Fourth of July Freedom March Slated by NAACP

CHICAGO (UPI) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) climaxed its half-century history with a massive Independence Day "march for freedom" today through downtown Chicago.

National leaders of the Negro civil rights movement and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley led the holiday parade, which was expected to include at least 50,000 marchers.

NAACP officials hoped it would match a recent Detroit demonstration which topped 100,000 participants.

On hand to head the "march with the freedom fighters" were Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary; Mrs. Medgar Evers, wife of the slain Mississippi integration leader; the Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth, president of the Alabama Christian Movement for Civil Rights and one of the leaders of the Birmingham demonstrations; James Meredith, the Air Force veteran who integrated the University of Mississippi.

DeGaulle Begins Low Keyed Visit to West Germany's Chancellor

Nikita Says His Wall Has Shut Out Western Wolf

BERLIN (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev flew home to Moscow today. He had issued here a new call for Communist unity and a warning for the West "not to stick its nose into the East's affairs."

Khrushchev took off from East Berlin's Schoenefeld airport at 5:15 a.m. EDT, concluding a six-day visit to East Germany. He was seen off by East German Communist boss Walter Ulbricht and the entire East German Politburo.

In a free-swinging farewell speech, Khrushchev said the Communist wall separating East Berlin from West Berlin "has shut out the wolf."

"The border is closed now," he said. "In the past they (Westerners) could squeeze through, but now the border is closed and the wolf's tail has been hacked off and now he is in a bad way."

Khrushchev, speaking without notes into a microphone at the airport, praised Communist East Germany's economic growth. "A new era is beginning in the history of relations between the German and Soviet peoples," he said. "Our forces are invincible."

"Let the West know that, and let them not stick their noses into the East's affairs," Khrushchev said.

He ended with a renewed call for unity of all Communist nations behind the flag of Marx and Lenin.

Thousands of people lined the streets of Berlin to see Khrushchev on his way to the airport at the end of his visit.

Some quarters believed his main reason for the trip was to drum up support for the Communist ideological showdown beginning in Moscow Friday.

But if one of his purposes in coming to East Germany was to counter the wildly enthusiastic reception accorded President Kennedy in West Germany, he failed. By comparison, his crowds were apathetic.

Two Days of Talk First in Series Under Treaty

BONN, Germany (UPI)—French President Charles de Gaulle and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met here today in the first of a series of summit meetings planned every six months.

De Gaulle arrived at nearby Wahn airfield this morning from Paris to start a low-keyed visit which strove to avoid any comparison with President Kennedy's overwhelming reception here last week.

Adenauer and five cabinet ministers met De Gaulle at the airport.

The French party was driven from the airport to the Palais Schaumburg, which serves as a foreign ministry. De Gaulle and Adenauer went into conference while their ministers gathered in subcommittees.

The Germans tried to prevent De Gaulle's visit from being turned into a popularity contest with Kennedy. No school pupils were sent to the airfield and public buildings did not fly flags. Only a handful of curious bystanders gathered at the airport.

Police, obviously prepared to handle crowds, had put up barricades but they weren't needed. The police appeared to outnumber the bystanders.

Because of the fear of an assassination attempt against De Gaulle by the underground, Secret Army Organization (OAS) about 3,000 police were reported on duty in the capital. The same number was assigned to handle the huge crowds who jammed the streets to greet Kennedy.

FIFE AND DRUM CORPS LEADER—Sgt. James Goff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goff of 1109 Willow is shown on the U.S. Capitol lawn with the drums used in the Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps. Goff is leader of the drum section of the band and is a specialist on 18th-century music.

Pampans Plan for Long Week End, As Bells, Fireworks, Trips Fete Fourth

Pampans who were not already out of the city today were heading for the lakes and resort spots or to visit Aunt Min and Uncle Ben in a distant city during the long July 4th week end.

Thousands of others who are staying home will be on hand in Recreation Park tonight for the annual Independence Day fireworks show.

City, county and state offices were practically all closed to give employees the day off. Only the highway patrol, police and sheriff's departments were open for business as usual.

Downtown stores likewise were closed for the day. There were no mail deliveries except for special delivery parcels and letters. The post office was closed except for box renters. The Pampa News went to press at noon.

The weatherman dished up a nice, hot holiday sun. He said there was no rain in sight for the area and conditions would be ideal for the fireworks tonight.

There had been no serious accidents of any kind up until a late hour this forenoon.

Traffic safety agencies were out with the usual holiday warnings to motorists to take it easy and try to make it back home without mishap.

The picture at noontime was one to make for an ideal holiday of rest, fun and relaxation with an occasional thought for the meaning of the document to which the day is dedicated.

Bells heralded the 187th anniversary (See PAMPANS, Page 3)

LET FREEDOM RING — Thousands of bells tolled throughout Texas, pealing the sound of freedom in a reverent reminder of the 187th anniversary of the nation's independence today. Pampans joined in to do their share in making freedom "really ring," and flags flew proudly all over town as this Top O' Texas city paused to recall the "Spirit of '76". (Daily News Photo)

NEA Set for Fireworks on Civil Rights

DETROIT (UPI) — The National Education Association (NEA) today braced for fireworks from the floor in an effort to pass a civil rights motion.

However, there was speculation that Southern delegates planned delaying parliamentary tactics to keep the issue from being brought to a vote.

Civil rights motion was introduced to the delegate assembly Wednesday but proponents of a strong civil rights stand called for an adjournment because their ranks were depleted by persons going to lunch. They asked the chair if a quorum was present and then voted to adjourn when it was ruled there was no quorum.

The NEA board of directors has approved a motion that call for formation of study groups to facilitate the merger of all local affiliates of the association. In 11 Southern states, NEA members have to belong to separate local organizations, one for Negroes and one for whites.

