Negro Leader Asks Special Police Force

By United Press International
Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr. has called for the creation of a special federal police force to protect integrationists.

King said after a "summit meeting" of Negro leaders in New York Wednesday that he would propose such a force to President Kennedy next month during a planned civil rights march in Washington.

King said a federal civil rights force is "seriously needed" to investigate complaints of local police brutality against integrationists. Such complaints currently are not acted upon, he said, because the government claims it lacks jurisdiction.

Around 265 persons, including a dozen whites, marched in front of the York, Pa., city hall Wednesday in a protest against segregation. There were no incidents during the two-hour demonstration.

The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) said at New Orleans it would launch an intensive voter registration drive today in eight Louisiana parishes. At Baton Rouge, La., where Negroes and police scuffled at a swimming pool Tuesday, authorities warned Wednesday they would move quickly to block any further riotous desegregation demonstrations.

Renew Demonstrations
Racial demonstrations were renewed after a two-week lull in Gadsden, Ala., Wednesday and police arrested 8 of 150 Negroes picketing downtown lunch counters. Three Negroes were arrested at Birmingham, Ala., for trying to enter an all-white theater. Birmingham Tuesday repealed all of its segregation statutes.

A group of 111 Negroes marched in Charleston, S.C., Wednesday in protest of discriminatory practices in stores, but the demonstration, watched closely by police and state troopers, was orderly.

Masons Set for Hilltop Meeting Near Skellytown
Upwards of 1,000 Masons and their wives are expected at the third annual Hilltop Open Air Conclave of Master Masons Saturday evening on the Andis Ranch, three miles west of Skellytown.

A barbecue dinner will be served to the visitors and guests at 3 p.m. by the Pampa Shrine Club.

John R. Collard of Spearman, deputy grand master of Texas Masons, will be the principal speaker at a program scheduled after the dinner. There will be entertainment in charge of Ray Barber, superintendent of the Masonic School at Fort Worth.

Guests will include eight Texas grand lodge members and visiting dignitaries from New Mexico, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Visiting Texas Grand Lodge members will be honored at a luncheon to be given by the host Pampa and Petersburg lodges Saturday noon in the Court House Cafe.

Partial Nuclear Test Ban Treaty Signed

Way Now Cleared For Breakthrough In Cold War Area

BULLETIN
MOSCOW (UPI) — The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union today initiated a partial nuclear test ban treaty.

The action dramatically set the stage for a possible breakthrough on a wide range of cold war problems.

By HENRY SHAPIRO
MOSCOW (UPI) — United States, British and Soviet delegates met today and authoritative sources predicted initialing of a partial nuclear test ban treaty was imminent.

The delegates drove up to Spiridonovka Palace at 4:30 p.m. (9:30 a.m. EDT) in separate limousines.

W. Averell Harriman represented the United States and Lord Hailsham took part for Britain. The chief Soviet delegate was Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The treaty to be initiated covers nuclear tests under water, in the air and outer space. It has been ready since Monday, according to sources, but has been held up primarily by procedural and protocol matters.

More than 30 newsmen, including Westerners and one from Communist China, gathered in front of the palace.

Creates A Stir
The Chinese Communist newsman created a stir because Peking has been demanding since the nuclear talks began 11 days ago that the Kremlin break off negotiations with the "sinister" West.

Sources said all newsmen, many of whom wore no jackets because of the near 90 degree temperature, might be invited inside the Spiridonovka Palace to witness the initialing ceremony.

Today's meeting had been put back for 1½ hours but no reason was given.

The past few days have been used for exploration of collateral measures on the ways to reduce tension between the two power blocs, including a Soviet proposed non-aggression pact between NATO and the Warsaw treaty nations and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's proposal that inspection teams be stationed on Eastern and Western territory to guard against surprise attack.

Possible Summit Meeting
There was a feeling of optimism here that the nuclear treaty would trigger an easing of cold war tensions.

The partial nuclear test ban treaty was understood to include an "escape clause" whereby the Big Three could resume testing if experiments by non-signatory nations—presumably France and Communist China—endangered their security.

Communist China already has said it would not be party to the test ban accord, and France is determined to push ahead with development of its own nuclear weapons.

WARD AND WITNESSES ARRIVE—Dr. Stephen Ward, center, and two witnesses, Ronna Ricardo, left, and Vicki Barrett, right, arrive at Old Bailey Court in London for the third day's hearing of his morals trial. Miss Ricardo, a night club dancer, who admitted one conviction for prostitution, testified she had committed perjury in pre-trial hearings and that she never paid Ward any money she received as a prostitute. Miss Barrett told the court Ward picked her up in his sports car one night and told her she could meet a much better class of people as a prostitute in his flat. Dr. Ward took the stand today. ## Ward on Stand; Eggs Tossed at Christine LONDON (UPI)—Dr. Stephen Ward, admitting that he is a "thoroughly immoral man," testified today at his vice trial that he thoroughly disapproves of a woman who takes money "for sex alone."

Ward, whose introduction of play girl Christine Keeler to War Minister John Profumo opened the door to Britain's sex and security scandal, was called to the witness stand as the defense opened its case in Old Bailey Court.

His attorney described him as a "highly sexed man who has had affairs with a great many women." Ward, osteopath, artist, and Viscount Astor, owner of the famed Cliveden estate where Ward maintained a cottage.

The subsequent affair between Christine and the war minister after they met at Cliveden resulted in Profumo's resignation and an uproar against the Conservative government of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. As the scandal spread, Ward was brought to trial on charges of living off the immoral earnings of Christine and of seducing young girls into a life of vice.

Under questioning by defense attorney John Burge, Ward said he did not feel that Christine was a "prostitute."

"It all depends on what you mean by a prostitute," he said. "If you simply mean a woman who sells her body—that would apply to any woman who married for money."

"I myself thoroughly disapprove of any woman who takes money for sex alone."

At the end of Christine's testimony, the crown was expected to rest its case against Ward, the society osteopath who is charged with living off her earnings and those of other prostitutes.

Christine's affair with Profumo at the same time she was seeing the attaché, Eugene Ivanov, forced Profumo's resignation and caused demands from government and opposition supporters alike that Prime Minister Harold Macmillan step down. Macmillan weathered the storm and appears to have strengthened his position.

Carruth to Head '63 United Fund

Clyde Carruth has been named general drive chairman of the 1963 Pampa-Lefors United Fund, Herschel Wilks, board president announced today. Wilks said advance drive solicitation will begin Sept. 15.

The general drive opens Oct. 10 and a Nov. 10 completion date has been set.

Carruth will select the advance drive chairman and division chairmen for oil and gas, industrial, individual, retail, wholesale, services and professional.

Six agencies in the United Fund are the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Milk Fund and Welfare Index.

Wilks said a tentative fund budget will be announced soon.

July C of C Meet Monday at Center

Reservations will be accepted until 10 a.m. Monday for the July membership luncheon of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce at 12 noon Monday in the Pampa Youth and Community Center.

George Smith, Youth Center director, will present a demonstration program of swimming, diving, baton twirling, judo, acrobatics and other activities carried on at the center.

The center's new gymnasium was recently completed and is fully equipped with a regulation size basketball court, trampoline rigs, shuffleboard and volleyball facilities.

Incompatible?

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Mrs. Myrtle Sherfield sued John D. Sherfield Wednesday for divorce, alleging incompatibility. They have 12 minor children.

51 Negroes Jailed In Demonstrations

NEW YORK (UPI) — Waves of civil rights demonstrators led by 24 ministers tried to block concrete mixers and dump trucks and were arrested today in a renewed demonstration to force contractors to hire more Negroes in New York's multi-billion dollar construction industry.

By mid-morning 51 Negroes and whites, including 36 men and 15 women, had been arrested.

Carriers Meet Request On Work Rule Changes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A nationwide rail strike, threatened for Tuesday, was averted today when the railroads agreed to a congressional request and postponed imposition of their new work rules for at least 30 days.

Daniel P. Loomis, president of the Association of American Railroads, announced to a crowded hearing room of the House Commerce Committee that the carriers had agreed to the postponement "in order to cooperate with Congress."

The chairmen of the House and Senate commerce committees had asked for the delay to give Congress time to act on President Kennedy's plan to turn over to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) the long-smouldering work rules dispute.

Loomis said: "In response to the requests of the chairmen of the House and Senate committees and in order to cooperate with the Congress of the United States, the American railroads have agreed to a 30-day extension to 12:01 a.m. Aug. 29, 1963."

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., chairman of the House Commerce Committee, praised the railroads' decision and said it was one which was made "in the entire public interest of the United States."

"On behalf of the committee and the Congress, I want to express our sincere thanks for the consideration given by you and your industry," he told Loomis.

"Better Way To Legislate"

Harris said the 30-day postponement "should give plenty of time to Congress to take whatever action is needed." He said it was "a better way to legislate."

In appealing for the delay, which would be the fourth since the work rules issue came to a head this year, Chairman John Pastor, D-R.I., of the Senate Commerce Committee told Loomis: "You have already waited for four years, and 30 days more is not going to do any great harm."

He also warned Loomis that there was a good chance of a joint resolution of Congress demanding the delay if the railroads did not agree to it. Although such a resolution has no force of law, its psychological impact could be heavy.

The Senate committee questioned the railroad officials in an unusual night session that ran to nearly 11 p.m. and called ICC officials for hearings later today.

Wolfe testified Wednesday night that the railroads had accepted every solution proposed by all the government agencies or officials who entered into the dispute.

He said the railroads took part in "real collective bargaining" but said the unions did not, rejecting all proposals. The unions have objected to any solution that would involve compulsory arbitration which they say would destroy the principle of collective bargaining.

Wolfe said the railroads would not regard Kennedy's ICC plan as compulsory arbitration since it permits the companies and unions to settle out of court during a two-year waiting period. He said the unions might bargain "in a more realistic fashion" in the knowledge that the various aspects of the dispute are going to be disposed of.

Rumors Say 'Khrush' On His Way to Cuba

HAVANA (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may arrive in Havana late today to take part in Friday's mass observance of the 10th anniversary of the abortive Santiago revolt, it was reported here.

Rumors of Khrushchev's possible arrival have been circulating for weeks. Speculation was heightened when a number of cabinet ministers canceled today's appointments, saying "we must be at the airport to receive an important personage."

Some observers considered it significant that a fueling stop was arranged recently in Guinea for Soviet airliners plying between Russia and Cuba, possibly to decrease the risks of a Khrushchev trip. Planes flying non-stop often arrive with only 15 to 20 minutes' fuel remaining in their tanks.

Premier Fidel Castro arrived in Russia this year in time to take part in the annual Moscow May Day observance. His departure from Cuba was not announced until he had arrived in Russia and his return trip was equally secret, ostensibly because he feared a U.S. attack.

It was announced while Castro was in Russia that Khrushchev would visit Cuba this year.

The Castro regime is commanding 7,500 taxis to help bring provincial residents into Havana for the mass demonstration commemorating the 1953 attack on Santiago's Moncada barracks.

Question: Does Amarillo Need That Elephant?

AMARILLO (UPI)—The city of Amarillo will be presented an Indian elephant free of charge if the city commission decides it needs one.

Children from throughout the Panhandle have donated $3,700 to buy an elephant for the city's children's zoo.

A few months ago, the city commission said they would not accept the elephant.

But Wednesday, civic leaders offered to donate the estimated 1,273 working hours needed to build an elephant house.

Representatives of the Amarillo Park and Recreation Board will meet Friday to approve or reject the offer and if it is accepted, the commission will once again rule on whether Amarillo needs an elephant.

DIFFICULT JOB — Policewomen have their jobs made more difficult by sit-down pickets who link arms at the entrance to Rutgers Houses, a housing development in New York's lower Manhattan. About 25 pickets were taken into custody for staging a traffic-blocking demonstration. At the same time a larger demonstration by another group of civil rights pickets was under way at the Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn. Both groups were protesting alleged bias in the construction industry in New York. (NEA Telephoto)

Texas Weather Mixes Heat and Windstorms

By United Press International
A tornado dipped down east of Huntsville, Tex., Wednesday and blew down a 400-foot television antenna.

Six persons collapsed from heat in Dallas Wednesday.

Blistering hot weather continued over Texas. Isolated thundershowers were expected to spread over the east and south portions of the state, as well as over the Panhandle and extreme Southwest Texas.

The tornado east of Huntsville was the third twister reported in Texas in two days. Two small twisters did about $7,000 worth of damage in the Port Arthur area Tuesday.

A thunderstorm with 90-mile-an-hour winds raked Victoria, destroyed a mattress factory and

White Deer Girl Wins Top Honor

PANHANDLE (Spl) — Fern Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Phillips, White Deer, and a member of the White Deer 4-H Club won the senior girl's division of the 4-H dress revue held at the War Memorial Building in Panhandle and the right to represent Carson County in the District Dress Revue in Amarillo, Friday.

