TEACHERS BILL IS PASSED BY TEXAS HOUSE

PARTICIPATION WOULD BE OPTIONAL WITH TEACHERS

AUSTIN, April 15 (AP)—The House overwhelmingly passed a Senate bill today to set up a teachers' retirement fund with the state matching contributions of teachers.

The plan would become effective this fall with educators contributing 5 per cent of their salaries up to $3,600 a year.

The House adopted an amendment providing that participation would be optional with teachers already in the profession but mandatory on all entering the service hereafter.

A bill appropriating $389,347.50 for support of 1937 summer schools at the various state colleges became law when Gov. James V. Allred filed it without his signature.

The Senate suspended its rules to permit introduction of a bill which would extend the life of the centennial commission of control for two years.

Among bills signed by the governor was one by Rep. Augustine Celaya of Brownsville prohibiting selling in ship channels.

Rep. W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi obtained the required four-fifths consent to introduce a bill permitting movement of all oil in storage in fields prior to March 1 on payment of stipulated fees ranging from 10 to 37 cents per barrel.

Another bill offered in the House would provide a uniform closed season of February, March and April on fishing in Medina lake near San Antonio.

Senate bills approved by the House included one making a $75,000 emergency appropriation to the prison system for supplies and another allowing Bexar county grand jury bailiffs traveling expenses of $25 a month each.

The Railroad Commission of Texas has turned to Pampa to pick its supervising chemical engineer for the state.

Today, appointment of Walter F. G. Stein was announced to that post. Mr. Stein resigned as a chemist for the Magnolia Petroleum company to accept the state position. Mr. and Mrs. Stein will remain here for perhaps two months when they plan to move to Austin.

Mr. Stein, who returned yesterday from a trip to Dallas, Austin and San Antonio, said this morning that he would not resign as scoutmaster of Boy Scout troop 14, sponsored by the Sam Houston school, "until he leaves for good."

VIOLATION OF LAW TO USE PENNIES IN FUSES

It is not only dangerous but a violation of the law to place pennies behind fuses and bridges.

Chief Ben White has found several business houses and residences where use of pennies behind fuses are in use.

Several warnings have been issued and further complaints will be cause for prosecution, Chief Ben White said this morning.

"There is great danger of fire through use of pennies," Chief White said.

Summertime invaded the Panhandle today, and mercury in the official government gauge at 2 o'clock this afternoon stood at 88 degrees.

A bright sun shone all day. Last night's lowest temperature was 53 degrees.

and continued warm is the forecast for tonight and Friday.

Human Hibernator Rises From Bed

WATERTOWN Wis., April 15 (AP)—The world and its bustling activity this winter were just one long yawn as far as Watertown's human hibernator was concerned.

President Roosevelt's inauguration, an epidemic of sit-down strikes, unprecedented floods, an historic controversy over the Supreme Court and the abdication of King Edward VIII were a few of the happenings since Arthur E. (Turkey) Gehrke pulled up the blankets for his annual winter's sleep.

"How did life in the world look to you last winter from your bed, Turkey?" he was asked today as he sat in his tavern visiting with friends.

"Right now," yawned Gehrke, "the important thing to me is how the Chicago Cubs are going to do this year."

"Sit down strikes?" "Well, I hope those cubs don't sit down on the job by winning the national league pennant."

The 240-pound tavern keeper has spent each winter in bed for some 25 years because cold weather brings a "misery" in his stomach.

COURT BILL SUBSTITUTE URGED

INCOME TAXES OF OFFICIALS TO BE PROBED

VIOLENCE IN KENTUCKY INVESTIGATED BY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Senate civil liberties investigators said today they had been investigating income tax records of some officials of Harlan County, Ky., in connection with the inquiry into "anti-union terrorism" in the Kentucky coal fields.

The agents refused to disclose which officers were under investigation.

Chairman LaFollette (Pro. Wis.) called on High Sheriff Theodore Middleton and County Judge Morris Saylor for their account of violence which he said had suppressed union organizations in the Harlan area for 15 years.

Middleton was described in testimony by Lawrence Dwyer, elderly United Mine Workers organizer, as "the worst article we ever had in Harlan county."

Dwyer accused the sheriff of giving deputies commissions to "gunmen" paid by the local mine operators, and charged that Ben Unthank—now a fugitive—was the chief of Middleton's "road killers."

Unthank was one of a band, Dwyer testified, which ambushed him on a deserted mountain road and wounded two passengers in his car.

Senate investigators said they were increasingly eager to locate Unthank, identified by several witnesses as chief deputy for the Harlan County Coal Operators' Association.

Unthank was the instigator of a plot to "blow up" Dwyer's residence, and said he paid them from $30 to $100 each for the job in November, 1933.

The 72-year-old organizer said he was not seriously injured by the explosion, although he lost the wall of his room in the Parrott hotel at Pineville, Ky.

AMERICANS SENTENCED TO JAIL IN FRANCE

PERPIGNAN, France, April 15 (AP)—Six Americans were sentenced to one month in prison today on charges of attempting to enter Spain to volunteer in the government army.

They were arrested near Thuir April 9, the third group to have been arrested within a week.

The Americans, who told police they sailed from New York March 23 aboard the liner Manhattan, identified themselves as: Albert Levin, 22, student, New York; Morris Simon Fishman, 34, grocer, Los Angeles; Everett Willoughby, 26, metalworker, Marion, O.; Albert Byrnes Sanford, 29, mechanic, Rochester, N. Y.; Raymond Elvin Tiger, 24, salesman, Alhambra, Calif.; Herbert Hart Hutter, 27, writer, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Jap Steals Purse Of Helen Keller

TOKYO, April 15 (AP)—A pick-pocket today stole the purse of Helen Keller, celebrated blind and deaf educator, shortly after she had stepped ashore at Yokohama for a Japanese lecture tour.

All Japan were aroused at the incident, occurring, as it did, on Miss Keller's first visit to the Orient. A widespread search for the culprit was under way.

The purse contained 200 yen (about $60). Miss Keller herself did not report the theft and police learned of it only by chance.

Japan gave Miss Keller a noisy and colorful welcome. She is to lecture and introduce the new "talking book" to Japan's 200,000 blind persons.

She seemed especially touched by thousands of Japanese children who cheered and waved American flags. A companion described the scene for her.

Miss Keller will be among Emperor Hirohito's guests tomorrow at the annual imperial cherry blossom garden party. She planned also to go to Korea, Manchoukuo and China.

REBELS AGAIN FAIL TO BREAK LOYALIST LINES

MADRID, April 15 (AP)—Heavy artillery fire on the University City front in Madrid abruptly subsided today after insurgent troops failed to break steadily encircling government lines.

The government declared that 3,000 insurgents in the suburban stronghold had been cut off completely from supplies of food and ammunition.

Asturian dynamite throwers, government artillery and machine guns kept up a steady fire during the night, sweeping the Manzanares river bridge, connecting link with insurgents in Casa de Campo, a park section on the western side of the capital.

Heavy shelling of the capital yesterday by insurgents sent at least a dozen persons to hospitals.

Febus, official Spanish news agency, said insurgents failed in an attempt to recapture the Hermitage of Santa Quiteria on the Aragon front, dominating the Huesca and Zaragoza highways.

Heavy storms were said to have halted fighting in the Basque country in northern Spain, where insurgents are trying to capture the port city of Bilbao.

Febus said government troops, however, had succeeded in cleaning up the last of insurgent entrenchments in the Bilbao sector at Mount Sabaitin.

CHARGE WOMAN WITH LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION

ST. LOUIS, April 15 (AP)—The National Retail Credit Association said today 12,926 retail stores in 40 cities reported increases in March, as compared with March, 1936, averaging 6.2 per cent in collections, 12.3 per cent in credit sales and 13.4 per cent in total sales.

Thirty-four cities reported increases in collections, two reported no change and four had decreases, according to the monthly analysis.

The greatest increase was 32.5 per cent at Pampa, Texas, the greatest decrease 5 per cent at Reading, Pa.

Burl Wagnon and Lee Kratz, claimed by officers to be members of the notorious Pete Traxler outfit, will go to trial jointly at Wheeler May 10 for their alleged participation in the Christian Babitzke farm home robbery near Lipscomb on the evening of Jan. 12, 1936.

Traxler and another member of the gang already have been sentenced for the robbery. Traxler pleaded guilty of robbery with firearms last November and was sentenced to life in the state penitentiary at Huntsville. Last week Johnny Hughes, another member of the band, was convicted by a jury and given a 20-year term in the pen. Both sentences were pronounced by District Judge W. R. Ewing, of Pampa.

Traxler and Hughes were tried in Lipscomb county, but Judge Ewing granted Kratz and Wagnon a change of venue to Wheeler county. Officers say they have confessions from Kratz and Wagnon. Traxler took the stand at the trial of Hughes last week and again told the story of the Babitzke robbery. He told of the four men going to the farm home of the Babitzkes and forcing members of the family to reveal the hiding place of $2,600, their life savings. Ben Babitzke, 18-year-old son of the family, was shot by one of the bandits during the hold-up.

Kratz and Wagnon are in the Gray county jail here, awaiting trial. Kratz has been confined here since arrest of the four last fall. Wagnon has been in jail at Amarillo but was brought to Pampa this week.

Deputy Sheriff George Inman caught up with another school bus stop law violator on the road between Pampa and Kingsmill yesterday afternoon.

L. S. Hobbs was fined $32.50 for failing to stop for a standing bus. He pleaded guilty of the complaint filed in county court.

Bertha Roberts, who operates under a beer and wine permit at 1503 Roberts-st., was charged in county court with possession of distilled liquor. The complaint was signed by C. S. Carter, state agent.

NEW PUMP IS INSTALLED IN WATER WELL

A new 750-gallon-a-minute pump has been installed in city water well No. 3 and treating of the pay sand is now under way. City Manager C. L. Stine announced this morning.

When completed, the three wells will have a pumping capacity of approximately 3,000,000 gallons per day. Even with one well down, the other two would be able to furnish Pampa with water. Mr. Stine said.

Residents of the city near the water wells have been listening to the reports of rising water tables for nearly a week. City officials assure them that riveting on the new 88,000 barrel storage tank will be completed this week.

NO BUSINESS BOOM IS COL. AYRES' OPINION

CLEVELAND, April 15 (AP)—There isn't any business boom, Col. Leonard P. Ayres said today.

"I don't see any signs of recovery from the depression," the Cleveland statistician and economist observed, charting general business at 15 per cent or more below normal.

"A good deal of bad economics is being talked these days about emergency measures to prevent a business boom, extended controls to restrain bank credit expansion and increased federal powers to restrain commodity advances," he said.

"These discussions constitute a kind of locking of the stable door before the family horse has even been acquired."

"The present discussions are baneful because they divert our attention and our effort away from the three economic problems which really are of pressing urgency. These are the reduction of unemployment, the balancing of the federal budget, and the restoration of harmony in labor relations."

NEVADA SOLON ASKS ONLY TWO NEW MEMBERS

MCCARRAN CALLED KEY MAN ON SENATE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Senator McCarran (D., Nev.) introduced in the Senate today a substitute for the Roosevelt court bill. It would provide for an unconditional increase of two members in the size of the Supreme Court.

The Nevada Senator has long been regarded as one of the "key" members of the Senate judiciary committee because he has remained non-committal on the President's proposal to enlarge the court by six members if those now over 70 years do not retire.

In offering his substitute, in the form of an amendment to the Roosevelt bill, McCarran refused to say whether he would support the measure if his amendment were rejected.

He did tell reporters, however, that he did not favor any "forced retirement" from the court.

"The mental faculties of many judges are keen and acute at 75 and 80," McCarran added. "I don't favor any constitutional amendment at this time."

The Nevada's proposal was comparatively close to what has long been regarded as the most likely compromise of the President's bill—an increase of two instead of six.

But the amendment would go further and eliminate the age and retirement provisions of the Roosevelt bill under which the increase in the court would be conditional upon failure of justices over 70 years of age to retire.

McCarran said he "hoped" the administration would be sympathetic to his proposal, but administration spokesmen made it clear that the President was campaigning for his own bill with as much determination as before the Wagner act decisions.

