The Lighter Side

Silent Spring Speaks

By DICK WEST
 United Press International
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Each summer since I joined in the colonization of darkest suburbia I have grown a small "victory garden" in my back yard.
 Little things that I have heard and read in recent years lead me to believe that the Victory Garden campaign has been losing momentum since the end of the war. But I have continued to do my part.
 People who have the stimulus of war to grow a victory garden belong in the same class with sunshine patriots, I say.
 This year, however, we victory gardeners find ourselves caught on the horns of a dilemma, which is the next worst thing to being caught on the horns of a water buffalo.
 The dilemma got into the garden by way of Rachel Carson's widely discussed book "Silent Spring." Either that or somebody left the gate open.

Got Hooked
 At any rate, I was spraying a radish with an anti-tomtit tincture (three parts tetraethyl to one part vermouth) when it hooked me.
 Suddenly I straightened up and said to myself "This spray I am using is undoubtedly contributing to the health and well-being of this radish, but how do I know it is not upsetting the balance of nature?"
 Miss Carson, as you know, raised a warning against the headlong use of pesticides and other horticultural chemicals lest it destroy nature's equilibrium.
 Her message has had a profound effect upon us victory gardeners. We figure that nature isn't any too well balanced anyway.

I put down the sprayer and was balancing myself in the hammock when my wife came out and asked why I had quit gardening.
 Weighing Benefits
 "I'm weighing the benefits that will accrue to our radish from a spraying with an anti-tomtit solution against the possible disturbing effect that it might have on the natural order of the universe by driving away the tomtits," I told her.
 "I am glad to know that," my wife said. "It appeared to me that you were taking a nap."
 "I think better with my eyes closed," I explained.
 Later on I tried to get my mind off the problem by tuning in the ball game. But there was no escape.

As I watched the Washington Senators sink deeper into the cellar of the American League, I couldn't help but wonder if their inability to hit and catch baseballs was a result of the chemicals that the groundskeeper uses on the outfield grass.
 If anything, the Senators are even more off balance than nature is. Perhaps Miss Carson will explore this situation in her next book.

Man of Many Complexities

EDITORS NOTE: Following is the first of a three-part series on Pope Paul VI, the man and his origin, his policies and what his pontificate may hold for both the Catholic and non-Catholic world.

POPE PAUL VI

By United Press International
His strength of mind and character can be seen in his eyes.

It is in his dark blue eyes, deeply set and piercing, that you see the courage and cool intellect of Pope Paul VI, who otherwise gives the appearance of frailness.

Giovanni Battista Montini is a man of many complexities.

He has been described as a "liberal" in church circles, but there are overtones of traditionalism and a trace of the authoritarian air of the late Pope Pius XII.

At times he is blunt, but in his writing and speeches he can be as complex and circumspect as Pius, who often took 10 pages to express painfully what others might say in a few paragraphs.

Pope Paul's life has been dedicated to keeping Catholicism in step with a swiftly changing world.

Supports John's Moves

He firmly supported his predecessor's moves, towards bringing the church in line with the space age.

And now assuming the throne of St. Peter as the 262nd Pope, he has vowed to continue the forward-looking policies of John XXIII: the aims of the Ecumenical Council and its aspirations of Christian unity, and giving the church a focal role in securing a just world peace.

Pope Paul VI is no orator who appeals to the emotions of his listeners, but a speaker whose words are to be closely studied.

Even with the working men of the bustling Milan archdiocese this method of communication was fruitful. Montini, as archbishop of Milan for about nine years, devoted a good portion of his time to battling the inroads of communism. To do this he went to factories, shops, wherever workers—Communist or Catholic—were to be found.

Shape Liberal Outlook

The new pontiff's background, the progressive Catholic atmosphere he grew up in, and his days in the Vatican secretariat of state, shaped his "liberal" outlook to matters of the world and the church.

Montini's father, Giorgio, was a crusading lawyer and journalist who for years was the leader of the Catholic party in the northern city of Brescia, a deputy in the Italian Parliament, and manager of Brescia's Catholic newspaper, "Il Cittadino" (The Citizen). Giorgio Montini and his wife, Giuditta Alghisi, died in 1943.

Giovanni Battista is the second of three brothers—all successful in the walks of life they chose, and all still living. One is a surgeon, the other a senator in the Italian Parliament.

The new Pope was born Sept. 26, 1897, at Concesio, a little village of about 7,000 persons, five miles north of Brescia and some 60 miles from the metropolis of Milan.

Taught By Jesuits

His early schooling was with Jesuit priests in Brescia, first at the "Cesare Arici" college then at the "Cristo Re" (Christ the King) seminary.

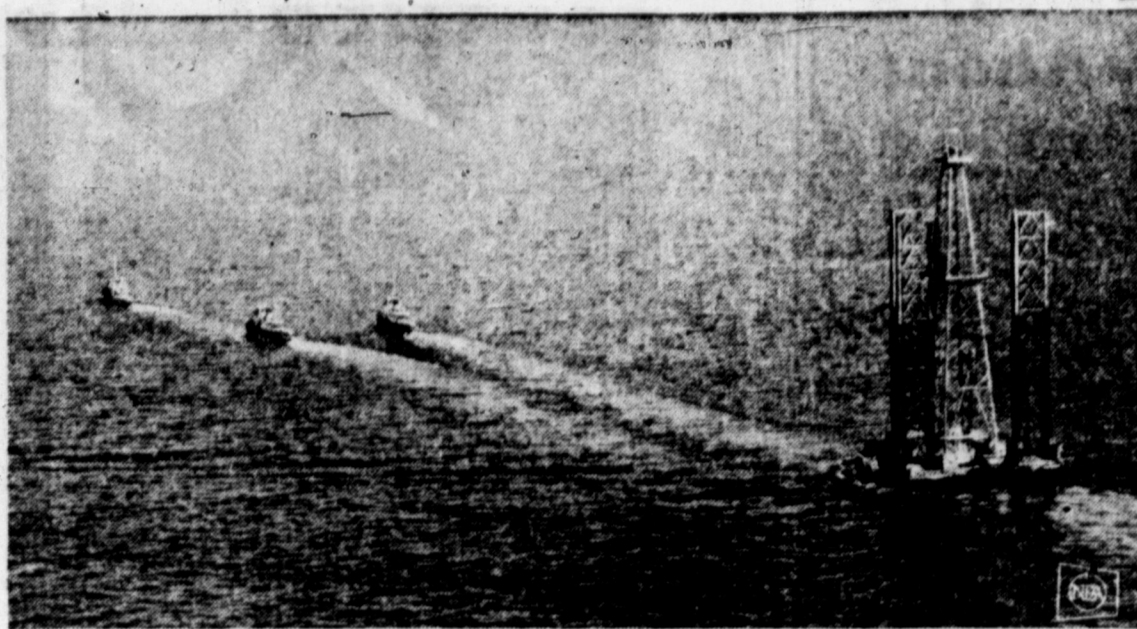

Teachers later described him

as "a well balanced boy, determined and very intelligent."

A prodigious reader, he amazed friends when he was appointed archbishop of Milan in 1954 after serving 30 years in the vatican secretariat of state by taking 90 packing cases full of personal books with him to the northern Italian city.

He thrived in the intellectual atmosphere of the secretariat, and was one of the top aides to Pope Pius XII—a man who was cautious about delegating authority.

During his tenure with the secretariat of state, and later as archbishop of Milan, Montini waged constant battle against the atheistic doctrine of Marxism-communism. He is certain to continue this course as pontiff.

TB Association Hears Report

During the past four years, the Gray County Tuberculosis Association has contributed $2,550 to the state association for research on TB and other respiratory diseases. Bert Nuckols, treasurer, told the local group at their quarterly meeting this week.

This money was received by public contribution for the annual TB Christmas seals. Nuckols also told the group that about $2,000 has been sent from this association to train workers for the research projects.

Nuckols said the association pays the total cost for the TB patch tests which are given annually in the schools, at an average cost of $200 per year.

During the meeting, letters were read from the State TB Association informing the local group of methods for training people to go overseas and supervise local citizens in promoting and bettering the health of their own peoples.

Nuckols gave a detailed report of cash receipts and disbursements for the year ending March 31.

Members present for the noon meeting at Poole's Steak House were D. V. Biggers, president; Nuckols, Dr. Chas. A. Brauchle, Henry Gruben, Dan Johnson, Sam Begery and Mrs. Lillian Jordan.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Two young men destined for popularity have emerged in recent days in events of surpassing trivia. Over in Britain, it came to light that Bonnie Prince Charles, 14, bought and downed a cherry brandy in a bar. Over here, another good-time Charlie, one Jerry Van Dyke, bowed in with a regular show on CBS-TV.

Both of these young men have good family connections. Jerry being the kid brother of Dick Van Dyke, whose weekly CBS-TV series last month won Emmys for best comedy program, writing and direction. And the last two nights have seen the brothers Van Dyke inaugurate a one-two punch on CBS that will continue through the summer and accelerate in the fall.

On Tuesday, Jerry offered the premiere of a half-hour game series called "Picture This," which he will host during the summer as a replacement for the vacationing Jack Benny. Wednesday night, Dick offered his usual situation comedy episode—this time a repeat about whether his sneezing had a psychological basis, and once again it was only his personal style that made bearable some pretty piddling fluff.

And in the autumn, Jerry will take his giant step into the big time when he shows up each week as a key regular on CBS-TV's new Judy Garland musical-variety show. It was this week, in fact, that the premiere Garland telecast was taped in Hollywood, with Mickey Rooney—her old costar in the Andy Hardy movies—as her first guest. And in the celebrity-studded audience were Dick Van Dyke, Lucille Ball, Jack Benny, Glynis Johns, Van Heflin, Natalie Wood and Sheldon Leonard.

Jerry has been carefully groomed for stardom. Last year, he made a notable debut, appropriately on his brother's series, in a two-part episode in which he played a fellow who was shy in his normal life, but who was a party-loving, banjo-plunking fundraiser when sleep-walking. He and Dick were very funny together, bearing a striking resemblance to each other. And after that, CBS tested Jerry here and there on "The Ed Sullivan show" and in a comedy on Jack Webb's "True" series, for instance.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — E. F. Hutton & Co., Inc., says the "market seems to be waiting."

It notes that the fundamentals in the economy continue strong: Personal income and retail sales remain higher; the market digested the steel contract settlement with a minimum of responsiveness. "The object of its preoccupation and the key to the future course of prices is the tax cut," Hutton says. It believes any action along these lines will be the signal for a breakout on the upside.

Alfred Robbins, writing in the Investment Dealers' Digest, says "There is still plenty of room for growth in the cosmetics industry." He notes that sales of hair coloring preparations rose 46.9 per cent between 1959 and 1960. Sales of hair rinses soared 118.7 per cent for the same period and another 11.1 per cent the following year.

Clark, Dodge & Co. says that with carrier stocks now commanding a fair sized speculative following, it is only a matter of time before speculative enthusiasm spills over to their industrial cousins.

United Business Service notes that the bright business picture and prospects of a tax cut are in the market's favor. However, it points out, "the advance has been extensive and caution should be the keynote in investing now."

Spear & Staff says "The time has come to be cautious, to own largely good-quality stocks with relatively stable price patterns, to hold issues of lesser quality only if they have historically reasonable price-to-earnings ratios and good solid patterns."

Picnic Sandwiches Help Celebrations

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

But have them chilled before you start on your trip, or better still, keep them in an inexpensive portable cooler.

To Have Satisfied Picnic Eaters, Serve Golden Chicken July 4th

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Served at home, or on the picnic from a portable cooler, this chicken goes off with a bang. The broiler fryers are first dipped into flour, then in egg and finally in a combination of bread crumbs and Parmesan cheese. Then they are fried to a delicate golden brown.

On the 4th, serve this chicken with other American favorites such as corn on cob, sliced beefsteak tomatoes and apple pie with ice cream or watermelon.

GLORIOUS FRIED CHICKEN (12 servings)

3 broiler-fryer chickens, cut in serving pieces
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup flour
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons water
1 1/2 cups fine dry bread crumbs

Fresh lime-blueberry mold is a salad in cool colors. Soften 2 envelopes of unflavored gelatin in 1 cup of cold water. Add 1 1/2 cups of boiling water. 1/2 cup of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Stir until gelatin dissolves completely. Blend in 1/2 cup of fresh lime juice. Chill until consistency of fresh egg whites. Fold in 3 cups of fresh blueberries. Chill until firm in a 5-cup mold. Unmold, garnish with salad greens and serve with mayonnaise. Serves 6 to 8.

Okay To Nibble When Snacks Are Nutritious

There can be no more monkey business about nibbling than about a fourth grader clambering over a geodesic playground climber. With growing scientific support for smaller, more frequent meals for Americans, nutritionists caution: Calories should total the number you require to keep you to your ideal weight. Nibbles should furnish the nutrients you need and include these foods: Meat or an alternate, milk or cheese, fruits and vegetables, enriched or whole grain bread and other cereal foods.

Results of a recent study by Dr. Margaret Ohlson and her fellow researchers, at the State University of Iowa may accelerate the trend away from the established three-meals-a-day routine. As one phase of a research project aimed at learning why young adult men are more subject to coronary heart disease than are young women, researchers compared food habits. Men, they learned, ate more food than women. . . ate more fat which furnished a higher percentage of their calories. . . consumed more protein.

Men stuffed. They tended to eat huge quantities of food at the evening meal, then nibble until bedtime. The scientists questioned male wisdom in concentrating so many calories into this 4- to 6-hour time slot. Recent research, Dr. Ohlson pointed out, shows that men who eat in this fashion may have a higher level of a fatty substance in the blood called cholesterol—a finding suspect in heart disease—than do men who eat smaller, more frequent meals throughout the day.

Mom Questions Pizza Nutrition

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—My son loves pizzas but I won't give them to him because I think they are not nutritious. Am I right?

A—No, you are wrong, according to Dr. Philip L. White, secretary, Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association. In the June issue of Today's Health, he writes, "Pizza properly prepared with lots of cheese and tomato paste is indeed a good food. The cheese, sausage, tomatoes and crust ingredients combine to a splendid example of fine food and good nutrition. The conventional pizza is a good source of protein and calcium and contributes its share of iron, vitamins A and C, and the B complex vitamins to the daily diet."

Q—Is it safe to carry any kind of sandwiches on an auto trip?
A—Protein foods by and large are not travel-safe without refrigeration. Better stick to jams, jellies, preserves and certain kinds of cheese—not cottage or cream cheese. Also such items as smoked Thüringer and hard salami.

DAR Criticized

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will be asked if the Daughter of the American Revolution (DAR) is abusing its tax-exempt status by distributing right-wing political propaganda.

Sen. Maurice B. Neuberger, D-Ore., said Monday she would request the IRS to look into the DAR and other similar groups because "there is mounting evidence" that such groups' "sole apparent function is to funnel the funds of right-wing business, free of taxation, into right-wing propaganda mills."

NEW YORK (UPI)—The luxury liner Bremen en route from New York to Cherbourg collided with a 25-foot whale Monday.

North German Lloyd Line officials said the liner's skipper, Capt. Guenther Roessing, reported there was no evidence the hull was damaged. The captain did not mention the fate of the whale.

Rogers Introduces Bill Calling An Investigation of Lewd Movies

By REP. WALTER ROGERS

Among criminals, the most reprehensible species are those animals who trade on human prurience by peddling pornography. The lowest form of this vile class are the dealers in obscenity who move their wares among children.

Thus it was with considerable satisfaction that I noted this week the conviction—28 counts of a federal indictment—of one Ralph Ginzburg, a 33-year-old Brooklyn native who was out to pile up a fortune by publishing pure filth.

Ginzburg's main endeavor in publishing a variety of erotic material was his magazine "Eros," which, when publication began, brought a deluge of complaints to my office and those of other Member of Congress and to the Post Office and Justice departments.

Others who would deal in salaciousness can contemplate the possible penalty Ginzburg could pay after sentencing is pronounced shortly, for his adventure in defying decency and the law: 140 years in prison and $140,000 in fines.

I am pleased to report to you that the federal government is working diligently to clean the mails of such trash as "Eros" and to bring to justice the men engaged in this despicable "industry." In the period from July 1, 1962, to May 24, 1963, a total of 683 arrests were made in the United States for violations of Postal obscenity statutes—141 more arrests than were made in the same period of the previous year. Convictions totaled 565 in the latest period, compared with 438 for the same period of the year before—an increase of 29 per cent. I salute the responsible officials of the Post Office Department and of the Justice Department's Criminal Division for their fine cooperation and aggressiveness in handling these cases. All decent Americans can be proud of this campaign.

I'm not only interested in seeing a curtailment in the flow of mailed obscenity, I am doing what I can to bring a halt to the circulation of Jewidness in motion pictures and in movie advertisements. I have introduced in this Session of the Congress H. Res. 72, similar to measures I introduced in past Sessions, to bring about a "complete investigation and study of the problem of obscenity, lewdness, salaciousness, and immorality in connection with the production, distribution, and exhibition in the United States of motion pictures and in connection with advertising related thereto." This is the wording of the resolution, which has been referred to the Rules Committee of the House. If approved by the House, the resolution would provide for the appointment of a special subcommittee of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to hold hearings and make recommendations for corrective legislation.

We must be on guard in this Nation against a laxity in morals that could, as happened in Great Britain with the Profumo scandal, shake the very foundations of the Republic.

out in the resolution, which is among the many measures awaiting consideration by the House Rules Committee. Because the State Department's activities are so vital to the continued security of the Nation, I believe it is important that a check be made so that the Congress and the People can make an assessment of its effectiveness.

Specifically, my resolution asks for the creation of a nine-member select House committee to (1) investigate the personnel of the State Department (2) investigate the practices and procedures of choosing personnel in all divisions of the State Department (3) investigate the methods, practices, and procedures in assigning personnel for both routine and special work or assignments (4) investigate the background and capabilities of all personnel in relation to their duties and assignments (5) investigate personnel who may not be directly connected with the State Department but whose work is tied to State Department activities, and (6) formulate recommendations concerning changes in practices and policies related to State Department staffing or the staffing of other federal agencies associated with State Department activities.

