Two Pampa Briefs Urge Air Service

Exceptions to the Civil Aeronautics Board examiner's rejection of Pampa's application for airline service to the Southwest were filed today by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce and the City of Pampa.

Briefs in support of the exceptions also will be filed with the CAB in Washington in January. E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

The principal exception being filed today, Wedgeworth said, is based on the examiner's report that service at Amarillo and Borger is adequate to serve the Pampa area.

Herbert K. Bryan, the CAB examiner who recommended that the Pampa application be turned down, held that the local request was not justifiable due to the Borger and Amarillo air stop service now available.

The CAB examiner also is holding against Pampa's case the fact that Central Airlines started and then discontinued east and west service from Pampa in 1952.

But the Pampa exceptions set forth that the application for service south to the Fort Worth and Dallas area is an altogether different case and would generate sufficient business to justify Pampa's request.

None of the applications for airline service in this area of Texas was recommended by the examiner in his 150-page report made public here Nov. 21. Instead, service in a number of cities in Texas and the Southwest was terminated.

Draft Board Member To Be Honored

DeLea Vicars, 303 N. Frost, is scheduled to receive an official certificate of appreciation from President Kennedy, Thursday, Dec. 7.

The official Presidential citation will be handed to Vicars by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, Austin, state Selective Service director, who will represent the President and Gov. Price Daniel.

The certificate cites Vicars for 10 years of service as a member of the Donley-Gray-Roberts-Wheeler county draft board, of which he is chairman.

"Mr. Vicars is a true patriot," Colonel Schwartz said. "He has served his country all these years without pay or thought of pay. It is my pleasure to carry out the directions of the President in making the award to him."

Colonel Schwartz plans to present the certificate to Vicars at the draft board office in the Fraser Building, at 11:30 a.m., Thursday.

The certificate has been signed by the President, Governor Daniel, Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, and Colonel Schwartz, the state director.

2,000 Europeans Riot In Algeria

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — A mob of 2,000 Europeans rioted through the streets of Constantine today, burning cars, hurling Molotov cocktails, smashing store windows and attacking Moslem passersby.

The rioting followed the funeral of a young Frenchman who was killed by police Friday.

SERIOUS MOOD — Astronauts Malcom Carpenter and John Glenn, right, are in a serious mood as they answer questions at a press conference in Cape Canaveral, Fla. Glenn has been officially named to be the pilot in the nation's first manned orbital flight; Carpenter is his back-up pilot. The successful orbit of the earth by astronaut Enos, has lent credence to reports the manned flight will be tried before the end of the year, possibly December 20.

Pampa's Annual Church Pilgrimage Set Dec. 17

The Pampa Key Club, with the support of the Pampa Ministerial Alliance, has announced plans for the Third Annual Pampa Pilgrimage. The unique "Family Walk To Church" has been set for Sunday, December 17, 1961.

The pilgrimage is an original community-wide emphasis on spiritual values at Christmas time, designed to honor the traditional birth of Christ, and reaffirm American faith in God. All Pampa residents are invited to participate.

The first pilgrimage drew nationwide attention. More than 7,000 people joined in the first pilgrimage on December 20, 1959. Last year, on December 18, more than 5,000 people walked. The Key Club seeks to break the earlier record this year.

General chairman for the pilgrimage, Raymond Nance, vice president of Key Club, says a record number of churches will participate. Thirty-nine churches have indicated their members would join the march, as compared to 32 churches in 1959, and 27 in 1960. The 39 participating churches have an estimated total membership of more than 15,000.

Five Gathering Points have been designated. They are Baker Elementary School, Lamar Elementary School, Carver School, Pampa Senior High School, and the Parking Lot of Ideal Food Store No. 1, Ballard at Browning.

Participants are to gather at the proper point by 5 p.m. Group hymn singing is planned at each of the Gathering Points as the pilgrims meet. Piano, song leader, and sound system will be provided at each point. Each church will have a representative who will know the marching route for his church. He will carry a standard with the church name on it. All members of his congregation will follow him, from the Gathering Point to the church. All marchers will be in the pews before 6 p.m. A radio broadcast from First Baptist Church over radio station KPDM will carry a brief opening service. All participating churches are invited to place radio receivers in front of their worship halls. The choir, organ, and music director, Joe Whitten, of First Baptist Church, will lead in the singing of three Christmas hymns. Those tuned in will be led by their own song leader. When brief remarks, a prayer and scripture have been given by Key Club members, radios will be turned off, and each church will conduct its own service.

The participating churches are cooperating by setting their services for this one night at 6 p.m. The early hour is imperative so that marching may be done in daylight. Tommy Veale, chairman of the Routes Committee has recommended that pilgrims work out car pools with their neighbors. By driving one car to the church, and using a second car to go to the Gathering Point, there will be a ride from the church back to the Gathering Point when services are over.

Information bulletins will be distributed through the public schools, all participating churches and local food markets. These will give detailed information where each congregation gathers and the route to follow. Every one of the 57 members of the Pampa Key Club is working on one or more committees for the pilgrimage. The Executive Committee is composed of the General Chairman, Raymond Nance and the chairmen of specific committees. These are: Church Relations, Vince Johnson; Public Relations, John Holloway; Pilgrimage Routes, Tommy Veale, and Speakers, John Arthur.

Churches Participating Include:

First Baptist, First Presbyterian, St. Paul Methodist, Church of the Nazarene, St. Matthew's Episcopal, Church of the Brethren and James Memorial Pentecostal, United Pentecostal, Pentecostal Holiness, Church of God Prophecy, Four Square Gospel, Fellowship Baptist, Central Baptist, First Christian and First Assembly of God. The members of these churches will gather at the Ideal Parking Lot, Browning and Ballard.

Highland Baptist, Bethel Assembly of God, St. Vincent's, DePaul Catholic, Hiland Christian, First Methodist, Zion Lutheran. (See PILGRIMAGE, Page 3)

Foes Defy Dominican Army Head

SANTO DOMINGO, D.R. (UPI) — Maj. Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarría emerged victorious today from an attempt to oust him as armed forces chief but he appeared unable to stem a nationwide strike against President Joaquin Balaguer's government.

The strike went into its seventh day today with signs it was growing stronger.

Dr. Viriato A. Fiallo, president of the opposition National Civic Union, sent a message pleading with the Organization of American States (OAS) to send investigating committees to the Dominican Republic.

