Johnson Becomes 36th President

NEW SEWER LINES — Replacing of seven miles of Pampa's sewers got underway this week and the first section of the project is a half-mile line on south Gillespie that is more than 18 feet deep. Employees in the city's public work department are shown using a trenching machine to reach the sewer line and replacing the line a section at a time.

Extortion Plot Ends For Steel Executive

CHICAGO (UPI)—The terror plot of terror for the icy was over today for a steel company executive and his family but the tribulations were just beginning for the 21-year-old son of a prominent Chicago surgeon.

Anthony G. Cesare Jr. was charged Tuesday with trying to extort $12,000 from steel executive William M. Hickey, 35, under threat of blowing Hickey's wife and six children up with a bomb.

Hickey is a close friend of Cesare's father, senior surgeon for the Chicago police department and a staff member at South Chicago Hospital. The arrest of Cesare Jr. Monday night ended a nine-day period of terror for the icy.

King Pulls Out of Selma, Urges Rally to Press Drive

By United Press International teams of lawyers were being integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. pulled out of Selma, Ala., Tuesday night to help keep speaking engagements in the East.

Before he left he told a rally of 800 Negroes to return by the hundreds today to seek voter registration at the Dallas County courthouse.

King, leading his first all-out integration drive of the year in the Alabama cotton belt, met his first big obstacle Tuesday when 57 of his followers were arrested by militant Sheriff James Clark when they refused to leave a registration line in front of the courthouse.

No Negroes were registered to vote and King said a federal court would be asked to register applicants turned down by county registrars. He said Robert E. Lee's birthday.

Texas Band Leads Parade

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An all-American procession of cowboys, Indians, high school bands, pretty girls, paratroopers and politicians escorted Lyndon B. Johnson down the glory road from the Capitol to the White House today after he took his oath as President.

There were 52 bands and 15,000 marchers—a short inaugural parade by past standards, but still long enough to need three hours to pass down historic Pennsylvania Avenue.

Military hardware was conspicuous by its absence. Instead of missiles, tanks and guns, the parade featured floats depicting the peaceful accomplishments and ideals of "The Great Society."

More than 500,000 people endured bitter cold to watch along the parade route. An estimated 200 million others, on both sides of the Atlantic, saw it on television.

Speech Asks Unity Under Great Society

By LOUIS CASSELS
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lyndon Baines Johnson was sworn in today as president in his fellow Americans to fulfill his own right with an appeal to their heritage of "justice... liberty... union."

In his inaugural address, Johnson forecast that "before this generation of Americans is finished" it will conquer waste of its human resources.

Johnson said in his prepared speech that Americans "must work now to provide the knowledge and the surroundings which can enlarge the possibilities of every citizen."

Johnson said America's enemies mistakenly have awaited this country's defeat in past depression and war but "each time from the secret places of the American heart came forth the faith that brought victory."

"Let us reject any among us who seek to reopen old wounds and rekindle old hatreds," Johnson declared. "They stand in the way of a seeking nation."

The 56-year old Chief Executive summoned his countrymen to "join reason to faith and action to experience to transform our new unity of interest into a new unity of purpose."

"For the time has come to achieve progress without strife and change without hatred," Johnson declared, "not without difference of opinion, but without the deep and abiding divisions which scar the union for generations."

"The President said it was 'incredible... that in this fragile existence' faced by all humans that 'we should hate and (See PRESIDENT, Page 4)

Dobrynin Summoned to Explain Soviet A-Blast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States sought a "full explanation" from Russia today on a Soviet nuclear test which has sent traces of radioactivity over the northern Pacific.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk summoned Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin to the State Department Tuesday to ask about the Soviet blast which occurred Jan. 15 in the Semipalatinsky area of eastern Russia.

Later by more than 100 other nations, forbids nuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space and underwater.

It permits tests underground but only if they do not cause radioactivity to spread outside the country involved. Normally, underground tests do not do this.

Hubert Reaches Pinnacle of Life As Vice President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An exuberant Hubert Humphrey reached the pinnacle of his long career in public life today when he took the oath of office as the nation's 41st vice president.

Thousands gathered on the Capitol grounds and millions more on television saw Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., swear the druggist's son from Huron, S.D., into office as the United States' second-ranking official. Humphrey is the first vice president the nation has had since Nov. 22, 1963.

The Bible used for the brief ceremony has been in Mrs. Muriel Humphrey's family for generations. It was being held for the swearing-in by Freddy Gates, a longtime family friend from Minneapolis.

The Humphrey family had front row seats for the inaugural. Mrs. Humphrey sat with Lady Bird Johnson while the Humphrey children — sons Hubert III, Robert and Douglas, and daughter Mrs. Bruce Solomonson — were in a group across the aisle.

The day began for Humphrey at 8 a.m. CST when he and President Johnson attended special inter-faith services at the National City Christian Church.

Earlier, Hubert Horatio Humphrey of Minnesota had taken his oath as vice president, filling an office that has been vacant since Johnson himself was catapulted into the presidency by an assassin's bullets on Nov. 23, 1963.

The solemn oath-taking ceremony was witnessed by some 10,000 VIP guests in the Capitol's great plaza, and by an estimated 200 million others on both sides of the Atlantic over television. It was the 45th presidential inauguration in U.S. history.

Although a stiff wind was blowing, the weather was the mildest Washington has had in many days, with the temperature edging up toward the forties.

In his address, Johnson said Americans must not fail now to earn again the heritage that past generations have won "with toil and tears." Americans, he said, "are a nation of believers."

"Underneath the clamor of building and the rush of our day's pursuit, we are believers in liberty and justice and in our union," he said. "We believe every man must someday be free. And we believe in ourselves."

"The President said America's enemies mistakenly have awaited this country's defeat in past depression and war but 'each time from the secret places of the American heart came forth the faith that brought victory.'"

Winnie's Fight For Life Goes Into Sixth Day

By HARRY FERGUSON
LONDON (UPI)—Sir Winston Churchill's fight for life went into its sixth day today. British physicians, usually reticent about such matters, are speculating that some sort of medical history is being made in the little dead-end street where Britain's 90-year-old hero is defying time and all the odds against survival.

Nobody gives Churchill a chance to recover. Arrangements already are being made for his funeral in accordance with plans he drew up years ago. Britons know the dread blow will fall sometime and are braced against it.

The law of averages dictates that a 90-year-old man who suffers a stroke has an extremely short life expectancy. Yet the bulletin issued Wednesday night by Lord Moran, Churchill's physician, indicated neither loss nor gain of vitality.

"Sir Winston has slept through the day and there is no appreciable change in his condition. There will be another bulletin tomorrow morning."

One of the doctors who has become interested in the medical aspects of Churchill's strong fight to live is Dr. Harley Williams, director of the Chest and Heart Association.

"It seems to me," he said, "that the magnificent vitality of this man is expressed in his heart and his whole circulation and it is possible for him to carry on where most other people would have succumbed. This is a very marked case and, as we know, he is a remarkable man. He is an exception in this as in everything else. I would not think that the ultimate forecast (death) is altered."

