CLEARING OUT — Shown is one of the scrapers working to clear 23rd. St. from Duncan to Mesilla Park addition. The city workers are striving to clear the residential streets now that the main streets are passable.

Pampa Waiting for Thaw To Clear Snowy Streets

City officials were waiting this afternoon for the sun to melt out ice-packed snow on city streets.

Last night's temperature drop 5 above zero froze the snow and water so hard city equipment found it impossible most of the forenoon to make any headway on clearing streets.

Pampa was in its fourth day of efforts to break loose from the 17-inch snowfall of last Monday and Tuesday.

City motor scrapers and equipment were out early trying to penetrate the ice and frozen snow but were able to make little headway because of the hard surface.

City Manager Harold Schmitter and R. B. Cook, public works director, said the work to keep streets open would continue over the week end.

The weatherman had promised some thawing this afternoon, when temperatures again tonight and more thawing Saturday.

Police had several emergency calls again today to get stalled cars moving. One involved a patient being taken to Highland General Hospital in a private automobile which bogged down on E. 23rd St.

A city maintainer was busy here this forenoon clearing out drifts that accumulated from blowing snow during the night.

Bill W. Robertson, general supervisor at Highland Hospital, today said he wanted publicly to thank city police for the aid they had given during the past few days in getting doctors, nurses and patients to the hospital.

"I don't know what we would have done without their help," Robertson said.

Police Chief Jim Conner said his department had answered hundreds of calls of all kinds since last Monday night.

"We got so busy with calls we were unable to keep count," Chief Conner stated.

Pampa residents employed at the Phillips Petroleum Co. plant near Borger still were in a quandary today about how to get to work, since the highway to Borger has been closed all week. They stated they didn't even know yet if the plant was in operation. One Phillips employe said:

"Even the boss is snowed in at Stinnett."

Pampa's Corporation Court resumed operation today after being empty of "customers" since Tuesday.

City officials again appealed to Pampanos not to use their cars unless absolutely necessary. They asked that cars parked on streets be removed wherever possible.

Downtown streets, when the thaw comes, are expected to be difficult to navigate because of water running four to six inches deep along curbs.

Melting snow now piled in the center of streets is expected to add to this problem, officials stated.

Seven Persons Hurt In Two Traffic Mishaps

Two traffic accidents some four miles east of Pampa injured seven persons Thursday afternoon, none seriously.

Highway Patrol Sgt. J. W. Wilson said the crashes occurred at 11:50 a.m. and 1:40 p.m., the second completely tying up highway traffic most of the afternoon.

Weather conditions were blamed for the two mishaps.

Injured in the first accident were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Claunch, San Fernando, Calif., Mrs. Grace Melear, 68, of 909 E. Campbell, Pampa; Mrs. Alice Laycock, 75, Shamrock, Tex.; Mrs. Namona Callan, 14, and her son, Brentley Callan, two months, of Wheeler.

Officers said Mrs. Callan and child were in one automobile and the other four were in the second car involved.

The second accident injured Mrs. Mildred Miller, 52, of 2230 Christine. She was in good condition at Highland General Hospital after treatment.

Tax Cut Bill Nears Passage By Senators

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The $11.6 billion tax cut bill moved into the last stages of Senate action today with final passage virtually assured by late afternoon.

A number of amendments remained to be voted on, but administration forces were confident they would be disposed of in the final push without significant changes being made in the priority measure.

Under a unanimous consent agreement, the first vote of the day was scheduled on a proposal by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to deny what Gore called "preferential" tax treatment now accorded corporate executives under restricted stock option plans.

Gore wanted to include as ordinary income tax rates any gains in the value of stock enjoyed by a company official at the time he exercises his option to buy shares. Such "paper profits" now are not taxable.

In a speech late Thursday night, Gore charged that executive stock option plans presently create a "privileged group" among "corporate insiders."

The agreement limiting debate and assuring a final vote also allotted 110 minutes to an "economy" amendment by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., 30 minutes on other amendments, and one hour of closing debate on the bill.

Water Rationing Set At Guantanamo Bay

Top O' Texas Glistens Under Bright Sunshine

By GLENN McCASLAND
Improving road conditions and a bright sun gave added proof today that the worst of the Top O' Texas area snowstorm is over.

All that remains is the final mop-up of highways and cities which have been blocked in for the better part of four days.

This project appeared to be well underway about 10 a.m. with snow plows inching their way from and towards Pampa, freeing automobiles and roads in their wake.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Amarillo said the frozen Panhandle area could expect warmer weather over the weekend and a general thaw with no new snow expected through Monday.

Temperatures were expected to rise in the mid-30s and winds slowed to about 14 miles an hour in the Pampa area, bringing to an end the threat of blowing snows.

Pre-dawn temperatures included readings of one degree at Perryton, Dalhart and Amarillo 5-degrees and a 7-degree mark in Pampa. Skies were clear.

The week-long storm claimed the lives of at least 12 persons and hundreds of cattle, but the actual Pampa area loss was expected not to be too severe.

The five-day forecast called for temperatures from 2 to 7 degrees in the southern section of the Panhandle. Highs will run from 46 in the north and 60 in the south with a normal low of 22 northwest and 36 south. A little warmer weather is expected over the weekend, with colder weather on Monday.

Some rain or snow during the first of the week is expected.

Highway Patrol Sgt. J. W. Wilson of Pampa reported motorists could make most of the highways leading out of Pampa in all directions, but urged extreme caution.

"Most of the roads we list as open are for one-lane traffic only and if the wind gets up again, we'll be back where we started," he said.

Wilson listed these roads as open:

Miami, Tex., highway, Wheeler highway, open to both cities; 273 open to Lefors, dangerous conditions to McLean; 70 south open; 66 from Groom open from the east; 132 west open to Skellytown; 70 north to Canadian River open; 60 west open to Kingsmill and possibly further.

In Canadian, the road to Perryton was open to one-way traffic only, but would be cleared for two-way travel by noon.

The Pampa highway was being opened by road crews at 10 a.m.

Groom residents expected to see a breakthrough on U.S. 66 from the west today as snow plows continued pushing forward there.

Many area schools resumed classes, but a number of them closed Friday after the road conditions reached the worst peak. Pampa schools remained closed today and it was hoped by school authorities that they would open Monday.

Basketball games were resumed in many of the snow-bound towns as high schools fought a serious schedule problem to make deadlines for declaring district winners.

The Pampa - Amarillo game was slated to be played and the Sandies were enroute to this city early in the morning to have plenty of driving time before tip-off at 8 p.m. for varsity action.

Highway crews and officers freed at least 20 and possibly 30 automobiles between Miami and Pampa last night.

A number of persons spent the night in McLean and Lefors before resuming travel on the highway between those two county communities today.

Seven persons were injured in two accidents near Pampa, but highway patrolmen said none of the injured were seriously hurt.

The mishaps occurred during blowing snow and high winds which hampered officers trying to unclog highways.

As the slowly diminishing danger from more snow became more widespread, patrolmen urged motorists to watch their driving because of ice danger.

"We are about out of the woods if the weather stays clear," Wilson declared, "but that ice is as dangerous as any snow drift."