Pampan's Son Helps Recreate Spirit of American Revolution

As the bells of liberty ring out across the nation today, Americans will pause and remember the document signed 187 years ago by a few brave patriots.

As the thoughts of that birth of freedom arise, the sounds of the Liberty Bell, the muskets and the fife and drum music of the revolution come wafting over the years.

Those sounds recall the readiness of the patriots to defend their rights and country.

Although the Liberty Bell has been silenced by a flaw, the sound of the fife and drums is as real now as in the days of the Minute Men. For such a band is the Ft.

Meyer Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps. The drum section leader of this band is Sgt. James Goff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goff of 1109 Willow. Goff was the first member of the Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps. He is a specialist in 18th-century music.

This band is the Army's newest and most unusual ceremonial unit, the Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps, the re-creation of a Continental Army field band. The men play Revolutionary War tunes and drill by the 1779 "Regulations for the Order and Discipline of the Troops of the United States," drawn up by Baron von Steuben, the Prussian officer who trained Washington's colonials.

No person in the band is a professional musician, and few have any musical background.

The Old Guard is part of the 1st Battle Group, 3d Infantry, and has its headquarters at Fort Myer, Va., adjoining Arlington National Cemetery. The 3d is the Regular Army's oldest active infantry unit, created in 1784, and is the official ceremonial regiment in the Washington area. It provides the sentinels for the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and escorts for funerals at Arlington National Cemetery, and participates in ceremonies for visiting dignitaries. Because its men serve as personal Presidential escorts, it is dubbed "The President's Own."

The official purpose of the band as described by 1st Lt. James Conley commander of the 40-man corps, is to provide additional ceremonial music for the 1st Battle Group. But the men's feeling goes much deeper, he says. "One of our idealistic aims is to bring some Americanism back to the American people. We want to show the country its heritage and make them proud of it."

Sgt. Goff, has written several special shows for the Fife and Drum Corps. His interest in music dates back to elementary school. He studied music at the University of Michigan and at West Texas State College in Canyon.

He plays the fife, flute, drums, piano, saxophone and other percussion instruments, and he belongs to several fife and drum units in the Washington D.C. area.

The corps performs regularly in the National Capital area.

When spectators ask why the uniforms appear to be those of British infantrymen, bandmen tell them that red uniforms were also used in the early American Army. Field musicians, whose bugles and drums relayed orders and signals, wore them to be easily visible to their commanders in the clash of battle.

Gettysburg Lives Again; Battle Is Refought on Anniversary

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — That uniquely American phenomenon—the Civil War buff — left here today with his appetite for history whetted by three days of battle re-enactments, parades and colorful pageantry.

He was joined by the estimated 40,000 tourists who had jammed into this small community for the centennial commemoration of the Battle of Gettysburg.

An enthusiastic crowd, estimated by state police at 35,000, turned out Wednesday for the highlight of the observance—the re-enactment of Pickett's charge.

Confederate soldiers massed on Seminary Ridge at 3 p.m. and began the assault across a mile-long field. They appeared first as gray specks but five minutes later the Southern soldiers and their colorful battle flags drew a gasp from the crowd.

"Hymn of the Republic" and "Dixie" were played alternately as the Southerners inched forward.

The crowd, which had lined the entire route of the Confederate advance, fell behind the Southerners as they advanced up the gentle slope of Cemetery Ridge until, when the two forces met, there was a mass of humanity surrounding them.

The mock soldiers, whose ages ranged roughly from four to 70, were a cross-section of the states whose men had fought in the bloody battle a century ago. Many of them were descendants of the real combatants.

The battle has been described by historians as the bloodiest and most significant ever fought in the Western Hemisphere. There were more than 51,000 casualties.

Watson Answers Challenge From City Commissioner

The names of 11 firms and two businessmen were included in a statement issued today by Bill Watson, proprietor of the Pampa Roller Rink, as his answer to City Commissioner Jim Nation's challenge to Watson at Tuesday's city commission meeting to "name one business that had moved from Pampa because of high taxes."

Watson said he did not reveal any names Tuesday because he felt he should first get the permission of persons or firms involved.

In his statement today, Watson called the names set forth only a partial list of businesses that were major taxpayers who either have departed or drastically reduced their operations in Pampa.

"For each business that leaves or reduces operations," every Pampa home owner pays more to make up the lost revenue.

"In addition our school taxes have just been increased 12 1/2 per cent, while the school tax in Amarillo was just reduced for the third consecutive year."

Watson said he also wanted to clarify a report on his question to (See WATSON, Page 2)

Pampa Unit Starts Two-Week Camp

NORTH FORT HOOD (Spl) — The unit of the 36th (Texas) Infantry Division located in Pampa pulled into this Central Texas military post this week as the outfit launched its annual field training that continues until July 14.

The unit located in Pampa is Company B, 2d Battalion, 142d Infantry. It is commanded by Capt. Lawrence W. Hurdle, also of Pampa.

No sooner had some of the division's National Guardsmen completed unloading their personal gear and supplies and equipment for their units than it was time to reload many of the items and head for the field for a four-day bivouac in this hot climate.

The division has a three-pronged training objective during summer camp this year. The primary objectives include advanced and basic unit training and for the first time in the division's history, maintenance training will be stressed on an equal basis with all other types of training.

About 1,000 of the T-Patchers will undergo the live-fire rifle platoon attack course, which covers some of Fort Hood's rugged territory.

The 98 federally recognized units return to their home stations in 65 different Texas cities on July 14.

Watson

Mayor Thompson at Tuesday's meeting about Pampa's water rates.

