Relief Mass Meeting Will Be Held Here Soon

COMMITTEE TO PRESENT PLAN TO RESIDENTS

NEED FOR DRIVE HERE IS DECLARED AT MEETING

A committee of seven persons who will be charged with the responsibility of calling a mass meeting and of presenting detailed recommendations for a local relief set up to that group, will be announced in a few days. A representative group of citizens voted to authorize appointment of the committee at a lengthy session at the Schneider hotel yesterday noon.

A committee appointed a week ago yesterday to investigate whether a relief drive should be made in Pampa at this time, reported that "the need is apparent" and recommended that a drive be made.

The mass meeting will probably be called at the city auditorium within the next eight days. The seven-person committee will likely be announced by Wednesday. It will be authorized to make recommendations regarding a campaign and a fund-disbursing agency.

In reporting the need for a drive, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster chairman of a committee comprising Arthur Ted, Mrs. W. H. Davis, and Miss L. Shelby, said that at least 101 ward school children will need lunches, and that assistance will have to be given at least 30 families per month. The local relief picture was darkened by a shutdown of all local WPA and sewing room activities Monday. It was the opinion of county, city and school officials, that the shutdown would be ended in a few days.

Mrs. B. Burchfield, sewing-room supervisor, declared that if the Federal relief projects were shut down one or two weeks the local situation would be critical. If the government stopped its spending here for only two weeks, a relief crisis could easily develop, it was said.

Most of the meeting yesterday was devoted to a discussion of a possible

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH BEGUN

CONSTRUCTION STARTS ON STARKWEATHER AND FRANCIS

Excavation for the basement of a new Central Baptist church was started yesterday at the corner of East Francis avenue and North Starkweather street, the Rev. Jno. O. Scott, pastor, announced as he took out a building permit for $30,000 which is estimated to be the total cost of the completed building.

When completed, the auditorium will be of brick veneer, 40 feet wide by 87 feet long, with half basement. The present church building will be placed on the foundation and an addition added.

The building will face Francis avenue. It will have a seating capacity of more than 500 in the main auditorium. Sunday school class rooms will be constructed at the rear of the auditorium so that they can be opened into the main building.

The basement will include several Sunday school class rooms and a kitchen. The class rooms will be built with movable walls so that a dining room can be made available.

Membership of the church has passed the 350 mark. More than 250 persons have been added to the church rolls since Rev. Scott came here. The church led all others in this district in new members during the past year, a recent report revealed.

LEFORS TROOP WINS MONTHLY HONOR COURT

The lower floor of the district courtroom in the courthouse was filled to capacity last night as the biggest Court of Honor in the history of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council was held.

The crowd was so large that it was necessary to transfer the court from the county courtroom to the larger district courtroom before the meeting started. More than 75 of the 400 people present came from LeFors.

The LeFors troop, No. 19, won the Court of Honor by an overwhelming majority of points. The LeFors troop came 44 strong, accompanied by 35 parents and friends. More than 32 boys, regulation size of a full troop, wore Scout uniforms. The scoutmaster, J. H. Duncan, principal of the LeFors Junior high school, and his assistant were also uniformed.

The LeFors troop was not only first in Scout attendance, but first in advancements and merit badges and first in attendance of parents and friends.

Second place in the Court was won by Troop 80, sponsored by the First Methodist church, which surrendered the top rung of the achievement ladder to troop 19 after holding it eight months out of nine. Troop 16, sponsored by the Lions club, won third place, and troop 14 won fourth place.

Troop 80 had won every court of honor except one this year. The four high troops were represented in advancements and merit badge points, and Scout attendance as follows: Troop 14, 12 and 14; troop 16, 23 and 11; troop 19, 40 and 44; troop 80, 25 and 22. Troop 14 had 15 parents and friends present, troop 19, 35; troop 16, nine; troop 80, ten.

The highly entertaining program was in charge of the LeFors troop. Next month, troop 16, in charge of Scoutmaster W. Postma will give the program.

LAWS WILL BE ENFORCED FOR PUBLIC WEAL

EXCERPTS FROM STATE SANITARY CODE ARE CITED

Dr. K. L. Buckner, local physician, was appointed city health officer last night at a regular meeting of the city commission. The commissioners instructed Dr. Buckner to direct his attention to the enforcement of public health laws of the state and city, dealing particularly with the prevention, quarantine and care of contagious and communicable diseases.

Until recently Dr. R. A. Webb, county physician, acted for the city. Recently several cases of scarlet fever and diphtheria were reported in the city and commissioners were asked to assist in curbing the disease.

City Manager C. L. Stine made a report on the WPA situation. All projects in Pampa and the district are closed down for lack of funds. He presented a letter from the state headquarters which said the condition would be remedied within the next two weeks.

Other routine matters were discussed before adjournment. Physicians' certificates, counter-signed by the local health authority, will be required after today to admit to school pupils who have been absent three days or more, it was announced this morning by Supt. R. B. Fisher.

This ruling, a provision of the state sanitary code, has been invoked by school authorities here in an effort to stem a threatened epidemic of scarlet fever and other communicable diseases among school children.

It is included in the following state laws regarding contagious diseases, quoted by the school health department from chapter four, article 4477 of the sanitary code: Rule 1. Physicians to report.—Every physician in this state shall report in writing or by an acknowledged telephone communication to the local health authority immediately after his or her first professional visit, each patient in his or her care who has or is suspected of suffering with any contagious disease. If such a disease is of pestilential nature he shall notify the president of the state board of health at Austin by telegraph or telephone at state expense and report to him every day from such disease immediately after it shall have occurred. The attending physician is authorized to and he shall place the patient under restrictions of the character described herein in the case of each respective disease.

Rule 7. Health authority shall placard all houses where contagious diseases exist.—Upon notice that smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, or other quarantinable disease exists

STRONG REBEL DRIVE FAILS

GOVERNMENT TROOPS CAPTURE MADRID SECTOR

(By The Associated Press)
The Spanish government announced today it had thrown back a strong insurgent drive to smash the defenses of Madrid and claimed strategic successes in the northern Bay of Biscay sector.

The military success of the Socialist armies snatched some of the world interest from the larger leftist-rightist conflict on the international diplomatic front.

Blasting their way through the University section in the northwest of Madrid, the Socialist militia captured the long held "hospital clinic" from the insurgents.

Although officials refused to confirm the reports, it was said in the Paris press that France and Great Britain were preparing an attempt to mediate the civil war.

Vatican prelates denied rumors the Holy See was participating. London reports said that any move toward any armistice would be made by the League of Nations council when it assembles to discuss Spanish charges that Germany and Italy were actively aiding the Fascist attack.

Authoritative British circles meanwhile heard that "between 2,000 and 5,000 Germans" were concentrated at the insurgent stronghold of Seville.

MADRID, Dec. 1. (AP)—Capture of the strategic "hospital clinic" from insurgents in an all-morning battle in University City was announced today by a reliable government source.

A violent government attack on the modern building, one of the major Fascist strongholds in north-western Madrid during the long siege of the city, began with heavy cannonading.

Then a great blast from government mines tore at the structure. Reports said it was half destroyed. Government infantry men swarmed at the ruins and, in desperate fighting, officers said, what

Panhandle Officers Approve Plan At Meeting

Sentiment highly favorable to establishing a Panhandle-wide police radio hookup was registered at a meeting of sheriffs, county judges, commissioners and other officials, gathered at Amarillo yesterday afternoon to discuss feasibility of the proposal.

A general committee consisting of sheriffs of the 26 Panhandle counties was named to study probable costs of installing a transmitter, cost of equipment and maintenance and to decide on the best location for the police radio station.

Both Pampa and Amarillo are prospective locations for the transmitter although it was definitely set forth that the most adequate site for an efficient police broadcast system would be selected.

Under tentative plans the central broadcasting unit would be operated from one city. All counties in the Panhandle would participate in maintaining the service. About 10 or 12 counties not in the Panhandle area also sent representatives to yesterday's session and asked to be included in the system, according to Sheriff Talley, of Pampa, who is one of the leaders in the move to have the broadcast system installed.

The City of Pampa also is participating in the plan. City Manager C. L. Stine and Police Chief Art Hurst attended the session. Others from Pampa at the meeting, held in the Crystal ballroom of the Herring Hotel, were David Ballou, manager of the station KPND at Pampa, Herman Kreiger, chief engineer at KPND, and Tom Kirby.

