SCHOOL BLAST IS ISSUE IN CIO CAMPAIGN

KILGORE, April 3 (AP)—The East Texas oil field, rocked by mass tragedy only 16 days ago, today silently awaited John L. Lewis' drive to unionize the world's most prolific petroleum sector.

One of the paramount issues, labor leaders and employers agreed, centered around what effect the New London school explosion and its ghastly toll of students and teachers would have on the proposed CIO movement.

Both sides claimed new strength because of the disaster. Less than a day after the school, nestled in the midst of 450 wells within a mile radius, was torn to bits by a gas accumulation in the basement, organizer John T. Allen of the International oil field, gas and refinery workers union, tersely commented the explosion would never have occurred if some of his union's ideas had been on the statute books.

Soft-spoken opponents of the unionization declined to be quoted. The New London school district, in the midst of the East Texas pool's richest producing area, is inhabited by 10,000 workers and families.

Their reactions to the labor movement, keen observers believe, may have heavy bearing on sentiment in other sections.

Union leaders quickly interpreted the generosity of oil companies during the explosion crisis as "a measure of good will." The majority of oil firms, major and independent, paid all or part of funeral and hospital expenses after the explosion. One large independent imported surgical specialists to treat the maimed.

Labor leaders took a similar attitude when major oil companies announced wage increases in March which averaged seven cents per hour.

"The men haven't been fooled," said W. B. Smith, secretary of the East Texas oil workers council. "They

WITH MILITARY OBSERVERS ON THE BILBAO FRONT. Northern Spain, April 3 (AP)—By the sea and in the tall mountains of the Basque lands, a Basque government army struggled tonight to hold General Francisco Franco's insurgent armies from their autonomous republican capital, Bilbao.

It was a surprise attack and a double one which they fought to suppress with every ounce of available manpower. In their narrow strip along the Bay of Biscay, with insurgent country on the east and west, and to the south, the Basques knew the fall of their northern stronghold would be a telling blow to the cause they support—the Madrid-Vaencia government of Spain.

This region is rich in natural resources and has an access to the sea and the help the sea can bring. The fighting was hot both on the seacoast, some 21 miles east of mountains which rim the Basque capital on the south and east.

Both sides made halting progress at separate points. But there seemed tonight to have been no important gain of ground for either.

On the sea, government defenders withstood a withering assault on the town of Lequeitio, 21 miles east and slightly north of Bilbao.

Some 16 miles into Bilbao, a mist-shrouded mountain, a daring band of government Basques scaled a 4,600 mountain peak, La Cruz, one of the natural barriers that lie between the insurgents and Durango, from which place they might sweep downhill some 16 miles into Bilbao.

Some insurgent war materials on the mountain peak fell into government hands, and the stiff battle there left insurgent dead strewn in the lofty crevices.

On other salients in the mountains, however, the insurgents edged ahead. The folk in the mountain village of Ochandiano, some ten miles south and east of Durango, evacuated before them. The Basque army, said insurgent commanders, was being badly riddled, despite reinforcements.

Armored cars bucked the government lines, with varying successes. Insurgent seapower battered the government towns on the coast, trying to clear the way for Franco's soldiers. The battleship Espana, the cruiser Velasco and heavily armed trawlers poured shells into the string of picturesque government settlements in the Lequeitio area.

POLICE REACH DEAD END IN SLAYING OF 3

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—The Easter morning murders on Beekman Hill, after one sensational week in the headlines, headed tonight toward a place in New York's book of unsolved crimes—alongside the butterfly killings of Dot King and Louise Lawson, the strangling of Vivian Gordon, and the shooting of the gambler, Arnold Rothstein.

As quietly as distant relatives claimed from a slab in Bellevue morgue, and buried in Queens, the body of Frank Byrnes, "forgotten man" in the triple killing of glamorous "Ronnie" Gedeon, her mother, and the little English waiter who roomed with them, so did fifty detectives sigh, tacitly admit defeat, and start to close the book.

"We're at an absolute dead end," said Lieutenant Walter Harding at the East 51st street station, a few blocks from the modest apartment some steel-fingered killer turned into a miniature slaughterhouse early Easter morning.

Detectives admitted the two men upon whom they had depended for solution—Joseph Gedeon, father of "Ronnie" and estranged from his wife, and Georges (Frenchy) Gueret, 46-year-old former roomer of the Gedeons—were all but dismissed from consideration in Queens.

Gueret, questioned first, established an "iron clad" alibi, and Gedeon, 54-year old student of erotics, small

DICK HUGHES INJURED IN RESORT ROCK SLIDE

Ten days ago Pampa's Dick Hughes went to Mineral Wells to build up his health and last night he returned swathed in bandages and limping badly, victim of a rock slide on a Palo Pinto mountain side.

Feeling exuberant, Dick and Raymond Harrah, who accompanied him on the trip, decided to go mountain climbing the other day. Raymond stopped to rest while the venturesome Hughes strolled around a corner.

Suddenly Raymond was aroused by the rumble of sliding rocks and dirt. Slipping and sliding down the mountainside, Raymond found Dick lying partially buried in rocks. He picked up the limp form and rushed to a doctor where seven stitches were required to close a gashed jaw and a hole in the nose. A sprained ankle and a sprained wrist were also found and bandaged.

1,000 Members Of Bands Will Compete Here

Pampa will be resounding on April 22, 23 and 24 with the strains of military and concert music furnished by more than 1,000 members of high school bands and orchestras from 36 counties in the Panhandle and northwest Texas.

As a result of efforts of the Pampa Band Directors' Association, the pupils will be in the city to attend the annual Northwest Texas Band and Orchestra Association contests.

Pampa's six band leaders, who are sponsoring the big musical event, are arranging plans to make this year's festival the best contest ever held in this section of the state.

The contest director will be Winston Savage, director of the Pampa high school band. Other local school band directors are A. C. Cox, Pampa Junior high school, who will handle the marching contests; L. R. Harmer, Horace Mann, in charge of programs; Eugene Sestrand, Woodrow Wilson, registration and local treasurer; W. Postma, Baker school, who will be chairman of the all-star band; and Oscar Croson, Sam Houston school, in charge of publicity for the contests.

The contests include every phase of instrumental instruction taught in the public schools of Northwest Texas: orchestras, concert and marching bands, rhythm bands, drum majors whirling contests, student conductor, solo and ensemble contests.

Nationally famous conductors and musicians will judge and criticize these contests, among them will be A. R. McAllister, president of the National School Band and Orchestra Association and director of the six times National Champion Joliet, Ill., High School Band, and DeForest Kline, nationally known for his outstanding work with college bands and orchestras throughout the nation.

For the past 10 years this festival has been held in Amarillo, and for the first time in the history of the association, it is to be held in Pampa, and all the citizens of Pampa

COUNTY HOLDS NEGRO COUPLE AND BAGGAGE

Bobby Brown, colored, enroute from Amarillo to Oklahoma with his girl friend, had his trip cut short in Pampa last night when Sheriff Earl Talley and Capt. William Lay, Texas Ranger, boarded the eastbound 6:19 p. m. Santa Fe train to ask a list of questions.

In fact it took the sheriff and the ranger so long to quiz Bobby that they had to take him and his companion off the train and lock them up in the Gray county jail.

Along with the two passengers they confiscated a "half car load" of express and baggage of doubtful ownership.

The officers nabbed Mr. Brown at the request of Amarillo authorities. The baggage consisted of eight Gladstone bags, many suits of clothes, women's apparel, two radio sets, silk stockings, etc., etc., the sheriff said.

Most of the baggage, it is charged, belonged to an Amarillo store. The two passengers are being detained here until Amarillo authorities come for them and take the prisoners back to Potter county for an explanation on a theft charge.

FIFTY VOTERS REELECT 'HUNKY' AND DAUGHTERY

Only 50 persons exercised their right to vote in yesterday's school election when C. T. Hunkapillar and J. M. Daugherty Jr. were returned to office for terms of three years each.

There were no write-ins and no ballots were mutilated or names scratched. No other names appeared on the ballot.

NATION ABHORS WAR DECLARES EX-SECRETARY

(Twenty years ago next Tuesday, the United States entered the world war. Joseph Daniels was the Secretary of Navy. Today he tells why he believes the United States is in a better position to keep out of such a furnace.)

MEXICO CITY, April 3 (AP)—Burned children dread the fire; so do Americans abhor the thought of new war. That is the belief of Joseph Daniels, now President Franklin D. Roosevelt's ambassador to Mexico, who 20 years ago, as Secretary of the Navy in Woodrow Wilson's cabinet, was given the task of getting the United States fighting men to war-torn Europe.

"On the surface more causes exist for war today than in 1914," the 74-year-old newspaperman-diplomat said in an interview here.

"The great deterrent to war today is that there was a war 20

RANGE IMPROVEMENT WILL BE EXPLAINED AT THREE-DAY SCHOOL

Range improvement phases of the Agricultural Conservation program will be explained in a three-day training school for county agents and range examiners at Dalhart Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Attending from Gray county will be Ralph Thomas, county agent, John Carpenter, county agent, range committee man, and Ed Carr of Pampa, range examiner.

Under the range conservation program, ranchmen and grassland owners can be paid federal benefits for carrying out approved range management practices.

The training school is being held for examiners and farm agents of the Texas Panhandle, and representatives are also expected from Oklahoma and Kansas.

Participating in the school will be state Extension Service specialists, representative of the Forestry Service, the AAA, and Soil Conservation Service.

MURPHY SEES AN AGREEMENT IN ANOTHER

STRIKE AT WILMINGTON LASTS DAY, ENDS IN VIOLENCE

(By The Associated Press.) Settlement negotiations in Chrysler strike resumed at Lansing, Mich.

General Motors negotiations reopened jobs to 15,000 at Flint, Mich., on Monday. Sit-down strikers evacuate Ford assembly plants at Kansas City, setup picket lines; peace conference begins.

City-wide strike at Wilmington, Del., called off after day of violence.

Textile industry upturn cheers world conference at Washington.

KANSAS CITY, April 3 (AP)—E.H. Hall, second vice president of the United Automobile Workers of America, announced settlement tonight of the strike which closed the Ford Motor company's assembly plant here yesterday. Hall said the strikers will return to work Monday "without any discrimination, whatsoever."

DETROIT, April 3 (AP)—Gov. Frank Murphy announced tonight that the Chrysler strike conference was "advancing toward settlement" after Walter P. Chrysler and John L. Lewis resumed their search for a collective bargaining agreement acceptable to both.

An agreement of striking automobile workers at Flint, Mich., opened the way for 15,000 General Motors employees to return to work Monday, while at Kansas City sit-down strikers evacuated the assembly plant of the Ford Motor Co. they had held for 24 hours.

Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers of America, asserted that a settlement among the unions members was subsiding.

Gov. Murphy made his statement as the conference in his Lansing office recessed until tomorrow. The recess was a sign of progress, but it was assumed each side was studying a bargaining formula.

(By The Associated Press.) Peace-makers intensified their efforts yesterday in the automotive industry, heartened by the return of calm to two widely scattered areas of strike violence in other fields.

Postal receipts set new record in March. March postal receipts of $5,912,26 set a new record for any March in the history of the local post-office. The first quarter of 1937 also saw all records for that period shattered with receipts of $18,448.87, local postoffice officials announced yesterday.

Postal receipts, usually considered a reliable barometer of business, verified reports of the past month that Pampa stores had an excellent March this year.

Not only did postal receipts show substantial gains, the money order department also shattered existing records with the writing of 4,573 orders for a total of $50,122.87. A total of 296 orders were written in one day. The department paid out 1,188 money orders of $16,324.84 for another new high, or more than twice the amount of the same month last year.

The monthly and quarterly report showed: Receipts for the first quarter 1937—$18,448.87. Receipts for the first quarter 1936—$17,983.77. Gain $465.10. Receipts for March, 1937—$5,912.26. Receipts for March, 1936—$5,451.87. Gain $460.39.

Her instructor, George Christopher, seeing the trouble took off like a bullet and landed three times in the wind to get her attention. However, Mrs. Bray landed her ship in the cross wind and made a perfect landing—and kept as cool as a cucumber.

CLEAN-UP PROCLAMATION

The week of April 4 to 10, inclusive, has been designated as SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK.

There are many reasons why the Spring Clean-up campaign this year should receive the enthusiastic support of every man, woman and child. FIRST, because of the safety campaign being sponsored by our governor which can be better served by giving consideration to those matters which would protect the lives and property of our cities against the spread of disease, disabling sickness and property loss through fire damage. SECOND, because a clean city speaks well for our citizenship and is an encouragement to our continued growth and prosperity and in keeping with this program the City of Pampa has purchased a sweeper to keep this program in force throughout the entire year.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, W. A. Bratton, mayor of the City of Pampa, do hereby designate the week of April 4 to 10, inclusive, as SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK and most respectfully call upon all departments of the city, the Chamber of Commerce, civic clubs, patriotic clubs and our people in general, to take an active part in this Clean-up campaign.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereto sign my name, this the 3rd day of April, 1937.

W. A. BRATTON, Mayor

25 Locations Recorded In Field In Week

The Panhandle field was a hot-spot of activity last week when 25 new locations were made and ten oil wells and four gas wells completed and tested. The number of first intentions to drill was the greatest in more than a year.

Hutchinson county, which at the present time is pacing Gray county in activity, registered eight of the new locations with Gray county getting seven. Wheeler county also saw renewed activity with six intentions. Carson county had the other four.

All of the new locations were in proven territory. Most of them were necessary offsets following completions.

Nineteen companies or independent operators registered the 25 new locations, showing the wide range of activity. Phillips Petroleum company made four of the locations, all of them in Hutchinson county. C. T. Palmer was next in line with three, all in Wheeler county.

HEIRESS WILL SEEK TO STOP GROOM'S SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3 (AP)—Mrs. Nan Pierson Brooks Macy Brill, beautiful New York heiress, collapsed in a San Francisco hotel today, and reviving, vowed she would "bring my ex-husband and half of New York society" to fight an annulment suit brought by her second husband, William Brill, Jr., of Los Angeles.

She eloped March 29 to Yuma with Bill who is also wealthy and a socially prominent.

Their honeymoon lasted two days, then he disappeared, and she was informed Friday he had filed suit for annulment, charging they were intoxicated when the ceremony was performed, and that she had misrepresented her previous marital status.

Hysterical, she wheeled one of his large roadsters out of the four-car garage back of his home and sped 400 miles to San Francisco. She had no money or luggage.

Suffers Hysteria
Today, shortly after she arose, Mrs. Brill had another attack of hysteria. She dissolved into tears when she attempted to give a newspaper interview.

"Just—can't—do it," she sobbed, rushing back to her room. "I want to tell them all about it. I've got nothing to hide. But I can't."

Later in the day, she saw reporters for a few moments.

"You know as much about it as I do," she said. "I don't know why Bill disappeared after we came back from Arizona."

"When I saw him in the garage yesterday, he took me in his arms and told me he loved me and was coming to me. He didn't say why he left me."

"Then, 10 minutes later, one of the reporters told me he was asking for an annulment."

Her eyes filled with tears again, and she moaned:

"He can't do that to me. I'll fight it."

"I never in my life have taken a drink of anything stronger than wine. My former husband, George Macy, can tell them so. And he would, too. And so would all my friends."

"I love Bill and I'm going to get George Macy and half of New York society to come here and testify to my character."

"I don't know what they think I am. I married Bill, legally. We were stone sober and there will be four witnesses for that. His mother and Bill and I discussed it all for two weeks before the ceremony."

Mother-In-Law Quoted
"Then we had two heavenly days and nights together before he left me. I'm a wife in more than name only and I'm going to keep my husband."