"It was not noted that the mayor refused to deny that our water rates would be raised after the July 9th charter election," Watson said in his statement. "He merely evaded the question by stating that the matter had not been discussed."

"The facts are, that on Tuesday, May 14, at the invitation of the city commission, Mr. T. Forrest Carr reported to the commission on water problems and recommended that the water rates be substantially raised.

"Commissioner Fort asked that an ordinance be placed on the agenda which would have continued our low summer rate for at least another year. Mr. Fort was visited by Mayor Thompson and told that both he (the mayor) and Commissioner McDaniel were opposed to continuation of the low summer rate so there would be no use in discussing it at the meeting. Commissioner Fort reluctantly allowed the ordinance to be removed from the proposed agenda."

Watson also charged in the statement that "politics is being played with the future of Pampa" and that "facts are being kept from the people by a group seeking to gain complete control of the city"

U.S., Russia Nominally Accept Test Ban

56TH YEAR

THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS
THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1963

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan said today the Soviet Union believes all conditions have been met for an East-West agreement on a partial nuclear test ban. He said it was now up to the West. Mikoyan said President Kennedy had expressed interest in a non-aggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) and the Communist Warsaw Pact countries last October during the Cuban crisis. Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, in a speech in East Berlin Tuesday, said Russia would agree to "simultaneous" signing of a limited nuclear test ban and an East-West non-aggression pact. He said these two steps would ease East-West tension.

(Western diplomats were divided in assessing whether the Soviets considered that a partial nuclear test ban agreement would be conditional on a NATO-Warsaw Pact non-aggression treaty).

Such a partial test ban accord would cover all but underground nuclear tests. But in conversation with a group of Western diplomats Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin avoided making the NATO-Warsaw Pact agreement a condition for a test ban accord. "We think there are all the conditions for agreement," Mikoyan said, "and it now depends on the West."

He spoke hours after U.S. officials in Washington said the administration was prepared to sign a limited test ban agreement with the Soviets and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said such an agreement would be progress. Mikoyan avoided predictions on the outcome of Sino-Soviet talks opening here Friday designed to heal the rift between the two Communist giants. Mikoyan parried Western news-men's questions on the significance of his appearance at the American reception. "Does this mean that you are re-examining the cold war and that your appearance is a good sign?" one newsman asked. "You should not exaggerate—we usually come," Mikoyan said. "We are against the cold war. Our people and the Soviet Union will work toward the end of the cold war."

pendent on the conclusion of the East-West non-aggression pact. Western observers saw this as a Soviet bargaining position that would be spelled out in greater detail when the United States, Britain, and the Soviet Union begin negotiations here on a nuclear test ban July 15.

(Mikoyan's statement about President Kennedy's "interest" in a non-aggression pact may have referred to a letter Kennedy wrote premier Khrushchev on Oct. 27 last year at the end of the Cuban crisis.)

GIRAFFE RODEO

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the most colorful spectacles in South Africa is catching the giraffe, says Pan American World Airways. The giraffe is pursued on horseback and grabbed by the tail. While one man holds on to the tail, another slips a harness on the giraffe. A mild tranquilizer is then administered and the giraffe, more sleepy than frightened, is led into a waiting van.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Some one at CBS-TV with a sense of humor scheduled a report on taxes Wednesday night on the eve of Independence Day.

Therefore, while you were probably whopping it up to kick off the holiday, your devoted viewer spent the hour from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. watching some very serious and important fellows hash over President Kennedy's proposed reduction in federal taxes.

Unless such a subject stirs you in the same manner as sex appeal or night baseball, and you consequently watched the program, you probably had a better time than I did. For the truth of the matter is that scheduling a special report concerning economics on a holiday eve is likely to run into the same resistance as trying to force coffee on a man who is happily in his cups. Excellence, of course, would have been its own reward, regardless of the scheduling. But the producers unfortunately chose to ignore the fact that television is basically a visual art, more than an aural one; and, thus restricting themselves, they also boxed in the many earthy, humorous and informed abilities of the reporter-host, Harry Reasoner, who should have been out among the people, telling the story in human terms.

We heard a statement from President Kennedy, filmed at the White House. A group of officials and experts had a discussion for a half hour or so. And a gentleman who is the dean of the division of humanities and social sciences and professor of economics at Carnegie Institute of Technology, gave a lecture as interminably long and frightening as his title. The closest we got to clarity and savoir faire was Vermont C. Royster, editor of the Wall Street Journal, who, like all newspapermen, is apparently brilliant and charming.

There is nothing, of course, the matter with a good, straight, serious report. In fact, such efforts are very welcome nowadays, since some news specials have given one the feeling that a dozen dancing girls might burst forth at any moment just to keep things showmanlike and moving. But there must be a yielding to the fact that video is either pictorial — or is nothing more than radio. Heavy, then, is the word for the hour. And I doubt whether many laymen, for whom it was intended, stuck it out. It is difficult to warm to a topic when terms like "10 billion" are thrown around impersonally — and when one knows that stories are, eventually, resolved in terms of people.

The Channel Swim: Benny Goodman, Red Nichols and Count Basie are the premiere guests when NBC-TV's spotlight musical series, "The Lively Ones," returns for a second summer July 25. Joan Fontaine, Allan Sherman, Paul Ford, Tony Bennett and Georgia Brown introduce the acts on CBS-TV's "Talent Scouts" July 16.

It is the misfortune of Negroes that in this moment of greatest need for self discipline that they have no acknowledged leader.

Thousands of Negroes are enrolled as privates in the mass armies involved in demonstrations, sit-ins and, occasionally, street violence. The number of brigade commanders accredited to and variously directing these maneuvers is beyond number.

