It's Still Quiet But Some Russian Ships Are Thought To Be On Course For Cuba

US Stands Firm On Demand For End To Threat

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The United States stood firm today on its demand that the Soviet nuclear missile build-up in Cuba must be eliminated before it will end its blockade of Fidel Castro's island.

The U.S. position was reported to have been made clear to Acting Secretary General Thant before he sent identical messages Wednesday night to President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev calling for a voluntary suspension of Russian arms shipments to Cuba and a voluntary suspension of the U.S. "quarantine."

Replies from Kennedy and Khrushchev were expected to be made public today, at the latest by the time the Security Council resumes its blockade debate at 4 p.m. EDT.

Kennedy was understood to have quickly turned down Thant's appeal in its present form because it provided no guarantees against continuation of Cuba's military build-up.

Stevenson Agrees
U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson was reported to have expressed the same view to Thant when he was handed the appeal to relay to Kennedy about 6 o'clock Wednesday night. Thant followed the same procedure with the Russians.

With Soviet vessels steaming toward U.S. naval ships on the blockade line, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin, as this month's president, agreed late Wednesday night to adjournment until 4 p.m. unless "circumstances require and events develop to compel the council to take urgent steps" before then.

Thant read to the council his appeal to Kennedy and Khrushchev. In characteristic form, he introduced it in a manner not calculated to curry favor either in Moscow or Washington.

"I cannot help expressing the view that some of the measures proposed or taken, which the council is called upon to approve, are very unusual, and I might (See AMERICANS, Page 6)

Civil Defense Buildup Is Spurred By Officials

By United Press International
Governors and mayors throughout the country today spurred mobilization of America's civil defense in the face of the mounting Cuban crisis.

Sales of food and survival supplies shot up in scattered areas from Florida to California. Several big city recruiting stations reported increased enlistments, and queries about draft status flooded others.

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller called a meeting of the national governors committee on civil defense for Saturday at the Pentagon in Washington.

Rockefeller said he wanted "to be sure that the states take every step necessary to be in maximum readiness."

In Illinois, Gov. Otto Kerner urged that all government and civil defense activities be closely coordinated. Aurel Clark, chief administrator for the state civil defense agency, said its Chicago office would be open around-the-clock, a normal precaution "such as you might take if there were going to be a cyclone."

Emergency Law
Gov. Edwin L. Mechem of New Mexico invoked the civil and defense mobilization law for the duration of the crisis.

Plans to put emergency caches of food and water in state health offices throughout Vermont began, and Gov. F. Ray Keyser Jr. ordered a review of civil defense operations.

All U.S. congressmen will be brought up to date on the crisis in five regional meetings scheduled today and Friday at New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Fort Worth and San Francisco. The meetings were called by the State Department.

At least six governors temporarily interrupted their political campaigns because of the crisis, including Gov. Pat Brown of California who planned to spend the weekend in Washington.

Arthur McCarthy, commander of the Florida American Legion, told Gov. Farris Bryant that 50,000 legionnaires in the state were willing to help civil defense authorities.

Rush for Food
Los Angeles city and civil defense officials sought to prevent another "run" on canned goods and bottled water. The heavy buying followed a suggestion by city civil defense director Joseph M. Quinn that residents buy a two-week supply of food.

In Jacksonville, Fla., there was heavy buying of canned meats and fish. One store reported an onslaught of requests for a small survival kit — made by a firm which was believed to have gone bankrupt last year for lack of orders.

There was a rush for batteries, flashlights, candles, canned goods and distilled water around Houston, Tex. One customer, who said "we're headed for our bomb shelter for a week," bought $600 worth of groceries.

In many cases, civil defense authorities planned to reveal immediately the location of buildings designated as emergency fallout shelters for hundreds of thousands of people. The drive to stock them with emergency rations got under way.

Capacity Crowd Is Expected For Chamber Event

A crowd of 425 persons is expected tonight at the annual Chamber of Commerce and 60th Anniversary Banquet in Robert E. Lee Junior High School cafeteria.

Dr. Guy Newman, president of Howard Payne College at Brownwood, will be the principal speaker and the banquet program will be built around a theme of "Sixty Years on the Grow." A prologue will be narrated by Warren Hasse with Joe Whitten, soloist; Jerry Whitten, organist; and Pinky Powell at the drums.

Three new officers and 24 directors of the Chamber of Commerce, installed Tuesday night, will formally take over their new duties before the conclusion of tonight's annual session.

The new officers are Dr. Joe Donaldson, president; Aubrey Steele, vice president; and Loyd Davies, finance director.

New directors and their wives will serve as table hosts and hostesses at the banquet.

Gordon Lyons, outgoing president of the Chamber, will preside at tonight's meeting, and as the final act on the program will turn over the C. of C. gavel to the incoming president, Dr. Donaldson.

The Rev. Donald Hauck, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, will give the invocation and guests will be introduced by Aubrey Steele.

Visiting chamber of commerce delegations from some 15 surrounding towns and communities have accepted invitations to attend the banquet.

The three-day celebration will be concluded with the Gay Nineties Revue at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Pampa Junior High Auditorium. The presentation will be staged by the Pampa Jaycees and the Pampa Little Theater group.

Pampa merchants also are featuring 60th Anniversary bargains in special old-fashioned sales events during the celebration days.

Two World Leaders In Appeal For Peace

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The first 24 hours of President Kennedy's Cuban quarantine passed peacefully today, without known contact between blockading U.S. forces and arms-carrying Soviet vessels and with world tensions easing slightly.

But, in the absence of further word from the Defense Department, it was assumed that at least some Cuba-bound Soviet ships still were holding on course and the big test still was to come.

Two world leaders dedicated to peace, Acting Secretary General Thant of the United Nations and Pope John XXIII, appealed urgently to the President and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to

BULLETIN
NEW YORK (UPI) — Rep. James Van Zandt, R-Pa., said today he had been informed that a Russian ship carrying petroleum had been intercepted en route to Cuba by the U.S. Navy but was allowed to proceed.

Contributing to the slight easing of tensions were the fact that some Soviet ships already had altered course away from Cuba and Khrushchev's own suggestion that he wanted a summit conference.

