SKELLY LETS CONTRACT FOR BIG GAS PLANT

WILL BE BUILT EIGHT MILES EAST OF WHITTENBURG

Skelly oil company announced today the letting of a contract for construction of an oil absorption plant for manufacturing casinghead gasoline in the prolific Dolomite area in southeast Hutchinson county. L. L. Dresser of Tulsa, Okla., was named contractor for construction of the plant and J. E. Carlson of Pampa was given the contract for laying all field and main gathering lines.

Several hundred men will begin immediate construction of the plant and pipe lines which are to be completed in 90 working days. Total cost of the plant was $2,000,000 because of numerous contracts and special equipment necessary.

When completed, the plant will have a capacity of producing 1,000,000 feet of gas daily. Due to the small allowable per well in the area, life of the plant is given as 20 years.

ITALIANS ARE TRAPPED NEAR BILBAO, CLAIM

LOYALIST SHIP SENT TO SHELL REBEL LINES

ST. JEAN DE LUZ, France, May 3 (AP)—Scores of Italians from an insurgent army column today were reported trapped at Bermeo, on the Bay of Biscay coast about 8 miles from Bilbao.

The Basque officer, reaching Bilbao, said they were leaping into the sea and attempting to swim to the eastern shore of Guernica inlet, two miles away.

The Basque reports said government troops had encircled Bermeo, a small but important port.

In London, authorized spokesmen meanwhile said 5,000 children shortly would be evacuated from besieged Bilbao under protection of British gunships.

British and French men-of-war patrolled the bay today to protect merchant vessels bringing the first refugees out of Bilbao.

Diplomatic quarters heard that the Spanish government had sent the sinking by government planes of the Bay of Biscay off Bilbao, apparently in a move to shell insurgent lines around the Basque capital.

While strict secrecy surrounded the evacuation plan, last Spanish insurgent warships interfere, diplomatic reports indicated nine British freighters had left or would soon leave the Basque capital with some 5,000 women and children.

Rebels 8 Miles Away. With Gen. Emilio Mola's insurgents reported only eight miles from Bilbao, there was no surety that more of the populace—swollen to at least 350,000 by the influx of refugees—could be taken to safety.

The British battleship Royal Oak, four British destroyers, and a French sloop were at St. Jean De Luz, ready to guard a refugee vessel once they have passed outside the Spanish three-mile limit.

The British destroyer Faulknor, which just escaped being hit by insurgent air bombs in Bilbao harbor Saturday, was "to make the 70-mile run back to Bilbao to take out the staff of the British consulate and the French destroyer Terrible made ready to remove the French consul and citizens.

The first of the fleeing women and children were expected to reach France during the day. Paulliac was designated as the point of disembarkation.

OLD-AGE PENSION LEVY LOSES IN SENATE VOTE

AUSTIN, May 3 (AP)—The Senate refused today to submit a constitutional amendment authorizing a sales tax to support old age assistance.

The vote was 18 ayes to 11 noes. The proposal, in two propositions, may be considered again, however.

The first proposition would have provided for pensions to all over 65 years of age and to the needy, blind, dependent children and mothers.

The second would have authorized equal and uniform pensions to those over 65 in need and, like the first, proposition, assistance to needy blind, dependent children and mothers.

An amendment added at the last minute provided the state should have a lien, payable after death, on property of a pensioner valued in excess of $5,000.

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—The Supreme Court delayed today at least until May 17 a final decision on constitutionality of the federal social security act.

This action made it possible that the court will decide at the same time on separate cases involving the unemployment insurance and old age pension provisions of the security law.

Final Divorce Decree Is Granted Mrs. Simpson

LONDON, May 3 (AP)—The precise machinery of the British divorce court clicked off Wallis Warfield's final divorce decree today, and Edward Windsor, the man who deserted a throne for "the woman I love" lost not a minute in closing the gap between St. Wolfgang, Austria, and the French Touraine.

They are free to marry now whenever they choose — perhaps at a British consular office in France or at a French town hall—but probably not until after the pagentry of state that will put Edward's crown on the head of his brother, King George VI, nine days hence.

These swift developments this morning and this noon brought ever closer the union of the lonely duke and the Baltimore-born woman whose love changed an empire's crown and thrilled the whole world.

London, 10:30 a. m. — Presiding Judge Sir Boyd Merriam in the divorce court nodded his head over 78 final divorce cases, one of them "Simpson, W., vs Simpson, E. A.," and said: "I pronounce the decrees absolute."

ST. WOLFGANG, Austria, noon: —Edward Windsor, dressing for a mountain hike, answered the telephone; then announced through his adjutant: "The Duke is taking the 4 o'clock train at Salzburg—destination, Tours." Before he left the duke called Mrs. Simpson, she told him to "hurry"; he is expected in Tours by tomorrow.

THE CHATEAU DE CANDE, France, near Tours: — Mrs. Simpson, in seclusion as deep as before, let her attorneys handle the decree and awaited her betrothed. She launched this morning under duress insisted, until after the coronation.

The London divorce court, in a routine procedure requiring less than one minute, made final the divorce nisi Mrs. Simpson obtained at Leitch Oct. 27 on charges of infidelity.

It was Mrs. Simpson's second divorce. An earlier marriage to Lieut. Earl W. Spencer of the United States navy was dissolved in a Virginia divorce court in 1927.

