

THOUSANDS GO BACK TO OMAHA BEACH

Gold, Juno and Sword— the Names Come Back

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
OMAHA BEACH, France (UPI) — American generals and GI Joes of World War II today streamed back to the scene of the Allied D-Day landing for ceremonies which French President Charles de Gaulle has chosen to skip. By plane, train, bus and car an estimated 5,000 Americans and several thousands of their wartime British and Canadian comrades - in - arms converged on the Normandy beaches to mark the 20th anniversary of one of history's largest military operations — the invasion of June 6, 1944. Ceremonies begin tonight on the British and Canadian landing beaches known 20 years ago by the code names of Gold, Juno and Sword.

They continue through Saturday at Omaha and Utah beaches and the village of Ste. Mere-Eglise, where Americans fought and died for the liberation of Europe from Nazi Germany. The observance ends Sunday at the U.S. Cemetery outside Paris. De Gaulle, who was left out of the invasion planning by his Allies, did not plan to attend. He delegated Raymond Triboulet, cooperation minister, and Jean Sainteny, war veterans minister, in his place. The French government said it would not be appropriate for De Gaulle to be present when no other head of state or government was coming to the ceremonies. This position was attacked by some sectors of the French press as an unnecessary snub showing a lack of respect for the American, British and Canadian contribution to France's liberation. For the United States, President Johnson sent an official delegation headed by General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, with a message to be read at Omaha Beach cemetery Saturday. Ike Isn't Going Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of the Allied invasion force, was not planning to attend. Neither was former British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, who commanded Allied ground forces. British, Canadian, Belgian, The Netherlands and Norwegian government delegations were also taking part. Veterans arriving at Omaha and the other invasion beaches found a changed scene from the one they knew 20 years ago. Where they remembered the din of battle they found peaceful French shores. The rusted guns, the burned-out trucks and tanks, the barbed-wire and the concrete fortifications on which thousands of their buddies gave their lives 20 years ago have long since disappeared. But the memorials and tens of thousands of glistening white crosses in war cemeteries that dot Normandy reminded them that this is hallowed countryside.

PLUMB NUTS — Shown above are Pampa businessmen John Wortman, riding, and Bob Mauders, pushing, a tricycle through downtown Pampa. The stunt is to advertise "Crazy Day" to be held tomorrow in Pampa. Stores, employees, merchandise and prices are to carry the "Crazy Day" theme. In keeping with the spirit merchants of the Coronado Center will give away a hunting and fishing car, "the 1975 Coronado Special." Shown sitting on the car are Chuck Herfkens, left, and Bill Jones. Standing are Lou Troja, left, and Bill McComas. The promotion has been very popular with Pampa shoppers in past years. Stores will be open in observance of Crazy Day from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Strike Tension Eases at Plants In Three States

Steel Workers Agree to Use Only 'Token' Picket Lines

By United Press International
Tense labor situations were relaxed today at strike-affected industrial plants in three states. Striking steel workers at West Allis, Wis., agreed today to post only a token picket line at the Pressed Steel Tank Co., where 30 persons were arrested during four days of violence. Milling lines of pickets unsuccessfully tried to fight off another "flying wedge" of policemen at the plant Thursday. The police have been used to escort non-union students into the strike-bound plant. Two more arrests were made Thursday and a picketing union man was injured. Among the arrested was a Marquette University student newly hired at the plant who was nabbed when police found him carrying two boards with bared nails. A union spokesman said the decision to limit the picket line to 19 men was taken to create a "better atmosphere" for negotiation with the firm. The action is in no way a "concession," the spokesman said. During the week, up to 170 pickets had massed at the plant gates in attempts to stand off the charges of 50 policemen. National Guardsmen and state police ensured the peace at Hillsdale, Mich., where the International Union of Electrical Workers has been on strike against the Essex Wire Corp. plant in a bid for a contract. But Michigan Gov. George Romney has instructed his attorney general to find a legal way to close the Essex operation. Romney ordered the plant closed a week ago after extensive violence and allowed it to re-open with non-union labor Tuesday. Italo Bragalone, supervisor of the Essex plant, said Romney (See STRIKE, Page 7)

Subway Passenger Becomes Fifth Gotham Victim

NEW YORK (UPI)—A subway rider trying to read his newspaper and ignore a Negro man lying on the car floor was stabbed early today when the man lurched to his feet and slashed out wildly with a knife. The knifing was the fifth incident of subway violence this week and occurred as 200 Transit Authority police went on emergency overtime patrol duty on trains and station platforms. The victim, Howard Feist, 64, a white taxicab driver, was reported in serious condition at Coney Island Hospital.

Teen-ager Admits Slayings of Five

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (UPI)—A teen-aged youth today admitted to a string of five slayings in Nevada, Indiana, Kentucky and Michigan, police said. The youth, Larry Lee Ranes, 19, Kalamazoo, was picked up early today in connection with the slaying of Gary Albert Smock, 30, Plymouth, Mich., a school teacher. Under questioning by police, he also confessed to slayings in Elkhart, Ind., Las Vegas, Nev., and Kentucky, as well as to a second in Michigan, according to state police detective, Sgt. Karl W. Lutz. Ranes was arraigned in Kalamazoo municipal court on a murder charge in connection with the weekend slaying of Smock. He waived examination and was bound over for a circuit hearing. Only two other of Ranes' confessed victims were immediately identified. They were Charles E. Snider, 32, Elkhart, a filling station attendant, and Airman 2C Vernon Labenne, 20, Southfield, Mich., who was shot April 6 while he worked at a gas station near Battle Creek, Mich. Police said a .22-caliber pistol taken from Ranes when he was picked up had been forwarded to state police headquarters for a firearms comparison test. Police said Ranes was picked up in front of the home of a friend, Arthur Booth. Booth had called them and told them Ranes confessed the slayings to him, showed him a pistol and told him he planned to first contact a priest and then commit suicide. DALLAS RACIAL GROUP PLANS TO DEFY COURT

USSR Digs Up Old Cases Against U.S.

Protests Likely to Be Spread

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union dug up a couple of old cases today to accuse American and British military officers of spying. The Soviet army newspaper Red Star said Lt. Col. Edgar Smith and Capt. Edmund Zvetina, both of Dayton, Ohio, and British Air Commodore A.N. Davis attempted to spy in Tula, 121 miles south of Moscow, last March 17, by trying to get rocket information. Red Star told the story to the Russian people for the first time, as though it was brand new. But on April 10, the U.S. Embassy here had announced this and another incident—and told a different version. Red Star said Smith, Zvetina and Davis attempted to get a look at an airfield in Tula, but were apprehended by irate Soviet citizens. It said they were released after 40 minutes. The embassy version released on April said the American military attaches were making a routine automobile trip through non-restricted areas of the Soviet Union when they got out of their car and were seized by the mob. It said the fist-waving mob held a kangaroo court on the spot, judged the attaches guilty and attempted to force them to sign a confession of espionage. The attaches refused and were released in 40 minutes. Red Star also gave the Soviet version of an incident which occurred in Odessa March 25, involving American attaches James Landrigan, Navy Cmdr. Sumner Shauro and Air Force Lt. Col. William Van Meter. The Soviet publication said the Americans, and a British companion—Lt. Cmdr. Harvey Samuel—drank a lot of alcohol at an Odessa hotel and fell asleep. However, the U.S. Embassy here in announcing this incident originally charged that the attaches were drugged. Following these incidents, Soviet authorities ordered the military (See CASES, Page 7)

They were there in defiance of two court orders against demonstrations within 50 feet of the cafeteria issued by District Judge Dallas Blankenship. Judge Blankenship issued his first order Tuesday in response to a request by the cafeteria's attorneys. A lawyer for the demonstrators said he thought the order was invalid because of the way it was worded, and the demonstrations continued. Vow To Continue The judge issued another order Thursday, specifically naming four groups, including the Black Muslims, and 14 individuals. The demonstrators' answer came from their attorney, John B. Wilson Jr. "They tell me they aren't going to stop as long as there are pockets of resistance where all Americans do not have equal rights and opportunities. There are other eating places here where these rights and opportunities are denied." Judge Blankenship has scheduled a hearing for next Thursday on the cafeteria's request the ban be made permanent. The demonstrators face possible contempt of court sentences for continued demonstrations. Circling Line They formed a line outside the cafeteria during the noon lunch hour Thursday. The demonstrator at the head of the line would ask to be admitted.

