

John XXIII--Pope of the People

Unusual ability to project the warmth of his nature marked the reign of Pope John XXIII, which began with his ascension to the throne of St. Peter Nov. 4, 1958. The most-traveled Pope of modern times, he left confines of Vatican State frequently in connection with religious affairs. He granted a precedent-shattering audience to Alexei Adzhubei, son-in-law of Nikita Khrushchev and representative of the Communist ideology which is the arch foe of Christianity. The ecumenical council called by Pope John may, if it finishes sitting, point the way to widespread changes within Roman Catholicism. But, perhaps, the lasting monument of John XXIII in the perspective of history will be his monumental encyclical, "Pacem in Terris" (Peace on Earth).

History may remember him for encyclical on peace, 1963.

Harvest Queen Mill Suspended

Any grains put into storage in the Harvest Queen Mill & Elevator Company, Kingsmill, will not be eligible for price support loans during the period this facility is suspended from the list of warehouses approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation, the Gray County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office said today.

Suspension action was taken by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Commodity at Kansas City, Missouri, pending an investigation to determine whether or not the facility has failed to comply with provisions of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement which controls the storage of government-owned grains.

Any change in the status of the facility will be announced.

At time of coronation, 1958—Pope John extended blessing to crowd.

Now and then a nation surfeited with news of automobile fatalities hears of a traffic mishap with real shock value.

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

In one sense water is an inexhaustible resource, but with the increase of the population and industry one of the great problems today is always to have it available.

Country Editor speaking: "A match is a gadget that blows out when you need a fire and starts one when you don't."

Collecting the hard way from the Alturas (Calif.) Modoc County Record: "She is chairman of the March of Dimes and has placed containers in stores, post office, garages, bars and restaurants, but if anyone wants to donate contact Mrs. Blank."

Most every daily and weekly newspaper today carries an editorial cartoon, but the first one in the United States was printed in 1754 in the Pennsylvania Gazette, which was owned and edited by Benjamin Franklin.

Just as serious a failing, and very common, is chronic inattention on the part of drivers. Recently, on a high-speed road, a woman going 50 in heavy traffic turned her head for several seconds to kiss her baby on the nose.

After a long, dry spell, the rains came late in April and May in the New England and Middle-Atlantic States, but their reservoirs are well below normal.

Cows Have The Right Of Way

By GEORGE BOARDMAN, Ph. D.

A few maps show an emergency landing field at Grasshopper Junction. The owners of the land withdrew their property from their classification, took down the wind sock and stopped clearing the strip several years ago.

In the meantime, four miles away in our ghost town, we were unaware of what was going on at Grasshopper Junction. Fortunately for all of us, Mrs. Young did not get out her 30 - 39 and start shooting.

The cattle raisers don't wait to find out if the cows will grow up psychologically disturbed, they become angry right now. As a matter of fact, the cows have the right of way, even on the highways and roads or in your own backyard.

Seat Belts—Make Them A Must for Your Car By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT Perhaps the most hopeful aspect of the traffic safety problem is the growing demand for auto seat belts.

The best medical authorities and safety engineers agree that a person with a hiatus hernia should NOT risk traveling without a seat belt. The pressure on the diaphragm is a hypothetical hazard and one that would not be great, but the danger of concussion of the brain or being thrown from the car is real.

Dear Abby....

This Fella's Jealous Of African Violet!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 45 years old and have been married almost 15 years. My wife is a good cook, a good housekeeper and a good woman. She has one bad fault. She will spend lots of time watering her African violets, her one passion in life, but she never asks me if I want a drink of water. I am well able to get myself a drink of water, but it would be nice if she would offer it to me once in a while. Am I wrong?

For a personal, unpublished answer to your letter write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

MR. R. T. K.

DEAR MR. K.: You are the first man I have ever heard from who is jealous of an African violet! Don't suppress your anger. Emulate the competition. Turn purple and say, "I'm thirsty, Darling... will you water me, too?" And don't be surprised if she tells you you are already all wet... or simply to dry up!

DEAR ABBY: I like to work in my shop some evenings after supper. I do so almost every evening. My problem is this: A neighbor girl, 16, keeps coming into my shop to watch me work. I enjoy her company, but my wife is afraid the neighbors will get the wrong idea. What can I do to keep everybody happy?