Diane Labus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Labus of Panhandle was winner of the junior division. She is a member of the Panhandle Club. She will also represent Carson County in the dress revue in Amarillo, but this will be for experience only as the junior division is not judged.

Judges for the event were Mrs. Mona Hildreth, home demonstration agent of Potter County and Miss Geraldine Mays, agent of Hutchinson County.

Mistress of ceremonies for the event was Mrs. A. J. Labus, county dress revue chairman.

Mrs. Sybil Stringer, home demonstration agent of Carson County, presented the championship awards.

Winners of the revue were judged on the basis of workmanship of articles modeled, choice of material and on records of 4-H work kept through the year.

Clubs represented in the revue were Conway, White Deer, Panhandle and Groom.

Obituaries

Harry E. Amick
Harry E. Amick, 76, former resident of Pampa, died in his home at the Amick Courts, Buchanan Dam, Tex. early today.

Before his retirement in 1944, Mr. Amick was tool-pusher for Bill McSpadden. He has since operated a resort and camping site at Buchanan Lake.

He is survived by his wife, Vera, of the home and one sister, Mrs. Paul Martin of Midland.

Funeral arrangements are pending with Duenkel-Carmichael.

James B. Saul
Funeral services for James B. Saul, longtime resident of Miami, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Miami with the pastor, Rev. G. B. Bailey officiating.

Pallbearers will be: Wallace Locke, Randall Gill, J. W. Thompson, Bruce Maddox, Loran Grant-ham, Fred Gordon Jr., W. C. Coffee, and Weldon Snodgrass.

Survivors include his wife, Eura of the home; two sons, Eldon of Houston, and John Thomas of New Orleans; two sisters, Mrs. J. P. Osborne of Pampa and Mrs. Tom Boney of Plainview.

Charles Vavirka
Charles Vavirka, 71, long time resident of Pampa, died yesterday in Kewaunee, Wis.

A former employe of the Gulf Oil Co., Mr. Vavirka resided at the Adams Hotel before moving, six weeks ago, to the home of his brother.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today in Wisconsin.

FIRE CAUSES SLIGHT DAMAGE
A small fire at 3:40 p.m. yesterday at the Atlas Tank Co., 619 S. Cuyler, was extinguished by 4:05 p.m., after it had caused light damage to the building. It was started when workmen were welding a coil on a heater treater.

Certain pedestrians, called jaywalkers, get their name from the jay bird, which usually runs after things diagonally.

4-H Club Meets In Hobart Park

Danny Hogsett, vice president of the 4-H Rifle Club, presented a program on "Recreation Safety" during the recent meeting of the Top O' Texas 4-H Club in Hobart St. Park.

Speaking on the "Ten Commandments of Rifle Safety," Hogsett explained the parts of a gun and how to handle it safely.

Foster Whaley, Gray County agricultural agent, announced a county wide 4-H barbecue at Lake McClellan Aug. 8.

Mrs. Alvin Reeves, one of the leaders for the recently organized 4-H riding club, said the group will meet each Monday night. All members, she explained, must attend meetings to be eligible to ride in parades with the club. Plans are being made to make chaps as part of the club costume.

Franklin Baggerman announced that anyone wishing to take the recreation project should contact him. This group meets on the first Saturday of each month at Baggerman's home.

Cathie Wilkie, chairman, opened the recreation program, with the three-legged race, LaPhyllis Atwood let the tow sack race, Danny Hogsett the raw egg toss; Cynthia Hogsett, fire on the mountain and Donald Elmore, tug of war.

Watermelon was served to seven adults and eight 4-H members, Andy Cole, Miss Atwood, Lodema Cole, Miss Wilkie, Ted Reeves, Danny Hogsett, Jim Reeves, Cynthia Hogsett, Jim Craig, Clara and Alan Tidwell, Angela and Jennifer Cunningham, Steven Maddox, Carmen Jones, Nancy Check and Donald Elmore.

Harold Raley was held in county jail today on a felony charge of theft over $50. Bond was set in Nat Lunsford's Justice of the Peace court yesterday afternoon at $1,500.

Raley was returned to Pampa yesterday from Sayer, Okla., by Deputy Sheriff D. L. Day and is charged by the Coronado Inn with removing a television set from the Inn.

County Commission Meet Is Postponed

The Gray County Commissioners will meet August 1 to canvass returns for the McLean Hospital bond issue election, according to County Judge Bill Craig.

The regular meeting, scheduled today, was postponed and the August 1 date set.

Grand Jury Will Probe Case of Drowned Woman

Two men, one supposedly from Pampa, are being held in Decatur, Tex., on a charge of murder as a result of the Sunday drowning of Mrs. Lovera Skinner.

Mrs. Skinner, reportedly a resident or former resident of Pampa, drowned in Lake Bridgeport near Decatur while swimming with W. L. Pierce, 35, of Pampa, and Archie Des Woods, 32, of Bridgeport.

Witnesses say the two men and Mrs. Skinner, who had been working in Bridgeport for a month, were playing in the water after taking part in an afternoon party. Mrs. Skinner drowned in four feet of water.

Wise County Sheriff J. R. Branch Monday filed murder charges against the two men and bond was set at $10,000 each, with the two men remaining in jail. Bond was reduced to $5,000 each Tuesday, but the two still were unable to make bond.

An early report said that Sheriff Branch had filed murder without malice charges and "that there was more horseplay than anything else involved in the drowning." Sheriff Branch said yesterday afternoon he had filed straight murder charges, and that a qualification or degree of murder in the case would be up to the grand jury. The sheriff also said that there was "horseplay" involved, but that determination of just how much and what were the causes and events leading up to the drowning would also strictly be up to the Grand Jury.

The Gray County Sheriff's department reported Tuesday that they have no record of either a Mrs. Skinner or a W. L. Pierce ever having lived in Pampa.

Two More Purse Thefts Reported

Another theft of a purse from a parked car on N. Wells St. was reported to police today.

Mrs. Marvel D. Rake III, who lives south of the city, was visiting relatives at 712 N. Wells yesterday and reports her purse missing, apparently taken from her car. The purse contained personal papers, but no money. It was the third purse stolen from a parked car on N. Wells this week.

Mrs. Roy Pool, 1933 N. Sumner, reported her purse taken from her garage, sometime last Sunday or Monday. The purse contained $15 in cash, a wedding band and a pearl ring.

Pack Food Carefully Avoid Food Poisoning

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—Is it true that there is danger of food poisoning at picnics in hot weather?

A—Yes, some picnics can end in the tragedy of food poisoning unless precautions are taken. Most foods spoil quickly in hot weather and away from refrigeration. If there are a few staphylococci bacteria present, they need only a few hours and warm temperature to grow rapidly. Some foods can become poisoned in as little as five or six hours on a hot day. But there are easy and simple ways to avoid food poisoning on a picnic. One valuable item is a good portable icebox. Chill the foods thoroughly in the refrigerator at home first. Use plenty of ice in your portable ice box. Make sure the lid is tight. This will keep your perishables fresh. Another suggestion: take along the sandwich ingredients in the original wrappings and containers and make up your picnic lunch on the spot, just before mealtime. Take the ham in a sealed can and open it at mealtime. The same applies to mayonnaise. Keep the boiled eggs and potatoes separate in the ice box, and mix the potato salad at the last minute.

Sick to canned foods, sealed jars and bottles that can be opened just before serving. Be careful about pies and cream-filled bakery items. They spoil very fast on a hot day. Fresh fruits keep better and will make good desserts. Its actually not very difficult to insure safe picnic meals. Just follow your home practice of refrigerating those foods that need it. If you make up a hamper of sandwiches, load it into your hot auto trunk, head for the beach, and eat many hours later — well, you're asking for trouble, warns the American Medical Association.

Q—Is it safe to eat chocolate that has turned white?

A—Yes, don't throw away chocolate just because it has turned white. Food specialists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture say this is simply a sign that some of the cocoa butter has separated out. This happens at temperatures of about 85 degrees. The cocoa butter in the chocolate melts and comes to the surface. When the cocoa butter hardens again, the chocolate turns white. Only the appearance of the chocolate is affected by this separation. Usually there is no loss of flavor. If the chocolate is melted for cooking purposes it will turn brown again. To prevent chocolate from turning white store it in a reasonably cool place (under 75 degrees).

Jelled Meat Loaf Cool Summer Meal

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 1/2 cup cold water
 1 1/2 cups hot meat consomme, meat stock or bouillon
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon onion juice
 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish
 1/4 cup chopped celery
 2 cups ground cooked beef, veal or pork
 1 hard-cooked egg

Soften gelatin in water; add broth and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice, salt and onion juice. Cool and when mixture starts to thicken, thoroughly mix in pimiento, pickle relish, celery and ground meat. Lightly oil a loaf pan. Slice egg and arrange slices on bottom of pan. Spoon the mixture gently over the egg slices. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Slice for serving. Yields 6 to 8 servings.

Low Calorie Count For Summer Foods

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
 Q—Are the fresh fruits and vegetables now in the market high in calories?

A—Definitely not. Nutritionists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture give this calorie count for fruits and vegetables (unless another portion size is specified, calories are for a half-cup portion served without added fat, sugar or sauce):

10 to 15 calories — cabbage, snap beans, greens, cauliflower, mushrooms, green peppers, kraut.
 20 to 25 calories — summer squash, asparagus, carrots, turnips, tomato juice.
 30 to 40 calories — Brussels sprouts, cantaloupe, onions, berries, cherries, raw pineapple, 1 peach.
 50 calories — 3 apricots, 2 large plums, 1 medium orange.

Q—How can I keep milk fresh?
 A—Keep milk cool, keep milk clean, keep milk out of strong light. Store it in a covered container in the refrigerator as soon as possible. Remove milk from the refrigerator only when it is used, and replace immediately after use. At room temperatures milk will develop off-flavors and odors in 4 to 5 hours. Keep fresh and old milk in separate containers. Pouring milk from container to container increases the possibility of contamination. Mix fresh and old milk only at the time of use. Milk in glass bottles should not be allowed to stand in sunlight. If milk delivered to the home cannot be stored immediately, provide an insulated box with a lid for temporary storage. Remove it to the refrigerator as promptly as possible.

Chicken Hawaiian New Summer Treat

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
 A Paterson, N.J., doctor and his wife, two sons and a daughter can tour the countryside in a brand new car. He won it in the 4th national All-Male Championship cookout in Honolulu. Grilled Chicken Breasts Hawaiian was Dr. Peter D. Carras' entry and he grilled them to a tropical turn in the Ale Ale Gardens of the Hawaiian Village.

His sophisticated recipe, like most of the other entries, was a far cry from grilled franks and hamburgers. Next year, let's hope, the recipes will be as all-male as the contestants.

GRILLED CHICKEN BREASTS HAWAIIAN
 (Serves 4)
 4 chicken breasts, boned
 1/2 cup soy sauce
 1/2 cup pineapple juice
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1 clove garlic, minced
 1/2 cup finely chopped Macadamia nuts
 1 (3-oz.) can deviled ham

1 teaspoon grated onion
 1/2 cup melted butter
 Quilted foil, 14-in. heavy duty
 Place chicken breasts in marinating dish. Combine soy sauce, pineapple juice, lemon juice and garlic; pour over chicken. Let stand at room temperature for 2 hours.

Line firebox with quilted foil; let coals burn down until covered with gray ashes.

Combine Macadamia nuts, deviled ham and onion. Spoon onto chicken breasts, roll up and secure with skewers. Brush with melted butter and arrange on a sheet of foil.

Grill 4 inches above the coals for 31 to 40 minutes, turning often and basting with melted butter.

American Servicemen Volunteer For Lessons In Foreign Cooking

By JEANNE LESEM
 United Press International
 Many servicemen, high-ranking officers and military wives are among students at a civilian cooking school in Colorado Springs, Colo., site of the United States Air Force Academy and two other military establishments.

"Housewives who never thought about Japanese and German cooking before are learning now because their husbands' tours of duty included those countries," she said.

Classic cookery lessons include French omelets, puff pastry, shal-lot and truffle cooking, garnishing and presentation, as well as many specific recipes.

In her own travels, including several round the world trips, Mrs. Renwick said she noticed little corresponding interest in American food by people of other nations.

"They don't come here as we go there. We're the travelers," she added. "But here, even children enroll in cooking classes. They think it's fun to emulate their mothers."

Mrs. Renwick, wife of a Scottsdale, Ariz., attorney and mother of three, says 8 to 14-year-old pupils at the cooking school learn to prepare everything from eggs and vegetables to white sauce and fish amandine—fish fillets with almonds.

Mrs. Renwick said that small children often like fancier food than many adults realize — as long as it isn't seasoned too highly.