BILL PERMITTING OIL MOVEMENT INTRODUCED

AUSTIN, April 15 (AP)—A bill permitting movement of all oil and products in storage in the various Texas fields prior to March 1 was introduced today by Rep. W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi.

That in storage before May 1, 1935, could be transported on payment of a fee of 10 cents a barrel. The state's charge for movement of that placed in storage after May 1, 1935, would vary according to the gravity of the oil or the character of the products.

Fees would be as follows: Oil of less than 37 gravity, 28 cents per barrel; 37 to 40, 30 cents; above 40 gravity, 31 cents; reduced crude, 22 cents; fuel oil, 19 cents; refined products, 37 cents. The charge would be in addition to the production tax.

The bill's emergency clause stated that "a large amount of oil and products is in storage in the various fields on which the railroad commission has refused to grant tenders and said oil and products are rapidly evaporating and degrading in gravity, resulting in undue waste, and the Texas conservation laws contemplate movement of oil and products into commerce without undue waste."

CHICAGO, April 15 (AP)—John Anthony Buzas, 18-year-old garage mechanic, was seized by federal agents today and charged with sending an extortion letter to Ginger Rogers demanding $500 under threats of death to the Hollywood actress "if anyone else gets in the way."

Agents said Buzas enclosed a picture of himself and wrote on the envelope a return address only a few doors away from his home on the far south side.

FORT WORTH, April 15 (AP)—Conference between striking union employees and the Lone Star Gas company and officials of the company was resumed today at the gas firm's office. Meanwhile strikers continued to blockade the downtown office and warehouse of the company, during the strike's fourth day.

The conference started Wednesday afternoon in the office of Edwin A. Elliott, regional director of the National Labor Relations Board. Elliott expects an amicable adjustment of the strike today.

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.
"To be brave for the children's sake." How many mothers have whispered this to themselves since time began?
No home goes on eternally without trouble. Sometimes it comes with a crash, again it is the slow deadly pull against adversity of many kinds.
Whatever form it takes, death, sickness, money-worries or someone's trying disposition, the mother tries not to let it affect her children too vitally.
But what a terrible strain it is to smile and keep going, to act as if everything was smooth and lovely with that load on her heart!
It is easier to light an enemy with arms than to wage war against this kind of thing that fights in the dark, and against which there is no defense. The real soldier, man or woman, is the one who endures and tries to keep normal at the same time. There are more heroes among mothers than ever graced a stage.

Father's Burden Lighter.
I say "mothers," rather than fathers, not because men escape tragedy but because they can get out, away from the family. Women must stay, and put on an act before the children, whose happiness they try to keep at a level.
The children, of course, may know about the worry. In many cases, they should, unless circumstances make the knowledge inadvisable. This is another story, and not the point today. It is rather that most children are miserable if they think their mothers are grieving or worrying. Actual trouble or sorrow, they find less unbearable than their mama's tears, or red eyes, or general expression of distress.
Is it any wonder, then, that the mother of a family tries with all that is in her to smile and carry on?

Perhaps, if she tries the "comparison" idea, she may find strength to look and feel happier.
Woes Can Worsen.
"I thought one time that the end of everything had come when we lost the house, my husband had no work and I was ill," said a woman whom tragedy had followed through will so better. We lost Joey, I know now that all those other things had not mattered so terribly.
I believe that when the burden gets too heavy, a survey of what might have been or what other people are going through will so often make our own lot seem happier. Perhaps, then, we can smile for the children, and be a bit gay. Yes, not all unhappiness is hopeless. Much of it is not really tragedy at all. We must try to govern our own thoughts and hearts, and then not only the children will benefit, but ourselves as well.

Merten Club Has Program in Home Of Mrs. Bridges

Home sanitation was the subject for Merten Home Demonstration club when it met yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. O. Bridges. Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, county agent, was in charge.

Garbage carries germs, and so should be burned, she said. She suggested a barrel with screen top to burn dry garbage, and a covered pail to hold kitchen garbage.
Different ways of piping water into a house were explained after each member estimated the number of gallons she used daily in response to roll call. Drainage from a sink should not be run onto the ground surface, Mrs. Kelley said, but may be used for sub-irrigation.
Another topic she discussed was storage space, stressing that every article in the home needs to be kept where it is easily accessible, easily cleaned, and as free as possible from dust.

Mrs. Alva Phillips conducted a business session, when Mrs. Bridges gave the council report and Mrs. W. O. Kelly reported on a recent school for recreation leaders. A reading by Mrs. John Browning was an entertainment feature. A salad course in pink and green was served to 14 members.

MODERN MENUS

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox
The first warmer days often spoil the appetite. Get it started again by thinking good food thoughts. Try something that "thinks" grand—say charcoal broiled live lobster with melted butter and French fried potatoes, or perhaps thick steak with chive butter and potato puffs.

If those delicious temptations don't jar the appetite out of its temporary slumber, start brooding over the promise of grilled young chicken with sweet potatoes southern style and fresh asparagus with creamed mushrooms, or something plainer such as 2-inch thick English kidney lamb chops with hashed brown potatoes and fresh string beans.
Need some inspired dessert hints? Here are a few sure-fire hits with the disinterested male appetite—deep dish apple pie with hard sauce, fruit compote of many colors, and many fruits for the light dessert fancier, fresh strawberry shortcake, of course, or a seasonal deep dish rhubarb and strawberry pie with hard sauce smiled at by a few drops of cognac. Thinking about all the good things there might be in this wide world to banish monotony from the dinner table is a wholesome and exciting business. Indulge yourself—it brings results.

Here's a pleasant lazy appetite alarm clock:

HELP 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES
To Flush out Acids and Other Poisonous Waste
Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 Miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with starting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the beginning of aching backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 Miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

HEPBURN HIT AS DICTATOR BY CANADIANS

SCHISM IS PRODUCED IN PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)
The strike of General Motors workers at Oshawa, Ont., virtually was pushed into the background today by the schism it created in the provincial government.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn was assailed as a dictator in a resolution adopted by United Automobile Workers union members.

The resolution urged dominion intervention to settle the strike involving 3,700 workers. Alex Hall, mayor of Oshawa, demanded sympathy strikes by United States auto workers.

While the domestic strike front was relatively quiet, several provinces across the border were plagued by labor disputes. Five thousand Montreal garment workers were under orders to strike today.

Fifteen union officers and sympathizers arrested after police and deputies evicted 120 sit-down strikers at the Yale & Towne Mfg. Co. plant at Detroit were released under bond. Most of the strikers against whom police used tear gas were women.

An agreement on collective bargaining, seniority and procedure for considering grievances was signed last night by the Chrysler Motor Corporation and U. A. W. A. officials.

The Viscose Corp., largest producer of rayon in the nation, signed an agreement recognizing the Textile Workers organizing committee as sole collective bargaining agency for employees and providing for a wage increase. The pact, affecting 20,000 employees, does not provide for a closed shop.

A bus driver and passenger were injured by missiles thrown through a bus windshield at Muncie, Ind., in a new outbreak of violence in the bus drivers strike.

At Milwaukee 115 employees of the Lehr-Lange, Inc., wholesale drug company, celebrated achievement of their objective in a sit-down strike yesterday—retirement of President Fred E. Jahr from active management. The strikers contended the hired young men at low salaries and fired them after they had advanced to better jobs. Jahr denied the charge.

PLANE TAKES STEER AND COLT AND RACES STORK TO DEAD HEAT

LOS ANGELES, April 15 (AP)—What's the airplane coming to next?

It freighted a Texas steer, transported a wild Arizona colt and raced Doc Stork to a dead heat here yesterday.

The steer, in 50 slices, was shipped by skyliner from Publisher Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth to Los Angeles friends after it won a prize at the Southwestern Exposition.

The colt, three-weeks old, rode intact from Fredonia, Arizona, to his Hollywood destination after he was captured by two film men trapping wild horses.

Doc Stork was bound for a hospital here. So was Joe Martin, airlines pilot. He arrived from Fort Worth at the very minute a daughter was born to his wife.

MUSICIAN FOUND DEAD

COMANCHE, April 15 (AP)—Joe Barter, 32-year old musician, was found dead in a house car here this morning. Justice of the Peace George C. Wetzel said death was due to natural causes.

Letter indicated Barter was survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ralph H. Gooding of Rosemead, Calif., and Mrs. Nora Sargent of Jacksonville, Ill.

WOULD CHANGE NAME

DALLAS, April 15 (AP)—Hugh Allen Frankenstein, 17, wants to change his name to Hugh Allen Frank. In a petition signed in 67th district court here, Frankenstein said one reason for asking the change was "unfavorable publicity" as the result of a movie by that name. Another reason was for brevity, the petitioner stated.

Will Play in Concert Here Tuesday

He represented New Mexico at the Century of Progress in Chicago, and played before the national Federation of Music convention in Philadelphia as an award, and was the only student musician on the entire program to receive an encore. An exact replica with authentic costumes made in Taos pueblo will be given by Miss Margaret Padilla.

WOMEN INTERESTED IN BEAUTY, SOCIAL EASE, SAYS COLUMNIST

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—The American Society of Newspaper Editors heard today that beauty, social ease and style have superseded children, church and kitchen in women's interests.

Alice Hughes, New York American columnist, said in an address prepared for the editors' fifteenth annual convention that the new trinity constitutes glamor.

"Just as men seek adventure, so women covet glamor," she said. "It is not merely a synonym for romance. It is a romance with a big dose of wish fulfillment."

"Now mind you, I am not denying there is interest in the scientific diapering of babies and the proper way of preparing meat and potatoes. But I am saying these are the idiom of yesterday."

The annual address of their president, Marvin H. Cressag of the Milwaukee Journal, was first on the editors' program. Leading newspapers from all over the country were represented.

President Roosevelt invited the editors to the White House tonight for an informal, off-the-record interview. During the three-day convention they will hear from Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board, chairman Kennedy of the Maritime Commission, and prominent editors and correspondents.

Maverick Would Declare War on Cocktail Party

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Rep. Maverick (D., Texas), refreshed from early victories in his campaign to change the name of hors d'oeuvres, extended maneuvers today to include the cocktail party.

"Let's not just change its name," he snorted, "let's abolish it."

Brandishing a batch of letters supporting his verbal thrusts at the tricky nomenclature of hors d'oeuvres, the burly Texan said the authors charged him with not going far enough.

"Almost to a man," he added, "they command that we declare war on these afternoon gatherings over anchovy and alcohol—and they aren't prohibitionists either."

He listed his objections to the cocktail get-together: They give a timid talker too much false courage. They give a large talker too big an opportunity.

"They give the average man a cross between an ear ache and a stomach ache."

"Good conversation," he said, "can't be manufactured by soaking the tongue in a concoction with a name like 'horse's laugh' or 'red-headed Archib'."

His remedy for curing the hors d'oeuvres situation was to call them dingo dogs, which he said the average man could pronounce without a French lesson.

He doesn't know what he can substitute for the cocktail party—but he's invited to one this afternoon and may get an idea.

KING HAS JOB

CHELSEA, Wash., April 15 (AP)—The man who was "king for a day" among the nation's aged pension seekers has found a job as an orchard worker. C. C. Fleming, 63, whose facial furrows were erased by $200 in the first so-called "Townsend spending test," said today he was glad to have a job again after lean months of unemployment. The pay of less than 50 cents an hour, however, is "small fry" beside the $50 a week in his four-week spending spree.

LAWMAKER INVOKES LAW

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—When patrolmen sought to arrest a man driving with out-of-date license plates, he referred them to article

6, section 8 of the state constitution and drove on. He was State Representative Wayne N. Mason, who knew that members of the legislature were immune to arrest for mis-

TROOPS PATROL STREETS

MEXICO CITY, April 15 (AP)—Federal troops patrolled the streets of Orizaba, Vera Cruz state today as fears of new violence between members of Mexico's two dominant labor unions were expressed. Three dead and five wounded were added to the mounting toll from their struggle for control after a running battle yesterday.