"The situation is extremely grave," Fiallo messaged. "The absence of civil power threatens the establishment of a supreme military power which would liquidate every trace of democracy."

Thirteen air force officers submitted their resignations and appealed Sunday to President Balaguer to remove Rodriguez Echavarría for having "betrayed the patriotic ideals and thirst for liberty of our people." The resignations were accepted.

The dissident air force officers also accused the 37-year-old military chief of trying to lead the country to a "military dictatorship."

Rodriguez Echavarría was appointed secretary of state for the armed forces last week after he helped prevent slain dictator Rafael Trujillo's brothers, Hector and Arismendi, from seizing control of the government.

The presidents of 30 professional labor, business and student groups took a full-page ad in Sunday's La Nacion (The Nation). They said they were not demanding Balaguer's resignation, but vowed to continue the general strike until the government and the opposition reached a solution.

Negotiations between the government and the opposition were resumed Sunday after a two-day break when the government agreed to permit the opposition's radio station to go on the air again. The government had ordered the station closed because it allegedly was fomenting trouble.

U. S. Moves 1,500 Men Toward Road To Berlin In Another Route Test

Crossing Point Gaps Narrowed By Red Forces

BERLIN (UPI) — A U.S. Army battle group of 1,500 men started rolling toward Berlin today where U.S. and Communist troops faced each other from positions less than 15 yards apart at the tense Friedrichstrasse crossing point.

The big troop movement had been scheduled previously but the beginning of it coincided with Communist actions in narrowing gaps in crossing points between East and West Berlin.

The Communists moved in troops and laborers Sunday night to reinforce their border barricades. Allied reaction was swift. A platoon of American soldiers was rushed to Friedrichstrasse, apparently to guard against any Communist attempt to shut the crossing point completely. The Americans set up two machine guns and trained a bazooka on a heavy concentration of East German troops on the other side of the crossing point.

The French also rolled troops up to the border but the British took no special action. A spokesman said a company of British soldiers has been on border duty since the Communists closed the border in August.

The United States sent a protest to the Soviet garrison headquarters in East-Berlin three hours after the Communists rolled up to the border but there was no immediate reply.

The soldiers who left their barracks in West Germany today comprised the 1st Battle Group, 19th Infantry. They were expected to reach Helmstedt tonight and start moving across East Germany to West Berlin Tuesday.

They will replace a battle group sent into Berlin by President Kennedy after the Communists started building their wall Aug. 13.

Fidel's Talk Adds Impetus To UN Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. drive for inter-American action to deal with Cuba appeared to have gained impetus today from Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's declaration he is a Communist.

The council of the 21-nation Organization of American States (OAS) was scheduled to meet to vote on a Colombian proposal, supported by the United States, for a foreign ministers' conference to consider the Communist threat to the Western Hemisphere.

U.S. officials were confident that Castro's statement of his "Marxist-Leninist" beliefs in a Saturday morning speech would help sway one or two reticent nations to support the Colombian move.

Several South American countries have been prepared to vote against the proposal or to abstain after citing the inter-American principle of non-intervention. Castro's speech at least may change some potential "no's" to abstentions.

Oil Compact Commission Opens Meet

DENVER (UPI) — The 33-state Interstate Oil Compact Commission begins its annual meeting in Denver today with its main topic a controversial study of equitable sharing of the domestic crude oil market.

The study has created one of the hottest issues in the 27-year history of the advisory and coordinating body on oil and gas conservation.

The problem is between states which adjust production with the rise and fall of market demand against states which have no such proration.

The study, authorized a year ago, resulted from claims by Texas and other oil-producing states that other states were taking away their crude oil market. States that adjust their production claimed they were losing crude oil markets to other states.

A side dispute developed recently when it was thought Gov. Jack Gage of Wyoming might pull his state out of the compact if natural gas were not included in the study. Gage charged that some states were trying to use the commission to create an impression that Wyoming, which has no proration, is producing too much oil.

The commission earlier had refused to expand the study beyond crude production and reserves. But Texas Gov. Price Daniel, commission chairman, wired Gage that he thought it would be proper for a gas production study to be made as well.

Following requests by Wyoming and Utah, the study was broadened to include natural gas and liquefied petroleum gases.

The study is being made by a subcommittee on equality of opportunity to produce. The group is headed by Harvey H. Houston, director of the Colorado oil inspection department.

Court's Order Stalls 'Riders' In Mississippi

McCOMB, Miss. (UPI) — Further "freedom rides" into this strife-torn South-Mississippi town were stalled today by court order and integration leaders announced plans to concentrate this week on neighboring Louisiana.

Integration leaders Sunday were served with a court order from U.S. District Judge Sidney Mize of Gulfport forbidding any more "freedom rides" into McComb for the next 10 days.

The order, granted on request of state officials, said such activities were calculated to "foment violence and to provoke breaches of the peace."

Jackson and McComb newspaper publisher J. Oliver Emmerich was the latest victim of violence here. Emmerich was attacked Sunday by an oil field worker for allowing visiting reporters to use his newspaper offices.

That made Emmerich, editor, and publisher of the McComb Enterprise-Journal and editor of the Jackson State Times, the sixth newsman to be attacked by whites here since racial disturbances began with integration of the Greyhound bus terminal Wednesday.

At Baton Rouge, about 50 miles to the southwest, Congress of Racial Equality leaders said they plan a series of demonstrations this week against alleged discrimination in Louisiana's state capital.

David Dennis of Shreveport, state CORE field representative, said demonstrations would probably be directed against variety stores and bus terminals.

Emmerich was slugged by a burly white man, identified as Milton J. Stayton, who stopped him on a McComb street as he walked to church.

Emmerich said Stayton asked if he was responsible for all the "northern" newsmen being in town. Emmerich replied he was not but the man said, "they have been using your office." He started swinging.

Emmerich's glasses were broken and rammed against his temple and he was struck twice more about the head. Several persons in a nearby drug-store rushed to the scene and Stayton was hauled off to jail.

Garbage Contract Award Scheduled

Awarding of a city garbage collection contract will be among the principal items of business when the City Commission meets Tuesday morning in City Hall.

Also under consideration will be the leasing of a city warehouse on S. Hobart St. and approval of a tax service contract with the Pampa Independent School District.