UN Fails to End Financial Problem

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Groups of smaller nations moved today to find a compromise way out of the U.N. financial impasse that would be acceptable to both the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Latin American and Afro-Asian groups, which together have 80 of the 115 U.N. votes, held a preliminary meeting Tuesday and scheduled further talks today. They hoped to find a formula to replenish the depleted U.N. treasury and break the deadlock that has prevented voting in the assembly since Dec. 1.

Two earlier Afro-Asian plans, different only in slight details, were accepted by the Soviet Union but rejected by the United States.

They called for voluntary payments to a U.N. fund and agreement not to apply article 19 of the U.N. charter, which takes away the voting rights of delinquent members, during the present session.

Cooler Weather Due Tomorrow

"If this is winter what will spring be like?" This was the question most Pampans were asking today as they enjoyed their fourth straight day of warm, mild weather.

However, cooler temperatures are forecast for Thursday with a 50 degree reading called for. Lows tonight are expected to be in the upper 20s.

Business Suit Sets the Style
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson departs from custom to wear an oxford gray business suit and a dark gray fedora at today's inauguration ceremonies.

The President's attire setting the style for all the officials attending the ceremonies, it is the first occasion in modern times that the occupants of the inaugural stand have not all been decked out in the traditional morning coat and striped trousers.

Johnson announced some time ago that he preferred a business suit for the ceremony. The White House gave no official reason for his choice.

DENY HEARING
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court denied a hearing to Irving C. Scarbeck, who sought a reduction in the 10-year prison sentence imposed on him on charges of passing U.S. secrets to Poland.
 Scarbeck, a former second secretary of the U.S. Embassy at Warsaw, was first sentenced to 30 years imprisonment. This was later reduced to 10 years.
 According to government witnesses, Scarbeck had a love affair with a 22-year-old Polish girl and turned over secret data in an effort to get Communist permission for her to leave Poland.

Lady Bird Sees Dream Of 30 Years Come True

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For Lady Bird Johnson the inauguration of her husband today is the triumphant culmination of a dream they have shared for 30 years.
The First Lady, whose unflinching confidence and belief in him have sustained her husband through victory and defeat, appears to her friends to be walking on air these days.
They say she has never appeared more radiant than she has during the past few days of inaugural festivities. But through it all she has never held herself aloof from those who helped fashion her husband's Nov. 3 victory.

Mrs. Johnson feels the President's commitment to the "Great Society" also involves her. She hopes to work on Johnson mementoes for his boyhood home and library.
She has become more fashion-conscious in the past few months. Her clothes have a special flare and her new "romantic" hairdos, done by stylist Jean Louis, give her a regal look.
She drew admiring smiles from the crowds Tuesday night when she swept into Constitution Hall for the inaugural concert clad in a red gown with a slight train. She also attended a supper dance given by Mrs. Albert Lasker, widow of the New York publisher, and Washington attorney Abe Fortas.

Mrs. Johnson kept smiling throughout the concert. Part of the reason seemed to be that the President was having a wonderful time, too. They heard pianist Van Cliburn, violinist Isaac Stern, and excerpts from "Porgy and Bess" sung by Therese Coleman and Todd Duncan.
Mrs. Johnson said she "loved the entire evening." She beamed happiness at the supper dance when she was greeted with a hug and kiss by old friends like Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson.

Security Tightens For Inauguration

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Security forces, haunted by John F. Kennedy's assassination, today marshaled the most elaborate set of precautions in history for President Johnson's inauguration.

3,000 police and troops along the parade route.
The chest-high glass shield around the Capitol stand where Johnson takes the oath and gives his inaugural speech was installed as an extra precaution after the protective coverings had been put in place at the White House.

Every possible step was being taken to protect the Chief Executive. They included a wall of bullet proof glass around the inaugural stand at the Capitol, similar glass and bomb-resistant steel plate at Johnson's reviewing stand in front of the White House and an army of Three layers thick, the screen at the Capitol extends in a semicircle around the stand. It apparently would give almost total protection except for a bullet fired from almost directly above the enclosure.

Armor plate and bullet resistant glass also will surround the President when he rides to and from the Capitol. The limousine is the same one in which Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas nearly 14 months ago, but it has been almost 90 per cent rebuilt to provide protection while still giving crowds a good view of the occupants.
Inaugural authorities, working in cooperation with the recently expanded Secret Service, decided on another departure from past custom by decreeing that 1,200 troops forming the honor guard would not carry weapons as they have in the past.

Brochure on City Talked

Plans for the publication of a new advertising brochure on Pampa and vicinity were discussed today at the first meeting of the newly formed publicity and information committee of the Chamber of Commerce.
The new brochure will resemble the current one with the exception of several new pictures of the city and activities.
Bill Power, committee chairman, also outlined plans of the Pampa Industrial Foundation to advertise the city in Texas Parade magazine.

Two Children Hurt In Two-Car Crash

A two-car collision about 10:30 this morning slightly injured two children, passengers in a car driven by their mother.
Treated at Highland General Hospital for head laceration was Linda Stanford, 2, and for a slight bruise, her 5-year-old sister Brenda.
They were passengers in a car driven by Louise Stanford, 32, 6142 Naida.
Driver of the other car was Donald Hicks, 16, of 404 Nelson. He was uninjured.
The accident occurred at the intersection of Ballard and Kingsmill.

Extortion

urging him to follow the instructions contained in the letter.
The letter had urged the steel executive to go to a South Side restaurant and find further instructions behind a men's washroom mirror. But by that time Hickey had gone to the FBI.
Because Friday was a snowy, windy day, the federal agents advised Hickey not to go to the restaurant that day. The FBI said the bad weather might complicate their attempts to apprehend the extortionist.
Monday Hickey received an other letter, boosting the "price" to save his family to $12,000. He went to the restaurant and received a telephone call telling him to take the money to a South Side intersection and toss it from his car.
Supplied With Money
The FBI, which had supplied Hickey with a bundle of "money"—strips of newspaper coated with a special substance that would show up on the extortionist's hands—immediately flooded the area with agents.

Kiwanis to Mark 50th Anniversary

A proclamation designating the week beginning tomorrow as Kiwanis Golden Anniversary Week in Pampa was issued today by Mayor H. Raeburn Thompson.
Pampa's two Kiwanis Clubs will observe the Feb. 21-28 anniversary week with special programs.
The Downtown Kiwanis Club at its meeting Friday noon in First Methodist Church Fellowship Room will hear a tape recording of the anniversary speech to be given by Kiwanis international president Edward B. Moylan Jr. at a giant anniversary celebration in Detroit's Cobo Hall exposition center tomorrow night.
At its regular meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in Coronado Inn, the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club will conduct a special golden anniversary program.
Fred Thompson, a past governor of the Texas - Oklahoma district of Kiwanis International, and a member of the Downtown Pampa Club, will review the history of Kiwanis and its accomplishments during the last half-century as an international organization for community service and goodwill.
Both Pampa clubs will join at the Top O' Texas Monday night meeting in the presentation of "blank checks for community service" to Pampa's Mayor Thompson.
The presentation will be made by the presidents of the T O T and Downtown Kiwanis Clubs, Bill Price and Tom Beard.
In his proclamation, Mayor Thompson said:
"Whereas the men of Kiwanis have contributed unselfishly to the good of this community, I call upon our citizens to join me in honoring the members of Pampa's two Kiwanis Clubs, just as they have honored us in countless ways throughout the years.
I urge every citizen to join

GRAND OPENING — Jackson's Cafeteria in the Coronado Shopping Center will hold Grand Opening ceremonies Thursday through Saturday. Grady Jackson of Amarillo is the owner of the new cafeteria which will be managed by Aaron Feaster of Pampa. The Building was completed during November at an approximate cost of $200,000.