It's The Law In Texas

THE LAWYER'S ROLE

There was a time when the method of trying lawsuits was so technical and strange to the average layman that the lawyer was considered a behind-the-scenes manipulator.

Now, since the public has come to know more about trial procedure, this erroneous conception largely has been corrected. The attorney is pictured for what he really is — a hard-working fellow who presents a case in a manner designed to fully and legitimately protect his client's interests.

The lawyer's duty starts with his first contact with his client. When advised of the controversy, he usually questions his client thoroughly to determine all of the facts involved. He immediately advises his client to tell everything. Facts and circumstances which may seem trivial to the client can be of great value to the lawyer in the trial of the cause.

The attorney then fits the law to the facts involved, and determines the theory under which lawsuit or controversy must be approached. It is surprising to the layman to learn that no two cases are alike, and that nearly always it is necessary for a lawyer to "hit the books" to find a case or decision which governs the particular principle involved. This is sometimes a long and arduous task depending, of course, upon the intricacies of the factual and legal situation.

Quite frequently the lawyer will find it necessary to take statements of opposing parties or of witnesses to determine what facts they know that will confront him later in the trial. He is permitted to do this under the rules at any time before the trial. He also immediately starts planning his strategy, and determining the main points, factual and legal, upon which he will rely.

The next step in nearly every instance is negotiations between the parties which may or may not lead to a settlement. This usually takes considerable time, ingenuity and diplomacy. As a result many cases are settled out of court.

If the case is not settled, the attorney then prepares for trial. The case may be won or lost in trial preparation.

One of the most important aspects of a trial is the jury. The fate of the lawsuit is determined by 12 persons drawn from different walks of life, of different interests, and frequently of different race, sex, and nationality. The lawyer presents his client's case to the jury through examination of witnesses and the introduction of other evidence. Based on this evidence the jury decides what are the facts of the case and renders its verdict in accordance with their findings.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

RUNS FULL CYCLE

LONDON (UPI) — A panel of experts decided to repaint the 128-year-old roof of the British Railways Paddington station with a modern color scheme — pearl grey and terracotta red.

Workers stripped off 41 layers of old paint, railway officials said Monday. The original coat put on in 1835, they found, was pearl grey and terracotta red.

Dear Abby... 10-Carat Diamond Smaller Than Grape

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: This morning while in the grocery store my four-year-old son took one grape from a display. I saw him take it, but thought that one grape was nothing to make a fuss about. A woman saw it and said to me, "My, they learn young. When he is 18 he'll be stealing cars!" Abby, what I want to know is this: Was I wrong in not making a scene over one grape? Or do you think a four-year-old child should get a sermon in a grocery store starting with, "Thou shalt not steal?"

YOUNG MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: A child should not be permitted to help himself to ANYTHING that does not belong to him. The size of the theft is unimportant. (A 10-carat diamond is no larger than a grape, you know.)

DEAR ABBY: You are not so "dear" to me after your advice to the camping mother. "Check into a motel," you tell her. If she's anything like the camping wives I've seen, she'll ask for a room for ONE. Just a bed. Don't need a kitchen. The kids will sleep in the car — or the tent. The next morning it takes the maid four hours to get the chocolate milk out of the bedspread, dig the hamburger onions out from under the bed, and get the dog hair out of the rug. It would be easier to burn down the motel and start over than to clean up the mess.

BEAT MOTEL OPERATOR DEAR ABBY: "Aggie" — who served her guests cat food canapes to prove to her husband that people will eat anything at a cocktail party — has a warped sense of humor. Besides, she didn't prove what she set out to prove. She only proved that many people will trust a person who shouldn't be trusted.

DEAR ABBY: Was that woman's name really "AGGIE" who served her guests cat food canapes just to prove to her husband that people will eat anything? Last month we went to a party and I remarked to my husband, "This smells exactly like the stuff I give Cleopatra," (our cat), and he said, "Don't be silly." I ate it, and was sicker than a cat. What is "AGGIE'S" real name?

MUST KNOW DEAR MUST: The real names of my correspondents are confidential. This is done to protect the guilty. I can tell you this much, however. The queen of the cat food canapes was NOT named "Aggie."

Isaac-Ford Say Vows In Shamrock Service

Miss Diann Isaac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Isaac of Shamrock, became the bride of Harold Ford, son of Mrs. Kenneth Franklin of Wheeler and Paul Ford of Bakersfield, Calif. on Saturday June 1 in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. J. R. Cecil of Granite, Okla., pastor of the Shamrock Missionary Baptist Church, officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The wedding scene was appointed with crystal candelabra holding blue tapers with an arrangement of roses, corn lilies and Sweet Peas were used in other arrangements.

Miss Linda Harris was bridesmaid wearing a tan sheath dress accented with a shoulder-length veil and a corsage of white roses. She wore red accessories.

Bob Riley of Wheeler served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a dress of white crepe overlaid with white nylon chiffon. The bodice was of lace and designed with long sleeves. The round neckline was embroidered with seed pearls.

Her Veil of Illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls.

The "something old" and "borrowed" was a cameo necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. U. O. Jett, which was a gift from her grandfather, the late U. O. Jett. It was worn by Mrs. Jett and Mrs. Isaac, mother of the bride, at their weddings.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with white roses and showered with white satin ribbon streamers tied in love knots.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The table was laid with a cloth of ecru lace centered with a rice tree and miniature bride and groom.

Miss Helena Ford of Wheeler, sister of the bridegroom, served the three tiered wedding cake. Miss Harris presided at the crystal punch bowl.

Mrs. Frank Coates of Wheeler registered guests.

For travel, the bride wore a turquoise sheath dress of silk shantung. It was fashioned with a jacket of rayon and mohair. She wore a white rose corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended school in Shamrock. The bridegroom was graduated from Wheeler High School and attended Amarillo College and West Texas State College in Canyon.

The couple left for a trip to points in New Mexico and Arizona. They plan to make their home in Long Beach, Calif. The bridegroom is associated with Greyhound Bus Lines of Los Angeles, Calif.

SPRING HAVOC

by Janet Henry

Our screens are cut and battered, The trellis sweeps the ground, Garage panes have been shattered, The lawn's a pitcher's mound.

The shrubs are almost stubbles, We've lost the gatepost lamp... Let's pack up our troubles, And send them off to camp!

Put the purchase date on food in your freezer. This will help you use the food in the right order. For a new flavor to a fruit salad, add a little honey to the salad dressing.

The Clothes Poll

By HELEN HENNESSY, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

It seems to me that hats and hairdos can claim the lion's share of innovation for spring.

Some hats not only cover the head — they partially hide the face with veils and filmy scarfs, a big change from previous years. And the little flower hat that blossomed each spring along with other perennials is on the wane. It should be refreshing not to see one on every third woman.

There are charming lace sailor hats for dressy occasions, and the sporty lass will find a wide choice of fedoras.

Hairdos now permit the ears to see the light of day for the first time since the "bouffant" took over the girl. And from newly bared lobes big hoops will swing in gold, silver and pink coral. As a footnote to all this "top interest," here's the news in shoes for spring. The sturdiest, most firmly planted feet will look delicate and pretty in the new airy, open footwear. Sandals, T- straps and sling-back pumps will be on the scene in a myriad of spring colors in patent leather.

For the gal who dreams of topping her spring finery with a mink she can't afford, things may be brighter soon. Experiments in the use of a tranquilizer on mink may reduce the cost of raising them. Right now the little darlings are so mean that they must be isolated from each other in individual cages. If they can be made companionable enough to be raised in colonies, who knows what savings may be passed on to the hopeful woman.

CHIC CHAT:

Q—My husband and I recently adopted two girls, ages 4 and 6. I believe I dress smartly myself, but find I've made many mistakes in choosing clothes for my new daughters, both in style and practicality. Can you give me some advice about buying clothes for children?—Mrs. R. L.

A—Dear Mrs. R. L.: I took your problem to Ruth Combs, designer of children's clothes, and a mother and grandmother herself. She says:

"Sleeveless or cap-sleeved dresses to be worn alone or with co-ordinated sweaters are practical. Mix-and-match units stretch the life of each garment.

"Don't succumb to the temptation to buy pretty party dresses without first determining their practicality. "Does the hang tag list fabric, fiber content and cleaning instructions? Can the garment be washed? If it must be dry cleaned, this is an added expense to be considered.

"Fit is another important point. An uncomfortable child is fidgety. There must be ample room for movement.

"Look for deep hems that can be let out as the girls grow. And check to see that decorative accents are color fast and washable so that you won't ruin the garment the first time it goes into the washing machine.

"Preshrunk, color-fast cotton is a wise choice even for a party dress. It looks crisp and dainty and requires minimum care."

Make Teeth Brushing A Golden Game

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Small children, so often forget to brush their teeth. To help mine remember, I took a calendar and pasted on it a picture of a child brushing his teeth. This I hung on the bathroom wall and each time he remembers to he sticks a gold star on the block for that day of the month. It not only helps him to remember but he thinks it is fun. With more than one child, each can have a different calendar.—MRS. S. M.

GIRLS — Seems to me a small reward would not be out of line for those who brush at least twice a day for a month or even just a week.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I have no back porch and needed some place to dry out towels and rag before putting them into the hamper. I took a double length of heavy string and fastened to it about 20 plastic clothespins. I ran the string through the holes in the clothespins and hung the string on a hook at the top of the basement stairwell. Now I just pin the wet things there. As soon as the articles are dry, they go into the hamper. It takes up no space to speak of. (Polly's note: It's best to knot the string around each pin so the pins won't slide.)

We always take clothespins and string when we go on vacation. We usually do not find enough towel racks in cottages and motels. We attach a length of double string to each end of a towel rack so that it hangs below the rack. This provides an additional rack for hanging wet washclothes or little things that have been rinsed out. I also keep a clothespin pinned to the visor in the car to hold gas sales slips and cards and letters to be mailed. I do hope the column continues on for a long time. We all enjoy it.—MRS. J. H.-Q.

DEAR POLLY — Those knitted or crocheted coasters sure come in handy to use on metal cans that might leave rust rings in the bath room. My husband's can of shaving cream was the worst offender. Now he sets it down anywhere and it does not leave a mark. If you have no coasters of this type, make some out of the tops of worn socks. This works fine and sure saves scrubbing up.—J. J.

DEAR POLLY — Mine is a tip for setting in sleeves so there are no wrinkles. Sew two rows of gathering threads in the top of the sleeve instead of only one. Adjust the gathers and machine stitch between the rows. Pull out the rows of gathers which show in the sleeve. The sleeve will be in without a wrinkle on the first try.—AUDREY

DEAR POLLY — In order to display our son's school papers, we put up a piece of perforated board on the kitchen wall. Then we bought a bag of multicolored golf tees which, when inserted through the school papers, fit in the holes of the board.—MRS. G.K.

Take It From Kathy

By KATHY PETERSON

Dear Kathy: I have never been allowed to date. Until now, I've been ashamed to admit it. When someone called to ask for a date, I just said I was busy or made some other excuse. Now, no one asks me to go out any more. Those who used to like me hardly talk at school, and some obviously ignore me completely. What should I do?—Ann H.

Dear Ann H.: A boy doesn't mind being turned down if he understands that you are refusing the DATE, not vetoing him as a person.

A series of excuses with "No" attached indicates that you PREFER not to go out. He might even think you dislike him. If you continue your present tactics, there won't be anyone left on your dating horizon by the time you're ready to join the fun.

Straightaway Hitters Cleveland Open Picks

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The golfers who hit 'em straight rather than long were favored in the crack field of 150 who started out today after the $22,000 first place money in the $110,000 Cleveland Open tournament.

"There's no premium on hitting them long here, but there is in hitting them straight," said Mike Souchak, hoping to get back on the winning track because "I always play well in the Cleveland area."

Souchak explained that to stick on the hard fast greens of the 6,618-yard Beechmont Country Club course with its par of 35-36-71, "you have to play your approach shots off fairway lies, otherwise you are in trouble."

Although big Mike is in the long, rather than straight, hitter class, he received a lot of support because he always has done well in this section. The last time here, in 1959, he finished one stroke behind Dow Finsterwald in the 1959 Carling Open.

Ahead of Leaders

In that straight hitters class, the pros put U. S. Open champion Julius Boros, Gene Littler, Doug Sanders, Gardner Dickinson and Billy Maxwell ahead of the "big three" of Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Boros was being discounted a lot because he admitted he was tired from his Open playoff victory over Jack Cupit and Palmer on Sunday at Brookline and really considered withdrawing from this one.

"But I could use the money," smiled Boros, who has won $44,155 in the last six weeks.

Gives Others Hope

Boros' Open victory gave the other pros hope for he proved that Palmer, Nicklaus and Player were not unconquerable. As a matter of fact, Nicklaus, the defending champion, even failed to make the cut, and Player finished in a tie for eighth place.

"But don't sell any one of the three short," cautioned Souchak. "Just throw out what Nicklaus did last week. This is another week and another tournament, and what happened last week is history."

He agreed with those who figure that Nicklaus will really be gunning for this one to redeem himself in the eyes of golf fans for his Open failure.

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Two of the last six American survivors in the men's singles division of the Wimbledon tennis championships crossed racquets today when Chuck McKinley met Arthur Ashe in a fourth round match.

It figured to be an interesting battle despite the fact: McKinley is ranked No. 1 and Ashe is 18th in the current American rankings.

Ashe, the first American Negro male ever to play at Wimbledon, is a fast-rising court star. In last week's U.S. NCAA championships at Princeton, N.J., he dropped a thrilling, five-set semifinal match to Dennis Ralston, the eventual champion, who was eliminated in the third round here Wednesday.

Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., and Tom Edlefsen of Los Angeles were the other Yanks from an original 20-man entry who reached today's fourth round.

Froehling was pitted against Australia's Bob Howe today. Frost plays Britain's R. Taylor, and Edlefsen meets Jan Erik Lundquist, veteran Swedish Davis Cupper.

The sixth U.S. survivor, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., resumes his third round match against Adrian Bey of Rhodesia. It was doled in the fifth set when darkness halted play Wednesday.

Five of the seven Americans remaining in the women's singles also were scheduled to play today.

Darlene Hard, of Los Angeles plays Hedi Schultze of Germany, Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Miss N. Baylon of Argentina, and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., faces Lea Pericoli of Italy in third round matches.

Mantle Takes Crutches Off

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mickey Mantle, almost as good as new again, put his crutches away today and planned to be back in the New York Yankees' lineup on July 11.

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, the Yankees' team physician, said after taking X-rays Wednesday he was amazed at how rapidly Mantle's broken left foot had healed.

The heavy-hitting Pampa Rebels are batting .362 as a team, while their pitching staff has allowed an average of only two earned runs a game!

Statistics compiled by official scorekeeper Kenny Collins show that the Rebels have fought their way to first place in District 18 of the American Legion play as 10 of their 16 players are belting the ball at better than a .300 clip, with the squad averaging .362 overall. The Rebs have scored better than 13 runs a game, with a number of their total, such as a 20-6 win over Carver, 18-3 over Berger, 21-1 over Caprock and 12-3 over Amarillo, resembling football tallies.

Leading the red-hot hitting are the head of the batting order, the "Wearsome five" of Eugene Madrid, Rickey Stewart, Kenny Hebert, Larry "Shotgun" Gregory and Ricky Maynard.

Hebert is leading all hitters, with a fabulous .667 percentage on 12 hits in 18 at bats. The Flying Frenchman, All-District center fielder for Pampa High last season, has been held to one hit in only one game, having connected for three-hits in three of Pampa's wins.

"El Bandido" Madrid is poling the ball at a .474 pace. The hustling little leftfielder, rated in high school as "the best glove man in the district," bids fair to be one of the best hitters in the district as well.

Stewart, All-District second baseman, is another outstanding fielder who has blossomed into a red-hot stick, belting the ball at a .449 mark.

The power-hitting Gregory has regained the magic touch, and has been poling extra-base hits off and over the fences at a .393 pace.

Maynard, who alternates right field with Ronnie Oler, first base with Steve Molberg and Jim Arthur and catcher with Gregory, but is in the lineup someplace, missed his first game this week due to an automobile accident, but is expected back before the season is over. "Munchkin" was hitting the ball at a .316 mark before being injured, and his replacement, Arthur, has lived up to the post, hitting currently at .358.

Third baseman Claude Middleton, who started off slowly, has come on with a rush to raise his average to .364. Molberg, off on a short vacation, is hitting .357, and Doug Scagg, who went 4-for-5 against Carver, is up to an even .500.

Hebert, Gregory, Stewart, and surprisingly, Middleton, are the power hitters. Five of Hebert's hits have been doubles and another an inside-the-park home run at vast Amarillo AFB Field. The Shotgun has four two-base pokes and a homer over Pampa's center-field fence. Stewart, who gets his extra-basers in clusters, has two doubles and two triples, while Middleton has four two-base hits. Madrid has two triples, Maynard a homer and double, Arthur a triple, and Carl Harnsberger, Molberg and Oler each a double to round out the distance hitting.

Gregory has outflashed trackmen Hebert and Madrid in the base pilfering department, having stolen four sacks in district play. Madrid, Middleton and Phil Smith have each heisted two, and Hebert, Stewart and Kyle Wann one each in loop action.

The pitching is equally potent. While the Rebels have scored 92 runs in seven games, better than 13 a contest, the hurlers have allowed only 33 runs in 55 innings, and only 11 of them earned, an average of six runs and two earned runs allowed a contest.

Top average on the squad belongs to Blazin' Bobby Price. The big fireman has relieved three times, pitching seven and one-third innings, and has yet to allow an earned run! His opponents scored one run against him on an error, have gotten only one hit and five walks, and have struck out 12 times.

