Two Pampa Men Honored As Outstanding Citizens

Cameron Marsh, principal of Pampa High School, and Fred Neslage, manager of the West Pampa Repressing Association, were honored at Thursday night's annual Chamber of Commerce membership banquet as outstanding citizens.

Marsh was cited for his contribution to the development of youth in the city. Neslage was honored for his dedicated service to the city's civic development.

Marsh was presented with a plaque by Newt Secrest who said: "Mr. Marsh came to Pampa in the summer of 1948 to become a member of the Pampa public school system. In 1954 he returned to Maryland, but he had already worn out a pair of shoes here, so after one semester away, he returned. He has been in the Pampa public school system since. He is a member of the Rotary Club, a director of the Chamber of Commerce, an elder in the Presbyterian Church and has taught Sunday school there. He has been a willing worker on numerous and various civic drives. He was sponsor of the Hi-Y Club for 3 years, headed the Debate Club at high school, and has spent hours on end guiding, teaching, and counseling with the young people of Pampa.

"During the past 5 or 6 summers he has worked in the Little League program — not as the manager of a flashy uniformed team, but patiently teaching a farm team how to play ball. In all his youth work the individual has been his first concern.

"He is presently the principal of Pampa High School where his office doors are always open to youth. His work with and for youth has been tireless, endless and without complaint. He is a modest and humble man and might argue that what he has done has been in the line of duty — but his love for this duty has made his efforts so fruitful."

Floyd Watson presented the award plaque to Neslage. Watson listed Neslage's many civic contributions including work with boy and girl scout organizations, the Red Cross, Youth Center, Country Club, Rotary Club, Highland General Hospital, American Petroleum Institute, Pampa Club, Chamber of Commerce, St. Vincent dePaul Church, and others.

Rockefeller Calls For Nuclear Tests

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York called on the United States today to resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere despite any adverse world opinion.

Rockefeller expressed opposition to another moratorium on nuclear testing as proposed in the United Nations.

Neslage has served as a board member or officer of the various clubs and organizations.

Said Watson: "I know of no man who has contributed more of his time and energies toward making Pampa a better place in which to live.

"I have touched on quite a few of his contributions to the community, but time would not permit me to list them all. It has been said that his motto is: 'The service you give is the rent you pay for the space you occupy in your community.' Certainly, Mr. Neslage has lived this philosophy."

Khrushchev Deaf To Pleas To Halt Big Bomb Blast

MOSCOW (UPI)—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has informed world leaders that the Soviet Union intends to continue its nuclear test series as planned despite appeals to Russia not to explode a 50-megaton super-bomb.

In a letter to Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah, made public Thursday night, Khrushchev said the Soviet Union "was forced" to carry out the tests.

Khrushchev said the Western Big Three and other NATO countries had threatened Russia with nuclear war over the Berlin question. He added that the Soviet Union is staging the explosions "so that mankind would never experience the horrors of nuclear war."

Nkrumah had written the Soviet premier that he was "deeply disturbed" over the Russian plans to detonate a 50-megaton bomb. He urged Khrushchev not to go through with the test because of the danger of radioactive fallout.

The Russian leader sent copies of his letter to Nkrumah to Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda, Ethiopia's Emperor Haile Selassie, American scientist Linus Pauling and several anti-nuclear British Labor members of parliament, all of whom urged Khrushchev not to set off the big blast.

In his letter, Khrushchev said: "If under certain circumstances the Soviet Union had refused to strengthen its armed forces and perfect them, then this would have turned against all honest people who really want peace."

"Nuclear weapons in the hands of the Soviet states serve as a serious warning to those who resort to threats in connection with a German peace treaty," he said.

Registration will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday under the direction of Mrs. Vera Lard, chairman, assisted by Mmes. Noel Thompson, Helen Sprinkle, and Clara Lee Rhoades. A tea will follow at 3 p.m. in the Emerald Room of the Inn, according to Mrs. Earl H. Eaton, chairman.

The conference will officially open at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn with a banquet planned under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Ethridge, chairman. Miss Tandy is to be the banquet speaker.

Following the banquet, the Borger B&PW Club will be in charge of Fun Time.

"Peoples said today the purpose of the mass rally is to give Democrats who are not in accord with what he described as the "Democratic trend toward socialism," a chance to switch to the Republican Party.

"The conservative voters in the Panhandle," Peoples said, "are voicing approval of the conservative trend sweeping the nation and this meeting in Pampa Nov. 4, sponsored by the Republican Party of Texas, will give emphasis to that fact."

America Needs Dedicated Men, C-C Meet Told

Americans need more than anything else to stop wearing two hats — to decide where they stand individually and then speak out what they believe, William J. Bird, San Francisco insurance executive, told his audience at Thursday night's annual Chamber of Commerce membership banquet in Robert E. Lee Junior High School cafeteria.

Bird, vice president of the John Hancock Life Insurance Company's 12-state western region, told some 375 dinner guests that each individual needs to redefine and re-dedicate his stand on local, national and international issues.

"Then we need the desire to fight for those principles," Bird said, "and the will to win. Each of us should have a personal dedication to excellence, to service and to perfection in what we do.

"We need greater understanding of people, more attention to political action, a mental attitude that is positive, vigorous and forward-looking, and above all we must speak out for those principles in which we believe."

Bird said that "the United States today stands on the brink of local and national economic expansion the like of which we never have experienced."

The speaker explained the statement by saying that one-half the products which will be merchandised to the American people in 1975 have not yet been discovered.

"By 1970," he said, "our population will be 210 millions. Forty-five million persons will be added in less than ten years.

"In the next ten years a man 50 years old today will accumulate what it took him 24 years to achieve."

Bird said there are too many people today who take the attitude of "let George do it."

"We need to turn the spotlight on ourselves," Bird continued. "We need to see exactly how we measure up as individuals in this time of national and international major crises and problems in the United States and throughout the world.

"There is no longer time to let George do it. We are going to have to do something about it ourselves. We must keep ourselves up to date on what is going on locally, in the nation and throughout the world.

"We must speak up and out for those principles in which we believe. George needs to shed one hat. (See AMERICA, Page 3)

Top GOP's To Attend Rally On November 4

Top Republican leaders and party members in Texas will attend the mass political rally to be held in the Robert E. Lee Junior High School auditorium today by Ken Peoples, organizer.