"Color and presentation are important to small fry," she added. They like spinach cooked in a ring mold and served with cooked carrots or beets in the center.

"Men and women want to cook with confidence for guests, she said. "They also want new menu ideas. They get into a rut about accompaniments and balanced meals. Women also need to gain confidence in sauce-making."

Besides her role as recipe creator, Mrs. Renwick recently organized her own voluminous files into a cookbook, "A World of Good Cooking" (Simon & Schuster), in which foreign recipes are arranged according to variety and main ingredient instead of national origin.

Mrs. Renwick's recipe for Arabian-style broilers is easy to make. Rub two broilers, halved, with a combination of honey, salt, pepper and a pinch of ginger. Broil until juice runs clear and joints move easily. Sprinkle hot chicken with 1 cup of pitted Bing cherries and 1/4 cup of chopped pistachio nuts.

Iced Coffee Is Summer Standard

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Americans are coffee drinkers. Hot or cold, it is served with most of our meals. In hot weather, the trend, however, is toward tall, tinkling glasses of strong iced coffee—with or without sugar or cream, depending on the drinker's degree of calorie consciousness. The calories, remember, are in the coffee and cream. Not in the coffee itself.

For one quick serving of iced coffee place in a tall glass about twice as much instant coffee as you would use for a cup of hot. Add a little cold water and stir until the coffee powder dissolves.

Then fill up the glass with ice cubes, add more cold water and stir.

To serve several persons, there are two speedy ways to make a pitcherful of iced coffee.

1. Make excellent iced coffee using coffee ice cubes with regular coffee. To make the cubes, brew a little extra breakfast coffee. Cool it, then pour the cooled coffee into your refrigerator ice tray. Turn the temperature control high for quick freezing. At serving time, brew regular strength coffee and pour it over the coffee cubes. The melting ice adds flavor, rather than diluting it.

2. To make iced coffee even faster, use instant coffee powder. For 6 tall glasses, measure 6 level measuring tablespoons of coffee into a pitcher and add 1 cup warm water. Stir to dissolve the coffee. Add 3 cups cold water and stir. Chill the beverage with plenty of ice in the pitcher, then pour into glasses, making sure that each contains its generous share of ice.

However you fix iced coffee, there are two serving hints you should heed. Use the richest cream you can find because the cream makes a big difference in the flavor of the coffee. For a sweeter, make a simple sugar syrup that goes into solution quickly and evenly. Simply stir and boil together, for 7 minutes, equal quantities of sugar and water. Cool and store in the refrigerator

Fruit Milk Shakes Add Color And Fun

You can have your own soda fountain this summer! What a wonderful time your small fry-teen-agers, even you and your hubby, can have concocting all sorts of frosty fruit milk shakes in your own kitchen. There's no limit to the number of frosty cold milk shakes you can create.

These dairy rich milk shakes are pretty as a picture in party pastels of orange, green and yellow. Best of all...they taste even more luscious than they look. Ours are in fresh fruit flavors of orange, lemon, pineapple and lime.

Creamy vanilla ice cream is contrasted with refreshing citrus-ored sherbet and frozen fruit. concentrate and blended with milk to make each frothy milk shake. The garnish matches the fruity flavor of the milk shake. For example, you'll want to top the pineapple milk shake with a scoop of pineapple sherbet and a fresh pineapple spear or pineapple cube.

To prepare your medley of fruit milk shakes, you simply place the frozen fruit concentrate, sherbet, vanilla ice cream and milk in a blender and mix a few seconds to a frothy, creamy smooth consistency. Or you can use your mixer or even a rotary beater. Garnish and serve in your tallest glasses.

Here are four of our frosty favorites to get you started. After you've made these, you're sure to want to invent many others of your own.

Curried Lamb Salad Is Tops

Next time you entertain at a luncheon, you'll be wise in choosing a cool meat salad. Its ideal for warm-weather tastes, and the protein goodness satisfies all appetites.

Curried Lamb Salad, Singapore will guarantee the success of your menu. This delightful dish features julienne strips of cooked lamb contrasted with chopped vegetables. Curry powder added to the mayonnaise lends an exotic flavor.

You can easily increase the recipe to suit your group. If the luncheon is buffet style, the salad may be served in a lettuce-lined bowl. Or, place the salad in individual lettuce cups.

For the cooked lamb called for, a lamb shoulder or leg could be roasted a day or two ahead. Advise home economist Reba Staggs.

CURRIED LAMB SALAD, SINGAPORE
2 cups julienne-style cooked lamb
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup diced celery
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
8 ripe olives, sliced
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon curry powder
1/4 cup mayonnaise
Lettuce
Combine lamb, salt, celery, egg, olives and onion. Chill. Add curry powder and mayonnaise.

TASTE OF SUMMER: Fresh peach cobbler.

Fresh Peach Cobbler With Old Time Flavor

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Remember the wonderful peach cobbler Grandma used to make? You can get the same aroma and taste with fresh peaches today. But with far less work.

The secret is the topping, which is made with a convenience package of easy coffee cake mix. It's the kind you blend right in the plastic bag, after adding milk and egg. Just squeeze to mix. For the base, peach slices are sweetened with brown sugar and the cinnamon topping which comes with the package of coffee cake mix. That's all there is to it.

EASY PEACH COBBLER
(Makes 6 servings)

Base:
5 cups sliced fresh peaches
¼ cup firmly-packed brown sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 envelope cinnamon topping from coffee cake mix
Topping:
One 10½-ounce package easy coffee cake mix
1 egg, unbeaten
½ cup milk
Heat oven to moderate (375 degrees). Place peaches in 8-inch square baking dish. Sprinkle with brown sugar, lemon juice and envelope of cinnamon topping. Heat peach mixture in oven 15 minutes. Put egg and milk into large bag of mix. Squeeze upper part of bag to force air out. Close top of bag by holding tightly between thumb and index finger. With bag resting on table, mix by working bag vigorously with fingers. (Mix about 40 seconds or until egg is completely blended.)

Squeeze bag to empty batter evenly over hot peaches. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon granulated sugar. Bake in preheated oven (375 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla ice cream.

All Pink Shortcake For Summer Season

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
This all-pink shortcake takes dessert honors of the summer season. Simple as can be with quick strawberry milk-flavoring mix on hand. The shortcake is pink; the whipped cream is a tender shade of pink; and, of course, the strawberries are rosy.

THE ALL-STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE
(6 or 7 servings)

2 cups packaged prepared biscuit mix
½ cup quick strawberry milk-flavoring mix, divided
3 tablespoons sugar
1 cup heavy cream
2 pints strawberries

Prepare shortcake recipe, following directions on package of biscuit mix; substitute 4 tablespoons of the quick strawberry milk-flavoring mix for the sugar. To make individual shortcakes, cut with 2½-inch cutter to make 6 or 7 shortcakes. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) 10 minutes. Whip cream until almost stiff; add 1 tablespoon of the sugar and 2 tablespoons of the quick strawberry milk-flavoring mix; beat until stiff. Wash and hull berries; slice berries and sprinkle with remaining 2 tablespoons quick strawberry milk-flavoring mix and remaining 2 tablespoons sugar. To serve, split shortcakes and spoon berries and whipped cream between and on top of shortcakes.

THIS DELICIOUS shortcake is three ways pink: the strawberries, the whipping, the cake itself.

Taffy Mint Mist, Banana Taffy Milk Make Summertime Delights

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The more sizzling the day, the more welcome a tall tinkling cool-er. Try the three given here. They are different enough to be appealing, cool enough to refresh.

TAFFY MINT TWIST
(1 serving)
Juice of 1 lemon
2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
Ginger ale
Shaved ice
Mint leaves
Combine lemon juice and molasses. Pour over shaved ice in tall glass. Fill to top with ginger ale. Garnish with mint leaves.

BANANA TAFFY MILK
(1 serving)
½ ripe medium banana, mashed
1 teaspoon instant coffee, optional
1 tablespoon unsulphured molasses
Pinch salt

FRESH GRAPE AND LEMON ICE CUP
(6 servings)
3 cups fresh green seedless grapes
¾ cup fresh orange juice
6 single scoops lemon ice or sherbet
Place ½ cup grapes in each of 6 sherbet glasses. Pour over each 2 tablespoons fresh orange juice. Top with fresh lemon dessert. Serve as appetizer or dessert course.

VISITS CASTRO

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—Defense Minister Houari Boumediene was expected to arrive in Cuba today for an official visit. He was traveling with Cuban Industry Minister Ernest (Che) Guevara, who has been here since Algeria's independence celebrations, July 5.

Panhandle Boy Rates Highest

John Biederwell of Panhandle was the high rating explorer in the Adobe Wall Council Aquatic Camp held at Camp Kiowa during the first two weeks of July. Scouts from all over the Council attended the camp to receive special training in swimming, life saving, boating and canoeing. They also worked on conducting safe troop swimming, and Scout Life Guard. Scouts and Explorers attended individually and camped together by crews. There was keen competition between the crews and ratings each day on their abilities and tests, according to Jay Leath, executive secretary for the Adobe Walls Council. More than 60 boys attended the specialized training, which they

WANTS CUBAN ACTION

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., wants the Kennedy administration to encourage and aid anti-Communist guerrillas in Cuba. Hruska said Wednesday U.S. aid should include "air drops and covert landings of supplies and equipment." He also said the administration should sponsor a Cuban provisional government which would be established at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay. Hruska said he would take back to their units and assist their fellow scouts in their aquatic program.

Navy Secretary Offers to Quit In TFX Dispute

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Navy Secretary Fred Korth, in testimony made public late yesterday, offered to resign if Senate investigators concluded improper influences colored his decision in the disputed TFX fighter plane contract award. Korth emphatically denied any conflict of interest in the multi-billion dollar contract awarded last November to General Dynamics Corp., in his hometown of Fort Worth, Tex., and said he resented such implications. "I repeat that I believe that I am a man of integrity," he told a Senate investigating subcommittee member. "If you find or this committee finds that I am not, certainly you should so recommend to the President and I will promptly hand in my resignation."

The influence issue arose as the subcommittee questioned Korth Tuesday in his final day of prolonged testimony. Transcripts of the closed hearing were made public today. Air Force Secretary Eugene Zuckert is scheduled to testify Thursday.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is inquiring into why the TFX contract, expected to exceed $6.5 billion, went to the team of General Dynamics and Grumman Aircraft Co., although Pentagon military officials favored a rival bid by Boeing Co. Mundt noted that Dynamics plans to build the supersonic Navy-Air Force fighter at its plant in Fort Worth. Mundt sparked the exchange over possible influence. "I don't say it is impossible, but I think it would stagger a Solomon to look objectively at a contract that meant as much to your community as this one would," Mundt told Korth. "I resent, sir," Korth replied, "even your asking me what safeguards I might have taken to be an honest man."

Scientists Study Engine That Has No Moving Parts

ALBUQUERQUE (UPI)—Research is under way at Kirtland Air Force Base on an "atomic heat engine" with no moving parts which some day might provide electricity for spacecraft. The device would be only a yard long and one foot in diameter—yet it would have enough atomic fuel to continuously supply the electrical power needs of 100 average size homes for more than a year.

ROTARY PRESIDENT—Carl P. Miller, new Rotary president, conferred with the President and secretary of state before embarking on his three-months-long tour of the world. He is visiting International Rotary clubs, talking to them about U.S. foreign policy.

Under a $65,000 research contract, General Electric engineers are working with the Air Force on a six-month design analysis of the "heat engine idea." They hope to find out how efficient and reliable such a device would be as a source of electricity for things like communications and life support equipment aboard Air Force spacecraft. If the device meets General Electric's design goals, it should be able to operate continuously for 20,000 hours, or more than 800 days. The device would consist of a small nuclear reactor and a system of thermionic converters which change the reactor's heat directly into electricity. The heat would boil off or evaporate electrons from tungsten emitting plates. The electrons then would jump a gap to produce a flow of current. Power output is expected to range from 1,000 to 100,000 watts. Two U.S. presidents were married in London, England—John Quincy Adams and Theodore Roosevelt (second marriage).

Dear Abby... Adopted Mother Needs Credit For Challenge

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How can you call a woman with a prefabricated family a "mother in the highest form"? That was an insult to true motherhood. What does a woman who has adopted four children know about the joy of first learning that she is to bear a child? What does she know about the beauty of carrying a child under her heart? What does she know about the thrill of a child's first cry? What does she know about the fulfillment of actually giving life?

my problem is my wife, when I am driving. I have driven over 35,000 safe, accident-free miles in the last nine years. My wife, on the other hand, is a relatively inexperienced driver. However, while I'm driving she is constantly slamming on imaginary brakes and suddenly shouts warnings such as, "Watch out," "Be careful," etc. I have come very close to having accidents due to her comments and actions. How can I teacher her to have more confidence in my driving?

