New Regime In Viet Nam Pledges Communist Fight

Truce Violated In Border War

ALGIERS (UPI) — Algerian and Moroccan troops lobbed shells at each other in violation of mutual pledges to observe a cease-fire Saturday while an angry envoy of King Hassan II waited in the wings for possible last-minute truce talks.

Hours after the cease-fire deadline, agreed to in Bamako, Mali, Wednesday between President Ahmed Ben Bella and Hassan, Algerian artillery shells Figui, 37 miles northeast of Colomb Bechar, and Moroccan guns blasted Beni Ounif, an Algerian frontier oasis four miles south of Figui.

As the artillery duel continued, King Hassan's envoy, Labor Minister Abdelkader Benjelloul, delayed his departure for Rabat apparently to be on hand if the Moroccan and Algerian governments decided to establish official contact and put the abortive cease-fire into effect.

Benjelloul had been sent here by Hassan to attend Friday's mass celebrations marking the ninth anniversary of the start of the Algerian war against France.

He sat impassively in the grand stand while the grimaced Ben Bella told a huge crowd which he estimated publicly at one and a half million, that Morocco had forced Algeria to fight again after Algeria had lost one and a half million people in the war against France.

Later, Ben Bella and Benjelloul had to be restrained when they ran into each other and exchanged bitter arguments at a reception Ben Bella gave at the people's palace.

In an argument about Figui, Benjelloul repeated Hassan's charges that Algeria launched the attack to prevent a cease-fire. Ben Bella claimed the Algerians already had captured Figui before last Wednesday's Bamako conference and the fighting around Figui was started by Moroccans.

Cities' Problems To Get Attention At League Meet

AUSTIN (UPI) — The ever-growing problems and pressures of local municipal revenue will be the chief topic of the annual conference of the Texas Municipal League in Houston today through Tuesday.

League president Robert Willis of Livingston said his group feels that "time has come for action" in the field of revenue problems of expanding Texas cities.

"This can come about only by permitting cities to broaden their local tax bases," Willis said. "We believe that in the next year before the legislature meets in 1965, this question should be thoroughly and fully considered by all citizens of Texas."

He said Texas cities will be unable to maintain their present rate of growth "unless they are able to maintain their fiscal solvency and financial self-sufficiency."

Another TML official, Mayor Hank Avery of Midland, said Texas must avoid "a patchwork, piecemeal approach to the solution of local municipal revenue problems."

He said solving revenue problems in a "one-bite-at-a-time" method is far from satisfactory. Local governments in some major states now are levying more than 5,000 different taxes, he said.

"We must have relief in this," he said.

President and Brother Assassinated by Rebels

By NEIL SHEEHAN
 United Press International

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UP) — Highly reliable military sources said Saturday night that rebel troops assassinated President Ngo Dinh Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, shortly after a perfectly executed military coup ended their eight-year rule in a 17-hour revolution.

End of the Diem regime, touched off celebrations by joyous mobs who surged through the streets carrying rebel troops on their shoulders. But students freed by the military roamed the city in an orgy of hatred, burning, looting and pillaging buildings and business establishments owned by the Ngo family.

Saigon Radio said Diem and his brother, husband of outspoken Madame Nhu, committed suicide while being transported to jail in an armored personnel carrier.

But highly reliable informants said they were slain by the men who captured them in a Roman Catholic church in the twin city of Cholon across the Saigon River from Saigon proper.

Flee Through Tunnel

It was believed both Ngo brothers escaped from the besieged presidential palace in Saigon in the pre-dawn hours Saturday through a secret tunnel shortly before assaulting marines overran and captured the building.

The informants said leaders of the coup received information late in the morning that Diem was in a Catholic church in Cholon. The coup leaders did not know that Nhu was with him, but they dispatched armored personnel carriers and a company of troops.

The troops found the Ngo brothers sitting in the church and ordered them into one of the armored carriers. On the way to military headquarters in Saigon an order was given and the soldiers inside the armored vehicle shot them to death.

When the troop carrier reached military headquarters the men were found inside dead. The coup executed in classic military style was led by pro-Western Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, a widely respected military leader described by American officials as "someone we could get along with." Former Vice President Nguyen Ngoc Tho was named provisional president.

The new government, in a series of communiques, pledged itself to devote its energies to prosecuting the war against the Communist Viet Cong alongside the U. S. military advisers. It promised freedom of religion and a return to civilian rule "when the situation permits."

National Guard Unit Inspection Scheduled

Col. Condee C. Nason, representative from the inspector general's office of the 4th Army Headquarters at Fort Sam Houston will be in Pampa tomorrow to inspect the operation of the local national guard unit. Company B 2nd Battalion, 142nd Infantry.

He will be assisted by Lt. Col. Harlie M. Goss, representative of the advisor group of the National Guard in Amarillo.

The inspection of the administration and supply of the local unit will be from 1 to 5 p.m. and the inspection of men in ranks will be from 7 to 8 p.m. From 8 to 9:30 p.m. the inspectors will observe the local unit's four classes and check each instructor to see whether or not he is using the proper military method for instruction, according to M.Sgt. Wesley Langham, administrative and supply technician.

"This is not a one-shot deal," Langham said. "The rating we receive on this inspection will depend on the quality of the work we've done during the entire year."

"It includes the judgement of our combined field and maintenance inspection of equipment, the 15-day summer camp, annual inventory and the battalion command inspection. Last year we received a rating of excellent for 1962."

The classes include rifle platoon and technique of fire, taught by Lt. Duggan Smith; 81 mortar section class, planning and preparing for the defense, with Sgt. Billy J. Willis as instructor. The third class is the anti-tank section, planning and conducting a mounted attack, taught by SP4 Charles Smith of White Deer. The fourth class is recruit training, a class on guard duty taught by Sgt. Gerald Smith of Pampa.

Company commander for the 103 enlisted men and six officers stationed at the Pampa National Guard unit is Capt. Lawrence Hurdle, 1000 Charles.

Jewelry Store Display Window Is Burglarized

Cizon's Jewelry Store, 112 W. Foster, was burglarized of about $1,170 worth of watches and watch bands between 2:30 a.m. and 2:55 a.m. yesterday.

Patrolman C. L. Wallace, while on a routine patrol in the alley of the 100-block of W. Foster, saw some small red boxes lying in the alley. He got out of his patrol car to check and saw Cizon's name printed on the boxes. Wallace went directly to the store and discovered someone had thrown a piece of concrete through the front window.

According to Gary Neal, manager, the estimated loss without inventory was 23 watches and four ladies watch bands, with a total estimated value $1,170.

"We're still in the process of making the inventory and won't know until possibly Monday exactly how much is missing," Neal said.

FBI Nabs Man After $250,000 Extortion Letter

SWEETWATER, Tex. (UPI) — When Wilson Guest sent his daughter off to school each day this week, only he and the FBI, and one other man knew there was a price of $50.10 on her head.

There was an identical price on the heads of the other children in this pleasant West Texas city of 14,000 people. And on the heads of the sick in the hospitals and anyone who might be in the courthouse.

An extortionist was demanding $250,000 from Guest, the president of the Sweetwater National Bank. It was a cold-blooded proposition: The money or the schools and hospitals and the courthouse would be bombed. The extortionist, a methodical man, had it figured out.

Small Price To Pay

He said the explosions would kill 4,300 persons. "I want $250,000," he wrote. "This is approximately $58.10 per person so that they might live. Pretty small amount to live, don't you think?"

The letter was written Oct. 24 to Guest. It was on that day that Sweetwater took official notice of an energetic young securities sales man, Ronney Marrion Mason.

He was 25, and going places. On the day the letter was written, he was named one of five (See FBI, Page 3)

Comedian's Wife Robbed in Hotel

NEW YORK (UPI) — A shabbily dressed holdup man forced Mary Livingston, wife of comedian Jack Benny, to hand over $200,000 worth of jewels in her hotel suite Saturday, police reported.

Police said Benny had just left the couple's 14th floor suite at the luxurious Hotel Pierre on Fifth Avenue when the man walked in and demanded her jewels. She handed over a $150,000 diamond ring and other jewelry, and he fled.

Mrs. Benny told police the door to the three-room suite was unlocked and the man walked in from the corridor at 11 a.m. EST. He pulled a gun and forced her into the bedroom where she kept her jewelry in a dresser drawer.

She said she handed over the 26-carat diamond ring and emerald and diamond earrings and a necklace. The man made no attempt to tie or harm her but simply fled through the door by which he had gained entry, Mrs. Benny said.

Police said the comedian's wife was unable to give any clear description of the man.

Three Are Hurt In Head-on Crash

Two persons were in Highland General Hospital and one was treated and released as a result of a two-car head-on collision about 7 p.m. Friday in the 400-block of S. Starkweather St.

According to hospital authorities, both Mrs. Avis Sanchez, 51, of Pampa and Billy Mac Wilson, 36, of 732 E. Cambell were listed in good condition and Kay Rake, 18, of Pampa was treated and released.

Wilson was driving south, without lights and on the wrong side of the street when he was involved in the head-on collision with the car driven by Mrs. Sanchez, who was going north on Starkweather, according to Police Capt. Denny Roan.

Wilson has been cited for driving while intoxicated, second offense, and has been served with a felony warrant issued by the Justice of the Peace court. He will be arraigned in Justice of the Peace court upon his release from the hospital, police stated.

Mrs. Sanchez and Miss Rake were taken to the hospital in a Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance and Wilson was taken to the hospital in a police car.

U.S. Considers Recognition of New Government

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The administration, eager to see South Viet Nam get back to the war against the Communists, awaited word Saturday night of the revolutionary regime's next step: President Kennedy discussed the situation with his top-level advisers throughout the day.

The United States probably would recognize President Ngo Dinh Diem's successors as soon as they formally declared the make-up and future policy of their government. Monday was seen as the earliest possible date for U.S. diplomatic recognition.

Kennedy cancelled a trip to Chicago for the West Point-Air Force football game to hear latest reports of Saigon developments at a 45-minute meeting in the White House Cabinet Room.

The President was briefed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Director John A. McCone, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and high State Department officials.

The President's decision to cancel the Chicago trip was not interpreted as a sign of unfavorable developments in South Viet Nam.

Rather, the administration was understood to be watching the situation closely to try to determine just how soon the military junta intended to set up a provisional government and return to the anti-Communist fight.

Nguyen Ngoc Tho, vice president in the Diem regime since 1956, has been chosen interim premier, and other political leaders of the new government are known by name.

Snow and Rain End Long Drought Period

By United Press International
Welcome snow and rain fell Saturday from the Ohio Valley to the Eastern Seaboard, easing a record-breaking Indian Summer drought.

Cool air sent temperatures below the freezing mark as far south as Alabama and Texas.

Three inches of snow fell in Virginia's Shenandoah National Park, and some sections of the state received nearly two inches of rain.

Suburbs of Cleveland, Ohio, had up to two inches of rain, and lesser amounts fell in Indiana.

An overdue flow of Canadian air dropped the mercury to 30 at Birmingham, Ala. It was below freezing at Lufkin and Junction in mid-Texas.

Minnesota had the nation's coldest temperatures Saturday—9 above at Roseau, 12 above at Bemidji and Hibbing, and 13 at International Falls.

Birmingham received nearly an inch of rain, Millville, N.J., three-fourths of an inch, and Cape Hatteras, N.C., nearly that much.

The much-needed moisture enabled several states to reopen their dried-up woodlands to hunters and tourists.

A two-week ban on smoking, hiking and camp fires was lifted in Shenandoah National Park, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, Connecticut, New York, West Virginia and Michigan reopened their wood and grasslands to hunters.

state from the narrow municipal tax bases imposed by statutes adopted before 80 per cent of the Texans now living were born," Avery said.

"We have enough cards out in various business places to complete our $62,000 goal if all are honored," Carruth stated. "I hope that those who have asked the workers to 'come back later' will realize these workers are donating their time as well as their money to the United Fund cause."

Alanreed Asking Bids for New School Building

ALANREED (Sp.)—The Alanreed board of education is inviting bids for the construction of a new school building.

Sealed bids will be opened in the school gymnasium at 7 p.m. on Nov. 19, according to Warner Phillips, board president.

General contractors and subcontractors interested in submitting bids were invited to contact the architects, Rittenberry and Associates, 114 East 15th Avenue, Amarillo, for plans and specifications.

Rittenberry and Associates is the architectural firm for the building.

The new structure, which is to replace a building in use for many years, will contain five classrooms, a cafeteria, business office and superintendent's office. It will be constructed of brick veneer.

U. E. Thorne, President of Gerla Petroleum Limited, Calgary, Alberta and formerly of Pampa from 1927 to 1942, has announced that his company, a private Alberta corporation, is building a gas processing plant in the Crossfield Cardium field about 40 miles north of Calgary.

The plant will cost $500,000 and is scheduled to go on stream by December 1.

Thorne was graduated from Pampa High School with the class of 1929. He was employed here with Magnolia Petroleum Co. from 1930 to 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne have lived in Calgary since 1958, having moved there from Dallas. Thorne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Thorne of 109 S. Wynne St., have resided in Pampa since 1927.

Council to Hold Meet on Friday

The Pampa City Commission at its meeting next Friday will consider requests for retirement deferments and accept a bid on police and firemen's uniforms.

The commission meeting, originally scheduled for Tuesday, has been postponed until 8:30 a.m. Friday in City Hall so commission members can attend the annual Municipal League Convention in Houston today through Tuesday.

Other items on the agenda are to consider closing the street adjacent to the Pampa Foundry Co., 701 S. Somerville, and authorize advertising for bids on remodeling offices of the Railroad Commission. Bids will be opened Nov. 26.

In other business, the commission plans to authorize the city secretary to place $33,000 water and sewer improvement bonds, 1948, interest and sinking fund, on time deposit for six months.

Pilot Escapes Jet Plane Crash

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (UPI)—An Air Force F86 jet fighter crashed and burned in a vacant field Saturday. The pilot ejected and parachuted safely.

The plane was demolished.

The pilot, Maj. Henry C. Smythe of Dallas, was on a routine air force reserve training flight out of Hensley Field in Dallas.

