JUST WAITIN' — Harvest crews and wheat farmers over most of Gray county today were in the same fix as Jim Philpott who is sitting on a combine waiting for the sun to dry out the ground and wheat after overnight rains. Wheat crop observers said the harvest already had lost two or three days this week because of the rain. Most combines were expected to be back in the field Saturday afternoon. Philpott's fields were about half harvested when the rain struck and his dryland yield averaged about 20 bushels per acre to top all reports so far this year.

Racial Strife Slows With Tactics Switch

By United Press International
A change in tactics by Negro leaders brought about a slight lessening of racial tension today in two trouble southern cities.

Trouble Brewing Again in Dallas

DALLAS (UPI)—Civil rights demonstrators went right from a courtroom victory back to the picket lines at a segregated restaurant today.

Dist. Judge Dallas Blankenship threw out a temporary restraining order he had issued himself June 2, forbidding the demonstrators to march within 50 feet of the Piccadilly Cafeteria.

He acted after a white lawyer for the demonstrators argued that the cafeteria's attorneys had not met all the legal requirements in asking for the court order.

At the same time, he dismissed a request by the cafeteria to hold five of the demonstration leaders in contempt of court, since they could not be punished for defying an invalid order.

Priest Asks Pope to Remove Archbishop on Racial Issue

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A young Roman Catholic priest, who said he had been disciplined before and threatened with suspension, has asked Pope Paul VI to remove James Francis Cardinal McIntyre as archbishop of Los Angeles for alleged failure to exercise "moral leadership" against racial discrimination.

Sandy-haired, 29-year-old Father William H. DuBay, temporary administrator of St. Albert The Great Catholic Church in nearby Compton, held a news conference Thursday to confirm that he sent the letter to the Pope.

In his letter, Father DuBay said he told the Pope that the cardinal was guilty of "gross malfeasance" of his duties.

A chancery spokesman said the cardinal had no comment, nor was one expected. Father DuBay's immediate superior, the Rev. Martin McGovern, pastor of St. Albert's, was reported in Ireland. The parish is about 80 per cent Negro, according to Father DuBay.

The priest told newsmen he had been "disciplined several times for speaking on the issue" of race and was "threatened a year ago with suspension from priestly duties if I continued to preach that integration is a moral issue."

He said he had decided "now is the time to speak out and be honest" about the racial issue. Asked what would happen to him for writing to the Pope, Father DuBay said:

"I don't know. I have never done this before."

He added that he was prepared to accept dismissal from priestly duties, but said he did not know what he would do if dismissed. "I will decide that when the time comes."

Rain Puts New Delay On Harvest

Scattered thunderstorms, hail and tornadoes, struck the Panhandle again last night and put a further damper on the wheat harvest.

Farmers in Gray County had hoped to get back into the fields by late today. However, the added .15-inch moisture caused another delay of probably one or two days.

Tornadoes hop-skipped across the Panhandle and South Plains during the night.

A house trailer was overturned and torn apart 13 miles southwest of Tulla. The Amarillo Weather Bureau said a twister was spotted four miles south of Tulla about the same time. A woman and her three children were inside the trailer, but were not seriously hurt.

Other twisters were about a mile north of Bovina and 14 miles southwest of Amarillo, although an observer said the one near Amarillo did not touch ground.

Rainfall around Pampa was reported light compared with other parts of the Panhandle.

Pampa received .15-inch as compared with 1.20 near Amarillo, .60 at Conway, and .34 at Panhandle.

Wheat was damaged by hail in the Amarillo, Borger, Fritch, Stinnett and Pringle areas. No hail was reported in Gray County.

Scranton Joins Race For GOP Nomination

Goldwater Due to Get 39 More Convention Votes From 6 States

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Front-runner Barry Goldwater's presidential bandwagon was expected to pick up speed today with the addition of at least 39 more Republican convention delegates from six states.

Additional delegates were being chosen at state GOP conventions in Minnesota, Maryland, Missouri, Utah, Connecticut and Idaho.

Goldwater headquarters here said the Arizona senator already has 500 delegates solidly committed to his cause at next month's convention in San Francisco.

A United Press International count of Goldwater's delegate strength showed that, as of now, he has 532 committed to him.

Furthermore, 56 delegates from Texas seem certain to wind up in the Goldwater camp at a convention Tuesday. Two days later, Montana will select 14 more who will be publicly uncommitted but privately pledged to Goldwater.

These gains, together with the pickup of at least 28 more delegates at state GOP conventions Saturday in Virginia and New Mexico, would build Goldwater's first-ballot strength to above the 600-delegate mark. He needs 655 to win the GOP presidential nomination.

As New York Republicans met Thursday to designate the last 10 of the state's delegates, Goldwater succeeded in picking up one additional vote from the home state of his rival, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. A recount of the balloting in the 6th Congressional District in Queens gave the victory to a pro-Goldwater man by 30 votes.

Rockefeller expects to go to the San Francisco convention with 85 of New York's 92 delegates behind him—75 elected in the June 2 primary and 10 at-large delegates named Thursday. Three delegates are pledged to Goldwater and four are uncommitted.

Governor Says He's Candidate For Presidency

By LLOYD R. ROCHELLE
United Press International

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania threw his hat in the ring today as an active contender for the Republican presidential nomination which Sen. Barry Goldwater has almost sewed up.

Scranton declared himself in the race in an unqualified announcement before the Maryland Republican state convention.

"I come here to announce I am a candidate for the presidency of the United States," the 46-year-old governor said in a keynote address to the convention.

In abandoning his long-held position of being available only for a "sincere and honest caft," Scranton refused to concede that the GOP nomination had been locked up by Goldwater.

He charged that Goldwater's nomination would destroy "all hope of a Republican victory in the fall."

"With more than half of the delegates (to the GOP convention) not yet committed, they tell us to surrender the dignity of our party, the respect of our fellow citizens, and all hope of a Republican victory in the fall," he said.

"I stand before you today to challenge that view," Scranton said. "I for one believe that our party will not make its decision until the final roll call has been completed four weeks from now. I say that we are going to San Francisco to hold a convention, not a coronation—and I hope you agree that we are not going there to hold a wake."

Scranton conceded he faced an uphill battle to wrest the nomination from Goldwater.

"We have waited dangerously long to call upon our party's conscience, upon its wisdom, upon its will," he declared.

"For too many months we have been slow to act, but fast to say it could not happen to us... not to our party. I share responsibility with others of our leaders who have failed to act."

Obviously referring to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Scranton said he wanted to "frankly express my admiration for those who earlier entered the list, with energy and dedication. Now, surely, all of us must confront reality. It is about to happen to our party."

The latest United Press International tabulation showed that Scranton has a total of 70 votes committed to him at the Republican convention. Pennsylvania has provided him with 61. In addition he has six from Iowa, two from North Dakota and one from Vermont.

Goldwater has a total of 532 delegates in the UPI count with 655 needed for nomination.

Among the other possible candidates, Rockefeller has 125, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge has 44, and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon has 12.

