

Kennedy Plans Straight Talk To Neutral Nations About Russia

By United Press International

A warm handshake, a polite ear and then some straight talk.

These were listed today as ingredients of the reception President Kennedy planned for two delegates from the Belgrade conference of 25 nations who call themselves non-aligned.

Indonesian President Sukarno

and Mali President Mobido Keita

were assigned by the conference to urge Kennedy to start immediate negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev over Berlin.

Two other emissaries, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India and Ghana President Kwame

Nkrumah, already have borne a similar message to Moscow.

Sukarno and Keita were scheduled to arrive in Washington at 1 p.m. CST.

Sources close to the American President depicted him as ready to tell the neutral nations that he wants a peaceful settlement of the Berlin crisis, but not under the threat of Soviet atomic blackmail.

Washington officials have been resentful of what they consider was a rather mild reaction by many of the Belgrade conferees to the resumption of Soviet nuclear tests. They feel the reaction would have been much sharper had the United States broken the three-year moratorium.

Khrushchev, whose propaganda lines have been bombarding the world with the Soviet viewpoint of the Berlin crisis, found yet another channel through which to tell his story.

Through a New York City company, Crosscurrents Press, a representative of the International Book Co. of Moscow, he sent out a 3,800-word "letter to American readers" detailing the "Soviet stand on Germany."

In it, Khrushchev said there is "every possibility" of East-West negotiations on Berlin. But he also reiterated that Russia has "firmly decided not to postpone the signing of a (East) German peace treaty any longer."

In the letter Khrushchev implies that unless the German issue is settled to his satisfaction, the Soviet Union will keep up the arms race and nuclear weapons tests.

"Our antagonist is our helper. This amicable conflict with difficulty obliges us to an intimate acquaintance with our object, and compels us to consider it in all its relations."

Edmondson, superintendent, explained.

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers and General Motors today hoped for speedy settlement of a paralyzing strike, with the government helping to resolve the key issues blocking negotiations — the problem of relief time.

UAW president Walter P. Reuther announced agreement with GM vice president Louis G. Seaton on the relief problem Monday night and immediately offered encouragement that the strike could be brought to an end soon — perhaps by Thursday.

There were still some 11,000 local issues unresolved which stood in the way of workers heading back to the plants. In addition, such major items as overtime, union representation, foremen working and an anti-discrimination clause have not been settled on a national basis.

Reuther had authorized all the locals to strike if a complete settlement were not reached by 10 a.m. Monday. He blamed the resulting walkouts at nearly 100 plants of "sweatshop" working conditions in GM.

On Thursday a conference of 280 UAW officials from GM plants around the country will meet here to review negotiations and decide whether to accept a new contract.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Tiro: III weather satellite is watching three hurricanes, two typhoons and a couple of smaller storms which might turn into hurricanes.

The 285-pound satellite was launched into an orbit about 450 miles high on July 12 to search out Atlantic and Gulf hurricanes and their counterparts, typhoons, in the Pacific.

The Weather Bureau reported Monday it has had seven big storms under surveillance in the brief period since Sunday.

Allies Defy Communist Berlin Patrol Warning

BERLIN (UPI) — The Western Allies today defied a Soviet warning against "provocations" and continued sending military patrols to the East-West Berlin border.

The action represented a Western rejection of what amounted to a Russian demand that they be withdrawn.

The reason for such patrols was made clear again Monday night when Communist police in East Berlin tossed tear gas and smoke bombs into West Berlin to disperse a group of Germans evacuating a summer cottage in the American sector of the divided city.

It was to prevent and combat violations of Western territory that Allied soldiers were assigned to border patrols after the Reds sealed the border with a concrete wall and barbed wire on Aug. 13.

The Soviet ambassador to East Germany, Mikhail G. Pervukhin, Monday night denounced Western troop reinforcements and patrols on the Berlin border as "dangerous actions."

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI) — A tornado spawned by dying Hurricane Carla ripped through residential and business districts of flood-isolated Galveston before dawn today, shattering buildings and causing death and injury in a 1½-mile swath.

Casualty totals varied as rescue workers battled through waist-deep flood waters, dotted with floating debris to reach victims.

John Sealy Hospital reported five and "possibly one more" bodies brought to it. That could include a woman who died of a heart attack at a hurricane shelter four hours after the twister struck.

At least 50 persons were injured, many of them seriously. "Casualties are pouring in," the hospital said.

Most were struck by falling debris and flying glass.

Occupants of a small apartment building who escaped unscathed reported the tornado simply "exploded" the building.

Many were injured among the 1,000 refugees who had jammed the county courthouse to escape the fury of Carla which raked Galveston with 125-mile-an-hour winds Monday. The tornado smashed the building's windows and damaged the roof.

Carla itself dwindled to a shadow of its former 150-mile-an-hour self while rolling 125 miles inland to historic Austin, the state capital.

Winds up to 55 miles an hour hit Galveston and fringes of the storm lashed squalls and rain north and east of Carla, now officially downgraded to "tropical storm."

Jas. Ewing Williams, Pampa Pioneer, Dies

One of Pampa's earliest settlers, James Ewing Williams, 95, died at 10:30 p.m. last night in Worley Hospital. Mr. Williams had been in good health until a broken hip hospitalized him some weeks ago.

Funeral arrangements have tentatively been set for Thursday; the service time and place to be announced later, according to Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Born Oct. 19, 1865 in Benton County, Mo., Mr. Williams came with his parents' brothers and sisters to Denton County in 1878. In March of 1886, at the age of 18, he came to the Panhandle section of Texas and went to work for the Franklin Land and Cattle Co. Thus, began a long and colorful career as a cowpuncher, cattleman and rancher, which spanned approximately 75 years.

The Franklin Land and Cattle Co. was a well-known ranch, which started out with 1,100 sections of land west of where the city of Pampa now stands. Later part of this land was leased to the Bar N, the Matadors, the Clarendon Agency and Investment

Legion Meeting Opens In Denver; Parade Is Staged

DENVER (UPI) — The American Legion displayed its finery yesterday to the city of Denver in a day-long parade by some 20,000 participants.

The Legion's national convention opens officially today, with its spirit slightly dampened by the Berlin crisis.

The biggest disappointment to convention officials was President Kennedy's cancellation of a scheduled speech. Then the Army and Air Force announced they would not be able to participate as fully as expected in Monday's parade.