She said the only accusation her husband's mother had hurled at her, during a short scene together yesterday, was that she had used her influence to "have the story of our marriage published in Los Angeles."

She left today for some unknown destination near San Francisco, and said she intended to return to fight the suit.

MEXICAN WOMEN VOTE
MEXICO CITY, April 3 (AP)—Mexico's voters, their ranks swelled by thousands of women who will cast ballots for the first time, tonight studied last-minute appeals of nearly 2,000 candidates for 173 congressional seats in tomorrow's primaries.

Troops were held in barracks upon orders of the war department to quell any disorders. The Senate sent election commissioners to 27 states to see that the balloting is conducted "fairly."

TEXAS RECEIVES BUST OF FAMOUS EXPLORER

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—An official mission from France and Canada today presented Texas with a bronze bust of Cavalier de la Salle, French explorer, whose exploits, speakers said, cemented a bond of friendship between the countries.

In the ceremonies in the House of Representatives' chamber, Governor James V. Alfred accepted the bust on behalf of Texas and was presented a medallion of La Salle by Dr. Louis Casamian, member of the faculty of the University of Paris.

The statuette, designed for placement out-of-doors, will be located by a joint committee of the legislature.

Words are inadequate to express appreciation of Texans for the long friendship of the French," the governor said. "We have not forgotten that France was the first foreign country to recognize the Republic of Texas as a nation 100 years ago."

CAST CHOSEN FOR ONE-ACT CONTEST PLAY

All but two members of the high school interscholastic league play cast were chosen Friday night in the final tryouts in the high school auditorium.

Roles were chosen as follows for the German accent play, "Cabbages," which tells the experiences of farm family that moved to town and tried to go high-brow after oil wells were discovered on their farm: Mrs. Grossmeier, Colleen McMahan; Mr. Grossmeier, Dickie Kennedy; Lena Fischer, Anna Belle Holloway; Hil-da Grossmeier, Wanda Lee Dunlap; Mr. Markle, Gene Pinkelner.

The judges decided that the reporter role sought by Richard Kilgore and Earl Rice should not be cast until another tryout, and also that final decision in the maid's role should be postponed. They recommended that Betty Hains, who tried for the role of Mrs. Grossmeier, try out for the maid's role.

Others competing for parts were

Jack Johnson, Dorothy Jane Day, Ed Bissett, Albertine Schulkey.

Kenneth Carman, director, will immediately begin drilling his cast for the district tournament. It was the opinion of the judges that the gentle satire was one of the best comedies ever produced here, and it was predicted that with intense practice and meticulous attention to the difficult accent, the play should again win the district.

The winners were praised for their interesting and highly amusing interpretation of their roles, especially Dickie Kennedy, Colleen McMahan, Anna Belle Holloway, Wanda Lee Dunlap. The competition was close in some of the roles, it was reported, especially for the parts of Lena and Tilda. Judges were Mrs. Edward Damon, B. H. Kirby, Archer Pullingim.

VICTIM DIES
SAN ANTONIO, April 3 (AP)—Mrs. Ida Hatfield, 76, who was attacked and left for dead by a band of Indians and Mexicans when she was eight years old, died today at her home at Medina. She was the only survivor of the attack made in 1870 by a band of robbers from across the border on the Stringfield family. Her father and mother were killed and her two younger brothers kidnaped and never heard from.

Ford "60" owners report 22-27 miles per gallon

LONG BEFORE the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was offered to America, we knew it was capable of unusual economy.

Two years' hard usage in England and France had proved that. Road tests of all kinds proved it again.

But in keeping with Ford policy, no mileage claims were made until they could be established in actual service.

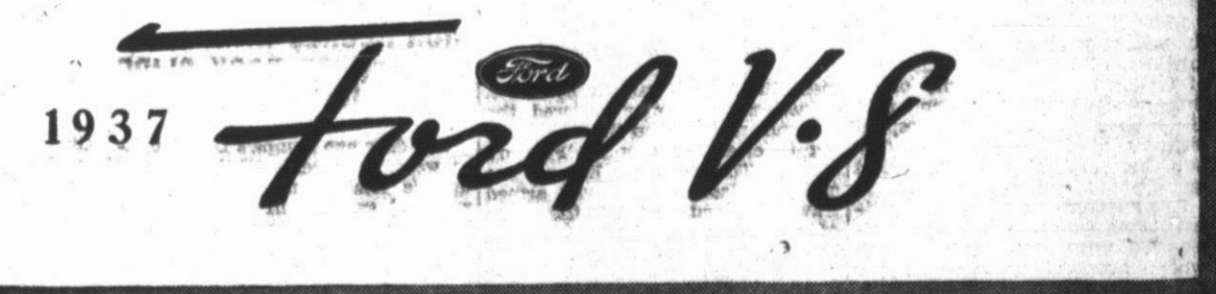

Now the story can be told... The new Ford "60" is more than meeting expectations! Thousands of private owners, cab companies, fleet operators, and others who keep careful records, report averages of 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

That is the highest mileage in Ford history—and Ford cars have always been famous for economy!

If you want a big car for a small budget, see and drive the Ford "60." It's available in five body types.

It's just as roomy, sturdy and safe as the Ford "85." It has the same distinctive modern design. It delivers V-8 smoothness and quiet even at speeds up to 70 miles an hour. And, best of all, it brings you its brilliant operating economy at the lowest Ford price in years!

ONE SHOT IN DRUNKEN FIGHT AT LOCAL CAFE

Three men and a woman were arrested early Saturday evening in what Chief of Police Art Hurst described as a drunken fight in a S. Cuyler street cafe. One of the combatants was shot in the leg.

The chief said police were called to the B. and B. restaurant about 5 o'clock and arrested Mr. and Mrs. John Shoust, John Stags, and Irvin Marshall, all of Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoust, he said, are proprietors of the cafe. According to the police chief, Stags was shot in the leg when the four became involved in a scuffle and one of them brandished a pistol. The wound was not serious.

The four participants were taken before City Judge W. M. Craven and each was fined $10 and costs on pleas of guilty to charges of disturbing the peace.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP)—A few oils, steels, rails and specialties carried the recovery banner in today's stock market and favored issues got back fractions to 2 or more points of Friday's decline.

While labor controversies were still plentiful, signing of the wage and hour agreement in the soft coal industry, together with evacuation of Chevrolet plants by sit-downers and the belief an amicable conclusion of Chrysler union negotiations was imminent, helped to bring in mild support for the beleaguered list.

In addition the better action of U. S. government securities tended to revive confidence.

A restraining influence, however, was still seen in the administration's thumb-down policy regarding mounting costs of durable goods and its implied intention to shift purchasing from steels, coppers and other "heavy" lines into non-durable products. At the same time it seemed yesterday's White House comments tended to lose some of their shock market effect.

On the darker side of the speculative and investment picture was the spread of strike disorders at Wilmington and the movement of union workers in shutting down Ford's Kansas City plant.

Skyscraping to the highest level in twelve years, May corn extended the week's gain to more than ten cents and the month's advance to more than twenty cents. Only in seven years out of 112 for which records are available have corn values in this country been surpassed.

'THESE THREE,' CROSBY, BURNS, RAYE OPEN HERE TODAY

FILM VERSION OF NEW YORK PLAY ARRIVES

One of the most widely discussed films of 1936, "These Three," starring Miriam Hopkins, Merle Oberon and Joel McCrea, will open at the Crown today, simultaneous with the arrival of Bing Crosby, Martha Raye, Bob Burns in "Waikiki Wedding" at the La Nora theater.

"These three" is a film version of the Broadway stage sensation, "The Children's Hour." Time magazine said that the cinema adaptation was superior to the stage story, although the basic idea of the plot was radically changed.

The Joe E. Brown fans can go to the La Nora Friday and Saturday for their open-mouthed hero will be on the screen in When's Your Birthday?

A highly-advertised movie, "Come and Get It," starring George Arnold, will open at the Rex. "My Man Godfrey" with William Powell and Carole Lombard will be the State attraction.

LA NORA THEATER
Bing Crosby, Bob Burns and Martha Raye, the trio who made "Rhythm on the Range," one of last year's outstanding comedies with music, are together again in "Waikiki Wedding," a gay comedy of love and music under tropic skies which opens today at the La Nora theater.

Beautiful Shirley Ross, who was with Bob and Martha in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," carries the feminine romantic lead of the new comedy. The cast also includes George Barbier, Leif Erickson, Miri Rel, the Tahitian dancer who was the sensation of the Ziegfeld Follies recently; Kuulele and Nalani De Clerq, native Hawaiian dancing team, and over two hundred native dancers, musicians and other performers.

"Waikiki Wedding" is the story of a press agent, played by Crosby, whose job it is to keep Miss Ross thrilled with the glamour of Hawaii. He does a thorough job of it, falling in love with her in the process and it is when he is forced to extricate himself from an entirely synthetic Hawaii that he had created that some of the comedy high spots are reached.

Bob Burns and Martha Raye also have a romance very much like the one they had in "Rhythm on the Range," and Miss Raye sings a number of "swing" solos in the manner which has lifted her from obscurity to fame in less than eight months. The music is by Robin and Raninger, the team work which provided the music for "The Big Broadcast of 1937," "College Holiday," "Champaigne Waltz" and other recent outstanding musical hits.

The barbaric "drum dance," once practiced by the Polynesians before making a human sacrifice, is performed by Miss Rel in "Waikiki Wedding." It is the first time the famous dance has been recorded by the motion picture camera. The story also contains a native Hawaiian wedding ceremony, performed just as it is in the South Seas. "Waikiki Wedding" was directed by Frank Tuttle who directed "College Holiday."

PONY EXPRESS RIDER LOPES 80 MILES HIS FIRST DAY OF STUNT

FOLLETTE, Okla., April 3 (AP)—"Lobo" Jim Wilcox hitch-hiked to this Beaver county town in the Panhandle tonight to telephone that he had made 80 miles on the first day of his pony express dash from Guymon, to Oklahoma City and that he was certain he would cover the route on schedule.

"Lobo" Jim, wearing a four weeks' growth of beard and a frontier style 45, mounted "Smoky," a cayuse, in the dim light of the early morning at Guymon today and headed east, exactly 77 years after the first pony express ride was started from St. Joseph, Mo., to San Francisco, Calif.

He is due in Oklahoma City, at noon next Wednesday to advertise Guymon's annual pioneer day celebration May 3.

In his telephone report tonight Wilcox said he had left "Smoky" at a farm on state highway 35 seven miles northeast of Follette.

made up mostly of Italians, was believed probable if a government maneuver succeeded.

The Cordoba reports indicated government troops had reached the outskirts of Villaharta, Fenarroya and Ovejo—strategic towns between Posoblanco in Northern Cordoba and the insurgent base of Cordoba city to the south.

Capture of Villanarta would give the government army control of the Cordoba highway and cut off the insurgent avenue of retreat.

Earlier reports said Villaharta had been captured, but dispatches from government headquarters at Andujar said its fall was "imminent."

Government troops pressed another advantage of the Aravaca front just northwest of Madrid, advancing more than a mile into territory held vital to the defense of the capital. Insurgent dead was set at 300.

CROWN THEATER
The havoc wreaked in the lives of three innocent adults by the whispering campaign begun by a lying, spiteful child provides the theme of Samuel Goldwyn's powerful drama, "These Three," which brings Miriam Hopkins, Merle Oberon and Joel McCrea to the Crown Theater today.

From the pen of Lillian Hellman, the famous Broadway playwright, the story of "These Three" is so skillfully developed and so brilliantly acted not alone by the stars, but by the supporting cast as well, that the result is one of the most gripping and magnificent pieces of entertainment of this year.

Briefly, the story is that of two college girls, Martha (Miriam) and Karen (Merle) who, with the help of a young doctor, Joe Cardin (McCrea), turn a dilapidated old New England mansion into a charming school for girls.

A romance develops between Karen and Joe, so Martha conceals her own love for him. The school prospers, but there are two disturbing factors. One is Martha's silly, sponging actress aunt, who has installed herself as elocution instructor; the other is Mary Tilford, a vicious, lying child, who bullies the other children and will go to any lengths to escape her school duties.

One night, Joe happens to fall asleep in Martha's room while waiting there for Karen. Martha's aunt sees him leaving and the children, eavesdropping, overhear the aunt's unmistakable insinuations. On the next evening, Mary Tilford, the cunning Mary bases her plan to run away from school, forcing her chief victim, Rosalie Wells, to confirm her wicked lie.

She succeeds in convincing her grandmother that evil is afoot at the school, with the result that an ugly scandal ensues and all the pupils are taken away. Martha sees Mrs. Tilford for libel, but the case is lost, and the romance between Karen and Joe broken.

After a time, however, Martha succeeds in winning a confession from little Rosalie, the lie is uncovered and Karen and Joe are reunited.

STATE THEATER
William Powell attains the distinction of being a butler for the nuttiest family in the whole country, in the Universal romantic comedy, "My Man Godfrey," which opens at the State theater today. The charming, talented Carole Lombard is starred with him in the screen offering, which was taken from Edith Hatch's sparkling, mirth-stirring novel of the same name.

The gay, laugh spangled quality of the story was preserved by having Eric Hatch transpose his own book into the screen play. This he did with Morris Ryskind, noted writer of many screen hits which include "A Night at the Opera." Ryskind is also remembered as the co-author of "Of Thee I Sing."

REX THEATER
Samuel Goldwyn's magnificent film version of Edna Ferber's colorful novel of the lumber camps, "Come and Get It!" bows in at the Rex theater today.

An inspired cast, headed by Edward Arnold in the role of Barney Glasgow, the chore boy who became a lumber baron, brings Miss Ferber's vivid characters to life with uncanny accuracy and the film catches all the color, the thrills, the danger and the fun of the story.

Arnold gives what is unquestionably his best performance as Barney. Joel McCrea is perfect as his son, Richard who wins the girl his father tations were resumed at Lansing, Mich., when John L. Lewis, union leader, joined Gov. Frank Murphy and Walter P. Chrysler, chairman of the automotive corporation.

The governor was hopeful of an early end to the dispute, which has kept more than 60,000 Chrysler employees idle since March 8.

5,000 To Return.
While they conferred, new agreements called unrest among General Motors Corporation employees at Flint, Mich., and assured a return to work of 15,000 wage earners on Monday.

At the peak of the disputes during the last three days, 137,000 automotive workers were idle in Michigan.

Ford Motor Co. representatives and a union official flew to Kansas City to speed settlement of a sit-down strike which closed an assembly plant—first unit of the far-flung Ford holdings to be strike-bound. About 2,200 workers were idle there. Shortly after the airplane party arrived, the sit-downers quit the plant and set up picket lines.

Governor Richard C. McMillen of Delaware intervened to end a violence-dotted strike called by the central labor union at Wilmington. The city-wide walkout was called to emphasize union demands for settlement of a 19 days old truck strike.

Disorder Breaks Out.
Disorder broke out in various sections of the city several persons were injured, property was damaged and nearly a score of arrests made before the strike order was rescinded in mid-afternoon.

Another governor, Elmer Benson of Minnesota, helped to bring quiet to riot-torn Albert Lea, Minn., and end a strike in the American Gas Machine Co. plants. Benson criticized local law authorities for arrest of 54 union men, whose seizure precipitated an aroused assemblage that damaged property and led to injury of at least four persons.

DAUGHTER OF GEORGE HARVEY FATALLY SHOT
NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Harvey Cobb, wife of a New York banker and daughter of the late George Harvey, former ambassador to the Court of St. James, was found dead today from what a medical examiner said was a self-inflicted bullet wound.