PRICE OF TURKEYS NOT FIXED CONNALLY TOLD

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. (AP)—The Agricultural Department said today it found no basis for complaints from Crawford, Tex., that low turkey prices this season resulted from price fixing by packers.

The complaints of the bureau of animal husbandry, advised Secretary Tom Connally of Texas, who received the original protests, that J. H. Ruff, "was unable to procure any evidence tending to show that the packers were the result of a combination or agreement among packers to fix prices."

Other inquiries were made at McGregor and Waco, Moehler said, and a survey of the situation was under way at Gonzales.

The complaints were against a Chicago market price of about 28 cents a pound for dressed turkeys, compared with a 12-cent price for live fowl in Texas.

Moehler said Ruff learned the quality of the turkey crop this year was much below last year and the quantity much greater.

Statistics in this department show that there are about 20,000 turkeys in the United States this year, as compared with 15,000,000 last year, an increase in production of about 5,000,000 turkeys, Moehler said.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM
The hungry children, the children who don't have a chance, the children with wistful eyes, with pinched faces, with kind eyes, with intelligent faces—they have started taking free meals at the school cafeteria. Teachers counted a hundred of them and then they stopped counting—there may be more. It is the best meal they'll get this cold, grey day. Some will have no supper. To them and to their more fortunate school mates, it is not charity. No! It is not charity! This new attitude is blessed! "I have what I want to eat," one 11-year-old boy said, "why shouldn't you?" The men of the civic clubs surely enjoy their lunch these days, secure in the knowledge that their money is feeding the hungry children. Yesterday, at the relief meeting it was said a drive would lift the burden off the club men's shoulders . . . and they say the club men couldn't eat if they knew the 100 children were going hungry.

Castor Oil For Drunks Hits New Snag In Spokane

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 1. (AP)—"Emergency" legal machinery was prepared today for administration of castor oil to three prisoners in the city jail.

The prescription was one of jurisprudence, not medicine. Justice Frank Yuse, trying to eliminate repeaters from the police "court of drunken relations," decreed 10 days in jail or an overdose of castor oil for inebriates brought before him twice in any month.

Three of the first four cited for drunkenness chose the "penitents' purge."

Justice Yuse had decreed the oil should be administered in a physician's presence. The plan struck its first snag when Dr.

HARVESTERS BRING FOOTBALL SEASON TO FITTING CLOSE BY BATTLING GOLDEN SANDSTORM

Top Performances Are Handed In By Gridsters

By MICKEY LEDRICK

On Thanksgiving day at Butler Field the Harvesters brought to a fitting close the 1936 football season. It was well that this season should close the season, for it was representative of the year's work, in so far as fight and ability were concerned.

In holding the probable state champions to a 20-0 score, the Pampa squad toppled all odds. Against supposedly impossible odds, the Harvesters went to Amarillo and surprised everyone but themselves. Top performances were handed in by every boy who played.

Featured in the game was Wild-Horse Mayes of Amarillo, who found himself stopped many times by Ivan Noblitt and J. P. Matthews. Pampa's Sammy Baugh, Roy Showers, played his best game of the season. Not only was his offense sparkling but on defense he was night perfect.

Glen Maxey and Norman Cox proved their prowess at the ends; not only in pass receiving but in interference blocking. Topsy Reynolds was receiver of one of the most beautiful passes ever seen on a high school gridiron, but the play was declared a violation of rules and brought back.

On his last work for P. H. S., Woodie Woodruff played a brilliant game, ending with an injury to his ankle. Capable performances were given by Johnson, Lewis Jones and Roy Lee Jones, who made the only touchdown for Pampa. Albert Ayer was in top form throughout his participation in the battle. Although Sherman Morgan received a bad hit on the head, he took it standing up and probably returned it. The midlets, Graham and Enloe, more than held their own against the giant Sandstormers.

All in all it was one of the best Pampa-Amarillo games yet witnessed, with excellent playing on both sides. Pampa felt she had done much more than was expected of her team, and was proud of it. And as we always say, none the less true, "We'll get you next year!"

Liquid Air Tests Shown Assembly

The mysterious properties of liquid air were revealed to Pampa high school students by Professor James Williams last Tuesday night in the gymnasium at the city auditorium.

Mr. Williams has presented his program to approximately 1,000,000 students in 23 different states during the past three years. His recent demonstrations were presented in a simple, entertaining, and educational fashion and were seemingly enjoyed by everyone who attended, according to Ernest Cabe, assembly director.

Some of the experiments performed are as follows: Liquid air has a boiling point of 312 degrees below zero. A few cranberries, when immersed in the fluid, soon freeze and become hard as marbles, and when struck by a hammer, shatter to pieces.

A rubber ball was dropped into the liquid air and then thrown against the wall. It popped and burst as though it were a light bulb. Mercury, which will not freeze until it is subjected to a cold of 40 degrees below zero, was frozen into a solid chunk by this wonderful substance.

Mr. Williams also froze kerosene into a candle shape and burned it like one would a candle. He froze alcohol into a solid. This might give one the idea of whiskey popcycles. A small steam engine was run at a high rate of speed by the steam given off by a few drops of liquid air.

Mr. Williams explained that liquid air would never be practical as a refrigerant or a source of power because of its high cost and quick evaporation. Liquid air was obtained by adding more and more pressure on air until it was liquidized. It takes 800 cubic inches of our atmosphere to make one cubic inch of liquid air.

Mr. Williams gave his performance in Floydada, Texas before coming here, and went from here to Borger.

Beauty, Health, Respect Sought In Girl Friend

If you want a girl or boy friend, take a hint from these themes written by some of Ernest Cabe's sociology students last week.

One of the best papers is printed below.

THE QUALITIES I WOULD DEMAND OF A GIRL FRIEND. At the present time I can do very nicely without the companionship of girls as all my experiences in the past have proved them to be an expensive and somewhat questionable pleasure.

However, if I were to take to myself a girl, she would first of all have to be above the average in looks. If no one were to see her other than myself, looks would matter very little in my liking or disliking her, but that male instinct to strut a pretty female in front of others of my sex is instilled pretty deeply in me.

After beauty I would put health as the next quality most desirable. I am unable to sympathize with a sick person and wouldn't care to be around one that was ill very much of the time. A healthy girl is usually a clean girl, both in personal hygiene and moral habits, neither of which could be ranked too high in my list of qualifications. My girl would be expected to stand and enjoy a day's tramp through the woods or along a fishing stream as easily and naturally as she would an evening at a card table or on a dance floor.

A loose tongue and "caty" ways in any female can never be anything but disgusting to me. A girl's respect for her parents, especially her mother, goes a long way with me. I would expect a reasonable degree of intelligence but would not want a girl who knew more than I did. To sum it up, I would want any qualities that would tend to make a companion or buddy out of a girl. A girl as a sweetheart might get to be old stuff, but she could always be a good pal.

YOU CAN'T WIN 1. If you take her home in a taxi, you're a sucker; if you don't, you're a tightwad.

2. If you show that you like her, you're hooked (and get no further attention); if you pretend indifference, you're no gentleman (and get no further attention).

3. If you tell a joke, she smiles; if you tell a lie, she looks at you as she just met tells the same one five minutes later, she gets the hiccoughs from laughing.

4. If you resent chiselling, you're a brute; if you ignore it, you're a softie.

5. If you try to make up, you're a sap; if you don't it will be the same thing over again, with another girl.

What A Life 1. If you have other dates, he feels offended and stays away; if you haven't, he thinks you're not popular enough for his consideration and stays away.

2. If he asks you where you want to go and you say a dance, he gets disgusted because he wanted to go to a show.

3. If you're willing to go to a hamburger joint, you're not exclusive; if you're above such dives, you're too expensive.

4. If he has a new tie and you admire it, he thinks you're commenting on the fact that he seldom has new, good-looking ties; if you don't, he feels neglected (and both amount to the same thing).

5. If you're quiet and reserved, he thinks you're bored to death, or else you're a wet blanket; if you actually enjoy yourself, and show it, you're a joy and deserve no further attention in either case.

Greet President on Peace Trip

Greetings from high officials of South American nations awaited President Roosevelt on his trip to the Pan American peace parley in Buenos Aires. Among those on the president's calling list were President Getulio Vargas of Brazil; President Augustin P. Justo of Argentina; Foreign Minister Carlos Saavedra Lamas of Argentina; and Alexander W. Weddell, U. S. ambassador to Argentina and Roosevelt's host in Buenos Aires.

Friendship Dies: Aide Sues Aimee

A GIFT FOR US

Trophies won by a school signify the spirit and quality of the work that students have done.

