Huge Nuclear Weapons Arsenal Bared By U. S.

Russia Warned Of Sure Defeat If War Occurs

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (UPI) - The Defense Department told the world Saturday night in an unprecedented disclosure that America's arsenal of nuclear weapons now is counted in the "tens of thousands."

In a major defense policy speech approved by President Kennedy, Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric coupled the disclosure with a blunt warning to the Russians that they would lose any conflict they started.

U.S. Helicopter Hit By 'Missile' From E. Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) - A small object tore a hole through the plexiglass windshield of a U. S. helicopter patrolling along the Communist "death zone" in Berlin, American officials disclosed Saturday.

A U. S. State Department spokesman said the object—described officially only as a "missile"—definitely was hurled or fired from the Communist side of the wall dividing East and West Berlin Friday.

The "missile" struck with enough force to gouge a 3/4 of an inch hole in the heavy glass bubble protecting the cockpit of the helicopter.

The spokesman said it would not be determined what sort of object was used or whether it was deliberately aimed at the patrolling helicopter. He also said it was not known whether Communist police on patrol duty along the "little iron curtain" in Berlin were responsible.

The possibility that the missile was a bullet was discounted by American officials. They believed it was either a stone or ball-bearing fired from a slingshot.

Despite the "death zone" and the barbed-wire and concrete wall nearly a score of East Germans got through to West Berlin during the past 24 hours. Two were Communist police in full uniform who went over the wall into the French sector, bringing their Soviet-made machine pistols.

Gen. Taylor Sees Viet Nam Outpost

ON 17th PARALLEL, SOUTH VIET NAM (UPI) - President Kennedy's special military adviser, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Saturday went to within rifle shot of Communist North Viet Nam in his on-the-spot survey of the military situation in this Red-threatened republic.

Taylor was sent to South Viet Nam by Kennedy to see what the United States could do to bolster the struggle against the increasing Red menace here and throughout Southeast Asia.

Health Service Warns Of 'Flu'

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Warning against possible influenza outbreaks, the Public Health Service Saturday urged persons in "high risk groups" to get vaccinated before winter begins.

Vaccination shots were called "most important" for pregnant women, persons suffering from chronic diseases of the heart, lungs and circulatory systems, and all those over 65.

Talk Hints High Reds Face Trial

MOSCOW (UPI) - First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan accused former Premier and Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov of trying to seize power in Russia in 1957.

He also attacked Albania in terms so strong observers said it amounted to expulsion of Albania from the Communist camp.

Mikoyan made his accusations in a speech Friday to the current 22nd Soviet Communist Party Congress. The speech was published Saturday in the official government newspaper Izvestia.

Mikoyan said Molotov pretended to accept the peaceful co-existence policy laid down by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at the 20th Congress in 1956 but actually was organizing a "palace revolution" behind the scenes with other members of the "anti-party group."

And in effect the ousted deputy premier said that if Molotov had succeeded in seizing power, Khrushchev and some of the other leaders of present day Soviet Russia might have been physically liquidated.

(Soviet affairs experts in London said Saturday the virulent attacks on Molotov and the other members of the group—former Premier Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich—indicated a trial and possibly even a purge was in the making.)

While Khrushchev was carrying out the decisions of the 20th Congress, Mikoyan said, "Molotov stuck poles in the wheel spokes, hindered the work of the Central Committee, tried to attract adherents for the members of the Presidium of the Central Committee, all of which he did indeed succeed in."

He said Molotov was an unconstructed Stalinist. He said if Molotov's views had prevailed it "would have meant the virtual recognition of the inevitability of war, the renunciation of active efforts at agreements intended to reduce the size of the nuclear arms race." (See TALK, Page 3)

'Should We Strengthen The UN?'

Since there is a great interest in foreign affairs, since there has been such a lively discussion about the United Nations, and since the editors of The Pampa News believe that only as people are informed will they make right decisions, The Pampa News will publish in series form during United Nations Week, an article by Dr. V. Orval Watts. It starts today on the editorial page and will run for six or seven days.

Dr. Watts is a graduate of Harvard University, but he admits he has changed his views considerably since he graduated. He was economic counselor for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce from 1939 to 1946. He was economic and editorial adviser for The Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington - on - Hudson, New York, from 1946 to 1949. From 1949 to 1951 he was visiting professor of money and banking at Claremont Men's College. He is now a consultant for leading business organizations in Southern California.

Dr. Watts has been an outstanding leader of conservative or constructive economic thought.

In order to properly judge Dr. Watts' article, it is suggested that the reader send a dime to the United Nations, Office of Public Information, New York and get a copy of The United Nations Charter.

It is said that the only two senators who voted against joining the United Nations in 1945 were the two who had read the charter.

Dr. V. Orval Watts

Dr. Watts has made a thorough study of the actions of the United Nations and is as well posted as anyone. The News' editors know. The News believes that only through better understanding will individuals make the right decisions, and it is for that reason this newspaper is publishing this study, in serial form.

Christmas Parade Route Outlined By Committee

Details of Pampa's Santa Day Parade and pre - Christmas observance were worked out at a meeting of a sub - committee of the Chamber of Commerce Merchants Activities Committee Friday in City Hall.

Santa Day has been set for Friday, Dec. 1. The parade will move at 3:30 p.m. from the point of formation at S. Cuyler and Craven Sts.

The line-of march will go north on Cuyler from Craven to Browning around Pampa Junior High School west to Frost, then south to Foster and west on Foster to N. Somerville where it will disband.

Pampa's three school bands will march in the Santa Parade along with school-bands from surrounding towns and cities invited to take part.

Cash prizes of $35 and $20 will be awarded to the first and second place winners in the religious entries and Santa Claus divisions. A plaque will be awarded to the commercial float best portraying the Christmas spirit.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 children are expected to visit with Santa Claus on the Gray County Court-house lawn immediately after the parade. Santa and his helpers will distribute candy cones to the children. One of the school bands will be on hand to play Christmas music at the after - parade party.

Members of the Santa Day sub-committee are Eddie McCollum, chairman; Duggan Smith and W. L. Veale.

Warming Trend May End Today

By United Press International
Warm air from the Gulf of Mexico surged northward across Texas Saturday, making most of the state about 10 degrees warmer than it was Friday.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the warming trend would continue until possibly Sunday night when a new mass of Canadian air was expected to arrive.

Sites remained clear for the sixth consecutive day but clouds were expected to gather in much of extreme South Texas by Sunday.

No rain has been recorded in a week and none was in sight. Overnight temperatures ranged between 39 at Junction and 63 at Corpus Christi.

U.S. Orbits Wire Band About Earth

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (UPI) - A satellite to warn of enemy missile firing rumbled into orbit Saturday carrying a controversial hitchhiker that had to get a presidential okay to make the trip—350-million tiny copper wires.

The 75 pounds of wires which rode piggyback on the Midas IV satellite are supposed to spread out in 30-40 days to form a 5-by-25-mile reflective communications band around the earth.

The band, known as Project West Ford, has been opposed by scientists who claim the hair-like wires would clutter space, perhaps making astronomical study more difficult and possibly endangering satellites. But the White House approved the project Oct. 4, saying that no more could be launched until results of Saturday's test are studied.

An Atlas ICBM—the 99th to be fired so far—boosted the Midas and the wires into a nearly circular orbit about 2,100 miles above the earth with the help of the Agena-B satellite rocket which fired, stopped and fired again over Africa on command.

It took 2 hours and 52 minutes for the Midas and the wires which are slightly below its path to circle the earth, passing over both the north and south poles.

The Air Force expected to know in several days whether the wires would spread out as planned and be about 1,200 feet apart.

The 91-foot high rocket's glare hit a layer of low clouds as dawn was coming up over the Pacific Ocean. As it left the pad—the lighting effect on the clouds looked like illumination—at a night football game.

The wire experiment was prepared by Dr. John V. Harrington, director of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Lincoln Laboratory. He said two such bands of wires would assure instant, interference-free and jam-proof communication between any two points on earth.

The wires were expected to spread out in about a month if the experiment works with about 90 wires per cubic mile. They are invisible and will stay in space approximately seven years, Harrington said.

Pampa Mother Finds Son Dead

Donald Russell, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Russell, 723 N. Dwight, was found dead at 501 E. Browning at 7:17 p.m. Saturday.

Police said the man was found by his mother who told officers her son had left home at 5:30 p.m. Saturday to work on some modernistic painting in his workshop at the Browning street address.

Officers said they found a note written by Russell saying he had taken 10 sleeping pills.