Her body was found by her husband, Augustus S. Cobb, a vice president of the Bankers Trust Company, this morning when he went to her room in their hotel suite to see how she was feeling. He said she had been ill for about five years.

Assistant Medical Examiner Chas. B. Cassassa listed the death as "suicide-despondency."

Cobb told police his wife was suffering from tuberculosis and said he knew no other reason that would have caused her to take her life.

Police said she left three notes, addressed without names, to her "husband," "brother-in-law" and "children," but refused to divulge the contents of the notes.

Lovely blond Frances Farmer gives a fine, understanding characterization in the difficult dual role of Lotta, the colorful cabaret singer whom the power-mad young Barney loves but leaves to marry the boss' plain, tight-lipped daughter; and Lotta's beautiful daughter with whom he falls hopelessly in love years later but loses to his own son.

Walter Brennan, the "Old Atrocities" of "Barbery Coast," turns in another grand performance as Swan, the Swede lumberman whom Lotta marries; Mady Christians, the lovely Viennese actress, gets a real opportunity to show what she can do as the Swedish aunt, Karie, and Mary Nash, the brilliant stage star, is superb as Barney's wife.

WHEELER HITS GUMMINGS FOR COURT STAND

SAYS OFFICIAL WANTS TO SHUT OFF HEARINGS

WASHINGTON, April 3 (P)—Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) accused Attorney General Cummings today of trying to shut off Senate hearings on the Roosevelt court bill "thereby preventing Congress from obtaining the views of the American people on the most important constitutional question raised since the Civil war."

"The attorney general will perform sufficient service if he will limit his activities to his own department and leave Congress free to conduct its own legislative functions," the Montana Senator said in an usually blunt statement.

The statement was issued while in recess the week-end, after four weeks of hearings on the court proposal.

Chairman Ashurst (D-Ariz.) announced that opponents would have all next week and the succeeding week if they chose. He denied exerting any pressure to bring the hearings to a close.

"Whenever the committee wants to close the hearings it will be over my protest," the committee chairman said. "I couldn't with any degree of equanimity meet the charge that the hearings were shut off. I want to be able to say that no strong arm methods were used."

Following the course he has pursued throughout the controversy over the bill, Ashurst contended that delay on the measure was "not only good strategy, but is right."

"There will be nothing tending toward a hurry-up," he asserted. "The bill grows stronger all the time."

At the same time, Ashurst said it was "beginning to look like the hearings will end some time during the latter part of April." Senator Burke (D-Neb.), one of the opposition leaders, agreed on this estimate "depending upon developments."

Wheeler, in his statement, said he was "amazed to discover that the attorney general of the United States is urging the Senate Judiciary committee to close its public hearings."

"Evidence of the attorney general's strategy on this issue," he added, "is revealed by the activity of the hired help he sends daily to the capital with instructions to be conveyed to members of the Senate Judiciary committee."

Wheeler did not mention any names, but committee members quickly recalled that Joseph W. Keenan, assistant attorney general, had been in almost constant attendance at the hearings.

ALLIED ISSUES EDICT BANNING SIT-DOWNS

AUSTIN, April 3 (P)—Governor James V. Allred formally announced today he would not tolerate sit-down methods of "taking or holding" property in Texas and would use all the powers at his command to enforce laws and court orders.

Asserting an investigation had shown sit-down organizers had invaded Texas, he urged laboring people who want to organize to affiliate with legitimate labor bodies and have nothing to do with groups which have fostered "sit-downs" anywhere.

He said sitting down on somebody else's property and remaining there was "un-American and unlawful," although a man had a perfect right to quit a job or strike peacefully. He applied the term "unlawful mob spirit" to the sit-down method and declared Texas would not "play Michigan" or permit transfer to this state of "disgraceful episodes" in others.

At the same time, he said he always has been friendly to organized labor, but the "sit-down" would eventually hurt the laboring man more than anybody else.

A committee of the Texas House of Representatives has set hearing for next Tuesday on a bill prohibiting employees from remaining on premises after notice to vacate and providing penalties of fine and imprisonment.

SOIL CONSERVATION BILL IS REDRAFTED

AUSTIN, April 3 (P)—Rep. Arthur B. Tarwater of Plainview said today a redrafted consolidated soil conservation and watershed plan assuring federal aid would be substituted for an amended bill on House floor consideration.

The proposal, Tarwater said, was endorsed by farmer groups and bore the approval of Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace. The amended bill was considered by some as not likely to receive federal approval.

The final plan, worked out by Tarwater with Reps. Bailey B. Ragsdale of Crockett, and A. Puchs of Brenham and others provided districts might be organized on either a county conservation or watershed basis by consent of two-thirds of the land-owning farmers of the area. Watershed districts could be composed of less than one, or more counties.

The authors expressed opinion federal aid would be granted on a basis of need with financial and engineering assistance.

Farmer-controlled, the state organization would be governed by a board of five elected from districts of about 50 counties each. Ex-officio board members would include the presidents of Texas A. & M. and Technological colleges, the state director of vocational agriculture and the commissioner of agriculture.

CITY MARSHAL KILLED, DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT

HEMPSTEAD, April 3 (P)—City Marshal J. D. Shelbourne was dead and physicians despaired of the life of Deputy Sheriff Clyde Hutchins today as the result of a shooting in front of a downtown cafe. County Attorney William S. Jackson, who saw the shooting, said one of the men struck the other with his hand as they stood talking in front of a cafe and that a second later two pistols were fired. He said it was impossible to tell which shot came first.

Shelbourne died instantly, shot twice. Hutchins sustained two wounds near the heart. He was rushed to a Navasota hospital. Shelbourne was a former night-watchman and deputy sheriff before becoming marshal the first of the year. Friends of the two said they knew no cause for the shooting. No charges had been filed.

Rideout Upsets Venzke In Mile Exhibition At Austin

AUSTIN, April 3 (AP)—Athletes from the mid-west and Texas cranked six meet records and equalled two more today in the university division of the Texas relays, first major outdoor track and field meet of the year.

Sam Francis, Olympic weight man and all-American fullback from the University of Nebraska, and Al Tolmich, sprinter and hurdler from Wayne University of Detroit divided individual honors with two first places each.

Francis contributed a record-blasting shot put of 51 feet, 11 3/4 inches, booting the mark here last year by two and three-eighths inches.

His good left arm then won the discus with a throw of 146 feet, 10 1/4 inches.

Competing without any outdoor practice, Tolmich showed the same form he displayed in the indoor meets last winter. He tied the meet record of 14.3 seconds in the 120 yard high hurdles and won the century in 9.7.

Blaine Rideout of the bespectacled Rideout twins, freshmen at Little North Texas Teachers college, Denton, turned in the biggest surprise of the day when he finished a half step ahead of the celebrated Gene Venzke of Pennsylvania in a one mile exhibition.

The time of 4:30 was considerably slower than previous marks in the Pennsylvania Olympian. Young Rideout set the pace all the way and had just as much left for the final lap as Venzke.

Wayne Rideout loses The Rideout percentage standing was reduced to 500 when the freshman far behind Don Lash of the University of Indiana in the 3,000-meter run. Lash sliced 64 seconds off the seven-year-old meet record by breasting the tape in 8 minutes, 37 seconds. The old mark of 8:43.4 was set by Putnam of Iowa State.

Wayne Rideout has beaten Lash in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans last winter but had no chance to show when Lash opened up with his famous sprint about 250 yards from the finish. His margin at the end was about 20 yards.

The other new meet records were contributed by Jack Vickrey, University of Texas high jumper; Alton Terry, Olympic javelin-hurler from Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene; the Drake two-mile relay team of Horstmeier, Patterson, Mahanna and Cole, and Frey of Michigan State, whose team placed first in the one-mile team race.

The Drake quartet shaved four seconds off the mark of 7:51.6 established by the Louisiana State two years ago. Frey's time for the mile was 4:26.2. The previous best time in the team race here was 4:28.4 made by a Kansas State runner.

Terry's javelin throw of 219 feet 8 1/2 inches, broke the former mark, established eight years ago by Bevens of Kansas State Teachers, by 12 feet, 7 inches.

University Class Sprint medley (440, 220, 220, 880 yards)—North Texas Teachers (Vick, Kinder, Johnson, Morgan), first; Southern Louisiana Institute, second; Abilene Christian college, third; Howard Payne, fourth. Time: 3:31.9. (New record. Old record of 3:33 set by Oklahoma Baptist in 1935.)

University Class Shotput—Francis, Nebraska, first (51 ft. 11 3/4 in.); Stockton, McMurry, second (49 ft. 8 in.); Sociolofsky, Kansas State, third (48 ft. 2 3/4 in.); Hart, Louisiana college, fourth (47 ft. 10 in.); (New record. Old record of 51 feet, 9 1/2 in., set by Francis in 1936.)

440-yard relay—Rice (Ellington, Steakley, Sanders, Moser), first; Texas, second; North Texas Teachers, third; Kansas university, fourth. Time: 4:15. (Equalled meet record.)

Pole vault—Weichert, Rice, 13 ft. 6 in., first; Bird, Kansas university (13 ft.), second; Clark Southwest Texas Teachers (12 ft. 6 in.), third; Sanford, Louisiana State (12 ft.), fourth.

High school class: Shotput—Harris, Garland, first (50 ft. 9 in.); Gillam, Mart, second (48 ft. 8 in.); Trager, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), third (47 ft. 8 in.); Bowman, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), fourth (45 ft. 9 1/2 in.).

High jump—Haese, Lavernia, first (6 ft. 2 in.); Baggett, Hobbs, N. M., second (6 ft. 1 1/2 in.); Burke, Donna, third (5 ft. 10 in.); Holland, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), fourth (5 ft. 8 in.). New record. Old record of 5 ft. 11 in. set by William Austin, and Haese, Lavernia, in 1935.

University class: Distance medley (440, 880, three-fourths mile, one mile)—Drake (Kohl, Horstmeier, Mahanna, Feller), first; Michigan State, second; Louisiana State, third. Time: 10:25.7.

University class: Javelin—Terry, Hardin-Simmons, first (219 ft. 8 1/2 in.); Hightower, Texas A. & I., second (192 ft. 3 3/4 in.); Maves, North Texas Teachers, third (185 ft. 1 in.); Titus, North Texas Teachers, fourth (183 feet 10 in.). (New record. Old record of 206 feet 11 inches, set by Bevens of Kansas in 1929.)

University class: One-mile relay—Texas A. & M. (Schiller, Hogan, Duncan, McLean), first; Rice, second; Schreiner Institute, third; Texas, fourth. Time: 3:27.5.

University class: Half-mile relay—Rice (Ellington, Steakley, Sanders and Moser) and Stokes (Graves, Ramsdell, Norris, Reeves) tied for first; Kansas university, third; Chicago, fourth. Time 1:27. (Rice and Texas made the same time in different heats.)

University class: High jump—Vickrey, Texas, first (6 ft. 7 in.); Shannon, Kansas university, second (6 ft. 3 in.); Cundiff, Oklahoma A. & M., third (6 ft. 2 in.); McBee, Abilene Christian, fourth (6 ft. 2 in.). (New record. Old record of 6 ft. 5 5/8 in. set by Philson of Drake in 1935.) Cundiff made 6 ft. 2 in. in less tries than McBee.

College class: Half-mile relay—North Texas Teachers (Phillips, Chrisman, Stovall, D. Brown), first; Oklahoma Baptist, second; East Texas Teachers, third; Abilene Christian, fourth. Time: 1:28.

One mile—Blaine Rideout, North Texas Teachers freshman, first; Gene Venzke, Pennsylvania, second. Time: 4:30.

'PLAINSMEN' IS SUGGESTED AS CLUB'S NAME

Pampa postal clerks have been working overtime sorting heavy mail, largely entries in the contest to name Pampa's 1937 baseball team.

The fact that several persons have entered the same name does not keep them from a chance to win the $20 in cash or the box seat for the season being offered by the baseball committee organizing the team.

At the close of the contest, midnight of April 10, the judges will decide on the name. Should several persons enter the same "moniker" they will still have a chance to win one of the prizes at a designated game when their names will be placed in a box and two drawn.

And still the names, many different ones, arrive at the sports desk at The NEWS where entries are to be made.

Anonymous writes the suggestion that the team be called the "Pampa Plainmen" and that the coats and hats worn by the team be similar to those worn by Wild Bill Hickok in the show, the Plainman. In the same mail Paul Sharum suggested the same name.

Otis Williams writes that his suggestion of "Gauchos" has yet to be beaten. He brings the fact forth that the name was of a famed group from another plains country.

"Pampa Boomers," suggests Jas. Watt. "Pampa Win-Dusters" says Melvin Johnson. "Pampa Sports," thinks Joe Kennamer. Leo Graham of Miami suggests the "Pampa Yellow Jackets." From Skellytown Bill Knight says "Pampa Traders."

Others, too numerous to mention, have suggested names, some different and others the same as already mentioned.

RALPH GULDAHL TAKES LEAD IN GEORGIA MEET

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3 (AP)—Approaching and putting with a magic touch, Ralph Guldaahl, tall, round-shouldered St. Louis professional, swept for the distance in the field in the Augusta National Golf tournament with a total of 209 after 54 holes in the battle for first-place money of $1,500 today.

The 25-year-old Missourian was seven strokes under regulation figures in front of the field in the Augusta National Golf tournament with a total of 209 after 54 holes in the battle for first-place money of $1,500 today.

Nelson cracked under the par-shattering pace to take a 75 and drop into a tie for third with Harry Cooper of Chicago at 213. Bobby Jones, playing here for the fourth time since he abdicated his golfing throne in 1930, remained far down the list despite a nicely played 73, his best score.

Shooting a 71, one under regulation figures, big Ed Dudley of Philadelphia, the home course professional, advanced to second place with a total of 212.

It was Guldaahl, who had but one three-putt green today, who missed a four-footer on the last hole that would have given him a tie with Johnny Goodman of Omaha, Neb., for the National Open crown at Chicago in 1933.

Two week-ends will be required to conduct the District Interscholastic league meet in Pampa this year. The committee in charge has decided not to crowd all the events into two days but to take five days for the big event.

Opening the meet will be the boys' tennis and girls' volleyball events on April 9 and 10. The one-act play contest will be on April 15 and 16 with the track and field and literary events scheduled for April 17.

Several county meets were staged Friday and yesterday. Other counties will hold their contests on next Friday and Saturday. Winners of the first four places in each event will be eligible to compete in the district meet.

High jump—Vickrey, Texas, first (6 ft. 7 in.); Shannon, Kansas university, second (6 ft. 3 in.); Cundiff, Oklahoma A. & M., third (6 ft. 2 in.); McBee, Abilene Christian, fourth (6 ft. 2 in.). (New record. Old record of 6 ft. 5 5/8 in. set by Philson of Drake in 1935.) Cundiff made 6 ft. 2 in. in less tries than McBee.

College class: Half-mile relay—North Texas Teachers (Phillips, Chrisman, Stovall, D. Brown), first; Oklahoma Baptist, second; East Texas Teachers, third; Abilene Christian, fourth. Time: 1:28.

One mile—Blaine Rideout, North Texas Teachers freshman, first; Gene Venzke, Pennsylvania, second. Time: 4:30.

University class: Sprint medley (440, 220, 220, 880 yards)—North Texas Teachers (Vick, Kinder, Johnson, Morgan), first; Southern Louisiana Institute, second; Abilene Christian college, third; Howard Payne, fourth. Time: 3:31.9. (New record. Old record of 3:33 set by Oklahoma Baptist in 1935.)