What the Negroes lack is a five-star generalissimo. The Negroes need a leader who can arouse their armies or send the armies home and off the streets and away from the jails.

Most especially, the Negroes now urgently need leadership which can persuade them against mass demonstrations in the capital of the United States while Congress is debating the Kennedy civil rights bill. One of the Negro brigade commanders is the Rev. George Lawrence of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Some days ago the Rev. Lawrence promised that Washington, D.C., would be the focus of a massive, militant and monumental sit-in this summer unless Congress acted fast to assure full equal rights for the Negro now.

He said any Southern filibuster against civil rights legislation would touch off massive acts of civil disobedience all over the United States. What the Rev. Lawrence will touch off if he carries out his program is pretty sure to be more racial bitterness, more violence and much less sympathy among Americans for the pending civil rights legislation.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference is one of many more or less militant Negro organizations, any one of which probably could match the Rev. Lawrence in mass demonstrations. There appears to be no Negro or group of Negroes, however, competent to control the civil rights demonstrators by directing their activities into channels more likely to help than to harm their cause.

The leadership situation, in fact, is worse than that. It is not merely that there is no acknowledged Negro leadership, but that the various brigade commanders are competing with each other for prestige and privileges and, perhaps, for money.

Adriano F. DiDomenico is one in a million—or rather, one in two thousand million. Here he receives the $25 U. S. Savings Bond bearing the serial number 2,000,000,000 from Mrs. Kathryn O'Hay Granahan, Treasurer of the United States. Mr. DiDomenico, who lives with his wife and 13-year-old son in Camden, N. J., bought the bond through the Radio Corporation of America's Payroll Savings Plan. It turned up as one of the 10,000 bonds RCA obtains monthly for its Camden payroll covers. In presenting the bond, the Treasurer called it appropriate that the bond with the magic number two billion should be issued during the 1963 Freedom Bond Drive, and that it was bought through the Payroll Savings Plan, which accounts for about half of all E Bond purchases.

CLAIMS SPEED MARK

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Trans World Airlines today claimed a new transcontinental speed record of 4 hours, 21 minutes on a flight from New York.

Capt. William Townsend of Los Angeles was pilot of the Boeing 707 Starstream jet carrying 115 passengers on the flight Tuesday. A TWA spokesman said the time was 2½ minutes faster than the previous record.

Bifocal glasses were invented by Benjamin Franklin.

TOO MUCH PUSH

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—When Sawnee Alexander asked a friend, Horace Watson, to give his stalled car a push Monday, the friend complied with his own automobile.

The stalled vehicle struck a parked car and a tree, went through a fence, under a clothesline filled with clean wash, and then into another fence, where a steel pole brought it to rest.

July Or December, Pink Dessert Goes With Announcement Parties

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

With announcement parties in season and suppers to honor the future bride and groom, romance is in the air, which, of course, means, that pink desserts are now in demand. You'll find these two very easy to make. They actually start with your baker.

CHERRY TORTE
(Serves 12-16)

1 (1 1/4 lb.) can frozen red cherries
3/4 cup confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons Cointreau
1 (10-inch) baker's angel food cake
1 cup heavy cream
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
Thaw cherries, drain off juice and save. Dissolve 3/4 cup sugar and cornstarch in juice. Stirring constantly, heat until juice is thickened and just begins to boil. Stir in Cointreau and cherries. Spread cherry filling between cake layers. Whip cream until it will hold its shape, then add 2 tablespoons sugar and continue whipping until thick. Spread whipped cream over top and sides of torte. Sprinkle orange rind over top of cake.

RASPBERRY MERINGUE STACKS
(6 stacks)

12 slices enriched bread
2 egg yolks, unbeaten
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup milk
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1 quart fresh raspberries

Trim crusts from bread; cut each slice in half. Combine egg yolks, salt, sugar and almond extract; beat slightly. Add milk. Dip slices of bread in mixture and place on a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a 325-degree oven for thirty minutes. Remove from oven. Beat egg whites until stiff. Add almond extract. Top each slice of bread with meringue and return to oven for fifteen minutes, or until brown. For individual servings, cover 6 slices of meringue toast with crushed raspberries, or other fresh fruit. Top each with another slice and garnish with more fruit.

COCONUT CALLS the tune in this dessert treat.

Party Brownies Help You Dance 'Till Dawn

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Summertime square dancers develop hearty appetites and welcome energy food that tastes good and is different. So give them rectangles of coconut ice cream placed on top of semi-sweet brownies. Then, just for good measure, sprinkle a little toasted coconut on top of the ice cream.

After eating that, they can dance till dawn.

SEMI-SWEET BROWNIES
(6 servings)

2-3 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup butter or other shortening
1 package (6 ounces) glazed

semi-sweet chocolate chips
3/4 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1/2 cup broken California walnuts

1 teaspoon vanilla
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Melt shortening and 1/2 package of the chocolate chips over hot water. Gradually add sugar to eggs, beating thoroughly. Add chocolate mixture and blend. Add flour and mix well; then add walnuts and vanilla. Spread batter in greased 8-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 25 minutes. Sprinkle the remaining 1/2 package chocolate chips over top; bake 5 minutes longer. Cool in pan. Then cut into rectangles. Top with Toasty Coconut-Topped Ice Cream Squares.

Long, Luxurious Breakfasts Delight Gourmets With Distinctive Recipes

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In New Orleans at Brennan's French Restaurant on Royal Street, long, luxurious Sunday breakfasts are a gourmet's favorite past-time. Ella Brennan Martin, the talented proprietor, served us a special fresh fruit compote first.

Next came Eggs Hussarde with Hollandaise and Marchand de Vin Sauces. This prized recipe is its own best description.