Peoples said among the prominent Republicans coming to Pampa for the rally are: Tad Smith, El Paso, state G. O. P. chairman; Mrs. G. K. McDaniels, Borger, vice chairman, and Glenn Morris, Amarillo, district Republican committeeman.

Jack Cox, Breckenridge, former Democratic candidate for governor of Texas, will be the principal speaker.

Weight: About 925,000 pounds, including 300 tons of fuel and 95 tons of water ballast.

Height: 162 feet through three stages.

Power: 1.3 million pounds of thrust, generating enough power to push 300,000 conventional automobiles.

Booster: Cluster of eight single-chamber liquid-propellant engines developing 165,000 pounds of thrust; each stage 22 feet in diameter, and uses high-grade kerosene as fuel with liquid oxygen as oxidizer.

City Moves To Speed Up Road Improvement Plan

Pampa's City Commission moved quickly today to get the ball rolling on an overall highway improvement program for better approaches to Pampa and the widening of main thoroughfares inside the city limits.

The first step came this forenoon at a called meeting of the commission in City Hall when a resolution was adopted unanimously asking the State Highway Department to retain State Hwy. 273 as an alternate or business route from S. Cuyler and Brown Sts. to the southern city limits and that a section of the highway 9-tenths of a mile south of the city limits also be widened.

The resolution came after a suggestion by Charles W. Smith, district highway engineer at Amarillo, that the request be made for inclusion in plans for Pampa's overall thoroughfare plan.

County Judge William Craig assured the city commissioners' court would take immediate steps to pass a similar resolution and forward it to the district highway engineer's office.

Judge Craig said the county also is willing to go ahead with the widening of the 9-tenths of a mile strip from the city limits south on SH 273.

Several members of the audience urged action on SH 152 on Alcock street which they said had been in the planning stage for some 12 or 15 years.

Mayor E. C. Sidwell said it is the city's plan to have all main thoroughfares—considered equally in the improvement program to be requested of the highway department.

"We are going to get some action on this planning and get it now," the mayor said.

Commissioner Newt Secrest suggested that it would be a good plan to get all parties concerned—city, county and state together on the overall program and have engineers figure out just what must be done to get the program moving all at once.

The mayor and other commissioners and members of the lobby concurred with Secrest's suggestion.

$25,600 Reported Raised In United Fund Campaign

The Pampa United Fund drive reached $25,600 today when Dr. Joe Donaldson, head of the Professional Division, reported that his group had solicited $2,200 for the drive.

George Newberry, general campaign chairman, announced today the organization would hold their first meeting since solicitations began at the Coronado Inn Monday at 12 noon. This will be a report meeting of fund solicitors.

Three prizes will be awarded for accomplishments in the drive. First prize goes to the division leader who has the most men present at the Monday luncheon. Second prize will be awarded to the person who has turned in the largest per cent of money and the third prize is a nooby award. It goes to the individual who has the lowest per cent of money turned in.

Early this morning, with the Russian tanks ominously stationed near the Brandenburg Gate, the British decided it was time for them to act.

Two recoilless antitank guns went into camouflaged positions just 30 yards from the demarcation line at the gate. A third was installed a few hundred yards to the rear.

A British army spokesman described the action brought to a new climax the tension in this isolated city where Americans for a third time Thursday entered East Berlin with combat-ready soldiers, exercising rights to civilians to cross the border unhindered by East German Communist guards.

American forces twice had brought up to ten 48-ton M48 Patton tanks to the Friedrichstrasse crossing when it appeared trouble might break out.

Early this morning, with the Russian tanks ominously stationed near the Brandenburg Gate, the British decided it was time for them to act.

'Saturn' Soars 90 Miles High; Drops Into Sea

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The United States today successfully launched its mighty Saturn "super rocket" on its maiden flight into space.

The 16-story tall 460-ton Saturn roared from its launching pad at 10:06 a.m. and climbed 90 miles into space. It was the mightiest rocket ever built in America and possibly the world.

It was a brilliant debut success for the Saturn, the first of a new breed of super boosters expected to carry teams of U.S. astronauts on round trips to the moon before the end of the decade.

Four years of planning and building ended in a rush of almost blinding flame and smoke as the 162-foot Saturn drove from the launching pad with 1.3 million pounds of thrust—enough horsepower to drive 300,000 conventional automobiles.

Scientists had hoped the rocket would fly about eight minutes today along a path 90 miles into space and 225 miles over the Atlantic Ocean.

But few of them had expected total success, and federal space agency scientist Kurt Debus said before the launching he would be satisfied with one good minute of flight.

The huge rocket exceeded all expectations. A countdown which began before midnight went perfectly except for two delays of 3 and 32 minutes because of cloudy weather.

The Saturn actually was in the air for eight minutes, exactly what scientists had hoped for.

The rocket hit within seven miles of its planned target area 225 miles southeast of the cape on a near-perfect flight.

An automatic sequence device took over the countdown by electronics at six minutes and 14 seconds before the planned launch time. This mechanism is designed to detect automatically any electrical or mechanical malfunction in the rocket during the last few minutes on the pad.

As the countdown reached zero, the Saturn's eight-engine booster erupted into action in a fireworks-like display on the pad.

Clamps held the huge rocket to the pad for about three seconds, while it built up full power.

Ex-Envoy Found Guilty Of Spying

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A federal court jury today convicted former diplomat Irvin C. Scarbeck of slipping secrets to Communist agents in Poland.

Scarbeck, 41, was found guilty on three of the four counts in the indictment.

The jury acquitted him of the charge of unlawfully removing a secret dispatch from the U.S. embassy in Warsaw.

Scarbeck, who faces a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and a $30,000 fine, showed no emotion as jury foreman John C. Redman announced the verdict after 15½ hours of deliberations.

Federal Judge Leonard P. Walsh said Scarbeck should be held in custody pending a presentence report. He did not set a date for sentencing.

The jury found Scarbeck guilty of disclosing contents of three classified documents to Red agents in Poland.

Avoiding Mistakes Christian Science Theme For Sunday

How to avoid the mistakes of the past will be brought out Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Highlighting the Lesson Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from the Bible: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lam.3). One of the citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Mortals move onward toward good or evil as time glides on. If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified. . . . The divine method of paying sin's wages involves unwinding one's snarls, and learning from experience how to divide between sense and Soul" (p. 240).