As the world waited final evidence of Soviet intentions there were these related developments: United States' allies increasingly were declaring their support for the American action and some Latin American nations, including Argentina, were offering active military participation.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told Britain the Russian build-up in Cuba was a "deliberate adventure designed to test the ability and determination of the United States." Conservatives and Laborites alike cheered when he said there must be "no break or wavering among the Allies."

With Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's return to Moscow from his session with President Kennedy and a visit to the Berlin wall, it was expected the Russian stand toward the U.S. challenge would be clarified quickly. Demonstrators outside the U.S. embassy in Moscow chanted "hands off Cuba."

Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt assured the United States that "Berlin will work as usual and not get nervous." There was some anticipation that the Russian reply might take the form of new pressures on West Berlin.

In Washington, it was suggested that Kennedy would politely reject Thant's proposal for a three-week moratorium on action by either side unless it were accompanied by iron-clad guarantees that the Soviets would not use the period to increase the Cuban arms buildup.

Premier Fidel Castro's Communist government threatened its controls on consumer goods to halt a wave of panic buying apparently inspired by the U.S. blockade.

Russia Appears Ready To Push For Border Talks

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Russia appeared ready today to press for a negotiated settlement of the bloody border dispute between Communist China and India.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda labeled "constructive" a Chinese proposal to end the fighting that was made while its troops smashed deeper into Indian-claimed territory on both ends of a 1,000-mile frontier.

India branded the Chinese proposal "deceptive." A spokesman reported "heavy casualties" on both sides in fighting near the disputed northwestern and northeastern border areas.

The Chinese proposal called for troops on both sides to pull back an equal distance from their front line positions while Premiers Chou En-lai and Jawaharlal Nehru attempt to reach a "friendly settlement."

But a statement by the Indian Foreign Ministry indicated the plan would not be acceptable as put forth.

Committee Says Censorship Not 'No-Win Policy'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A special Senate committee said today that nothing in the censorship of military speeches reflected a no-fight, no-win policy by the government.

In a 203-page report on its widely publicized "muzzling" inquiry, the committee headed by Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., said reviews of speeches dealing with policy matters were "altogether proper and desirable."

The committee said that some of the speech changes made by State and Defense Department censors "simply defy logical explanation."

But it disagreed with Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., who had charged that the censorship practices demonstrated there was a "no-win" foreign policy.

No Lack Of Devotion
The committee said its investigation did not establish "in any way that there is, or has been, any lack of devotion to American principles, any absence of a will to fight, if necessary, and to win, if compelled to fight, any intentional compromise of the nation's security or best interests, or any tendency to sacrifice our national interest by appeasement of the potential enemy."

The report also dealt with the civil-military relationship, troop information and education, and military participation in cold war seminars.

It devoted only three paragraphs to former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, noting that he had

It Will Be 'Family Night' At The 'Opera House' Saturday

The presentation is the climax of a three-day 60th Anniversary Celebration of Gray County and the occasion.

Parade Today Kicks Off Anniversary Celebration; More Events Are 'On Tap'

Pampa's 60th Anniversary Celebration was scheduled to be kicked off at 4 p.m. today with a downtown parade featuring Pampa's three top-rated school bands and the band from the Amarillo Air Force Base.

The Pampa High, Robert E. Lee and Pampa Junior High Bands, which only last Tuesday won the top Class I honors in their respective divisions at the Inter-scholastic League Marching Band competition in Canyon, were to make their first public appearances since receiving the honors.

The paraders were putting on the final touches at noon today and Parade Marshal Wesley Langham said the line of march would be north on Cuyler St. from the assembly point at Craven and S. Cuyler Sts. to Browning, west on Browning to Frost, south on Frost to Foster and west on Foster to the disbanding point.

The big event tonight will be the 60th Anniversary and the annual Chamber of Commerce Membership Banquet at 7:30 p.m. in Robert E. Lee Junior High School Cafeteria.

Tomorrow night's feature will be the Square Dance Festival at 8 p.m. in the Pampa Junior High School gymnasium under sponsorship of the Calico Capers Square Dance Club.

Residents Are Preparing For 'Worst'

No Public Fallout Shelters In Pampa

EDITOR'S NOTE — Rather than attempt to print a detailed list of precautions that should be taken, we recommend that you contact the Civil Defense Director for Gray County where the fallout protection booklets and other material are available to the public.

The current Soviet-Cuban crisis has jarred Americans awake to the dangers of nuclear war and the people of Pampa are no exception to the general rule across the nation.

Bill Leonard, Gray County Civil Defense Director, said today "his telephones in the office and at home have been flooded with calls from people wanting to know what to do in case the worst happens and Pampa finds itself inside the area of a nuclear explosion.

"Where can we go if there is an explosion or fallout near here?"

That's the most-asked question, Leonard said.

The answer to it, according to Leonard, is that Pampa has no public bomb or fallout shelters.

There is no one central location where the populace could go in Pampa in event that emergency ever arises.

Start today making what preparations you can to survive nuclear fallout.

In Pampa survival must necessarily be a matter of the best possible protection in your own home.

Civil Defense authorities recommend that individual households lay in a supply of food and water that will last at least for two weeks.

This, of course, would consist of canned and sealed foods and sealed water containers. The minimum would be one quart of water a day per person, and a gallon of water a day per person would provide for more comfort including washing.

Local grocery stores report no significant increase in the sale of groceries. However, yesterday was double stamp day in Pampa. The sale of bottled water has been on the increase in Pampa for some time, according to local grocers.

Leonard said a booklet, "Fallout Protection, What to Know and Do About Nuclear Attack," is available at his office in the Courthouse.

The booklet sets forth that "in a major attack upon our country, millions of people would be killed. There appears to be no practical program that would avoid large-scale loss of life."

Leonard stated that Pampa, be-

Smoke In Your Eyes

It was a clear, crisp fall afternoon and Pete decided to take his lawn. He carried the leaves to his back yard and burned them just at the entrance of the alley which ran along the rear of his lot.

The leaves were wet, and Pete found that he had to stir them occasionally in order for proper burning, resulting in a dense cloud of smoke.

