City, CoC In Accord On Proposal

Commission Hires Bond Firm For Road Projects

The Texas Municipal Bond Co. of Lubbock was employed today by the City Commission to act as financial advisor to the city in a proposed million-dollar bond issue for planned highway improvements on state and federal thoroughfares inside the city limits.

At a meeting last night, the city commission and Chamber of Commerce officials reached complete accord on the proposed $738,000 project which would include all street improvements on U.S. 80 and State Highways 273 south and 152 west within the city.

There was some uncertainty as to whether a $426,000 sewer and drainage project for the south part of the city should be included in one overall bond issue.

Chamber President Gordon Lyons also stated the people would like to know what the bond issue will mean in the way of a tax increase. The present city rate is $1.45 per $100 property valuation.

City Manager Harold Schmitter said today it would be impossible at this time to set a figure for the tax rate increase.

Last night's meeting was a harmonious one with all parties agreed that the city should hire a fiscal agent to handle the proposed bond issue, but that more study should be required on how much of the drainage program would be attempted at this time. The commission interviewed representatives of three companies last night and today hired the Lubbock company, which was represented by Howard Kenyon.

All three representatives last night made the statement that Pampa's financial structure was in good shape. One representative said that the maturity schedule on any bonds sold could be set up for only a minimum tax increase.

It also was stated that Pampa has an 'A' rating on bonds. Pampa's bonded indebtedness as of the close of the last fiscal year, September, 1961, was $3,747,000, of which $2,050,000 was in revenue bonds. The city paid a total of $128,635.81 interest in 1961 on its general obligation and revenue bonds.

City Secretary Edwin Vicars said all of Pampa's revenue bonds will be retired within the next 21 years.

The city's assessed valuation on last Jan. 1 was $45,000,000. The city's net debt as of today is 1.36 per cent of the assessed valuation and the investment bankers told the commission it is generally accepted that a city can stand a 10 per cent net debt against the total assessed valuation.

Court's Ruling Becomes Widespread Controversy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court's ruling against prayer in public schools today stirred one of the most far-reaching controversies since its desegregation decision of 1954.

The reaction of religious leaders ranged from approbation to shock and dismay.

The president of the American Jewish Committee, A. M. Sonnabend of Boston, welcomed the ruling as a blow in behalf of "the basic constitutional principle of separation of church and state."

The Roman Catholic archbishop of New York, Francis Cardinal Spellman, said he was "shocked and frightened" by a decision that "strikes at the very heart of the Godly tradition in which America's children have for so long been raised."

Pro And Con

Protestants lined up on both sides of the question. In Washington, Dr. C. Emanuel Carlson, executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs, said he was not disturbed by the elimination of "required prayers" from schools because he has never felt that rote recital of such prayers has any real religious value for children.

But the Rev. Dr. Harold R. Albert, president of the Pittsburgh area Council of Churches, said any court decision which has the effect of "subtracting religious expression" from American life is a step in "a disastrous direction."

The high court's 6-1 ruling was handed down Monday. It dealt specifically with a 22-word non-sectarian prayer, known as "The Regents' Prayer," which has been officially prescribed for use in New York state schools. The prayer says:

"Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessings upon us, our parents, our teachers and our country."

Forbidden By Constitution

Speaking for the majority, Justice Hugo L. Black said the official adoption of this prayer by a state government amounts to an "establishment of religion," which is forbidden by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

That was true, he said, even though the prayer was "denominationally neutral" and participation by students was on a strictly voluntary basis.

Black asserted that the founding fathers wrote the First Amendment to the Constitution for the express purpose of preventing the government from sponsoring any kind of "official religion." He declared:

"Government in this country, be it state or federal, is without power to prescribe by law any particular form of prayer which is to be used as an official prayer in carrying on any program of governmentally-sponsored religious activity."

Testimony Due Today In Billie Sol's Trial For Theft

Prospective Jurors Being Questioned

By JAMES T. YOUNG
United Press International

PECOS, Tex. (UPI) — The defense resumed questioning prospective jurors today in a surprise trial of Billie Sol Estes on charges of stealing $827,577 in fertilizer tank deals. The jury is expected to be completed and the taking of testimony to be started today.

The state finished questioning veniremen Monday. Estes' lawyers questioned veniremen until midnight and approved 20 already qualified by prosecuting attorneys.

At last report, 15 veniremen qualified by the state remained to be questioned by the defense. Dist. Judge J. H. Starley will pick a 12-man jury from a list of veniremen that both state and defense qualify.

Estes sat calmly in court in a dark suit, doodling on a sheet of paper.

Estes was brought to trial Monday at his own request on the eight-count indictment. The first indictment for Estes to be tried on charges him with fraudulently taking a conditional sales contract from farmer Thomas Bell in July 1961 for $162,144.

In all, six farmers claim Estes bilked them of $827,577 by issuing chattel mortgages, sales contracts and promissory notes and obtaining money on fertilizer tanks that did not exist.

Estes' lawyer, John Coter, in a surprise move, asked Judge J. H. Starley for an immediate trial even though the farm tycoon's trial was 12th on the docket. When Dist. Atty. R. B. McGowan did not object, Starley ordered the trial to begin.

The first day of the trial extended into a night session with questioning of possible jurors continuing until 10 p.m.

Estes is free in $22,500 bond on the state charges. Only last week he was indicted by a federal grand jury at El Paso on 29 counts of fraud and conspiracy. He is free in $100,000 bond on the federal charges.

Conviction on the state charges carries a maximum sentence of (See ESTES, Page 3)

Two More Victims Of Wreck Die

GROOM Texas, (SPL) — Two more Gainesville residents died Monday, bringing to four the victims of a car-truck collision near Conroy Sunday.

The victims were identified as James Donald Morgan, 8, who died in the crash; Wendy Gaye Beam, 13 months, a stepdaughter of the dead boy; Arlene Morgan, also a sister; and Mrs. Francis H. Matthews, 51, grandmother of the Morgan children.

The dead woman's husband, W. D. Matthews, was in critical condition. Dale Morgan, 3, a brother, was listed in good condition.

Authorities said the car collided with a truck driven by George P. Cundiff Jr., on U.S. Highway 66 early Sunday.

AMA Expected To Solidify Its 'Medicare' Fight

CHICAGO (UPI) — The American Medical Association today was expected to move a step closer toward preserving the solid phalanx of physicians opposing medical care for the aged under the Social Security system.

Committees of the 218-member house of delegates were to consider resolutions from 15 state medical groups urging condemnation of the Kennedy administration-backed King-Anderson bill, now before congressional committees.

An even stronger resolution from the Louisiana delegation also was to be considered by committees at the AMA's 111th annual meeting. It would ask AMA members to refuse to participate in any such program which might be adopted by Congress. The AMA represents about 189,000 of the nation's some 260,000 physicians.

There was no sign of a floor fight over reiteration of the organization's opposition to Medicare under Social Security, but there was some doubt as to whether the organization would adopt the Louisiana resolution.

The Louisiana resolution would have doctors pledge to treat the aged "regardless of financial return" without participation in "any programs" of the King-Anderson model.

Dr. Philip H. Jones, of New Orleans, said refusal by physicians to participate would not prevent patients from "collecting" benefits under programs similar to the King-Anderson bill.

Opposition to the King-Anderson bill was fanned in a keynote speech to the house of delegates Monday by Dr. Leonard Larson, outgoing AMA president. He called for stepped up political activity by physicians and their families to ensure "preservation of medicine."

Larson warned that defeat of the King-Anderson bill will not kill the idea behind it.

TO TALK 'MEDICARE' — Here are three members of a four-man panel which will discuss the current medical aid legislation proposed in Congress by the Kennedy administration, in a meeting to be held in the Pampa Youth and Community Center tonight. The meeting, under the sponsorship of the Young Republican Club, is open to the public and gets underway at 7:30 p.m. Griswold Rogers, standing here, will be moderator of the panel, which will include Bill Dixon, left, Joe Cree, right, and Dr. Joe Donaldson, not shown.

Compromise Medical Care Bill Is Now Pushed By Demo Leaders

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Administration efforts to get a medical care bill for the aged approved at this session of Congress shifted today to the Senate where Democratic leaders said a compromise version would be pushed.

Following the weekly meeting with President Kennedy, Senate

Leader Mike Mansfield said Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N. M., would offer amendments to pending bills this week to incorporate basic provisions of the Anderson-King medicare bill, plus additions.

Mansfield said the additions would include extension of coverage to those over 65 not now covered by Social Security.