Shriners Open Hospital Unit For Fire Victims

GALVESTON (UPI) — A seven-bed unit for burned children, supported by Shriners, was opened Friday in John Sealy Hospital.

The unit is the beginning of what will be one of the first hospitals of its kind in the world—devoted to the treatment of children's burns.

The unit that was opened is a temporary measure until construction is completed on the 30-bed Shriners' Institute for children's burns, which is expected to be completed in the summer of 1965.

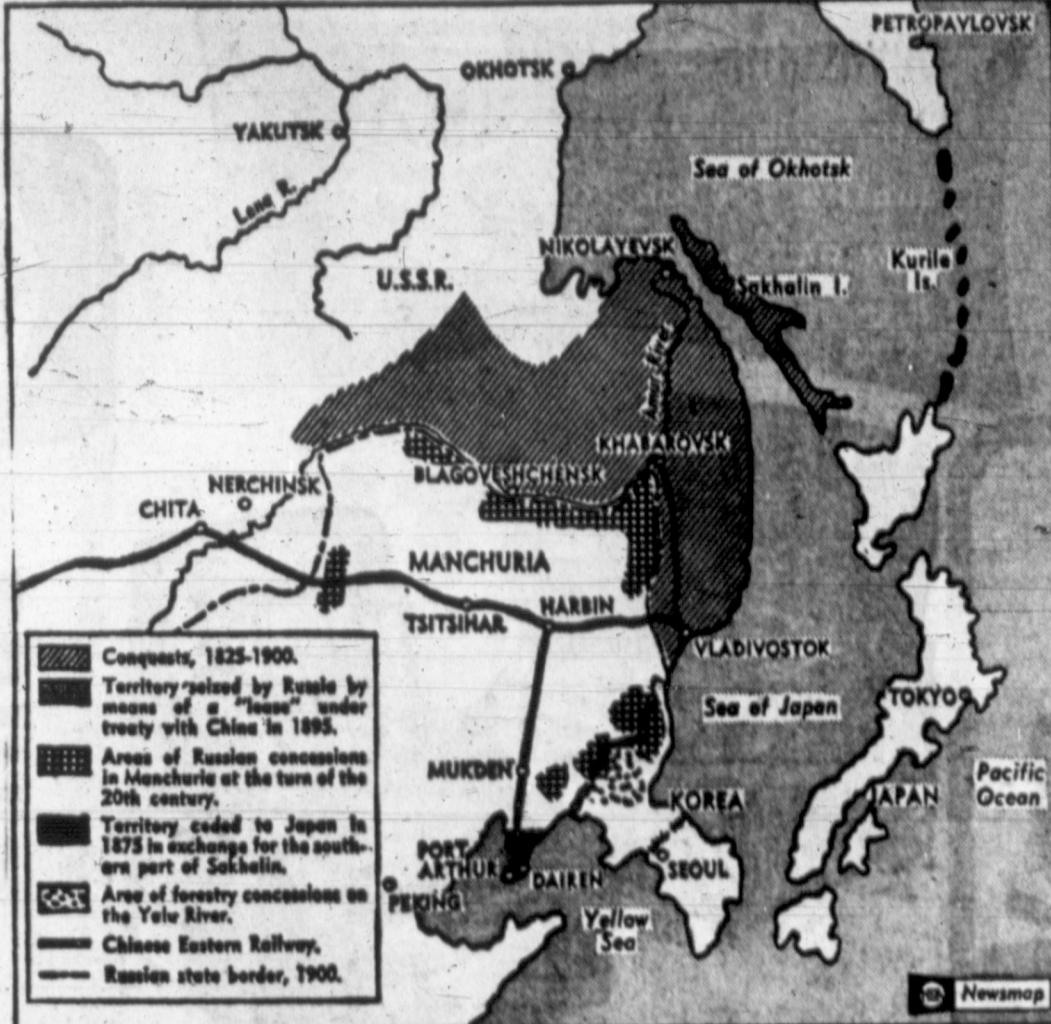

Shriners, who have been known for their philanthropic support for crippled children in 17 hospitals throughout the country, investigated medical needs of children in the United States and concluded the greatest unmet need is in the field of burns.

The Shriners have allocated $10 million to build three institutes which will specialize in patient care, research and training in burns. The other two units will be in Boston and Cincinnati.

The Galveston unit, which will be adjacent to John Sealy Hospital, will cost about $2.5 million and will be operated on an annual budget of $1.2 million.

Like the Shrine crippled children's hospitals, the burns institutes will provide free care for children under 15, regardless of race, creed or color.

Students Claim Harvard's Moral Climate Is Pure
CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—Harvard University students defended the moral climate of their hallowed, ivy-covered halls yesterday even though a dean contended coed visits to men's rooms permits "wild parties and sexual intercourse." University rules allow girls to visit male students' rooms—behind closed bedroom doors if they wish—but the undergrads deny this has led to sexual excesses on the grounds of the nation's oldest and perhaps most staid university.

RUSSIA'S ADVANCES ON CHINA: Soviet encroachments of Chinese territory are depicted in this map, redrawn from that appearing in "Russian History From the Earliest Times," by M. N. Pokrovsky, Moscow, 1935, Vol. 4.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
 A world which for years based its foreign policy on the Soviet Union's ability to make war now finds itself in the midst of a curious reversal. Policy makers now must consider the Soviets' ability to make peace. The question is a matter of serious debate and already has had an effect on U.S. relations with the U.S.S.R.

For example, except for the present seeming cold war thaw, it scarcely seems conceivable that the United States ever would have considered lifting its embargo and seriously negotiating with the Soviet Union for the sale of $250 million worth of wheat.

Wheat long has been on the list of "strategic" materials banned for sale to a potential enemy.

Debatable Issue
 And in the United States it has aroused debate whether such a sale and a revision of U.S. trade policies furthers the cause of peace or simply tides the Soviet Union over an emergency from which it can emerge to press still harder the cause of aggressive world communism.

Less directly related but a factor is the same question in the reaction of West Germans to the successful airlift of an entire U.S. division to Germany. Despite U.S. reassurances to the contrary, it aroused in Germans the fear that the U.S. intends to reduce its troop strength in Europe.

Timing And Intent
 Involved in the Soviets' ability to make peace are matters both of timing and intent. On the matter of timing, it is noteworthy that Soviet foreign policy took on a greater degree of caution immediately after the Cuban crisis—just a year ago this month.

The question of intent is even more important. In the present thaw, did Nikita Khrushchev jump or was he pushed?

The evidence is that he was pushed, despite the fact that co-existence with the West has for years been a proclaimed Soviet policy.

Devious and secretive as are the ways of communism, its practitioners often are amazingly frank in discussions of internal difficulties.

And recent discussions in Soviet publications indicate Soviet planners expect Russian difficulties to get worse before they get better.

TAPES PART IN FAIR
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — The United States will participate in the International Belgrade Book Fair Nov. 6 with a display of more than 7,000 of the newest scientific and technical books, the U.S. Embassy announced Saturday.
TOURS PAKISTAN
BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI) — A Hungarian court sentenced three minors to 8-to-12 month jail terms for trying to escape to the west in a cold-storage car, the union organ Nepszava said Saturday.

Kingsmill Grains Again Eligible For Federal Loans

Grains stored by the farmers in the Harvest Queen Mill and Elevator Co. at Kingmill are again eligible for price support loans since the facility has been restored to the list of warehouses approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation, according to Evelyn Mason, manager of the Gray County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Suspension of the warehouse, dated May 28, has been lifted by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Commodity office at Kansas, City, Mo., because an investigation showed the facility is now complying with the provisions of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement controlling the storage of government-owned grains.

During the suspension period, grains put into the warehouse for storage were not eligible for price-support loans, according to Miss Mason.

Wholesale value of the 1962 U.S. king crab pack (canned, frozen and fresh) exceeded $13 million.

Italy	1,995,000	4,300,000	8,900,000
Netherlands	540,000	900,000	1,600,000

EUROPE ON WHEELS—The European Common Market—Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Germany, Italy and the Netherlands—today produces about one-third of all the motor vehicles in the world. (The United States makes about 50 per cent.) The market is also the world's top exporter of vehicles. As Newschart above shows, ownership of cars by the 200-odd million citizens of the six nations is expected to climb from 13.5 million in 1960 to 40.5 million in 1970. Europe still has a long way to go, however. U.S. motor vehicle registrations today total around 70 million. In 1960, ratio of cars to population in Europe was still only equivalent to the U.S. position in 1920.

Texas Going Through Driest Year Since 1917 Devastating Drought

By PATRICK CONWAY
DALLAS (UPI)—Texas is suffering through its driest year since 1917. Officials estimated today that drought damage may run as high as $300 million.

Ranchers are either giving up and selling cattle, or desperately buying feed to save their herds. Farmers are struggling. Dozens of counties have been declared eligible for disaster relief benefits from the federal government.

State climatologist Robert Orten said today the worst is yet to come if winter rains are light.

The land is waxy. It has peeled and cracked like it was ravaged by a small earthquake.

Huge Damage
 State Agriculture Commissioner John White estimated today that damage may run from $200 million to $300 million.

Rangelands have been hit hardest. Ranchers who want to stick it out are having trouble buying feed.

White said he has approached the railroads for a rate reduction so that hay may be shipped in cheaper from other states. He said the hay shortage was "critical."

"Some of the ranges along the Gulf Coast look like you could play marbles on them," White said.

The drought is not as bad as the one that hit the state in 1956, when all but 19 of the state's 254 counties were on disaster relief, but officials fear the worst.

Two Areas Severe
 Deep East Texas and the Central Gulf Coast areas are the hardest hit.

Dallas, in North Central Texas, is suffering its driest year since its Weather Bureau was opened in 1913.

Ranchers in East Texas have started feeding cattle winter supplies.

Some East Texas counties have been declared disaster areas, but it is without meaning.

No Hay Available
 Orders have been issued to permit ranchers to graze their herds on land that is in the soil bank. But there is no hay on the land because of the drought.

Some farmers have planted winter crops in dust, hoping the rain will come in time to germinate the seed.

Sugar Shortage Due to Continue

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—In a letter to stockholders, the president of Holly Sugar Corp. said yesterday the world sugar shortage will continue into next year.

Dennis O'Rourke said the sharp increase in raw sugar prices from $6.50 in Sept. to $10 per 100 pounds on Oct. 25 was due to a sugar production lag. Cuban sugar production, which has been cut in half since Fidel Castro's rise to power, suffered further setbacks due to Hurricane Flora. O'Rourke said shortage of labor was responsible for much of the sugar shortage. He urged the government to continue its bracero program of importing migrant workers from Mexico.

'Mystery Buyer' Picks Up Five Major Art Works

NEW YORK (UPI)—A mysterious midwestern art collector bought five major masterpieces of modern art Wednesday night in the $1,121,300 sale of fashion designer Larry Aldrich's "old modern" masters.

Aldrich unloaded 57 of his collection of 260 modern paintings at the Parke-Bernet Auction Galleries to stake himself to purchases of paintings of younger artists. He said he "no longer was interested" in such "old" painters as Picasso, Chagall, and Miró.

"I want to help the new painters who are coming along by buying their paintings," said the slim, elegant fashion leader.

The competition was spirited but the midwestern collector, who refused to make his name public, paid $271,000 for paintings by Vuillard, Chagall, Gauguin, Kirchner, and Miró. The man of mystery paid a near-record $110,000 for Gauguin's "The Washerwomen."

Deadlock Differences Still Hold 'Wheat to Russia' Plan Spotlight

United Press International
 The cry "wheat to Russia" placed the bread grain in the international spotlight nearly eight weeks ago, and Washington officials and Soviet traders refuse to let her slip back out of sight.

The latest major stumbling block is a provision that President Kennedy put in his approval of wheat trade with Russia. A Soviet trade mission arrived in Washington over one week ago with intentions of buying about 160 million bushels of wheat, but they balked at the stipulation that wheat be shipped only in American vessels. Rates of American ships are about 30 cents a bushel higher than foreign carriers.

Sources in Washington indicated the tie-up could be untangled by a formula under which U.S. flag ship operators would agree to lower rates and the Russians would agree to see a fixed percentage of U.S. vessels. The latest reports indicate that U.S. flag participation in wheat and flour movement will be less than 50 per cent.

Despite the thrashing the cereal is taking in Washington, wheat futures have rocketed more than 30 cents a bushel in the last two months. The question currently looming over the Chicago Board of Trade is—What will happen to wheat prices if the Russians go stomping home without any wheat?

Vern Halverson of Walston & Co. predicts the psychological impact of a final break in wheat talks would spark a sharp selloff. But since the country has a deficit of 200 million bushels of free wheat, despite the "ugly" one-billion-bushel surplus, he said prices would soon bounce back to current levels.

Lamb prices worked higher while cattle and hogs took a dive this week in Midwest markets.

Slaughter steers and heifers traded lower for the fourth straight week on continued liberal supplies and a lower dressed beef trade. Steers and heifers sold steady to 50 cents per 100 weight lower, cows generally steady to 50 cents lower with St. Paul 50 cents to $1.00 lower but St. Louis steady to 50 cents higher, and bulls steady to 25 cents higher.

Vealers were steady to $2.00 lower, except steady to $1.00 higher at St. Louis. Feeder cattle sold steady to 50 cents lower with Southwest markets 25 cents to $1.00 lower.

Hogs traded 25 to 50 cents lower with interior Iowa 10 to 25 cents lower and St. Paul steady. Sows were weak to 50 cents lower. Bearish influences were heavy receipts plus a slightly lower dressed pork trade. In Chicago, Friday's top of $15.85 was the first time the top fell below $16.00 since early last May.

Woolled slaughter lambs were steady to 50 cents higher, except steady to 25 cents lower at Sioux Falls, ewes were steady to 50 cents higher and feeder lambs steady, except 25 cents lower at Denver and 25 cents higher at St. Paul.

Choice steers at Chicago averaged $23.55, compared with $23.63 last week and $29.71 a year ago. The average price on barrows and gilts was $15.20, against $15.58 and $16.87.