Leading the squad in innings pitched with 16 and wins with a 3-0 record is Harnsberger. "Harmy" has a gaudy 0.63 ERA, giving up only one legitimate run and 12 hits.

Jim Arthur, with a 2-0 mark, has a whopping 27 strikeouts in 14 innings, averaging just under two Ks an inning. Jerry Garrison, 1-1,

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — The drive to revive the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders was the major concern of the American Football League executive committee today.

The controversial question of cutting rights confronted league owners as they moved into the second and final day of a summer meeting. The problem facing the league was whether to pass a resolution giving the Jets and Raiders first chance at all players released by American, National and Canadian league teams.

Coaches and general managers will meet Friday.

The first half of the league's equalization draft in May was something less than productive. The Jets selected only two players from a list of eligible players, and the Raiders picked just one.

Other business on the agenda today included scouting regulations, cutdown dates, pre-season schedules and the length of training camps.

'Cool Man' Gilliam Red-Hot at the Plate

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Jim Gilliam, being called "Junior" and so his Los Angeles Dodgers teammates refer to him simply as "the cool man."

No nickname could be more appropriate for a fellow who takes the world in stride. He's played in at least 144 games in every year he's been with the Dodgers since 1953, and yet every spring it seems he has to win his job all over again from some highly-touted newcomer.

Comes the middle of a hot pennant race, however, and Gilliam is not only in the lineup day in and day out but also delivers the clutch hits that win important games. The kids who thought they had him beat out of a job in the spring read about 'em in the newspapers of minor league towns.

The National League pennant race is about as hot as it can get and so it's no surprise that Gilliam is red-hot. The Dodgers have won four straight games and Gilliam has delivered the game-winning blow in three of 'em, including Wednesday night when his two-run eighth-inning double sparked Los Angeles to a 5-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The victory completed a Dodger sweep of a three-game series — the first time they won three in a row in Cincinnati since 1953.

Left-handed relief ace Ron Perranoski shut out the Reds for the last 2-3 innings to win his eighth game against two losses. Jim Maloney, seeking his 12th win, struck out 11 batters and went into the eighth inning with a 2-2 tie but a walk to Perranoski and Gordie Coleman's wild throw on a sacrifice attempt set the stage for Gilliam's big blow.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to remain a half-game behind the first-place St. Louis Cardinals, who topped the San Francisco Giants, 6-5. The Houston Colts beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-2, in 13 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, and the New York Mets defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, in other National League games.

Rodeo Group Has Election

CANADIAN (Sp) — Officers were elected at a meeting of the Triangle Rodeo Association Tuesday night in the E-J Cafe at Canadian.

The association is made up of rodeo officials from Pampa and Elk City and Woodward, Okla. Ralph Bellamy of Woodward was re-elected president, Wiley Reynolds of Pampa was re-elected vice president, and J. D. Stanley of Elk City was elected secretary-treasurer.

The rodeo association was formed in 1962 to coordinate joint promotion of rodeos held in each of the three cities and to improve the quality of the rodeos.

Pampa's annual rodeo is scheduled for four days, Aug. 21-24.

Girls Softball

The Optettes edged the Optettes, 14-13, in an Opti-Mrs. Girls Softball League game yesterday.

Nita Herring took the win and Alice Harper was the losing pitcher.

Leading batters for the Optettes were Patricia Parrin, Gayle Blumer, Diane Parker and Janie Hammons with two hits each. Angela Roush and Alice Harper each had two hits for the Optettes.

Little Albie Leads Angels Into Thick of Flag Race

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Little man, what now?

It's a good question American Leaguers ask about Albie Pearson, the pit-sized outfielder who performs herculean feats for the Los Angeles Angels.

Five-foot, 5-inch, 141-pound Albie is a cinch to be one of the American League's starting outfielders in this year's All-Star Game because if his rivals can overlook his tiny physique they can't overlook his .313 average.

But what's more important to the Angels, struggling to surge back into the thick of the American League pennant race, is that 28-year-old Albie from Alhambra, Calif., delivers when the team needs it most.

Like Wednesday night when the Angels whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1 and 3-2, in a two-night doubleheader and vaulted past Cleveland and Baltimore into fifth place, 6½ games off the lead, Pearson singled and scored the Angels' first run of the opener and then tripled home the tying run and scored the winning run in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Paul Foytack, making his first start since acquired from Detroit, went 8-13 in the first game of the opener and then Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and struck out seven to score his ninth victory in the second game.

The New York Yankees took a one-game grip on first place as they beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-1, and the Boston Red Sox nipped the Cleveland Indians, 6-5, in other American League action. Washington at Kansas City was rained out.

Bob Rodgers homered for the Angels in the first game and Leon Wagner hit No. 16 of the season and his first at home for Los Angeles.

Colts Crush Fritch For Fifth Straight

FRITCH (Sp) — The Pampa Colts won their fifth straight Tri-State League game in a row last night, pounding the Fritch Rebels, 20-8.

Royce Harnsberger took the win, his third consecutive victory, with Jerry Glover coming on to get the last two outs in a ninth-inning Fritch rally.

The game was close for the first five innings, Fritch leading, 3-2, when the Colt clubbers unloaded, taking the lead in the sixth frame, 4-3, adding two more in the seventh and then batting around in the eighth and ninth for 14 more runs.

Cleanup batter Bobby Nutt continued his hitting streak as he led the way with four hits, including two doubles, batting in six runs and scoring four more. Harnsberger again proved pitchers can hit as he helped his own game with a bases-loaded home run and single.

The Colts opened up on starter I. J. Sanchez for three hits and two runs in the first frame on singles by Gary Hill, Nutt and Stroud. Fritch came right back in their half to tie it without a hit on a walk and three errors.

The Colts could pick up only two hits and Fritch one through the next four frames. The hosts took the lead in the third when Johnnie Spencer was safe on an error, moved up on a grounder and scored on Chuck Bennett's sacrifice fly.

With one out, Nutt worked a walk in the sixth, Larry Stroud struck out, but DeWayne Glover and Butch Frazier singled in succession and Pampa moved into the lead.

Two errors and Nutt's double made it 6-3, Pampa, in the seventh. Twelve men went to bat in the eighth inning and eight of them dented the plate as Gary Hill belted a triple, and Roy Don Stephens, Nutt, Butch Frazier and Mike Stewart came through with singles.

The Colts continued their hitting in the ninth, with a single by Jerry Glover, a double by Nutt and three walks, setting up a ducks-on-the-pond situation as Harnsberger belted the first pitch to him over the left field fence.

Fritch, which had eked out just three hits, came to life in their final at-bat. With one out, Don Meeks poked a double, Spencer singled, Trollinger doubled, and Johnny Rogers singled, mixed with three errors. Harnsberger gave way to Glover and Big Jerry fired his fast ball past Gerald Shull and Homer Espinosa for two strikeouts and the ball game.

Seeking their sixth win against three defeats, the Colts host the powerful Liberal Bee Jays Saturday night at Optimist Park.

Date For New Year's Eve '64

The glitter and glamor — even the pristine elegance — of a long-decaded Times Square is due for a renaissance.

New York's renowned triangle, where Broadway, Seventh Avenue and Forty-Second Street almost intersect, has been famous for more than half a century as "the crossroads of the world" since there was, for many years no more likely place for travelers from Paris, Texas; or Paris, Maine; or Paris, Idaho; or Paris, France — from Zanzibar or Pampa — to meet friends from home.

Now, its historic landmark, the Times Building is to be divested of its skin, and its sturdy old bones, with a little spinal reinforcement, will be re-covered in modernistic style with gleaming glass and white synthetic facing. On completion late next year, this monument to public enlightenment will greet New York and the world in its up-to-date functional splendor as the Allied Building — with its three-story glass-enclosed "showcase for chemistry" completely occupying the first three floors, and open to all who visit the famous crossroads.

The Only Question

A Congressional House subcommittee is now becoming involved with hearings on the labor-supported 35-hour work week proposal, along with related subjects. Labor spokesmen lead off, first, and then management will get its turn, probably in August. The result, some think, will be more election fodder for the 1964 Presidential and Congressional election year.

Whatever may be the end result of this particular piece of legislation — we want to lower taxes. We want to revise the whole tax system. We want to place ourselves in a stronger economic position in relation to foreign Free World producers who have done wonders since the war in rebuilding, modernizing, and expanding the production of goods and services of every kind. We want to

But even the Cuban humbly is faded by the capture of the staff and demolition of the headquarters of the US Military Mission in Caracas, Venezuela by eight Communist — after furnishing repeated warnings, even to advising a local newspaper of the time, of the attack within an hour!

The eight "terrorists," say dispatches, overpowered the four Venezuelan National Guardsmen — who appear for some reason to have been guarding the US Military Mission — tossed them inside

TELEVISION'S COME-UPPANCE? By RAYMOND C. BAKER American Way Features Correspondent

The man responsible for bringing convicted perjurer Alger Hiss to the air waves to recite "The Political Obituary of Richard Nixon" may shortly be singing a requiem — without mourners — over the demise of his controversial news program.

Liberal commentator Howard K. Smith, who built whatever reputation he may enjoy for his anti-business commentaries, may be responsible for involving the television industry in more hot water than it can take at this time.

Still smarting from the Congressional revelations of the untrustworthiness of its rating systems, television might soon find itself involved in charges of violation of the Sherman and Clayton Anti-Trust Acts. Dead center aim has been taken on the American Broadcasting Company as a result of the Smith-Hiss dirge, but the entire industry will be affected if a Federal Court finds ABC guilty.

Fall Of The Mighty Some recapitulation is necessary to bring the threat to television into sharp focus. Shortly after former Vice President Nixon lost his race for governor of California last November, Smith saw fit to call ex-convict Hiss from obscurity into the full view of millions of Americans to vent his spleen against the man who, as Congressman Nixon of the House Un-American Activities Committee, was responsible for unmasking Hiss as a courier of classified documents for the Communist Party, and causing his incarceration.

Many Americans in all walks of life were offended by the telecast, particularly since ABC preempted prime evening time on which a Veterans Day tribute to "The Fighting Man" was to have been shown. One man, perhaps with more at stake, decided to do something about it.

He is James S. Kemper of the Kemper group of insurance companies, who cancelled his news program on the same network. ABC used a portion of the Kemper time to plug the Smith-Hill show, in spite of an agreement for a ten-minute separation between the former's show and that of a competitor. The Smith show was sponsored by a competing insurance company. ABC filed suit to recover $452,000 from Kemper.

Anti-Trust Acts Cited The suit by Kemper in the United States District Court cites 12 practices through which ABC endeavored to restrain competition. The complaint charges that ABC virtually blackjacked the Kemper companies into buying time on 35 TV stations in markets it did not want in order that they might acquire the 95 stations in markets they did want.

A detailed discussion of the TV industry, its methods of operation and the competition between the three major networks for local affiliates is contained in the complaint.

One of the charges highlights the complaint by stating that "in order to acquire, control and dominate the broadcast time of its affiliates, and in order to foreclose competitors from acquisition of and access to that time, ABC has imposed certain tie-in arrangements between it and its advertisers."

FCC Affiliate Ruling A week after the Kemper suit was filed, the Federal Communications Commission outlawed television network option time on affiliated stations, ruling that it is "not essential to networking, is both an artificial restraint on access to TV station time and an abdication of TV licensee responsibility, and is contrary to the public interest."

Thus, the Kemper contentions in the suit against ABC are similar to the FCC ruling, which had been under consideration for months.

The Federal court, action, combined with the FCC ruling, could result in severe limitations on the networks' control over their affiliated stations. It could result in an abandonment of "package" deals on advertisers, if Kemper's complaint is upheld.

And so Howard K. Smith, who has vigorously promoted the growth of the federal government, and its control over the business world, may soon find himself out of a job, as a result of his own efforts. This could be the most ironic ramification of TV's impending come-uppance.

NOW YOU KNOW By United Press International The total crop area in the Soviet Union of 500 million acres roughly equals that of the United States and Canada combined, but total production is only about three-fourths that of U.S. farms alone, according to "Focus," a publication of the American Geographical Society.

Open Up In The Name Of Freedom!

The Nation's Press

FREEDOM WILL PERISH Once the right of a state to exercise exclusive jurisdiction over a local problem is lost, then human rights, liberty and freedom will absolutely perish.

If somebody asks you the biggest danger confronting the American republic, the words above are the answer. They were spoken by Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi in Jackson the other day. The News has voiced the governor's warning consistently since the late Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal — conceived as a justified emergency — laid the foundations of federal power.

To repeat: Our greatest danger — the biggest story of our time — is the constant growth of federal power and the gradual destruction of local and states' rights.

The genius of our governmental system is the protective safeguard of "limited powers" carefully written into the Constitution by those men who assembled in Philadelphia 178 years ago. Their bitter experience with George III of England made them distrust not only a monarchy but dictatorial power in any form.

Therefore, they made certain that this country must confine itself to certain duties, these to be detailed in the Constitution itself. That central government, they decreed, must never assume powers not delegated to it.

Those powers should be reserved to the states and to the people, respectively.

But gradually this concept has been torn to bits.

— That government, administered through 2,500 bureaus, now tells a businessman how much he must pay a window washer.

— It tells a farmer what he can plant, how much he can plant and what he will get when he harvests it.

— Although the word, education, is not mentioned in the Constitution, that government dictates to a community who is to sit next to whom in a classroom.

— It takes part of a corporation's income and spends it abroad to finance competition for that corporation.

— Out of nearly every individual's pay check it takes a substantial part of his money and spends it before he gets the check.

— It proposes to tell the private owner of a private eatery built with private money not only whom he can serve but whom he must serve.

— It permits, by law, the executives of labor unions to unite and strike an entire industry; but the management in that industry, by law, cannot unite to pursue many of its own ends.

— Gov. Barnett, in uttering the words at the top of this editorial, had in mind the present racial crisis. But it is only another phase of this big government which assumes increasing control and direction of the nation's economic and social life.

Every additional power assumed by Washington is at the expense of some individual, community or state. When these individual and local powers wither away, freedom withers and liberty becomes what big government says it is.

It is not a new story in history, but it's a sad one. And at its ultimate, "freedom will absolutely perish." — The Dallas News

SQUARE BALLOON

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Why in the world would anyone want a square balloon? After 20 years of puzzling over this mystery, engineers of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company have received the answer from the widow of famous physicist Enrico Fermi.

The balloon, which Goodyear built back in 1942 without knowing what its use would be, was needed as an airtight enclosure around the pile in which the first controlled chain reaction of atomic energy was accomplished. Mrs. Fermi, whose husband supervised the project, revealed the balloon's use in a recent bulletin of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

The Doctor Says

Best Poison Ivy Treatment Is Still Dodging That Vine By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

The surest way to prevent poison ivy is to stay indoors, but even that may fail, because contact with tools, clothes, or a picnic basket contaminated with the poison several days beforehand may cause you to blossom out.

Furthermore, a dog that has picked up the resin may deliver it right to the easy chair where you are sitting. If you pat him, you may regret it a few hours or days later when your skin becomes very rare.

More often you pick up ivy poisoning at first hand. If, like most people, you are susceptible to poisoning with this resin, the first rule is to learn what poison ivy looks like and remember that it grows not only as a vine but also as a bush.

Its thick, sticky, poisonous resin is found chiefly on the shiny leaves. Many a person brushes against these leaves when knocking about in the woods without realizing that he has done so.

If you should recognize too late that you have come in contact with the leaves, the sooner you wash your hands, preferably with a strong soap, the better. As an alternative, you can wipe the resin off with a wad of cotton or facial tissue soaked in alcohol or gasoline.

The use of a protective cream before contact with poison ivy may prove helpful. The cream should contain zinc oxide, as this neutralizes the poison.

Desensitizing injections or tablets have been helpful to some susceptible persons, but must be taken two or three months before the anticipated exposure, to be of any value.

They must not be taken after exposure, as this would only aggravate the attack. We can't all be lucky. So, in spite of precautions, you develop an ivy rash, calamine lotion or a paste made of sodium bicarbonate and water may relieve the discomfort. Cortisone and related steroid hormones in lotion, ointment or tablet form also usually gives relief.

And so I say, who would trade a fine summer day, with all its hazards, for any other day in the year?

Q — What caused hives?

A — Hives is a very common form of allergy. It may be caused by a great variety of substances.

Hives are most likely to occur in the areas of skin that are subjected to pressure or friction, such as under a belt, garters or suspenders, and inside the shoe or at the shoe tops. They resemble insect bites, especially those of mosquitoes.

The commonest foods that cause hives are seafoods, strawberries, milk and milk products, nuts, eggs, wheat, and chocolate. But even commoner than foods as a cause are such drugs as quinine (including tonic water), salicylates (including aspirin), barbiturates, iodides (including iodized salt), and penicillin.

Hives are often caused by, or aggravated by, menstruation and pregnancy. Many persons get hives from hand lotions, face powder, beauty creams, and cosmetic applications for the hair or scalp. Some very sensitive persons get hives from exposure to heat, cold, or sunlight.

When the condition is very severe an injection of adrenalin may be required. The best treatment, however, is prevention. This requires studies to determine the exact cause, and then avoidance of contact with that substance.

Between the Bookends

A VOICE IN THE POLITICAL WILDERNESS History is full of great warnings about freedom and liberty. "That which we obtain too cheaply we esteem too lightly"; "The price of liberty is eternal vigilance"; etc. The founding fathers, in their wisdom, knew that freedom and liberty had to be safeguarded by the very Americans for whom it was guaranteed. But their warnings have not been enough, for liberty and freedom have been steadily eroded by the growth of government.

Freedom, as a human right, is explored in a short new book by Dr. David A. Freed, "My Case For Freedom" (The Naylor Co., 1015 Culebra Ave., San Antonio, Texas; $3.50). Dr. Freed believes in America and democracy; he believes in individual expression and security of Constitutional rights for Americans. But he harbors a great concern over the acceptance and growth of Government aid in our public and private lives. He feels this acceptance is destroying our incentive to protect freedom.