No other school in the Panhandle has quite the assortment of trophies that Pampa high has. Football, basketball, shorthand, typing, track, essay writing, spelling, tennis, one-act plays, golf, declamation, and other events that students have entered in have all brought home so many lovely cups that the space provided for them is no longer adequate, and they have spilled over into rooms that are already crowded with other school materials. Six lovely two-foot trophies are in the library because they are too large, and there is no room for more laurels in the trophy case under the clock.

Since Pampa is proud of the achievements of high school students some means must be found to obtain a fitting place to display these mementoes of achievement.

There are several ways in which to get a new case for trophies. Some class or club might wish to give it as a gift. Money could be raised by a small donation from each student, or by the school sponsoring some social gathering.

The ideal location of the trophies would be in the new auditorium, which will be completed in about a month. There everyone could enjoy seeing and admiring them.

If definite plans are to be made before the Christmas holidays some class wishing to sponsor this movement should call a meeting immediately.

Why not try to make this a Christmas present to Pampa High school, for we plan to win many more cups before school is out next spring, and we want a swell place to put them.

THEY CAN'T BE DOWNED

What price loyalty? These so-called Harvester fans showed very little when they refused to patronize a special train to Amarillo. Many expected the Harvesters to be beaten so badly that there wouldn't be any use to go. It takes more loyalty to support a losing team than to boost one that is winning all of its games. Those courageous little Harvesters showed what stuff they were made of last Thursday when they clashed with the ballyhooed Sandies. Even Amarillo fans had to admit that they were in there fighting. Perhaps the boys realized that they were not expected to give the mighty Sandstorm much trouble and played harder in order to convince those who let them down that they weren't so bad after all. Many a loyal fan who did travel to Amarillo to witness the game said that that one touchdown was worth the trip.

No one knows the thoughts that much have passed through the Harvesters' minds. Did they feel bitter toward their townspeople, or did they merely disregard the thought and concentrate on the play at hand? Too many people thought that the Sandies would be allowed to score at will. But they reckoned without the fighting spirit that has always been characteristic of the green-and-gold. The boast that "they probably wouldn't get to play much" which was made by most of the Sandie team was put to shame. They expected to see the second and third teams play the entire game. But, as it was, the first team had its hands full trying to hold the Pampans.

Sheer bravado was shown by every Harvester. Many of them were bruised and bleeding throughout the game, but they stayed in there and never gave up. Three long cheers should be given to these boys as well as their supporters who accompanied them to Amarillo. Pampa High school is prouder of these fighting Harvesters than of any previous wearers of the green-and-gold!—A. M. T.

High School Band To Enter State Music Contests

BY F. WINSTON SAVAGE The Harvester band is entering the state contest for class A bands for the first time this year.

The school board, knowing how poorly equipped the band was for this type of work, last week appropriated nearly $1,000 with which to buy instruments to complete the instrumentation for a first class concert band.

These instruments will be the first of their type to be bought by any school in Pampa. Some of the instruments to be obtained are oboe, bassoon, two French horns, tenor and set of tympani or kettle-drums.

Bids are being received now on those instruments and they should be in the hands of the musicians by Christmas.

SENIORS NAME IDEAL PERSONS FROM READING

CHOOSE CHARACTERS TO EXCHANGE WITH

If you were not yourself, what book character would you rather be? Such was the question which Mrs. Hol Wagner put to her students as a part of their observance of National Book Week.

"Books read in childhood evidence make the most profound impressions," Mrs. Wagner says, "and do much in moulding boys' and girls' ideals." Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn still appeal to seniors as ideals, and all the girls in Louisiana Mac Alcott's immortal "Little Women" are still great favorites.

One girl wrote: "There is no character in a book that I should rather be than Tom Sawyer. I like his lighthearted pranks and his lovable character. I should like to go on his exciting adventures with his friends while floating down the Mississippi." Numerous other boys and girls shared her feeling. "Tom never really said anything bad, and yet he always had a good time," a boy wrote.

"If I were not myself, I should like to be Heidi. I read the book when I was in the sixth grade, and I shall never forget what a beautiful character Heidi was," wrote another girl.

Travel, adventure, and romance appealed most to many. A football player wrote, "I had rather be Aeneas in 'The Aeneid'; not because I want to be a god, but because I like adventures. He wore winged shoes and flew all over the world. I don't care about that, but I like to travel."

The historic Daniel Boone and the fictitious Hawkeye, both scouts de luxe, were favorites of many boys. One chose Hawkeye "because he was able to take care of himself so well in the wilds and among the hostile Indians. He was also a very good shot with firearms. He was able to speak what he thought, and he always thought what he spoke. He was the master of himself."

Tarzan was one boy's ideal. Martin Johnson, the lion hunter, and Wallace, Labrador explorer, appealed to both boys and girls.

Heroism and sacrifice. Ability to bear hardships and willingness to sacrifice for others attracted the admiration of many seniors. One girl chose Mrs. Nancy Cravat in Edna Ferber's "Cimarron." I admire her because she had the courage to go on after her husband had left her, instead of going back to her old home, which would have been the easiest way out. She reared her children and tried to do her best with them, never once speaking a word against her father." Bess Streeter Aldrich's heroines in "Lantern in Her Hand" and "A White Bird Flying" were also favorites.

The nobility of Sidney Carton in giving his life for a friend appealed to many. But one boy wrote, "I do not admire him because he drank, or because he gave his life for another. I liked his ability of thinking fast in tight places and the way he showed his friendship by never complaining, even though things in life usually went against him."

Of Lucy Gayheart, Willa Cather's creation, one girl wrote: "I admired Lucy, for she made the most of her talents and kept her sorrows to herself."

Level Headedness. Another senior girl wrote of Marjorie Day: "She was my ideal. She was a person who used her head at all times and was never influenced by anyone, except maybe her father." Gene Stratton Porter's Eleanor in "A Girl of the Limberlost" was popular. One girl wrote, "I liked the way she finally triumphed over all her hardships and won out. When she first started to school, she had no pretty clothes, but she went ahead and studied and graduated at the head of her class."

Happy Romance. Jane Eyre's happy romance after many hardships and disappointments appealed to girls. Beauty, popularity, and pretty clothes also were the ideals of many girls. One girl wrote of Nancy Starr, "She wore clothes that were suitable to her personality and that all the men liked. Nancy was always invited to parties of her friends and neighbors and was the life of their parties."

Maggie Tulliver, George Eliot's character who was so devoted to her brother, Tom, was a great favorite. One girl chose Catherine the Great, but not one chose Juliet.

All of this goes to prove that parents and teachers have little to fear with regard to the ideals of boys and girls if they provide them with right kind of companions in books," says Mrs. Wagner.

'BIGGEST SHOW OF YEAR' TO BE STAGED HERE ON FRIDAY SAY SPONSORS OF CARNIVAL

Annual and P-T-A To Share Proceeds Of Event

The biggest show of the year will be staged here Friday evening at 7:30 when the high school puts on its carnival at the gym and the red brick building on the central campus.

Proceeds from the carnival will benefit the high school annual and the P. T. A.

Every organization in school is sponsoring at least one booth or concession. Barks, music, bright lights, confetti, balloons, etc. will create the carnival atmosphere. Nothing will be a gyp, according to those in charge of the entertainment, but the public will get their money's worth.

Among the entertainments listed are crazy house, live stock show, bingo, fish pond, baby show, picture show, duck pond, cat racks, chunking negroes, guessing weights, and turkey raffle.

Other attractions will be a marionette show, Spanish club, night club, fiddles, Roman Coliseum, fortune telling, archery, and penny pitching.

Buy An Annual JOURNALISM TEACHER TURNS IN RESIGNATION

For the second time this year, Pampa high school has lost its journalism instructor and advisor of the Little Harvester. Yesterday Miss Bernice Addison handed her resignation to Supt. R. B. Fisher.

Miss Addison came to Pampa from Wheeler, where she had a prize-winning school paper. She filled the position vacated by Delmar Ashworth, who went to Ft. Smith, Arkansas, to be head of the journalism department in the high school there. Regret has been expressed by the students and faculty of Pampa high school upon her resignation.

Harvesters Plan Post-Season Tilt Against Borger

The 1937 Pampa Harvesters and Borger Bulldogs will clash in a post-season game Saturday afternoon at 2:30. One-third of the proceeds will go to the annual. Tickets are being sold by the pep squad girls and are also available at most drug stores.