Chicago wholesalers listed steer and heifer beef 50 cents to $1.00 lower, cow beef steady to mostly $1.00 lower, lamb 5 cents lower, pork loins $1.00 to $1.50 higher, Boston butts 50 cents to $1.00 lower and fresh hams steady to $1.00 higher.

At New York, steer beef was 50 cents to $1.00 lower, lamb 50 cents lower and hog sides steady to 25 cents lower.

Wheat futures lost fractions this week after a 30-cent climb over the last two months on the Chicago Board of Trade. Soybeans added 7 cents on to last week's 12-cent spring, corn was strong and other cereals steady to firm.

Texas Historical Groups Paying Tribute Today to Stephen Austin

AUSTIN—The history of Texas would have been radically different had it not been for a patient, methodical, energetic and fair-spoken man who devoted his entire life to Texas. He was Stephen Fuller Austin, to be honored again Sunday by state historical groups on the 170th anniversary of his death.

Known as the Father of Texas, Austin was born in Virginia on Nov. 3, 1793 and followed his father to San Antonio, where Moses Austin applied to the Mexican government for a grant of land and the right to bring 300 families to Texas.

Austin received his formal education at Transylvania University, and then went to New Orleans to study law. His father's death left Stephen to take over the exciting and far-reaching plans of colonizing a great expanse of land.

Although he met obstacles with the Mexican government changing leaders and policy, Austin opened the way for hundreds of Anglo-American families to settle in the fertile land in the Brazos and Colorado river bottoms.

The state capital of Austin, named after him, is one of many modern cities in this region.

Austin was well-qualified for his work with a desire to settle in a new land, a knowledge of business and ability to speak Spanish and deal with the Mexicans.

In trying to secure better governmental conditions in Texas, Austin was unjustly imprisoned for seven months in Mexico in 1835. Returning home, he concluded that separation from Mexico was inevitable and took the lead in the revolution for independence.

During the fighting, it was Austin's major duty to secure aid from the United States for those colonists fighting for their land, home and families. The war ended and the Republic of Texas was formed in 1836, with the military hero of the revolution, Sam Houston, the first president.

A bachelor, Austin brought a brother and a sister with him to the state and their descendants are related to the man who did so much for Texas. Austin is described by historians as a slight man of medium height, with blue eyes and a cleanly shaved face.

His memory each year is observed on Nov. 3 in ceremonies at San Felipe de Austin, where he established his colony and the first Anglo-American capitol of Texas. Several thousand persons gather Sunday at Austin's statue in the state park named for him. There will be an old fashioned hymn singing, and a religious talk on "Faith of our Fathers."

It has been said that no other state in the union owes its existence more completely to one man than Texas does to Austin. Austin put his own love for the state this way:

"The prosperity of Texas has been the object of my labors, the idol of my existence. It has assumed the character of a religion for the guidance of my thoughts and actions."

WRITER TOURS RUSSIA
MOSCOW (UPI) — Novelist John Steinbeck told a news conference Saturday he was hearing so many friendly things from Russians about Americans and himself "that my wife is alarmed lest my head goes 'round," the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Pampa News ABC Audit Protects Advertisers' Space Investment

Providing accurate information and protection for advertising space buyers and not just estimates of coverage and number of "viewers" or "listeners" offered by most media, the Pampa Daily News, like the majority of daily newspapers has its circulation audited by traveling auditors employed by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, Chicago.

Auditors work under the direction and supervision of national advertisers and advertising agency executives who buy millions of dollars worth of advertising space in newspapers every year. These national advertisers and agencies contribute to the cost of bureau operation.

J. W. Leiser has just completed this year's audit of the circulation of the Pampa News. After checking circulation books, and other records for accuracy, Leiser has forwarded his report to the bureau's Chicago headquarters where it will be further checked before acceptance and printing. Copies of these reports will be available for all advertisers after final approval.

Circulation Manager Dale Smith of the News explained that the auditor checks everything. Smith said: "He goes over records, receipts, circulation reports, ledgers. His job, which we welcome, is to verify the circulation and issue a just and fair report on the paper's net paid circulation. The audit provides an honest appraisal of circulation that guarantees the advertiser that he is getting full value for his advertising dollar."

Auditors are hired and directed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation and are not on the payroll of newspapers although newspapers are assessed for the costs of audits.

"There is no guessing when advertisers invest in newspaper space," Smith added.

TEXAS OUTDOORS

By CARLTON WILSON
AUSTIN (UPI) — Some 30 years ago a shortage of water for recreation forced Texans to drive a long way to find a place to drop a hook.

Now fishermen and other pleasure seekers face another problem — plenty of water but inadequate development of boating facilities.

Federal reservoirs provide planned recreational facilities, but there is no standard state system to develop the potential of water resources other than a highway department boat ramp program.

Only the Sabine River Authority, for example, has the legal right to develop its recreational facilities. There is a growing demand on reservoirs and rivers controlled by such authorities for more boating, fishing, camping and general facilities.

Standards Lacking
There are no uniform standards for existing facilities, with the type of service and the amount it costs varying for each recreation area.

Gov. John Connally has appointed a nine-member committee to survey the water recreational development needs of the state, with Marvin Watson of Daingerfield as chairman. Representatives of sportsmen groups, the boating and tourist industries, sports writers and water districts and river authorities are on the committee.

Watson said in an interview this week that an initial meeting with representatives of 10 state agencies concerned with the problem showed a great need for compiling information on recreational resources and needs.

Registration Off
The number of boats registered with the State Highway Department, for example, has declined from 197,000 in 1961 to about 159,000 at the latest report. Watson believes many boaters are ignoring the registration law while others are getting operating permits from adjacent states.

Texas law requires owners of boats more than 12 feet long to pay at least $1 registration fee every three years, with higher fees for larger boats. The revenue is supposed to go to build boat ramps, but is mostly used for administrative costs.

So far the Highway Department has constructed 27 boat ramp areas and this week authorized another 29 at a cost of $184,800.

In Texas there are an estimated 116 lakes and reservoirs with a capacity of 5,000 acre-foot or more, with another dozen under construction. At least 57 of the reservoirs are 100,000 acre-feet in size or larger.

Harvesters Hoopmer Lubbock, 27-19

Tremendous Second Half Comeback Responsible

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

Lubbock — In one of the greatest second-half comebacks in Harvesters football history, Pampa came roaring out to overcome a two-touchdown Western lead and take a 27-19 victory over Tom S. Lubbock Friday night.

Playing the greatest team game of their history, the Harvesters cut the mammoth Western line to shreds as the smashing blocking of Ricky Goodwin, Terry Criss, Jocko Neslage, Carl Johnson, Jim Arthur, Donnie Rexroad and Rickey Stewart opened gaping holes in the line for the wizardry of Kenny Hebert, the swivel-hipped jaunts of Jerry Garrison and the power-plunging of Red Griffith.

The long-awaited duel between the great Greg Lott of Lubbock and Hebert turned out to be a duel between Lott and the entire Pampa team, which shone in every department. Lubbock didn't even try running up the middle against the likes of the Goodwin brothers and Big Billy Quarles, but, with the exception of the wonderfully-talented Lott, stuck strictly to the outside, where Myron Scribner led the linemen that stopped them cold, while the stragglers were massacred by Hank Henry and Phil Smith, and, especially, Hebert and Stewart. Kenny led the Harvesters in unassisted tackles with six, while Rickey was in on 10 tackles.

In the personal duel between Lott and Hebert, the Flying Frenchman was definitely a clear cut winner, rolling for 169 yards in 28 carries, an average of better than six yards a trip, and two touchdowns. Lott, carrying only eight times, ran for 61 yards and one score. The Great Greg won the passing end of the duel however, as Hebert, alternating with Larry Johnson at quarterback, threw only five passes and completed two for 21 yards, while Lott fired 18 times and completed nine for 122 yards and two touchdowns. The team and again Hebert and Stewart would knock down Lott's long bomb attempts. Lott and Hebert each intercepted one pass, and Kenny racked up the punting duel with a 40-yard average to Lott's 31.5.

Team Effort
Far bigger than the individual aspects of the game was the fact that the Harvesters rolled to their second straight win and that they came from two touchdowns behind with a tremendous team effort to accomplish it. The Westerners were not confused by the first-half Harvesters shift, which had Larry Johnson doing most of the quarterbacking with Hebert running from either right halfback or tailback as Pampa switched back and forth between straight and winged-T formations. The second half saw Hebert doing most of the quarterbacking, and the Westerners could stop neither him nor the spark he generated as six times he gambled successfully on fourth down keepers, making all six to take the heart out of the hosts.

Pampa made 13 of their 21 first downs and 204 of their 333 yards rushing in the second half, while the Westerners could get only 54 yards on the ground and six first downs the second half. Garrison, running like a frightened deer, moved up in the district scoring race as he tallied Pampa's other two touchdowns, picking up 69 yards in 10 carries. Griffith, plowing through the line like an enraged bull, dragged tacklers with him for 70 yards in 15 carries.

The entire game had spectators, fans, sportswriters and even fellow players blinking in confusion as all three quarterbacks exhibited masterful ball-handling and faking throughout. Lott Rolls
It took the Westerners only 3:04 to score the first time as Lott returned the kickoff from the 10 to the 33. Five plays later, Tommy Jenkins broke loose on the 48 and roared up the middle to the Pampa 17 before being caught by Hebert. On the next play, Lott lofted a high, lazy fly ball that dropped over the goal line and into the waiting hands of Ronnie Morton. Ricky Goodwin and Johnson broke through to block the extra point.

Late in the quarter, Art Carroll intercepted a pass on the Lubbock 35, returned it to the 37, and Lott and Co. started to move. With Greg passing, running, weaving and faking all over the field, he guided the Westerners to a first down on the Pampa 17. A fumble and two incomplete passes killed the drive and Pampa then started a long, long march from their 28 as the second quarter began.

Hebert spun into the line, bounced off three tacklers and went to his 49. Griffith and Garrison moved to a first down on the Lubbock 42 and Hebert to another on the 32. Stewart plowed for six yards for another first on the 20. Hebert smashed into the line twice at five yards a crack. Garrison then took the ball, cut to the right behind Hebert as Goodwin, Rexroad and Arthur opened a gaping detour, and went over for the touchdown with 7:50 left in the half. Hebert kicked the extra point for a 7-6 lead.

Lott Again
Morton took Hebert's kickoff on his 23 and sped back to the 42 and it took Lott six plays to go ahead again, with two good runs by Lott and a pair of completed passes the big gainers, the last heave being a 10-yarder to Eddie Stiles in the end zone. Lott rolled out for the conversion and Bandit Madrid and Garrison stopped him cold. Lubbock apparently wrapped up the game at this point as they scored again just before the period ended. Taking a punt on the Pampa 17, they moved to the 13-yard run by Roy Farmer. Lott stepped back to pass again, found the middle wide open and dived-dodged down to the goal line, leaving the field strewn with would-be tacklers who had been faked out. Mike Bowman kicked the extra point to make it 19-7.

A resurgent Pampa team committed their only fumble of the game to kill a scoring chance as the second quarter opened, but found the heart to come back and grind two scores out on the ground. Madrid took the kickoff on the 17, was sprung by Hebert, and swivelled to the Lubbock 23. On the next play, Pampa fumbled and Oscar Reimer recovered.

Comeback
Two plays later, Hebert returned the favor as he intercepted a pass on his 45, and the Harvesters took the touchdown trail. It took 11 grinding plays to do it, with Garrison's 22-yard smash to the seven the longest gainer and Griffith making good in a fourth-and-one situation the key play.

Hebert faked beautifully to Garrison from the five and then swung behind Jerry and rode his back into the end zone, kicking the extra point to make it 19-14 with 6:12 left in the period.
Hank Henry faked out the Westerners with an outside kick which was fumbled and Scribner recovered on the Lubbock 46. A penalty set the Harvesters back to midfield, but they marched home again in 11 plays, with Bandit Madrid doing the bulk of the leatherplugging. Garrison went the last five yards behind Jocko Neslage and Madrid for the go-ahead score and Hebert again toed the conversion.

One More Time
As the fourth quarter opened, Lott, being harassed by Henry and Stewart on his passes, punted to the 34. Pampa got only four yards and was on their 38 with fourth and six. Hebert went back to punt and then picked up the leather and ran right like a startled bat to the Lubbock 44. Griffith smashed up the middle to the 37 and the only Lubbock penalty put the pig on the 22. It was Madrid, Garrison, Hebert and Hebert on a fourth-down keeper to the 12. Kenny then fired a

Lefors Pirates Edge Clarendon Bronchos

LEFORS (Spl) — The stubborn Clarendon Bronchos reared up on their hind hoofs Friday night and gave the Lefors Pirates a rugged battle before bowing, 13-6.

The district I-A win keeps Lefors still in contention with a 2-1 loop mark, while the winless Bronchos are eliminated.

Lefors completely dominated the statistics, with 17 first downs to seven and 241 yards rushing to 82, but hurt by the loss for the season of leading ball-carrier Lightning Coleman, found their scoring average cut way down.

Lefors threatened throughout the first half, but could never push across a tally. The Pirates drove from their 38 to the Clarendon 15 in the first quarter, but lost the ball on a fumble. In the second quarter they were stopped twice in Clarendon territory by fumbles. Quarterback David Mooring kept Clarendon in the game with his passing but could never mount a sustained threat.

Lefors ground their way to a score in the third quarter, moving 58 yards in 14 plays, all on the ground, with Don McCool doing the big part of the running. Quarterback Terry Brom-

Canadian, Memphis Battle to 32-All Tie

CANADIAN (Spl)—The Memphis Cyclones and the Canadian Wildcats forgot completely about defense Friday night as they battled to a 32-32 tie. The standoff virtually eliminates the pair from district I-A contention, leaving each with 1-1 loop records.

The fantastically high scoring duel saw the Cyclones roll up 504 yards in total offense while the Cats picked up 375, the highest two-team total recorded in Panhandle football this year.