Area Storms Miss Pampa

While the rest of the Panhandle and South Plains got wet yesterday Pampa stayed dry. In Scurry County a wild electrical storm dumped five inches of rain. Official rainfall totals for yesterday were Lubbock .23, Amarillo .07, Austin .25, and Dallas .04. Hail also pelted the ranchland west of Vega and covered the ground at Big Spring. The forecast for Pampa and vicinity calls for a few thunderstorms and warmer for tomorrow. Denton Club Burns After Celebration DENTON (UPI)—Fire destroyed the brand-new Greater Denton Athletic Club today, just hours after a dinner-dance opening celebration. Damage was estimated at $250,000. Flames burst from the kitchen of the club at 6:55 a.m. Every available fire unit in town was called to the scene. Only three charred walls of the club stood at 8 a.m. when the blaze was put out. About 350 members jammed the club for the grand opening celebration Thursday night. The party broke up about 1 a.m. WEATHER PAMPA AND VICINITY—Partly cloudy through Saturday. A chance of a few thundershowers tonight and Saturday afternoon. A little warmer Saturday. City Manager To Leave for Odessa Meet

Pampa City Manager Harold Schmitzer will leave tomorrow to attend the spring meeting of the Texas City Managers Association in Odessa on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. City managers from over the state will go to the three-day parley at which Odessa's Mayor Preston Parker and City Manager W. E. Routh will be the hosts. How to keep Texas city management among the most competent in the United States will occupy a large share of the association's program time, according to Abilene City Manager H. P. Clifton, current president of the TCMA. In describing this year's meeting, Clifton called it "a look at today's major municipal problems and a survey of tools, needs and methods of keeping city managers and the management profession abreast of the rapidly expanding demands on local administration."

Retired Captain Recalls D-Day Breakfast at Sea

(Editor's Note: Jay H. MehaFFEY, an advertising executive in Odessa, Tex., was among the thousands of Americans who remember first hand that June 6, 1944, the day the allied armies stormed Germany's fortress Europe. Here are portions of his recollections of "D-Day," 20 years later)

By JAY H. MEHAFFEY
Captain, U.S. Army, Retired
Distributed by UPI

On board HMS Prince Leopold during the early hours of 6th June 1944, the Rangers made a final check of equipment and weapons and had their "final meal" as it was jokingly referred to.

Breakfast was served at 3 a.m. with fresh eggs and all the trimmings—a final gesture from our British hosts.

We took our boat positions on deck about 4 a.m., as the first streaks of dawn appeared over the side into the assault craft.

The sea was quite rough with waves running over five feet high. "H Hour" was 0630 and we were to make our approach from 12 miles off the French coast.

Heading for France
The sky was full of Allied aircraft headed toward France. Liberators, Fortresses, Lancasters, and fighters of all types, but not in the massive formations I had expected to see.

Because of the heavy seas the horizon was limited and the only boats in sight were the other Ranger assault craft. The first support unit I saw on D Day was the Battleship Texas, lying off to our right as we went in, and firing broadsides from her 14 inch guns onto Pointe du Hoc. I glanced at my watch and it was nearly 0630 "H Hour." We were behind schedule and still several miles out.

When the cliffs of the French coast finally appeared on the horizon they were a reddish brown in color and over hung with haze and smoke.

"Omaha Beach" was protected by three vicious rows of beach obstacles well mined and interlaced with barbed wire. To the everlasting credit of the British coxswain who took us ashore we survived the horror that claimed 50 per cent of the assault waves in the 16th and 116th Infantry regiments. They drowned in the surf.

Waist Deep Landing
By picking his way around and through the obstacles we were given a waist deep landing that was phenomenal on this gray and chilly dawn. As the ramp went down we jumped into the surf and under the weight of extra equipment slowly waded ashore where we were immediately taken under fire by German machine guns which swept our landing area from the right flank in the direction of Vierville and a small coastal village.

As darkness fell on 6 June, 1944, C Company 5th U.S. Rangers bedded down in a hedgerow west of Vierville.

We hadn't seen a German plane all day but they bombed the beach about midnight.

After that there was absolute stillness.

I can still recall how quiet it became. I fell asleep and had to be shaken awake when day light came on D Plus One.

Prayer Opponents Think They Can Stop Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Opponents of the proposed constitutional amendments to permit public school prayers believe legislation in the House Judiciary have the votes to stop the legislation in the House Judiciary Committee.

The price of stopping the current drive to change the Constitution may be a nonbinding expression of congressional favor for worship in public places, however.

The committee is not likely to get down to actual voting on the prayer issue until late this month. One head-count of the 35-member panel shows 16 members opposed to any amendment.

Other congressional news: Civil Rights: Senate leaders pressed ahead today with what has been described as an "anti-filibuster maneuver" in complicated maneuvers to muzzle debate on the civil rights bill. Be-

Cotton Problems Told At Industry Meeting

WACO (SpI) — Solution of cotton's basic problems lies within the industry's efforts in its own behalf rather than through legislation, Burriss C. Jackson, Hillsboro, emphasized today in keynoting the Silver Anniversary Meeting of the American Cotton Congress.

Jackson, general chairman of the Congress, pointed out that the market for fiber products is a growing and dynamic one worldwide.

"If we had been competing for this market instead of riding a political roller coaster, there would be no surplus. Farmers would be expanding their acreage. All other branches of the industry would be enjoying the volume and profits that go hand in hand with healthy and increasing demand.

"This goal is within our reach but it will not be achieved by passing a law. It will be achieved by people like you and me exercising our own initiative within our own private spheres and working together as an industry."

More and more people are finally becoming convinced that the solution to cotton's problems lies within the industry, he noted.

"We see it in the tremendous acceptance and support accorded the Cotton Producers Institute, in the continuing success of the programs of the National Cotton Council, in the worldwide interest in cotton through Cotton Council International, and through the unselfish and dedicated effort of many individuals in other organizations."

Discussing the Congress theme, "Cotton's Past, Present, and Future," the industry leader pointed out that it is paradoxical that during the last 25 years when cotton was having its ups and downs on the political roller coaster it was making some of its greatest gains otherwise.

He explained that yields had increased from 238 pounds of lint per acre in 1939 to more than 500 in 1963, that man-hours to produce a bale had been cut from 200 to less than 45, and that the past quarter of a century had brought such innovations as anhydrous ammonia, chemical weed control, organic insecticides, defoliation, and mechanical harvesting. Tractors now provide the power for virtually all pre-harvest operations except chopping, whereas in 1939 animal power accounted for 70 to 80 per cent.

Furthermore, cotton today is the prestige fiber of the fashion world as a result of a combination of alert promotion and vast improvements in textile finishing and other techniques.

Unity of the industry to fight for its markets was cited as the most significant development over the 25-year period. Determination is expressed, he stated, in programs such as that of the grower-financed Cotton Producers Institute which is putting $800,000 this year into research and more than $1.5 million into domestic sales promotion. Promotions of the National Cotton Council and CPI combined will total about $3 million.

He predicted a substantial improvement in cotton's competitive situation as a result of the recent passage of legislation.

"The emergency legislation promises temporary relief in a situation that threatened disaster for cotton. It can get us out of the ditch for the time being," the Congress keynoter said.

"It can help us on the road toward our long-range goal of

SWEET TOOTH SWEETER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. sweet tooth grew even sweeter last year, the Commerce Department reported Tuesday.

All this candy — 3.3 billion pounds — was valued at $1.3 billion.

Here's a word of advice for vacation planners from the American Medical Association: Don't forget inoculations such as tetanus, typhoid and smallpox—especially if you are going abroad. Diet is also important, and if the food is richer than you're used to, go easy on it. Don't take on too much activity and risk over-tiring yourself, and do take a comfortable pair of walking shoes.

Livestock producers, feeders and consumers in the San Antonio area will be audience for a special added feature when they attend the June 3 auction sale at the Union Stock Yards there. Pampa Panhellenic Hosts Second Annual Information Tea for Seniors

Pampa Panhellenic conducted the second annual informational tea for senior girls and their mothers, Sunday at Lovett Memorial Library. Some 50 Panhellenic members and guests attended. The room was highlighted by individual plaques, decorated with the colors, flowers and pins of each of the 16 sororities represented by alumnae in Pampa Panhellenic.

Mrs. H. E. Harper, president, gave the welcome and Mrs. Arthur Teed served as narrator for the clever skit, written by Mrs. Howard Greenlee and enacted by Mrs. Don Lane, Mrs. Malcolm Douglas, Mrs. Edwin Watts, Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. David Gantz and Mrs. Greenlee. Following a short, informal talk by Mrs. Hugh Barton, cookies and punch were served.

Mrs. Harper presided at the punch bowl. The focal point of the table, a large copper bowl, held an arrangement of pastel shades of shasta daisies. A green raw silk cloth complemented the setting. Mrs. Quentin Williams served as chairman of the refreshment committee; Mrs. Malcolm Dennis, chairman of name-tags, Mrs. Howard Greenlee, invitations and Mrs. Jack Dennis, chairman of decorations.

One of the functions of the tea each year is to give Senior girls an opportunity to fill out information cards which are kept on file with the vice-president, Mrs. Barton.

PAMPAN HONORED — Janelle McDonald, 1963 Pampa High School graduate and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent McDonald, 2132 Hamilton, was honored recently when she was selected as student of the month for May at Draughon's Business College in Amarillo. Miss McDonald is completing a general business course.

Dear Abby.... Collar Your Dreamer and Tell Him to Wake Up!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please try to help me. I am worried sick about my husband. We've been married 11 years and have three children. He's never graduated from high school but he is smart. He's nice looking, too. Abby, we don't have a cent in the bank. We just barely keep up with the bills. He says he has life insurance and some other policies, but I've never seen them. He claims they are locked up in his boss' safe. I would like to have a look at them. Also, he has never filed any income tax. State or Federal. That is what worries me the most. I love him very much, and know that he can't go on forever without getting caught. Then what? The children and I need him. Can you tell me what to do?