Dear Abby... Stay With Own Faith, Prevent Difficulty

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are twins (16) who read your column every day and respect your opinion greatly. So do our parents. Our parents forbid us to date boys out of our religion. We don't intend to get serious about these boys, we just want to date them. Isn't it better to go with them and get it out of our systems than not be able to, and think we are missing something?

THE TWINS

DEAR TWINS: The following letter was received the same day yours came. It's as good an answer as I could give. And it's from a girl your age: "Dear Abby: I have been wanting to write this letter for a long time. I read your fabulous — and I do mean fabulous — book, 'Dear Teenager.' I followed your advice on personality and dating out of my faith. As a consequence, I am now going steady with the most wonderful boy in the world. He is of my own religion and he treats me like a queen. He has never asked me for anything more than a kiss. Abby, please go right on telling girls to stay with boys of their own faith and they'll stay out of difficult situations. Thank you with all my heart.

'SWEET 16 AND NEVER BEEN HAPPIER'

DEAR ABBY: I want to ask you in all seriousness — how can a man know if his prospective bride is virtuous or not?

DEAR SERIOUS: Ask her!

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Sucker's Wife" my husband used to make himself available for help all over the neighborhood while I had trouble getting him to fix things at home.

One day I took my baby's broken high chair to a neighbor's and got her to call my husband and ask him to fix it. She called him and he ran right over and put in in first class condition. Afterwards, I told my husband and we all had a good laugh about it. Ever since then I have had no trouble getting things fixed at home.

G. A.

PE WP DEAR ABBY

DEAR ABBY: I was impressed with the letter signed SUCKER'S WIFE. It was from the woman whose husband repaired everybody's appliances in the neighborhood free, but her own sewing machine had been in need of repairs for a year.

I've been in the sewing machine business since 1937, and have been taken advantage of many times, but I don't think I am the worse off for it. Will you write the lady and tell her I will be delighted to fix her sewing machine FREE if she'll pay the freight both ways?

Sincerely,

W. L. L.: Fayetteville, N. C.
DEAR W. L. L.: You are very generous. The lady lives in Honolulu.

Barrett WMU Has Social Meetings

"Tidings To All People" which described the life of Lottie Moon and the purpose of the special week's offering.

Thursday's program was "Tidings of Redemption" concerning work in Japan and Formosa and Friday's discussion was "They That Publish the Tidings" describing work in Israel and Brazil.

Reports Given At Council Meeting

Gray County Home Demonstration Council held a report meeting on Monday in the Courthouse Annex.

Monthly reports were given by representatives from the five home demonstration clubs, Bell, Goodwill, Lefors, Merten and Worthwhile Clubs.

Yearly reports were given by the club presidents and county agents. Also, reporting on 4H Club activities were Miss Phyllis Dalsing, Gold Star Girl and Larry Short, Gold Star Boy.

Mrs. A. P. Combes, council chairman, presided during the business meeting as plans were made for a luncheon held the following day for council members and county agents.

Mrs. Ray Frazier was in charge. Mrs. B. J. Diehl directed the program.

Members attending were Meses. A. P. Combes, Vard Smith, Jack Prather, Jack Howard, D. W. Swain, B. J. Diehl, Ray Frazier, I. L. Carlton, Leland Diamond, A. M. Nash, Roy Tinsley, A. M. Dickerson, Shelby Hood; Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent; Foster Whaley, County Agriculture Agent; Cecil Regier, assistant agent; Miss Phyllis Dalsing, Gold Star Girl; Larry Short, Gold Star Boy; W. D. D. Paynes Hosts At Sunday Party

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Payne, 1616 Christine - friends made and kept over a period of more than 60 years in the Top O' Texas area were honored yesterday afternoon at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Payne in the East Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn.

Payne, a rancher in Roberts County since 1889, observed his 90th birthday on Nov. 25. For more than 50 years, the Triple "Y" brand on cattle from the D. D. Payne Ranch, located 26 miles northwest of Miami, was a familiar brand to cattlemen. In 1958, Payne, or "Davey," as he is known to his friends, with Mrs. Payne, retired from ranching activities and moved to Pampa to make their home.

Approximately 250 guests attended the reception held yesterday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock in the Coronado Inn. Friends and relatives attended from Canadian, Vernon, Amarillo, Wellington, Quanah, Miami, Groom, Pampa, Riverton, Wyo., and Azusa, Calif.

Marx; Mmes. Yvonne Jones, Mackie Daniels and Dorothy Klotz.

Guests were registered at a table appointed with an arrangement of yellow mums interspersed with gold leaves and five, white rope, candles. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Payne, who directed guests to a serving table appointed with a white satin, floor-length cloth caught up at each corner with a nosegay of yellow rosebuds. The table was centered with a cathedral arrangement of yellow rosebuds, white carnations, chrysanthemums and gold leaves in a silver, pedestal bowl. Towering, white tapers in tall, silver holders flanked the arrangement. A silver coffee and crystal punch service completed the table appointments. The entertaining room was furnished with conversation corners and arrangements of pink and white gladioli in white urns.

A family luncheon preceded the reception.

Oil Reporting Forms Changed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Department of the Interior today announced final approval of regulation changes in the Connally "hot oil" act designed to simplify reporting and record-keeping requirements.

The new regulations, effective Jan. 1, 1962, adopt new reporting forms for use by petroleum producers subject to the reporting requirements of the act, which is administered by the department's geological survey. Producers affected are those in over 100 counties in Texas, in all of Louisiana, and in Lea and Eddy counties in New Mexico.

Other changes relieve transporters, refiners, pipeline and plant operators of monthly reporting requirements and also now permit the keeping of monthly rather than daily records by all subjects to the act.

Under the old rules, all producers' reports were filed with the Federal Petroleum Board, Kilgore, Tex. Hereafter, the reports will be filed with following local offices of the board, depending upon location of the affected oil fields.

'Beef Week' Set December 3 To 9

The week of December 3-9 was designated Beef Week in Pampa today when Mayor E. C. Sidwell signed a formal proclamation paying tribute to "the many significant contributions made by the state's cattle industry to the welfare of all Texans."

"Historically, the cattle industry in Texas is older than Texas itself. Economically, the cattle industry has set the pace for Texas, and continues to be a leading growth factor in the state's economy, constantly seeking new techniques for building an even more rewarding future for all our citizens," the proclamation read.