Small Army Awaits Arrival of Beatles

NEW YORK (UPI) — This is B-Day.

Police, press agents, and a small army of promoters, agents and assorted hangers-on stood by today for an invasion by the Beatles — the beat British singing quartet.

The Beatles—George Harrison, 20; John Lennon, 23; Paul McCartney, 21, and Ringo Starr, 23 — were due today from London for their U.S. debut.

They were due in at 1:40 p.m. EST.

At least 50 extra policemen were on duty at John F. Kennedy International Airport. City police were alerted to use "as many men as needed" to avert teen-age riots such as have been steady co-features of the Beatles' appearances in Britain and elsewhere in Europe.

Within a year the Beatles have rocketed to the top with their falsetto, semi-rock-and-roll singing. Their sheepdog haircuts and collarless jackets have set a fashion craze that has ballooned into a multi-million dollar industry.

Castro Plays His Top Card

HAVANA (UPI) — The U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, cut off from its water supply by Premier Fidel Castro, today began rationing water to conserve its 15 million gallon reserves.

Castro played his long-threatened trump card against the base Thursday, hoping to force the release of 36 Cuban fishermen and four boats held at Key West, Fla., on charges of poaching in Florida waters.

He directed that the state-owned water company four miles outside the base limits cut off Guantanamo's pipeline, except for a one-hour daily period for women and children on the base.

(The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda said today the Soviet people "demand" the release of the fishermen and charged their arrest was "a provocative pirate act." It did not mention the water cutoff, possibly because the news was received in Moscow too late for today's paper.)

1,500 Stranded Hope To Exit Groom Today

GROOM — Clear skies today brought hope that the some 1,500 persons trapped in this tiny Gray County community of 600 would be freed late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Jim Littlefield, who with her husband operates the Ranch House Cafe in Groom, reported that more people stayed in the community Thursday night than any other previous nights since the snowstorm struck Monday.

Many of the motorists who headed east on U.S. 66 Thursday morning were back when blowing snow closed the road again for a short time.

At least 40 truck drivers were staying in one motel alone at Groom. They were waiting for snow plows to reach the community in order that heavy trucks could proceed westward.

The truckers were reported "using one shower at the motel" but one at a time, of course.

Mrs. Littlefield said she had been "run ragged" during the past four days, but food supplies and tempers were holding out.

"We have taken care of 27 people at our house in the past four days," she said. "Most everyone else has a house full and the churches, Legion Hall and other buildings are full."

Trucks and automobiles jammed the main street of Groom as the trapped motorists made the community headquarters.

The tiny hamlet of Jericho was back to normal as plows reached Reed's Station late Thursday and unbottled the U.S. 66 East outlet.

About 300 or more had been taken care of at the service station during the emergency period and operators of the station were prepared to handle more if the weather continues to hold.

However, highway department crews in Pampa and Amarillo said it appeared they would be able to unclog Groom late today and keep roads open if warming weather trends continue.

And while the people of Groom have made new friends because of the storm, the departure of the stranded tourists is looked forward to as the return of normal conditions here.

Schools remained closed, but officials hoped to get back to

Olympic Stars' Trial Completed in Austria

INNSBRUCK, Austria (UPI) — One U.S. Olympic team member, Mike Hessel, was acquitted today on charges of fighting Austrian police while two others, skier Bill Marolt and tobogganer George Farmer, were found guilty but given suspended sentences.

The three Americans had been in custody since early Thursday when they were arrested for scuffling with police who stopped Marolt while he was driving a car he said he had borrowed from a member of the French Olympic team.

The Americans asserted in court that they were hit by the police while their hands were tied, and Hessel accused the arresting policemen of using "Gestapo techniques."

Before the trial began, Art Lentz, assistant executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, backed up charges by Hessel's father that Farmer and Hessel were beaten by police after being taken to the police station.

"My boy had black eyes and red bruises on his face and a bump on his head," Hessel's father said. "Do you think he did that to himself?"

Hessel's father said the Americans were "dragged from the car and carried off to jail in handcuffs."

The three athletes spent the night in jail after efforts by U.S. consular and Olympic officials to free them on bail failed.

Hoffa Lawyer In Attempt To Withdraw

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI) — A defense attorney in the jury tampering trial of James R. Hoffa tried unsuccessfully today to withdraw from the case.

Defense lawyer Jacques Schiffer accused trial Judge Frank Wilson of making prejudicial remarks before the jury, and accused the jurist of allowing a key government witness to answer questions evasively under cross-examination.

Schiffer, attorney for Hoffa's co-defendant Thomas Ewing Parks, told Wilson, "I can't defend Mr. Parks with what's going on." But his motion for withdrawal was promptly rejected by Wilson.

National Guard To Feed Cattle

Some 10 or 12 two-to trucks, equipped with winches and chains, were expected to arrive about 2:30 p.m. today from Amarillo to assist National Guardsmen and sheriff's officers in feeding Gray County cattle.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said he had obtained permission to use the National Guard trucks from Gen. Seldon Simpson, commander of National Guard Company B, 2nd Battalion, 142nd Infantry.

The local operation will be in charge of Col. Jessie Barton, Lt. Bill Arrington and Master - Sgt. Wes Langham. The trucks will arrive at the Armory this afternoon with feeding operations scheduled to begin shortly afterwards.

Cabot Chief Leaves After Pampa Parley

Louis W. Cabot, president of Cabot Corp., returned to Boston last night after spending Wednesday and Thursday in a staff conference in Pampa.

Cabot officials said today such meetings normally are held in the company's home office in Boston. Since the Machinery Division, with headquarters west of Pampa, was the subject of the conference, it was found more convenient to meet in Pampa.

Also present from Boston were Russell G. Allen, executive vice president; Owen J. Brown Jr., vice president; William S. Edgerly, vice president and treasurer, and John G. L. Cabot, manager, Financial Planning.

E. L. Green Jr., vice president, Oil, Gas and Machinery; R. A. Baker, Machinery Division vice president and manager and a number of other Pampa executives participated in the meeting.

Cabot's Machinery Division is concerned with steel fabrication and the production of well servicing and drilling equipment, oil field pumping units, gun tubes and earth moving equipment.

Females of All Species Can Outtalk the Males!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have had people tell me that their parakeets talked, but I have listened to these birds and never could make out what they were trying to say—until last night! I was at the home of a friend who had a parakeet that said, "Kiss me, big boy," "Bottoms up," and "What's your hurry, beautiful?" as clearly as any human. I asked her some questions about the parakeet and she said that first you must be sure you have a male because only the males talk. The females won't utter a sound. Then she said you must put the parakeet in a teapot and whisper down the spout whatever you want him to memorize. Was she kidding me? I was too convinced at the time to question her, but now I have my doubts.

DOUBTING
DEAR DOUBTING: She must have been pulling your leg. Females of all species can outtalk the male—feathered, furred or human.

DEAR ABBY: I want to sound off about these salespeople who come into your office during working hours and take up your time trying to sell you cosmetics, insurance, vitamins, etc. Don't they realize that you are working for an employer, and your time is his time? I work in a six-girl office and someone is constantly barging in to sell something. It's rude to tell them to leave, but all the while you are wondering when your boss is going to come up behind you and ask you whose payroll you're on.