Highest clouds known are the noctilucent clouds at 55 miles altitude. First practical motion picture projector was made in France by the Luniere Brothers.

Ceremonies Held For Opening of Jackson Cafeteria

Grand opening ceremonies for Jackson's Cafeteria, Coronado Shopping Center, are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The cafeteria was completed Nov. 24 at a cost of approximately $200,000.

The cafeteria will seat between 350 and 400 persons and has 45 full-time employees.

Grady Jackson, owner of Amarillo said that Aaron Feaster of Pampa will manage the facility. He said hours of the cafeteria will be from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. seven days a week.

With the addition of Jackson's Cafeteria, there are now 13 businesses in the Coronado Shopping Center.

Former Pampan on Inaugural Scene

In the glitter and glamor of Washington's inauguration week festivities, a Pampa man will have a behind-the-scenes look at some of the personalities in the headlines, according to word from Washington today.

He is Mike Klein, Photographer's Mate Third Class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Klein, 1136 Sirroco, who was today assigned by the Navy as a driver for the Presidential Inauguration Committee.

Klein, who is stationed at the Naval Reconnaissance and Technical Support Center, was selected for the assignment because of his record, his bearing, and his excellent military appearance.

Klein was graduated from Pampa High School before entering the Navy in June, 1962.

Inaugural First Then School—Luci

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Luci Baines Johnson believes school examinations should "come first," but not during inaugural week.

The President's 17-year-old daughter said Tuesday that schools should not hold final exams during inauguration week. She had just completed her own exam schedule with a test in chemistry.

Noting that most young people are faced with school tests about this time of the year, Luci said something should be worked out every four years so that those "who worked so long and hard in the campaign would at least get to see the inauguration on television."

SUGGESTS PUBLIC PAY
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Airways Club, which is an organization representing airline passengers, suggests that the flying public pay for the installation of runway arresting gear at major airports.

The club's safety foundation said the cost of such gear could be paid to a 20-cent surcharge on tickets. The devices in question prevent a jetliner from going off the runway during overshoot landings and aborted takeoffs.

CBS Presents Menotti Opera Sunday Night

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — The latest of Gian Carlo Menotti's operas will get its American premiere next Sunday night via the Columbia Broadcasting System, which commissioned the work about three years ago.

"Martin's Lie" had its world premier in Bristol Cathedral in England last June, and a performance was recorded on video tape after the opening. It is this tape that CBS will telecast Jan. 24.

"I always enjoy writing chamber opera," the Italian-born composer said. "But this is a new development for me as it is primarily intended as an opera to be performed in a church.

Menotti, whose famous "Amahl and the Night Visitors" has been an annual television event since 1951, always writes his own libretti. "Martin's Lie" is the story of a boy who must make a vital moral decision between love and truth, involving helping a man who may not be worth the saving.

"I have often been accused of being too theatrical," said the composer, who admits to learning much from Shakespeare and the Greek dramatists. "But, to me, that is rubbish. Plays are full of drama, so why not opera?"

Menotti created "Martin's Lie" in six months at his country home in Mont Kisco, N. Y., working, as is his custom, at a table, with a piano nearby.

Boy Plays Lead
"Like 'Amahl,'" he said, "the leading part is for a boy, and I really think this is the last time I shall write a big role for a child. It is so sad that they cannot last more than a couple of years before they have to be replaced by a new interpreter, for obvious reasons."

Writers Put Lawgivers Into Appropriate Terms

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It was reported recently that Judge Paul Kilday of the U.S. Court of Military Appeals is lobbying to have a special bill introduced in Congress this year.

Kilday doesn't care what kind of a bill it is as long as it is co-sponsored by Rep. J. J. Pickle, D-Tex., and Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla.

Then, he pointed out, the measure could be called the Pickle-Pepper Bill.

What Kilday was doing was playing an old game called "sponsorship," which was invented years ago by newspapermen covering the House and Senate.

During dull periods, of which, believe it or not, there are quite a few, Capitol correspondents often entertain themselves by matching lawgivers into appropriate terms.

Some are easily paired. For example, Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., can be listed as either Mills Bill" or the Cotton-Hull Bill."

Pepper is equally adaptable. Along with the Pickle-Pepper Bill," he has been linked with the "Green-Pepper Bill" and the "Pepper-Byrnes Bill."

Perhaps the two best known combinations are the Aiken-Hart Bill" in the Senate and House.

To make the game more challenging, newsmen usually go a step further by listing the type of legislation that should be introduced. Thus the Pickle-Pepper Bill" might be an act to provide uniform standards for vinegar."

One famous measure along this line would require motorists to pay for the use of the federal highway system. It obviously was labeled the "Toll Rhodes Bill."

In looking over the House and Senate rosters for the 89th Congress, I can foresee the need for a number of vital pieces of legislation for which ready-made sponsors are available.

There could be measures to encourage religious studies (the "Reid-Bible Bill"); to promote swamp drainage (the "Muskie-Marsh Bill"); and to regulate the operation of billiard parlors (the "Pool-Hall Bill").

The new congresswoman from Hawaii can team up with a veteran Missouri Republican in sponsoring legislation to install fur draperies in the plush new Rayburn House Office Building. This would be called the Mink-Curin Bill."

EXPPELLING EMPLOYEE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is expelling a civilian employe of the Polish military attache in Washington for "activities incompatible with accepted norms of official conduct."

The employe, Kazimierz Mizior, has been given two weeks to leave the country. The announcement came from the State Department about a week after the Polish government asked the United States to recall its air attache in Warsaw, Col. George F. Carey Jr., on the ground that he photographed a Polish jet fighter base.

Earliest method of plating gold on a base metal was by using an amalgam of gold and mercury.

Dear Abby.... Double-Bed Sales Might Account for City's Size

DEAR ABBY: Can you tell me why there are more double beds sold in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, than in any other city its size?

BRUCE G. DEAR BRUCE: No, but I might account for the size of Milwaukee.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing about my sister, who is an attractive, intelligent, middle-aged widow. About five years ago her husband committed suicide. It was a dreadful experience for her, but after five years we feel she should try to make a new life for herself. Several desirable men have shown an interest in her, but she has run away from them all. When I pinned her down she became very upset and told me that she had no right to "lead a man on" because she would have to tell him (if he didn't already know) the circumstances of her husband's death. She feels it is a reflection on her that her husband took his own life. We've tried to tell her she is wrong, but we can't get through to her. Maybe you can.