MOTHER OF FIVE
DEAR MOTHER: Perhaps she knows nothing of the "joy, the beauty, the thrill and the fulfillment" you mention. But don't you think that the woman who asks for the measles, mumps, heartaches, risks, sacrifices and the challenges of rearing a child, with none of the attending blessings of bearing her own, is deserving of special praise? I do.

ALMOST SMASHED
DEAR ALMOST: Unless your wife is given to hallucinations, her comments and actions are an indication that you are not the careful driver you think you are. Be extra careful in the future, and see how relaxed and full of confidence your wife becomes.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a magician and the best in the business. How can I get a job?

MAGICIAN
DEAR MAGICIAN: YOU'RE a magician, and you're asking ME?

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if "Disgusted with younger women" is complaining or bragging. She said she raised 14 children without a washing machine. Well, I'd complain. I don't think younger women are lazier, I think they're smarter. After all, MEN manage to provide themselves with all the tools THEY need to make THEIR work easier.

New Play Day Time Announced

Leather and Lace Riding Club has rescheduled Play Day for July 27.

Registration will begin at 6 p.m. The Grand Entry will begin at 7 p.m. with the Pampa Roping Club setting pivots.

Games for the event will include barrel racing, baton relay, flag race and the wagon race. Entry fee is 25 cents per game. First through third place ribbons will be given to winners in each age group.

A concession stand will be provided by the club. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

The sister act will play a big role on the summer scene. Nautical influenced jacket dress (left) designed for first and second mates teams box pleated sleeveless white pique dress with sea blue striped blazer. Easy-going shirtdress of nubby hopsacking (right) for big and little sister has gold buttons and madras plaid belt and kerchief. Colors are natural with brown madras and pewter with green. Dresses are by Cinderella.

Family Reunion Held In Groom

GROOM (Spl) — A reunion of the children of the late John and Angela Britten was held in Groom recently at St. Mary's School Hall where a potluck dinner was served.

Among those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Britten Jr., Miss Theresa Britten, Mrs. Tom Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Britten and Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Britten, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Britten, Georgann, Lynn and Mariellen, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Britten and family, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Britten, Felix Ludwig, and the Rev. Arnold Carlson, all of Groom; Miss Elizabeth Britten, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Black and son, Ardmore, Okla.; Mrs. Guy McNeil and family, El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. John Lindahl and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farrell and family, Edward Preusser, Mrs. Jane Britten and granddaughter, Claudine and Evelyn Britten, Earl Britten, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swayze and family, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Britten and family, Conway; Miss Genevieve Handling, Umbarger; and Mr. and Mrs. James Stroope and family, of Panhandle.

MEND 'EM NOW

To be certain that you can be well dressed at a moment's notice, make minor repairs in your clothes as they need them. The minute you rip a hem, lose a button or discover that a snapper is missing, get busy with your needle and thread. This way, everything in your closet will be in readiness for an unexpected invitation.

Heim Says Hems Are On The Down In Paris Fashions This Autumn

PARIS (UPI) — Paris designers today began to take the wraps off the creations they hope will decree what women will wear this fall and winter.

For 10 days, the fashion press and store and manufacturers' buyers from all over the world will view the presentations by 39 designers who, except for Maverick Gabrielle Chanel, are members of the Haute Couture Association.

Scheduled collections today included Jacques Esterel, Sweden's Yorn, Jacques Heim, Madeline de Rauch and Louis Feraud, a new American favorite.

As the collections began, thousands of buyers and fashion reporters descended upon Paris for the twice-annual ritual.

The buyers expected to find in the Paris collections wider coats, roomier shoulders, wide sleeves, long sleeves on daytime and evening dresses, and floor-length cocktail dresses.

The talk buzzing around the Ritz and Plaza Athenee hotels centered on designer Heim's admission Sunday that he is dropping his hemlines.

During fashion week the buyers place orders for styles they want. They pay for a dress or suit at least twice what a private customer will pay, because they are given the right to reproduce it and sometimes the right to use the designer's name. Some buyers buy the same fabric and buttons in Paris that went into the original dress so that his store's customers in Munich or Kansas City will have a dress close to the original.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER
Senior Citizens Center

Nice crowd out Thursday; considering the 100 degree temperature.

Mrs. Mollie Hethcock had a nice surprise on her birthday the 12th. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Bell from Follet, Tex., a nephew; Mrs. Judy Bell, sister-in-law from Booker; a niece, Mrs. Winifred Morris and daughter Judy, Miss Nettie Norris from Stratford, Miss Effie Morris from Perryton, and granddaughter Miss Gyna Dean Hethcock, Pampa, came in with a basket dinner and gifts. Can imagine a jolly time was had by all. Mrs. Hethcock is now 85 years young. Sorry to learn that C. E. Sidwell is in very poor health, but is able to be up part of the time, at their home at 1011 N. Somerville.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Maggie Deal, Monday, was her two sisters of Amarillo, Mrs. Floy Posey and Mrs. Francis Pollard; also a niece, Mrs. Frank Patterson and three children, from Garden Grove, Calif., and a great niece from Albuquerque, N.M.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Turner drove over to Sayre, Okla. Monday and spent the night with Mr. Turners brother.

Guests at the Center this week were Mmes. Minnie Heenan and Claudie Gallman, Pampa residents. We hope to see them more often.

Mrs. Mollie Fountain spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Lillian Rogers in Amarillo; and, while there visited the Senior Center. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ogdon of Pampa are in Detroit Lakes, Minn. for a two weeks vacation fishing. With them are their three grandsons from Houston who are spending the summer here. Mrs. Ogdon is a daughter of Mrs. Fountain.

Ray Sanger and daughter, Stephanie, of Wichita Falls, spent part of the week with his Grandmother, Mrs. Mollie Hethcock and sons.

Mr. William Atchley and son Mike of Tucson, Ariz. visited their aunt Mrs. Katie Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Steele and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Turner are having a sort of family reunion this week end; of Mrs. Turner's family. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley White of Tulsa, Okla., arrived Thursday evening, on their way home from Calif. And expected over the week end; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Williams and son Garv. of Kermit, a daughter, R. Sgt. Ray Allen of Hills Air Force Base, near Salt Lake, Utah; a son.

Altrusa Club members serving this week: Mmes. Emily Coston, Louise Sewell, Charlene Yeager and Lena Pearl Hobbs. They served finger sandwiches, mints and coffee. The Friendship Class of the Presbyterian Church will serve as hostess next Thursday at Lovett Memorial Library 2:00 to 4:30. New members and visitors are always welcome.

Parents Announce September Vows

PANHANDLE (Spl) — Mr. and Mrs. Claude F. Gray announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Claudia Irene, to A3-c James F. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen of Rio Hondo.

The couple will exchange wedding vows on Sept. 1, in the First Methodist Church of Panhandle.

Miss Gray is a 1963 graduate of Panhandle High School. Allen was graduated from Rio Hondo High School in 1962 and is presently stationed at Perrin Air Force Base.

Mmes. Lorene Locke, president of the local club and Emily Coston Sr., center chairman left Sunday the 21st, by plane for Philadelphia, Pa., to represent the local club at the International Convention.

Gray Ladies serving with transportation: Mmes. O. F. Kreimeyer, A. D. Hills, Stanley Brandt and Jess Hatcher.

We extend deepest sympathy to the family of Richard Dodson. Services were in the Duenkel-Carmichael Chapel and burial in a local cemetery. Be seeing you — Love Mrs. Wagner.

Dear Abby... Adopted Mother Needs Credit For Challenge

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How can you call a woman with a prefabricated family a "mother in the highest form"? That was an insult to true motherhood. What does a woman who has adopted four children know about the joy of first learning that she is to bear a child? What does she know about the beauty of carrying a child under her heart? What does she know about the thrill of a child's first cry? What does she know about the fulfillment of actually giving life?

my problem is my wife, when I am driving. I have driven over 35,000 safe, accident-free miles in the last nine years. My wife, on the other hand, is a relatively inexperienced driver. However, while I'm driving she is constantly slamming on imaginary brakes and suddenly shouts warnings such as, "Watch out," "Be careful," etc. I have come very close to having accidents due to her comments and actions. How can I teach her to have more confidence in my driving?

MOTHER OF FIVE
DEAR MOTHER: Perhaps she knows nothing of the "joy, the beauty, the thrill and the fulfillment" you mention. But don't you think that the woman who asks for the measles, mumps, heartaches, risks, sacrifices and the challenges of rearing a child, with none of the attending blessings of bearing her own, is deserving of special praise? I do.

ALMOST SMASHED
DEAR ALMOST: Unless your wife is given to hallucinations, her comments and actions are an indication that you are not the careful driver you think you are. Be extra careful in the future, and see how relaxed and full of confidence your wife becomes.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a magician and the best in the business. How can I get a job?

MAGICIAN
DEAR MAGICIAN: YOU'RE a magician, and you're asking ME?

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if "Disgusted with younger women" is complaining or bragging. She said she raised 14 children without a washing machine. Well, I'd complain. I don't think younger women are lazier, I think they're smarter. After all, MEN manage to provide themselves with all the tools THEY need to make THEIR work easier.

WEAKER SEX
Tell your troubles to Abby. For a personal, unpublished reply, please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

New Play Day Time Announced

Leather and Lace Riding Club has rescheduled Play Day for July 27.

Registration will begin at 6 p.m. The Grand Entry will begin at 7 p.m. with the Pampa Roping Club setting pivots.

Games for the event will include barrel racing, baton relay, flag race and the wagon race. Entry fee is 25 cents per game. First through third place ribbons will be given to winners in each age group.

A concession stand will be provided by the club. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

The sister act will play a big role on the summer scene. Nautical influenced jacket dress (left) designed for first and second mates teams box pleated sleeveless white pique dress with sea blue striped blazer. Easy-going shirtdress of nubby hopsacking (right) for big and little sister has gold buttons and madras plaid belt and kerchief. Colors are natural with brown madras and pewter with green. Dresses are by Cinderella.

University Group to Give Special Program Tomorrow

An unusual program will be presented at the Skellytown Community Church Friday at 7:30 p.m. by the Bob Jones University Ensemble, according to Rev. Arthur Dresbach, pastor.

Five young men from the "World's Most Unusual University," located in Greenville, S.C., will present a variety of hymns and sacred songs. Both vocal and instrumental selections will be heard. Also, during the program Donald Horton will bring a brief Gospel message.

Members of the ensemble represent five states—Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, and California—and are typical of the Bob Jones University student body, which is drawn from every state in the Union and some 30 foreign countries.

Lawrence Johnson and Phillip Loomis are trumpeters. William Boyer is trombonist, and Bruce Jackson plays the baritone horn. Horton is the accompanist for the group.

Horton is enrolled in the Graduate School of Religion, and Johnson and Loomis are majoring in Bible. Jackson is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science, and Boyer is a third-year student in the Institute of Christian Service.

Each of the members of the ensemble has participated in many of the University's musical productions and radio or television programs.

ENSEMBLE TO PRESENT PROGRAM—Five students from Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C. will present a musical program at the Skellytown Community Church at 7:30 p.m. The program was especially arranged for the ensemble. Left to right are Bill Boyer, Phil Loomis, Don Horton, Larry Johnson and Bruce Jackson.

CZECHS SUPPORT SOVIETS MOSCOW (UPI)—The Czechoslovak Communist party has swung its full support behind the Kremlin in the bitter ideological conflict with Communist China, the official Soviet news agency Tass said today in a dispatch from Prague.

A thought for the day—Russian novelist Ivan Turgeniev said: "I agree with no man's opinions. I have some of my own."

Texas Governor Calls for Slash In Income Taxes

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Texas Gov. John Connally joined 14 other southern governors in calling for an immediate "across-the-board" reduction in personal and corporate income taxes.

The chief executives, all members of the Southern Governors' Conference, issued their statement at the National Governors' Conference meeting.

They also called for the tax reduction to be coupled with a "prudent and appropriate" cut in federal expenditures. The program was outlined at a news conference by Gov. Donald S. Russell of South Carolina, flanked by Connally, Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama.

Moon Equipment Test Is Delayed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The office of Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N. M., was informed today the first test of moon landing equipment at White Sands Proving Ground, N.M., has been delayed until about the third week in August.

Anderson reported last week the first tests were scheduled to start July 29. A staff aide said today, however, that North American Aviation Corp. encountered "minor technical difficulties" in preparing for the tests.

The exercises are designed to test the "Abort" system in case of blast-off failure or explosion when the Apollo lunar capsule, atop its missile, is sent up.

