thursday to better by four-tenths of a second the world record set by Australia's Terry Gathercole in 1958. Matsumoto's clocking is still far off the unofficial record of 2:29.6 set last month by Chet Jastremski of the United States.

Bill Collins Leads Open With Six Under Par 64

SEATTLE (UPI) — Spiced by a $10,000 hole-in-one by Miller Barber, a golfer who really needs the money, the $25,000 Greater Seattle Open went into its second round today with Bill Collins' first round 64 — six under par — holding a two-stroke lead.

Collins, a 33-year-old player who hails from Baltimore and plays out of Miami, demonstrated he has recovered from the wrist injury which put him in a six-week slump earlier in the year. Big Bill needed only 29 putts over the 6,328-yard Broadmoor Golf Club course. His only bogey was on the 7th hole — the same hole where Barber shot his perfect 237-yard beeline to grab the $10,000 bonus, $8,600 of which will come out of the pockets of Lloyds of London. The other $1,400 is the premium paid by the sponsoring Seattle Town and Country Club.

Lanky Al Balding, Toronto, Ont., established the early pace of the first round with a 66, soon equaled by Jacky Cupit of Longview, Tex., and Dave Hill, a 25-year-old Denver pro who took top cash in his home town's $25,000 open last week.

Thursday's best comeback effort came from Marty Furgol, Coghill, Ill., who went into the second nine two over par, but racked up three birdies and an eagle for a five-under-par 31 on the back nine and a 67 total.

Barber, helped mightily by his hole-in-one, also turned in a 67 along with Gordon Jones, Orlando, Fla.; Tony Lema, San Leandro, Calif.; Dave Marr, Sun City, Ariz.; Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif.; and Charles Sifford, Los Angeles.

As for Barber's reaction to his hole-in-one, which earned him three times as much as his total earnings for 19 tournaments this year, the 29-year-old Texarkana, Tex., bachelor exclaimed, "I jumped out of my shoes. I still can't get over it."

Ruidoso Pays Out Largest Purse In 15-Year History
RUIDOSO, N.M. (UPI) — There was a 1 per cent drop in the mutual handle but Ruidoso Downs paid out the largest purses in its 15-year racing history this season.

Downs manager Gene Hensley called the 1961 season "the most successful of all" and said that the track paid out $1,135,765.90 in purses, including $202,425 in the All-American Futurity won on La-year's previous high purse pay-

Rice Labeled SWC Favorite

DALLAS (UPI) — Nine Texas sportswriters completed the annual tour of Southwest Conference football camps this week and Jess Neely's seasoned Rice Owls got most of the first place votes.

Four of the nine writers selected Rice as the probable 1961 champion—going along with the team's habit of winning football crowns in four-year intervals. Four others gave Rice the nod for second spot. Each of the so-called "Big Four"—Rice, Arkansas, Baylor and Texas—received first-place ballots.

Baylor was next to Rice in first-place votes, with three, but in the consensus scoring the Bears placed fourth behind Rice, Detroit was next to Rice in first-place votes, with three, but in the consensus scoring the Bears placed fourth behind Rice, de-ending champion Arkansas and Texas, with first-place counting eight points, second seven, etc. Rice totaled 64 points. Texas and Arkansas were deadlocked for the DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League today announced the signings of left wing Vic Stasiuk and right wings Al Johnson and Jack McKenzie.

Locals To Play First Home Tilt

Some 20 odd miles separate Phillips from Pampa but tonight at Harvester Stadium when these two teams get together for their second grid battle of the 1961 season at 7:30 p.m., only a few points may separate the winner and loser.

Both clubs dropped their season opener last Friday with the Pampa Harvesters losing a tough 7-0 decision to Ysleta Bel Aire and the Phillips Blackhaws coming out on the short end of a 14-12 score against Odessa Ector.

Tonight's meeting will be the fourth time for the two teams to meet on the gridiron. Pampa won the first three tilts by scores of 13-0 in 1943 and '44 and 27-7 in 1945.