While not mentioning Goldwater by name, Scranton clearly implied that the senator would prove a drag on GOP candidates for lesser offices in the November election.

"We could send down to defeat good men and good women who stand ready to carry our banner," he said. "We will do so if we let an exclusion-minded minority dominate our platform and choose our candidates."

"But, we have a choice. And that is why I have come here today."

Scranton, in his appeal for support stressed the tradition of the party when it was led by Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"I believe that as members of a party more than 100 years old we have no right to sell out to the modern expediences of the easy answer, the fast draw, the quick solution," he said.

"I know we have an obligation, dearly bought by our forefathers, to remind ourselves and to remind America that our first national administration, under Lincoln, was elected because it was responsible—because it was creative—because it was imaginative."

Scranton continued: "I say that the true spirit of the Republican party today stands equally dedicated to preserving this nation from the dry-rot of phony liberalism or the slow death of blind reaction. I say that the time has come to stand fast against both those who would compromise us into slavery and those who would lead us there in a burst of irresponsible flames."

In Washington, Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., former GOP national chairman and now chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said "I think that Gov. Scranton's decision proves what I've said all along—that we don't have a closed convention."

Morton said "I have a very high regard for him and I'm sure he will make a determined run for the nomination."

Jaycees Pushing Seat Belt Drive

Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce members kicked off their annual highway safety campaign today with a special drive to sell local residents seat belts.

Jaycees planned to operate two seat belt installation locations this afternoon and Saturday. Members will sell the belts from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. today and from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday in Furr's parking lot on N. Hobart St. and at the Top O' Texas Conoco service station, 845 W. Wilks St.

Jaycees in charge of the safety program said belts can be installed in 15 minutes at a cost of $5.95 per belt or $11.50 per set. Residents wishing to have the seat belts installed but who are unable to get to either of the two centers may call MO 9-9182 and a Jaycee will pick up the car and return it after the belts are installed.

Less Confusion? Well, You Try It

ERIE, Pa. (UPI)—Henry Lam, 51, also known as Kee Lam, filed application for petition Thursday on behalf of his wife, Yee Suey, and their children, Robert, 13, Jeannie, 12, Terry, 11, Nancy, 10, Paul, 6, and Mary Ann, 4, to have their names changed to Kim Soon Fong, Yee Suey Fong and Robert, Jeannie, Terry, Nancy, Paul and Mary Ann Fong.

Lam said he wanted to eliminate confusion.

Rogers Opposes Federal Pay Hike Okayed by House

Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa was among the six Texas Democrats who voted against the federal pay raise bill that passed the House Thursday.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, gave the congressman a $7,500 a year raise and also raised the salaries of federal employees from the vice president to many white collar workers.

The Texas delegation split on the issue with 14 of the 23-man delegation voting for the bill. Republicans voted against the raise 111 to 59 and Democrats voted for it, 118 to 46.

The five Texas Democrats who joined with Rogers in opposition to the pay raise include Omar Burleson of Anson, Clark Fisher of San Angelo, George Mahon of Lubbock, Bob Poage of Waco and Ray Roberts of McKinney.

Russians Sign New Friendship Pact With East

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union and East Germany today signed a new 20-year friendship and mutual assistance treaty which treats West Berlin as a separate unit "in no way part of West Germany."

The signing of the pact was announced by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht at a Kremlin rally.

"The treaty will strengthen mutual assistance and assure the frontiers of East Germany which will be one of the factors of peace in Europe," Ulbricht said.

Little Chance Seen for Civil Rights Bill Change

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., said today southern opponents of the civil rights bill had very little chance of forcing any significant changes in the Senate measure.

Russell told newsmen, however, that southerners would keep on calling for votes on their proposals. He said they were determined to "make a record" by forcing roll calls on their modifications.

"These people who are pressing this cup to our lips — we are going to give them a chance to make this very bad record," Russell said.

Russell's comments came after a series of 12 roll call votes Thursday under the tight debate limitations imposed by Wednesday's historic cloture vote.

The voting pattern suggested that opponents of the bill would make only such changes in the bipartisan substitute for the House-approved bill as Senate leaders were willing to accept.

Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., predicted as much. He said he did not believe important changes would be made in the substitute. Humphrey, the bill's floor manager, said he hoped for a final vote of approval next week.

Russell said, however, that opponents of the bill were "not particularly interested in shortening it up." At one point, he said that southerners would call up "not more than 225" of the more than 550 pending amendments. He said, however, that the southern group would not "prolong indefinitely" the proceedings under cloture.

Erhard Arrives For LBJ Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard arrived here today for talks with President Johnson which took on increased significance by the signing of a 20-year treaty between the Soviet Union and the puppet East German regime.

Erhard and the President were expected to center their discussions on the possibility of tougher Communist moves as a result of the new pact, which treats West Berlin as a separate unit "in no way part of West Germany."

Sheriff Facing Perjury Charges

WICHITA FALLS (UPI)—Suspended Wichita County Sheriff Hammett Vance, who won reelection by a 2-1 margin last Saturday, will go on trial June 22 on two perjury indictments.

A county grand jury last week handed down 12 indictments charging forgery and perjury against Vance. He denied the allegations.

Vance, president of the Texas-Law Enforcement Association, was accused of lying to the grand jury May 6 when he swore he made a trip to Florida last year alone.

He was accused of taking along Mrs. Marie Cavett, 29, of Arlington. She was convicted of murder without malice in 1961 and handed a five-year probation sentence.

Gov. Wallace to Speak at Meeting Of Conservatives

AUSTIN (UPI)—Alabama Gov. George Wallace will address the Tuesday convention of the Conservative party of Texas in Dallas, the party chairman said today.

Bart Logan of San Antonio, chairman of the ultra-conservative Texas political group, said Wallace will speak at an 8 p.m. rally at the Sheraton Hotel to promote his campaign to send unpledged presidential electors from Southern states.

The rally is not binding on either Wallace, as a possible candidate, or the party, Logan stressed. He said most of the party members now favor U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., as a presidential candidate.

$3 Million Slant Hole Suit Filed

QUITMAN, Tex. (UPI)—A $3.1 million slant-hole oil well suit has been filed against three East Texas oilmen.

Vivian Lott of Mineola and 16 other individuals filed the suit against H. M. Harrington and Charles W. Lutes, both of Longview, and J. G. Walker Jr. of Tyler.

The suit alleged that two wells drilled by the defendants in the Hawkins field in Wood County, angled across the borderline of their 40-acre field and bottomed on the 50-acre lease of the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs contend that the slanted wells drained 600,000 barrels of oil and 200 million cubic feet of natural gas from their land.

Maniacal Killer Dies of Wounds; 13 Near Death

COLOGNE, Germany (UPI)—A school teacher and at least 12 children lay near death from burns today, the helpless victims of a berserk war veteran who waged a one-man reign of terror in the suburbs of this ancient German city.

Two other teachers were stabbed to death and 16 children were less seriously burned when Walter Seifert, 42, stormed through a Roman Catholic grade school and spread horror with a homemade flamethrower and a crude spear.