PEEVED FROM CHARLESTON
DEAR PEEVED: It's dishonest for an employee to spend her boss' time on the receiving end of some sales spiel. It's not necessary to be "rude" in informing a salesperson that you cannot give him your time. But if one must choose between rudeness and dishonesty, rudeness is the lesser.

DEAR ABBY: A girl friend of ours dated a fellow for seven months. She fell in love with him, and he supposedly fell in love with her. Suddenly he dropped her like a hot potato. As a result, she will not accept a date with any other man and she even refuses invitations to go out with her friends. She isolates herself in her apartment practically every night. Is there anything we can do to help her? It's been this way for five months, but none of us can reach her.

R. AND C.
DEAR R. AND C.: It's impossible to "reach" anyone who does not want to be reached. Make no reference to her "ex" and continue to invite her out with you. When she WANTS to emerge, she will.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. D. W. IN WESTWOOD: Call your County Dental Association and ask for an appointment with the committee that determines if the chiseling you got was worth the chiseling you got.

Take It From Kathy

by Kathy Peterson

Dear Kathy: A boy I know is crazy about me and every time I talk to his mom, she always talks of me marrying him.

I am just 15 and I am too young for marriage. I want to meet other boys before I make up my mind. I don't hate this boy, but I don't care for him. How can I tell him and his mom in a nice way that I have no intention of marrying him—or anyone—now?—Miss Hopeless.

Dear Miss Hopeless: Well, this is a switch. Many of my youthful correspondents write for advice to hook the guy.

It is refreshing that you realize you want freedom to shop around and grow up before taking on the responsibilities of marriage.

The next time the boy's mother urges you to marry, laughingly tell her you aren't about to become a child bride.

The height of human wisdom is to bring our tempers down to our circumstances, and to make a calm within, under the weight of the greatest storm without.

You Gotta Have Sports Coats

By HAROLD SHEEHAN
NEW YORK (NEA) — You can get along without a lot of different clothes on campus, but, man, you gotta have a sports jacket.

Before you buy that all-important garment, STOP. Maybe somebody once told you that gray goes with anything, that anybody can wear that color—"the safe thing." Don't you believe it.

If you are a blond or carrot top, a selection of a gray sports jacket can be as big a mistake as dating your girl friend's roommate.

The general trend in sports jackets is toward the warmer colors: reds, yellows, browns. If you have light hair and skin you would be wise not to buck this tide. Likewise, those with brown hair should head for the warm colors, but can wear gray.

The man with a dark complexion and black hair is in a favored position: He can don a gray—and anything else—with ease. A light gray jacket on a dark-haired person is recommended. The white-haired adult, however, should avoid this shade like the pox. There is no contrast.

The move for the past months has been toward beefy, tweedy sport coats—casual and colorful. Glen plaids and stripes are strong-ids and checks are hanging in there.

Safe Driving Stressed by Guest Speaker of Pampa Altrusa Club

Pampa Altrusa Club met recently at the Coronado Inn with 30 members and four guests present.

Guests of the club were Miss Donna Sims, Red Cross nursing representative of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Jewel Howell, Mrs. Jerry Schulta and the guest speaker, Sgt. J. W. Wilson. The club president, Mrs. Lorene Locke, presided. Mrs. Ann Kay, decorations chairman, placed a bowl of red gladiolas in the center of the head table.

During the business session, Mrs. Lora Dunn, chairman of the international committee, reported that a Christmas box was sent to Mary Kann, Chinese student who is attending college under sponsorship of the 18th District.

Public affairs committee chairman, Marian Osborne reported that Feb. 12 would be Career Clinic at Pampa High School. Mrs. Thelma Bray, chairman of vocational service committee stated that they were working on a clinic for mature women to be conducted in the spring.

Mrs. Emily Coston, chairman of the Senior Center committee stated that there were 68 guests at the last birthday party which was held the first Thursday of the month. She urged all of the members to come to the library on birthday days and help serve the guests.

Mrs. Rufe Jordan, chairman of the safety committee, introduced Sgt. Wilson who spoke to the group on the subject of Public Safety. He stated that the rise in accidents and deaths on the highway was alarming and stated that all clubs and members of clubs would have to help with this problem. He stated that 1963 was the worst year statistically in the state. In the City of Pampa, no deaths by car accident occurred; but, 11 such deaths in Gray County are recorded.

He suggested that clubs and the general public should strive to endorse driver license laws, serve on juries in corporation court when asked; teach children obedience of the traffic laws; and set good examples for children. Many people asking the prosecuting attorneys to be lenient with

Pampans Asked to Aid State Patients

Pampans today were asked to lend a helping hand to patients at the State Hospital at Wichita Falls.

Mayor H. R. Thompson has received a letter from J. R. Cummings, chairman of the Volunteer Services Council at Wichita Falls, asking for aid.

Cummings pointed out that the State Hospital there serves north Texas counties, including Gray, and said he was asking city and county help for items not furnished by the state.

Cummings' letter stated that the state furnished only food, lodging and one change of clothing for patients. All other needs must be purchased or donated.

"Patients, he said, are lacking in all items of clothing, toilet articles, materials for voluntary therapy, etc."

"We are appealing to those willing to help," Cummings wrote.

Persons interested in obtaining further information may write to Miss Beulah Johnson, P. O. Box 300, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Valentine's Dance Sets New Date

The annual Beta Sigma Phi Valentine's dance scheduled for Thursday night, has been postponed to Friday, Feb. 14, due to bad weather.

The dance will be held at the Coronado Starlight Room between 9 p.m. and 1 p.m., officials said.

The dance was among a number of clubs and organizations so had cancelled events.

The Top O' Texas 4-H club meeting, set tonight, was postponed due to the weather, but is not being rescheduled as yet.

Austin Youth Dies In Panhandle Storm

A tragic story came to light late Thursday as work crews attempted to free the Top O' Texas from the grip of winter's worst storm.

A 21-year-old Austin native died as he and two other youths tried to reach help to obtain food for two tiny infants at a ranch 5-miles north and 2-miles west of the Canadian River dam in Hutchinson County.

Dead is J. R. Lamb, who was stationed at Salina, Kan., AFB and was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lamb, at their ranch near Stinnett.

The tragic event came to light about 1:30 p.m. Thursday when two youths, Eddie Allen, 16, and Richard Wayne Verden, 21, of Amarillo, walked up to a Berger road crew and told them of the plight of the Lambs.

Young Allen, who lives with the Lambs, told this story: A two-foot snowfall Monday and Tuesday made transportation by car impossible from the Lamb ranch.

Two babies, ages eight months and five months, were in need of milk. Allen, Verden and Lamb walked three miles trying to find someone who could help ease the families' problem. They failed to reach help and turned back.

About 1,000 yards from the house, Lamb fell into the snow, saying he could not continue further.

Verden went to the house and returned with the elder Lamb. Allen stayed with the younger Lamb. By the time they returned, the 21-year-old airman had died.

Unable to carry the body to the ranch house, the three packed it in snow and returned.

That was Tuesday.

The two youths decided Thursday morning to try again and reached the work crew.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Allen and Verden, others at the ranch house were the young Lamb's wife and their son and Verden's wife and their son.

