

Ailing Chimp Patient At A. & M. Hospital

COLLEGE STATION (SpI) — "Spud," an 8-year-old, 120-pound chimpanzee, was admitted to the A. and M. College veterinary hospital this week. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges, Phoenix, Ariz., had driven all day Sunday and the following night to get the pet to College Station.

Mrs. Hodges said that Spud has been sick off and on for nearly two years, suffering from paralysis of his legs. She said that veterinarians in the Phoenix area did their best to treat the ailing chimp but finally had to recommend the hospital on the campus of Texas A. and M. College because of its facilities. She said that they had contacted the small animal clinic here about six months ago but didn't bring Spud at the time because he began showing signs of improvement.

The chimp had a serious re-lapse this weekend; however, and the Hodges felt they should bring him on down. The staff at the A. and M. small animal clinic had been alerted and they were ready when Spud arrived.

The chimp, clad in a pink sweatshirt and pink shorts, was carried in by Hodges and placed on special heating pads provided for him. Dr. C. K. Jones of the A. and M. College staff, who is treating the animal, explained that chimpanzees are used to tropical climates and must be kept warm at all times.

Radiographs show an old injury to Spud's right shoulder but Dr. Jones said that they will not know exactly what is wrong with the chimp until x-rays are taken and a complete diagnosis made. He said that chimpanzees are subject to about the same diseases as human beings.

Spud is originally from Connecticut, where the Hodges bought him from an animal importer, at the age of six months. The family has lived in Phoenix for five years.

The chimp is, according to Mrs. Hodges, "like a member of the family." He sits in a chair and eats at the table with the Hodges. He eats the same food with added amounts of fruit.

Spud is especially fond of coffee. When the Hodges stopped for refreshments at a Bryan drive-in, he refused the hot chocolate that Mrs. Hodges thought would be more nourishing and demanded coffee.

Man Shoots Wife And Then Himself

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI) — Harvey Noble, 60, shot his estranged wife three times in the head and killed himself yesterday in the third floor lobby of a downtown Corpus Christi building today.

Detective Bill Crews said Noble became angry when his wife, Mrs. Josephine Bailey Noble, 44, refused to talk to him. He said three witnesses told him Noble pulled a .38-caliber pistol and shot his wife, then turned the gun on himself.

Both died minutes after being rushed to a hospital.

Friends of the couple said they had been separated and that divorce proceedings were underway. Police believed Noble was attempting a reconciliation.

Grim Prediction Sees 88 Yuletide Deaths In Texas

AUTSIN (SpI) — Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, estimated today that 173 persons will meet violent death during the long Christmas - New Year Holiday season — with traffic crashes taking the lives of 88, other accidents 45, and suicides and homicides 40.

He designated the period from 12:01 a.m. Saturday, December 23, through 11:59 p.m. Monday, January 1 as the official time for "Operation Deathwatch," a grim tabulation of fatalities designed to focus public attention upon the extra hazards of the holiday season.

The DPS director said another purpose of this program is to launch a stringent enforcement program to remove the relatively few dangerous and illegal drivers from the highways.

"We are urging responsible citizens throughout the state to join in this all-out holiday safety effort by avoiding traffic law violations which could be calculated to cause violent death or injury," he said.

"Texans are confronted this year with a special challenge to help keep the tragic death toll below the figure indicated by statistical experience. The months of November and December were singled out this year for a stepped-up enforcement program because of indications that the year 1961 will end with a somewhat greater death figure than for 1960, when 2,254 persons died in Texas traffic."

"During the period of 'Operation Deathwatch,' Garrison continued, 'uniformed officers of the License and Weight Service and the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, numbering some 150 men, will be added to the regular Highway Patrol force, thereby giving broader patrol coverage." "Our patrolmen will be working overtime hours, leaves will be cancelled and they will remain especially alert for those serious law violations which are responsible for most fatal accidents—such as excessive speed and driving while drinking," he said.

"In addition, they have instructions to increase the number of routine driver license checks, which may expose other hazardous violations. And the use of radar equipment will be increased with the recent acquisition of additional units of a new type which are mounted on patrol cars and require only one man for operation.

"In other words, we will be doing everything within our power to prove the statistics, which are so often right, are wrong for the Christmas - New Year holiday, 1961. And we trust that holiday motorists will help by heeding the traffic laws and rules of safety."

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Mrs. Walter R. Wilkins charged in Superior Court Wednesday that her estranged husband made "a greater fuss" over his car than over her and their three children. Group Plans Anti-Red Petitions, Texan Says

AMARILLO (UPI)—Frank McGehee of Dallas, founder of the National Indignation Convention, said Thursday night the organization is kicking off a nation-wide campaign to circulate petitions based on its three-point anti-Communist program in all U.S. congressional districts.

He said the petitions will be presented to the convention's national meeting scheduled to be held in February in Washington. The petitions, he said, will ask for support for the convention's program which was adopted at its founding meeting in Dallas.

Jail Term Meted in Assault Case

David Lucas, 40, Elm St., was sentenced to 30 days in jail yesterday afternoon when he pleaded guilty before County Judge William J. Craig to a charge of aggravated assault with serious bodily injury.

Lucas was arrested late Wednesday night by city police after he pulled a knife and slashed Belmor Junior Ryan, 25, 406 Oklahoma St., following an argument in front of the Busy Bee Cafe, 410 Maple St.

Ryan was taken to a hospital with a slashed wrist and severed tendon. Hospital officials said today Ryan was in good condition.

Two other men involved in the argument, Boyse W. Anderson, 33, and Elmo Rhone both of 504 Elm St., were released on $15 bond each today when they pleaded not guilty in Corporation Court to charges of disturbing the peace.

He called for Congress to take action before the date of the last meeting on June 15.