DEAR WORRIED: Collar your dreamer and tell him that if he turns himself in, he will be given the opportunity to pay what he owes on time, plus penalties, and the authorities will be much more lenient with him than if they are forced to charge him with a crime. And let him know that if he doesn't act within one week, you will act for him.

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 years old and have a big problem — a boy. Can you tell me how to get his attention without being loud? He likes girls for friends but not for girl friends. I have liked him for a long time but he never paid any attention to me so I tried to quit liking him, but I can't. I think if I can get his attention I might have a chance. Do you have any clever ideas?

Polk's Schooling — James Knox Polk, 11th president of the U.S., had no formal schooling until he entered the University of North Carolina, where his record was "correct, punctual and industrious." Polk was admitted to the bar at the age of 25, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Government Support Fails To Boost Faith

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
Would America's children be more likely to grow up believing in God if the government officially encouraged religious faith through schools and other public institutions?

so. This has been one of the principal arguments advanced by proponents of constitutional amendments to authorize prayer and Bible reading in public schools.
But one of the nation's leading church historians, Dr. Franklin H. Littell, says the lesson of history points in exactly the opposite direction. Wherever and whenever government has tried to foster religious belief, says Littell, the net result has been to drive people away from the church.

Cites Other Nations
Littell is professor of church history at Chicago Theological Seminary. In an interview, he cited the experience of Western European nations and Colonial America with "established" or state-supported religion.

"In France, a traditionally Catholic people has become a prime example of 'baptized heathenism,'" he said. Surveys indicate that only 16 per cent of the men and women of France keep the minimum requirements of the Catholic Church for avoiding automatic excommunication: one confession and one communion a year.

"In Italy, a survey authorized by the cardinal archbishop of Milan showed only 11 per cent of Italian men performing the same minimal exercises.

"In the Protestant north, the case is no better. Of the people of Sweden, 98 per cent are reckoned as communicants of the Lutheran state church; the situation in Denmark is roughly the same. Behind the facade, however, official surveys show that only 3.6 per cent of the Danes are actually in effective relationship with the state churches to which they theoretically belong."

Same In Colonies
In England, the established church estimates that no more than 15 per cent of its nominal membership is actually involved in church life in any way.

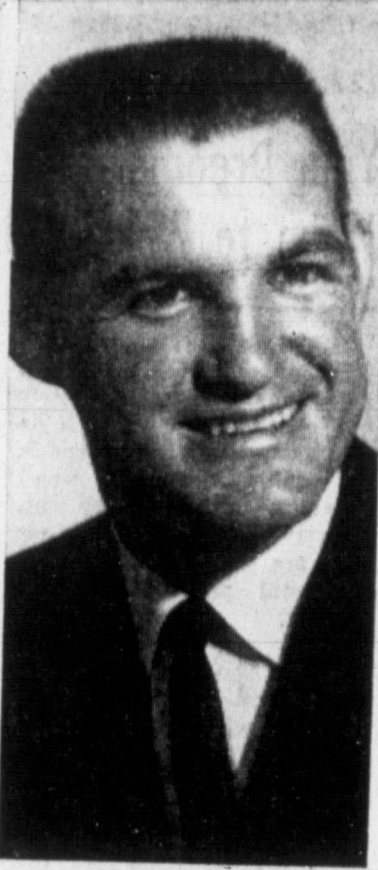

Colonial America had an equally dismal record, Littell said. Of the 13 Colonies, only Rhode Island practiced genuine religious freedom. Eight of the Colonies had state churches and four others had established religions.

"Like the European state churches, the Colonial state churches achieved the spiritual alienation of the people," he said. At the time of the Revolution, less than 10 per cent of the American people were actively affiliated with churches.

Dr. Carver to Fill Pulpit at First Baptist

Dr. Douglas Carver, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be in the pulpit for both services of worship Sunday. He has chosen "The Good Old Days" for his sermon topic for the 11 a.m. worship. Joe Whitten, Minister of Music, will present the church choir in singing "Give Me A Faith" and Miss Eloise Lane, organist, will play "I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ" by J. S. Bach for the offertory.

The pastor will preach from the subject "If I Had My Life to Live Over" at the 5 p.m. service. Special music will be presented and the organist has chosen "Andante" by Massenet for the offertory.

REV. ROY KING

Rev. Roy King Will Conduct Sunday Services

Rev. Roy King of Lubbock will fill the pulpit of the Pampa First Christian Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

Rev. King is currently serving as one of the Timothy's of the First Christian Church. He was a graduate of Pampa High School and holds a B.S. degree from Texas Christian University and a B.D. degree from Brite College of the Bible in Fort Worth.

For the five years he was minister of the Sacke Christian Church in northeast Dallas county and served one year as associate minister of the Tucson, Ariz., First Christian Church. In 1961 he came to Lubbock as minister to students and director of the Texas Tech Christian Foundation for the Christian Church.

Presbyterians to Hold Communion

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed at both morning worship hours at the First Presbyterian Church this Sunday. The Pastor's Communion meditation will be "Prayer with a Purpose" based upon the third chapter of Paul's Letter to the Philippians Church.

The Vacation Church School and Junior Day Camp will continue through Thursday, June 11, with a special evening worship service planned for parents and friends Wednesday evening in the sanctuary.

A new Inquirer's Class will begin at 9:45 a.m., Sunday in Kelley Chapel. This class is open to all who are concerned about Presbyterian beliefs, and who wish to inquire more deeply into the meaning of Church Membership. The Pastor, Donald S. Hauck, will lead the class which will last for four consecutive Sunday mornings.

Married Former Minister to Be Priest

MAINZ, Germany (Spl) — A married former Lutheran minister will become the first American in the history of the Church to be ordained a Catholic priest of the Latin Rite.

Pope Paul VI personally has granted a special dispensation to Ernest Adam Beck, 39, former pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church in North Bergen, N.J. He originally is from Detroit.

The permission carries with it the approval to exercise in full the rights, privileges, and obligations of the sacramental married state, together with the unrestricted exercise of the priesthood.

The Pope granted the dispensation at the request of Bishop Herman Volk of Mainz and his Auxiliary, Bishop Joseph Reuss. They were supported in turn by Cardinal Richard Cushing of Boston and Cardinal Augustin Bea, S. J., president of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity.

Beck is expected to be ordained for the Mainz diocese in the near future. He will then study at the university here to work for a doctorate in theology. He was expected to arrive here in the last week of April from Rome, where he was completing necessary arrangements. His family is to join him here soon.

The future priest is married to the former Dorothy Marie Gollin of Teaneck, N.J. They were married in Tulsa, Tex. They have two children, Michael 13, and Monica 9.

During his seminary days in St. Louis, Beck met Monsignor Martin B. Hellriegel, pastor of Holy Cross parish, who for many years has been a leader of the Catholic liturgical movement.

Through him Beck became acquainted with aspects of Catholic life which impressed him deeply. His interest in the liturgy finally led him to study the Roman Missal, and as a minister he began to conceive of the Lutheran liturgy in the light of its original setting, both historically and doctrinally.

After further studies of Catholic teaching, Beck and his wife were received into the Catholic Church Holy Saturday of 1954.

Their son Michael was received Easter Sunday and daughter Monica was baptized a Catholic shortly after her birth.

Beck worked for the NCWC

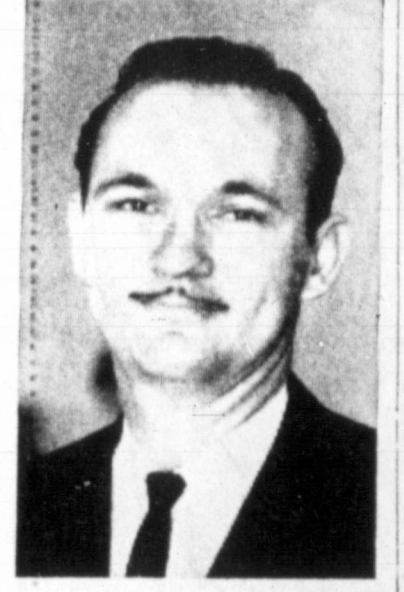

Catholic Relief Services in St. Louis under Monsignor T. Sur-en, two and one half years.

In Germany, five validly married, former Protestant ministers have been ordained priests during the past 12 years, under special dispensations from the impediment of the married state granted by the Holy See.

Other former Lutheran ministers who are married men and fathers of several children have been ordained priests of the Roman Rite in Germany and have been given assignments in Mainz, Cologne, and Koethen, Anhalt.

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Do other children constantly annoy and tease your child? This can be most disturbing to a child who has not learned how to react and adjust to such situations. A child who handles the situation properly will help to discourage further incidents.

Parents must recognize that their children will probably be teased by other children many times during their lives. Each occurrence is not a catastrophe. More often than not parents who get upset will upset their children thus creating the background for a serious problem. Isolated cases should be played down and used as an opportunity to advise the children.

At what point does this problem of teasing become serious? The effect of teasing is of major concern when children begin to feel rejected and lose confidence in themselves. This usually occurs when children have not been adequately prepared to react when a child annoys them. It may also occur when children have a basic lack of confidence, or have been consistently teased to the point where they begin to wonder about themselves.