MAN WITH A HOBBY

DEAR MAN: No one can keep "everybody happy". But for a start, tell Sweet 16 (sweetly) that she should spend more time on her homework and less on your shop work. P. S. Tell "wifey" to grow up, too.

DEAR ABBY: Is it correct for a wedding to be held in the groom's church? The bride's church is a small one in a rural section, and has no place for the reception. The groom's church is very large and has a huge basement where receptions are held. Please print your answer because about 300 people are directly involved.

DEAR EDNA: The wedding setting is the bride's choice. Traditionally, the bride is married in

by Kathy Peterson

Dear Kathy: I need advice. I'm a freshman in high school. I don't dress extremely, but always try to have my hair done and look nice. Lots of girls like me, but I'd like to be more popular with boys without getting silly and flirting.

Shouldn't a boy like me for what I am, and not for the way I look? I always have been sort of shy, but I'm trying to overcome it. How can I get a boy to notice me? How does a girl get him from noticing to liking? It's a big order!—Rather Helpless

You might glance at a store window and decide to shop there because you liked what you saw. A boy is first attracted to a girl because of the obvious things like appearance, clothing and manners. Whether he stays interested depends on things he finds below the surface.

If you aren't the kind of girl who stands out in a crowd, it might be necessary to find situations in which boys will have a chance to work with you and know you better. What does your school or community offer for casual boy-girl social activity?

You can't "get" a boy to like you. All you can do is expose him to an opportunity to know you and hope he'll like what you are—and don't think you have to be a glamour gal.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — How highly do you regard your local television stations? Do you think their program content would improve if they were not compelled by affiliation with a network to accept certain national shows? You may find out sooner than you think.

A major decision by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has banned "option time," under which the national networks can pre-empt various hours of their affiliate stations — usually the best hours — to present programs of their choice.

What this means is that the individual stations will have the right to accept or refuse each network show, to put on their own or to buy programs from syndicates (which in many cases offer reruns) and also from independent producers. This is supposed to increase competition. And though the FCC ruling does not go into effect until Sept. 10, and the networks may win delays by appealing the decision, it seems almost certain at present that the ban will hold up.

Technicalities aside, the viewer wants to know simply: Will the decision mean better programs, as the FCC apparently thinks it will?

Well, to start with, it is often valuable for a station to be affiliated with a network; so while the ban principle is pivotal, the over-all effect may not be momentous at first. In addition, a network has the bargaining muscle to withhold or arrange discounts on "hot" shows desired by a station — if the station agrees to take another show the network wants to see. In view of the FCC decision, it is difficult to consider that such deals have had to be made to force some local stations to air certain cultural and public affairs shows that were not big-money bringers.

Secondly, the networks are in no small part responsible for their present trouble. Their prime-time public affairs schedule for next season is shameful. Except for NBC-TV, the word "special" — which is what video should be — almost disappeared this season. The ban is a comment on network programming as much as a move for increased competition.

Thirdly, however, it is naive to assume that programs will suddenly blossom in great number locally on a prime-time cultural basis. In great part, the commercialism of some has prevented the networks from improving their schedules; and as mentioned above, the networks have often had to resort to arm-twisting to get good stuff aired across the board.

The ban may well damage the idea of the new FCC chairman, E. William Henry, that there should be more sustained public service programs — that is, sponsored or not — if he bids for this at the network level. For even if he could eventually force the networks to agree to this, their power over stations would be limited.

NEED SUPPORT — Forrest Russell's britches are too big for him at 6, but he got a kick out of putting them on anyway. It happened when the Fairfax, Va., volunteer fire department displayed their uniforms on a visit to Forrest's school.

He will have to pressure the individual stations. And assuming the ban stands up, that may also be the only real answer to guaranteeing better programs anyway. It seems that a more realistic final outcome of the "option time" ruling should be hoped for, with more adjustment to the facts-of-life relationship between networks and stations. But in any case, the surest way for the FCC to ensure quality is to use the teeth in its license-revocation power over stations that fail in public service.