The Bulldogs will have a slight advantage over the Harvesters as they have three veteran backfield men to one for the Harvesters. The Harvesters will be led by J. W. Graham, who was first string half this year. J. W. will probably be shifted to quarter. The line will be led by J. P. Mathews, who held down the line this year.

The only back-field man will not be in Borger's first string backfield that was there last season will be Ramires who was one of Borger's best men.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan of the Harvesters and Bob Curry of the Gorillas and Tom Herrick of Junior High Reapers are putting their charges through long and hard workouts every evening trying to get them in shape.

Players back from the 1936 squad are Cox, Reynolds, Nelson, Mathews, Watt, Smith, Stiles, Harding, McMahon, Graham, Turner, Williams. Admission will be 50 and 25 cents. No seats will be reserved.

CARNIVAL SPIRIT TO REIGN Carnival spirit will prevail in assembly tomorrow at the high school gymnasium. All booths will advertise their place and position for the carnival Dec. 4.

Charlotte Watson left yesterday afternoon for Wyoming. She came here last year from Wyoming and is a junior this year. She has been a member of the pep squad for two years.

Churches Observe Week Of Prayer

Baptist Women To Meet Daily All This Week

Daily meetings of the Missionary Unions of First Baptist and Central Baptist churches started yesterday at the respective churches, and will continue through the week. They are in observance of the annual week of prayer for foreign missions and the Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

At First Baptist church, meetings will be in the afternoon except tomorrow, when the Business Women's circle will present a special program at the evening prayer service, inviting the public. At Central church, various circles of the Missionary Union will have charge on different days.

Mrs. H. L. Wait was in charge of the program at First Baptist church yesterday. Use of the annual offering in foreign missions was discussed by Misses F. E. Leech, H. C. Wilkie, T. D. Alfred, J. J. Simmons, A. L. Prigmore, L. M. Wagon, Garnet Reeves, and O. A. Davis.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster presented the devotional and a short talk.

Several members of the Union are attending an associational meeting today in Goodnight. Mrs. Leech, associational president, is one of the party.

Plans were made for a banquet which the Union will serve Thursday evening to members of the Young Women's and Girls' Auxiliaries.

Present, in addition to those on program, were Misses Tom Duvall, H. T. Cox, W. L. Anderson, J. C. Roundtree, W. A. Robinson, Dec. Campbell, C. H. Schuikje, J. W. Young, C. L. Stephens.

Recital Planned

Helen Poolas, young Pampa violinist, will be presented in solo recital at the Academy of Music and Arts in Amarillo next Tuesday evening by her teacher, T. Duncan Stewart of Amarillo. She will play compositions by Grosse, Rameau, D'Ambrosio, Dreigo, Rehfild, and Kreisler, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Keen of Pampa. Assisting her on the program will be Frankie Lou Keen, advanced pupil of the Vincent Studio of Dancing, whose numbers will be an oriental dance to the music of Oriente, Cui; and an Indian novelty to the music of Indian Love Call. Miss Poolas and Mrs. Keen will play accompaniments for the dances.

M. E. SOCIETY PLANS ANNUAL DISTRICT MEET

Women Will Attend Program Friday In Shamrock

Announcement of the annual Harvest Day for Methodist women in this district was made in First Methodist Missionary circles yesterday afternoon. Many members here plan to go to Shamrock Friday, leaving the church in a body at 9 a. m., for the annual meeting.

Circle one met yesterday with Mrs. Luther Pierson. After the prayer by Mrs. John Hodges, a lesson from The Outlook magazine was directed by Mrs. Travis Lively. Mrs. Roy Tinsley presented the topic, Strength Comes With the Task, and Mrs. John Naylor told a story, My Gift Complete.

Refreshments were served to 11 members and a visitor, Mrs. Anna Culbertson.

Mrs. John Skelly was hostess to 14 members of circle three and a visitor, Mrs. C. C. Gwin. Mrs. Harold Wright directed the business session and devotional, and Mrs. J. E. Kirchman presented the meditation.

Discussion of The South's Relation to the Negro, was by Mrs. Clyde Blackwell. Mrs. G. E. Foster told a Christmas story. Mrs. Charles Dukenel and Mrs. Skelly sang a duet, "In the Garden," and Mrs. Skelly played a piano solo, "Garden of Prayer."

Seventeen members and a guest Mrs. Pat Lanham, were present in the home of Mrs. Horace McBea, hostess to circle four. Mrs. M. E. DeTar was in charge of the business meeting, when Christmas plans for the circle were made.

Paris Sensation

A coat of dappled silver horse hair caused a sensation in Heim's Paris salon. For sports or informal country wear, it is new both in pelt and coloring. The amusing little cap is also in silver horse hair and a gray neckerchief provides the touch of color.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

For protein and thrift, flavor and consistency, consult the lowly lima bean—especially dried lima beans. Buy them packaged by the pound. They make good house pets when the budget is to be carefully guarded.

Lima beans and tomato casserole is a bountiful luncheon dish. To make enough to serve eight, use 2 cups dried beans, 1 large onion, 1 tablespoon bacon drippings; 3 sprigs parsley; 1 cup canned tomatoes; salt and pepper to taste. Soak the beans overnight. Slice (not chop) the onion and then fry it lightly in the bacon drippings. Add the onion, drippings and parsley to the beans in a large saucepan. Turn in the canned tomatoes and cover with boiling water. Season. Simmer until the beans are tender and practically all the water is absorbed.

Grease a large casserole dish. Turn in the cooked beans. Remove the parsley. Smooth the top; then dust with dry cracker crumbs. Dust crumbs with 1-2 cup grated cheese. Sprinkle with paprika.

Place under broiler until crumbs and cheese have become familiar enough to form a tempting cover for those beans and tomatoes.

Lima Beans and Fresh Vegetable Casserole is another inexpensive, healthful dish that doesn't remind you of medicine. For eight servings, use 2 cups beans, 1 large onion, 2 raw carrots, 1-2 cup celery, chopped; and 1-2 cup canned tomatoes. Soak beans and cook until tender. Drain and chop. Chop the onion, carrot and celery and mix with the chopped beans. Add tomatoes. Grease a baking dish, add seasoned vegetables evenly mixed. Moisten with bean stock. Bake in moderate oven for 25 minutes. As the liquid cooks away, add a little more.

Cream of Lima Bean Soup for 4 Cream of lima bean soup makes a delicate luncheon dish. For 4 servings, use 1 cup cooked dry lima beans, 1-2 cup cream, 1 cup lima bean stock, 1 cup clear chicken or veal stock, 1 teaspoon minced onion, parsley, salt and pepper, and 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Mrs. Walberg Will Head H. D. Council

Surprises Society Party For New And Old Members To Be Dec. 11

Mrs. A. R. Walberg was elected chairman of Gray County Home Demonstration council for 1937, at a council meeting Saturday. She will succeed Mrs. O. G. Smith in the office. Miss Donnie Lee Stroppe was chosen secretary, and Mrs. R. I. Davis treasurer.

Mrs. Smith was elected as delegate to the Farmers Association meeting in Fort Worth Dec. 2-4, with Mrs. Clyde King as alternate.

Election of officers was by acceptance of a report from the nominating committee, Mrs. C. McKnight, Mrs. Walberg, and Mrs. Franklin. Mrs. Smith presided at the meeting, which was attended by 35 members in the office of Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, home demonstration agent, in the courthouse.

Announcement was made that Miss Dilworth, food preparation specialist with the state extension service from A. & M. college, will be here on Dec. 4. All club members who wish to have clubs scored for standardization are asked to bring them to her.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party for council members and their husbands, entertaining both the retiring and incoming councils. It will be on Dec. 11 at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Fischer in the Merton community. The county judge and county commissioners and their wives will be invited as special guests.

National Board Sends Lecturer Who Is To Be Here

Judge Samuel W. Greene of Chicago, who will give a lecture here Friday evening at 8, is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the national Christian Science organization, and will appear in Pampa under auspices of the local church.

The national board of lectureship sends lecturers to foreign countries, including Africa, the Orient, Australia, and most European nations, as well as to all parts of the United States and Canada.

Members of the church here are inviting the public to hear Judge Greene. No admission charge will be made.

Time For Rumors To Start, Says Mary McCormick

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Dec. 1 (AP)—Defying Hollywood gossip to rumor the crash of her fourth marriage, Mary McCormick, operatic soprano, settled down in bachelor quarters today.

"It's about time for the rumors to begin circulating," laughed the 37-year-old diva at the flea in, unaccompanied, from Amarillo, Texas, at midnight.