More than 2,000 Army troops were to march in the parade, but half of them have been placed on alert status because of the critical world situation, and could not make it.

Also, the Tactical Air Command withdrew its F100s, F104s and F105s from a planned mass flyover, reducing the number of participating aircraft to 15.

Despite this, the parade was one of the biggest in Denver history. The Legionnaires would not let the weatherman stand in their way.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and former President Harry S. Truman both are slated to speak to the delegates.

Speed of sound in air increases with the temperature, but at room temperature it is about 344 miles per second.

German Commies Summon Youths To Army Camps

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist East Germany today stepped up its armed forces recruiting drive as a series of incidents increased tensions on the border between East and West Berlin.

The Communist news agency ADN said whole regiments of youths were marched — many straight from their jobs — to take their oaths before officials in a number of East German towns and sent to start immediate training.

The scenes were reminiscent of Adolf Hitler's Nazi Party drive for more volunteers for the Wehrmacht.

A Communist newspaper in Karl Marx City said a factory at Wiesa simply "delegated" all young men eligible for military training into the armed service — in effect, compulsory military training for those youths.

It was believed more factories would follow the line. The Communists usually begin a campaign at one point and spread it from there.

The 25-mile wall with which the Communists have sealed off East Germany from West Berlin witnessed daring escapes and battles between West Berliners and East German police Sunday.

On a half dozen occasions the East Germans fired water cannon, smoke and tear gas bombs at both East and West Germans waving to each other from opposite sides of the wall.

A crowd of 100 angry West Berliners retaliated by hurling rocks over the border at a Communist armored car carrying high pressure water firing equipment.

Slap At Gen. Walker Serves As Reminder Of Kennedy's Record

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was saying that Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker was busted from his command in Germany for two reasons:

His method of indoctrinating troops against communism.

Political activity forbidden by the Federal Hatch Act.

More specifically: McNamara

said Walker wrote for his division newspaper in 1960 a recommendation that his soldiers consult the Americans for Constitutional Action guide book before voting. This guide book more properly is known as ACA Index.

If any of Walker's soldiers consulted the index and were convinced by it they surely voted against President Kennedy last year.

ACA is no John Birch Society. It is not primarily concerned with communism. The anxiety of ACA is about the constitution of the United States. Admiral Ben Morell, USN (Ret.) is ACA chairman. His ACA associate trustees include Herbert Hoover, Charles Edison, twice a Democratic governor of New Jersey; Felix Morley, author and lecturer; Edgar N. Eisenhower, Ike's brother; Mrs. R. Templeton Smith, president of the Allegheny County (Pittsburgh, Pa.) League of Women Voters.

The ACA Index rates members of Congress by rigidly conservative standards on their record of support of private enterprise. Admiral Morell stated the purpose of the 1960 edition of the index, as follows:

"If anyone has wondered why the Socialist virus has been penetrating our oversied, centralized government, resulting in higher and higher taxes, bigger and bigger public debt, and more people being pushed around by government than ever before in American history, he can find the answer in the ACA Index."

President Kennedy does poorly in the ACA ratings. On an analysis of selected Kennedy votes in the Senate classified by ACA as "for private ownership and against government ownership," Kennedy was rated zero out of a possible 100 per cent. He was rated 11 per cent "for individual liberty and against coercion," zero again on national security. The votes weighed in the national security estimate related to legislation dealing with communism, loyalty, sedition, state's rights and atomic energy.

Bert Parks' Beauty Show Role Pleasing

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — Whoever thinks Bert Parks is just another pretty face should have watched the "Miss America Pageant" Saturday night.

Oh, the laughs as the CBS-TV special let boyish Bert roam the stage as emcee for the full two and a half hours. The special this year was a half-hour longer than last year's and our suave hero filled the extra time by wrestling tightly sealed envelopes.

What he lacked as a gracious envelope-riper he more than made up for as a song stylist. The Atlantic City, N.J., pageant gave Parks time to pour not one, not two, three or four but five, yes five songs from that glorious vessel that is his voice.

In other years, the nation has had to wait, until the climax — the crowning of Miss America — before hearing Bert's rah-rah raucous coat-covered voice shake out the "Ohhh, there-she-is, Miss Ummerrick-uh" theme song. On Saturday, however, Bert unleashed a version of that tune as he stepped on stage at the start of the show — almost before he even opened his mouth, and that ain't easy. After that thrill, everything else was anti-climactic.

Parks, whose stage manner makes George Jessel seem like Wally Cox, wore out a set of eyebrows and teeth as he grinned, gлумped and belted, or stropped his melodies into the air.

Apart from the laughs, I got from watching Bertie, I found Saturday's pageant to be a drag. Color commentary was skimpy. There was a shortage of close-ups and excitement. Contributing to the bland-as-sand approach was the methodical chit-chat with which Don McNeill and Marilyn Van Derbur, host and hostess for the TV show, helped launch the required commercials for soda-drinkers who think young, hair-sprays with hidden body, autos with something extra and TV sets with "the sound and the beauty." Put 'em all together and they spell Bert Parks.

Despite the ho-hum format, I thought this year's crop of girls was the prettiest I've seen for this pageant. Some of the entrants seemed to be, like Bertie, more than merely pretty faces.

David Susskind, TV and motion picture producer, doesn't like Frank Sinatra, singer-legend-tycoon and un-Scottish clansman.

So little David opens the new season for his nationally syndicated "Open End" program with a two-hour ramble devoted to this problem.

According to officers, Terrill reported he was carrying the watch in a watch pocket and discovered the theft this morning.

Library bills for August were also approved. The bills included new books and book repairs. The invoice, to be paid from the Library Budget, was for $645.79.

The commission discussed the proposed development of Bethune Heights, a colored section, but decided to put the project on next week's agenda so that they might have more time to investigate the matter. The discussion centered around approving the development of the water and sewage systems in the development.

In other business, the commissioners authorized the city secretary to make payment to the general funds of $25,000. The August invoices approved in today's session totaled $16,591.03.

interior. Warnings of possible twisters were sounded in North and Northeast Texas and Southeast Oklahoma as the storm veered toward those areas. It should be felt in Oklahoma tonight.