"I'm afraid we must reckon on losing some," a school official said today.

Seifert died in a hospital nine hours after the attack from a self-inflicted dose of poison and bullet wounds at the hands of police who pursued him.

"But why the school?" a detective asked Seifert in the hospital.

"Coincidence... pure coincidence," Seifert moaned.

"But why didn't you go after the doctor you said tried to kill you?" the detective persisted.

"That is a long, long story," Seifert whispered. "I'll tell you tomorrow, if you still want to know." He gasped a final breath, and died.

Rangers Checking Vote Fraud Case

LUFKIN, Tex. (UPI)—Texas Rangers were on hand today to help investigate charges of fraud in Saturday's runoff election in Angelina County.

Dist. Judge Jack Pierce ordered voting records impounded Thursday and told Dist. Atty. Hulon Brown to investigate. Five persons had filed affidavits with Brown alleging the election fraud.

Texas law requires a judge to take such action when at least two "responsible" citizens file affidavits.

To challenge the results of the election, a suit would have to be filed in civil court by a candidate. Deadline for this filing would be next Tuesday—10 days after the election.

There was only one close race in the county—that between Burl McBride (6,038) and Leon Jones (6,037) for sheriff.

Parents Warned About Children

Pampa Police Chief Jim Conner cautioned parents today to keep their children from playing on or around railroad tracks.

The youngsters were sighted in time and a serious accident was avoided, Conner said.

Two small boys were caught piling debris across a set of railroad tracks near the Hobart street underpass yesterday.

The chief also reminded parents that they are subject to a fine by permitting children to play on railroad tracks.

CROP Will Sponsor Two Clothing Drives

Emphasis week for the first of two clothing drives sponsored by the Christian Rural Overseas Program will be the last week in July.

Dr. Carver to Fill Pulpit for Two Services

Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church will be in the pulpit for both services of worship Sunday. At the 11 a.m. worship service he will preach from the subject "Easy to Say But Difficult to Do" with the text taken from Ephesians 4:32. Joe Whitten, Minister of Music, will direct the church choir in singing "Seek Ye The Lord."

The pastor has chosen, "Our Hope — Jesus Is Coming" for his sermon topic in the 5 p.m. worship. The Chapel Choir will sing "Evensong" and the organ offertory will be "Chime Prelude" by Patterson.

A new summer schedule was started last Wednesday night for the correlated program of activities with a cafeteria style dinner served at 5:45 to 6:30. Prayer meeting began at 6:30 in the dining hall and was followed by teachers and officers meeting at 7:15 until 8. During this 45 minute period the Youth Choir meets and the juniors meet for Junior Time under the direction of Gordon Bayless, and the Sunbeams meet. At 8 p.m. the Adult choir rehearses. The pastor will be in charge of the mid-week service and will speak on "The Fundamental Doctrines of Our Faith" as a basis for his messages each week.

The ordinance of Baptism will be administered at the beginning of the evening worship. All awaiting candidates are asked to meet the pastor in his study at 4:45 p.m.

Local members of the organization said clothing being donated to the drive should be articles owners would wear but are willing to share. This clothing will be collected at respective churches during the coming weeks and then be placed in bags and boxes to be stored at Bruce and Son Van and Storage Co. to await pick up by CROP truck.

This truck will be making 11 different routes throughout Texas covering 84 towns and cities during a period from July to December. It will also pick up clothing on its way to Denver and St. Louis where it will pick up rough baled clothing for movement to Houston for processing.

Rev. Loren E. Williams, promotional director of Gray county CROP board, said Pampanas are urged to remember these two clothing drives as they go through clothing at the end of this school year and again when school has just begun.

Rev. Williams said persons should keep in mind Christian motives behind giving the clothing for needy persons overseas.

He said, "The drive is certainly not to barter for more and larger overseas military advantage points. All of the CWS commodities are distributed through Christians at work for the Lord overseas, not through governments. The motivation is that of pure love and Christian concern. For God so loved the world that He gave... John 3:16. But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? I John 3:17. Let the love of God flow from your heart and home to the needy of the world is our motivating appeal to each of you."

HIS THIRD CADILLAC... HIS FIRST NEW ONE

This man is enjoying his first brand-new Cadillac—after becoming acquainted with the car's unsurpassed value by twice buying used Cadillacs.

He learned that a late model used Cadillac gave him more standard equipment and engineering advancements than most new cars.

First of all, while Cadillac's styling was continually refined, it never lost the clean, dignified look that says Cadillac and Cadillac alone. The smooth, quiet performance and complete reliability of his used Cadillac was a constant source of enjoyment. Then, too, he and his family enjoyed luxury and comfort to a degree reserved exclusively for Cadillac owners.

The pride of ownership of so distinctive a car was a never-ending pleasure, for he had the satisfaction—always—of knowing he drove the finest.

When it came time to trade his previously owned Cadillac for a later model, he found its value had held remarkably high... and returned a substantial part of his original investment.

So what could be more natural—or wise—than to make the eventual move to a new Cadillac?

New or used, there is no finer motoring investment than a Cadillac. And new or used, your authorized dealer has one to fit any budget. There's never been a better time to invest in the finest of them all.

MORE TEMPTING THAN EVER—AND JUST WAIT TILL YOU DRIVE IT—SEE YOUR AUTHORIZED CADILLAC DEALER

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

End Results Of Political Contests Damage Business

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

Never in history were so many precautions taken to move so fragile and irreplaceable an object as Michelangelo's "Pieta" from Rome to New York's World's Fair...

Does the outcome reflect a grassroots uprising in favor of more production, higher profits and wages as opposed to restrictive government regulation and burdensome taxes?

The answer, it seems to me, is that political contests are destructive of business, and that includes the California primary just concluded.

Do You Agree? At first glance that statement sounds a little outlandish. But on closer examination of the flag, take a loyalty oath, or reasons that support it...

Essentially men can organize to accomplish common goals in only two ways. One way is to combine activities in the form of a governmental organization...

The other way of organization is to combine activities in the form of a business. Under this kind of a setup, the owner or manager pays employees to perform certain tasks...

Like good and evil, these two systems have co-existed down through the centuries, but mere words are hardly sufficient to express the very great difference between them.

The gist of the difference is that one system compels you to do; the other rewards you for doing. It's the old story of the carrot and the stick...

In so far as the past is any indication of the future, it is predictable that both systems will continue to exist side by side into the future...

To a very great extent, the decision on that question will be determined by the promotion, advertising and salesmanship of each of the two contradictory principles of human organization...

A political campaign with the fanfare, dramatic tension, social activity and emotional exercise that accompany it constitutes one of the most captivating promotions. The end effect of this promotion is to "sell" the government mode of human organization...

That is why all political contests are destructive of business. That is — they advertise the coercion system, but not the incentive system. They tend to build one system up, but not the other.

The main reliance for advertising the alternate system of organization, the business method, is to use the available resources with intelligence and to direct the advertising message to the intelligent.