Brickell Uses 16 Players And Ponca City Wins 11-3

Deciding to find out how his reserve material looked before cutting the squad, Manager Fred Brickell of Pampa's new baseball team used nearly his full list of available players yesterday afternoon against Ponca City. The result was disastrous, the Angels copping an 11 to 3 decision.

This afternoon manager Brickell planned to cut loose several prospects who have been trying to make the team and concentrate on the players he intends to keep. His additional strength is expected to arrive before the end of the week or early next week in time to get in shape for the invasion of the Home-stand Grays, negro team from Pennsylvania, which will play the Pampa nine tomorrow and Saturday nights, weather permitting.

Should team officials think the weather too cold for night play, the games will be staged in the afternoons.

Carl Stewart showed old time form during the first three innings of yesterday's game but was nipped for a pair of runs and four bingles in the fourth. Braly and Prince, succeeding mound artists, were banged freely. Manager Brickell used Keyser and Peltner in his outfield position and sent Howard to second and Free to first after the fourth inning.

A young giant named Boyd threw curves and hard ones from an overhand slant to hold the Pampans to nine bingles while his teammates banged out 17 base hits including four doubles.

Weigandt and Callahan were the Angel powerhouses at the plate with three bingles each. McLarry, Beason and Lisle collected two each to lead the Pampa sluggers.

9 Thoroughbreds To Race in Texas Derby Saturday

ARLINGTON DOWNS, April 15. (AP)—Nine, maybe ten, fleet thoroughbreds will parade postward here Saturday for the fifth running of the $15,000 Texas derby before what track officials predict will be the largest racing throng in the state's history.

Three Kentucky derby candidates, the Milky Way farm's great Reaping Reward and Military and the Three D's stock farm's Heffly, were included in a list of probable starters today.

Top impost of 123 pounds was assigned Reaping Reward, which worked nine furlongs under restraint at 1:35 in an early morning workout. Clockers shook dazed heads, however, when Heffly, the pride of Texas, whirled the same route in 1:51, doing an amazing workout mile in 1:38 2/5.

Military, a superb mudder, may not start if the track is dry and hard, Trainer Bob McGarvey said.

Robert L. the Bedford Stock farm's surprise winner in the Texas derby trial last week; Dead Calm, Mrs. C. Gregory's fleet colt; Palma, Mrs. T. Marshall's threat; W. C. Stroube's Sun Pilot; Mrs. V. Wyse's Gallant Eagle and Eastport were other starters.

Tryanbury, the J. T. Withers 111 filly, was listed as a doubtful starter.

Previous winners of the derby are Bobbed, 1933; Flight, 1934; Roman Soldier, 1935 and The Fighter, 1936.

TENACITY

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—In 1885 a fall of slate broke Robert Bickerstaff's back. He recovered but walked with canes. In 1913 he broke both legs. Physicians shook their heads. A few years later he fell from a barn onto a cow's horns, ripping a deep gash in his torso. He died yesterday of natural causes, aged 89.

Soars to World Mark

Displaying the form that helped him set a new world pole vault mark of 14 feet, 7 3/4 inches, Bill Sefton, Trojan star, is pictured as, face contorted and muscles tense, he made one of his epic jumps at the Los Angeles track meet. Sefton's record vault helped the University of Southern California score a smashing victory, 79-52, over the California Bears, and bettered the 14 feet, 6 1/2-inch mark set in 1936 by Varoff of San Francisco.

BASS AND PERCH PROSPECTS IN TEXAS WATERS ARE ROSY

By DAVID A. CHEAVENS
DALLAS, April 15 (AP)—Fishing facts, fancies and fables to tantalize anglers impatiently awaiting opening day for bass and perch May 1.

Indications are that conditions are rosier on inland lakes and streams than in several years. Reason: Few winter floods, plenty of clear water, lakes and rivers higher than last year and furnishing more food which makes the fish fat and sassy. Anglers who have inadvertently (of course) hooked bass and crappie during March and April report plenty of weight and fight.

Firemen at Cleburne who extinguished a blaze at a dairy discovered they had also been fishing. Found a one-pound catfish, its whiskers jerking excitedly in the suction hose. Then the dairy owner explained that it wasn't a miracle at all. The fish had been a pet in the water tank for years.

Waco fishermen are having difficulty restraining themselves after a long three-month closed season imposed by a special rule. Lake Waco and streams above and below is coming to be recognized as one of the state's best crappie spots. Some of them run as high as two and three pounds. That sounds like Caddo, where East Texas fishermen also are pawing the earth after their first closed season in years. Of course everybody knows how big they get in Caddo.

Snake squirmings: James H. Sheehy, N.Y.A. man at Beaumont, no longer believes that a snake can't strike under water. He kicked loose from a four-foot moccasins which wrapped itself around his bare ankle while he was wading in a lake near home. The reptile struck five times, puncturing his skin in nine spots. He suffered no serious ill effects after taking anti-venom serum. Moral: Don't step on snakes, in or out of the water. McFish Sparks told about a friend who was fly-casting last year and caught a small bass. He slipped the fish in his back pocket, tail flapping, and made another cast. About that time friends on shore heard him yell and he floundered out of the lake. A large moccasin had fastened itself to the fish in his pocket. Says he will string 'em hereafter.

Port Aransas Tarpon Rodeo will be held June 12. Jetty fishermen will have their day in a special contest, something new in sea fish rodeos where usually you have to hire a boat. That ought to draw lots of fishermen who are inclined to seasickness.

The Beaumont Enterprise's fishing columnist relays this from a Datsetta correspondent. Said correspondent set out his hook in the Trinity one afternoon and returned at 11 p. m., pulled up and thought he had snagged a log. His friend threw a light and cried that it was a bunch of snakes. They pulled some more and found that a large eel had taken the first bait. Then a 40-pound yellow cat had taken the eel. The eel slipped through the catfish's gills, hanging outside. The correspondent reported it was a mess of fish. Can anybody match it?

TOM HENDRICH RELEASED BY JUDGE LANDIS

CHICAGO, April 15 (AP)—A half dozen major league baseball clubs waved checkbooks today at Tom Hendrich, husky young outfielder whose 346 minor league batting average promised future greatness.

Hendrich was freed from the Milwaukee club of the American Association by Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis yesterday, in a ruling that carried an implied rebuke to the Cleveland Indians for attempting to "cover up" the player to prevent his advancement to major league surroundings under the draft rule.

At the head of the list on Hendrich's trail were the New York Giants whose manager, Bill Terry, was on record as saying he would offer $20,000 to sign the outfielder. The Cincinnati Reds were "interested but did not intend to go haywire on the matter."

Connie Mack has made an offer of an undisclosed sum to Hendrich, and Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, declared he was interested but cannily said his action would depend on how high Hendrich's terms were.

Commissioner Landis ordered that Hendrich, who has played with Milwaukee only in spring training games, withhold consideration of offers until Friday.

CUNNINGHAM WILL RUN AGAINST SAN ROMAN

LAWRENCE KANS., April 15 (AP)—The same gritty oval which first saw the budding of Glenn Cunningham into a runner of national fame again will feel the pounding of his spiked shoes again as the barrel-chested former University of Kansas athlete competes in a special mile race at the Kansas relays Saturday.

His competition this week may force him to lower that mark to win. He will run against another Kansas—Archie San Romani of Emporia State Teachers college—the youth who showed his heels to both Cunningham and Jack Lovelock, winner of the Olympic 1500-meter run, in the Princeton invitation last year.

TO DEFEND TITLE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15 (AP)—Champions of the world in the sport of oared rowing, University of Washington's Huskies began defense of part of their crew racing empire Saturday against their oldest rivals—University of California's Bears. The spring meeting between the two Pacific coast rivals has inaugurated the country's crew competition since 1903.

NEW YORK, April 15 (AP)—

The belting bellhop, Fred Apostoli, was on the trail of middleweight Fred Steele today.

Fresh from stopping slugging Solby Krieger of New York in five rounds at the Hippodrome last night, the San Francisco battler loomed large as a challenger for Steele in a title match outdoors this summer.

10,300 WATCH DALLAS BEAT COWTOWN 5-4

(By The Associated Press)
The fat was in the fire today for the eight clubs of the Texas League, newly-launched in their quest for the 1937 pennant.

Managers of the circuit studied the results of the four opening games yesterday (including two night contests) for light on what they could expect from their generally untried outfits. At first glance it appeared the league was prepared to furnish stiff competition for the fans than last year.

The winners yesterday were Dallas, Beaumont, Tulsa and San Antonio. They played before 23,644 patrons, of which the largest single group, 10,300, saw the Steers beat out the Fort Worth Cats in an explosive eighth inning.

The Cats' big Ed Greer looked like a winner as he held the Steers to three ineffectual hits in the first seven innings he was on the mound. Then Dallas bunched six of its nine hits and capitalized on an error for five runs, their total for the night, to squeeze by the Cats 5 to 4. Al Baker and Curt Fullerton pitched for Dallas, allowing eight hits.

At Houston 5,500 fans saw the Buffs drop their first opening game in 11 years. They lost to San Antonio, 6 to 3, four errors, a balk and poor baserunning contributing to their defeat. Stevenson allowed the Missions 12 hits, while Muncie and Liebhart were granting Houston 10.

Galveston's faithful were treated to a fine pitcher's battle in which Boots Poffenberger, young right-hander, triumphed over Eddie Cole, Beaumont defeating Galveston 3 to 0. Cole pitched hitless ball for seven innings. A hit and an error in the eighth and a homer in the ninth was his undoing. Poffenberger granted four hits. The crowd numbered 6,696.

The 1936 champions, Tulsa, rode home an 8 to 7 winner over Oklahoma City in an opening day that, despite perfect weather, brought out only 1,148 patrons. Manager Bruce Connatser of the Oilers singled in the ninth to cap a three-run rally to overhaul an Indian lead.

Apostoli Looms as Steele's Opponent

NEWARK, N. J., April 15 (AP)—Madison Square Garden's chances of stopping Jim Braddock from tangleing with Joe Louis in June hinged today on a federal court interpretation of a mixed-up contractual mess.

Hottest argument of the Garden's day in court yesterday, in which it sought to prevent the titleholder's bout with Louis in Chicago June 22, revolved around three contracts between it and Braddock, dating back to the fight in which Braddock won the crown from Maxie Baer two years ago.

Federal Judge Guy L. Fike reserved decision on the Garden's suit

Entrants In Track-Field Meet To Be Picked Today

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean planned to hold final track and field trials this afternoon to decide who will compete in the district two interscholastic league track and field meet Saturday.

With only one veteran back from last season, the Harvester thunders will be pressed hard to retain their title of district champions. Others will be new to the game and will be in the meet without previous competition.

Despite a fractured wrist, received when he fell on a hurdle, James Dewey will compete in the high jump and broad jump. He will be unable to compete in track events, however.

After a long workout yesterday, coaches would not make definite announcements regarding their participants.

"Wait until tomorrow afternoon," was their order.

3RD ROUND IN SOFTBALL WILL BE ON FRIDAY

After mild upsets in a few previous games, teams in the Pampa Softball association will swing into third round elimination play tomorrow evening. Six teams are scheduled to meet.

The entry of the Gunn-Hierman Tire Company and Perkins Pharmacy has been named the Sooners and from now on will be listed under that name.

Games scheduled for tomorrow are:

Skely vs. Champlin.
Coltux vs. Texas.
King vs. Unnamed.
Phillips vs. Humble.

MAX BAER TO BATTLE FARR ON THURSDAY

LONDON, April 15 (AP)—Some 13,000 Englishmen are expected to shell out around $100,000 tonight to see their new idol from America, Max Baer, perform 12 rounds or less against Tommy Farr, the "accidental" British champion.

The former world champion, whose invasion of Great Britain seems certain to carry him a long way on the comeback road, is virtually the whole attraction for this crowd.

Farr, little known before he recently won the British title from Ben Ford, is cast as the official "stooge" for the theatrical Max Baer's personality and "clowning" have made him a favorite with English fans although they haven't seen him fight.

Baer is a 3 to 1 favorite. He's due to get $22,500, tax exempt, for tomorrow's bout. A victory will win him another rich match with the German, Walter Neusel, next month.