"My husband doesn't need a wife chasing after him and I don't need a husband chasing after me."

The man she married after a breakfast table proposal last week—Homer V. Johannsen, 33, attorney—is in Chicago. Miss McCormick explained, for "we've both got work to do."

"My father in Amarillo wanted to see him too. But I decided to wait until later to show him off down there in the cattle country."

"I'll probably fly back to Chicago for the holidays, in case he doesn't fly over an awful cold."

P-TA Postpones Meeting To Aid Carnival Friday

A meeting of High School Parent-Teacher association scheduled for Thursday afternoon of this week has been postponed to Wednesday of next week, it was announced today. It will be conducted at 3:15 on the afternoon of Dec. 9, at the city hall auditorium.

Members of the association are cooperating this week in the high school carnival, to be given Friday evening. High school pupils and teachers, under direction of Bob Curry, are completing plans for the carnival. Events will be in the schoolrooms, in the red building and the gymnasium on central campus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Robinson of Alton, Ill. are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McClard and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Murphy.

FRANKLIN JR. AND HIS FIANCEE BOTH 'BORN WITH SILVER SPOON'

By SIGRID ARNE
(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON (AP)—In 1914 Oyster Bay, Long Island, was the gathering point for many of the public leaders of the day. They went to talk with "T. R." who had been defeated for a third term on his newly-formed Progressive ticket.

Three hours south by train the du Pont plants in Wilmington, Del., were lightening up to meet the strain put on them by the bursting war in Europe.

That year a Roosevelt baby-boy put in his appearance at his grandmother's home, Hyde Park, on the Hudson river above New York. "T. R." was "de-lighted" because the new infant's mother was Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, a niece of his, who had been one of his favorites among the Roosevelt children. He had given her away when she married another Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, in 1905.

A year after the new Roosevelt arrived, the du Pont clan was enlarged by the birth of a dainty girl-baby at "Owl's Nest," the home of the Eugene du Ponts, just outside Wilmington in the hills along Kenneth Pike.

To The Manner Born

Now, two decades later, the babies have grown to adulthood and are planning to marry in June: Ethel du Pont, the beauty of her clan, and Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., the son and namesake of the President.

The two were typical "born with a silver spoon" babies. They had sunny nurseries, attentive nurses and brothers and sisters to frolic with. They went to exclusive private schools where good manners were as much a part of the curriculum as arithmetic. They whizzed around the country-side in early automobiles driven by family chauffeurs. They grubbed in garden plots set aside "for the children." They grew up to own smart roadsters of their own.

Both families are lovers of the out-of-doors. Both had their own riding horses. The boy, Franklin, was lifted to the back of a horse at the door of Hyde Park just about the same year the du Pont groom first led a horse up the circular drive at Owl's Nest for little Miss Ethel.

Both Like Riding

The two still prefer cantering over the hills to any other recreation, and they have done much of it around the du Pont home in Wilmington and at the du Pont summer cottage in North East Harbor, Maine. Miss Ethel has taken the sport more seriously. She has a stable of mounts which she rides at eastern horse-shows and on which she has won a good array of silvers-cups and ribbons.

Young Roosevelt has a second sport in boating, in which his whole family is expert. And Miss Ethel's summers on the coast of Maine have made her a good sailor as well.

Both families have large, comfortable homes surrounded by rolling lawns, gardens, and huge trees. Around Hyde Park is an experimental forest in which the President has indulged his love for amateur forestry. One of the rites when he visits Hyde Park now is to drive through the forest to see how the experiments progress.

Miss Ethel's father also looks proudly from the long windows of his home down a gentle slope covered with a magnificent stand of pine.

"There wasn't a tree here when

The marriage at Miami Beach, Fla., of Mrs. Consuelo Vanderbilt Smith and Henry G. Davis, shown in recent pictures, took New York society by surprise since it was not known that romance had flamed between the couple. Davis and his bride's cousin, Grace Vanderbilt, were divorced only a few months ago. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of William K. Vanderbilt, on whose yacht the wedding was held.

TEACHERS TO STATE MEETING
A number of the teachers in the Shamrock school attended the State Teachers' association meeting at Fort Worth during the Thanksgiving holidays. From the high school, Supt. Perkins, Principal Morrow and Miss Beverly Harvey, and Mr. Elise, Misses Lammun and Chisenhall, and Mrs. Morrow from the North Ward, and Miss Veach from the South Ward, attended.

Official of the U. S. Weather Bureau hate to do any long-range forecasting, but the other day they did break down and admit that we seem to be in for an old-fashioned "earmuff" winter.

This they hastened to point out was only a guess, but it is the best guess available and it looks like a very good one.

And for a guess like that we ought to be thankful. For an earmuff winter is part of those good old days to which we are so anxious to get back.

To make it complete, of course, we would need a law of a resettlement administration or something to enable everyone in the land to take advantage of it.

It is a funny thing, how we shy away from winters. We remember the agony of getting out of bed in an Arctic temperature, the stinging pain of frost-nipped feet...

Then, for the cold and the shivers, there are compensations. Getting out of bed on a cold morning may be painful—but what about getting into bed on a cold winter night?

We need not mention the things youngsters can do. We can touch but briefly on the beauty of winter nights, with great stars overhead and the snow creaking underfoot.

An old-fashioned earmuff winter, says the weather bureau? Well, there are worse things.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON.—Now that Big Business is cuddling up to the New Deal again, you can expect a number of raids on the administration personnel.

Natural desire of financial-industrial interests to employ men who know the ropes and can exert influence in Washington plus the natural desire of most New Dealers to make a little money is bound to result in some job changes which will be news.

Feelers already are being extended toward several more or less prominent officials.

One of Roosevelt's great problems has been lack of adequate personnel, especially on the administrative end. But Big Business probably will be glad to lend him plenty of new help.

With Jim Farley away in Europe, Hollywood knows more than Washington about reports that the movie industry has a $150,000 a year job for him, although such rumors have been current in the capital.

The movie magnates stuck their necks out such an unprecedented distance in the anti-Roosevelt campaign that they're supposed to be feeling that Jim would be a bargain at $150,000.

Furthermore, the election so enhanced Farley's prestige that even John D. Rockefeller, Jr., lifted his hat and bowed in a cordial letter to Jim.

Also, Jim has perhaps more important personal contacts throughout the nation than any other man—his network of these was what enabled him to predict the election results with such amazing accuracy.

Also wafted around Washington is a rumor that Joseph P. Kennedy, former SEC chairman, will be hired as a sort of "czar" or co-ordinator of the public utilities industry, with the primary function of compromising differences between the industry and the administration.

Another rumor that may or may not prove true is the common one that Chief J. Edgar Hoover of the Bureau of Investigation will quit to become the $25,000-a-year of the duPont concern's police organization.

He himself denies this vehemently, privately charging enemies within government ranks are circulating the rumor.

His departure to become vice-president of the Glass Company is hardly the result of a resignation, the company's president, is an old hand to have considered the advertising association as well as the famous brain-trust.

After Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., one in Washington will be surmised to work "at the bottom" controlled by Delaware's families.

It is arranged to fight ninety knows now how many when it reads it is.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

NEW YORK — Keeping tab on folk whose names make news in the biggest town in the world is largely a matter of going through one's mail.

Joe Cook writes from Hollywood that he has learned a new dish and wants to spring it on acquaintances when he gets back.

Erin O'Brien-Moore, saying she may linger in Manhattan until spring, is considering a play about a nun who renounces her vows and returns to the outside world.

Katharine Cornell is acquiring a sun-lamp tan. This will fit in nicely with her character of the native girl which she will play in "The Wings of Victory."

Billy Rose will grab a fast plane for California when he departs from Texas: "Why poke around Broadway where they talk in thousands when you can go to Hollywood where they speak in millions?"

Jack Dempsey hops about so constantly that a postmark is never an indication of his whereabouts.

A note from the Mauler is dated from Boston, but five minutes later I read in the papers where he is in Chicago.

Even John Barrymore, with his new bride, is heading towards New York but wants to get back in time to redecorate her upstate manor before the holidays.

At the Hotels It's too nice a day even to read the mail, so let's prow around the hotel lobbies and see who the new arrivals are.

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. What is included in the industry classified as Photographic Apparatus and Materials and Projection Apparatus? T. R.