The decision to concentrate the medicare fight initially in the Senate was made because the administration bill is bogged down in the House Ways and Means Committee.

House Speaker John W. McCormack said the new strategy did not mean the House was giving up on medicare, nor did it rule out simultaneous House consideration. He said the Mansfield strategy was consistent with strategy in the House.

McCormack said today's White House conference also dealt extensively with the foreign trade bill. He said the President reiterated his hope that the measure would be considered from a non-partisan viewpoint because of its importance to the national economy and relations with other countries.

The Senate is occupied with the immediate problem of completing action on other legislation before a Saturday deadline. It moved its sugar bill up to the firing line and prepared for a rear-guard skirmish over raising the national debt ceiling.

Increased Anti-Trust Activity Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sharply increased Justice Department activity against business, mergers was suggested today by a resounding government victory in the Supreme Court in a shoe industry case.

The ruling was part of a voluminous outpouring of opinions and various other actions which brought the high court's 1961-62 term to a close Monday.

The court acted on lunch counter sit-ins, sale and mailing of obscene material, congressional contempt, narcotics addiction and school segregation.

It also handed down one of the most far-reaching religious freedom decisions in recent times by outlawing use of an official state prayer in New York public schools.

The justices now disperse for the summer. Barring a special emergency term, they will not return to the bench until Oct. 1.

Government Won Ruling
Besides the shoe industry decision, the government also won an antitrust ruling that officials acting for corporations are subject to the stiff penalties of the Sherman antitrust law as well as the less severe Clayton antitrust law. The Supreme Court reinstated several Sherman Act charges against corporation officers which were dismissed by lower courts.

Chief Justice Earl Warren wrote 51 pages in the shoe case, analyzing for the first time 1950 amendments to the Clayton Act designed to plug loopholes in the 1914 statute and bring it up to date.

Warren declared it was the intent of Congress to curb "tendencies toward concentration in industry" in their beginnings, "particularly when those tendencies are being accelerated through giant steps striding across a hundred cities at a time."

The opinion said the court agreed with the government that (See INCREASE, Page 5)

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — This is the week in which U. S. citizens may take such satisfaction as they can discover in the fact that for the 26th year since 1936, the government of the United States has lived far beyond its income.

Fiscal year 1962 will end at midnight Friday, June 30. It appears that the Treasury will be deeper in the red about $10 billion. The Kennedy administration is asking Congress to hike the public debt limit to $308 billion. As of June 15, the public debt was $291.6 billion.

The spend-beyond-government-income program under which this enormous debt burden has been accumulated began in a depression year, 1931. It has continued since through depression and boom years alike without much interruption.

"It is Nothing"

In the middle 1930's when the public debt still was under $40 billion, President Franklin D. Roosevelt explained it away by saying: "It is nothing. We owe it to ourselves."

President Kennedy takes a somewhat different approach. He holds that the debt figure is misleading because it does not reflect differences between various kinds of government spending such as: Loans, investments in public works and other spending from which no return can be had. He would change the bookkeeping.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., of the Senate Finance Committee is the stoutest sound money man of Congress. His approach to the debt problem is much different from Kennedy's. In its simplest form, Byrd's approach is that it is impossible to repeal simple arithmetic; that two and two Safety Awards Given In State

AUSTIN (UPI) — Two state government departments and the city of Mission have been singled out for high awards from the National Safety Council, Gov. Price Daniel said.

Daniel said the Texas Highway Department's rating of 92 for traffic engineering and the Department of Public Safety's 97 for maintenance of accident records were the highest ever achieved in Texas.

Daniel also credited 11 other Texas cities as part of achievement awards from the council.

Mission will receive the award of merit, second highest award that can be won in the traffic safety inventory program from the council.

Mission also was awarded certificates of achievement for a perfect record of no traffic deaths in 1961, a progressive program of accident prevention and an outstanding school traffic safety education program.

Austin and Dallas each received achievement certificates from the council for high-level performance in traffic engineering and efficient traffic movement programs.

Waco and Borger were cited for traffic engineering achievement and Corpus Christi and Houston were credited for school traffic safety education programs.

Dalhart, Gonzales, Harlingen and University Park were recognized for no-death records in 1961 and progressive accident prevention programs.

Plainview received a certificate for maintenance of accident records.

The U. S. Treasury does not put a plus sign. The sign is minus.

We're Safe Again! The Senators' Baseball Team Is 'Not So Hot!'

By HARRY FERGUSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — National security demands that the Washington Senators finish last in the American League every year. Relax. We're over the hump for 1962.

The last time Washington won a pennant was 1933 and that, of course, was the year Franklin D. Roosevelt closed all the banks and Adolf Hitler rose to power. Triumph for the Senators always means trouble for the nation. Fortunately, the owners of the 1933 Senators were patriotic men, and realizing the enormity of what they had done, they made amends by selling the winning manager, Joe Cronin, to the Boston Red Sox for $250,000.

Members of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the federal government cannot function effectively with one eared to the radio to find out what is going to happen in the bottom of the ninth with two out and the bases loaded. If they are diverted by a winning ball team, Billie Sol Estes goes uninvestigated, President Kennedy has no reason to tell businessmen he loves them and no Senator rushes to save the trusting male citizens of Calumet, Ill., from the wiles of B-girls.

First And Last
This patriotic principle was laid down years ago: "Washington — first in war, first in peace and last in the American League." The founding fathers knew what they were doing. Does Khrushchev knock off work to follow the fortunes of a Moscow soccer team known as the dynamo? Is there a little league in Peiping? Is it not a historical fact that Molotov was banished because he was sneaking an occasional look at Mickey Mantle's batting average?

It is possible to reveal at this late date the details of one of the nation's darkest hours. The Griffith family, owner of the Washington Senators, suddenly found themselves with a fair ball team on their hands despite their patriotic efforts to have it otherwise. Congressmen suddenly had business at the ball park, play-by-play accounts began drowning out the hum of the computing machines at the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Drastic Step
Whether it was the CIA or the FBI that came up with a solution is not clear at this writing, but a drastic step was taken just before the Senators started edging into first division. It was agreed to get the whole team out of town and resettle it half way between Minneapolis and St. Paul. This was a bitter pill to Cal Griffith. It meant that his attendance would leap from about 500,000 a year to better than 1,000,000, that money would roll in, taxes go up and he would be com-ants. He also would have to pay his railroad fare to Minneapolis and get a new house. Griffith looked duty squarely in the eye and did not shrink. He made the move and the nation is eternally in his debt.

The new Washington Senators are owned by a syndicate of local men of vision, patriotism and the knowledge that they hold atomic power in their hands. The season is far from over, but it can be safely predicted that they will not allow their ball team to jeopardize national security.

And what of the future? Fortunately, the Senators do not have much of a farm system and it is unlikely that a crop of rookies will emerge suddenly and start committing such subversive acts as pitching two-hit games and knocking in 120 runs a season.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — The Literature Science and Arts College of the University of Michigan has decided to give preference in accepting transfer students to those of junior rank. The college, which studied the transfer situation for two years, determined that students who have completed two years of college provide broader evidence of sustained competence, can make the transition into their major field, would be unlikely to be making just another stop en route to another college unit. Also, enrollment pressures are less severe at the junior - senior level than in freshman-sophomore classes, the college said.

The story of the Nationalist-held Quemoy and Matsu islands off the Red Chinese mainland can be counted upon to flare up in rough two-year cycles.

The Reds carried out their first heavy bombardment of Quemoy in 1954.

In 1956, coinciding closely with a visit of Vice President Richard Nixon to Formosa, there were ominous reports of feverish Red activity, including the construction of a strategic railway into Quoy and of 10 new airfields opposite Formosa.

In 1958, spurred by reports of a further Red Chinese buildup and Beijing radio broadcasts that a landing on Quemoy is imminent, the United States placed the 7th Fleet and 9th Air Force on alert and began escorting Nationalist supply ships into Quemoy.

Welcome for Ike

In 1960, the Communists welcomed a visit by President Eisenhower to Formosa with a massive bombardment of Quemoy, labeled by the President "a deliberately aggressive act."

This history of events involving the tiny islands less than half a dozen miles off the mainland is recited now in relation to the excitement generated over the last week as result of the latest reports of a Red buildup in Fukien province.

These reports said the Red Chi-

Police Probe Thefts, Warn Of Fireworks

The Police Department is investigating reports today of thefts of a billfold, bicycle and two fenderskirts.