EGGS HUSSARDE
(1 serving)

2 large thin slices ham, grilled
2 Holland rusks
1/4 cup Marchand de Vin Sauce
2 slices tomato, grilled
2 eggs, soft poached
3/4 cup Hollandaise Sauce

Lay a large slice of ham across each rusk and cover with Marchand de Vin Sauce. Cover next with tomato and then egg. Top with Hollandaise Sauce. Garnish with paprika.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE
(1 cup)

4 yolks of eggs
1/2 pound butter, melted
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon salt

In top half of double boiler, beat egg yolks and stir in lemon juice. Cook very slowly in double boiler over low heat, never allowing water in bottom pan to come to a boil. Add butter a little at a time. Stir constantly with a wooden spoon. Add salt and pepper. Continue cooking slowly until thickened.

MARCHAND DE VIN SAUCE

3/4 cup butter
1-3 cup finely chopped mushrooms
1/2 cup minced ham
1-3 cup finely chopped shallots
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons garlic, minced
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Dash of cayenne
3/4 cup beef stock
1/2 cup wine (red)

In a 9-inch skillet melt butter and lightly saute the mushrooms, ham, shallots, onion and garlic. When the onion is golden brown, add the flour, salt, pepper and cayenne. Brown well, about 7 to 10 minutes. Blend in the stock and the wine and simmer over low heat for 35 to 45 minutes.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
 When, last December, the United States recognized the revolutionary regime of Yemen, it did so with both short and long-range objectives. Immediately, it hoped to give Yemen's President Abdullah-Al-Sallal the prestige needed for him to remain in power, and to give both Egypt and Saudi Arabia a reason to cease their outside aid to the opposing sides in Yemen's civil war.

 When this failed to have the desired results, the United States took two more steps.
 It prodded the United Nations into entering the dispute in the role of mediator.
 And it sent one of its most successful negotiators, Ellsworth Bunker, to the Middle East for on-the-ground talks with President Abdel Gamal Nasser and with Prince Faisal, premier of Saudi Arabia.
Egyptian Agreement
 Out of this came Egyptian agreement to withdraw its troops from Yemen and Saudi Arabia and Jordan agreement to cease their aid to Yemen's deposed Imam.

 It also led to a U.N. decision to send a peace-keeping team under Swedish General Vo, Hor, to Yemen to make sure the agreements were carried out.
 In the long-range, the United States also sought to cut off what rapidly was becoming an all-out test of strength between Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

 Direct conflict between these two held out almost limitless possibilities, and in direct notice of its own interest in the conflict, the U.S. warned Egypt that any attack on Saudi Arabia would set it on collision course with the United States.
 Since there is reason to believe that the Egyptians not only were flying Russian planes in Yemen but that some of them were flown by Russian pilots, there then came the possibility of another U.S. confrontation with the Soviet Union.

 There the situation roughly stands today.
 The trouble with the overall strategy seems to be that it reckoned without the determination of the deposed young Imam now fighting to regain his throne.
 Nasser is believed anxious to get out of Yemen where costs are running around a reported $1 million per day and Egyptian troops have suffered heavy casualties. But he dare not pull out until he believes Sallal's position is secure.

 But—the power of Sallal's regime so far is confined to the cities and his hold by no means firm.
 In London last week, the Imam's foreign minister, Ahma Moham ad El-Shamy told UPI correspondent George Bitar that the war will end immediately if the Egyptians pull out.

KITCHEN SELLS
NEW YORK (UPI) — When builders ask the ladies what they think is the biggest advantage for them in moving into a new home, the most frequent answer is: the pleasure of being able to work in sparkling, modern kitchen.
 Margaret Spader, home service consultant for the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, says proof of this can be found in the ready sale of homes equipped with new built-in, slide-in or free-standing gas ranges that lend themselves to more efficient kitchen layout, are easier to clean, and boost the kinds of automation that are missing in older cooking equipment.

Vacationing Families Invest In Second Home

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The idea that two homes per family is not such an extravagance gains ground each year. In parts of the country which are near scenic, resort, and sports vacation grounds, many families are investing in some sort of second home.

It may be a weathered cottage behind a sand dune, a soaring brand-new A-shaped mountain hideaway, a houseboat or, for the restless, a car or travel trailer. Several homemakers I've met this summer tell me they pay for their vacation housing by renting when they are not in residence.

To qualify as "vacation" housing, however, the place must present an absolute minimum of housekeeping. One homemaker I visited at her beach cottage on the Pacific Ocean has left the interior of her shell house largely unfinished, with exposed beams and studs left to weather to a mellow brown. (No redecorating). She likes straw mats for the floor. Furnishings are in soft "faded" blues, purples, and gold canvas and cotton. Further sun-fading won't hurt them. Driftwood and shells from the beach are accessories.

Neatness and efficiency are built into a travel trailer, says another homemaker who vacations in hers from Maine to Miami. There is a place for everything and everything must be put back in its place for the compactly planned interior to be comfortable.

Many modern materials are finding their way into modern vacation housing because of their low maintenance as well as their color and convenience. Plastic laminates, fiber glass synthetic fiber fabrics which won't mildew, foam rubber, non-rusting metal tubing, vinyl tile flooring to mention a few.

Formica was used in one model plan to face cupboard doors (driftwood grained laminate outlined the doors in seal brown). The countertop and little built-in table were done in the same materials, the argument being that such a surface looks handsome and practically takes care of itself.

Marine hardware makes an appropriate and good-looking change for conventional door handles in this installation.

In this colorful model vacation house, modern materials offer minimum maintenance, lasting color. Space-saving stainless steel galley sink is circular basin set in counter.

