Hope Dawns For Berlin Conferences

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The Soviet Union today formally announced a "conciliatory proposal" calling for appointment of a temporary veto-free United Nations chief executive who would operate with the aid of a panel of three deputies.

The proposal, presented by the Soviet Union delegation and published today by the official Tass news agency, was similar to one circulated by the Russians at the U.N. last week and reported at the time by UPI.

When the plan was first circulated it met objections from the United States and other Western powers on the grounds that it could amount to a move in the direction of the Troika principle.

The Soviets proposed that the temporary leader be named by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Security Council. It said his three deputies should be "skilled international officials (who) now work in the leading section of the secretariat."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, according to the officials, has reported to President Kennedy limited but encouraging progress in three New York conferences with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Rusk was said to feel that additional moderation of the Soviet position could lead to an East-West foreign ministers' conference in November.

The cabinet officer planned to confer with Gromyko again this week, this time in Washington. Gromyko then was expected to meet with Kennedy to discuss the tense situation.

Gromyko plans to return to Moscow about Oct. 8 to be on hand for the Oct. 17 opening of the Communist party congress. And it is believed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will want to have some definite idea by that time of whether full-scale talks will be held.

The progress which Rusk made in his New York talks with Gromyko was described as relatively small but rather important because it seemed to be moving in the direction of greater Russian understanding of Kennedy's position.

It was emphasized that the United States and Russia were still far from any definite agreement on a negotiating basis. But the impression in top official circles was that things were moving in that direction.

The principal progress was said to stem from:

- Clarification of the two positions and elimination of some confusion over wording in the formal Soviet and U.S. declarations on the crisis.
- Indications that Gromyko and Khrushchev are beginning to understand that Kennedy will not compromise the "vital interests" of the Western powers. These were described as their right to remain in West Berlin and unhindered access to the city through Communist territory.
- Evidence that Khrushchev has ordered a reduction in Soviet pressure and harassment of the Allied position by the Communist East Germans.

Other notables appearing on the convention program will be Dr. James Landis, San Antonio, president of the Texas Baptist Convention; Dan B. Cameron, Amarillo, president of the District 10 Convention; Dr. Buckner Fanning of the Trinity Baptist Church, San Antonio; Dr. George Shearin of the state convention office in Dallas and Mrs. C. J. Humphrey, district W.M.U. president.

The theme of the convention is "Enlarge, Lengthen, Strengthen." Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor of the host church, will give the welcome address Tuesday morning at 9:55. Response will be by Dr. Cameron. The morning convention theme will be "Enlarge." Jack Parker, minister of education of the Pampa First Baptist Church, will give the opening conference talk on the subject, "Through Training." He will be followed by Bob Stroble of Amarillo, Dr. Shearin, Paul Biggs and Rev. M. E. Wyatt of Shamrock.

The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 o'clock with O. C. Curtis, district missionary, and Biggs directing the singing. The afternoon theme will be "Lengthen." Speakers will include Dr. Landis, Mrs. Humphrey and Dr. Fanning. The afternoon session will be followed by a district board meeting.

At 5:30 the barbecue will be staged. Announcements were

Steel Workers Get Pay Boost

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The final wage increase for the nation's steel workers under a 30-month contract which expires June 30 went into effect Sunday.

Approximately 50,000 workers shared in the pay hike of 7 to 10 cents an hour, the second granted under a contract signed Jan. 4, 1960, following a 116-day steel-strike.

Roger Blough, chairman of the board of U.S. Steel Corp., estimated employment costs for the industry would soar an additional $200 million a year because of the pay boost.

The first hike under the contract became effective Dec. 1, 1960, and provided a seven-cent basic increase.

District Baptist Meet Opens In City Tuesday

More than 1,000 men from five Baptist church associations, representing some 117 churches throughout the Panhandle area, will converge on Pampa Tuesday for the annual District 10 Baptist Convention and District 10 Brotherhood Meetings. A large number of women delegates will also be present for the convention sessions.

All sessions will be held in the First Baptist church beginning at 9:45 o'clock Tuesday morning and concluding at 7:30. The concluding brotherhood session Tuesday evening.

Featured Brotherhood speaker will be Jim Vaus, an ex-convict and former associate of Gangster Mickey Cohen, now an evangelist and founder of Youth Development, Inc., a worldwide organization featured in the July, 1961, issue of Readers' Digest. Vaus hails from New York and will speak following the mammoth brotherhood barbecue beginning at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night and concluding at 7:30. The barbecue will be followed by the evening convention session beginning at 7:30.

City Commission To Meet Tuesday

Several matters are expected to occupy attention of Pampa city commissioners when they hold their regular meeting in City Hall Tuesday forenoon.

City Manager John Kooztz said today the agenda includes the second reading of an ordinance changing stop signs on certain streets, approval of salary changes, approval of rental to the Texas Railroad-Commission for local office rent in City Hall, approval of bill for water department billing cards, and other routine business.

Charge Against Nixon Backed By Californian

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A former high-ranking state official said Sunday night he heard a friend of Richard M. Nixon offer a political opponent his choice of state posts if he would withdraw his bid for governor of California.

Paul Mason, one-time director of motor vehicles, told reporters he was present Sept. 7 when Nixon's emissary allegedly telephoned former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight to ask that Knight not compete with Nixon for the Republican gubernatorial nomination next year.

Nixon announced for the governorship last Wednesday.

Pampa Burglary Suspect Escapes Jail At Memphis

Pampa police and sheriff's officers were alerted today to be on the lookout for Jimmy Earl Parks, native of Lefors, who broke jail with two other men at Memphis, Texas, Sunday night.

Parks was jailed in Pampa in mid-August and indicted by the Gray County Grand Jury along with Leroy Driver on burglary charges in connection with a series of thefts in Texas, Colorado and Oklahoma. The pair was charged with several Pampa burglaries.

Parks and Driver were removed to Memphis from the Gray County jail one week ago today. Both are facing burglary charges there.

Driver did not take part in the Sunday night break at Memphis. He was still in the Memphis jail today.

The two men who escaped with the 21-year-old Parks were Arthur Butau, 30, and Robert K. Cross, 32, whom police said were from Minnesota and were being held on burglary charges at Memphis.

Parks' wife lives in Pampa.

Pope Receives JFK's Mother

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Mrs. Rose Kennedy, mother of President John F. Kennedy, was received in audience by Pope John XXIII today.

Mrs. Kennedy was escorted to the Vatican for the noon audience by Count Enrico Galeazzi, architect of the sacred apostolic palaces, who is a family friend.

Charge Against Nixon Backed By Californian

The next day Knight claimed that a Los Angeles businessman close to Nixon called him at the El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento to say that the former vice president would give him any state job he wanted — "including the (California) Supreme Court" — if Knight would withdraw.

Nixon denied the charge heatedly, saying he would swear on a Bible that it was false.

"I'll leave it to the governor to say who the caller was, but it was a man who had represented Nixon in previous conversations with Knight this year," Mason said.

Cold Front Rams Into Panhandle

By United Press International
A giant wave of cold air triggered vicious thunderstorms with heavy rain and high winds across wide areas of Texas today. Forecasts called for frost in the Panhandle and the coldest weather of the season for parts of the state tonight.

The cold front slammed into the Panhandle late Sunday. It had moved all the way to the Austin area by 11 p.m. Sunday.

The frost prediction for tonight for the Panhandle area includes Pampa and vicinity.

San Antonio area early today, producing violent thunderstorms from the Panhandle southward.

The front hit the Dallas - Fort Worth area at 3 a. m. Winds gusted above 40 miles per hour and more than an inch of rain fell in a few hours. Scores of stations reported an inch or more of rain as the front rushed southward.

At dawn, rain or thunderstorms pounded all of North Central Texas, the northern portion of East Texas and the Southeast sector of West Texas.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the cold front would reach the Texas coast by nightfall. Forecasts called for scattered light frost in the Panhandle tonight with temperatures near 36 in that area. Temperatures in the upper 40s were forecast as far south as the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Skies cleared in the Panhandle and South Plains after the cold front passed. Amarillo recorded the state's low temperature during the night, 37 degrees. Temperatures ranged upward to 77 degrees at Galveston and Corpus Christi.

The Weather Bureau at New Orleans ordered small craft warnings hoisted along the Gulf Coast from Morgan City, La., to Port Arthur.

Today's forecasts were the same generally for all the state (See WEATHER, Page 3)

Cabot Meeting To Open Tuesday

Plans were completed today for the three-day 32nd Management Conference of Cabot Corp. which opens in Pampa Tuesday.

Sessions will be held in the Cabot Auditorium in the Hughes Bldg. Luncheons and social hours will be in Coronado Inn.

The conference begins at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday with discussions and reports from various department heads.

Dr. G. Herbert True, vice president of the True-Klemp Organization, South Bend, Ind., will be Tuesday's principal speaker. He is scheduled to deliver a talk at the afternoon session, following a luncheon in Coronado Inn.

Top-Cabot officials from Boston and from England, Canada, Holland, France and Italy will be guests at the conference which will be attended by some 110 managerial and department heads from Cabot's Southwest Division.

$126 Taken From Service Station

Burglars broke into the Hayes Gulf Service Station, 210 E. Brown, sometime between Saturday midnight and 8 a.m. Sunday and made away with cash and loot valued at $130.50.

Police said the thieves took $114 from a cash drawer, approximately $12 from a cigaret machine and an inner tube valued at $4.50.