"If nothing has been done by the Congress by that date—if they have not listened to our constitutional rights to petition and hold peaceful assembly—we will consider that nothing will be done by the 87th Congress," McGehee said.

"We will then disperse to our home Congressional districts and work to elect the kind of congressmen who will vote for the vital protection of our nation."

a war crime and membership in illegal organizations. Twelve counts, in the first three categories, carried the death penalty and the court imposed it on all 12.

With Judges Yitzhak Raveh and Benjamin Halevi flanking him, Landau told Eichmann that he had perpetrated his crimes "through inner identification with orders issued to him."

"Then he solemnly proclaimed: 'This court sentences Adolf Eichmann to death for all categories of crimes of which he has been convicted except for membership in hostile organizations.'"

Wechtenbruch said the death penalty was no surprise to him of Eichmann.

"I expected the death sentence," he told newsmen frankly.

"From the first time I saw Eichmann he felt he would be hanged. He knew all the time the sentence would be death."

time to the work of the convention, spoke to a regional meeting of his organization in Amarillo.

A spokesman estimated there was a crowd of 1,450 persons from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Tom Anderson of Nashville, Tenn., editor and publisher of "Farm and Ranch" magazine, also spoke. He criticized "middle-of-the-road" or "middle-of-the-roads" in politics.

"Middle people are assisting a relatively small group of organized evil who are enslaving the world by subversion with the help of dog-gooders, fatheads and fools in high places," he said.

McGehee said the three-point program of the convention calls for the United States to stop training Yugoslav pilots in this country, to stop shipping planes and strategic materials to Yugoslavia, a Communist country, and for an investigation to determine who in the federal government is responsible for the pilot training and trade.

He said that after the February meeting, there would be national meetings in May and on June 15.

He called for Congress to take action before the date of the last meeting on June 15.

"If nothing has been done by the Congress by that date—if they have not listened to our constitutional rights to petition and hold peaceful assembly—we will consider that nothing will be done by the 87th Congress," McGehee said.

Gamblers Held By U.S. Agents

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Federal agents scoured the country today for gamblers who were not around when agents staged a series of lightning, synchronized raids in 22 cities across the nation.

Treasury agents and U.S. marshals swarmed into 150 gambling establishments Thursday.

At last count, they came away with 128 persons charged with evading federal gambling taxes, and seized seven cars and $37,000 in cash.

Internal Revenue Service agents said the hunt continued for any gamblers who have had warrants issued against them but were missing Thursday.

In Detroit, agents scaled a ladder at one place, slipped through barred windows on the second floor and found records burning in a padlocked pot-bellied stove.

Raids occurred in New York, Detroit, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Houston, Macon, Ga., Nashville, Tenn., Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

If convicted, the gamblers face up to a year in prison and a $10,000 fine for evading gambling taxes. There is no federal law against gambling as such.

It was the third nationwide pounce upon gambling establishments this year by federal agents.

Pastor Of First Baptist To Use Yuletide Subject

Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be in the pulpit for the 11 a.m. morning worship, and will use as his sermon subject, "Let's Take Jesus Out Of The Cattle Stall."

First Christian To Hear Sermon Concerning Sin

The morning sermon for Sunday in the First Christian Church has been announced as "How To Deal With Your Own Sins," based on Galatians 6:1. Rev. Glyn B. Adsit, minister, will preach this sermon.

Presbyterian Choir To Offer Holiday Cantata

Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. services, the First Presbyterian Church Choir will present a Christmas Cantata entitled "Pettit Noel". Soloists will be members of the choir.

Major Denominations Oppose Executions

By LOUIS CASSELS - By United Press International - Within the past four years, eleven major denominations have come out officially for abolition of capital punishment. They are the Episcopal Church, Methodist Church, United Presbyterian Church, Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Disciples of Christ, the Church of the Brethren, the American Baptist Convention, the Five Year Meeting of Friends, the Unitarian-Universalist Church, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the United Synagogue of America.

A fight against capital punishment also is being waged on an interdenominational basis by councils of churches in New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, California, Illinois, Nevada and Nebraska.

Opposition to the death penalty is by no means unanimous. The most influential advocate of capital punishment in the United States today is an elder of the United Presbyterian Church, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover. He cites the Old Testament passages which uphold the principle of exacting "an eye for an eye," a tooth for a tooth, a life for a life.

Other arguments which religious bodies have advanced for abolition of the death penalty are: 1. It has demonstrably failed as a deterrent to crime. This assertion is supported by statistical studies showing that capital crime rates are no higher, and often are lower, in the nine states which have abolished the death penalty, than in the 41 which retain it. 2. It is unfairly applied. Of the thousands of people who are found guilty of murder, rape or other capital crimes each year, only about 2 per cent are actually executed. Critics say those who go to the chair, gallows or gas chamber are usually the ones who are too poor or ignorant to retain defense counsel for prolonged appeals, or who have become the targets of inflamed public opinion. 3. There are numerous documented cases in which men condemned to death have later been proven innocent. 4. Society is amply protected by a sentence of life imprisonment, and such a sentence leaves the way open for possible rehabilitation of the offender. 5. It is much harder to obtain convictions in cases where the death penalty may be invoked. Hoover and many other law enforcement officials challenge these arguments. They believe the fear of being put to death does prevent some people from committing violent crimes, and that society is entitled to this protection even if it leads to some injustices.

Opponents of capital punishment have made little headway in the campaign for legal abolition. Their last victory was won in Delaware in 1958. Since that time, at least two dozen state legislatures have rejected church-supported proposals to outlaw executions.

Christmas Topic Chosen At Lamar Christian Church

The sermon topic, "Are You Ready For Christmas?" will be discussed by the Rev. T. Arnold Davis, pastor of the Lamar Christian Church in the 10:45 a.m. Sunday worship.