Solon Declares U.S. Has Bombs To Match Russia

ODESSA, Tex. (UPI) — Rep. J. T. Rutherford, D-Tex., claims the United States has just as big a nuclear punch aboard each of its B52 bombers in the Strategic Air Command as Russia's 50-megaton bomb.

"Russia is getting the headlines for its 30-megaton explosion, but the United States has far greater power packed under the wings of a B52," Rutherford said.

He made the statement Thursday in an interview with a radio newsmen at Odessa, Rutherford's home town.

It has been known for some time that the B52 can carry more than one bomb in the 10 to 20-megaton class. But it was understood in Washington that these are carried in the bomb bays, not under the wings.

The biggest punch mentioned by U.S. officials prior to Rutherford has been two 24-megaton hydrogen weapons.

Rutherford singled out Biggs Air Force Base at El Paso, Tex., which is in his congressional district, as having B52 bombers with the 25-megaton bombs. But he said bombers at all SAC bases carry such bomb loads.

"It's about time," Rutherford said, "that we start recognizing

Action Postponed On Department's Drive-up Window

City commissioners today postponed action on a low bid received for installation of a drive-up window for the water department on the southwest corner of City Hall.

A question arose as to whether the window would be used in the window would operate efficiently in its planned location.

Further study is to be made and action taken on the bid at next Tuesday's regular commission meeting.

Highway

Smith again reiterated his department's desire to cooperate with the city and county in getting the desired highway improvements.

All present agreed that the next step was to have all agencies concerned get together and go over the plans for the overall program and then call a meeting to prepare the recommendations to the highway department.

At Commissioner Secrest's suggestion, Judge Craig said the county would immediately go along with the plans and take official action and forward it to the district engineer's office.

Berlin

(Continued From Page 1) scribed the tank movements as "a security measure in some way connected to the appearance of the tanks in East Berlin."

"They will stay right there for a while," he said.

Four armored scout cars drove up with the frontline antitank guns.

Informed sources said the U.S. troops planned to continue to escort civilians past the East German police.

The United States insists that only the Soviets may check identification of Allied personnel entering East Germany.

The American determination was backed up Thursday by five Patton tanks and five armored troop carriers which roared to the border crossing point and stopped only inches from the demarcation line where the East Germans enforced identity checks.

Informed sources said it had been expected that the Communists would bring tanks into the city sooner or later and it was no surprise when they rolled in Thursday night.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States today bluntly warned Russia that unilateral Communist acts stirring up the tense Berlin border are a serious obstacle to a settlement of the Berlin crisis.

"If Moscow seeks peaceful solutions as it claims then it should insure that unilateral actions are not taken which seriously interfere with the possibility of such solutions," the State Department said in a terse public statement.

A department spokesman called the arrival of Soviet tanks in East Berlin a belated admission of Russia's responsibility under postwar agreements for the Communist sector of the divided city.

"The dangers in the Berlin situation," said press officer Lincoln White, "have arisen precisely because the Soviet authorities have been permitting the East Germans to violate agreed four-power arrangements while attempting to deny this clear Soviet responsibility."

El Paso Group Stages Brawl At Road Meet

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—El Paso Mayor Ralph Seitsinger and county commissioner Jerry Callison tried to settle an argument with their fists Thursday before leading a delegation before the Texas Highway Commission.

The brawl broke out during a luncheon planning session of the El Paso delegation, which wants the commission to complete immediately Interstate 10, a proposed highway route over the Franklin Mountains in El Paso.

They jumped to their feet and tried to trade punches but city councilmen and commissioners around them grabbed hold of their arms and held on until tempers cooled. There was loud name-calling and a bit of scuffling, but no personal damage done.

An Amersillo delegation asked the commission to approve $11.85 million worth of new highway projects in Potter County.

Mayor Jack Seale of Amarillo asked for a new overpass at the intersection of U. S. Highways 69, 87 and 287, completion of a traffic control system on dispersal roads from North 24th Street to Farm Road 2176, and completion of Interstate 40 within the city. Right-of-way purchase and completion of the interstate route would alone cost $10.95 million.

Other requests included:

- A $10 million expansion program in Wichita County.
- A spur connection from a proposed route U. S. 75 to present U. S. 75 and a business route for U. S. 75 in McKinney at an estimate cost of $123,100.
- Work on Interstate 35 through Gainesville at no cost to the state.
- Area development roads in Uvalde, Zavala and Maverick counties at a cost of $1.5 million.
- Grade separation on U. S. 69 at the Missouri-Pacific railroad in Jacksonville at a cost of $700,000.
- Location of ranch road 2695 south of McLean in Donley county at a cost of $80,000.
- Improvements on Farm Road 2204 from Texas 26 in Kilgore to Farm Road 2278 at a cost of $397,000.
- Spurs from Interstate 30 to connect with the main gate of Red River arsenal and with the main gate of the Lone Star ordnance plant in Bowie County at a cost of $371,000.

Bethune Heights Group Thankful For Homes Plan

Mayor E. C. Sidwell and the city commissioners received a thank you note for their efforts in completing arrangements for the Bethune-Heights project.

The note from Mrs. Samuel Motley, president of the City Improvement Club, said, "Thank you for your true effort and help you have extended to us."

The Pampa City Commission and the Hughes Development Co. reached agreement Tuesday at the commission meeting to go ahead with the proposal.

Saturn

(Continued From Page 1) leased, the Saturn hovered for an instant and then began to climb slowly almost agonizingly. The giant rose almost vertically at first and then leaned into a slight angle toward the southeast.

It climbed into a high arching trajectory that carried it through high clouds above the cape.

The rocket disappeared from view four minutes after it was launched.

Scientists said four of the engines burned for 109 seconds and the other four for 115 seconds—about the time planned.

There was no provision for recovery of the booster and it sank into the Atlantic where it plunged. A number of radios on board the Saturn, however, radioed reams of information that was recorded on many miles of magnetic tape at tracking stations.

Planning Program Meet Query Sent Engineering Firm

Mayor E. C. Sidwell announced today that the city has written a letter to determine when a meeting can be held in Pampa with representatives of Koch, Fowler & Grafe, Inc., Dallas planning engineers, relative to Pampa's overall planning program.

The engineering firm's plan with state and federal participation was halted two months ago with the understanding that the city would enter into its own contract for completion of the project.

A letter was received some time ago from Koch, Fowler & Grafe, asking that the city send representatives to a meeting in Dallas to renegotiate.