Panama Asks For Talks On Canal Treaty

PANAMA CITY, Panama (UPI) — President Roberto Chiari of Panama announced Sunday he has asked for negotiations toward a new treaty covering the Panama Canal.

Since 1955, the United States has paid Panama $1,930,000 annually for the use of the Canal Zone. Before the revision, the rate had been $430,000 a year.

Chiari called the present accords "harmful to Panama's just claims and to the interests of the national economy."

He was not specific about what Panama intended to ask, but he called for a treaty to recognize his country's "legitimate rights."

And he indicated the Panamanian flag should fly alongside the Stars and Stripes on official buildings in the Canal Zone.

At present the American flag flies alone over courthouses, post offices and other public buildings in the U.S.-controlled Zone.

Native political leaders have complained that Panama is getting less than its "fair share" of revenues from the Canal.

Revolt Regime Now Reported Facing Trouble

By United Press International
The revolutionary government in Damascus today announced the arrest of former Syrian strongman Col. Abdel Hamid El-Serraj on charges of trying to "subvert" the uprising that broke up the United Arab Republic last week.

But even as the regime of Premier Mamoun Al-Kuzbari moved to consolidate its power, there were indications it was running into trouble.

U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser said in a speech in Cairo that fighting has been going on in Syria since last Thursday and that there was a popular movement under way there to save the union with Egypt.

This could not be confirmed from inside Syria, where the Damascus radio reported that all was calm four days after the army revolted and ended the 2½-year-old U.A.R.

UPI correspondent George Habash entered Syria from Jordan Saturday and reported that there was "no bloodshed in the city of Damascus."

But today UPI correspondent David Dugas reported that pro-Nasser demonstrations by groups of Syrian taxi-drivers were taking place alongside the Syrian-Lebanese border.

Dugas said the drivers reported more pro-Nasser demonstrations were going on elsewhere in Syria.

Travellers reaching Lebanon said one Syrian army division located in the border city of Hama had not declared allegiance to the new regime in Damascus.

In announcing Serraj's arrest, the Kuzbari government said he was tracked down and seized Sunday night.

Serraj, formerly chief of Syrian military intelligence, had been a vice president of the U.A.R. under Nasser. He resigned that post last Tuesday and returned to Damascus from Cairo. He was reported dissatisfied with his figurehead position.

The announcement of his arrest said it was made to "prevent subversive elements from carrying out any suspicious activity to divert the blessed revolution to personal trends."

Reports in Jerusalem said Serraj had attempted a counter-revolution after the uprising began last Thursday. The counter-revolt failed, but Serraj managed to go into hiding.

Nasser told tens of thousands of students at a Cairo University campus rally that he heard a Syrian radio station this morning appealing to the Syrian people to "save the U.A.R." He did not identify the station, but implied it was a clandestine broadcast.

"From Thursday until today there has been fighting in Aleppo, Damascus and elsewhere in Syria. Sunday a group of school girls attacked the Aleppo radio station," Nasser said.

The new Damascus regime was making some headway in winning recognition for Syria's reassertion of independence, Jordan, Turkey, Guatemala, Nationalist China and Iran have announced recognition of the revolutionary government.

Spain May Offer U.S. Nuclear Weapons Bases

BURGOS, Spain (UPI) — Generalissimo Francisco Franco appeared today to be offering Spanish soil for the stationing of United States nuclear missiles.

That was the interpretation placed on a speech by Franco Sunday night in which he said the Spanish-American military-economic pact of 1953 need to be "restudied and renewed so they can apply to the new situation."

Francisco made the speech to Spanish military chiefs celebrating the 25th anniversary of his rise to power.

(In London, diplomatic sources speculated that Franco might be trying to edge into NATO by filling the vacuum caused by France's refusal to allow U.S. nuclear weapons on its territory unless they are placed under French control.)

Francisco said that Spanish armed forces had perfected their training and technique in association with the United States but "we've seen them outmoded today by new achievements."

"That is why now that four-fifths of the period of validity of the agreements has passed, they need to be restudied and renovated."

German Village Situation Tense

BERLIN (UPI)—The tiny enclave of Steinstuecken — 39 houses and 159 persons entirely surrounded by East Germany — today became a possible flash-point in the East-West tug of war over Berlin.

Steinstuecken's 26 acres are considered a part of the American sector of West Berlin although they lie one mile outside the German capital proper.

East German Communists completed surrounding the enclave with barbed wire Sunday after charging that American helicopters had "kidnaped" seven Germans last week. Actually, the Germans were refugees who asked to be flown to safety.

The precarious situation led to the realization that a serious incident could occur along Steinstuecken's tiny borders just as easily as at the wall dividing the main bodies of East and West Berlin.

U. S. military police were sent to Steinstuecken to protect the outpost after retired Gen. Lucius Clay, President Kennedy's personal envoy, became the first U. S. official in years to visit it.

The post-war agreement that divided Berlin was based on a 1920 map. On it, Steinstuecken was listed as a part of the capital because those who owned its acreage lived in Berlin proper.

Railroad tracks that bisect Steinstuecken were left in Communist hands and Communist police Sunday laid barbed wire along them.

District Court Begins Hearings

District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich today began hearing the first of a score of civil cases as a petit jury went into session in District Court at 10 a.m. today.

The cases, set for today, will be assigned and disposed of in turn throughout the week, court attaches said.

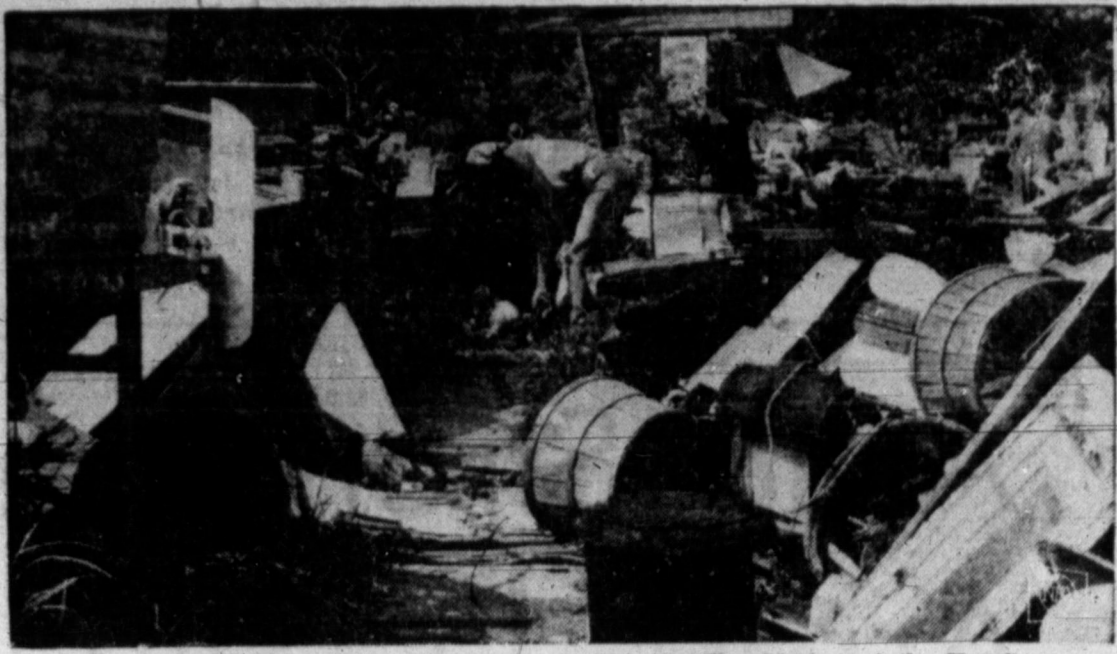

The first case called, involving the Fort Monument Works and the Fort Marble and Granite Co., a cross-action, was settled out of court on an agreed judgment.

Drouth Prevails In Miami, Fla.

MIAMI (UPI)—The Miami Weather Bureau said Sunday that July, August and September gave this resort city the driest summer on record. Rainfall during the period averaged 9.99 inches, 10.74 inches below normal.

This is a STORE? That it is. It's "Norman's Place," "Flea Market of the Kaw," near DeSoto, Kan. It's a trove of junk which shoppers turn into treasure through purchases.

One Person's Junk Is Another's Treasure

MARY KAY FLYNN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DeSOTO, Kan. (NEA) — That did it! Another friend was proudly showing off somebody else's junk which she had transformed into a treasure.

So off we went to the outdoor "Flea Market of the Kaw" — a sprawling array of discarded items ranging from horse collars to used T-shirts.

B&PW Hostess At Senior Center

Business and Professional Women's Club was hostess at Senior Center on Thursday afternoon in Lovett Memorial Library.

Representing B&PW were Mmes. R. B. McAfee, Mack Harmon, Merle Kennemer, Lucille Turner, G. E. Tinnin and Helen Knox.

Door prizes were won by Mmes. J. R. McBride, Mrs. Bessie Nicholson, E. C. Sidwell, and Jay Evans.

Altrusa members assisting with serving were Mmes. Louise Sewell, Thelma Bray and V. L. Hobbs. Red Cross Gay Ladies providing transportation to and from the center were Mmes. J. E. Beard, A. D. Hills, O. F. Kriemeyer, Addie Lee Hopkins.

Eighty-three guests were present.