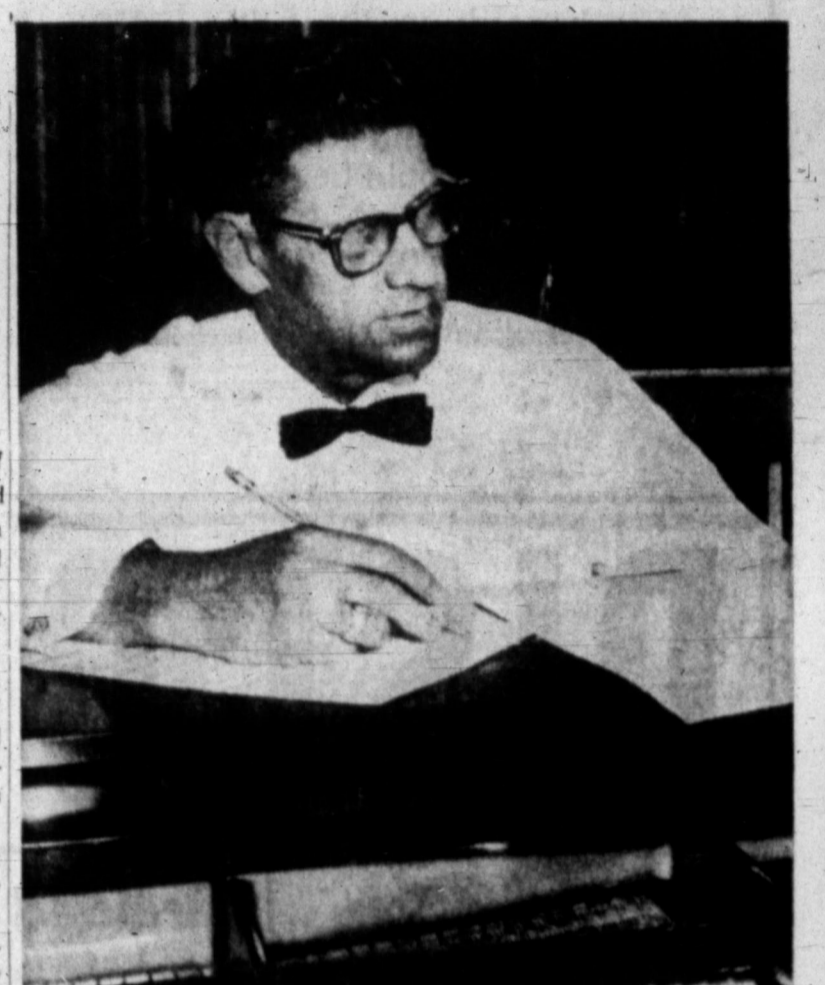

Justice of the Peace J. W. Graham said late Saturday night he had not rendered a verdict as to the cause of death pending further investigation.

Russell was born November 29, 1931, in Duncan, Okla. He graduated from Pampa High School in 1950.

Survivors are his parents, one brother, Jack, Beaver, Okla.; three sisters; Mrs. June Hubbard, Pampa; Mrs. Marjorie Smith, Duncan, Okla.; and Mrs. Joyce Rutt, Amarillo; and grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Russell, Monahans.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home.

KICKOFF SHOW WRITER, DIRECTOR - The man behind Pampa's United Fund kickoff show in Coronado Inn tomorrow noon is Coy Palmer, local radio station owner. Palmer has spent many hours writing the words and music for the musical production, "The U," featuring local actors and singers. The show is designed to spark drive workers who will attend the luncheon and begin their solicitations tomorrow afternoon. The Pampa-Lefors fund goal is $64,746. (Daily News Photo)

United Fund Drive Opens At Monday Noon Event

Something entirely new in United Fund kickoff programs will be unveiled when Pampa's 1961 general drive is launched at a luncheon Monday in Coronado Inn.

The production will be given tomorrow was written in its entirety by Coy Palmer of KBMF Radio and features some of Pampa's finest musical talent.

Dr. N. J. Ellis, local physician, will star in the production, "The U," in the role of Mr. Business, depicting the average businessman as he confronts everyday life. Representing the Salvation Army in the kickoff show will be the Strickland Twins, Martha and Mary. Mike Vendrell will be featured as a Cub Scout and Marilyn "Sissy" Milliron will appear as a typical Girl Scout "Sissy" who has been performing for many years in local productions, having started at the age of four as a featured attraction in the Lion's Club Minstrel Show.

Rounding out the cast will be Mary Wilson, business manager of the Pampa Clinic, who will be featured as a soloist portraying the Spirit of the American Red Cross.

Judges for the band contest are James A. Jacobsen, of TCU, Fort Worth; Dean Kilson, of Texas Tech, Lubbock; and Pete Long of Ponca City High School, Ponca City, Okla.

Like's Home Boasts Inner Fallout Shelter

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Back stairs at the White House.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said in a recent interview he had considered building a fallout shelter for his farm home at Gettysburg. What held him back, he said, was being "deeply certain that it would alarm the people."

This seems essentially the same reason, President Kennedy at his last news conference would not say whether he, the leading exponent of fallout shelters for householders, has one at Hyannis Port, Newport, Middleburg or Palm Beach where he spends holidays or weekends.

With Eisenhower, however, the case is a bit curious. He may have overlooked it in talking with interviewers in New Jersey, but he has a very fine fallout shelter in his Gettysburg basement. He may not think of it in such terms, but shelter it is—on the word of those who know because they not only saw, but had a voice in construction of the Gettysburg house from the basement floor up.

The Gettysburg house was started shortly after Eisenhower took office in 1953. The builders left the outer walls of an earlier and ancient structure, then erected a handsome new dwelling within the walls.

On advice and request of the Secret Service and Defense Department, a commodious security room was built into the basement. This room was needed to house electronic equipment used not only for the President's protection, but for highly secret information and code machines for transmitting and receiving it.

The room was constructed of heavily steel-reinforced concrete. It has no windows and only one door. It could be used as a shelter for possibly as many as a dozen persons, if provisioned and equipped with an independent, filtered air intake system.

There's no doubt about the former President knowing where the room is. Obviously he does not think of it in terms of the current shelter construction campaign, or it just might be that he doesn't want to appear to have facilities considerably safer than those available to many other Americans—and neighbors.

Intermittently there are gossip reports that Kennedy is becoming a trifle disenchanted with some of the so-called "Harvard group" which came into government with him. More easily documented, however, is the feeling of some of the roughly defined liberal intellectuals who profess disappointment of varying degree because Kennedy has not been, in their estimation, "sufficiently evangelistic in behalf of some of their ideals."

To measure disenchantment requires a certain amount of mind reading, but some of those around the president say the far-out liberal seems to forget that Kennedy has a great deal of respect for and allegiance to the huge American middle class which sometimes finds advanced liberalism hard to understand.

There has been no evidence of Kennedy getting ready to give members of the so-called Harvard group the boot, but it is true that on occasion—and this dates back to early in his term—he has found some of their memoranda a bit rich for ordinary consumption, including his.

Kansas To Open Trial Of Alleged Killers Monday

RUSSELL, Kan. (UPI)—Justice for two teen-aged soldiers charged with killing seven persons in a cross-country reign of terror after escaping from a Texas Army stockade will be reckoned next week by a Kansas judge and jury.

The first-degree murder trial of George R. York, 18, of Jacksonville, Fla., and James D. Latham, 19, of Mauriceville, Tex., is scheduled to open Monday in the big stone courthouse in the center of this Kansas wheat community.

The two youths are specifically accused of shooting 61-year-old Union Pacific Railroad trainmaster Otto Ziegler near Sharon Springs, Kan., last June 9.

The prosecution will charge that York and Latham killed Ziegler in cold blood and robbed him of a few dollars as he begged for mercy on a lonely highway.

If the Kansas jury fails to convict the youths and send them to the gallows, four other states will prosecute for slayings which occurred in their jurisdiction. All four have the death penalty.

York and Latham walked away from the stockade at Fort Hood deep in Texas on May 24. They admitted slayings in Florida, Tennessee, Illinois and Colorado before they were captured at a roadblock near Tooele, Utah, on June 11.

Both youths confessed the crimes in the presence of FBI agents and both told officers they were ready to be executed.

"We killed together, so we expect to die together," they said. They were not remorseful. "We were just putting those people out of their misery," they said quietly when asked why they killed.

The Kansas trial was to have been held at Sharon Springs in the extreme western part of the state. But the youths' court-appointed attorneys—Jesse I. Linder and Bernard E. Whalen—obtained a change of venue on the grounds that an impartial verdict could not be rendered there because of publicity and an outraged citizenry.

Judge Benedict Cruise granted the change to Russell, 150 miles to the east, but still a part of his district. He will preside here.

A total of 198 potential jurors have been summoned for Monday. Prosecutor James Taylor has ordered the state's 24 witnesses to be in court Tuesday to begin testifying.

Here is the list of the alleged York-Latham victims:

Florida—Patricia Ann Hewitt, 25, and Althea Ottavio, 44, both of Valdosta, Ga., strangled while traveling to the dog races in Jacksonville, Fla., on May 29.

Tennessee—John Whitaker, 71, a Negro porter for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, shot on June 7 on the road near his home at Tullahoma.