University class: Shotput—Francis, Nebraska, first (51 ft. 11 3/4 in.); Stockton, McMurry, second (49 ft. 8 in.); Sociolofsky, Kansas State, third (48 ft. 2 3/4 in.); Hart, Louisiana college, fourth (47 ft. 10 in.); (New record. Old record of 51 feet, 9 1/2 in., set by Francis in 1936.)

440-yard relay—Rice (Ellington, Steakley, Sanders, Moser), first; Texas, second; North Texas Teachers, third; Kansas university, fourth. Time: 4:15. (Equalled meet record.)

Pole vault—Weichert, Rice, 13 ft. 6 in., first; Bird, Kansas university (13 ft.), second; Clark Southwest Texas Teachers (12 ft. 6 in.), third; Sanford, Louisiana State (12 ft.), fourth.

High school class: Shotput—Harris, Garland, first (50 ft. 9 in.); Gillam, Mart, second (48 ft. 8 in.); Trager, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), third (47 ft. 8 in.); Bowman, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), fourth (45 ft. 9 1/2 in.).

High jump—Haese, Lavernia, first (6 ft. 2 in.); Baggett, Hobbs, N. M., second (6 ft. 1 1/2 in.); Burke, Donna, third (5 ft. 10 in.); Holland, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), fourth (5 ft. 8 in.). New record. Old record of 5 ft. 11 in. set by William Austin, and Haese, Lavernia, in 1935.

BORGER TEAM HAS INITIAL CLUB PRACTICE

Pampa baseball moguls, quietly gathering a formidable array of talent to give fans a crack baseball team this summer, expect to have an important announcement or two to make early in the week. Prospects here will work out at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Road Runner park and fans are invited to see them in action.

Two more players reported for practice Friday in the person of Carl Beason, last year with the Oklahoma City Indians in the Texas league, and Hershel McNabb, last season a Road Runner. Both are outfielders although Beason can play a couple of infield positions.

Besides hitting the ball and chasing flies, infielders started taking a few slow rollers and shoot a few to first base. Elongated Lefty Cox appeared to be in his old time form at first while Al Summers at second covered his usual territory with second covered ease. Ben McLarry at short looked faster since he lost a few pounds.

Sam Sealing took a few at third, and although he handled himself well, he had teammates worried as to whether his hand, badly lacerated in a recent automobile accident, would let him handle the hot corner position. Sealing, who accompanied the House of Davids to the Hawaiian islands last season, decided to stay in Pampa and rejoin his old team again. It will be some time yet before it will be known whether his hand will allow him to play his old brand of baseball.

With the arrival of Beason and McNabb, the team has two experienced outfielders on hand. For the catching department there is Floyd Lisle and Summers. Carl Stewart is the only known hurler although several prospects are on hand.

Also engaging in the fly shagging and infield practice yesterday were Fred Polvogt, catcher; Cate Keaton, the new first sacker. "Choppy" Spencer, shortstop; Pee Wee Simpson and Cecil Eash at third base; Jimmy Baldwin at second; Carl Brown, Hack Wilson and "Whitey" Warren in the outfield. Pitchers who are drilling daily include Cy Young, righthander; Jim Carrithers, south paw; and Byron Chody, righthander.

Carl Brown, the big outfielder who is well known to Borger fans, and Cate Keaton, the importation from Kansas City of the American Association, gained hitting honors in the offensive work yesterday. Both the big fellows parked the "dead" practice balls near the outfield fences with encouraging regularity. Fred Polvogt also banged out some drives which sent the shaggers back into the far corner pastures.

MACK IMPROVED SAN ANTONIO, April 3 (AP)—Connie Mack, 74-year manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, will not leave the hospital here where he is confined until Thursday. He will join his team, which winds up a three-game series with the St. Louis Browns here Sunday, in St. Louis Friday.

Longhorns Beat Methodists 13-3 DALLAS, April 3 (AP)—Texas university remained in first place in the Southwest conference baseball race here today with a 13-3 victory over Southern Methodist university. The game, played in rain before 400 spectators, saw Billy Dischs Longhorns bunt their hits when they meant runs. The victory marked the third in as many starts for the defending conference champions the Steers sweeping a two-game series with T. C. U. Thursday and Friday.

Rigby, Texas third baseman, was the batting star with three hits in three trips.

Billy Dewell, hurling for the Mustangs, was touched for 13 hits. His battery mate, Bob Finley, starred at bat with three hits in five times, including one double.

PHILADELPHIANS TRY TO MOVE DAVIS CUP SITE

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—An attempt by Samuel H. Colom of Philadelphia to move the Northern American zone Davis cup finals from Forest Hills to Philadelphia was defeated by the executive committee of the United States Lawn Tennis association today after a bitter two-hour debate revealed a deep cleavage in the association ranks.

Colom, president of the association in 1928-29, charged that the Davis cup committee of the U. S. L. T. A. is trying "to centralize all tennis here in New York" and accuses them of not being able to see "beyond the tall buildings of Manhattan."

After reading a bitter four-page criticism against the association, Colom moved that the matches be taken from the West Side club to the Germantown Cricket club, where they were held last year. The motion was seconded by John C. Perry, jr., also of Philadelphia.

Boxing To Be Presented At Southern Club

Professional boxing will return to Pampa on April 13 when Del O'Neil of New York presents an all star card at the Southern club, a mile south of the city limits. Popular prizes will prevail.

O'Neil, a former professional of prominence in the south and east, has signed Kid Brunet, 145, of Lawton, Okla., to meet either Chief Parris, 147, of Oklahoma City, or Kid Granite, 143, of Hobart, in the main event of 10 rounds.

The semi-final will feature Borger's successor to Pug Grubbs, the popular Ray Young, 135, who will meet a yet unnamed boy of the same weight in eight rounds.

Also on the card will be two six round bouts, two four round bouts and a battle royal, O'Neil announced.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE FOR GOLF COURSE OPENED

An intensive membership campaign has been launched by officers of the Gray Hills Golf course. A life membership will be sold for $3 between now and May 1, it was announced last night. The members will be subject to dues, however, but not more than 50 cents a year.

The course, located a few miles west of LeFors, has been worked over and is in excellent playing condition. The greens were scraped and re-sanded and oiled until they are smooth and even.

Under the new plan, green fees for members will be only 10 cents. Regular green fees will be 25 cents for a day of play.

Several tournaments will be held during the summer, the first to be within the next few weeks. Valuable prizes will be awarded at all tournaments.

Any golfer in the Panhandle will be allowed a life membership and all will be welcomed at the course whether members or not.

HOLDUP REPEATER.
MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Police knew the address all right when Walter Dumphy telephoned there had been a holdup at Vaughn's service station.

They had been there before—30 times in two years, and each time it was the same story.

"But this time," said Dumphy, "they took not only all the boss' money but $3.38 of mine and a box of candy."

Ships Rush to Vessel's Rescue

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—A wildly repeated SOS sent three steamships into the heart of an ocean storm tonight to the rescue of the leaking German freighter, Borkum.

Hidden by blinding squalls that cut visibility to a bare half-mile, the helpless vessel drifted with the waves in the mid-atlantic and waited for help.

From early morning to mid-afternoon her call for mercy kept sounding.

Her steering gear was gone, she said; she was taking much water at her plates, and she needed doctors badly.

All day the rescue boats hunted through the mist and rain before look-outs in the British steamer Zealandic sighted the stricken ship and the English boat began to maneuver toward the Borkum's side in the afternoon.

GOLFERS TO TEE OFF HERE THIS AFTERNOON

About 50 local golfers will tee off at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the first tournament of 1937 at the Pampa Country club. Teams captained by the Austin brothers, Grover and Johnny, will meet in an 18-hole match with the losing players buying the dinners for the victors.

The course is in excellent condition for this time of year. Fairways have been rolled and greens have been thoroughly worked over under supervision of Del Love, club professional.

Several other tournaments will be conducted during the summer months.

CALIFORNIAN TO JOIN CITY ARCHITECT FIRM

Mark L. Berry of Los Angeles, Calif., has arrived in Pampa to join his father, J. S. Berry, in the architectural firm of J. C. Berry and son. They have offices in the Duncan building.

Mr. Berry sr. moved to Pampa three weeks ago from Shamrock. Prior to that time he had been in Amarillo. Mrs. Mark Berry and family will join Mr. Berry here soon.

BOB BAILEY IS TRYING OUT WITH EAST TEXAS LOOP CLUB

Bob Bailey, youthful Pampa baseball prospect, is burning up the brush in East Texas with his sparkling play around first base with the Henderson club in the West Dixie league, according to stories in Henderson papers received here by C. O. Busby of the Pampa Indians, where Bailey started his baseball.

The Henderson paper of Tuesday revealed that "a youngster" arrived at the Henderson ball park unannounced and asked Manager Gus "Gasoline" Burleson for a tryout. He was issued a uniform and proceeded to make a hit by his snappy fielding and deadly hitting.

On Wednesday, "the newcomer," who said his name was Bailey and that he hailed from Pampa, will be hard to keep out of the Henderson lineup if he continues to hit the ball and field the way he did in workout today," the paper stated.

Walter L. Davis and his mother, Mrs. M. J. Davis, left the last of the week for Arkansas to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, former Pampans.

Mrs. Sam McCullough has been ill at her home here for several days. Her daughter, Mrs. Meade, has come from her home in South Texas to be with her.

Henderson met and defeated the Overton Oilers 12 to 5 on Thursday and Bailey collected a single and double on three trips to the plate and played sparkling ball in the field, according to a press report.

Another Pampa youngster who is apparently making his presence felt on the club is Harold Gregory, trying out with Tyler. Gregory's speed and his natural position at the plate has labeled him a threat to other aspirants for outfield jobs, said the Tyler paper.

PARLIAMENT TO PONDER STRIP TEASE QUESTION

LONDON, April 3 (AP)—Laborite Harry Day said tonight he planned to put the strip tease question up to parliament.

He will ask the House of Commons Thursday, he said, whether the home secretary's attention has been called to the frustrated London performance of Diane Raye, American exponent of disrobing on the stage.

He said he would ask whether the home secretary "in view of the fact that turns (acts) of this description may be calculated to be offensive to public feelings, thus causing perhaps a breach of the peace, will consider amending existing licensing laws so as to prohibit in the future any such similar presentations at licensed establishments in Great Britain."

Diane, meanwhile, cannot unfasten one single button and get paid for it in Britain, because, it was reported, the ministry of labor has not given her a labor permit.

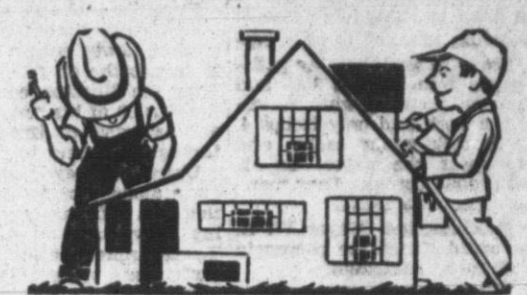

But she has given preview performances for private audiences. She showed the strip tease act to the press yesterday. Cries of "ah" and "boo" greeted her.

Said the News: "She was nervous under the strain."

Said the Herald: "It was all so very silly."

GRADUATE NURSEMEN.
PHILADELPHIA—It was a woman's idea that brought 15 embarrassed future fathers to the Pennsylvania hospital for their new course in baby bathing and diaper changing. Hospital authorities were quick to act on the suggestion of an expectant mother that husbands should be qualified to assume the role of nurse maid while their mother takes a night out for bridge.

WIND HANDICAPS BOYS IN PICKING UP PAPERS

The weather failed to lend a helping hand to Pampa Boy Scouts who yesterday planned to open National Clean-Up week here by gathering paper from vacant lots and along fences. A strong wind handicapped the work and only troops 4, 14 and 20 took gunny sacks and tried to spear the paper as it whipped around corners. They managed to capture 33 sacks.

can see behind the salary increases. Regardless of any reaction which might come from the school explosion, Lewis' envoys are scheduled to invade the oil fields immediately after the Houston council meeting. About 40 of his "crack" organizers are expected to thread their way through the land of 22,500 wells.

But powerful upholsterer, bowler, ladies' man and well known man-about-the-neighborhood, finally was released after more than 30 hours of constant questioning. Police, unsatisfied with the story of his whereabouts before he discovered the bodies Easter morning, could neither "break" him nor disprove his alibi. They finally dismissed him formally as a suspect and arrested him for a misdemeanor, possessing a pistol without a permit.

SANTA FE REVENUES IN 1936 SHOW INCREASE

Operations of the Santa Fe Railway Company during the year 1936 resulted in substantial increase in gross revenues in spite of adverse agricultural conditions in a large part of its territory. Freight car loadings aggregated 1,363,038, an increase of 140,941 over 1935. Freight traffic density increased 138,655 tons per mile of road, or 19 per cent. Miles traveled by passengers increased 16.00 per cent over 1935, and passenger revenue increased 16.19 per cent. Increased passenger revenue was due partly to improvement in general business conditions, the convenience and comfort of air-conditioned equipment, and a general reduction in transcontinental passenger fares.

FORD OFFICIALS ENTER PACT WITH SITDOWNERS

KANSAS CITY, April 3. (AP)—Ed Hall, vice-president of the United Automobile Workers of America, announced tonight that Ford Motor company officials had agreed, irrespective of seniority, to pay off no union men in the force reduction that precipitated a sit-down strike in the assembly plant here yesterday. The men, who evacuated the plant late today after sitting down in it for more than 24 hours, struck yesterday in protest against what they called discrimination against union men and men of long service in selection of workers to be laid off.

TO ARGUE ALLEED'S STAND. HOUSTON, April 3 (AP)—Roy Sessions, president of the C. I. O. affiliate oil workmen's union here, said tonight Governor James V. Alford's stand on "sit down" strikes would be discussed fully by the international union's executive council which convenes here Monday. "The governor's statement is so big and covers so much territory I hesitate to comment on it at present," Sessions said.

Union leaders assert a drive among pipeliners would be a blow at the industry's weakest link. A shutdown of the field's 22 major trunk lines would halt production throughout the field. Success in organizing the pipeliners would require sympathy from other classes of workers, sideline observers contend. The union must deal with 1,000 individual operators, 22 pipe lines, 45 refineries, 21 casinghead gasoline plants, more than 75 drilling contractors, scores of filling stations and other classes of firms dealing directly or indirectly with oil, in the East Texas drive.

United States had taken its seat at the League of Nations and used its great influence for peace, many of the things that have occurred in these 20 years—many things making for war—would have been averted. But that is water over the dam, of course. "Again, I am as confident as I can be of anything that if President Wilson had not sincerely believed the tragedy of the world war would bring about the creation of agencies to prevent future wars, he never would have advised Congress to make the declaration that a state of war existed between the United States and Imperial Germany. "It was his supreme faith that the peoples of the world, seeing the destruction of war, would at any cost organize against its repetition. That upheld him in his prosecution of war."

Ships and Horses Are Subjects for Very Young Poets

Even the second grade pupils at Horace Mann school are writing verse this year. While they were studying transportation, they wrote these rhymes at various stages in the unit:

MY HORSE Leona McClendon I have a horse; He is dapple gray. I feed him apples. To make him gay.

THE SHIP Billy Doug Wilson I saw a ship a-sailing by. Away down, down by the sea. The flag was waving in the air high. When I looked across the sea.

THE SHIP Guineite Killingsworth The ship went sailing by; The waves dashed very high! The flag waved in the sky. And it got there by and by.

THE HORSE Carroll Hunter I have a horse; He is white, of course. I rode him to town. And he didn't fall down.

A HORSE By Charles Kearns A horse was galloping down the road. It seemed as though he had a heavy load. With a giddy-up horse and a whoa, whoa, whoa. At first he went fast and then he went slow.