Historic Sites Offer Decorating Suggestions

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
If vacation travels take you in the vicinity of one of the several "restored" villages or museums, be sure you get to see it. A leisurely study of an old historical home is full of interest for most of us. Restless children, however, usually a part of vacation travel, do not contribute to leisurely study. Plan ahead for the restless ones:

line up a baby sitter (through the motel) to supervise their swimming, movie watching, reading or just walking around.

If the children want to go sight-seeing with you, you'll find some of the historical restorations well-equipped to give them a dash of history and lots of activity such as garden walks, rides, and quaint places to eat. Williamsburg is one of these and while our young ones headed toward their brand of entertainment, I lingered in the houses. The elegant furniture, the lovely fabrics, the general air of unhurried refinement are soothing balm to a hard-pressed housewife who has just finished a hot five-hour drive with the family.

If your personal tastes incline to this period in furnishings, you will find several points of interest in addition to the furniture styling. The window treatments, for example, which are simple, formal swags, avoid smothering the window with excessive yardage. Specialized accessories: the fireplace screen, basin table, Delft flower holders, sconces and glass lanterns would give character to many rooms of today.

Vacation budgets are usually not geared to the purchase of souvenirs more expensive than post cards. For future reference, it is wise to carry home a catalogue of reproductions available which, in the case of Williamsburg, are many and varied. Some authentic reproductions of this period are also available in many stores across the country.

Bedsprads are a good case in point. Two new ones are a classic overshot weave which looks like homespun and a brocatelle in gold on blue or ivory on blue. Both are woven in all-cotton, a concession to modern households.

Dear Abby... Big Spending Worries Woman

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a woman past 50 who can't resist buying clothes? I am that woman. I buy dresses, hats, shoes, underwear and costume jewelry I don't need and have no place to wear. I'm an ordinary woman and lead a very ordinary life. I am married to an average man and we aren't wealthy, but I keep right on buying. I buy things I'd like to wear, but never will — like big hats, short pajamas, bright-colored dresses with low necklines, Bermuda shorts, and spike-heeled shoes. I have closets full of clothes — some still in their original boxes — but the next week I'm out shopping again. Is there something the matter with me?

LOVES TO BUY
DEAR LOVES: Of hand I would say yes. Your spending sprees are probably symptomatic of a deep-rooted emotional disturbance, and only a psychiatrist can uproot it. (Either that, or you hate your husband and are trying to keep him broke.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a 24-year-old divorcee with a child. My problem is Bert. I have been going steady with him for almost a year. I am very much in love with him. In all the time I've gone with Bert I haven't even looked at another man. He calls me up at work at least twice a day, he sees me every night and on the weekends, too. He knows where I am every minute. Right? Well, so why is it that when he comes over he goes through all my garbage pails and ash trays to make sure nobody else has been there? I don't mind his being a little jealous. In fact, it's flattering, but this is ridiculous. He has no reason to act like this.

CONFUSED
DEAR CONFUSED: You are fine — Bert is confused. Obviously he is not sure of himself. If you want to suffer, go ahead and marry him.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's father adores our little girl, and he loves to take her places. This worries us a great deal because Grandpa is a TERRIBLE driver. No one in the family wants their children to ride with him, but sometimes we can't find an excuse. What can we say without hurting Grandpa's feelings? He is not old and feeble (he is 57) but he is a TERRIBLE driver.

NEEDS AN EXCUSE
DEAR NEEDS: Why look for an "excuse" when you have a good reason? Tell Grandpa that you love him dearly, but his driving terrifies you. Better to risk hurting Grandpa's feelings than your child's life.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FRANK:
When someone says, "Not to change the subject..." depend on it. That is exactly what he wants to do.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-address-

Dear Kathy

by Kathy Peterson
DEAR KATHY: It may sound silly, but ever since I can remember, my hands have been one of my biggest problems. I am shy and my father says I'm awkward. When I sit down, my hands look like balloons in my lap because they are too big and they aren't very pretty. I get so self-conscious about them that it affects everything else I do. I use hand cream to keep them as smooth as I can and my nails are always in good shape with natural polish. Is there anything you can suggest to help me? — G. C.

Dear G. C.: Worry about the things you can change and learn to live with the things that are here to stay. You can't turn those hands in for new models so accept them as they are.

Hands that are relaxed always look their best, whether on your lap or hanging by your side. This is something that can be practiced. Look into a mirror and notice the difference between relaxed hands close to your side and tensed hands held away from the body.

One measly dollar — currently worth about 42 cents — suddenly has caused the Baltimore Orioles to look like a million bucks. Annoyed over the many mental mistakes they were making, the Baltimore players decided last Tuesday to mete out fines among themselves for any further lapses.

They agreed the average fine would be one dollar, although some would range as high as five. The list of violations include failure to throw to the relay man, being picked off base and so forth.

The idea isn't exactly novel, having been used by other clubs before, but it seems to be working out fine (no pun intended) for the Orioles. They have won two games since the system was put into effect and have climbed into fifth place in the American League.

Went Like Clockwork
Everything went off like clockwork Wednesday night as they beat the Los Angeles Angels, 3-1, behind Milt Pappas, who posted his seventh victory in 11 decisions.

Bob Johnson, who has been doing a workmanlike job at second base since taking over for Jerry Adair, singled home two runs during a three-run rally at the expense of loser Dean Chance in the third inning. That was all Pappas needed although he was nicked for nine hits, including Albie Pearson's sixth homer in the third.

The first place New York Yankees won their sixth straight and widened their league lead to four games with a 5-4 triumph over the fading Chicago White Sox while Detroit ended Minnesota's

Babe Ruth League

First National Bank blasted Cree, 18-7, and Ideal defeated Hardware, 13-7, in last night's Babe Ruth League games at Optimist Park.