Illinois—Albert E. Reed, 58, of Troy, shot as he drove to work near Litchfield, and Martin Drenovac, 69, a service station operator of Granite City, bludgeoned to death near the Chain-of-Rocks Bridge over the Mississippi River. Both slayings occurred June 8.

Kansas—Otto Ziegler, Colorado—Rachel Moyer, 18, a hotel maid shot and sexually abused near Craig, Colo., on June 10.

The pistol York and Latham are charged with using was neatly notched eight times—the extra mark allegedly for a Louisiana fish peddler who was beaten and left for dead. He recovered.

CONSIDERS WESTERN SPEECH — WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy is considering making a speech in California next month in connection with his previously announced Western tour.

The White House said Thursday, however, that no firm California commitment had been made. If the President does speak it probably will be in Los Angeles.

REJECTS AID, ROBBED — CHESTERTON, Ind. (UPI) — Motorist John Moore, 34, told state police Thursday that a man walked up while Moore was changing a tire and offered to help.

Moore declined the offer. "Then I'll rob you," the man said and relieved Moore of $300.

PLAN PERSONNEL CUT — WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department said Thursday it would reduce its personnel by about 500 employees because of congressional budget cuts.

Guardsmen To Leave Monday

DALLAS (UPI) — Most of the 10,000 men of the 49th Armored Division will eat an early breakfast Monday morning, kiss their wives and families goodbye, and climb in jeeps, buses and trucks.

By Tuesday night the entire division will be at Fort Polk, La., and the men, from 74 Texas cities and towns, will become full-time soldiers for at least a year.

The division was called to at least a year of active duty recently by order of the Defense Department. It will spend 13 weeks undergoing intensive training at Fort Polk. Plans beyond that have not been announced.

The citizen soldiers will make the trip from such widely separated Texas cities as Texarkana and Big Spring, and Vernon and Brownsville. The division is comprised of 95 units.

The men will travel in civilian buses, jeeps, and 3/4-ton and 1/2-ton Army trucks to Leesville, which is about 50 miles west-southwest of Alexandria. Tanks and other heavy equipment are already at the post, division spokesmen said.

Maj. Gen. Horley B. West, division commander, and an advance detachment, are already at Camp Polk.

The men actually went on active duty Sunday, Oct. 15, in their hometowns. Since that time they have been drilling, learning the manual of arms, taking physical training and getting security briefings.

ness, having appeared on stage with numbers in an all-school program at the age of six. He has written many songs and has had wide experience in radio writing and production.

George Newberry, general drive chairman, said Saturday night he is enthusiastic about the prospects for a successful fund drive.

The goal for this year's United Fund drive is $68,746, same as last year's quota. Organizations participating in the fund with a percentage of the over-all goal going to each, are Boy Scout, 26; Girl Scouts, 21; Red Cross, 21; Salvation Army, 20; Heart Association, 4; Milk Fund, 4; Welfare Index, 1, and Operating Expenses 2.

Newberry, in speaking of the drive to date, was high in his praise of division chairmen who are heading up the various divisions of the drive. All groups have completed organization and a substantial percentage of their over-all goal already has been reached. However, much work remains to be done before the campaign is over, he said.

Committee chairmen who head up the various groups are as follows: Advance gifts, E. E. Shelhamer; Oil and gas, Gene Green; Industrial, Earl Schmieding; Professional, Dr. Joe Donaldson; Services, Bennie Shackelford; Retail, J. C. Roberts; Wholesale, George Scott; Individual, Dona Cornutt; Farmers and ranchers, Foster Whaley, and Lefors, John Archer.

The board of directors of the Pampa United Fund, comprised of Pampa's leading business and professional men and women, has established a suggested yardstick for giving this year, Newberry said. One day's pay from each employee is suggested as a fair and equitable amount that might be expected, he stated, while supervisors and executives are being asked to give one per cent of their annual earnings.

Floyd Watson, president of the fund, said he is well pleased with the amount of enthusiasm displayed with the fund drive this year. He also praised Drive Chairman Newberry, who, Watson said, has devoted practically all of his time for the past four weeks getting the drive organized for the kickoff Monday.

duce international tensions and to achieve disarmament."

Mikoyan said the anti-party group began preparing for their coup shortly after the 20th Congress.

"By June, 1957, the members of the group, having counted the ballots they could collect in the Presidium against the party leadership, undertook a direct attack, but they miscalculated," he said.

He was referring to the Central Committee meeting in June, 1957, which voted in favor of Khrushchev and expelled the anti-party group from leadership.

"If the anti-party group had been led to reprisals against all the active participants of the 20th party congress by methods which the party can never forgive."

He was careful to explain that the campaign to oust the plotters was carried out "without the application of repressive measures which would have been used in the days of the (Stalin) personality cult."

"Molotov to this day openly clings to his conservative, dogmatic efforts," Mikoyan said. Molotov is now the third-ranking Soviet delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency at Vienna.

Turning to the Albanian controversy, Mikoyan accused by name party leader Enver Hoxha and Prime Minister Mehmet Shehu. He said they distorted the printing of the Soviet party program in contrast with "the New York Times and many other bourgeois newspapers which published the full text of the party program."

Demonstrating Negro Students Are Disciplined

AUSTIN (UPI) — Some 50 Negro students involved in a sit-in demonstration at a white dormitory have been put on disciplinary probation, Dr. Glenn E. Barnett, dean of students at the University of Texas, said Saturday.

Barnett said the action was "in accordance with usual procedures where there have been infractions of university regulations."

The students Thursday night entered the lounge of Kinsolving dormitory for women to protest the school's segregation policies. The Negro students stayed in the dormitory an hour, studying, watching television, playing the piano and singing.

The group refused to leave when told to do so.

University rules prohibit Negroes from using restrooms or drinking fountains when visiting in white dorms.

Another rule specifies that when a Negro visits a white student in a white dormitory, the door to the room they are in must be closed. Negro boys are not allowed in white girls' dormitories unless they are delivering something as part of a job.

Accident Victim Still In Hospital

Joe Louis Gerik, 19, 317 N. Rider, slightly injured in a one car traffic accident at 11:34 p.m. Friday, was reported in good condition in Worley Hospital Saturday.

Investigating officers said Gerik was driving south on Barnes St. when he lost control of his car after making a slight curve from S. Cuyler St. to Barnes. After going out of control, police officers said, the auto skidded 75 feet and struck two six-inch pipe posts.

Gerik was taken to Worley Hospital by the Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance service.

Officers said Gerik is charged with driving while his license was suspended.

Estimated damage to the Gerik automobile was $1,000.

Scout Council's Work Is Outlined To Kiwanis Club

Operation of the 15-county Adobe Walls Boy Scout Council offices in Pampa was explained by Brantly Hudson, executive director, at Friday's regular weekly meeting of the Pampa Kiwanis Club.

The Adobe Walls Council, Hudson stated, is a federation of sponsoring groups in twelve Texas Panhandle counties and three Oklahoma counties. It is run, he said, by an executive board and the Pampa office serves the entire 15-county area.

The 1961 budget for the office operation was $88,000, Hudson said, and Pampa's United Fund allotment for the Boy Scouts is $18,000.

Hudson also pointed out several needed improvements for Camp Kiowa, a 70-acre Boy Scout reservation near Canadian, but added that none of the United Fund money is spent for capital improvements.

An inter-club group from Perryton visited the Pampa Club Friday.

County Receives $10,231 Check For Road Fund

A check for $10,231.17 for right of way payment was sent to Gray County Friday by the Texas Highway Department.

The sum forwarded is partial payment for the state's share of the cost of the land needed on SH 273, Between SH 70, 1-mile south of Pampa, east and 3.5 miles north of Lefors.

The check will be transmitted by District Engineer Charles W. Smith of Amarillo to the Gray County Commissioners Court.

While county and state share the cost of the right of way, the Texas Highway Department bears the cost of title insurance and pays the entire cost of appraisal checks for these items have already been forwarded from the Texas Highway Department to the parties concerned.

Police officers said Emmitt F. Collins, 59, 325 N. Dwight was cited for not yielding the right of way causing an accident.

Officers said Ferrell was traveling north on Russell and the Collins auto was traveling east on Decatur when the accident occurred.

Estimated damage to the scooter was $35. Damage to the automobile was slight.

"The total number of our nuclear delivery vehicles, tactical as well as strategic, is in the tens of thousands, and of course, we have more than one warhead for each vehicle."

In part, his speech appeared to be a re-assessment of the nation's capacity for massive retaliation at a time when critics at home and in Europe feared the buildup of U.S. conventional forces meant diminished emphasis on nuclear power and willingness to use it.

"The fact is that this nation has a nuclear retaliatory force of such lethal power that an enemy move which brought it into play would be an act of self-destruction on his part," Gilpatrick said.