Buddy Roland, 1016 Neel Rd., told officers at 8:40 p.m. yesterday that someone took a billfold containing $24, his driver's license and a pilot and radio license while he was working on a car in a garage at 1714 Alcock.

Roland said he had left the brown, plastic billfold in the pocket of a pair of trousers in the office while he was working. He said he didn't see anyone and when he returned to the office, three hours later, the billfold was gone.

Mrs. Jack Graham called the police department at 4:30 p.m. yesterday to report a re-built, 24-inch red and white girl's bicycle stolen from her home, at 1031 E. Browning.

Two chrome fenderskirts were taken off Bob McCarthy's 1957 Ford while it was parked in front of his house, 1032 Varnon Drive, Sunday night.

Police Chief Jim Conner today warned Pampa adults against permitting their children to shoot firecrackers in the city limits.

"We're getting complaints about firecracker shooting. We have a city ordinance against it and if parents let their children have firecrackers they must not fire them within the city limits," he said.

"Also, a state law forbids anyone from throwing firecrackers at or in cars. This is dangerous and can put a person in the hospital if he is hit with a firecracker," he added.

Rains Again Visit Area

While Pampa had only a trace of rain recorded Monday night, the adjoining towns of White Deer and Panhandle had measurable amounts of rainfall.

White Deer had the heaviest amount, with .46 recorded along with wind gusts, lightning and thunder. Some streets were partly flooded during the downpour, but no damage was reported.

Panhandle recorded .36 of rain from 10 p.m. to midnight with wind gusts and lightning.

What may have been a tornado knocked over power poles, unroofed a vegetable packing house and damaged a school at the Southwest Texas town of Carrizo Springs Monday night.

Nearly six inches of rain fell in southeastern Tarrant County. Heavy rains pounded wide areas of the rest of Texas.

Amarillo got only .52 of an inch during the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m., but it was enough to assure the Panhandle city of the wettest June in history with a total of 10.16 inches to date.

The rain measured 3.70 inches at a farm six miles south of Kennedale, Tex., just southeast of Fort Worth.

Possible Tornado

Dimmit County Sheriff Tom Brady said he thinks the Carrizo Springs storm was a tornado. Visibility was so poor due to rain and dust, however, no one sighted a funnel cloud.

Mrs. Judson Kellog, the official U.S. Weather Bureau observer at Carrizo Springs, said she thinks the storm was just a high wind.

Light hail and .34 of an inch of rain fell during the storm. Heavy rain fell at other points in the state as thunderstorms were general over Texas.

Light showers fell across the Edwards Plateau and in extreme South Texas early today, and forecasters said rain activity will increase in all sections of the state later today.

Dalhart Has Low

Overnight low temperatures early today ranged from 56 degrees at Dalhart and 37 at Alpine to 80 at Galveston.

Unofficial reports said more than three inches of rain fell at scattered points in Northern and Southeastern Texas during the storms.

Official measurements included 2.90 inches at Burleson, 2.10 at Rosser, 1.92 at Farmersville and 1.80 at Brownsville. Totals of an inch or more were common.

Heavy rain struck the Dallas area, dropping temperatures 20 degrees in 90 minutes. Streets at Richardson, just north of Dallas, were flooded by an unofficial 3.38 inches of rain. Cars were stalled, water ran in houses and lightning struck at least one house.

so far as the shoe industry was concerned "this is an appropriate place at which to call a halt."

The judgment means divorce of the Brown Shoe Co. of St. Louis and the G. R. Kinney Co., the nation's largest retail chain.

Victory of Sorts

The Justice Department also won a victory of sorts in a price discrimination case involving two big milk distributors in the Chicago area — Bowman Dairy Co. and the Borden Co. A lower court had accepted the companies' cost justification for price discounts to chain stores but the Supreme Court ordered more proceedings. The case is 11 years old.

In the field of obscenity, the court did not act the way the Justice Department suggested. Instead, it set aside a post office order barring from the mails three magazines appealing to male homosexuals.

The court ruled that the magazines were not offensive or indecent enough to be obscene. A minority of three even said the postmaster general did not have authority from Congress to determine what is too obscene to be mailed.

The court agreed to examine next term a book publishers' challenge to a Rhode Island commission established in 1751 to discourage sales of obscene literature. The publishers are Bantam Books, Inc., Dell Publishing, Co., Inc., Pocket Books, Inc., and the New American Library of World Literature, Inc.

$100 Damage In Auto Accident

An accident causing $100 damage to two automobiles occurred at 9:45 p.m. yesterday when a car driven by R. B. Boyles of Panhandle attempted to make a U-turn on US 66 and was in collision with a car driven by Bobby Lee Parker of Pampa, according to local highway patrol officers.

The mishap took place two-tenths mile west of Pampa. Lawrence Macha, investigating for the Texas Department of Public Safety, said Boyles was given a ticket for failure to give information following an accident and turning without safety. He returned to Panhandle before the investigating officer arrived.

The financial advisory agent also takes care of the issuance and sale of any bonds approved by the voters at the lowest interest cost consistent with the current market.

City officials said today several meetings will be held to invite everyone concerned with discussion of the amount of the bond issue to be presented and to discuss just how much work should be done in the way of highway and drainage improvements.

In other business today the commission discussed mechanics of municipal court operations and further conferences on the construction now underway in the Bethune Heights addition.

Members of the commission and other city officials also decided to attend in a body the ground breaking ceremonies for the Canadian River Dam at Sanford Saturday. They will leave City Hall on a chartered bus scheduled to depart at 8:30 a.m.

The six farmers, all from the Pecos area, and the amounts they claimed Estes took from them are: W. J. Worsham, $76,464; L. G. Worsham, $104,960; Alan C. Hoff, $49,608, $39,204 and $309,619; Thomas Bell, $182,144; Travis Lattner Jr., $55,211.60, and Jack Bradley $31,370.40.

Estes faces an eight-count indictment, alleging theft over $50. Instruments attached to the indictment specify the total amount involved. The first indictment for him to be tried on will be Bell's. It alleges he fraudulently took a conditional sales contract from Bell on July 18, 1961.

Cofler asked Judge Starley to disqualify McGowan on the ground that McGowan had, in the past, represented Pacific Finance Corp. and Walter Heller and Co. of Chicago, two companies to which Estes is heavily indebted. Starley refused to disqualify McGowan.

SUNNY FACES—According to an official Soviet source, these children sunning themselves in a Moscow park is a very usual scene. The Russian babies, wrapped in the customary swaddling clothes, are in government-sponsored nursery while mothers work.

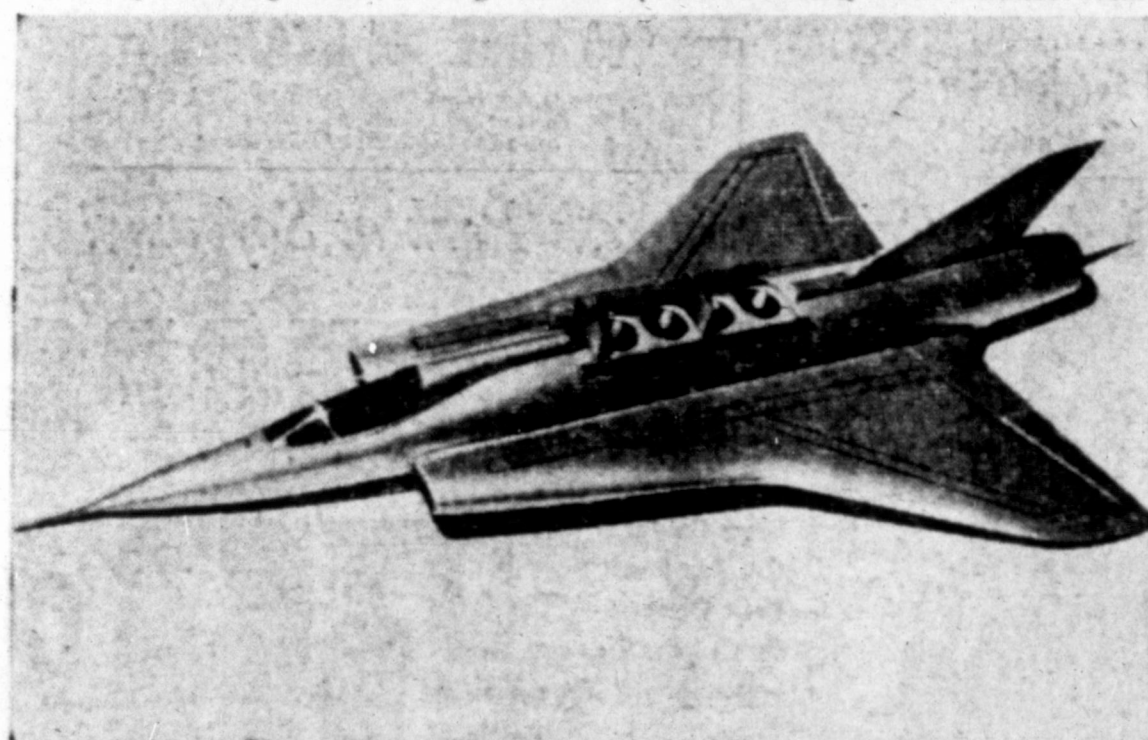

'BIG' STEEL—Workmen gaze at the giant ladle blast furnace on exhibit at the Hannover, West Germany, Industrial Fair. The 33-foot-high ladle, will hold raw iron in molten state while it is being decarbonized to make steel. The ladle is the largest of any steel mill in Europe.