Shoe Squeeze
NEW YORK (UPI) — Heavy imports of footwear from Japan and Italy are forcing down prices of domestic cowhide. U.S. imports of non-rubber footwear during the first five months of 1962 rose to 25.7 million pairs of more than twice the 12.8 million imported in the same period last year.

The Northern hemisphere supplies nearly 95 per cent of the world's fish catch.

Maury Wills Running, LA Dodgers Winning

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Maury Wills is off and running again—and it's no coincidence that the Los Angeles Dodgers are back in the win column again.

The National League's most valuable player of 1962 was sidelined two weeks ago with a toe ailment that made the Dodgers hurt all over to the tune of eight losses in 12 games, including five in a row up to Tuesday night.

Then, the man who set an all-time major-league record of 104 stolen bases in one season returned to action. His chances of challenging his own record are gone for this season, but he showed in his first game that he has a more important quality: the ability to make the Dodgers win.

The end of the Dodgers' five-game losing streak came with a 2-1 victory over the Houston Colts and the "odd run" was Wills' run—scored in the third inning when he singled, stole second and tallied on a single by Ron Fairly.

Wills also scored the Dodgers' other run when he walked in the first inning, went to third on Junior Gilliam's double and tallied on a wild pitch by Dick Droett.

Babe Ruth League

First National downed Pampa Hardware 7-3, and Ideal edged Fannin Gulf, 4-2, in last night's Babe Ruth League games at Optimum Park.

The Bankers were outthru, 11-9, but took advantage of walks and errors for their winning margin. Jim Cornutt went all the way for the win, striking out 11 and walking only one. Losing hurler Mac McWilliams also struck out 11, but issued five free passes. Lane Hooten led the hitting with three-for-four.

David Frasier lost a heart-breaking one-hitter for the Orphans, now under the sponsorship of Fannin Gulf, striking out 12 and walking four as Ideal piled all their runs into the third inning. Roy Harper took the win, striking out nine and walking five.

Kist and the Lions clash in a single game tonight.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UPI)—Sam Houston (Tex.) State and Grambling (La.) College, both unbeaten after two rounds in the NAIA baseball tournament, collide tonight in the winners bracket.

Sam Houston blanked Mayville (N.D.) 5-0 Tuesday night and Grambling powered past Lewis (Ill.) College, 6-1.

In the Sam Houston-Mayville contest, righthander Ronnie Kluch halted the Dakota club on six hits.

Grambling's Frank Garnet slapped a pair of home runs,

14 Yanks Remain In Amateur Golf

By HENRY W. THORNBERY
UPI Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI)—Only 14 of an original 39-man American contingent remained in contention for the British Amateur golf championship today after two days of action.

Nine Yanks failed to survive their opening tests Monday and 16 were chased to the sidelines Tuesday, including U.S. champion Labron Harris of Stillwater, Okla., and fellow Walker Cuppers Billy Joe Patton of Morgantown, N. C., and Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N. J.

Seven of the U.S. survivors were scheduled to play second round matches this morning. The lucky ones will join the seven other Yank contenders in third round play this afternoon.

Five U.S. Walker Cuppers avoided elimination during the first two hectic days of firing over St. Andrews' par-73 old course. They were defending champion Dick Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif., Charlie Smith of Gastonia, N. C., Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., Dr. Edgar Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz., and Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla.

The elimination of Harris and Patton were the principal shockers during Tuesday's action.

Harris fell behind early in his second round match with England's Lionel Smith and never caught up as he bowed, 2 and 1. Patton was carried to the 18th green by Jim Pirie, a 25-year-old dairy farmer from Scotland. Pirie won the opening round match when Patton three-putted, the last time from four feet.

Gardner became the third U.S. Walker Cupper to bite the dust when he dropped a 2 and 1 decision to Scotland's Dick Smith.

Montreal Breaks Up Great Team

By DICK BACON
United Press International

MONTREAL (UPI)—The once awesome Montreal Canadiens hockey dynasty is only a hollow shell today following the passing of four more Habs from the scene through trades and waivers.

The Canadiens, who built what was once one of the best hockey machines ever to grace a National Hockey League rink, Tuesday traded away Jacques Plante, a 34-year-old goaltender considered by many the best netminder the league has ever seen, and smooth-skating forwards Donnie Marshall, 31, and Phil Goyette, 30, to the New York Rangers.