Parents who were dependent on their deceased son or daughter, for at least one-half of their support at the time of the child's death, must file proof of that support within two years after the child's death, according to Hal Gelson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office. Parents who meet the dependency require- ments can qualify for monthly social security survivor's benefits at age of 62, providing they are not entitled to a greater benefit on their own record and have not remarried.

The parent who was receiving some financial assistance from their child would not necessarily meet the dependency requirement of the social security law. Normally the one year period before the child's death is used in determining the support require- ments, Gelson said.

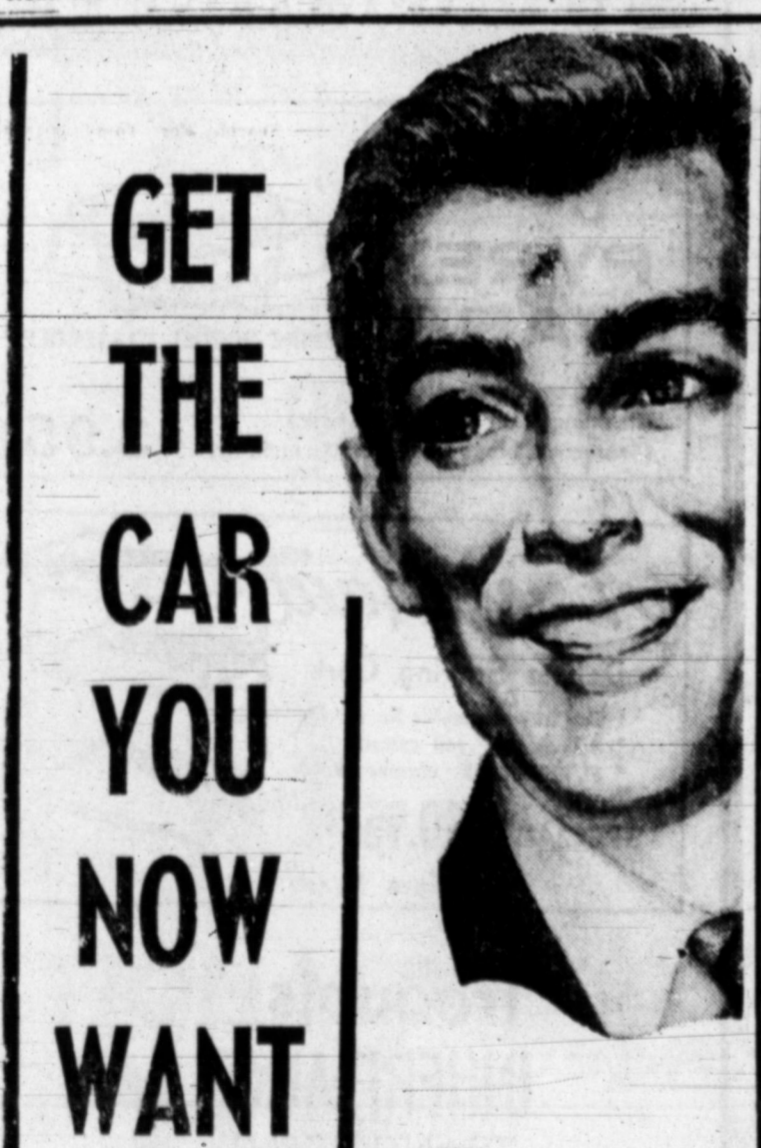

During this one year period any income received by the parent in cash, kind, or services, including any proceeds from prop- erty, is income to the parent. Support is defined as maintenance of an individual, including food, clothing, shelter, and current medical needs necessary for his well being.

In determining one half support all of the income and the value of all items that the parent uses for support during the support year are considered. If the child was furnishing one half of this total amount, then the parent meets the dependency requirements, Gelson said.

Russians Also Fear Outbreak Of Nuclear War

By LEON DENNEN

MUNICH (NEA) — "Will there be a war, Ivan?" one Russian asks another. "No," replies Ivan. But comrade Nikita Khrushchev will carry on such a struggle — for peaceful coexistence that not one of us will remain alive.

This grim "joke" is now in wide circulation in Moscow. It is an expression of the ordinary Russian's fear of war since he became aware of Khrushchev's brinkmanship game in Berlin.

When Stalin ruled the Soviet empire with an iron fist it might not have mattered much what ordinary Russians thought. Indeed, it could have been claimed that they did not think at all since they were permitted neither the means nor opportunity of doing so.

This is not true of the Russian people in 1961. Their point of view is now worth taking into account. It should certainly be considered carefully by the Western statesmen and diplomats as they prepare to negotiate with Khrushchev over Berlin and the fate of the United Nations.

One day the Russians may be permitted to tell the world and each other publicly what they really think about their Communist regime and Khrushchev's promise of a Red "utopia" in 20 years.

For the present we must still make guesses and deductions from limited evidence.

Yet each day brings new evidence that the ordinary Russian like the ordinary man and woman in the West, does not want to die for Berlin. The Soviet people paid a terrible price in the war against Hitler. The thought of an atomic conflict strikes fear into Russian hearts. A Soviet engineer interviewed in Germany said:

"Khrushchev plays with war. He pushes America to extremes. I am not the only Russian who is of this opinion. We have lost millions of our people in the last war and we don't want to fight again. Soviet people like Americans. It is our leaders who hinder our contact with you."

Russians interviewed abroad by Radio Liberty, the American-supported station broadcasting from Munich to Russia, agreed with few exceptions that "peace and a higher standard of living" were more important for the Soviet people than Khrushchev's promise of a Communist "utopia" or his design for world domination. A Russian university professor visiting a West European capital put it this way:

"The thought of war is not only unpopular, but it frightens our people. Even Khrushchev realizes this and will never dare to embark on a military adventure."

Perhaps the Russian professor underestimated Khrushchev's urge for world domination. In any serious international conflict there is always a danger that miscalculation might lead to disaster.

But President Kennedy, Secretary of State Rusk and other Western leaders would do well to study and analyze seriously the strength of Khrushchev's domestic position before they make concessions on Berlin in advance of an East - West conference.

Surely it is a poor gambler who thinks only of the disadvantages of his own hand. A good one will try to find out what are the disadvantages of his opponent's hand and play the same accordingly.

No doubt the West faces difficulties in a West Berlin that lies 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain. But Khrushchev also has his own pack of domestic and international political and economic troubles as he maneuvers for another round of East - West negotiations.

Thus it is irresponsible for Americans like Sen. J. W. Fulbright to assert, as he did in London, that the West is not "without blame" over the Berlin situation. The Arkansas Democrat is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and is therefore considered even by knowledgeable Europeans as a "spokesman" for President Kennedy.

Fulbright's statement that the United States bears "a very heavy responsibility for the stupidity" of the Berlin situation will only increase already existing suspicions in West Germany that the U.S. is promoting secret deals behind Bonn's back.

Jack Benny's Big Day At Home Reviewed

By DICK DU BROW
WAUKEGAN, Ill. (UPI) — The day dawned bright and clear, and Jack Benny prepared to take his place alongside Thomas Jefferson and Daniel Webster.
It was "Benny Day" in the comedian's hometown—and Waukeganites had decided to dedicate a new junior high school to him, an honor they had hitherto accorded only Jefferson and Webster.
True, the 67-year-old comedian had never finished high school. He quit at the age of 18 to go into vaudeville. But in 30 years of radio and TV broadcasting, he had put Waukegan on the map.
"But now I just can't believe this honor," said Benny, who will show the dedication of his CBS-TV program today. "I was so lousy in school, they almost threw me out."
On his "day," however, Waukegan did him proud. First, he got the diploma he skipped out on 51 years ago. It was the first diploma awarded by Jack Benny Junior High School.
Then there was the school itself: it is an ultra-modern institution on a 17-acre site. It cost $1,250,000 and provides education for about 800 students.
Benny, genuinely moved, said he was proud of these "eggheads."
"We know our future rests very considerably upon these same eggheads," he said, "and we need more of them."
Everyone who was anyone in Waukegan turned out to help immortalize Benny. The town's musical leader, Otto Graham Sr., father of former quarterback Otto Graham of football's Cleveland Browns, was there. So were the mayor and superintendent of schools.
The Waukegan newspaper put out a special Benny edition. Shops held 39-cent sales in honor of the comedian, who has been "39" for 28 years. Flags fluttered in the sunny downtown business district.