WHEAT RUSTLERS GREAT FALLS, Mont. (UPI)—In the days of the Old West, the Montana rancher feared the cattle rustler, but in 1963 the farmer-rancher must glance over his shoulder to keep an eye on his wheat crop. Charles Urquat left his farm near here the other day and when he returned, he discovered he had been hit by rustlers—wheat rustlers. Urquat told Cascade County officials that some hombre had harvested 26 acres of his wheat—worth about $1,500—and hauled it away. Hispaniola is another name for the island of Haiti.

Rebels Rack Up Olton Mustangs

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

LEVELLAND — The Pampa Rebels set up a Friday night game with host Levelland when they came roaring back to take a 10-1 win over Olton last night.

The Rebels bounced back from a 3-2 extra-inning loss to Plainview in the opening game of the American Legion tournament for the most one-sided game of the playoffs. Levelland eliminated Hereford last night, 6-2, to win the right to meet the Rebels. Tonight's games pit Amarillo against Plainview and Lubbock Auto vs. Slaton.

The Rebels got only five hits last night, but coupled them with eight walks and deadly base-stealing as they ran almost at will. The Mustangs were forced to put in a pinch-catcher to try to stop the Rebel runners, headed by Kenny Hebert and Ricky Stewart, with Hebert climaxing the robbery by stealing home.

Lefty Jerry Garrison went the route in his best-pitched game of the year. Garrison weathered a rough first inning to give up only three hits and walk six, with his swishing curve ball KO'ing 10 Olton batters. Garrison was backed by near-flawless fielding, again led by third-sacker Claude Middleton and centerfielder Hebert.

Garrison was still cold when the game started, and leadoff man George Jones belted the ball to the centerfield wall, with Hebert making a running catch for the out. Joe Priest then smashed a double to the left field fence, and Jerry Sachse walked. Garrison came to life and struck out the next two batters, going on to whiff six in the first three innings.

Pampa got their first run off little Doyle Meadows in the second inning. A halfpint with a herky-jerky motion, Meadows lost Hebert on a 3-2 count and then wild-pitched him to second. With two out, Steve Molberg punched one into right field to score the Flying Frenchman.

Pampa added two more runs in the third. Garrison walked and Kyle Vann sliced a double down the left field line. Ronnie Oler then lashed out a hit over second base to score Vann.

Olton broke the shutout in the fourth inning. Dennis Givens opened the ball with a single up the middle. Ronnie Parsons was safe on Pampa's only error to score Givens. Garrison then lost his control momentarily and issued two free passes to force in Olton's tally, after which he returned to throwing aspirin tablets, with Jones' single in the seventh inning the only other Olton threat.

The Rebels made a shambles of the game in the fourth inning, scoring five runs on only two hits as Olton committed three errors and the Rebels ran off with everything but the catcher's chest protector, stealing four bases. A single by Ricky Maynard and a Oler's long poke were the valid hits in the inning.

Four bases on balls gave Pampa another tally in the fifth, and Hebert finished up the damage in the sixth as he stole home.

Things Look Worse for US

WARSAW (UPI)—Things keep on getting worse for the United States' touring track and field stars.

First distance runner Jim Beatty couldn't compete in the dual meet at Moscow last weekend because of a leg injury. That came after Brian Sternberg, one of the United States' top pole vaulters, hurt himself on a trampoline a couple of weeks before the team left home.

Now, John Pennel, the world pole vault champion from Northeast Louisiana State College, has hurt his back and more than likely will not be able to take part in this weekend's dual meet with Poland.

Pennel landed hard on his back while practicing Wednesday and when he got up out of the pit, he felt a sharp pain in his back.

"It feels like something in one of my small spinal muscles," said the handsome Pennel. "I don't know if I will be able to compete here. I sure don't feel too hot."

Four hours after his mishap Pennel still hadn't been able to get together with a team trainer for help. That was because all the team officials were attending a reception.

IN AND OUT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—The Chicago White Sox reversed the baseball machinery Wednesday by recalling pitcher Joel Horlen from Indianapolis and assigning Joe Shipley directly to the Indians. Just three weeks ago the Sox had recalled Shipley from the same club and optioned Horlen to the Tribe, where he had compiled a 3-0 record and a 1.72 earned run average.

Whitey Ford Nears 200-Victory Club

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Anything seems possible for the New York Yankees these days so why can't Whitey Ford go on to equal the American League record of 16 straight victories and join the 200-win club before the season is over?

The 34-year-old left-hander is approaching both goals with a string of 12 consecutive triumphs that have increased his career total of victories to 191. His season record is 16-3 and the way the Yankees support him it looks like he can go on winning forever.

Ford has gone nine innings only five times in those 12 straight victories but the Yankees have supported him with excellent late-inning relief help and what's more important, runs—lots of 'em. They haven't scored less than three runs in any of the 12 games and have totaled 67 for an average of 5.6 runs per game.

Shout those figures at Roger Craig, the luckless New York Met pitcher who has lost 15 in a row and 17 in all, and he'll tell you in a few thousand words why it's great to be a Yankee.

Ford won his 12th straight and 16th of the season Wednesday when the Yankees drubbed the Los Angeles Angels, 8-4. Johnny Blanchard, subbing for Roger Maris, drove in four runs with two singles and his fourth homer in three days to lead the Yankees' 15-hit attack. Ford retired after seven innings but Hal Reniff and Bill Stafford closed out the win for him.

Ford's winning streak is the longest in the American League since he won 14 straight in 1961. The AL record of 18 straight is shared by Walter Johnson, Smokey Joe Wood, Lefty Grove and Schoolboy Rowe.

The Minnesota Twins picked up a half-game on the leaders with a 5-0 and 5-0 sweep of a two-night doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians. The Chicago White Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers, 3-1, the Kansas City Athletics downed the Boston Red Sox, 5-2 and 7-6.

The tournament prize probably will be increased if crowds equal the anticipated turnout. Last year the total was boosted to $35,000 with $11,000 to winner Jackie Cupit and officials intimated the same figures were possible this year.

and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 8-5, in other AL games.

Dick Stigman pitched a seven-hitter and Jim Kaat a six-hitter as the Twins double-blanked the Indians and crept within 8½ games of the runaway Yankees. Don Mincher hit two homers and Rich Rollins and John Goryl one each to lead the Twins' 11-hit attack in the opener. Jimmy Hall hit a tie-breaking ninth-inning homer as the Twins scored five ninth-inning runs in the nightcap after being shut out by Dick Donovan.

Ron Hansen drove in all three runs with a two-run homer and a sacrifice fly to help the White Sox' Gary Peters register his ninth win with an eight-hitter. Rocky Colavito homered for the Tigers' run.

Orlando Pena pitched a seven-hitter and had two hits himself for the A's in their opener. The A's won the nightcap on the strength of a five-run third inning featured by doubles by Wayne Causey, Jerry Lumpe and George Aluskis. The A's have won nine of 12 games with the Red Sox this season.

Jackie Brandt, Johnny Orsino and Bob Johnson hit homers and Dick Hall pitched 6 2-3 innings of shutout relief for the Orioles, who handed Washington's Jim Duckworth his eighth setback. Minnie Minoso hit a grand slam homer for the Senators.

No Outstanding Favorite In Field Of 130 As Western Open Tees Off

CHICAGO (UPI)—A field of 130 including almost every name player and 43 of the top 50 money winners, opens up at Beverly Country Club today in the first round of the $50,000 Western Open which will pay a minimum $10,000 to the winner.

There was no outstanding favorite in the field, although there was speculation that National Open winner Julius Boros might take command since the 6,887-yard par 71 course would favor his game.

But PGA winner Jack Nicklaus, leading money winner Arnold Palmer, and Champagne Tony Lema, fourth in earnings this year, also were rated as dangerous.

The course, though not of unusual length, has five par three holes with fairly uniform length on the other 13. But observers anticipated that the entire field would have trouble with the greens, fairly large but rolling and usually extremely fast.

Recent heavy rains, however, have made the course moist and while the greens have held pitch well, they have slowed up. Barring additional rain, though, they could be a constant tournament problem, changing in speed every day as they dry out.

The course record of 63, which has stood for 35 years, was not regarded in danger. The mark was set by Tommy Armour in 1928 and has been equaled only twice, both times by host pro Charlie Penna.

The tournament prize probably will be increased if crowds equal the anticipated turnout. Last year the total was boosted to $35,000 with $11,000 to winner Jackie Cupit and officials intimated the same figures were possible this year.

"OUR CHICKS GO DODGE AT HALF-FARE FOR FUEL!"

Our business is hatching chicks and delivering them when they're one day old. We use a Dodge-Perkins SP500 (a special diesel-powered school bus) to do the job. This unit is equipped with special ventilating and heating equipment to assure the safe transporting of baby chicks over long distances. Our profit is based on guaranteed live delivery of the chicks on time. If our truck breaks down, heavy losses may occur. But our Dodge-Perkins doesn't break down. It travels up to 3500 miles a week, sometimes as far away as Virginia and New York. The Dodge is seven months old and has already gone 63,000 miles. All it's cost in maintenance is $790.11. That breaks down to 1-1/3 cents a mile. And it's cut our fuel bill 80% in comparison with a gasoline-powered truck doing the same job! South Georgia Hatchery, Douglas, Georgia. There's a tough Dodge truck to handle just about any trucking job, from baby chicks right on to the biggest, heaviest loads. And model for model, Dodge trucks are priced lower than most of the competition, right in line with the rest. Talk to your dependable Dodge truck dealer. About his liberal new finance plan. See how little it will cost to put a Dodge Job-Rated truck to work for you!

Colts Club To Victory In NBC

BORGER (Spl) — The Pampa Colts snapped back last night, taking a 6-1 win over Umbarger to stay in contention in the NBC State Tournament. In the other game last night, Silverton knocked Fritch out of contention, 14-4. Pampa will have to await the outcome of tonight's game between Amarillo Graham and Stinnett to determine tomorrow night's opponent, while Silverton will be sitting on the Borger-Spearman game.

The Colts sent ace Jerry Glover to the mound last night, and the big righthander responded by scattering seven hits, striking out six and walking only one for his fifth victory of the season. The Colts came out of their batting doldrums with a 10-hit assault on losing hurler Francis Backus and reliever Deron Howard.

Umbarger got the last run of the game on an error and Joe Albright's double in the sixth inning.

Football Stars Work Passing

CHICAGO (UPI)—The College All-Star football team should find out today whether one of coach Otto Graham's major concerns, pass protection, has been solved.

The All Stars will meet the Chicago Bears in the annual scrimmage at the Bears' training camp at Rensselaer, Ind., in an effort to teach the collegians how hard the pros hit and what type of competition they might meet in the "real" thing.

The All Stars will play the Green Bay Packers in the annual pro-collegian scrap in Soldier Field on Aug. 2, seeking to break a four game losing streak for the amateurs. The Packers won last year, 42-20, and the pros have won 19 and the collegians eight of the 29 previous games.

Graham's warriors will match the pros in size this year.

Graham said he had no trouble getting his four passers, Ron VanderKelen, Terry Baker, Glenn Griffing and Sonny Gibbs, to drop back and throw. But it was difficult to give them time to find a receiver.

"I think we have the size to do it," Graham said, "but it's a matter of learning how. They've never done it, so they had to learn."

Youth Baseball

B&B shut out Ruff, 10-0, Organ & Son edged Thompson Parts, 2-1, and Hardin & Roth beat Rad-cliff Supply, 5-1, in last night's Optimist Youth Baseball.

B&B finished second in the Northern League with a 5-6 record as Jim Hollis hurled a two-hitter, walking none and striking out nine of 12 men to face him. Johnny Epperson took the loss, with Harry Grace in relief. Mickey Ebenkamp led the hitting with 3-for-4.

Lewis Bentley took the Organ win, pitching no-hit ball for the first six frames of the seven-inning tilt. Larry Knutson had a six-hitter in defeat.

H&R made their record 9-3 as Danny Harris gave up three hits and struck out 12. Kirk Kelley took the loss. R. Gee and C. Jackson each had two hits.

Ken Noddings Frontier Days Rodeo Scorer

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UPI)—Cowboy Ken Noddings of Powell, Wyo., turning in a sizzling performance in the bulldogging event on the second day of Cheyenne's Frontier Days Rodeo, picked up $1,001 in prize money Wednesday.

Winner of the first go-round, Noddings was trailed by Dick Stull of Potter, Neb. who won $539.

Noddings' time in the bulldogging event was 8.8 seconds, nine-tenths of a second faster than the opening day performance by Dan Brooks of Tulsa, Tex.

Joe Snively of Pawhuska, Okla., picked up $1,001 at the end of the first go-round in the steer roping competition. Troy Fort of Lovington, N.M. was second with $328.

The two events were the only ones in which the first go-round was completed Wednesday. More than 400 cowboys are competing for a total purse of $77,000.