There's no doubt today's fight will be the biggest in years from a financial standpoint. Three hundred spectators will be occupying seats that cost $50 each, a price unsurpassed in England since the Carpenter-Beckett fight shortly after the war.

Baer has been quite serious about his training here and will enter the ring at about 212 pounds. Farr, whose British empire title will not be at stake, will scale around 200.

Peter Sartor, recognized by the United States National Boxing Association as featherweight champion, will fight Harry Miller in a ten round preliminary.

The main bout is scheduled for 9:15 p. m. British time (4:15 p. m. EST).

Training Camp News

(By The Associated Press.)

BALTIMORE, April 15.—The Boston Red Sox tossed Jack Wilson, the Seattle strong man, against the Baltimore Orioles today, while waiting the return of Manager Joe Cronin. Cronin has been away a week with Mrs. Cronin, now recovering at the Washington home of her foster father, Clark Griffith, after loss of two children in child birth in Florida. He reported her condition was satisfactory.

WASHINGTON.—A final rubber game with the Senators faced the Boston Red Sox today before they hop trains for Boston and the inter-city series starting Saturday. Beaten yesterday in 10 innings, 2 to 1, the Bees sent Ira Hutchinson to the mound to pitch.

The Senators nominated Monte Weaver.

RICHMOND, Va.—Manager Burchleigh Grimes named three right handers and two southpaws as his Brooklyn Dodger pitching staff for the National League season. The right handers are Van Mungo, Fred Frankhouse, and Luke Hamlin, the latter a rookie, and the left handers, Max Butcher and Roy Henshaw.

NORFOLK, Va.—Lee Grissom, Cincinnati Reds hurler, opined today that Angus Britton, new bull pen catcher, "wouldn't be so tough."

Said Grissom, who claims he won't trim his 12-day crop of whiskers until his first National League win: "Britton might have been a fighter in the bush leagues but no bozo whose name is Angus will scare anyone in the majors."

KANSAS CITY.—The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Chicago White Sox wound up their exhibition series today. Red Lucas pitched for the Pirates and Sugar Cain for the Sox. Mike Kreevich, smallest man on the White Sox, apparently has won a regular job in centerfield. Larry Rosenbath's hitting slumped, and Kreevich has been slugging up to Jimmy Dyke's requirements.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—The Chicago Cubs faced the St. Louis Browns today in their final spring training exhibition game. The Cubs and White Sox will open a three game "city series" in Chicago tomorrow.

Larry French went to the mound today for Chicago. Elton Hogsett and Earl Caldwell were the selections for St. Louis.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Phillies and Athletics resumed drills on their home fields today, preparing for the big league opening games next Monday. The Mackmen will travel to Baltimore tomorrow to play the Baltimore club of the International league and will meet the Phils in the fourth and fifth games of their city series over the week-end.

DANVILLE, Va.—Pat McLaughlin, rookie righthander staying with the Detroit Tigers on borrowed time due to Tommy Bridges' injury, got a chance today to lengthen his service with a major league nine. He was picked to pitch against Cincinnati.

REAPERS AND JOPKINS WILL PLAY ON FRIDAY

Pampa's Junior High Reapers and the Hopkins junior high softball teams will clash at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the diamond west of Harvester field.

Hopkins won a 7 to 5 game from the Pampa boys last week at Hopkins. C. E. Shewmaker is coach of the Reapers. Hulen Laycock is mentor of the Whirwinders who feature an outstanding young pitcher named Haughwout.

Trainer Praises 4 Horses At Fort Worth As Winners

By Felix R. McKnight

ARLINGTON DOWNS, April 15 (AP)—Trainer Bob McCarvey, 32 years in the business, pushed a floppy hat back over his grey thatch, squinted at a stop watch, dangled his legs from a perch atop then fence and started in.

"Son, there are three of the fastest things that ever had on four shoes."

Three negro stable boys tugged at halter straps on Reaping Reward, Case Ace and Military, Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way Farms' trio of Kentucky Derby candidates.

"Just look at Reaping Reward. Why he looks like he's ready to go into a show ring instead of a track. Picture of health—that's what that horse is. His coat looks so good he's got to be good on the inside. It would take a real horse to outrun him right now and we're not training him hard."

"We've learned how to race Reaping Reward now. We just let him run the first half mile his own way and then we start pushing him. He can come from behind and run over horses at the finish. Our jock has almost tied his head down in workouts but still he has done the five-eighths in 59 2-5, the mile in 1:40 and a mile and an eighth in 1:33 recently. Just breezing, too."

The great two-year-old of '36, one of the two horses to beat Pommpon, held his head high for a photographer and goose-stepped into the barn.

Case Ace Praised

Case Ace, fraction speedster, reared high, pawed at a retreating stable boy. McCarvey belowed gleefully.

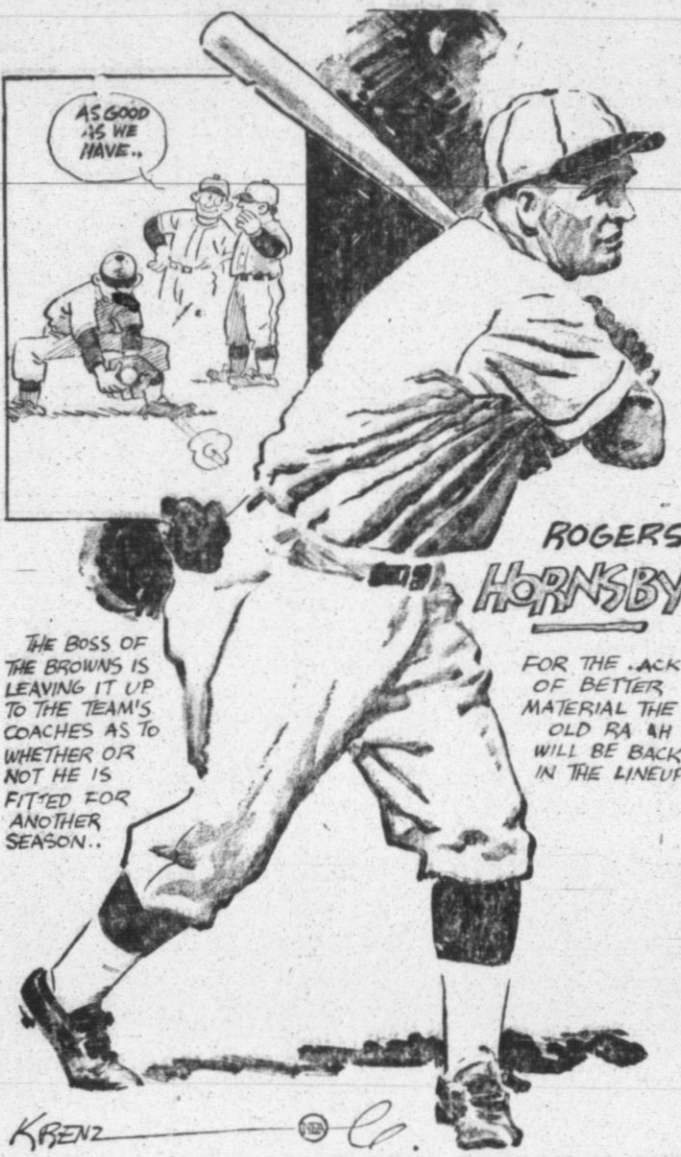

"What a horse—what a horse. He can beat anything on four legs when he's right. Can he run the Kentucky Derby distance? He can run anything. He simply flies away from the post and—oh well, he's just about the fastest thing that ever had on four shoes."

McCarvey, beloved master of the Milky Way stable, talked lightly of Case Ace's failure in the Bluebonnet handicap event he lost Saturday. He finished a poor fifth.

"Robbie (Jockey Alfred Robertson) told me the long parade to the post apparently unnerved Case Ace. It must have been 25 minutes before they reached the post after the start. Case Ace was not as fast as a cat and didn't even know the way into the paddock. He started poorly, stumbling at the post. I thought he had wrenched his back. He wasn't hurt—just nervous."

McCarvey, beloved master of the Milky Way stable, talked lightly of Case Ace's failure in the Bluebonnet handicap event he lost Saturday. He finished a poor fifth.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz

NEW YORK, April 15 (AP)—Here are a couple of hot tips from Texas:

First, Sammy Baugh, Texas Christian sharpshooter, will be rifling passes for the Washington Redskins in the National football league next fall. Second, L. D. (Tiger) Meyer, who scored all 16 Texas Christian points against Marquette in the Cotton Bowl game is ticketed for the Chicago Cubs when he graduates in June.

The Redskins got Baugh in the football draft last year. He turned down their first offer of $5,000 in favor of a $2,700 coaching berth at T. C. U., but changed his mind right quick when Washington offered the ante to $7,000. The Yankees were supposed to have the inside track on Meyer, a second sacker, but along came Scott Jack Devie with a fatter bonus offer and Tiger is Chicago bound.

WINS FERRY SUIT

AUSTIN, April 15 (AP)—The Supreme court dismissed for want of jurisdiction today an application for writ of error in the case of Southern Transportation company against whom $1,500 judgment was awarded Alice Ford for the death of her son Napoleon, one of four negro children drowned in 1932 when an automobile ran off the Galveston-Bolivar ferry. A civil appeals court had affirmed judgment, holding, with the trial court, that failure properly to secure a cable on the end of the boat was the predominant cause of the child's death.

COMPLIMENTARY DUPLICATE

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Lightning never strikes twice in the same place? Several years ago it hit at the corner of the Madison county courthouse. In the same spot early yesterday a bolt knocked off a portion of the cornice. Twenty-five feet away 12 jurymen and a bailiff slept undisturbed.

'DEACON' JONES GIVES TALK ON ROAD SAFETY

General principles of safety were dealt with from a number of different angles Wednesday evening by speakers on program for Chapter 77, Phillips production department, when the chapter met at 7:30 in the Community Hall at Phillips' South camp.

One of the best talks of the season was given by "Deacon" Jones, who spoke on "Traffic Safety," bringing out some very interesting and worthwhile points on the foreman's duties in promulgating safety.

O. W. Bray gave a talk on "Safety Conscious," stressing strongly the supervisors' attitude toward safety as applied to new men. Mr. Jones' talk and Mr. Bray's talk went somewhat hand in hand, safety conscious, safety minded, safe traffic.

A. W. Malloy read a number of different topics giving valuable information dealing with safety.

After reading a booklet on the travelers insurance, Ray Hulling conducted the answers to all questions concerning that subject.

The meeting then adjourned until sometime next month when plans are being made for a joint meeting with the Texas company which will include families as well.

Refreshments were furnished by Bart Coleman and his well serving crew, and were served by "Red" Owens, H. S. Hunt and Lewis Neyland.

Dr. Harry L. Smith of Rochester, Minn., drew his conclusions from a study of the clinical records of 1,831 patients at the Mayo clinic. He reported his finding to the American Medical Journal.

Dr. Smith studied the incidence of coronary sclerosis, sometimes called the "disease of the intelligentsia," among physicians, bankers, lawyers, clergymen, laborers and farmers. The affliction is characterized by hardening of the nerves, ligaments and blood vessels around the heart.

Of 307 physicians' records 10.7 per cent revealed incidents of coronary sclerosis; of 300 bankers, 5.3 per cent; of 20 lawyers, 4.6 per cent; of 306 clergymen, 4.6 per cent; of 306 laborers, 2.6 per cent; and of 308 farmers, 2.5 per cent.

"The incidence is lowest among those who do manual labor and highest among those who do mental work," Dr. Smith stated.

4 TIMES HARDER TO BE FARMER THAN DOCTOR

CHICAGO, April 15 (AP)—It's four times harder on the heart to be a physician than a laborer or farmer, a doctor reported today.

Senator Wagner's Victory Smile

Senator Robert Wagner isn't exactly shaking hands with himself, but he might well have after the Supreme Court upheld the New York senator's labor relations law in all five test cases. Congratulatory messages poured in upon Wagner by wire, telephone, cable and mail—contributing to the obvious jubilation in the above picture.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 15 (AP)—Steels had a dribbling decline in today's stock market and many of the leaders slipped fractions to a point or more.