Actress Reveals How She Signed For 'Mom' Role

By RON BURTON
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Veteran Broadway-Hollywood actress Ruth Warrick didn't want the role of the mother in "Father of the Bride," insulted the producer, criticized TV mothers—and wound up with the part.
"I just didn't feel like doing a TV series," she said. "I had been approached for the part while I was in New York doing 'Take Me Along.' I didn't even want to talk about it. Then someone advised me that a closing notice was up for 'Take Me Along.' So I figured I might as well have lunch with the man—even if I didn't want the part."
Miss Warrick said Maxwell smiled at her observations. The more she knocked TV portrayals, the more he smiled. And the more the attorney and agency man smiled.
"I added, among other things, that I might be willing to play the mother of a daughter of marrying age but that this would not mean three children herself and didn't dig the TV version of the American mom."
"We were at lunch," she said. "I, the producer—Robert Maxwell—his attorney and an agency man. They're the standard triumvirate for this sort of talk. Anyway, I told Mr. Maxwell I thought TV mothers made boobs of their husbands. That they permitted their children to become monsters and that the children were in league with mother against the father."
Miss Warrick said Maxwell smiled at her observations. The more she knocked TV portrayals, the more he smiled. And the more the attorney and agency man smiled.
"I added, among other things, that I might be willing to play the mother of a daughter of marrying age but that this would not mean three children herself and didn't dig the TV version of the American mom."

is very true indeed, since her oldest child, Karen—a student at Oberlin—is married to Richard Sudhalter, of the Cleveland Press.

Horse Opera To Open Met's Season Monday

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP
NEW YORK (UPI)—The saloon keeper puts her hand on a barrel of gold dust behind the bar and shouts at the toughest pack of hounds who ever shot up a California mining camp: "Oh ma se qualcuno vuole quell'oro prima di toccarlo dovra uccidermi qui!"
Which is opera's way of having Minnie in Giacomo Puccini's "Girl of the Golden West" say, "If any of you varmints try to lay a finger on this gold, it'll be over my dead body."
This blood curdling line from grand opera's only horse opera will ring out at the Metropolitan Opera next Monday to open a season that should pan a lot of gold—but never enough for the ailing dollar of show business.
Financial problems kept the Met's 77th season in doubt all summer, until Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg volunteered to arbitrate a wage contract impasse between the board of directors and the American Federation of Musicians at the request of President Kennedy.
Goldberg and his wife will be among the host of famous and fashionable personalities seated in the Met's diamond horseshoe when the golden curtain rises on the polka dot saloon in the gold rush town of Coloma, Calif. The labor secretary will get backstage at intermission to pay his respects to soprano Leontyne Price, who will sing the title role of Minnie.
Miss Price, a Negro, will be the first singer of her race to have the distinction of starring in an opening night performance at the Met.
"I have received more mail from the public on this one labor dispute than any other since I have taken office," said Goldberg recently. "This demonstrates the need for a review of related problems bearing on the future of the performing arts in our society."
Goldberg is expected to suggest some type of government subsidy for the Met and other cultural institutions when he makes an award in the Met case. He held his final arbitration hearing here last week and now is wading through 106 issues involved, including the Met orchestra's de-

The Greatest Power there is —

LOVE

(Scriptures taken from the James Moffatt Revised Edition)

John 3:16

For God loved the world so dearly that he gave up his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life, instead of perishing. Chapter 13 of I Corinthians

I may speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but if I have no love, (Christ), I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

I may prophesy, fathom all mysteries and secret lore, I may have such absolute faith that I can move hills from their place, but if I have no love, I count for nothing;

I may distribute all I possess in charity, I may give up my body to be burnt, but if I have no love, I make nothing of it.

Love is very patient, very kind. Love knows no jealousy; love makes no parade, gives itself no airs, is never rude, never selfish, never irritated, never resentful; love is never glad when others go wrong, love is gladdened by goodness, always slow to expose, always eager to believe the best, always hopeful, always patient. Love never disappears. As for prophesying, it will be superseded; as for 'tongues,' they will cease; as for knowledge, it will be superseded. For we only know bit by bit, and we only prophesy bit by bit; but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will be superseded.

When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I argued like a child; now that I am a man, I am done with childish ways.

At present we only see the baffling reflections in a mirror, but then it will be face to face; at present I am learning bit by bit, but then I shall understand, as all along I have myself been understood.

Thus 'faith and hope and love last on, these three,' but the greatest of all is love.

Galatians 6:7-9

Make no mistake — God is not to be mocked — a man will reap just what he sows; he who sows for his flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, and he who sows for the Spirit will reap life eternal from the Spirit.

This proves to us if we sow kindness, consideration and charity (love) to others that we will reap the same.

'Rotting Dollar' Declared Serious National Threat

READING, Pa. (UPI) — Lyle C. Wilson, vice president of United Press International, said this week that "the rotting of the U. S. dollar" through inflation posed a greater danger to Americans than lung cancer or nuclear war.

"You have inflation now," he said. "You may escape cancer and war."

Wilson told a Newspaper Week dinner that the value of the dollar had shrunk from "an arbitrary 100 cents in 1939 to a mathematically demonstrable 46 cents and a fraction today."

Wilson said deterioration of the dollar was furthered by budget deficits run up by every President since Calvin Coolidge.

He said there was a possibility, or even a likelihood, that President Kennedy would show deficits in each of the next four years.

"If these deficits continue, the dollar must be expected to rot gradually away," he said.

Percussion Orchestra Performance Praised

By BILL HALEY

The Dick Schory Percussion Orchestra of Chicago opened a brand new concert season Friday in Pampa quite literally with a bang. Two pistol shots were fired during its performance of Slaughter on Tenth Avenue. The Schory group appeared as the result of a last minute switch in the concert association's plans and was actually a substitution for another group. In the shuffle, customary artistic restraint gave way to exuberance and nobody seems to have been particularly disturbed. In fact, the show may well be hailed as the best evening of entertainment Pampa has had in many a long, long day.

In the orchestra, the standard percussion instruments — the vibraphone, marimba, tympani, drums, piano and bass fiddle are backed up by a solid brass choir of trumpets, trombones and tuba. The overall effect is not unlike Harry James. Of course when the group breaks loose on a rampage, as it did several times Friday evening to the sheer delight of the immense crowd, besides the above mentioned pistols it has recourse to cop whistles, sirens, cow bells and other such paraphernalia as Bach and Beethoven never got around to writing for.

Excluding Gershwin's American in Paris, the program listed nothing heavier than Hernandez's Hideaway. Particularly good was a selection from the Broadway musical, Camelot, which featured the sound effect of a bridge being lowered and raised over a castle moat. Offenbach's Can Can was also good and indeed, what percussion group could resist it? The tranquil Greensleeves was a pleasant relief from the flamboyancy which preceded it. Along side these excellent arrangements, the original compositions of Schory and Charkovsky, an orchestra member, seemed pointless and obtuse. The Bolero Diablo was obviously intended as an imitation of Ravel's famous Bolero.

All in all the concert was a most refreshing and exhilarating experience for the crowd which filled the Pampa Jr. High School auditorium even to the top balcony seats. The few association members who did not use their tickets, thinking perhaps this was just another hum-drum affair, can find out what they missed by asking anyone who attended what he thought of it. The answer may very well be a rousing "Ho-ho."

Accused Slayer's Girl Friend To Remain In Texas

BIG SPRING (UPI) — Donna Marie Stone, 13, accused along with John Edwin Myers, 32, of killing four persons, will remain in Texas until after Myers' trial at Rusk.

Howard County Judge Ed Carpenter ordered the girl sent to the Texas Training School for Girls at Gainesville after attorney Hulen Brown of Rusk requested that she be kept in the state. She will be taken to Gainesville today, Carpenter said.

"I imagine that she will be released to Illinois authorities following the trial," he said. The trial opens Jan. 9.

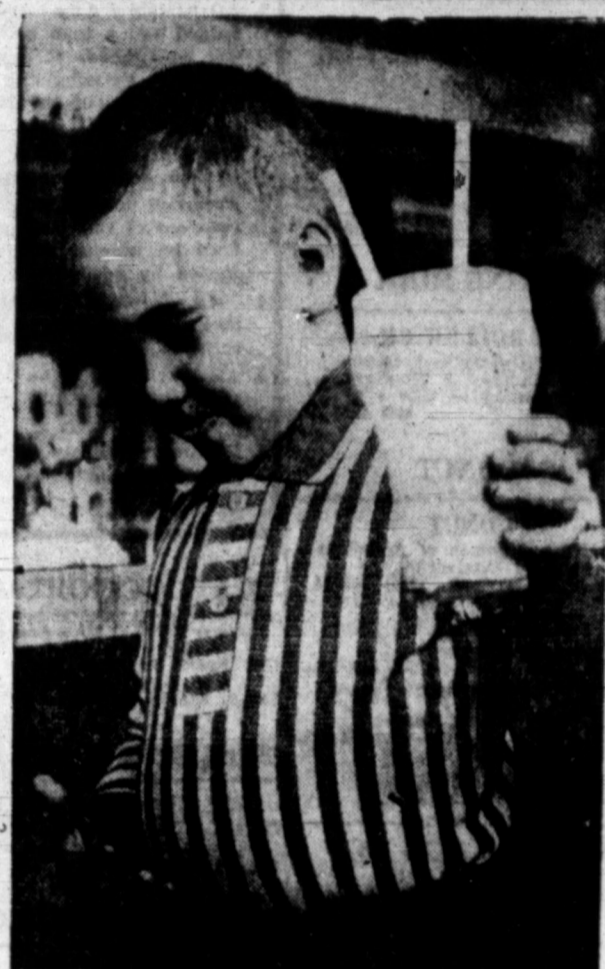

Myers, charged with killing of Arthur Lee DeKraai, will be tried in Rusk. Attorneys were unable to select a jury in Big Spring and his trial was moved on a change of venue. He is accused of only one killing in Texas.