N. Y. DEAR N. Y.: Your sister is apparently suffering from guilt feelings (justified or otherwise) about what she failed to do that might have saved her husband. Psychiatrists say it's a typical reaction of one who has experienced a tragedy of this kind. Try to persuade your sister to seek professional help. Her future depends on it.

DEAR ABBY: About three months ago my sister (age 77) and her two daughters (53 and 50) came to visit me. We spent a lovely afternoon and they stayed for supper. After supper, my daughter (age 30) brought out a box of old family pictures. We passed them around and all had a good chuckle over the old-fashioned clothing and hair styles. Suddenly one of my nieces became enraged and shouted, "These are our pictures. You stole them from our house!" With that, my sister and her daughters stormed out of the house and I haven't seen or heard from them since.

Abby, I am 73 years old, have been married 49 years and have never had any trouble with my own family, or my husband's. Those pictures were mine and I can't imagine what came over that niece of mine, and why my sister didn't put her in her place. However this is my only living sister, and a day doesn't pass that I don't feel sick over this terrible incident. I haven't called her and she hasn't called me. What do you suggest?

HEAVY-HEARTED DEAR HEAVY-HEARTED: Call your sister. Granted, she could have saved the situation by putting her accusing daughter in her place, but don't hold this against your sister forever. The daughter sounds sick, and maybe your sister isn't too well either.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. For Abby's booklet, "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif.

Gardening News

By THELMA BRAY

There is no subject of more fundamental importance to the gardener than that of soil management. The soil is a heritage which has come to us from the past — a heritage which we in turn will pass on, and it is the privilege of those who work with it to regard it as a trust. Not only for our own immediate benefit should we strive to conserve, and to maintain, and to increase its fertility — it is our obligation to the generations of gardeners who are to follow us.

Soils are generally grouped into three classes according to structure; sand, humus or clay. A soil of ideal texture is a mixture of sand, humus and clay, being classed as a good garden loam. The structure of the soil has a very direct bearing upon its water holding capacity, upon its warmth in early spring, upon the ease with which it can be worked or handled, and upon the penetration of plant roots and the consequent nutrition of the plant.

The various forms of peat provide an excellent source of humus. Peat is rich in organic matter, is highly absorbent and retentive of moisture, and has the added advantage of being comparatively free from weed seeds and harmful fungi. Peat is usually somewhat acid in its reaction and it must, therefore, be used with discrimination. Peat moss is a less desirable source of organic matter than some of the other forms of peat, as it supplies practically no plant food, decomposes more rapidly than any other form, and leaves the smallest supply of permanent humus in the soil. Peat moss should always be thoroughly moistened before it is applied to the soil. If applied dry it may actually do more harm than good, as it will take up the moisture from the soil. Peat moss should never be allowed to form a definite layer, either upon the surface of the soil or below the surface, as such a layer has a very undesirable effect on plant growth.

Harvesters Top Lubbock In Overtime

pa Harvesters a 59-58 victory over the Lubbock Westerners last night.

Pampa starts off the second round of play with the crucial victory over the Westerners that put the two teams in a tie for the first half of the district 3-AAAA lead. Monterey served notice that it will be the team to beat in the second round as they moved ahead of the pack with their second victory against no losses, blooming the Palo Duro Dons plumb back to Amarillo with a crushing 69-34 victory in the nightcap at Municipal Coliseum.

Pampa trailed throughout the ball game, except for a brief moment in the first quarter, but again pulled out a win with their deadly free throw shooting. The Harvesters hit 18 of 25 charities, while the Westerners got only eight of 14, missing two of three chances in the overtime and two one-and-one chances in the fourth quarter.

Lubbock was badly handicapped by foul trouble in the second half as burly Doug Dunlap picked up his fourth early in the fourth quarter, Randy Westergot three in the first quarter and his fourth in the second half and David Milburn also had four in regular play. Only one Harvesters was in serious trouble. Mac McWilliams getting

WD Bucks Defeat Cyclones

By ROGER SIMMONS
News Sports Correspondent

WHITE DEER — The White Deer Bucks slammed to their first district 2-A win in three outings with a decisive 62-51 victory over strong Memphis last night.

The Bucks led throughout the game, holding off a second-quarter rally by the Cyclones for the win.

Red Mike Reynolds, Monte Hawpe and Johnny Mooney took the boards away from Memphis big freshman, Bobby Carroll, although getting a lot of foul calls in the rugged game. The Bucks fed Reynolds in the pivot to kick the game off, and the tall red-head obliged with 10 points to give WD a 20-9 quarter lead.

Jim Odom and Hoot Jones sparked a fast-breaking Memphis attack in the second quarter, Odom also hitting from outside, to cut the edge to 31-29 at the half.

White Deer put the brakes on the two quarterbacks in the third quarter while Mooney led the shooting for a 46-38 lead. Reynolds and Billy Gann broke the game open in the final period.

Reynolds had 16 points, Gann 13 and Mooney 12. Odom scored 22 and Jones 13.

White Deer's B team ran up their highest score of the year in an 87-18 prelim victory. Ricky Paul had 18 points, Otto Wheeler 15 and Larry Bates 10. White Deer is at McLean Friday, the girls game kicking off at 8:30 p.m. slender high-point man soon got used to it as he scored 19 for game honors and dominated the rebounds along with Dunlap.

The score was tied five times in the first half, but Pampa's only lead came on Roper Roper's three-point play for a 4-3 lead in the first quarter. The lead was short-lived despite Curlee's marksmanship as Washington scored seven points in the last three minutes for a 19-14 lead.

Pampa was forced to shoot outside throughout the first half and Washington and Dunlap cleaned the boards. Davy McDaniel got inside for some points, and Carl Harnsberger suddenly got red-hot to spark the Pampanos. Midway in the period, Harnsberger slammed in three straight set shots to tie the game at 23-all and 25-all as Lanny Lewis was taking advantage of sloppy Lubbock passing to hawk the ball. Dunlap and Washington connected again in the final moments for a 31-27 halftime lead.

Pampa started the game down in the third quarter and started working the ball in past the big boys. Westergot and Washington connected for Lubbock while Harnsberger and Curlee continued their outside shooting. A n d McDaniels scored inside to slice the lead to 44-41 going into the final period.

Both teams worked the ball in cautiously in the last quarter, with little Don Burrell coming off the bench to spark Lubbock while the same trio led the Harvesters. With 1:12 to go, Lubbock took an apparently insurmountable 56-50 lead, but Roper hit two free throws with

Miami Sweeps Over Allison

By MIKE MCHONE
News Sports Correspondent

ALLISON — Miami boys and girls stayed in the district 2-B race with decisive twin wins over Allison last night, the Warriors taking a 60-42 win and the Warriorettes a 37-24 decision.