LAB FASHION—Style-conscious technicians have revived the turn-of-the-century duster cap fashion to dress up their work costume. The white uniforms, known as "bunny suits," were designed to control dust and impurities which shorten the operating life of the electronic tubes.

BITE-SIZED DOG—A photographer added insult to injury when he put little "Teeny-Weenie," a 14-ounce Chihuahua, between two slices of bread in Nashville, Tenn. It not only shows the size of the dog, but also a real live hot dog.

JET-LIFT—Seen in model, a new jet, the VTOL strike aircraft, would be able to take off and land vertically as a helicopter does. This action is made possible with four jet-lift engines-in line along the center top of the fuselage. The costs of developing the RB-12 engine are to be shared by Britain, West Germany and France.

LIMA LANDSCAPE

UNICEF AID—The distant Lima skyline provides a sharply contrasting backdrop for one of the Peruvian capital's most crowded barriadas (slums). "Fray Martin de Porres" (top) contains 20,000 people living in hovels without electricity, pure water or proper sanitation. Julian (right), 12, is fortunate to have a burro to transport the bottles, metal and other scrap items he can sell after salvaging them from the city dump. The Peruvian mother (left) is not so fortunate. UNICEF is working with the Peruvian government to better the environment of the poverty-stricken slum people.

SIDEWALK SHOT—Stopping pedestrians in Jakarta, Indonesia, as they pass by, medical students give them a shot in the upper arm. The students are helping the government control the spread of smallpox by giving them anti-smallpox vaccinations.

SHOCKING SOPHIA—With an animated expression on her face, Oscar-winning actress Sophia Loren talks with a friend at Cannes, France. From the look in her eyes, the piece of news is absolutely shocking to say the very least.

TINY ATLAS—The young Atlas is Fritz Mani, 2, who's putting his shoulder to the wheels of gruyere cheese in his father's curing room at Mt. Hores, Wis. He's helping with the job of turning the 160-pound wheels twice a week.

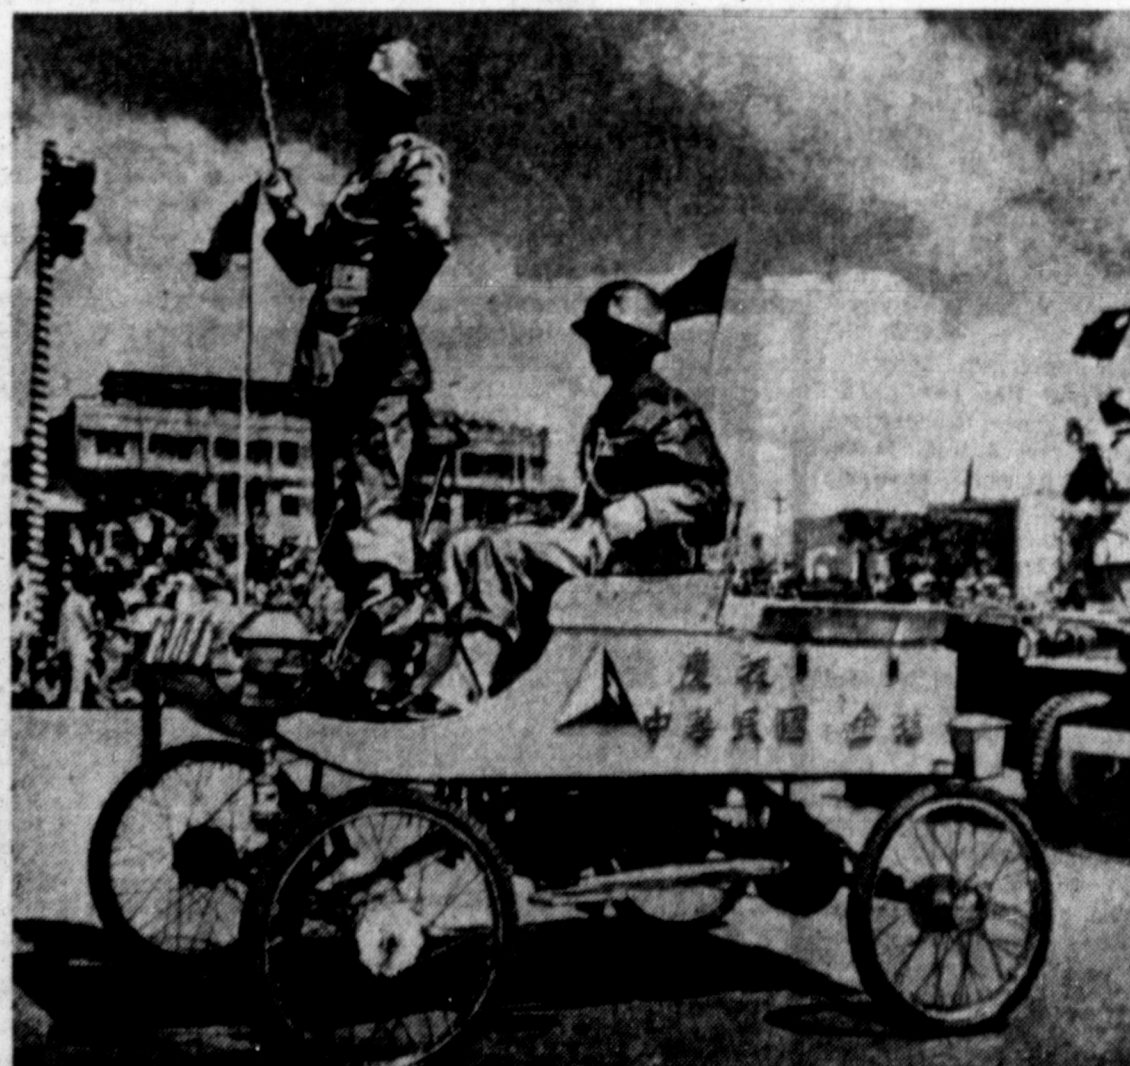

DEATH WATCH—Stalking the U. S. Consulate in Toronto, Canada, this macabre-looking picket held an alarm clock in one hand and a sign reading, "To United States . . . Many Thanks . . . (signed) Death." The unfriendly sign carrier wouldn't give a reason for his solemn demonstration.

GRANDPA'S HELPERS—William Wallace Daniel (left), 3, and Clifton Truman Daniel, 5, were ready to help their grandpa, former President Harry S. Truman, with his birthday cake. It wasn't the candle they were interested in.

LACY PACE—Red on red presents a dramatically elegant evening dress done in embroidered peau de soie. Self-bows drape folds of the long skirt to an empire waistline set under a bodice of filmy white chiffon. A full-length coat features long wide sleeves with rolled cuffs.

STAR OF THE PARADE—Stealing the show at official National Chinese Army parades at Taipei, Taiwan, is this completely rebuilt antique auto (vintage 1901) which carries the drum major in front of a mobile band unit. The car sports a four hp Kohler gasoline engine, a motorcycle transmission, wheels from a pedicab, and a real "honker" horn.

New Bureau Director Says We Need More US Parks

EDITOR'S NOTE: On paper, the United States has plenty of recreational land. But the nation's parks are becoming as crowded as Times Square. In the following dispatch, the head of a new government agency designed to solve the problem says the trouble is that most of the land is where the people are not. He explains how his agency hopes to overcome this "people pressure" on the parks.

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's outdoor playgrounds are desperately overcrowded this summer.

The situation will get progressively worse in the years ahead unless the nation moves swiftly to provide more parks, picnic grounds and swimming holes for a growing population with a growing amount of leisure time.

