GIRL SCOUT STAMP -- Celia Fowler, district II advisor for the Quivira Girl Scout Council, displays some of the 4-cent Girl Scouts of America commemorative postage stamps which went on sale today throughout the United States. The stamp is to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting. The stamp was issued yesterday with ceremonies at Button Bay, Vermont, where the national senior Scout roundup is being held. The new stamp is red-on-white horizontal, showing an Intermediate Girl Scout (Daily News Photo) and a portion of the American Flag in the background.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) - Two amazing things happened Tuesday night on CBS-TV: Lt. Col. John Powers, spokesman for the nation's astronauts, turned up as a talent scout; and Jim Backus asked Zsa Zsa Gabor whether she was Hungarian.

Both of these occurrences took place on Backus' summer show, "Talent Scouts," which is trying to hold the fort until Garry Moore returns this fall minus Carol Bur-

Powers, known to televiewers as the voice that makes announcements from Mercury control during the astronauts' flights, got star billing by coming on last. It turned out, however, that the poised, quick-witted Powers introduced a singing-comedy quartet called the Kentones, from Cocoa Night Club in Hollywood.