A feature attraction at tonight's game will be two 10-minute scrimmages between the 7th and 8th grades of Robert E. Lee Junior High and the 7th grade of Pampa Junior High. These three clubs will scrimmage among themselves starting at 6:30 p.m.

The return of senior letterman James Webb to the team bolsters the defensive platoon. Webb was immediately shifted to center from left end.

Athletic Director Weldon Trice said today that football tickets to the opening Pampa-Phillips game, misprinted for Saturday, were good for tonight's tangle.

Coach Babe Curfman's probable other starters are Corky Godfrey, right end; Danny Mathis, left guard; Dee Wright, right guard; center Billy Hughes; right half Mike Stewart, who has also been working out at quarterback due to an injury to second string signal caller Rodney Caldwell. Sophomore fullback Kenny Hebert rounds-out the starting eleven.

Pampa went through a light workout Thursday with Curfman stressing extra point kicking by Hebert and Reimer and almost an hour was spent on offensive plays.

Perennially tough Phillips comes to town with a colorful offense built around all state quarterback candidate Jackie Gray. The 180-pound signal caller sprinted 69 yards against Ector for a touchdown last Friday.

Teaming with Gray in the Blackhaws' backfield are Billy Hunt, 146 and Phillips Johnson, a 151 pounder at halfbacks and P.R. Stiles, 161 pounds at fullback. Stiles is the only junior in coach Joe Means' lineup.

In the line it will be Bill Shannon, 187 and Kenny Hunt, 153 at the ends; Delmar Baldwin, 185 and Ronnie Rounsaville, 160 guards; Delton Wait, 181 and Stephen Allen, 153 tackles; and Kerry Bowling, 159 at center. Baldwin is considered one of the top linemen in the state.

Miami Blasts White Deer B

Miami's touchdown twins, Jim Flower and Mickey Kivlehen scored two six pointers apiece Thursday night as Coach Bill Hines' Warriors trounced the White Deer "B" team, 28-8.

The mighty Warriors, an eight man grid team, turned on the power to roll to a 20-0 halftime lead in the 11-man contest. Flowers and Kivlehen, both halfbacks, scored six touchdowns between them last Friday when Miami whipped Turpin, Okla., 46-12.

Flowers scored on runs of 30 yards in the first period and five yards in the third quarter. Kivlehen reeled off the longest run, a 70 yard dash, in the first stanza.

Shockers To Play Gruver Saturday

Texas schoolboy football pushes into its third week of play tonight with all of the local teams in action except for Miami which trounced the White Deer "B" team Thursday night.

Groom, McLean Tigers To Scrap

GROOM (Sp) — For the third straight week, Coach Dwain Currie's class B Groom Tigers tackle a rugged class A foe, tonight the defending district 1-B title holders catches the Tiger by the tail when they clash with the undefeated McLean Tigers at 8 p.m. at McLean.

Three starters will see only limited action tonight for the Panthers, 26-8 winners over Laverne, Okla. "B" last Thursday. First string center Steve Wilhite, stiff knee; speedy halfback Glendon Kunka, sprained ankle and quarterback Glen Love, who has a sprained right arm, will see little if any, action against Keys.

Keys has a big team but Follett scout reports indicate that the Oklahomans are lacking in experience. Former Follett gridders, Ronnie Rackley, now playing at Keys is reported to be their top lineman.

Keys lost its only game of the season to Walls, Colo., 31-0. Love, sophomore fullback Larry Breon, halfback Gary Weiser and halfback Larry Roots accounted for the four Follett touchdowns against Laverne.

UN's General Assembly Due To Meet Tuesday

By United Press International

The United Nations General Assembly opens its 18th regular session next Tuesday, primed to discuss everything from Berlin to birth control.

It is confronted with a record and back-breaking agenda of 93 items and the prospect of a split session that will carry the 99-nation world parliament well into next spring.