This problem can be avoided or corrected by teaching children how to respond to this type of problem. It is more effective to prevent the problem than to let it develop and then try to remove it. How might parents provide the necessary direction for their children?

The home atmosphere has much influence on a child's ability to accept teasing or any other kind of criticism. The child who is secure through love and self respect tends to be better adjusted. If his home includes good natured teasing, he is in a better position to accept this from his peers. The good natured child who has a pleasant personality will have an advantage throughout his life.

There are several facts which a child should understand. When he is criticized or teased by another child, his own reaction is important. If he gets upset, the child who is teasing him will probably continue since the pleasure of teasing is usually aimed at creating anger and annoyance. On the other hand a child who ignores teasing and laughs it off will in effect be discouraging it since the other child will not gain pleasure.

On many occasions teasing is only meant in a playful manner. A child should learn to distinguish between play and malice. Playful teasing usually occurs between friends who ordinarily respect each other. Malicious teasing usually occurs when jealousy exists. The child who teases and criticizes is

Children's Day Set for Lamar Christian Church

Children's Day will be observed at Lamar Christian Church Sunday. There will be a special program presented by the children of the church at the beginning of the Sunday School hour, 9:45.

Mrs. John A. King and Mrs. J. L. Allen will be in charge of this program. Loren E. Williams will speak on the subject "The Mystery of Water and Tree" taking texts from Psalms I and Psalms 92:13.

This will be a children's message but should speak to all ages as well. Mrs. J. S. Hatcher, who has been on vacation, will be at the organ assisting our worship. A special offering will be taken for World Missions.

Sunday evening service will find Lamar Christians and those of First Christian Churches worshipping together as has been the practice during the summer months.

These evening services will be held at Lamar Christian Church during June and September; First Christian will be held during July and August. A second in a series of messages on Worship and Work will be heard this Sunday evening.

The text will come from Acts 13:2 and the message will relate the service of worship with public service. The Lord's Table is served at both morning and evening worship services.

Cattleman Hits Import of Beef

BRADY, Tex. (UPI)—Immediate legislation is needed to protect U.S. cattlemen from increased meat imports, Fred Wulff, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association said Thursday.

Wulff was preparing for the board of directors quarterly meeting June 13 in Bay City, Tex.

Wulff said that frozen beef and veal shipped from Australia and New Zealand has increased to unrealistic heights in the past few years and that U.S. cattlemen, no matter how efficient, cannot compete with the potential foreign beef production.

Pampa Girl Gets Degree at Trinity

SAN ANTONIO (SpI)—Norma Jean Fatheree of Pampa was graduated from Trinity University, San Antonio, during commencement exercises Monday.

Miss Fatheree received a bachelor of arts degree with a major in elementary education. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fatheree, 1717 N. Russell.

Two hundred and forty students were candidates for degrees, including 40 candidates for the master's degree.

Speaker for the University's 95th Commencement was Dr. Joseph E. McCabe, president of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Trinity University is a school of the liberal arts and sciences sponsored by the Synod of Texas, United Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

SHE MODELS HER OWN—Sharon Bohn of Scranton, Pa., a senior student at the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, Philadelphia, proudly models a formal gown of her own creation, a brocade satin. Sharon performed 2,500 hours of satisfactory work in sewing to obtain a "professional sewing" diploma in June. "High fashion" photo was taken in the school's auto repair shop in the new Nevil Vocational building.

Oklahoma 'Playboys' Lose 12 Publications

LAWTON, Okla. (UPI)—Lawton playboys may still have their escapades but there will be no more "Playboy" or "Escapade" on the newsstands.

Ten other magazines objected to by a citizens committee which prefers to remain anonymous, will also be absent.

Newsstand owner Walt Clements, who sold Playboy and Escapade in defiance of the committee's wishes and a 1957 city ordinance, was scheduled to appear in court today.

He was charged with violation of the ordinance, which made selling or distributing the magazines illegal. The citizens committee recently revived enforcement of the ordinance because of what it called "obscene and objectionable" material on the city's newsstands.

The committee, made up of about 20 members who represent civic club, school organization, ministerial alliance, Parent-Teacher Association and other groups, listed a total of 12 magazines they considered "most objectionable," in a first-hand review of newsstands.

Independent News Co., the national distributor for "Playboy," has written that it will take whatever legal action necessary to insure continued distribution of the magazine in Lawton, Clements said.

SUGGESTIONS FOR YOUTH AND PARENTS

Editor's note:—The following is one of a series of brief, informative articles to be published daily in the News. They are designed to offer aid and advice to young people as well as their parents. The series is furnished as a public service of city and county juvenile and police officers and corporation court.)

PARENTAL DUTY
Parents should keep their children informed about their children's activities. Whenever a teen-ager leaves the house, a parent should be able, as the result of mutual agreement with his child, to answer these questions:

With whom is he going and where?
How will he get there, and when is he due home?
Take the trouble to know the atmosphere of the places where he goes. Do not feel that you are snooping or showing lack of trust or faith when you check on the activities of your child now and then. This is part of your duty as a parent when your child is old enough to be spending a lot of time outside the home.

GOPs Call 'Poverty War' Democrat Sham

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's "war on poverty" today was picking up Democratic recruits in the House but most Republicans labeled the battle a sham.

Democratic handers of the $962 million poverty package hailed it as the best hope to help America's poor. GOP lawmakers said it was designed not so much to make jobs as buy votes for Lyndon B. Johnson.

Both sides found ammunition to spare in a 96-page report filed with the House Thursday by the Education and Labor Committee, which approved the anti-poverty bill last week on a 19 to 12 party-line vote.

With publication of the pros and cons, committee Chairman Adam C. Powell, D. N.Y., moved for quick clearance by the Rules Committee to get the bill to a vote in the House, possibly the week after next.

The bill is designed to give poor youths an opportunity to learn new skills and continue their schooling; finance local anti-poverty projects; establish a new volunteer corps to fight poverty; and provide new financial aid to marginal farm and business operators.

Other congressional news: Civil Rights: Senate Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., planned to propose again today a specific timetable for voting on the civil rights bill; thus giving its southern opponents one last chance to avoid a show-down vote on shutting off debate. If the southerners reject the timetable — and Humphrey is sure they will — the leadership will file its cloture petition at noon Saturday. The critical vote on whether to end debate then would come at 1 p.m. EDT Tuesday.

Military attaches restricted to Moscow for 90 days. The United States retaliated in kind against Soviet attaches in Washington.

Today's disclosure came shortly before the scheduled expiration of the 90-day ban the Russians imposed and only a few days after the signing of a new Soviet-American consular agreement.

U.S. officials in Washington rejected the newly resurrected spy charges.

American observers said the latest allegations apparently were part of a continuing Soviet "pin-prick" campaign to keep alive Communist bloc suspicions of the Western powers. It was felt that these might have been lulled by the present absence of any major East-West conflict over Berlin or other perennial cold war issues.

Stop On Trip
In discussing the Smith-Zvetina-Davis trip, Red Star said they stopped on their auto trip from Moscow to Tulsa to scrutinize a military rocket.

With cameras in hand, the newspaper said, they stared for 45 minutes at the missile whose nose poked above the trees of a wooded area before driving off for Tulsa, 180 miles south of Moscow.

The lengthy charges also contained a sharp protest against newly imposed travel limitations on Soviet attaches in Britain and the United States.

These were enforced by both countries after the Soviet Union, in an unprecedented move, restricted the American and British officers to Moscow for 90 days.

The U.S. Embassy in Moscow had no immediate comment. But the British Foreign Office "categorically denied" the allegations and "deplored" Russia's action in raising them again.

Red Star's report of the attack incidents was the first time it was made public here. In addition to Smith, Zvetina and Davis, the Soviet army newspaper said Lt. Leonard Bracken, Philadelphia, also was involved in incidents in which local citizens accused them of espionage.

UPS HOSE PRICES

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—American Biltrite Rubber Co.'s Boston Woven Hose & Rubber Co. said Thursday it will raise its prices on most types of industrial hose by approximately 5 per cent, effective June 25. The company said the increase, its first general price boost since 1962, was necessitated by rising costs.

United Press International
How was it that the Kennedy political magic struck winning fire in California but fizzled out in New York? And what effect might that New York fizzle have on the doubtful chance that Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy will advance himself this year for New York's Democratic senatorial nomination?

Pierre Salinger won California's Democratic senatorial nomination on the basis of his association with John F. Kennedy as White House press secretary. If Salinger had any other claim on the senatorial nomination, it was not evident. He defeated Alan Cranston, a party pro who was sponsored by California's Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown. The Salinger-Cranston contest took place in the middle of a power fight within the Democratic party. Salinger was the entry of Speaker Jesse Unruh, also known as "Big Daddy," who is speaker of the California House of Representatives.

GOP Has Chance
This Democratic party row offers the Republicans a chance to regain some political stature in California. Loser Brown's prestige has shrunk. He will be less discussed now as a possible vice presidential nominee.

In New York state's 23rd Congressional District, 73-year-old Rep. Charles A. Buckley was bounced by a young reformer named Jonathaningham. Robert F. and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy both supported Buckley who was among the early Kennedy - for - president boosters five years or so ago.

President Johnson also favored Buckley.