Snively, roping in a morning session, tied his steer in 17.8 seconds to best Tuesday's time of 20 seconds flat by Don McLaughlin of Fort Collins, Colo.

In other events, opening day leaders held their ground in an arena made sloppy by a heavy rain just as the show began.

In calf roping, Corky Warren of Fort Collins, Colo., turned in Wednesday's best time, 19.1, which tied him for second place with Jack Burkholder of San Antonio, Tex. The lead still was in the hands of Marvin Cantrell of Brownwood, Tex., at 16.2.

Dodgers Back In 1963 Setup-But With Koufax

By FRED DOWN
 UPI Sports Writer

What a difference a year makes!

Just one year ago today the Los Angeles Dodgers were rolling out in front of the National League pennant race just as they are now with a seven-game lead. The pennant was being conceded to them because no one realized that Sandy Koufax was out for the remainder of the season and Don Drysdale would soon begin to feel the effects of his absence.

Today the picture appears the same — but actually it's vastly different.

The Dodgers are out in front seven games, all right, but this time the two key men — Koufax and Drysdale — are gaining momentum rather than losing it. Koufax stands 16-3 with nine straight victories and Drysdale, rather than beginning to lose strength, appears to be gaining.

The 6-foot, 6-inch, 230-pound sidewheeler, feared by all National League hitters, gained his 13th victory of the season Wednesday night with a five-hit, 5-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. He is the first pitcher in the major leagues to reach 200 innings pitched for the season and he says, "I'm stronger at this point of the season than I've ever been."

A Winning Trio
 Koufax, Drysdale and Johnny Podres (10-6) have scored 39 victories among them and with 63 games left to play in the season shape up as one of those rare pitching triumvirates that can total 60 or more victories in a campaign.

Drysdale struck out eight and walked only one in cruising to his 13th win behind a seven-hit attack that included two hits each by Jim Gilliam and Johnny Roseboro. Earl Francis, tagged for the five runs in 4 2-3 innings, suffered his fifth defeat against three wins.

The San Francisco Giants shaded the New York Mets, 4-3, the Milwaukee Braves downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-1, the Chicago Cubs edged the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, in and the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Houston Colts, 5-3, in other NL action.

Blanchard Will Quit If Traded

By MILTON RICHMAN
 UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Impulsive Johnny Blanchard says he might quit right on the spot if the Yankees ever deal him.

"Even the thought of leaving this club makes me positively nauseous," he says straight out. "A lot of players say they'd quit; few do. Blanchard might. He's impetuous and unpredictable enough to do it."

Right now though, he doesn't have to worry about that eventually because he happens to be the hottest hitter on the club.

He has ripped four home runs in the last three games and his four runs batted in against the Angels Wednesday paced the Yankees to their sixth straight victory.

Creates Nice Problem

Blanchard's heavy hitting since he came off the bench on July 7 will create a problem for manager Ralph Houk Friday. That's when Roger Maris is due back in right field and what will he do with Blanchard?

"I'll make that decision when I come to it," Houk says. "If Blanchard stays this hot I'll find a place for him somewhere."

Blanchard's days with the Yankees appeared to be numbered around the June 15 trading deadline. Somehow he wasn't dealt off, chiefly because the Yanks couldn't get much value for him.

So he was shunted farther down the bench and almost forgotten until Maris was forced to the sidelines with an injury. Then Johnny got what could have been his last chance and he has been pasting the ball at a .328 clip since.

CICADA FAVORED
 STANTON, Del. (UPI)—Cicada, the greatest money-winning filly in Thoroughbred history, has been listed as an early 2-1 favorite for the mile and one-quarter Delaware Handicap on Saturday. Cicada will carry top weight of 128 pounds in the $165,000 stakes.

Plague on Both?

Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz is a member of the six-man panel the President has set to re-study the railroad quarrel. Presumably he is close to the situation, and so there is little excuse for his utterance that there has been a "failure of responsibility" on both sides.

Two earlier Presidential boards studied the dispute between the railroads and the unions over work rules, and the railroads accepted both reports in turn as a basis for action. The unions rejected both.

The boards found merit in the railroads' plea that obsolete work rules and featherbedding were making operations difficult and expensive. They also proposed extensive severance pay and re-training programs for displaced workers. Philosophically, the managements agreed to "take the bitter with the sweet."

That the nation now is faced with a rail strike is due to the unions' refusal to accept the recommendations of these public boards. Earlier, the boards were convened because the unions refused to make concessions in bargaining on work rules. It is true that the railroads and the unions had agreed on these work rules years ago, and some quarters are fond of pointing this out. But union contracts are not perpetual. They expire. Each new contract contains changes from previous ones, usually changes demanded by the unions.

But a tradition has grown up that unions must always win new concessions in each succeeding contract, while management must always yield. If a management once agrees that it needs men to trim wicks on kerosene lanterns, under such reasoning, it must continue to pay wick trimmers long after the lanterns have been replaced by electric torches.

If such practice prevailed throughout our economy, jobs would now be available for hundreds of thousands of blubber renderers, candle dippers, stage-coach drivers, vaudeville performers, street car motormen and ice wagon drivers.

But the economy couldn't stand it. Nor can the economy stand the waste of $600 million a year, paid by travelers and shippers to those whose services no longer contribute anything essential to transportation.

The railroads have shown themselves willing to let retirements and deaths bring about much of the needed reductions, and to ease the way for those who must be dismissed. The unions concede nothing. That, Mr. Wirtz, is the record.

Folly of Comparison

The art of comparison with one's neighbor is an ancient device. The Pharisee who insisted that he was not as bad as the publican standing in the corner is only one such example.

We've had a rash of such comparison morality in our country, with cities in various parts of the nation insisting that they're not as bad as cities in other sections. The truth is that such comparisons are illogical and illusory. They tend to excuse a social sin or deflect an honest judgment. To have indulged in a moral indiscretion is not to be justified because one's neighbor is involved in two indiscretions.

It really doesn't matter whether we're worse or better than some other section. What matters is simply that there must be some brave men trying to meet the problems, some heroic souls who are holding the forces of violence in leash, some magnificent minds that continue to be at work. Whatever the city or community, Pampa included, we require:

- More initiative in meeting local problems and less public apathy.
- More staying with the problem instead of running away from it.
- More statesmanship in political affairs and less petty, miserable backbiting.
- More realistic approaches and less make-do substitutes.

More leadership from responsible citizens.

More open discussion between individuals, and groups so that communication can exist within our own community.

More imaginative courage and less pathetic retreating in confusion.

Scripture is filled with instances of the folly of trying to indulge in such petty comparison: Jesus took hold of great moral absolutes such as "Thou shalt not kill" and "Thou shalt not steal." His listeners were feeling complacent and comfortable. None of them had murdered a neighbor or robbed his purse. This easy piety was punctured by the moral insight of a positive action.

This is no time for any city anywhere to boast it is better than another, or to condemn a city by saying that it is worse than another. What is needed is a kind of moral discipline that keeps us looking at ourselves with the quality of honesty that comes from a precise and heroic faith.

As Paul Scherer has written, "We proclaim a Gospel that didn't set out of a feather bed to yawn its way sleepily through the earth: It got down off crosses, came stalking up out of fire, with the smell of flames on it." If we must compare, let us compare ourselves to the best.

JFK Speech Would Repudiate Past

The moral and material decline of the United States is imminent, if we are to follow the foreign policy as outlined in an address before the graduating class of American University by President Kennedy, June 10. The course proposed by the President is one of abject capitulation to the wishes of the Soviet and a disgraceful repudiation of all the pious pledges which this and previous administrations have made to people in the captive nations. Mr. Kennedy, as the captive of his pro-Soviet counselors, would forever besmirch the reputation of the United States by condonation of the barbarisms, atrocities and deeds of aggression by which the Soviet over-lords trampled over the mangled bodies of millions to establish communist regimes in what may be regarded as their colonial possessions, particularly in Eastern and Central Europe. The voice heard by that audience on June 10, was Mr. Kennedy's, but the words and the policy outlined are part of the infamous, conciliating policy paper which was written by Walter W. Rostow.

In that flagrant attempt to brainwash an audience, the President said: "Let us re-examine our attitude toward the Soviet Union . . . we are both caught up in a vicious and dangerous cycle in which suspicion on one side breeds suspicion on the other and new weapons beget counter weapons." In those words we observe the influence of Prof. Rostow who has been voicing that theme in his writings for several years.

When Mr. Kennedy says we should "re-examine" our attitude toward the Soviet, he says, in effect, that our appraisal of the Soviet has been wrong. Apparently he and Rostow feel that we have been emotionally swayed by such errors of judgment on the part of the Soviet as the wanton slaughter of the 15,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest; we may still have in mind the deliberate liquidation of four million Ukrainians and the deportation of another two million; we should forget about the rape of Poland, Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania; it is indecent of us to keep referring to the barbarous butchers of the Hungarian freedom fighters in 1956 and the periodic killings of those who endeavor to escape from the fortress-prison of East Germany. All such reminders of the past, we may assume, have given us a wrong impression of the Soviet. So we must "re-examine our attitude."

"We must deal with the world as it is, not as it might have been, had the history of the last 18 years been different," said the President. We are asked to accept the status quo of enslaved nations, which was agreed to by Franklin Roosevelt at Teheran and Yalta and, presumably, excuse FDR from his deeds of perfidy. We cannot forget that when campaigning for the presidency, Mr. Kennedy said he would strive to follow the course in foreign affairs as taken by Roosevelt. That is a fear many of us had then and now.

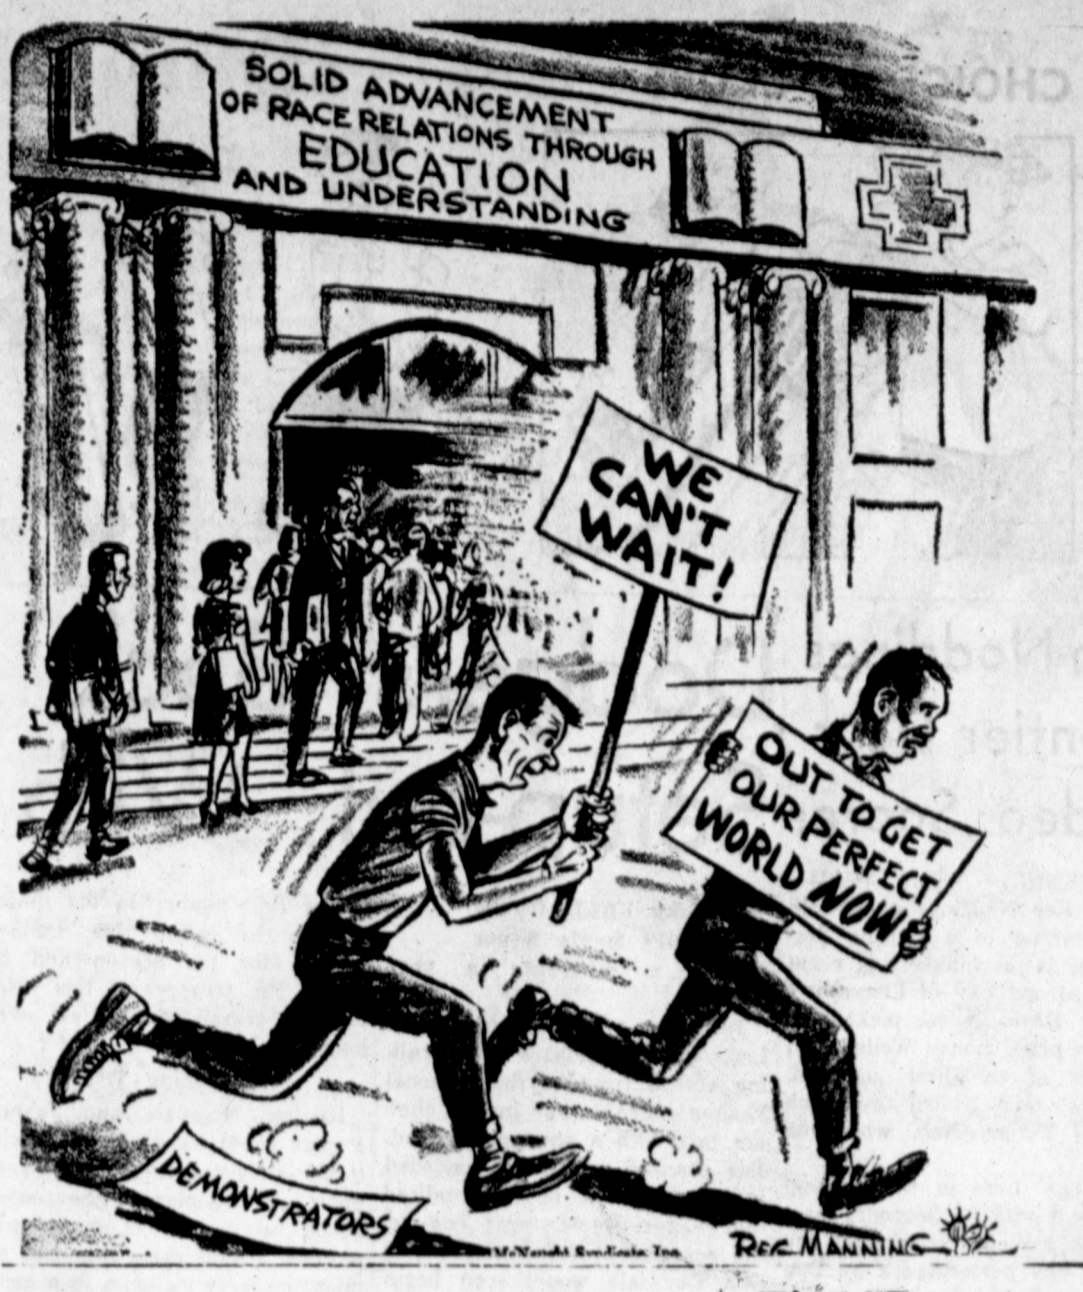

The President said we must "persevere in the hope for peace that constructive changes within the communist bloc might bring within reach, solutions that seem beyond us." Despite the 40-year record of Soviet and communist disregard for the basic tenets of freedom and their constant avowal to destroy the non-communist countries, Mr. Kennedy would have us believe that there may be a "mellowing" of Moscow's objectives. The word is lifted from Rostow's writings.