So says Dr. Edward C. Crafts, director of the U.S. government's new Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

Crafts' bureau was established in the Interior Department for the express purpose of promoting more and better facilities for camping, hiking, fishing, swimming, boating, and other outdoor recreation, including pleasure driving along scenic highways.

Become More Avid

Crafts said in an interview that Americans, who now live mostly in cities, are becoming more avid every year in their pursuit of a patch of nature in which to picnic, swim, take a walk or just look at the scenery. During the 1950s, while the U.S. population grew 15 per cent, visits to national parks rose 86 per cent.

Increased mobility because of better cars and highways, and the additional leisure time provided by a shorter average work week, have contributed to the mounting demand for outdoor recreation facilities.

The result, said Crafts, is that "some of our more popular parks now look like Times Square at the peak of the tourist season."

Moreover, projections of present trends show that the "people pressure" on recreation facilities is likely to triple by the end of this century.

In Wrong Places

On paper, it looks as though America should have abundant space for outdoor recreation. More than 250 million acres are publicly designated for that purpose, including 26 million acres of national parks, 6 million acres of state parks, and 180 million acres of national forests.

But, Crafts pointed out, "most of this land is where the people are not." Specifically, 72 per cent of the public recreational acreage is in western states, where 15 per cent of the population lives. The northeastern states, with 15 per cent of the people, have only 2 per cent of the park lands.

Providing more outdoor recreation opportunities within easy reach of major population centers in the East is a major goal of the new bureau.

It will not build or operate any facilities itself. Its main jobs are (1) to coordinate the activities of the 20 or more federal agencies which are already involved directly or incidentally in the management of lands which can be used for outdoor recreation and (2) to stimulate greater efforts by state and local governments, and private enterprise, to meet the rising demand for open-air playgrounds.

Before Congress

Several pieces of legislation now pending in Congress are needed to further this program, Crafts said.

He expressed hope that Congress will complete action soon on a bill authorizing his bureau to distribute $50 million in matching grants to encourage states to develop plans for outdoor recreation programs. A few states, such as New York, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, California, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Michigan, already are moving ahead in this area. But most are dragging their feet.

Crafts said private enterprise also can and should play a big part in providing outdoor recreation facilities. His bureau plans to stimulate such action by pointing out that such undertakings have proved highly profitable.

"There is a great opportunity here for some of the nation's rural depressed areas," he said. "Development of their natural scenic assets could give a tremendous economic boost to many areas — northern Minnesota and West Virginia, for example."

Finland is about the size of Minnesota and Mississippi combined, and it is one of the world's northernmost countries. Nearly a third of it extends beyond the Arctic Circle.

Eight Deaths Cotton Growing In Texas Are Expected Over Holiday

AUSTIN — The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that past experience indicates eight persons will be killed in traffic accidents during the coming Fourth of July holiday in Texas.

Colonel Homer Garrison Jr. announced that "Operation Motorcade" will be in effect from 12:01 a.m. through 11:59 p.m. July 4, and that during this period the regular Highway Patrol force will be joined by units of License and Weight and Motor Vehicle Inspection services in the general traffic supervision effort.

Garrison called for the "cooperation of all Texas drivers to help prove that the estimate of eight traffic deaths compiled by our Statistical Services Section is too high." He continued:

"The Fourth of July marks the mid-point of the summer vacation period, when Texans are really on the move. It is the time of the year when they go more places to see the wonders Texas offers its vacationers.

"With the tempo of travel picking up it is important to drive according to traffic laws and regulations — the rules set down for the protection of the driving public.

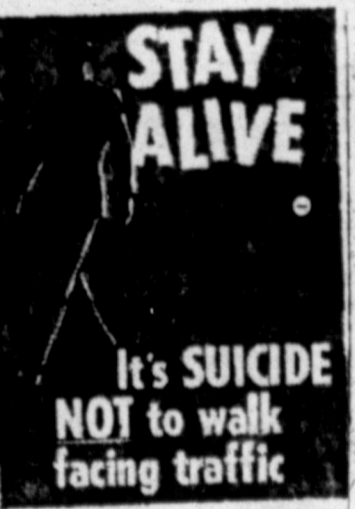

"Common sense says it is hard for a person to enjoy a trip if he is constantly squirming out of dangerous traffic situations caused by unlawful driving — his own or someone else's."

Garrison said the Fourth of July could be the turning point in the battle against death on the highways this year. During the first five months department records showed a six per cent decrease in the number of fatalities as compared with the same period in 1961.

The public safety director cited the large number of bad wrecks which have occurred in recent weeks. The first five days in June five accidents killed 24 persons and, in each accident at least one traffic violation was a causative factor. As is usually the case, he said, the most common of these were excessive speed, driving while drinking, improper passing or driving with defective equipment.

"Operation Motorcade" is a program designed to focus public attention on the added dangers of traveling by motor vehicle during holiday periods, Garrison explained. During the 24-hour period of the Fourth of July, all fatalities resulting from traffic accidents over the state will be tabulated. Motorcade bulletins will be issued at 10 a.m., 3 p.m., and 8:30 p.m., with a summary bulletin to be issued the morning of July 5.

Cotton Growing In Texas Shows Westward Movement

AUSTIN (UPI)—Cotton growing in Texas has had a gradual movement westward, followed closely by the cotton compress industry in the state, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research says.

Writing in the bureau's monthly publication the "Texas Business Review," history graduate student Tully Ellis says, "this westward concentration of both cotton production and of the compress industry in all probability will continue."

Ellis said that 100 years ago Texas cotton production was concentrated in Harrison County in East Texas and Brazoria, Mata-

NOT QUITE SURE.

PANGBOURNE, England (UPI) — Gilbert Beale's birthday comes up next month, but he isn't certain which day it is or which birthday. He figures he'll be around 95.

To solve the difficulty, Beale has decided to celebrate his birthday every day in July. That way he'll be sure not to miss it.

To provide needed services, before 1870, the only cotton compresses in Texas were in Houston and Galveston. Now, Ellis says, "compresses are to be found in all the major producing cotton areas of the state with a high concentration on the high plains."

Production of motorized fire equipment in the United States during 1961 included 2,060 pumps, 141 hook and ladder trucks, and 167 crash trucks, hose cars and squad cars.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Steve Allen, operating out of a theatre named after him on Vine Street in Hollywood, Monday night launched a national television show that figures to give the "Tonight" program sharp competition in key cities.

The graying Irishman, who replaces Mike Wallace's "P.M." offering for the Westinghouse Broadcasting Corp., already has 50 national sponsors lined up, and he is off to a fast start with 21 important stations airing the syndicated, nightly, 90-minute show.

For all practical purposes, he is doing the old "Tonight" show, which he built to coast-to-coast prominence for NBC-TV before Jack Paar inherited it. NBC, in fact, tried to get Allen back. He was offered the network's "Today" program starting this fall, but turned it down because he did not want to move back to New York. So "Tonight" went to Hugh Downs instead.

Tough Competition
It is also reported Allen might have had the "Tonight" show again if he had wanted. With NBC-TV thus knowing his drawing power and competence in this specialized type of broadcasting, it threw Jerry Lewis against him.

FULL GROWN—Suleiman All Nashnush, 18, Tripoli, Libya, appears happy that treatment he received in a Rome clinic stopped his growth at 8 feet 1 inch.

this week as host of "Tonight." More sophisticated fans of Allen might have been a little unerved Monday night to see some of the motley, under-dressed members of his audience—which was par for Hollywood's weird downtown characters.

But anyone who remembers his early scramble in New York to put "Tonight" on top will recall the same type of characters being hustled inside off the street to fill his audience then too.

His setting in the new show is simply a desk on the stage. There were a few technical defects—but his adlibbing ability, graciousness, enthusiasm and spontaneity rate him way above any of the continuing "Tonight" hosts.

Fine Introduction
He made the simple introduction of his fine band into a swinging jam session by his impromptu rhythmic recitation of their individual names—with solos as a background. His crew had such a good time watching his on-the-spot creativity that it laughed too loud into the microphones.

He interviewed four ladies on stage—and wound up twisting with one. He composed a song out of four notes they punked on a piano. And, again at the piano, he tore into two torrid jazz numbers with the great vibes musician, Terry Gibbs, who has been packing in crowds at the Losers and P. J.'s clubs here in Hollywood.

Allan Sherman, formerly with Jackie Gleason and Phil Silvers, produced the solid premiere. And it was all Allen. Outside of Gibbs, he didn't get much help from his guest entertainers. But he seemed at home again. And chances are, before long, he'll be developing more stars like Don Knotts, Bill Dana, Andy Williams and Steve Lawrence.