In proclaiming Beef Week, the mayor urged "appreciation and recognition from Pampa citizens for the many continuing contributions of this great industry."

Dumas Favored To Gain Finals

By United Press International
Wichita Falls, Corpus Christi, Ray, Dumas, San Benito, Jacksboro, Brady, Albany and Huldaisetta rule the favorites to win their way into the state school-boy football finals this week.

The sailing may be fairly calm for Wichita Falls, Ray and Huldaisetta, but storm clouds may be brewing for the others as a result of convincing performances by their semifinal rivals in last week's action when only one upset, Donna over Sweeny, marred the quarter-finals.

Wichita Falls moved a step nearer its fourth consecutive Class AAAA finals appearance with a 42-8 rout of San Angelo and now must meet Fort Worth Paschal, which looked just about as sharp in bounding Denison 36-12. Both are unbeaten and undefeated.

Ray ran into more trouble than anticipated, but beat back San Antonio Jefferson 26-7, to gain a berth opposite Galena Park, the 27-12 victor over previously undefeated-untied Houston Milby.

In the other three divisions, it'll be Dumas against Gainesville and Nederland versus San Benito in Class AAA; Quannah vs. Jacksboro and Brady against Donna in Class AA, and Wink vs. defending champ Albany and Groveton vs. Huldaisetta in Class A.

Dumas, in the playoffs for only the second time in history (the last time was in 1933) ended Breckenridge's Cinderella-like story 34-8 Saturday afternoon. Gainesville blasted Corsicana out of the playoffs 38-19 Friday night to gain the semifinals for the first time in six previous playoff trips.

Nederland, a 13-time playoff veteran with two previous finals appearances and one state crown in 1957, whipped Angleton, 35-0. San Benito, the only perfect record survivor in AAA, beat De Rio 29-8. Quannah and Jacksboro, the AA northern bracket semifinalists, had never won a game in three previous playoff appearances. But they will sport untarnished marks going into this week's game. Quannah cut down Dalhart 15-6 and Jacksboro beat Hooks 21-6 for their 13th victories in a row.

Neither of the lower bracket survivors are unbeaten. Brady, in the playoffs for the sixth consecutive year and for the 11th time in all, beat Dayton 22-16, while Donna shocked Sweeny 32-14 to stay alive in its eighth playoff try.

In Class A, both Wink and Albany have state titles and numerous playoff experiences. Wink, which mauld Kress 34-12

Saturday night, is in its 16th playoff, while Albany, 46-14 conqueror of Albany, has been in 13 previous playoffs, including two state finals.

Pampa Nabs Seven Wins In Boxing

Flashy Gary Wilhelm, a two-fisted 150-pound keg of dynamite, bombarded light-heavyweight Gilbert Gonzales of Plainview to the floor in the second round Saturday night in the top attraction of the Optimist Club Fights with teams from Plainview, Dumas, Lefors and Borger.

Gonzales had pulled an upset last Monday by knocking out an El Paso heavyweight, who had been tagged as the fighter to beat for the state crown in his division. But Mr. Wilhelm decked the Plainview battler for an eight count in the first round with an overhead right and sent him to the canvas for good at 1:05 in the second round.

Pampa boxers captured seven triumphs, Lefors picked up five wins, Dumas gained two and Plainview and Borger each nabbed one victory.

Lucky Dunham displayed more power against Manuel Gonzales than expected. Lucky packed power with a pair of speedy hands to dump the Plainview scrapper in another top bout.

Other Pampa wins were turned in by Garry Jones over Mike Robbins, Lefors in a 65-pound match; Ronnie Cox over Billy Wilson, Dumas in a 125-pound scrap; H. D. LaRue over Plainview's Joe Villa in the 85-pound class; Marshall Noblitt over Dumas' Joe Hutchinson in the 100-pound bout and Gail Martin over Eddie Jones, Dumas in a 118-pound battle.

Amarillo's Boxing Club will be in Pampa Thursday night for another engagement at the Boy's Club Building at 7:30.

Results of the other fights: Glenn Hix, Lefors dec. Alfred Brown, Pampa - 84 pounds. Ronnie Sims, Lefors dec. Johnny Roth, Pampa - 55 pounds. Vince Stracener, Lefors dec. Roy Lumpkin, Pampa - 75 pounds.

Bobby Riley, Pampa dec. Andy Grimm, Pampa - 56 pounds. Gary Sims, Lefors dec. Bruce Watson, Pampa - 60 pounds. Paul Garcia, Dumas dec. Jess Reed, Pampa - 112 pounds. Corley Powell, Dumas dec. Boris Cox, Pampa - 140 pounds. Glen Henderson, Lefors dec. Jim Stogner, Dumas - 128 pounds. Irvin Garcia, Plainview dec. Jimmy Baker, Pampa - 75 pounds. Jim Doughty, Borger dec. United Press International Coach Fred Taylor isn't moaning today because Jerry Lucas, college basketball's outstanding player for the past two seasons, scored only 11 points in the Buckeyes' opening victory.

Lucas, bidding for his third straight All-America berth, took only seven shots from the field against Florida State Saturday night, but the top-ranked Buckeyes came through with a strong team effort and a 72-57 triumph.

Ohio State's opponents for this week - Pittsburgh, Wichita and Wake Forest - may decide to follow the collapsing three-man defense Florida State threw at Lucas - but coach Taylor couldn't care less.

Especially when John (Hondo) Havlicek, one of three starters back from last season's NCAA finalists, can take up the slack with a 22-point performance as he did against the Floridians.

Cincinnati, upset winners over the Buckeyes in the 1961 NCAA final, picked up where it left off with an easy 86-63 victory over Indiana State. It was the 23rd consecutive win and 60th in a row at home for the second-ranked Bearcats.

Of the rest of the nation's top 10 teams, only Southern California, ranked No. 3, and Utah, rated No. 7, went down to defeat. Fifth-ranked Wake Forest downed Davidson, 96-82, sixth-ranked Kansas State topped New Mexico, 94-52, and ninth-ranked West Virginia defeated William and Mary, 89-53.

Southern California, which won its opener over Missouri, lost to Oklahoma, 86-56, and 10th-ranked Arizona State knocked off Utah, 78-76.