At the same time a few issues, mostly specialties, managed to creep forward into new high ground, but losers were in the majority at the close.

A bit depressing to buying forces was a sharp break in commodities following weakness in London. Wheat at Winnipeg fell to limit of 5 cents a bushel. Futures of rubber, copper, cotton and other major staples lacked water. Bonds maintained their balance fairly well. U. S. Government securities and rail loans advanced.

Most stock traders, brokers said, found their sidelines steady, comfortable. They were inclined to do little either were predicting Washington developments, particularly publication of the President's budget message to Congress early next week.

Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, April 15 (AP)—Cotton moved 5 points higher in quiet opening dealings on the New Orleans market today.

The advance was more to bring prices into line with the higher Liverpool quotations than any new domestic development. The English market opened 6 to 10 points higher under active Bombay buying and a good trade demand induced the bullish American crop report.

At New Orleans, May opened at 13.97 1/2, July 13.74 1/2, Oct at 13.94 and Dec at 13.26. Before the end of the first half hour prices had eased a couple of points from these levels in dull trading.

Aside from scattered showers in southern Texas the weather map showed no change in the cotton belt. Temperatures were better, particularly in the north-west.

Little speculative activity developed in the early trading.

Opening 3-11/16 cents off, May 1.36 1/2; July 1.23 1/2; Chicago wheat futures then fell further. Corn started 3/4 to 1 cent down, May 1.25; 7-26, July 1.17 1/2, and continued to recede.

TROTSKY APPROACHES COMPLETION OF DEFENSE

MEXICO CITY, April 15 (AP)—Leon Trotsky approached completion of his defense against Moscow charges of treason today after sketching for a committee of liberals the ideas that launched him into wandering exile.

The man, once next to Lenin in Soviet Russia in reply to his counsel, Albert Goldman of Chicago, delivered his opinions on such topics as the next World War, the course of government in the U. S. S. R. and elsewhere and his following in the Soviet Union.

The committee of inquiry headed by Dr. John Dewey of Columbia University, has been hearing Trotsky and examining his documentary evidence for four days.

The gray-goated revolutionist who once spoke for 12 hours before a communist party congress entered these opinions and arguments in yesterday's session.

Charges in recent Moscow trials that he had counseled terrorism against Joseph Stalin were absurd because individual terrorism "lowers the masses in their own eyes."

Moral considerations do not dictate that stand because "the oppression of the masses is so terrible, especially in some countries, that every method to liberate the masses is moral."

He is not "hungry for power" in the Soviet Union, although he will take it as an "inevitable evil" if it comes, because, "when your ideas are victorious you must accept it."

The Soviet regime is "too close to capitalism as socialism and has a new dual function; to protect the new forms of property against capitalism and to exploit the new forms of property in behalf of the bureaucracy."

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, April 15 (AP)—Late declines of wheat prices today carried the market down about 3 cents a bushel.

Poor demand for wheat was reported both in Great Britain and in European continental countries. Indications were that importing nations had completed their buying program, at least for the present.

At the close, wheat in Chicago was 1 1/2-2% down yesterday's finish, May 1.34 1/2-3/4; July 1.22-23 1/2; corn 1/2-1 1/4 off, May 1.24 1/2-25; July 1.16 1/2-17 1/2.

Winnipeg May and July wheat fell the extreme limit allowed, 5 cents.

FOREIGN WAR VETS TO SPONSOR LA NORA FILM
Pampa's chapter of Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a picture at the La Nora theater on May 7 and 8. The organization brings an outstanding picture to the city every year.

BUGGY IN TRUCK
MEXIA, April 15 (AP)—C. E. Williams, 70-year old, Groesbeck farmer, still likes a horse-drawn buggy.

He purchased a buggy here that had been in storage 18 years and had never been used. The vehicle was delivered to Williams' farm in a motor truck.

PARSON REFUSED
BOISE, Idaho, April 15 (AP)—Mrs. Angela Hopper, motherly former city clerk who embezzled thousands to provide for a son in Hollywood, lost today her appeal for a pardon. The Idaho board denied by a 2-1 vote the gray-haired woman's plea for release from state's prison where she has been confined since 1933.

TRAFFIC SAFETY 'DON'TS' COMPILED BY POLICE CHIEF
Police Chief Art Hurst today endorsed a list of traffic safety "don'ts," compiled by Robert Watt, Pampa high school senior.

The list was submitted as a school cooperative move in the Pampa Kiwanis Club's annual safety campaign which will be climaxed with city-wide "Safety Week," May 9-15.

Young Watt's list of "don'ts" follows:

- Do not cross streets in the middle of the cross.
- Do not cross against a red light.
- Do not stand in the street before the lights turn green.
- Do not cross a street before looking in all directions for approaching traffic.
- Do not play in the streets.
- Do not jump onto the side of a car in motion.
- Do not walk with traffic when walking in the street.
- Do not ride bicycles on the sidewalk.
- Bicycle riders should obey traffic rules the same as motorists.

WRONG WORDS SPOKEN
CLEBURNE, April 15 (AP)—Four words-spoken to the wrong persons—put a man in jail today. "How about a ride?" the man asked a passing motorist south of here. The motorist was Sheriff Oran Smith of Johnson county. The man was recognized by the sheriff as one wanted on a year-old grand jury indictment. He gave the hitch-hiker the ride.

Air Travel Isn't Unsafe, Survey Reveals When Full Record From 1937 Is Studied

By NEA Service.

In a revision of horror at a spectacular plane crash like that of the TWA plane near Pittsburgh, March 25, people jump to two conclusions: first, that the pilot is the unique source of danger, and that the air is unsafe.

Yet neither conclusion is justified. Fortune magazine finds after analysis of a careful compilation of all the commercial air accidents that have ever taken place in the United States.

The magazine, summing up its findings on air travel in its April issue, finds that:

Commercial air travel in its best years is safer than the private automobile in its worst years.

The bus is safer than either.

And all forms of transportation are vainly shooting at the safety marks achieved by the railroads.

The Score.

From Jan. 1, 1927, when the record of commercial scheduled air-line travel begins, up to but not including the crash of March 25, 1937, U. S. commercial air lines have suffered 846 accidents on scheduled domestic operations.

Of these 846 accidents, there were 674 in which no one was seriously injured.

Only 107 accidents killed someone in the plane. And of these, 49 occurred on non-passenger flights.

The total death toll is 325, and of these 131 were members of crews.

Thus in 10 years, 58 fatal crashes have killed 194 passengers. That averages between five and six crashes a year, and slightly more than three passenger deaths per crash.

The most complete figures, however, are from 1930-1936. In that period the air lines flew 1,428,250,000 passenger miles. (If a plane flies 100 miles with 10 passengers, that is 1,000 passenger miles.) Of the total passengers carried, .004 per cent were killed. Exactly one passenger was killed for every 2,900,000 miles of flight. And the 1930-1936 mortality was one passenger for every 9,350,000 passenger miles.

Fatal plane accidents, reaching a peak of 18 in 1929, declined to eight in 1934 and have stayed there. But passenger fatalities have been rising because planes are larger and more passengers are carried on each flight. Each major accident kills more people.

The result was the deadly year for passenger plane accidents in 1936 when a new high record of 61 deaths (44 of them passengers) was set. In 1933 the air lines set a new all-time high of 21,700,000 passenger miles for each passenger death, but in 1936 the figure had been cut down to 9,900,000, though there were no more bad crashes.

The railroads, even in their worst days back in 1907, with wooden cars and high-speed competitive schedules, killed 647 passengers. But they rolled up the same year 27,700,000,000 passenger miles. This made a rate of 42,800,000 passenger miles for each passenger death, which is twice as good as the best the air lines have been able to achieve.

In the year ending June 30, 1935, the railroads killed only 18 passengers. The rate of 1,027,000,000 passenger miles for each passenger death is the all-time record for all transportation.

On the record of the last four years (the period of strictly modern flight) you could have traveled 16,000,000 miles on air lines without getting killed, which is just about as far as you can figure on traveling in your own car before you get killed.

Crash Causes.

Fortune has analyzed one by one, all the principal air crashes since that in which Senator Bronson Cutting was killed near Atlanta, Mo., May 6, 1935.

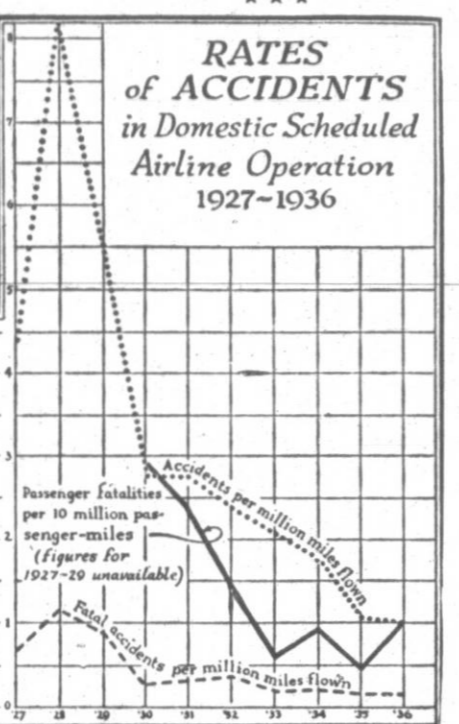

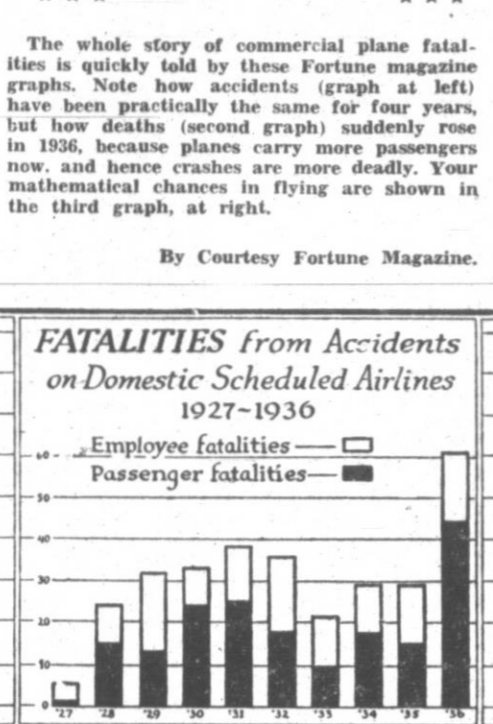

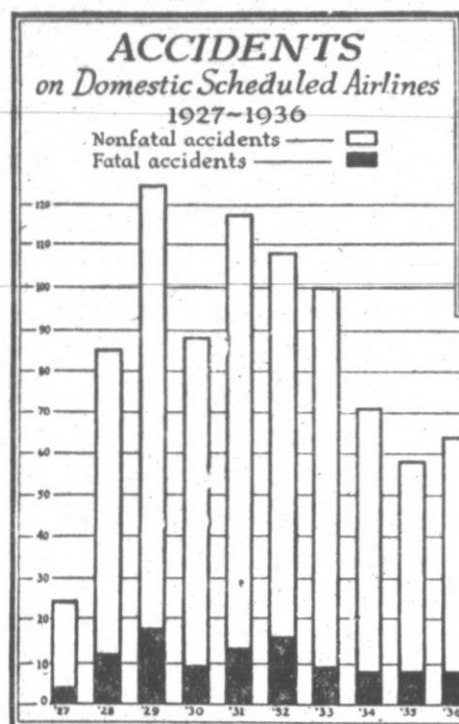

So far as is known, it concludes structural failure of the aircraft itself has not caused a single modern fatal accident, which reflects plenty of credit on U. S. manufacturers and maintenance shops. If plane line operators have in the past urged pilots to make risky flights, they are not doing so any longer, the survey concludes.

Pilot error contributed to 10 of the major crashes of the past two years, the survey found. Faulty radio reception appears to have entered into six of them. Lack of gas has figured in several.

Faulty or insufficient weather forecasts were factors in four of the crashes. In several cases the operators have blamed the government radio beam as being weak or having failed, but this has not been established definitely.