Buckley's defeat was a triumph for Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City. The mayor also knocked out of the political ring Carmine De Sapio one time Tammany Hall boss, who sought a come back by election as Democratic district leader in Greenwich Village. He lost. Wagner emerges from the Buckley-De Sapio contests the unchallenged head man of the Democratic party in New York state. His chance of being tapped for the vice presidential nomination has improved accordingly. Wagner, like Pat Brown, is a Roman Catholic.

Sen. Barry Goldwater's friends doubtless are hoping that Buckley's defeat in the Bronx will turn Robert Kennedy's thoughts away from New York and toward the Democratic vice presidential nomination. John F. and Robert F. Kennedy were about equally disliked in the South. "The Kennedys" were words that could be and sometimes were uttered there as a degrading epithet.

South Favors Johnson
The white South seems now

OBSERVING BIRTHDAY

AUSTIN (UPI)—Most state offices were closed yesterday in observance of Jefferson Davis' birthday, a state holiday. The Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals held their regular Wednesday sessions, but the Third Court of Civil Appeals did not meet.

to look with favor on President Johnson. Some politicians believe this would change mightily if Robert F. Kennedy were on the 1964 ticket. Kennedy is too good a politician to overlook that possibility. He is certain, also, to explore carefully the significance, if any, of Buckley's defeat before committing himself to a senatorial contest in New York state.

There is precedent, however, for the young of a political family to dispose of themselves variously so that brother will not be contesting brother, politically, for this and that.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., for example, tried to stake his political claim in New York state. The Democrats didn't want him. FDR Jr. settled for a sub-cabinet job in the Kennedy administration. Brother James is a U.S. representative from California. Brother Elliott just has been elected Democratic national committeeman in Florida. Brother John is a Republican and has regular 9 - 10 - 5 work.

Former Police Chief Free in Dope Count

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI)—A former Alamo police chief and his brother were free in bond Thursday on charges of helping smuggle 83 pounds of refined marijuana into the country.

Roy Avila, 32, was charged along with his brother, Gilbert Avila, 39, of Donna, Tex., and Felipe Ramirez, 29, of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

Avila, who resigned under pressure from his Alamo police chief's job last month, was released in $25,000 bond. Brother Gilbert's bond was lowered from $25,000 to $15,000.

Ramirez remained in Hidalgo County jail.

The case will be presented to the federal grand jury in Brownsville, probably in late June.

Officials said the former police chief and Ramirez made contact with the agent in a McAllen, Tex., motel and arranged the sale of 55 pounds of the narcotic.

Fired Shot
Ben Richards, assistant supervisor of the customs enforcement service in Houston, said the two were arrested Tuesday night. Customs agents moved in, he said, when Avila and Ramirez met the undercover man on Tower Road in Alamo. He said Ramirez tried to escape, but was nabbed a short distance away after a warning shot.

The arrests ended an investigation of several months by customs agents.

'Not Doing Job'
Avila was fired as Alamo police chief last month "because he wasn't doing his job to suit us anymore," said Alamo Mayor John Ginsbach. "We had been thinking about it for some time."

Last Quadruplet Dies in New York

NEW HYDE PARK, N.Y. (UPI)—All of the quadruplets born two months prematurely to the wife of an unemployed Brooklyn plumber have died, Long Island Jewish Hospital reported early Thursday.

Three girl quads died at the hospital's special premature nursery between 10:15 p.m. and 11:30 p.m., EDT Wednesday. The boy quad, the frailest of the four, had died earlier in the day.

After the newborn son of Salvador Peloro, 35, and his wife, Marie, 30, had died, doctors said they thought the girls had at least a fighting chance to live. But they were unable to pass through the first days of life which are critical to premature, underweight infants.

The children were born Tuesday.

Nixon Promises To Back Barry

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today he would back Barry Goldwater "absolutely" if the Arizona senator receives the GOP presidential nomination. He said he would prefer Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania as the vice presidential candidate.

Nixon told an American Broadcasting Company television interviewer that a Goldwater-Scranton ticket "would have the virtues of 'the Goldwater experience, experience on the national scene, and the combination of a big Eastern state.'"

"I am confident Goldwater will do everything possible to unite the party once he gets the nomination," Nixon said. He added, however, that he did not believe Goldwater has the nomination completely "wrapped up."

GOPS Doubt Barry's Win Indicates Turn

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — California Republicans doubted today that the narrow victory in Tuesday's primary for Arizona conservative Barry Goldwater represented a sharp turn to the right for the GOP in the nation's most populous state.

Most agreed it virtually assured Goldwater the party's presidential nomination at the Republican National Convention here in mid-July.

But they felt his 51-49 per-

Australia Paper Decries Goldwater

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — The Daily Mirror said Thursday the election of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to the presidency of the United States "would be a disaster."

"Goldwater is an isolationist, an advocate of diplomatic brinkmanship, a segregationist, the darling of the ragbag right wing and incapable of rallying the divided Republican party," the Mirror said in a comment on the outcome of the California primary.

King Says Negroes Won't Go for Barry

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King said this week that virtually no Negroes in the United States would vote for Sen. Barry Goldwater if he wins the Republican presidential nomination.

King said Goldwater's philosophy was contrary to Negro goals and the Republican party would lose its Negro membership should Goldwater become its head.

PHONE EXPLOSION

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Between now and 1970 the number of telephones in the United States will multiply almost four times as fast as the number of people.

The Commerce Department predicted Thursday that 115 million phones would be in service by 1970, a 37 per cent increase over the 1963 level of 84 million. Over the same period, the population is expected to grow only about 10 per cent: From 190 million in 1963 to 209 million in 1970.

PHS Student and Instructor Asked To Attend Parley

A Pampa High School student and his science instructor are among 500 Texas high school students and teachers invited to participate in the Fourth Texas Nuclear Science Symposium at the University of Texas June 7 through 10.

Kyle Vann, junior, and science instructor Windell Watson will be sponsored at the Austin sessions by the Southwestern Public Service Company. Vann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Vann who reside southeast of Pampa.

The symposium is a joint sponsorship program of the University of Texas and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation, of which Southwestern Public Service Company is a member.

Students are selected for the symposium on the basis of their academic standing and leadership qualities, with a limited number of Texas high schools asked to nominate a student and an instructor each year. Vann was selected on the basis of his ranking as the number two student in the junior class at Pampa and his outstanding performance in an honors chemistry course.

4 Chiropractors To Attend Parley

Four Pampa chiropractors, Dr. Harry J. Loveless, Dr. Robert H. Rutledge, Dr. R. E. Thompson and Dr. Talmadge Wright, are planning to be among the 500 Texas chiropractors who will attend the 49th annual convention of the Texas State Chiropractic Association in Dallas, June 11-13, it was announced this week.

Part of the three-day convention will be devoted to an educational program that serves as a refresher course for chiropractic practitioners to bring them up to date on new methods of healing. Dr. S. M. Elliott of Davton, association president, said.

Special emphasis will be placed at this year's convention on insurance matters.

Among the convention speakers will be Dr. William N. Cogins of St. Louis, president of Logan Chiropractic College; Dr. J. R. Lasky of Miami, Fla., an authority on evaluating spine disabilities; State Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock; AFL-CIO State President H. S. (Hank) Brown of Austin; Dallas Attorney Bill Brice, and Dallas Insurance man Fred J. Backhaus.

fusion research, superconductivity, the wave nature of matter, cyclotrons and X-ray, electron and neutron diffraction methods. There will also be tours of the laboratory facilities at the University of Texas.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

UPI Foreign News Analyst

Like the salamander which the ancients believed could live through fire, President Ahmed Ben Bella rules Algeria in defiance of natural laws.

Yet this self-confident 47-year-old retains the affections of the West for his hope of stability, of the Communist world for his ill-defined socialism and of Algerians to whom he represents the heady wine of independence.

These thoughts, in philosophic vein, come to mind as result of Ben Bella's latest troubles with the fractious Berbers, blue-eyed men who live in the Kabylia Mountains some 80 miles from Algiers, and who for years defied the French and now Ben Bella's one-man rule.

A few days ago a machine-gun and bomb attack laid to the Berbers against Ben Bella's villa missed Ben Bella but injured two of his guards.

On. of Several

The incident was one of the boldest but only one of several in a new tide of Berber resistance against the Algiers government.

Algeria's difficulties lie both in its past and in its present. Before the French came, Algeria was but a collection of slave traders, pirate bands and mountain tribes nominally under Turkish rule.

The French are fond of saying that "the Algerians became French before they became Algerian."

Thus, Ben Bella, a product of the Algerian hinterland with no previous experience in government, rules a nation which itself has no national past.

Since independence in 1962, the Algerian economy, once one of the best in Africa, has gone swiftly and steadily downward.

In January, rioters took to the streets in Oran and Constantine to protest against unemployment and rising prices.

Establishes Own Rule

Upon all opposition Ben Bella has pinned the label "traitors" and "counter-revolutionaries."

Among the contradictions of Ben Bella is the fact that, although he spent the last five years of the seven-year Algerian uprising in French confinement, he was able quickly to dispose of wartime leaders and establish his own one-man rule.

He successfully balances Moslem against non-Moslem and the army against his National Liberation Front, the only legal party in Algeria.