The church school will be at 9:40 a.m. under the direction of R. W. Sierman, general superintendent. A rehearsal for all those participating in the Christmas program will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. there will be choir practice under the direction of Richard Kennedy. Thursday at 2:30 p.m. the Mary Martha Group will meet in the church. At 7 p.m. Thursday the church will hold their annual Christmas party and program.

'What Three Men Did With Sins', Is Sermon Topic

The subject of what a man does with his sin is of vital importance to him. For this reason, Joe Allison, pastor of the Highland Baptist Church, has chosen for his 11 a.m. worship service, sermon subject, "What Three Men Did With Their Sins." The scripture as given in Matthew 26:69-75; 27:3-5 and 27:19-25 will be read.

For the 6 p.m. evening service the pastor has chosen the subject, "Why We Must Be Evangelistic." The scripture as found in Acts 2:1-8 will be read.

The choir will be robed and in the choir loft for both morning and evening services, under the direction of Mr. Roy Harper, Minister of Music.

In the Morning Worship Service, Mr. John Locke will sing as a solo "The Holy City." Music for the Evening Service will be in unison with the "Pampa Pilgrimage."

Central Baptist Cantata Planned

"Dawn of Redeeming Grace," a Christmas cantata by Robert Graham, will be sung in its premiere performance for the Pampa area by the Church Choir of Central Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

A new setting for the familiar Christmas story in the second chapter of Luke, "Dawn of Redeeming Grace" makes use of choir, group, and solo selections in presenting the story of the birth of Jesus.

Hugh Sanders will direct the choir. Mrs. Dan Johnson will be pianist and Miss Joyce Prock will be organist. Soloist will be Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Hugh Sanders, Miss Joyce Prock, Miss Helen Skidmore, William Gray, and Mr. Sanders. Miss Johnlyn Mitchell will accompany portions of the cantata on the flute.

Central Baptist Church will join other churches of the city in the Pampa Pilgrimage to church Sunday evening.

Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a.m. and the morning worship

'Four Magic Word' Topic At 1st Methodist Church

The theme for the Advent Service "Roads That Lead To Christmas" will be continued this Sunday with the pastor, Dr. Hubert Bratcher, preaching at the two morning services on "Four Magic Words." The 8:30 worship service is broadcast over Radio Station K. P. D. N.

Special music for the early service will be furnished by the Junior Choir, under the direction of Miss Cynthia Duncan, singing the anthem "O Little Town of Bethlehem" by Redner. The Sanctuary Singers, directed by Edw. Juenger, will sing the anthems "And The Glory of The Lord" by Handel and "The Carol of The Drums" by Davis at the 11:55 service.

Sunday night the membership of First Methodist Church will participate in the third Annual Pampa Pilgrimage, meeting at the High School and walking together to the church sanctuary.

If the weather is bad the members of the congregation are asked to go directly to the church where the service will begin at 6 p.m. promptly. It is anticipated that there will be standing room only for this annual event.

Wednesday December 20, is the date for the Methodist Men's service will be at 11 a.m. The pastor, T. O. Upshaw, will be preaching. Training Union will be at 6 p.m. with the special Christmas music service beginning at 7 p.m.

Special plans are being made for a Christmas Eve worship service at 11 p.m. on December 24. Arrangements are also being made for a Watch - Night Service to be held at the church from eight until twelve o'clock December 31, with the first part of the program being held in Fellowship Hall and the worship service in the sanctuary at 11:30 p.m.

St. Paul Church To Hear Cantata

The St. Paul Methodist Church will present its annual Christmas Cantata, at 6 p.m. Sunday in the church.

The cantata by Van Denman Thompson will be entitled, "The Song of the Angels." The story tells of the birth of Christ in song. A scripture story will be read by Mrs. Kit Autry and W. I. Gilbert. The choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Jack Riley. Organist is Mrs. Lois Fagan.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