The city now is asking the engineers to send their representatives to Pampa for the meeting at the earliest possible date.

"My principal concern here tonight," Bird concluded, "is how many hats do you wear?"

Bird was introduced by E. Roy Smith, outgoing president of the Chamber of Commerce.

At the conclusion of the program, Smith turned the presidency over to Gordon Lyons, 1961-62 president. Other incoming C. of C. officers at the head table were Aubrey Steele, finance director, and Lucian Young, vice president, who introduced out-of-town guests from Wheeler, Berger, Amarillo, Canadian, Claud, Dumas, Fort Worth, Higgins, Mobette, Panhandle, Perryton, Shamrock, Spearman and Miami.

President Lyons presented a plaque to Smith, the outgoing president, for "aggressive leadership and service" to the community during the past year as chamber leader. Smith in turn paid tribute to E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Pampa chamber.

Invocation at the banquet was given by the Rev. Hubert C. Bratcher, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Dr. N. J. Ellis entertained the group with several vocal selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wanda Gill. Dinner music was furnished by Maxine Milliron, organist.

JAY CHANNELL — MINISTER
Mary Ellen And Harvester Church of Christ

Trust And Obey

No one has ever defended the doctrine of obedience at greater cost than that paid by our Lord Jesus Christ. His loyalty to the doctrine of obedience cost Him His life. In His garden prayer, He was aware of the dreadful cross. He searched for a way out of His suffering under these words, Matt. 26:39, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me." Though He dreaded the cross, He dreaded disobedience even more. Not once in that prayer did He allow it to appear. He was searching for a way out of obedience for He added: "Nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt", "THY WILL BE DONE!" (verse 42). He defended the doctrine of obedience by His PRACTICE, Phil. 2:8, "Becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross."

Before the cross Jesus appraised obedience higher than His own life. His actual experience of the awful cross did not alter His view of obedience. The cross did not teach Him that obedience should or could be compromised. He did not use the cross of obedience to provide a gospel of disobedience. He did not provide by obedience a system that would save the disobedient — Heb. 5:8-9, "Though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the author of eternal salvation." The obedience of Christ in His sacrificial death was not to take the place of our obedience. It made our obedience acceptable, but it did not make our obedience unnecessary.

Surely Christ knows what obedience is. He who knows this best still requires it of others. He has become the author of eternal salvation "to all them that obey Him". There is grace in the cross of Christ. There is power in the blood of Christ. Yet the blood of Christ does not contain enough power to save one soul who does not obey the gospel! — II Thess. 1:7-8 "At the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus." The question of power is a question of design; Christ did not design to save those that obey not His gospel. His design and His power unite in His blood to provide, for those who obey His gospel, redemption. He is the author of eternal salvation "to all them that obey Him."

Dear Abby.... Single Men Make The Best Husbands

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 28, have been married twice and have two children. Four months ago I fell for a salesman who was married and had a family. He loved me, too, and we started to make plans. He said he was going to ask his wife for a divorce. He moved in with me and my children but, so far, he hasn't applied for a divorce. Now I don't think he ever will. The thrill has worn off. I miss my freedom and I feel stuck with this guy. His wife found out about us, and now she won't have him back, but he has to support her and his kids anyway. He doesn't help me financially, and is preventing me from making progress with anyone else. He is a weak person, and I feel responsible for getting him into this mess, so I can't throw him out. Any suggestions?

STUCK
DEAR STUCK: Throw him out. If he has nowhere else to go, he'll probably go "home" and beg his wife to take him back. If you are in the market for a man—choose a single one. They make the best husbands.

DEAR ABBY: My sister's husband's name is CHARLES VINCENT SMITH. They named their son CHARLES PATRICK SMITH. Everyone calls the boy "Junior." I say that in order for him to be an honest-to-goodness "Junior," his name should be exactly the same as his father's—CHARLES VINCENT SMITH. My sister says I am mistaken. Am I? KNOW I'M RIGHT
DEAR KNOW: You ARE right.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who lives out of town. She wrote to tell me she just had her first

Travis Parents, Friends To Go Back To School

It is "Back To School" night at William B. Travis on Friday, planned for the parents and friends of the school children.

"This is to begin at 7 p.m. Friday," Mrs. John Gentry, unit president, said. "The parents will go directly to their child's room; if there are two children, on parent may go to each room. Roll will be called and a parent will answer for their child. So don't be tardy. At the close of the 'class', parents will have an opportunity to ask questions of teachers concerning school work."

At 7:45 p.m., a bell will designate refreshment time when pie and coffee will be served in the class room. Tickets for pie and coffee are 30 cents. School age children will see a Walt Disney movie, "Davy Crockett" in the auditorium where refreshments will also be served for a fee of 30 cents. Pre-school children will be cared for in the nursery in the cafeteria. There will be no charge for the nursery children.

An invitation is extended to all parents and friends by Mrs. Gentry and Wendell Altmiller, school principal.

Her home sewing project, an easy-to-make circular tablecloth planned with mother's advice, sets off table service for this home economics student. Cloth, in soft beige with aqua and coral accents, is in same cotton sheen fabric as the colonial-print drapes, and complements their colors.

Encourage Teenager In Home Economics

By KAY SHERWOOD

Encourage the junior-grade student of home economics to put her school learning to practical home use. Learning to cook, to plan meals, to set a table, to sew a straight seam is a course requiring the cooperative encouragement of teachers and mother.

The training starts early in many schools. I have listened while my young know-it-alls spout information about why vegetables are good for you, what is a good breakfast, and the need for a quart of milk a day.

But to eat what they preach? Horrors! If left to them, breakfast would be sweet rolls and pancakes, vegetables would be abolished; milk would be flavored with ice cream and chocolate only.

Sooner or later, the teacher begins to register and they do pay more than lip service to good nutrition. That's the time to encourage a dinner menu planned, shopped for and partly cooked by the future homemaker.

In many homes like ours, the children are taught to set the table early in the game. But family dinner service is not always as dressy as the textbooks would have it. The comparison will be pointed out to you with some disdain. Just to reassure her that you know the difference between paper and linen napkins, have her set a textbook-perfect table next time she has a pal staying for supper.

Although I'm convinced that really good home sewers are born and not made, even the poorest can improve with "practice." If mother can sew, it doesn't follow that daughter will inherit the talent.