Birth control is among the agenda items, submitted by Denmark and Sweden under the title of "Population Growth and Economic Development." Argentina already has protested its discussion. Opposition was expected from other heavily Catholic countries.

Berlin is not on the agenda. Neither is the question of a seat for Communist China.

But those two questions, whether formally submitted for debate or not, are expected to dominate the Assembly's discussions.

Disarmament and the problem of a ban on further nuclear tests—the latter previously voted by the Assembly in a resolution already violated by Russia and threatened with violation by the United States—will occupy much of the Assembly debate.

President Kennedy is scheduled to present the U. S. view on the world situation, nuclear tests and disarmament in an appearance before the Assembly late next week. Kennedy's will be "a one-day stand. For that, he was being criticized by some diplomats who held that he was little more than a name in many parts of the world and should stay at the United Nations for an appreciable time to make better use of his prestige and influence.

But Washington thought was that the President has a full-time job as chief executive of the United States and is available for consultations with others in his capital, only an hour's flight from New York.

The diplomatic circus of last fall, a hippodrome of world leaders led by Nikita S. Khrushchev, is not expected to be repeated. Only a few top men are expected to drop in on the assembly at intervals during its session. For instance, Indonesia's President Sukarno, who came for talks with Kennedy earlier this week, will not stay around for the opening.

Russia was counted on to bring up the China question at the start of the assembly.

For 10 years, the United States has been able to gain agreement not to discuss the question of ousting Nationalist China in favor of the Chinese Communists. But the margin in favor of the Nationalists has shrunk from a high of 82.3 per cent of the vote in 1952 to a slim 55.3 per cent last year.

They Got Away

NEW YORK (UPI)— Sardines likely will be more costly in the coming months as result of one of the poorest sardine catches along the Maine coast in more than 20 years. Heavy rainfalls have driven many of the fish out to sea and out of the reach of fishermen's nets.

U.S. Middle District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. yesterday ordered Bullock and Macon County boards of registrars to quit discriminating against prospective Negro voters.

In two separate orders, the judge held authorities in the two counties—where Negroes far outnumber whites—were preventing qualified Negroes from gaining the right to vote.

Johnson ordered the state of Alabama to appoint an "effective" three-man board of registrars for Macon County no later than Oct. 2 or he would hold Macon in violation of the Civil Rights Act. During a hearing on the Macon situation Johnson threatened to send federal voter referees into the county if the registration of qualified Negroes was not speeded up.

If Johnson were to order federal referees into Macon, home of the famed Tuskegee Institute, it would be the first area in the United States where the voter referee provision of the 1950 Civil Rights Act were put into effect.

Dance Craze Inquiry Proposed To Writer

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It was my research assistant, young Dr. Zhivago, who first called my attention to the current upswing in abdominal choreography, better known as belly dancing.

"This is something you should investigate," he said, winking one of his little pig-like eyes. "It's getting to be a big thing in Washington."

I usually can depend on Dr. Zhivago to keep me abreast of cultural trends, but in this case my first impulse was to reject his suggestion. Since he is still an impressionable age, I figured he had fallen prey to one of those promoters who occasionally try to revive burlesque.

As it turned out, however, he had detected a genuine stirring of interest in an ancient Mid-Eastern art form, which was born in the cradle of Western civilization and possibly should have stayed there.

In the past few months, three clubs featuring authentic Greek-style belly dancing have opened in the U.S. capital and all are enjoying steady patronage. Perhaps "steady" is not the word I'm searching for, but at any rate the clubs are well attended.

A goodly percentage of their clientele is drawn from Embassy Row. Members of the diplomatic colony, particularly those from Mediterranean countries, go there seeking a homelike atmosphere.

The clubs also have caught on with the native population, and this has given them an atmosphere which a local newspaper described as that of "a slightly disorganized block party."