The Warriors led all the way as Big Ray Guerrero and his mates took the rebounds away from Punk Childress and George Markham. Guerrero led the scoring as Miami took a 13-10 quarter lead and upped it to 25-14 at the half. The Warriors broke it open in the third quarter as David Bowers and Lloyd Seitz again went ball-hawking, stealing the roundball and going down on fast breaks or feeding it to Guerrero. The trio scored seven points each in the frame to pull it to 45-24.

Guerrero had 16, Bowers 14 and Seitz 12 points, Markham 14 for the losers.

Connie Ratliff joined Patches Deaton in the scoring column and the Warriorettes also led all the way, taking 9-3, 14-8 and 29-16 quarter stops. Patches had 20 points, Connie 10. Linda Miller led the Antelopes with 14.

Miami is at Mobeetie Friday night.

SEEMS SOME PHS band members still feel we downgraded them by suggesting that the athletic teams be called the "Pride of Pampa," as witness the following letter:

Dear Sir:

"When the Harvester Band returned from their trip to the Midwestern Band Clinic in Chicago, the citizens of Pampa greeted them with the phrase 'Pride of Pampa.' There were no qualifications attached to this gift, therefore, I feel that you have no right to advocate the repositioning of this title.

"I agree that Pampa athletics (especially football) need more emphasis; however, I do not believe that minimizing the band's accomplishments would help.

"Being a sports-writer, it is justifiable for you to feel that athletics is more important than the other high school activities. The Pampa High School policy, however, states that no activity is more or less important than any other. I hope that you will remember this policy in the future.

"Sincerely Yours,
Ronnie Thrasher
Sr. PHS"

EDITOR'S NOTE: If (as you say) all activities are equally important at PHS, then why shouldn't any activity, including athletics, also have the right to call itself the Pride of Pampa? If all activities are equal, let them all share the same title.

GUESS WE GOOFED department. Don't know where or why we did, thought the Pampa News did a pretty good job of publicizing (for free) the visit of the Harlem Stars, as well as putting on a preliminary game that also attracted fans and gave them some laughs. However, the Optimist Club thanked the Pampa All-Stars for coming out to play and invited them to be guests at an Optimist dinner, but neither the Pampa News nor the Borger News-Herald (which also gave the event plenty of free publicity)

THE NEW CREW will hit the road Monday night to play the Miami faculty for the benefit of the senior class of Miami. Although the Miami faculty, such as Sureshot Weldon Snodgrass, all make John Hale look like a teenager, the presence of coaches Lawrence Overcast and Bill Thomas will make it very, very tough indeed. In a recent game at Wheeler, Overcast showed that he had lost little of the great talent that made him one of the best in the country at West Texas, while Thomas belied his rotund middle by hustling like a firehouse Dalmation.

A preliminary game between the Miami senior gals and some local gal cagers is being set-up, but there has been some difficulty due to the fact that all the gals teams in the YCC loop play on Monday nights. Some of the Newsboys offered to play the Miami gals, but after their performance against Borger, we feel the gals would win in a walk.

Rebs Tip Austin

BORGER — Lanky Carl Lang led the Lee Rebels to their fifth district win against a single defeat as the Rebs held off a last-quarter rally for a 52-50 win over Austin 9th.

Lee held narrow leads all the way, 12-11, 27-24, 44-37, pulling the game out on free throws as they hit 12 of 22. Lang, the 6-2 1/2 tower, got his career high of 19 points. Beale Bailey had 16, Jimmy Cornutt 11.

Austin 8th led all the way in a 33-21 win over the Johnny Rebs. Gary Parrish led Lee with eight markers.

Lee tied for either first or second in district, depending on the outcome of the Phillips-Dumas game. Lee is at Phillips Thursday.

A REJUVENATED Pampa Newsboys team goes back into action this week with some new blood to spark them. Former Pampa cagers Charlie Snuggs, Mike Bridges, Teddy Bird and Gunner Matney join the squad, as do former Vega all-district Ralph Meixner and Lefors all-state Terry Bromlow. The Newsboys will scrimmage the Lee coaches, and, if grandpa John Hale and ancient Deck Woldt survive the workout, will play them a regular game for the March of Dimes.

The Newsboys will get a dirty deal from the coaches however, as Lee repossesses Sleepy Snuggs, while Tex Nolan, the Lefors Bandit and Roy Hunter were also possible recruits for the new squad. Hale keeps insisting that we should give him a tryout, he's good for 20-30 points a night (but the cost of a portable oxygen tent would be too much.)

The Newsboys may lose Bromlow even before they get him however, as Terrible Terry, the former all-district griddle, all-state cager and regional hurdles finalist, may be on his way to New Mexico Western University. Bromlow attended Frank Phillips for one semester and did not play sports, which he has regretted. Coach Al Johnson of the Westerners needs a quarterback and feels that Terry will fill the bill, and the tall speedster may start school next se-

Lefors Stuns Wheeler Mustangs, 69-67

By KEITH GEISLER News Sports Correspondent
LEFORS — Ace Roberts scored with five seconds left to pull out a cliffhanger as Dunk Porter, who had hit impossible shots from outside all night, had the final try roll around the rim and out, giving Lefors a 69-67 victory over Wheeler last night. The win was probably the biggest upset of the district 2-B cage season, and the first time the Pirates have beaten the Mustangs in any sport. The fantastic game never saw more than four points difference between the two teams, with Wheeler holding the lead most of the way. The game was one of control ball and deadly shooting, both teams hitting over 50 per cent from the floor. Porter just could not seem to miss on impossibly long shots, Richard Wallace was deadly on drives and fast breaks, while hitting eight of eight from the free throw line. Ace Roberts was deadly for Lefors from anywhere on the floor, backed by Larry Pruett. Lefors did a tremendous job on the boards as Danny Hill was backed by Danny Robbins just back after an injury, in fighting the rebounds with Big Mike 20 and Porter 18 for the Herd. Gandy and Villard Hunter. The Wheeler Fillies took tar- get practice in the first game as they smashed to an 80-40 win over the Pirettes Wheeler had only a 15-10 quarter lead, but broke it open at the half, 37-16. Four Fillies scored in double figures Sherry Barnes with 27, Donna Sue Ford 22, Linda Batey 20 and Bev Clark 11. Vicki Stone had 17 and Frances Clark 11 for Lefors. Lefors hosts Kelton Friday, Wheeler is at Allison.

CLIMBING THE SKY — Ace Roberts of Lefors jumps clear over Wheeler's Villard Hunter in an attempt to stop Dunk Porter from shooting, while Danny Robbins staggers out of the action, apparently clobbered in the melee.

Louisville Coach Wins 400th Game

By LEONARD A. GRANATO UPI Sports Writer
Louisville Coach Peck Hickman has his 400th basketball victory today, but it took a triple overtime in which sophomore Joe Liedtke traded his goat's horns for a hero's laurel wreath. Liedtke blew a layup in the closing seconds of regulation play Tuesday night but sunk a 15-foot jump shot in the final five seconds of the third overtime to give Louisville an 82-80 victory over Missouri Valley Conference foe Cincinnati at Louisville.