Carla-spawned tornadoes already had taken one life during the weekend. A four-week-old infant died in a twister at Kaplan, La. Sunday night, 17 persons hurt by a wind tunnel at the Houston ship channel and 3 others were injured in a tornado at Slidell, La. Rain finally stopped at Galveston and other coastal points. It deluged the city with more than seven inches in the 24 hours ending at 8 a.m. today.

Carla itself directly caused no deaths, although damage along coastal areas was estimated by Texas officials in the "hundreds of millions of dollars."

Officials credited the record exodus of as many as 500,000 people from the Texas coast and another 50,000 from low-lying west Louisiana shore points for lethal Carla failing to cause heavy casualties.

One man drowned Monday night on the flooded gulf freeway near La Marque, Tex., when trapped by high tides.

Civil defense and U.S. Army amphibious truck teams moved toward Texas City, where several thousand persons remained trapped by high floodwaters. There was a shortage of drinking water.

A 2,000-man National Guard force was dispatched to the Texas shore to help keep order and assist in the vast cleanup operation about to start.

Austin, sandbagged against possible flooding, escaped virtually unscathed.

Several smaller inland towns—Edna, Yoakum and Shiner—were battered and damage was extensive there.

SPECIAL ISSUE PLANNED—Plans were announced today for the big "Top O' Texas Transition" of the Pampa Daily News, and here's Brice Worthington, former Iowa publisher, who's here to spearhead and coordinate development of the presentation.

Daily News To Publish Big 'Progress' Issue

Preparations have been launched for a massive "Top O' Texas in Transition" issue to be presented by the Pampa Daily News late this fall.

The issue will be a salute to the entire "Top O' Texas" area for its advancements in industry, business and housing, while stabilizing its total potential through full exploitation of three distinctly different productive facets of economy—oil, ranching and agriculture.

"While it is not possible for us to estimate accurately how many pages will be in the issue," asserts E. Roy Smith, publisher, "early indications point to the possibility of 80 or more!"

Tex Dewese, editor, added: "We have promised editorial content to support 100 or more pages, and enthusiasm of everyone who has been advised of our plans seems to indicate that we have a gigantic task ahead of us."

To set up proper coordinating and timing of the Transition issue, the Daily News has arranged with Brice Worthington, former newspaper publisher from Sheldon, Iowa, to assist with the undertaking. Such an edition would be beyond the capacity of the regular staff members.

Worthington has had extensive newspaper experience in many sections of the country, starting out as a cub reporter in Stuttgart and Little Rock, Ark., where he worked with the Arkansas Democrat while attending Little Rock Junior College.

Later Worthington went to the staff of the Arkansas state bureau of the United Press (1937-38) and then to Moorhead, Minn., where he served successively as sports, telegraph and managing editor of Daily News, interrupted by a four-year stint in the Navy during World War II.

In 1949 he became partner-publisher of the twice-a-week Sheldon Sun, where he served in the dual capacity of editor-advertising manager until it was sold in 1958.

Since then he has assisted publishers in Texas, New Mexico, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas and California in preparation of large special editions.

The Daily News, besides presenting rich historical feature material on the growth and development of the "Top O' Texas" and its business and industry will attempt to tell with particulars the amazing and interesting story of the solid and stable development of the entire area.

Doris E. Wilson

Pampa News Women's Editor

Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of four articles prepared to help publicity chairmen do their job effectively for their organizations. Today: Tell It Honestly.

The ABC's of writing a news story is to tell... who, why, what, when, where and how. After you have written your story, check against the five w's and the h. The editor wants all of the facts and necessary details, including full names and any identifying titles they have. You naturally will want every story you give the editor to be as accurate and impartial as though it had been prepared by a newspaper reporter.

NAMES, NAMES, NAMES... in each issue of a national news magazine there appears over one column this comment: "Names make the news." People nearly always like to see their names in print. A person, whose name appears in the paper in a complimentary way, will buy not one, but six copies. Experience has taught editors that names, names, names, help build circulation, so it's well worth all the efforts that may be required to submit all the names of guests, members or other people involved (up to a 45-name limit). Sometimes when the list exceeds 45, it isn't fitting to include full lists and after you've listed this many, you will know that you have enough.

When it is physically possible, the woman's editor will want your club meeting news no later than three days after it is held. A happening or event that is days old is generally no longer news, it is history... and newspapers leave the writing of history to the historians.

Much of the time, you can give the story to the editor before it happens. For example, you know well in advance that your group is going to have a banquet or hold an election of officers or sponsor some other similar activity. Always see to it that the editor has the information well in advance of the event. Once you've given her an advance story, follow it with a "cover" or account of what happened at the event.

If for some reason, the event fails to take place, it is your responsibility to notify the editor immediately. If she prints the story announcing a meeting at a certain time and place and on that same day gets a call from a reader stating that the meeting did not take place, she is going to have some choice comments to make.

Back to the subject of names, be sure that they are always right. In publicity for your group, you have a perfectly legitimate excuse for being as "nosy" as you wish to be. Determine at the beginning of the club year, all of your members married names. The woman's editor does not like to use first names, such as "Helen Jones." Sometimes this is the only name you know a member by. Be sure you must have the husband's name, except in the case of a widow or divorcee.

As most of you know by now, the woman's editor does not have time to take a story by telephone. You may call when she is rushing to meet a deadline or in the midst of an interview. Sometimes she may be out on a story and you will not be able to reach her. She is especially rushed from Wednesday morning until Saturday noon. That is why it is requested that you bring the story to the office.

Your story may be short, taking only 10 minutes; but multiply that by as few as six calls a day (and there are often more), that is one hour spent in conversation. Then when your stories have to be typed, edited and a headline written for them, you can see that it would be time consuming. Stories left in the News Office, even in note form, can be typed and edited in a third of the time, they can be taken over the phone, retyped and edited.

We do have available at the News, forms that will help you write up your reports. They are yours for the asking.

Just a couple of more ideas, while we're on the subject of submitting news stories. Rising costs of turning out any newspaper make it imperative that all stories be told in as few words as possible. You will soon find that it's a lot more fun to see a brief item, giving all the essential information than to contemplate that beautiful long story that found its resting place in the wastebasket.

Avoid adjectives and the glowing tributes. If it takes pages to tell your story, better read it over carefully and do a little editing of your own. Don't express an opinion about the "delicious" refreshments, they are all good; and don't praise an interesting speaker, they are all good (or should be). The highlights you give of his speech will be tribute enough and the reader can make up her own mind if it was interesting.