WAYNE DENSON,
511 North West St.
President, Pampa Key Club

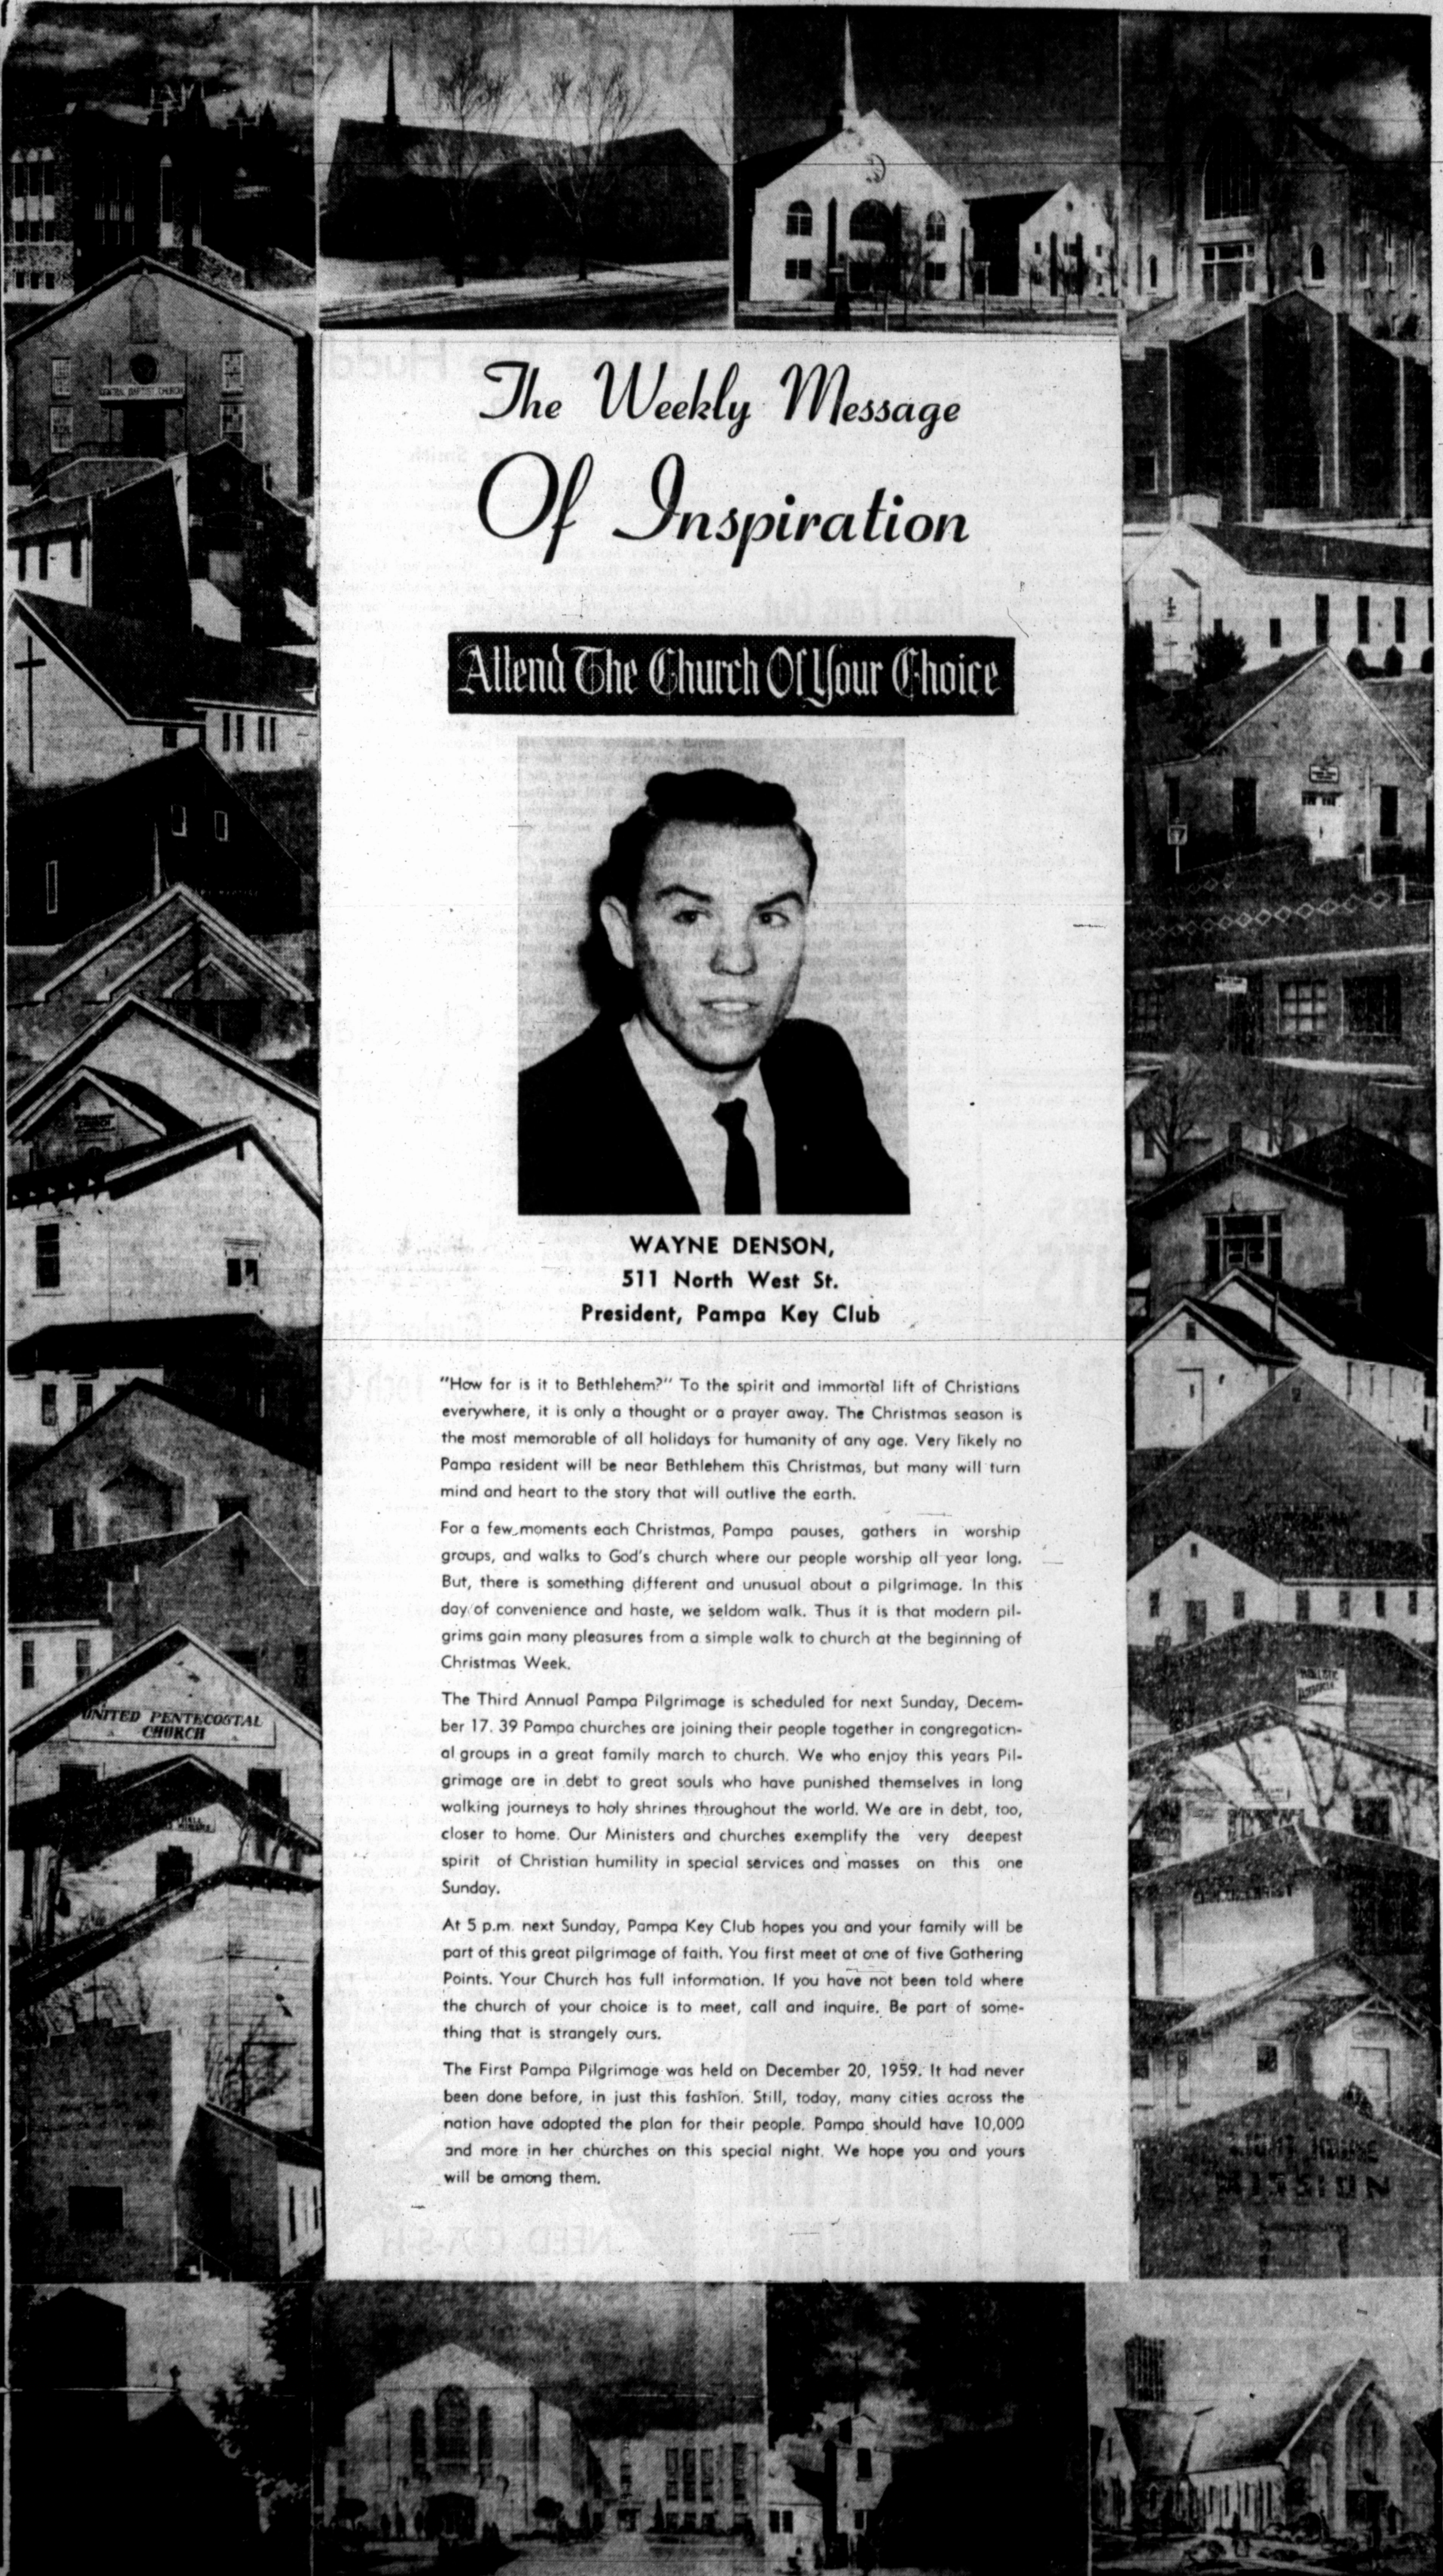

"How far is it to Bethlehem?" To the spirit and immortal lift of Christians everywhere, it is only a thought or a prayer away. The Christmas season is the most memorable of all holidays for humanity of any age. Very likely no Pampa resident will be near Bethlehem this Christmas, but many will turn mind and heart to the story that will outlive the earth.

For a few moments each Christmas, Pampa pauses, gathers in worship groups, and walks to God's church where our people worship all year long. But, there is something different and unusual about a pilgrimage. In this day of convenience and haste, we seldom walk. Thus it is that modern pilgrims gain many pleasures from a simple walk to church at the beginning of Christmas Week.

The Third Annual Pampa Pilgrimage is scheduled for next Sunday, December 17. 39 Pampa churches are joining their people together in congregational groups in a great family march to church. We who enjoy this years Pilgrimage are in debt to great souls who have punished themselves in long walking journeys to holy shrines throughout the world. We are in debt, too, closer to home. Our Ministers and churches exemplify the very deepest spirit of Christian humility in special services and masses on this one Sunday.

At 5 p.m. next Sunday, Pampa Key Club hopes you and your family will be part of this great pilgrimage of faith. You first meet at one of five Gathering Points. Your Church has full information. If you have not been told where the church of your choice is to meet, call and inquire. Be part of something that is strangely ours.