The gathering had been the beginning of a family reunion.

Officers and rescue crews freed the remainder of the trapped family late Thursday.

Roads Open Out Of Canadian

CANADIAN — Sheriff Walter Adams said today that roads leading out of this Hemphill County community were open.

And the sheriff was willing to prove it as well.

He began a trip to Pampa today to talk with Gray County officers and Texas Rangers about a case in which he requires their help.

Adams left Canadian about 9 a.m. and was in Pampa by 11 a.m.

He said every motel in Canadian was full Thursday night when blowing snow and drifting forced roads to be blocked off.

"We didn't hurt any for space," he said. "Everybody got along just fine." Canadian has four motels.

Adams said the highway to Perryton was open and the road to Pampa was being widened slowly to permit two-way travel.

Streets in Canadian were clear, but icy and Adams urged residents to proceed with caution. He sent officers with school buses to assure safe transportation for youngsters in Canadian schools.

Miami, Wheeler Reschedule Games

MIAMI — Basketball coach Lawrence Overcast reported that Miami and Wheeler have both scheduled Saturday games in order to be able to have a girls playoff game Monday if required.

Miami was scheduled to finish its regular season with Mobeetie Tuesday night and Wheeler, which finishes with Mobeetie tonight, was to have played Kelton Tuesday. Both games were cancelled by the weather.

Miami's girls are 8-1 in district play, Wheeler girls are 7-1. Both teams are favored to win their last tilts. Should Miami beat Mobeetie and Wheeler beat Mobeetie and Kelton, a playoff game would be required before the district tournament at Wheeler Feb. 13-15. Miami's B team tournament finals, scheduled for that night, have been moved up to 2 p.m.

Miami will play a doubleheader with Mobeetie Saturday night. The games will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the girls game. Wheeler will play Kelton Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at Wheeler, beginning with the girls game.

Texas Teachers Say Pay Below National Average

AUSTIN — Texas public school teachers this year will receive a salary almost $600 below the national average — and Texas will drop to 29th place among the states in salaries paid teachers.

That was the statement today by Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Corpus Christi, state president of the Texas State Teachers Association. She based her statement on an annual national survey by the National Education Association, "Estimates of School Statistics, 1963-64."

Nationally, the average salary for teachers is estimated to be $5,963 for the current school year. In Texas the figure is $5,390.

This drops Texas to 29th position among the states. It is down from the 24th position Texas held temporarily after the last statewide teacher pay boost was provided effective for 1961-62. There is danger that the state will slide farther behind.

The total amount spent for each school child — including teacher pay — is one measure of how well a State supports education. And here again Texas is below average.

All 50 states will spend an average of $455 for each public school pupil in attendance this year; Texas will spend only $387. This puts Texas in a tie with Vermont for 35th place.

"These are just some of the reasons that TSTA will ask the 1965 Legislature to provide a $45 per month increase in the minimum salary for teachers," Mrs. Little pointed out.

Such a salary increase could not be effective before the 1965-66 school year, the TSTA president noted.

Lawmaker Announces Academy Nominees

Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa has announced nominations of principals and alternates for two appointments to the United States Air Force Academy and one appointment to West Point, N.Y.

Walter W. Adams of Canadian, and Clive A. Seymour, Amarillo, were nominated by Congressman Rogers as principals for appointment to the Air Force Academy.

Michael D. Noonan, 3824 Ozark Trail, Amarillo, was nominated by the Congressman as principal appointee to the Military Academy.

For the place in which Adams was nominated, alternates ranked in order are as follows: Richard W. Stephenson, Dumas; Howard Royce Barron, Borger; Murray Mark Leshor, Borger; Denton W. Miller, Gruver; and James R. Hathorn, Perryton.

For the place in which Seymour was nominated, the alternates are, in order: Jonathan E. Low, Canyon; Dudley G. Chewning, Amarillo; Kenneth Dale Copner, Borger; William James Redwine, Childress and Jimmy H. Rice, Gruver.

For the Military Academy appointment, alternates ranked behind Noonan are as follows: Gary Don Williams, 2717 Sunlite Drive, Amarillo; William E. Warnick, 5513 Everett, Amarillo; and Stephen M. Shelton, Clarendon.

All applicants for service academy appointments were subjected to preliminary examinations to determine their basic qualifications.

Russians Clinch Olympic Crown

By HENRY W. THORNBERRY
UPI Sports Writer

INNSBRUCK, Austria (UPI) — Russia clinched the gold medal championship of the 1964 Winter Olympics today when a women's ski relay scored the 10th Soviet victory, while Victory Emery gave Canada its first gold medal in the four-man bobsled.

The United States team did not pick up any medals but easily qualified its top skiers for Saturday's final of the men's slalom.

Claudia Boyarski, already a double gold medal winner for Russia, sparked the Soviets to victory in the women's 3-kilometer cross-country race by a two-second margin.

The victory—the seventh chalked up by its women athletes—gave the Soviet Union a gold medal lead that no other nation could match before the formal closing of the games on Sunday. It also was Russia's 3rd medal of all kinds, both this total and the gold medal total already had surpassed previous Winter Olympic records.

U.S. men's skiers were impressive in trials for the slalom. Jim Heuga, Tahoe City, Calif., was fourth best in the field in the morning trial, Bud Werner, Steamboat Springs, Colo., fifth, and Billy Kidd, Stowe, Vt., 11th.

Emery, a 30-year-old salesman, piloted his light blue sled bearing the maple leaf insignia down today's fourth and final heat of the four-man bobs in 1:04.02—fairly slow time but enough to clinch the Canadian triumph with a four-run total time of 4:14.65.

Erwin Thaler of Austria was second.

UCLA, Bidding for First Place, Meets California

By United Press International

UCLA's fast-breaking Bruins bidding to become the West Coast's first national basketball champions in four years, open a two-game series tonight with the last such team to finish No. 1 in the country—conservative California.

California, unpredictable all season, already has beaten 20th-ranked Oregon State this season. What bothers the top-ranked Bruins' Coach John Wooden most, however, is not the Bears, but rather Cal's Harmon gym, site of tonight's game and the return encounter Saturday evening.

"If we were playing Cal down here, I wouldn't be as worried," admits Wooden. "But just playing up there is the reason I'm worried. I wouldn't be mad at all if they wanted to shift the games someplace else in Berkeley."

It's not so much that Harmon gym resembles the Black Hole of Calcutta in appearance, but visiting teams rarely win there. UCLA, for instance, has posted an outstanding 301-322 record in 18 years under Wooden, yet has managed only a 12-12 mark at Cal.

The Bears, although only 8-7 overall, are second in the Bruins in the Big Six Conference with a 5-1 record. UCLA, unbeaten in 17 consecutive games stands 6-0 in the conference.

A California sweep could propel the underrated Bears to the league title and a berth in the NCAA tournament, but the amazing backcourt combination of Walt Hazzard and Gail Goodrich makes the Bruins strong favorites to keep their record unblemished.

Two other members of United Press International's top 25 will be in action tonight. Fifth-ranked Davidson opposes weak Georgia Southern, and eighth-ranked Vanderbilt hosts Mississippi State, which has compiled a spotless 0-18 record thus far this season.