Mrs. Sewell, center chairman, reports that a birthday party honoring all Senior Citizens with birthdays in October will be held on Thursday beginning at 2:30 in the library.

Finding "Norman's Place" was a real scavenger hunt. Our route took us over the Kansas Turnpike from Kansas City to Bonner Springs and from there, by hand-drawn map or guess, along dusty roads with a big elm, a distant tower or a wheat field as a landmark.

We parked our car among scores of late models in a fenced area accommodating 83 vehicles. An expensive car was being backed out, an old camelback trunk and battered table crammed its trunk. A uniformed chauffeur waited while his employer picked through a table of antiques in a search for pieces matching her China pattern.

Scanning the incredible display, we wondered how anything could be worth taking home — for a price, yet.

People everywhere were bending over as if to retrieve possessions from tornado debris. There was a semblance of order, however; a pile of bicycle parts here, a stack of kettles there.

So we started to walk the aisles of clutter, high on a bank above the river, ostensibly just to look. We wished we had brought gloves to uncover an interesting item lodged in a mass of mess smelling of mold and dust.

We saw a couple returning a three-panel screen to a dilapidated shed. Almost impulsively, we took it over — for $1. It's painted gaudily, like an old-time theater curtain, but nevertheless it's a potential tribute to feminine imagination and industry.

The screen was maneuvered into the back seat of our compact — aroma and all.

Now the rummaging really began. Four women just off a golf course joined in friendly banter about discoveries.

Mrs. A. E. Millis of Leawood, Kan., pushed her finds in a creaky grocery cart pulled from a heap of whatchamathings.

"I don't know what I'm going to do with this stuff," she admitted.

Her companion, Mrs. Elery Coover of Kansas City, Mo., had definite plans for converting some old cigarette stands into candle bases. Many refurbished antiques — genuine and pseudo — grace her home as a result of her semi-monthly trips to "Norman's Place" over the past three years.

We moved along, empty-handed, until...

"Dig for that crazy spittoon. It'll make a cool flower pot, lady," suggested a teenager probing a pile of tarnished objects.

So, cupid in hand, we searched for proprietor Fred Norman, who prices each item orally, with shrewdness and suspense.

Norman operated a secondhand store in Kansas City, Kan., until 10 years ago, when he moved the overflow stock to his 20-acre weekend retreat on the Kaw. He closed the store in the city, because of the heavy exodus of customers to the river storage site.

Now the outdoor "store on the river" is open every day of the year. Patrons come from "every state of the Union."

"Things that wouldn't sell anywhere else, sell here," Norman reflected. He brings in a load of "merchandise" almost every day from "anyplace."

"Visitors — especially women — have more fun here," he observed. So did we.

As for our purchases: the screen temporarily hides a mound of basement clutter, which includes an inviting spittoon. Both still are more challenge than treasure.

HD Council Plans Achievement Day

The Home Demonstration Clubs of Gray County will join forces on Oct. 3, for their annual achievement day.

The event will take place at the Gray County Courthouse Annex east on the Wheeler highway between the hours of 1 p.m. and 3:30.

The public is cordially invited to attend and view the best the clubs have to offer in the way of bedspreads, pillow protectors, filing records, foods, handicrafts, clothing, flowers, and shrubs.

The day is viewed all year by each individual club as a time to show off the profits in Home Demonstration Club Work, and encourage others to join in this educational field.

Refreshments will be served throughout the calling hours.

Clubs in Gray County participating include Bell, Merten, Worthwhile, Goodwill, and Lefors. Miss Lou Ella Patterson fills the office of Home Demonstration Agent in the county.

WSCS Announces Plans At Meeting

Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church recently held a general meeting followed by a luncheon in the Fellowship Hall of the church with Dr. H. H. Bratcher, pastor, giving the invocation.

Following luncheon, Mrs. J. L. Colville, WSCS president, presided at a business meeting.

Announcement was made of the WSCS district meeting to be held in the Berger First Methodist Church on Oct. 30 beginning at 9 a.m. Luncheon will be served and a nursery provided.

The Spiritual Life Committee chairman announced that the Week of Prayer Service will be held on Oct. 25 in the First Methodist Chapel beginning at 9:30 a.m. and continuing until 1:30 p.m. There will be meditation and quiet periods each hour; anyone may come or leave as necessary on the hour.

A report of the School of Missions was given by Mrs. Carl Shafer.

Mrs. Melvin Stephens gave the devotional from First Corinthians.

Dr. Bratcher discussed "establishing our faith in our own congregations" and quoted from the books, "New Shape of American Religion," "Man's Need and God's Action" and the "Testament of Devotion." These books may be found in the church library and he urged members to read this literature.

Dr. Bratcher closed the meeting with prayer.

Eighty-five of the 105 counties in Kansas have been producers of oil or gas.

Dear Abby... Daughter's The Problem Not Her Boyfriend!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am the frustrated father of an 18-year-old girl. She has just acquired her first steady. My problem is that this boy (20) stays to watch the late, late show, eats a sandwich and then necks with my daughter. I lie awake upstairs checking the clock periodically. This morning at 3:30 he was still here, I got angry and went to the landing and shouted, "It's 3:30—GO HOME!" The boy left and my daughter passed me silently in the hall and went to her room.

This morning my daughter told me she was embarrassed by my actions. She said, "I am old enough to take care of myself, etc., etc." I said midnight was late enough on week nights, and 2:00 a.m. on weekends, for working people. Do you think I was in the wrong? My daughter does.

FRUSTRATED DAD
DEAR DAD: If the house rules you had set up beforehand were ignored, you had every right to break up the party at that hour. But you should have done it quietly, firmly and personally with your daughter. He stays, eats and "necks" with a willing partner. SHE is your problem. Don't shout at HIM.

DEAR ABBY: I am planning to have a November wedding. It will be a formal church wedding with about 300 guests. I have studied voice for two years, and everyone says I have a very good soprano.

JOY CIRCLE MEETS FOR BIBLE STUDY
The Joy Circle of St. Paul Methodist Church met Wednesday morning in the Fellowship Hall with Mrs. Dick Wight as hostess.

Mrs. R. A. Newton, chairman, presided during a brief business meeting.

Mrs. Billy J. Kennedy presented the program "Conditions of A Contemporary Pentecost."

Mrs. Peter Erwin and Mrs. Billy West were welcomed as guests.

Other members present were Mmes. Joe Autry, Richard Dillon, Jimmie Dulaney, George Eyley, Carl King, Homer West and Bob Hale.

Hostess for the October meeting will be Mrs. Don Stephens.

voice. I have a marvelous teacher. I wish to sing at my own wedding. My parents and the few friends I have mentioned this to have tried to discourage me. My fiancée suggested I write to you for the final decision. Thank you.

NOVEMBER BRIDE
DEAR BRIDE: Don't use your wedding guests as a captive recital audience. Why not ask your voice teacher to sing?

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with a married man for six months. We work in the same place. He says he loves me and hates his wife, but won't leave her because of the children. He also says he can't leave her because everything they own is in both names, and his wife would get everything. Is this a law?

I left my husband and children and have taken a room. Now everybody is talking about me. Don't you think a woman is foolish to live with a man who hates her? This man's wife is a very dull person, and lives just for her children. I know I can make him happy. Shall I call his wife or go to see her?

UNHAPPY
DEAR UNHAPPY: Don't call this man's wife and don't go to see her. She is sticking by her marriage vows, which is more than you have done. The man has given you good reasons why he won't leave his wife. You need to pray for forgiveness and strength to live a loyal and decent life again.

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Frosty Air Blankets Wide Area

By United Press International
The frost was on the pumpkin from Nebraska to Indiana today and the Northeast got its first real taste of autumn.
More snow fell in the mountains as far south as Texas and east into New England, dropping temperatures as much as 20 degrees. Low readings in the 30s—well below normal—were reported as far south as Oklahoma.
Tropical storm Frances was centered about 150 miles south of San Juan, Puerto Rico and moving westward at 10 miles an hour. Her highest winds were about 50 m.p.h.

Frost occurred early today in Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, upper Michigan, northern Illinois and northern Indiana. High temperatures in the 40s were common Sunday afternoon in Minnesota and Wisconsin. Minneapolis had a high of 47, as did Milwaukee. Chicago's high was a chilly 49 degrees.
Temperatures in the upper 30s and low 40s were reported early today as far east as Pennsylvania, where the advancing cold front touched off rain. Cincinnati had an inch of rain and Louisville, Ky., 1.48 inches, while Memphis measured 1.09 inches as the cold front passed.
There were showers over sections of the Great Lakes, the northern plains, the Carolinas and in parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

Beaumont, Tex., was washed by 2.88 inches of rain in a six-hour period Sunday night.
Although parts of southeast Florida reported thundershowers, Miami went rainless again. A three-month drought has given Miami its driest summer on record with rainfall 10.76 inches below normal.