I should explain that the patrons themselves do not belly dance. The navel-terpsichoreans are all professionals, fresh off the boat from Asia Minor.

Between floor shows, however, the customers leave their tables and perform impromptu dances to the rhythm of Grecian folk music played on the bouzouki and the oud, which are stringed instruments imported from Athens.

This might give you the impression that they are a bunch of "oud balls," but Dr. Zhivago insists that some of our most refined citizens are doing it.

In fact, things have reached the point where the local musicians union felt obliged to complain to the U.S. Immigration Service about allowing bouzouki players to enter this country.

Immigration officials checked around and discovered that many of the belly dance accompanists were born in the United States. Possibly they learned to play stringed instruments in Athens, Ga.

As I understand it, the belly dance renaissance was inspired by a Greek movie called "Never on Sunday." In the course of my research I went to see the movie, and my reaction was "never again."

Dr. Zhivago tells me that belly dancing dates back to the time of Piny the Elder. But some of the dancers, I might add, seem to date back to the time of Minsky the Younger.

Inert Medicine Often Helpful, Doctor Claims

NEW YORK (UPI)— One physician has shown all others how to square the medical conscience with the "placebo." A Latin word meaning any substance described as medicine which is a chemical blank presumably incapable of doing anything for—or against—a patient.

Dr. William Kaufman of Bridgeport, Conn., had recourse to the relatively new science of psychosomatic medicine of which he is a leading advocate. He deplored the medical conscience which considers a placebo prescription "disgraceful, dishonest, fraudulent and unethical."

Such a medical conscience can be eased in two steps, he said. You don't say, "placebo medicine"—you say "symbolic medication." And you recognize that in many patients inert chemical substances are anything but inert. Psychologically they can be highly potent.

Kaufman tabulated a large number of drug-testing experiments in which a placebo was used as a "control," to demonstrate that about 33 per cent of patients will have their symptoms relieved by an inert substance taken as medicine. What's more, some 15 per cent will experience "side effects."

Psychosomatic studies have shown that not all these "placebo-reactors" are neurotic. In fact, he continued in a series of lectures in the technical organ of the Connecticut Medical Society, many of them are psychologically normal—they're responding to suggestion which everyone knows is a powerful psychological tool.

In effect, the physician is treating the ill of his patients' bodies by way of their minds when he resorts to "symbolic medication." For the short term it is as workable as the mind-treatment which psychiatrists apply to the emotionally disturbed. During that short term of help, the physician has time to find out what if anything is wrong physically.

"When a doctor prescribes a symbolic medication (or, for that matter, any medication) in effect he is saying to his patient, 'I will take care of you,'" Kaufman said. "The symbolic medication is a complex psychological cue which to the patient means that his doctor acting in good faith is providing the wisdom, emotional support and the healing substance that will make him well."

"Symbolic medication" has to be used wisely, naturally—it has to be fitted to individual patients, particularly to their emotional states which obscure the physical causes (if any) of the distressing symptoms that took them to a doctor.

Vote Registrars Are Ordered Not To Discriminate

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)— U.S. Middle District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. yesterday ordered Bullock and Macon County boards of registrars to quit discriminating against prospective Negro voters.

In two separate orders, the judge held authorities in the two counties—where Negroes far outnumber whites—were preventing qualified Negroes from gaining the right to vote.

Johnson ordered the state of Alabama to appoint an "effective" three-man board of registrars for Macon County no later than Oct. 2 or he would hold Macon in violation of the Civil Rights Act. During a hearing on the Macon situation Johnson threatened to send federal voter referees into the county if the registration of qualified Negroes was not speeded up.

If Johnson were to order federal referees into Macon, home of the famed Tuskegee Institute, it would be the first area in the United States where the voter referee provision of the 1950 Civil Rights Act were put into effect.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Operation Alert is a prime answer to the worried patriot who wants to do something to hold the line against Communism inside the United States.

"What can I do?" is a question members of Congress are hearing from the voters back home. Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., has been hearing a lot of that from his constituents.