In exchange, the Canadiens received another 34-year-old goalie, Lorne Gump Worsley, and three nondescript forwards, Dave Balon, Leon Rochefort and Len Ronson.

Waived To Bruins

The fourth Canadian to leave was Tom Johnson, a 35-year-old defenseman who was picked up for the $20,000 waiver price by the Boston Bruins. Johnson, named the best defenseman in the league two years ago and a 14-year veteran in the NHL, was out the last half of the 1962-63 season with an eye injury that still hasn't healed.

The Rangers, who until a few years ago wouldn't get "the right time" from Montreal, now have five men in their lineup who were members of the Canadiens' great Cup teams. In addition to the latest trio, the bluishirts also have defenseman Doug Harvey and Al (Junior) Langlois.

Other Developments

While the Montreal-New York trade eclipsed everything else during the second day of the NHL annual meeting, there were these other developments:

—Overtime Montreal center Billy Reay accepted an offer to succeed Rudy Pilous as coach of the Chicago Black Hawks.

—The Detroit Red Wings spent $80,000 drafting four players from the minor leagues; Montreal drafted two and Chicago, Boston and New York drafted one each.

—Detroit and Chicago made a minor player deal in which the Wings received minor league goalie Roger Crozier and defenseman Ron Ingram in return for a player to be named later.

—Three former NHL players, Ebby Goodfello, Joe Primeau and Earl Seibert, and onetime referee Bobby Hewitson were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The NHL executives were scheduled to complete their annual meeting today with the intra-league draft and the final decisions by the six club owners. All clubs were required to submit their lists of 18 protected players, plus two goalies, Tuesday night. Players not protected are subject

Plainsmen, Dumas Lose In Playoffs

AUSTIN (UPI)—Lufkin and Houston Bellaire clash tonight in Class AAAA finals to determine the 1963 Texas schoolboy baseball champions.

Houston Bellaire, which copped the state title in its only other appearance in 1960 and 1962, kept its record intact Tuesday night with a 3-1 victory over Lubbock Monterey.

Lufkin had advanced to the semifinals earlier in the evening by blanking San Antonio Lee 1-0.

Bellaire pitcher John McDonald allowed only four hits to pick up the victory. Danny MacDougall, throwing a six-hitter himself, absorbed the loss.

In Class AAA, Fort Worth Castleberry and South San Antonio reached the finals. Castleberry whipped Dumas 12-2 in a four-and-one-half inning game called on a 10-run rule, and South San Antonio whitewashed Jasper, 1-0.

Both Class AAAA and Class AAA champions will be determined in evening games tonight. Afternoon games will select a third place team in both classes.

Palmer Back On Golf Trail

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, one of professional golf's biggest moneymakers, said today he feels "just great" and is anxious to get back on the tour after a three-week layoff to rest up and reshape his game.

Palmer voted the PGA player of the year in 1962 after banking $81,548 in official earnings, took a break after he lost his golden touch last month.

"I'm ready to go" he said from his Latrobe Pa. home. "I plan to play in the Thunderbird next week. I'm flying out of here on Sunday."

Palmer plans to play a few tuneup rounds at the Westchester Country Club in Rye, N. Y., before the $100,000 Thunderbird gets under way there June 13.

Barber Sticks To Fast Ball, Beats Yanks, 3-1

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

A slight twitch in Steve Barber's left shoulder explains today why the New York Yankees have a very large pain in the neck.

A 24-year-old left-hander who can throw a baseball through the side of a barn, Barber felt the twitch about three weeks ago. He informed Baltimore Oriole manager Tommy Hitchcock then and there that he would rely henceforth on his fast ball.

The six-foot, 190-pound Barber couldn't have caused more grief among American League hitters if he had announced that he was going to fire 90-calibre dum-dum bullets out of a machine gun at them. Because Steve's fast ball is just about all any pitcher needs—as evidence his 9-4 record that makes him the first AL pitcher of the season to reach nine victories.

A crowd of 37,137 in Baltimore saw Barber move the Orioles in to first place Tuesday night with a 3-1 victory over the Yankees.

"I haven't thrown a curve in four games," said Barber after the game. "I think that's what was bothering my shoulder. Anyway, I never did have a good curve ball."