Weather

—thundershowers, gusty winds and much cooler weather. Temperatures this afternoon were expected to reach the 90s in extreme southern areas, but hover in the 60s and 70s in the northern half of the state. The front was expected to move into South Texas late in the day, dropping temperatures considerably from warm afternoon highs. Lows in the 60s were forecast for parts of South Texas tonight.
Five-day forecasts called for temperatures 2 to 8 degrees below normal across the state. Cool weather was forecast through mid week, with a warming trend due at the end of the week. Rainfall later in the week was expected to be light.
Official rainfall measurements for the 24-hour period ended at 8 a. m. included 1.31 inches at Valley View, 1.10 at Carrollton; 1.05 at Justin and Rosser, 1.04 at Crandall, .71 at Mineral Wells, 1.33 at Decatur, 1.33 at Farmersville, 1.13 at Cleburne, .85 at Burleson, 1.28 at Wichita Falls, .56 at Brownwood, .17 at Texarkana, .49 at Waco, 1.19 at Fort Worth and 1.43 at Dallas.
Abilene had .44 inches during the period; Lubbock .32, San Angelo .42, Ferris 1.66, McKinney 2.00, Roanoke 1.03, Sherman 1.43, Springtown 1.15, Trenton 1.32, Waxahachie 1.48, Maypearl 1.87, Sildell 1.47, Denison 1.50, Pilot Point 2.06 and Bonita 1.56.

Tax Boosts Possible, Speaker Rayburn Says

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Speaker Sam Rayburn said today taxes would remain high and Congress might have to raise them to keep the United States in the arms race.
"As long as the world is in an arms race, and as long as we

Ford And Union Optimistic Over Working Accord

DETROIT, Mich. (UPI)—United Auto Workers and Ford Motor Co. officials today appeared optimistic of a peaceful settlement on the last full day of negotiations before a union strike deadline early Tuesday.
UAW president Walter P. Reuther and Ford vice president Malcolm L. Denise said they expected to meet through the day and night to write a new three-year contract for 120,000 workers in 88 plants around the country.
"Today we're really going to roll," Reuther said. Both he and Denise seemed happy at the way things were moving, but both were guarded in their comments.
"We made a little progress Sunday but we still have a lot of work to do," Reuther said. Denise echoed the statement.
Little trouble was expected over a national economic package since Ford offered the union virtually the same benefits it won a few weeks earlier from General Motors. But non-economic issues were a bigger problem.
Reuther said negotiators Sunday night concentrated on such non-economic issues as "the working agreement, seniority, and matters like that." He hinted some agreement had been reached but he would not elaborate.
The union, after setting a 10 a. m. deadline Tuesday for a full national settlement or a strike, warned all its members at Ford not to jump the gun and walk out ahead of time as thousands did last month at GM.

Rough Campaign Faced By Nixon For Governorship

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon has a last chance to change and to improve his public image.
The public sees Nixon now as a loser, a slugger who did not slug. Before his 1960 campaign for the presidency, Nixon was regarded as a bruising opponent, a political battler who swung flat-footed from the heels. For this, Nixon was denounced by his enemies and applauded by his friends.
Nixon was more ballet dancer than political slugger in his 1960 presidential campaign. John F. Kennedy out-danced him. Kennedy might have been able to outslug Nixon but he was not compelled to prove it.
Next year's Republican primary in California for the gubernatorial nomination will offer Nixon no alternative other than to come out slugging. This primary promises to be as angry as any which have preceded it if anywhere. Among Nixon's opponents will be former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight. These two are neither political nor personal friends.
Knight already is accusing Nixon of double talk in announcing that he would run for governor in California and serve his four-year term if elected. Knight observed that Nixon did not say he would refuse to be drafted for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. The idea that Nixon might be drafted is not far short of ridiculous.
Rarely, if ever, do political parties draft a nominee for President. A great deal of nonsense was written in 1939-40 about a draft of Franklin D. Roosevelt for a third term. FDR was the master mind of his own third-term renomination. It was no more a draft operation than his nominations in other years.
Knight will goad Nixon, however, with accusation that he is cheating the people of California with promises to serve a four-year term if elected governor while hoping to foment a draft movement in his own behalf. That will be the least of the goods, no doubt.
Nixon will need to return to his rough campaign practices to win the California primary and he will need to be rough in his campaign against Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown. A victory for Nixon in California would soak away some of the stain of 1960 defeat. It would pose Nixon in his old stance as a hard-fisted political bruiser. The man had no other choice in California if he desired to remain in the running for President. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York now becomes front runner for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. Rockefeller must be re-elected next year to hold that position.
It seems now that the chore Nixon could not handle will fall in 1964 to Rockefeller — defeating John F. Kennedy for President of the United States. Nixon's chance might come in 1968.

Crewmen Escape Sinking Tanker

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—All but five of about 40 crewmen of the tanker S. S. Hess Mariner were en route to Charleston, S.C. today after an engine explosion tore a hole in the 523-foot vessel, and it began to sink about 110 miles east-northeast of here.
The Coast Guard said one man suffered a broken ankle when the explosion occurred about 8 p. m. Sunday. The vessel, owned by the Hess Oil Co. of New York, began to sink immediately.
The Coast Guard said the tanker Texaco Nevada was within sight of the Hess Mariner and came alongside within minutes. It was joined later by two other tankers, the Esso Suez and the Norfolk.

Railway Lowers Roundtrip Fares To Dallas Fair

A reduction of one-third in chair car fares from all points on the Fort Worth and Denver Railway between Decatur and Texline to Dallas for the State Fair of Texas Oct. 7-22 was announced today by G. B. Monzingo, Pampa agent for the FD&W.
Round-trip tickets good in air-conditioned chair cars on all FW&D trains from Clarendon, including Texas Zephyrs, will go on sale daily commencing Oct. 6 and will be sold to and including Oct. 22. Final limit of tickets will be midnight Oct. 23, Monzingo said.
The reduced fares may be purchased by individuals or parties, such as FHA groups, grade school and high school classes, etc., it was also announced.
According to Monzingo the special excursion fare to Dallas will be $10.85, as compared with the regular fare of $16.30. The usual federal transportation tax of 10 per cent is in addition to the fare.

Radioactive Rain Occurs In Japan

TOKYO (UPI)—More than 10 times the normal amount of radioactivity was measured Saturday and Sunday in rain falling on various portions of Japan, the meteorological agency reported Sunday. The increases were believed caused by Soviet nuclear testing.

Some Commend, Others Condemn JFK's Record

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Kennedy administration's record in Congress drew praise today from the AFL-CIO, but Americans for Democratic Action said it "did not live up to ADA expectations."
AFL-CIO legislative director Andrew J. Biemiller said the first session of the 87th Congress was a success and much of the credit had to go to President Kennedy and his aides.
But ADA, in an editorial in its publication, called the administration's record "at best one of callous expediency and at worst one of astonishing indifference to real national needs."
Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., said today the first session "has done a real job. It has responded to his (Kennedy's) suggestions, and has enacted a very fine program."
A veteran of 49 years in the House, Rayburn said in a copyrighted interview in U. S. News & World Report magazine that "Kennedy had one of the most successful sessions of Congress that I have ever served in."
Biemiller cited passage of legislation to aid depressed areas, raise the minimum wage and expand housing programs, and said "these events alone would make it a successful congress."

Wrong Customer Chosen By Trio

NEW YORK (UPI)—Donald Tesoro, Anthony Martino and Guido Fecci each was held in $1,000 bail today because they tried to sell brass antiques.
Police said the three men tried to sell the antiques to Iser Roller, a dealer who said they had been stolen from him in August.

Manicures Given Plant's Workers

BLADOCK, England (UPI)—All 250 male employees at Bladock Factory got manicures today before starting their week's work.
The management ordered the manicures so that nylon stockings manufactured at the plant would not be snagged on rough fingernails.

Frogs Meet Razorbacks In SWC Tilt

By United Press International
Amazingly tough Texas Christian, considered an "also ran" in this season's Southwest Conference title chase, left little doubt today it will be a rough hurdle for any team trying to claim the crown Arkansas seems destined to give up.

Coach Abe Martin's Horned Frogs upset the dazed Rice Owls as the chief rival of Texas and Baylor for this year's league laurels and proved that TCU's opening upset of Kansas was no fluke by outplaying highly-regarded Ohio State in a 7-7 tie.

The deadlock shared the weekend spotlight with Texas, which nailed down its first conference victory with a decisive 42-14 win over Texas Tech, and Baylor's sparkling all-around ability in overhauling Pittsburgh 16-13.

The Rice Owls had their wings clipped by Georgia Tech 24-0, Texas A&M blew an early lead to bow to Louisiana state 16-7 and Arkansas huffed and puffed to a 6-0 victory over a Tulsa team that had absorbed a 50-point plus licking a week earlier from Memphis State.

Southern Methodist continued to look like potential trouble for league rivals although the Mustangs were beaten 21-16 by Southern California.

Pampa 7th Grade Blanks Phillips

Coach Frank Craig's Pampa 7th Grade Reapers avenged their season record Friday afternoon with a 14-0 triumph over the Phillips Junior High 7th grade.

After battling to a 0-0 halftime draw, the Reapers tallied a touchdown in each of the last two periods. Halfback L. D. Rowden hauled in an aerial from quarterback Larry Stephens and romped 40 yards for the first marker. Left half Mike Carpenter added the extra points on a short run.

Another quarterback — John Brawley — rolled our around right end for the other score on a 40 yard scamper.

Craig singled out the play of end Alphonse Gomez, tackles Billy Scibner and John Watson. The Reapers have an open date this week.