A SHIP A ship is sailing on the sea. With a flag of colors three. America's ship has come for me; I see it now upon the sea.

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usages by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below.

- 1. If two friends are working in the same office, should they call each other by their first names before other members of the staff? 2. Should costume jewelry be worn in an office? 3. Should teachers adhere to the dark clothes recommended for the office? 4. Are plain black high-heeled pumps suitable for office wear? 5. Is it necessary for executives to address lesser members of their force by "Mr." and "Miss"? What would you do if— You are working in an office and are going out to dinner in a restaurant? There is not time to change clothes. (a) Wear a jacket dress which looks "dressed up" when the jacket is removed? (b) Wear the business suit you ordinarily wear to the office? (c) Wear an afternoon dress? Answers 1. No. 2. No, a wrist watch is practically the only jewelry suitable for office wear. 3. Children like color and change. However, clothes should be of such simple style and materials as those prescribed for business. 4. Shoes with Cuban heels are more businesslike. 5. Yes. Best "What Would You Do" solution—(a).

OLIVE-GREEN AND BLACK PARIS (P)—Both the Grand Duchesses Boris of Russia and the Countess Galard de Bearn of France have chosen the same green-trimmed afternoon ensemble from Mlynex. The black angora wool-dress is slit in front to show an under-dress of olive green crepe and is tied around the waist with an olive-green sash. Green crepe also faces the inside of the black jacket. The jacket is three-quarter length and has a collar cuffs of black astrakhan.

MINSTREL WILL BENEFIT FUND FOR CAFETERIA

'Dixie Blackbirds' To Be Presented By P-TA

A minstrel to be presented from the new high school auditorium stage Thursday and Friday evenings will benefit the cafeteria fund of Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher association, which this year has installed and equipped a cafeteria to provide hot lunches for school children of that ward.

The kid band directed by Eugene Seastrand will open the entertainment, "Dixie Blackbirds," which includes in its cast a number of patrons and friends of the school, as well as a group of pupils who will appear in the introductory Juvenile Minstrel.

In the adult minstrel, Guy McGartgart will act as interlocutor. End men will be Paul Hill, Supt. R. B. Fisher, H. W. Waters, Earl Phillips, and Bill Hawkins. Circle men are Roy McMillen, Joy Ruckman, George Porter, Mr. Rivers, W. B. Weathered, Norman Screws, and Howard Zimmerman. Their humor and music will be followed by two skits. The Dark Triangle, and Negro Wedding. H. M. Come will play the lawyer, Emory Crockett the henpecked husband, and Miss Ruby Thompson the wife in the first skit. In the second, Emmett Gee will appear as the preacher, Mrs. Cone and Charlie Maisel as the happy couple. Special numbers are arranged for between acts. Mrs. Earl Statton is in charge of ticket sales, which start tomorrow.

Music Festival Contests Are to Start Thursday

Contests in the annual Panhandle Music Festival are scheduled for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at Amarillo, and several music teachers here plan to send pupils for the competition. The festival this year will be conducted in Polk Street Methodist church.

Ernestine Holmes, piano pupil of Mrs. May F. Carr who has ranked high in former contests, will enter the 14-year-old competition, although she is only 10. Several piano pupils of Madeline Tarpley Rowntree and of Mrs. Lily Hartfield will play in the contests as will violin pupils of Roy Tinsley and voice pupils of Lester Aldrich. Many of the contestants will be accompanied by parents or friends, and numerous visitors are expected to attend the festival. Pampa always places a number of young musicians in high ranks at the festival.

WHITE FOR DAYTIME OR EVENING IN TRIUMPHANT PARIS COMEBACK

By ROSETTE HARGROVE NEA Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS — The white coat, which played such a small part in the fashion scheme in recent years, as well as the white suit and ensemble, has staged a very effective comeback.

In the case of the white coat, it invariably tops a black, navy, or less frequently, a dark brown dress, whereas the white suit is generally trimmed with either black or navy. Maggy Rouff features white right through the day, whether in the form of a flowing sleeveless beach robe over an abbreviated swimming suit, or a very formal afternoon coat in white silk jersey trimmed with deep band of black monkey fur at the hem, which fur also forms a large cape collar, over an all-white dress. A jacket ensemble in heavy white marocain shows a pastron of fine black Chantilly lace encrusted on the dress, with a filmy lace scarf finish, and a full-length white silk jersey redingote is cut away in front to show a good deal of the navy wool jersey dress underneath.

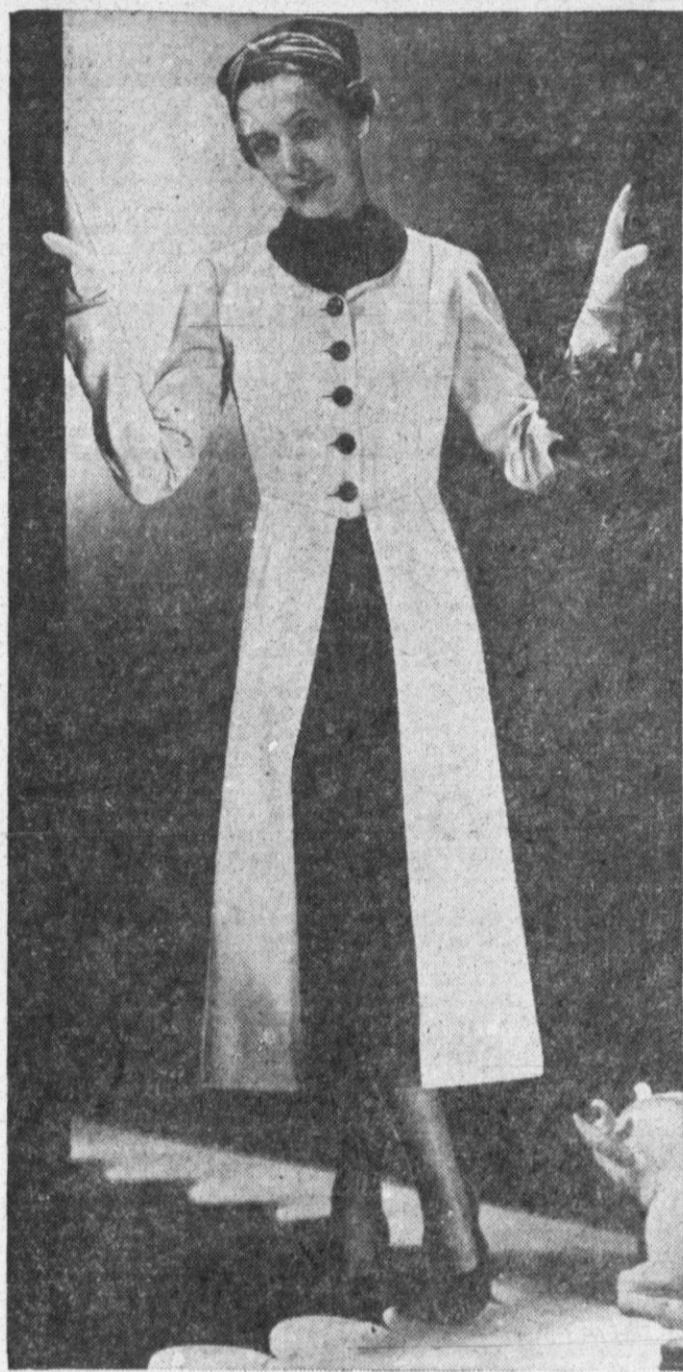

White Wins The Vionnet collection includes a number of white coats, some sleeveless and worn over print or monotone silk frocks. Ardanne accordeons-pleats white program for a tailored seven-eighths coat, topping a navy wool dress with white grosgrain trim at collar, pockets and belt. Mainbocher combines a little swaggy jacket in white starched lace or pique with navy or black afternoon crepe dresses.

Lanvin shows a suit in white grosgrain with swing jacket featuring fringe of gray wools outlining the armhole. Paquin has a number of trim white suits in jersey and Shantung. Germain Bally lines a full-length white jersey suit with black trim with black jersey to match the dress which makes up the ensemble. Marcel Rochas features coarse white linen for a long coat with black velvet collar-trimmed with autumn-tinted leaves, the same leaves used as a waistbelt on the black crepe frock. The Hem, Too White accents are not content to appear in the guise of collars and cuffs, but have now made their appearance at hems. They also figure in the form of arabesque encrustations, running all the way down the fronts of a jacket and sometimes stressing a basque movement in front, as well as in the form of white braiding and stitching. White vests fronts figure on navy and black suits and coats, usually in pique. Vera Borea features enormous white pique oak leaf motifs almost covering the entire front of a jacket. White blouses are still a fashionable and essentially feminine combination with dark suits, despite the fact that vivid colors have made a decided bid for favor. They come in the sheersat fabrics as well as in pique, satin and linen. Ruffles, jabots, large bow knots, are a necessary complement to necklines to the latest blouses, which offer a wide range of styles for every possible occasion. The white hat usually accompanies the white ensemble or white trimming, but the latest mode demands that the decorative touch should offer a color contrast. The alternative, a dark hat trimmed with white, is also fashionable.

White is ever the most perfect complement for a black suit. Goupy-Rosine has added some original touches in blouse design to this smart Paris creation. Of fine white pique, it has a pointed collar of new outline and a bow finish at the neckline. White crystal buttons are bright and modish. Worn with a black lamaine suit and the hat of black straw brim and satin crown, handed with white pique, it is one of the favorites of the new season.

An advance agent for summer's happy days is the white coat which Maggy Rouff introduced in Paris. Worn with a navy jersey dress, it has matching navy buttons. The dark blue turban is finished with a twist of red jersey to match the novel handbag made of red felt flowers.

MUSIC CLUBS WILL MEET IN SAN ANTONIO

District Federation Convenes Thursday At Canyon

Trips to the annual convention of Texas Federated Music clubs in San Antonio will be made Tuesday by a delegation from the Treble Clef club. Final plans were made at a called club meeting yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Bob McCoy, president, plans to head the group which is expected to include Mmes. Alex Schneider, J. W. German, H. O. Roberts, and Walter F. G. Stein.

Federated clubs will turn their attention this week to their annual district convention in Canyon Thursday and Friday. Pampa will send a number of representatives, some for the entire meeting and some as visitors to various programs.

Of the district board members residing here Mrs. W. R. Ewing and Mrs. F. E. Leech plan to attend all the convention sessions; Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar and Mrs. John Andrews are to spend Friday in Canyon, and Mrs. R. B. Fisher also expects to be present for some of the programs.

El Progreso club has elected Mrs. S. G. Surratt delegate and Mrs. J. M. Dodson alternate to the convention; Mrs. Roy Tinsley will represent Child Study and Mrs. W. B. Murphy the Civic Culture club. Mrs. R. S. Lawrence is delegate and Mrs. Jim Collins alternate from Twentieth Century club.

In addition to the delegates, several club members plan to attend some programs of general interest. The largest group is expected to hear Friday evening the address by Dr. John Erskine, noted lecturer, college president, and author of popular books including "The Private Life of Helen of Troy." He will appear through courtesy of the West Texas State Teachers college, which is assisting the city of Canyon in playing host to the convention.

Home First Aid Methods Studied In Priscilla Club

"The thing used most often in any emergency kit," was named by each Priscilla Home Demonstration club member in answer to roll call Friday in the home of Mrs. R. A. Kennedy. A well-equipped emergency kit for the home was displayed by Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. Norman Walberg presided for business. Mrs. Roy Tinsley gave the county council report. Interesting reports of a recent training school conducted by Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, county agent, for club secretaries and kitchen demonstrators were given by Mrs. E. A. Shackleton and Mrs. C. A. Tignor.

Mrs. J. M. Daugherty gave an interesting report on a recent training school conducted by Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, county agent, for club secretaries and kitchen demonstrators were given by Mrs. E. A. Shackleton and Mrs. C. A. Tignor. Mrs. Albert Lockhart, who has returned from a visit in Mineral Wells, shared with the club new ideas and recipes gleaned from a cooking school she attended there.

With regret the club accepted the resignation of Mrs. Guy Farrington as federation chairman and council alternate. Mrs. Lockhart was appointed recreation head; Mrs. Ira Spearman was elected alternate to replace her.

A comedy by Mmes. D. C. Davis and Lockhart was an entertainment feature. Mrs. Davis was at the piano while singing was enjoyed. Sandwiches, coffee, and a pink and green cake in spring flower shades were served to a guest, Mrs. J. H. Lawler, 12 members, and three children.

MRS. IRWIN IS PARTY HONOREE

Birthday Surprise Is Arranged by School Faculty

A chorus singing "Happy Birthday to You" at her front door notified Mrs. Sam Irwin of a surprise party on her birthday Friday evening. Faculty members at Sam Houston school and other friends were in the party that she and Mr. Irwin invited in.

Gifts were presented, including a traveler's notebook from the Sam Houston faculty. It is to be used when Mr. and Mrs. Irwin take a trip abroad this summer. They plan to sail June 12 on the Georgic for a visit with his relatives in Ireland and a trip to other countries of western Europe.

After an hour of impromptu games, a birthday cake with 21 candles was presented to Mrs. Irwin and a green cake to Irish Mr. Irwin. These were served with punch. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. J. C. Calhoun, A. L. Patrick, Ralph Irwin, L. A. Oldfather; Mmes. C. C. Rockwell, Teresa Irwin, J. E. Bradley, Croson, Elma Phelps, June Anderson, W. D. Benton, and L. K. Stout; Messrs. Bruce Peck, C. O. Croson, and George Hancock.

Misses Wilma Chapman, Evelyn Sudbrook, Florence Jones, Lillian Mullinax, Violet Durrett, Myldred Bishop, Vida Cox, Ruby Thompson, and Llewellyn Shelby.

Sorority Announces Entertainment Program

With five pledges as honorees, activities of the semi-annual rush month in the Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi are starting this week-end. The program will be climaxed with formal initiation at a dinner on April 23, and a founders day dance the last week of the month.

Pledges are Ann Johnson, Lois Martin, Johnnie Hodge, Maxine Loris, and Cleora Stanard. Their enrollment will bring the chapter membership up to 15, its limit. A dance given by Frances Stark, president, for chapter members and friends at the Country club ballroom last evening was the first event of the month. This morning at 9, Lorene Nicholson, president-elect, and Josephine Lane will be hostesses at a breakfast at Schneider hotel, then the group will attend First Baptist church.

Scheduled on the rush month are a business meeting Monday evening; a tea on April 11 at the home of Mrs. F. W. Gordon Jr., with Elizabeth Gordon and Jewell Binford as hostesses; a buffet luncheon on April 16 with Lois Hinton and Minnie Olive Montgomery as hostesses; a model chapter meeting April 19; the dinner April 23, with Clotilde McCallister as hostess chairman; and the founders day dance at which Miss Stark is to be hostess chairman.

The program follows an outline made by the national office of the sorority, which this month is celebrating its sixth anniversary. It is a cultural and social organization for young women, with 700 chapters in the United States and Canada and a total membership of about 10,000. The local chapter was organized Jan. 24, 1936, with LaVene Woolley as director, Mmes. Raymond Harrah and C. T. Hunkapillar as sponsors. Miss Stark has served as president since organization.

STAG DINNER

A stag dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Yose Thursday evening entertained men employees of Penney store here. A bouquet of chrysanthemums centered the table where a delicious four-course dinner was served to Lester Broadbook, Horace Johnson, Jerry Beck, and Mr. Yose.

O. E. S. FOOD SALE

A baked food sale will be conducted next Saturday at Standard Food market, beginning at 9 a. m., by the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. W. M. Murphy will be in charge. Members are asked to send their contributions to the sale by the opening hour. Patronage of the public is invited.