Mundt is telling these worried voters about Operation Alert. This South Dakota senator is among the too-few members of Congress who are aware of the threat of American Communists to the American way of life. Operation Alert is intended to inform the next generation of the facts of Communism inside the United States.

The alert program is based primarily on the distribution to secondary school and college students and to educators: copies of the best book available on Communism in the United States. This book is "Masters of Deceit" written by the FBI's J. Edgar Hoover, the best informed U.S. citizen on domestic Communists and their ways.

For example: In Midland, Tex., a civic organization called Midland - For - America distributed more than 500 copies of "Masters of Deceit" to Midland high school seniors.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, the Indianapolis (Ind.) Chamber of Commerce, the Religious Emphasis Foundation of San Diego, Calif., radio stations, individuals, banks and other institutions have distributed copies of the book to students.

The alumni of universities and colleges in South Carolina are financing the most ambitious program recorded so far. The Myrtle Beach (S.C.) operation alert last month shipped 5,500 copies of Hoover's book to freshmen entering 24 South Carolina colleges and universities.

"When all of the alumni of all the institutions of higher learning in a great state are mobilized to get something done, things are likely to begin to happen. The South Carolina operation alert is just beginning. The Myrtle Beach operators are making a mail appeal to all alumni for more financial aid.

Taxation Rights For President Topic Of Debate

NEW YORK (UPI)— The report of the commission on money and credit, made to President Kennedy last spring and since explored in congressional committee hearings, continues to furnish a field for economists' debate.

Among those who in recent days have expressed their doubts about some of the commission's findings was Walter E. Spahr, professor emeritus of economics, New York University and now, executive vice president of the Economists National Committee on Monetary Policy.

At the time the CMC's report was made, considerable interest was aroused by its proposal that a president of the United States should be empowered, subject to legislative approval, to make an "adjustment" in the rate of first-bracket income taxation in times of economic stress. The proposal was advanced as a means of putting some flexibility into the taxing program.

Spahr, in an article printed in the Commercial and Financial Chronicle and later reprinted as a pamphlet by the Economists' National Committee, disagreed with this in some detail.

"... The question arises," he wrote, "as to whether the commission had good advice on the principles of delegation or legislative powers within the limits of what is supposed to be well-grounded constitutional law."

The Economists' National Committee, of which Spahr is an official, was organized by a group of monetary economists in 1933, at the time the then National Administration advocated policies "involving the suspension of redemption and the depreciation of our dollar in terms of gold" according to a recent capsule description issued by the committee.

Slot Machine Pays Junkyard Worker

HATLEY, Wis. (UPI)— Junkyard employe Roy Gardner hit the jackpot of a 45-year-old slot machine—with a sledge hammer.

A shower of quarters, the newest minted in 1912, poured from the machine.

As I understand it, the belly dance renaissance was inspired by a Greek movie called "Never on Sunday." In the course of my research I went to see the movie, and my reaction was "never again."

Dr. Zhivago tells me that belly dancing dates back to the time of Piny the Elder. But some of the dancers, I might add, seem to date back to the time of Minsky the Younger.

Trees Cut Down On Wrong Island

Terre Haute, Ind. (UPI)— Boy scouts are brushing up on woodcraft and pathfinding since they hired tree trimmers to thin their forest on Goose Neck Island in the Wabash River.

A few days later Ralph and Bob Hinkle complained to the sheriff that someone had felled 50 trees on Nine Mile Island, around the bend from Goose Neck.

Motorboat Owner Fined As Speeder

CHICHESTER, England (UPI)—George Green paid a $14 fine Wednesday for speeding in his motorboat in Chichester Harbor, and thereby made history. It was the first police prosecution for speeding on record since the harbor was developed by the Romans 2,000 years ago.