Halfback Toby Crooks set up the opening score for Memphis with a 60-yard run, going over himself a few minutes later from the one. Canadian marched back 60 yards with the kick-off, quarterback Benny Eckles sneaking over from the one, and then passing to Keith Yarnold for an 8-6 lead.

Yarnold, Joe Schaefer, David Cook and Bill Grist led the way in a 50-yard Canadian drive, still in the first quarter, with Yarnold going over from the three for a 14-6 edge.

Jack Stargel opened up the second-quarter scoring with a five-yard plunge and then Memphis made the only other conversion of the game when Jimmy Sturdivant passed to Crooks to tie the score.

Yarnold took the kickoff on his 10, handed off to Cook, and Cook then weaved and side-stepped his way to the 50-yard line, broke into the clear and scored. Stargel climaxed a 50-yard Memphis drive by scoring from the 20-all. Canadian drove 65 yards before the half ended for a 26-20 edge as Eckles kept the one.

Skyrockets Slip By McLean, 6-0

McLEAN (Spl)—The McLean Tigers rose up and gave the powerful Wellington Skyrockets the battle of their lives before bowing, 6-0 Friday night.

Wellington, which had rolled over almost everything in sight, was forced to stop the Tigers on their two-yard line in the final minutes after McLean had stopped Rocket drives throughout the game.

The win virtually clinches the district I-A title for Wellington, now 3-0 in loop play.

Both teams spent most of the first quarter punting, with McLean crossing the 50 briefly after Jim McCarty had returned a punt to his 48. Late in the period, Wellington took a punt on their 41, Wayne Barton carried to the 44, and then passed to Tim Bailey down to the 18 yard line. Two plays moved the ball just inside the six and Ken Patterson went over from there. McLean stopped the conversion run.

The third quarter saw McLean constantly staving off Rocket threats, taking the ball away on the 37 and again on the 34.

The fourth quarter saw the Tiger on the march, starting on their 35. Dickie Crockett and Gary Graham did most of the running, with the longest gainers of the drive 13-yard runs by Crockett and Johnny Fuller.

Crockett moved to a first down on the five, but the Rocket line held hard and took the ball away on the four as time ran out.

Oregon Upset by San Jose State

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Three touchdowns underdog San Jose State scored twice in the first period and made it hold up for a stunning 13-7 football upset of Oregon Saturday.

The Spartans scored in the opening period on a 91-yard punt return by halfback Jerry Colletto and on a 75-yard pass interception runback by quarterback Jack Sovereign.

It was San Jose State's first win in an eight-game rivalry with the Ducks.

Bowling

By MAXINE HAWKINS

The Shelby Ruff Furniture team placed second in the Western Open Tournament in Amarillo. Erma Henson bowled her first 500 series, a 515. Other scores of the team were: Lois Teague, 523; Kathy Parsley, 519; LaVerne Henson, 485; and Allene Coker, 411.

Dee Watson won "B" doubles with her 618. Mary Pryor placed third with a 581. Wauline Reynolds won "C" singles with a 531. LaVerne Henson and Kathy Parsley placed second in "B" doubles with a 1095.

The "bad breaks" of the game showed no mercy to Ina Reading this week. The first game Ina converted two of her five splits for a 145 game. Four splits the second game held her to a 133. The third game she had seven splits in a row for a total of nine in the game, and spared the only two frames she did not split, for a 103 game. The only consolation is that it takes a pretty good ball to split. Ina is just the one to change the story from splits to strikes!

The Hoover Oil team lost three to Harry Gordon Insurance as Hoover shot at 35 splits. Delia's Service Station looked after their share of splits as they won four from Henry's Appliances. Delia's had 29 splits.

The Bell Telephone team said the only way they could win was to pick up the splits, and proved it. Johnny Ellington picked up the 4-7-10 and Lonnie Harmon converted the 6-7-10.

Kathy Parsley has found the magic spot as she rolled games of 190 and 205 for a 556. In other leagues she had a 206 for a 545 series, and a 223 for a 513 series. Nice shooting!

Dee Watson is still "howling up a storm." Stringing five strikes for a 192, four in a row for a 211, and two doubles and three splits for a 180, she posted a 583 series.

Eileen Greer had games of 197, 185, and — whoops — 128. Bowling as a sub, Minnie Cable had four strikes in a row, an open, a turkey, and two spares for a 233 game and a 557 series. Rose Blackburn, 141 average, rolled games of 192, 195, and 153 for a 540 series. Allene Coker, 117 average, rolled her highest series this week, a 478. Other highs were: Ruby Darrell, 532; Billie Gray, 514; Cora Lou Perkins and LaVerne Henson, 205; and Barbara Abernathy, 201.

Ray Covalt demanded a rewrite and proved that he deserved it as he rolled like a pro in both leagues this week. I think the four strikes in a row twice, a turkey, doubles and spares, surprised no one but Ray.

The three 600 bowlers were Jim Adkins, 610; Dennis Huntley, 603; and Stan Brake, 600. The High Games were: James Goodwin, 237; George Gray, 234; Ken Weaver, 232; Gene Ward, 227; Gil Burgund, 225; Everett Blackburn, 221; Travis Beck, 213; and R. B. Bowden and Jim Givens, 211.

Ray Roy, average 139, rolled a 215 game. Bud Hogan had games of 216, 192, and 170 on a 153 average. After his luck at all the second game, Leo Braswell had two turkeys the third game for a 208. On a 141 average, Scott Hall rolled games of 203 and 195. Other highs were: Fred Alvey, 205; J. W. Winborne, 208; Johnny King, 200; J. Morrow, 191 and 190; James Evans, 205; D. B. Jameson and Jack Barnhill, 207.

F. H. Browning, 157 average, rolled the stair step series with games of 171, 181, and 191.

Dub Strawn returned to the bowling world with a bang! After a year of rest, Dub started his season with a 222 game and 582 series. Keep it up!

Something to think about: Ask Gene Gates about the mystery of the missing pin. Ask John Carson what a sore thumb can do to a series. Ask Ray Tennyson, "Whom is the 'better half'?" Ask Ronnie Haves what he would give for just two more pins. Have a good week, or you may see it in print.

See ya' at the lanes—

Washington Whips So. Cal. 22 to 7

SEATTLE (UPI)—Quarterback Bill Douglas passed for one touchdown and set up another with a 53-yard pass-run play Saturday as the fired up Washington Huskies defeated Southern California 22-7, and took a giant stride toward the Rose Bowl.

Dalhart Brushes Past Stinnett

By United Press International Texas schoolboy football's "Big Four" of San Angelo, Dumas, Dalhart and Albany rolled on impressively Friday night, while defending Class AA champion Jacksboro bounced unexpectedly back into the state playoff picture with a 25-8 upset of undefeated, untied seventh-ranked Nocona.

Nocona was but one of nine previously undefeated teams to be toppled as the first November weekend took its toll, and left but 44 unbeaten teams, a dozen of those with tie blots on their records.

San Angelo upheld its No. 1 AAAA ranking with a 49-0 rout of Midland Lee. Dumas stayed atop the AAA ladder with a 49-13 defeat of Littlefield, Dalhart knocked off previously undefeated-upset Stinnett 38-0 in one of three AA games matching perfect record teams and Albany defeated Ranger 44-12 to enhance its Class A rank.

Jacksboro, which had lost three of its first seven games, practically assured itself of a district title and a playoff berth with its shocker over Nocona. Sinton in 29-AA, Midlothian in 14-A and Emory in 18-A did sew up playoff berths with victories Friday night. Sinton, No. 2 behind Dalhart, beat Refugio 34-12. Midlothian stopped De Soto 28-0 and Emory defeated Willis Point 13-6.

Besides Nocona and Stinnett, the other perfect record teams to fall were previously unscathed Caldwell, 27-3 to fourth-ranked Rockdale; Columbus, 15 to 12 to third-ranked Katy and Devine, 17-13 to Cotulla, all in Class AA; Idalou, 48-6 to Class A's 10th ranked Petersburg;

White Deer Bucks Belt Spearman Lynx, 29-12

WHITE DEER (Spl) — The White Deer Bucks wasted no time getting back on the winning path Friday night as they tallied in the first three minutes of the game and went on from there for a 29-12 victory over the Spearman Lynx.

Larry Marlar and Roy Armstrong again led a potent ground attack that garnered 345 yards rushing for the Bucks, while the Lynx stayed in the air as James Batson was the only Spearman runner who could move against the strong WD defense.

Spearman fumbled on the second play from scrimmage and Armstrong pounced on the ball on the Lynx 16. Larry Marlar, who picked up 153 yards in 22 carries while Armstrong got 41 yards in 18 trips, moved it to the 15, and then twice more to the two-inch line. Quarterback Rickey Moore went over from there. Cal Johnson kicked the extra point with 2:18 gone.

Spearman took the kick on the 40 and Batson led a drive to a first down on the 19, but White Deer held on their 14. Armstrong then grabbed off 56 yards in three carries and WD was on the Lynx 30. Marlar went to the three. The quarter was ending and on the second play of the next period, went over from the Lynx. Shortly afterward, White Deer fumbled a reverse on a punt return and Spearman recovered on the WD 18. Four plays later, Batson drove in from the one with 7:02 left in the half.

Grapeland, 22-14 to Elkhart in a 21-A showdown game, and Class AAA's 10th-ranked Lampasas, 8-6 to Austin Lanier in a match of unbeaten.

White Deer took the kick on the 27 and drove right back with Marlar, Joe Gallett and Moore carrying and Armstrong getting the big gainer in the drive, a 21-yard run. Marlar scored from 12 yards out with 1:35 left in the half. Moore passed to Dan Simmons for a 21-6 lead.

Spearman went to the air and fled to the Buck 20 before losing the ball in the third quarter. Cal Johnson nearly broke loose for White Deer, getting 24 yards before being pulled down from behind, but the Bucks had to give up the ball on their 47. Spearman again went to the air and two passes to Larry Butts and two to Ronald McDonald put them on the nine, where Batson went over with 28 seconds left in the third period.

The running of Dan Simmons and Batson and the passing to Butts moved Spearman back to the Deer 28, but again the Bucks held. With 2:18 left in the game, White Deer took the ball on their 20. On the second play, Marlar went 60 yards on an off-tackle power play set up by Joe Wheely and Mike Gann, to the Lynx 14. Armstrong moved to the six with six seconds left and Armstrong scored as time ran out. Marlar ran the conversion.

W. Texas Takes Trinity, 24-2

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Fullback Ollie Ross scored a touchdown and kicked a 46-yard field goal and three extra points Saturday to lead the West Texas State Buffaloes to a 24-2 victory over Trinity University.

Trinity, winless in six games, took a 2-0 lead in the first quarter as Buff halfback Jerry Richardson was caught in the end zone for a safety.

West Texas quickly went ahead to stay on Gregory Klein's 22-yard scoring pass to Richardson. Ross ran one yard for a second-quarter touchdown and kicked his field goal in the third period.

Texas Still Unbeaten; Wins From SMU, 17-12

DALLAS (UPI) — Tommy (Thunderbird) Ford stamped top-ranked Texas 76 yards with the opening kickoff—the sixth straight game the Longhorns have scored at the first opportunity—and shoeless Tony Crosby's kicking kept Texas unbeaten in a tight 17-12 victory over Southern Methodist Saturday.

Crosby's 34-yard field goal in the final second of the first half and his two conversion kicks provided the difference for the third consecutive Saturday as Texas was forced to desperate defensive measures to stave off a rallying SMU passing flurry in the final quarter.

The victory kept alive Texas' hopes of a successful defense that its Southwest Conference brethren set up a showdown next Saturday at Austin against Baylor, which shared Texas Christian 32-14 at Waco Saturday.

Ford, the game's leading ground gainer with 113 yards on 13 carries, got 75 yards of it in the initial Texas surge, including a 50-yard scamper on the game's first play from scrimmage. Wingback Phil Harris went on to cap that drive with a three-yard touchdown run, but Ford got his chance to score in the second quarter from two yards out when Texas recovered an SMU fumble on the Mustang six.

SMU's quarterback tandem of Danny Thomas and Mac White kept Texas off balance with their passes. Their success may have had times ahead for the Longhorns next Saturday when they must face Baylor's tremendous aerialist Don Trull.

Thomas hit bouncing Billy Gannon with a 22-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter and White connected on another 22-yarder to the same Gannon in the final quarter.

Penalties and fumbles hurt the two-touchdown underdog Mustangs chances of staging their third major upset of the season to go with triumphs over favored Air Force and Navy. They lost the ball three times on fumbles and once on an interception.

Cowboys In Wild Defeat By ISC

AMES, Iowa (UPI)—Iowa State had a change of pace Saturday in beating back a sparkling Oklahoma State counter-attack to defeat the Cowboys, 33-28, in a wild Big Eight football game.

The high-scoring melee was in sharp contrast to the tight defensive battle last week on the same field when the Cyclones held powerful Missouri to 18 yards rushing but lost, 7-0.

Iowa State jumped off Saturday to a 13-0 lead and was never behind but Oklahoma State constantly chipped away and was never out of contention until the final gun.

The victory before 20,000 homecoming fans was the Cyclones' fourth in a row over the Cowboys and gave Iowa State a 4-3 season and 3-2 conference record. Oklahoma State is winless in six games this year, four of them in the Big Eight.

The game featured two long runs, one by each team. The Cyclones' third touchdown came on an 84-yard kickoff return by wingback Dick Limerick, and the Cowboys' final tally was an 80-yard run by sophomore half-back Jeff Williams.

Oklahoma Stomps Colorado, 35-0 At Homecoming

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)—Oklahoma used a thundering ground game to smash inept Colorado Saturday, 35-0, before 50,000 delighted homecoming fans.

The eighth-ranked Sooners pounded out 486 yards, 382 of it on the ground, and picked up 29 first downs in the rout. Colorado, held to 123 yards overall, got across the midfield stripe three times, the closest being the 19-yard line where a drive ended just before the final gun.

Fumbles halted three Oklahoma drives to keep the score from going higher.