Cleveland Drubs Dallas Cowboys

By United Press International
First it was the "shotgun offense" and now it's the "quarterback shuttle." What's the next gimmick the San Francisco Forty-niners will dream up to plague their National Football League rivals?
Things are confusing enough as it is, what with not a single remaining undefeated team after the first three weeks of the season and nine clubs tied for the top with 2-1 records. How close can it get?
Most astonishing of Sunday's results was the Forty-niners' 49-0 rout of the Detroit Lions, who were supposed to be the NFL's best defensive team.
The St. Louis Cardinals' 30-27 victory over the champion Philadelphia Eagles also was a stunner.
And almost as shocking was the Baltimore Colts' 34-33 triumph

Borger To Play Rebs

By United Press International
Title play activity picks up along the Texas schoolboy football front this week with 41 district games on the program, but such interdistrict tilts as Sherman-Corpus Christi Miller feature the card.
There will be 19 district contests scattered through Class AAAA and 22 in Class AAA, many of them matching early the teams rated as possible playoff candidates.
The Sherman-Corpus Christi Miller contest is the only one of the 18 un-defeated teams in AAAA and provides a test of whether Sherman is to be a major contender for the state title held by Miller.
The only other game matching perfect records has AAA Belton facing a Class AA Brady team which has won five in a row.
But, undefeated-untied Hurst-Eules and San Benito in AAA meet unbeaten-but-tied Diamond Hill and Mercedes, respectively in district games.
Top district games on the program have Odessa Permian playing Abilene and Borger meeting Amarillo Tascosa. Permian and Borger own perfect records, while their rivals are strong once-beaten teams.
Fort Worth Paschal in AAAA and Cleburne in AAA also test their untarnished records against once-beaten Highland Park and Gainesville in tilts of main event caliber.
Wichita Falls and Lamar Consolidated, the No. 1 clubs in each division, figure to have things easy against Vernon and Columbus.

Buffaloes Crush Texas Western

By United Press International
The West Texas State Buffaloes have firmly established themselves today as a top threat to the Border Conference title.
The Buffs, strengthened with the addition of some colorful junior college transfers, trampled Texas Western 56-27 over the weekend. It was the second lopsided victory in a row.
The Buffs have operated at nearly a point-a-minute pace in their first two outings, an opening 55-8 victory over Brigham Young giving them 111 points in 120 minutes playing time.
Arizona State's Sun Devils also remained undefeated with a 14-6 triumph over Colorado State, while defending champion New Mexico State bounced back for a drubbing at the hands of New Mexico to paste McMurry 35-7. Hardin-Simmons dropped its third in a row, this time 56-0 to Memphis State.
Observers will get a chance to compare West Texas and Arizona State this week as the Buffs entertain Wichita, a team the Sun Devils downed 21-7 in their season opener.

Tommy Beldine Cops Upset Win

SUNLAND PARK, N. M. (UPI)
—Jockey Noel Atchley rode Tommy Beldine to a smashing three-length victory in the featured Pass of the North Handicap at Sunland Park, Sunday, turning back favorite Peppy Cadet and Natural Flow.
The victory in the six-furlong race for three-year-olds and up, completed a winning triple for Atchley. It was the second victory for the Leonard Mazzula jockey who scored his last win in the Albuquerque Derby a week ago. The winner paid $16.60, $4.80 and $3.80. Peppy Cadet paid $2.80 and $2.80, and Natural Flow $4.

FAREWELL AGAIN, BABE

Roger-Babe Controversy Starts

NEW YORK (UPI) — Roger Maris claims "the ordeal is over," but actually the controversy merely started today over whether he or Babe Ruth should be recognized as baseball's official all-time home run king.
Emotionally exhausted and looking as if someone had put him through a wringer, the 27-year-old Maris accepted congratulations in a semi-daze Sunday after becoming the first major leaguer ever to surpass Ruth by hitting 61 homers in a single season.
Commissioner Ford Frick has ruled that two separate records will go into the books.
One will be Maris' mark of 61 homers for a 162-game season and the other Ruth's record of 60 in 134 games. That won't stop baseball fans from arguing, however, which should be considered the one and only all-time record.
Maris, by his own admission, "couldn't care less."
"A thing like this can make a nervous wreck of you," said the slugging New York Yankee outfielder, after rocketing his historic homer at Yankee Stadium Sunday.
"The pressure was terrific," he said. "Mentally much more than physically. You have no idea what it is to put up with something like this for two months. People around you all the time. You can't eat, you can't sleep — you can't even think."
"I know all about the World Series coming up Wednesday. I'll be doing my best. But let someone else shoot for the records. I'll be happy just to get my allotment of base hits."
Maris' 61st homer came off rookie right-hander Tracy Stallard of the Boston Red Sox in the fourth inning Sunday and proved to be the only run in a 1-0 victory in the Yankees' final game of base hits.
The blow came on a 2-and-0 pitch and landed six rows back in the lower right field stands, 360 feet from home plate, and not too far from the spot where the immortal Ruth belted his 60th homer on Sept. 30, 1927, in the Yankees' next-to-last game of that season.
"Yup, I knew it was gone when I hit it," Maris answered almost laconically after the game.
"It was a fast ball... I don't have the slightest idea what I was thinking about going around the bases."
"Nope, I'm not going to use this bat anymore, even in the World Series."
"I'm glad I didn't break Ruth's record in 154 games."
"Do I think I can hit 62 next year? Good-bye!"
Maris posed for pictures with Sal Durante, a polite but overwhelmed 19-year-old from Brooklyn who came to the game with his girl, Rose Marie Calabrese, and wound up catching the ball.
Young Durante, who stands to collect a "reward" of $5,000 for the ball offered by a Sacramento, Calif., restaurateur, who in turn intends to hand it over to Maris, originally wished to give it to Roger for nothing.
Maris was quite moved by the gesture.

Longhorns And Ole Miss Con Imressive Triumphs

By United Press International
Although the college football season is only two weeks old, it's already clear that the battle for the national championship will be a wide-open affair.
Missouri, Washington, Stanford and Vanderbilt turned in major upset victories during an action-packed weekend in which Mississippi and Texas were among the few favorites who lived up to advance notices.
Orange Bowl champion Missouri, playing in snow, rain and cold at Minneapolis, knocked off Minnesota, the defending national champion, 6-0; Rose Bowl champion Washington bounced back from its loss to Purdue with a 20-7 triumph over Illinois; Stanford, winless in 1960, topped two-touchdown favorite Oregon State, 34-0, and Vanderbilt upset Georgia, 21-0.
To these were added Texas Christian's 7-7 tie with Ohio State, Wyoming's 6-6 deadlock with Kansas, Columbia's 50-0 victory over Brown and Miami's Friday night conquest of Penn State to make it a gala weekend of form reversals.
In games where form stood up, Mississippi whipped Kentucky, 20-6; Texas outclassed Texas Tech, 42-14; Iowa beat California, 28-7; Syracuse defeated West Virginia, 29-14; Michigan topped UCLA, 29-6; Michigan State routed Wisconsin, 20-0; Baylor shaded Pittsburgh, 16-13; Georgia Tech beat Rice, 24-0; Army whipped Boston University, 31-7, and Navy downed William and Mary, 44-0.
Notre Dame, obviously making important headway in its rebuilding campaign, defeated Oklahoma, 19-6, in the nationally televised game from South Bend, Ind.
There are a number of excellent pairings on next weekend's schedule, starting with Navy vs. Miami in the Orange Bowl Friday night.
The major games next Saturday include LSU-Georgia Tech, Mississippi-Florida State, Vanderbilt-Alabama, Duke-Wake Forest, Auburn-Kentucky, Michigan-Army, Michigan State-Stanford, Minnesota-Oregon, Missouri-California, Purdue-Notre Dame, Ohio State-UCLA, Texas-Washington State, Southern California-Iowa, and Washington-Pittsburgh.

QB Club Will Meet Tonight

The Pampa Quarterback Club will meet tonight — instead of the usual Tuesday night — at 7:30 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.
Coffee and cake will be served and the Pampa Harvester coaches will give a scouting report on the Lubbock Monterey Plainsmen, the locals' Friday night opponents.
A short business meeting will precede the showing of the Tascosa game film.

Dykes Fired As Tribe Manager

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—A new manager for the Cleveland Indians will be named today.
The naming will take place at a press conference presided over by general manager Gabe Paul.
The newcomer will succeed cigar-smoking Jimmy Dykes, who was fired Sunday just prior to the Tribe's final game of the season with the Los Angeles Angels on the West Coast.
In announcing the dismissal, Paul said Dykes' contract "will not be renewed," because he felt that "in our situation we need a change."

Major league baseball crowned two brand-new batting champions today in addition to its new all-time home run king.
Even while New York Yankee slugger Roger Maris wrote a new mark of 61 home runs in a season onto the books Sunday, the Detroit Tigers' Norm Cash became the new batting champion of the American League and the Pittsburgh Pirates' Bob Clemente became the new National League champion.

Cash, who-hit only 286 in 1960, went 2-for-3 in the Tigers' 8-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins to finish with a .361 average while Clemente, a 314-hitter last year, survived the strong finish of Cincinnati's Vada Pinson to wind up with a .351 mark. Clemente did not play in the Pirates' last six games of the season because of an arm injury.
Cash succeeds Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox, who won the AL crown in 1960 with a .317 mark and Clemente succeeds teammate Dick Groat, who wound up this year with a .275 average.

