Mr. or Mrs. College Student

Would you like a "head start" on your college clasmates in the race for good grades? If so, I feel that I am in a position to offer you that extra boost in the form of the HARVARD RAPID READING COURSE. A college student spends from 60% to 70% of his study time doing nothing but reading. Why not spend some time this summer and double or triple your present reading rate?

The course will be composed of eight two-hour sessions every Tuesday night starting June 18. The total cost of the course is $25.00 per person.

In an effort to better acquaint the public with this amazing reading technique and to answer questions concerning the course, a FREE PREVIEW of the course will be held on Thursday, June 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Coronado Inn.

AL Rebels Rally For 8-5 Victory Over Borger

By JEFF COHANE

Pampa News Sports Editor BORGER - The Pampa Rebels came from behind for an 8-5 victory over the host Borger Bulldogs in an American Legion game here yesterday. The win makes the Rebs 3-1 on the season and 1-1 in district play, handing Borger their second loss to Pampa in as many starts, their first district loss.

Jim Arthur made his first start of the season and found it rocky going as he was reached for five hits and four walks in six innings, despite striking out nine 'Dogs. Blazing Bobby Price went the last four innings and added to his impressive total as he faced only 14 batters, allowing no hits, one walk and striking out six. Price has now gone seven innings this season, allowed one hit, one unearned run and four walks while striking out nine.

Bill Hamil took the mound for Borger in the first three frames. and although the Rebs belted the ball all over the lot, there always seemed to be a Bulldog to catch it. LEXINGTON, Va. (UPI)-Army Secretary Cyrus R. Vance told the graduating class at Virginia Military Institute here Sunday that a broad knowledge of public affairs was needed to help maintain the United States' role as