But if you are so gifted, a good way of interesting a diffident daughter in the exciting experience of sewing is to plan a mother-and-daughter sewing project.

Jessie Hutton, educational director for a sewing machine company, tells me that such projects can be rewarding and build enthusiasm for future work with needle and thread.

Most of the little girls I know would prefer that such a project be one that would end with new dresses for their wardrobes, but home furnishings projects are also successful, Jessie says. As one example, she cites a homemaker who made beautiful draperies for her dining room and supervised her daughter's sewing of a complementary round tablecloth, banded in the accent colors of the curtains.

In this colonial dining room, the crisp glosheen curtains, patterned with colonial antiques, were of soft beige and rich brown with accents of bright aqua and coral.

The easy-to-make circular tablecloth, stitched up by the daughter, is of the soft beige shade in the same fabric. Flat border trimmings in aqua and coral are stitched around the edge.

Martha SS Class Has Luncheon

The Martha Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church entertained recently with a luncheon in the church.

Mrs. Elmer E. Wilson, vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. M. A. Jones.

Mrs. Ed Schneider, class teacher, led the opening prayer. Mrs. Wilson gave the report for the month of September.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Shirley Nichols, who, also, gave closing prayer.

12 members attended.

There's approval of this pie in the "eyes" of its beholders. Its caramel-pecan topping easily wins a vote of confidence on a baker's apple pie. And the ingredients are but three—1½ tablespoons melted butter, 1-3 cup each of brown sugar and chopped pecans. Spread evenly atop the pie, then, just before serving, warm it under medium broiler heat for 5 minutes.

The Hardens Note Silver Anniversary

GROOM (Spl) — Mr. and Mrs. Preston Harden observed their twenty fifth wedding anniversary on Oct. 1, and celebrated the occasion with an open house.

Guests were registered by their daughter, Mrs. Billy Thurman of San Antonio, assisted by Miss Dondra Burgin.

The serving table was laid with a white organdy cloth over white linen centered with an arrangement of white miniature roses with tulle. A silver fountain tea service, an anniversary gift to Mrs. Harden from her husband, and silver serving dishes and crystal completed the table appointments.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mmes. Bob Britten of Amarillo, V. E. Steed, Rudolph Tucker and Billy Cornett. The receiving rooms were decorated with floral bouquets sent by friends.

During the receiving hours, Mrs. Bobby Cornett and Miss Margie Fraser played appropriate selections on the organ and Mrs. Billy Burgin offered several vocal selections.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Harden's father, E. L. Downum of Leakey, Mr. Harden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Harden of Ingran, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thurman and an aunt, Mrs. Otha Miller of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Britten, Miss Noveta Minard, Mrs. Art Hulsey, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oakley, all of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Kotara of White Deer.

Mrs. J. E. McCann Hostess To Club

Southwestern Bell Auxiliary met recently in the home of Mrs. Charles Holloway with Mrs. J. E. McCann, president in charge of the business meeting.

It was approved that the club year would be from June to June with the present officers assuming their duties until June 1962. Club projects were shelved for discussion at a later meeting.

Plans for a Halloween party were cancelled with a future party to be planned later.

Mrs. Fred Martin was elected Civil Defense representative. Mrs. L. R. Lockett was welcomed as a new member. Door-prize was won by Mrs. Fred Martin.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostess. Members attending, in addition to those previously mentioned, were Mmes. J. A. Turner, E. B. Jackson, B. J. Stephens, R. E. French, Betty Yeager, N. C. Dittrich.

Mrs. Ralph Day will be hostess for the next meeting on Nov. 16.

The Mature Parent No Need To Splurge On Disapproved Rites

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: My 20-year-old niece is marrying a boy that the family doesn't approve of. He has no trade, can't hold a regular job. But my niece wants my sister to give her a big wedding so that she'll get presents to furnish a home with. My sister is a widow who has worked like a slave to raise and educate this girl. Do you think she should spend all her savings on this when she feels as she does.

ANSWER: No, I do not think she should.

Traditionally, lavish weddings are given to young people by parents who've had a voice in the

RUTH MILLETT

Just came across a test that is supposed to show the reader whether or not he has a sense of humor. I didn't bother taking it and I doubt that many readers will, for the simple reason that everyone is sure that HE has a sense of humor.

The other quality we all are sure we possess is good taste.

All the time you hear people lowering themselves for lacking this skill or that talent or quality. We will admit to not being able to draw a straight line, to being a poor story teller, to hehng shy, to being scared to death to make a speech — and so on. All those limitations we can recognize in ourselves — and feel no shame at admitting them to others.

But did you ever hear anyone say, "You know, I am completely lacking in a sense of humor?" I'll bet you never have — just as you have probably never heard anyone say "I simply have no taste."

And yet there are plenty of people who lack one or the other of those qualities. Think of all the dull people who never make a funny remark, never see the funny side of a situation, never are able to laugh at themselves. Yet all these humorless people are convinced they do have a sense of humor.

And think of all the people who spend good money for things that are in atrocious taste — who love the ugly rather than the beautiful, who was given a choice between something beautiful in its simplicity or something gunked up until it is an eyesore will choose the fancied-up thing every time. Still these people never question their own taste. They KNOW their taste is good.

But maybe that's all right. With all the doubts we have about ourselves maybe it is a good thing that we all KNOW we have two things — good taste and a sense of humor.

selection of their wives and husbands. Before a marriage was solemnized, the bride's parents had assured themselves of the bridegroom's character, his financial ability to maintain a wife and children.

The bridegroom's parents had assured themselves of the girl's wifely qualifications. As well as possible the future of the home about to be made had been protected by adults who understood the problems of maintaining one.

Under those circumstances, the bride's parents naturally expressed their content with its promising beginning by releasing money for wedding feasts and other celebrations.

But in America young people feel entitled to marry without interest in our approval. Parents concerned with the financial stability of the home about to be made are comic figures to them. So we do not always feel content to spend money for big wedding festivities. Under such situations, I do not think that the money should be released.

Big, begrudged wedding celebrations are cruel to everyone involved.

Have you ever attended a wedding that wasn't wanted? It's painful. There's the church canopy, the white ribbons, the organ music, the flowers — but the faces of the young people's parents returning down the aisle are cold as stone or flushed with strain. There are confetti and congratulations — but in the church lobby the families of the bride and groom do not greet each other.