The general idea is to offset a lack in quantity by an emphasis on quality. In spite of the apparent odds against it, this type of program has a record of proved success.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and proper functions of government which will not incur expense)

QUESTION: "Isn't the forcing of a person to salute the flag, take a loyalty oath, or pray by direct or implied economic force or the threat of public ostracism just as evil as using a gun? And is it showing or proving a respect for our flag or our religion?"

ANSWER: The question is a complicated one. We would say the forcing of anyone to salute the flag, take a loyalty oath or to pray would prove little; certainly it would not prove respect for the flag or any religion.

However, if any employer or organization sets a condition of employment or membership that a person must take a loyalty oath, salute the flag or pray, it would be a matter of choice between the employer and employee or organization and its members...

If an individual or organization chooses to use direct or implied economic sanctions against those whose views are contrary to those of the individual or group, this is not the same as using a gun, unless they use the power of government or some other direct or implied physical force.

Experts Say Mental Health Largely Depends on Parent-Child Interaction Discussed at Credit Meeting

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
NEW YORK (UPI) — Mental health sleuths are studying families with problem children and families with normal children.

The children appeared superficial and impersonal, although parents were depicted as demanding and punitive. When the child didn't live up to parental standards, he was impulsively rejected rather than helped. The child appeared to manipulate rather than cope with the environment. Little basic trust in the child's ability was revealed by the parent.

The emotional tone in the families with a delinquent child was uncontrolled and intense. At times it seemed artificial and was characterized by a self-destructive quality.

Interactions in these families showed a teasing manipulation of other family members which sometimes produced shame and doubt. Family organization was judged unstable, with an absence of clear role differentiation.

Families With a Schizophrenic Child: The parent-child interaction was intense, but seen in terms of satisfying the parents' needs rather than the child's. Children were visualized as an extension of the parents and allowed self-expression. The emotional tone in these families was over-controlled and often inappropriate.

Control in these families was maintained by the use of guilt and families showed considerable concern about conforming to external standards.

Communication between family members in the clans with a schizophrenic child was fragmented. Family organization was rigid.

Normal Families: Parents allowed children to act with a measure of autonomy, demonstrated understanding of the child's need and right for self-expression, and saw their children as capable of achieving success with adequate striving. These also exhibited flexible relationships with a consistency of family organization and reliability of role fulfillment.

Families With a Delinquent Child: Involvement of parents

Experts Say Mental Health Largely Depends on Parent-Child Interaction Discussed at Credit Meeting

The report, from a research team headed by Dr. James R. Stabenau, was based on the analysis of data from the three groups, each subjected to a battery of psychiatric and psychological tests.

In capsule form, here is what the research team reported to the American Psychiatric Association:

Normal Families: Parents allowed children to act with a measure of autonomy, demonstrated understanding of the child's need and right for self-expression, and saw their children as capable of achieving success with adequate striving. These also exhibited flexible relationships with a consistency of family organization and reliability of role fulfillment.

Families With a Delinquent Child: Involvement of parents

FOOD BUYING GUIDE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Food shoppers will find a variety of good buys in meat, poultry and dairy products at their food stores this weekend.

Beef will again be the top feature at meat counters this weekend. Round steaks and chucks will be most prominent. Pork loins and bacon will be freely offered. Other red meats and poultry will probably sell at regular prices.

Best vegetable buys will include lettuce, miscellaneous leafy greens, endive-escarole, cucumbers, green onions, parsley, radishes and rhubarb.

Top fruit values will be cherries, lemons, limes, strawberries and California oranges.

Eggs and dairy products continue as good buys.

At fish counters look for good buys in clams, halibut, lobsters, mackerel, scallops, swordfish, and filets.

Hawaiian Luau Is A Lulu of a Party

For a summer party calculated to produce sheer enjoyment, relaxation, and fun, consider the Hawaiian luau.

This party import from our fiftieth state is fun to plan, fun to set up, and especially fun to attend. The keynote is informality and the setting is tropical. The combination of the two is irresistible.

Luau can be set up inside the house but they're much more fun and convenient to you if they're held outside on a nice, balmy evening. A feeling of lush tropical abundance should prevail. Colorful flowers and plants should be everywhere — on top of fence rails, in window sills, sitting on the ground and on the tables, and hanging from the trees.

Almost any type of flowers will do, but at least a few orchids and gardenias should be seen for the tropical touch. Anthurium, hibiscus, and bird-of-paradise are good, too.

To break the severe lines of the house or to obscure an area, drape inexpensive fish netting in the area and tuck clusters of tree leaves irregularly throughout the net. This also provides a good backdrop for the serving table, the top of which should be totally covered with fern or broad leaves.

Use any kind of unusual container for the punch bowl and freeze cut flowers, minus their stems, in a block of ice to float in it. Carnations and daisies make a good combination. For cups, saw coconut shells in half several days before the party, dig out the fruit and let them dry in the sun. You can sandpaper the edges until they are smooth. For matching cupholders (so they don't tip over), saw coconut rings of a couple inches wide.

When serving the first drink, float a gardenia in the cup of each woman guest, and suggest that the gardenia be placed in her hair. Each guest should be served the first cup of punch and instructed to help themselves the rest of the evening. This frees party hosts of that chore and adds to the informality.

Dress, incidentally, should be Hawaiian — muu-muus for the women and white duck pants with bright colored sport shirts for the men. Present each guest with a chrysanthemum or carnation lei, and place a crown of flowers on each man. These can easily be made at home. Both of these should be presented with a kiss, according to island tradition. The host welcomes the lady guests and the hostess the men guests.

To construct the leis, simply remove the stems from the flowers, and thread the flower heads on strong thread with a large needle. The crowns are made by tying a sword fern into a circle and stuffing it with small flowers such as daisies.

Store all the leis and crowns in boxes of wet newspaper in a cool place, but not the refrigerator unless the temperature is turned quite low. If the flowers get too cold, they will wilt quickly when taken out.

The punch bowl or bowls should serve as the centerpiece of your serving table. Bank the side of it with fruit and arrange flowers and leaves around the edges. Tuck flowers and leaves into the crevices among the fruit, as well.

The food should be of a type that can be eaten with the hands. No silverware should be necessary. In true Hawaiian and Polynesian tradition, a roast suckling pig with a bright, shiny apple in its mouth is the main dish. These whole pigs can be ordered in advance from retail butchers but it sometimes takes two weeks or more to get them. A mainland-type luau needn't be that elaborate, however.

Barbequed chicken or spare ribs are both good main courses. Leiyaki, charcoal grilled lobster, baked bananas, baked sweet potatoes, and smoked oysters go over well, too, as side dishes. There also should be bowls or trays of fried or barbequed shrimp. A bowl of curry sauce for dipping should be included as well.

In a luau, the guests eat whenever they wish and not at a set time. They should be shown to the serving table as they arrive, since it is the "heart" of the party, and told to "dig in" whenever and as often as they like.