Regulation time ended with each team having 69 points. Neither team scored in the first five-minute overtime period, and each scored seven in the second overtime to remain deadlocked at 76. Louisville took the lead on a goal-tending call against Cincinnati's Ron Krick, and the basket was awarded to Eddie Creamer, the game's top scorer with 24 points. He added another field goal in the period while Ken Cunningham and Roland West scored for Cincinnati. Then came Liedtke's shot from the corner and Hickman had victory No. 400. In other major collegiate cage action, Willie Somerset put on a brilliant display of shooting to score 42 points in leading Duquesne to a 73-69 upset of DePaul at Pittsburgh. Somerset made 18 of 23 field goal attempts and hit all six of his free throws. DePaul led at

San Jose State Coach Quits

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — Bob Titchenal, San Jose State's head football coach for the past eight years, has resigned in the wake of alumni and student criticism of the Spartans' won-and-lost record. His resignation Tuesday came despite a vote of confidence by college President Robert D. Clark two weeks ago after the student council had voted 10-4 to seek the coach's ouster. Clark has requested Titchenal to remain as head coach for at least another year, but said he had asked that the coach and his staff "take steps to improve the program at the points where criticism has developed." Clark specifically listed the personal conduct of some of the team members and lack of a sound recruiting program as the points in question. Titchenal, whose Spartans piled up a 33-38-1 record in eight years, said Tuesday that he felt he had done an excellent job with the resources at his disposal and that he felt that the criticisms were unjustified.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper
EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

U.S. Message Reaching Ivan

"Comrades, please broadcast every hour... We cannot receive you all the time, but we hear snatches of you through the howling of this dog we are fighting. Greetings."

"I give first place to your broadcasts. For the past year I have been listening to you every day."

"We are grateful to you for your efforts because your words inspire faith in a better future for our people."

These are excerpts from letters written from inside Russia to Radio Liberty, one of the most powerful but least publicized weapons in America's propaganda arsenal.

Unlike Radio Free Europe, which beams its broadcasts to five Eastern European satellites, or the U.S. governments sponsored Voice of America, which presents the official American image around the world, Radio Liberty concentrates on Russia itself to tell its people what Pravda, Izvestia or Radio Moscow conceal or distort.

Radio Liberty Committee is a group of U. S. citizens who have supported the overseas broadcast activities for the past 11 years.

More than 200 former Soviet citizens prepare and deliver the broadcasts, which are made in 17 languages and dialects of the Soviet Union from stations in Spain, West Germany and Formosa.

These stations have a combined power of 1,840,000 watts; six transmitting towers in Spain are as high as the Washington Monument. Radio Liberty needs this power to pierce a massive electronic curtain thrown up by hundreds of Russian jamming stations.

Still the broadcasts get through — and the letters get through in increasing numbers. Some are spirited out by travelers. Some are sent as personal letters to friends or relatives, written in disguised language and signed with fictitious names. Most find their way to special addresses in Western Europe announced from time to time on broadcasts.

Says Howland H. Sargeant, a former State Department official and president of the committee, "Considering the risks and the postal censorship, one letter from the USSR is equivalent to a thousand from a free country."

Treason to the Comics

The latest style in spacesuits is shown in a picture released by NASA's Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex.

It may disappoint some people — especially romantics — enough to remember the comic strips of the '30s. Space travel then was even more fantastic and far away than the idea of tapping energy from the atom.

The space suit in the picture looks like either a fire fighter's asbestos outfit or a lumpy snowsuit. There's a helmet with plastic faceplate, but over that goes something like a parka hood attached to some sort of shapeless jacket with flappy mittens, and under that long, baggy trousers and ordinary-looking shoes.

No shiny black boots with zipper compartments, no degravitation belt with attached holster and disintegrator pistol, no ridgeline epaulets on the shoulders, no crisscross bands on the chest with an array of buttons in the center to activate the automatic space galvanizer. Nothing, nothing in the old tradition.

Undoubtedly, this is the best of all possible suits that they have been able to come up with yet. But space travel is getting so prosaic and businesslike in so many ways, it's a shame they can't keep a few of the old illusions.

Here's My Freedom, Honey

A recent survey has revealed that teenage boys are surrendering many of their freedoms to their teen-age girl friends, even before marriage.

The boys, the researchers report in apparent surprise and some alarm, not only are letting the girls tell them what to wear, but also are turning over their allowances and earnings to the girls, who then place the boys on a budget.

The new findings are no real cause for concern. Many of us post-teens can recall, if our memories are honest, that girls have been doing this to boys for quite some time.

Else why did we suddenly start combing and slicking down our teen-age cowlick, shaving the fuzz off our teen-age cheeks, and doing a lot of other odd things we previously had disdained?

And the reason we didn't turn over our money to our girl friends was simple. The girl friends knew we didn't have any — at least not enough to bother with.

No, there is nothing new in this boy-to-girl freedom surrender. And we have a hunch it is going to continue indefinitely — at least as long as there are boys and girls.

Why not? Both sides seem to like it this way. Besides, it's wonderful premarital training for the boys.

Warning: U. S. Policy on Economic Aid to Egypt, Algeria 'Tailor-Made' to Help Russia Control Africa

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — U. S. policy toward Africa couldn't be better tailored to help Russia capture control of that strife-torn continent and the vast Middle East oil reserves if it were drafted in Moscow.

That's the grim warning given U. S. and Iranian intelligence experts by Abdul Chadir Owdeh, United Arab Republic secret police chief who defected to Iran.

The 27-year-old Owdeh, who fled Cairo on learning that Soviet KGB agents were to be given key positions in his organization, revealed that President Gamal Nasser and Algeria's President Ben Bella are using U. S. economic aid to finance Soviet-armed uprisings in the Congo and Yemen.

He reported that both Nasser and Ben-Bella are working with the present Russian rulers to establish a ring of socialist states throughout Africa, and that the Kremlin has promised the necessary arms to smash Israel and take over the rich oil fields of Kuwait, Libya, Iran and Aden within the next three to five years.

The former UAR secret police chief described the Organization of African Unity, being supported by the Johnson administration and the United Nations, as a Russian Trojan horse.

He said the OAU, which is pressuring Premier Moise Tshombe to take Congolese rebels into his government, is financed and controlled by the Kremlin, and that OAU Chairman Joseph Kenyatta is under Russian discipline.

According to Owdeh, Deputy Premier Aleksander Shelepin, former Soviet State Security (KGB) chief, met with Nasser in Cairo last month for the specific purpose of mapping strategy for fitting the OAU into their plans for Africa.

Although OAU's headquarters are located in Addis Ababa, reported Owdeh, all operational

CAPITOL EYE

Real Story How Burch Was Ousted

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) —

The real story of GOP National Chairman Dean Burch's impending departure from office is remarkable for one chief reason: the change was achieved largely by one-time supporters of Barry Goldwater, his sponsor.