Self-Government To understand the possible results of too much governmental aid, Dr. Freed traces man's history in self-government. He begins with sidetraps into primitive governmental processes, follows the growth of individuality in government through the classical ages of Greece and Rome. He then takes the reader through great renaissance cultures, industrial age reforms, and through our own age of heightened social and political security.

"Our American form of government," says Dr. Freed, "is an attempt to give each person under it the greatest degree of individual freedom possible, in order to seek and establish his own way of experiencing life." But the vast expense of maintaining our government is already destroying individual incentive.

Basics of Freedom The basic element of freedom is the sanctity of the right of each individual to maintain and express his own singular identity. From that premise Dr. Freed goes on to prove that the collectivist's shortsighted, self-interested goal of breaking our free enterprise economy through spending for social needs will return us to a despondent, incentive-lacking depression similar to that of the 1930's.

America today is steeped in violent arguments over the value, much less the ultimate result, of state aid. Freed urges us to reject state aid, on the very real basis that the government cannot give us what it does not first take away from us.

"My Case For Freedom" is a plea to all people, in all times, in all places, who sacrifice for freedom. Only when our freedom is truly meaningful to us will the United States again become what Abraham Lincoln called "government of the people, by the people, for the people."

Aquatic Weeks Slated at Camp Kiowa in July

Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Adobe Walls Council may attend an Aquatic Week at Camp Kiowa, out of Canadian, for training in swimming, life saving, rowing, canoeing and water front safety. Attendance is on an individual basis, and reservations may be made for the weeks of July 7 or July 14 through the Council Service Center, Box 2479, Pampa.

Any Boy Scout or Explorer that qualifies as a Scout swimmer; that is entering deep water and swimming fifty yards out and back, is eligible to attend.

Campers will check in on Sunday afternoon and complete the training at noon the following Saturday.

Although the camp will be limited because of the water front facilities, there are still openings in both weeks.

Each Scout Troop is urged to have at least one representative trained this summer to assist the troop in its summer swim program.

Complete information will be sent the Scout upon registration.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Keefe Brasselle, who Tuesday night began an hour variety show replacing Garry Moore this summer on CBS-TV, had a 1962 special in which we were privileged to see Liberace dance.

Ah, that was a sight. This job has its unexpected rewards.

Tuesday night Brasselle, who is hoping for a year-round spot on CBS, helped initiate his premiere by bringing on Miss Zsa Zsa Gabor for some musical banter, some costumed strutting and some of her remarks about finance. And while we wish to be remembered for our gallantry, it must be admitted that Liberace suddenly seemed an almost amiable memory.

So much for gallantry. What is important is that Miss Gabor was followed by Miss Barbra Streisand, whose appearance is sufficient reason to justify the existence of any show. Not long ago, on Dinah Shore's final program of the season, Miss Streisand's talents exploded through the home screen, with her astounding singing style in which her acting ability and satiric power amount to relevant commentaries. She did it again Tuesday night, though mostly she merely sang beautifully, chillingly, bringing unrestrained cheers from those on hand.

In short, she was a one-woman recovery operation. And in a song, she is without question the most impressive stylist of modern song that this viewer has ever seen on television—so far the superiority of any of her competitors that there is really no one even in her league.

As for the show, the parlay of Miss Gabor and then Miss Streisand was a tipoff to the imbalance of the evening. It must be rated a so-so first outing, but not without promise. Though Brasselle is no powerhouse singer, dancer or actor, the background of his parents in vaudeville and his feel for this type of entertainment give indication of a good pinwheel host. But the visiting talent and the material, also up and down, must be pruned and cut specifically to his directions.

Among his regulars is Ann B. Davis, formerly Bob Cummings' television sidekick, and she is solid support as a comic singer and actress, though Tuesday night's material gave her only a part chance. With Fred Gwynne, late of the "Car 54, Where Are You?" series, she did a short laughing song that was a gasser. Another regular is ex-boxer Rocky Graziano, who also had some sad jokes at first but wound up with a soulful version of the song "When A Gypsy Makes His Violin Cry," which left this viewer in a state of total collapse. It was marvelous.

Jerry Van Dyke, brother of Dick Van Dyke, and a regular on Judy Garland's new fall-video series, bowed in Tuesday night as host of his own game show, "Picture This," which is replacing Jack Benny on CBS-TV this summer.

The program is the usual quiz idiosyncrasy; this time, contestants give their partners hints to draw pictures. But J. Van Dyke gives one the sneaking suspicion that if he is not a very large popular success before next year is out, it will be a big, big surprise. Dick is the sophisticated smoothie. But his brother is a good-time-Charlie type, collegiate-looking, the kind of comedian who is fun at a party, plunking his banjo. He is a talk smoothie. That is potent stuff on video.

The Channel Swims: CBS-TV tonight offers a one-hour special about President Kennedy at the Berlin "wall" built by the Communists. ABC-TV is planning a one-hour weekly dramatic anthology series based on the Bible for the 1964-65 season.

An hour-long color special about Vatican events from the death of Pope John to his succession by the new Pope Paul will air on NBC-TV July 4. Same network has a half-hour program this Sunday about the coronation of Pope Paul.

Jason Robards Jr. will star in the title role of NBC-TV's "One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich," adapted from the well-known novel about Russian labor camps during the reign of Stalin. The drama will be part of next season's new Bob Hope weekly anthology series.

BUSINESS FAILURES DROP

NEW YORK (UPI) — Business failures across the country last week dropped to 274 from 364 the prior week and compared with 285 in the like week last year. Dun & Bradstreet reported Tuesday.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Investment advisor James Dines says it's best to ignore predictions of a "summer rally."

"This could happen," he says, "but the few declines that have started in summertime have been unusually serious and steep. In other words, if you expect a summer rally, use a reason other than seasonal pattern."

The Alexander Hamilton Institute notes that the market continues increasingly selective and appears to be undergoing a further period of consolidation. "A moderate decline from present levels cannot be ruled out," the institute warns.

Although International Statistical Bureau, Inc., does not advise wide scale selling, it does recommend some profit-taking at this point. The bureau points out that "the market's ability to hold at around current levels, despite the high levels and the low yields on a great number of stocks, can be considered favorable."

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bradbury K. Thurlow of Winslow, Cohn and Statton questions whether there is enough aggressive buying interest in cyclical stocks to offset the profit-taking going on in the blue chips.

Thurlow's advice is to take profits in the better grade stocks that have lost their forward momentum and buy some of the better acting cyclical issues in hopes of a mild summer rally. He believes the next stock market movement of consequence will be a decline, but that is not due for some time yet.

Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel and Co. says it may require a period of consolidation before the Dow-Jones industrials hit new all-time highs.

Securities Firm Slates Formal Opening Friday

Formal opening of the Pampa branch office of the Dallas investment securities firm, Schneider, Bernet & Hickman, Inc., will be held tomorrow in Room 100 of the Hughes Bldg.

Open house is scheduled from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Resident manager of the office is Griffin Dollarhide Jr., a native Texan. Others on the local staff include Glen F. Brosier and Walter T. Price III, registered representatives, and Mrs. Ann Combs, secretary.

Regular office hours will be from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The parent firm's president and one of its founders, J. W. Hickman of Dallas, was to arrive here late today and be present for the formal open house tomorrow.

Hickman, who has been in the securities business for some 30 years, also is a director of Southwestern Investment Co. which has offices here and in Amarillo.

The firm is a member of the New York Stock Exchange and associate member of the American Stock Exchange.

"We are in a position to take care of any investment needs and can give quotations on any listed or any unlisted stock," Dollarhide said.

Dollarhide also stated that the firm is ready to consult with any interested persons who wish to obtain information about the stock market.

The firm can furnish service in any common or preferred stocks and corporate bonds, the resident manager said.

Dollarhide, born in Denison, has been in charge of the firm's branch office in Amarillo. He and Mrs. Dollarhide have three children.

Schneider, Bernet & Hickman have five other offices in addition to the Pampa branch. They are in Dallas, Waco, Abilene, Amarillo, and El Dorado, Ark.

Arrangements have been made with the investment firm to carry daily reports on over the counter stocks in the Pampa News. The first list appears today on Page 4.

Senate Is Likely To Pass Defense Appropriation Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate appears likely to concur in all but a few details to the $47 billion defense appropriations bill passed by the House.

By a 410-1 vote Wednesday, the House approved the bill which accounts for almost half of the entire $98.8 federal budget for the fiscal year beginning Monday.

Senate sources said the bill, trimmed by about $1.9 billion from the President's request, was almost in line with the general views expressed by the Senate military appropriations subcommittee.

The subcommittee already is at work on the Senate version. But Senate action is not expected to come until after the fiscal year begins. Final passage of the bill after the start of the year is not uncommon, and Congress already has given the Defense Department authority to spend at current levels until the new budget is approved.

One of the changes the Senate is likely to make in the House version is in funds for the controversial B57D strike plane. The Senate might well act to speed work on the plane, although the House went along with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's all but writing off the 2,000-mile-an-hour bomber.

All U.S. bomber production stopped last year, and Defense Department critics have questioned abandoning the manned bomber to rely solely on missiles.

The bill's manager, Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., told the House, however, that other possible, supersonic bombers were under study. He said Congress probably would be asked for money next year to build one final-type manned strategic aircraft for addition to the bomber fleet now dominated by the obsolescent B52.

The lone dissenter to House passage was Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo., who said he had no real objection to the bill but cast his "no" vote to call attention to "the seriousness of deficit financing."

"We haven't got the money," he said.

President Takes Sentimental Trip

By MEREDITH SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

DUBLIN (UPI) — The Irish made John F. Kennedy their own today.

The President left behind the affairs of state in Dublin and hopped on a helicopter and car on a sentimental journey across southeastern Ireland, home of his ancestors.

He went to New Ross, from where his great grandfather sailed for America 113 years ago, slipped tea with his cousins and other relatives at the old family homestead in Dunganstown; laid a wreath in Wexford on a statue of Commodore John Barry, father of the American Navy; and then hopped back to Dublin.

The President was in a relaxed and happy mood following grim Berlin visit. He was hysterical applause and was mobbed by throngs everywhere he went in this misty green island.

At New Ross he told a wildly cheering crowd that "if his great grandfather had not gone to America, 'I'd be working over at the Albatross Co. here, I guess.'"

The company is a fertilizer factory on the river.

From New Ross he motored five miles along hedge-lined lanes to Dunganstown to take a look at the potato shed which was the original Kennedy home.

Pushes Into Crowd
Breaking through all protocol barriers at Dunganstown, the President pushed into the crowd to shake hands and expressed his pleasure at seeing the people of the area of his forebears.

He was nearly mobbed by the huge quayside crowd at New Ross after his folksy speech in which he introduced some of his traveling companions and then said that "when my great-grandfather left here 113 years ago he carried with him only two things—faith and a strong desire to live in liberty."

New Ross Urban Council Chairman Andrew Minihan had a spot of trouble introducing the President. His microphone went dead. Workmen struggled in vain to fix it, but Kennedy had to rely on his own lung power for his brief informal speech.

Surging crowds broke police lines, and police had to push the cheering people aside to get the President back to his car for the ride to Dunganstown.

In Nostalgic Mood
Kennedy was in an obvious nostalgic mood as he looked out at the crowd of 5,000 massed in New Ross and told them he was indeed glad to be back.

If his ancestors had remained there, he said, he might today be working in the fertilizer factory or for auctioneer John V. Kelly, whose establishment fronts on the tiny town square.

Kelly, who also runs a local pub in New Ross, said with a grin and a twinkle in his eye when asked what job he might have given Kennedy:

"In New Ross today there is only one job—the job of barman; provided he doesn't drink. What would I pay him? About two pounds a week ($3.60), I suppose. But I believe he has done better for himself."

The President left New Ross with gifts that included such items as a Waterford glass bowl with four scenes associated with the Kennedy family engraved on its sides.

When he reached Dunganstown, the President told police and other security officers that he wanted to get close to the people. Pushing aside some of the officers, the President beckoned and called forward bystanders and neighbors of Mrs. Mary Ryan, his second cousin once removed, who lives in the more modern dove-grey, two-story house just a few feet from the original Kennedy homestead.

"I want to meet some of the people to say 'hello,'" the President said.

Then, as he moved among them, the Dunganstown people (See KENNEDY, Page 4)

Godber To Be Replacement For Profumo

LONDON (UPI) — Joseph Godber, minister of state for foreign affairs and a member of Parliament since 1951, today replaced disgraced John Profumo as war minister.

Godber, 49, has been in the Foreign Office since 1960 when he was appointed joint undersecretary of state. He was named minister of state the following year.

Profumo resigned June 4 after admitting he lied to the House of Commons in denying his intimate relationship with 21-year-old playgirl Christine Keeler in Britain's scandal of the century.

Peter Thomas, G. former undersecretary of the Foreign Office, will replace Godber.

Meanwhile, Dr. Stephen Ward, key figure in the Profumo case, prepared his defense for a vic trial that may provide new embarrassing disclosures about the sex-and-security affair.

Ward, an osteopath and artist with a distinguished London clientele, goes into court Friday on charges he lived wholly or partly off the earnings of prostitutes.

Chance Seen for Depressed Area Aid Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Overwhelming Senate approval of President Kennedy's aid to depressed areas program brightens prospects today for a "second chance" try in the house.

The Senate, after two days of debate, Wednesday passed, 65-30, the bill to increase authorized funds for the Area Redevelopment Agency (ARA) by $455 million over the next two years.

The victory margin was two votes more than the 63 senators who voted in 1961 to create the agency, which funnels loans and grants into communities afflicted with persistent unemployment.

Backers hoped the substantial Senate vote of confidence in the much-criticized agency would persuade the House to reverse its earlier rejection of the bill. In a stunning upset, the House defeated the measure, 205-204, two weeks ago.

Bide Their Time
House leaders were expected to bide their time, try to drum up support and count noses before submitting the issue to a second test.

Indications were that another attempt would not be made until the House has disposed of Kennedy's civil rights proposals. This would put a vote off until late August or early September.

House supporters hinted the program might be tightened up in committee, and the amount cut by $100 million or more to improve chances for passage.

In the Senate, nine Democrats—eight southerners and Ohio's Frank J. Lausche—voted against the bill. They were joined by 21 Republicans. Supporting the bill were 53 Democrats and 12 Republicans.

Rainstorms Prowl Along Texas Coast

By United Press International
Thunderstorms prowled the middle and upper coast today, the same area drenched by torrential downpours the past two days. Thunderheads built up in North Texas where more than two inches of rain fell Wednesday.

Readings today ranged from 82 at Alpine in the Big Bend country to 80 at Corpus Christi along the coast.

Rainfall amounts for the 24-hour period ended at 8 a.m. today included Tyler 1.28, Farmersville .81, Junction 28, Perrin Air Force Base 17, Palacios .64, Victoria .32, Houston .57, Galveston .68, and Beaumont .02.

The widespread rains of Wednesday had little effect on summertime heat. Presidio recorded a high of 103 degrees. Only Houston with an 88 and Galveston, which recorded 85, had temperatures of less than 90.

Slide 15 miles northwest of Denton, measured 2.06 inches of rain shortly before 4 p.m. Wednesday. Streets ran curbfull and water got into a few homes.

Nearly an inch and a half fell in Houston about the same time. Water surged through downtown streets and over sidewalks. Visibility was cut to near zero in some parts and traffic brought to a halt on some streets.

Labor Secretary Asks Congress For New Job Discrimination Tools

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz appealed to Congress today for new tools to fight job discrimination by employers and labor unions.

He told the House Judiciary Committee that two provisions of the administration's seven-point civil rights package would attack discrimination in hiring and promotion.

The labor secretary followed Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy in the witness chair to open the campaign for the President's proposals to lower racial barriers.

Says Progress Made
Wirtz said the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity has made amazing strides in halting discrimination by the federal government and U.S. contractors who employ 20 million workers.

Refugee 'Invasion' Out of Proportion

MIAMI (UPI)—Talk of a new refugee "invasion" of Cuba has died down here as rapidly as it flared up about a week ago.

It is now clear that a report that refugee "commandos" from Central America were smuggling arms to anti-Castro guerrillas in Cuba snowballed out of all proportion in the telling.

About 20 men appear actually to have landed in Cuba, but exaggerated reports reaching here magnified that number as much as 150-fold.

When "invasion" rumors first began circulating, refugee leader Manuel A. de Varona told UPI that it was true that three small-boat parties had landed in Cuba.

Number Increased
"The arms we sent were more important than the number of commandos," de Varona said.

In a matter of minutes, however, the number of men involved suddenly shot up to "more than 500." A few hours later, Rep. Paul Rogers, D-Fla., heard from "trustworthy sources" that 3,000 heavily armed guerrillas had landed.

At that point, the press chief of the Cuban (refugee) Revolutionary Council stepped in with an announcement that the invaders would report progress by radio the following day.

A broadcast actually was heard at the appointed hour, but no one was certain exactly what it meant or whether it really was a transmission from Cuba or a relay from Miami's "Radio Liberation."

Resigns in Disgust
Anacleto Maceo, grandson and namesake of a Cuban independence hero, resigned from the presidency of the council in disgust. He had urged "discretion" as a watchword when he became CRC president in April.

There has been no indication from Cuba of unusual guerrilla activity since the arms landings. One Castroite short-wave report mentioned a clash between a mi-

Pampans Warned About Fireworks

Police Chief Jim Conner today issued his annual reminder that Pampa has a city ordinance banning the discharge of fireworks and firearms within the city.

The ordinance also prohibits the sale of fireworks of any kind inside the city limits, Chief Conner stated.

Officers stopped three youths in a red convertible Tuesday night and warned them against shooting Roman candles from the car. Police confiscated several Roman candles and warned the youths another violation would result in prosecution.

Chief Conner pointed to the danger attendant to the use of fireworks.

"They are dangerous," Conner said, "and can result in personal injury or life damage."