Georgia Tech and surprising Louisiana State meet in Atlanta to decide which team leads Kentucky for the Southeastern Conference lead. Both clubs are 5-2 in SEC play, while the third-ranked Wildcats are 6-2 in the conference.

There was little among the nation's top teams Thursday night. In the only games of any note, Happy Hairston poured in 38 points to lead revived NYU to a 100-83 victory over Holy Cross in the nightcap of a Madison Square Garden double-header after Curt Fromal sparked a second-half LaSalle rally that overcame Manhattan, 75-62.

In other games, Navy whipped Delaware, 92-72; Temple topped Muhlenberg, 78-66; George Washington edged William & Mary, 81-77; Clemson nudged Georgia, 83-82, in overtime, and San Francisco defeated San Jose St., 64-47.

Fairfield Wrong, Golf Score Right

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — If things go "right" for Don Fairfield today he may get knocked out of the running for the big money in the $50,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament.

Everything went wrong Thursday—and Don shot a five-under-par 66 to come out leading the pack by two strokes.

He overslept and nearly missed his tee-off time; he didn't get any chance to warm up; his left shoulder hurt him so much that he couldn't swing properly; he spent most of the afternoon in the trees.

"I don't know how I did it," says the 34-year-old native of Casey, Ill., now playing out of Pineda Bay, Fla. "But I'll have to admit it was my best scoring round in a long time."

Fairfield is being trailed by glamor boy Tony Lama, Bill Collins, rookie George Archer and long-shot veteran Herman Schiarau, each with three-under-par 68.

Fairfield, who started early Thursday and had five birdies—one with a 60-foot putt—goes off late today and there will be a new early leader. He had a 32-34.

Most of the other big names competing in this tournament were still well within contention. National Open champion Julius Boros was tied with eight others at 68, defending champion Arnold Palmer, king of the golfers, and British Open champion Bob Charles, left-hander from New Zealand, were deadlocked with seven others at 70.

Masters and PGA champion Jack Nicklaus and French Open champion Bruce Devlin, Australia, each had even-par 71; and Australian Open king Gary Player of South Africa, making his first 1964 start in the United States, had a 72.

Forty-two players shot par or better on the par-71, Phoenix Country Club course in the opening round and it is expected that a score of 148 or better will be necessary to survive the cut tonight when the field is reduced to 80.

Price Third In District Point Race

LUBBOCK (Spi) — The up-and-down - again pace of most District 3-AAAA basketball title hopefuls has become even more confused with the cancellation of all of last Tuesday's district games. One or two games were tentatively scheduled for last night, but the majority of the postponed Tuesday tilts, like the Pampa-Plainview affair, have been put off until tomorrow night, insuring most of the district schools two games in as many nights.

Montague, currently a half-game ahead in the standings, was slated to be title Tuesday, and will play at Tascosa tonight. Second-place Lubbock plays the key game Friday night at third-place Plainview, with the winner's chances still depending on the outcome of their Saturday tilts. Plainview hosting Pampa and Lubbock taking on Caprock.

The trio are the only ones still in the district race for all practical purposes, fourth-place Tascosa being 7-4 with three games to play and fifth-place Pampa 6-6 with four games to go.

Tascosa's Bill Bogan and Plainview's Ronnie Peret are in a battle for the loop scoring race, with Charlie Price of Pampa having moved up, to third. Bogan and "The Duck" are each averaging 38.5. Bogan with 243 points in 13 games and 6-8 Peret, who has come on with a rush in the last four games, canning 232 in 12 contests.

Price, who dumped in 44 points in two games last week, moved into third place past former loop leader, Buddy Fulgham of Lubbock and Sammy Gast of Amarillo. Pampa's Kenny Hubert, who had dropped down, moved back up to 10th spot on his 23-point output against Caprock.

CHARLIE PRICE... priceless buckets

Sporting Sidelines

by JEFF COHANE

COACHES ARE, to say the least, determined people. Like the postman, neither rain, nor snow, etc., will deter them from their basketball games.

Pampa skipper Terry Culley tried by every means except submarine to get the Harvesters up to Plainview Tuesday. Plainview coaches reported the roads clear up that way, but a quick check showed a minimum of three hours travel to get to Amarillo from Plainview.

Grady Burnett, the Ol' Gray Fox of Wheeler, waited until 5 p.m. Tuesday before calling off his game with Kelton and Larry Overcast suffered a thousand deaths before cancelling his game with Mobeetie. Both coaches have serious problems, their girls teams are tied for the district championship, and must finish their schedule and probably meet each other in a playoff before the district tournament Feb. 13 at Wheeler.

Other area schools can wait a while for the weather to clear up, but not those two. The Mobeetie game was to be Miami's last. Wheeler was to meet Mobeetie tonight.

Two boys teams in the district, Briscoe and Allison, have the same problem. Overcast, despite a new cold front coming in, hopefully rescheduled the Mobeetie game for last night and invited the Ol' Swami to attend. The Swami politely declined, much as I love basketball and Miami. I wouldn't drive in this weather to see a state championship. Miami again proved they take care of their own, as they offered to provide transportation for the snowbound Swami. Ya can't beat

Cassius Clay Tabbed As Black Muslimite

MIAMI (UPI) — Loquacious Cassius Clay clamored up today at charges by his father that he had been a "brain-washed" member of the white-baiting Black Muslim sect since winning an Olympic Gold Medal four years ago.

Clay, who went to New York recently to address a Black Muslim meeting and afterwards denied he was a member, said curtly that he had "no comment."

"I don't care what my father said," he reported. "I'm not interested. I'm not talking. I'm here training for a fight and that's all I'm going to say."

The 22-year-old Clay fights heavyweight champion Sonny Liston for the title at Miami Beach Convention Hall on Feb. 25 and the charges made by his father that "those people are keeping my boy in some kind of a prison" drew quick comment from Jack Nilsen, Liston's advisor.

Get It Now

"If what the boy's father says is true, said Nilsen, "and the Black Muslims want a share of his purse, they'd better get it this trip because after eight or 10 rounds, I don't think he'll be fighting for many big purses again."

Cassius Clay, Sr., father of the challenger, said that both Cassius and his younger brother and sparring partner, Rudolph Valentino Clay, were members of the sect and during a head to head argument he had threatened to "whup" both boys and Malcolm X, leader of the New York temple of the Black Muslims.

The elder Clay, a 51-year-old former Louisville, Ky., sign painter, said in an interview with Pat Putnam of the Miami Herald that he and the boy's mother had been alienated by the Black Muslims and that he feared for his own and his wife's safety. His wife had gone back to Louisville because "Cassius had told her to go," and he also had moved out of his son's house.

May Be Hiding

While it could not be assumed that he was in hiding, the house where the elder Clay has been staying was dark and closed up Thursday night.

The senior Clay, in his interview, asserted that Cassius joined the Black Muslims when he was 18 and just a few weeks after he won the Olympic lightweight championship at Rome in 1960.

"They have been hammering at him and brainwashing him ever since," he asserted, "he's so confused now that he doesn't even know where he's at. They have ruined my two boys. They should run those Black Muslims out of the country before they ruin other fine people."