Getting married without parental approval is a lonely and difficult enterprise for young people. Their insistence on making it into a big production is a folly that kindness to them will not indulge. I hope your sister stands firm on her refusal.

Pampa Battles High Scoring Palo Duro Tonight

The Pampa Daily News

54th YEAR FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1961

Inside The Huddle

By Joe Lee Smith

A former Pampa High grid star, Bill Kirbie, now a North Texas State tackle, was selected as the Missouri Valley Conference lineman of the week Wednesday.

The 200-pound senior was credited with six tackles and scored the first touchdown of his career as the Eagles defeated Tulsa 21-12 last Saturday.

The University of Texas is going after its first undefeated season since 1923. The Steers have had a long dry spell in that category.

Texas has never been ranked higher than fourth in the national polls at the seasons end. But the Steers have an excellent chance to beat that mark in 1961. They were fourth in 1941 and 1959.

Coach Terry Culley's Pampa cagers have been working out hard on the hardwoods in preparation for their season opener Nov. 23 against Vernon at Vernon.

In our weekly predictions last week, we hit on 20 of 25 games to raise our season average to .773 on 116 correct choices against 34 misses.

This week we find the predictions saying:

Palo Duro over Pampa — The Dons have too much speed for the Harvesters who should make it close.

White Deer over Sunray — The Bucks are down and out but they have enough left to blast Sunray.

Tascosa over Amarillo — The Rebels will be lucky if they don't get beat.

9 Major College Teams Undefeated

By United Press International

Nine major colleges retained their perfect football records during the weekend but the overall list of unbeaten and untied schools was reduced from 82 to 46 teams.

Alabama, Bowling Green, Colorado, Iowa, Michigan State, Memphis State, Mississippi, Rutgers and Texas remained from last week's perfect major teams after Dartmouth, Detroit, Notre Dame and Villanova tumbled from the list.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Illinois Boxing Commission has approved a four-round exhibition bout between Sonny Liston and Illinois heavyweight champion Ernest Terrell at the amphitheatre Nov. 6. The fight will mark Liston's first ring appearance since his suspension was lifted by the Pennsylvania commission.

Shocks Roll By Tascosa Team 18-12

Larnee Miller took a pitchout from quarterback Larry Johnson and scooted three yards untouched with 30 seconds to play in the game to give the Pampa Shockers a come-from-behind 18-12 triumph over the Tascosa Raiders Thursday night.

The touchdown play climaxed an uphill climb by the Shockers after trailing 6-0 at halftime and 12-6 early in the final period. Coach Norman Phillips' crew marched 73 yards for the winning touchdown.

Ronnie Oler, a star in the winning drive, carried 25 yards to the Rebs 48. Johnson fired a pass to Oler good for 12 yards to the 38. Tascosa was penalized 15 yards to put the ball on the 21. Miller scooted to the 12 and Oler carried to the three in two tries to set up the pay-off play.

Until the last drive, all of Pampa's offense had been borne by fullback Curtis Fletcher. The Shockers' ace rambled 65 yards on the first play from scrimmage in the second half to knot the count 6-6 and tied the score at 12-12 in the final quarter with a scintillating 82-yard kickoff return.

Tascosa, winless in eight games, was in complete command in the first half. The Raiders moved 72 yards in the first quarter to score with halfback Hollis Talley going over left tackle for the final two yards.

Tascosa threatened again but the half ended with the Raiders on Pampa's 15.

After the Shockers tied the count, Tascosa rolled 71 yards with Talley again chalking up the six points on a brilliant 36-yard dash.

The win was the second for Pampa against five defeats and a tie.

Local Boxers Win 6 Bouts

Pampa and Lefors boxers nabbed six wins each and Hereford scored four victories in a 16-bout card at the Boy's Optimist Club Thursday night.

Fighters chalking up wins for Pampa were Ronnie Watson over Hubert Sims, Lefors and Andy Grim over John Rodriguez, Hereford in 50-60 pound bouts. Roy Lumpkin dumped Lefors' Glen Cunningham and H. D. LaRue topped Charles West, Hereford, in 70-80 pound matches. Pete Pettit, a 100-pounder, downed Hereford's Andrew Rodriguez and classy 147-pounder Pat McDonald beat Mike Henjosa of Hereford.

Lee 8th Graders Top Hawks 36-12

Coach Mack Choate's touted Robert Lee 8th grade Rebels wound up their 1961 grid campaign Thursday afternoon by thumping Phillips 36-12.

The victory was the fourth of the season against a single loss for the Rebs. Halfback Lewis Meers once again was the big gun for Lee with three touchdowns running his total to 14 six pointers for the campaign.

After battling through a scoreless first quarter, Meers raced 65 yards for the initial score. Quarterback Larry Daniels added the extra points.

Daniels passed 38 yards to halfback Gary Crossland to hike the Lee margin to 14-0 at halftime. Meers zipped 35 yards in the third period, but Phillips retaliated on a two yard pass and the quarter ended with the count 20-6.

Lee tallied twice in the fourth quarter and Phillips got one marker. Meers was off on another jaunt early in the period good for 43 yards. Crossland scampered 67 yards on a fine kickoff return following Phillips' second score.

Choate singled out linebackers David Frazier, Gregory Locke and Paul Burnitt and tackle George Nichols for their fine defensive play. In the backfield, the Lee mentor praised Meers, Crossland and Daniels, who was playing his first game at quarterback.

"They have a 195-pound fullback (Larry Roots) and a 175-pound halfback (Gary Weisner) who are real good boys. Follett has a real fine team and we are expecting a real tough battle. We just hope that we can stop their backs."

Harvesters Gun For Big Upset

The upstart Pampa Harvesters will try to add another feather to their hat tonight when coach Weldon Trice's crew treks to Amarillo to engage the Palo Duro Dons at Dick Bivins Stadium at 7:30 in an important 3-AAAA game.

And the Harvesters have their work carved out for them tonight. For Palo Duro has one of the state's top AAAA club with a razzle-dazzle offense that has enabled the Dons to post six victories in seven contests.

Lefors Goes To Canadian In 2-A Play

Lefors takes to the road to tangle with a 10-year jinx and the Canadian Wildcats, Miami goes to Booker-to-battle for the district 2-B eight man grid championship and White Deer's crippled Bucks host Sunray in local games tonight.