A. This industry, as classified for census purposes, embraces those establishments engaged primarily in the manufacture of cameras (including motion-picture cameras), motion-picture projection machines, photostats machines, blue-printing flashlight apparatus, and materials, tripods, plate holders, film rewinders and reels, developing tanks, sensitized paper and cloth, dry plates and films, lantern and stereopticon slides, and sheet gelatin.

Q. Is solid furniture better than veneered furniture? N. C. T.

A. The furniture industry does not classify as to quality on this basis. In ordinary practice, chairs and the framework of case goods are made of solid lumber, while large surfaces are made of built-up plywood.

Q. Who applied the term, humorous, to musical compositions? S. A. Schumann used it for short musical compositions, free and whimsical in form and strikingly original in harmony and rhythm.

Q. Is there a direct tax on farmers in England to support the Church of England? W. C. P.

A. Farmers of England occupying former church lands or glebes are assessed tithes for the upkeep of the English Church, which is the established church of the nation.

Q. Is it reported that the government is endeavoring to find a way to change or abolish the system of tithes, and under process of law livestock or harvested crops were seized and held to compel payment?

A. An employee, who would otherwise have been taxable but is sixty-five years old or more, is exempt. He is not taxed and is not benefited by this phase of social security.

Q. What is the name of the man who is walking around the world?

A. Jean de Vaudreuil Manchot of Brussels, Belgium, has been walking around the streets annually since 1920.

North and South America are neighbors of the nearest and friendliest type. They are close together geographically and diplomatically. They share the same name, and enjoy in common the benefits of the Panama Canal.

But what do we of North America know about our southern neighbors? Are we familiar with their locations, climate, resources, cities, rivers, and mountains?

The map of South America will give a clearer knowledge of our southern neighbor. It is in colors, largest in size, and its reverse side is a condensed atlas replete with vital geographical and commercial statistics.

This map is valuable to teachers and students, and is a convenient size for the home and office.

The Wrong Murderer

By HUGH CLEVELY

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD — Just before he came to Hollywood a good many years ago, George Bancroft was singing romantic roles in comic operas.

But one of the first jobs that amounted to anything was that of the villain in a Tom Mix picture.

"I had the dubious pleasure of having a cigar snatched out of my mouth by Tom," says Bancroft, telling how he became a "he-man" by accident.

"An executive of the company happened to see the scene being made. He said: 'George, you looked mighty mean there. I've a gangster picture coming up and I think I can use you in it.'"

Got Star Role The picture was "Underworld," and it made Bancroft a star.

"The facial contortions that brought me the part were NOT meanness at all," he confesses now. "They were just plain fright!"

The Ray Millands celebrated their wedding anniversary the other day by buying a house in Hollywood, involving a marriage, a divorce and a remarriage, is one of the oddest I've heard lately.

Milland, hopeful extra in English pictures with an inheritance of $17,000 in his pocket, married Estelle Brody, an established actress.

Milland was brought here four years ago, failed because of inexperience and used up his inheritance. He doesn't like to talk about the subsequent events.

"Oh, when we were a couple of kids when that happened," he says, referring to the divorce. He admits he convinced Estelle to divorce him.

"You see, I'm the kind of guy who's way up when he's up and way down when he's down. We are both pretty conceited."

Immediate Regrets "Sure, sure, I regretted it all the minute I wrote it. We were separated a year. By that time I had accomplished something and I again proposed to her. Lucky for me, she said 'yes,' and that's about all there is to it."

Milland came back to Hollywood for two purposes: To propose to his ex-wife and get back into pictures. He was here only four months when he got the second best male role in "The Gilded Lily," with Claudette Colbert.

"I want you to give a message to one of my ruffians and tell him: 'My name doesn't matter; just tell him that if he'll raid the Golden Centipede Club at once he'll see something that will give him a shock. And if he'll search the club, and everybody in it, he may possibly find out something about the dope and blackmailing gang he's so interested in.'"

With the help of one of his ruffians, he swiftly bound and gagged Lawson, carried him down the stairs, and pushed him into one of the waiting cars. Half a minute later the two cars were away, bound for the East End.

At a rendezvous in Canning Town he was met by Bassett and Slippy, the little bow-legged man. There he paid off his band of ruffians and they departed rejoicing to rejoin their ship. By daybreak they would be out on the open sea.

The two cars were stowed away in a small garage, and Lawson was imprisoned in a little office behind the garage.

Five minutes after Mahony and his band of toughs had left the Golden Centipede, the police, led by Inspector Kennedy, arrived hot foot in a police car.

Inspector Kennedy, arrived hot foot in a police car. As Mahony had promised the sight of the interior of that club gave the Inspector a shock; he had never seen anything like it in his life before.

He grasped the situation he began to search swift orders over the telephone. Great interest was aroused that night in Soho, and a crowd collected in the narrow streets to watch what was to all intents and purposes a fleet of ambulances arrive outside the Golden Centipede Club.

The Inspector and Sergeant Dawkins remained in the club. They stayed there a long time, prying, searching, examining. What they found interested them greatly.

Mahony placed Lawson's unconscious figure in a chair in the little office behind the club.

His first action was to go through Lawson's pockets. As he had anticipated, he found nothing in them that was in the slightest degree incriminating.

He handed the keys to Bassett. "I want an impression taken of all these keys; take it in wax, or soap, or anything that's handy," he ordered.

"I want it done before he recovers consciousness." While this was being done, Mahoney replaced all the articles he had taken from Lawson in the pockets in which he had found them. (Copyright, 1936, Hugh Clevely)

Lawson makes a caring offer, tomorrow.

45 BOYS COMPETING FOR PLACES IN LINEUP OF BIGGER GAME SATURDAY

FIVE SETS OF BALL CARRIERS WORKING OUT

1937 MATERIAL WILL BE SEEN IN BATTLE

Forty-five boys who will take part in the big season football game at Harvester field on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, reported to Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan yesterday afternoon for their first practice. The battle will be between the Pampa Harvesters and the Berger Bulldogs eligible for competition next season.

Backfield material led the parade on the field when five sets of ball toters reported to Coach Mitchell. He put them through preliminary punting and passing and explained plays. Down on the other end of the field Coach Prejan had a large group of linemen charging, coming out of the line to run interference and getting assignments.

Running of plays was in order for this afternoon but old Jupe Pluvius might take a hand in proceedings and force a blackboard session in the dressing room.

Coaches will have 12 Harvester squadrons around which to build their team. An even dozen junior high repeaters also reported for practice. The rest of the group was made up of Cornudas with one newcomer, Bobby Carr, whose specialty is blocking or being where the going is roughest.

Carr appeared with the Reapers last year when he showed remarkable ability as a blocker and defensive power. He did not play this season but reported for practice for the post season game.

Efforts to replace "Pitcher" Showers, the Harvester passing ace and punter de luxe was begun yesterday when Coach Mitchell presided through a long session of passing and punting. As expected, little J. W. Graham looked like the best bet. Despite his size the midget gets nice distance, is consistent and can punt against the Harvesters.

The Baylor Bears have turned in their uniforms and started thinking of basketball.

Arkansas Loss On Saturday Would Give Title To TCU

Victory Would Give Porkers First Title

(By The Associated Press)

The University of Texas remained today the only obstacle between the University of Arkansas and its first southwest conference championship. Longhorns in Saturday game at Little Rock would give the Razorbacks the title, a loss would give it to Texas Christian and a tie would make the Porkers and Christians co-champions.

Arkansas led the loop in 1933 but was deprived of the championship substitute had played in a game. No champion was crowned.

The Razorbacks gave their attention to Scout reports on Texas plays and brushed up the offense that has carried them to the top of the dizzy conference race. Ralph Rawlings, the Porkers' leading scorer, remained on the injured list.

The Longhorns were reported in top condition except for Duke Gilbreath, who suffered an eye injury in the Aggie game Thanksgiving day. The team worked against Arkansas formations.

Southern Methodist meets Rice at Houston Saturday in the only other conference tilt of the week. It will be the final clash of the season for each team.

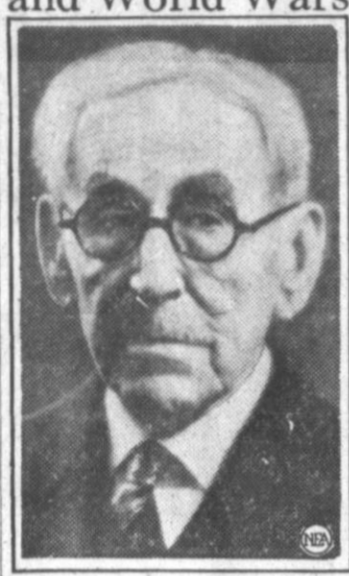

The Texas Aggies, tripped Thursday by Texas and the previous Saturday by Centenary, will seek to regain prestige against Chick Meehan's Manhattan Jaspers at Tyler Saturday.