He has built the loyalty of the army on high pay and generous privileges. Col. Houari Boumediene, its commander, is first deputy premier.

He has banned the Communist party at home yet frequently has named Fidel Castro as among his idols.

Aid From Soviets

He refrains from close ties with Communist China, which has offered him $50 million in credits, yet copies some of the methods of Yugoslavia, one of Red China's bitterest enemies.

Last month the Soviet Union granted him more than $127 million in credits to go toward construction of a metallurgical complex, with the promise of more help to come. From France he receives more than $300 million each year in aid and from the United States comes much of the food that feeds the Algerian people.

Through France, he has membership in the European Common Market yet gradually he tries to squeeze French influence from his own country.

Ben Bella worries both France and the United States but over that concern is still another.

For, after Ben Bella what?

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Motion Picture Association of America reported that revenues of member companies in 1963 showed a five per cent rise after staying static from 1957 through 1962. Bobby Richardson Would Rather Fight Than Switch

By CURT BLOCK
UPI Sports Writer

Bobby Richardson would rather fight than switch, if he had a choice.

In the era of the long ball, Richardson remains the only Yankee regular without a home run to his credit this year, but the smallest of all the New Yorkers gave the spectators a lesson in batsmanship Thursday with a perfect 5-for-5 performance in a Minnesota ball park where home runs are the rule, not the exception.

At 5-foot-9, 170 pounds, the Yankee field general has no illusions about his power. Of his 87 base hits, 50 are singles, good for a .310 average and a spot among the league leaders.

The Minnesota musclemen who lead all clubs by a wide margin in the home run department could manage only one off New York pitching Thursday while Joe Pepitone and Roger Maris each connected with two men aboard to boost the Yankees to a 9-7 victory.

Although the Bomber bats gave starter Al Downing six runs in the first two innings, the young southpaw was gone in the third. Pete Mikkelsen, now 4-1, was the winner going 6-2-3 in six innings allowing five hits, including Jim Hall's 11th homer.

In the only other American League game, Chicago defeated Cleveland, 5-1. Baltimore at Kansas City was rained out.

Chicago inched closer to first place behind Floyd Robinson's two-run homer in the sixth off Cleveland starter and loser Dick Donovan.

The White Sox have the same percentage (.667) as the league leading Baltimore Orioles but trail the Birds by one game, having played fewer contests.

Frank Kreutzer held the Indians hitless for four innings in relief of Ray Herbert who left the game with a sore elbow but nevertheless got the win, his second in five decisions.

Northern Dancer Set for Saturday

NEW YORK (UPI) — Canadian-bred Northern Dancer was pronounced "as ready as he'll ever be" today on the eve of his bid to become the first Triple Crown winner since 1948 in Saturday's running of the $125,000 added Belmont Stakes.

"That's it," said trainer Horatio Luro, who supervised Northern Dancer's final workout over a two-mile course at secluded Belmont Park Thursday. "He's ready to face 'em all."

What had been shaping up as a tiny field of three or four horses only a few days ago now has blossomed into an eight-horse charge with seven three-year olds challenging the winner of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. No horse has won the Derby, Preakness and Belmont — the so-called Triple Crown — since Citation in 1948.

The Belmont field was increased to eight Thursday when Herbert Allen announced that he will enter Shook and Determined and George D. Widner said he will enter Brave Lad.

Earlier, it had appeared that Hill Rise, Roman Brother, Quadrangle and Orientalist would be the only four Thoroughbreds to face Northern Dancer.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

The Bankers outslugged Enco, 13-8 and Ideal lashed the Lions, 15-1 in last night's action at Optimist Park.

Relief pitcher Doug Kidwell took the win for Enco, coming in for Rowdy Rowden. Kirk Kelley went all the way in defeat. Gary McCarrell led the hitting with three safeties for the losers.

Johnny Marsh hurled a four-hitter for the Ideal win, striking out eight and walking three. Lonzo Gomez took the loss, hurt by bases on balls as he struck out nine, but walked eight. Sheldon Moore of the Lions and Jim Stroud of Ideal each had two hits.

STATE CONTENDERS — Leaving today for the State Jaycee Track Meet are (front, left to right): Dennis Keith, Dickie Sims, Kenneth Steidle. Behind them are Danny Reed and Ronnie Sergeant, with Howard Sanders and Lonzo Gomez in the rear. Also competing are Mark Thomas and Doc Cornutt.

Nine Pampa Entries To Jaycee Meet

Nine youngsters from Pampa, Skellytown, Lefors and Canadian will represent the Pampa Jaycees in the Jaycee State Track Meet in Dallas this weekend, four boys in the junior division and five in the prep division, the cream of the hundreds of contestants in the local meet here last month.

The preps will all be busy with a number of events, several entered in as many as four. Dickie Sims of Lefors High's relay teams will run the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes and on the sprint relay. Howard Sanders will be in the 220, 120-yard low hurdles, the relay and the shot put. Speedboy Kenneth Steidle will run the 100, the 440 and anchor on the relay and broad jump. Versatile Ronnie Sargent of Skellytown will hit the hurdles, the broad jump, the pole vault and run on the relay. Doc Cornutt will be the only specialist, the standout shot putter favored to take the state title in his event.

Dennis Keith and Mark Thomas will run the 50- and 75-yard dashes for the juniors. Keith also in the 220 and Thomas in the high jump. Lonzo Gomez will enter the 220, 440 and broad jump. Danny Reed the 440 and broad jump, with the quartet making up the sprint relay team.

The Jaycees will also enter one contestant in the swimming events at the meet. Scott Rader competing in the 50, 100 and 200-yard free style and the 220-yard individual medley.

Koufax Sets Records, Gives Team Big Pickup

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Manager Walt Alton said the Los Angeles Dodgers needed "a big pickup" and he nodded toward Sandy Koufax.

"He supplied it. We needed a big one, the way we're going. And his should be the pickup we wanted. It's great for him, and it's great for the team."

A few minutes earlier, Sandy blazed a third strike past a last ditch swing by Philadelphia Phillies' Bobby Wine for his 12th strikeout to close out the third no-hitter of his career, a 3-0 victory over the Phils Thursday night.

Only Larry Corcoran of the Chicago National Club in the 1880's, Denton "Cy" Young at the turn of the century, and Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians of recent vintage ever threw three no-hitters before.

The 12 strikeouts marked the 54th time in his career that he fanned 10 or more men in a game. He tied Feller and Rube Waddell of the old Philadelphia Athletics in that record, and Sandy has many more games and many more seasons to go.

The handsome Koufax, who goes for a no-hitter every time out, possibly missed a perfect game when he walked Richie Allen — the only Phillie to reach base — on a 3-2 count in the fourth inning. And polished gentleman that he is, Sandy shouldered all of the blame.

Dodger catcher Doug Camilli, his roommate, called for a curve ball. Sandy shook him off. He wanted a fast ball.

Changes Mind

"I was halfway through the windup when I realized Doug was right. The curve ball was the proper pitch. But I hadn't thought quickly enough. And you can't change a pitch halfway through your delivery," he said.

"When you're indecisive, you make a bad pitch. This was low and outside. There was no question about the call — it was a ball."

There was agreement from all, this was the real Koufax, the Yankee killer in the World Series, and beyond dispute, baseball's best pitcher.

Even Koufax agreed. "I felt better, felt like I used to feel. I think I was stronger in the last three or four innings with better stuff than I had earlier. Everything felt better. It was like the old days," he said.

Weird things happened in Industrial Softball last night as the Packers pounded the Jaycees, 20-1. Weathered won a hotly-disputed forfeit over Cabot and Miami turned back the Pampa All-Stars, 9-4.

The hapless Jaycees took their second straight lopsided loss as Raymond McKinney pitched a one-hitter for the Panhandlers, striking out 10 and walking one. McKinney led his own attack with a homer and single and David Fulton also hit a four-ply blast.

The second game was tight all the way. Lloyd Stephens of Weathered homered in the top of the seventh to tie the score, but Cabot apparently came back to win the game in the home half as Marlon Mills doubled, went to third on an error. Weathered protested that the Clowns had used an ineligible player, Homer West. The protest upheld and Weathered was awarded a 9-0 forfeit victory.

Bases on balls broke the back of the All-Stars at Miami as Gene Brown walked the sacks full in the third and Howard Morris doubled the runners home, with the Cowboys picking up three more runs in the fourth as Brown and Charlie Vaughn still had trouble finding the strike zone.

Action resumes next Tuesday with Miami vs. the Jaycees and Weathered vs. the Packers at Pampa and Cabot vs. the All-Stars at Miami.

As Usual, Unknown Leads Golf Opening

RYE, N.Y. (UPI) — Jerry Magee, the tall man from Toronto who won only $24 in a half year on the tour in 1963, carried a slender one-shot lead into the second round of the $100,000 Thunderbird golf Classic today.

But the 30-year-old Canadian faced a tough task in his bid for the $20,000 first prize with a host of cash-hardened veterans including Arnold Palmer hot on his heels.

Magee's opening-round 66 put him one shot in front of Ken Venturi and Phil Rodgers—the chunky red had firing six under par 30 on the back nine at hilly, wind-swept Westchester Country Club.