To complete the atmosphere, set up a phonograph with a stack of records of soft Hawaiian music. The music should provide a pleasant background and not be so loud as to interfere with conversation.

With these tasks out of the way, the host and hostess are free to join in the happy conversation and really enjoy an evening of island fun.

POLLY'S POINTERS

DEAR POLLY — Tell the girls who sew not to discard their old scraps of cotton cloth. The newest thing out is a hostess skirt, patchwork style, that can be made by anyone who can sew a straight seam. Cut squares, large or small, of equal size and out of different colors of material. Sew them together to make a piece long enough to come to the ankles and wide enough to gather around the waist. Sew up the back seam, leaving about three inches for a placket. Gather waist in to your size, attach a band, sew on snaps or buttons, put in a zipper and you have a bright and gay hostess skirt.

Worn with a turtle-neck jersey or sweater-it will catch the admiring eye of everyone. The more advanced seamstress might line it with plain-colored cotton and have a reversible skirt.—JOAN

DEAR POLLY — White shoe laces can be washed easily if they are placed in a washcloth. Rubbing the cloth will keep your hands from being scratched by the plastic or metal tips on the laces.

—BARBARA

DEAR POLLY — A seldom used, collapsible bed tray-table can be put to good steady use. Place it on your bedroom closet shelf with the legs open, and you will find it makes an extra shelf for hats or handbags. The space under the table can be used for small items.—MRS. F.E.J.

DEAR POLLY — My tip is for mothers of young boys. Don't throw away battery-run trains and other toys with little motors when they are no longer in running condition. Save them in a special box. When the child reaches the age of five or six, he will enjoy investigating the insides to see what made them work. Not only will this satisfy a curiosity-filled mind, but it will develop mechanical tendencies, too. I wish I had all the toys I discarded before I realized my son found this type of play so satisfying.

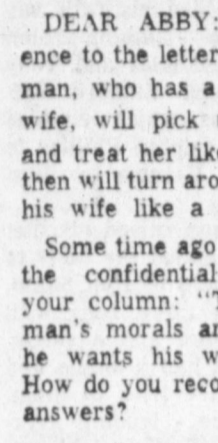

—LEE

DEAR POLLY — When ordering anything out of a catalog or a pattern from a newspaper, enclose a couple of your name and address labels (left fastened together) for return package. This comes in very handy for the sender and saves you from having to print your name and address in what is often a very small space on an order blank.—MRS. J.O.

Dear Abby....

His Actions Tend to Cover Up His Worthless Feeling

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: With reference to the letter about why a man, who has a lady for a wife, will pick up a tramp and treat her like a lady, and then will turn around and treat his wife like a tramp:

Some time ago you stated in the confidential section of your column: "The worse a man's morals are, the better he wants his wife's to be." How do you reconcile the two answers?

MRS. A. DEAR MRS. A.: A man whose morals are low wants his wife's morals to be high, but he prefers a tramp for a sweetheart because he has a feeling of worthlessness and inferiority with his wife — but not with the tramp. And because a man treats his wife like a tramp does not mean he wants her to behave like one. Married men who cheat with tramps have no desire to marry one. Comprehend?

DEAR ABBY: I am so unhappy I hardly know where to start. I am a middle-aged woman employed as a cook, housekeeper, companion and chauffeur to the most selfish, heartless woman I have ever known. She expects me to eat leftovers that should go into the garbage can. She finds fault with everything I do. When she is going out I have to help her dress, which is a chore, because she tries on a dozen dresses before deciding what to wear, and I have to tell her how "beautiful" she looks in every one or she gets mad. On my day off she lays in bed watching TV all day, and I have to prepare all her meals and put them within her reach. She is not an invalid. She plays golf. When she goes out I have to stay up and dressed to let her in, lock up the house and undress her and put her clothes away. She is a millionaire, but she goes around the house in a quilted robe with the heat turned off to save fuel. Once she made a toll call for me and took 15 cents out of my wages. Jobs are not easy to find. What should I do?

MISERABLE DEAR MISERABLE: If you remain with this woman, you do not deserve much sympathy. Jobs may not be "easy" to find, but if I were you I'd start looking for another one tomorrow. You could hardly do worse.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WANTS TO BE POPULAR": It is better to sit home for a few weeks — or months — than to date boys who want only a quick physical thrill. After they get what they want, the challenge is gone and you'll be sitting with a bad reputation and memories that will embarrass and burn. Get smart, and date only decent boys, or keep your nose in a good book. These are years for self-improvement — not self-destruction.

Phil Rodgers Takes First Round Lead In Buick Open With Red Hot Round

By OSCAR FRALEY
UPI Sports Writer
GRAND BLANC, Mich. (UPI)—Red-haired Phil Rodgers, who always figures his first round is his worst, made it the best as he carried a one-shot lead into the second round of the Buick Open golf championship today.

Parlaying lessons from Jack Nicklaus and Gene Littler into "new confidence and poise," the 26-year-old Californian whacked out a five under par 33-34-67 in the first round over long and rugged Warwick Hills Country Club.

That gave him a one-stroke edge over Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., who shot a 33-35-68, and two shots over Tony Lama, winner of the $20,000 top prize in last week's Thunderbird who sought back-to-back victories with a comeback 37-32-69. If he can do it, it will be the first such repeat since Nicklaus turned the trick two years ago.

Nicklaus wasn't here. And neither was Arnold Palmer. They were at Congressional Country Club in Washington, sneering at the $8,000 first prize in favor of practice over the course where the coveted U.S. Open will be played next week.

However, the 7,280-yard Warwick Hills Golf Club course which is the site of the Buick Open was the longest the pros have tackled all year. It's even longer than Congressional, so this was considered a fitting competitive tuneup.

Which couldn't have been very encouraging to long-suffering Sam Snead. The Slammer has finished second in the Open four times and if this is an indication of his Open hopes they aren't very bright because he carded a first round 38-37-75.

Of the other favorites, Billy Casper got away with a one under par 35-36-71 and Mike Souchak, who had been playing and feeling so good, chopped out a surprising and disappointing 40-39-79. Three shots behind the leading Rodgers, despite two under par 70's, was a sextet which included Wally Burkemo, Dow Finsterwald and Gary Player, all former PGA champions; Aussie Bruce Devlin, Don Januaro and young Ray Floyd, who went out in a brilliant 32 and home in a mediocre 38.

United Press International
United States Davis Cuppers Chuck McKinley and Gene Scott moved into the semifinals of the West of England lawn tennis championships Thursday while Cliff Richey of Dallas, Tex., was the only American to advance to the final four of the Kent championships at Beckenham.

McKinley, of San Antonio, Tex., rolled past Australia's John Stephens, 6-3, 6-0 and Scott, of St. James, N. Y., stopped Aussie Bill Bowrey, 4-6, 7-5, 7-5, at Bristol.

Joining McKinley and Scott will be Fred McMillan of South Africa, who beat Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., 13-11, 7-5, and Brazil's Tomas Koch, who scored a 6-1, 6-4 victory over Ecuador's Eduardo Zuletta.