Green Bay Packers Cop Western Division Title

United Press International
Call it a "steal," a "heist" or "The Great Gridiron Robbery," but the Green Bay Packers are Western Division champs of the National Football League, and the New York Giants now must battle it out with Philadelphia and Cleveland for a shot at the playoff swag.

Oilers Spank SD Chargers

United Press International
Cagey old George Blanda and the Houston Oilers exploded the myth of invincibility surrounding the San Diego Chargers and it's pretty certain they'll get another chance to prove which is the American Football League's "super" team in the championship playoffs Dec. 24.

Blanda turned in one of the finest performances of his 12-season pro career Sunday when he threw four touchdown passes and kicked field goals of 55 and 23 yards in leading the Oilers to a 33-13 victory that snapped San Diego's 11-game winning streak.

This was the Chargers' first defeat since they lost to the same Blanda and the Oilers, 24-16, in the 1960 AFL title playoff. For Houston, this was the seventh straight win under-coach Wally Lemm.

Blanda's 55-yard field goal was an AFL record and only one yard short of the National Football League mark set by Bert Rechichar of the Baltimore Colts in 1953.

Two other records were set in this game. The crowd of 37,845 which packed Jepperson Stadium in Houston was the largest ever to pay its way into an AFL game.

Three of Blanda's TD tosses were caught by blanker Charlie Hennigan, who ran his season's pass-reception yardage total to a pro record 1,540. This was 45 yards more than the NFL mark set by Elroy Hirsch of the Los Angeles Rams in 1951.

Boston remained close to the top by edging the Denver Broncos, 28-24; the New York Titans also kept their mathematical hopes alive by beating the Dallas Texans, 26-7 and the Buffalo Bills defeated the Oakland Raiders, 26-21.

title for the second straight year Sunday by beating the Giants, 20-17, in a savagely fought game which conceivably might be reenacted in the NFLs championship playoff a few weeks from now.

The Giants' defeat gave the Philadelphia Eagles the opportunity to move into a first-place tie in the Eastern Division. The Eagles beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 35-24. The Cleveland Browns, 38-17 conquerors of the Dallas Cowboys, now are only one game behind the leaders.

The howling crowd of 47,012 at Milwaukee cheered a host of heroes. There was fullback Jim Taylor, who gained 186 rushing yards. There was quarterback Bart Starr, who directed the Packers' attack well. And there were the Green Bay linemen, who proved every bit the equal of their ballyhooed Giant opponents.

But the packer who probably made the most important haul of the day was Jesse Whitenton, a light-fingered, 195-pound defensive back. This was the picture:

The Giants led, 17-13 early in the final period and were running the ball out from deep in their own territory. Fullback Alex Webster cut back over tackle at the 7 and broke into the clear. Whitenton nailed him at the New York 30 but not satisfied merely by bringing him down he stole the ball from Webster's grasp.

Four plays later including a penalty for roughing the passer Taylor barged over from the 3 to put Green Bay ahead.

New York had two opportunities to score after that, but Pat Summerall missed a 34-yard field goal try and later Bobby Gaiters fumbled on the Green Bay 22 and Willie Davis recovered.

A pair of 23 and 25-yard field goals by Paul Hornung and Taylor's 14-yard touchdown run gave Green Bay a 13-7 lead in the first period, only to have New York go ahead before halftime on Gaiters' 2-yard plunge and Summerall's 41-yard field goal.

The Packers now take off for a leisurely two-game swing of the West Coast while the Giants play the Eagles and Browns on the next two Sundays.

In other Sunday games, the Minnesota Vikings upset the Los Angeles Rams, 42-21; the Detroit Lions edged the Chicago Bears, 16-15; the Baltimore Colts defeated the San Francisco Forty Niners, 20-17, and the St. Louis Cardinals rallied to beat the Washington Redskins, 38-24.

The annual "Fighting Heart" award will be presented by the coaches and the football sweetheart will be unveiled along with the other candidates.

Tom McNeely Forecasts KO

TORONTO, Ont. (UPI)—Tom McNeely, a brash Bostonian, today predicted he will knock out world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson "within six rounds" tonight in their scheduled 15-round title fight at Maple Leaf Gardens.

However, the apparent confidence displayed by the unbeaten, 24-year-old challenger is not shared by sports writers or betting men.

Not one of the 35 writers assigned to Canada's first world heavyweight championship fight was brave enough to pick McNeely, who is a 10-1 underdog in the betting.

Patterson, 36, of Rockville Centre, N.Y., the ring's only two-time heavyweight ruler, is so heavily favored to make a successful seventh defense of the title that the promoters will be satisfied with a crowd of 11,000 and a gate of $150,000, a new Canadian record.

Conservative Floyd, who admittedly regards this match as a tune-up to prevent his becoming ring-rusty, made no forecast other than: "The fight will not go the distance, and I am in there to win."

All of Patterson's eight title bouts have ended in knockouts, including the one in which he lost the crown to Swedish Ingemar Johansson—temporarily.

Part of McNeely's expressed confidence stems from the fact that Patterson has been floored 11 times in his eight title bouts.

Says Tom, "When I put him down, he'll stay down."

McNeely, a former college football tackle, was floored three times while winning all 23 of his professional fights, against lack-lustre opponents.

No matter who triumphs tonight, the match is historically important because it is the feature attraction of the fight game's first electronics doubleheader. The other match tonight, at Philadelphia, is a 10-rounder between top contender Sonny Liston and Albert Westphal, former heavyweight champion of Germany.

Both fights will be sent on closed-circuit television to a possible 500,000 spectators at about 150 theatres and other locations, in the United States and Canada, and to a possible record 150,000 pay-TV homes. There will be no free home TV anywhere and no radio in the United States, How-

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities in harmony with the above moral principles.

Democratic Leadership

Competition for leadership in the House of Representatives has centered on the post of Majority Leader, now that it seems certain that Rep. John W. McCormack (D-Mass.) will become Speaker.

The careers of two important House members - Democratic Whip Carl Albert (Okla.), 53, and 45-year-old Rules Committee member Richard Bolling (Mo.) - depend on the outcome.

The strong House tradition of recognizing seniority gives Albert the edge. He has been Whip for seven years. But he has only two years of House service over Bolling, who has been a member since 1949 and on the powerful Rules Committee for seven years.