Girl Scouts Plan Calendar Sales

Girl Scouts of the Quivira Council will begin their annual sale of Girl Scout calendars Monday, Oct. 30, according to Mrs. John Holt Jr., council president.

Cost of the calendars will be 35 cents each. All of the profits from the sale of calendars goes toward individual troop activities and projects. None of the money goes to the Council for operating expenses.

The 1962 Girl Scout calendars feature pictures of Girl Scout activities and allow ample space for important memorandums.

Sooners Suffer Fourth Straight Setback 10-0

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — John Hadl, shutting between quarterback and left halfback spearheaded Kansas to its first victory over inept Oklahoma in 15 years Saturday, 10-0.

Hadl's passing and running were blended effectively with the power dashes of fullback Ken Coleman, quarterback Roger McFarland, and halfback Curtis McClintock, as the Jayhawks rolled up a lopsided statistical edge over the once-powerful Sooners.

Kansas ran for 181 yards and passed for 108 more to claim an offensive total of 289 yards, compared to only 98 for Oklahoma.

The Big Eight Conference win was Kansas' first here since 1937. The lone touchdown came midway in the second quarter when Kansas drove 80 yards after Oklahoma had missed its only scoring chance, a muffed 16-yard field goal attempt by Karl Milstead.

McFarland's 14-yard dash and repeated smashes by Coleman moved the ball to the 30 from where Hadl hit left end Larry Allen for the touchdown.

Allen caught the ball on the five and eluded three Sooner defenders to bolt into the end zone. Wallace Barnes converted.

Barnes completed the scoring with a 35-yard field goal in the third quarter, following a Kansas drive which bogged down on the 17. Hadl had forced Oklahoma into a hole, when he punted 59 yards to almost touch the Sooner goal line. Three plays later Geary Taylor punted to the 25 and the Jayhawks were on-the-move.

Childress, Perryton And Quanah Post 5-AA Wins

League — leading Quanah and Perryton and touted Childress chalked up victories in district 5-AA play Friday night.

Quanah, the state's sixth ranked AA eleven, roared by outmaneuvered Spearman 43-0 and Perryton's Rangers bounced Wellington 22-0 to set up their district championship battle next Friday at Perryton.

Childress, beaten 15-0 by Quanah last week, slammed Shamrock's title hopes with a 30-0 thrashing.

The unbeaten Indians rolled to a 28-0 halftime advantage on the running and passing of quarterback Danny Scarbrough.

Fullback Bobby Mansel scored the first touchdown on a three yard plunge. Tackle Everett Kelly bolted the extra point. Scarbrough rambled 62 yards and passed to Kelley for 65 yards for two other touchdowns.

Halfback Blackie Wade scampered 25 yards for the final first half marker.

Wayt Paces Owlets Win

DALLAS — Russell Wayt, a former White Oak all-state fullback, bulled his 210-pound frame over, through and around SMU defenders to lead the Rice Owlets to a 20-0 victory over the Colts in a Southwest Conference freshman game here Friday night.

Wayt rushed for 129 yards and scored one touchdown on a 41-yard scamper while setting up another with a 35-yard dash.

Quarterback Walter McReynolds capped an opening 80-yard drive on a five yard plunge to put Rice into an early 7-0 lead.

Ronnie Cox scored the other Owlet touchdown with a one-yard blast.

Wade hauled in a 30-yard aerial from Scarbrough — and the speedy halfback raced 20 yards for the Indians final touchdowns.

Kelley booted a 16 yard field goal to end the scoring.

Perryton scored in the first, third and fourth periods to topple Wellington.

Gary Newcomb galloped seven yards in the first and Roger Wright added the two points.

Johnny Leicht plunged one yard in the third and Steve Coulter hit the middle to make the score read 16-0.

Newcomb stepped off 18 yards for the final touchdown. Childress' Charlie Mitchell, halfback, sacked up three touchdowns and two extra points to lead the Bobcats past Shamrock Irish.

One of Mitchell's markers came on a brilliant 75-yard dash. His other two scores were on runs of 16 and seven yards.

Quarterback Johnny Wilson also scored for Childress on a 16 yard keeper play.

Abilene Christian Drops 35-0 Tilt

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Unbeaten Memphis State, missing the services of quarterback James Earl Wright, sputtered through a lifeless first half, then came on to defeat a scrappy Abilene Christian 35-0 Saturday.

Palo Duro crushed Plainview 48-0 and Monterey upset Amarillo 3-0 to remain to contention for the district 3-AA championship Friday night.

Loop-leading Tascosa was idle thus keeping its top spot for at least one more week. Palo Duro and the Rebels will meet Nov. 4.

Monterey used a stingy defense and the educated toe of end Jerry Shipley to hand the Golden Sandies their second consecutive district defeat.

Amarillo could manage just five first downs and the Sandies just didn't have the scoring punch when needed. Monterey, rebounding from a 41-13 loss to Palo Duro, rose up to stop Amarillo on the four in the second period and the losers never threatened thereafter.

The pin-point passing of Byron Stovall and sharp running by Jimmy Cochran and Mike Shelton moved the Plainsman to deep Amarillo territory only to lose the ball on a fumble.

Amarillo punted out to the 33 and Monterey drove to the 17 where Shipley split the uprights with the winning points.

As expected, Palo Duro scored at will against Plainview's Bulldogs. The Dons romped to a 32-0 halftime lead and ran it to the final count before calling off the top hossa.

Gordon Nelson was the offensive star for Palo Duro who racked up 377 net yards while limiting puncheonless Plainview to just two first downs and 80 yards.

Cyclones Drop 13-12 Decision

McLEAN — Quarterback Ken Willingham booted first period extra point and it proved to be the difference as the McLean Tigers remained in front in district 2 with a narrow 13-12 decision over upset minded Memphis Friday night.

But it was the hard-running of 185-pound halfback Jim Watson and two tremendous goal line stands in the half that enabled coach Derral Davis' Tigers to rack their seventh win in eight games. The loss was the second for Memphis against five wins.

Watson picked up 165 yards in 32 tries and tallied the second McLean touchdown on a one yard plunge.

Memphis' Cyclones recovered

McLean fumble in the first period and drove 32 yards in eight plays to take a 6-0 lead. Halfback Bill Pounds scooted seven yards for the tally.

But Watson used his bull rushes to carry the ball 35 yards to take a 13-0 lead. Halfback Bill Pounds scooted seven yards for the tally.

Willingham sneaked over for the two for the tally and the booted what proved to be a winning point.

Watson got his touchdown in second period following a 47-yard march after recovery of another Memphis fumble. He set up tally with a 34 yard scamper for the one.

Memphis drove to the 27 in the half before time ran out. The Cyclones moved 32 yards for their final tally with fullback Eddie Jones barreling over for the one. A gamble for the points failed when quarterback Perry Wright was stopped short of the goal stripe on a keeper play.

Memphis got to the Tigers in the third and fourth period to lose the balls on a fumble downs respectively.

OSU Tops Nebraska

STILLWATER, Okla. (UPI) — Poised Oklahoma State used a talented line Saturday to stop Nebraska's hard-running offense and grind out a 14-6 Big Eight Conference victory.

A pair of fullbacks, Bob Adcock and Bill McFarland, scored both of the Cowboy touchdowns on short plunges in the last half.

Nebraska, with the Oklahoma State defense zeroed on halfback Bill Thunder Thornton, managed its only score on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Dennis Claridge to right end Dick McDaniel in the second period to take a 6-0 halftime lead.

Oklahoma State's first tally was set up when hard-rushing end Tommy Ward recovered a punted ball juggled by Nebraska halfback Willie Ross on the one-yard line. Adcock ran across and Bill Leming's kick was good.

Wildlife Refuge Reports Arrival Of More Cranes

AUSTWELL, Tex. (UPI)—The manager of the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge said four whooping cranes have arrived at the refuge to spend the winter.

H. J. Johnson, refuge manager, said one whooper came to the Texas coastal refuge last weekend and three more have arrived since then, all of which are adults.

He said the first seems to be staying by himself and the other three are in another area of the refuge. The remainder of the flock of rare birds is expected to arrive at the refuge within the next two weeks.

Last year's flock was 36—the largest since a census began in 1938. Since then, observers of the Canadian summer nesting grounds of the nearly extinct birds said as many as eight more might be in this year's flock.