Al intended to drive his car into the alley in which Pete was burning the leaves. As he approached the alley, he entered a dense cloud of smoke, so dense in fact that his vision was completely obscured. He nevertheless continued to drive his car into the alley, although he did reduce his speed.

As Al entered the alley Pete was standing next to the curb, completely engulfed by the smoke. Al's car struck Pete.

Pete sued Al claiming that he was negligent in driving into the smoke when he could not see. Al, on the other hand, said that Pete was negligent in standing in the alley in such a dense cloud of smoke when he knew that cars were driven in the alley.

Was Al negligent? Can Pete collect from him for his damages? Pete would not win his case, unless the jury found him not negligent in standing in the alley in a cloud of dense smoke. However, the courts have held that a driver must exercise care commensurate with the situation. It has been recognized in a number of cases that more care than normal is required of a driver traveling through smoke which limits his visibility.

It is the duty of the operator of a car to drive it at such a rate of speed that he can bring his car to a standstill within the distance that he can plainly see objects or obstructions ahead of him. If he continues to proceed when he is unable to see because his vision is obscured, he is negligent. When the situation on a highway is such that one's vision is completely obscured, it is his duty to slow down or even stop until the cause of such obscured vision is at least in part removed.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — During the political crisis Wednesday, I ran across a handout reminding me that CBS-TV Friday night will present a "Miss Teen-Age America" beauty pageant. I had a tough time keeping the rest of the day in focus.

But a good laugh was certainly a dire need Wednesday; and as luck would have it, the man who seems to have the inside track to most of the nation's funnybone, Bob Hope, turned up on NBC-TV Wednesday night for the first of his six specials this season.

And with the heat on the home front the past few days, one could appreciate how much Hope's uncomplicated belly laughs mean to the troops he so often entertains overseas, even if many of his lines Wednesday night were only fair.

For his opener, the comedian had a sure-fire ratings blockbuster. Hope, of course, is an institution. Then there was guest Lucille Ball, another institution. And Bing Crosby, yet another institution. There was also Juliet Prowse, who is built better than any institution.

In his topical opening monologue, Hope noted one of the possible benefits of Telstar: "Right now, there may be 100 million people on Mars who don't brush after every meal."

Then, playing a mobster named Busby, he went through a rowdy sketch in which he has a romance with Miss Ball, a lady district attorney. Miss Ball's inability to keep a straight face opposite Hope was funnier than her lines; but she did note that although crime increased 75 per cent during her law control, she guided a television tour of Alcatraz.

With Crosby, Hope did a take-off on the "Bonanza" series with its Ponderosa Ranch. In the Hope-Crosby version, the spread was called the Tremenderosa, and that was about the funniest part of the proceedings even though the two oldtimers are incredibly at ease as a team. Crosby played the father, and Hope portrayed all three sons from "Bonanza."

As usual, there was the palship song that Hope and Crosby manage just about every time they get together. And there were the usual many plugs for Hope's movies, including an attractive presentation of goofs during the filming of "Critic's Choice" with Miss Ball.

Miss Prowse, who barely escaped with her life from the New York critics when she recently appeared in Eddie Fisher's Winter Garden show, Wednesday night limited her attempts to her talents and was fun to look at as she danced a turkey trot. She is fun to look at any time.

The amazing thing, though, is the Hope comedy machine and its shrewd manipulation of all mediums. He has the best gag writers since financier J.P. Morgan, who, upon learning Theodore Roosevelt was going on a safari, once said: "I hope the first lion who sees him does his duty."

The Channel Swim: A planned series based on the musical show "The Bells Are Ringing" has hit a snag; CBS-TV wants Cara Williams to star, but the authors, Adolph Green and Betty Comden, don't; it is understood that Green at one time wanted his wife, Miss Comden, for the lead.

ABC-TV's Vincent (Ben Casey) Edwards is reported thinking of producing a series with a Negro as star; perhaps a western, with Sammy Davis Jr. toplining. Hollywood's first international movie festival next year will include television films.

As expected, Lucille Ball's new CBS-TV series topped the ratings for the two weeks ending Oct. 7; other regular programs in the top 10 include Andy Griffin, Danny Thomas, "Beverly Hillsbillies," "Bonanza," Red Skelton, "Hazel" and Jack Benny; two specials complete the list.

Small Fire Here

A cooking stove left turned on resulted in a small fire which caused light damage to the kitchen at a residence at 320 W. Albert at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday afternoon. The Pampa Fire Department answered the alarm.

Committee

The committee said there was a "popular misconception" that Walker had been disciplined because of his "pro-blue" troop indoctrination program. It said the Army found this program was "basically sound."

Removed From Command Walker was removed from command of the 24th Division in Germany because of his participation in "controversial activities."

The Army said later that these included attempts to influence the votes of his troops in favor of ultra-conservative candidates.

The report also included a separate section on the controversial film "Operation Abolition" which showed scenes of riots in San Francisco during hearings held by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Senate groups strongly urged the Defense Department to permit and encourage the use of the film in troop information and training programs.

Arlington Burials More than 100,000 persons have been buried in Arlington National Cemetery since 1864 and, at the present rate of burials, it has been estimated that the cemetery's 420 acres will be completely filled by 1970.

Citizens

necessity for the mass public protection, Leonard stated. Government officials and the Department of Defense, Office of Civil Defense, have pointed out that there are no total answers, no easy answers, no cheap answers to the question of protection from nuclear attack. But there ARE some answers.

Fallout is the radioactive debris of a nuclear explosion which eventually falls to earth in particles.

To get some idea of the effects of a 5-megaton nuclear blast -

At ground level it would destroy most buildings two miles from the point of the explosion. Steel-frame buildings would be knocked sideways and great fires started.

The destruction five miles away would be less severe, but fires and early fallout could be a significant hazard.

At 10 miles, sturdy buildings would remain intact. At this distance fires probably would not be started by the fireball, but might be started by the blast wave which could rupture gas lines and short-circuit wires. Flying glass would present a major danger, as would early fallout.