Barber's ninth win enabled him to equal his entire total of 1962, part of which he spent in the Army, and made him a leading candidate to become a 20-game winner this season. That would make him the first 20-game winner in modern Baltimore baseball history.

Barber struck out six and walked three in 8-2-3 innings before Dick Hall emerged from the bullpen to retire Elston Howard for the final out. Johnny Powell's two-run fifth-inning homer was the big blow of the Orioles' attack on Ralph Terry (6-5) and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yankees. The win snapped an Oriole five-game losing streak.

The Los Angeles Angels defeated the Chicago White Sox, 1-0, the Cleveland Indians downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-4, the Washington Senators shaded the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, and the Minnesota Twins beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-0, in other AL games.

Dan Osinski pitched a three-hitter and Lee Thomas singled home Felix Torres with the only run of the game in the second inning as the Angels dealt the White Sox a loss that prevented them from sharing first place. It was the fourth win in five decisions for Osinski while Gary Peters suffered his third loss against the same number of victories.

Pinch hitter Mike De La Hoz' two-run homer was the big blow of a five-run seventh-inning rally that gave Cleveland's Jerry Walker his third win of the year. Joe Adcock also homered for the Indians, who handed Hank Aguirre his fifth defeat against four wins.

Tom Cheney turned in a five-hitter embellished with six strikeouts to win his fifth game on the wings of Don Lock's fourth homer in as many games—a sixth-inning poke off Boston's Earl Wilson. It was the third straight win for the Senators and snapped Cheney's personal six-game losing skein.

Bob Allison connected for his 14th homer of the year with two mates aboard and Earl Battey also homered for the Twins as Jim Perry went the distance for his fourth triumph.

BIG STICK — Shortstop Bobby Nutt, who batted over .400 last year for the Pampa Colts, is expected to carry a heavy part of the hitting load tonight when the local semipro play at Liberal in a Tri-State League game.

Softball League

Cabot edged Panhandle Packing, 6-5, and the Pampa Stars and Miami were rained out in last night's Industrial Softball League action.

Ray Howard edged Raymond McKinney as the Clowns rallied for six runs in the fourth inning and then held off a sixth-inning comeback by the Packers.

Panhandle picked up two runs in the third inning on Sunset Carson's single and Tim Woods' double, and made it 3-0 in the fourth on a double by George Gantt.

Cabot then batted around in their half of the fourth with home runs by Jerry Wright and Doug Burris and a double by Howard the big blows in the attack.

Gantt singled to open the sixth, Howard got the next two batters, but David Fulton tripled and then scored with a nice bit of baserunning as Carson beat out a ground single. Howard then struck out the next batter and retired the side scoreless in the seventh for the win.

Howard struck out 10 batters and gave up only one walk. McKinney, who gave up only one hit outside of the fatal fourth, struck out 13 batters in six frames and walked four.

Don Bigham got two hits for Cabot, while Woods and Gantt each had a double and single and Carson two singles for the losers.

Host Miami led, 5-0, when rain washed out their game after an inning-and-one-half with Larry Rider on the mound for the Cowboys and P. D. James for the visitors. The game will be rescheduled at a later date.

Pampa and Cabot, who were to have played a makeup game to night, have changed it to the second game of a twin bill at Lions

Tug Wilson Urges MacArthur To Forestall New Track War

NEW YORK (UPI)—Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson president of the U.S. Olympic Committee and champion miler Jim Beatty joined Gen. Douglas MacArthur today in deploring the latest outbreak of hostilities between the NCAA and the AAU.

Wilson urged that MacArthur call the opposing sides together "in the very near future" to forestall another track "war" that would weaken the U.S. team for its dual meet against Russia in Moscow next month.

The Olympic leader said in Chicago that the current dispute "apparently has come out of a difference of interpretation of Gen. MacArthur's March 12 ruling" when the five-star general first mediated the AAU-NCAA squabble over control of track meets.

Beatty asked the warring factions to discontinue their feud because "it would be a shame if this summer in Moscow the men's track and field team of Russia defeated the U.S. men's team for the first time."

Angry AAU officials charged the NCAA with renegeing on the agreement that MacArthur hammered out early this year.