Johnson said wildlife conservators were doing some replanting of wildlife food supplies in the fields damaged by Hurricane Carla.

To provide dollars for the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund will be kicked off during the meeting. Other business will include consideration of changes in the by-laws.

Short, Wandering, Slim Describes Fall Silhouette

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Skirts short. Waistline wandering. Silhouette slim. These are the first trends from the resort and spring 1962 collections of women's fashions being previewed in the next three weeks by the leading manufacturers-designers of New York.

Complete endorsement of short skirts for daytime, with hemlines hovering at the kneecap, came from Ben Reig, from Donald Brooks, designer for Townley, and from Sara Ripault with Herbert Sondheim.

even go higher, perhaps to a revival of the empire. Jackets Fit Figure Reig placed the waistline at normal in most instances and defined it with wide, crushed belts. Suits were an exception—these had unbelted jackets, gently fitted to the figure. Brooks almost banished waistlines from his collection, in which the designer showed a firm fondness for the chemise. "Sleeveless, collarless, beltless, waistline-less," are the way my notes from his show late Tuesday afternoon read. "Pure chemise."

Sometimes, though, Brooks did ring in a belt. Then, they showed as narrow strings, hardly visible, normal in many daytime and evening clothes, hinting that in the future the waistline would inset. In several instances he lowered the waistline to the upper hipbone.

Skim Over Torso None of the designers on record with their plans for spring has gone in for all that fitted silhouette which Paris designers began reviving in fall and winter 1961 collections. The clothes seem to skim over the figure instead, hinting at what's beneath.

In all collections, the bracelet length sleeve on suits — sleeve cropped off about four inches above the wrist—is the most popular. A few suits and coats have sleeves ending only an inch below the elbow.

Your hem length is largely a matter of personal taste. But it also depends on how lovely your legs are. If you are tall, slim and leggy with pretty legs, you'll naturally wear your skirts a bit shorter than the girl with legs not so pretty.

The woman who wants to be really well-groomed can never afford to be careless. She's the woman who always has clothes in the hands of a dry cleaner, shoes being repaired and polished, clothes being altered. LEE PTA PANEL: -- Appearing as a panel discussing "Effective Learning in the Home and Learning For Good Schools" at the Lee PTA meeting held Thursday in the school auditorium were, left to right, Jay Channell, minister of the Harvester-Mary, Ellen Church of Christ; McHenry Lane, high school curriculum co-ordinator; Mrs. Francis Noblitt, program leader; Mrs. James Poole, teacher, and Mrs. J. R. Holloway, parent. (Daily News Photo)

Learning Effectively Topic For Lee Meeting

McHenry Lane, high school curriculum co-ordinator, moderated a panel discussion of "Effective Learning For the Home and Learning For Good Schools" at the Robert E. Lee Junior High PTA held Thursday in the school auditorium.

Forming a panel in presenting key viewpoints relative to training children were Mrs. J. R. Holloway, as a parent; Mrs. James Poole, Lee instructor as a teacher; and Jay Channell, minister of the Harvester - Mary Ellen Church of Christ, as a spiritual leader.

Mrs. Frances Noblitt, leader for the day, introduced Miss Jo Ann Craig, eighth - grade student, who gave the Thought for the Day.

Mrs. Holloway brought out that children learn more by example than by words. She suggested that the hour before a child goes to school in the morning is an extremely important hour. "He needs to arise in time to get a good breakfast, to cleanse himself and to get himself ready for school." With regard to respect for authority, Mrs. Holloway said, "We must set definite limitations for our sons and daughters and then allow them freedom within these boundaries. 'No' should be said courteously and wisely."

Mrs. Poole co - related the growth of the child from preschool through elementary and junior high school into high school. "If a child has developed through the normal stages, he makes each transition normally. Children develop better through expectation than pressure."

Mrs. Poole also brought out that there seems to be more emphasis on "what is wrong with everybody these days instead of what is right. Why don't we start emphasizing what people are doing right instead of what they are doing wrong?"

Jay Channell opened his discussion by asking "What do we mean by 'effective learning?' and defined it as "productivity, which actively produces a definite and desired result. For effective teaching and effective learning, we must realize the value of the individual. We must realize the beauty of what God has given us."

He concluded with the thought that "we are succeeding or we are failing as the church, as the home or as a nation upon whether or not we are producing effective learning and teaching in the home, in the school and in the church today and in the future." Mr. Channell interspersed inspirational poems by Edgar A. Guest to illustrate his talk.

In a brief business meeting, prior to the program, Mrs. J. T. Cornutt, unit president, presided and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Jeff Bearden.

Following approval of the 1961-62 budget, Jack Nichols, school principal reported on the Lee Family Night held Sept. 21. He reported that between 700 - 750 parents had attended. "It was a very effective. We were very proud of it and think it to be worthwhile."

Appreciation was expressed to Mrs. Floyd Watson and Mrs. Don Cain, hospitality chairman, for their part in the Family Night fund - raising project.

Mrs. Cornutt announced that the Lee unit had contributed to the Texas Congress Birthday fund.

Mrs. M. McDaniel was awarded the door prize.

In adjourning, Mrs. Cornutt announced that the next PTA meeting will be Feb. 15 at 7:30 p.m. for "Fathers' Night". Since the group will not meet until after the holidays, Mrs. Cornutt said, "May I be the first to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Mrs. Shuss' penname is Madeline Daniell.

election at the February meeting. Mrs. Jack Miller, radio chairman, announced that Lee would present the radio program over a local radio station at 9:15 a.m. Nov. 10.

Mrs. Ray E. Wilson was named chairman of a projects committee to meet with Mr. Nichols to discuss a PTA project for this year.

Attending the board session in addition to those previously mentioned were Mmes. C. R. Howard, Derrel Hogsett, Bob Sidwell, Gordon Pursley, Jay Channell, Carl Warner, Elmer Darnell, H. V. Wilks, Homer D. Johnson, and Kenneth Walters.

Outside Signs Belie Quiet Inside Hospitals

By PATRICIA McCORMACK NEW YORK (UPI) — "Quiet! Hospital zone!"

That's the message on signs decorating streets bordering and approaching the typical hospital, U.S.A.

Pedestrians and motorists must hush up lest they disturb a patient trying to get a rest.

But what goes on inside the hospital? Is it quiet and restful?

Dr. Basil M. Rudusky, of Wilkes Barre, Pa., doesn't think so. He wants doctors and hospital administrators to blow the whistle on extra-curricular noise disturbing patients.

He suggests, too, that doctors and hospital administrators who haven't tried to sleep in a hospital recently to take a bit of the patient's medicine—trying, if they can, to get some rest in a hospital.

The physician discusses hospital clutter in an editorial in the current journal of the Pennsylvania Medical Society.

Cites Ward Personnel "It is rapidly becoming evident to laymen everywhere that very few hospitals can claim to provide a restful environment for their patients," he said.

One source of harassment cited by the doctor: "Flinchy ward personnel and their never-ending regulations of perfection."

"I have seen ward aides go from ward to ward, room to room, beginning at 4:30 a.m., with flashlights, collecting and banging empty pitchers for the wash, then re-entering one hour later, banging the same pitchers," he said.

"Baths are also frequently begun much too early. No sooner does the patient fall asleep after putting up with the aforementioned stresses and strains, than he is being rechristened in the black of night."

Racket Impedes Rest. Dr. Rudusky also considered an impediment to rest the racket made by cleaning women, beginning sometimes at 4 a.m. to click their pails.

And he said the wheeled equipment moving down the hospital corridors several times nightly makes earth-shaking noises.

"I find that in many and increasing situations, the doctor responsible for his patient's care is also often responsible for his unrest," Dr. Rudusky said.

During the day, Dr. Rudusky said the patients' rest is disturbed by the vast, never-ending horde of visitors who "make one doubt that the hospital is really for the ill."

Being in the hospital seems now to be a social necessity in which all should engage — distant relative, far friends and even E. standers, he said.

Christmas Tea-Lecture On Floral Arrangements Planned By PG Club

"Color and Texture In Landscaping" was the subject of the lecture - demonstration given by Mrs. Joe Weaver and Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, on Monday morning for the Pampa Home Club meeting held in the Pampa Youth and Community Center.

Miss Weaver said that "color can be used to create or achieve unity, balance and accent in our gardens. Use strong colors for accents, place them first then, tone down with lighter shades or colors. Green is a peace-maker. It helps to promote unity and blends color."

Miss Patterson stated that texture in plants means the structure and composition of them, whether coarse or fine, smooth or rough. "Some drape gracefully such as the Silver Lace Vine and Spirea. Other plants illustrated were the Rose of Sharon, Mahonia, Mimosa, Butterfly Bush and Junipers."

Mrs. Coy Palmer, president, conducted a brief business session and announced that members would sell tickets for the Christmas Arrangement Lecture and Tea to be given Nov. 13 by Mrs. Dan Warren of Waco in the First National Bank Annex.