Part of the responsibility rests on the government, the survey finds. Since 1932, the government's tangible contribution to improving the airways has been only $3,200,000. That does not include money spent on improving airports, for this is no much of a safety factor.

Commercial operators have for several years been asking new airways equipment totaling $10,500,000. Fortune points out, including new radio ranges of beams, hundreds of new non-directional markers, extended teletype service. The number of spot-weather reporting services should be doubled, the magazine suggests, and the entire Weather Bureau modernized and improved.

Flying equipment, the ships themselves, furnished by the operators are the best in the world. But the airways facilities maintained by the government are mediocre. Fortune finds, and the imbalance between the effectiveness of these two elements in flying is the basic factor in the air-safety equation today.

Better cooperation among air lines in research, especially in the radio field and in blind flying technique and equipment, is suggested. Better pay and training of pilots might help.

"The evidence shows clearly," Fortune concludes, "that accidents become obsolete, which means that their causes are being progressively eliminated; and so long as this healthy situation exists it is certain that accident prevention will some day catch up with that advance in performance that has been constantly creating new safety problems."

"At the present rate of progress, most of the nonhuman causes of today's accidents will have been eliminated in three or four years."

Britannia Ruling Waves—Three Miles Off Bilbao

The world's largest battleship, the British cruiser Hood, is pictured above as Nationalists saw her, hovering off Bilbao in one of the strangest situations of the Spanish rebellion. In Bilbao bay the Nationalists drew an imaginary three-mile territorial line. Outside that line were five British freighters with food consigned to the besieged Loyalists. Inside that line was the Nationalist cruiser Almirante Cervera, ready to pounce on any blockade runner. Also, outside that line, steamed the Hood, symbol of British might, waiting for the slightest hostile movement—outside the 3-mile line.

Now that "the Hounds of Spring are on Winter's traces," a brand-new set of fashions for women and for men begins to emanate from those birthplaces of style, the Rue de la Pais and Bond Street. Just how far away are you from those emporiums of vogue?

Wait! Don't let this question depress you! Don't think of the answer in purely geographic terms. You are by no means so far away as you might imagine. Like a long-range telescope, the advertisements in this newspaper bring the scene in Paris and in London across the ocean.

The final and visible stage of this modern "television" is the advertising in these pages. Advertisements will give you the tip on the latest modes, they will direct you to the most alert establishments and they will attract you by the high quality and equable priced offered. The PAMPA DAILY NEWS

Published every evening, except Saturday, and Sunday morning by the Pampa Daily News, 222 West Foster Street, Pampa, Texas.

Entered as second class matter March 15, at the post-office at Pampa, Texas under the act of March 3rd, 1879.

Subscription Rates—By carrier, 15c per week; $3.50 for 6 months.

CARDS ON THE TABLE

Undertone of the meeting was that what Pampa needs most right now is some real support through the channels of money and men to put across projects vital to the community's continued growth.

Either Pampa goes forward, or it goes backward. The path to be followed depends upon the kind of support that is given from the citizenry as a whole.

The job that lies ahead of Pampa cannot be done by the same few who have given of their time and money in the past.

Pampa's possibilities are limitless, if only the men can be enlisted to get behind the wheel of city advancement.

We now have men in our Board of City Development, Junior Chamber of Commerce and other civic clubs who work hard for their city, giving of their time and of their finances to aid their hometown.

But the job simmers down to too few of these men. They cannot be expected to bear the brunt of the entire burden.

No city can thrive where petty civic jealousies exist. They must be wiped out entirely, if Pampa is to go ahead as it should.

A united front with the one thought of a better Pampa is the only way out. Speakers at the meeting the other day emphasized that fact.

Some of them mused no words in saying what they thought about things. They are the men who have been doing the work, and they know what they are talking about.

Plenty of push and more men and money are going to be needed.

Those who have been doing the work are putting their cards on the table. Every last one of us is going to have to do his part in order to get the job done.

GLOVED HAND OF THE LAW

When the justice of a British court sports a new pair of white gloves, you may know that all is peaceful, serene, and orderly in his particular bailiwick.

The spring assizes of the Ontario Supreme Court opened at North Bay, Ont., recently, and it was discovered that there was not one criminal case on the docket. And so, in accordance with the old British custom, it became the duty of the sheriff to present the presiding justice with a pair of white gloves.

That such a custom ever will sprout in the United States is somewhat doubtful, for where in this broad republic, will you ever find a court calendar that does not contain at least one criminal case awaiting trial? Nevertheless, the custom is worth a thought—if only as a reminder that it is possible, after all, to conduct a society without a crime wave in this modern world.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—One person at least, has been having a lot of fun out of senate committee hearings on the Supreme Court re-juvenation bill.

Ashurst favored letting the hearings run as long as anybody wanted to be heard. He felt that the President's proposal was benefitting more than the opposition was. On what could he have founded that opinion?

Well, there is one element of political life on which he is well qualified to speak. Ashurst knows a lot about the importance of drama in politics. Dramatic action of personalities is the element of news that gets front-page play.

Had it fallen out that figures bulking large in the public eye appeared to challenge in person the President's proposal it would have been different. Suppose members of the Supreme Court had said their say, or that such witnesses as Hoover, Landon, Al Smith and the like had appeared before the committee. What a chance that would have given the news hawks and camera men.

No disrespect is intended by this comment to the qualifications by the lawyers who did appear. They might well know more about the subject than the others mentioned; but the public does not know them. Ashurst probably figures that, lacking dramatizations, opposition to the court bill before his committee falls for the most part on inattentive ears. That would explain his "the more, the merrier" attitude.

Incidentally, an offshoot of the Democratic party set-up was the desirability of playing big names to catch public attention. It had a hand in circulation of a little pamphlet entitled "who said that about the Supreme Court?" It contained selected excerpts from remarks of Chief Justice Hughes, William Howard Taft, Wood-

TEX'S TOPICS

If only it rains within the next week or so, (put on your wishing ring) the Panhandle wheat crop should step up to the best stage reached in the last half dozen years, in the opinion of those who know their wheat crops.

It was back in 1918, he says, when the Panhandle had its best year for wheat-growing. Those were world war days when the food administration at Washington was telling everybody to cut down on the use of sugar, bread, and other staple foods.

Wheat growers out here couldn't get their wheat shipped because the railroad was using all available trains to ship men and ammunition to Eastern ports.

So, they hired photographers to go down the line and make pictures of the mountains of wheat, and these, too, were sent to Washington. This got action. Immediately six long trains were dispatched to the Panhandle to pick it up.

Listening to a wheat story like that one, puts a yearning into the heart of every wheat farmer from here to the edge of the "nation's breadbasket," one suspects.

That dark-haired ticket seller in a W. Foster street theater reminds you of Myrna Loy. And Joe (Printer) Young could double for Stan Laurel.

Sam Fenberg is another who recalls the good old wheat crop days "way back when" Judge B. S. Via will sell you some of the talkiest parrots you ever heard.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
A charter was presented to the new Pampa Rotary club by W. S. Edwards of Denton, district governor. C. C. Cook was president of the club.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY
Invitations were mailed to 1,000 old-timers of this area to attend the first annual Frontier Day celebration in Pampa.

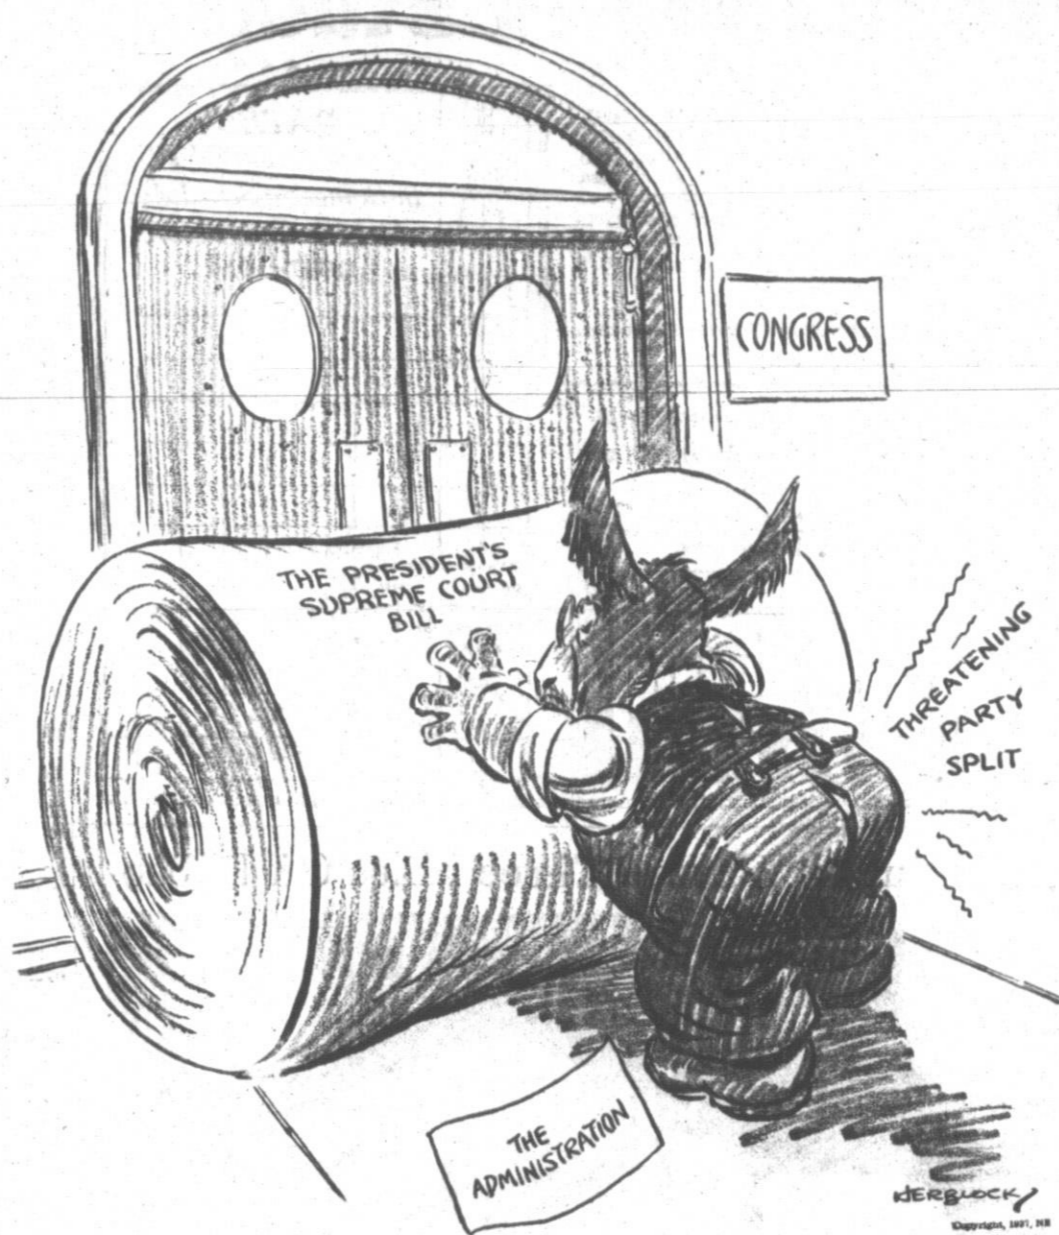

Matthew "Bones" Hooks, negro old-timer of the Panhandle, was a visitor in Pampa, and reminisced about leading figures of pioneer days.

Students from the high school attended the district commercial tournament at Childress, winning three cups and four medals.

row Wilson, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt.

What a valuable little work to place in the hands of stump or street corner arguers! And a foreword says quotations from men "now active" against the court bill are "presented so that the people may determine the strange friends the Supreme Court has acquired."

THE DIFFICULTY WITH PUSHING IT THROUGH

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—They held graduation exercises over at Minsky university on Broadway the other day, but instead of putting on caps and gowns, the girls took off their clothes.

And, because the girls showed proficiency in this matter, H. K. and Morton Minsky gave the graduates expert tutoring for some time.