And, please avoid the needle. It can be a temptation when handing a story to the editor to casually mention that Brother John, a big advertiser, thought the editor would be deeply interested in your story; or that so-and-so in the newspaper office is a good friend of yours... or that you used to "work for a newspaper." If you succumb to this temptation, you won't be adding sunshine to the editor's day. (TOMORROW A n y Questions?)

Mrs. Hathaway Feted At Party

Mrs. Albert (Clara) Hathaway was honored with a reception on the occasion of her 90th birthday recently by her sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hathaway of Mobeetie, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hathaway of McLean.

Relatives and friends from three states met in the Mobeetie High School to honor Mrs. Hathaway, who is the mother of two sons, the grandmother of seven and the great-grandmother of four; all of whom attended. Grandsons are Vic, Dan and Glen Hathaway of Mobeetie, Britt Hathaway of Alameda, Joe Hathaway of Pampa and Dwight Hathaway of McLean. The honoree has one granddaughter, Fay Smith of Mobeetie.

Great-grandchildren are Vickie, Monica and Tonue Hathaway and Robbie Smith. Sharing birthday festivities with Mrs. Hathaway was her sister, Mrs. Colby Galloway of Los Lunas, N. M., the former Mrs. L. C. Upham of Panhandle. Mrs. Galloway was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cal Dickey of Tulsa.

The refreshment table was appointed with a white cloth centered with a pink and white floral arrangement. The pink and white birthday cake, holding two candles and the numerals "90", crystal and silver completed the table appointments.

Mrs. Charles F. Hood Jr. of Amarillo, whose husband is a great nephew of the honoree, provided piano selections throughout the party.

Mrs. Hathaway was born in Marshall, Mo. on Aug. 18, 1871. She came to Henric, La. with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hood as a young woman. She taught school in Dennison and in Oklahoma. She was married to Albert Hathaway, who is deceased.

Polite Motorists Sought By Police

Are you a courteous driver? If you are, the local police department and Altrusa Club are looking for you.

This local women's service club with the cooperation of the police department are conducting a survey to find the "most courteous driver" of the week.

In the interests of traffic safety, local drivers performing acts of courtesy, while driving in downtown traffic or on residential streets, will receive recognition for their courtesy and will be awarded a moment of their act by the Altrusa Club.

The traffic safety project, being promoted by the Public Affairs committee of the Altrusa Club, began Monday and continues through Oct. 7. Each week a courteous driver will be spotted and stopped by the police and invited to accompany them to the newspaper where their picture will be taken and the award made.

It is felt by the club and the police department, that the courteous act of "doing unto others as you would have them do unto you" applies as much on the city streets as in someone's living room, and will go a long way in keeping Pampa a safe place to live.

Program Topic Romantic Era For Treble Clef

The Romantic Period in music history was presented at the first meeting of the new year for the Treble Clef Club on Tuesday evening in the City Club Room.

B. Alleman.

During a brief business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Alleman president, Mrs. Paul Reimer was elected recording secretary to replace Mrs. David E. Mills, who is moving to Colorado. ## Dear Abby... Weekends Call For Compromise

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have a summer cottage near the shore because my husband loves to fish. We have four teen- aged children. They do not like going to the cottage every week - end because all their friends are in the city. It is a battle getting them to go to the cottage. I can't leave four teen- aged children in the city housed alone, and I hate to send Dad up to the cottage alone. I am torn between my husband and my children. Is there a solution to my problem? It has been going on for five years.

WIFE AND MOTHER

DEAR WIFE AND MOTHER: A compromise is the only fair answer. But Father must compromise, too. Go to the cottage every OTHER week - end. Perhaps some of your children's friends would enjoy going along.

DEAR ABBY: I have two sisters - i n - law who are both expecting in January. Let's call them Maria and Anna. Maria's husband has a good job and they have no money worries. Anna's husband has been laid off and they are having a tough time making ends meet. My mother - i n - law was here and I gave her a big box of baby clothes to take to Anna. She took it right over to Maria's and let Maria pick out what she wanted first. Maria took all the best things for herself and left only a few little things for Anna. (I found this out accidentally when I visited Anna's house and she showed me what she got.) Should I make Maria give the things to Anna? Or tell my mother - i n - law to get everything back?

MAD AS A WET HEN

DEAR MAD: Don't try to get the things from Maria to give to Anna unless you want to start a battle that will be bigger than a box of baby clothes. Your mother - i n - law had her nerve, but it's too late now. Forget it. And next time you have something to give - give it yourself.

DEAR ABBY: Because I had a few hard knocks in my life I always had the feeling that there was no "brotherly love" in the world, and everyone was out to get what he could. This morning I had to take a taxi to work. I had only a ten - dollar bill in my purse. Another woman in cab said, "Here dear, take this change - and pay me back by putting it in the collection plate next Sunday."

DEAR ABBY: I have two sisters - i n - law who are both expecting in January. Let's call them Maria and Anna. Maria's husband has a good job and they have no money worries. Anna's husband has been laid off and they are having a tough time making ends meet. My mother - i n - law was here and I gave her a big box of baby clothes to take to Anna. She took it right over to Maria's and let Maria pick out what she wanted first. Maria took all the best things for herself and left only a few little things for Anna. (I found this out accidentally when I visited Anna's house and she showed me what she got.) Should I make Maria give the things to Anna? Or tell my mother - i n - law to get everything back?

DEAR MAD: Don't try to get the things from Maria to give to Anna unless you want to start a battle that will be bigger than a box of baby clothes. Your mother - i n - law had her nerve, but it's too late now. Forget it. And next time you have something to give - give it yourself.

Quannah Meets Crowell Friday

By United Press International
The high-riding Jacksboro Tigers and most of the other Class AA schoolboy football title contenders appear to have fairly easy sailing along victory road this week.

Coach Chuck Curtis' terrible Tigers, who have rolled up 130 points while blanking Archer City and Decatur, play Class A Bridgeport this week and, while they may not hold up that 65-point-per-game pace, should breeze to a lop-sided triumph.

Things may not be quite so easy for the Sweeny Bulldogs, picked as the likely southern bracket finalist against Jacksboro. Sweeny plays Class AAA Wharton, a team that could slow down the Bulldogs' tempo.

Defending champion Denver City, which barely squeezed past Seminole 9-8 last week, takes on another tough AAA competitor in Kermit and could have its string of 17 consecutive victories snapped.