Slender Jackie Cowan scored twice on a pair of 16-yard runs and gained 121 yards in 10 carries to spark a well-balanced Oklahoma attack. Lance Rentzel raced six yards for the Sooners' first score. Bobby Pace sneaked over from the one for another touchdown and Tommy Pannell passed eight yards to Jon Running to round out the scoring. George Jarman booted all five conversions.

Colorado could never get started against the hard-pressing Sooners. After a scoreless first quarter, Oklahoma exploded for two touchdowns within three minutes and the issue was settled. Oklahoma had to punt only once.

Oklahoma, running its record to 5-1, and winning its 14th consecutive Big Eight game, moved to its first touchdown with a little more than five minutes remaining in the first half. On a third-and-22 situation, Page got the needed 22 yards on a pass to John Flynn and Rentzel scored.

The second Oklahoma touchdown took only four plays with runs of 12 and 22 yards by Jim Grisham, setting the stage for Cowan's first score.

With less than three minutes gone in the third quarter Oklahoma scored again. Cowan, who had contributed a 25-yard dash to get things going, took a pitchout and raced around right end for his second touchdown.

Baylor's Don Trull Leads 32-13 Victory Over SMU

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—Baylor's sensational Don Trull scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth Saturday to lead the Bears to a 32-13 Southwest Conference victory over Texas Christian University.

Trull, the nation's leading passer, completed 20 of 40 passes Saturday for a net of 273 in the air. His running and passing personally accounted for enough to give Baylor its fourth straight league win without a loss.

The Baylor victory set up a showdown between the Bears and nationally top-rated University of Texas next week in Austin, Tex., for what should be the determining factor who goes to the 1964 Cotton Bowl game.

Trull got his usual slow start Saturday, completing only two of 12 pass attempts in the first quarter. But he began hitting more in the second period and engineered the Bears to the TCU 11 where he ran it across on an option play for the first score of the game.

Texas Christian went ahead before the half ended when left end Marvin Chipman scampered 54 yards to score and TCU added the extra point. Horned Frog quarterback Gray Mills raised the TCU margin to 13-6 early in the second half on a three-yard pass play, but Trull appeared to be warmed up by this time and he opened up for four paydirt drives before the final gun sounded.

Baylor's Larry Elkins, who has been setting Southwest Conference records in pass receiving, nabbed 10 Trull passes for 117 yards.

Trull worked the option pass-run three times to cross the Horned Frog goal line on runs. They included runs of 11, six, and five yards when the sure-footed Bear general slipped through holes in the Big TCU line while looking for pass receivers.

Baylor netted 430 yards passing and running while holding TCU to 154 rushing and 62 in the air. The Bears held a 27-11 margin in first downs earned on the field.

Fullback Dalton Hoffman ran Baylor's other touchdown across from the two late in the final period.

Army 14-10 Victor Over the Air Force

CHICAGO (UPI)—Halfback Ken Waldrop's spectacular broken-field running, capped by a 17-yard touchdown dash with just 81 seconds to go in the game, brought Army back from behind to a 14-10 victory over Air Force Saturday.

Waldrop starred in the second service spectacle ever played in Chicago's vast Soldier Field. Even though President Kennedy canceled his appearance at the last minute, the classic drew 76,000 fans to watch the 2,500 corpsmen from each school in 45 degree temperature under sunny skies.

Army put on the show, but it took Waldrop's brilliant running in the final half to give the favored Black Knights their sixth win of the season against only one loss. It was the third defeat against four wins for the Air Force, who have yet to beat another service academy.

Arkansas Beats Texas A&M, 21-7

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Billy Gray, junior quarterback pressed into service because of an injury to the regular signal caller, passed for two touchdowns and ran over another Arkansas beat Texas A&M 21-7 Saturday night.

Gray subbing for Jon Britten, scored on a one-yard sneak in the final quarter after throwing first half passes of 13 and 10 yards to sophomore halfback Jackie Brasuell for the others. Tom McKnelly converted three times as the Razorbacks raised their season record to 4-3.

They Call It 'United Arab Republic,' But It's Egypt

By DAVID L. DUGAS
United Press International
CAIRO (UPI)—In places like the United Nations it is called "The United Arab Republic." But the travel posters still call it Egypt for an obvious reason. Few other names so readily excite visions of ancient times, the smell and taste of a country that rose in monumental splendor thousands of years before the epoch of ancient Greece. When you read about the U.A.R. in newspapers today it is usually a story about President Gamal Abdel Nasser, the Aswan High Dam or the German scientists who are helping to build rockets beside the Nile. But there are two personalities to this country. There is the United Arab Republic, which is undergoing radical social, economic and political change. And there is Egypt, which is changeless.

The country's geography is simple. Except for the fringe of Mediterranean coastline in the north, Egypt is an arid desert that would be as barren and desolate as the Sahara except for one thing: The Nile River. From the southern border facing Sudan and extending 890 miles north to the sea the ancient river feeds an oasis of fertile land. Herodotus 5,000 years ago called Egypt "the gift of the Nile." It is here that the waters of the White and Blue Nile spill the rich mud from Uganda and Ethiopia thousands of miles to the south.

The river enters Egypt as a ribbon of water slicing between barren rocks and sand. North of Cairo it fans out like the veins of a leaf to form the Nile Delta. To the east of the river toward Egypt's long Red Sea coast desert mountains rise above 7,000 feet. To the west are the lower Libyan Mountains and the forbidding Western Desert. Egypt covers 386,000 square miles, an area equal to Texas and New Mexico. Yet only about 5 per cent of this area, a green belt following the course of the Nile, can support the country's 26 million people.

modern Egypt, and ended in King Farouk. Since 1952 it has become the focal point of Arab nationalism. Nationalization of the Anglo-French-owned Suez Canal and of most other foreign-owned business has evolved into a new program of "Arab socialism."

There is a revolution in agriculture, another in industrialization. So many changes going on simultaneously—make Egypt one of the world's most difficult countries to assess. Opinions on what is happening differ radically. Partly because of its location and partly because of its internal revolution under Nasser, Egypt today exerts more influence on the Arab world than any other country. From the northeast corner of Africa it is involved in the continent's struggle for independence and progress. But it also links the Arabs of North Africa with those of the Asian East and it is in the Arab world that Nasser has cast his political fortunes.

Roman and Byzantine domination followed. The Christian byzantines were still running the country when the Prophet Mohammed was born in Mecca in 570 A.D. and by 640 Arab invaders had brought Egypt into the growing world of Islam. Under the Omayyads from Damascus Egypt first became an Arabic-speaking country. The Omayyads gave way to the Abbasids from Baghdad, then the Fatimites from Northwest Africa, and then the Kurdish conqueror Saladin, whose famed citadel on the Mokattam Hills overlooking Cairo stands today as one of the city's chief landmarks. The Mamelukes, originally Turkish and Circassian slaves of the Ayyubite sultan, took over for 267 years until the Turkish conquest early in the 16th century.

Egypt remained under Turkish domination for 280 years until the arrival of Napoleon in 1798. Napoleon lost to the British but Egypt came under the rule of an Albanian dynasty that began in 1805 with Mohammed Ali, called the founder of

The Lighter Side Money Serious Topic With Wall Streeters

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Peter Lind Hayes, the comedian, has this gag where he says "I made a killing in the market today. I shot the manager of the A&P." We Wall Street types don't think that is very funny. When you get to be a captain of finance, you realize that money is a serious subject. I have only recently become an investment tycoon, but I can already feel my attitude changing. Few experiences are more exhilarating than being one of the movers and shakers of the capitalistic system.

When you walk in the footsteps of old J. P., not to mention old John D., you walk tall, man. You feel like going out and cornering corn before breakfast. Form Investment Club My initiation into the mystique of high finance came when I joined a group of my colleagues in forming an investment club for purposes of bolstering our already substantial fortunes. Being all plungers by nature, we agreed to put $10 per month apiece into a common fund and use it to play the market. Until such time as the capital gains start rolling in, however, we felt it prudent to hold onto our newspapering jobs.

The first decision facing the shareholders was whether we should be bulls or bears. We all started out as bulls, but after a couple of months some of us turned into rabbits. It has been my observation that the speculative instincts of a financier tend to diminish as the sum he is risking increases. At the $10 level, he is an advocate of venture capital. But at $30, he becomes a blue chip man. Eye Savings & Loan After our club had been operating four months, and the individual investment had risen to $40, there was strong sentiment for withdrawing from the market and switching to a savings & loan account. What I like best about being a financial baron is sitting in on the meetings where fateful issues are resolved. We never act without solid information on the stocks we purchase.

'Land Promoter' Given Reprieve

AUSTIN (UPI)—Former Brady land promoter B. R. Sheffield today won a reprieve, at least until Nov. 7, from his six-year prison sentence. Sheffield surrendered to the Travis County sheriff yesterday to begin serving his six-year prison term. But his lawyer, John Cofer of Austin, at the same time went before Federal Judge Ben H. Rice in San Antonio and obtained a writ of habeas corpus. Rice set a hearing for Nov. 7 in Waco and said Sheffield could go free on $4,000 bond. U.S. Commissioner Forest Trautman approved the bond under which Sheffield had been free previously while appealing his state court conviction. Sheffield, who lived at Brady, was convicted in 1961 on charges that arose out of the veterans land scandals of 1955. He was accused of participating, along with former land commissioner Bascom Giles, in a scheme by which promoters used phony veteran's applications to get high prices for the state for land. The Criminal Appeals Court ruled Tuesday that since the U. S. Supreme Court had refused to grant Sheffield a hearing on his appeal, he should begin serving his prison term. Giles served several years in prison for his part in the scandals and is now believed to be living in Minnesota.

Hoffa Says IRS Wrong in Claim For Back Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has charged that Teamster President James R. Hoffa and his wife owe $20,295 in additional income taxes for 1959, it was disclosed today. Hoffa challenged the claim and has asked for a trial on the issues in federal court in Detroit. The Teamster leader's latest run-in with the federal government came to light when he filed notice with the U.S. tax court that he would fight the IRS determination. The government said that union-paid insurance, legal fees, hotel expenses and transportation for Hoffa fell in the category of personal income and that he should have paid taxes on it. In their answer, the Hoffas claimed these payments were not subject to taxation on grounds they were either tax-exempt or ordinary and necessary expenses connected with his business as a union officer. The IRS said the Hoffas' taxable income for 1959 was reported as $71,407.25 and a tax of $33,706.73 was paid by the union chief and his wife. The government contends their taxable income should have been listed at $100,519.77. The tax on that would be $54,001.85. The tax proceeding is civil, not criminal.

Martin and Patsy Holloway. Larry Johnson and Betty Brown, seniors, were chosen All-School Favorites by the student body.

Broadcasters Get 'News' Warning On Sweepstakes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Federal Communications Commission (FCC) official warned today that broadcasters face possible stiff penalties if they transmit information about the New Hampshire sweepstakes "under the guise of a news story." The New Hampshire lottery—based on horse races at Rockingham race track—will pay up to $200,000 to holders of winning tickets sold by the state. It is the first state-operated lottery since Louisiana abolished one in 1894. FCC Secretary Ben F. Waple urged broadcasters to exercise "great care" in airing stories relating to the lottery which begins next year. He said that only "in unusual cases" would lottery information be considered news. Reports indicate there now are nearly 14 million American families in which both husband and wife work.

'Guided Democracy' Developing In the Sudan With Foreign Help

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The efforts of the Sudan to weld its Arab north and Negro south into one nation will be a test case for all Africa. Following is the first of two dispatches tracing developments in the Sudan since it became independent in 1956 and outlining some of the prospects for the future.)

By WILBUR G. LANDREY
United Press International
KHARTOUM, Sudan (UPI)—

The military regime of General Ibrahim Abboud has set the Sudan on the path of constitutional advance again. The major political question is where it will lead.

Abboud and the Supreme Military Council took over power in November, 1958, at the invitation of the Prime Minister of the Westminster-style government which the British left behind. After putting down several other attempted military coups, it has given the country stability and economic development.

It has been a largely benevolent regime. Several times it has suspended newspapers, but its critics speak openly on hotel terraces and the lawns of their clubs during the soft nights of this capital where the Blue Nile joins the White for their 1,900-mile course to the sea.

History is not far away. Abboud and his family live in the palace on whose steps Gen. Gordon died with sword in hand when overwhelmed by the followers of the Mahdi in 1885. Across the river, near the twin city of Omdurman, reporter Winston Churchill rode with Kitchener in the world's last great cavalry charge against the Dervishes.

Army in Power
When the British left and the Sudan became independent in 1956, there was a disciplined army and one of the best civil services in Africa. They are still there, with the difference that the army now is in the seat of power.

Theater Revival Seen in Mexico

By JAMES PLENN
United Press International
MEXICO CITY (UPI)—

The opening of a new, privately-owned theater for production of avant-garde plays is regarded here as a sign of the most important dramatic revival in Mexico in more than 30 years.

In the 1930's the government backed a "Teatro de Orientacion" which offered production talent and playwrights an opportunity to present plays which might not have immediate commercial acceptance. But it faded into the background and Mexico's great contribution to the contemporary arts of the period continued to be in the sphere of mural painting.

The new theater is called "Teatro Jesus Urueta," named after one of Mexico's outstanding orators and writers, and dedicated to his memory by his daughter, well-known playwright Margarita Urueta.

Her most recent play, "El Senor Perro," was the opening work presented at the small theater, located in a central area.

While it is attracting considerable attention, the Teatro Jesus Urueta is but one of a dozen theaters already in operation and presenting dramas nightly. Their number is growing steadily. Some critics attribute the revived interest in legitimate theater to the failure of television and motion picture offerings to satisfy a deep-seated demand for dramatic works coping with universal and contemporary problems.

The government Fine Arts Institute, under direction of playwright and poet Celestion Gorostiza, also has been stimulating interest in dramatic performances, and has one theater in operation at which works of Mexican writers exclusively are presented. It is run as a commercial theater and, according to Gorostiza, is paying its own way, without any subsidy from the government.

Gorostiza also is attempting to revive the old "carpa" the traditional mobile tent show from which many well-known Mexican theatrical figures evolved. A special tent-show company has been organized for presenting plays in poorer sections of the city.