Once the now well-advertised "midwestern group" of national committeemen (heavily sprinkled with conservatives) had held their first Chicago meeting in mid-November, leadership in the drive to oust Burch quickly passed to them.

Party progressives, whose eyes were dominant in the anti-Burch efforts at the early December conclave of Republican governors, happily took a back seat. Many continued, of course, to play important though muted roles in the drive.

Yet even when full, merited credit is given the decisive midwesterners, who wrapped up the ball game in their second 12-state meeting in Chicago Jan. 7, the story is not complete.

The alignment of those either active or just interested in seeing Burch removed included these other Goldwater supporters:

1. By fair count, a dozen or so southern voting members of the national committee, scattered through 8 of the 11 Old South states.

2. Wayne Hood of Wisconsin, Goldwater's top field organizer.

3. Elements of the financing group led by Ralph Cordner, the 1964 GOP nominee's key money man for the campaign.

Put together with the ball-carrying midwestern group, this imposing lineup of people partment and ask that no official request be sent to Congress for an appearance by Khrushchev. When Rayburn was told this would be embarrassing to both governments, he arranged to have the House and Senate adjourn the day before Khrushchev's arrival in Washington.

When questioned recently on whether he would oppose an address by Premier Kosygin before Congress, McCormack told a high State Department official, "I'll cross that bridge when I come to it."

COMING APPOINTMENT — President Johnson is considering a career officer as the next assistant secretary of state for African affairs — Joseph Palmer, II, native of Michigan, who holds rank of minister. In 1956, Palmer served as deputy assistant secretary of state for African affairs. The word at the White House is that Palmer, a Harvard graduate, will replace Assistant Secretary G. Mennen Williams in February.

That month the President will also shift Secretary Rusk to the United Nations to replace Ambassador Adlai Stevenson as U. S. representative. Rusk will attempt to initiate negotiations in the UN for a regional settlement in Southeast Asia with Communist China.

'Affluent Society' Myth

By HARRY BROWNE

Washington, D. C., January 1, 1964: Leading public figures report concern over our 'affluent society'. The high level of industrial production following the Civil War has brought us close to the point of saturating all of our material needs.

Within a few years, it is said, every family will own at least one horse, have a three-room house, and the means to attend the neighborhood playhouse at least once each month. This 'material utopia' represents a dangerous crossroads in our civilization. Abundance will make us vulnerable to degeneration. With all material wants achieved, people may turn to alcohol, promiscuity and immorality simply because they are bored. It is suggested that more material production be channeled to the 'public sector' to insure that it will be used to uplift man, not degrade him."

Only One Plateau
An affluent society? With only one horse per family? Three-room houses? Sounds like a nightmare, doesn't it? And yet — even though the above news item is fictional — I'm sure there were people who, 80 years ago, looked into the future and imagined they saw the end to material progress.

What they couldn't see, however, were such innovations to come as: the telephone, radio, television, automobiles, airplanes, electric appliances and the thousands of conveniences we enjoy today.

Yet here we are again. Once more, we're told we've reached an "affluent society" — a saturation point. Once more we're advised to turn more of our earnings over to the politicians to save us from our own affluence.

But there can never be an end to man's progress. Who knows what's waiting for us just around the corner? Interplanetary travel? A spaceship for every family? All we know is that profit-seeking innovators will discover new goals for us to seek — so long as we're free to pursue them.

No Freedom Today
There is a danger today, however, it's that we are being denied the opportunity to progress. Political governments are sponsoring a very real trend to stagnation. Here are some of the ways:

1. Over 30 percent of our earnings are drained from us and poured into undertakings that we have not individually chosen. This blocks man's capacity to pursue his own progress and he turns to baser pursuits in frustration.

2. Contradictory anti-trust laws and confiscatory taxes make it impossible to be law-abiding. When every businessman is encouraged to be a criminal, how can we expect people to be honorable in other matters?

3. Politically-induced inflation steals our savings from us and creates a desire to "live it up" rather than try to save for the future — since such saving is futile.

For free men, "affluence" is never fully obtainable. Every goal achieved creates five new goals to pursue. The universe is infinite in its scope and opportunity.

Only the coercive power of political governments can stop men from progressing, and that power is the cause of stagnation. When incentive is blocked, immorality takes over.

To return to the road of progress, we must first return to the road to capitalism that our forefathers charted. They were searching for maximum individual freedom and they were on the right track.

U.S. Negro Leaders Take Strange Action

By ROSALIE M. GORDON

Editor, America's Future

To many observers, it was an exceedingly strange thing, in the recent worldwide imbroglio over the United States - Belgium rescue mission in the Congo, to find six American Negro leaders siding with the denunciators of America instead of with her defenders. These leaders, led by Martin Luther King, Roy Wilkins and James Farmer, sent a joint letter to the President, demanding that our government withdraw all support of the legitimate Congolese government of Moise Tshombe and give its support and blessing to the Organization of African Unity. This is a group of African nations whose delegates met in Nairobi to defend the Congo savages from whom the United States and Belgium helped to rescue some but not all victims of the rebels' unspeakable atrocities.

At the same meeting, the Organization of African Unity denounced the United States and Belgium as "international bandits."

Thus the six American Negro leaders aligned themselves on the same side of the Congo issue as the Chinese and Russian communists and the leftward-leaning African nations. It was their right to do so, of course, but the question arises as to whether these six men and women, to whom millions of American Negroes look for leadership, were not doing great harm to their innocent followers and their cause here at home. In attempting to interfere in American foreign policy, they did not have even the excuse of some sort of African Negro "solidarity" because the Nigerian foreign minister defended our rescue mission and roundly denounced some of his fellow African leaders for aiding the murderous rebels in the Congo. Many observers wonder why the six American Negro leaders, if they felt it necessary at all to inject themselves into this situation, should spring to the side of the denunciators of America rather than to the side of the Nigerian foreign minister. These observers suggest that the six American Negroes are mixing up the ambitions of African states with the aspirations of American Negroes, that these leaders are, in effect, thinking of themselves as Africans first and Americans second. Thus they do a great disservice to the members of their race who are American citizens, in much the same way that the small coterie of German-American Bundists who defended Hitler did a disservice to American citizens of German descent before World War II or as any other ethnic group does when it puts the interests of its country of origin ahead of the interests of America. One of the remarkable achievements of the American atmosphere has been that the vast majorities of our diverse population come to think of themselves as what they are — Americans — regardless of their ancestry or country of origin. It is suggested that the sooner the Negro leaders do the same the greater will be the service they render their people.

Straight Talk

By TOM ANDERSON

A Few Dozen More 'Fors'

"Bet you couldn't come up with another column on what you're for," writes my friend who accuses me of being against everything. As the fellow who had to ride with his mother-in-law at his wife's funeral said to the undertaker: "I'll do it, but it's going to ruin my whole day." Actually, there are so many things and people and ideas to be for that I feel like a mosquito at a nudist camp. I know what I ought to do, but I barely know where to begin.