The Channel Swim: Barbara Rush, replaces Ann Blyth as a reporter in Nick Adams' new fall series, "Saints and Sinners," for NBC-TV. Ella Fitzgerald guests on Vic Damone's NBC-TV summer musical series, "The Lively Ones," Sept. 8.

CBS-TV signed football star Pat Summerall to broadcast professional grid games with Chris Schenkel. "Expedition," prize-winning series cancelled by ABC-TV, will be syndicated by ABC films. Arlene Francis and Merv Griffin guest on CBS-TV's evening "Password" show Monday.

NBC-TV will air a news special on Algeria Monday. Barry Sullivan stars July 11 on CBS-TV's "Steel Hour" about a detective who probes a crime he himself has committed. Twentieth Century-Fox is planning a new series, "Cynthia Pepper," star of the cancelled "Margie" program.

MATURE PARENT

Here is a sample of a dialogue contained in a new book which offers much wise counsel to parents:

Mother: But we are supposed to show affection to a child.

Dr. B: Who said that? I never said you were "supposed" to show affection.

Second Mother: Well, any authority you read advocates it.

Dr. B: I don't read authorities and then do as they tell me. I read authorities and then do as they tell me. I read books that can start me thinking on my own.

Mother: Anyway, kissing children isn't the only form of showing affection.

Dr. B: Look, can we start all over again? I think we've just been presented with something much more important than the problems of "showing" affection. As for kissing babies, I think we should leave that to political candidates. More important is your statement that according to all authorities you read, you're supposed to show affection whether you have it or not.

The book is "Dialogues With Mothers" and the Dr. B who gives it to us is Dr. Bruno Bettelheim, psychoanalyst and noted director of the University of Chicago's Sonia Shankman Orthogenic School, a treatment center for emotionally disturbed children.

As you may have noted, I seldom recommend books by child guidance experts in this column. I refuse to recommend the majority of such books because their authors are often much more intent upon getting us to respect their superior knowledge of children than they are upon encouraging us to respect our own feelings toward our particular Johnny or Marilyn.

I joyously recommend Dr. Bettelheim's "Dialogues With Mothers" because he doesn't give a hoot about our respect for his knowledge of children. He is interested in teaching us methods by which we can reach our own knowledge of what Johnny is experiencing when he resists bedtime, what goes on in Marilyn when she tries to shove baby sister from our lap.

By leading us back into our own experiences with fears of

Dear Abby...
Anti-Horse Lover Should Say "Nay"
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Since the track opened up I am without a boyfriend. To tell you the truth I have been stood up by a horse. He spends all his time doping the races and then he stays around the track every day the horses are running. You know you can't get hold of a man when he's at the track all the time. When the track is closed he is wonderful. Should I date the nice non-betting man who lives in my apartment? My boyfriend tells me he can't help if he has horses' blood in his veins.

STOOD UP BY A HORSE
DEAR STOOD: Date the nice non-betting man in your building. He might not win, but I'll bet he can place and show. And when your horse lover calls you after the racing season, tell him YOU'VE got horse blood in your veins, too — and say NAY.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you, or one of your readers, would explain to me what a "double greenback" shower is. I received an invitation to one last week and haven't recovered yet. It is being sponsored by the GROOM'S parents. Someone told me it means that the guests are expected to give money to both the bride and groom. I can't believe it! Being, that, that's what it is. Heaven help us!

PROUD
DEAR PROUD: Yes, a "double greenback" shower is indeed an invitation to give money to both bride and groom. And you don't have to accept every invitation you get.

DEAR ABBY: I've noticed that when you get adverse comments on your opinions, you are fair enough to print them. Well, recently, you ran a letter from a man whose wife spent hours reading the Bible and copying verses from it. He complained, "She tries to convert all our friends who are already non-drinking, church-going people." And you advised him to take her to a doctor!

I infer that you are also one of those "non-drinking, church-going people" who feels that religion consists of just that. You do not realize that there can be a life lived in vital contact with God. It makes one a different person. No doubt this woman has had that experience, and is eager to share it with others. I've had it, too. And it wouldn't bother me one bit if you printed my name.

DEAR ABBY: I am sitting here with the tears running down my face. I raised two sons and a daughter. I worked my fingers to the bone for them. I wore torn shoes so they could dress nicely. I scrimped and saved to make payments on cars for them. And you know that on Mother's Day not ONE of them even sent me a card or called me up?

Senior Center Corner
By MRS. O. A. WAGNER
Senior Citizens Center

I must tell you about the wonderful time I had out at the E. C. Sidwell Ranch near Canadian on June 17. We learned that the Sidwell families have a family reunion every five years and this year, Mayor and Mrs. Sidwell, were hosts on Saturday and Sunday out at the ranch.

On Saturday there were around sixty-five present, I understand, and on Sunday there were about 50 present. There were relatives from all over the country. Present Sunday was Mr. Sidwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sidwell; Ralph and Bob and their families, all of Pampa; a sister, Mrs. Paul Emmitt and husband of Albuquerque, N.M.; an uncle, Ernest Sidwell and wife of Fayetteville, Ark. I did not get the names of the other relatives present; the list would have been too long.

The only outsiders, as far as I learned, was Mrs. Lula Walker, an old friend of the family from Tulsa and myself.

It was a pleasure to meet Ernest Sidwell again after 28 years. At that time, we lived in Midwest, Wyo. and the late Mrs. Sidwell was my Sunday School teacher in the Community Church there. Mr. Sidwell reminded me of one Easter Sunday in a church of less than 500 members when we had 117 presented in our adult class.

At 11 a.m., Ernest Sidwell conducted church services on the subject "Fishers Of Men." We all enjoyed the message from the interest shown and the wonderful old songs that the adults all knew. Must tell you that the mayor's father, Clarence Sidwell, who is a "regular" at Senior Center, has a wonderful tenor voice.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Shireman who are also "regulars" at the Center, were also guests at the ranch. Mr. Shireman is related to the family. A bountiful fried chicken dinner was served on the screened porch and the families began to drift homeward late in the afternoon. Wonderful Day!

Suthers-Ramp Repeat Vows In Church Rites

CANADIAN (Spl) — A double-ring ceremony read at 3 p.m. June 10 in the Methodist Church of Arnett, Okla. united in marriage Miss Al' Louise Suthers and John Dale Ramp.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heward Suthers of Arnett. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ramp of Canadian.

Vows were solemnized by the Rev. Sanford Cole of Canadian.

Miss Anne Godfrey of Amarillo, sang traditional wedding selections accompanied by the organist, Mrs. George W. Suthers, Jr. Both musicians are cousins of the bride. The church was decorated with white gladioli and blue lace carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress of Silk Organza with Chantilly lace trim was designed with a scalloped neckline and partial chapel length train. The tapered lace sleeves came to a point over the wrist. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a crown encrusted with pearls and sequins and she carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Jocelyn Hamre, Oklahoma City, maid of honor, wore a dress of blue Silk Organza over taffeta with matching crown and veil and carried a basket of daisies and carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lynn Goetzinger of Beaver, Okla. and Mrs. John Drake of Oklahoma City, wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant.

John Briggs of Canadian served as best man. Groomsman were Jim Ramp, brother of the bridegroom and Alvin Lynn of Lubbock. Ushers were Jerry Hill of Claude, James and Neal Suthers, brothers of the bride.

Candlelighters were Lelia Suthers, sister of the bride, and Deanna Quickel, cousin of the bride.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James E. Robinson. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Ronnie Grice and Miss Caroline Fitz of Arnett and Miss Caroline Graves of Custer, Okla.

The bride's table was laid with a net cloth over satin. The corners of the net were drawn up with blue bows. A floral arrangement of spider mums and glads centered the table. The tiered wedding cake and the punch bowl graced the ends of the table.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Canadian until September when they will move to Carrollton where Mr. Ramp will resume his coaching duties at the Senior High School.

Mrs. Ramp is a graduate of Arnett High School and Oklahoma State University. Mr. Ramp is a graduate of Canadian High School and West Texas State College at Canyon. The Suthers-Ramp wedding party were entertained at a rehearsal dinner Saturday night at the Circle C Cafe, Arnett, Okla. Mrs. Jake Ramp was hostess to the party.

The dinner table was centered with an arrangement of spider mums and gladioli.