The First Pampa Pilgrimage was held on December 20, 1939. It had never been done before, in just this fashion. Still, today, many cities across the nation have adopted the plan for their people. Pampa should have 10,000 and more in her churches on this special night. We hope you and yours will be among them.

Albany Favored To Take Grid Crown

Rebels Take First Place In District

Robert E. Lee's 9th grade Rebels gained first place in the Pampa Athletic League with a rousing 57-32 triumph over the Perryton cagers Thursday afternoon.

Coach Joe Perryman's cagers got a helping hand from the Phillips Backhaws who knocked the Berger Austin Mustangs out of a share of the lead Thursday with a victory at Phillips.

Lee now owns a 3-0 conference record and a 5-1 season record. The Rebels have yet to play Berger Austin or Dumas in the first round of play.

In other games Thursday afternoon, the Lee 8th graders creamed Perryton 48-20; the Pampa Reapers were smashed by Berger Sam Houston, 35-17 and the Pampa 8th graders lost 38-30.

This afternoon the Pampa 7th grade Reapers play host to Berger Austin at the Pampa Junior High gym.

Lee slammed in 62 per cent of its shots from the field to win handily. The only thing that kept Perryton in the game was 18 free throws as the visitors could garner just seven fielders.

Perryman applied a full court press after Perryton had led 11-10 at the end of the opening quarter. The Rebels quickly surged to a 31-19 halftime margin and opened it up to 47-26, at the end of the third period.

Robert Howard led the Rebels with 13 points while Keith Griffith was close behind with 12. Charlie Snuggs and David McDaniels chipped in nine points apiece.

Jim Arthur popped in 12 points but it wasn't enough as the shorter Reapers were unable to cope with the tall Houston five. Houston outrebounded the Pampa team badly and was able to get off 46 shots compared to just 22 for the locals.

The Lee 8th graders ran their winning streak to five in a row with the easy triumph over Perryton. The Rebels hit 33 per cent of their shots.

Larry Doss with 12 points was high point getter for the Rebels while Gary Crossland and Teddy Bird chipped in with 10 and 7 points respectively.

James King kept Tulsa within range in the first half with accurate shooting and finished with 21 points. The victory was the fourth for Arkansas, against one loss.

Guard Stan McAfoos drilled a 20-foot outside shot with 13 seconds left to push the Gents past the Owls. Rice frantically called time out, worked the ball around for a last-second shot, but could not match McAfoos' heroics.

McAfoos was in the Owls' hair all night with crack outside shooting and finished with 18 points.

Rice guard Jim Fox played a good floor game and scored 16 points. Rice took a narrow three-point lead into the final minute of play, tried to stall, and Centenary finally whittled the margin down.

PAMPAN AT NTSU — Larry Cruise, a 1958 Pampa High graduate, is a starter on the North Texas State University basketball team. The 6-2, 180-pounder plays either guard or forward. He is a returning letterman and averaged 7.2 points per game last season. Cruise was a member of the Harvesters' 1958 state cage champions.

Arkansas Blasts Hurricane Five

Arkansas stamped itself as a dark horse contender for the Southwest Conference basketball crown Thursday night by thrashing a good Tulsa team, 87-59. Centenary College nipped Rice, 58-57, in the only other scheduled game with intersectional opponents.

Larry Hogue's withering fire just before the first half ended, provided the spark for the Razorbacks to sail past the Hurricane.

Hogue pumped in eight points just before the intermission to give Arkansas a 43-35 halftime lead. Hogue wound up with 14 points for the night.

Class A Tilt Kicks Off Football Finals

By United Press International
Rain and mud threatened today to play a heavy role in the four-state schoolboy football championship games, starting with the Class A finale tonight in Corsicana.

Forecasts called for more rain up to and including game time on top of that which has fallen throughout the state in the past week or 10 days.

This should work in the favorites' favor, in practically every case since the four underdogs—Hull-Daisetta tonight against Albany, Galena Park and Nederland Saturday afternoon against Wichita Falls and Dumas and Donna Saturday night against Quanah—make good use of the forward pass.

Albany's Lions, the only defending champion in the field, rated a solid two-touchdown edge over Hull-Daisetta for tonight's Class A showdown at Corsicana. The Lions, boasting a pair of two-time all-state players, haven't been extended this season in running up a 36.4-point per game, average in 14 consecutive victories.

Hull-Daisetta has also won 14 in a row, but Albany actually has a 28-game streak working back to the opening game of the 1960 season.

In the other finals, Wichita Falls rates a three-touchdown bulge over Galena Park, Dumas is favored by 10 points over Nederland and Quanah, by seven over Donna.

The Albany-Hull-Daisetta tilt is the only one matching perfect record teams. In fact, only Wichita Falls and Quanah among the other six survivors can boast of undefeated, untied records.

Wichita Falls, in the finals for the fourth year in a row, will be after its fifth state championship; Nederland and Albany their second state crowns.

The Class AAAA final in TCU's Carter Stadium will be televised state-wide except for a 75-100 mile blackout in the game area. It is due to draw some 30,000 fans.

Hardin-Simmons To Quit Giving Aid To Athletes

ABILENE, Tex. (UPI)—Hardin-Simmons University has decided to quit giving scholarships to athletes and turn over the financial support of the school's sports program to friends and patrons.

The executive committee of the school's board of trustees said all existing scholarships will continue but that new athletic scholarship will come from contributions.

The board also combined the offices of the athletic director and the head football coach. Both E. W. Ledbetter, athletic director, and coach Howard McHesney resigned Wednesday.

Hardin-Simmons has not won a football game in the last 22 outings.

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)—Tackle Joe Novsek and linebacker Joel Wolenta, both from the University of Tulsa, have signed contracts with the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

Cadillac

Craftsmanship a creed...accuracy a law!

The headline of this advertisement was written almost sixty years ago.