We were told by Mr. Kennedy that the United States and Russia "have never been at war with each other." If he means there has never been a formal declaration of war between the two countries, he is, technically, correct. But we have been in a cold war with the Soviet since 1945; the Berlin blockade of 1948-49 was tantamount to a declaration of war against us and our allies. And if the setting up of offensive weapons in Cuba, aimed only at the United States, is not evidence of war-like intentions, then what would it be called. It is time we reexamine our attitude toward those who see no evil in . . .

August 28 Civil Rights Rally Just the Beginning As Negro Leaders Plan to Send Wave after Wave of Demonstrators'

WASHINGTON — Congressional leaders are bracing themselves for not only one, but a succession of civil rights marches on Washington. They have been warned by Capital police authorities in contact with Negro leaders organizing the August 28 descent that this mammoth rally is just the beginning.

In September and October, Negro leaders propose to send "wave after wave of demonstrators" into Washington if the House of Representatives hasn't acted on the President's civil rights program, or a filibuster has developed in the Senate.

This backstage strategy calls for pouring demonstrators into the Capitol at the rate of 1,000 a day in an effort to exert maximum pressure for the enactment of civil rights legislation.

In contrast to next month's rally, when 100,000 marchers will presumably demonstrate for only one day, the succeeding waves of demonstrators will remain in Washington until Congress disposes of civil rights.

Washington police authorities, in private conferences with congressional leaders, are saving frankly that this steady massing of demonstrators could create a far more explosive situation than the giant August 28 rally.

In an avowed move to a void violence and to keep next month's demonstration orderly and peaceful, eight Negro groups organizing this rally are working with local police officials.

As an example, they have advised police that an estimated 1,000 New York Negro policemen will take part in the march and assist in controlling it.

The New York policemen will do this on their "own time," that is, they will come to Washington "on leave" and not in uniform. They will act as "marshals," and will assist in organizing the demonstrators into groups of fifty at various rally headquarters. From these areas, the "marshals" will lead the demonstrators in the huge parade to the Lincoln Memorial for a round of speeches and other activities.

President Kennedy, who has given the rally his official blessing, will probably talk briefly.

He has been invited, and while not committing himself, indicated acceptance. His brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy, definitely will speak as will other administration and congressional leaders.

recording of threats by him to kill "several persons" during the rally.

Although Speaker John McCormack, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Vice President Lyndon Johnson have not made their decision public, they definitely have ruled against permitting demonstrators on the Capitol grounds. Under an old law, such demonstrations are barred unless expressly authorized by the Speaker and the Vice President.

Still under discussion is how to handle marchers who come to the Capitol in groups to "call" on senators and representatives.

One proposal is to allow such demonstrators to visit legislators in their offices in groups of less than 100 if they are orderly and not carrying signs. No sit-ins will be permitted. If attempted, they will be forcefully removed.

Access to the Senate and House galleries will be under tight supervision by Capitol police. Only persons with special permits will be allowed in the chambers.

Leaders of the sponsoring Negro organizations are a meeting in Washington early in August to complete plans for the rally and to designate various officials. At that time, an estimated $1 million raised for the demonstration will be divided among the participating organizations to pay expenses.

INSIDE THE DEMONSTRATIONS — Speaker John McCormack has told President Kennedy his civil rights program will pass the House by a decisive vote. McCormack reported the House will ballot on the legislation "sometime in September." When the Senate will reach a vote is a anyone's guess. Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert Humphrey, Minn., is passing the word that a Senate filibuster may be avoided, but he isn't saying how or why. Communist East Germany has had an American Negro agitation training center in the Saxony industrial city of Bautzen for several years. The center, masked as an "Institute for the Advancement of the Negro Race," was set up for the express purpose of "transforming the racial unrest in the U.S. into violence." Intelligence reports that Communists are training African agitators who then return to their homes to "await infiltration into U.S. Negro population centers." The trainees are brought to East Germany on "scholarships." They include Guineans, Ghanaians, Congolese, Liberians and Togolese. An estimated 12 U.S. Negroes are now at the center. Gerhard Giesler, one-time leading Communist in the U.S., reportedly set up this Negro training center.

THE DANGERS — To prepare for any eventuality, the Washington police force of 2,900 will be reinforced with hundreds of U.S. marshals, FBI agents and Secret Servicemen.

Also, some 5,000 Marines, trained in riot control, will be on 24-hour alert at the nearby Quantico, Va. base. Should disorder erupt, the demonstrators attempt to march on the Capitol, these combat troops would be rushed by truck to the city.

Federal agents already have one Black Muslim leader under close surveillance after obtaining a tape

Lager Beer

Key to the expression "lager beer" is that the German word "lager" means "storehouse" and the beer was so named because barrels of lager beer were placed in a storehouse to age.

IN REPLY

I Am Willing to Do Without

By GEORGE BOARDMAN, Ph. D.

For one reason or another, correspondents seem to take a delight in asking questions they believe I will not be able to answer unless I turn my back on the principle in which I believe. I don't mind the questions because my dislike for socialism covers every aspect of fraud.

"You say you disapprove of socialism but your book must be copyrighted to protect your authorship and the copyright must be obtained from government. How about that?"

My correspondent presumes too much. I wrote the equivalent of a book IN FREEDOM but no one else read it before I destroyed the manuscript and it was never submitted to a publisher.

I have been told that no publisher will accept a book for publication without applying for a copyright from government. On the other hand, if a book were to be privately published, I believe this could be accomplished without calling upon government for protection. If I were to go about the business of publishing a book in this manner, I would deposit a copy in a safe place after having it witnessed by an attorney and several witnesses. Please note that I would not have it notarized in the accepted sense of the word, since a notary is a government appointee.

The procedure I have outlined would establish authorship and date the publication of the book, a copy of which would be filed with the copy of the manuscript. I believe a notice of the circumstances surrounding the authorship and witnessing of the MSS would provide a sufficient proof of ownership and cause anyone to think twice before they attempted to steal it.

About this time my correspondent will tell me that if the book is stolen I will have to go to a government-owned and controlled court to seek a remedy. I have only a faint hope that anyone will understand my reasons for hoping to see private enterprise courts developed to handle civil cases. Since I could not look for a remedy of this kind for many years, if any, I can only say that I would not go to government courts to seek a remedy after refusing to depend upon a government copyright for protection of my property. I can only say that I believe I have the absolute right to defend and protect my life and my property and that I would take such steps as I deemed necessary, wise and not in violation of the principles of the philosophy of freedom, in order to try to find a solution to the problem. The steps I might take would depend upon the circumstances and the people involved.

As far as the subject of copyrighting is concerned, I see no good reason why private enterprise concerns could not provide protection for subscribing authors and even provide a type of insurance against theft of anything which presently may be considered as material suitable for copyright.

And, this is a good time to remind readers of this column that I would not force these ideas upon others by law or otherwise but that after long and considered contemplation of this subject, I would be happy to settle for this kind of a plan, as of tomorrow. Yes, J. C. I would like to see patents handled in a similar manner.

At this time, I'd like to state my case again, for late comers. I can think of no government service which could not be provided by private industry more efficiently and at lower cost. So-called services which are simply political devices which serve to increase the size and cost and power of government would, obviously, be eliminated. Under no circumstances would I be inclined to favor laws which would force my ideas upon you.

Good luck and good health to you, in freedom.

The Doctor Says:

This Summer You Must Be Aware of Insects' Power

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

Insects are here to stay. But sometimes their stings may cause annoyance, severe illness and sometimes death.

It is wise to take precautions when in the vicinity of these creatures. If, for example, you are gardening in an area where bees are abundant you should wear white smooth clothing rather than dark rough materials.

This will make you less likely to attract or distract the bees. In such areas women should not apply perfume or other cosmetics in the daytime as this will fool the bees into mistaking them for flowers.

Although the bumblebee has a smooth stinger and can sting you repeatedly, the ordinary worker of the honey bee tribe has a barbed stinger. When he stings you the stinger is torn from his body when he departs.

This is a suicidal maneuver for him but it results in protecting others of his kind. He will not commit hari kari, however, unless he is sorely provoked.

If he approaches you don't wave your arms or try to brush him away. He finds such behavior most unacceptable. Just walk a way slowly.

If he lights on you use a little self control. Pretend to ignore him and in a minute or two (it may seem much longer) he will recognize his mistake and go away. If he stings you, carefully remove the stinger with tweezers and apply ammonia water, strong laundry soap, or a paste made of baking soda and water. You can then apply an icepack to lessen the pain and delay absorption of the venom.

An antihistaminic ointment will also relieve the pain. If none is handy, calamine lotion, although not as effective, may help. Since bee venom has both an acid and an alkaline component, vinegar may be used instead of baking soda but it would be no good to use both at once.

Beekeepers who are stung many times often develop an immunity to bee venom, but with some persons a single sting sets up an allergic response. If the victim is stung again, he may have a serious or even fatal reaction. When such an allergy is known to exist, desensitization by a physician who has some knowledge of allergy should be accomplished.

By improved methods a susceptible person can be immunized in one visit early in the spring and be protected for the entire summer. As an added protection anyone who is hypersensitive to bee venom should also carry an emergency kit containing tweezers, isoproterenol (Isuprel) tablets, an epinephrine solution in a disposable syringe (Ampin), a tourniquet, and an antiseptic cloth. If stung he should call a doctor immediately.

The other serious danger occurs when a person, usually a child, gets stung by 400 or more angry bees at one time. It is estimated that more deaths occur every year from hypersensitivity to bees or multiple stings than from bites of poisonous snakes in the United States.

For wasp stings vinegar is better than baking soda and an antihistaminic ointment is better yet,

Peace Corps: More Trouble In Capital Than Abroad

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Planned enlargement of the U.S. Peace Corps from 7,000 to 13,000 volunteers overseas in the next year is probably going to be approved by Congress eventually.

But right now, the New Frontier's most successful two-year-old experiment is having more troubles in Washington than abroad.

If President Kennedy's request for an increase in the Peace Corps budget from $59 million last year to $108 million this year had gone to Congress as a separate bill, it would have sailed through with almost no opposition.

But the Peace Corps appropriation is part seven of the eight-part foreign aid bill which Congress wants to cut by $300 million to $400 million.

Psychologically, congressmen find it inconsistent to cut the other seven items, then turn around and give the Peace Corps more funds.

The Peace Corps also has become confused in some people's minds with the proposal to create a Youth Conservation Corps, a National Service Corps which has been described as a domestic Peace Corps, and the Home Town Service Corps.

The three are parts of Kennedy's youth employment program, which has run into considerable congressional opposition.

The real Peace Corps suffers by association with these new proposals, although they're in no way related.

Finally, the U.S. Peace Corps has taken a beating in Washington because it has been accused of promoting an International Peace Corps. They're two different things.

Richard N. Goodwin, former White House and State Department Latin American adviser, has been assigned to head up an International Peace Corps secretary.

This unit rents space in the Peace Corps building in Washington. But its job is to pass along information about the U.S. Peace Corps to other countries which may be interested in setting up similar organizations of their own.

Thirteen countries expressed such interest at a Puerto Rico conference earlier this year. Seven European countries already have organized Peace Corps. And Israel Peace Corpsmen will take over a road-building program in Tanganyika where 35 young American civil engineers have completed two years' service.