Childress, which has indicated it might contend with powerful Quannah for 5-AA honors, gets a chance to compare this week when the Bobcats tackle a AAA Vernon team which fell to Quannah 34-12 last week.

Quannah, meanwhile, faces unbeaten Class A Crowell, but the Indians shouldn't be too hard pressed for victory No. 3.

Some other Class AA powers who face AAA opposition this week include Fort Stockton, which plays Monahans; Terrell, which meets Bonham; Hillsboro, which tackles Ennis, and Sinton, which engages Robstown.

Dalhart, a possible Panhandle contender, bumps into strong Class A Stinnett; Gilmer, the East Texas power, faces in-and-out Class A New London; potent Taylor meets fairly-strong Lockhart; 1960 finalist Bellevue warms up against weak Navasota; Brady gets a chance to compare itself to talented Anson when it plays Winters, while Anson takes on Class A Roscoe.

HOLE-IN-ONE — Miss Ava Swafford is the second woman ever to sink a hole in one on the Pampa Country Club course. She sank her ace Sunday on the 90 yards 16th hole and it enabled Mrs. Swafford to card a 93 for the day. She was playing with Miss Lila Austin and Mrs. Tom Kitchen.

Quarterback Holds Fate Of Cardinals Grid Team

By United Press International
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — When you speak of Sam Etcheverry you speak of the St. Louis Cardinals' "man on the spot" as far as the team's fate and fortune in the coming National Football League campaign is concerned.

The sore arm suffered by the former Canadian Football League star passer this summer has been the source of more than one headache among the Cardinals coaches and officials.

"The doctors tell us it's something that will work itself out, but it will take time," said head coach Frank (Pop) Ivy. "All we can do is wait and see."

To compound the Cardinals' troubles and put Etcheverry even more on the grill is the fact ace ground gainer John David Crow will be out for a large part of the season, at least the first four games and probably more.

The star runner, who was third in the league last season with 1,071 yards gained, sustained a broken ankle in the Cardinals' third exhibition contest this year. Ivy admits that took a big chunk out of his team's ground attack even though Prentice Gautt, the former Oklahoma flash, has shown promise since being pressed into service as the No. 2 left halfback behind Joe Childress.

Gautt, who came to the Cards in a trade involving quarterback John Roach, had been slated to move into the fullback spot behind Frank Mestnik, Mal Ham-

Stewart Named Pampa Captain

Spirit and enthusiasm. That's two words that describe the Pampa Harvesters' grid team. The gritty Harvesters went through a stiff practice session Monday as the locals prepare for the invasion of the Phillips Blackhawks Friday night.

New blood in the Harvesters' line-up has brought renewed vigor and determination. Members of the team and the coaches felt like Pampa should have beaten Bel Aire Friday. The Highlanders, although statistically beaten, nudged the Harvesters 7-0 on a long scoring run.

Monday, Coach Babe Curfman and his associates went to work to iron out some of the offensive problems and to set up a defense for the Hawks unbalanced offense.

Sophomore quarterback Ricky Stewart stepped right in the signal-calling slot and capably directed the club. Halfbacks Mike Stewart and Riley Walters ran well in scrimmage. Walters was especially impressive as he ripped off several large gains.

Sophomore halfback Ralph Palmer moved up from the Shockeys to take over the first string left half position. Palmer was impressive Saturday night as he tallied the Shockers' lone score in a 6-6 tie with the Perryton Deputies.

Curfman commended the Shockers for their fine play against Perryton saying, "It was one of the best games I have seen any Pampa team play."

The Pampa mentor also complimented Stewart (Mike) as one of the "best boys that I have ever coached, a swell kid and a fine football player" as he was appointed captain for the remainder of the season.

Phillips, the Harvesters Friday opponent, is traditionally tough on the gridrons. Coach Joe Means' Blackhawks lost to Odessa Ector 14-12 in their opener. The 1-AAA club operates from an unbalanced line using many variations of floats and split offensive patterns.

NEW CAPTAIN — Senior halfback Mike Stewart was appointed captain of the Pampa Harvesters football team Monday. Coach Babe Curfman said, "Mike is one of the finest boys I know and is a fine football player. He will make a good captain."

QB Club To Meet Wednesday Night

The Pampa Quarterback Club meeting usually scheduled for Tuesday night has been postponed until Wednesday night announced club president Paul Brown today.

At Wednesday night's meeting, the club will hear a scouting report from the Harvesters' scouts on the Phillips Blackhawks, the Friday night opponent. Coach Babe Curfman will also have a film and comments on the Pampa-Bel Aire game played last Friday.

Anyone still interested in boosting the Harvesters this fall is invited to come on out to the meeting and get a membership card. It still isn't too late for anyone to join.

The Wednesday night session will be at the high school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

Amateur Golf Play Enters Second Day

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Defending champion Deane Beman, the crew-cut insurance executive from Arlington, Va., and veteran Billy Patton clash today in the featured second round match of the 1961 National Amateur golf championship.

Patton sat on the sidelines Monday with a couple of ex-champs, Jack Nicklaus and Charley Coe, while 23-year-old Beman nearly was ousted by newcomer Harry Allers. Easy victories are anticipated for Nicklaus and Coe in their initial firings at Pebble Beach, rated one of the toughest layouts in the world.

Beman was four-up at the turn over Allers, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., lad playing in the National for the first time, but ran into trouble on the back side. The champ got back on the stick for the last four holes to oust the 21-year-old Allers, 1 up.

Nicklaus, the 1959 king from Columbus, Ohio, battled with Don Krieger, Oregon champion in 1956-59. Coe, two-time winner from Oklahoma City, faced John Nichols, an unknown from Downey, Calif.

Others getting into the act for the first time included Ireland's hopeful, Joe Carr, and England's big guns, Marty Christmas and Mike Bonallack. Former U.S. Walker Cupper Dale Morey, Morgantown, N.C., was Bonallack's opponent, while Christmas tangled with Richard Norville, Oklahoma City. Carr went to the tee against Claude Wright, Englewood, Colo.

Only two golfers managed to best par — Cobby Ware, Augusta, Ga., who was two under, and Paul Spengler, Ross, Calif., who was 1 under with five birds on the first six holes.

U.S. Walker Cupper Bill Hyndman, Philadelphia, upset, 1 up, by Dick Davies, Pasadena, Calif.