The severe breach between Northern and Southern Democrats in Congress also hangs over the Albert - Bolling fight. Albert is oriented more toward the South; Bolling toward the more liberal North. For this reason, while Bolling's views may be more in concert with those of the Kennedy Administration, some observers feel the Administration favors Albert because he would have more influence on the recalcitrant conservatives within the party. This is important because the Administration needs Southern (or Republican) votes to get its program through the House.

Unless the "Conservative Coalition" of Republicans and Southern Democrats can be outvoted, Kennedy measures such as medical care for the aged or a more liberal trade policy will be in great danger. The makeup of House majority leadership in the wake of the loss of Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas can, in subtle ways, be decisive in the outcome.

With McCormack as Speaker, some members expect a more rigid party discipline than that exercised by the loose-knit organization run by Rayburn. Some of the more conservative Democrats might resent this approach. On the other hand, the younger and more liberal Northerners and Westerners, found in the organization calling itself the Democratic Study Group, feel that greater party discipline is needed and that an energetic partisan like Bolling as Majority Leader would be a great help to the administration's program.

Albert, universally liked as a "nice guy" in the House, has been criticized for a lack of aggressiveness as Whip. One example cited was his apparent failure to muster enough Democratic votes for an important teller vote on the compromise minimum wage bill earlier this year.

For both men, becoming Majority Leader is almost essential in order to succeed the 70-year-old McCormack as Speaker. All Speakers in the past 50 years first served as House Majority or Minority Leader.

Albert and Bolling have voted alike most of the time but have differed on some important votes in the past. For example, Albert has voted with the Southerners on civil rights; Bolling has favored stronger civil rights laws.

Albert voted for the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill in 1959; Bolling, against.

Albert voted against aid to school construction in 1956; Bolling favored such aid.

Albert voted in 1955 in favor of exempting producers of natural gas from public utility regulations; Bolling opposed the exemption.

In 1952, Albert favored a motion to kill the universal military training bill; Bolling opposed killing the bill.

Individual Techniques

Many people today will tell you that the Communist Party in the U. S. A. and elsewhere has performed an almost incredible job of enlisting people in its cause. This may be true. Certainly, ideas respecting anti-communism to private property and private business operation, which are the main objectives of communism, have now been widely adopted by millions in this country.

And the theory seems to be that the communists managed to accomplish whatever it is they have accomplished by methods relating to mass propaganda, mass organization and mass political effort.

Now it may be that the Communist Party has always been interested in stirring-up mass response to its program; but it is not true that the C.P. has been superior in setting up an organization consisting of millions of followers. This is NOT true.

In point of fact, the C.P. has had success largely because this has NOT been the policy followed. Upon careful examination it will be seen that the real strength of the communist movement relates, not to masses of followers but to a small, well trained core of individuals who have been thoroughly trained to accept communist objectives.

The C.P. has never bothered to enlist mass support. Since its program relies upon force anyway, and since it anticipates control of the masses by government, it has been content to push its radical ideas respecting property ownership, thru carefully trained leaders. This means that the C.P. has its strength in its willingness to employ individualistic techniques. Such techniques are always superior to mass techniques.

Of course, the C.P. always betrays these techniques later on. But its success as an organization relates to its use of them in the formation of what is generally known as a "core."

These, for example, are some techniques taken from the Communist Handbook entitled, "Recruit," showing clearly the nature of the effective individualism the communists practice where they have been successful.

"List Prospective Recruits. Take a sheet of paper and write down the names of every one you know. Start with the people you know best - your relatives, close friends, shopmates, fellow unionists, neighbors. Then search your mind for the names of other people you know and put them down - perhaps a member of an organization, or anyone whom you meet occasionally and can make it your business to meet more often."

"List Facts About Each. Go over these names carefully. Jot down everything you remember about each one. What is his economic condition? What issues interest him? What does he read? To what organizations does he belong? Are you familiar with any personal or family problems he may have? Could you invite him to your home, to a party, to the movies?"

"Focus on Special Approach. Every prospective recruit has certain special problems. He requires an individual campaign. Therefore, once your general survey has been made, plan a special approach for each person. Select those phases of the program which would most likely appeal to that particular individual. Convince him in terms of his own experience, his own special interests."

"And Finally. This advice won't recruit anybody. These are just the tools. Pick them up and go to work. Remember every recruit is an individual campaign! You must hand - tailor your approach to the particular person you are trying to recruit. Keep after it. Don't get discouraged. Don't forget, it took you quite a long time, too."

In short, as you will observe, the C.P. has recognized at its most effective area, the importance of INDIVIDUALISM even tho the C.P. objectives, in the final analysis, militate against in-

Edson In Capitol

By Peter Edson
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) - United Nations General Assembly goes into the final month of its scheduled regular session like a U.S. Congress anxious to wind up its business and go home.

The pessimistic view, prevailing in Washington is that the assembly can never finish its work on time. That means a special session after New Year's Day. Few of the smaller nations want that because of the expense.

Their optimistic view is that the Assembly can complete its work before Christmas.

Assembly President Mongi Slim has suggested night session, like those held by the U.S. Congress. But this innovation for the UN is meeting resistance.

In the first two months of the session, the Assembly had done little more than receive the reports called for in the first 14 items of the agenda.

On item 15, election of nonpermanent members of the Security Council, Ireland, Ghana and Venezuela were chosen. But choice of the fourth is deadlocked between Romania and the Philippines, neither being able to muster a two-thirds majority. There is a similar stalemate over selection of two members of the Economic and Social Council.

Assembly committees are going through the motions of considering the measures referred to them. Principal bottleneck has been in the important first, or political committee.

There have been few decisions of real importance so far.

This is causing some concern in Washington that in a final rush to adjourn on time, the Assembly may "handle" important matters by referring them to subcommittees for further consideration, postponing action till next fall.

This business of sweeping problems under the rug is responsible for the accumulation of many old items of the agenda. And it is giving the organization a bad name.

Items on which the United States thinks there should be definite action this year are those outlined in President Kennedy's speech before the General Assembly last September. They include:

Prompt resumption of disarmament negotiations which should continue without interruption until achieved.

Provision for world - wide law enforcement by the designation of "peace - keeping units" by every country, to be on call by the United Nations.

Extension of the rule of law to outer space, reserving it for peaceful purposes by prohibiting weapons of mass destruction on celestial bodies and earth satellites.

Other questions such as U.N. charter revision, colonialism and human rights demand attention but cannot be handled in a hurry. Neither can Chinese representation.