I'm for J. Edgar Hoover, who can catch Communists faster than the Supreme Court can turn 'em loose. For remembering that a government big enough to give us everything we want is big enough to take everything we've got. For applying the term "humanitarian" only to those who give away their own wealth.

I'm for beginning, now, regular payments on the national debt, which is the largest any nation has ever known. For paying it off ourselves rather than stealing from our children's children. For giving foreign aid to Mississippi as we do to other conquered people.

For Free Economy

I'm for restoring a free economy in America to once again enable American industry to compete with the world. For trading business-to-business, not government-to-government.

I'm for conservatism, because it guarantees individual freedoms based on the whole man, not merely on his belly, as Socialism does; because it preserves and extends freedom and limits government. For a redefinition of treason, to determine where one worldism ends and treason begins.

I'm for getting out of the United Nations and getting into a council of free nations, as suggested by Herbert Hoover. In the meantime, I'm for letting the U.N. make the rules for disarmament just as soon as we let the fox make the rules for the hen house. For practically everything the socialist ADA is against, and against every politician that outfit is for.

For winning the "Cold War" not ending it. For Earl Warren for impeachment. For right to work without being forced to join a union. For repeal of the 18th Amendment (the federal personal income tax). For the inequality of man, since equal men are not free, and free men are not equal. For searation of Church and State. For the right of a businessman to run his business without being dictated to by a labor union.

I'm for people who'll take a stand. For the right to be wrong.

For Control Breakup

For breaking up that immoral love triangle between Big Government, Big Unions and Big Business. Big Government is the biggest customer of Big Business. Big Unions find a few Big Businesses easier to deal with than thousands of small businesses. And Big Government finds both Big Business and Big Labor more convenient to control.

For ending all federal aid to education. For vesting strict control and support of the public schools in state and local governments. For schools which invest in teachers instead of elevators and gymnasiums. For schools which educate not society, but individuals. For the right of states to give the pro rata cost of tuition to the school chosen by each child's parent: private, public, segregated, integrated, Catholic, Protestant, Jewish. I'm for freedom of choice.

I'm for reassuming on the local level, those rights, privileges and responsibilities intended by our founding fathers and written into the greatest freedom document ever devised by man: The Constitution of the United States.

Inaugural Changes But The Ball Still Goes On

By ROBERT BUCKHORN
WASHINGTON (UPI)—When Thomas Jefferson's inaugural ceremonies were over, he walked to his boarding house for lunch.

Andrew Jackson invited nearly all of Washington to come to the White House for a little refreshment after he took the oath. The crowds grew so great that Jackson went to a nearby saloon to escape the crush.

All of which shows that one of the customary traditions of any inauguration is the custom of each president doing just what he pleases.

There never have been two inaugurations just alike, and there's not much expectation that there will be.

Even the long-accepted idea of an inaugural address did not suit every president. James Monroe thought it was anti-Republican, but his cabinet recommended that he do it anyway.

Harrison Long-Winded
The decision on how long to talk at an inaugural pinpointed the difference in presidents. George Washington was the most tightlipped. His second inaugural ran 135 words.

But William Henry Harrison used up 9,000 words. His speech was so long that he paused to take the presidential oath and then went on to finish what he had to say.

There is one custom that has remained fairly steady over the years—the idea of an inaugural ball.

James Madison's lively wife Dolley loved parties so he celebrated his inaugural with the first ball. Since then it has become a fixture. Lyndon Johnson will have no second thoughts about guards for Johnson. One secret serviceman will even be stationed in a cubicle directly above the inaugural stand.

But security not withstanding, Johnson's inaugural will be unusual if it doesn't add something peculiarly its own to the nation's inaugural lore.

DeGaulle Expresses Confidence in LBJ
PARIS (UPI)—French President Charles de Gaulle today expressed confidence in President Johnson's leadership of the United States in a cable congratulating him on his inauguration.

The text of the message: "At the moment when supreme authority over the United States is solemnly conferred on you, I am certain, Mr. President, of faithfully interpreting the feelings of the French people in assuring you of the confidence with which it sees you assume the destiny of the great American nation, its friend always."

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
The ill winds that blow across South Viet Nam may help spur what already is an economic boomlet for South Korea.

Scarcely more than a year ago it was believed virtually impossible that the South Korean economy could exist without continued United States aid. Traditionally, most of Korea's industry was located in the north, above the 38th parallel which divides Korea between the Communists and the non-Communist south.

Most of the natural resources also were in the north. The south existed on agriculture.

But now both the U.S. advisers and the Koreans themselves believe that South Korea is on the way to self-sufficiency.

Advance May Quicken
The prospect of big new business with South Viet Nam gives the South Koreans hope that the advance will be quickened.

South Korea is dispatching 2,000 non-combat troops to South Viet Nam in response to U.S. urging and in return hope to sell the South Vietnamese up to $86 million worth of steel products, cotton textiles, cement and wheat flour. The $86 million would compare to only about $6 million in 1964.

Even without the expected sales to South Viet Nam, the South Korean economy has shown encouraging gains.

Total exports last year amounted to $120 million as compared to only $20 million five years ago.

The rice harvest for 1964 set a new record.

New Power Plant
Two fertilizer plants and two more under construction soon will fill the country's total needs. A new power plant in Pusan gives South Korea more electricity than it needs. During the years of Japanese occupation and after, power plants in Manchuria supplied most of the power for all Korea. The Korean war left the south with a chronic power shortage.

The pace of South Korean construction has given it sufficient cement production capacity that it now can export.

Skilled, low-cost labor gives South Korea an opportunity to move into the cheap market being abandoned by Japan. For example, the Koreans turn out a sewing machine that can be sold for $13.50.

Chronic problems remain. One of them is unemployment. Seoul, the capital, alone is said to have 300,000 unemployed. Imports still far outdistance exports.

PRICE HIKE
NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—Engelhard Industries, Inc. has announced an increase of $10 per ounce for platinum, effective Tuesday.

The precious metal refiner new price for platinum will be $97 for large quantities and $100 per ounce for small lots.

Interviewer Due For Army Agency

Sergeant Clemons explains that work in this top flight organization offers young men the chance to learn skills that will provide the foundation for subsequent careers in the amazing new era of scientific achievement now unfolding before us—in radio, electronics and communications.

Personnel interested in talking with Sergeant Clemons may visit 112 East Foster or call MO 5-2022 during the hours 9 a. m. to 12 a. m. Jan. 21, 1965.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Analyst James Dines says that when both fundamental and technical factors are in gear in either direction, as they are now, the odds highly favor continuation of that trend.

Under these circumstances, Dines says, "you have no right in the world to listen to doom-mongers until the trend is actually violated—there will be time enough to act."

The Alexander Hamilton Institute says that in view of the uncertainties of the British financial situation, the steel-wage negotiations and South Viet Nam, investors should be very cautious in making new purchases.

Newton D. Zinder of E. F. Hutton & Co. Inc., says that from a technical standpoint the market appears to be in an excellent condition now but a number of fundamental uncertainties probably will prevent a runaway advance and could even precipitate a correction.