At 30 miles from the bomb burst, all buildings would remain standing. The fading blast wave would take about five minutes to arrive, but would still shatter many windows. The greatest danger at this distance would be from early fallout which would begin arriving in some areas within three or four hours, depending upon weather conditions at the time.

The Civil Defense booklet, recommended by Director Leonard, supplies information on what to do in event nuclear attack should hit within radius of Pampa. It sets forth information about special water supplies and canned foods, first aid kits, medical supplies. It may become necessary to try to survive up to ten days after the attack without venturing out of your home. Water is more important than food. And fresh air, of course, is more vital than either water or food.

Civil Defense says the two public warning signals in event of imminent attack are:

A 3-to-5-minute steady tone of the civil defense siren (there is one atop the Hughes Building) which is notice to turn on your radio for direction from local authorities, and to the Chinese offer to withdraw 20 kilometers (12.5 miles) from what they call "the line of actual control," a spokesman said.

A 3-minute period of short blasts, meaning to take cover immediately.

"The main thing," says Leonard, "is that the public not become panicky. Your best chance for survival will be if you think clearly, act calmly and do only what seems best to do."

Leonard stated that to his knowledge there are only about 15 individual home fallout shelters in Pampa. The number could be as high as about two dozen, he said.

"What is this line of actual control?" he said. "Is this the line they have created by aggression since the beginning of September? Advancing 40 or 60 kilometers by blatant military aggression and offering to withdraw 20 kilometers provided both sides do a deceptive device which can fool nobody."

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (UPI)—Terence Sawyers, a 230-pound chef, was fined $8.40 Tuesday for littering despite his unique alibi. Sawyers, 67, told the judge he was too fat to bend to pick up the dropped cigarette wrapper.

Accidents Increase

Traffic accidents in Pampa during September showed a slight increase over the same period one year ago.

Police Chief Jim Conner reported today that Pampa had 47 accidents compared to 42 in September of 1961.

There were nine persons injured during the month, compared to 11 hurt in the September accidents in 1961.

Pampa has had 377 traffic accidents so far in the first nine months of 1962. For the same period of 1961 there were 362 accidents. One fatality, and 18 injuries have been reported from accidents so far this year. Last year for the same period there were 77 injuries and no fatalities.

The chief's report shows that 57 males and 20 females were involved in the 47 accidents reported during September this year.

Total damage in the accidents was estimated at $11,830.75.

say even extraordinary, except in wartime," he said.

He said he had been requested by a "large number" - Ambassador Mahmud Ried of the United Arab Republic put it at 50- of delegates to make the appeal.

Refrain From Action

He said the delegates felt that "all concerned should refrain from any action which may aggravate the situation and bring with it the risk of war" and believed that time should be granted to let the "parties concerned" get together to resolve the crisis peacefully and return the situation in the Caribbean to normal.

"This involves on the one hand the voluntary suspension of all arms shipments to Cuba and also the voluntary suspension of the quarantine measures involving the searching of ships bound for Cuba," Thant said in his messages to Kennedy and Khrushchev.

Make Your Thanksgiving A Gala Occasion

Carrot, Mushroom Saute Dinner

Although the spirit of Thanksgiving never changes, some new recipes, those little more "gourmet" than the Pilgrims served, can add freshness to the traditional menu.

Fresh vegetables and fruits in abundance belong in this Harvest Festival of Thanks, of course. But today, many convenience foods frozen, dehydrated and canned, when skillfully prepared, become delicious additions to our day of national over indulgence.

Delicate and flavorful, this soup can start the feast on a light and festive note.

CREAM OF MUSHROOM CHICKEN SOUP
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

1 envelope cream of mushroom soup
1 envelope chicken noodle soup
5 cups water
1 cup milk
Pour soup mix into saucepan. Gradually stir in water. Bring soup to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat; partially cover and simmer 5 minutes. Stir in milk; eat, serve.

Served in a handsome dish, this fragrant combination of fresh carrots and mushrooms will do honor to the lordly turkey.

FRESH CARROT AND MUSHROOM SAUTE
(6 servings)

3 cups fresh carrots, cut into 1-inch diagonal pieces
1-inch boiling water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 1/2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1/4 cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
Fresh parsley

Place carrots in a saucepan with 1-inch boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon sugar. Cover and cook until crisp-tender, about 20 minutes. Drain if necessary and keep warm. Sauté mushrooms and onion in butter or margarine and lemon juice until mushrooms are tender, about 10 minutes. Mix lightly with carrots, the remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt and black pepper. Serve hot garnished with parsley.

SAUTE of fresh carrots and mushrooms gives both color and a gourmet touch to traditional Thanksgiving menu.

Give Pumpkin Pie An Almond Shell

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Pumpkin pie is a traditional "must" on the Thanksgiving dinner menu. It can be the popular old-fashioned pie that mother used to make (or your favorite baked goods counter.) Or, something new can be added, such as an almond crust and almond topped meringues.

ALMOND CRUST PUMPKIN PIE
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)

2 eggs
3/4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon pumpkin pie spice
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 can (14 1/2-ounces) evaporated milk
1 can (1 pound) pumpkin
Almond pie shell
Whipped Cream
Toasted slivered almonds

Almond Pie Shell:
1/2 cup toasted slivered almonds
1/2 package (10-ounces) pie crust mix
Beat eggs with sugar. Stir in pie spice, salt, milk and pumpkin mix well. Pour into Almond Pie Shell and bake in 425 degrees F. and bake 45 minutes longer. Cool. Top with dollops of whipped cream and almond slivers.

ALMOND PIE SHELL:
Grind almonds or crush fine with a rolling pin. Prepare pie crust mix as package directs. Roll out on floured board to fit 9-inch pie plate. Sprinkle with almonds. Using rolling pin, roll and press nuts into dough. Line pie plate and flute edge.

FAVORITE PUMPKIN PIE
(Makes one 9-inch pie)

1 cup brown sugar
2 teaspoons corn starch
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ginger
3/4 teaspoon cloves
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 1/2 cups prepared pumpkin
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk
1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell

Mix sugar, corn starch, salt and spices in a bowl. Blend in slightly beaten eggs. Add pumpkin; fold in evaporated milk until well-blended. Pour into pastry shell. Bake in 425 degrees F. (hot) oven 15 minutes; reduce to 350 degrees F. (moderate) oven and bake 25 to 30 minutes longer. Center of pie should be soft. Pie will be firm when cool.