SELBY'S TALK IS OUTSTANDING ON PROGRAM OF DISTRICT P-TA

Returning from a two-day annual spring conference of eighth district Parent-Teacher associations, Pampa representatives yesterday reported Children will entertain the convention next year as they praised the hospitality of Perryton, this year's host city.

Registration Friday reached a total of 500, including 20 superintendents and 15 principals of schools in the district, five state and 44 district officers, 330 delegates, 50 visitors, and 36 presidents of P-T, 9 units and councils.

Supt. R. B. Fisher, five principals, several teachers, and numerous parents attended from Pampa, assisting on the program and receiving this city's share of the annual awards.

Principal R. A. Selby of Pampa Junior High gave one of the outstanding talks of the conference Friday morning, when he discussed "What Pupils Think of Their Parents." He based his talk on a questionnaire recently given junior high pupils here, showing their likes and dislikes about home and parents.

Their desire for happy home life and understanding parents, and the fact that few would change their parents, was revealed in his talk. The district board commented on his discussion, and asked for a copy of the questionnaire.

Mr. Fisher took part in the superintendents' panel Friday afternoon, as did J. B. Speer of Skellytown and C. A. Coyer of McLean. Supt. Geo. Heath of White Deer was in charge of recreation periods during the meeting. An important event was the following dinner Thursday, when Dr. E. E. Brown of the teachers college at Alva, Okla., spoke on the Horace Mann centennial. Mrs. Campbell of McLean, district chairman of Mothersingers, directed a mass chorus of the singers.

At this dinner the state officers were presented with corsages by the city of Perryton and the chamber of commerce. Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar of Pampa, district president, was given a huge basket of flowers from the Pampa B. C. D., with compliments to the conference. A courtesy not on the program was a breakfast given for delegates Friday morning by the Perryton chamber of commerce. Supt. W. B. Irvin of Perryton was host at a luncheon for superintendents and principals present. Delegates were given lunch Thursday, when study course certificates were presented. Pampans receiving them were Mmes. J. D. Cobb, J. L. Coshaw, E. H. Eads, V. L. Hobbs, F. W. Shotwell, and Roy Van Winkle, all of Baker and Wilson associations.

Baptists Meet at Panhandle Church

A workers' conference of the Palo Duro Baptist association will meet in Panhandle Tuesday. First and Calvary Baptist churches of Pampa will be represented, and the Rev. E. M. Dunsworth, pastor of the latter church, will speak at the morning session on Progress of the Evangelistic Campaign.

Others speakers will be the Revs. J. D. Horton and J. C. Sizemore of Amarillo, J. N. Hunt of Borger, and J. C. McKenzie, district missionary. Laymen will make plans for the observance of Laymen's day on April 11 in all churches.

Seventh Birthday Of Girl Honored

Nelda Joyce Davis was hostess on her seventh birthday Friday to a group of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Davis, 805 N. Somerville.

Joan Appleby and Mary Jo Cockerill gave readings, and a number of games were enjoyed. Birthday cake and ice cream were served by Mrs. Davis, assisted by Nelda Joyce's grandmother, Mrs. Susie Porter.

Poetry Program Interests Club in McLean Home

Mrs. Jim Back
 McLEAN, April 3.—Mrs. C. A. Cryer was hostess to the Pioneer Study club Thursday when an interesting program on poetry was given. Roll call was answered by selections from favorite poems.

Mrs. Jim Back was leader. Mrs. W. E. Bogan, who attended the Easter parent at Lawton, Okla., gave a vivid description of the program, before speaking on "What is Poetry and How It Can Be Appreciated." Poetry for and about children was discussed by Mrs. H. W. Finley; poetry written by children was read by Mrs. S. A. Cousins, and a review of the criticisms of the newer poetry was given by the leader, while Mrs. Bob Back read from the later poets. A delicious refreshment plate was served by the hostess to those on the program, a guest, Mrs. Clyde Magee, and nine members.

Plans for next year's program were accepted as outlined by the committee, and announcements were made concerning the Sweet Girl Graduate's Tea to be given by the club, honoring the girls of the graduating class of the local high school.

Mrs. Raymond Glass and Mrs. Jess Kemp were Pampa visitors Friday.

Schools were dismissed Friday so that teachers and pupils could attend the County Interscholastic League meet at Alameda.

The entire McLean High School Band accompanied by the director, C. H. Leeds, attended the band clinic at Shamrock this week.

SALVATION ARMY INSISTS UPON ACTIVE RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCES

(Editor's Note: The following article is one of a series written by Captain Herman Lambrecht of the local Salvation Army unit, entitled, "What is the Salvation Army? An Interpretation of its Aims, Methods and Activities.")

By Capt. Herman Lambrecht

The distinguishing feature of the religious life of the Salvation Army is its insistence upon active participation rather than passive adherence on the part of its followers. There is no such thing as inactive or nominal membership. Christianity is considered synonymous with service. A person may attend meetings on Sundays, but if he is not willing to demonstrate his faith in some form of tangible helpfulness in the interest of others, or of the organization as a whole, he is not regarded as a good soldier. In short, the Salvation Army regards itself as engaged in a continual fight against evil, and all its operations as incidental to that end.

There is always an emotional appeal in the meetings of the Salvation Army. However, emotion is not aroused for emotion's sake. It is promptly transformed into zeal for some specific form of unselfish service, it being realized that religion lives in the human heart only so long as it is allowed to express itself in deeds. It was this that General Bramwell Booth had in mind in a discussion of Salvation Army meetings when he was asked: "Isn't emotion an unstable quality to build upon?" He replied: "No—not when it is organized."

Every soldier or member is given something to do, and he remains in good standing only so long as he does it. He is expected whenever possible to participate in open-air meetings on the street-corners; he may make a special study of the Bible and become a teacher in one of our schools; he may become proficient in any one of a number of different fields of service. There are scores of duties to be performed, and something to which every member can readily turn his hand, no matter what his individual aptitudes or inclinations may be. It is not the aim of the Salvation Army that every one who comes in contact with it either through its religious activities or some phase of its social program shall become a Salvationist. This is evidenced by the fact that during the last fifteen months in the Southern Territory (of which Texas is a part) there were forty-six thousand converts in the religious meeting of which only seven thousand were enrolled as Salvationists.

In this connection it should be noted that the open-air meetings exercise a wide influence upon the religious and social life of a community. Thousands of men and women have testified how a chance word or strain of music from the open-airing on the street corner has at one time or another turned them away from some vicious or dangerous line of thought, and has resulted in their return to active membership in a church they had once attended. No record can be kept of this influence. Such people may stand on the edge of the crowd for a short time without visible interest in the proceedings and then pass on. But the seed has been sown and the result becomes apparent later on in the roster of some denominational congregation.

"I have always had sympathy with and interest in the Salvation Army and its work of love and charity, because I know this work is based on real Christianity."—H. M. King Gustaf V, Sweden.

Liquor Package Stores Remain Open in Pampa

Although Potter county liquor package stores were ordered closed Saturday for a school trustee election, Gray county officials were informed by the state's attorney general that the law did not require closing.

Pampa also had a local school trustee election yesterday, and after receiving the state ruling County Attorney Joe Gordon answered inquiries from package store proprietors by informing them that they were privileged to remain open.

FARMS AND LIVESTOCK

Pampa's Junior Chamber of Commerce is undertaking this month a move to bring the agricultural and livestock interests of Gray county and surrounding territory into a closer relationship with the city.

It is the plan of officers of the organization to have agriculturists and stockmen of this area speak at the club's Tuesday noonday luncheons this month in an effort to give Pampans a better understanding of their problems and to tell of their plans, programs and accomplishments along these lines.

Jaycee officials realize that there are many in Pampa who do not have an understanding of the work that is being done on the farms and cattle ranches of Gray and adjoining counties.

While oil is a predominating influence in this territory, sight must not be lost of the very important adjuncts comprised of farming and stock raising.

This area, of course, is in the heart of the nation's greatest wheat belt and in this section of the Panhandle is bred some of the world's best livestock.

Pampa wishes stock raisers and farmers to know that here is a city vitally interested in their problems and their accomplishments and both the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Board of City Development are arranging to make agriculture and livestock-raising educational programs play important roles in their programs for 1937.

END OF LOCAL DUST STORMS

Subduing local dust and dirt in the streets with a municipal sweeper undoubtedly will meet with the approval of the great majority of Pampa residents.

Flying dust, picked up from streets by the wind, long has been a problem here. Pedestrians, merchants and householders alike have had to put up with the nuisance.

So, city commissioners have taken a step in the right direction by purchasing a city sweeper to reduce this health menace to a minimum.

It is a timely gesture for the city to take this step in order to get delivery of the sweeper during Pampa's annual Cleanup Week, which begins tomorrow.

Perhaps this move will mark an end of the purely local dust and dirt "storms."

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—"Comrade Hughes," some of the bright lads around the court called the chief justice because of the unexpected decision upholding the right of states to enact minimum wage legislation.

Some of the phrases he had tucked into the decision were so liberal in tone as to invite comparison with those heard at "pink" meetings where the usual greeting is "comrade."

The justice talked of "exploitation of a class of workers" by "unconscionable employers" in "selfish disregard of the public interests." He didn't say "down with the moneyed aristocrats" but nevertheless the decision put quite a little water over the wheel toward the liberalism which the court had been accused of forestalling.

The decision was to uphold the Washington state minimum wage law for women. It hasn't been enforced much, if any, since 1923, although it was held valid by the state's own Supreme Court. Similarly an earlier Oregon law of the same pattern, although held valid by the Supreme Court on a tied (4 to 4) decision, has not been enforced since about 1923.

Moreover a much newer New York state law seeking to prohibit starvation wages for women also was scuttled only last summer by the Supreme Court—all because of an event of 1923.

What happened in 1923 was that an act of Congress establishing a minimum wage standard for the District of Columbia was held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court and since then no state minimum wage law has stood up in the face of that decision. But now the Supreme Court has gone back to that 1923 decision and ruled that at that point the Supreme Court made a mistake. The mistake was made in the case of Adkins vs. the children's hospital in the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Adkins has been altogether forgotten at the hospital. Mattie M. Gibson, superintendent, came to the hospital in 1920 and she said Mrs. Adkins was not working there then. She remembered only that the test case had been brought in the name of Mrs. Adkins soon after 1918, when the law was enacted. Ever since then it has been a constant source of embarrassment to the hospital to be pointed out as the place which paid wages below the minimum prescribed under that 1918 law.

Miss Gibson said the hospital now has a minimum of its own, $40 a month and three meals a day for a 44 to 48 hour week. No rooms are provided but there is pay for overtime.

Miss Gibson wouldn't comment whether she thought it was right or wrong for Justice Roberts to change his position so minimum wage legislation could be sustained.

TEX'S TOPICS

Comes a letter by Saturday's post from an old acquaintance, lost track of some dozen or so years ago, in which he states he had been informed of our demise and had mourned us as dead for the past eight years. . . . Incidentally, he remarks in Mark Twain fashion that he was pleased to learn just the other day that the report of our death was "greatly exaggerated."

While we are on the subject, the letter writer didn't forget to mention $10 which he borrowed, as newspapermen sometimes do. . . . We'll get it, he said, in due time even if 12 years have slipped by. . . . This reminds us of a swell poem along that line. . . . It goes like this:

If I should die tonight And you should come to my cold corpse and say, Weepin' gaud heartick o'er my lifeless clay. If I should die tonight, And you should come in deepest grief and woe— And say: "Here's that ten dollars that I owe," I might arise in my large white cravat And say, "What's that?"

There is nothing personal about that poem. . . . It could just as well apply to us as the next one. . . . We always liked Ben King's bit of jingle in that respect and for a long time have been looking for a spot to slip it in. . . . It fits so nicely here we couldn't resist the temptation. . . . We hope our creditors won't clip it out and send it back to us with a nasty remark or two.

Otto Rice, J. C. D. clubman, was playing the role of John Alden for an acquaintance the other night and made a contact with the wrong Priscilla. . . . It seems the acquaintance asked him to call up a girl friend and make arrangements for a date. . . . It happens that there are two girls in Pampa with this same particular first name. . . . Mr. Rice called the wrong one. . . . She was elated and disappointed at the same time. . . . Fortunately, for the other girl's boy friend she couldn't go because of "visitors from Ohio." . . . After Mr. Rice got to thinking it over, he came to the conclusion that the girl he was supposed to call had no visitors from Ohio. . . . Then came the dawn.

Do you know that— You can never see a rainbow unless you are between it and the sun. . . . To prevent needles and pins from rusting, stick them into a piece of flannel which has been saturated with machine oil. . . . In Australia, there are at least 20 species of animals that are aviators—flying squirrels, flying opossums, flying mice, and even flying bears.

And that— Fields of lava, "sputter cones," volcanic craters, strange caves, and natural bridges have been discovered in southeastern Idaho. . . . The soot discharged into the atmosphere of England every year represents three days' coal output of the entire country. . . . Modern science admits the possibility or danger of collision between a comet and the earth. If the comet particles were small, they say, no danger would result, but if they were huge rocks, there might be considerable damage at the point of collision.

And that— At one time, the moon was an object of devout worship. . . . Many persons of a superstitious nature still bow to the moon when they first see it, and turn the coins in their pockets. . . . The eagle has about 2,000 times as much light to work with in the clear daylight as a man has in his home at night. . . . There are 17 acres in the White House ground? . . . Well, if you didn't you do, now.

THERE'S A LOT OF HANGING ON THAT ONE

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Today I went prospecting for a real story but came back with only a lot of small talk. Do you mind? Eleanor Goodrich is Walter Hampden's niece, and they have these things in common: both detest answering telephones, and neither can remain away from the theater. Peggy Fears' idea of a satisfactory confection is a sauce containing three large scoops of peach ice cream. . . . Morton Rowe says he's studied voice under 39 teachers, but he may be kidding. . . . He used to be the fastest linotypist in the world. . . . There's the nucleus of a fine pet shop on Broadway is one wanted to go around to the theaters and collect them. . . . There's a duck, a dog, two kittens and a horse. . . . However, a grocery store would be more practical. . . . Think of the hams and sour grapes you could get.

Helen Gleason reports finding a hack driver who takes his little four-year-old daughter around with him all day. Her mother works, so she has to spend her time with papa. . . . However, papa always asks the customer if he minds. . . . He's never yet found one who does. . . . The thing that impresses you about Billy Rose is his leaping wit and utter absorption in his work. . . . Ed Wynn has worn the same pair of shoes 35 years—but only while going through his act. He never puts them on without first throwing dirt at them. . . . Not that he's superstitious. . . . he just thinks something awful will happen to him if he doesn't.

Gracie Allen confesses she first met George Burns back stage in a Hoboken theater while visiting there. . . . "Which is reason enough," she says, "why nobody should ever go to Hoboken." . . . For some inexplicable reason that song the old "Florodora" sextet used to sing keeps running through my mind. . . . I never saw the original sextet, but another one was introduced way back in 1920. . . . "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden" and it included Dama (there's an odd name) Sykes, Dorothy Leeds, Fay Evelyn, Marjorie Lodge, Beatrice Swanson and Marcella Swanson. . . . The only one of these girls I've seen since then was Marcella, walking down Broadway one night about six years ago.

Add Cornelianna: A scintillating tulip has been named for Katharine Cornell. . . . Furthermore, she's building a new summer cottage on an island off the New England coast. . . . There's a society in New York composed only of child actors, and its president is a young boy named Clarence Howard, a lot of seven, is its president. . . . She's the little girl who plays with Miss Cornell in "The Wingless Victory." . . . Oh, yes, the name of this society is The Lambkins.