In the women's quarter-finals Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of San Antonio, Tex., and Carole Hanks and Justina Bricka, both of St. Louis, were victorious. France's Francoise Durr won the remaining berth.

Mrs. Susman defeated England's Rita Bentley in a grueling match, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2. Miss Hanks beat Helga Schultze of Germany, 9-7, 6-4, and Miss Bricka won over Argentina's Norma Baylon, 6-1, 7-5.

At Beckenham, Richey defeated Australia's Ken Fletcher, 6-4, 6-4, but fellow American Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn lost to John Newcombe of Australia, 8-6, 1-6, 6-2.

Manuel Santana of Spain and Aussie Fred Stolle gained the other semifinal berths in the men's singles.

Margaret Smith and Robyn Ebborn of Australia, Maria Bueno of Brazil and Annette Van Zyl of South Africa entered the women's singles semifinals.

Miss Van Zyl knocked out Tory Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., 6-2, 6-3, and Miss Smith, the favorite, routed Mrs. G. Williams of Scotland, 6-0, 6-1.

DALLAS (UPI)—Pitcher Ken Perrin knocked in teammate Stan Thomas for Sherman's only run Thursday night to beat Dallas South Oak Cliff 1-0 and take the Class AAAA regional baseball championship.

Perrin fanned 11 and walked four. SOC pitcher Mike Livingston struck out 10 and walked three.

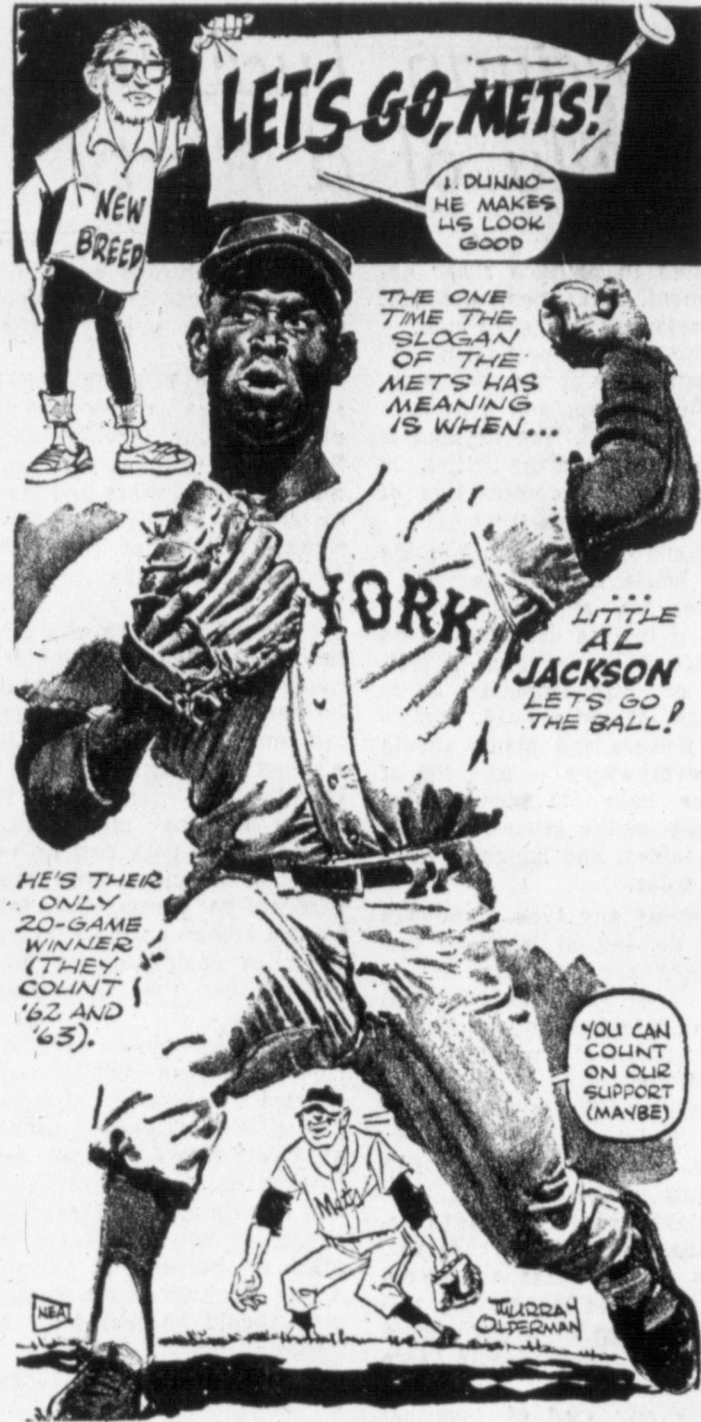

Bearcat Stan Thomas stole second base in the third inning after a walk. Perrin then singled into center field to knock Thomas home for the only tally of the contest.

South Oak Cliff won the opener of the three-game series, 2-1, Monday. Sherman came back strong Tuesday to slap SOC with a 5-1 defeat.

Sherman's opponent in the state playoffs will be announced this weekend.

Welter Title Bout Set for Tonight

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Welterweight champion Emile Griffith and ex-champ Luis Rodriguez meet tonight in their third title fight, a "rubber match," at the Las Vegas Convention Center, with each predicting a knockout.

In this gambling metropolis, Cuban Rodriguez of Miami Beach is favored at 9-5 to recapture the 147-pound crown from Griffith of New York and the Virgin Islands, the first man to win the title three times.

Their 15-round will be televised nationally by ABC at 10 p.m. EDT — 7 p.m., Las Vegas time. Promoters Jack Doyle and Mel Greb expect a near-capacity crowd of about 6,500 in the 7,000-seat center and a gross gate of more than $60,000.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

The Lions beat Enco 7-1 and rain halted a tight game between Cree and Pampa Hardware in Babe Ruth action last night.

A double play by Enco in the first inning kept the game scoreless until the Lions broke it open with two runs in the third. Mike Brown took Shelton Moore's line drive and doubled Dick Henley off first to get pitcher Nick Albus out of trouble.

Tommy McDonald of the Lions had three hits in four trips to the plate, including a bases-loaded triple in the sixth inning.

Lion pitcher Alonzo Gomez struck out 16 batters and gave up one hit in a winning effort. Albus was the loser.

Cree led Pampa Hardware 2-1 in the bottom of the third when rain ended the game. Mike Fortin was pitching for Hardware; Mike Pursley for Cree.

Tonight First National Bank plays Fannon at 5:30 and Idela takes on Kist at 7:30.

Enco 000 001 0-1 1

Don Drysdale Shuts Out Cardinals on Four Hits

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
How times change!
It used to be Don Drysdale who blew his top but now it's the big Los Angeles Dodger pitcher's rivals who are doing it.

At least that was the case Thursday night when Drysdale pitched a 5-0 four-hitter during which three members of the St. Louis Cardinals were ejected. Big D maintained his composure throughout two separate arguments to score his eighth victory of the season and increase his major league-leading strikeout total to 90.