Harvesters Hope To End Home Court Play Tonight

Unless another sudden storm descends, the Pampa Harvesters will get back into cage action tonight after a week's layoff, hosting the Amarillo Sandies.

SANDIES COMING
Pampa athletic director Weldon Trice reported this morning that the Amarillo Sandies are on their way and will be here for tonight's basketball game. Amarillo athletic director De Walker called Trice at 10 a.m. and said the Amarillo team's bus had already left for Pampa. The B team game will be played at 6 p.m., the varsity game at 8.

AMARILLO (Spi) — Weather permitting, a host of boxers from Pampa, Skellytown and Lefors will descend on Amarillo tonight for the opening round of the regional Golden Gloves Tournament.

The tourney was originally slated to open Wednesday, but was postponed due to the bad weather. It will still be a question whether some of the outlying towns will be able to make it in, especially Plainview, which has the furthest distance to travel and the strongest open squad in the tourney.

The three local clubs will send strong peewee, high school and novice contingents, but the only strong open fighter will be John Ironmonger of Pampa, regional featherweight champion. Ironmonger's toughest opposition will come from Leandro Martinez of Plainview, who has split two bouts with the Iron Man this year.

Fighters from Clovis, N. Mex., although not officially competing in this region, will fill out the card in the open bouts.

State action begins next Thursday at Fort Worth.

Finley Asks AL For Help

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the homeless Kansas City Athletics, hoped the American League would bend a sympathetic ear today to his hassle with the city over a new lease for Municipal Stadium.

Finley said he would request another meeting of the league owners after lease negotiations broke down Thursday. It was the third failure in negotiations since the league told Finley on Jan. 16 either to sign a lease here or face expulsion from baseball.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Justice Reaches Into Past

What may possibly be the last mass war crimes trials is taking place in Frankfurt, Germany. Time, which heals even such terrible scars on the soul of humanity as Buchenwald, Belson, Auschwitz and others, is taking its toll of surviving Nazis and surviving victims alike. The 22 men on trial in Frankfurt are former staff members of the infamous Auschwitz concentration camp set up in occupied Poland, where two to four million Jews, Poles and war prisoners were exterminated. Most of the accused are between 40 and 60. One caged beast, Richard Baer, last commandant of Auschwitz, died of a heart attack last year. Full justice can never be done to the victims of the Nazis, even if every last person who had a part in this crime of genocide were brought to trial. But it gives much hope for the future that since 1945 the vast majority of such trials have been initiated by the Germans themselves, even after the rest of the world lost interest. Under occupation law, German courts were limited to

The Need For Common Carriage

It is a matter of statistical record that unregulated transportation — that is, private carriage — has been making great headway at the expense of the regulated commercial carriers. The dangers in this are obvious enough. Only the established common carriers, operating on fixed schedules and providing service to all who want it at published rates, can be depended upon to do the vast transportation job this country requires in its day-by-day life — and the far vaster job that would be required in the event of a national emergency. Excessively strict and obsolete regulations governing regulated transportation are some of the reasons for this trend. Another is the equally obsolete policies which prevent, to a large degree, one kind of carrier from operating in various spheres. The solution lies in common ownership of the various modes of transportation.

Advance

Man's advance toward civilization is probably little more than his enlargement of understanding in the area of ideological communication and the preservation of knowledge. Words books and schools are the handmaidens of progress.

No Time Like Now

Now is the time for all smart girls to come to the aid of themselves, for things are likely to get a bit more competitive over the next couple of years. Reason is that girls generally marry before they are 20, while most boys marry between 22 and 23. This means that girls born in the postwar baby-boom years of 1946 to 1949 will be looking for prospective bride-

WASHINGTON:

Tsarapkin Is Quick on The Trigger

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON (NEA)—There's one easy way you can tell whether the new Geneva Disarmament talks are likely to take another step toward weapon or atomic controls — or end in complete frustrations: Watch who comes and goes in Geneva.

If chief U.S. negotiator William C. Foster stays on and on and if the chief Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin is replaced by Vasily V. Kuznetsov or Foreign Minister A. A. Gromyko, then the odds are good that something, however small, will come from the talks.

But if Foster leaves and is replaced by U.S. Ambassador Charles Stelle and if Tsarapkin stays on and on, then the odds are that absolutely nothing will come of the talks, whatever smokescreen announcements are made.

This is the private analysis of State Department experts who watch these things closely.

But with all this, don't discount chief Russian negotiator Tsarapkin. He's probably the most skilled of all Soviet negotiators. In 1941, at the age of 35, he negotiated the Soviet nonaggression pact with Japan that opened the door for Pearl Harbor. He was the chief negotiator, until the final rounds, in the talks that led to the treaty for banning nuclear testing in the atmosphere. He was a member of the Soviet delegation at the San Francisco conference which formed the United Nations.

State Department experts think Tsarapkin's role is to skillfully poke and pry in his very amiable and friendly manner to find out just how far the United States stands on disarmament and controls could be whittled down. That is, his job is to learn our secret, backdoor positions.

Once he thinks he has learned how far the United States will give or compromise, then Tsarapkin will relay what he's learned to Moscow. Nikita Khrushchev will then decide whether it would be profitable for the Soviet Union to push ahead to some sort of a treaty or turn the conference into a propaganda exercise.

Tsarapkin is no mean opponent. He uses few of the conventional Communist cliches. He's sharp. One State Department official comments, "I can't remember the time when he's been caught flat-footed in negotiations."

Tsarapkin looks pugnacious, with big hands, the build of a prize fighter, and a bold face topped off with a heavy shock of white hair. He has a very mobile face and he's able to manipulate it at will. When he wants to make a point he can turn on a strong, convincing sneer when it suits his purpose, and an expression of friendly happiness when that suits his aims. Yet he's kept a reputation among American officials as one of the most affable of the Soviet diplomats.

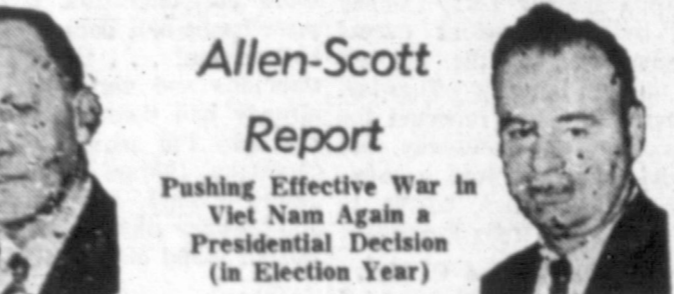

He has a reputation for being personally unassuming. In the last Geneva talks, when other foreign diplomats would drive up to the conference headquarters in big cars with flags flying, Tsarapkin would often arrive on foot.

He majored in Oriental history and languages, is known as an avid reader of history, especially English and Scottish history. He likes Scottish poetry. He is said to be a classicist, not enthused about modern art or literature.

Incentive To Keep Digging

ROBERT ALLEN

WASHINGTON — To fight or to negotiate — that is the fateful decision now squarely up to President Johnson on what to do about war-racked and politically unstable South Viet Nam.