If there's a word assiduously avoided by writers of radio copy it's "risks." . . . Even when read by the most meticulous actors it has a certain rasping sibilance. . . . Then there's the actress, a very good actress, who has this justifiable complaint: "she's so tiny she can never hope for leading parts."

Such a silly pity!

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Small boys playing along Red Deer creek Thursday afternoon gaped open-mouthed at a young man who was expertly casting a game fish line and reeling it in over pasture grass about 100 yards from the dry-bed creek. Explained the youth, "I am practicing up to go fishing. I haven't been able to go much this season, but I go every time I can get off from work. I guess it does look kinda funny casting out here on this bald prairie, but I wanted to try out this new rod and reel, and I couldn't go fishing, and well, this is the only place I could think of. . . . Meanwhile up at Hooverstrader ranch 14 miles southeast of Canadian, Lee Strader was all smiles. He too is a fisherman and he likes to see other people catch fish. He had just learned that the state law barring fishing does not apply to private lakes, including his which is seething with perch, cat and game fish. And fishermen may whip the waters of his lake from now on unmoisted by the law.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Some of the movie lilies persist in biting the hand that feeds them.

Considering how even the prettier actresses are dependent on make-up magic, it is remarkable how a few of them believe they know more about the art than its professional practitioners.

I was reminded of the fact by a story of Marlene Dietrich, told by a make-up artist who turned down the job of working with her on a recent picture. It seems that Marlene's fingers begin to fidget, figuratively, as soon as she sees an eyebrow pencil. She likes not only to work on her own brows, producing the weird, slanting effects noted in her films, but on this occasion she tried to alter the brows of another star after the make-up man had finished his work.

Squeal Effective Marlene called on her friend Merle Oberon and decided the Oberon brows were not applied artistically enough. And Dietrich picked up a pencil and was about to start in when the make-up artist gently but firmly intervened.

"Oh," said Marlene, "I was just going to improve them!" "Miss Dietrich," he said, "I never try to do your acting for you—and I don't need any help on make-up."

The squeal was effective, he reports. Simone Simon may be more tractable now (she has blamed her early displays of temperament on a desire to impress Hollywood) but her introduction to the 20th Century paint and powder department was scarcely happy.

Up to the lot, she was sent to the head man, Ernie Westmore, for preliminary work. So within five minutes she was telling him how it should be done, and how terrible she thought his method was. In the end she tore out, in a fury, vowing she would carry her case to Zanuck. Telling Westmore about make-up is like telling Culbertson about bridge, so I wasn't surprised, on my next visit, to see Ernie still in his old haunts.

Experiment Often Beauties and not-so-pretties alike generally are sensible of their debts to make-up and want it done by experts. Most of them are continually experimenting toward improvements. Jeannette MacDonald first was NERVOUS CHILD: I Just how "nervous" may a child be without being a nervous child? The rather heavy, short-limbed, round-chested child is likely to be calm and slow to react. On the other hand the long-limbed, narrow-chested, thin child is likely to be more "on the alert," and quick to react. However, mere activity does not establish "nervousness." The child who seems to be ever on the go, may be normal and well adjusted, while the relatively inactive, withdrawing, shy child is quite likely to be a nervous child. The quality and emotional character of the child's behavior rather than its activity, must guide us in our diagnosis. The truly nervous child is one easily irritated, too subject or too resistant to the suggestions of others, evidently unhappy, too prone to cry or to complain when thwarted, and readily elated by trivial favors. The child in other words is emotionally unstable. This instability may reveal itself in derangements of physiology, such as attacks of indigestion, vomiting, sleeplessness, diarrhea, or constipation, chronic fatigue and loss of appetite. Again, the nervous child may be inordinately shy, timid, awkward, unresponsive, moody and withdrawn.

Given such a child, what may be done to relieve it of its nervousness? Perhaps the very first step indicated is to make doubly certain of the diagnosis. Quite frequently it is not the child but the parent who is nervous.

This is most likely to be the case when the parents have an only child, and where there is friction in the family. Not uncommonly nervousness is a family disability, and treatment of the child, without at the same time treating the parents, is likely to prove ineffective.

Assuming, however, that the child is nervous, and that the parents are not unduly so, then a thorough medical examination of the child is indicated. Not infrequently physical disease, if not entirely responsible, is the major contributing condition to the child's nervousness.

Diseased tonsils and adenoids, diseased teeth, malnutrition, defective vision, and impaired hearing, postural defects, rheumatic fever and numerous other physical abnormalities, may so sap the child's strength that it is not able to face its little world with suitable equanimity.

annoyed and later grateful to a critic who said unkind things of her mouth. She changed her lip make-up and it made a difference. Joan Crawford, who affected a thick, squarish lip for "Rain," wisely abandoned it. Jean Harlow's change from platinum blonde was her own idea, but affected only after tests.

The make-up men don't mind, in fact enjoy, having players raise questions and make suggestions for changes. What makes them see red (and not mere rouge, either) is the player who wants to take over the whole job.

Lon Chaney was the only star who did that, and he was entitled to be the exception. Akim Tamiroff, the Russian actor of many "faces," used to operate a school of make-up in New York, but in Hollywood he leaves it mainly to the artists. Like Paul Muni, who works hard at his make-ups, Tamiroff suggests and lets the artist execute the idea.

Taxidermists usually use ants to eat away the flesh from tiny animals when the skeletons alone are wanted.

Q. When was the totalizer on which pari-mutuel bets at racetracks are recorded invented? H. Y. A. The totalizer was developed about thirty years ago by Sir George Julius in Australia, but was originally designed to show election returns or how votes were being recorded. It was decided, however, that that would be illegal under the Australian secret ballot law, so the machine was never used for such a purpose. It was turned over to the Australian Jockey club, and was first used at the Auckland, New Zealand, races in 1913. Later Henry L. Straus of Baltimore improved upon the machine, developing the ticket-printing and issuing machine now used at fifteen tracks, including Pimlico, Arlington Park, Narragansett Park, Keeneland, and Santa Anita.

Q. What is the name of the mountain peak in Colorado where Mrs. Joyce B. Stearns and Fred D'Amour went last year to study the cosmic ray? B. R. A. In 1936 they established a small two-room copper-sheathed shelter on Mt. Evans about 50 miles west of Denver, Colo., for the purpose of studying cosmic rays. The work has not progressed to the extent that any important announcement can be made as yet.

This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM HUSLEY CLARK

An ancient philosopher once said, "Great occasions produce great men." But great occasions create great literature, great deeds, great music—in fact, most everything great has been the product of some stupendous moment that challenged the soul of somebody who witnessed it.

There have been many valuable contributions made to our own civilization that seem to be the very essence of the momentous occasions out of which they grew. The familiar old hymn, "The Ninety and Nine" had not been set to music when Mr. Moody was conducting an evangelistic campaign in the great city of Edinburgh and the time had come for a song. Mr. Sankey, his singer, had clipped the words of the song from a paper. When the song was called for, he knew nothing he could render would be so fitting to the hour as the words of that hymn if it only had a tune. Mr. Sankey placed the words of the little poem before him and allowed the very atmosphere of the occasion to inspire a tune. It was here in the lofty spiritual challenge of that great service, the impressive music was created which has given such able support to that soul stirring hymn.

Available Favorite Poems

This collection of the favorite poems of America was not made by authors or experts but by the American people themselves. A nation-wide vote was taken to determine which are the favorite poems—of the largest number of people. This booklet is the result and is available only through our Washington information bureau. The old-time poems predominate, favorites from Longfellow, Tennyson, Bryant, and other leading songsters of all time. There are some of the newer poems, including Kilmer, Kipling, McCrae, and others of our time. There is great enjoyment for every one in this fine collection of favorite poems. # 14 COMPLETIONS FILED IN PANHANDLE FIELD DURING WEEK

HUTCHINSON LEADS GRAY BY SINGLE WELL

Intentions to drill wells in the Panhandle field reached a new high in more than a year last week when 25 locations were filed. Ten new oil wells added 5,250 barrels to the field potential and four gas wells were given a total potential of 152,037,000 cubic feet.

Hutchinson and Gray counties staged a race for supremacy in new locations with Hutchinson winning 14 to 7. Wheeler county was a close third with six and Carson county trailed with four. All locations were in proven territory.

The exceptionally active Hutchinson county field also led in production with five wells which had a total potential of 2,735 barrels. Carson county registered the best completion in the Magnolia Petroleum company's Fee land 223, No. 22, section 109, block 4, I&GN survey, testing 804 barrels or two more barrels than the Turman Oil company's No. B-5 Whitenburg, section 58, block 46, H&TC survey in Hutchinson county.

The field witnessed a flurry of excitement late in the week when a hole full of oil was reported in the Empire Oil & Gas company's No. 1 Jack Stephens, section 167, block B-2, H&HN survey, a wildcat test 14 miles southwest of Pampa and south of the granite ridge believed to be the dividing line for oil pay.

The test was shut in for a day while storage was erected. First swabbings registered 80 barrels in 12 hours. Deepening was begun in the hope of finding deeper pay. Top of the granite wash formation was reported at 3,145 feet and drilling ceased at 3,161 feet, still in granite wash. No test was made for gravity.

Nearest pay to the Empire test is six miles to the northwest and the same distance to the southeast where the Taylor Oil company located pay on the Taylor ranch. The famous Bowers pool is in the other direction.

The local office of the Texas Railroad commission was notified last week that the Dean Oil company's wildcat test in Dean Smith county had been abandoned as a dry hole and would be plugged. The test was drilled to a total depth of 4,518 feet without pay in any quantity. The test was the company's No. 1 Parwell in section 18, block 3M, survey 2E.

Oil wells tested, by counties, were: Hutchinson County Phillips Petroleum co., No. 18 Cockrell, section 6, block M-21, TC RR survey, gauged 335 barrels with time pay from 2,990 to 3,007 feet, total depth. Drilling and Exploration co.

brought in another good well in its No. 12 Halle, section 5, block M-21, TCRR survey, which gauged 433 barrels from 3,011 to 3,077 feet in lime pay.

Turman Oil co., No. B-5, section 58, block 46, H&TC survey, tested 802 barrels. Pay was in the lime from 2,700 to 2,730 feet, an exceptionally shallow pay for the area.

Shell Petroleum corp., No. 2 Wisdom, section 21, block M-23, H&TC survey, responded to a shot of 450 quarts, placed from 3,128 to 3,184 feet, with a flow of 525 barrels. Pay was in the lime from 3,128 to 3,180.

The Timms-Robinson No. 5 Moore, section 21, block M-21, TCRR survey, was good for 640 barrels following a shot of 290 quarts of nitro placed from 3,064 to 3,135 feet. Pay was from the lime between 3,064 and 3,130 feet.

Gray County Gardner Brothers No. 4 Barrett, section 128, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 668 barrels from lime pay between 3,210 and 3,300 feet, total depth.

The C. E. Ash No. B-5 Morse, section 2, block 26, H&GN survey, tested 141 barrels from lime pay at 2,661 to 2,679 feet. The hole was bottomed at 2,685 feet.

Magnolia Petroleum co., No. 5 Barrett, section 112, block 3, I&GN survey, tested 276 barrels. Pay was in the lime from 3,195 to 3,298 feet, total depth.

Gulf Oil corp., No. 7 Barrett, section 128, block 3, I&GN survey, had a potential of 626 barrels from lime pay between 3,210 and 3,270 feet. A shot of 480 quarts of nitro was placed between 3,210 and 3,290 feet.

Carson County The only completion in Carson county, the Magnolia Petroleum co., No. 22 Fee Land 244, section 109, block 4, I&GN survey, gauged 804 barrels from lime pay between 2,938 and 2,988 feet. A shot of 270 quarts was used between 2,938 and 2,995 feet.

Gas wells tested, by counties, were: Hutchinson County Skelly-Cabot No. 1 Chester Yake, section 1, block J, H&GN survey, tested 28,296,000 cubic feet.

Skelly-Cabot No. 1 William Yake, section 2, block M-26, TCRR survey, gauged 12,621,000 cubic feet.

Wheeler County Palmer et al No. 1 Pugh, section 111, block 23, H&GN survey, was given a potential of 59,321,000 cubic feet.

Carson County Carl M. Smith No. 1 Gorenflo, section 186, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 51,799,000 cubic feet.

Here Is Reasoning Given By Both Sides In Strike Issue; Take Your Choice

Sitdowns Mock Government, Declares Boston Group; Make Owners Abide by Law, Claim Strikers

By RODNEY DUTCHER Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 1—Perhaps it is impossible for anyone to be entirely unprejudiced as to sit-down strikes and the defiance by workers of a court order demanding their withdrawal from the Chrysler automobile plants in Detroit.

Yet it is possible to be violently prejudiced on either side, and it may be that the best way of reaching a reasonably detached attitude is to read side by side the extreme views, in opposition to each other, of those who have shown themselves most steamed up over the issue.

Anyone who wants to study the issue from all angles might do worse than to begin by looking at: 1. Telegraphic protest to the Senate by President Emeritus A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, and other Boston citizens. 2. Letter by chairmen of the Chrysler sit-down strikers to Governor Murphy.

Growing Beyond Control "Armed insurrection of law, order and duly elected authority is spreading like wildfire," says the Lowell group. "It is rapidly growing beyond control. What determined action by the governor of Michigan several weeks ago, or a few words of counsel by the President, would have ended summarily, now challenges the supremacy of government itself."

"No question of the right of labor to liberal wage increases, or working conditions is involved. This is universally conceded. The issue is far more vital. It dwells any other issue now agitating the public mind; it attacks and undermines the very foundation of our political structure. If minority groups can seize premises illegally, hold them indefinitely, refuse admittance to owners or managers, resist by violence and bloodshed all attempts to dislodge them, intimidate properly constituted authority to the point of impotence, then freedom and liberty are at an end, government becomes a mockery superceded by anarchy, mob rule and ruthless dictatorship."

Strikers Tell Their Side Now listen to the Chrysler strikers, as they expressed themselves prior to the agreement for evacuating the plants: "Our employers have refused to recognize the principles of collective bargaining, so we have resorted to the only weapon we have to make them abide by the law. We have suffered for years in these plants of the Chrysler Corporation. We haven't been paid wages enough to support our families in decency and health.

"We have seen each year an increase in the speed of the line. And still the foreman and the gang leaders stand over us and demand more and more production. "Last summer hundreds of us fell like flies on the job because the heat and speed of work were more than we could stand. And it wasn't until we threatened to strike that the management slowed down the line."

"Last fall thousands of us were discharged in violation of our seniority standing. We had to threaten to strike then to get rehired. While we were exercising our right to organize, we were opposed by one of the most vicious and unscrupulous spy systems ever established in industry. The Chrysler Corporation retained an agency that hired criminals and ex-convicts to do their filthy work. This is a matter of public record. We were subject to intimidation by foremen and petty bosses. Our members were fired for no other reason than that they had joined the union. These things that they did to us were lawless."

"Then when he had built our union, in spite of these obstacles, the Chrysler Corporation refused to recognize us. And this refusal was a lawless act."

"We have many other complaints. We don't feel any better about this whole situation when we know that Walter Chrysler, using the money we earned for him and entirely ignoring our complaints, is unconcernedly vacationing in Florida; that only a few days ago he paid $1000 more than the value of his car in a year for a case of champagne."

The letter concluded with the promise "to protect our rights to our jobs with our lives."