Present for the occasion were Miss Al' Louise Suthers and John Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. Heward Suthers, Mrs. Jake Ramp, Rev. and Mrs. Sanford Cole and Colene of Canadian, Miss Ann Godfrey of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Suthers, Jr., Miss Jocelyn Hamre of Oklahoma City, Miss Lynn Goetzinger of Beaver, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. John Drake of Oklahoma City, John Briggs.

El Paso Continues To Lead Texas Loop

By United Press International

The way the El Paso Sun Kings batter baseballs makes one wonder if some of those satellites whirling in outer space don't have little buddies tagging along with Texas League President Dick Butler's signature on them.

The Sun Kings rocketed four balls out of the park Monday night to plaster the San Antonio Missions, 22-7. The victory meant that El Paso now leads the league by two full games over the Tulsa Oilers, who fell, 3-2, to Austin. In the other league game, last-place Amarillo beat Albuquerque, 7-1.

Besides the towering four-baggers, the Sun Kings collected 21 other hits off three numb Mission pitchers. The home run hitters included Charles Peterson, Gerald Robinson, Baldemar Carmona, and Charlie Dees. El Paso scored 11 runs in the 8th inning to further Amarillo used the big inning, scoring four runs in the 6th frame. Austin pushed across a tally in the 7th inning to nip Tulsa.

Tonight Tulsa is at Austin; Amarillo is at Albuquerque; and San Antonio takes on El Paso again.

Minnesota Twins Invade Yankee Stadium Tonight In Hopes Of Gaining Ground In American League

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—The Minnesota Twins, only a game and a half behind the league leading Cleveland Indians, open a three-game series in Yankee Stadium tonight with hopes that history will not repeat itself.

It was in historic Yankee Stadium that Baltimore, in 1960, and Detroit, in 1961, suffered fatal blows to their pennant aspirations when the Yankees captured vital series.

Manager Sam Mele, who is reluctant to admit his Minnesota club is in a pennant race, is winning without much help from his established sluggers.

Harmon Killebrew, who clouted 46 round-trippers last season, has connected for only 15 to date, 14 on the road. His batting average is just hovering over the .200 mark.

Bob Allison has only six homers so far this season after smacking 30 in 1961. Jim Lemon, who had 38 home runs in 1960 and then slumped badly in 1961, is on the disabled list.

"I'm not worried about Harmon's hitting," said Mele. "We all know he's a good hitter who is just in a slump. I'm concerned, but not worried."

The batting punch this season has been sparked by the fine play of rookies Rich Rollins and Bernie Allen. Rollins, among the league's batting leaders all season, has hit nine homers and driven in 46 runs. Allen, who has given the twins double play punch, has been finding the hitting range as of late and has 30 runs batted in. Vic Power and Earl Battey have also been hitting well.

Camilo Pascual, Jim Kat and Ray Moore have been the bright spots of Mele's pitching staff so far this season.

Pascual, with a 10-4 record, has a chance to hit the 20-game pinnacle which has eluded him throughout his career.

Ford, Law Returning To Mound Form Of The Past

By MARTIN LADER
 UPI Sports Writer

The stakes seem higher than ever for Vernon Law and Whitey Ford this year, but the two veteran pitchers are coming through in championship style.

Law and Ford already have proven they can beat the best and now they must best sore arms that are threatening their careers.

Law, who won only three games last year, went all the way for his fifth triumph of 1962 Monday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates routed the New York Mets, 13-3. Ford also showed championship form in helping the New York Yankees gain a 2-0 decision over the Detroit Tigers.

Ford was forced to leave the game with one out in the ninth inning, however, when he felt a sharp twinge in his left shoulder. Marshall Bridges came on to complete the shutout.

It was only two years ago that Law won 20 games in the regular season and then carried the surprising Pirates to a World Series conquest over the Yankees by winning two games in the fall classic. As a fitting climax to his year's work, Law was voted the Cy Young award as the major league's outstanding pitcher.

The award got dusty last year as Law developed arm trouble and sat out most of the campaign. His record was only 3-4. But the 32-year-old Mormon deacon proved his arm was right Monday by striking out 11 Mets, a career high for him.

Law's task was made easier when his teammates tallied six runs in the first inning off New York starter Craig Anderson. Smoky Burgess and Roberto Clemente placed Pittsburgh's 15-hit attack with three safeties each. The victory was Law's fifth in eight decisions.

Ford, who enjoyed his best year in 1961 with 25 victories, two World Series triumphs and the Cy Young award, developed his arm trouble early this season. Still he yielded only two hits Monday and it was the second straight game in which he pitched shutout ball before being removed in the ninth inning. His string of scoreless innings now stands at 20-1-3.

The Yankee-Tiger affair was the only game scheduled in the American League, while in other National League action the San Francisco Giants closed in on first place by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1; the Los Angeles Dodgers lost to the Milwaukee Braves, 6-4; the St. Louis Cardinals rallied for a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs, and the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Houston Colts, 4-3.

San Francisco, sparked by Willie Mays' alert base running and some surprising defense work by leftfielder Willie McCovey, moved to within a half-game of the league-leading Dodgers. Mays set up the decisive run by stealing third base in the third inning and McCovey started a double play in the fifth after catching a sinking liner by losing pitcher Jim Maloney. Billy O'Dell went all the way for his eighth victory.

Hank Aaron drove in three runs with a single and a homer and Eddie Mathews drove home two others as the Braves overcame a four-run deficit. Tommy Davis had five hits in five attempts for the Dodgers to raise his batting average to .342 and a tie for the league lead with Stan Musial. Reliever Carl Willey got the win and Ron Perranoski took the loss.

The Cardinals, down 3-0 after three innings, drew even with Chicago in the fifth inning and went ahead for good with two runs in the sixth. Bill White homered for St. Louis while Ernie Banks hit a three-run homer for the Cubs, his 21st. Starter Ray Washburn gained credit for his fifth victory in eight decisions while Glen Hobbie was charged with his ninth defeat against a single win.

Tony Taylor got his third single with one out in the ninth inning to drive in the winning run for Philadelphia. It also was his third RBI of the game. Dallas Green retired the first 11 batters he faced in relief to even his season record at 2-2.

White Sox Feel Like They Got The Best Of Big Trade

CHICAGO (UPI)—Chicago White Sox brass felt today they got the best of the deal in trading Bob Farley and Russ Kemmerer to get Charlie Maxwell and Dean Stone.

Both Maxwell, a former feared slugger in the American League, and Stone, a big lefthanded relief pitcher, were expected to join the White Sox in Baltimore tonight.

"This is not what you call a major trade, but it gave us what we needed in pinchhitting and in the bullpen," general manager Ed Short said.

Manager Al Lopez, who had been becoming bored with play-me-or-else ultimatums from Farley, also believed Monday's deal just had to do more good than harm to White Sox pennant hopes.

"We needed a left handed pinchhitter," Lopez said. "Maxwell will fit in nicely." Farley had a spotty record as a pinchhitter, appearing in the role 19 times before he got a hit. Maxwell, Lopez conceded, hasn't done much better, but indicated he thought a change of scenery might spur both players.

Maxwell, 35, came from the Tigers in a waiver deal for the 25-year-old Farley. Stone, 32, also was obtained on waivers from the Houston Colts who, in turn, purchased Kemmerer from the White Sox for an estimated $20,000.

Lopez and Short agreed Kemmerer was performing adequately in relief, but both said that a big, strong southpaw of Stone's type was what was needed badly for middle or distance relief work.

Stone, 32, had a 3-2 record with the Colts and Kemmerer, 30, was 2-1 for Chicago.

Rubinoff, Ulrich In Wimbledon Action

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Ed Rubinoff of Miami Beach, Fla., met Jorgen Ulrich of Denmark in the completion of their postponed match today, hopeful of joining Wimbledon tennis championships.

Ulrich won the first two sets of their match, 6-3, 7-5, Monday but Rubinoff rallied to take the next two, 6-4, 6-1, before darkness halted play.

The match preceded a full women's program in which nine American girls played in first round singles matches and six played in the second round. Top-seeded and favorite Margaret Smith of Australia opened play in the second round opposite Blithe Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif.

In the other matches involving American girls in the second round, Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., met Florence de la Courrie of France; Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., played Mrs. D. L. Ilingworth of Great Britain; Vicky Palmer of Phoenix, Ariz., met Mrs. P. Barril of Spain; little Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., met Jan Lehane of Australia.