District 3-AAAA play finds Pampa at Amarillo to play the Palo Duro Dons and Monterey at Berger in games tonight, Saturday night. Lubbock journeys to Plainview and league-leading Tascosa clashes with rugged Amarillo High.

Coach Dunny Goode's Lefors Pirates, defending district 2-A finalist, need a win over Canadian to gain a tie with McLean for the league lead. But Lefors faces a 10-year jinx of losing on the Canadian field.

Injuries have hit both clubs with the Pirates having three starters likely to see only limited action and Canadian has two boys out of action.

Ends Tommy Smith and Don McCool and tackle Jerry Harrington are out of the Pirates lineup and Canadian quarterback Terry Brown and halfback H. L. Thomas may not see action for the Wildcats.

Goode stated, "Canadian has a good team despite its record (1-7). Red Cleveland is a good coach and he has good potential. They lost to Clarendon 8-0 last week but had four starters out with injuries and sickness."

Miami meets Booker for the 2-B championship. Both clubs are undefeated and untied with Miami relying on a stingy defense while the Kiowas have a rampaging offense that has tallied 284 points, 134 by speedy halfback Leslie Lee.

White Deer (4-2-1) is out of contention for the 1-A flag but the Bucks like to win and despite many injuries the former state champions are heavily favored over a hapless Sunray club.

Sunray has won twice in seven games and have a fine quarterback in John Mack Worst, who passed and ran for 253 yards against Stinnett last Friday. But the Bobcats will have their hands full with the Bucks' Carl McAdams, the top ground gainer in the district.

Bain broke loose twice in the last half and Phillips led 36-6 before Bryan spearheaded a Reapers touchdown march. Arthur passed to end Terry Bullock for 10 yards and the touchdown. He fired another aerial to Darrell Luster for the extra points.

The Robert E. Lee 9th graders dropped a 22-0 decision to the Gruber "B" team at Gruber Thursday. Halfback Jerry Garrison starred for the Rebels.

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Plenty Of Strings

Supporters of federal aid say that Washington will dole out dollars without any strings attached. However, the facts show otherwise, as the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out. Whenever the U.S. Office of Education has passed out money, it has exercised controls.

Nature Will Do It

Nothing can compare to the workings of nature as she visits upon wrongdoers the results of their own mistaken actions. If we will permit nature to run her own affairs we will find that by letting men assume the responsibility for all their actions, good or bad, we will have done the single most important thing toward establishing a moral and freedom loving society.

Bills Face Bottleneck In The Rules Committee

The battle of the House Rules committee, first big skirmish of the Kennedy Administration, was fought and won in January, but the smoke has yet to clear. Prodded by the Democratic leadership, the House of Representatives at the start of the 1961 session voted 217-212 to enlarge the committee from 12 to 15 members. The move evoked bitter controversy.

The committee has the vital role of clearing for floor debate most bills on which sizeable opposition is likely. A "rule" granted by the committee sets the length of debate on a particular bill and often will specify whether any amendments may be offered. The purpose of enlarging the committee was to wrest control from the conservative Republican-Southern Democratic bloc — personified by Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.) — and give Administration supporters an 8-7 majority.

Administration backers felt impelled to "pack" the committee ways because in the 86th Congress it had delayed or blocked several bills which subsequently were given top priority by President Kennedy — housing, minimum wage, depressed areas, and school aid.

Now the question is, whether the enlarged committee is more or less "obstructionist" than its predecessor. School aid was again blocked this year, when one ordinarily pro-Administration committee member — James J. Delaney (D-N.Y.) — voted with the conservative bloc because of the religious issue. But the other major bills had smooth sailing through the committee.

There were, however, other types of legislation which were reported from other House committees, but were not given rules for floor debate. In all, the committee received requests for floor debate rules on 91 bills from other committees. It granted rules for 67 of these. Of the remaining 24, it in effect blocked six and put off action on 13. The other five were brought to the floor under special procedures not requiring a rule after the rules were requested.

Three bills on which the committee specifically voted to deny a rule would have established federal safety regulations for small coal mines (this may be reconsidered in 1962), eliminated preferential treatment on contract bids by West Coast shipbuilders, and required registration of contractors of migrant workers.

Should We Strengthen The U.N.?

By DR. V. ORVAL WATTS

INSTALLMENT 6 THE COVENANT ON HUMAN RIGHTS — A MASTER PLAN

The Covenant on Human Rights sets forth the master plan; other covenants and conventions fill in the details. Following the outlines of the Declaration approved by the UN Assembly, this master Covenant creates a "favorable image" with pleasing phrases about man's nobility and the "right" of everyone to enjoy the good things of life without regard to differences of race, creed, color, language, sex, religion, and so on. Then it lists and explains particular rights.

As a thoughtful American pursues the list, however, he will note that every statement of right places in government hands unlimited authority to define the right and to restrict every exercise of it.

Article 14, for example, begins with the declaration that "Everyone shall have the right to freedom of expression..." But the Commission which drew up this document rejected the proposal to add "without interference by governmental action." Why?

The answer appears in the next paragraph of the Article, and it makes a sham of paragraph 1. For this second section states that, because freedom of expression "carries with it special duties and responsibilities," it may therefore be "subject to certain penalties, liabilities and restrictions..." These shall be "such only as are provided by law" and are necessary to protect "national security, public order, safety, health or morals, or (of) the rights, freedoms or reputations of others."

As if this blank check for power were not enough, Article 2 of this Covenant states that this and other rights may also be withdrawn during an "emergency" officially proclaimed by the authorities. Other conventions would give governments authority to suppress utterances and writings deemed offensive to foreign powers or likely to cause "serious mental harm" to persons of another race, religion or nation.

Could any dictator, stamped with the signature of local autocrat or more? Contrast these surrenders of authority to "the law" and "the authorities" by the UN covenants with the firm, clear declaration of the United States Constitution: "Congress shall make no law... abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press..." Simply, without exception or qualification, Congress shall make no law abridging freedom of expression — not for any purpose, at any time, under any circumstances.

What American worthy of the name would trade that staunch bulwark of liberty for the tissue-paper fraud of the UN covenants' wily invitations to tyranny? Yet it would take only one or two "liberal" appointments to the United States Supreme Court to make that exchange if the United States ratified the UN Covenant on Human Rights.