Organization of Stamp Collectors Club Here Planned

Organization of a stamp collectors' club here will be attempted soon and anyone interested in collecting stamps who would like to attend a meeting may call Seth Sayles, 409 Combs-Worley building, Phone 1300, or O. K. Gaylor, assistant postmaster, and leave their name and address.

Pampa has many active philatelists and others who would like to resume collection of stamps if they had local contacts. Purpose of the organization would be to meet occasionally and discuss the hobby and probably trade or purchase stamps.

CHILDREN'S TEETH SUFFER LOS ANGELES (AP)—Malnutrition in the depression years has affected the teeth of children, says Dr. Spencer M. Crump, who gives his time to a free clinic here. He estimates 100,000 are so badly affected they may be toothless at 35.

ALLRED HITS OIL DRILLING IN SHALLOWS

AUSTIN, April 2. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred said today a serious situation confronted the Texas coast country in the prospective development of submerged lands in the Gulf of Mexico for oil.

Representatives of coast cities urged the governor yesterday to take all possible steps to stop proposed drilling by the Humble Oil company of a well near High Island, about a mile from the shore. They argued escaping oil would destroy marine life and ruin recreational and business interests.

At the instance of the governor, Will J. Tucker, secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster commission, telegraphed a protest to the War department against a permit for the well. The company asked the permit of the department because it has jurisdiction over navigation. The company obtained a lease on the area under a state law enacted several years ago.

"I wish the hands never had been leased," the governor said. "We have enough oil in Texas without it, and I don't know but what fish life and property rights previously established should be considered as well as recovery of oil we don't need."

He said that if the State could get out of contracts with the company authorizing the development, by returning the lease money, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, it should be done.

A legislative investigation of the situation has been projected. A concurrent resolution introduced by Rep. W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi provided for sub-groups of the State Affairs committees of both legislative houses to re-examine the policy of leasing submerged lands and make recommendations. The committee would report by April 20.

The resolution said a great drilling campaign in South Texas and in shallow Gulf waters was in progress and much of the shallows was subject to lease. It also said protests had been made that such development in the Gulf would obstruct navigation, destroy marine life and vegetation serving as food for livestock, render beach fronts unusable and, by covering them with oil, increase the fire hazards in harbors.

The House adopted the resolution without opposition and sent it to the Senate. Rep. Harry L. McKee of Port Arthur obtained permission to introduce a bill prohibiting future leasing in the shallow waters and permitting persons already holding leases to obtain refunds of the money they paid the State provided they voluntarily surrendered their drilling rights.

Perch and Cat Can Be Fished In April, May

Charlie Smith of Canadian, game warden for the Panhandle district, made an announcement here Friday night that brought joy to fishermen when he revealed that it would not be a violation of the law to fish for perch and catfish during the months of March and April.

Closed season during those two months will be on bass and crappie only, Mr. Smith said. The law making it a violation to catch all kinds of fish during the closed season was recently changed.

A license will be required to fish out of the home county, Mr. Smith said. A BLOOMING COINCIDENCE! NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Flowers and Blossom respond to roll call daily in a University of Oklahoma botany class. They are Miss Martha Flowers and Curtis Blossom, both of Oklahoma City.

$69,264 PAID FOR LICENSES AT TAX OFFICE

Final tabulation on last week's sale of automobile license registrations will not be completed until Monday or Tuesday. Tax Collector Ewing Leech stated last night.

In the rush of business the past week time has not been taken to make a complete check, the tax collector explained.

Up until last Monday, when the last report was made, a total of $69,264 had been taken in at the Gray county registration office.

Under the law the county gets the first $50,000 collected before a division with the state begins. Up until that time the county's share of the total had been $65,040, and the state's share was $4,184.26.

Mr. Leech said Saturday that the county still had about 2,100 license plates on hand. Upwards of 8,600 of the tags were sold in Gray county.

Licenses still are being sold at the tax collector's office, and it is now against the law to drive a car without 1937 registration authority.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

By LOUIS SCHNEIDER

ACTION. While President Roosevelt was away on a short vacation various government agencies were "with alarm" the growing economic disparities. As a result it further provoked the decline in the value of government bonds.

The remarks of Messrs. Eccles, Morgenthau, Hoper, and Wallace were construed by financial interests as symptomatic of a coming change in the administration's policies. Direct action is expected to be taken to curb the speculative activities in securities and commodities. The "inflation boom" is to be suppressed.

Informed financial circles have been given to understand that price finding isn't unlikely. To check the inflow of foreign capital the import price of gold is to be lowered to either $30 or $22.50 an ounce. The export price of gold will remain at $35 per ounce.

HARDWARE. Hardware trade insiders report that despite increased output the demand isn't being satisfied. Even sharp mark-up of prices hasn't discouraged buyers. Corporations specializing in this type of output can't possibly do better with current production facilities.

The trade is of the opinion that hardware dealers will soon find themselves facing customers with empty shelves—if orders aren't immediately filled. This situation rules particularly in farm fencing, poultry netting, paints and farm tools.

JITTERS. Food industry insiders are privately expressing concern over the labor problem. There are two reasons. The first is that farmers fear a shortage of help during the busy planting season. The second is that canners are worried over the possibility of a labor tie-up in their industry.

Canners report that farmers refuse to contract for acreage. This is because they doubt whether they can get help when needed. Farm labor is reported moving towards cities, obtaining steady work on W. P. A. relief jobs. In addition prices being offered for products are such that farmers would rather turn output into feed crops than plant eating crops.

While some part of the canning industry is unionized the largest portion isn't. Canners fear that strike tie-ups in other industries will spread into theirs. There is current evidence that the C. I. O. is set for a labor drive in this industry. Workers themselves report as much.

With a shortage of farm labor and labor drives in the canning industry, prices will have to be lifted. The food trade doubts whether the public will pay higher prices. Trade insiders have the jitters.

SHOES. Shoe trade insiders report that fall footwear prices will again be advanced by retailers. The price boost will run from 10 to 20 per cent, shoe retailers are of the opinion that customer resistance will not be disturbing. Fall shoe sales are expected to run about 25 per cent over the results shown last year.

BARGAINS. Because March retail trade wasn't so good as had been anticipated merchandising executives look for a banner April sales volume. The largest promotional campaigns in months have been planned. It is hoped that the accumulated stocks which didn't move last month will be sold during early April.

The tip-off on spring wearing apparel buying—as far as the consumer is concerned—is that patience will be rewarded. According to retail trade insiders the last week in April will see some excellent bargains offered because stores will be clearing shelves for summer wear.

WAR? Informed circles report a growing world demand for petroleum. This is reflected in the greater activity in the charter market for tankers. Some of the largest companies which have fleets of their own are actively bidding for bottoms. One of the largest in the industry recently chartered tankers for two or three-year periods.

This is unusual since in most cases charters are for but a single voyage. The longer term is regarded as evidence that world demand is expected to continue and that shippers wish to stay safe by having tankers available for immediate use. To your correspondent's informant the situation smacks of war preparations.

EXPECTED. Apparel-year trade insiders say higher price schedules will be announced in the not distant future. Increased manufacturing costs warrant the anticipated move. The

REPORTS ARE THAT:

Labor difficulties of General Motors and Chrysler Motors had a considerable effect on first quarter earnings of motor accessory companies. Diamond-P truck sales are running 50 per cent ahead of last year. Higher Colgate-Palmolive-Peet dividend likely late this year. President of American Republic Corporation denies company will offer additional shares. Mack Truck's unfilled orders amount to about $7,500,000—largest in years. Investment portfolio buying accounts for firm action of Public Service of New Jersey—on dips. Floating supply of Midland Steel Products small—Chrysler interests own blocks of it. Howe Sound's 1937 net estimated at $10 a share—if metal prices hold for balance of year. Palardo-Bugars's production running 5 per cent ahead of last year. American Can and Continental Can listed by investment account managers. Crane Company common dividend likely—so chairman of board stated. Kansas City Southern's 1937 net privately estimated at close to $2 a share—if all goes well. On fixed-stated specifications companies are taking orders only on 10 to 15 week delivery dates. And, that brokers doubt whether the S. E. C. will ever do anything about making stock exchange members and member partners trade on a cash basis.

Most birds observe territorial boundaries, and each bird defends his nesting area against other birds which seek to intrude.

'Good Boy' Held as Girl Slayer

Thomas Smith, 18, above, never smoked or drank, but he has confessed to Buffalo police, they say, that he stabbed and beat 18-year old Mary Ellen Babcock to death because of an "uncontrollable impulse." His confession came after he was arrested for stabbing Frances Fitzgerald, 14, another Buffalo girl, with an ice pick. His arrest led to solution of a two-month mystery.

BY WILL H. MAYES.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquiries must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. What was a "charivari?"
A. In the Texas colonies and elsewhere throughout the country in the nineteenth century, there was a custom for neighbors of a newly married couple to equip themselves with tin pans, triangles, plowshares and other noise-making things, a few nights after the wedding and assembly secretly about midnight at the home of the bride and groom and suddenly burst forth in hideous noises that were kept up until the couple appeared and invited the visitors in, where a "treat" was spread and the merrymaking was continued throughout the rest of the night. This "charivari" was expected as evidence of the popularity of the newlyweds and as the climax of the wedding festivities.

Q. When, for whom and by whom was Camp Worth, which became the nucleus for the city of Fort Worth, named?
A. Camp Worth was established June 6, 1849, and named by Major Ripley A. Arnold, in command of the Second Dragoons, which was stationed there, for Gen. William Jenkins War, who won distinction in the War of 1812—against England, in which he was lauded for life, was instructor in infantry tactics at West Point; in the Mexican War, and again distinguished himself at the assault on Monterrey and the capture of Mexico City. He died with cholera, in May, 1849.

Q. What is the bank bill version or tradition as to the origin of the word "Dixie?"
A. Prior to the Civil War, a large New Orleans bank issued $10 bills, one side of which were printed in French, the French word "dix" being used for the English "ten." These became known as "dix" bills, or "Dixies," and customers called for them by that name. The "Dixies" having wide circulation in the South, that section became known as "Dixie Land."

TRAILER ADVENTURE

By Nard Jones

NEA Service, Inc.

Chapter 10
She seemed to be plunging in a sweeping arc—then suddenly she felt something clutching her arm. Her head broke the surface, sank again, with that firm hand still gripping her. Fantastically she wondered if this could be the last mad delusion of the drowning. And then, miraculously, she felt the sand beneath her feet.

"Steady . . . hold steady . . ."

It was Neal's voice. It was Neal who gripped her fiercely with one hand, his other fending them off from the wall of rock. With all her remaining strength Martha dug into the sand with her bare feet as a wave receded. She tried her best to make that last struggle which would bring her to a safe depth. Then everything went black.

When she opened her eyes she saw Gerry Neal's anxious face between her and the bright blue bowl of sky. Under her body the sand felt deliciously warm and soft.

"You're all right now," Neal was saying. "You fainted just as we were getting in."

She started to raise her head, but he remonstrated. "Not yet. Take it easy. I—I'm frightfully sorry, Martha."

"It wasn't your fault. An inland girl should know better than to go plunging into a surf like that."

"Ordinarily it would have been all right. But close to those rocks there's a dangerous undercurrent. I've sat here by the hour and watched what it does to pieces of driftwood. That's how I knew just where to hit—and I could see that red bathing suit, too!"

Martha smiled. "Mind if I just lie here a minute and close my eyes? I feel kind of shaky."

How long her eyes were closed she did not know. Perhaps she dozed in the warm sun. But when she raised her lashes she was startled to see Neal's face quite close, as though he had been studying her. Then slowly, yet somehow swiftly, too, he kissed her.

Martha did not move. The color rose slowly from her throat. Deliberately she raised herself to her feet, left Neal sitting there on the sand. "I'm going to dress. It's time we started back to town."

"Right," said Neal oddly. "I'll meet you at the car."

He was standing by the road, smoking a cigaret, when Martha came up the path swinging her damp swim suit. Wordlessly, he held open the car door for her, then climbed behind the wheel.

"I shouldn't have done that," he said at last.

"Shouldn't have done what?"

"You know what I mean. I had no right to kiss you."

"Kiss me?" repeated Martha. She laughed lightly. "Either you've been affected by our recent experience—or I have. I don't remember a kiss."

Neal flushed angrily. The car swerved to the side of the road, stopped suddenly. "If you choose not to remember that kiss, perhaps you will remember this one!" He grasped Martha by the shoulders—and as quickly released her. For a long moment he met her eyes squarely. Then: "I—I don't know what the devil is wrong with me. Will you forgive me, please?"

Martha's glance did not flinch. Her reply was direct, almost impersonal. "Of course," she said.

"I suppose," he went on dully when the car was under way again,

"that now you won't want to go to the Del Monte dance with me tonight?"

Martha shrugged. "Why not? I think it would be fun."

Neal turned, admiration shining from his eyes. "You know, you're about the grandest girl I've ever known!"

"And you've known a great many?"

"I get around."

"Ever save a girl's life before?"

Martha laughed. "No. Not that I recall. And I can't really count this time. Because I was a fool not to warn you. Suppose you'd jumped in before I got down to the beach?"

Martha shuddered. "I'd rather not imagine that!"

As Martha danced in the ball room of the Del Monte that night it seemed to her that it had been ages since she'd heard a rhythmic swing for dancing. So much had happened in the last two days, so much that was frightening and inexplicable, that she owned the feeling of having lived years since she and Betty had started so blithely from San Diego.

And now—she knew it almost beyond a doubt—she was falling in love with Gerry Neal. Falling in love with a man she hardly knew, a man she should be regarding with suspicion rather than tenderness.

But there it was. Since first she had been able to reason, Martha had never dodged the truth about herself. And the truth was certainly this: either she was in love with Neal, or she was precariously close to it. As she danced in Gerry Neal's arms she remembered, curiously, something she had said to Betty

Haynes not long before. They had been reading in the newspaper of a wife testifying for her husband accused of murder and racketeering. "I don't know what he did," the wife had said. "He'd never tell me. But I loved him and that was all that mattered." That was the woman's testimony, and Martha remembered saying, "It doesn't sound right to me. I can't imagine loving a man you didn't know any more about than that."

Well, it could happen. It was happening now in hundreds of places all over the world. At this moment hundreds of women were realizing it could happen, just as she was now. It gave her a queer, fatalistic feeling to think that she was one of them.

Coming back from the beach that afternoon she began to realize it. Gerry Neal's kiss was still on her lips, and she had sat there, remembering it. She had hurried to the trailer to change for dinner, happy at getting into her blue gown and slippers, wanting her hair to be right.

And now she and this man were dancing together, without words, content to let the music speak for them, not caring that they were strangers in this gay ballroom and could dance with no one else.

"But I mustn't let him see it," Martha warned herself. "I've got to find Betty—I've got to know what Gerry Neal is." There was another warning which slipped unwanted into her brain. A warning not to let herself in for anything, not to be hurt. A warning so many women have refused, and so few have heeded, when the time came.

Suddenly Neal looked down at her. "You're very quiet, Martha . . . I can call you Martha?"

"You've already done it once before," she told him. "On the beach this afternoon, after you yanked me ashore."

Neal laughed. "I guess I was too excited to notice. Anyhow, that proves it comes natural—and not for effect." He looked at her oddly. "But you remembered!"

"Yes," Martha said, "I remembered."

of 461,589 arrests reported to the justice department during the past year by local law enforcement agencies, Hoover says that over 16 per cent of 427,919 men arrested in 1936 were taken into custody for drunkenness. Larceny accounted for approximately 9 per cent.

Thefts committed without violence, including shop-lifting, headed the women's list, and accounted for nearly 14 per cent of all offenses attributed to women and girls. Drunkenness ran second at 11.3 per cent and prostitution third at 10.2 per cent.