In an all-American first round test, Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., played Donna Floyd of Arlington, Va., while Margaret DuPont of Wilmington, Del., met Christine Truman of Great Britain; Margaret Varner of Wilmington, Del., played 1960 champion Esther Bueno of Brazil; Karen Hantze Susman of Chula Vista, Calif., met Miss A. M. Estalella of Spain; Judy Alvarez of Tampa, Fla., played Miss M. A. Smith of New Zealand; Justina Bricks of St. Louis, Mo., played Miss P. Courteix of France; Gwyneth Thomas of Shaker Heights, Ohio, met Miss F. E. Walton of Britain, and former New York fashion model Pat Stewart Edrich played Vickie Wade of Great Britain.

There were a number of opening round men's doubles matches on today's program involving Americans. The only all-American teams in action were McKinley and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif., and Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla. McKinley, runnerup to Rod Laver of Australia in last year's championships, led the opening day American advance. He whipped Owen French of Australia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1, while Laver, the odds-on favorite to win this year's title for the third leg of his campaign for a grand slam, required only 57 minutes to demolish veteran Naresan Kumar of India, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Americans advancing with McKinley were Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., Froehling, Ralston, Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., Crawford and Mal Fox of Baltimore.

However, eight Yanks fell by the wayside. The casualty list included Jon Douglas, America's fourth ranking player from Santa Monica, Calif., 48-year-old Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., Ned Neely of Atlanta, Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., Crawford Henry of Atlanta, Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., Paul Palmer of Phoenix, Ariz., and Bob Siska of San Francisco.

Cinder Meet Is A Real Tossup

MOSCOW (UPI)—The coach of the Russian track and field team today predicted a very close contest when his squad meets a United States team at Stanford, Calif., next month.

"It would be no mistake to say that our fourth match with the American team will be the most difficult," Gavril Korobkov said. "The Americans have good coaches and good programs and we can't afford to underestimate them in any of the events."

The Russian team probably will include two men and two women who set world records this spring. The one who will be of most interest to U.S. fans is Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, who just two weeks ago soared 20 feet, 3 1/2 inches to break the world broad jump mark of 27-2 set by Ralph Boston of Tennessee State in Moscow last year.

Vladimir Trusenev is the other new men's record-holder on the strength of his 202 foot, 2 inch discus throw earlier this month. In the U.S. meet he will be up against Al Oerter of West Babylon, N.Y., the first man ever to clear 200 feet, and Jay Silvester of Santa Clara, Calif.

In the women's division, Tamara Press set a new shot put record of 60.86 feet during a meet at Leipzig, East Germany, June 10, and on the same day teammate Tatyana Tschelkanova bettered her own broad jump mark by leaping 21 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Korobkov, who is serving as head coach of the Soviet team, gave the U.S. a slight advantage in the overall men's events but predicted victory for the Soviet women. He granted the U.S. the edge in 10 of the 22 men's events while claiming superiority for his own squad in nine or 10.

Dolls Down Bobby Sox

LEFORS (Sp1) — Despite the heat at 2 p.m. Saturday, the Bobby Sox and Dolls wound up the first half of the season with an exciting game, ending with a final score of 12-11 in favor of the Dolls.

Actually, this was only the second completed game by the two teams. The first game was played, with the Dolls winning 34-17. The next game was 29-8 in favor of the Dolls when it was rained out, and Saturday's game will be considered a make up game for that one.

Thursday night's game had a mix-up in scores due to the lack of scorekeeper, umpire and callers, and a make-up game for that one will be played at regular practice period Tuesday morning, July 2. The next regularly scheduled game will be Thursday night, July 5th.

No practice or games will be held during the week of June 25th through July 2, marking a recess between the two halves of the season.

Judy Barnes was winning pitcher, making some outstanding plays in the pitcher's box as well as on the playing field. She also knocked a three-base hit in the bottom of the second inning.

The game was nip and tuck with a score of 8-8 at the top of the fourth. Bennie White hit a three-base hit, and due to an error came on home for the Dolls in the fourth inning.

Doyle Harris and Carl Nunn, ministers for the Church of Christ and Methodist church, respectively, are coaches of the team and very proud of the progress made so far.

Shelby Ruff Posts Two Northern Wins

Shelby J. Ruff posted a couple of Northern league victories over Milliron this weekend in little league play at the Optimist park.

Ruff won Friday night, 13 - 2 with Phil Young gaining the win. Ross Holman was the losing pitcher.

Ruff then shutout Milliron 6 - 0 on Saturday with Johnny Marsh gaining the win. Carl Lang was the losing pitcher.

In the Friday contest, Young gave up three hits, struckout 13 and walked three. Holman had six strikeouts and walked three.

Randy and Johnny Marsh, led the winners with the timber with three for four. Tommy Rose contributed a pair of singles and T. Denny blasted out a double. For Milliron, Jim Bill Benton had two singles and Hopkins a double to share swat honors.

Ruff sewed up the game with nine big runs in the second inning. They also collected 13 hits before it was all over with.

Saturday, it was Johnny Marsh who handcuffed Milliron on just two hits in tossing his shutout. Marsh fanned eight and didn't allow a single walk.

Phil Young put the game on ice for Ruff with a three - run homer in the third inning. L. Turcotte also aided in the hitting attack for the winners with two for three.

For Milliron, Hughes had a double.

CHICAGO (UPI)—A field of 137 professional and amateur players today was entered in the $50,000 Western Open golf championship starting Thursday at Medinah Country Club.

Thirty qualifiers joined 107 exempt players Monday after 18-hole rounds over Medinah's No. 1 course, which is generally regarded as a breeze compared to the narrow fairway, densely wooded No. 3 tournament course.

Bob Erickson of Chicago was the only qualifier to break par, cutting one stroke off the regulation 70. Erickson posted a 35-35-69.

William Kelley, Coraopolis, Pa., matched par and seven of the Large Field Competing In Western Open Golf Tourney

102 players trying for berths had 71s.

They were Hubby Hubjan and Pat Rouse of Chicago; Billy Capps of Franklin, La.; Mike Krak, Morgantown, W.Va.; Tom McPadden, Santa Barbara, Calif.; Tom Veech, Menominee Falls, Wis., and Tom Ramey, Little Rock, Ark.

Three and Three
BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — Exterminator won the first three runnings of the Pimlico cup with three different jockeys—Clarence Kummer in 1919, Laverne Fator in 1920 and Albert Johnson in 1921.

Stymie Dies At Age 21

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — When trainer Hirsch Jacobs bought Stymie for $1,500 in 1943, there was no reason to suspect he had anything more on his hands than just another thoroughbred — one of the thousands whose names are buried in the statistics of secondary races.

At the time of purchase, the two-year-old Stymie had gone to the post three times and had never finished in the money.

But when he retired from the thoroughbred wars six years later, the chestnut son of Equestrian-stop Watch was hailed as one of the great horses of all time.

His earnings of $918,485 made him the greatest money winner ever to cross a finish line. That was 13 years ago and in the interim, racing has become a much bigger business. But Stymie still ranks sixth in the money-making department.

Stymie retired to his life of leisure in 1949. The following year he began a successful stud career that sent many of his offspring on to great victories.

But Sunday night the great heart gave out and Stymie died at the age of 21.

Three Promoters In Struggle For Club

BOSTON (UPI) — Promoters from New Orleans, Atlanta and Kansas City opened a three-way struggle today for a new franchise in the young American Football League.

Officials of each city, bearing checks for $25,000 as stipulated by the AFL owners, were scheduled to make their presentations before the league's executive board after a proposal to add two new franchises for the 1963 season was virtually ruled out.

Two of the eight owners at Monday's opening session indicated their opposition to 1963 expansion by two teams but said they might support the compromise proposal of Houston Oilers, executive K.S. (Bud) Adams Jr. of adding one team next year and, possibly, another the following year.

The three franchise bidders were unfluffed by the report and each claimed he could meet the stringent AFL expansion requirements of $410,000 in cash for franchise and players and an advance ticket sale worth $600,000.

New Orleans, William V. McCane Jr., representing Atlanta, and financier Warren M. Lockwood, who sought to locate a new franchise in Kansas City, each claimed to have the necessary backing and all agreed they would be "receptive" to a transfer of any of the eight existing franchises.

Their confidence came in the face of an owners' report admitting that none of the eight AFL clubs — Boston Buffalo, Dallas, Houston, Denver, New York, Oakland or San Diego — had yet reached the financial "break even" point but that five hoped to do so this year.

Bad Apples
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Apples cost Felix Caravajal of Cuba the 1904 Olympic marathon championship held here. Far ahead after 18 miles of the 26-mile run, Caravajal stopped to eat some apples growing by the roadside—but they weren't ripe and made him so sick he couldn't finish the race.