Palmer after the opening round was only two shots back with a 35-33-68 that tied him with eight others as 43 sharpshooters broke par 72 and Jack Nicklaus came apart on the back nine for a 35-38-73.

Also tied at 68 were Tony Lema, former British Open champion Kel Nagle of Australia, Bob Goalby, Bobby Nichols, Harold Kneese, Bob Rosburg, Marty Furgol — and Paul Harvey who lost a sudden death playoff in this one to Palmer last year.

Mike Souchak headed an even half dozen at 69 which included Canada's Al Balding, pendulum putter Bob Duren, Dick Crawford, Tommy Jacobs and Jay Dolan.

The 70 group included Tommy Bolt, big Bill Collins, Joe Campbell, Gordon Jones, Billy Farrell, Dave Hill, Don January and George Archer, top candidate for pro golf's rookie of the year honors.

Slammin' Sammy Snead, at 32 still the same old stylist, headed 17 who fired one under par 71's. Sam's 35-36-71 tied him with such as Billy Casper, Gary Player, Doug Sanders, George Bayer and Art Wall.

The 125-man field will be cut to the low 90 and ties after today's second round and to the low 60 and ties after Saturday's third round for the windup Sunday.

Colts Face Two Strong Loop Foes

The Pampa Colts face a pair of toughies in this weekend's Tri-State League action. Smarting from their hotly-disputed loss to Berger this week, the Colts face undefeated Umberger at Umberger tomorrow night and come home Sunday to host defending champion Amarillo.

Big Jerry Glover, the Colt ace, will take the mound Saturday night against Umberger, which has won its first two loop games from strong Guymon. Blazin' Bobby Price will back Jerry up.

In Sunday's home opener against the powerful Plowboys, roly-poly Mike Clark will be the starting hurler, with Wallace Matthew in reserve. Amarillo, made up completely of college and former pro players, will probably send Hugh Blanton, former Gold Sox hurler, to the mound.

RYE, N. Y. (UPI)—Slammin' Sammy Snead, who once lost the U. S. Open on a 30-inch putt, disclosed Thursday that he will use a pendulum putter two weeks hence in a desperate attempt to score his first triumph in golf's greatest classic.

Snead, at 52 still one of the game's finest players, also is regarded as one of the best long putters. But the years have given him the "yips" on the short ones.

"This just may do the trick," Snead asserted after shooting a one under par 71 in the first round of the $100,000 Thunderbird Classic.

The Slammin' Sam has won every other major event in posting 113 tournament triumphs. Four times he has been second in the Open and the most bitter one of all was when he missed a 30-inch putt on the final hole to lose a playoff against Lew Worsham in 1947.

"I'll tell you one thing," said Sam. "I won't miss no 30-inch putt with this pendulum putter. I don't yip a single putt with this club."

Three professionals on the tour use the pendulum putter, which has a straight shaft to a croquet type head. Bob Shave of Willoughby, Ohio, and Chuck Rotar of Victorville, Calif., use a long shafted club with their hands well separated. Bob Duden of Portland, Ore. uses a shorter shaft and swings the putter between his legs. It netted him a 69 in the first round of the Thunderbird.

Sam is a bit embarrassed at what people may think when he uses the pendulum putter but said, "I might try it right here in this tournament if I'm making a run at the top."

"I've used the thing in a half dozen rounds back at Greenbrier," he revealed, "and I've been under par every time. On one round I had a seven under par 65."

Same As Shave
Snead doesn't use the type which is swung from between the legs but handles the pendulum just as do Shave and Rotar.

"You put your left hand on the top of the shaft and the right hand on the bottom," he explained. "You get a straight look at the cup instead of looking down at the ball and not seeing the cup as in the regular way of putting. There's nothing that can turn on you and it's amazing the way you can hole those short putts of 12 feet or less."

Sam will carry two putters, discarding either his two or three iron to stay within the 14-club limit.

"I'll use the regular putter on those real long ones," he said. "But when I've got one of 12 feet or less I'll shift to the pendulum job."

New Salvoes Fired In AAU-NCAA War

NEW YORK (UPI) — War, it's wonderful seems to be the slogan of the AAU and the NCAA.

Let quiet descend on the amateur sports scene for a few weeks and lead the country to believe that peace may have arrived at last and one of the other of the two organizations fires a new salvo.

New Baseball Coach at OSU

GOODWELL, Okla. (UPI) — Chet Bryan, veteran baseball and basketball coach at Norman, Okla., High School, will be the new head baseball coach at Oklahoma State University.

Bryan succeeds Toby Greene, who is retiring after 21 years as Cowboy baseball coach.

Bryan played professional baseball with Wichita Falls, Tex., in the West Texas-New Mexico League, managed Chickasha in the Sooner State League and has been a scout for the Houston Colts since 1961.

Discus Men Open USTFF

HOUSTON (UPI) — Burly discus throwers were scheduled to start the U.S. Federation Track and Field district championships this afternoon in Jeppesen Stadium in a meet with a long and distinguished entry list.

Afternoon final events include the discus, javelin, hop-step-and-jump and the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

Afternoon trials included the 120-yard hurdles, the 100-yard dash, 440-yard relay, 440-yard dash, 220-yard dash on a curve, 880-yard run and the 440-yard hurdles.

Finals in the other events were scheduled to begin this evening to discover the areas' leading track and field men.

In addition to college and high school track and field athletes, seven clubs of about 80 girls will participate in the first women's state championships.

Dodger Ace Walks One in No-Hitter

Sandy Just Shy Perfect Game

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer
Sandy Koufax still was one pitch away from perfection today, but the dandy southpaw is steadily zeroing in on that baseball milestone.

The 28-year-old Koufax twirled the third no-hitter of his career Thursday night in pitching the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 3-0 victory over the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies and missed a perfect game by inches when his 3-2 pitch to rookie Richie Allen sailed low and outside in the fourth inning.

Koufax now has pitched no-hitters in each of his last three seasons, and each was closer to perfection than the other. In his first hitless performance, Sandy allowed the New York Mets five walks on June 30, 1962, and he limited the San Francisco Giants to only two free passes on May 11 of last year.

"I have this to say," Koufax said after the game. "This was the best of the three."

Should Get Better
If Koufax gets any better — and he's given every indication that he might — he will become the first pitcher in modern National League history to hurl a perfect game. All five perfect games in modern annals have been accomplished in the American League, the last being Don Larsen's World Series masterpiece in 1956.

The Brooklyn-born Koufax, who will receive the Babe Ruth Award tonight at New York's Shea stadium as the outstanding player in the 1963 World Series, joins a select trio of Larry Corcoran (1800s), Cy Young and Bob Feller who have pitched three no-hitters. No pitcher ever has pitched four no-hitters in a career.

Koufax pitched to the minimum of 27 batters and struck out 12 men, marking the 54th time in his career he had struck out 10 men or more. That tied him with Feller and Rube Waddell for the major league record, which is unlikely to stand long with Koufax around.

Howard Homers
Frank Howard provided Koufax with all the runs he needed in the seventh inning when he hit a three-run homer on the left-centerfield roof, his 14th of the year. Koufax's no-hitter was the second of the young season but only the first in victory. Ken Johnson of Houston lost a 1-0 no-hitter against Cincinnati on April 23. All of Sandy's no-hitters have come at night, and Thursday night's was the first he has pitched on the road.

Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco, 4-2. Cincinnati stopped Milwaukee, 6-3, despite a triple play by the Braves. Chicago edged the Cardinals, 2-1, and Houston outlasted the Mets, 7-3, in other National League games.

Rookie Steve Blass pitched a five-hitter and the Pirates erupted for four runs in the fourth inning to hang the defeat on the Giants. The Pittsburgh rally featured a two-run single by Bill Mazeroski.

Robinson Belts Two
Frank Robinson clouted his 10th and 11th homers to provide the Reds' Jim O'Toole with his fourth victory of the year. Robbie's 11th home run in the ninth with two men aboard shattered a 3-3 tie. The Braves' triple play — the third of the year — occurred in the second

Weather Plagues Big Spring Rodeo

BIG SPRING, Tex. (UPI) — The annual Big Spring rodeo, plagued by stiff winds and a soggy arena, entered its third day today.

Thursday a one-inch rainfall soaked the turf and made it a slippery battle for the contestants as a crowd of 1,000 watched.

Leaders after two days of competition:

Bareback bronc riding: Paul Mayo, Grinnell, Iowa; calf roping, Jim Daugherty, Sandia, Tex.; girl's barrel race, Marie Voss, Snyder, Tex.; saddle bronc riding, Duane Rodewald, Crain, Colo.; brahma bull riding, Bill Minich, Fort Worth.

Dick Ellsworth notched his seventh victory of the year for the Cubs when Ron Santo slammed his seventh homer in the fourth with Billy Williams on base. Williams, whose league-leading batting average slipped one point to .411, collected one double in three appearances.

Dick Farrell gained credit for his eighth win, but needed relief help from Don Larsen who pitched hitless ball for 3-2-3 innings. The Colts took advantage of four New York errors and collected 15 hits — their high of the season — in defeating Al Jackson.

A Watchful Newspaper
EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Crime and Intervention

Recently a story came from New York City. On March 14 this year, Miss Catherine Genovese was murdered by an assailant with 38 Queens residents in the vicinity of whom he heard her cries for help. The murderer was frightened away twice but finally returned to finish the task of stabbing his victim to death. None interfered, nor called the police.