This "agonizing reappraisal" confronts him and his top diplomatic and military advisers as the result of two colliding catalysts: President de Gaulle's recognition of Red China and advocacy of the neutralization of Viet Nam, and Major General Nguyen Khanh's sudden seizure of power.

Flatly disagreeing with De Gaulle, the new Vietnamese "strong-man" emphatically favors expanding and intensifying the protracted struggle against the Communist aggressors — by taking the war directly to its source, North Viet Nam.

This crucial policy divergence on the international stage is exactly duplicated in the inner councils of the Johnson administration.

Key military leaders want the U.S. to fully support Khanh in taking the war, chiefly with air attacks on Communist supply lines and highly vulnerable industrial targets constructed in the last few years. This has long been urged by General Paul Harkins, U.S. commander in Viet Nam.

Strenuously opposed are the principal foreign policy makers of the Johnson administration as well as its predecessor — Secretary Dean Rusk, McGeorge Bundy, special White House assistant on foreign affairs, and Dr. Walt Rostow, head of the State Department's Policy Planning Council.

This influential group contends that enlargement of the South Vietnamese war would almost certainly escalate it into a general conflict involving both regular North Vietnamese troops and Red Chinese forces.

As Rusk, Bundy and Rostow see it, the situation could "quickly deteriorate into another Korea."

ON THE SPOT — It is up to the President to determine which course to pursue. The decision rests squarely in his hands, and whatever he does presents grave risks.

Intensification of the war would immediately mean heavily increased costs — at a time when the President is insistent on stressing economy. Expenditures in South Viet Nam are now running at around $500 million a year. They could easily soar to several or more billion very quickly. Also, a large-scale war with certain increased casualties would lay the administration open to vehement cries of "appeasement." This denunciation would rise from Democrats as well as Republicans. South bipartisan blasts already have been voiced in the explosive Panama crisis and the President bluntly warned against giving any crucial ground there. In an election year an "ap-

The Almanac

Today is Friday, Feb. 7, the 38th day of 1964 with 328 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The evening stars are Venus and Jupiter.

Those born today include Charles Dickens, the great English novelist and journalist, in 1812. On this day in history: In 1885, Sinclair Lewis, the first American to win the Nobel Prize for literature, was born in Sauk Centre, Minn.

In 1894, George Herman (Babe) Ruth was born. A thought for the day — Charles Dickens once said: "There are books of which the backs and covers are by far the best parts."

ed by Major General Duong Van Minh, the U.S. limited Vietnamese units to a six-hour supply of ammunition. This was due to their heavy loss of equipment to the Communists. Khanh has asked for a greater supply of ammunition, and probably will get it.

FOREIGN FASHES — Uganda, which is getting U.S. aid, is selling 20,000 bales of cotton to Red China, and hopes to unload another 80,000 bales. That would constitute around one-third of Uganda's cotton crop, that African nation's principal customer. The mystery man of the Kremlin has popped up again. Mikhail Suslov, leading Marxist theoretician and inner party hatchet-man, unexpectedly showed up at a Kremlin reception after not having been seen since last September. A member of the Communist Party Central Committee, Suslov was authoritatively reported to have been in China trying to patch up the bitter feuding between the two Red powers.

This upward trend of activity by the Viet Cong and supporting North Vietnamese forces is due to a combination of several reasons: The relative lull and settlement in Laos, plus the fact that the overland routes to South Viet Nam via Laos are now for all practical purposes firmly in Pathet - Lao, North Vietnamese control, have made it possible for the Communists to again concentrate on South Viet Nam.

"Also the Viet Cong have restored their strength (11,000 to 22,000 during 1962) to a level to permit increased operations: And a final factor, the recent military reorganization of Viet Cong forces to include North Vietnamese forces, i.e., a anti-aircraft units, has given these forces additional fire power.

The Communist bloc may be emboldened by their success in Laos to engage in a gradual build-up off their covert support to the Viet Cong insurgents. This is indicated by the infiltration of heavy weapons and armed North Vietnamese detachments via Laos.

In conclusion, it is felt that the Viet Cong will make every effort to increase their effectiveness in insurgent operations with continued and possibly open Vietnamese assistance. Under the ousted junta, head-

The American Way

LYNDON JOHNSON, MEET THOMAS JEFFERSON By HARRY TO. EVERINGHAM President of "We, The People!" Every time the Democratic Party has a Jefferson Day Dinner, I have a strong urge, as a Jeffersonian Democrat, to introduce our present leaders to the man who founded the Democratic Party and, in fact, helped to fashion our American system as he wrote the Declaration of Independence and was responsible for our Bill of Rights. I think it is vitally important that all America should re-discover and become dedicated again to the ideals and principles of Thomas Jefferson.

"Sometimes it is said that a man cannot be trusted with the government of himself. Can he, then, be trusted with the government of others? Or have we found angels in the forms of kings to govern him?" "I think we have more machinery of government than is necessary, too many parasites living on the labor of the industrious." "I'm sure if Thomas Jefferson could speak to us today, he would say, 'Let those who use my name follow my principles!'"

Yes, I wish the present planners of our lives and spenders of our money would heed the warnings of this great architect of American government about the dangers of public debt and huge government spending.

On Economy
Thomas Jefferson said: "I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers to be feared. To preserve our independence, we must not let our leaders load us with perpetual debt. We must take our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude."

"If we run into such debts, we must be taxed in our meat and drink, in our necessities and in our comforts, in our labor and in our amusements. If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy."

On another occasion, he said: "We consider ourselves unauthorized to saddle posterity with our debts."

About States' Rights, Checks and Balances: "I am for preserving to the States the powers not yielded by them to the Union, and to the legislature of the Union its constitutional share in the division of powers; and I am not for transferring all the powers of the States to the General Government, and all those of that government to the executive branch."

"When all government, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated."

On Foreign Affairs
Jefferson said: "Let our affairs be disentangled from those of all other nations, except as to commerce, which the merchants will manage the better, the more they are left free to manage for themselves."

"I have ever deemed it fundamental for the United States never to take active part in the quarrels of Europe. Their political interests are entirely distinct from ours. They are nations of eternal war."

Of Government Corruption, he said: "In every government on earth is some trace of human weakness, some germ of corruption and degeneracy. Every government degenerates when trusted to the rulers of the people alone. The people themselves are its only safe depositories."

On Welfare State
About Government Planners, he said: "Government should restrain men from injuring one another, but leave them otherwise to follow their own pursuits of industry and employment."

EDITOR'S NOTE — A copy of this letter to President Johnson was mailed to The Pampa News by Lloyd Kuntz, 1207 E. Francis. A copy also was sent to Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa. The letter follows:

Hon. Lyndon B. Johnson, President
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. President:
This morning's paper said, 'U. S. Terms Jet Incident Closed.'

Meanwhile back at the ranch three L. B. J. cowboys were out looking for stray cattle; they were unarmed and accidentally rode over onto the neighbor's land. Remember there is no fence along this boundary so they were not aware that they were trespassing until they met your neighbor and he and his men were armed to the teeth and they shot your three cowboys without asking any questions.