Outfielder Carl Warwick and Ernie Broglio were tossed out of the game by umpire Bill Jackowski when they argued that an inning-ending grounder by Tim McCarver in the third had struck foul at the plate and Julian Javier was shown the exit in the fourth when he threw his bat into the air by way of objecting to a third-strike call by umpire Ed Vargo.

Clinch Contest
The Dodgers scored single runs in the fourth and seventh innings and then clinched the game with a three-run burst that routed Ray Washburn in the seventh.

The Houston Colts defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 5-3, the Milwaukee Braves beat the San Francisco Giants, 6-5, and the Chicago Cubs whipped the New York Mets, 6-3, in other National League games.

Bob Aspromonte's grand slam homer climaxed a five-run Houston rally that handed John Tsitouris his fourth defeat. Claude Raymond halted a Red rally at two runs in the third inning and went on to pitch 6 1-3 innings during which he allowed five hits and one run to receive credit for his second victory. Leo Cardenas homered for the Reds.

Spahn Wins Fifth
Ed Mathews drove in four runs, including three with a double which outfielder Harvey Kuenn lost in the sun, as Warren Spahn gained his fifth win with the late-inning relief help of Ed Sadowski and Tony Cloninger. Jack Sanford suffered the loss which enabled the idle Philadelphia Phillies to replace the Giants in first place.

Larry Jackson raised his lifetime record against the Mets to 8-0 with the help of Ron Santo, who drove in three runs with his eighth homer and a single. Billy Williams had a single and a double in five tries to maintain his league-leading average at .387. Bill Wakefield suffered his second loss for the Mets.

Partly cloudy skies and possible showers were predicted today for the opening of the second annual U.S. Track and Field Federation championships at Oregon State University.

The meet, limited to high school, college and college graduate students, could produce some indication of the winner of next weekend's national collegiate championships at Eugene, Ore.

The Houston Track Club was the defending champion, but college champion Southern California, host Oregon State and San Jose State all sent large delegations. Oregon, also expected to battle for the college crown, withdrew seven of its top competitors earlier this week because of a conflict with final examinations. Stanford and Washington State faced similar problems.

Also missing from the meet sponsored by the organization formed to challenge the Amateur Athletic Union for control of the sport were teams from Villanova, Arizona State and Fresno State, all of them possible winners of the NCAA title. Fresno State was involved in the NCAA college division championships on its campus.

Finals were scheduled in 13 events today and in the remaining 14 Saturday. The program included eight women's events which attracted only 23 entries.

FAVORED TO WIN
HOLYOKE, Mass. (UPI)—Johnny Kelley, a veteran marathoner from Groton, Conn., is favored to win the second annual New England Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) race Sunday.

RACING CHAMP RETIRES
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Bob Helbert, the United States road racing champion of 1963, announced his retirement Thursday. Helbert, 41, after racing for 12 years, said, "I've won about all there is to win."

At first, I didn't consider Dodge because I thought they cost too much. Then I talked to my Dodge dealer. For just over $2100, I got a Dodge half-ton Swoptline with heavy-duty springs and axles, a V8 engine, custom cab, anti-spin differential, dual mirrors, heavy-duty battery, and other extras including radio, heater and tinted glass. I drive about 30,000 miles a year, and I wanted a pickup truck with passenger-car comfort, performance and convenience, along with a great deal on price! Charles Rahn, Bensenville, Illinois. There isn't much we can add to Mr. Rahn's story of low Dodge truck prices. Let us just suggest that you visit your dependable Dodge truck dealer. He'll be delighted to show you in black and white that Dodge trucks, model for model, are priced nose to nose with Fords and Chevrolets. And our standard Swoptline equipment includes such things as a 140-horsepower Slant Six engine, a heavy-duty manual transmission, leaf springs and Orloff shock absorbers all around, and about six extra square feet of cargo room. ## TEXAS OUTDOORS

By WILLIAM HAMILTON
UPI Outdoor Writer

Tonight at 8 p.m. a handful of West Texas dignitaries and outdoor lovers will gather at Basin Campfire Circle in Big Bend National Park for a short establishment day ceremony.

It was 20 years ago June 12 that the secretary of interior accepted land that had been bought by the state of Texas for a national park in the unspoiled Big Bend country.

Since then, millions of visitors have made the long drive to the isolated spot, spending millions of tourist dollars along the way.

An Alpine man, the late E. E. Townsend, is said to have originated the idea for a national park in the rugged Big Bend country.

Outspoken Admirer

A Texas Ranger, Townsend knew the Big Bend area like his own back yard and was an outspoken admirer of its veritable beauty. He later became a patrolman for the U.S. Customs Service and traversed the area in search of illegal immigrants, still enamored with the unique charm of the rocks and cactus in the West Texas dip.

Townsend never lost his love for the area. He became sheriff of Brewster County, then a state legislator, and kept plugging for a park. Gradually he picked up support.

Brewster County residents J. E. Casner, H. W. Morelock, Forest M. Robinson and Mrs. B. F. Berkeley formed a state-wide bandwagon. The late Amos G. Carter of Fort Worth climbed on, opening up a drive for public funds.

School Lands Transferred

In March 1933, Townsend and R. M. Wagstaff of Abilene introduced a bill in the House of Representatives creating Texas Canyon State Park by transfer of school lands. Gov. "Ma" Ferguson signed the bill into law May 27, 1933.

Less than two years later,

U.S. Rep. R. E. Thomason, now a retired federal judge in El Paso, introduced a bill in Congress authorizing establishment of Big Bend National Park. Sens. Morris Shepherd and Tom Connally initiated similar efforts in the U.S. Senate.

On June 30, 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the bill which allowed for creation of the national park if the state would deed the land to the federal government. It took months to get a bill for purchase of the land through the Texas Legislature. When it finally passed, calling for a $1.4 million appropriation, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel vetoed it.

O'Daniel Approves

A $1 million subscription plan was only partially successful but the legislature finally added a $1.5 million appropriation to the donations and O'Daniel okayed it in 1941.

The secretary of the interior received a title to 700,000 of the rugged acres June 12, 1944, and the park officially opened. Dr. Ross Maxwell was superintendent. It was not until the next year that Interior Secretary Douglas McKay visited Chisos Basin and formally dedicated the park.

Now on its 20th birthday, the park's virgin beauty still offers a wonderland of picnic and family outing pleasure to thousands every year. And to the state that was so slow in setting up the park, it brings in millions of tourist dollars annually.

INDICATING A RECOUNT

Mantle and Maris Show Old Form in Yankee Win

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Manager Yogi Berra and the New York Yankees will be satisfied this year if M&M stands for minute men.

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris meant Murder, Inc., when they hit 115 home runs between them in 1961. They won't come close to that total this year but they flashed their home run power Thursday night — and not a minute late as far as the Yankees are concerned because tonight they're opening a five-game series with the Chicago White Sox that could have an important effect on the American League race.

This is a series in which the Yankees hope to cut into that five-game White Sox' lead and make their first real pennant move under their rookie manager.