These lads own the theater where the young ladies have been learning the art of strip-teasing. Amateurs wanting to learn how to take off their scanties provocatively, and professionals desiring to perfect themselves, have been receiving expert tutoring for some time.

The professors Minsky, both deans in their own right, want it understood that strip-teasing is essentially an American art and they scoff at the idea that just any maiden can take off her clothes before an audience fetchingly.

"She'd probably be very indecent about it," gravely opined H. K. "That wouldn't do at all."

"No indeed" broke in Morton, "and she must have natural talent for this. She must have grace and she must know something about music. She must have rhythm, be able to dance, and sing. Then, she must know just how to take off those little bits of clothing in a manner that will enrapture an audience and leave it flabbergasted!"

No wonder they started a school! With so many qualifications on the "must" list, before a gal may even begin, they figure a little finishing school on the side will keep plenty of quality on tap, meaning capable replacements for those who advance to matrimony or who graduate to the legit productions up town (well, Gypsy Rose Lee, did, didn't she?)

Miss Lee, of course, is his masterpiece. Many a strip heroine here they groomed, but none has caught the eye as this wonderful girl of 1936.

"Personality is another essential," cut in Morton. "And we're teaching that, too. But enough of this. I think it's time for a bite of lunch."

Proving, no doubt, there is nourishment in food as well as art.

As no dogs may be carried into England without first undergoing a six-month period of observation, Judith Anderson may decide not to include London on her vacation abroad. The actress who gave such an "earthy" portrayal of the queen in Gielgud's Hamlet is loath to leave her two pet dachshunds behind.

Ask Jack Linyard Tyler if he has any relatives in the theater, and he will point with pride to Jimmy Gleason. He and Jimmy are first cousins.

AMERICAN SCRAP IRON SOLD FOR ARMS ABROAD. BEAUMONT (AP)—Nate Karchmer, president of the Oklahoma Waste Trade Dealers' Association, says junkmen are gathering bedsprings, automobile chassis, frying pans and radiators from alleys, barnyards and byways to be sold abroad for armaments.

The largest cargo of scrap iron from this port—more than 8,000 tons—was scheduled to leave in April.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM
Well, the baseball season opened again yesterday, and it looked funny out there in the outfield without Grover Seltz.

The first man in a box seat was Howard Buckingham, and right behind him was L. L. McCole. Mrs. Belle Wells, sitting in the stands, wielded a pencil as she kept tab on her son-in-law, Eddie Sain who got the first hit and stole the first base.

Porter, ticket-taker, cushion-seller and pep squad leader with a fog-horn voice, duelled rascally with Mr. Hubert, leader of the wolf pack. Both were in fine fettle, and Porter yelled a little bit too loud in shouting encouragement to the players, especially to Cox, and Hubert razed the new catcher with loud guffaws.

Both gave stellar performances. Bob Koiler and Dick Hughes and Art Teed and E. B. Phillips did too many peanuts, and Art did not once mention his operation and all were belligerently siding in with Koiler that the team should be named the Pampa Oilers, and nothing else!

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—The strange case of Edward Norris can be blamed, in a way, on that fellow Taylor. Or you may, if you prefer, ascribe it lightly to the vagaries of movie fortune.

Norris, who looks a bit like Taylor—only a bit because he isn't pretty—has been under contract to Metro as long as Taylor has. Norris' claim to film fame is based on one bang-up good lead in a snatch story, "Show Them No Mercy." Taylor's—why into that?

After "Show Them No Mercy" it looked as if Norris would get places in a hurry. Instead he retired to the comparative oblivion of his studio stock list, played a few roles in minor films and waited. Darryl Zanuck, who had borrowed him for his hit performance, wanted to buy his contract. So did other producers, but Metro refused to sell except at prohibitive terms.

Still An 'Unknown'
So it was that Mervyn LeRoy, looking for "unknowns" for "The Deep South," picked on Norris. If you think a lad who has clicked in one picture cannot qualify as an "unknown," then you don't know Hollywood. Norris is as obscure as Taylor's would have been in Metro had not cashed in quickly on "Society Doctor."

The obvious conclusion is that if the studio had no Taylor, Norris—or some other boy—might draw a "build up." There is only one "teacher's pet" in the classroom.

A Test Partner
From Philadelphia, son of a noted medic, Norris signed up for a stage show locally. Rouben Mamoulian spotted him, and eventually the director put him into "Queen Christina." Six months later he joined the Metro stock company. There he served as test partner for some hundreds of feminine applicants for film jobs.

Most of what he knows about acting he attributes to Akim Tamiroff. Before Tamiroff clicked, he and Norris exchanged instruction. Norris

How's Your Health?

THE LITTLE HURTS

It's the little hurt that is most dangerous, for it is commonly neglected. Among the important little hurts are contusions and abrasions.

A contusion is a superficial injury produced by an impact without a break in the skin. An abrasion is an injury in which the skin is scraped off. In common language, "bumping" causes contusions, while "skinning" causes abrasions.

Innocent and minor as these injuries may appear at first sight, they are frequently followed by serious, painful and sometimes permanent effects. For example, a contusion about the face, forceful enough to cause the formation of a blood tumor (hematoma) may result in an unsightly, permanent lump if not treated properly.

Porteal contusions and dull blows on the abdomen call for expert medical care. The latter are often suffered in automobile accidents, and not infrequently result in internal organs, such as the spleen, kidneys or liver.

Minor contusions should be treated by putting the affected part at rest. At times this will mean putting the patient to bed for 24 hours.

To the contusion proper an ice bag or wet cold dressing should be applied during the first 24 hours following the injury. The ice bag should not be applied directly to the skin, but rather over a folded hand towel, first placed over the injured part. Apply the ice bag for a half hour of every hour, leaving the skin free the rest of the time.

Wet dressings can be made by dipping suitable pieces of cloth, gauze or cotton in iced water to which has been added epsom salt in the proportion of two tablespoons to a quart.

After an elapse of 24 hours following the injury hot applications are better than cold. The cold applications are employed to keep inflammation in check; the hot ones to hasten absorption of the swelling.

Gentle massage and moderate exercise of injured parts and muscles favor recovery. But gentleness and moderation must be practiced in these, lest further injury be inflicted on the bruised parts.

SCIENCE TRACES GROWTH THROUGH RINGS IN TEETH.

CHICAGO (AP)—Teeth rings, like tree rings, enlighten scientists on the mysteries of growth.

Dr. Isaac Schour of the University of Illinois says every person carries his own growth record in his "baby teeth," a ring in the dentine and enamel. The ring is found in all teeth in the process of formation when the individual is born, but not in later, permanent teeth.

Dr. Schour claims these rings are permanent and indelible records of the change from the possible pre-natal life to the independent life following birth and that this should help scientists determine the amount and quality of development in each period.

worked on Akim's English diction, and Tamiroff on Norris' histrionics. Tamiroff, from the Moscow art theater, was a hard teacher. Day after day, for a month, he had Norris open a door to greet a "long-lost friend." After a few days Norris loathed the mythical friend, and most days he left the lesson swearing he'd never return. But he always came back for more.

LET'S KNOW TEXAS AND TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES.

Q. Are commercial failures in Texas increasing or decreasing?
A. Commercial failures in Texas in 1936 averaged slightly fewer than 15 a month, the lowest for any year since records of failures have been kept—1920.

Q. To whom is credit given for conceiving the construction of what is now the Southern Pacific Railway, and what were his plans?
A. Andrew Bristoe, a resident of Harrisburg, in 1839, revealed his dreams of a railway that would eventually extend from Harrisburg to San Diego, Calif., thus connecting the Atlantic, through the Gulf of Mexico, with the Pacific. He interested a small group at Harrisburg, undertaken to build to a point beyond Richmond, where town lots would be sold to get funds to build another 30 miles where another sale would be made and this process repeated through Austin and El Paso to the Pacific. Bristoe secured a charter for the Harrisburg Railroad and Trading Co. in 1841.

Q. What is the annual average rainfall in Texas, the highest and the lowest?
A. Average annual rainfall is 31.08 inches; highest, 55.31, in Newton county; lowest, 9.16 in El Paso county.

Q. What were the expenses of the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission and the Liquor Board compared with the total income from liquor beer and wine in the month of February?
A. According to the Texas Tax Journal, expenditures of the Old Age Assistance Commission for salaries and other expenses were $105,395.25, of the Liquor Board were $82,222.07—total for the two boards, $188,217.32, or 38.6 per cent of the $488,963.46 received from liquor taxes. This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM HUSLEY CLARK.

We hope that the conviction of that officer who applied the "third degree" to the extent that the victim died will be a lesson to all who are guilty of the same thing. The "third degree" as it is used in many instances has no place in the intelligent application of the law. In some cases it seems that such officers who use this unscrupulous method of securing confessions are themselves fit candidates for an insane asylum. I believe it would be a good practice to have officers who are guilty of this crime examined by a psychiatrist to determine if they are suffering from a case of sadism. Certainly no sadist is worthy of the responsibility of a peace officer.

The very principle of this "third degree" method is wrong. If they know the person to be guilty, why seek his confession? If the victim's confession is needed to "stick" him, a forced confession is no good in the case, any way, and just as well do without it. No matter how you take it, it is a cowardly act for any one in authority to go beyond the limits of law by torturing some helpless victim in an attempt to secure what he thinks is an honest confession. Any fair jury could not help but be influenced by the knowledge of such treatment in considering a confession.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representative James W. Wadsworth, Republican, of New York, things congressional maintenance of the botanic garden in the national capital is "a standing joke."

Wadsworth says he can't understand "why the house of representatives should run a greenhouse" unless the plants or flowers are distributed to someone.

The botanic garden grows and supplies plants and shrubs to supplement drying plants, trees or shrubbery around the capital grounds.

Mexican Victim of Inter-Union Labor Strife

Beyond collective bargaining, or hourly pay rates, or the merits of this plan of unionization or that, lies this Mexican worker. His hat and coat will not be needed again; soon someone else will tend the machine beside which he died. Labor union rivalry, carried to its last bitter conclusion, brought death to this factory at San Martin, Texmelucan, Mexico, when conflicting organizations, the Confederation of Workers of Mexico and the Regional Confederation of Mexican Workers, fought each other fiercely through the plant. Government troops had to quell the feud, and this man was one of eight who died.

1917 Anti-War Congressmen Meet as Tanks Rumble

While marching soldiers and rumbling tanks coursed Washington streets celebrating Army Day on the twentieth anniversary of America's entrance in the World War, a little group of wartime Congress members met nearby to commemorate their votes against the 1917 war declaration. Of the 56 Senators and Representatives who brand bitter attacks because of their stand against war with Germany, only eleven shown above were able to meet for the Washington reunion. They are, left to right, seated, with their wartime titles: Senator Ernest Lundeen (Rep., Minn.), now in the House; Representative Harold Kuntson (Rep., Minn.), still in the House; Representative Jeanette Rankin

MONDAY TO BE DEADLINE IN ARMS CONTROL

LONDON, April 15 (AP)—A non-intervention subcommittee today fixed midnight, next Monday, for putting into operation wide control schemes to halt the flow of men and arms to Spain.

The 27-nation "hands off Spain" committee immediately appointed another subcommittee to consider plans for the withdrawal of volunteers now fighting in the Spanish civil war.

The nonintervention scheme calls for naval patrols of the Spanish coasts and establishment of agents on Spain's frontiers to prevent foreign arms and volunteers from reaching either side in the civil conflict.

The British government today followed up its overwhelming parliamentary victory on its conduct in the Spanish civil war with a renewed warning to insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco that Britain would tolerate no interference with her ships at sea.

The cabinet, cheered by the 345 to 130 vote of confidence after last night's stormy debate in the House of Commons, stood firm on its policy of refusing to recognize the Franco regime as a belligerent.

As if in answer to laborite and liberal charges of "cowardice" and aiding the insurgents to "starve out women and children," the government sternly warned the insurgents they would be held responsible for any damage to British merchantmen.

How far Britain was prepared to go in such an eventuality was not disclosed despite the bitterly sarcastic question of former Prime Minister David Lloyd George: "What do you propose to do—sue Franco?"