Border Travel Shows Increase

LAREDO (UPI)— Vehicles going from Texas into the interior of Mexico totaled 20,452 in August, an increase over July, the American Automobile Association reported Wednesday. August totals for other border cities included: Hidalgo, 6,550; Nogales, Ariz., 5,055; El Paso 4,283; Brownsville 2,812 and Eagle Pass 3,397.

Loan Fund Created For Mexican Arts

MEXICO CITY (UPI)— The government today announced creation of a five million peso ($400,000 U.S.) loan fund for native arts and crafts production.

Most of this work is done by hand and has a large market among tourists.

SAN LUIS, Argentina (UPI)— Jorge R. Olaguer, released from jail under guard so he could get married before starting a 14-year term, was honeymooning today—

Teaching Family

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI)— Anyone who doubts that teaching runs in families should have a look at the O'Neals of North Carolina.

John E. O'Neal, a school principal before he went back to school, received his Ph.D. in education at Cornell University in June. On hand to applaud were his mother, Mrs. Rebecca O'Neal of Middlesex, N.C., a retired teacher, one brother who is a county school superintendent, two who are school principals, two sisters who are teachers, and a third sister who is studying to be one, and his wife, Willeen, who is also—you guessed it—all by herself.

After the wedding in a relative's home Olaguer gave the slip to the guards and his bride.

Card of Thanks

NELLIE DENSMORE

We wish to thank our neighbors, friends and to anyone who in any way acted in love and sympathy during the recent loss of our beloved wife and sister, Mrs. Nellie Densmore. To the pastor Roy Curtis for his consoling message and to Miss Betty Hinkle for her beautiful singing, also for the many floral tributes. You are gone but not forgotten. The one we love so well. The loneliness that will be ours. No tongue can ever tell. Come winter time, come summer time, Come sweet and cleansing rain, Come autumn and the Autumn. Come seed time and the flowering. And the harvesting of grief. The earth will cease and time grow old. But we shall meet again. Now you will sleep a little while, And dream in peace. Bless God. And sleep on, beneath the sod. To rise with you and walk again. With a vague sense of remembering that we have loved an other lives before this new ascending.

Script In Video Offering Found Pithy And Fresh

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI)—Now that the daring "new wave" directors have moved in to help revitalize motion pictures, let's make room today for a "new wave" writer on TV.

This week's ABC-TV special, "The Connie Francis Show," was a frothy and fresh-looking hour. I thought its chief distinction was the script, written by Jack Wohl. I understand this was his first crack at a TV special. Wohl's theme dealt with sounds—the sounds of voices, paper, walking, hands, clocks, reading, children and, of course, music.

Not every application was a complete success, but each made itself welcome by striving for freshness and buoyancy. Wohl's efforts sought to rise above the hackneyed expressions so familiar to TV specials as he went about rediscovering and savoring the commonplace experience, bless him. His material maintained balance, was low key, non-powerhouse, sly and swinging. Something like a hungry Ernie Kovacs. Wohl's amusing thrusts attract and revive the senses with a combination of impudence and sentimentality.

I noted in the program publicity that Wohl is the man who created two unusual commercials that were seen during last month's "Jimmy Durante Show." One commercial explained, in Norman Rockwellian flashes, "What is beer?" Another reproduced the sounds of summer. Remember?

Well, in this week's show Wohl again played with sounds. And he borrowed and enlarged upon his successful approach to commercials with stop-action photography, "blackouts," quick scene and costume changes. I haven't been so happy with the results since last season, when "Perry Como's Music Hall" was experimenting in this area.

Of course, Wohl's success must owe a great deal to some mighty talents that were brought in to aid Miss Francis. I refer to such old-wavers as Art Carney and Eddie Foy Jr. Carney in superb form, was best in a spoof of "Commander Whitehead" commercials and as the host-stander of a stuffy TV show called, "Project XXI." Eddie Foy also was a delight as he worked his magic with his roguish soft shoe style and matching smile. Even Tab Hunter, occupied with a couple of songs and sketches, performed effectively. Alexander Scourby, noted narrator, was put to work narrating the show and, as usual, was excellent.