Still other one - country items on the agenda, such as Hungary, Korea, Tibet and Algeria have been brushed aside by the U.N. from year to year and demand decision. To this list must now be added the dispute between Indonesia and the Netherlands over West New Guinea.

It was the seven - week battle over selection of a new secretary-general which has slowed up the U.N. worse than usual this year. But the new man, Burma's U Thant, has started well.

He has moved in on the new Congo crises with determination. He has refused to yield to pressures that he immediately reorganize his 1,200 - man staff the way the Russians want it run. He has spoken out for fiscal integrity in the U.N., with every country paying its fair share of the costs.

One reason being given for having the General Assembly adjourn on time and go home is that it would give U Thant an opportunity to get hold of his organization and restore its morale shattered after the death of Dag Hammarskjold in a Congo plane crash just before the session convened.

dividualism and will destroy it.

Yet, most people, in seeking to oppose communism, are unwilling to recognize a superior technique when they see it. Most anti-communists feel that communism can be opposed by mass numbers and that the individualistic approach is a waste of time.

Actually, the individualist approach is the only solid approach. It can and will get results. And it is particularly effective in opposing communism - far more so than in furthering it.

Why not give it a try?

Allen - Scott Report

NATO Exports Play Increasing Role In Iron Curtain's Defense Build - up

WASHINGTON - Britain, West Germany, Italy and other NATO countries, are playing an important role in building up the missile, aviation and other defense industries of Russia and its satellites.

The NATO allies are selling the Soviet bloc hundreds of millions of dollars of latest - model strategic and technological machines and equipment.

Britain is by far the largest exporter of these crucial supplies. Foremost among its exports are a $120 million steel plant and 500 railway tank cars to East Germany.

These are a few highlights of a long list of startling disclosures by a special House investigating committee, headed by Representative Paul Kitchin, D. N. C. This probe was initiated by the last session of Congress following numerous reports that NATO countries are materially aiding the development of Iron Curtain defense and heavy industries.

That has been fully confirmed by Representative Kitchin's detailed inquiry.

His forthcoming report will state, "Since January 1960 and through June 1961, massive procurements of plants and equipment embodying New Western technology have been made by the Soviet bloc."

Graphically illustrative of this massive procurement are the following strategic supplies the house investigators discovered: The Reds obtained from Britain: "Electrical equipment," for jet aircraft; 100 all - purpose digital computers used in automation and telemetering of missiles; a complete hydro - power station; two mass spectrometers for use in nuclear and electronic research; 45 50,000 - ft. altimeters for use in transport aircraft; automation control equipment for sugar factories; precision missile instruments; 10 transformers; printing press equipment for Pravda, of special pneumatic tire manufacturing equipment; $3.8 million textile plant to make military uniforms; plastic wire coding machinery."

TIME TO CRACK DOWN - The Kitchin committee's jolting report will vigorously urge President Kennedy to demand that our NATO allies halt this huge flow of strategic equipment and machinery to the Soviet bloc.

The investigators will advise this vital issue be raised at the NATO foreign ministers conference that meets in Paris, December 15.

It is the probers' contention that the Western Strategic Materials Control Coordinating Committee (COCOM), which is supposed to regulate such exports, is powerless and ineffectual.

The report caustically characterizes COCOM as a "paper tiger."

The futility of this so - called control coordinating body, with headquarters in Paris, is strikingly shown by numerous other Western exports of strategic goods to Iron Curtain countries. Following are significant examples: "West Germany - diesel engines; spare parts for tire factory; special steel productions; welded steel piping.

"Italy - control instruments for chemical plants.

"Greece - three 40,000 - ton tankers costing $17. 8 million.

"Netherlands - 6,000 - horsepower air conditioning systems for Russian missile plant.

"Britain - $4 million - nylon tire plant and special boring machine to Czechoslovakia; complete equipment for a cellulose plant, a complete stereographic recording studio, a plant for producing hydrogen cyanide and acrylonitrile monomer materials - for synthetic fibers to Poland; a lead processing plant, rubber processing machinery and 380 railway freight cars to Hungary; and a $12 million cellulose plant to Rumania."

The Kitchen committee's disclosures of the immense expansion of the export of strategic NATO countries to the Soviet bloc are the latest chapter in an old story.

For years the U.S. has been fighting a losing battle in trying to curb such sales.

At a NATO foreign ministers conference in 1957, the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles sought futilely to prevent drastic cuts in the NATO embargo list. But he was overruled, with Britain and France insisting on greater leeway to trade with the Iron Curtain.

Since then there have been numerous other eliminations from the banned list until now it is virtually non - existent - as far as our allies are concerned.

The U.S. is continuing to prohibit the sale of strategic equipment and materials to Russia and its satellites. The Commerce Department has black - listed more than 50 U.S. firms for violating this ban.

The Kitchin committee has asked the Department for their names and may publish them in its forthcoming report.

MORE EXPORTS - Cuban dictator Castro's son is now in Rumania. He is one of a group of so - called Cuban junior pioneers touring the Iron Curtain. Charles Albert Caddin, the French-Algerian who hi - jacked a U.S. plane last summer and forced the pilot to land in Havana, has been incarcerated in an insane asylum. . . . Japanese imports of foreign goods in the first nine months of this year totaled $4,763,000,000 - a 28 per cent increase over last year. During the same period, Japan exported $3,401,000,000 an increase of only 5 per cent. Its largest import increases were 58 per cent in scrap-iron and 46 per cent in timber. . . . Bra-

Good Management of Life Earnings Pays Dividends
By FAYE HENLE

If a close relative died and left you $202,800 after taxes, what would you do?

Ten to one I wager you would seek professional advice on how to put the major portion of that inheritance to work for you. And you probably wouldn't simply accept the advice offered by the first - commercial. You would shop, compare, study investment media.

The sum of $202,800 is what you can expect to earn during your working years if you average $70 a week take - home pay the first 20 years you work and $100 a week the last 25 years until retirement. But do you rack your brains to plan the spending of your earnings?

Spending for food typically takes from 15 to 49 per cent of your spendable income, shelter from 15 to 30. For clothing you are expected to be spending 8 to 15 per cent of your take home pay, 5 to 15 per cent for operating your home; 8 to 15 per cent for transportation; 4 to 9 per cent for furnishings and equipment; 3 to 8 per cent for fuel; 2 to 10 per cent each for medical and dental care, education and recreation, gifts and contributions.