Bobby Everson took the win for the Bankers, striking out 10 and walking six. Mike Pursley was the loser.

Jim Cornutt was the big stick for the winners with three hits. Roy Harper coasted to the Ideal win behind the big bats of Jimmy Stroud, who connected for three hits, as did Gary Molberg for the Hardwaremen. Harper struck out 10 and walked eight. Mac McWilliams took the loss, striking out 10 and walking six.

The league takes the holiday off, with Kist vs. Enco and Fanning against the Lions tomorrow night finishing up the regular season.

Colts Win Sixth Straight Contest

BORGER (Spl) — The Pampa Colts won their sixth consecutive Tri-State League game here last night, rolling over the Borger Braves, 10-5.

Roy Perrin took his first win of the season as he went 7 1-3 innings, giving up four hits, although fielding errors behind him got him in trouble in the eighth inning, and Big Jerry Glover came in to put out the fire.

Meanwhile the cloutin' Colts pounced on loser Bob Taylor and reliever Mike Knapp for 11 hits, led by three off the bat of Gary Hill, and two each by Keith Gregory, Bobby Nutt and Mike Stewart. Gregory was the outstanding player on the field, making some near-miraculous plays at the hot corner.

A CARD from Red River, N. Mex., from the vacationing Birdog Trice indicates that the Pampa athletic director and his family are having a ball. The Bird reports they are heading on to Lake City, Colo., and the fishing, Lucky Bird! While the rest of us suffer in this fisherman's desert, he'll be sacking 'em up. Wait 'til next month, fella, those Laguna Madre trout out of Corpus Christi are going to make your Colorado trout look like herrings!

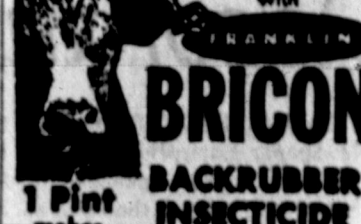

Fishing indeed seems to be pretty bad in these parts this year. An occasional report from a vacationing area resident shows there are fish to be caught in other parts of the world, but the other fish reported in the Panhandle seem to be either on trollines or with spears. Surely there must be a bass or catfish around who will latch on to a minnow or jure! Actually, the low water level and the heat have made this one of the poorest fishing seasons in a long time, although it was hoped that last month's rains would pick things up. Burson Lake reports good bass fishin', with O. P. Williams of Pampa pulling in a good string weighing up to 3 1/2 pounds.

LOOKS LIKE tournament season is coming up. The Babe Ruth League season is almost finished and the BR axes will be going to regional play next week. The American Legion Rebels need only one win in their next two games for a berth in the district playoffs.

the following week. The Pampa Colts will be entering the state NBC tournament at Borger this month. Latest report is from Dan Gantz of the Pampa Stars in the Industrial Softball League, who reports that at least one IL team will enter the Amarillo Softball Tournament the week of July 22. Dave originally figured to take an All-Star team from the best in the league — the Stars, the Miami Cowboys, Cabot Clowns and Panhandle Packers, but Packer manager Sunset Carson hopes to also put a team into the tourney. . . By Don Oakley and John Lane

The first American trip to the moon? It could come as early as 1968. It will take place no later than 1970, if the nation meets the goal set by President Kennedy.

But one day only a few short years from now a gigantic 355-foot Saturn V rocket will lift off its elevated and isolated pad at the Merritt Island complex at Cape Canaveral.

Six million pounds of men and metal will speed into the heavens, pushed by five great engines generating 7.5 million pounds of thrust—100 times more than the rocket which launched America's first satellite in 1958.

It will not be the first flight for the Apollo. Unmanned capsules will be launched in 1964 and 1965. Early versions of the Saturn will place the entire Apollo system with crew into earth orbit in 1968. Possibly as early as 1967, the first Saturn V will send an Apollo crew around the moon and back.

Apollo will consist of three major sections or modules: the command, service and lunar excursion modules (LEM). • The command module, weighing 10,000 pounds, will carry the crew, guidance, communications and life-support systems. • The service module, weighing 50,000 pounds, will carry propulsion systems for midcourse maneuvering and entry into and escape from lunar orbit. • Finally, the lunar landing vehicle, or LEM, which will weigh 25,000 pounds, will carry two of the three crew members to the moon's surface.

Before heading for the moon, the Apollo will spend about three hours in earth orbit as final checks are made on all its systems. Shortly after leaving earth orbit, the command and service modules will swing around in a nose-to-nose position with the LEM. The first midcourse guidance correction will be made, determined by computer calculations made on board and by ground stations, which will be in constant contact with the spacecraft throughout the mission.

While coasting toward the moon—the trip will take 82 hours from earth orbit to lunar orbit—two of the crew will transfer to the LEM and prepare for the landing.

ror, singled home Hector Lopez in the bottom of the inning to break a 4-4 tie with the White Sox. Hal Reniff picked up his first victory after taking over for starter Ralph Terry in the ninth while Jim Brosnan was the loser. Joe Pepitone and Jim Landis hit homers.

The Tiers piled up a 7-0 lead behind Jim Bunning and then held on to topple the Twins despite a pair of homers by Jimmie Hall and one by pinch hitter Vic Wertz, released by Detroit last month. Bunning struck out 11 but Terry Fox still had to come on to preserve his fifth victory. Dick McAuliffe and Norm Cash homered for the Tigers.

Bob Tillman's three-run homer in the ninth climaxed a four-run rally by the Red Sox that broke a 2-2 tie with the Indians. Tillman connected off Jerry Walker but the loser was Bob Allen. Dick Radatz registered his eighth victory against one loss after relieving starter Bob Heffner in the seventh. Radatz held the Tribe hitless and struck out six of the 11 batters he faced.

