Accidents Hike Toll Over State

Automobile accidents and drownings took most of the lives lost to violence in Texas over the weekend - including two persons drowned when an amphibious auto sank in the Gulf of Mexico.

A count by United Press International showed 31 dead including 18 in highway smashups and 7 drowned.

Drowned when the sea-going car capsized were auto salesman Grand Edward Israel. 26. of Buffalo, N. Y., and June Anderson, 21, of Corpus Christi. Israel was demonstrating the car Saturday in heavy seas about 150 yards off Padre Island near Corpus Christi. A heavy wave flipped it over.

MASKED MARVEL-Tinker is a member of the Wayne Adkins household in Pe Ell, Washington. Adkins works with a power saw crew on a nearby Weyerhaeuser tree farm and adopted the orphan raccoon when it was tiny. It's an ideal pet, romps with the children and loves to ride in the car. Tinker's greatest accomplishment is operating the street water fountain while on a walk. Most disconcerting trick: suddenly switching channels on the television set.

Dear Abby Pray for A Short Rainy, Summer, Forget the Taste

DEAR ABBY: Summer is tust around the corner and with it will come a problem that I have battled for the last four summers. My husband fancies himself an expert barbecue cook. He thinks he knows all there is to know about barbecuing and the results are disastrous! He never asks anyone how they like their steaks or hamburgers done, but proceeds to burn everything until it's dry and tough because that's the way HE likes his. He gets so mean and stubborn when he puts that apron on that nobody can tell him anything. I love the delicious taste of outdoor barbecued meats that cannot be duplicated in the kitchen. Any helpful ideas to solve my problem would be appreciated. RAGGED EDGE

DEAR RAGGED: Serry. but you are fighting a losing battle. There is nothing as impossible as a man who thinks he can barbecue. Pray for a short and rainy summer. And forget the "delicious taste of outdoor barbecued meats." Its not worth it.

DEAR ABBY I understand that the bride has the say when it comes to the wedding. but what is the proper procedure when the groom's father is a minister (of the same faith) but lives in a distant town? If the bride asks her future father-in-law to perform the ceremony, what about her local minister? If she asks her own minister to officiate, what about the groom's father? Weddings can be difficult. Thank goodness 1 am the

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I haven't been getting along too well for quite some time. When he goes to work, he calls me all day to make sure I'm home. He's so jealous it's sickening. I get one hour a week for shopping. (At night.) He says there's too much cheating going on in the world and he doesn't want it to happen to us. Abby, I've been so bored and lonely for so long that when this young man spoke to me (on my hour out) I couldn't help myself. He's been coming to my house while my husband works, and I've never been happier. This other man is not married and he loves kids. (I have one.) He wants to marry me. I am under 25 and have my whole life ahead of me. I can't get a personal reply as my husband picks up the mail, so answer this in the paper. I can always deny it's me. What should I do?

WANTS A CHANGE DEAR WANTS: Stick with the man you're married to. He has his faults, but at least you know what they are. The new Romeo may provide a new thirll, but that will wear off, too, eventually. The only thing you can be sure of insofar as the new flame is concerned is that he spends his afternoons with married women while their husbands work. Is THAT the kind of husband you want? Think if over.

DEAR ABBY: Last year I paid $45 for a pair of skis. They were hardly used, and as good as new. A very good friend of mine offered to buy them from me, so because of our friendship. I sold them to her for $12. Then she turned around and sold them to someone else for $25 and went bragging all around town about the profit she made on the deal. It's not the money, it's the principle of the thing. would like your opinion of this person.

By WAYNE BRANDSTADT There are several ways to lose weight. Exercise is one, but it has limitations. It takes a lot of exercise to lose a pound, and the exercise stim-

Theodore Roosevelt was governor of New York for two years, then his political opponents decided to elevate him to the honorable seclusion of the vice presidency. Roosevelt ruefully prepared to beguile the dreary boredom with the study of law. Less than a year later, however, President McKinley was assassinated and Roosevelt became president.