The chief said that with the approach of the Fourth of July there usually is a rash of violations from fireworks bought outside and brought into the city by the purchasers.

Restraint Called For After Bombing In Minneapolis

By United Press International
Community leaders appealed today for restraint at Minneapolis, Minn., where the homes of two policemen involved in a recent racial incident were bombed.

Civil rights leaders said the bombings may not have been done by Negroes but rather by "non-Negro persons who would like to see repressive measures taken against the Negro segment."

No one was injured in the explosions Wednesday morning which damaged the homes of Patrolman David Clunis and Police Capt. Kenneth Moore. Clunis is under suspension for allegedly beating a Negro with a blackjack during a racial incident, and Moore was suspended for allowing his men to start a lund drive to reimburse Clunis his lost pay.

The Lighter Side

Silent Spring Speaks

By DICK WEST
 United Press International
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Each summer since I joined in the colonization of darkest suburbia I have grown a small "victory garden" in my back yard.
 Little things that I have heard and read in recent years lead me to believe that the Victory Garden campaign has been losing momentum since the end of the war. But I have continued to do my part.
 People who have the stimulus of war to grow a victory garden belong in the same class with sunshine patriots, I say.
 This year, however, we victory gardeners find ourselves caught on the horns of a dilemma, which is the next worse thing to being caught on the horns of a water buffalo.
 The dilemma got into the garden by way of Rachel Carson's widely discussed book "Silent Spring." Either that or somebody left the gate open.

Got Hooked
 At any rate, I was spraying a radish with an anti-tomtit tincture (three parts tetraethyl to one part vermouth) when it hooked me.
 Suddenly I straightened up and said to myself "This spray I am using is undoubtedly contributing to the health and well-being of this radish, but how do I know it is not upsetting the balance of nature?"
 Miss Carson, as you know, raised a warning against the headlong use of pesticides and other horticultural chemicals lest it destroy nature's equilibrium.
 Her message has had a profound effect upon us victory gardeners. We figure that nature isn't any too well balanced anyway.
 I put down the sprayer and was balancing myself in the hammock when my wife came out and asked why I had quit gardening.
 Weighing Benefits
 "I'm weighing the benefits that will accrue to our radish from a spraying with an anti-tomtit solution against the possible disturbing effect that it might have on the natural order of the universe by driving away the tomtits," I told her.
 "I am glad to know that," my wife said. "It appeared to me that you were taking a nap."
 "I think better with my eyes closed," I explained.
 Later on, I tried to get my mind off the problem by tuning in the ball game. But there was no escape.
 As I watched the Washington Senators sink deeper into the cellar of the American League, I couldn't help but wonder if their inability to hit and catch baseballs was a result of the chemicals that the groundskeeper uses on the outfield grass.
 If anything, the Senators are even more off balance than nature is. Perhaps Miss Carson will explore this situation in her next book.

Man of Many Complexities

EDITORS NOTE: Following is the first of a three-part series on Pope Paul VI, the man and his origin, his policies and what his pontificate may hold for both the Catholic and non-Catholic world.

POPE PAUL VI

By United Press International
His strength of mind and character can be seen in his eyes.

It is in his dark blue eyes, deeply set and piercing, that you see the courage and cool intellect of Pope Paul VI, who otherwise gives the appearance of frailness.

Giovanni Battista Montini is a man of many complexities.

He has been described as a "liberal" in church circles, but there are overtones of traditionalism and a trace of the authoritarian air of the late Pope Pius XII.

At times he is blunt, but in his writing and speeches he can be as complex and circumspect as Pius, who often took 10 pages to express painfully what others might say in a few paragraphs.

Pope Paul's life has been dedicated to keeping Catholicism in step with a swiftly changing world.

Supports John's Moves

He firmly supported his predecessor's moves towards bringing the church in line with the space age.

And now assuming the throne of St. Peter as the 262nd Pope, he has vowed to continue the forward-looking policies of John XXIII: the aims of the Ecumenical Council and its aspirations of Christian unity, and giving the church a focal role in securing a just world peace.

Pope Paul VI is no orator who appeals to the emotions of his listeners, but a speaker whose words are to be closely studied.

Even with the working men of the bustling Milan archdiocese this method of communication was fruitful. Montini, as archbishop of Milan for about nine years, devoted a good portion of his time to battling the inroads of communism. To do this he went to factories, shops, wherever workers—Communist or Catholic—were to be found.

Shape Liberal Outlook

The new pontiff's background, the progressive Catholic atmosphere he grew up in, and his days in the Vatican secretariat of state, shaped his "liberal" outlook to matters of the world and the church.

Montini's father, Giorgio, was a crusading lawyer and journalist who for years was the leader of the Catholic party in the northern city of Brescia, a deputy in the Italian Parliament, and manager of Brescia's Catholic newspaper, "Il Cittadino" (The Citizen). Giorgio Montini and his wife, Giuditta Alghisi, died in 1943.

Giovanni Battista is the second of three brothers—all successful in the walks of life they chose, and all still living. One is a surgeon, the other a senator in the Italian Parliament.

The new Pope was born Sept. 26, 1897, at Concesio, a little village of about 7,000 persons, five miles north of Brescia and some 60 miles from the metropolis of Milan.

Taught By Jesuits

His early schooling was with Jesuit priests in Brescia, first at the "Cesare Arici" college then at the "Cristo Re" (Christ the King) seminary.

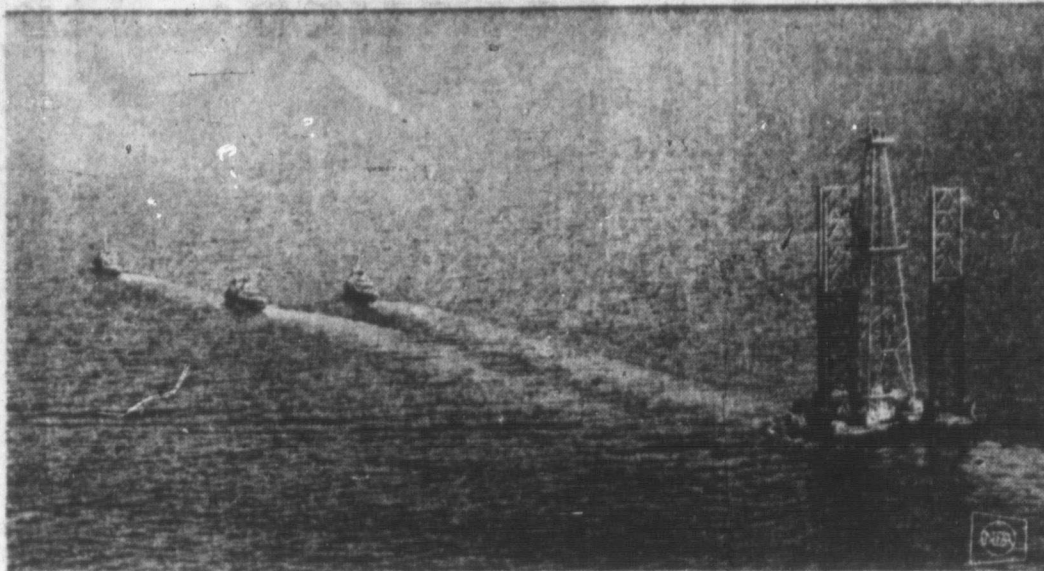

Teachers later described him

as "a well balanced boy, determined and very intelligent."

A prodigious reader, he amazed friends when he was appointed archbishop of Milan in 1954 after serving 30 years in the Vatican secretariat of state by taking 90 packing cases full of personal books with him to the northern Italian city.

He thrived in the intellectual atmosphere of the secretariat, and was one of the top aides to Pope Pius XII—a man who was cautious about delegating authority.

During his tenure with the secretariat of state, and later as archbishop of Milan, Montini waged constant battle against the atheistic doctrine of Marxism-communism. He is certain to continue this course as pontiff.

TB Association Hears Report

During the past four years, the Gray County Tuberculosis Association has contributed $2,550 to the state association for research on TB and other respiratory diseases. Bert Nuckols, treasurer, told the local group at their quarterly meeting this week.

This money was received by public contribution for the annual TB Christmas seals. Nuckols also told the group that about $2,000 has been sent from this association to train workers for the research projects.

Nuckols said the association pays the total cost for the TB patch tests which are given annually in the schools, at an average cost of $200 per year.

During the meeting, letters were read from the State TB Association informing the local group of methods for training people to go overseas and supervise local citizens in promoting and bettering the health of their own peoples.

Nuckols gave a detailed report of cash receipts and disbursements for the year ending March 31.

Members present for the noon meeting at Poole's Steak House were D. V. Biggers, president; Nuckols, Dr. Chas. A. Brauhle, Henry Gruben, Dan Johnson, Sam Begery and Mrs. Lillian Jordan.

have signed anti-discrimination pledges have been from minority groups, he said. A total of 118 unions have signed similar pledges.
"Yet much remains to be done," Wirtz said. He endorsed legislation to make the presidential committee permanent and to give the President authority to block use of federal funds in any project or program that results in discrimination.
The labor secretary said a special effort was being made to get more Negroes working on federal construction sites in craftsmen's jobs.
Most Are Laborers
Surveys of 47 major projects show that Negroes usually held laborers' jobs on construction sites built with federal funds, Wirtz said. Of 7,785 workers on the sites, 1,399 were Negroes and all but 316 were laborers. The skilled journeymen included 5,658 whites and 300 Negroes, he said. Wirtz said 10 per cent of Negroes in the labor force were unemployed compared with half that ratio for whites. This results partly because Negroes have fewer skills and are easily displaced by automation advances, he noted.
The most basic cause of Negro joblessness, however, is the present shortage of jobs in the economy for all workers, the labor secretary said.
"It will be a hollow victory if we get the 'whites only' signs down, only to find 'no vacancies' signs behind them," he said.
Another cause of Negro woes is "unquestionably" their less adequate preparation and training for better jobs, he added. A third reason he listed as the "harsh, ugly fact of discrimination."

Soviets Harden After Kennedy's Visit to Berlin

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet reaction to President Kennedy's visit to West Berlin hardened today in advance of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's countering trip to East Berlin.
Khrushchev is due in East Berlin Friday afternoon, but there was no information available as to when he planned to leave Moscow.

Western observers said the premier apparently hoped to offset the massive morale boost Kennedy gave to the 1.5 million West Berliners who greeted him during his brief visit Wednesday.
Khrushchev scotched rumors of his premature departure Wednesday when he spoke to military cadets here.
Surrounded by generals and admirals, he told the newly commissioned officers "resolute actions were needed to block the way 'to another world war.'"
"As long as imperialism exists there remains the danger of imperialist unleashing a world nuclear rocket war," he said. "It is impossible not to see that aggressive forces in the Western powers headed by the imperialist circles of the United States are continuing their war preparations."
The official Communist party newspaper Pravda reacted to Kennedy's Berlin visit by claiming a Bonn-Washington "atomic axis" that "reeks of war" had emerged from Kennedy's talks with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.
"It was not for nothing that the question of the so-called multi-lateral nuclear NATO force, whose establishment is planned as a screen for the atomic arming of the Bundeswehr (West German army) was one of the main subjects of the Kennedy-Adenauer talks," Pravda said.

Vatican Council Will Reconvene September 29

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI, continuing the work of the late Pope John XXIII, today set the second session of the Ecumenical Council for Sept. 29.
He ordered the council's preparatory body to resume work next week.

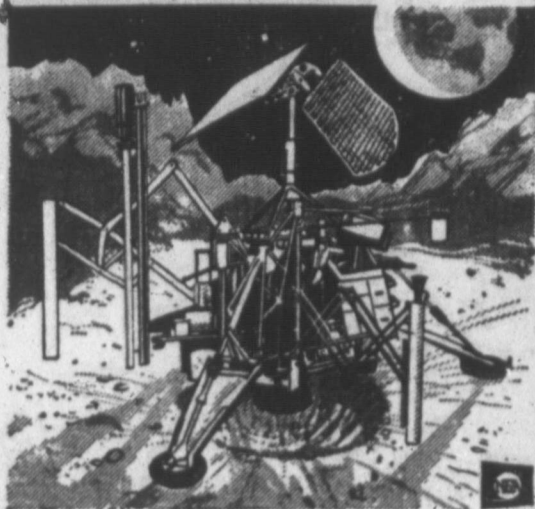

The new date for the beginning of the second session was announced by Papal Secretary of State Amleto Giovanni Cardinal Cicognani. Originally it had been scheduled for Sept. 8 but was delayed because of the illness and death of the late Pope.
Meantime, workers began setting up stands in front of St. Peter's Basilica for dignitaries among the 300,000 persons expected to witness the coronation of Pope Paul VI next Sunday.

On Tuesday, the new leader of the Roman Catholic Church will meet President Kennedy in a private audience with a minimum of pomp and ceremony. Kennedy and Pope Paul, who speaks fluent English, are expected to converse without the help of interpreters in the pontiff's library.
Earl Warren, chief justice of the United States, will head the official American delegation to the three-hour coronation ceremony. It will be held outdoors at the request of Pope Paul to accommodate more people.

THE WIZARDS OF SPACE (11)

By Don Oakley and John Lane

Next to manned flight, the most exciting exploits of the early space age have been the first attempts to send instruments beyond the earth to the moon and into interplanetary space. Responsible for America's efforts in this area is National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Jet Propulsion Laboratory.
JPL, located in Pasadena, Calif., differs from NASA's other centers in that it is operated under contract by California Institute of Technology. It has a staff of 3,800. Its spending in fiscal 1964 may reach as high as $400 million.
JPL's major spacecraft programs are: Ranger (hard moon landing), Surveyor (soft moon landing), Mariner (interplanetary explorer) and Pioneer (advanced planetary explorer).

NASA has spent over $100 million on the Ranger program so far. There have been five flights and five failures and the program is behind schedule. Mariner has been delayed because the Centaur rocket, designed to power it into interplanetary orbit, has experienced constant trouble. Voyager awaits the powerful Saturn booster, now under development.
Between now and 1967, NASA plans to send about 14 Rangers and 17 Surveyors to the moon to prepare the way for the first astronauts. The 750-pound Surveyor, shown in first panel, will land a complete laboratory. Color-stereo television cameras will examine the lunar landscape; other instruments will analyze lunar soil and radio the findings back to earth.

Half a dozen Mariners will be sent to Venus and Mars in 1964 and 1965. Toward the end of the decade and into the next, JPL will launch even more spectacular deep-space probes. One will arc through the tail of a comet in 1967, when a number of comets are due to appear. Probes are being considered for the smallest and largest planets, Mercury (1967) and Jupiter (early 1970s).
Another probe will be launched around the sun out of the plane of the ecliptic; that is, at an angle to the plane in which the planets orbit. Finally, a probe will be sent as close to the sun as 10 million miles to study its corona and spectacular solar flares.

Living Cost Stable; Increase Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The cost of living has held steady for two months, and a Labor Department expert says Americans should consider themselves lucky it has remained relatively stable.
Statistician Robert J. Myers

said: "We're delighted to see you, Mr. President."
Mrs. Ryan played hostess to the President at tea in her home. Rain, which threatened to spoil the Dunganston homecoming, held off after a few pre-arrival sprinkles. Clouds hung over the homestead, but the sun began peeking through the haze as Kennedy drove in.
Sorry For "Trouble"
The President told Mrs. Ryan that "I am sorry for all the trouble I caused you" when he arrived, then grinned a little sheepishly.
Mrs. Ryan smiled back, a little nervously, and then planted a big kiss on the President's cheek. Her two unmarried daughters, Josephine, 24, and Mary Ann, confined themselves to kissing the President's two sisters, Mrs. Jean Smith and Mrs. Eunice Shriver.

announced Wednesday the 196.2 consumer price index for May—unchanged from the previous 60 days. But he predicted the index for June would be one-tenth of 1 per cent higher.
Myers, deputy commissioner of the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the country was "lucky that the index has remained constant," especially since living costs were going up in other countries, particularly Europe.
The May index of 106.2 means it costs consumers $10.62 to buy the same goods and services which cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period. The May figure was one point higher than a year ago.
The price index for food alone was 104.2 in May. A market basket of food therefore costs $10.42 compared with $10 in 1957-59. This is one-tenth of 1 per cent lower than in April.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—E. F. Hutton & Co., Inc. says the "market seems to be waiting."

It notes that the fundamentals in the economy continue strong: Personal income and retail sales remain higher; the market digested the steel contract settlement with a minimum of responsiveness. "The object of its preoccupation and the key to the future course of prices is—we think—the tax cut," Hutton says. It believes any action along these lines will be the signal for a breakout on the upside.

Alfred Robbins, writing in the Investment Dealers' Digest, says "There is still plenty of room for growth in the cosmetics industry." He notes that sales of hair coloring preparations rose 46.9 per cent between 1959 and 1960. Sales of hair rinses soared 118.7 per cent for the same period and another 11.1 per cent the following year.

Clark, Dodge & Co. says that with carrier stocks now commanding a fair sized speculative following, it is only a matter of time before speculative enthusiasm spills over to their industrial cousins.

United Business Service notes that the bright business picture and prospects of a tax cut are in the market's favor. "However," it points out, "the advance has been extensive and caution should be the keynote in investing now."

Spear & Staff says "The time has come to be cautious, to own largely good-quality stocks with relatively stable price patterns, to hold issues of lesser quality only if they have historically reasonable price-to-earnings ratios and good solid patterns."

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Two young men destined for popularity have emerged in recent days in events of surpassing trivia. Over in Britain, it came to light that Bonnie Prince Charles, 14, bought and downed a cherry brandy in a bar. Over here, another good-time Charlie, one Jerry Van Dyke, bowed in with a regular show on CBS-TV.

Both of these young-men have good family connections, Jerry being the kid brother of Dick Van Dyke, whose weekly CBS-TV series last month won Emmys for best comedy program, writing and direction. And the last two nights have seen the brothers Van Dyke inaugurate a one-two punch on CBS that will continue through the summer and accelerate in the fall.