Maris, in addition to setting his new homer mark, beat out the Baltimore Orioles' Jim Gentile in the RBI race, 142 to 141. Orlando Cepeda of the San Francisco Giants won the National League's RBI crown with 142 compared with 124 for Frank Robinson of the Reds.
Cepeda also won the home run crown of the NL with 46, followed by teammate Willie Mays' 40 and Robinson's 37. Mickey Mantle of the Yankees was second to Maris' AL homer total with 54 and Gentile and Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins each had 46.

In Sunday's winup games of the season, the Pirates beat the Reds, 3-1, the Cardinals downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0, the Dodgers defeated the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Milwaukee Braves scored a 3-2 victory after an 8-2 loss to the San Francisco Giants in NL play.
In the AL, Maris' 61st homer won for the Yankees, 1-0, over the Boston Red Sox, the Detroit Tigers beat the Twins, 8-3, the Kansas City Athletics downed the Washington Senators, 3-2, and the Cleveland Indians beat the Los Angeles Angels, 8-5.

Surprised at the high-scoring offense his New York Titans put on, jinx his New York Titans put on, but his defense comes in for praise even when it gives up 30 points.
"Our defense kept us in the ball game in the first quarter,"baugh drawled following the Titans' 37-30 victory over the Boston Patriots Sunday. "We never could have won if it hadn't!"
The Titans' third victory in four games gave them the Eastern Division lead in the American Football League. In other Sunday games, the Oakland Raiders upset the Denver Broncos, 33-19, and the Dallas Texans beat the Houston Oilers, 26-21.

In a Saturday night game, the San Diego Chargers scored their fourth straight triumph by defeating the Buffalo Bills, 19-11.
The defensive heroics to which Baugh referred occurred in the first 10 minutes of Sunday's win over Boston. The sluggish New York offense lost the ball in misplays deep in its own territory on the first four series of downs. Boston recovered three fumbles and gained possession once more when a bad pass from the Titans' center prevented the punter from getting off his kick.

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Cut-Rate Bait

There are still a few people in the United States who can't understand many of the stock political arguments for increased government spending for federal power plants.

The plea is always advanced by public power advocates that such construction is necessary to strengthen the national defense or prevent some future power shortage in the particular region affected.

But the same proponents of expanded government-owned, tax-exempt power opposed efforts of tax-paying investor-owned, public-regulated power companies to increase production in the same area.

To justify tax-exemption for government competition with private enterprise, plus other special advantages denied all other business and industry, "cut-rates" are the bait used to attract the public to the socialistic lure. Thus is the general public hooked to pay additional taxes to make up for those which privileged users of "cheap" federal power escape.

Of course if the whole power industry were socialized, the rates would have to be increased to make up for lost taxes of over $2 billion dollars a year now paid by investor-owned power company customers in taxes levied against the companies by city, county, state and federal governments.

A present proposal calls for the Atomic Energy Commission to build a $95 million steam-electric generation facility at the plutonium production reactor at Hanford, Wash.

This 600,000 kilowatt plant at Hanford is not needed. In fact, the Booneville Power Administration, which would market the power from Hanford, has an idle plant capacity of 400,000 kilowatts. In addition, a proposed treaty with Canada for development of the Columbia River is expected to add 2,600,000 kilowatts more.

We are spending billions for defense against communism, which is the ultimate in socialism, while we go right ahead undermining our free enterprise, capitalist system. Thus we are laying the groundwork for the political philosophy of Marx and Lenin.

Take Time To Know

It is almost always true that we tend to fear and to hate things we do not understand. In fighting communism, we must see to it that our opposition to this mistaken ideology is confined to reason and not merely to blind hate and fear of the unknown.

Property And Profits Passe

The Fund for the Republic, that affluent channel for distributing foundation money in the direction of social planning, has recently paid for some ideas set forth by Gerard Piel, editor of Scientific American, a magazine which dabbles in gadgetry and ideas.

Piel is a smart man and he expresses himself well. He's a Harvard grad and a former science editor for Life magazine. And, like many a man with similar background, he has done his studies in certain areas with a great deal of insight and vigor, while at the same time neglecting other areas of his development. In consequence, his new book which the fund is putting out as an "occasional paper" is an admixture of wisdom and folly.

The burden of Mr. Piel's argument is that the machine has changed the world; particularly the power machine and the automated order-giving mechanism. We are certainly not going to dispute him at this point. Indeed, the machine, power tools and continuing automation have changed the world and are still changing it.

Increased reliance upon tools has brought to human beings a wealth of devices and great stores of food, clothing and comforts. It has and is multiplying ways of affluent living for us to a degree few imagined possible only a few years ago.

But now comes Mr. Piel with the south-paw twist in the essay. He opines that this scientific breakthrough is destroying property, that it is eliminating work and hence that profits are a thing of the past.

In order to try to make this notion stick, he has defined his words in such a manner as to confuse virtually any rational mind. Work, as he sees it, is muscular labor. And this kind of work which he believes is the only kind of work that can be called work, is becoming passe.

We'll go along with the fact that men perform far less muscular work than ever before on the planet. But we part company with him at this point. Men are performing far more work in the sense that a release of energy in a constructive productive manner is really what work is. Men use fewer shovels than they did even twenty years ago. But with better tools, more men are employed in digging more and fancier holes than ever before in the history of the race.

Has this resulted in a lessening of property ownership? Piel says it has. And to make this idea take hold he insists that when you are buying something on time payments this is proof that you don't own it.

While finance companies may be prone to agree, the fact is that human beings are in process of buying more property and more goods than any other segment of homo sapiens since time began. This is true because there is more property of value available for purchase. And if it is true that in earlier times a man might ultimately own totally a very few items, it is equally true today that men own totally as much as they ever did and more, and are in process of purchasing on time payments wealth that would have made Aladdin, for all his wonderful lamp, drool with envy.

And what of profits? Mr. Piel apparently shares the general socialist dream that profits are both wrong and unnecessary and that we are in process (thru government) of breaking up accumulations of wealth to the benefit of all thru extending purchasing power. We will not deny the fact that government is engaged in a mass redistribution of wealth. But we will deny totally the sophistry that this is a good thing because it extends purchasing power. Purchasing power for what?

All tools come into existence as a result of accumulations of capital. Today we have the most massive accumulation of capital ever attempted; but this accumulation is in the hands of government, where it does not belong and is being stolen from the hands of producers. This reduces our ability to buy tools or even to replace them. Since Mr. Piel overlooks or subverts this vital portion of the economic stream, his whole supposition comes apart at the seams.

If private individuals cannot invest for the tools required, they cannot increase our technology. If they cannot, an end will be reached in the productive processes. If this end is reached, there will be fewer things purchased, however great the purchasing power may have grown thru distribution of money. And thus, in the end, the cycle is choked off and we are back at the doors of poverty once more.

The evidence shows that science has aided man and is not his enemy. Thru science men have learned how to make more goods with less muscular labor. Thru this process there is more to be purchased than before, hence ownership of private property in-

It's Up To You

by HOWARD KERSHNER L. H. D.

President Kennedy uttered a noble sentiment when he said in his Inaugural Address:

"Ask not what your country can do for you - ask what you can do for your country."

Apparently, the Administration does not expect the people to observe this admonition, for ever since the words were uttered, most of the news and action coming out of Washington has been concerned with vast programs the planners are pushing, supposedly for the benefit of the people. Evidently, the Administration thinks the people expect government to do just about everything for them.

Fortunately the proposal to federalize education at a cost of $5.6 billion over the next five years was defeated. We have the $2.5 billion four-year commitment to urban renewal; a multimillion dollar program to federalize housing, not only for low-income families, but for medium-income families, and for rentals as well as ownership. There is also the proposal to establish a new Department of Housing and Urban Affairs at Cabinet level. No one knows how much money that will cost the American taxpayer.

A determined effort is being made to federalize medical care. The proposal is to cost only $1 billion the first year, but the intention is to expand the program to something comparable to that existing in Great Britain. In terms of our population and scale of wages and prices compared with that of Britain, a similar program in our country would cost not less than $2 billion a year. If brought under the present social security program, that would mean an increase in the payroll tax to 11 or 12 per cent.

To meet present social security goals, the tax is expected to rise to 9 per cent during the present decade and will probably have to be considerably higher before the program will be in balance.

If we embark on federalized medicine we may expect the social security tax to rise to somewhere between 20 and 25 per cent of payroll. Add to that 10 to 15 per cent for income tax deductions, plus liability and unemployment deductions, and we may confidently expect that well over one-third of each paycheck will be withheld from the worker.

We need not be surprised at this, for so-called "welfare deductions" in Italy amount to 44 per cent, in France 32 per cent, with comparable percentages in other countries.

Government already exercises a tight control over agriculture, is moving into the "depressed area" problem, already controls banking, railroading, aviation, and other means of transportation.

What is left of our freedom? What is left of our incomes? What scope is left for the exercise of free initiative? What has all this done to free enterprise? This is not the wild talk of a frightened editor; it is a sober realistic view of what is only a few years ahead for the American people if they do not wake up and stop it soon. Government-managed economy, with the suppression of the individual, loss of freedom in many areas, enormously expensive and with lower standards of living, is just ahead.

We will not have it on our conscience that we failed to warn the American people, for 26 years ago we wrote a book called, THE MENACE OF ROOSEVELT AND HIS POLICIES. The predictions have been more than fulfilled and the slide into socialism has proceeded much faster than we thought at that time. From that day to this, we have not ceased to raise our voice on the platform, in the press, in syndicated columns, over the radio, and on television, pointing out to the American people that the rapidity of inflation, socialization, loss of freedom, and great suffering are ahead if they continue to follow the "Pied Pipers" who are leading them back to the dark ages of tyranny.