Free of competition this week. Texas Christian's Horned Frogs go to San Francisco Dec. 11 to meet Santa Clara, the nation's only major undefeated and untied team.

The Baylor Bears have turned in their uniforms and started thinking of basketball.

ONLY ONE MEMBER OF CHAMP CAGE TEAM BACK THIS YEAR

Veteran of Civil and World Wars

Honored as the only Civil War veteran who also served in the trenches during the World War, Nicholas G. Van Sant, above, celebrated his 90th birthday at his home in Sterling, Ill., during a 28-page special edition of the Sterling Daily Gazette dedicated to him. Van Sant walks downtown daily, reads widely, and takes deep interest in veteran affairs.

Basketball practice started at the high school gymnasium yesterday when Coach Bob Curry put 15 prospective Harvesters through a session of ball handling and goal shooting and Coach Tom Herod of the junior high Reapers called his gang together.

Coach Curry will meet with the boys every afternoon until Coach Odus Mitchell is through with football, then he will take over the Gorillas.

Facing a tough season with only two lettermen back from last season, Coach Mitchell will face a herculean task in developing a winning hardwood combination. It is believed, only Albert Ayer and Ivan Noblitt will be eligible from last year's champions, who went to the regional finals before dropping to Cary.

Several of last season's Gorillas might come through with the fast company this year. Coach Mitchell is hoping for the best, anyway.

Several boys still out for football might be the answer to the situation. They will report after Saturday's big game with the Berger Bulldogs. Most of the height, available is still on the football field.

THREE DU PONTS GIVE $144,430 TO FOR FOES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Campaign contributions totaling $144,430 by three members of the Du Pont family, opponents of the Roosevelt administration, were announced today by the special Senate committee investigating political expenditures.

In its first post-election report, the committee also showed that Mrs. Joseph E. Davies, wealthy breakfast food heiress and wife of the recently appointed ambassador to Russia, had given $6,500 to Democratic campaign funds.

Her husband's contributions, understood to be at least as large, have not yet been compiled.

J. P. Morgan donated $50,000 to 10 Republican organizations, investigators announced, while two members of the Mellon family long prominent in Republican councils, spent $40,000.

The committee said it would ask every person who contributed $500 or more to any political organization to submit detailed information. The information will be used in making legislative recommendations to the President and to the Senate.

Investigators indicated they probably would recommend far-reaching revisions of present law to strengthen federal regulation of political spending. Their study has been spurred by the unprecedented expenditures—totaling more than $13,000,000—in the last campaign.

TARO-CHEWING SUGGESTED AS DENTAL AID

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Stanley T. Olafson, shipping manager of the chamber of commerce, is back from Hawaii with plans for promoting the importation of taro root.

In quotes Dr. Nils Larsen, Honolulu hospital executive, as saying examination of 50,000 sugar industry employees proved that chewing the root improves formation of children's teeth.

The native dish of poi, a thick paste made from the root, is an effective remedy for seasickness known to most Pacific seamen, Olafson said.

PANHANDLE TO PLAY HORNETS ON TULIA GRID

WHEELER WILL PLAY IN MATADOR ON FRIDAY

North Panhandle Class B football teams failed to have any luck with the coin and in the argument department as they attempted to have bi-district games played at home or near home this week-end.

Last night in Amarillo the Panhandle Panthers lost the toss and will have to play Tulia Hornets in Tulia Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Wheeler Mustangs lost an argument and will meet the Flomot Longhorns in Matador Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The two winners will meet the following week at a point to be decided following Friday's encounters. Should Panhandle and Wheeler come through victorious, as the dope points, an invitation will be extended the two teams to play for the regional championship at Harvester field in Pampa.

Both games are expected to be hard-fought. Panhandle's mighty Panthers will tangle with an equally large and versatile team in the Hornets. Panhandle defeated Perryton 13 to 12 for district honors in a game played in Pampa. Tulia swamped Dalhart although playing with only four regulars in the lineup, the rest of the team being ill with unfevered.

Wheeler fought its way undefeated to the top of the district three weeks ago. Flomot had to vanquish Paducah last week to win. Although a school of 90 pupils, with a 15-man football squad, Flomot boasts a great team.

Yesterday Coach Bob Clark of the Mustangs started working his team in a sand bed in an effort to get them used to the type of field on which they will have to play in Matador.

Diplomat's Wife Worth Millions

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mrs. Marjorie Post Hutton Davies, above, will be hostess at the U. S. embassy in Moscow by virtue of appointment of her husband, Joseph E. Davies, as ambassador to Russia. Mrs. Davies inherited approximately $20,000,000 from her father, C. W. Post, breakfast food manufacturer, and is reputed to have an annual income of $1,000,000.

CHICAGO, (AP)—A patrolman's pointed remark was so devastating to Edward Kubik's alibi that a criminal court jury took only two minutes to start him back to prison for a life term under the habitual criminal act.

The 25-year-old paroled burglar said the store man police caught robbing a drug store must have been some other fellow because he was playing pinocle in a Montrose avenue apartment at the time. He described the "apartment" in detail.

PROLONGED SNEEZING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Sneezing every five minutes, as she has most of the last 53 days, golden haired Mary Margaret Clear of nearby Fort Meyer, Va., looked forward hopefully today to treatments at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore. The 13-year-old honor student who broke into a fit of sneezing at her school desk October 9, has supplemented the efforts of doctors to stop her "ker-choos" with home remedies sent her in fan mail from many parts of the globe. None has worked.

ENOUGH TURKEY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Despite heavy Thanksgiving feasting there's still enough turkey to go round. Gobbler experts at the agricultural department said today that "each consumer's quota of this year's crop of turkeys, if they were all divided into equal shares, would be almost one sixth of a turkey."

MAYBE SUSPENSE KILLED IT

Eleanor Holm Will Present Her Case To AAU Officials

Plenty Of Explosive Material Is In Prospect

By LEWIS T. NORDYKE

HOUSTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Plenty of explosive material for the A. A. U. convention was in prospect today as the Gulf Association prepared for the national meeting Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The convention will be the first major gathering of sportsmen since last summer's Olympic games in Berlin which added fuel to a fire started at the New York meeting last year.

Chances for the "bury-the-hatchet" proposal of President Avery Brundage of Chicago to get the no-appeared-since when Jack Rafferty, former first vice-president, declared there would be "an accounting."

Brundage, openly criticized from some quarters in connection with the American Olympic team management, including the Eleanor Jarrett and Jesse Owens cases, had asked the meeting to be peaceful in the interest of the union.

"I am for any amicable settlement of our athletic problems which can be consummated with honor and without the sting of public reproach," said Rafferty, who, as president of the Gulf Association, turned a move to transfer the convention to Chicago. "However, I do believe that the American public is entitled to full and complete answers to many questions which have been raised because of the alleged Olympic debacle."

"I do not propose to permit the A. A. U. as an organization to carry the stigma of guilty pride and I will insist that the position of our organization in the Olympic scheme of affairs be clarified by those in position to do so."

Reliable reports said Miss Jarrett, American swimmer suspended because of asserted infractions of rules en route to Berlin, would present her case at the convention.

Delegates will begin arriving tomorrow. Features on the program will be a dinner Friday noon, when Alan Gould, Associate Egress sports editor, will be the principal speaker; the chamber of commerce dinner Friday evening, a sports parade at noon Saturday, a barbecue Saturday evening, and American Legion day Sunday.

Gov. James V. Alfred will proclaim the week as "sports week" in Texas.

By ALAN GOULD

Students at Duke university who have termed Capt. Clarence McKay (Ace) Parker of their football team "Duke's ideal undergraduate" will tell you that "it's only the beginning for Parker."

They will tell you that you've only heard of him as one of the greatest football players in Southern gridiron history (incidentally, they think he's the best in American football history) but that there will be years to come when you'll hear of him as one of the greatest of major league baseball players.

They will tell you that "their Duke is a money athlete—one who can run 98 yards for a touchdown when the score is tied—who can come up in the last of ninth with one on, two out, his team one run behind, take two and hit one out of the park for the ball game."

They will tell you that because they've seen him for years. They've seen him roam the gridiron, they've seen him on the basketball floor, they've seen him in the ball park, on the golf links, on the tennis court, at the swimming pool, on the club path.