The AAU maintained that MacArthur's ruling under this agreement gave it sole sanctioning power in the United States for open track and field competition.

Some NCAA officials, however, never accepted that edict because it failed to grant the USTFF's proposal for dual track meet sanctions.

DROPS IN RATINGS
PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI)—The World Boxing Association (WBA) today automatically dropped Harold Johnson of Philadelphia to third among contenders because of his loss of the world light heavyweight championship to Willie Pastrano last Saturday.

According to WBA rules he was placed below top-ranked Mauro Mina of Peru and second-ranked Eddie Cotton of Seattle.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

One of the chief reasons for the optimism that at the end of August a new Malaysian Federation will be born out of former British holdings in southeast Asia is a sheet of paper about four inches long, colored green and yellow.

It is the Malayan dollar, worth about 33 United States cents.

It gives businessmen and politicians alike confidence that Malaysia will become a reality despite the vehement opposition of Indonesia and the somewhat lesser opposition of the Philippines.

The Malayan dollar represents the surest way to buy rice in southeast Asia. It is the region's hardest currency and already is in use throughout the Malaysia territories.

Singapore, for example, will gain little politically from membership in the federation and might even lose some revenues to the federal government.

federation both as protection from the instability of Indonesia and from the ambitions of Red China.

Businessmen of the Borneo territories of Brunei, Sarawak and North Borneo echo the same sentiments.

The result has been that even with the short rebellion in Brunei to build upon, the anti-Malaysian forces have had little success.

The man whose brain-child the federation is, is Malayan Prime Minister Tengku Abdul Rahman, noted for tough talk screened by soft words.

In Malaya, the British left behind a going economy based on tin and rubber.

Under Prince Rahman, the Malaysians have expanded these facilities and sought means to diversify the economy. Roads have been built, jungle lands cleared, health and irrigation programs undertaken.

Foreign reserves are equal to nearly $900 million.

In Tokyo last week, Prince Rahman met with Indonesian President Sukarno in an effort to bring a halt to the insults which for months their two nations have been exchanging.

Newsmen were quick to note the dissimilarities between the two men of such similar background. Both speak a Malayan tongue and both are Moslems.

But Sukarno is attempting to lead his nation along a confused path of "guided Democracy" which includes nationalization of industry. He proclaims neutrality but frequently seems to lean heavily toward the Communists.

He charges that the new federation is an attempt by former colonial powers to surround Indonesia.

Prince Rahman believes frankly in capitalism and that Malaysia's future lies with close cooperation with the West. Co-existence with Communism, he believes, would be to invite a Red Chinese take-over.

FOLLOW SIMPLE RULES IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Vacation time is here. Soon millions of people will be driving about the country, and automobile accidents will occur with increasing frequency. What should a person do when involved in an accident?

At such times it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do. It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in an event of a smash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

1. Stop! Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.
2. Render Aid. If anyone is injured: (1) Render first aid. (2) Stop bleeding. (3) Call a doctor or an ambulance or both. (4) Do not move an injured person in any way that could possibly add to his injury.
3. Protect the Scene from Further Damage. You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlights beams on the wrecked vehicles.
4. Call an Officer. Policemen, Highway Patrolmen, Sheriffs and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.
5. Gather Information. Write it Down. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess — be specific. Measure skid marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver — and he must do the same.
6. Be Careful What You Say. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn later than the other driver who is really at fault, or more so. Emotional

President Has Power to Confiscate All Private Property for Federal Use

By RAY HERST
For The Pampa News

Editor's note: This is third and final in a series of three articles. The first news Executive Order was issued shortly after George Washington took office as first President of the United States in 1789.

It was a relatively simple order calling for heads of the Executive Departments to submit "a clear account" of the affairs of their departments.

On Jan. 21, 1961, President John F. Kennedy issued his first Executive Order. It called for an expansion of the food distribution to the needy program. From that day until Feb. 27 of this year, Kennedy has issued a total of 182 Executive Orders.

They have covered a wide variety of subjects from ordering the flag flown at half mast at the death of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt to the establishment of the Peace Corps.

The latter was created on March 1, 1961 by Executive Order. Its effect is being felt throughout the world and is costing American taxpayers $63,750,000 in the current fiscal year.