Dear Abby.... Give Self Time Before Signing Life Contract

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a guy who is in the service. His name is Paul. We saw each other only once, but I feel like I've known him all my life. We have corresponded for three months, and he proposed to me by mail.

Paul is stationed in a southern state, but his home is up north. He might have to go overseas, and he wants to get engaged before he goes. Here is our plan: Paul will be flying north next week. He has to change planes in St. Louis. He wants me to come to the airport. He says he will be on the ground long enough to put the ring on my finger and kiss me. I am afraid to tell my mother about this kind of engagement as she might think we are crazy. I am 18 and Paul is 20. Can you advise me?

PAUL'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: If it's really love, it will last until Paul can meet your parents and you, his. Give yourselves a chance to know each other better before rushing into a lifetime contract. Your plans for a split-second engagement sound like a Mack Sennett comedy.

DEAR ABBY: When I was 18 I married a boy I was crazy about. Soon afterwards I found out he was ALREADY married. I was pregnant by that time, so I had my baby in a home for unwed mothers. I kept my baby and gave him his father's real name.

I have remarried, and now my husband wants to adopt my child. He doesn't want the boy ever to know that he is not his real father. Is this wise? I'm afraid some of my nosy relatives will tell the boy some day because they all know it. Should we take a chance and trust to luck? The baby is only 14 months old.

NEEDS AN ANSWER

DEAR NEEDS: Don't trust to luck. Tell your boy the truth as soon as he is able to understand

Mrs. Dale Thut Reviews Book For Twentieth Century Cotillion

Mrs. Dale Thut reviewed "Nine Men Against America" at the Twentieth Century Cotillion Club meeting held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Lee Fraser, 1424 Williston. "The book, written by Rosalie M. Gordon," Mrs. Thut said, "is a critical review of the United States Supreme Court. It gives a brief history of the constitution, the formation of the Supreme Court and Franklin D. Roosevelt's 'court-packing' plan."

"To correct certain portions of the Supreme Court Organization, 'Nine Men Against America' makes these suggestions," the reviewer said. "1) a definite tenure of office should be set for the Supreme Court Justices. They should not be allowed to serve for life or until their retirement age of 70; 2) periodically, the Justices should have to undergo a vote of confidence; 3) each Justice should be required to have a certain specified amount of judicial experience; 4) the President should not have the sole power to appoint the Justices. The Senate should make all appointments and the President should be left out entirely; 5) all Supreme Court decisions since 1857 should be erased as precedents in our courts of law."

A second portion of the program was presented by Mrs. James Gallemore, who reviewed "Fable of the Times; The Lion and the Bear" by James Reston.

Members attending were Mmes. W. B. Adair, Alvan Agan, Gene Barger, James T. Brown, Jim Campbell, Lee Fraser, James Gallemore, Jim E. Hess, Ralph McKinney, Don Morrison, Bob Price, W. D. Price Jr., Dale Thut, Bob Williams, Howard Greenlee, Sam Anderson and Ed Watts.

Lack Of Moisture Causes Falling Leaves

A DIAGRAM showing the location of the separation layer, which is responsible for leaf fall.

By R. L. STUDEBAKER
Horticulturist

A previous article explained how autumn coloration of foliage was accomplished, but the question may have arisen as to what causes all the leaves to fall. This article will simplify the cause of leaf fall or abscission.

Leaf abscission is a characteristic of woody plants, and plants that retain this habit are referred to as deciduous plants. Deciduous only means that plant's leaves fall at maturity or at certain seasons. Deciduous plants are in contrast with evergreen plants which have persistent leaves, needles, or scale foliage.

One knows that winter is a resting or dormant season for most plants. However, what most fail to realize is that cold winter is an extremely dry period. Low temperatures greatly hinder water absorption by the roots. Transpiration or loss of water from the plant tissues in vapor form takes place mostly through leaves although some loss is through lenticels which are on the branches and trunk of the plant. Thus with the reduction or shedding of leaves, the plant can still exist in its environment but with a more limited supply of water.

To cite some illustrations, one is familiar with desert plants and their environment. Desert plants have modified leaves as in the cacti; the plants may even be without true leaves; but in any case, the leaf area of desert plants is greatly reduced.

The Ratama or Palo Verde tree probably best illustrates the point. When unnormal periods of dryness occur, the Ratama Tree will shed all its leaves and thus conserve moisture that normally would be transpired through the leaves. Photosynthesis or food making is conducted by the green bark of the plant, and the tree produces new leaves after ample moisture has become available.

Thus it may be concluded that through many evolutionary changes and adaptations deciduous plants have become sensitive to the approach of winter. Just what prepares the trees to drop their leaves is a process of complex, physiological happenings. To simplify for clarity, towards the end of the growing season substances in the cell walls of the base of the leaf petiole dissolve through enzymatic action. Short days will have stimulated and triggered the formation of a separation layer of specialized corky parenchyma cells across the base of the leaf petiole. These corky parenchyma cells separate, but the petiole remains attached primarily by the vascular bundles.

These vascular bundles in the leaf are called leaf traces and are responsible for the transportation of water and other materials to the leaf and sugars from the leaf. Leaf traces commonly occur in numbers of one or three in deciduous plants and leave noticeable scars where they were attached to the stem. Wind, the impact of rain on the leaf, the formation of ice crystals within the separation layer, or the shrinkage of the petiole on warm, sunny days are environmental factors which hasten the fall of leaves. A protective layer of cork tissue preventing desiccation or drying of exposed tissues will form just below the separation layer before or just after the leaf falls.

Trees of tropical forested regions shed leaves, but there is no regular seasonal change which affects the whole vegetation. Leaf drop may take place at any time and normally occurs at all times. Many species of the tropical forest and individual trees devoid of leaves may be observed at any period. Particular species, however, seem to have their own special Halloween Party to be held in the Let us be thankful, therefore, that we live in a temperate region where we have to rake leaves during one season of the year.

Hobart Street Baptist WMU Meets For Study

The Betty Schaub-Crèle was in charge of the Royal Service program, "That Thy Way May Be Known" presented at the Hobart Street Baptist Church WMU held recently in the church.

Participating in the program were Mmes. J. N. Tackett, B. D. Marl, J. L. Schaub, W. R. Brown and J. M. Clark.

Mrs. Ed Foran presided during the business meeting as WMU offices were filled for the coming year.

Meetings were planned for 9:30 a.m. each Thursday and a Royal Service at 10 a.m.

During the month, each circle is to have charge of a circle program, Royal Service, mission study and Bible study.

Mrs. Dale Butler's Circle was hostesses during the luncheon. Ta-

Civic Culture Study Club was hostess at Senior Center on Thursday with Mrs. Ophelia Morris as chairman. The hostesses served the most delicious pies, Halloween candy and coffee. Mmes. Lida Ramsay, Lona Webster, C. P. Roop, and Messrs. F. M. Heaston, Uncle Billy Frost and Guy R. Lawrence won the door prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shelton visited with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanka in Dixon, California recently. Mrs. Shelton stayed on for a longer visit.

Mrs. Bessie Nicholson is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brummit on Mrs. Nicholson's farm home west of town on the Berger highway. Friends of Mrs. Nicholson will find a hearty welcome when they call on her there.

Mrs. Mollie Hethcock's niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Bell of Follette visited with her last Saturday.

Mrs. Lillian Brunelle visited with her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Lawrence in Dedman, Mass. recently. Mrs. Brunelle reports quite an experience in her flight out to Massachusetts as they got caught in a bad thunderstorm. But came through in fine shape.

Mrs. E. B. Smith spent last weekend in Amarillo with her two sons, Eugene and Bill Smith and their families and granddaughters, Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. Emol Herlan and husband.

A good laugh never hurts anyone, we always say. Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Shireman, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Howell were appointed in a Halloween motif.

It was announced that each circle will have mission study at its next meetings.

motored to Lake Marvin to inspect the Canadian foliage. On the way home, they stopped and got Mr. Shireman to sample a green persimmon, and did they have a good laugh at his expense!

Mrs. Shireman and Mrs. Gallaway motored to Erick, Okla. on Wednesday.

Last Monday, Jerry Torvie had the misfortune to have a bad fall, but he was back at the Center as usual on Thursday. We're glad no bones were broken, Jerry!

Mrs. G. W. Durman of Big Spring visited recently with Mrs. Mary Rogers, who lives on Crest Street.

Mr. H. M. Hassell, who comes to the Center often, is ill in Highland General Hospital.

Mmes. Pauline Smith and Manning of Berger paid the H. M. Norris' a visit on their way home from Canadian the first of the week. They had been over to Canadian to see the beautiful foliage on the trees and the old log cabin site.

We are glad to hear that Mr. H. L. Dewoody is home from a stay in the hospital.

Let us all pray for peace. See you next week, Mrs. Wagner.