British Walker ace Jimmy Walker, dumped, 5 and 4, by Charles Courtney, La Jolla, Calif. John Farquhar, Amarillo, Tex., a semifinalist last year, topped, 3 and 1, by Dick Lott, an 18-year-old from Newark, Calif.

Dr. Ed Upegraff, Tucson, Ariz., Western champion, ushered to the sidelines, 3 and 2, by Scottish belter Ronnie Shade.

And elder statesman Chick Evans, 71-year-old king in 1916 and 1920, dumped by ex-Marine James McCarthy, Joliet, Ill., 5 and 4.

Ralph Gugliemi Nears Grid End

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The end of the line may be looming for Ralph Gugliemi, once called the greatest quarterback in Notre Dame history and now fighting to keep his job on the Washington Redskins.

Monday, the Redskins asked waivers on "The Goog" — in a technical sense. He has been sidelined with a back injury and, if no team claims him, the Redskins could keep him on the injured reserve list for four weeks and still have the full quota of 36 active players.

But owner George Preston Marshall admitted that if another National Football League team offered the Redskins a top-notch player, he would let Gugliemi go.

"If anyone does claim him," he explained, "we'd withdraw the waivers immediately — but not if someone claimed him and gave us a top player in return."

Marshall's apparent willingness to trade The Goog was the direct result of rookie Norman Snead's somewhat sensational play. The big bomber from Wake Forest played the entire game against Green Bay last Saturday, threw two touchdown passes, scored once himself on a 19-yard run and guided the underdog "Skins" to a rushing and passing total of more than 400 yards.

With Gugliemi definitely out for at least four weeks, Snead will start the season opener against San Francisco next Sunday. Any showing that comes close to his performance against Green Bay may keep The Goog on the bench indefinitely — or even permanently.

Italy To Try And Abandon Auto Racing

MONZA, Italy (UPI) — Italian newspapers joined in the drive to abolish auto racing in this country today after the tragic crash in the Italian Grand Prix that caused the death of 14 spectators and German driver Wolfgang von Trips.

"The gladiator games also were a gruesome and risky affair, but mankind decided to stop them," said Il Giornale, a Milan newspaper.

Il Tempo of Rome said that if auto racing in Italy is not banned, "at least they must take the necessary precautions to protect the public."

Three more spectators struck down by Von Trips' bright red Ferrari during the second lap of Sunday's race died in local hospitals Monday.

Coaches Chosen For Rate Board

NEW YORK (UPI) — Five new coaches will serve on the 1961 United Press International Football Coaches Rating Board, which will begin rating the nation's major collegiate teams weekly after games of Saturday, Sept. 30.

As in the past, five outstanding coaches from each of the seven geographical sections of the country will make up the board. Their ratings have become generally recognized as the most authoritative in college football.

The new board members are Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse, Hank Foldberg of Wichita, Murray Warmath of Minnesota, Jim Sutherland of Washington State and Bob Devaney of Wyoming.

SIGNS WITH RAIDERS

OAKLAND (UPI) — Defensive tackle Garry Finneran, recently released by the San Diego Chargers, has been signed by the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League. The Raiders, meanwhile, dropped fullback Jim Jones.

WINS PRO MATCH
PARIS (UPI) — Pancho Gonzalez of Los Angeles defeated Mal Anderson of Australia, 6-2, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2, Monday night in a professional tennis match at Roland Garros Stadium.

Dodgers Nudge Phillies

By United Press International
A rookie who landed in the big leagues merely by writing a letter was the only reason that kept the Los Angeles Dodgers from being completely written off today.

Gordon Windhorn is a 28-year-old benchwarmer with the Dodgers. He has come to bat for them 18 times this year and owns only four hits. But the Dodgers would have been dead without him Monday night. Batting for Willie Davis in the 11th inning, he connected for his first major league homer to give the Dodgers a "must" 6-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies that kept alive their flickering pennant hopes in the National League.

The victory moved the Dodgers within 3 1/2 games of the idle first-place Cincinnati Reds. Had they lost, they not only would have dropped 4 1/2 games behind, but they would have been two games down in the lost column and virtually all through.

Until Windhorn delivered his homer, reliever Don Ferrarese had pitched seven innings of hitless ball and it looked like curtains for the Dodgers.

His homer Monday night was one of five in the game. Lee Walls hit two and Ron Fairly and Charlie Smith one each. Ron Peranoski was the winner in relief.

Olson Defeated By Rodriguez

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Carl (Bobo) Olson has discovered he isn't the only guy who can be effective with body punches.

The former world middleweight champion ran into a barrage of them Monday night while dropping a 10-round decision to underdog Sixto Rodriguez in a bout that fits buffs would call "a war."

Both boxers — the bald and 33-year-old Bobo and the 23-year-old tile setter from San Anselmo — look — turns — rocking each other with jolts to the body and head. When it was over, all three judges named Rodriguez the winner.

Referee Jack Downey scored it 6-4, referee Fred Apostoli 6-3 and Judge Vern Bybee 6-2. Each fighter weighed 178.

YANKS ON TV
NEW YORK (UPI) — Baseball fans in the New York City area will be able to see all the New York Yankees' remaining games this season on television. The large interest in the Roger Maris-Mickey Mantle home run derby prompted the additional telecasting.

Dodgers Nudge Phillies

By United Press International
The San Francisco Giants mathematically eliminated the Pittsburgh Pirates from the NL race with a 4-3 triumph in 10 innings, and the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Milwaukee Braves, 4-1.

There were only two games played in the American League where the Boston Red Sox ripped the Washington Senators, 14-4, and the Minnesota Twins downed the Los Angeles Angels, 5-2.

Lozer Eloy Face made only three pitches, and Felipe Alou laced into the third one for his 17th homer that gave the Giants winning his 13th game. The Cardinals collected 10 hits, including three pitched by Stan Musial and score at 3-all with his 27th homer in the sixth.

Jack Sanford went the distance for the Giants and gave up six hits for his 11th victory. Alvin McBean worked the first nine innings for Pittsburgh before Face came on to start the last of the 10.

Carl Sawatski broke up a pitching duel between Larry Jackson and Lew Burdette with a two-run single in the sixth that paced the Cards to their victory over the Braves.