It is the motto of the men who build Cadillac cars—and it has served as proud legend and stern taskmaster for three generations of Cadillac craftsmen.

We selected it to help tell our story today, because we think it still summarizes perfectly the quality and the care—the pride and the precision—that go into the making of every Cadillac motor car.

There is no really adequate way to describe the crafting of a Cadillac. But perhaps this brief recitation of facts might be helpful.

1. The average Cadillac craftsman has more than ten years of experience on the job.

2. One out of every seven people involved in the building of the car is an inspector.

3. Cadillacs are built in only one place—and they are built by men who build nothing else.

4. The car is crafted to unbelievably fine tolerances. Some engine parts, for example, must be accurate to within one ten-thousandth of an inch.

5. Every model undergoes more than 1400 different checks in the course of its assembly.

The list is longer, of course. But however lengthy, it could never be more impressive than the result.

See and drive the 1962 Cadillac soon. We know you'll understand why it has been so widely acclaimed as the Standard of the World.

Fox Hunting Set In Britain Wins In Sports Scrap

By HARRY FERGUSON
LONDON (UPI)—The British fox hunting set, which was almost torn apart by internal dissension, has closed ranks—and today it claimed a smashing victory over its sworn enemy, The League Against Cruel Sports.

It was, as they say in the London clubs, a near thing. Without any warning, Col. James Hanbury, joint master of the Belvoir hunt, appeared in the divorce court. He alleged that Col. George Murray-Smith, joint master of the Fernie hunt, not only was pursuing foxes but at the same time was chasing Mrs. Hanbury. On foot, of course. He would like a divorce on the ground of adultery.

A pretty kettle of fish indeed: The League Against Cruel Sports was stepping up its campaign against the fox hunters, and here at the worst possible moment, civil war had broken out between the Belvoir hunt and the Fernie hunt. It appeared that the league was about to score a victory by the strategy of dividing and conquering.

The divorce was granted and then events took a lightning turn. Col. Murray-Smith married Mrs. Hanbury. She, of course, resigned from the Belvoir hunt and joined the Fernie hunt. Peace was restored and Murray-Smith issued this statement: "I'm glad it's all over. I was rather afraid the wedding would have to be postponed. My wife's arm, which she injured in point to point riding, is still troubling her."

Nubar Gulbenkian, who has enough money to look a Rockefeller squarely in the bank account, is a member of the Whadon chase. He met members of The League Against Cruel Sports in a fair fight and issued a communique claiming total victory.

He was talking to a delegation of the league headed by Mrs. Jean Pyke. They were standing around an automobile covered with posters denouncing fox hunters.

"Much to our surprise," said Mrs. Pyke, "he rode over to talk with us. The usual treatment we get from hunting men is threats and curses. Some even try to charge us down. But Mr. Gulbenkian was a perfect gentleman. He asked us for our views and we gave him a cup of coffee. He offered to buy our posters. I don't know why. But we didn't sell."

Gulbenkian lost no time in making it clear that he had gone to a Munich meadow to appease the league. He merely was using the wives of a diplomat. Why did he offer to buy the posters?

"I thought they would be ideal for a comic art exhibition," he said. "I think those people are completely misguided, but I believe in being courteous. They offered me some coffee and I offered them a drink from my flask containing port and brandy."

Did they accept it?

"No. You see, I told those chaps it was fox blood, ha, ha."

Asked what he would do if anybody even suggested he had entered into a treacherous relationship with the league, Gulbenkian roared: "I will sue for libel."

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI)—There is reason to suspect that NASA is playing politics with the news at the expense of maximum information for the taxpayers. NASA is the National Space and Aeronautics Administration.

Last week NASA revealed one of its most important decisions about landing an American on the moon. It decided to explore a rendezvous in orbit as a method of getting there. The other method would be by a direct ascent approach—to the moonal one-shot leap from earth.

NASA believes Rendezvous might speed the project by two years. To reshape the existing Mercury program toward producing a two-man spacecraft capable of docking with another vehicle in orbit will cost about $500 million. Taxpayers would want to know all about that.

This costly decision was revealed by NASA in a speech in Houston, Tex. The speech was by Robert R. Gilruth, chief of the manned spacecraft center recently located by NASA in Houston. He addressed the Houston Chamber of Commerce. Only late that evening did NASA make available in Washington the barest minimum of Gilruth's announcement. Even that bit could not be printed until 9:30 p.m. EST.

Newspapers in the central time zone and westward got the announcement in good time. Most eastern newspapers were skunked. So far as eastern time zone readers were concerned, this momentous and expensive decision was the exclusive property of the Houston Chamber of Commerce.

Houston newsmen are as good or better than Washington newsmen. There are newsmen in Washington, however, who have specialized in news of NASA, of manned flight and missiles. There are, perhaps, half a dozen such specialists. They are better qualified than other Washington newsmen and better qualified than Houston newsmen to report in some depth the story NASA broke in Houston.

Joseph L. Myler has written much about space for United Press International. Myler has some ideas on the subject of the Washington bureau of UPI for 20 years. Drawing on his experience with government bureaucracy, Myler had this to say:

"What happened, obviously, is that NASA decided to make a gesture toward Vice President Johnson by giving this story practically exclusively to the Houston Chamber of Commerce. By breaking the story as it did, NASA caught the bulk of morning papers in a difficult spot and the bulk of news offices empty of newsmen familiar with space developments. NASA had no moral right to hold up the announcement until some NASA official was making a speech somewhere. The story involved a hugely expensive program that NASA is trying des-

Reserve Callup Probably Wrong, Official Claims

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric said today military planners probably were "wrong" in thinking reservists should be mobilized to meet cold war crises.

Gilpatric, who is noted for his candor, told a news conference he had thought the Defense Department could mobilize and demobilize military reservists to deal with cold war emergencies.