A second story has come from the same city. A young woman was raped by a crazed assailant who ripped her clothes from her and beat her into submission while at least two dozen persons, who could have intervened, stood by.

A third story came to our attention sometime ago. At a bus stop in Manhattan, with a crowd of persons waiting for transportation, a thief appeared, tossed a brick through the window of a jewelry store, and helped himself to the contents. No one waiting for the bus so much as summoned the police.

Here are three crimes, all different, yet all containing the same element. Ordinary citizens refused to interfere even in the face of violence and horror. Would these same citizens have cried for help if they had suddenly found themselves victimized?

But now a fourth story. From New York comes the word of a 33-year-old woman, Miss Gloria Palter, who did intervene, who did call the police, and who now says she regrets doing it and that she would do it again.

What happened to Miss Palter was this: She began to get telephone calls from a man who disguised his voice and who talked to her intimately and obscenely. She could have changed her telephone number. Now, she says, if anything like this happens again, that is exactly what she will do.

But in the instant case, Miss Palter decided that she would work with the police in an effort to track down this man who was leaving her in a state of shock after each telephone obscenity. This determination caused her an ordeal that took many hours of her time and left her emotionally and physically drained.

After several of these calls, Miss Palter made use of the telephone number that had been published in New York to be used in just such an emergency. A policeman listened apathetically to her story and asked her if she had been assigned a case number. When she said she had not, the policeman promised to call back, but never did. The insulting and degrading phone assaults continued.

Finally, she went to her local precinct station. After considerable effort she convinced Detective Walter B. Morrissey that she would cooperate all the way with the police and would assist them to track down the soft-boiled profanist.

Without going into the details of the matter, the cooperation will finally be paid off, the man was apprehended, confessed to his conversations and was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

Now Miss Palter says that she did not want the man to go to jail; rather, she was hopeful that he would receive psychiatric care. So next time she will simply change her telephone number — if there is a next time.

And that brings us back to the terrible plight of the recent victims in New York and the fact that in each of the cases mentioned, a number of persons were standing by, some actual witnesses, and yet they did nothing. Could it be that quite a number of these people had already had some experience with the law and the law's delay with red tape and frustration? Could it be that they simply didn't want to get involved? Could it be that they took a calloused position merely concluding that "plenty of money is paid for police protection. Let the cops do their jobs."

Possibly cynicism is developing on a broad base in our society. Possibly a lot of things. But there was a time only a few hundred years ago, before such things as municipal police forces were in vogue, when a cry of "stop thief" would bring everyone to his feet and institute a rush of bystanders to the aid of the victim.

Those were the days when everyone seemed to understand that theft and murder and rape were wrong. Nowadays, although most will still attest to this belief, there is waning confidence that the government can or will do very much about it in the final analysis.

Possibly, although the situation looks bleak, it will lead to the best. If we ever get it through our heads that we have to provide our own protection, that we can and should volunteer to assist others in distress, then the cause of honesty and order will be served.

But what of New York? Did you know that in that city it is now against the law for persons to carry some of the dandy new devices that have been invented to ward off just such assaults as those described? There are pen guns which emit tear gas, readily carried in purse or pocket. There is another little item that emits a nerve gas, that reduces an assailant to impotence. Neither cause permanent damage and anyone can use one effectively. The law in New York prohibits their use. It is illegal to carry such protection in spite of the fact that it causes no permanent harm and is easy for anyone to use.

We have in mind that the good people of New York will be infinitely better off when the following sequence of events occurs: 1) They discover that they have to be responsible for their own safety; 2) They take the necessary steps to see that they are individually prepared for the unexpected; 3) They stop relying on the government for protection.

When this change of view has occurred generally, there is no doubt in our mind that far more effective methods will be available to prevent and deter crime than presently exist under a government monopoly.

Without going into the details of the matter, the cooperation will finally be paid off, the man was apprehended, confessed to his conversations and was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

Now Miss Palter says that she did not want the man to go to jail; rather, she was hopeful that he would receive psychiatric care. So next time she will simply change her telephone number — if there is a next time.

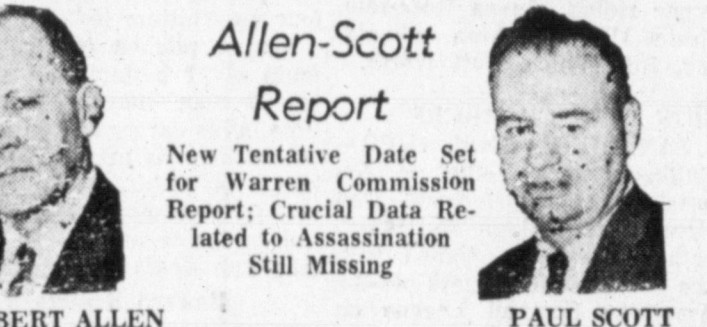

And that brings us back to the terrible plight of the recent victims in New York and the fact that in each of the cases mentioned, a number of persons were standing by, some actual witnesses, and yet they did nothing. "So Where Do You Put the Rescue Net?"

ROBERT ALLEN PAUL SCOTT

Allen-Scott Report

New Tentative Date Set for Warren Commission Report; Crucial Data Related to Assassination Still Missing

WASHINGTON — The special commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy has been forced to set a new target date for completion of its already overdue report — September 1.

Even that is tentative. The seven-member probing group had planned to publish its world-awaited findings by June 1. But a number of important witnesses are still to be heard, and crucial information still is being sought with no certainty when it can be obtained — if ever.

For example: Biggest gap in the commission's historic study is a comprehensive account of Lee Harvey Oswald's connections and activities during the three years he was in Russia as a "dedicated Marxist" and vowed defector.

The commission is still very much in the dark on this vital phase of the killer's life. Records and other material supplied by the Soviet have shed little light. The last batch, submitted some weeks ago, was of no material consequence. It chiefly supplemented and corroborated previous official documents.

Similarly, the State Department so far has provided scant significant information.

Secretary Rusk, Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who was in Moscow throughout the period Oswald lived in Russia, and members of the embassy's staff who had dealings with him have yet to testify. Several times, Rusk has been slated to appear, but crises and sudden trips to Europe and Southeast Asia necessitated postponements.

The commission still does not definitely know when these key State Department authorities will tell their stories.

STRANGE QUESTION — Also up in the air is when Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy will testify. As exclusively disclosed in this column, the former First Lady has agreed to do that. But she has not signified when and in what manner — in person or in a written account.

A close friend of hers has told commission members Mrs. Kennedy is "going through a difficult period. She has good days and bad days. Perhaps what she is experiencing can best be described as undergoing the full reaction of what she has gone through. It's just catching up with her. She needs time to prepare herself for this ordeal, which it certainly will be."

The investigators expect Mrs. Kennedy to testify in person. But she may decide otherwise. They know she is consulting Attorney General Robert Kennedy, as she does on virtually all matters. She conferred with him before accepting the commission's invitation to appear. Even more indefinite is a statement from President Johnson.

As reported by this column, the commission has indicated it will be glad to receive anything he cares to submit. So far there has been no word on what he will do.

Another factor delaying the investigators' report is the protracted Senate battle over the civil rights bill. This 10-week-old struggle has drastically curtailed the time and efforts of two of the probers — Senators Richard Russell, Ga., leader of the Southern bloc, and John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., in the forefront of the fight for the legislation.

In the next several weeks, Mrs. Ruth Paine, in whose home Mrs. Marina Oswald was living at the time of the assassination, will be recalled for further questioning.

The probers particularly want to ask her about some baffling remarks made in the course of a conversation. As reported to the commission, Mrs. Paine's enigmatic statement was as follows:

"Do you think the government has done something they are ashamed of and are trying to cover up?"

"No, do you?" was the reply.

"Oh, no," said Mrs. Paine, "of course not."

"Then why did you ask?"

"I just wondered," said Mrs. Paine.

J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, is being advised to ask Attorney General

A thought for the day—English author Thomas de Quincey said: "The reception one meets with from the women of a family generally determines the tenor of one's whole entertainment."

Kennedy, CIA Director John McCone and other top officials to file affidavits that they have submitted all the documents and information in the files of their agencies relating to Oswald and the assassination.

This is being urged as a "precautionary measure."

GENTLEMANLY BATTLE — One of the most significant aspects of the 10-week-long Senate debate over the civil rights measure is the restraint and decorum that has characterized it.

There have been a few instances of frayed tempers. But they were brief and left no lasting scars. However, the battle is far from over, and as the decisive votes near, the courtly atmosphere may change.

In the meanwhile, the debate continues amicably. Illustrative is the following exchange:

Senator Edmund Muskie, D-Me.: "The Congressional Record should reflect the fact that the Southern colleagues of my friend from North Carolina and Louisiana are not present to hear the speech of the distinguished Senator from Pennsylvania."

Senator Sam Ervin, D-N.C.: "I should like to point out that they are absent for an entirely different reason. They already have possession of the truth, and they are now pondering some way in which to express the truth more eloquently in the hope that the Senator from Maine and the Senator from Pennsylvania will be converted to the right side of this issue."