NOTE:
If canned pumpkin is extremely moist, increase corn starch to 1 tablespoon. To prepare home-cooked pumpkin or winter squash for pie: wash, cut into sections and peel. Cut into cubes about 1-inch. Place in covered kettle with just enough water to prevent burning; cook until tender. Mash and continue cooking uncovered, over low heat. Watch carefully and stir frequently; cook until thick.

WHY, Mr. Congressman?

(A letter to Mr. Rogers)

Someone must speak up!

Why do you say, "It doesn't do any good to holler and scream about the problem of increasing bureaucracy"? Unless you can offer something better, don't knock the hollering and screaming a few men in Congress have courage enough to do. People of the Panhandle are disturbed about "increasing bureaucracy", about wasteful government spending and the national debt, about the Kennedy-Freeman farm plan you supported, and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency you voted for. Someone must have the courage to speak up, Mr. Congressman. And here is where you have failed the people who elected you. That's why the citizens of the Panhandle will vote for Jack Seale, a man who does have the courage to speak up.

Change Of Pace For Sunday Dinner

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Looking for a change of pace dinner for Sunday, or any other eating day? Here's a foreign recipe, sturdy, full of flavor, protein-rich and economical. It combines ground beef, cornmeal, vegetables and seasonings into a large casserole. A good suggestion, also, for teen-age parties.

POLENTA
(6 servings)

SAUCE
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 cup sliced mushrooms
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 pound ground beef
2 (8-ounce) cans tomato sauce
1 1/2 cups water
2 carrots, sliced
1 cup sliced celery
2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon oregano
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Dash of tabasco

3 cups boiling water
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 cups grated Parmesan cheese

Sauce: Sauté mushrooms, onion and garlic in hot oil until golden. Add ground beef and brown well. Add remaining sauce ingredients; cover and simmer 1 hour.

Polenta: Mix cornmeal and cold water. Add boiling water, salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally until smooth and thickened. Add 1 cup Parmesan cheese and mix well. Spoon mixture into a buttered 2-quart casserole; sprinkle top with remaining cheese. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 25 minutes. Serve with sauce.

Jet jewelry is having a big revival this year, mostly in the four strand bib. But there are some two strand jet necklaces, too.

SUCCULENT, plump capon with cranberry-orange stuffing is ideal choice for families who prefer a smaller bird.

Some Might Prefer Capon For Thanksgiving Day Menu

Of course turkey is generally rated as the all-American Thanksgiving bird. But there are small families who prefer something less enormous. For them, a plump and succulent capon is the ideal choice.

However, to carry on the Thanksgiving tradition of poultry and cranberries, you might use a cornbread stuffing enlivened with cranberry-orange relish. Also, the rest of the menu can be traditional, too, including giblet gravy, sweet potatoes, white onions, turnips and pumpkin pie.

CRANBERRY-ORANGE DRESSING
For 1 capon and a one-quart casserole

1 pan golden corn bread, coarsely crumbled
1 cup finely-chopped celery
2 cups cranberry-orange relish, frozen or freshly made
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1-3 cup melted shortening
1/2 cup orange juice

Lightly toss all ingredients together until well combined. (Use an additional 1/4 cup orange juice for more moist dressing.) Stuff half of dressing lightly into body cavity and neck region of capon. Roast according to standard roasting directions. Bake remaining dressing in 1 1/2-quart casserole during last 45 minutes of roasting time.

GOLDEN CORN BREAD
1 cup enriched yellow corn meal
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
1 cup milk
1/4 cup shortening, soft

Sift together dry ingredients into bowl. Add egg, milk and shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat. Bake in greased 8-inch square pan in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

HOMEMADE CRANBERRY-ORANGE RELISH
2 cups fresh cranberries
3 oranges, quartered (seeds removed)
1 cup sugar
Put cranberries and oranges including rind, through coarse blade of food grinder. Stir in sugar. Let stand at least 5 to 10 minutes until sugar has dissolved.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Might Call It, Lazy!
Rest While You Press

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Being a busy mother of five, I found it took too much time to iron sheets, towels, etc. I do like them to look pressed, so now I fold the towels and place them on a chair and sit on them while I do the rest of the folding. I change from towels to sheets and they all look pressed. I am saved time and rest a bit, too.

LAZY
DEAR POLLY — I keep a medium-sized turkish towel — an older one — hanging inside the shower curtain in our bathroom. I clip it on to one of those colored plastic clothes pins that can hang on a rod. After showering and while still standing in the tub, each member of the family wipes off the tile walls with the towel. The walls never need to have a special washing so I am saved a lot of work.

M. C.
DEAR GIRLS — What a smart gal! Her family does one job for her in a painless way.

POLLY
DEAR POLLY — Place mats with sponge backing are quickly dried, after washing, if you place them between turkish towels and go over them several times with the rolling pin. Excess water is quickly absorbed and the mats are soon ready for use.

MRS. L.
DEAR POLLY — Here is one for kids who fuss about drinking fruit juices. Make popcicles with any kind of fruit juice. Then they get their vitamins with pleasure. Sometimes I add a teaspoon of sugar. Prune juice pops are delicious, do give them a try.

RONNIE
DEAR POLLY — When I know grandchildren are coming to visit, I start saving enough copies of this newspaper to fold and stack, wrap neatly in brown laundry paper and tie. Then I write the name of the child coming on each one. The two-year-old may need a stack four to five inches high measuring about eleven by seven inches so that his feet may rest on the chair seat in front of the stack. You see, these lifts do away with the need for borrowing or renting high chairs. A four-year-old may need only a two-inch elevation with the stack covering the entire chair set so he CAN NOT put his feet on it. After milk or cereal is spilled, throw away the wet sack and make a new one. When the matter of little feet depart, throw them all away.

RUTH MILLETT

"The secret of getting the most work from a woman is to tell her you need her and appreciate what she is doing." That's the conclusion of a professor who has made a research study on how to get more work out of women employees.