Some observers have attributed a decrease in theatrical interest to the decline of the old-time political satirical revue which was a highly-developed genre in Mexico, reaching its peak under the leadership of the late, great comedian, "El Gordo" Robert Soto. Efforts to bring this type of stage performance back have run into sharply intensified censorship and acute sensitivity on the part of politicians, who in the old days were lampooned without mercy.

Bright Future Is Predicted for Texas Agriculture

DALLAS (UPI)—Texas Technological College's dean of agriculture has predicted a severe drought in the state, but the Lone Star Gas Co. president forecasts a bright future for the Texas agricultural economy.

Dean Gerald Thomas told Texas Agricultural Workers Association meeting he expected the drought to intensify into a notorious dry spell.

Lone Star president Lester T. Potter of Dallas said sound use of more fertilizer, along with other modern farming and ranching practices would enhance the agricultural outlook. Potter said his company had invested $20 million into the fertilizer business.

Eugene Butler of Dallas, president of the Progressive Farmer magazine, predicted lower cotton prices in the future with "only the fittest" cotton farmer surviving.

Scouting Scoops

By LINDA MOORE
Senior Troop 5

Boy, I hope everybody had as nice a Halloween as I did. My sister has enough candy and gum to keep her for a year. Oct. 31, is not only the playday for witches and goblins, but it is also Juliette Low's birthday.

Juliette Low was born in 1860. Little did people know at the time of her birth that some day she would be the founder of the Girl Scout movement in the United States.

Senior Troop 5 has some new members this year. They are Becky and Margert-Brewer of Houston, Prudence Skelly and Mary Graham of Pampa, and Carol Howe of Shamrock.

The girls have decided to become a Panorama Troop, so they can go into all their chosen fields.

The troop will work with the Historical Society to earn their Museum Aide bar. They will help restore one of the first buildings in Pampa. The girls will also work in groups on Animal Care, Office Aide, and Public Relations.

Cadet Troop 44 had a slumber party on Oct. 25. The girls met and went to Fun Night at Woodrow Wilson. They played games and had pizza at midnight. The girls also worked on their Indian project.

There will be a joint neighborhood meeting for all leaders and assistants Nov. 12. Arts and Crafts will be taught and exhibited.

All Cadette leaders and Junior leaders going into the program next year are asked to be present at the Cadette Workshop. The meeting will be held at the Little House on Nov. 14, 9 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. Trainers will be Meses. Mary Kennedy, Mary Hunter, Jane Kadingo, and Mary Graham.

Camp Clean-up will be held at Camp Mel Davis on Nov. 9 and 11 from 9 a.m. until in the afternoon. Lunch will be served for a nominal fee. Bring your tools, paint brushes, and family, and have fun.

Please drop a card to the council office by Nov. 4, telling how many from your family there will be, so that there will be enough food prepared, drinks purchased, and coffee made.

Calling all troop leaders: We like to know what your troops are doing, so if your troop has had a party, celebrated an event, or they are just doing the unusual, write about it and send it to the Girl Scout office.

Royal Philharmonic Orchestra Booked for Pampa Performance

The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, one of England's greatest orchestras and one of the foremost symphonic ensembles in the world today, has been engaged to perform here Nov. 9 under the auspices of Pampa Community Concert Association. The performance will be held in the Pampa Junior High School Auditorium as a part of this distinguished orchestra's sold-out, coast-to-coast tour of the United States and Canada during the fall of 1963.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. L. M. Harrah recently with Mrs. Iva Duncan acting as co-hostesses. The study, "The Three Spiritual Classics" was continued with Mrs. Laura Penick and Miss Inez Clubb discussing John Wesley and his book, "Christian Perfection." In this discussion, Miss Clubb brought out the fact that Wesley had the faith and personality to make the aristocrats of England see their faults in their attitudes toward the poorer classes to the extent they helped to improve their living conditions. "As the artist is never satisfied, so we should never be satisfied with our spiritual achievement."

The discussion ended with this thought: "The power of God can work miracles to any man."

Mrs. Laura Penick presided over the business meeting. Following the Meditation, featuring the Week of Prayer, and the explanation of the offering was given by Mrs. Diana Wood, who stated that the gifts would be used for mission work in India and the United States.

The Guild will meet Nov. 4 in the church parlor at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Mildred Cook will be hostess at this meeting.

Those attending were Meses. Lalar Wilkerson, Gladys Turner, Rachel Jones, Frankie White, Emma Ogden, Diana Wood, Laura Penick, Misses Alice Gordon, Alma Wilson, Margaret Wilkerson, Ila Pool, Lillian Mullinax and Inez Clubb.

Mrs. Emily Coston, vice-president of the Pampa Altrusa Club, presided during the meeting held at the Coronado Inn on Monday. Mrs. Lorene Locke, president was ill.

Meeting Held By

WD Joycee-Ettes

WHITE DEER (Spl) — The White Deer Joycee-Ettes held their regular monthly meeting recently in the Hospitality Room of the First Bank & Trust Company.

Mrs. Doug Coffee, president, called the meeting to order. Tentative plans for a bridge tournament to be held Nov. 14 were discussed. Also under discussion were several projects for the club to undertake for the coming year.

The meeting was adjourned with the reciting of the Joycee-Ettes Creed.

Pi Beta Phi to Hold Coffee

On the northwestern border of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park at Gatlinburg, Tenn., the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School stands today, the only school provided for the children of the community. Descendants of pure Anglo-Saxon stock who settled in this mountain area, isolated from the rest of the world because of poor roads, the natives are weavers and craftsmen.

Pi Beta Phi, the first national fraternity for women, founded in 1867, started the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School in 1912 by providing a teacher who moved to Gatlinburg and took over the class of 13 pupils at the end of the three-month study period offered by the county-at that time.

The elementary and high schools are now situated on the grounds of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. Early in 1950 the fraternity deeded to the County Board of Education sufficient acreage to enable the County to build a new grade school to care for the expanding enrollment. A 50 year lease between PBP and Sevier County covers the rental of the Fraternity's building, equipment and playground for the sum of one dollar per year.

The schools receive appropriations from County, State and Federal Funds and from Pi Beta Phi. Profits from Arrowcraft, a registered trademark applied to all craft articles produced under the supervision of and marketed through the Fraternity's Arrowcraft Shop in Gatlinburg, are a great part of the support of the Settlement School.

The Fraternity has tried in every way to encourage and promote revival of handicrafts in the Southern Highlands area, and pays the salary of the teacher who supervises the high school boys in making very creditable pieces of small furniture; and also that of a teacher who instructs in weaving, pottery, block printing and leather work both on elementary and high school levels.

The mountain people turn out this handiwork in their homes for marketing. Arrowcraft purchases the finished articles from between 50 and 70 weavers all during the year. In addition to being paid for their weaving, they are given a ready market through the sale of the handmade articles by Pi Beta Phi chapters, and alumnae clubs in the United States, including Hawaii, and in Canada.

Baskets, brooms, jewelry, wooden animals and other handcrafted articles are made for sale along with the woven items. The Pampa Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi is offering a display of items from this mountain settlement during a coffee which will be held in the home of Mrs. Clifford Braly, 1206 Christine on Thursday.

Proceeds from the sale of these items which will include linens, woodcraft, place mats, napkins, handwoven infant clothing, pottery, toys, tote bags, stuffed animals, bath mats and bedspreads will be forwarded to the Settlement School. Anyone interested in this handcraft display, is invited by the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, to come between 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. Coffee will be served.

This is the second annual bazaar-coffee sponsored by the club, and plans are being formulated to continue this project directed to the preservation of true handcraft, and self-sufficiency.

HD Club Project Benefits Veterans

Mrs. Jack Foster, Chairman of Volunteers of the American Red Cross, sends thanks to the women and teenagers of the community and county who have worked to aid others this summer.

The Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club is an example of the work being done. In a recent meeting held in the home of the club president, Mrs. Roy Tinsley, the groups covered 20 pillows to be sent by the Red Cross, to the Temple Veterans Hospital.

This project is an annual effort on the part of the club. The Gray County Chapter of the American Red Cross buys the material and club members make the pillow covers, returning the finished work to the Red Cross office for mailing.

Dear Abby....

Drop In Problem Crops Up Again

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Since most of our friends are very close, we've made it a habit to drop in on each other at any old time, and overlook the surrounding mess. As a result of this casual attitude, I'm afraid I have become a very poor hostess. The fact was realized when my doctor's wife called on me two days ago with a small gift for my new baby. Of all times for company to come! The weather was damp, so I kept all five children inside, and my living room was utter chaos. My daughter was ill, and I had pillows piled up at one end of the couch. The other end was piled high with clean laundry to be folded. The chairs were stacked with diapers to be folded. The carpet was out of sight under magazines, newspapers and toys. If I had been in the midst of straightening up the mess, it wouldn't have been so bad. But I was cutting out costumes for the children's Thanksgiving play as if I had nothing else to do. I was so embarrassed when this woman appeared at my door that I didn't even offer her a chair. I thanked her for the gift and also wrote her a thank-you note. Should I call and apologize? I can't forget how rude I must have appeared to her. I got up at five o'clock this morning worrying about what she must have thought of me. What should I do?

SO ASHAMED
DEAR ABBY: Here we go again! Your home is your palace, and if you want to stack your laundry to the ceiling in your living room, it's your privilege. A caller who could have thrown you into such a tizzy is not "close" enough for a drop-in visit. She was thoughtless not to have given you at least an hour's notice. Call her when your house is in order some afternoon and invite her for coffee.

DEAR ABBY: When I invite my relatives for dinner, they ask, "What's the celebration?" Or, "Who else is coming?" They seem to expect me to sell them on the idea of coming, or perhaps they want guaranteed entertainment. Why can't relatives be as gracious as friends in accepting invitations?

MOLLY
DEAR MOLLY: Some are. You can't pick your relatives, but you CAN pick your dinner guests.

DEAR ABBY: I am 39 years old and the mother of three children. My husband and I have been happily married for 12 years. This summer while my husband was away on business I became interested in my best friend's husband. He has two children. My problem is obvious. Should we break up two homes involving five children and two innocent grown-ups to gain happiness for ourselves? Or should we sacrifice this love of ours for the sake of our families?

BIG DECISION
DEAR BIG: Sacrifice your "love." Happiness can never be built on the heartbreak of others.

Low Income and Occupation Groups Found to Have High Divorce Rates

By PATRICIA McCORMACK United Press International NEW YORK (UPI) — Marriages most likely to last involve couples who say "I do" after the age of 20 — and who endure the first few years of marital discord along with the accord.

Uncle Sam's statisticians, sifting the effects on divorce, point to such a pattern. They found:

—Most divorces occurred within a few years after marriage.

—The very young marriages, in which husband or wife was under 20 years of age, "seem to be over-represented in the divorced population." In the 1960 divorces, for example, 16 per cent of males and 45 per cent of females had been married before reaching 20.

The report, "Trends in Divorce and Family Disruption," took issue with the oft-quoted figure of "one marriage in four" ending in divorce.

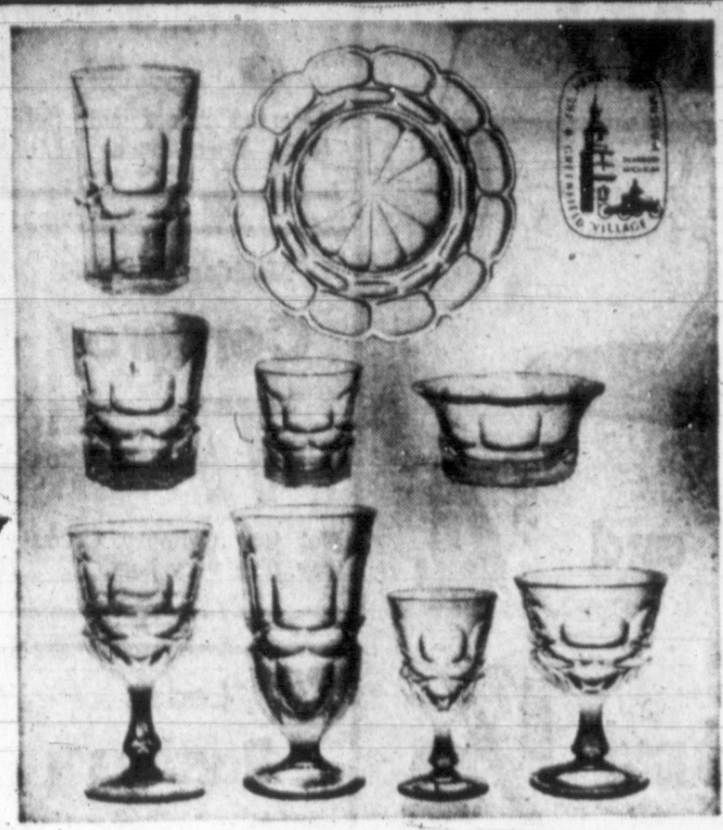

Figure Misleading

Dr. Hugh Carter, chief of the marriage and divorce statistics branch of the national vital statistics office, said it is misleading in that it relates current divorces to current marriages whereas current divorces occur to marriages that took place at any time.

"A more adequate or sensitive measure is the divorce rate per 1,000 married females aged 15 years and over, which has been under 10 (or one per cent) each year since 1953."

Dr. Carter's report, co-authored by Alexander Plateris, a statistician in the marriage and divorce statistics branch, appeared in "Indicators," a publication of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The analysis mostly concerned factors involved in the 390,000 divorces recorded in 1960 — a census year.

Money Management Unit Holds Meeting

The 4-H Club Money Management Unit I Subject Matter Group met recently in the home of Mrs. Derrel Hogsett, 417 Magnolia.

Cynthia Hogsett is the junior leader for this group.

How to buy a school dress was discussed. They found that a washable print dress in dark colors was more practical for school girls from ages six to twelve.

The girls had kept records of all money received by them for the past two weeks. They learned that thrift is managing money wisely.

Each is saving money to buy a pre-planned item. Present were Suzan Hunt and Judy Cox.