Sargent Shriver Jr., U.S. Peace Corps director, says the United States can't begin to fill the worldwide demand for this type of technical assistance.

Shriver estimates the total at $6,000.

There just aren't that many young Americans volunteering to serve.

The Peace Corps now has a file of 3,000 applications. Examinations for corpsmen will be held in 800 U.S. post offices Saturday.

These exams were not just for youngsters out of college, but for older volunteers, too, for there is a demand for hundreds of senior corpsmen—older people with more experience.

So rigid are Peace Corps requirements, however, that only one out of every six applicants is accepted for training. The Peace Corps will fill only 6,000 new jobs next year.

The corps' largest project took 500 U.S. teachers to the Philippine Islands, each to upgrade the work of 20 native teachers. In training are 150 more U.S. corpsmen for the Philippines, but the government wants 600.

In 1908, French aviator Louis Blériot flew from Calais to Dover, the first visitor to England who did not go by water.

In 1943, Italy's King Victor Emanuel dismissed Benito Mussolini as head of the Italian government.

In 1956, two liners the Andrea Doris and the Stockholm, collided near Nantucket. Fifty persons died.

Governors Urge School Prayers Be Made Legal

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—The nation's governors urged Congress yesterday to legalize "free and voluntary" prayer in public schools—a stand it took last year.

The vote was unanimous, but only 27 governors were present when Gov. John H. Reed, R-Maine, offered the resolution. It was approved after the governors suspended their rules to make it possible.

The action came as the governors neared adjournment of their annual conference and readied themselves for a final partisan squabble over public welfare.

"The recent decision by the Supreme Court makes it more imperative that we as governors reaffirm our position relative to prayer," Reed said.

Minority Report Due

The GOP members, beaten repeatedly in efforts to force the conference into making a formal declaration on civil rights, drafted a minority report on public health and welfare taking issue with one key Kennedy administration proposal.

But the last contest was strictly an "aftershow" in the wake of the partisan civil rights contest, which wound up with both sides shouting victory claims.

Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, told newsmen there would be at least some "language" on civil rights which could draw floor fire.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller started the last day off with a civil defense report. It was the New Yorker who led the outnumbered Republicans in the civil rights battle, on which he claimed victory.

High State Court Leaves School Case up to U. S.

AUSTIN (UPI)—The state Supreme Court ruled yesterday the Georgetown school district integration question will be decided by federal action and removed itself from jurisdiction.

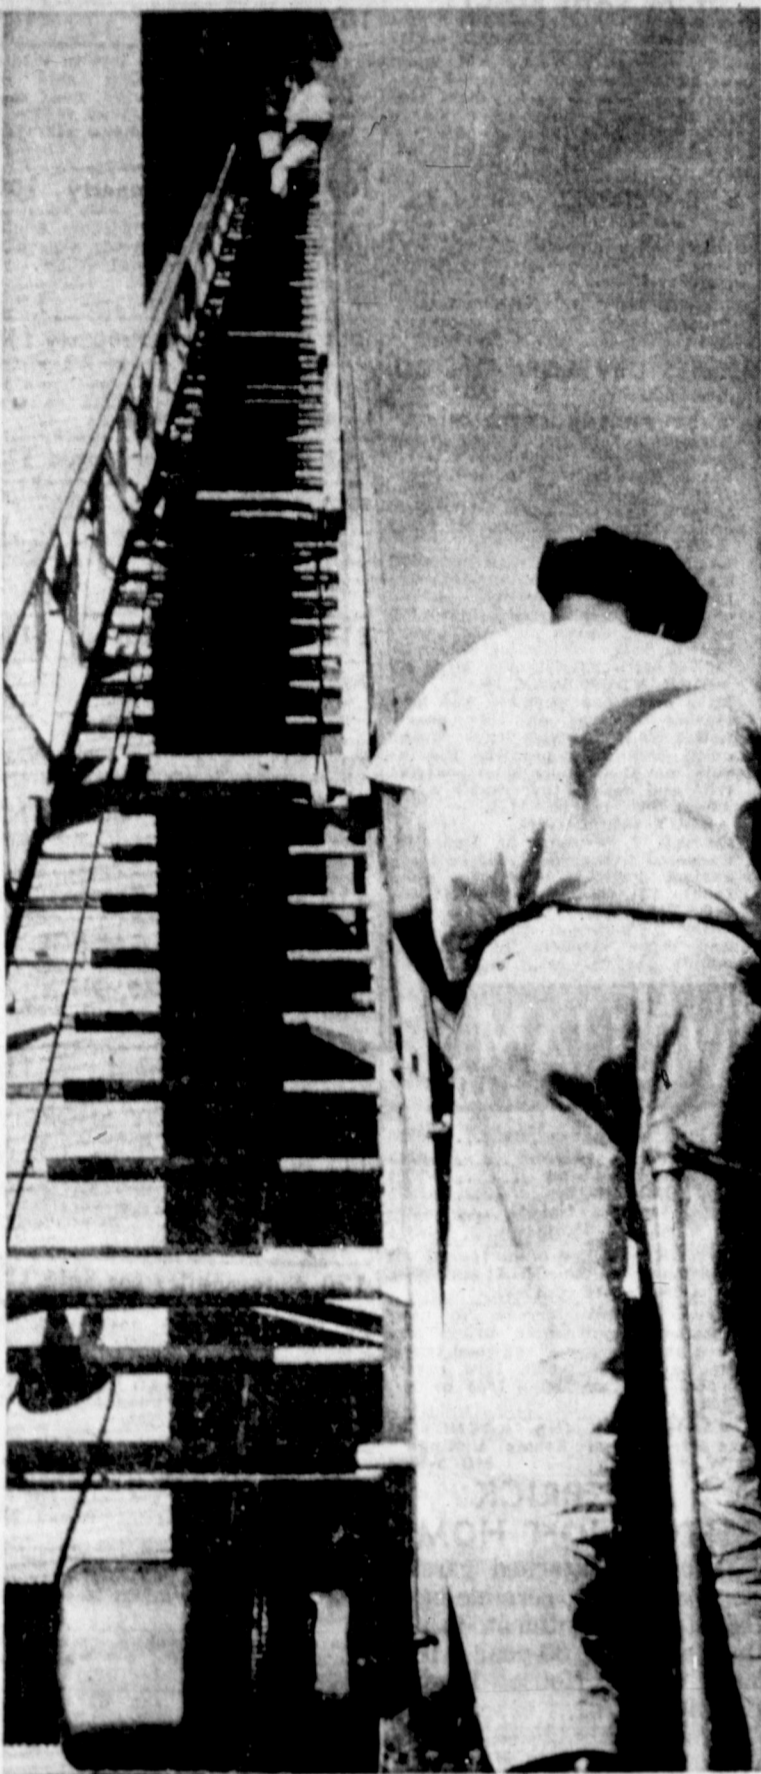

The court said the question in Texas courts has become "moot" since federal district court ruled last month the Georgetown district must begin integrating its schools.

A group of Georgetown citizens initiated the action in state courts last year, seeking to enjoin the district from building more segregated schools.

Trial court upheld the board, but the Third Court of Civil Appeals prohibited the district from spending any more funds for segregated buildings.

The district had appealed the case to the state Supreme Court.

Federal Dist. Judge Ben H. Rice ruled in June that Georgetown must integrate and issued an order approving a one-grade per

Connally Asks Study Made of Interest Conflict

AUSTIN (UPI)—Gov. John Connally yesterday asked the Texas Legislative Council to make a "comprehensive" study of the state's conflict of interest law for state officials and legislators.

Council acting director John Potter read a letter from Connally making the request at the organizational meeting of the new interim study group today.

Connally said the request came after Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr investigated personal dealings of former Railroad Commissioner William J. Murray Jr.

Murray resigned from the commission after published reports he grossed $285,000 on a West Texas oil deal. Carr's study revealed Murray grossed over $1.7 million during 16 years on the commission from oil investments.

After Murray's resignation, three House members tried to push through a tighter conflict of interest bill to revise the 1957 code of ethics law. It passed the House, but died in the Senate.

The council, composed of 10 representatives and five senators, named three standing committees at yesterday's meeting. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is council chairman, Speaker Byron Tunnell is vice chairman.

The "Fugio" cent of 1787, made from dies by Abel Buel, of New Haven, was the first authorized coin in the U. S.

High Rate Would Halt Flow of News to Public

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Communications Commission FCC is being urged by several leading press spokesmen to exempt the press from rate increases recently announced by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and Western Union.

In prepared statements, the spokesmen said an increase in the cost of private lines telegraph and telephoto service would cause a serious reduction in the flow of news to the public.

They issued their remarks on the date which FCC examiner Forest L. McClenning had set as the deadline for all interested parties to submit statements in an investigation of press rates. Public hearings were scheduled for Sept. 9.

The FCC on May 30 prescribed cost increases for private line services and authorized higher telephoto rates for all users, except the press, as of Aug. 1.

Ordes Separate Injury

The FCC ordered a separate investigation to determine what affect similar rate increases would have on the distribution of news.

In New York Monday, a spokesman for the AT&T said the firm was in the process of determining which publications were exempt from the Aug. 1 increase in leased line rates.

The spokesman said AT&T already had compiled "quite a list" of publications which it feels do not qualify for the exemption temporarily granted the press by the FCC.

The spokesman said all customers who will have to pay the higher rate were being notified.

The 17 organizations which asked to participate in the case on behalf of the press and broadcasters were:

American Newspaper Publishers Association; National Association of Broadcasters; United Press International; Associated Press; New York Herald Tribune; North American Newspaper Alliance; Scripps-Howard Newspapers; Field Enterprises; Gannett News Service; Hearst Corp.; Hearst Consolidated Publications; Hearst Publishing Co.; Advance News Service (Newhouse); United Feature Syndicate; Copley Press; Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate; and Washington Post-Times Mirror Co.

Issues Statement

Harry Flory, general manager of communications for UPI, said in a statement that it currently costs UPI approximately $4,614,984 a year for private line services. He said the proposed AT&T and Western Union rate increases would cost UPI another $628,572 annually, a jump of 13.6 per cent.

Flory said that if the proposed rates were applied to press customers "the most obvious step

Milk Producers To Get Popped Marketing Change

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture will submit to North Texas milk producers a proposed marketing order change that would eliminate a seasonal pricing plan used in subsidizing production.

Under the current plan, a producer is assigned a base production level reflecting production during the slack season. He is then paid a base price for all milk sold up to that level, and gets a lower price for all milk sold in excess of that level.

The proposed amendment would substitute a single uniform price each month throughout the year for the seasonal plan.

Valley's Cotton Crop Takes Drop

MERCEDES (UPI)—The Rio Grande Valley cotton harvest has fallen more than 75,000 bales behind last year's pace, according to the Valley area farm bureau.

Total ginnings for the season was 23,486 bales as of Monday. Just over 17,000 bales were ginned last week.

Farm experts said the pace of harvesting will probably begin to pick up because machine harvesting is just now beginning in force. The total 1963 Valley crop has been estimated at 350,000 to 400,000 bales.

It's The Law In Texas

TRIBAL LAW

American Indians are the only 100 per cent native Americans. Indian matters come under Federal law and the terms of some 3,900 Indian treaties which are also the law of the land.

Thus long ago Rev. Samuel Worcester, preaching to the Cherokee plan starting September of 1964.

A group of Negroes filed notice of appeal to Rice's order, contending the 13-year plan was too long.

kees, refused to take out a license, and to swear allegiance to State of Georgia. When Georgia jailed him for not taking a loyalty oath, the U.S. Supreme Court freed him: The Court would allow no state to interfere in United States Indian affairs which our treaties governed.

In 1834 Congress set up the Bureau of Indian Affairs to make and carry out rules made under these treaties.

Until the Civil War, the Federal government regarded Indians as wards and dependent nations — foreign nations, yet under U.S. control. In 1871, however, Congress declared that Indian nations were no longer independent. Indians still ran their own affairs for the most part, as illustrated in a case titled In Re Crow Dog.

In 1883 Crow Dog killed another Sioux for stealing a friend's wife. Crow Dog made amends under tribal law, and the tribe closed his case. Soon afterwards federal officers sought to try him for murder, but the Supreme Court said no: Such cases did come under tribal law and this one had been settled.

Shortly afterward Congress gave Federal courts jurisdiction over most criminal cases on Indian territories. Accordingly, just the other day, the U.S. Supreme Court invalidated the conviction of a California Indian for murder. He must face trial in a Federal court instead.

Indian tribal courts still try some criminal cases; and within the tribes, tribal law still holds. For example, they can tax and license traders on reservations.

Recently, a tribal adoption ceremony was confirmed even though it took place off the reservation. In another case the Federal courts recognized a tribal divorce by mere voluntary separation.