The Yankee minute men answered Yogi's call to arms with three homers — Mantle's ninth and 10th of the season and Maris' 10th — to lead a 13-hit barrage that produced an 8-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Bouton Wins Fourth

The slugging enabled Jim Bouton to coast to his fourth win of the year although he allowed nine hits, including homers by Eddie Bressoud and Felix Mantilla.

The Baltimore Orioles gave the Yankees a helping hand by ending the White Sox' four-game winning streak, 3-1, the Minnesota Twins beat the Detroit Tigers, 4-2, and the Los Angeles Angels scored a 5-4, 12-inning triumph over the Cleveland Indians in other American League games.

The Orioles halted their three-game skid when they caught relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm on a rare off-day. Taking over from Fred Talbot with the score tied at 1-1 going into the eighth, Wilhelm walked leadoff man Luis Aparicio. Sam Bowens sacrificed and Norm Siebern flared out but Brooks Robinson homered into the center field bullpen at Chicago's Comiskey Park to give Milt Pappas his fifth win and tag Wilhelm with his second loss.

Batter's Bat Hot

Earl Battey drove in three runs with a double and a two-run homer as the Twins dealt Ed Rakow his fifth loss. Dick Stigman yielded three hits, including homers by Bill Freehan and Don Demeter, in eight innings and then Garland Shifflett locked up the win in the ninth.

Lou Clinton delivered a sacrifice fly with the bases filled in the 12th inning, enabling relief pitcher Ken McBride to snap a 10-game losing streak and win his first game since opening day. Dean Chance extended his string of shutout innings to a Los Angeles club record of 23 until the Indians scored two runs in the sixth and then left the game in the ninth when Dick Howser's two-run single tied the score at 4-4. Joe Adcock homered for the Angels.

Sweeny Stays in Amateur

GANTON, England (UPI)—Bob Sweeny of Palm Beach, Fla., a little shocked when he discovered he was the only United States survivor in the British Amateur golf championship, today met England's Martin Christmas in the quarter-finals.

The other matches pitted defending champion Michael Lunt of England against three-time champion Joe Carr of Ireland, England's Alan Thirwell against John Hall, who works in an English brewery, and John Clark against Scotland's Derek Harrison.

Sweeny, a 52-year-old Florida socialite who won this tournament back in 1937, wound up as Uncle Sam's lone representative Thursday when he defeated England's Peter Flaherty, 2 and 1, in a fifth round match.

While Sweeny was still on the course, three of his U.S. compatriots fell by the wayside. Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., meets England's Deirdre Catt and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., takes on Ann Haydon Jones of England.

The doubles pits Miss Moffitt and Carol Caldwell of Long Beach, Calif., against Miss Catt and Mrs. Jones.

Three more singles matches and another doubles will be played Saturday, the final day of the series.

The Wightman Cup matches date back to 1923 and have been held annually since that time with the exception of the war years. The last British victory came in 1960.

Wightman Cup Challenge Begins

WIMBLEDON, England, (UPI)—The Wightman Cup tennis matches begin today with the United States heavily favored to defeat Great Britain as it has done 29 times before in international competition.

In opening round singles play, Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., meets England's Deirdre Catt and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., takes on Ann Haydon Jones of England.

The doubles pits Miss Moffitt and Carol Caldwell of Long Beach, Calif., against Miss Catt and Mrs. Jones.

Buff Star Will Play For Oilers

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (Sp)—The Phillips 66 basketball team's roster reached 12 today, with the announcement that 6-7 Scottie Pierce, top scorer and rebounder for West Texas State University the past two seasons, has joined Phillips Petroleum Company.

Pierce, who displayed a tremendous amount of desire in two appearances against the 66ers last season, was captain of the West Texas team which turned into one of the finer teams in the area last season.

The ruggedly built 220-pounder is extremely quick for his size, which will make it possible for Phillips coach Bud Browning to use him either at forward or center.

The pivot spot will be completely in rookie hands next season since both Mike Moran and Jim Hagan retired from basketball following the 1963-64 campaign. Tom Black, 6-10 former South Dakota State College ace, will be the other center.

A native of Post, Texas, Pierce was an all-tournament choice with West Texas at the Gulf South Classic at Shreveport in his junior year.

While in high school, he lettered in basketball, football, and track.

In Texas... at a picnic, beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst's whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

Have you seen this woman on TV?

"I do mostly city driving, and noticed that I was getting two to three miles more per gallon with Keotane," reports Miss Louise Dodd. "I have yet to have the car fail to start for me." Car engines and drivers differ. That's one reason why Skelly cannot guarantee you the same results Miss Dodd noticed. But you can get the same additive—Keotane—in Skelly Keotane Gasoline. Try 3 tankfuls. See what Keotane can do for your car!

NCAA Names Two Aggies To Star Team

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Texas A&M stars Frank Stark and Lance Cobb were named today to the second-team NCAA All-America baseball squad, the only Texas players on the club.

Stark was named to the second unit as a first baseman and Cobb, the Aggies' sophomore flash, as an outfielder.

United Press International CARACAS (UPI) — Carlos Jose Pannacci Caldera, 42, father of four children and chief of the East Side branch office of the National Identification Service, yawned and glanced at the crowded waiting room.

Thirty persons already were there, and the office had just opened. It was 8 o'clock on the morning of May 8.

Pannacci remarked to one of his assistants that it promised to be a busy day.

Less than 10 minutes later, Pannacci was sprawled on the first floor of the office, a 38-caliber bullet in his chest. Minutes later he died in a hospital.

Newspapers the following day proclaimed the killing of Pannacci and the raid on his office as the first major terrorist operation since the Communists and Castroites suffered their decisive defeat in the elections of last Dec. 1.

Most, lulled by the peace of the months past, or mindful of the bloody days of the years before, hoped it was just an isolated incident.

Those hopes were dashed by events of the days that followed.

Since then, the FALN—Armed Forces of National Liberation—has struck at least six more times. Terrorism once again is a fact of life in Venezuela.

There is no way of telling how long it will last, or how serious it will get. So far, it is definitely low-key and the incidents have been isolated and relatively unimportant. There is no panic, nor even signs of widespread concern.

The newly installed government of President Raul Leoni, inaugurated on March 11, has taken no new measures. The government, however, is clearly on top of the situation.

Still, there is a pattern, and the pattern indicates a long and hard fight.

Pannacci headed one of the key offices processing applications for passports, identity cards and other vital documents for Venezuelans and foreigners alike. Papers like these are indispensable to any underground organization.

Four men and two girls—all identified later as active Communists—took part in the raid.

Suddenly, one of them unzipped a leather case and drew out a submachine gun. The others drew revolvers and automatic pistols and ordered the 30 persons in the room to stand against a wall.

Then they began stuffing their pockets with documents and official seals while one of them hustled Pannacci upstairs where blank passports and other important papers were kept in a locked file. When Pannacci pushed an alarm button and tried to flee, the gunman fired three times.