That's true, of course, and most women workers would readily admit it.

The woman worker who stays happy on the job with the same boss year after year may not get frequent pay raises; she may or may not get ego-building promotions, she may or may not have a more impressive title than she started out with.

But it's a cinch if she keeps working happily under the same management year after year that she is getting two things in good measure—praise and appreciation.

She'll take on extra work without complaining as long as her employer lets her know he is aware of the extras she is doing and appreciate it.

She won't even watch the clock impatiently if her boss is in the habit of thanking her when she works overtime.

She won't go looking for a new boss who might not appreciate what a jewel she is—so long as the man she is working for knows he has a prize and lets her know he knows.

But let an employer take a woman worker for granted; let him belittle her work; make her feel that he thinks she could easily be replaced; let him tactlessly bark orders instead of making suggestions and he gets no more work out of her than he is paying for—and often not as much.

That is because a woman is never first a worker—then a woman. She is always and forever a woman first.

A woman gives her best only so long as her best is appreciated.

Dear Abby....

Like All Situations, This, Too, Shall Pass!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 17, but exceptionally adult for her years. She brought a nice looking young man home to meet us. She told us he was 26. He seemed refined and well brought up. Later she admitted he had been married (for a short time). After some checking we learned that he was 24 and his marital status is "vague." I asked him for documentary proof of his "divorce" before I would allow our daughter to date him. He never came back. Our daughter is all broken up, saying we "ruined her life" and that her boy friend refused to come back because we "insulted" him. Were we wrong? What should we do now?

DEAR ABBY: My father tells us kids to pick up our things. If we get careless, he goes around and picks up everything that is out of place and keeps it. We don't get it back either. But HE leaves his ties on the doorknobs, shoes under the table and underwear on the floor — even after three years in the Air Force. How can we make him practice what he preaches? I am 13 and my brother is 16.

DEAR NOT: Your father outranks you, so don't point out his carelessness. Maybe if you left this column around where you: Air Force Daddy would see it, he might straighten up and fly right.

DEAR ABBY: I am a wife who is treated like a housekeeper. Excuse me, I take that back. If a housekeeper were called some of the names I have been called around here, she would quit. But I can't quit. I have no place to go and, besides, I have two children to raise yet. My biggest complaint is trying to get a dollar out of my husband. Other women tell me they get an "allowance." When I ask my husband for an "allowance" he tells me I am not a teen-ager and don't need one. He does all the marketing and handles all the money and if I want a hairnet or lipstick I have to beg him to buy it for me. I

Tour Finale At Orange

By ALEX KAHN
UPI Sports Writer

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI)—The elite of gold and a band of eager young pros teed off today in the $22,500 Orange County Open, final stop on the Western fall tour.

The veterans whose names have been at the top of the money lists for years were headed by Gene Littler of San Diego, Calif. The youngsters who have zoomed into prominence more recently included ex-collegians Al Geiberger and Bob McCallister, the hot-playing Tony Lema, Bob Pratt, Dave Hill and a host of others.

Their final meeting in the West this year was over the colorful Mesa Verde Country Club course for 72 holes of competition that end Sunday. The 4,600-yard course is located only a few miles from the ocean and has been made more difficult through a series of changes.

McCallister captured the Orange County Open last year by two strokes as he shot a six under par 278 climaxed by a 66 on his final round. Par over the course is 363-71.

But the defending champion is being challenged in this year's tournament by his former University of Southern California teammate, Geiberger, who goes into the Orange County Open from a victory in last weekend's $27,500 Ontario Open.

There were two stars in the list of 120 pros teeing off who missed the Ontario Open. The veteran Bob Rosburg got back from a South American television film date in time to participate while young Phil Rodgers returned after having been sidelined by a wrist injury.

On the strength of their late-round performances in the Ontario Open, Littler, Billy Maxwell, Tommy Jacobs, Gardner Dickinson Jr. and Al Johnston were formidable foes for the youngsters.

Lema won Wednesday's pro-club celebrity competition with a six under par 65 and took the $250 first place prize.

Florida A&M Retains No. 1

NEW YORK (UPI)—Powerful Florida A & M, which has scored 294 points against only 24 for the opposition, remained the No. 1 small college football team in the United Press International ratings today for the fourth consecutive week.

The Rattlers, although routing Bethune-Cookman, 56-6, last Saturday for their fourth consecutive victory, lost ground to runnerup Southern Mississippi.

Florida A & M received 18 first place votes — one less than a week ago — while Southern Mississippi drew 10 first place votes and picked up strong support in other placings to cut the Rattlers' lead to 19 points.

Bellamy Paces Chicago Zephyrs In NBA PLAY

By United Press International

All those rosy predictions that this is the year Walt Bellamy will develop into a super star seem to be coming true.

The 6-foot, 11-inch Bellamy, beginning his second year in the National Basketball Association, scored 42 points Wednesday night to lead the Chicago Zephyrs to a 118-107 triumph over the Los Angeles Lakers. The Zephyrs beat the Lakers only twice in 10 games last season.

Bellamy put the Zephyrs ahead, 20-19, in the opening session and went on to make 17 field goals and eight of nine free throws. Rudy Larusso led the Lakers with 24 points while Elgin Baylor, who averaged 35 a game against Chicago last season, was held to 17.

John Barnhill's 19 points paced the St. Louis Hawks to a 121-114 triumph over the Cincinnati Royals in the other Wednesday night game. Oscar Robertson led the Royals with 31 points.

The standings:

BREAKS EXISTING RECORD

LONDON (UPI)—Shin Keum Dan of North Korea cracked the existing record for the women's world 400 meter run Wednesday with a time of 51.9 seconds. The clocking, which eclipsed the 53.4 seconds held by Russia's Maria Itkina, will not be officially recognized because North Korea is not a member of the International Amateur Athletic Federation.

Lefors, 'Rockets Top Area Action

The Pirates of Lefors may have to search deep in their treasure chest of football savvy to put the damper on the Skyrockets of Wellington in a crucial District 2-A game for both teams. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Friday night in Lefors.

