Lusty Scents for Men Ring Up Rugged Cents

NEW YORK (NEA) - Trying to sell to men a product long identified with women's boudoirs is the giant task that the perfume neople have taken upon themselves.

Judging by sa'es figures, the trumpeters of good grooming have been equal to the ich. Recent increases in the pooularity of men's toiletries have resulted in a $355 million-peryear industry. And a poll of college men by Playboy magazine showed that 87 per cent use after-shave lotion and more than half of the studen's used cologne. (A large percentage of men's toiletries are purchased as gifts by women.)

Time was, perhaps, if you asked a man what cologne he used you would get a sock in the jaw as an answer. But now, the image makers have made perfume sound as rugged as an Indianapolis racer. For instance, advertisements for one cologne describe the product as "a lusty tang of lemon, tabac and amber." Sounds like the most virile thing since Tarzan's toga, doesn't it?

And another company evokes thoughts of bloodcurdling manhood with its spray lotion (which comes in a redwood gift box). There we have lumberjacks, fox hunters and the Light Brigade rolled into

When talking of its lotions, one company asks that you "think of the Scottish Highlander regiments and you are sure to call to mind men as distinguished for their splendid appearance and gallantry as for their physical prowess." They also cite "a subtly permeating leatherand - tobacco aroma undertoned with deep woody tones.'

And another after-shave and by Mrs. Clyde Batson, Mrs. cologne must call to mind a tall Scotch and warm fire. Orval Batson, Mrs. Bonnie Anyone for a duel to the Hutchinson, and Mrs. E. H.

Dear Thoughtful: Yes, it is good to select a person whose accomplishments set a standard we would like to attain. I was an Amelia Earhart fan myself. But, it wasn't her tousled hairdo or the way she wore her flight trousers that intrigued me. It was her advertursome spirit which highlighted contributions women could make to the future.

But, you don't have to be a physical carbon copy of the individual you admire. What the person looks like has little to do in the end with what she is -and this is what you unconsciously reach for.

DEAR POLLY - My 5vear-old never liked to take medicine when he was sick (Polly's note: Who does?) so I made a clock of cardboard

When the hands on the two clocks were on the same spot, he knew it was time to call me. Medicine is now taken quite willingly since we make W.F.C. a game of it.

DEAR POLLY - I have had the bad habit of nail biting and used bright polish, nail strengtheners, etc., all to no avail. Finally I found a solution. PUTTLING RELIGION NTO POLITICS

Text: Isa. 1:10-17.

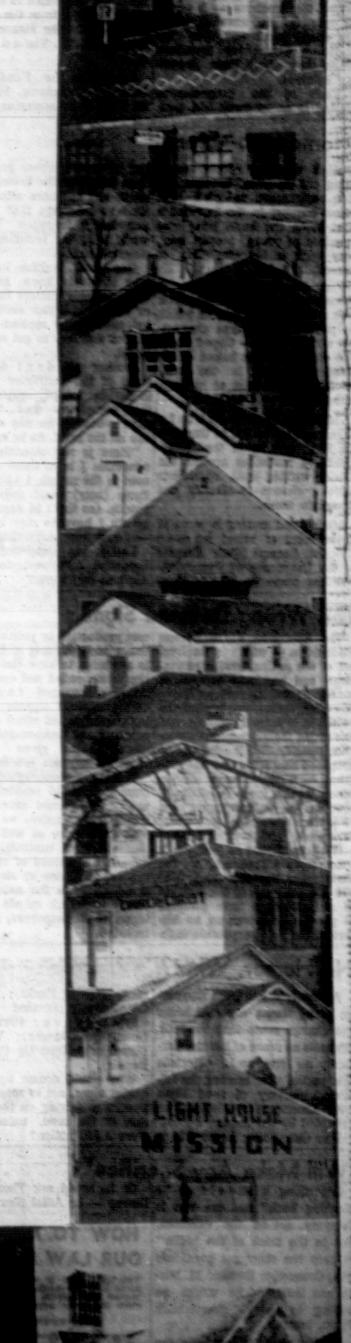

I. The prophets were good citizens. They had much to say about politics. They knew that the welfare of the Church was wrapped up in the welfare of the government. We live in a better day, having more light on the questions of life and duty. It may be that the evils of life today are as bad as they were in olden time; but it is doubtless true that there is more emphasis laid upon good and duty than in former times.

If. But we know that the forms of religion are worthless without the spirit, both then and now. One reason that these are better than former times is that the people now are beginning to see their righteousness is the same, but it is a louder call than formerly. The call of Isaiah is the call for the present time: "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgement, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatheriess, plead for the widow."

III. It will be well if all the social and civic duties taught by the prophets shall be studied again by modern teachers. If there was need for righteousness then, there is ,if possible, greater need for it now. The Church will never fill its highest mission until its influence shall permeate society, and influence

IV. The sin and purpose of democracy has been defined as "The diffusion of happiness, through the development of character, by a process of gradual growth, the secret of which is the indwelling of God in humanity, the end of which is the brotherhood of man."

V. There are only two kinds of government in the world; One where the individual is the subject; and the other where the individual is the citizen, this second kind of government is increasing, and the first kind is losing. The citizen idea shall be victorious, and the subject shall fail.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The latest indictment of cigarette smoking is that it interferes with the mental processes of high school students. A survey of the grades of 30,000 students reveals intellectual faculties were impaired, directly or indirectly. The survey further showed that smokers tend to take easy courses and get low marks. The abstainers average B grades. No one thought of polling the cigar and pipe smokpens to them.

Loss of America Dollars to Hurt Panama Economy

PANAMA CITY (UPI) - The departure for home of hundreds of dollar-spending Americans may prove a blow to Panama's economy, observers here said.

The U.S. Air Force already has flown more than 1,200 relatives of American servicemen in the Canal Zone back to the United States, and an undetermined number of others are under orders to leave.

Reliable sources say many of about 300 U.S. diplomats and other government employes forced out of Panama by last week's diplomatic break will be sent home soon for reassign-

Contact between the zone and Panama proper has been virtually cut off since anti-American violence erupted in Panamanian communities near the canal. Panamanians are complaining already about "very bad" business.

Hotels in Panama cities are reported cutting back slightly on employes' working hours because of the loss of U.S. trade.

beer and other products from Panama were totally suspended for about a week, and they are still only a fraction of normal, mainly because U.S. food inspectors do not yet consider it safe to return to Panama.

In 1962, the latest year for which figures are available, U.S. official and private agencies spent more than $28 million in Panama,