Mr. President, you were sitting tall in the saddle to the American people until this test by Mr. Khrushchev. Mr. Khrushchev wanted to know how far he could go so he deliberately had three of our men shot down in cold blood. Now he knows that you are not tough, now he knows that you would not do anything that might jeopardize your office, now he knows that you would not do anything that might jeopardize your chance of being elected next fall. And he also knows that you are hoping to create a favorable climate with him whereby he might create a crisis this fall that might help get you elected. This makes a total of 14 planes and the loss of seventy men that the Russians have caused to be shot down since 1950 and you and I know that these were all without provocation because our Air Force Officers say that the Russians fly across the line into our territory and we have never shot down one of their planes because we didn't feel that it was an act of aggression. Is Khrushchev going to be allowed to bury us one at a time?

Mr. President, any one of us here in America is expendable. Every real patriot is ready and willing to sacrifice his job, his wealth, his very life for the protection of this great nation of ours, and we expect that of you, Mr. President, even if it means risking the possibility that you might not be elected this fall.

Lloyd Kuntz
1207 E. Francis

Regional Sunday School Meet Set For Thursday In Amarillo

The latest in methods and materials for Sunday School workers will be offered in a regional Sunday School conference set for Thursday in the an Jacinto Baptist Church of Amarillo, so says Bill Burns, secretary of the Texas Baptist Sunday School Department. Outstanding leaders from across the nation will be on hand to give direction in age group conferences. Dr. L. L. Forrist, pastor of Midland's First Baptist Church, will be the key speaker for the first inspirational session which begins at 10 a.m. He will also speak at a closing inspirational session during the evening. Harold Marsh of Montgomery, Ala., will lead a conference for pastors, ministers of education, and general officers of the Sunday School. Harry Piland of the University Baptist Church, Fort Worth, will lead the conference for teachers and workers with adults. Joe Haynes, superintendent of Young People's work in the Sunday School Department, Nashville, Tennessee, will lead the conference for workers with Young People. Mrs. Hazel Atkinson of Dallas will lead the Intermediate conference. Mrs. Woodrow Cagle of Lubbock will lead the Junior conference. Miss Neida Williams, children's worker in the Texas Baptist Sunday School

Department, will lead the Primary conference. Mrs. C. L. Sullivan, director of children's activities of the Paramount Baptist Church, Amarillo, will lead the Beginner conference. Mrs. Robert Burnett, Amarillo, outstanding worker with nursery age children, will lead the Nursery conference. Mr. John McLaughlin, Texas Baptist Church Service's Division, will lead a special conference for Sunday School teachers in Spanish-speaking churches.

The Arrangements Committee consists of Rev. Carlos McLeod, host pastor, George Parker, Mrs. Jean Lowe, and Mrs. Joe Fred Barker, all of Amarillo. Pre-registration for the conference is being conducted in Southern Baptist churches throughout the High Plains area. Each church has been challenged to bring 25 per cent of their Sunday School workers to the conference. A minimum of five workers from each church is being suggested. Some 1,500 in attendance is expected. This conference is one of six such conferences throughout the state sponsored by the Texas Baptist Sunday School Department to bring help in Sunday School methods and materials to the largest number of Sunday School teachers and leaders.

First Services Scheduled in Baptist Auditorium This Sunday

For many years Central Baptist Church has planned for a new auditorium. Now these plans have been brought to fruition. Sunday, February 9, the church will hold the first worship service in their new auditorium at 11 a.m. At this service the pastor, T. O. Upham, will speak on the subject "Let the Nails be Driven." Paul Biggs of Phillips will be the guest music director of the morning and will also bring the special music. Because the church now has room for its congregation in one worship service, the early worship service is being discontinued. The membership of Central Baptist Church has been challenged to make this Sunday a "Demonstration Day." They have been challenged to demonstrate their love of God and their church by being present in both Sunday School and the Worship Services. They have also been challenged to bring the tithe of one week's pay into the storehouse of the church. Pancake Supper committees announced by men of St. Matthew's. The committee assignments for the Annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper to be held at the St. Matthew Episcopal Church on Tuesday have been announced by Clem Followell, the chairman. The cooks are Messrs. Dan Michael, Bill Ragsdale, Carl Thomas, Bill Dingus, James Hart, James Dailey, Bob Spears and Horace Watkins. Ticket sales: Messrs. G. W. Dingus, Ernest Wilkinson, A.D. Conway. Publicity: Rev. W. E. West and members of the Sr. Youth Group. Decorations: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ragsdale. Food & Supply procurement: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curtis.

Dr. Armstrong to Deliver Sermon at First Methodist

Dr. Tilden Armstrong, district superintendent, will preach at the two morning services this Sunday. The sermon topic for the 8:45 a.m. service will be "Polish Up Your Religion" and for the 11 a.m. service Dr. Armstrong will speak on "Spiritual Frontage." The special music for the early service will be presented by the Handbell Choir and they will play for the offertory the anthem "There is a Balm in Gilead," arranged by Wheeler Carson. The Sanctuary Singers will sing the anthem "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Shelley for the 11 a.m. service. Sunday at 3 p.m. the Handbell Choir and the Youth Choir will present a program of sacred music at St. Marks Methodist Church here in Pampa. The concert will be given for the benefit of the building fund for this church which is in a campaign to complete its building program. Sunday Fellowship will meet at 5:45 p.m., with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:15 p.m. children, youth, and adults will separate for 45 minutes of Fellowship groups activities according to interest and needs. The Adult Fellowship group will meet in the church parlor. The Sunday worship service at 7:15 will be conducted by Rev. Curtis Lee, pastor of the Methodist Church, White Deer.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

By ELDER JAMES WALDROP

"THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF L.D.S."

Christians of all denominations have a challenge facing them, that of taking Christian principles out of the bible and placing them into the lives of men. This is a battle that Christianity can and must win, for the hour in which we live is filled with uncertainty and dangers such as men have seldom if ever faced on this earth.

All of us who believe in the teachings taught in the sermon on the mount nearly two thousand years ago, must re-dedicate our lives, our energy, our all into the effort of applying these principles into our lives and of trying to share this happy way of living with the entire world.

Men of all faiths must show by their actions that Christian principles bring happiness into the lives of men. We have a golden opportunity to help all men to realize that Christianity is a dynamic positive way to live and each of us might do well to remember that a carpenter's tools would do him or anyone else any good if he left the tools in the chest. We need to be ready and willing at any time to step forth and say, "Yes I think Christianity is wonderful, I could not live without it."

We need to renew our personal acquaintance with the lean bronze country journeyman who walked the roads of the tradesman. The man who knew how a parched dry throat felt and the soothing taste of water from the well. The man whose feet and legs were given to walking and who knew not the life of ease and leisure. The man with a voice that could soothe a child's crying and yet so strong it could rebuke kings. The man whose eyes could show utter naked kindness, yet could blaze with eternal fire. The man who stood before Herod in chains and rebuked him with Godly silence. That dynamic man who with righteous indignation drove the money changers from the temple. The same man who stood in kingly Godly silence while being mocked and scourged, while varlets hooted, jeered and spit in his face. The man of strength, the man of faith. The man of patience and love. Jesus Christ, the son of God, who died to save the world. He is just as near and just as ready to save man-kind today as he was when he gave his life over nineteen hundred years ago on the cross.