You are advised to take a hard look at what you are spending to run your car; a new $2,500 car driven 10,000 miles a year is expected to cost about $1,208 per year to operate.

On $200 of monthly take - home pay a family of two should save $15, a family of four $7. If you earn twice as much, you should be able to save three times as much!

In the updated edition of this booklet, prepared in collaboration with Dr. Jerome B. Cohen, professor of economics at City College of New York, there is considerable elaboration on the use of credit, the wisdom of investing and that all - time favorite of bankers, estate planning. This is

Knees And Hips Of Nation Now Engulfed In The Twist

By HENRY McEMORE

It isn't often that I endorse a dance, despite the almost undurable pressure brought to bear by promoters of new steps.

It was not until the knees of the nation had been knocking together for two or three years that I finally got around to putting a stamp of approval on the Charleston.

The Bunny Hug never did get my nod. Nor did the Lindy. And it was only out of friendship for England that I eventually gave lukewarm approval to the Lambeth Walk. As for The Big Apple, I went into semi-hibernation when it was shaking the floors of the country.

All of which leads me to the latest dance craze, The Twist.

I don't recall a dance ever to strike the United States with such suddenness and violence. No, not even the Black Bottom or the Susie Q.

One minute no one was Twisting, the next all 50 states were Twisting, or attempting to Twist, for planning to Twist. The Twist rolled in like a tidal wave, engulfing the knees and hips of the nation.

There is no ignoring The Twist. No matter which way one turns one's eyes, The Twist is there.

proof, indeed that more of us are borrowing, buying stocks and achieving enough wealth to require expert guidance on how we and our heirs should deal with it.

I like the banker's definition of savings; it shows that a whole new money handling philosophy has arrived. Here it is:

"Anything out of income that is not consumed is saved. Therefore, purchases of stocks and bonds including investments and mutual funds, life insurance premiums, payments on a home, social security deductions, pension fund contributions, even installment credit payments are included."

It is being danced wherever there is a floor, and sometimes where there is not, for a story from Texas tells of a couple who have Twisted on a playground swing.

It is my honest opinion that The Twist is here to stay, if not forever, then for a long, long time.

Why?

That's a good question, since The Twist isn't much to look at. No one would sit on the sidelines and thrill to The Twist, as they did, say, the Jitterbug.

It isn't much fun to do, and this is no second - hand judgment, as I have done The Twist several times in several of the better Twist joints. And with partners who are rated as superlative Twisters, if that is the word.

One simply faces one's partner and, using the same technique one does when trying to pass on a crowded sidewalk, gets to Twisting. The hips slide after the manner of a halfback reversing his field, and the knees move in and out as if they were accordion bellows.

That's all there is to it.

I found it a relief after the strenuous South American dances, many of which left a man panting, exhausted and aching in the joints. The Twist is gentle, easy on the bones, joints, and ligaments, and only the most clumsy ever step on a partner's instep.

It is this simplicity, I believe, which will give The Twist permanence. Older citizens will be able to do it without going into training, or risking a collapse.

Also, The Twist; by the very nature of its movements, can be danced almost anywhere. A large space isn't required. It can be performed in a linen closet, if need be, or in the laundry room between the tubs and the dryer.

The music of The Twist is simple, too. One can dance it to a lone flute, or one bass drum, as well as when a full-sized orchestra is present.

Army Private Admits Killing Five Persons

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI)—An AWOL Army private who Sunday night confessed killing a polio-crippled Indiana engineer and a local cab driver has admitted three more slayings, police said today.

Detective Joe Hannah said Robert Allen Jones, an 18-year-old soldier stationed at Munich, Germany, has been charged with murder in the slaying of cab driver John Womack, 28.

Officers said Jones, who told police "I ain't got nothing to lose," earlier admitted using a 25-caliber German pistol to kill Womack and Gerald Shibe, 54 of Seymour, Ind.

Hannah said Jones, a duck-tailed teen-ager, had confessed to "three and possibly four more killings" in the Chicago area.

The detective said Jones told him he tried to strangle one man in Chicago but he "never did learn" whether the man died.

Hannah quoted Jones as saying, "I only got $15 from the cabbie—it wasn't even worth my time and trouble."

During the questioning session, Hannah said Jones spat a defective's badge with a diamond in it.

"Boy, it's a good thing I didn't meet you out on the street some place," Jones was quoted as saying to Lt. Pete Davis. "I'd have killed you for that badge."

The officers said Jones told them, "I ain't got nothing to lose and there's no doubt I'm going to burn, so I might as well tell you everything."

Police quoted Jones as saying he hit a ride with Shibe near Columbus, Ind., Nov. 14, and after three miles forced Shibe to leave the car at gunpoint.

After marching Shibe into a field, Jones said he shot the man and stole his car, according to police. Shibe's body was found near Seymour Thursday with bullet wounds in the head.

Womack's body was found in his taxi here Wednesday morning. Officers said the motive in Womack's killing last Tuesday night was robbery.

Jones and his brother, Edward, 24, were arrested Friday at their grandfather's home in Gadsden, Ala., for a $400 liquor store armed robbery in Chattanooga.

Police said they contacted Indiana authorities when some of Shibe's credit cards were found on the younger brother. They said Jones admitted the two slayings, but cleared his brother.

Kimmy Holver

Dear Santa:
I am nine years old. I want a doll that someone can fix her hair. I want a mixing food set. I want a nurse kit. I want you to have a nice Christmas. I will leave some cookies and coffee.
Yours Truly,
Geneva Ruth Shugart
P.S. Merry Christmas, I love you

Letters to Santa

General Defends Rightist Groups
NEW YORK (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, who resigned his commission to carry out an anti-Communist "truth crusade," Sunday night defended right-wing groups as "inspired patriots."

In a televised interview (ABC "Issues and Answers"), Walker denounced the muzzling of military officers and assailed President Kennedy and former President Eisenhower for their recent attacks on "super-patriots."

Engineers' Meet Set For Tuesday

Members of the Panhandle Section of the Society of Petroleum Engineers of A.I.M.E. will meet Tuesday night in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Bldg. at Amarillo.

A reservoir and geological session is set for 7 p.m. and a drilling and completion meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

The Red Cave Development Study group will conduct the business session.