For best results from your automatic dishwasher, use soft water, a synthetic detergent that doesn't form suds and a special electric circuit.

Beauty Routine Boosts Ego

By ALICIA HART
Newspaper, Enterprise Beauty
Editor

Somewhere someone once said that if you take care of the little things the big things will take care of themselves. The problem, though, is to decide what is little and what is big.

For teen-agers everything seems mountainous, especially the task of selecting the right clothes, cosmetics and hairdos to meld an attractive image. How many of you teen-agers groan when you look in the mirror? Do you think you got the short end of the beauty stick? If it is any consolation, there are few so-called beauties born with perfect physical features. Look at photographs of your favorite stars or models and you will see one has a mouth that is too big. Another has a skinny neck. And so it goes.

These women have learned to play down these faults and highlight their good points. So can you.

You probably worry most about your hair and complexion. Begin with these.

Special care of the hair includes not just knowing how to shampoo but how often. The old wives' tale that frequent shampoos strip your hair of needed oils isn't true. Select the proper shampoo for your hair and shampoo at least once a week or twice if you have an oily scalp. Brush your hair daily to stimulate circulation and spread the natural oils.

Many an SOS from your troubled skin could be answered by a cleaner scalp. Dermatologists point out. When washing your hair, use a shampoo brush and scrub vigorously around the hairline. Frequent soap-and-water facials also will ward off the build-up of oily grime that can irritate and compound the acne problem so many teenagers face.

But, don't stop at the top. Scrub your knuckles and nails to remove imbedded grime. Keep your nails and cuticles neat. If you use nail polish, you will find the pastels compliment your hands more than bloody reds, for example and polish only looks well if your hands are clean. Your hair, face and hands are only three areas that need constant attention.

The simple truth is that good grooming is a big top-to-toe key to greater confidence. And through grooming the little things add up to a big thing—you at your best.

The Clothes Poll

By HELEN HENNESSY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn'

By Helen Hennessy

Last year, designer Rudi Gernreich predicted "no top" swimsuits for women. The cry "not for me," rang loud and clear. But the day may be nearer than you think.

Paris sent necklines plunging in everything from ball gowns to beach wear. And, surprisingly, women took to the idea with an enthusiasm you would expect in their fellow MEN.

The curtain is up on this season's resort wear—and the bared bosom has come to the beach.

Forget about the covered-up look that was big in swimwear last summer. If your newest swimsuit has sleeves and a trim high neckline, chuck it before you take your cruise or you'll be out of the swim.

The new suits have horseshoe shape plunges and deep V's that barely stop in time. And backs plunge to the point where there's just enough fabric left to make beach sitting comfortable.

Suits that aren't plunging back or front are "sideless"—or almost. Slits and open lacing pop up everywhere. And the gals are going for them in a big way.

But all this pulchritude will be covered up part of the time. Elegance is still dear to the heart of women and even the briefest suits come with long, flowing overskirts, voluminous beach capes and long torso shirts.

Yet there's something, too, for the siren who stands firmly on the belief that beauty is in the eye of the beholder. Her abbreviated swimsuit can be "beheld" under a sheer voile or lace peek-a-boo shirt that comes to the knees but hides nothing.

Q — My husband and I are planning a two-week trip to Nassau early next month. I have my wardrobe all set, but I'm having trouble convincing him that he won't need business suits. Do you ever give advice on a man's vacation wardrobe? If so, I'd be glad of your help.

— Mrs. L. J.

Dear Mrs. L. J. — What woman can resist a chance to advise a man on any subject?

Tell your husband to leave his city suits at home unless he wants to look out of place in the Bahamas. He'll need at least two pairs of Bermuda shorts, a pair or two of tailored slacks and a few conservative (not the wild Hawaiian type) sport shorts for daytime.

Formal attire for evening usually runs to white or plaid dinner jackets with soft shirt and black tie.

The spirit of the Islands is contagious. As soon as he gets there he'll buy himself sandals and an island-type straw hat. You shouldn't have much trouble pointing out that they'll look pretty silly worn with a blue pinstripe suit.

JACK FROST

Winter's coming, and soon. The long, dreary, winter afternoons can be brightened if the children have a place to expend their energy. Today's style leans to ceramic tile areas coming in for rugged wear and tear; children can't mar it no matter how hard they play. Fall is the perfect time to remodel that "spare room" into a winter playground for those husky youngsters.

Borrow a Bit of Style

By HAROLD SHEEHAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Sweaters are sweeping college campuses like a pyramid club that has already paid off one time. And with the popularity of the more conventional pullovers and cardigans there has arisen an extensive and attractive breed of mutations — sweaters, yes, but a bit like sport jackets.

And if there are still a few primitives around who believe that men's fashions remain static, let them take a look at these babies.

One woolen cardigan model comes already equipped with suede patches on the elbows. Just like that favorite old sport coat, right?

Another is also of wool, but is cut like a blazer—right down to the roomy patch pockets on the side.

If this genetic trend continues in the men's clothing industry, there is no telling where we'll end up.

The day may not be far off when we will see shoes with soft flannel uppers. Or should we call them slippers with long-wearing soles?

How about a ski cap which pulls down over your ears for cold weather—but still sports a neat brim for wear around town?

A tee shirt with fake buttons and a soft collar would help solve the problem of warm weather dress-up wear.

And who can deny that a necktie with a discreet zippered compartment built-in would be an ideal place to store mad money? She would never think to look there.

20th Century Culture Club Hears Program on St. Lawrence River

The Twentieth Century Culture Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Jeff Bearden, 2400 Aspen, with Mrs. Irene Osborne as co-hostess. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the members.

Mrs. Rufe Jordan, president, presided at the business meeting. It was announced that an art auction is being planned by the Altrusa Club on Nov. 24. Members drew names for the Christmas gift exchange.

Mrs. Irene Osborne introduced Mrs. Vernon Hobbs who gave a program on the St. Lawrence River. Mrs. Hobbs told of the magic of the river and the part it plays in the life of the French, English and Indian people who live on its banks. The river has never changed its course, having been formed by the withdrawal of the glaciers of the Ice Age.

History began on the St. Lawrence in 1535 when Jacques Cartier worked his Breton sailing ship into the gulf, which he named in honor of the Saint whose feast day it was. The river is still the highway of the North. Cargoes through the Sea-way and Ship Channel are mostly ore, wood and grain. Trade is expected to increase as the St. Lawrence seaway draws civilization to the area.

Members present in addition to those mentioned were Mmes. Robert Allen, D. W. Bond, Ross Buzzard, G. L. Craddock, D. P. DeWeese, R. E. Dobbin, J. R. Donaldson, W. L. Hasse, L. H. Hart, Otto Specht, N. D. Steele, Michael Wilson, L. J. Zachry, and two inactive members, Mrs. Phil Gates and Mrs. J. D. Merchant.

The Pampa-Washington Simile

Prominent in the news of the past week have been the reports from Washington on the progress of a "freedom of information" bill for the purpose of curtailing government attempts to withhold information from the public. A hearing is being held on this bill in a Senate judiciary subcommittee.

The fact that more and more government agencies pay only lip service to the concept of the people's right to know has prompted the subcommittee to consider legislation to provide the press and the public access to government proceedings and also to provide for court appeals when such access is denied.

This national problem is a parallel to the Pampa school board's current policy of holding secret meetings and its recent decision to deny the public information about what it is doing.

The practice by public officials at election time of pledging to keep faith with the people and then, as soon as the election is over, forgetting all about the people's interest in their own affairs is the current trend not only in the national government but also right on down through the State and local governments. This has happened here in Pampa with Pampa's school board. In fact, The News heretofore has presented clear cut evidence of one school board member's published declaration of his belief — at election time — that all school board meetings should be open to the public. Then — after election — that promise was forgotten and it was he who led the decision to keep the school board meetings closed to the people.

The News is asking editorially for the third time that the Pampa school board keep faith with Pampa citizens and parents and transact all school business openly and allow the press to keep the people informed of the board's activities and the progress of Pampa schools. So far there has been no reply from the school board, but we have heard from enough Pampa citizens that we are convinced they do want to know.

Private business has the right to close its meeting doors if it wishes, but school business is the people's business and should be conducted openly. It is not a good atmosphere when appointed or elected public officials assume the air of proprietors of a private enterprise.

How many secret meetings has the school board held during the past month? One? Three? Five? Perhaps none? No one knows. The number doesn't matter, but what does matter is that the school board door still is closed and this means the people are being denied their right to know — their freedom of information.

Again, the parallel: This is the right being sought in Washington and this is the right being sought in Pampa.

This censorship of information to the people should be lifted.

The First Mistake

The first disastrous mistake on the part of the people was made on February 25, 1913 when the 16th Amendment to the Constitution, proposed July 31, 1909, was adopted which gave Congress the "power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration." The people were lulled to sleep by the "solemn promise" of the members of the Congress that the income tax would never exceed 1 1/2 or 2 per cent. . . and now look what the government clips off employees' checks even before they take to pocket them. . . and then take another look and see how the people's money is being spent. . . poured down rat holes around the world. . . to force on us a way of life we do not want. . . and push this country further and further into socialism and even communism.

Killers Pinpointed

Tomorrow's doctors and medical research scientists will be more and more direct — their skills toward conquering the diseases of old age. Aside from accidents, the perils of childhood have simply been rendered statistically insignificant. If all deaths in the first 25 years of life could be prevented, the expectation of life at birth for the general population would be increased only three years. In fact, if nobody — repeat, nobody — died before the age of 50, the average lifetime would rise by only 5 1/2 years, or only one-fourth the gain made since 1900. The statisticians conclude that further progress in longevity will depend largely on cutting death from the chronic and degenerative diseases.

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

Shortage of space available now for outdoor recreation purposes is one of the nation's greatest needs, according to conservationists. This summer showed that all America is seeking the great outdoors. Much of this surge for outdoor recreation can be attributed to the automobile and good roads, but much of it is also explained by man's longing for nature. Uncle Sam estimates that by the year 2000, which is not too far away, the population will have doubled and the demand for recreation spots tripled. Not only will there be more people who will want to do more camping, hunting, fishing, and other outdoor activities, but they will have more money and time to spend on leisure.

Memory Lane: Remember when Paul Whiteman presented George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" at a concert at New York's Aeolian Hall? Critics gave mild approval, but through the years the piece has become a world favorite.

The latest status symbol in Washington is having an antique French phone in your car. Oh well. . . Rachel Carson, attention please: They're spraying perfumed deodorants on cows in Phoenix, Arizona. It's mixed with water, is safe, and lasts 14 days. . . Gals seeking husbands should head for Alaska, where lads between 18 and 29 outnumber the fair sex four to one. The patient type should stay here until next year when we are told there'll be 19 million bachelors available. . . You can insure anything: A Chicago firm insures small cities against sales tax losses. The policy pays off in case of fire, or other disasters, but reneges if a merchant has labor strife or goes out of business.

Country Editor Speaking: Many home accidents are caused by people who don't spend enough time there to learn their way around the place.

Someone's always protesting: The Canadian Mounties don't like those U.S. beer ads showing redcoats quaffing their quaff. What do they want them to drink — buttermilk? . . . That Illinois manufacturer who employs a "wake-up hostess" to rouse heavy sleeping employees every morning deserves a medal for his thoughtfulness. . . The next thing to dazzle your TV screen will be an auto commercial showing a helicopter lifting the car and a live model to the peak of a western mountain. It'll be worth watching to see if she can drive it down.

The current British best seller is Lord Denning's Profumo report, which sold better than 100,000 in a single week at $1 a copy. American booksellers are ordering like mad. They'll get them because the British would always do anything to make a buck. . . Electric mittens are the latest thing for outdoorsmen. They operate on flashlight batteries, carried in a small case attached to the wearer's belt. . . An interior decorator tells us that the average housewife should remember how colors will look in artificial light when selecting home furnishings. She says all colors fade somewhat under lights.

Today's Smile: A door-to-door salesman was confronted by a husband. "Would you like to buy a letter opener?" he asked. The husband glared and said: "I married one."

On this day in history: In 1783, Congress ordered the Continental Army to demobilize.

In 1917, Americans learned of the first deaths of U.S. soldiers in combat at Nancy, France in World War I.

In 1936, President Franklin D. Roosevelt was re-elected to his second term.

In 1960, President Eisenhower gave vice president Richard Nixon an all-out endorsement for the presidency. Nixon lost to John F. Kennedy.

A thought for the day — Former President Dwight Eisenhower said: "In the final choice, a soldier's pack is not so heavy a burden as a prisoner's chains."

Williams Probing Finances of Foreign Aid Official After FBI Report on Possible 'Conflict' Gets No Action

WASHINGTON—Senator John Williams, R-Dele., the "one-man investigating committee" whose caustic charges led to the sensational "Bobby" Baker probe, is zeroing in on another potentially equally explosive case.

It involves a high foreign aid official with an assortment of bank accounts, one of them in Canada, and the strange reluctance of Attorney General Robert Kennedy and Foreign Aid Administrator David Bell to do anything about this official despite a critical FBI report.

This extraordinary affair is being thoroughly explored by Senator Williams in preparation for following his course in the mushrooming Baker expose — making the facts public in a blistering Senate speech.

He will have a lot to reveal. Every aspect of the case is exceptional, as follows: The FBI investigation of this foreign aid official was made at the request of Administrator Bell. Certain information had come to him regarding this assistant's financial relations with a company that had been given millions of dollars in contracts in an area over which the official has considerable authority.

Bell particularly asked the FBI for a thorough scrutiny of reputed trust and pension arrangements the official made with the firm before joining the foreign aid agency.

The FBI completed its inquiry in May, and submitted a comprehensive report to Attorney General Kennedy. It has been gathering dust on his desk ever since.

In striking contrast to the zeal of the President's brother in vigorously pressing the "Bobby" Baker expose, he has been strangely apathetic about acting on the FBI report on the foreign aid official. Six months have passed, and he is still dragging his feet on it.

MYSTERIOUS SILENCE — Most remarkable aspect of this remarkable affair revolves around the official's mysterious bank account in Canada.