"I may have been wrong in that," he said.

Earlier, Gen. James A. Van Fleet told President Kennedy that an inspection of six training camps convinced him that the morale of reservists and guardsmen called up in the Berlin crisis was "magnificent."

Gilpatric made his comment amid continuing controversy over the present reserve callup and unneeded reports that the Pentagon was planning to cut out several divisions in the organized reserve forces.

He said some authorities believed that it would be best to rely on the Army National Guard to provide divisions in times of mobilization and on the organized reserve to provide smaller "filler" forces.

The Army plans to release all its reservists by next June 30. Indications are that the Navy and Air Force will keep their reservists for a full year. In most cases this would expire next Oct. 1.

HARD TO FIND

SPRINGFIELD, Tenn. (UPI)—Clifton Dougherty, 25, pleaded guilty to bigamy Wednesday and explained, "Nice girls are hard to find. I was lucky enough to find two."

OUT OF UNIFORM

ST. PAUL, Min. (UPI)—"General" Frank Purness was in the guardhouse today because a sergeant found him out of uniform.

Highway Patrol Sgt. T. R. Granger became suspicious of Purness because he was wearing an Army general's summer uniform in sub-zero weather. A check showed Purness was driving a stolen car.

perately to sell to the taxpayers. I think this incident was downright shoddy."

Another interested newsmen remarked: "If Lyndon Johnson were from Missouri, the speech would have been made in St. Louis."

A fair question: If NASA is unable to come up with a sensible public relations policy can it be expected to deal sensibly with the problem of a moon landing?

Financial Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—That the American Stock Exchange should have been the scene of a hubbub that echoed through the financial area came as no surprise to persons familiar with its lively history.

Although a businesslike organization growing in the amount of trading done year by year, the American Exchange, descendant of the old Curb Exchange, never has been known for quietude.

Few of the headlines it has made in the past have been exactly in the character of the latest: The resignations, stemming from a tough investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission into ASE regulations and procedures, of its president Edward T. McCormick and general counsel Michael F. Mooney.

Whatever the outcome, of the SEC inquiry, it is doubtful that the ASE will soon lose the color which has set it, second largest of the nation's exchanges, apart from the older and larger New York Stock Exchange in the eyes of any witness to a day's proceedings.

The waving arms and wiggling fingers that ride in little clusters above the noisy swirling on the trading floor are almost a trademark of ASE trading. The floor men use hand signals, in a complex code, to relay instructions to clerks in tiers along two sides of the trading area; the clerks relay the instructions to the home office as needed.

With all the marvels of modern communications, such hand-signal activity might seem to be outmoded. Yet old as it is—and it goes back to the days when the ancestor Curb was an outdoor market—brokers and traders accustomed to it say it is one of the fastest means of transmitting messages to be found in any market.

Rain and Power
NEW YORK (UPI)—Rain can be a big factor in the international oil business. This summer, Japan had more rain than usual; result, high hydroelectric power production and a low demand for heavy fuel oil. Italy, on the other hand, had drought and not enough rain for power dams and had to import more oil than usual.

GETS NO BARGAIN CHRISMAN, III (UPI)—Danny Tolbert, 21, got no bargain when he used a dime to unscrew his door cell hinges and escape from city jail.

Tolbert found freedom too cold after a few hours and surrendered. Now he faces an additional four months for escaping.

Further Market Strength In Oil And Steel Looms

NEW YORK (UPI) — Technical indications are very strong for a continuation of Monday and Tuesday's rally through the balance of December and into early 1962 according to Joseph E. Granville.

The E. F. Hutton & Co. analyst says group action is "excellent" and further strength is expected to develop in the motors, steels oils and communications issues.

He adds that a turn in the weakening rails at this point would completely solidify the rally pattern, and such a turn "could be in the making."

The Fitch Survey says the market has shown good recovery tendencies, from the November month-end dip, refusing to stray far from recent peaks. This suggests that once year-end adjustments are out of the way, it may be ready to respond more decisively to the rising business curve.

Jerome Peck of Jerome Peck Associates, Inc. says that among growth issues, he believes that selected toy stocks are particularly attractive for purchase at this time.

Moody's investors service says that a careful weighing of the

Atomic Group Gets Plush Office Space

BY DIKE WEST WASHINGTON (UPI) — The happiest group around the U.S. Capitol these days is the staff of the Joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee, which feels like Santa Claus came early.

This is because the committee has just moved out of its quarters on the ground floor of the building and set up shop in the attic.

This attic comprises the top floor of the new east front of the Capitol, and it has been made into a suite of offices which, to choose a word convenient for headline purposes, might well be described as "posh."

The committee staff held an "open house" a few days ago to show off the premises and to gloat a bit over its good fortune in being assigned the attic space.

"We have always been treated like orphan children," the staffer who showed me around exclaimed in exaltation. "But look at us now!"

She said some of the other committees, which had sneered at the idea of occupying an attic, were burning with envy. I can't say that I blame them.

The atomic committee now has two complete hearing rooms, one for public meetings and the other for secret sessions. Both are tastefully decorated and expensively furnished.

The public room is done in shades of brown, including a U-shaped table with an inlaid leather top. The secret room has similar appointments done in shades of green.

The ceilings glow with indirect lighting. Some have "free form" fixtures. The floors are of marble, cork or rubber tile.

An elaborate security system, including buzzers and alarms, timing devices and one-way doors, has been installed to protect classified information obtained by the committee. Since the network of offices, which extends across the entire center section of the Capitol, has no windows, staff members are having some trouble keeping their bearings.

When I asked my guide in what direction we were facing, she said, "I'm not sure, but we've got a compass around here somewhere."

On the floor below, another committee has an office with two big windows. They overlook a stone wall.