On Tuesday, Jerry offered the premiere of a half-hour game series called "Picture This," which he will host during the summer as a replacement for the vacationing Jack Benny. Wednesday night, Dick offered his usual situation comedy episode—this time a repeat about whether his sneezing had a psychological basis, and once again it was only his personal style that made bearable some pretty piddling fluff.

And in the autumn, Jerry will take his giant step into the big time when he shows up each week as a key regular on CBS-TV's new Judy Garland musical-variety show. It was this week, in fact, that the premiere Garland telecast was taped in Hollywood, with Mickey Rooney—her old costar in the Andy Hardy movies—as her first guest. And in the celebrity-studded audience were Dick Van Dyke, Lucille Ball, Jack Benny, Givnis Johns, Van Heflin, Natalie Wood and Sheldon Leonard.

Jerry has been carefully groomed for stardom: Last year, he made a notable debut, appropriately on his brother's series, in a two-part episode in which he played a fellow who was shy in his normal life, but who was a party-loving, banjo-plunking fun-raiser when sleep-walking. He and Dick were very funny together, bearing a striking resemblance to each other. And after that, CBS tested Jerry here and there—on the Ed Sullivan show and in a comedy on Jack Webb's "True" series, for instance.

Recipe For New Bride

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Here's a gift for the new bride: It's a fruit tart to delight a young husband, made with a packaged whipped dessert topping. The tart shells are molded in advance and kept in the freezer for at least 2 hours. The fruit is spooned into the frozen shells just before serving.

LUCKY GROOM STRAWBERRY TARTS

(Makes 4 tarts)
1/2 cup cold milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 (2 1/4-ounce) package Whip Dessert Topping Mix
Combine cold milk, vanilla and topping mix in deep one-quart bowl. Blend, then whip at high speed with electric mixer or hand beater until topping forms stiff peaks. Spread whip into four 3-inch circles (1/2-inch deep) on a sheet of aluminum foil. Using a teaspoon, drop small amounts of whip around edge of circle to form a ring. Continue building up sides to form a ring about 3-inches high. Freeze until firm, about 2 hours. Remove shells from foil with a flat spatula; place on serving dish. Fill center with strawberries, or other fruit, or pudding or ice cream.

GRAPE FREEZE

(Serves 6)
1 (6-ounce) can frozen grape juice concentrate, thawed
1 (2 1/4-ounce) package Whip Dessert Topping Mix, prepared according to instructions
Gently fold grape juice concentrate (do not reconstitute) into whipped topping mix. Pour into refrigerator tray or individual sherbet glasses. Freeze until firm.

Steamed Blueberry Pudding Adds Patriotic Colors To July 4th Party

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Giving a 4th of July buffet or dinner party? Then serve this impressive steamed blueberry pudding with hard sauce or vanilla ice cream. The beautiful blueberries add patriotic color to the occasion.

STEAMED BLUEBERRY PUDDING

1 1/2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries
1/4 cup vegetable shortening
1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups presifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon mace
2-3 cup milk

which has been dusted with very fine bread crumbs. Cover tightly. Place mold on rack in kettle; fill with water to reach halfway up side of mold. Cover pan and steam 2 hours. If empty coffee cans are used as molds, divide batter between two cans, cover and steam for 1 1/2 hours. Unmold cake while still warm and serve with hard sauce.

HARD SAUCE

(2 cups)
1/2 pound butter
1/2 pound confectioners sugar
1/2 teaspoon lemon extract
1/2 teaspoon aromatic bitters
With electric mixer, beat butter and sugar together until thoroughly blended. Add flavorings and beat until smooth. Refrigerate until ready to use.

BLUEBERRY-studded pudding is a star-spangled taste delight for Independence Day.

Okay To Nibble When Snacks Are Nutritious

There can be no more monkey business about nibbling than about a fourth grader clambering over a geodesic playground climber. With growing scientific support for smaller, more frequent meals for Americans, nutritionists caution: Calories should total the number you require to keep you to your ideal weight. Nibbles should furnish the nutrients you need and include these foods: Meat or an alternate, milk or cheese, fruits and vegetables, enriched or whole grain bread and other cereal foods.

Results of a recent study by Dr. Margaret Ohlson and her fellow researchers at the State University of Iowa may accelerate the trend away from the established three-meals-a-day routine. As one phase of a research project aimed at learning why young adult men are more subject to coronary heart disease than are young women, researchers compared food habits. Men, they learned, ate more food than women, ate more fat which furnished a higher percentage of their calories... consumed more protein.

Men stuffed. They tended to eat huge quantities of food at the evening meal, then nibble until bedtime. The scientists questioned male wisdom in concentrating so many calories into this 4- to 6-hour time slot. Recent research, Dr. Ohlson pointed out, shows that men who eat in this fashion may have a higher level of a fatty substance in the blood called cholesterol—a finding suspect in heart disease—than do men who eat smaller, more frequent meals throughout the day.

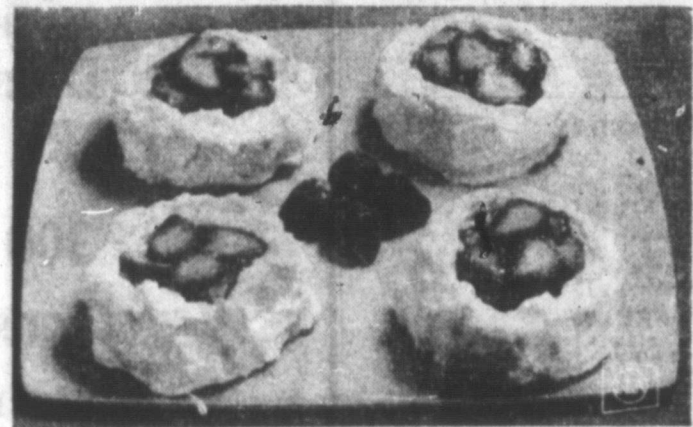

One new angle was apparent:

To Have Satisfied Picnic Eaters, Serve Golden Chicken July 4th

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Served at home, or on the picnic from a portable cooler, this chicken goes off with a bang. The broiler fryers are first dipped into flour, then in egg and finally in a combination of bread crumbs and Parmesan cheese. Then they are fried to a delicate golden brown. On the 4th, serve this chicken with other American favorites such as corn on cob, sliced beefsteak tomatoes and apple pie with ice cream or watermelon.

GLORIOUS FRIED CHICKEN (12 servings)
3 broiler-fryer chickens, cut in serving pieces
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup flour
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons water
1 1/2 cups fine dry bread crumbs

Fresh lime-blueberry mold is a salad in cool colors. Soften 2 envelopes of unflavored gelatin in 1 cup of cold water. Add 1 1/2 cups of boiling water. 1/2 cup of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Stir until gelatin dissolves completely. Blend in 1/4 cup of fresh lime juice. Chill until consistency of fresh egg whites. Fold in 3 cups of fresh blueberries. Chill until firm in a 5-cup mold. Unmold, garnish with salad greens and serve with mayonnaise. Serves 6 to 8.

Pizza Nutrition

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—My son loves pizzas but I won't give them to him because I think they are not nutritious. Am I right?
A—No, you are wrong, according to Dr. Philip L. White, secretary, Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association. In the June issue of Today's Health, he writes, "Pizza properly prepared with lots of cheese and tomato paste is indeed a good food. The cheese, sausage, tomatoes and crust ingredients combine to a splendid example of fine food and good nutrition. The conventional pizza is a good source of protein and calcium and contributes its share of iron, vitamins A and C, and the B complex vitamins to the daily diet."
Q—Is it safe to carry any kind of sandwiches on an auto trip?
A—Protein foods by and large are not travel-safe without refrigeration. Better stick to jams, jellies, preserves and certain kinds of cheese—not cottage or cream cheese. Also such items as smoked Thüringer and hard salami.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will be asked if the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) is abusing its tax-exempt status by distributing right-wing political propaganda.

Sen. Maurice B. Neuberger, Ore., said Monday he would request the IRS to look into the DAR and other similar groups because "there is mounting evidence" that such groups' "sole apparent function is to funnel the funds of right-wing business, free of taxation, into right-wing propaganda mills."

Rogers Introduces Bill Calling An Investigation of Lewd Movies

By REP. WALTER ROGERS

Among criminals, the most reprehensible species are those animals who trade on human prurience by peddling pornography. The lowest form of this vile class are the dealers in obscenity who move their wares among children.

Thus it was with considerable satisfaction that I noted this week the conviction—28 counts of a federal indictment—of one Ralph Ginzburg, a 33-year-old Brooklyn native who was out to pile up a fortune by publishing pure filth.

Ginzburg's main endeavor in pushing a variety of erotic material was his magazine "Eros," which, when publication began, brought a deluge of complaints to my office and those of other Member of Congress and to the Post Office and Justice departments.

Others who would deal in salaciousness can contemplate the possible penalty Ginzburg could pay, after sentencing is pronounced shortly, for his adventure in defying decency and the law: 140 years in prison and $140,000 in fines.

I am pleased to report to you that the federal government is working diligently to clean the mails of such trash as "Eros" and to bring to justice the men engaged in this despicable "industry." In the period from July 1, 1962, to May 24, 1963, a total of 683 arrests were made in the United States for violations of Postal obscenity statutes—141 more arrests than were made in the same period of the previous year. Convictions totaled 565 in the latest period, compared with 438 for the same period of the year before—an increase of 29 per cent. I salute the responsible officials of the Post Office Department and of the Justice Department's Criminal Division for their fine cooperation and aggressiveness in handling these cases. All decent Americans can be proud of this campaign.

I'm not only interested in seeing a curtailment in the flow of mailed obscenity, I am doing what I can to bring a halt to the circulation of lewdness in motion pictures and in movie advertisements. I have introduced in this Session of the Congress H. Res 72, similar to measures I introduced in past Sessions, to bring about a "complete investigation and study of the problem of obscenity, lewdness, salaciousness, and immorality in connection with the production, distribution, and exhibition in the United States of motion pictures and in connection with advertising related thereto." This is the wording of the resolution, which has been referred to the Rules Committee of the House. If approved by the House, the resolution would provide for the appointment of a special subcommittee of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to hold hearings and make recommendations for corrective legislation.

We must be on guard in this Nation against a laxity in morals that could, as happened in Great Britain with the Profumo scandal, shake the very foundations of the Republic.

Among other measures I've introduced this year in the House is H. Res 67 to investigate personnel and procedures in the U. S. Department of State. The investigation I propose would not be merely a "fishing expedition." It has very definite objectives spelled out in the resolution, which is among the many measures awaiting consideration by the House Rules Committee. Because the State Department's activities are so vital to the continued security of the Nation, I believe it is important that a check be made so that the Congress and the People can make an assessment of its effectiveness.

Specifically, my resolution asks for the creation of a nine-member select House committee to (1) investigate the personnel of the State Department (2) investigate the practices and procedures of choosing personnel in all divisions of the State Department (3) investigate the methods, practices, and procedures in assigning personnel for both routine and special work or assignments (4) investigate the background and capabilities of all personnel in relation to their duties and assignments (5) investigate personnel who may not be directly connected with the State Department but whose work is tied to State Department activities, and (6) formulate recommendations concerning changes in practices and policies related to State Department staffing or the staffing of other federal agencies associated with State Department activities.

A personal note—Our second son, Walter Edward Rogers Jr., was married June 22, 1963, the first of our six children to enter matrimony. The bride is the former Marilyn Joan Durante, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Durante of Jersey City, N. J. The couple will live in Jersey City. Earlier this month, Walter received his B.S. Degree from Georgetown University.

Recent visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hillburn Jr., Dimmitt; Mrs. A. J. Lynn and son John, Amarillo; Mrs. Nora Mays, Mrs. Inez Clubb and Miss Roy Riley, all of Pampa, and Miss Annette Whittle, Shamrock.

It's The Law In Texas

THE LAWYER'S ROLE

There was a time when the method of trying lawsuits was so technical and strange to the average layman that the lawyer was considered a behind-the-scenes manipulator.

Now, since the public has come to know more about trial procedure, this erroneous conception largely has been corrected. The attorney is pictured for what he really is — a hard-working fellow who presents a case in a manner designed to fully and legitimately protect his client's interests.

The lawyer's duty starts with his first contact with his client. When advised of the controversy, he usually questions his client thoroughly to determine all of the facts involved. He immediately advises his client to tell everything. Facts and circumstances which may seem trivial to the client can be of great value to the lawyer in the trial of the cause.

The attorney then fits the law to the facts involved, and determines the theory under which lawsuit or controversy must be approached. It is surprising to the layman to learn that no two cases are alike; and, that nearly always it is necessary for a lawyer to "hit the books" to find a case or decision which governs the particular principle involved. This is sometimes a long and arduous task depending, of course, upon the intricacies of the factual and legal situation.

Quite frequently the lawyer will find it necessary to take statements of opposing parties or of witnesses to determine what facts they know that will confront him later in the trial. He is permitted to do this under our rules at any time before the trial. He also immediately starts planning his strategy, and determining the main points, factual and legal, upon which he will rely.

The next step in nearly every instance is negotiations between the parties which may or may not lead to a settlement. This usually takes considerable time, ingenuity and diplomacy. As a result many cases are settled out of court.

If the case is not settled, the attorney then prepares for trial. The case may be won or lost in trial preparation.

One of the most important aspects of a trial is the jury. The fate of the lawsuit is determined by 12 persons drawn from different walks of life, of different interests, and frequently of different race, sex, and nationality. The lawyer presents his client's case to the jury through examination of witnesses and the introduction of other evidence. Based on this evidence the jury decides what are the facts of the case and renders its verdict in accordance with their findings.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

RUNS FULL CYCLE

LONDON (UPI) — A panel of experts decided to repaint the 128-year-old roof of the British Railways Paddington station with a modern color scheme — pearl grey and terracotta red.

Workers stripped off 41 layers of old paint, railway officials said Monday. The original coat put on in 1835, they found, was pearl grey and terracotta red.

Dear Abby....
10-Carat Diamond
Smaller Than Grape

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: This morning while in the grocery store my four-year-old son took one grape from a display. I saw him take it, but thought that one grape was nothing to make a fuss about. A woman saw it and said to me, "My, they learn young. When he is 18 he'll be stealing cars!" Abby, what I want to know is this: Was I wrong in not making a scene over one grape? Or do you think a four-year-old child should get a sermon in a grocery store starting with, "Thou shalt not steal?"

YOUNG MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: A child should not be permitted to help himself to ANYTHING that does not belong to him. The size of the theft is unimportant. (A 10-carat diamond is no larger than a grape, you know.)

DEAR ABBY: You are not so "dear" to me after your advice to the camping mother. "Check into a motel," you tell her. If she's anything like the camping wives I've seen, she'll ask for a room for ONE. Just a bed. Don't need a kitchen. The kids will sleep in the car—or the tent. The next morning it takes the maid four hours to get the chocolate milk out of the breadspad, dig the hamburger onions out from under the bed, and get the dog hair out of the rug. It would be easier to burn down the motel and start over than to clean up the mess.

BEAT MOTEL OPERATOR

DEAR ABBY: "Aggie" — who served her guests cat food canapes — has a warped sense of humor. Besides, she didn't prove what she set out to prove. She only proved that many people will trust a person who shouldn't be trusted.

LOIS

DEAR ABBY: Was that woman's name really "AGGIE" who served her guests cat food canapes just to prove to her husband that people will eat anything? Last month we went to a party and I remarked to my husband, "This smells exactly like the stuff I give Cleopatra," (our cat), and he said, "Don't be silly." I ate it, and was sicker than a cat. What is "AGGIE'S" real name?

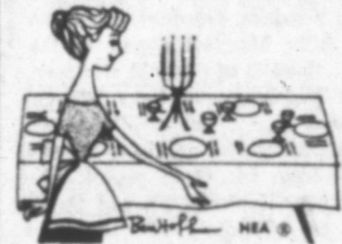

MUST KNOW

DEAR MUST: The real names of my correspondents are confidential. This is done to protect the guilty. I can tell you this much, however. The queen of the cat food canapes was NOT named "Aggie."

Isaac-Ford Say Vows In Shamrock Service

Miss Diann Isaac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Isaac of Shamrock, became the bride of Harold Ford, son of Mrs. Kenneth Franklin of Wheeler and Paul Ford of Bakersfield, Calif. on Saturday June 1 in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. J. R. Cecil of Granite, Okla., pastor of the Shamrock Missionary Baptist Church, officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The wedding scene was appointed with crystal candelabra holding blue tapers with an arrangement of roses. Corn lilies and Sweet Peas were used in other arrangements.

Miss Linda Harris was bridesmaid wearing a tan sheath dress accented with a shoulder-length veil and a corsage of white roses. She wore red accessories.

Bob Riley of Wheeler served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a dress of white crepe overlaid with white nylon chiffon. The bodice was of lace and designed with long sleeves. The round neckline was embroidered with seed pearls.

Her Veil of Illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls.

The "something old" and "borrowed" was a cameo necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. U. O. Jett, which was a gift from her grandfather, the late U. O. Jett. It was worn by Mrs. Jett and Mrs. Isaac, mother of the bride, at their weddings.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with white roses and showered with white satin ribbon streamers tied in love knots.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The table was laid with a cloth of ecru lace centered with a rice tree and miniature bride and groom.

Miss Helena Ford of Wheeler, sister of the bridegroom, served the three tiered wedding cake. Miss Harris presided at the crystal punch bowl.

Mrs. Frank Coates of Wheeler registered guests.

For travel, the bride wore a turquoise sheath dress of silk shantung. It was fashioned with a jacket of rayon and mohair. She wore a white rose corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended school in Shamrock. The bridegroom was graduated from Wheeler High School and attended Amarillo College and West Texas State College in Canyon.