Miss Francis? Her Sophie Tucker-cum-Bobby Darin shadings, her puppet-like, calculated movements lose me. And I wasn't so sure about her taste as she closed with a patriotic rock 'n roll song, no less. But beneath her finger-popping, hard style, I detect a basic talent: One day, she will relax and let her true style take over. She's only 22.

Producer-director Greg Garrison held to a brisk pace as he utilized a mass of spliced tape, pre-recordings and oscillographs to help state the theme. Little time was wasted with talk-talk. However, I'm dispensing most of the credit for this wide-awake sleeper to the writer, Jack Wohl. Long may this "new wave" wave.

RECEIVE SERVICE PINS — Three employees of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Panama were honored at a banquet recently when they were awarded service pins. Pictured, left to right, R. M. Byerly, wire chief, is presenting a 25-year service pin to Guy LeMond, toll repeaterman. Looking on are, Wayne Holt, switchman, 15-year serviceman, and E. B. Steel Union Sued By State Firm For $5.5 Million

DALLAS (UPI)—Lone Star Steel Co. has filed a $5.5 million damage suit in U.S. district court against the United Steelworkers of America for a two-month strike in 1957.

The suit said Lone Star Steel, which has its main plant at Lone Star in Morris County, signed a contract with the union Sept. 18, 1956, that contained a no strike clause.

But on Sept. 21, 1957, a strike started and continued until Nov. 1, 1957, according to the suit. The strike produced bombings of an automobile and pipelines. Shotgun blasts were fired at the automobiles of men who remained on the job.

The strike ended Nov. 21, 1957, with a force working outside of a union contract. Fifteen hundred strikers couldn't get their jobs back.

"As a result of said strike and work stoppage, plaintiff was unable to produce or ship its products normally from its plant during the period of the strike; its costs of operating its plant and shipping products were greatly increased during the period of the strike and thereafter— all of which resulted in increased costs and loss of revenues and profits to plaintiff," the suit said.

Kennedy To Meet Press Sept. 21

WASHINGTON (UPI)— President Kennedy's next news conference will be held Thursday, Sept. 21. The conference previously was announced for Sept. 20, but the White House announced Wednesday it would be set back a day. It probably will be in the morning.

President Plans Indonesian Visit

WASHINGTON (UPI)— President Kennedy has accepted an invitation to visit Indonesia, according to President Sukarno. No date was set, and the Indonesian president said he hoped Kennedy would make the trip soon.

Stocks Demand Held Evidenced

NEW YORK (UPI)—Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel & Co., says the display of optimism shown on Tuesday clearly indicates a demand for stocks based on a long period of good times ahead.

This is being evidenced, he says, by the strong technical pattern which the market has established. While it is true that recent interest has centered primarily in quality issues, sooner or later increased demand will spill over into equities of lesser grade particularly those having a favorable outlook.

Boche & Co. says that until substantial repairs have been made in the market's technical position which has been deteriorating for the past four months, it would suggest a cautious approach in trading accounts.

L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co. tells clients that recent behavior of the market's breadth (number of advances to declines) makes one wonder whether so-called long-pull buying — more than six months—may not involve considerable risk.

Thomson & McKinnon: Most business barometers point to the fact that the economy is still in the early stages of a cyclical recovery. The favorable climate is bolstered by rising income, rising expenditures—especially new defense outlays—and some improving corporate profit margins.

Historic Virginia Mill Is Destroyed

BROAD RUN, Va. (UPI)—Stover's Mill, a 143-year-old structure used as a Confederate hospital during the Civil War, was destroyed by fire this week.

VA HOSPITAL OKAYED
HOUSTON (UPI)—A team of veterans administration inspectors Saturday reported that the Houston VA hospital was in satisfactory condition and "providing outstanding medical care for hospitalized veterans."