We are communizing ourselves so rapidly that the Kremlin sees no reason for war. We are surrendering to Marxian ideology at such a clip that, as the Russian official boasted to me, last fall:

"We won't have to urge you or fight you - but only to sit quietly as you join us by adopting our ways."

That's what is happening. Ladies and gentlemen! You don't creases. And to make any of this possible, profits must be sustained and at high levels.

Mr. Piel will have to go to the rear of the class and start again.

Allen - Scott Report

'Fighting' Chief of Staff Sought By McNamara To Succeed Decker

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara is searching the Army for vigorous new military leadership to carry out President Kennedy's plans to modernize and beef-up the firepower of the expanding service.

He is passing the word that a "fighting" general has begun for a "fighting" general to succeed General George H. Decker, Army Chief of Staff, when his two-year term expires in 1962.

According to aides, McNamara plans to bring General Decker's successor to the Pentagon early next year. The replacement for Decker will be given the Army's No. 2 post in January when Lt. General Clyde Eddleman, Vice Chief of Staff, retires. From this position, McNamara plans to elevate his choice to Army Chief of Staff when Decker's term expires in October 1962.

While McNamara still has made no final decision on a successor, the Defense Secretary has shown a great deal of interest in the following three Army generals:

Lt. Gen. John C. Oakes, Galveston, Tex., commanding general of the Seventh U.S. Army Corps now in Germany; Lt. Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Washington, D.C., director of the Joint Staff of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau, Washington, D.C., chief of Army Research and Development.

Of these three candidates, Secretary McNamara is showing his greatest interest in the 55-year-old General Oakes. Already, he has discussed General Oakes' service record with General Maxwell Taylor, the President's military representative. General Oakes served under General Taylor in Korea as the 8th Army's chief of staff.

Also, Secretary McNamara is studying General Oakes' role in Greece, where he served as Chief of Staff to General James Van Fleet during the critical period from 1948 to 1949 when the U.S. blocked a Communist take-over there.

While he hasn't rejected Nehru's plan, President Kennedy has told Secretary of State Dean Rusk that the proposal, with only minor changes, is the same one being pushed by Premier Khrushchev.

INSIDE THE UN — The "betting" among delegates at the United Nations is that there will be a Big Four Foreign Ministers' conference in November in New York, and a summit meeting, possibly in London, by the end of the year. A report soon to be made public by the Senate International Security Subcommittee will charge that Bang-Jensen, a former high ranking UN employee who apparently committed suicide last year, was murdered. He was fired for his refusal to turn over to his superiors the names of refugees who testified about the Hungarian revolt. He told friends that he was afraid the names would fall into the hands of Soviet officials at the UN. Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko opens nearly ever conversation with UN delegates with the suggestion that the United Nations headquarters should be moved from New York to West Berlin. He is also proposing that the United Nations set up a "troika" budget system. He wants one for general administrative expenses, a second for aid for the undeveloped areas, and a third, for the maintenance of international security. The Soviets are still refusing to pay the $36 million in UN special assessments due for operations in the Congo and the Middle East.

The American Way Hankerings

By DR. ALFRED P. HAAKE NO UMBRELLA

What now seems many years ago, witnessed the sacrificing of a principle and the appeasement of a mad man, that there might be "peace in our time."

But Neville Chamberlain, the British Prime Minister, did not prevent war. He and his umbrella postponed it until Hitler, the German Dictator, was better prepared to precipitate the issue. And when it came millions of people perished as an extra dividend to the God of War.

Munich and an umbrella became symbols of compromise unto destruction, betrayal of a nation to buy temporary security. But the holocaust that ended at last with the decisive defeat of Hitler only brought us new Munichs, without umbrellas.

Yalta saw the betrayal of an ally and the seeds of a new war and ultimately more disastrous holocaust. When we yielded to Russia what we had won back from Japan, without so much as consulting China, the ally to whom we had solemnly promised restoration of the lands and concessions Jap had wrung from her—we asked in effect, for the Korean War. We deserted a friendly and faithful ally only to build up the communist "agrarian reformers" who turned what had been our friendly ally into a bitter enemy led by the then minions of Russia. We have not yet paid the price for that folly.

We gave Berlin and East Germany into the power of an alien philosophy and murderous hijackers, potentially a worse enemy than Hitler.

We backed away from the bluff that sealed off Berlin and used our airlift instead of the far more practical and less costly trucks and cars over the road that was ours by treaty to use.

We recently reiterated our pledge to defend the freedom of Berlin and sent in additional soldiers as a confirming gesture. But Mr. Khrushchev goes on sealing off eastern Berlin and our momentary spasm of determination may even prove to have been a fool's paradise.

At Potsdam another President gave Russia control of Eastern Europe and walked out on helpless people who could not defend themselves against the unholy capitulation.

We have Cuba, on which we do have a military base surrounded by an entire island in the process of becoming a base for Russia, a point of entry for subversion and attack from communism only ninety miles from our shores. The ring of strangulation promised us by Stalin is drawing closer and tighter, while we talk and hope for peaceful agreement with an enemy bent frankly on our destruction.

We had warning of what could happen in Cuba. A senator from Florida tried, months ago and without success, to alert the American people and government to what lay in prospect there.

Senator George Smathers sees clearly. He has courage as well as vision. And he seems to understand what so many others have thus far failed or refused to recognize — that we cannot preserve principle and freedom through negotiation with or appeasement of governments that are utterly contemptuous of the ethics and bases of character that we hold up as standards for our conduct.

Lacking the umbrella that hid the vital truth from Chamberlain, Senator Smathers knows that there comes a time, postponed only at frightful peril, when we must recognize that the surest way to avoid war is to be ready and instantly willing to risk it in defense of freedom, character and honor — to meet colossal bluff with measured precision of action.

It may yet not be too late. But the time slips by and if action continues to wait on futile words, we may discover that what was an opportunity to establish respect for ourselves in the eyes of the world has become the involuntarily chosen act that precipitates mutual destruction.

An even that, horrible and unnecessary as it may yet be, is preferable to slavery.

Much Deathless Prose Being Written On Liz, Cleopatra

By HENRY McLEMORE

ROME, Italy — Up until right now — 3:23 Mean Appennine Time — there have been 184,000,000 words written about Elizabeth Taylor and the shooting of a film about Cleopatra.

This is 32,434,816 more words than Abraham Lincoln has gotten up until now, 40 million more than were devoted to the discovery of America, and 50 million times more than Jonas Salk got for the polio vaccine.

In words written, Miss Taylor and Cleopatra far out-distance the War of the Roses, the invention of the automobile, the origin of the species, the discovery of penicillin, the doings of Jack Paar, World War II, the opening of the West, the shooting of Dan McGrew, and the Bolshevik Revolution.

This deluge of words started in Hollywood, where the picture was originally scheduled to be shot, then to London, and now to Rome. The Romans have added at least 10,000,000 words since shooting was switched to the Eternal City, and as I write this I can hear the typewriters of film journalists pounding out copy as fast as their Italian fingers will fly.

The Rome papers are filled with the stuff. Is Miss Taylor well? Is she ill? Is she fat? Is she thin? Will she be able to finish the picture in Rome or move on to Tanganyika, Madagascar, or North Dakota? Is she happy with Eddie? Is Eddie happy with her?

Is she strong enough to wear the heavy hairdress that Cleopatra wore? Can she stand a ten-hour working day? Are the sets bigger than the Caracalla Baths? Where did Miss Taylor spend last night? What does she eat? Does she like Italian food?

Why all this unending avalanche of stuff on this 20th Century Fox epic, still months, maybe years, from the projection room?

While it is little known to the general public, this column operates a poll and research bureau, and its staff is forever putting foolish questions to foolish people. The staff has been busy on Cleopatra. Doors have been knocked on. Bells rung. Pedestrians buttonholed. Housewives annoyed. Businessmen interrupted. Windows peeped in. Keyholes eyed. Even children have been stopped at their play to be asked why, why so much deathless prose has been written about a moving picture and a movie star.

The answers have been more than enlightening. They have answered, one and for all, the relation between human beings and Hollywood publicity.

A few samples: Housewife, aged 36, blonde, and making spaghetti sauce in a pot: "I have no dreaming idea why so much is written about Cleopatra. Good day."

Bank president: "No, that's not enough collateral. I think Cleopatra was a wonderful woman but not worth a story every ten minutes."

Soccer player: "It is extremely ridiculous. I don't read the stuff. My legs hurt."

Chef: "I am sick and tired of Miss Taylor and Cleopatra and cooking veal chops."

Hairdresser's assistant: "I read every word about Miss Taylor, Mr. Fisher, Cleopatra, the sets, the dresses, the money and everything. It is wonderful. Do you know anything new?"

Zoo attendant: "I wish I could turn a couple of my polar bears loose on the set. That would end it."

This would indicate, although slightly, that people have just about had enough about Cleopatra.

So, why not just end it with a statement to end all statements: The picture will cost fifty billion dollars, will be shot in every country in the world, and will be the greatest, grandest epic ever released.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Monday, Oct. 2, the 275th day of the year with 90 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history: In 1869, Hindu nationalist leader and reformer Mohandas Gandhi was born.