The couple left for a trip to points in New Mexico and Arizona. They plan to make their home in Long Beach, Calif. The bridegroom is associated with Greyhound Bus Lines of Los Angeles, Calif.

SPRING HAVOC

By Janet Henry

Our screens are cut and battered, The trellis sweeps the ground, Garage panes have been shattered, The lawn's a pitcher's mound.

The shrubs are almost stubbles, We've lost the gatepost lamp... Let's pack up our troubles And send them off to camp!

Put the purchase date on food in your freezer. This will help you use the food in the right order. For a new flavor to a fruit salad, add a little honey to the salad dressing.

The Clothes Poll

By HELEN HENNESSY
Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

It seems to me that hats and hairdos can claim the lion's share of innovation for spring.

Some hats not only cover the head — they partially hide the face with veils and filmy scarfs, a big change from previous years. And the little flower hat that blossomed each spring along with other perennials is on the wane. It should be refreshing not to see one on every third woman.

There are charming lace sailor hats for dressy occasions, and the sporty lass will find a wide choice of fedoras.

Hairdos now permit the ears to see the light of day for the first time since the "bouffant" took over the girl. And from newly haired lobes big hoops will swing in gold, silver and pink coral.

As a footnote to all this "top interest," here's the news in shoes for spring: The sturdiest, most firmly planted feet will look delicate and pretty in the new airy, open footwear. Sandals, T- straps and sling-back pumps will be on the scene in a myriad of spring colors in patent leather.

For the gal who dreams of topping her spring finery with a mink she can't afford, things may be brighter soon. Experiments in the use of a tranquilizer on mink may reduce the cost of raising them. Right now the little darlings are so mean that they must be isolated from each other in individual cages. If they can be made companionable enough to be raised in colonies, who knows what savings may be passed on to the hopeful woman.

CHIC CHAT:

Q—My husband and I recently adopted two girls, ages 4 and 6. I believe I dress smartly myself, but find I've made many mistakes in choosing clothes for my new daughters, both in style and practicality. Can you give me some advice about buying clothes for children?—Mrs. R. L.

A—Dear Mrs. R. L.: I took your problem to Ruth Combs, designer of children's clothes, and a mother and grandmother herself. She says:

"Sleeveless or cap-sleeved dresses to be worn alone or with co-ordinated sweaters are practical. Mix-and-match units stretch the life of each garment.

"Don't succumb to the temptation to buy pretty party dresses without first determining their practicality.

"Does the hang tag list fabric, fiber content and cleaning instructions? Can the garment be washed? If it must be dry cleaned, this is an added expense to be considered.

"Fit is another important point. An uncomfortable child is fidgety. There must be ample room for movement.

"Look for deep hems that can be let out as the girls grow. And check to see that decorative accents are color fast and washable so that you won't ruin the garment the first time it goes into the washing machine.

"Freshness, color — fast cotton is a wise choice even for a party dress. It looks crisp and dainty and requires minimum care."

POLLY'S POINTERS

Make Teeth Brushing A Golden Game

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Small children so often forget to brush their teeth. To help mine remember, I took a calendar and pasted on it a picture of a child brushing his teeth. This I hung on the bathroom wall and each time he remembers to be sticks a gold star on the block for that day of the month. It not only helps him to remember but he thinks it is fun. With more than one child, each can have a different calendar.—MRS. S. M.

GIRLS — Seems to me a small reward would not be out of line for those who brush at least twice a day for a month or even just a week.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I have no back porch and needed some place to dry out towels and rags before putting them into the hamper. I took a double length of heavy string and fastened to it about 20 plastic clothespins. I ran the string through the holes in the clothespins and hung the string on a hook at the top of the basement stairwell. Now I just pin the wet things there. As soon as the articles are dry, they go into the hamper. It takes up no space to speak of. (Polly's note: It's best to knot the string around each pin so the pins won't slide.)

We always take clothespins and string when we go on vacation. We usually do not find enough towel racks in cottages and motels. We attach a length of double string to each end of a towel rack so that it hangs below the rack. This provides an additional rack for hanging wet washclothes or little things that have been rinsed out. I also keep a clothespin pinned to the visor in the car to hold gas sales slips and cards and letters to be mailed. I do hope the column continues on for a long time. We all enjoy it.—MRS. J. H. Q.

DEAR POLLY — Those knitted or crocheted coasters sure come in handy to use on metal cans that might leave rust rings in the bath room. My husband's can of shaving cream was the worst offender. Now he sets it down anywhere and it does not leave a mark. If you have no coasters of this type, make some out of the tops of worn socks. This works fine and sure saves scrubbing up.—J. J.

DEAR POLLY — Mine is a tip for setting in sleeves so there are no wrinkles. Sew two rows of gathering threads in the top of the sleeve instead of only one. Adjust the gathers and machine stitch between the rows. Pull out the rows of gathers which show in the sleeve. The sleeve will be in without a wrinkle on the first try.—AUDREY

DEAR POLLY — In order to display our son's school papers, we put up a piece of perforated board on the kitchen wall. Then we bought a bag of multicolored golf tees which, when inserted through the school papers, fit in the holes of the board.—MRS. G.K.

Take It From Kathy

By KATHY PETERSON

Dear Kathy: I have never been allowed to date. Until now, I've been ashamed to admit it. When someone called to ask for a date, I just said I was busy or made some other excuse. Now, no one asks me to go out any more. Those who used to like me hardly talk at school, and some obviously ignore me completely. What should I do?—Ann H.

Dear Ann H.: A boy doesn't mind being turned down if he understands that you are refusing the DATE, not vetoing him as a person.

A series of excuses with "No" attached indicates that you PREFER not to go out. He might even think you dislike him. If you continue your present tactics, there won't be anyone left on your dating horizon by the time you're ready to join the fun.

Pampa Rebels Batting Hot .362

The heavy-hitting Pampa Rebels are batting .362 as a team, while their pitching staff has allowed an average of only two earned runs a game!

Statistics compiled by official scorekeeper Kenny Collins show that the Rebels have fought their way to first place in District 18 American Legion play as 10 of their 18 players are belting the ball at better than a .300 clip, with the squad averaging .362 overall. The Rebs have scored better than 13 runs a game, with a number of their total, such as a 20-6 win over Carver, 18-3 over Berger, 21-1 over Caprock and 12-3 over Amarillo, resembling football tallies.

Leading the red-hot hitting are the heart of the batting order, the "fearsome five" of Eugene Madrid, Rickey Stewart, Kenny Hebert, Larry "Shotgun" Gregory and Ricky Maynard.

Hebert is leading all hitters, with a fabulous .667 percentage on 12 hits in 18 at bats. The Flying Frenchman, All-District center fielder for Pampa High last season, has been held to one hit in only one game, having connected for three-hits in three of Pampa's wins. "El Bandido" Madrid is poling the ball at a .474 pace. The hustling little leftfielder, rated in high school as "the best glove man in the district," bids fair to be one of the best hitters in the district as well.

Stewart, All-District second baseman, is another outstanding fielder who has blossomed into a red-hot stick, belting the ball at a .449 mark.

The power-hitting Gregory has regained the magic touch, and has been poling extra-base hits off and over the fences at a .393 pace.

Maynard, who alternates right field with Ronnie Oler, first base with Steve Molberg and Jim Arthur and catcher with Gregory, but is in the lineup someplace, missed his first game this week due to an automobile accident, but is expected back before the season is over. "Munchkin" Gregory was hitting the ball at a .316 mark before being injured, and his replacement, Arthur, has lived up to the post, hitting currently at .358.

Third baseman Claude Middleton, who started off slowly, has come on with a rush to raise his average to .364. Molberg, off on a short vacation, is hitting .357, and Doug Scaggs, who went 4-for-5 against Carver, is up to an even .500.

Hebert, Gregory, Stewart, and surprisingly, Middleton, are the power hitters. Five of Hebert's hits have been doubles and another an inside-the-park home run at vast Amarillo AFB Field. The Shotgun has four two-base pokes and a homer over Pampa's centerfield fence. Stewart, who gets his extra-basers in clusters, has two doubles and two triples, while Middleton has four two-base hits. Madrid has two triples, Maynard a homer and double, Arthur a triple, and Carl Harnsberger, Molberg and Oler each a double to round out the distance hitting. "Gregory has outflashed trackmen Hebert and Madrid in the base pilfering department, having stolen four sacks in district play, Madrid, Middleton and Phil Smith have each heisted two, and Hebert, Stewart and Kyle Vann one each in loop action.

The pitching is equally potent. While the Rebels have scored 92 runs in seven games, better than 13 a contest, the hurlers have allowed only 33 runs in 55 innings, and only 11 of them earned, an average of six runs and two earned runs allowed a contest.

Top average on the squad belongs to Blazin' Bobby Price. The big fireman has relieved three times, pitching seven- and one-third innings, and has yet to allow an earned run! His opponents scored one run against him on an error, have gotten only one hit and five walks, and have struck out 12 times.

Leading the squad in innings pitched with 16 and wins with a 3-0 record is Harnsberger. "Harmy" has a gaudy 0.63 ERA, giving up only one legitimate run and 12 hits.

Jim Arthur, with a 2-0 mark, has a whopping 27 strikeouts in 14 innings, averaging just under two Ks an inning. Jerry Garrison, 1-1, with the Rebels' only loss-in their seven games to date, has struck out 23 batters in 13 1-3 innings.

Reliever Ronnie Curlee is also low down in the ERA column and high up in the strikeout, department, having allowed one run in four- and one-third innings and struck out eight.

The Pampa pitchers' control is illustrated by their 85 strikeouts in 55 innings, as against only 36 bases on balls.

Mantle Takes Crutches Off

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mickey Mantle, almost as good as new again, put his crutches away today and planned to be back in the New York Yankees' lineup on July 11.

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, the Yankees' team physician, said after taking X-rays Wednesday he was amazed at how rapidly Mantle's broken left foot had healed.

Revive Sick Clubs AFL Headache

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — The drive to revive the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders was the major concern of the American Football League executive committee today.

The controversial question of cutting rights confronted league owners as they moved into the second and final day of a summer meeting. The problem facing the league was whether to pass a resolution giving the Jets and Raiders first chance at all players released by American, National and Canadian league teams.

Coaches and general managers will meet Friday.

The first half of the league's equalization draft in May was something less than productive. The Jets selected only two players from a list of eligible players, and the Raiders picked just one.

Other business on the agenda today included scouting regulations, cutdown dates, pre-season schedules and the length of training camps.

McKinley Vs. Ashe Wimbledon Feature

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Two of the last six American survivors in the men's singles division of the Wimbledon tennis championships crossed racquets today when Chuck McKinley, met Arthur Ashe in a fourth round match.

It figured to be an interesting battle despite the fact McKinley is ranked No. 1 and Ashe is 18th in the current American rankings.

Ashe, the first American Negro male ever to play at Wimbledon, is a fast-rising court star. Last week's U.S. NCAA championships at Princeton, N.J., he dropped a thrilling, five-set semifinal match to Dennis Ralston, the eventual champion, who was eliminated in the third round here Wednesday.

Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., and Tom Edliessen of Los Angeles were the other Yanks from an original 29-man entry who reached today's fourth round.

Froehling was pitted against Australia's Bob Howe today, Frost plays Britain's R. Taylor, and Edliessen meets Jan Erik Lundquist, veteran Swedish Davis Cupper.

The sixth U.S. survivor, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., resumes his third round match against Adrian Bey of Rhodesia. It was doctored in the fifth set when darkness halted play Wednesday.

Five of the seven Americans remaining in the women's singles also were scheduled to play today.

Darlene Hard, of Los Angeles plays Hedi Schultze of Germany, Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Miss N. Baylon of Argentina, and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., faces Lea Pericoli of Italy in third round matches.

'Cool Man' Gilliam Red-Hot at the Plate

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Jim Gilliam's "being called 'Junior' and so his Los Angeles Dodgers teammates refer to him simply as 'the cool man.'"

No nickname could be more appropriate for a fellow who takes the world in stride. He's played in at least 144 games in every year he's been with the Dodgers since 1953, and yet every spring it seems he has to win his job all over again from some highly-touted newcomer.

Comes the middle of a hot pennant race, however, and Gilliam is not only in the lineup day in and day out but also delivers the clutch hits that win important games. The K's who thought they had him beat out of a job in the spring read about 'em in the newspapers of minor league towns.

The National League pennant race is about as hot as it can get and so it's no surprise that Gilliam is red-hot. The Dodgers have won four straight games and Gilliam has delivered the game-winning blow in three of 'em, including Wednesday night when his two-run, eighth-inning double sparked Los Angeles to a 5-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The victory completed a Dodger sweep of a three-game series — the first time they won three in a row in Cincinnati since 1953.

Left-handed relief ace Ron Perunowski shut out the Reds for the last 2-3 innings to win his eighth game against two losses. Jim Maloney, seeking his 12th win, struck out 11 batters and went into the eighth inning with a 2-2 tie but a walk to Perranoski and Gordie Coleman's big blow. The victory enabled the Dodgers to remain a half-game behind the first-place St. Louis Cardinals, who topped the San Francisco Giants, 6-3. The Houston Colts beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-2, in 13 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, and the New

Rodeo Group Has Election

CANADIAN (Spl) — Officers were elected at a meeting of the Triangle Rodeo Association Tuesday night in the E-J Cafe at Canada.

The rodeo association was formed in 1962 to coordinate joint promotion of rodeos held in each of the three cities and to improve the quality of the rodeos. Pampa's annual rodeo is scheduled for four days, Aug. 21-24.

Girls Softball

The Opteens edged the Optettes, 14-11, in an Opti-Mrs. Girls Softball League game yesterday.

Nita Herring took the win and Alice Harper was the losing pitcher.

Leading batters for the Opteens were Patricia Parrin, Gayle Blumer, Diane Parker and Janie Hammons with two hits each. Angela Roush and Alice Harper each had two hits for the Optettes.

Boyer Paces Cards
Charlie James singled home George Altman with the winning run for the Cardinals. Bobby Shantz pitched to only one batter but picked up his third win. Ken Boyer drove in four runs with a homer and two singles for the Cardinals while Orlando Cepeda homered and Joe Amalfitano had three hits for the Giants.

Card Warwick started the Colts' game-winning 13th-inning rally with his fourth single of the night and scored the tie-breaking run on Bob Lillis' single. The Colts, who snapped a 10-game losing streak, went on to add four runs and sewed up Hal Woodeshick's seventh win. The Colts ended a string of 30 consecutive scoreless innings when Al Snagler homered in the sixth, Frank Bolling homered in the sixth, Frank Bolling had three hits for the Braves.

Cal McLish pitched a six-hitter to win his sixth game for the Phillies and deal Pittsburgh's Bob Friend his sixth defeat against nine wins. McLish, Johnny Callison, Tony Gonzalez and Frank Torre had two hits each in the Phillies' attack while Donn Clemons and Bill Virdon had two hits each for the Pirates.

Tim Harkness' grand slam homer with two out in the bottom of the 15th inning lifted the Mets to their third victory in four games after the Cubs went ahead, 6-4, on a two-run inside-park homer by Billy Williams in the top of the inning. A total of 12 pitchers saw action during the four-hour and nine-minute struggle.

Babe Ruth League

The Bankers edged Enco, 10-8, and Fannon flipped Hardware, 15-5, in last night's Babe Ruth League games at Optimist Park. McCarrel was the winning pitcher in the first game, striking out five and walking two. Wright took a rough loss, striking out 10 and walking three.

Lin Engle led the hitting with 3-for-4. Fannon continued its winning streak as Turcotte struck out five and walked six for the win. Hall striking out four and walking seven in defeat.

Youth Baseball

The Misfits shut out Dixie Parts, 2-0, the Lone Star Boys belted Rotary, 10-4, and IGA outslugger Campbell's Ranch, 18-10, in Optimist Youth Baseball games last night.

Al Gomez of the Misfits and Don Carlton of Dixie hooked up in a pitching duel in which each gave up four hits, Gomez striking out 14 and walking three and Carlton striking out nine and walking one. The Misfits got single tallies in the fourth and fifth innings for the difference.

Tommy Henry took the win for the Lone Star Boys and Randy Raper was the losing hurler. John Karr was the big stick for the winners with 4-for-4, including a home run, aided by Mike Phillips with two hits.

IGA opened up a 16-2 lead and coasted to victory over Campbell's Mike Housman, first of three IGA hurlers, got the win. Terry Washington was the loser.

Davey Jones had three hits and Steve Kirby two to lead the attack.

Colts Crush Fritch For Fifth Straight

FRITCH (Spl) — The Pampa Colts won their fifth straight Tri-State League game in a row last night, pounding the Fritch Rebels, 20-8.

Royce Harnsberger took the win, his third consecutive victory, with Jerry Glover coming on to get the last two outs in a ninth-inning Fritch rally.

The game was close for the first five innings, Fritch leading, 3-2, when the Colt clubbers unloaded, taking the lead in the sixth frame, 4-3, adding two more in the seventh and then batting around in the eighth and ninth for 14 more runs.

Cleanup batter Bobby Nutt continued his hitting streak as he led the way with four hits, including two doubles, batting in six runs and scoring four more. Harnsberger again proved pitchers can hit as he helped his own game with a bases-loaded home run and a single.

The Colts opened up on starter I. J. Sanchez for three hits and two runs in the first frame and singles by Gary Hill, Nutt and Stroud. Fritch came right back in their half to tie it without a hit on a walk and three errors.

The Colts could pick up only two hits and Fritch one through the next four frames. The hosts took the lead in the third when Johnnie Spencer was safe on an error, moved up on a grounder and scored on Chuck Bennett's sacrifice fly.

With one out, Nutt worked a walk in the sixth. Larry Stroud struck out, but DeWayne Glover and Butch Frazier singled in succession and Pampa moved into the lead.

Two errors and Nutt's double made it 6-3, Pampa in the seventh. Twelve men went to bat in the eighth inning and eight of them dented the plate as Gary Hill belted a triple, and Roy Don Stephens, Nutt, Butch Frazier and Mike Stewart came through with singles.