The Wellington visitors will bring a 4-2 season record to Lefors, including one conference win, 28-6 over Memphis. Other scorched victims of the Skyrockets are Hollis (Okla.) 34-0, Paduca, 14-0, and Price College, 55-6. Wellington lost to Tulia 34-12, and Shamrock, 34-14.

Coach Danny Goodie's charges have compiled an admirable 4-1-1 season record. The lone defeat was meted out by White Deer of Dist. 1-AA, 28-20. The Pirates tied Stinnett (0-0) and downed Groom, 21-0, Stratford, 21-0, and Gruver, 14-6. In the Pirates first Dist. 2-A game, the Lefors team blanked Canadian, 20-0. Lefors has allowed less than one touchdown per game played.

The Lefors-Wellington game will almost decide the district championship. In another conference game played last week, Clarendon stopped McLean, 28-6.

In another District 2-A game, the Canadian Wildcats try to get back on the winning side of the ledger after being blanked by Lefors last Friday. The Wildcats will host the Clarendon Bronchos.

Another member of Dist. 2-A, McLean, will host Memphis in a Friday night game. Both teams lost their first conference game and will have to go all out tonight to stay in contention for the District race.

Rangers Play
The undefeated Perryton Rangers will swing into District 1-AAA action against Littlefield. The Rangers are favored to top the Littlefield team in a Friday night game at Littlefield.

The Rangers will rely on their big guns, the two R's, Ronnie Good and Roger Wright in the fracas. Good is one of the finest halfbacks in the Panhandle area this year.

The Demons of Dumas will breathe fire in the faces of Levelland scorching the Lobos in another Dist. 1-AAA battle.

Bucks—Stinnett

White Deer will square off against rival Stinnett in a Dist. 1-AA contest. The Bucks are favored in the Friday night game slated for White Deer. After losing to powerful Dalhart last Friday, the Bucks have to win to stay in contention in the conference race.

After an open date last week, the Groom Tigers meet Claude in their first Dist. 5-B game Friday night. Mobeetie hosts Wheeler in another Friday night Dist. 5-B tussle.

Miami is slated to play Booker Friday night in an eight-man outting.

Optimist Boxers Sponsor 3-Way

The weekly "Thursday night fights" will feature a tri-meet between the Pampa Optimist team, Berger, and Lefors. Bell time is 7:30 in the Optimist Boys Club Building.

The matches, second of the season for the Optimist boxers, will pit top boxers from all three towns. Prices for the bouts are 50 cents adults and 25 cents students.

More boxing enthusiasts have joined the Optimist squad in the last few days. Tom Lamar, slated to help coach and fight in the open division, has joined this year's team. Lamar is a former Golden Gloves champion having won numerous championships at district and regional Golden Gloves matches.

Two other experienced boxers, Robert Harris and Johnny Caldwell, are now fighting for the Optimist team. Both boys fight in the heavier divisions.

Other newcomers are Douglas Reeves, Ray Dean and Don Owens, Johnny Dale Sells, Wayne Lyle, and Davis Lee Jenkins.

Book Tickets

Cliff Dunham, director of the Optimist boxers, announced recently that books of tickets are now on sale and can be purchased from any Optimist member. The books contain ten tickets entitling the owner to any 10 matches he wishes to attend. However, the Golden Gloves district meet is excluded. The books sell for five dollars. The books, according to Dunham, will be more valuable later as the prices of the bouts increase.

Officials for the matches are Cliff Dunham, Dickie Wills, and Jim Arndt.

Baseball Splits Series Money

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—There was $2,591.25 a man riding on the pitch with which Ralph Terry of the New York Yankees retired Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants for the last putout of the World Series.

And there was at least $5,400 a man riding on the pitch with which Stan Williams of the Los Angeles Dodgers walked home the Giants' winning run, in the third game of the National League's playoff.

The first amount is the difference between the full winner's share of $9,882.74 which will go to 34 Yankees and the full loser's share of $7,291.49 which will go to the 29 Giants. And the second is the difference between the relatively paltry $1,860.63 which will go to the Dodgers for finishing second and the lowest amount they could have won in the World Series.

Schoolboy Grid Teams Hold On To Rankings

By ED FITE
UPI Sports Writer

Five new names cropped up among the divisional TOP TEN teams this week while Wichita Falls, Dumas, Denver City and New London held on firmly to their respective No. 1 United Press International rankings.

Baytown and Houston S. F. Austin climbed into the Nos. 9 and 10 spots in Class AAAA, replacing Harlandale and Waco High; Anahuac claimed the No.

10 spot in Class AA as Hamlin dropped out, and Burnet and Bastrop won the Nos. 7 and 10 berths in Class A when Bloomington and Chillicothe dropped out.

Abilene High moved up one notch to eighth in AAAA as Wichita Falls, Port Arthur, Berger, Denison, Spring Branch, Dallas Samuell and Pasadena held onto their 1 through 7 ranks.

Two Switch Places

The Class AAA make up was the same except that Angleton and Lamar Consolidated switched places 9 and 10 when Lamar Consolidated was edged 21-20 by eighth-rated Bay City. Dumas, Brownwood, Nacogdoches, Graham, Orange, McKinney and San Benito filled the first seven berths in that order.

Some shuffling occurred in Class AAA where Denver City, Jacksboro, Stamford and Bellville ranked 1-2-3-4. Sweeney and West each moved up one notch to fifth and sixth, Winters climbed from ninth to seventh and Palacios from 10th to eighth.

The first six positions remained in status quo in Class A with New London, Rotan, Idalou, Big Lake, Rosebud and Baird ranking in that order. Pearland slipped from seventh to eighth and Sunray climbed from 10th to ninth.

Beats Houston Lamar

Houston S.F. Austin earned its berth by defeating well-regarded Houston Lamar 14-7, while Baytown beat Texas City 33-0 for its fourth in a row after dropping the first two games to higher-ranked Port Arthur and Spring Branch.

Anahuac beat Sour Lake 28-0 for its sixth successive victory to gain a AA spot, while Burnet put aside the second of two tough district rivals by beating Toldhwaite 19-4 for a 6-1 record and Bastrop whipped strong Schulenburg 22-15 for its seventh win of the year without a loss.