Jackson allowed only six hits in 17th homer that gave the Giants winning his 13th game. The Cardinals collected 10 hits, including three pitched by Stan Musial and score at 3-all with his 27th homer in the sixth.

Ken Boyer, Burdette suffered his 10th loss against 16 victories.

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Selection Of Questioners

Most of our stagnation and errors come from individuals refusing to permit those who have different ideas on right and wrong to question them.

Too many people are so well satisfied with their own understanding of God's or Nature's law that they will not permit those who have a different understanding of what is right and wrong to question them. And when a man selects his own examiners, his own questioners, his own jury, he can always be right. In fact, it is one of the surest ways for him to dwarf his mental faculties.

One can never tell when a man who has an entirely different view will point out some of the errors of a man who thinks he understands right from wrong.

One of the most pathetic things is to have a man hide behind the editorial chair or hide behind a book, or a lecture platform or a pulpit, or a labor union, or a Republican or Democratic party, and refuse to permit questions to be asked where he is obliged to answer the questions without evasion or contradiction in a given length of time. A discussion where the answerer can make a long speech is of little value, because the party cannot follow it, and if an interested party is reading it or listening, he gets lost before the answerer admits that he has to evade or contradict himself. And if a man has to contradict himself, he is in error, because one truth is always in agreement with every other truth. One principle is always in harmony with every other principle.

It is only misguided and bewildered individuals who advocate things being done collectively which they would not think of doing individually. If it is wrong for one man to do a thing as an individual, it is wrong no matter how many people do the same thing.

If we could get more people to permit their ideas to be questioned by people who have different views than what they have, we might turn the trend from socialism back to following the natural laws that have always existed.

No Marriage

There can be no proper alliance between the government and the private enterprise market. Any appearance of a marriage is false and is made for the benefit of the uniformed. Voluntary action and compulsion are two different things.

Double Standards

On occasion we have deplored the existence of a double standard in our nation. Similarly, we have urged the recognition that all human beings control their own energies individually and that actions taken by individuals in groups must rest upon the same moral base as actions taken by individuals by themselves.

The question could be asked: If all individuals control their own energy and hence are in a position to set up individual standards, wouldn't we have a multiplicity of standards if we relied wholly upon individualism?

And the question follows: If this is what we advocate, isn't a government necessary to set up a universal standard of rightness to which all men can be compelled? Wouldn't this process tend to eliminate the double standard?

There is only one possible answer to this brace of questions. That answer is that there is discernible in nature a CORRECT AND VALID system of moral law which is binding upon all men regardless of the nature or extent of their governments. There is such a thing as RIGHT conduct. And this rightness has been determined, both by experience and by the great moral teachings of our major religions and our major thinkers.

This moral law, or natural law, if you will, is in existence. It has always been in existence and always will be, insofar as human life on this planet is concerned. This law precedes all governments and all individuals.

The basis of all moral understanding lies in our acceptance of individualism. Each person is one. It is improper for this ONE person to inflict his will on any other person by the use of aggressive force.

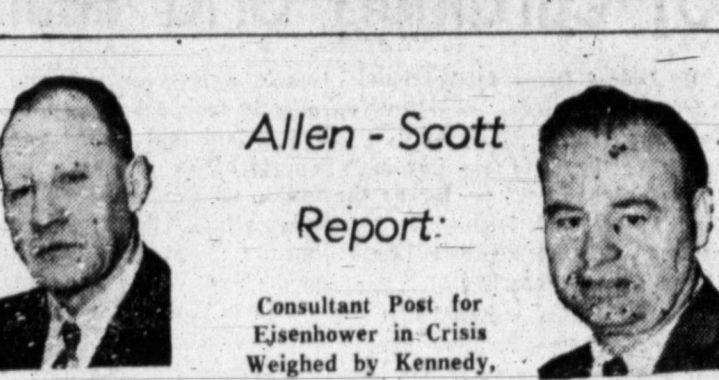

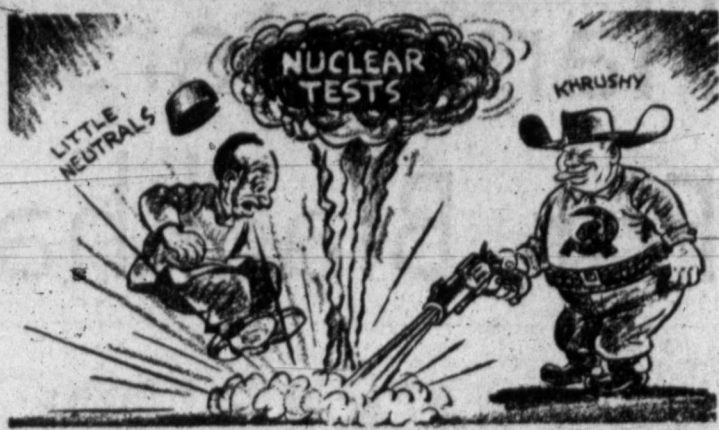

This is so universally recognized that virtually all of the world's literature, religion, history and philosophy attest to the fact. Theft is wrong. So is murder. So is coveting. So is a lie.

We do not need a government to tell us this, we know it and we have the experiences of others bound into books which attest to the same fact.

But governments are introduced into the field of human experience. Governments exist on LEGALIZED theft and LEGALIZED murder. This is what is meant by a double standard.

Whereas each individual can be taught that stealing is wrong and that murder is a great evil, governments can only exist if they must take wealth or money on

Allen - Scott Report:

Consultant Post for Eisenhower in Crisis Weighed by Kennedy, Snagged by Party Advice

ROBERT S. ALLEN

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy is seriously considering giving former President Eisenhower an official consultant job during the Berlin crisis.

He is discussing this bi-partisan move with Congressional leaders of both parties, but hasn't as yet made any final decision on whether to do so.

Senate GOP Leader Everett Dirksen, R. Ill., who first proposed the idea at a secret White House conference on Berlin, is assuring the President that all Republican leaders in Congress would hail an Eisenhower appointment.

He argues that this would assure unity of the nation behind the President in any military action that he might be forced by Khrushchev to take to protect West Berlin.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D. Mont., Senate Democratic Whip Hubert Humphrey, D. Minn., and Acting Speaker John McCormack, D. Mass., also are enthusiastically endorsing the plan, but with one very important qualification.

The Democratic leaders are cautioning the President that if he gives Mr. Eisenhower an official consultant role he should offer the same to former President Truman.