They will tell you that he's one of the greatest all-around athletes in this country's history. Even the coaches of the various sports at Duke will tell you he could make letters in football, basketball, and baseball (he did that last year) and in track, golf, tennis and swimming, if time allowed his participation.

At Woodrow Wilson high in Portsmouth, Va., he did make letters in football, basketball, baseball, track and golf.

Five-Coombes Agrees

But, getting back to this "only the beginning" stuff: He has been trailed by big league scouts since he came to Duke. He is said to be able to go into any big league camp and field the outfield with any of them. All he needs is a little brushing up on his hitting. He has a hard time hitting that curve ball—don't they all?

Take it from Jack Coombs, the former "iron man" of Connie Mack's great teams from 1906-14, who says: "He is a great competitor. He has the fielding ability. He takes a nice cut at the ball. He may become in major league baseball as great as he has been in college football. He has the something it takes."

As for Parker himself, this modest, rugged gentleman and scholar, has two great ambitions: He wants to be an all-American football player and he wants to be a major league baseball player.

As with all great men, his goal is set high. Those who have seen him on the Duke gridiron this fall say he should reach the first of his goals. His other is a matter of time but all his followers will tell you that he is "in." That this boy can do anything he sets out to do in athletics.

He has convinced everyone who knows him at Duke that athletes, like poets, are born, not made.

PERRY ADMITS HE'S TURNED PROFESSIONAL

BEVERLY HILLS TENNIS CLUB REORGANIZED BY CHAMPION

By ROBERT MYERS

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 1 (AP)—Mr. Frederick J. Perry, the tennis star, has quit denying he would turn professional since he turned professional, leaned back in easy fashion today and enumerated three reasons why he deserted his native England to live in southern California.

In order, and with emphasis on the first, he listed:

1. His wife, the beautiful Helen Winton, who was Miss Helen Ruffis of Beaumont, Tex., before she became a motion picture celebrity.

2. A newly bought house and garden in Beverly Hills.

3. Ownership, partnership and promoter ship in the reorganized Beverly Hills Tennis club.

The sports world knows Perry and his tennis and his marriage to the lovely Miss Winton, so it is the venture into the tennis club, a $100,000 proposition with a huge swimming pool and many other accommodations, that brings on this disclosure.

Perry announced the new twist in his professional affairs at a luncheon, a private function attended by many notables of the screen, including two of the original four Marx brothers, Miss Barbara Stanwyck, Miss Vinpyn and others.

Groucho Marx, one of the new club's backers, acted as toastmaster, and made a formal motion that his brother, Harpo, seated five seats away, be denied membership.

His motion was lost.

Again, when Perry explained the club would be enlarged, the tennis courts would be illuminated and the swimming pool "lit," Groucho announced the members would be likewise.

And when Perry advised that his partner, Milton Holmes, was trying to buy an adjoining lot for the club from a deceased property owner, Groucho interjected:

"Please leave me out of this."

All in all the luncheon was quite an affair, and perhaps the only open air picnic ever staged on a tennis court at which a film star, Barbara Stanwyck, who averages about $1,500 a week, acted as waitress, and the head man, Fred Perry, who might have been knighted or duked if he hadn't turned professional, came out in the role of head-waiter-host-promoter of the Beverly Hills Tennis club.

League To Name Grid Game Date

CHILDRESS, Dec. 1 (AP)—A decision was awaited today from the Texas Interscholastic League on the date for the Amarillo-Childress bi-district football game here this week-end.

The dispute was referred to the league when school officials were unable to agree. Amarillo wanted the game set Saturday and Childress held out for Friday.

The time and place for other bi-district contests had been determined except whether the Fort Arthur-Jeff Davis game at Houston would be Friday afternoon or night, Hillsboro and Tivy High of Kerrville will play at San Antonio Friday night.

Other games will be in the afternoon as follows:

Ahrens at El Paso, Saturday; McKinney at Gainesville, Friday; North Dallas at North Side, Fort Worth, Saturday; Lufkin at Longview, Friday; and Edinburg at Corpus Christi, Friday.

NATION STILL HAS 6 UNBEATEN GRID TEAMS

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—Six of the nation's eight undefeated and untied college football teams had their records all bound up for the season today as only one played last week.

Arkansas State Teachers wound up its triumphant campaign with a 13-0 victory over Hendrix Thanksgiving Day for its eighth consecutive victory. Western Reserve, slated to play its Cleveland rival, Case, the same afternoon, ran into a heavy snow and the game was postponed to next Saturday. Santa Clara is the only other which still has a game to play, meeting Texas Christian December 12.

The undefeated and untied teams are: Tennessee Wesleyan, Western Reserve, Arkansas State Teachers, St. Benedict (Kas.), Middlebury, Carroll (Wis.), Santa Clara and Kirksville (Mo.) Teachers.

TIE IN MUD

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 1 (AP)—Daniel Baker and St. Mary's University battled to a 6-6 deadlock in the mud here last night.

St. Mary's scored late in the third period on a 53-yard run by Doug Locke and Daniel Baker knotted the count a few minutes later when Alvin Stanford took the kickoff and raced 89 yards for a tally.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIEZE

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—Max Baer has begun training on the coast for his London bout with Walter Neusel . . . he still talks great fight . . . Cleveland is angling for Rolie Lieke, the Browns' pitcher, to sign with them . . . Casey Stengel is busy at Montreal trying to line up a job in the International League.

BOZEMAN TAKING OVER HOPPE'S WONDER ROLE

CHICAGO, Dec. 1 (AP)—Youthful Jay Bozeman of Detroit, whose rapid style of play is as colorful as his red hair, is taking over capably the "boy wonder" role which the great Willie Hoppe, New York, held so long in billiard's "big time."

Bozeman, at 29, is easily the youngest player in the current world's championship three cushion tournament—but that's not a new experience for the Detroit expert. In 1932 he entered his first world championship tourney and surprised the veterans by winning five games out of 11 and clicking off a high run of 11.

Yesterday he lost, 50 to 41, to Kinrey Matsuyama of Japan in 44 innings. Welker Cochran of San Francisco defeated Earl Lookabaugh of Chicago, 50 to 39. Tiff Denton, Kansas City, upset Johnny Layton, Sedalia, Mo., 50 to 28, in 61 innings, and Hoppe, defending champion, bested Owen Hall of Chicago 50 to 37, in 45 innings.

NAVY TO BOWL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1 (AP)—Bill Henry, sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, said today there is a possibility that an eastern team with Navy a likely nominee, may be chosen to meet Washington in the bowl football game on New Year's Day. Washington's interest in Navy dates back to a Rose Bowl engagement a decade ago when the Huskies and Middles played a thrilling 14 to 14 tie," he wrote.

Coach Homer Norton of the Texas Aggies is said to employ more attack formations than any other grid mentor.

Louisiana State sends a band of 207 pieces to accompany its grid team at games away from home.

GHOSTS? POOH! SAYS TOMBSTONE MAN

BOLIVAR, Mo., (AP)—Ghosts don't worry Frank Karpek, Ozark stonemason, who is using tombstones in the construction of his new farm home.

Karpek and his three sons moulded concrete bricks for the houses and fashioned gravestones from an abandoned cemetery into ornamental arches above the windows and doors.

The few remaining markers at the neglected graves will be laid as flagstones around the house. Karpek plans to clear the cemetery of weeping willow trees and sow the land in clover.

GRAND CHAMP SOUGHT

CHICAGO, Dec. 1 (AP)—A champion of champions stood bowing today somewhere on the $5,000,000 "farm" unloaded in Chicago for the thirty-seventh International Livestock exposition. An international group of judges, headed by Walter Biggar of Dalbeattie, Scotland, will seek him out to bestow the show's highest award—that of grand champion steer.

SEASONAL OUTLOOK

FREMONT, O. (AP)—Sandusky county's commissioners buttoned up their overcoats to sit through a meeting in the new $300,000 courthouse. Inability to find an experienced fireman to operate the modern type boiler left the structure without heat.

Amid a chattering of teeth the commissioners approved the purchase of electric fans.

PREMATURE. Due to excess reserves there is talk current that the Federal Reserve will again jack up requirements. According to one in the know the gossip is premature. It will not be announced this month.

EFFECTED. International money dealers say that for the first time in a good many years stock market movements cause the price fluctuations of dollar value.

Because of the foreign interest in our markets money dealers say that the United States is subject to Old World disturbances. In 1929 American securities prices collapsed because of the British selling brought about by the Hattie scandal.