When first established, the Peace Corps had a budget of less than half that amount — $30 million. Initially it had 1,900 members who were directly controlled by the Executive Order. The goal for membership is 6,700 by the end of the current government fiscal year and 9,900 members by Sept. 1 of this year.

This program with its thousands of members, its multi-million dollar budget which must increase as the membership increases, was all created by one-stroke of the President's pen — his signature on the Executive Order.

Congress was not consulted on the establishment of the agency. In fact, Congress in effect sanctioned the action by approving the appropriation for the budget. It could have repealed the Order by Act of Congress or reduce it to nothing by denying it funds.

But, as in most cases involving Executive Orders, Congress did nothing.

In fact, from the time George Washington issued his first Executive Order, neither Congress nor anyone else sought to define such an order or to determine if it was constitutionally valid.

So little attention was paid to most Executive Orders and their effect on the country, that until 1907 no one even attempted to catalogue or number them for future reference.

The numbering process began that year and starting with the second term of President William McKinley thru the second term of President Eisenhower, a total of 12,132 Executive Orders were issued.

President Franklin Roosevelt holds the known record for the number of executive orders issued with 1,699. Eisenhower is the man with 264 issued in his first term and 218 in his second. Kennedy, if he continues his present pace, should easily pass Eisenhower's top number.

It is interesting to note that of the 182 orders issued by Kennedy thru Feb. 27, 35 dealt directly with orders issued monthly in 1961 with the exception of January, August and December; monthly in 1962 with the exception of January, March, July and December, and this year, he issued such an order in January.

Ten of his orders have dealt with the inspection of income tax returns. They gave permission to inspect income tax returns to agencies such as the House Committee on Un-American Activities, the Senate Committee on Government Operations, the House Committee on Public Works, the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, etc.

Other of Kennedy's orders have resulted in the mobilization of the Ready Reserves and the extension of enlistment periods in the Armed Forces as well as the ordering of U. S. troops into Mississippi for the removal of unlawful obstructions of justice.

One of his orders has led to the issuance of at least 18 others. This is the area prescribing the responsibilities of the Office of Emergency Planning (OEP). These orders affect more than 20 governmental departments.

The Executive Order has given some of these departments extraordinary powers which are to be put into effect "in event of national emergency." There is no exact description of a national emergency.

For instance, under the order, the Secretary of the Treasury is given the power to stabilize "aspects of the monetary, credit and financial system;" the power of to the establishment of the Peace Corps.

The Atomic Energy Commission is ordered to development "... appropriate emergency plans for nuclear reactors and other nuclear activities licensed by the Commission whether privately-owned or Government-owned."

A related Executive Order also gives the Civil Aeronautics Board the power to redistribute all civil air transport carriers "as may be necessary to assure the maintenance of essential civil routes and services under WASP operations after the requirements of the Department of Defense for CRAF have been met."

The same order gives CAB the power to regulate "... tariffs, rates and fares charged the public."

The Administrator of General Services is given the power "for the control, acquisition, assignment and priority of occupancy of real property by the Federal Government and by state and local governments to the extent they may be performing function as agents of the Federal Government."

The director of the OEP is charged with the responsibility of determining and stockpiling what materials he deems necessary to meet a national emergency. He also has the power of "geographic dispersal of certain industrial facilities, both government — and privately-owned, in the interest of national defense."

One section of the Executive Order authorizes the director as follows:

"In carrying out his responsibilities under this order, the Director is authorized to issue such rules and regulations, directives, consonant with law and Executive Order as he deems necessary and appropriate to the functions involved."

Edward A. McDermott, director of OEP, said of the Executive Order, "The President's action recognizes that this task is extremely difficult because it involves virtually every agency of the Federal Government."

Yet, all that was needed to "involve virtually every agency" of the government was an Executive Order — an instrument which no one knows is valid or constitutional.

Potentially it is the most powerful weapon at the President's disposal. It is literally unlimited in scope and power.

It has been challenged on some occasions and the individual order rescinded or repealed by Act or Supreme Court Decision.

But the fact remains that no one knows just how far a President can go with it or what would happen if an exceptionally strong President took office and decided to test it beyond all self-imposed limits.