It is this Democratic suggestion that is temporarily stalling the Eisenhower announcement.

So far, aides of President Kennedy haven't been able to devise a way to bring these two former Presidents into the Berlin picture on an official basis without setting up a "political powder keg" in the White House.

TEMPORARY SOLUTION — Neither, Eisenhower nor Truman has any close feeling for the other, and the President is fully aware of this.

Truman, who was General Eisenhower's commander-in-chief in the closing days of World War II, puts part of the blame on Eisenhower for the poor Berlin settlement that the West obtained from Russia at the end of the war.

Eisenhower, who snubbed Truman at the 1952 inauguration, contends that Truman is the one who

ONE AT A TIME
(Life Lines Washington, D.C.)

Too many of our freedoms are being lost while we seem not to notice. Year after year, there are fewer and fewer areas into which federal regulation has not encroached. Government bureaus exist to regulate farming, jobs, relations between employer and employee and the other broad areas of business operation. Excessively heavy taxes make it more and more difficult for an American citizen to accumulate sufficient savings to take care of him in his old age. The length of the so-called "normal" work week is set by a government agency.

All these things have been done one at a time. Each an advance along the road that leads directly away from freedom probably seems a small movement, a hardly noticeable movement. Most often each step away from freedom was made possible by a promise of something for nothing. A far-reaching system of grants, subsidies, rewards and penalties has been set up to finance the flight from freedom.

And the end is not yet. Every year additions to the regulatory system are proposed. Each of these offers something to somebody. Every one demands the surrender of a little more of the freedom of the individual American citizen and the handing over to the government of more power over the people.

Those who give up their right to decide their own affairs for themselves may find it temporarily profitable. Those who protest or rebel find it costly. In the end, both groups — all Americans — suffer great harm. For freedom once lost is more difficult to regain.

We can do something more than wring our hands over this state of affairs. First of all, we can — each of us individually, all of us together — make a clear and con-

Cooks Don't Stay Long In Italian Households

By HENRY McELMORE

ROME, Italy — Cooks in Italy are easy to get and hard to keep. They are plentiful, reasonable, and unreliable.

Nearly everyone has one — or more accurately, had one. Cooks usually are spoken of in the past tense, for they have just departed.

Italian cooks stay with an American family about two weeks, or just long enough to learn to mispronounce the family name. One American family we know, whose cook stayed four months, gave her a gold watch for faithful service.

We have had eight since we got to Rome and the last one, Celestino, a Sardinian by birth, hasn't shown up for three days. We used to wait for them, and keep a lamp burning in the kitchen window, but now we just call an agency for a fresh supply.

No one knows where Italian cooks run away to, or why. No conscious choice in favor of freedom.

We can make our choice and then we can actively seek out others who also choose freedom. This is a time for patriotism in America. This is a time for you to be proud that you are a Patriot, to let your fellow-Americans know that you stand up for freedom, to share with them your honest pride in your patriotism.

The Mistaken are always at work against freedom. We can meet their challenge only by our own unceasing vigilance, our own reliance on the right of free men equally constant efforts to uphold freedom, and our own continuing under God to work out their own destinies.

American likes to think that the cooks flee just because he owes allegiance to Kennedy and not to Gronchi, and sometimes rebels at spaghetti three times a day and for a late snack at night.

Americans do not have cooks for a luxury over here. They are an absolute necessity if one is to keep alive outside of restaurants. No American in his right mind can order meat in an Italian butcher shop, no matter how well he speaks the language.

There is no similarity between Italian meats and American meats. The Italians butcher in a strange way, and come up with shapes and sizes completely unfamiliar to the American eye. There is no such thing as a pot roast, a steak, a cutlet, a spare-rib, sliced bacon, or a leg of lamb.

Veal, veal, and more veal is the Italian meat diet. The American woman cooks it about three ways, and then has to start over again. To avoid going veal crazy an Italian cook, who can prepare it 4,000,000 ways, is a necessity.

Only an Italian can purchase the herbs required to season Italian food. The Italians use every bush that sprouts an inch high, and all that sprout fifty feet high. One corner of our kitchen is known to us as the weed bin. A Chinese doctor would be delighted with the bushes to be found there.

Italian cooks give a family no warning of their flight. The day before they take off to their mysterious hiding place they are as much a part of the family as the budget. Nothing is too much trouble to cook for Signora and Signori. In spare time they knit away for baby. They jabber about how

Most people love the sea and the sand—but their wristwatches don't. The watch repair business booms in the summertime. Even so, the stamina of a good watch is amazing. A lady's watch contains 125 parts crammed in a space about 3/100 of an inch. Yet the average watch is buffed and banged—and expected to gain or lose no more than a second per hour.

Then the next day they do show up and never appear again. They'll even leave a week's wage to get out of sight.

Senate Approves 2-Year Extension Of Braceros Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate passed a two-year extension of the Mexican farm labor program, yesterday after tightening up wage and work restrictions on the importation of braceros.

The bill, approved on a 75-9 roll call vote, goes back to the House for consideration of Senate changes.

Under the bill, the program of importing Mexican labor for seasonal work on American fruit and vegetable farms would be extended until Dec. 31, 1963. It was started under a United States-Mexican agreement in 1951.

Before final passage, the Senate adopted, 42-40, an amendment by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., empowering the labor secretary to fix higher wages for both braceros and domestic migrant farm workers.

The Senate, however, rejected, 49 to 35, a proposal by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N. Y., which would require that farmers provide for migrant American workers some of the same benefits—such as insurance, transportation and work guarantees—as are provided for the Mexican laborers.

Keating and McCarthy said the proposal would still leave the Mexican laborers with more such guarantees than the amendment would give to American migrants. But Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., said the amendment was "impossible" since domestic workers are not on a similar contract basis, and Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said the amendment would have the effect of "killing the bracero program."

Under the McCarthy proposal, American farm owners would be required to pay braceros and domestic migrant farm workers 90 per cent of the average state or national farm wage.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., chairman of the Agriculture Committee, warned that adoption of the McCarthy amendment would "kill the bill."

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau, Army chief of research and development, said today U. S. troops in Europe were well supplied with modern weapons to fight a potential war.

In a copyrighted interview with U. S. News and World Report, Trudeau said a steady stream of modern equipment, including M-14 rifles, M-60 tanks and armored personnel carriers of the latest type, was moving to Europe.
