Look how New Skelly Regular Gasoline with KT-3 can help your engine "breathe free" this winter-even on frosty, moist mornings that "strangle" carburetors:

Why take chances on carburetor icing, when it's so easy to avoid it? Why put up with stalling at stop signs, when backing up, or shifting gears? Cold, damp mornings, when the temperature is between 35° and 50° F., can cause rapid ice build-ups in your carburetor that can be dangerous as well as annoying. But Skelly Regular Gasoline with KT-3 gives you Anti-Frost protection at no extra cost to prevent icing.

Why let dirty carburetor deposits rob you of valuable mileage? Dirty deposits that form in your carburetor's throat can also cause your engine to stall at slow engine speeds - usually when you need prompt, powerful engine response. New detergent-action KT-3 lets you clean your carburetor the easiest possible way - just by driving.

Why risk rust and corrosion that can cost you good money for a carburetor cleaning job, when it's so easy to protect yourself against it. Just switch to new Skelly Regular with KT-3. KT-3 fights rust and corrosion all through your fuel system - from fuel tank to car-

The United States is the greatest winter resort in the whole world-

That is, if warmth and comfort are the major items people seek in a winter resort. And they must be, or else Antarctica would be swarming with members of the International Set.

The United States is the only country where a man can keep warm in the winter. The new U. S. Tourist Agency, which is working to lure visitors to our shores, should make a big point of this. Europeans don't know there is a place on earth that is warm in winter. They have no idea that Pegler Says: the average American is snug on the coldest days, that his teeth seldom chatter between November and May, and that it is possible for him to walk about his house barefooted without coming down with pneumonia.