The renewed warning to Franco, outgrowth of the determined opposition effort to censure the Stanley Baldwin government for refusing to convey food ships into insurgent-blocked Bilbao, indicated Britain still held an apprehensive view of the international dangers in the situation.

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Administration spokesmen made it clear today that President Roosevelt was campaigning for his court reorganization bill with as much determination as before the Wagner act decisions.

Statements from three cabinet-officers emphasized that the court's 5 to 4 verdict upholding the labor law had not interrupted the efforts to "inject new blood" into the Supreme Court.

Evidence of additional pressure in the Senate judiciary committee to close the long hearings on the court bill was another indication that the administration was urging its enactment.

Members of the committee friendly to the bill, led by Senators Hughes (D., Del.) and McGill (D., Kas.), were fighting openly to shut off the hearings Saturday.

Paul Shipman Andrews, dean of the Syracuse law school, told the committee in a prepared statement today the President's bill was "a long step toward destruction of our form of government" and was quite unnecessary.

Andrews also criticized some of the substitutes advanced by foes of the Roosevelt bill, including the Wheeler-Bone proposal to permit Congress to override the court and suggestions for requiring more than a majority vote to invalidate legislation.

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Ochiltree county is estimated to have 300,000 acres of wheat with moisture and growing conditions excellent.

Subsoil moisture on cultivated land ranges from 18 to 30 inches and on pasture land from 8 to 30 inches.

Approximately seven inches of moisture has fallen in this county since Aug. 1, 1936, with subsoil moisture ranging from 9 to 40 inches for the period.

County Agent J. T. Stovall estimates that only five per cent of the total acreage planted in wheat was lost by wind erosion.

NAZIS ATTACK U. S. CHURCHES

ANTI-NAZI FILM IS SHOWN IN FAMED CHURCH

BERLIN, April 15 (AP)—Nazidom hitting out at any direct or implied criticism from abroad, struck at American churches today for allowing "vicious machinations under the cloak of religious observances."

The inspired Nazi press loosed furious tirades against the showing in the Riverside Memorial church in New York of an anti-Nazi film seeking to raise $400,000 for the relief of Christian German refugees.

The paper expressed the hope the case would not "tear the inherent friendship of the American people for Germany."

At the same time the press played up the lynching to two negroes at Duck Hill, Mass., sparing their readers none of the details of the torture.

The press in its anti-American campaign also has stressed disastrous economic consequences of the strike wave in the United States.

The attacks on American churches, economic and living conditions, however, was just one phase of the widespread onslaught on all anti-Nazi activities.

CONGRESS TO WRITE LABOR LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, April 15 (AP)—Chairman Connery (D., Miss.) of the House labor committee predicted flatly today Congress would write new labor legislation at the present session as a result of the Supreme Court's decision on the labor relations act.

Connery said he still believed the best solution to the unemployment problem would be a 30-hour week for all industry. He added, however, he was not "tied to the proposal."

"I believe undoubtedly there will be legislation adopted in the House on minimum wages, maximum hours and the abolition of child labor," said the co-author of the Wagner law.

Connery said the first labor legislation brought up probably would be the Ellenbogen textile bill, on which a labor subcommittee has been holding hearings.

Informed persons said President Roosevelt had favored enactment of that measure to set up a "little NRA" for the textile industry. There was some uncertainty, however, whether the Supreme Court's decisions had altered the chief executive's views.

he said, should be uniform but flexible enough to permit exceptions where necessary.

"There should be no wage differentials, however," he asserted. "No $15 for the north and $11 for the south. I can see no justification for such discrimination."

Both Baer and Farr Figure to Win London Bout

LONDON, April 15 (AP)—From the pre-battle statements of Maxie (Playboy) Baer and Tom Farr, it appeared today the referee was the only man who could possibly lose when the two meet for 12 rounds or less tonight in White City arena.

Said Baer: "Sure I think I'll win. I've never been so keen to get into a ring before, even counting when I fought for the championship. I'm really serious now. I'm going to leave nothing to chance."

"I mean to end the fight as quickly as I can."

Farr muttered something about "not being worried by the American bluff," then added:

"All I can say is that it's just another fight for me. I'm confident that I can come out on top and prove that British heavyweights are not so bad as they are painted."

More certain winner than either the curly-headed former heavyweight titleholder or the British Empire champion was the promoter. A capacity crowd of 14,000 was assured, with a gate approaching $100,000.

NO RUSH A few investment houses are of the opinion that the storm of bond selling has ended. They believe that insurance companies will come back into the market because of the more attractive yields.

On the other hand there are some investment houses which believe that phantom of bond liquidation hasn't been entirely obliterated. They see additional selling on the part of fire insurance companies to take advantage of the sharp price declines in the security markets.

In any event, it is admitted in most bond circles that life insurance companies will not stage or encourage any rush to acquire bonds. Funds on hand today aren't so large as they were a year ago when John Q. Public was paying off money borrowed against policies.

44-Room and Board.

Her head splitting with pain that came in fierce rhythmic strokes, like the force of a metal piston. Martha opened her eyes.

She lay on a banked berth and at first she believed that she was regaining consciousness in a hotel room. The slight rolling of the berth coming toward her with the evening illness—and then, gradually, she realized that she was aboard a ship.

She remembered, now the speedboat bouncing over the moonlit waters of the Sound, remembered the tightness of Seattle crowning its seven hills. She remembered, too, that huge bulk coming toward her with the white cloth in his hand. Speddon had remonstrated. What was it he had said? "There's no need for that—she's not going to jump overboard." Nevertheless, the damp rag of chloroform had been clamped over her mouth and nose. Her assailant had said, "I'm working for Johnny Ciznik."

Painfully she rolled her eyes to take in the stateroom. The walls were white steel, painted over many times yet the rivets stood out plainly. She saw no portholes anywhere and guessed that the ship must be of good size, that probably her stateroom was below the waterline. The single door was of steel, and the lock looked heavy. She knew instinctively that it was bolted, that there was no need of her getting up to try it.

From somewhere beyond the wall came the sound of throbbing engines. "They were under way! But where to, Martha wondered—and was Betty really aboard? Had she been chloroformed only so that she would not recognize the vessel or simply to make it easier for them to get her aboard and below without her asking to see Betty Haynes, as Speddon had promised her?

These and a hundred other questions flooded Martha's glittering head. So great was the pain that she tried not to think, tried to relax enough to sleep. Her throat was raw from the anaesthetic and her eyes burned frightfully. With a hopeless groan, she turned on her side, buried her face in the berth's blanket and tried to lose consciousness again. She knew that if she left that berth, tried to get her feet beneath her, she would crash to the floor.

Suddenly she heard the sound of the heavy knob on the steel door. Breathless, she sat up on the berth, watched the door open slowly. To her amazement the visitor was Chinese—yellow and wrinkled with age, dressed in a long black coat and trousers. In his parchment-like hand he held a cup from which steam rose in slow spirals.

"You drink," the Oriental said coming toward the berth and holding out the cup. "This make you feel better. Make head wise."

Affraid to refuse Martha took the cup from his hands. He looked encouragingly as she raised the cup to her lips. Then as she drank slowly he backed toward a corner of the stateroom sat there on a stool still watching her with a smile.

"You don't need to stay," Martha said.

The Chinaman nodded. "I stay. You drink Make head wise."

She did feel better for having accepted the cup of hot liquid. Finishing it, she put it down on the battered table beside the berth. "Is Miss Haynes aboard this boat?"

"Miss Haynes? The Chinaman's eyes widened. "Lads with corn-colored hair your friend?"

"Yes... yes, she is. Is she really here?"

The Chinaman nodded. "Yes. She all right. You sleep now."

"I don't want to sleep. I want to see that girl. Take me to her now."

The man's face slipped once more into impassivity. "You sleep. Girl all right. You see her when time comes."

What—what is this ship?
He smiled. "Mista Ciznik, he own this ship."

Chapter XX

He looked at her oddly. "You ask many questions. That is bad. You will know what you need to know, when the time comes."

He lapsed into silence, appeared at times to be dozing. But Martha saw that periodically the slant-like eyes were directed toward her, that she was being watched as if he were a cat and she a cornered mouse.

Thus they sat, facing each other, while the engines of the vessel throbbed. At last the knob of the steel door turned again, slowly, Martha's frightened eyes watched it.

The newcomer was Speddon, "Okay, Ling—You can get going."

Obviously the Chinaman shuffled through the open doorway Speddon turned to Martha. "Feeling better now?"

"Let's not pretend," Martha answered angrily. "What are you going to do with me?"

Speddon smiled. "That sounds like you're feeling better all right. Ciznik wants to see you in a little while. I came down to take you to his cabin. You'll like it better there."

Martha set her feet onto the floor, stood up uncertainly. "As long as I have to be on this boat I'd rather stay here. But you promised me I'd see Betty Haynes. Where is she?"

"You can't rush things around here," Speddon said. "They go just as fast as the chief wants 'em to, seek. Whenever he says goes. You found that out on the speedboat. Now come on with me and save yourself some grief."

Wordless, Martha walked unsteadily toward the door, faced a row of steel steps rising almost perpendicularly. Steadily by Speddon's hand on her arm, she began to climb them.

Morgan Picture Market Bearish

J. P. Morgan took off his hat to one photographer and offered his umbrella to another at a Long Island society wedding...

which includes 1,900,000 families in the south alone. The committee decided on a "compromise" measure which would provide $50,000,000 for loans to tenants who want to buy farms...

Three Especially Vehement The committee at first voted by a narrow margin to throw the whole plan out. Asked to reconsider, the committee stood 12 to 12 on the second vote.

Congressman Richard M. Kleberg of Texas, part owner of the King ranch, largest ranch in the world and twice as big as the state of Rhode Island.

Congressman Harry B. Coffee of Nebraska, president of the Coffee Cattle Co., which has extensive holdings, and owner and operator of several farms.

Congressman Hampton P. Fulmer of South Carolina, proprietor of the big Barnes farm in Orangeburg county.

Six of the seven Republican members also voted against the administration program, proposed by Chairman Marvin Jones. Opponents said they "didn't want the government in the real estate business."

The President's Committee on Farm Tenancy had pointed out that there was always danger that farmers, after being given a purchase contract, might be induced by a rise in land values to pay off the loan to obtain a deed, then sell all or part at a profit.

The contract should require the purchaser to maintain buildings, fences and other structures in good condition, said the committee, "to carry on a type of farming that will maintain the fertility of the soil and to avoid other forms of unnecessary wastage."

A fight will be waged on the House floor and in the Senate, if necessary, to bring the bill back in line with the committee's recommendations and make the United States the last civilized nation to take steps to solve its tenancy problem.

The House committee approved Title II of the bill, providing $75,000,000 to carry on the Resettlement Administration's rural rehabilitation loan program, and Title III, which provides $10,000,000 the first year and $20,000,000 the next three years for retirement of sub-marginal land.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, April 15 (AP)—Modernization of certain laws was advanced at a hearing before a legislative committee investigating the New London school explosion.

A representative of the state department of education cited as an example of antiquated statutes a requirement that 30 cubic feet of air per second must be supplied each pupil in a school room. He said such amount could be sent into a room only with machinery and that, as a matter of fact, ten cubic feet probably would be sufficient.

The Senate passed recently a bill providing lengthy imprisonment for "sit down" strikers.

That night it was started when Senator Joe Hill, at the head of a group of 15 or 20 men, appeared in the main door to the Senate hall and loudly announced:

"Mr. President, a bunch of sit-down strikers."

Lieut.-Gov. Woodul seemed in doubt whether to rap for order or to shout for the police. Then everyone laughed.

The party led by Hill were members of the New London investigating committee and witnesses in the hearing to be held in a committee room at the rear of the hall.

A newspaper correspondent commented that federal judges in Texas seemed more approachable than members of the state supreme court when asked for "light" on opinions.

When a federal judge writes an opinion and there is difficulty reporting it, it is not unusual for the judge to say frankly:

"Yes, I held the law unconstitutional," or "what I meant was if