The FBI ascertained he has three bank accounts; two in the U.S. and the other in Canada. This is a sizable holding—more than $150,000. The FBI learned that through indirect sources. When the G-men asked the official for access to his Canadian bank account, he admitted its existence but balked at allowing it to be examined — except on one curious condition. He said he would grant permission if "ordered" to do so by Secretary of State Rusk. Attorney General Kennedy and Administrator Bell were informed of this. Neither has yet said one word to Rusk about the matter. Whether he has heard about it in some other way is not known. In any event, nothing has been done about the mysterious Canadian bank account.

YOU TOO CAN BE AN EXTREMIST!

By Harry Browne
Editor, Freedom Magazine

Here's a thought that occurred the other day—while my tongue was planted firmly in my cheek: There are lots of labels making the rounds these days. People are referred to as "extremists," "radicals," "ultras," etc. Others take pains to point out that they personally are "moderates."

Have you ever wondered what you are? Do you know what label others would apply to you? Test Yourself!

Let's take a test right now. Here are five questions. Answer them—and then compare your answers with the scoring system at the end of this article. You'll then know what others consider you.

1. Do you believe that the Federal Government should be prohibited from spending money on enterprises not authorized by the Constitution? Yes. . . No. . .

2. Do you believe that the same private enterprise system that built America should be relied upon to sustain it in the future? Yes. . . No. . .

3. Do you believe that it is wrong for the United States to attempt "co-existence," and to sign treaties, with the Soviet Union — which has sworn to bury us and broken most previous treaties? Yes. . . No. . .

4. Do you believe it is wrong for the U.S. to be subject to the whims of a greedy and backward majority of underdeveloped countries in the United Nations? Yes. . . No. . .

5. Do you believe that the foreign aid program — which subsidizes communist and socialist systems throughout the world — should be eliminated? Yes. . . No. . .

What This Means
Now that you've answered the questions, add up the number that are "yes." You are now ready to find the proper label you should be wearing. This scoring system has been determined by reading speeches in the Congressional Record, checking the adjectives applied to public figures by the press, and by listening to the opinions of leading commentators.

If you didn't answer "yes" to a single question, you are a "good old-fashioned middle-of-the-road American."

But if you answered "yes" to any one of the five, then you are a "moderate who leans slightly to the right." If you had two "yes" answers, you're a Conservative — but more to the right than the traditional Conservatives.

If you answered three questions "yes," you're probably a "Byrd-Thurmond Democrat" — a rare and particularly obstructionist breed. If you answered "yes" to four questions, you are a "Goldwater Republican" — out of step with the ideals of your own party. . . . You Mean Me??

And if you answered "yes" to all five questions, then you're really part of a "dissident minority." Chances are you're a paid-up, card-carrying member of the "radical right" — the reactionary breed that favors a

Congolese Begging Belgians To Come Back

By ED DELANEY

BRUSSELS — A spokesman for the Belgian Government confirmed what this column has long contended, namely, that the so-called new African states are not independent. On the contrary they are wholly dependent on European or American money and manpower to maintain them. The publicity and propaganda emanating from the U.N. conveys the idea that the Congo is now self-determining. Of course the U.N. army is still there, costing the American taxpayers millions of dollars because many of the other U.N. members refuse to pay any part of that cost. The Congo, as we know was developed by Belgium. When in deference to pressure from Washington, the Belgians moved out and gave the Congolese what they regarded as their freedom, we were given to understand that the new Congo would point the way for development of other African states.

What the Congolese do not want generally known is the fact that today they are begging the Belgians to come back. Over 2,500 teachers, doctors, agricultural workers, engineers, technicians, veterinarians and all manner of trained personnel have either already gone from Belgium to the Congo or are preparing to go. Moreover, the Congolese government has asked for and is getting 100 Belgian military officers to train the Congolese army, such as it is.

There has been strange but understandable silence on the part of the State Department in Washington about this aid to the Congo. For the Washington administration to make that generally known would mar the picture of Congo development, painted by the people African element, as being done by the Congolese themselves. Moreover the greater part of the cost for the thousands of Belgians who are already back in the Congo or soon to be there, is being paid by Belgium. Actually the deal calls for one-third of the expense to be borne by Belgium, one-third by the Congo government and one-third to be "guaranteed" by the Belgian government. That means, as the government official here freely admitted, that the Belgian government will be obligated to underwrite two-thirds of the cost for this program of development in the Congo. Added to that is the cost of providing for 1,800 students from the Congo who will be educated in Belgium, the entire expense to be assumed by the Belgian government. To emphasize these facts would explode the myth of "independence" and self-sufficiency which the new African states praise about in the councils of the U.N. and through their Washington channels.

At the time Belgium withdrew from the Congo it was generally believed that it would have a serious effect on the nation's economy. While the Congo revenue for Belgium was considerable, as my informant pointed out, it was not more than 6 or 7 per cent of their total revenues. Therefore the loss of the Congo did not greatly affect their economy.

Perhaps it is not entirely ultramarian that prompts Belgium to assume tremendous financial obligations for the Congo. It is the return to the Constitution. Task, task!

What's that you asked? "How does one become a member of the radical left?" Why, of course, by holding views further to the left than those of Nikita Khrushchev!

return to the Constitution. Task, task!

Terror Trio Mixes Comedy With Chills

By JOSEPH FINNIGAN
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Those three musketeers of horror pictures, Boris Karloff, Vincent Price and Peter Lorre, are back in action, with a movie that frightens people into laughing.

Usually horror pictures are no laughing matter. But they are when Karloff, Price and Lorre get together in "The Comedy of Terrors," the story of two lazy undertakers. Basil Rathbone sneers his way through the picture too. Joe E. Brown also is found in the cast.

Sitting in his dressing room at the old Producers Studio, Karloff lunched on a sandwich as he talked about the increased popularity of scary pictures.

In "Terrors," the 75-year-old Karloff plays 90-year-old retired mortician who watches his inept son-in-law run the old man's undertaking business into the ground.

"I think this is a wonderful idea," said Karloff of the comedy-horror mixture. "So many of the so-called horror pictures got to the point where they were shock for the sake of shock and not based on story. That's dull.

"It got to the extreme. In the world we live in there are so many real shocks that make believe ones won't succeed unless they are very good."

In the past, Karloff has criticized the violence so often found in modern horror films. He often referred to his own "Frankenstein" films of years ago.

"Terror is the key, not bloodshed and fights," he said. "There was very little violence in 'Frankenstein.' The monster was gentle and a sympathetic character. After I made that film I received hundreds of letters expressing compassion for the monster.

"You see, there was an excellent story involved in 'Frankenstein.' There is no compassion for today's monsters because they have no basis in reality. Instead they borrow liberally from the old pictures, but infuse no real story in the bargain."

Karloff was a long time resident of Hollywood, coming here from England. But in recent years he has been residing in London where he keeps a flat.

In the "Terror" film, he's working for American International, a production company which has signed Karloff for three more pictures.

"I don't want to work too hard and be at it all the time," Karloff said. "There's too much to do. But it's good to know you're still a part of the industry to which you owe so much."

While in London, Karloff spends much of his time recording a radio show and watching sporting events.

An occasional picture is enough to satisfy his desire to act. And American International's plans for producing more spooky films fit Karloff's schedule and professional attitude.

"Those pictures satisfy a need for the human race," he said. "It's a game, a release from the everyday humdrum."

Clint Walker Wants Big Role But Not Cowboy

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Clint Walker is on another sitdown strike.

In case you may not have noticed, it is only because he is such an enormous man that even when he is sitting down, he appears to be standing.

In the home that "Cheyenne" built on a picturesque private knoll in San Fernando Valley, 6-foot-6-inch, 248-pound Clint echoes the words spoken by more than one Hollywood star about being typed. It is the reason he hasn't faced a movie or television camera in a year.

He is sitting in his combination den-gymnasium behind a desk on which two bleached human skulls are being used as bookends. You get the idea that he likes to regard the skulls of those of producers or maybe agents as he says:

"Hollywood thinking is pretty monotonous. Producers can't see beyond their noses."

After seven years of being a western hero in the fantastically successful "Cheyenne" series on television, he says:

"I didn't become an actor to make $8 million. I became an actor because it is what I like to do.

"But a man's a man—not just a western character. I've done enough westerns. I want to go on now to other kinds of roles in quality movies.

"There is no reason why I can't play a ship's captain or a construction worker or something else. I don't want another television series. I want quality."

It is rough, he admits, but "I'm going to make it rougher. I'm going to wait until I find someone far-sighted enough to realize I can play different kinds of roles. I could go back to television tomorrow, but that isn't what I want."

Rich enough to sit it out, Clint isn't dipping into his "Cheyenne" loot to pay the monthly bills. He has been making rodeo appearances for big money, showing his fans a new side of himself by singing. He's good enough as a warbler to exercise his pipes on Jack Benny's television show.

"I enjoy singing," he says, "but I don't want to make a big thing out of it."

Wedding Bells to Ring for Space Girl, Cosmonaut

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet space girl Valentina Tereshkova will marry cosmonaut Andrian Nikolayev Saturday, usually reliable sources said Thursday.

The sources said the wedding would take place in one of Moscow's two "marriage palaces" but this could not be confirmed at either of them.

There has been no official announcement here that the two are to marry although the report has circulated widely.

Moscow radio, in a report which might be taken as an indication, recently noted on a program beamed abroad that Nikolayev turned out at the airport with a bouquet of flowers for Miss Tereshkova when she recently returned from Mexico and New York.

Need of Broader Tax Base Is Seen

AUSTIN (UPI)—House Speaker Byron Tunnell said today the need for a broader tax base in Texas cities will be "one of the major problems for future legislators."

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Texas Research League, Tunnell said, "it is in the metropolitan areas that the most acute governmental problems and needs are occurring."

He said that cities have limited tax resources to meet increasing demands for public services.

Tunnell and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith both praised the league for its "constructive, non-partisan approach to the problems of state government."

NO PLUGGINGS THIS WEEK

Meetings Called To Probe Crude Oil Price Cuts

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Texas Legislative Oil and Gas Committee has called a series of meetings to investigate recent cuts in state crude oil prices.

State Reps. Maurice Duke of Wichita Falls and George Cook of Odessa, both members of the interim oil and gas committee, said officers of oil firms will be subpoenaed if necessary to determine why major oil firms "are instigating price cuts."

The first hearing is tentatively set for Nov. 15 at Wichita Falls, Duke said. Another is planned later at Abilene. The committee will eventually hold hearings in all major oil producing areas of the state, Cook said.

The full committee plans to meet with the Texas Railroad Commission Nov. 8 for a briefing session on the commission's rules and policies.

Duke said two companies, Cities Service and Rock Island, have recently "come into the state and instigated price cuts."

He said the action of these two firms recently resulted in a cut of about 10 cents a barrel in the price of crude and "I have been informed that a drop of 35 cents a barrel could result and is in fact imminent."

"These companies must understand that this legislature is not going to allow cuts in the price of crude at the same time as allowables are being reduced," Duke said.

"We want the legislators to know why prices are being cut, and we want the public to know who's doing it."

The independent oil business has been declining for 15 years, Duke said. "The breaking point is approaching."

Phillips Adopts Matching-Gift Plan for Higher Education Aid

Phillips Petroleum Company has adopted a matching-gift plan for aid to colleges and universities under which the company will match, dollar-for-dollar, gifts by its employees to institutions of higher learning up to a maximum of $1,000 per employee in any calendar year.

K. S. Adams, chairman and chief executive officer of Phillips, said to employees in commenting on the new plan in the Phillips magazine just issued: "Americans face a big challenge to supply from private sources some of the growing needs of higher education. Phillips new matching-gift plan is designed to help meet this challenge. Many of our employees are contributors to colleges and active as fund raisers. This evidence of their interest is one of the factors leading to adoption of our plan. The plan will double the effectiveness of most gifts and encourage employees to step up their support of schools and to give regularly."

Eligible schools include non-profit four-year colleges, junior colleges, technical institutes, graduate schools and professional schools that are accredited or approved by a recognized agency, a state department or a state university and located within the nation's 50 states.

William H. Tonking, a scientist employed by Brown and Root Co. of Houston, which is drilling the hole, said preliminary tests have been made in the Atlantic Ocean off Puerto Rico and in the Pacific off Hawaii. He said a final selection of ocean water will be made next year.

The hole will be drilled beneath the ocean because the earth's crust is narrower under the sea than it is on land.

The subcommittee hearings have been particularly interested in a conflict between Brown and Root and scientific advisers to the National Science Foundation (NSF) which is sponsoring the project.

The advisers want to make tests from a special ship all over the world but the Houston drilling firm said such an undertaking was unnecessary.

Tonking estimated the project would cost $68 million under the Brown and Root plan and would not estimate how much more it would cost if an intermediate ship were built from which to make tests.

He said the ultimate decision would be up to the NSF, which is asking for $15 million to carry on the project through this fiscal year.

Brown and Root, prime contractor on the project, has let 2.2 million in subcontracts so far, and spent about $1 million itself.

The city said the half-million-gallon tank is needed for emergency water such as for fire or when there is a major water main break.

The tower in the Country Club Oaks subdivision of Baytown was designed by the Wyatt - Hedrick Engineering Corp. of Houston and was built by the Chicago Bridge and Iron Co.

City attorney George Chandler said his office has orders to sue if the builders do not have a solution by the Nov. 14 city council meeting. He said the tower's legs settled slightly into their foundation. The tilt is not visible to the naked eye, but amounts to several inches.

The city is corresponding with the firms involved for possible answers, Chandler said.

Mohole Project Completion Due Within 5 Years

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The deputy manager of Project Mohole, to drill a hole through the crust of the earth, Thursday told the House oceanographic subcommittee that the project will be completed in 1968.

William H. Tonking, a scientist employed by Brown and Root Co. of Houston, which is drilling the hole, said preliminary tests have been made in the Atlantic Ocean off Puerto Rico and in the Pacific off Hawaii. He said a final selection of ocean water will be made next year.