The Braves, held scoreless for 26 consecutive innings, kayoed Jack Sanford during a six-run sixth inning rally to wipe out a 4-0 deficit against the Giants. Hank Aaron's 23rd homer with one on highlighted the outburst.

and helped reliever Frank Funk to his third victory. Willie Mays hit his 16th homer for the Giants, Harvey Kuenn his third and Willie McCovey his 19th.

Southpaw Dick Ellsworth scored his 11th victory for the Cubs with a six-hitter against the Mets, who suffered their 50th defeat of the season.

Unknown Again Takes Lead In Tourney

TORONTO (UPI) — The mere mention of Ed Moehling's name always brings the same question: "Who's he?"

Moehling, a 22-year-old product of Mt. Prospect, Ill., needn't feel badly about his anonymity. The same question was asked when Arnold Palmer won the 1955 Canadian Open golf championship. Palmer's name is now well known, and Wednesday Moehling took a step in the same direction.

The tall, blond former state amateur champion slashed five strokes off the par 71 Scarborough Golf Course as he battered his way through gusts of wind up to 30 miles per hour and toured the rugged 6,738-yard layout in 86 strokes—three strokes better than Doug Ford, Tommy Aaron and Fred Hawkins.

"That's the best I've shot since joining the pro tour in January," Moehling said. "I've had a couple of 63's in practice but actually I've won only $260 in 12 pro tournaments. My best finish so far has been a tie for 25th in the Waco Turner Classic."

Ford, the 1959 champion, Aaron and Hawkins all stayed within reach of the $9,000 first place money with 69's. Ford was four under after 16 holes but had bogey fives on the last two holes when he missed the greens with his second shots.

Six players were tied at one-under-par 70, nine were locked at 71 and 14 more were grouped at 72. At 70 were George Bayer, Bob Rosburg, Jimmy Clark, Claude King, Herman Keiser and Ron Weber.

ball season coming to a close, Pampa's representation in teams has done the city rather well. Top booster, of course, are the Pampa Queens, who appear a cinch to walk off with the Golden Spread Women's Softball League title. The Pampa Rebels, with two games with previously-beaten foes left on the regular schedule, are a good bet to finish second in district, and of course, have an opportunity to go all the way in play-offs. The Colts, after dropping their first three games, have come on with a rush to take five in a row, and have a chance to finish second in the Tri-State League, although Graham of Amarillo, with an 8-0 record, seems to have first place clinched. The Colts also have a chance to go all the way in state tournament.

Although comments and compliments are usually reserved for the end of each sports season, it appears necessary to pass on a pair right now. One is to Kenny Collins, who has just become one of Uncle Sam's men. Kenny was a fine, "give-it-all-you-have" shortstop for the Pampa High Harvesters until graduation. As the only senior besides pitcher Jerry Glover, it was Smiley Ken who had a lot to do with instilling poise and confidence in a group of juniors and sophomores. After graduation, still loving the game, Kenny volunteered to come out and work with his youthful replacements with the American Legion team, pitched batting practice, kept the scorebook and helped any way he could. We sincerely wish Ken the best of luck, and thanks for everything.

The other compliment is to Dave Redus. Actually, it would take a whole page to list the sports department's thanks to Dave, who started out taking pictures of the Babe Ruth teams for the Optimists, volunteered to do them for us, and has since spent his own time and money taking pictures of every baseball and softball team in Pampa for the News. We just can't thank him enough, but we did wish to pass on the message to all those who wished prints of team pictures in the News this summer to contact Dave at MO 5-5019 for same.

A HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY.

Darlene, Billie Jean Aim for All-American

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI) — Darlene Hard and Billie Jean Moffitt, a pair of bouncy Californians, today hoped to set up the first all-American women's final in the Wimbledon tennis championships—in six years.

Miss Hard, America's top-ranked distaff player from Los Angeles, was pitted against top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia. Miss Moffitt, an upset-minded miss from Long Beach, Calif., met Ann Haydon Jones of England in the other semifinal.

If Miss Hard succeeds in beating the slightly-favored Miss Smith it will mark the third time she has reached the Wimbledon final. She bowed to Althea Gibson in the last all-American final here in 1957 and lost to Brazil's Maria Bueno in the 1959 title round.

Chuck McKinley of San Antonio Tex., swept into the men's final for the second time in three years by beating Germany's Willy Bunnert, 6-2, 6-4, 8-6, in 71 minutes Wednesday.

In Friday's title match on the center court, McKinley will face Australia's Fred Stolle, who upset second-seeded Manuel Santana of Spain, 6-4, 6-1, 7-5, in the other semifinal.

DAVIS SIGNS CONTRACT
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Tommy Davis, who has made good on 132 extra-point attempts without a miss, has signed his contract with the San Francisco Forty Niners for the 1963 National Football League season.

SOVIET, U.S. SCIENTISTS BUDDY-BUDDY — Corks popped and wine flowed as Russian scientists exuded hospitality for high American officials in the Soviet Union to sign a two-year agreement on using atomic energy for peaceful purposes. At one affair, left, the first Americans to be admitted to Russia's Technical Institute at Obninsk, 60 miles south of Moscow, where the Soviet's nuclear power plants are developed, are being toasted by the institute's Director Rodionov, standing. A. Petrosyants, director of Russia's atomic energy program, is seated next to him and to the right is Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. At right, Dr. Seaborg poses for a bust by sculptress Anna G. Samartsova.

Only trip outside British Colonial America made by George Washington was a voyage to the West Indies in 1751. The 1960 U.S. census showed a total of 1,622,000 elementary and secondary school teachers in the country.