Some of the rated teams may be extended to hold onto their berths this week on a schedule highlighted by Wichita Falls' clash with another perfect record team, Richland Hills, in a district opener.

Danny Kaye Has Finally Agreed To Perform In Television Show

By JOSEPH FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Danny Kaye, one of the last big Hollywood movie stars holding out against doing a regular television series, has finally signed a contract to appear in a weekly show for CBS next season.

OLD TIMER—Jean Maurioccourt, 4, compares 45-rpm record with two-foot disc on her grandmother's ancient nickelodeon in Cleveland, Ohio. Little Judy Gatins, 2, can't reach quite high enough to wind it. Nickelodeon, which once entertained customers in a corner saloon in the 1890s, can play 30 minutes without rewinding. Metal discs turn once every 2 1/2 minutes and play pretty tinkling music.

wood movie stars holding out against doing a regular television series, has finally signed a contract to appear in a weekly show for CBS next season.

Network President James Aubrey and the comedian agreed on terms of the contract earlier this week. Kaye stars in 32 shows and eight of them will be repeated.

A CBS spokesman expressed the networks' enthusiasm at landing the comedian when he said, "We've been trying to get him for 15 years."

Kaye's new show gives CBS one of the greatest comedian lineups in television history. Danny joins such comics as Lucille Ball, Red Skelton, Jack Benny, Jackie Gleason and Danny Thomas.

Kaye has appeared on television specials in the past and is now working on one for NBC to be aired Nov. 11. But up until now, producers of weekly series have drawn a "no" from the rangy comic.

"It took me a very long time to come to this decision," said Kaye during a break from taping his NBC show. "But now that I've made it I'm delighted. I think it's going to be exciting and productive. I think I will get into a show that gives me great personal satisfaction and, above all, entertainment to people watching."

The Lighter Side On The Care Of Infants

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—For advice on the care and feeding of children, my wife and I have relied on three basic authorities—Dr. Oberman, Dr. Spock and Dr. Parker.

I am not qualified to say whether they are the best authorities, but there is no doubt that they are the cheapest.

Dr. Oberman is a pediatrician friend of ours. When the black plague or some similar malady, such as a runny nose, smites one of our darlings, we make it a point to invite Dr. Oberman to dinner.

"Since you're coming out anyway," we say, after he accepts, "how about bringing your bag along."

This is the only way I know of to get a house call for the price of two lamb chops.

Our second authority, Dr. Spock, is the author of the well known book "Baby and Child Care." We consult it on the nights when Dr. Oberman has another dinner engagement.

Early Rate Reasonable

The initial investment is rather heavy—50 cents in the pocket sized edition—but considering that the book can be used from birth to teens, the yearly rate is quite reasonable.

Our third authority, Dr. Parker, is not actually a licensed M.D., but has a small private practice composed of her grandchildren. Her consultations not only are gratis, but virtually unavoidable.

To this impressive array we have just added a fourth authority, Dr. Walter W. Sackett Jr., who was kind enough to send us a free copy of his new book "Bringing Up Babies."

Dr. Sackett has been the source of some controversy because of his rather unusual approach to infant feeding. He recommends starting the little beggars on solid foods when they are just two days old.

Notes No Difficulty

"Contrary to popular notion," he says, "mothers almost never have difficulty introducing cereal when it is offered in the consistency of putty."

I boggled at that statement because it was so contrary to our own experience. If we didn't watch them, our children all would swallow putty at the consistency of cereal. But forcing cereal down them was another matter.

I have a theory that infants have concealed in their jaws a tiny factory which manufactures pabulum. This is the only way I can account for the fact that when you cram a spoonful of the stuff into their messy little kissers, two spoonfuls come back out.

Despite this disagreement, however, we are happy to welcome Dr. Sackett to our stable of child care authorities. We are even thinking of having another baby so we can take full advantage of his book.

ISLE OF ALDERNEY—Jeweler C. H. Richard, victim of the first major robbery to strike this English Channel island in many years.

"It's a very serious matter. It may be commonplace in London, but a crime like this in Alderney is a bit like sacrilege. I believe someone once broke my grandfather's window, but that was only to get locked up because he did not fancy joining the army."

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Walter K. Gutman of Stearns & Co., says the "strengthening of the market by going downward may continue. I think you just have to bite your nails and not panic."

He says that by going down it should be remembered that stocks are going from small holders to large. Or to put it another way, he says, "No matter how scared you are it is obvious that someone is buying stocks."

Gutman finds that the big people, judging by the tape, don't seem to think there is a real war coming. Of course he adds, they may change their minds and the real sign of fear of war will be the buying of commodities.

In such demoralized markets as these are bargains born, says W. I. La Tourette of Shearson, Hammill & Co. "To sum up, we think that investors who look back on today's market a year from now will find that it presented many attractive buying opportunities, not only in such groups as the oils, aerospace and utilities, which have been relatively good performers, but also in such depressed groups as the steels, rails, savings and loans and the small business investment companies.

Smilen & Safian's fundamental and technical analysis of the market says the first half of this week should see a deluge of sell orders hitting the exchange. Only by Seniority and Proven Ability Does a Member of Congress Attain Such Strategic Legislative Committee Memberships as These . . . . .

WALTER ROGERS is third in command of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. This committee has legislative jurisdiction over mines and mining affairs—our helium supplies—and over water rights and development. Our Congressman is Chairman of the Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee which passed on the Canadian River Dam Project.

WALTER ROGERS ranks seventh out of thirty-three members on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee—the oldest, most powerful legislative committee. Watchdog of various Federal Regulatory Agencies—such as the Federal Power Commission, Federal Communications Commission, Federal Aviation Agency, Interstate Commerce Commission, and the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as organizations like the National Science Foundation, the Civil Aeronautics Board, and others. The Committee has jurisdictions ranging all the way from railroads and airlines to TV-Radio and Telstar, from natural gas regulation to stock market safeguards.

WALTER ROGERS, as a seasoned and respected veteran Congressman, has the seniority, the Congressional reputation, and the know-how that comes only from experience, to give us a continued, effective voice in the Congress.