The Colts continued their hitting in the ninth, with a single by Jerry Glover, a double by Nutt and three walks, setting up a ducks-on-the-pond situation as Harnsberger belted the first pitch to him over the left field fence.

Fritch, which had eked out just three hits, came to life in their final at-bat. With one out, Don Meeks poked a double, Spencer singled, Trollinger doubled, and Johnny Rogers singled, mixed with three errors. Harnsberger gave

Little Albie Leads Angels Into Thick of Flag Race

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Little man, what now? It's a good question American League fans ask about Albie Pearson, the pint-sized outfielder who performs herculean feats for the Los Angeles Angels.

Five-foot, 5-inch, 141-pound Albie is a cinch to be one of the American League's starting outfielders in this year's All-Star Game because if his rivals can overlook his tiny physique—they can't overlook his .313 average.

But what's more important to the Angels, struggling to surge back into the thick of the American League pennant race, is that 28-year-old Albie from Alhambra, Calif., delivers when the team needs it most.

Like Wednesday night when the Angels whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1 and 3-2, in a two-night doubleheader and vaulted past Cleveland and Baltimore into fifth place, 6½ games off the lead, Pearson singled and scored the Angels' first run of the opener and then tripled home the tying run and scored the winning run in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Paul Foytack, making his first start since acquired from Detroit, went 8-1-3 innings to win the opener and then Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and struck out seven to score his ninth victory in the second game.

The New York Yankees took a one-game grip on first place as they beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-1, and the Boston Red Sox nipped the Cleveland Indians, 6-5, in other American League action. Washington at Kansas City was rained out.

Bob Rodgers homered for the Angels in the first game and Leon Wagner hit No. 16 of the season and his first at home for Los Angeles.

Golden Spread Women's Softball

PERRYTON (Spl) — The Pampa Queens rolled merrily along to their eighth win in nine starts last night, downing host Perryton, 23-8.

The Queens batted around for eight runs in the second inning and went on from there. Marv Lou Addington was never headed as she hurled her seventh win of the season against a single loss, striking out two and walking two.

She was backed by three home runs as everyone on the team hit safely. Claudine Raxton went the route in defeat.

Randy To Make Trip, But Miss Russian Games

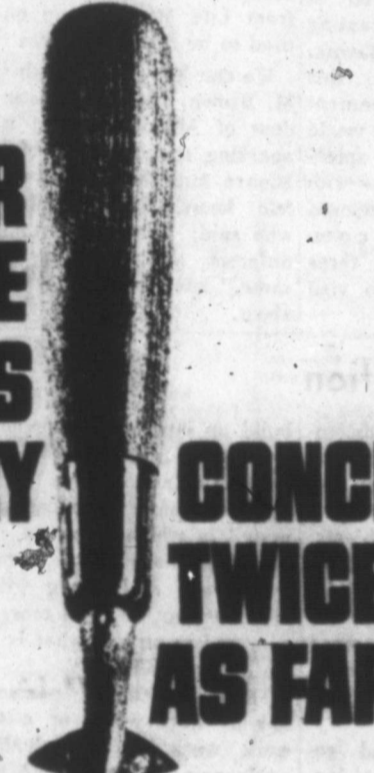

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Randy Matson of Pampa, Tex., will get to make a summer tour with a U.S. all-star track team in Europe after all, it was reported today.

Matson, who was graduated from Pampa High School this spring, qualified as an alternate after last week's national AAU meet in St. Louis. But because former world champion shot putter Parry O'Brien will compete with the U.S. team only against the Russians, Matson will get to make the remainder of the tour.

Don Winton of the Pasadena Athletic Association, with whom O'Brien is affiliated, said arrangements have been made to fly O'Brien right back to the United States after the July 20-21 meet in Moscow. O'Brien declined a berth on the U.S. team because of business reasons.

Matson, holder of the state high school record for the shotput, is the only Texan ever to put the 16-pound ball 60 feet or more.

SIGNS WITH STEELERS
PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Ed Brown, likely successor to quarterback Bobby Layne at Pittsburgh, Wednesday signed his National Football League contract with the Steelers. A former Chicago Bears signal-caller, he will be starting his 19th year in pro football.

That's the way it was with us, until Dodge trucks helped us double our radius of operations to 50 miles. Since 1956 we've bought nothing but Dodges. Some are transit-mix units with six-yard, flywheel-driven mixers. Others are flatbeds that carry 540 cement blocks to a load. Date For New Year's Eve '64

The glitter and glamor — even the pristine elegance — of a long-decayed Times Square is due for a renaissance.

New York's renowned triangle, where Broadway, Seventh Avenue and Forty-Second Street almost intersect, has been famous for more than half a century as "the crossroads of the world" since there was, for many years no more likely place for travelers from Paris, Texas; or Paris, Maine; or Paris, Idaho; or Paris, France — from Zanzibar or Pampa — to meet friends from home.

Now, its historic landmark, the Times Building is to be divested of its skin, and its sturdy old bones, with a little special reinforcement, will be re-covered in modernistic style with gleaming glass and white synthetic facing. On completion late next year, this monument to public enlightenment will greet New York and the world in its up-to-date functional splendor as the Allied Building — with its three-story glass-enclosed "showcase for chemistry" completely occupying the first three floors, and open to all who visit the famous crossroads.

The Only Question

A Congressional House subcommittee is now becoming involved with hearings on the labor-supported 35-hour work week proposal, along with related subjects. Labor spokesmen lead off, first, and then management will get its turn, probably in August. The result, some think, will be more election fodder for the 1964 Presidential and Congressional election year.

Whatever may be the end result of this particular piece of legislation — we want to lower taxes. We want to revise the whole tax system. We want to place ourselves in a stronger economic position in relation to foreign Free World producers who have done wonders since the war in rebuilding, modernizing, and expanding the production of goods and services of every kind. We want to

Our "Image" Loses Its Pants

It had seemed, up to now, that nothing could be more shameful, degrading and (in the eyes of other nations) more utterly ludicrous than the lacing we have taken and continue to take from "Dr." Castro.

But even the Cuban humiliation is faded by the capture of the staff and demolition of the headquarters of the US Military Mission in Caracas, Venezuela by eight (count 'em, eight) Latino-type Communists — after furnishing repeated warnings, even to advising a local newspaper of the time of the attack within an hour!

The eight "terrorists," say dispatches, overpowered the four Venezuelan National Guardsmen — who appear for some reason to have been guarding the US Military Mission — tossed them inside

The American Way

TELEVISION'S COME-UPPANCE?
By RAYMOND C. BAKER
American Way Features Correspondent

The man responsible for bringing convicted perjurer Alger Hiss to the air waves to recite "The Political Obituary of Richard Nixon" may shortly be singing a requiem — without mourners — over the demise of his controversial news program.

Liberal commentator Howard K. Spilth, who built whatever reputation he may enjoy for his anti-business commentaries, may be responsible for involving the television industry in more hot water than it can take at this time.

Still smarting from the Congressional revelations of the untrustworthiness of its rating systems, television might soon find itself involved in charges of violation of the Sherman and Clayton Anti-Trust Acts. Dead center aim has been taken on the American Broadcasting Company as a result of the Smith-Hiss dirge, but the entire industry will be affected if a Federal Court finds ABC guilty.

Fall Of The Mighty
Some recapitulation is necessary to bring the threat to television into sharp focus. Shortly after former Vice President Nixon lost his race for governor of California last November, Smith saw fit to call ex-convict Hiss from obscurity into the full view of millions of Americans to vent his spleen against the man who, as Congressman Nixon of the House Un-American Activities Committee, was responsible for unmasking Hiss as a courier of classified documents for the Communist Party, and causing his incarceration.

Many Americans in all walks of life were offended by the telecast, particularly since ABC pre-empted prime evening time on which a Veterans Day tribute to "The Fighting Man" was to have been shown. One man, perhaps with more at stake, decided to do something about it.

He is James S. Kemper of the Kemper group of insurance companies, who cancelled his news program on the same network ABC used a portion of the Kemper time to plug the Smith-Hill show, in spite of an agreement for a ten-minute separation between the former's show and that of a competitor. The Smith show was sponsored by a competing insurance company. ABC filed suit to recover $452,000 from Kemper.

Anti-Trust Acts Cited
The suit by Kemper in the United States District Court cites 12 practices through which ABC endeavored to restrain competition. The complaint charges that ABC virtually blackjacked the Kemper companies into buying time on 35 TV stations in markets it did not want in order that they might acquire the 95 stations in markets they did want.

A detailed discussion of the TV industry, its methods of operation and the competition between the three major networks for local affiliates is contained in the complaint.

One of the charges highlights the complaint by stating that "in order to acquire, control and dominate the broadcast time of its affiliates, and in order to foreclose competitors from acquisition of and access to that time, ABC has imposed certain tie-in arrangements between it and its advertisers."

FCC Affiliates Ruling
A week after the Kemper suit was filed, the Federal Communications Commission outlawed television network option time on affiliated stations, ruling that it is "not essential to networking, is both an artificial restraint on access to TV station time and an abdication of TV licensee responsibility, and is contrary to the public interest."

Thus, the Kemper contentions in the suit against ABC are similar to the FCC ruling, which had been under consideration for months.

The Federal court action, combined with the FCC ruling, could result in severe limitations on the networks' control over their affiliated stations. It could result in an abandonment of "package" deals on advertisers, if Kemper's complaint is upheld.

And so Howard K. Smith, who has vigorously promoted the growth of the federal government, and its control over the business world, may soon find himself out of a job as a result of his own efforts. That could be the most ironic ramification of TV's impending come-uppance.

NOW YOU KNOW
By United Press International
The total crop area in the Soviet Union of 500 million acres roughly equals that of the United States and Canada combined, but total production is only about three-fourths that of U.S. farms alone, according to "Focus," a publication of the American Geographical Society.

The Nation's Press

FREEDOM WILL PERISH
Once the right of a state to exercise exclusive jurisdiction over a local problem is lost, then human rights, liberty and freedom will absolutely perish.

If somebody asks you the biggest danger confronting the American republic, the words above are the answer. They were spoken by Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi in Jackson the other day. The News has voiced the governor's warning consistently since the late Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal — conceived as a justified emergency — laid the foundations of federal power.

To repeat: Our greatest danger — the biggest story of our time — is the constant growth of federal power and the gradual destruction of the local and states' rights.

The genius of our governmental system is the protective safeguard of "limited powers" carefully written into the Constitution by those men who assembled in Philadelphia 178 years ago. Their bitter experience with George III of England made them distrust not only a monarchy but dictatorial power in any form.

Therefore, they made certain that the national government of this country must confine itself to certain duties, these to be detailed in the Constitution itself. That central government, they decreed, must never assume powers not delegated to it.

Those powers should be reserved to the states and to the people, respectively.

But gradually this concept has been torn to bits.

— That government, administered through 2,500 bureaus, now tells a businessman how much he must pay a window washer.

— It tells a farmer what he can plant, how much he can plant and what he will get when he harvests it.

— Although the word, education, is not mentioned in the Constitution, that government dictates to a community who is to sit next to whom in a classroom.

— It takes part of a corporation's income and spends it abroad to finance competition for that corporation.

— Out of nearly every individual's pay check it takes a substantial part of his money and spends it before he gets the check.

— It proposes to tell the private owner of a private eatery built with private money not only whom he can serve but whom he must serve.

— It permits, by law, the executives of labor unions to unite and strike an entire industry; but the management in that industry, by law, cannot unite to pursue many of its own ends.

Gov. Barnett, in uttering the words at the top of this editorial, had in mind the present racial crisis. But it is only another phase of this big government which assumes increasing control and direction of the nation's economic and social life.

Every additional power assumed by Washington is at the expense of some individual, community or state. When these individual and local powers wither away, freedom withers and liberty becomes what big government says it is.

It is not a new story in history, but it's a sad one. And at its ultimate, "freedom will absolutely perish." — The Dallas News

A thought for the day—American philosopher, Ralph Waldo Emerson, said: "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

SQUARE BALLOON
AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Why in the world would anyone want a square balloon? After 20 years of puzzling over this mystery, engineers of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company have received the answer from the widow of famous physicist Enrico Fermi.

The balloon, which Goodyear built back in 1942 without knowing what its use would be, was needed as an airtight enclosure around the pile in which the first controlled chain reaction of atomic energy was accomplished. Mrs. Fermi, whose husband supervised the project, revealed the balloon's use in a recent bulletin of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Country editor speaking: "Do you remember when your folks had the same trouble you're having now with teen-agers and how you outgrew it?"

While visiting the modern plant of the Baltimore Sun recently, Editor Phil Wagner showed us a picture of the famous old Sun Iron Building, built in 1851, the first of its kind and the forerunner of today's steel skyscrapers. The structure, now gone, has facades of cast iron with brick, and in it was fitted the first high speed newspaper press in the nation.

In the days of antiquity the official English yardstick was defined as the distance between the King's nose and the regal thumb. Today you can see the old official measurement in the Tower of London, preserved on a wooden log. It was lengthened and shortened in the old days, depending on the physical characteristics of the various kings.

Best Poison Ivy Treatment Is Still Dodging That Vine
By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT
The surest way to prevent poison ivy is to stay indoors, but even that may fail, because contact with tools, clothes, or a picnic basket contaminated with the poison several days beforehand may cause you to blossom out.

Furthermore, a dog that has picked up the resin may deliver it right to the easy chair where you are sitting. If you pat him, you may regret it a few hours or days later when your skin becomes very rare.

More often you pick up ivy poisoning at first hand.

If, like most people, you are susceptible to poisoning with this resin, the first rule is to learn what poison ivy looks like and remember that it grows not only as a vine but also as a bush.

Its thick, sticky, poisonous resin is found chiefly on the shiny leaves. Many a person brushes against these leaves when knocking about in the woods without realizing that he has done so.

If you should recognize too late that you have come in contact with the leaves, the sooner you wash your hands, preferably with a strong soap, the better. As an alternative, you can wipe the resin off with a wad of cotton or facial tissue soaked in alcohol or gasoline.

The use of a protective cream before contact with poison ivy may prove helpful. The cream should contain zinc, as this neutralizes the poison.

Desensitizing injections or tablets have been helpful to some susceptible persons, but must be taken two or three months before the anticipated exposure, to be of any value.

They must not be taken after the exposure, as this would only aggravate the attack.

"We can't all be lucky. So, in spite of precautions, you develop an ivy rash, calamine lotion or a paste made of sodium bicarbonate and water may relieve the discomfort. Cortisone and related steroid hormones in lotion, ointment or tablet form also usually gives relief.

And so I say, who would trade a fine summer day, with all its hazards, for any other day in the year?"

Q — What caused hives?
A — Hives is a very common form of allergy. It may be caused by a great variety of substances. Hives are most likely to occur in the areas of skin that are subjected to pressure or friction, such as under a belt, garters or suspenders, and inside the shoe or at the shoe tops. They resemble insect bites, especially those of mosquitoes.

The commonest foods that cause hives are seafoods, strawberries, milk and milk products, nuts, eggs, wheat, pork, and chocolate. But even commoner than foods as a cause are such drugs as quinine (including tonic water), salicylates (including aspirin), barbiturates, iodides (including iodized salt), and penicillin.

Hives are often caused by, or aggravated by, menstruation and pregnancy. Many persons get hives from hand lotions, face powder, beauty creams, and cosmetic applications for the hair or scalp. Some very sensitive persons get hives from exposure to heat, cold, or sunlight.

When the condition is very severe an injection of adrenalin may be required. The best treatment, however, is prevention. This requires studies to determine the exact cause, and then avoidance of contact with that substance.

A VOICE IN THE POLITICAL WILDERNESS
History is full of great warnings about freedom and liberty. "That which we obtain too cheaply we esteem too lightly"; "The price of liberty is eternal vigilance"; etc. The founding fathers, in their wisdom, knew that freedom and liberty had to be safeguarded by the very Americans for whom it was guaranteed. But their warnings have not been enough; for liberty and freedom have been steadily eroded by the growth of government.

Freedom, as a human right, is explored in a short new book by Dr. David A. Freed, "My Case For Freedom" (The Naylor Co., 1013 Culebra Ave., San Antonio, Texas; $2.50). Dr. Freed believes in America and democracy; he believes in individual expression and security of Constitutional rights for Americans. But he harbors a great concern over the acceptance and growth of Government aid in our public and private lives. He feels this acceptance is destroying our incentive to protect freedom.

Self-Government
To understand the possible results of too much governmental aid, Dr. Freed traces man's history in self-government. He begins with sidetraps into primitive governmental processes, follows the growth of individuality in government through the classical ages of Greece and Rome. He then takes the reader through great renaissance cultures, industrial age reforms, and through our own age of heightened social and political security.

"Our American form of government," says Dr. Freed, "is an attempt to give each person under it the greatest degree of individual freedom possible, in order to seek and establish his own way of ex-

RELEASES WOMAN

VIENNA (UPI)—Czechoslovak Communist authorities Monday released an American woman from jail.

A spokesman of the U. S. Embassy in Prague told UPI by phone that Mrs. Helen Kozersky of Passaic, N. J., was released from prison Monday and

Aquatic Weeks Slated at Camp Kiowa in July

Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Adobe Walls Council may attend an all Aquatic Week at Camp Kiowa, out of Canadian, for training in swimming, life saving, rowing, canoeing and water front safety. Attendance is on an individual basis, and reservations may be made for the weeks of July 7 or July 14 through the Council Service Center, Box 2479, Pampa.

Any Boy Scout or Explorer that qualifies as a Scout swimmer, that is entering deep water and swimming fifty yards out and back, is eligible to attend.

Campers will check in on Sunday afternoon and complete the training at noon the following Saturday.

Although the camp will be limited because of the water front facilities, there are still openings in both weeks.

Each Scout Troop is urged to have at least one representative trained this summer to assist the troop in its summer swim program.

Complete information will be sent the Scout Group registration.