The overthrow of all of our constitutional defenses, both State and Federal, would be completed by the welfare-state clauses of this and other conventions which list as "rights" adequate housing, medical services, adequate food and clothing, holidays with pay, enjoyment of the arts, maternity care, and every other Communist Party proposal for redistributing incomes.

Everyone, of course, wants a "decent living" and "adequate" food, clothing and shelter. But why have the Russian people had so little of these amenities of life despite the fact that they are written into the Constitution of the United States?

And why do the people of these United States have them so abundantly although none of them is mentioned in the United States Constitution? Too many Americans now find it hard to answer these questions. The infiltration of statist collectivism into our thought and policy has taught them to look to government as the "fount of every blessing." They have forgotten that freedom and prosperity begin and grow with private property. They do not stop to think that government can give to one person what he has not produced or earned only as it takes from another and thereby shrinks the area of private property, freedom and prosperity.

Dr. Charles Malik of Lebanon, Chairman of the UN Commission on Human Rights, a man well versed in the American philosophy of government, saw the sinister forces and sad weakness responsible for the UN covenants. In the United Nations Bulletin September 1, 1952, he wrote:

"I think a study of our proceedings will reveal that the amendments we adopted to the old texts under examination responded for the most part more to Soviet than to Western promptings..." Yet he had to concede that the Communists were not alone responsible for the failure of repeated efforts to include the right of private property in the UN covenants.

An elderly lady of very firm and severe aspect, was seated next to a young couple, who were discussing the merits of their motor cars. "Young Man — What color is your body?" (of course meaning the body of her car.) "Young Girl — Mine is pink. What is yours?" "This was too much for the old lady, arising from the table she exclaimed: "Old Lady — When young people come to asking each other the color of their bodies at a dinner-party, it is time I left the room."

It is always hard for loyal citizens to believe that the government they have been taught to love and obey could betray them, and it is easy for a "leader" to believe that his foreign adventures will make "his people" more noble, more honorable or more secure.

For more than 60 years Washington has increasingly involved the United States people in world politics and world conflicts. For 15 years it has been embroiled in the political intrigues and conflicts of a world union of governments. It professes to believe that this country is so strong it can defend and subsidize half the world and that at the same time it is so weak it cannot defend itself without the help of those it must subsidize. It denounces the Communist government of Russia as a war-making criminal, yet seeks to strengthen an organization permanently infested with Communist agents. If even pro-

the officials operating this "United Government" seek to expand the role of governments and enhance their authority in every aspect of human life, everywhere. In place of freedom, therefore, this union of governments, operated by and for governments, promises only what Communist double-talk calls freedom, namely, the "freedom" to obey the collective will as interpreted by government. "Are not the people the government?" the collectivists asks. "In obeying the government, therefore, are we not obeying ourselves? Are we not doing what we ourselves decide and choose to do?"

Confused by this collectivist sophistry, many Americans are ready to accept at face value all other promises of this agency for "collective security." They know that freedom brings prosperity, so that it is easy to believe that the "new freedom" of the welfare state will bring a new kind of prosperity — one without risks or losses, without competition or struggle — the bread and circuses of the paternalistic state. And when people are well-fed and comfortable, will they not be peaceable?

But in practice the paternalistic states are always the war-making states when they are big enough to risk this road-to-greater-power. The reasons are not hard to understand if we remember that, as the economic motive is power, so the political motive is power. To administer the program of "bread and circuses," government must have more power — a bigger bureaucracy exercising more authority and backed by more police and military force. Now, the appetite for power grows by what it feeds on. More officials with more power mean more desire for greater power.

The Almanac

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn. On this day in history: In 1787, Alexander Hamilton, John Jay and James Madison, writing under the common pen name of "Publius," began a series of essays to gain support for the ratification of the Constitution.

In 1871, William Marcy "Boss" Tweed, political boss of New York City's Tammany Hall, was arrested on charges of defrauding the city of millions of dollars. Paul—What are the town fathers debating? Whether to keep up the good roads and fine the motorists for speeding, or maintain a multiple and charge them for hauling 'em out. An elderly lady of very firm and severe aspect, was seated next to a young couple, who were discussing the merits of their motor cars.

Strengthen the United Nations? Peace and prosperity are fruits of freedom. Can a "United Government" be a "United Government" organization, one that with impunity rewrites its own constitution, promotes freedom?

Nikita Appears Bent On Trying Pressure Moves

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Western Allies looked ahead rather warily this week to the prospect of eventual Berlin negotiations with Russia.

In Moscow, Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev continued to hold out a familiar carrot and stick.

The carrot was the easing of his year-end deadline for a Berlin solution, although he still kept the heat on by insisting on a solution "without delay."

The stick was his 50-megaton nuclear bomb, designed to threaten and intimidate the free world and the neutrals.

The Western response Khrushchev apparently hoped to get from these two acts was, "the world is getting more dangerous, let's negotiate."

He hoped, presumably, to add fuel to forces within all the Western nations for granting concessions to avoid war.

Thus, the Kremlin leader's overall Berlin tactics remained fairly clear and fairly constant. He hoped to bluster the West into negotiations and concessions and apparently still did not want to start a war.

There are good grounds to believe Khrushchev eased his deadline partly because he saw the Western democracies could not organize their negotiating position quickly.

If he forced an end-of-December showdown he would find the Western position in its "hardest" form of no compromise at all. For the Western powers still have not agreed on any concessions they might grant.

Cadillac

You could buy it for safety alone!

It's the dark of the night—and an unfamiliar turn lies in wait.

Suddenly, at the gesture of the turn signal, the whole area is bathed in a brilliant flood of light—and the driver negotiates the corner smoothly, surely and safely.

This is Cadillac's new cornering light in action. And it is yet another reason why owners tell us the car is worth its whole price in safety.

Consider, for a moment, the safeguards that attend you in this latest "car of cars" . . . design and construction so sound that you travel the highway in a veritable fortress of steel . . . craftsmanship of such care that the car approaches the absolute in dependability . . . performance that is so rewarding and so effortless that the driver remains fresh and alert at the wheel over even the longest day's drive . . . a dual braking system that gives both front and rear wheels their own power to stop . . . safety power steering . . . padded instrument panel . . . three phase rear lighting system . . . and a myriad of other features.

If you haven't driven a 1962 Cadillac, you've been missing something very special.

You can buy the car just for safety, if you wish. But you'll also discover a dozen other wonderful reasons for wanting to make it yours.