In 1882, railroad tycoon William Vanderbilt made headlines when newsmen asked him whether he operated his railroads for the public benefit. Replied Vanderbilt: "The public be damned!"

In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson suffered a stroke that completely paralyzed the left side of his body.

A thought for today: German philosopher George Hegel said, "We may affirm absolutely that nothing great in the world has been accomplished without passion."

The Nation's Press

IDEAS ON LIBERTY STATE INTERVENTION (The Freeman)

This is the gravest danger that today threatens civilization; state intervention; the absorption of all spontaneous social effort by the State, that is to say, of spontaneous historical action, which in the long run sustains, nourishes, and impels human destinies. When the mass suffers any ill-fortune or simply feels some strong appetite, its great temptation is that permanent, sure possibility of obtaining everything — without effort, struggle, doubt, or risk — merely by touching a button and setting the mighty machine in motion. The mass says to itself, "Etat, c'est moi," which is a complete mistake.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN (Christian Economics)

Seven members of President Kennedy's newly appointed 21-man Committee on labor-management policy represent unionized labor. Seven members represent management and seven represent the public. The forgotten man, apparently, is the non-unionized laborer, some three times more numerous than his union brethren.

Counterfeiter Who Quit Runs Aflow Of Law

HOUSTON (UPI)—Howard Thomas Rogan, 38; wanted to become a "perfect counterfeiter" and for three years he trained himself in the art of making and passing bogus bills.

But when he learned how efficient the Secret Service is, he decided it was too risky and gave up his plot.

The only mistake he made was forgetting to get rid of his training aids.

Lane Bertram, secret service agent in Houston, disclosed Tuesday that Rogan has been indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of having equipment that could be used to counterfeit $20 bills.

Rogan, an encyclopedia salesman from Harlingen, Tex., started his do-it-yourself course by obtaining all the government pamphlets and other books he could about how money is made at mints. When he thought he had the process down, he made plates and ran off a few bills.

They were inferior. He decided not to try and pass them. His next step was to get real $20 bills and experiment on how many he could pass by making small purchases at stores. Nobody seemed to check the bills.

Then Rogan graduated to a course on the work and operations of the Secret Service. He became convinced that these federal agents were so efficient that he did not have a chance. So he abandoned his plans.

It was a bad check that finally brought him face to face with the agents he feared. Police in Harlingen arrested him and found the printing plates and bogus bills he held as keepsakes.

Fleet Postpones Visit To Lebanon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States, in an apparent attempt to avoid any action which might be interpreted as "interference," postponed indefinitely Saturday a planned visit of the U. S. 6th Fleet to Beirut, Lebanon.

The action was announced by the State Department which said it had asked the Defense Department to cancel the visit scheduled for Tuesday.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

HAMBURG, West Germany, (UPI)—Down the River Elbe from here, past small fishing villages and reed-covered farm houses, past Cuxhaven and then heading northeast to the meeting of the North and Baltic seas, the cold war is a game of cat and mouse.

In those waters in recent days, NATO completed naval exercises. And, there, standing grimly at the entrance to the Baltic were a Soviet cruiser and destroyer escort.

Boundary lines between East and West lie close here, whether by land or by sea, and sometimes only yards separated the opposing naval forces.

So far, the only shots fired have been by camera.

In a past exercise, a Soviet cruiser turned and ran when an Allied torpedo boat impudently ran up within good camera range.

But each side understands the deadly underlying motive accompanying these exercises. The Baltic and the North Sea open the way to the Atlantic for Soviet submarines in case of war and the

Yet such is man's determination for order in the midst of world crisis that Hamburgers press ahead with their plans for a better world based on peaceful trade.

On order is electrification of the rail line between Hamburg and the Ruhr, cutting many hours of shipping time for the Ruhr's coal and steel.

NATO games look to a way to block the menace.

Young skippers of fast German Navy PT boats hold yachting races there on weekends to learn the treacherous shoal waters.

For there, without the buoys and lighthouses, a vessel could become hopelessly trapped, with only helicopters able to approach close enough for rescue.

College Of Surgeons To Open Sessions

CHICAGO — Surgical developments of benefit to thousands of patients will be told to the 47th annual meeting, the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons — the largest surgical meeting in the world — in Chicago, October 2 through 6.

Attendance is expected to reach 11,000, according to Dr. John Paul North, director of the college, with surgeons, physicians, and related medical personnel from all parts of America and many foreign countries present. Participants will number more than 1,200, as authors of research papers, lecturers, teachers, and panelists.

Every phase of surgery will be presented during this five-day program of 258 research-in-progress reports, 9 postgraduate courses, 35 panel discussions and symposia, 65 medical films, 14 telecasts of surgical operations, and 276 scientific and industrial exhibits.

Speakers at the sessions will include Vice Admiral Hymen G. Rickover, Washington, D.C., United States Navy, nuclear-powered submarine pioneer and educator; Dr. Preston A. Wade, New York, Cornell University professor of surgery, orthopedic consultant for President Kennedy; Dr. Robert M. Zollinger, Columbus, Ohio, incoming president of the College and professor and head of department of surgery, Ohio State University College of Medicine, and other distinguished surgeons.

Many of the dramatic surgical advances which are now commonplace operations were first presented in the session devoted to research reports. This session known as the Forum on Fundamental Surgical Problems, presents the new and experimental in surgery, from medical centers throughout the country.

Color television of live operations performed by master surgeons will be telecast closed-circuit from Billings Hospital of the University of Chicago, to the downtown hotel, under the chairmanship of Doctors Paul V. Harper, Chicago, and Edwin H. Ellison, Milwaukee. Sponsorship and technical production are provided through the courtesy of Smith, Kline & French Laboratories of Philadelphia. The ACS was the first medical organization to telecast operations to an audience of doctors, in 1947, in New York.

An estimated 10 million Americans are operated on annually, and how some of our most eminent surgeons handle common and important surgical conditions will be seen in cine clinics, sponsored by Surgical Products Division of American Cyanamid Company, Danbury, Conn. The operating surgeon narrates these color motion pictures which are a popular and standard teaching device of the Clinical Congress. In contrast, a film symposium on spectacular and unusual problems in surgery will also be shown, with the operating surgeons present to explain procedures. Dr. Hilger P. Jenkins, professor of surgery, University of Chicago, has charge of this extensive week-long film program.

Occupying an important place on the Congress program is a symposium on trauma (injury), with Dr. Harrison L. McLaughlin, New York, chairman of the College's committee on trauma, presiding. The ACS has pioneered in this field, beginning with its Committee on Industrial Surgery in 1919, giving the College a place of leadership in the medical profession in care of the injured. "Emergency Department Problems in Trauma" will follow, reviewing the College's recommendations for improved hospital emergency room treatment of injuries. A new film, display, and brochure on this subject "Model of a Hospital Emergency Department," have been prepared.

On the final morning, Dr. William P. Longmire, Jr. and nine noted surgeons will discuss "What's New In Surgery?" reviewing highlights of research work in their respective fields — neurologic surgery, gastrointestinal surgery, plastic surgery, tumors, anesthesia and pulmonary problems, cardiovascular surgery, orthopedic surgery, nutrition and body fluids, shock and burns, and obstetrics and gynecology.

The college is the sole agency that inspects and approves cancer programs in the United States, and treatment of cancer, a concern since the College founding in 1913, will be reflected in many sessions of this meeting, among them, "Alterations in the Hormonal Balance of the Cancer Patient," led by Dr. R. Lee Clark, Houston, chairman of the College's committee on cancer, with a panel of specialists in this field.

NOW! Let AREA CODES speed your Out-of-Town Calls

This map shows the Area Codes used in several nearby states. See your new telephone directory for Area Codes of many cities throughout the country.

Now there is a new, faster way to make Long Distance calls. Simply give the Long Distance operator the Area Code for the city you are calling and the distant number. You need not tell her the name of the called city or state.

- #### HOW AREA CODES SPEED CALLS
- Area Codes are three-digit numbers that identify the more than 100 telephone dialing areas in the United States and Canada. The map above shows the dialing areas for several nearby states.
- Long Distance operators here use these Area Codes to route your calls quickly to their destinations.
- When you tell the operator the Area Code for the city you are calling, she can put your call through immediately. No waste of your time while she looks up the code number.
- #### LOOK IN DIRECTORY
- You'll find the Area Codes for many cities throughout the country listed in your new telephone directory. The Long Distance operator will give you Area Codes for any cities not listed.
- #### HOW TO CALL
- Suppose you were calling KL 5-2368 in Memphis, Tennessee. Your telephone directory shows the Area Code for Memphis is 901. Here's the fast, easy way to make the call:
- Dial "0" for Long Distance.
  - Tell the operator: "Area Code 901 KL 5-2368." (No need to mention Memphis.)
  - When the operator asks, tell her the number you are calling from.
- Use Area Codes when you make Long Distance calls. You'll find it easy and you'll like the fast way calls go through.
- Here's another tip. The Area Code here is 806. Include Area Code 806 when giving your number to people in distant cities. This will help them call you faster.
- #### KEEP AREA CODES LISTED
- For handy reference, include the Area Codes in your list of Long Distance telephone numbers. To help you start your list, Area Codes for several frequently called cities are shown at right. Many others are listed in your new telephone directory. The Blue Book has a special column for writing Area Codes beside the numbers you call frequently. If you don't have a copy of this Blue Book, just call the telephone business office. No charge, of course.