Only a few spectators were in the court's public gallery for the final scene in the divorce drama.

This one of the most famous cases in English legal history—W. Simpson vs. Simpson.

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—More than 200 delegates, here registered today for the fifth annual Lions district 2-T convention which opened last night with an address before a general session by Attorney General William McCreaw.

Convention formalities were launched this morning under direction of District Governor Elmer Elliott of Dalhart.

Features of the morning program were breakfasts for the presidents and secretaries, and "model" luncheons by Alpine, Floydada and Colorado clubs. A barbecue supper and a dance were on the program for tonight.

Spirited campaigns by the Anson club on behalf of Omar Burleson, and the Colorado club for Joe Pond for district governor are underway. Lubbock is a striking contender for the next convention.

GAME WARDEN ALSO ACCUSED IN 2ND CASE

FALSE IMPRISONMENT IS CHARGED AT RAYMONDVILLE

RAYMONDVILLE, May 3 (AP)—County Attorney H. G. Wright said today that a complaint charging George Durham, foreman of a part of the former King ranch, and Fernando Correa, with robbery with firearms was filed here this morning.

Another complaint, charging State Game Warden Morgan Miller with false imprisonment was also filed this morning, the county attorney said.

The complaints, he asserted, were in unrelated cases but were filed by farmers who lived in the vicinity of large ranch holdings in this area.

The county attorney said the complaint against Durham and Correa, whom he identified as an employee of the ranch, was signed by Luis Maldonado who was a tenant on the E. G. Barnhill farm adjoining the former King ranch in Willicy county.

Maldonado alleged that Durham and Correa came to his house in January, 1934, took a shotgun and forced him to accompany them to the adjoining ranch property for questioning in connection with the killing of some cattle.

The complaint was filed before Justice of the Peace R. B. Sutton, Wright said warrants had been issued for the arrest of Durham and Correa and the document had been delivered to Sheriff H. T. Craig of Willicy county for execution.

The complaint against Game Warden Miller was signed by L. E. Karr, a Willicy county farmer. He said Karr charged that Miller took him into custody while he was on a state road near the Yturria ranch about Nov. 1, 1936, and that he was released some time after accompanying in the game warden to a ranch house.

GALVESTON, May 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt set out today to try to duplicate the feat of his son Elliott who, the president's father, in the presidential fishing quint by landing a 93-pound tarpon.

Elliott snagged the gulf beauty late yesterday off Corpus Christi. Col. Edwin M. Watson, husky military aide to the President, thus lost several dinner wagers since he accompanied in the game warden to a ranch house.

While the chief executive's third son and companions fished, the President spent a quiet day aboard the yacht Potomac, getting what he called a "grand rest" in preparation for today's fishing.

"Sea roach" this morning, but much smoother tonight," he notified White House headquarters here by radio last night.

Gov. James V. Allred of Texas flew down from Austin and spent an hour on the Potomac off Port Aransas with the president, who was officially welcomed to these shores.

"The President has a healthy tan and is feeling fine and fit," the youthful governor said after landing from the yacht's small launch. "We had an informal and very enjoyable visit."

The teachers and 67 children
Went down to the park
And when we were there,
I heard a meadow-lark.
The meadow-lark was singing
Of happiness and joy,
And while it was singing

YOUR CHILDREN

"Rain, rain, go away, Little Johnny wants to play. Come again, some other day." Johnny never said that. It was Mother Goose herself, who had rheumatism or else wanted to go shopping.

Children don't care whether it rains or snows, blows or shines. They are the most philosophical customers on earth.

They get ear-aches, and stomach aches, yet when it's all over they don't talk about it for days. It's the way we do listen to ladies at bridge explaining all about their special headaches, or men in offices recommending nostrums to each other for acid systems.

Suppose the meat money runs out and we have to buy tough cuts until next pay day. We grouch and act like babies over the lost tenderloin, but Johnny picks up his fork and eats right in. He eats it and likes it.

Babies as Teachers
Mother says, "My poor darling you have to wear that same old sweater for another month!" And Junior says, "What's wrong with this sweater? I've always worn it, haven't I?"
Oh, babies babies, what great things you could teach us if we would only listen, and listen well! Are we going to our you as we have been ourselves? Are we going to pass to you the germs of our own discontent? Are we pitying you, when you don't want pity?
Will we teach you to see the rain, to notice the defects in existence, to dwell on the hangover from pain and trouble, to turn your eyes down instead of up, back instead of forward?
Usually children are not aware of being unhappy. Sometimes it is necessary to include them in our confidences and explain that circumstances could be improved, which cannot help making them "worry conscious," but for the most part they are far more content by nature than adults. They never quite comprehend what we call trouble.

Take What Fate Hands Them
Of course they are quick to note comparisons and to want what other children have, if they do not have a reasonable share of good things or possessions, but unless the discrepancy is too great they adjust themselves excellently well to circumstances.

All in all, they are our real philosophers, with none of the pessimism of age. They aren't disillusioned or disgruntled, but merely living by the day, taking life as it comes, and packing the living minutes with happiness.

Children are not all happy all the time, by any means, and any statement to the contrary would be far from the truth, but under reasonable, normal conditions, in fair health and in average homes, here bloom our optimists—and we should be willing to admit it.

Horace Mann Pupils To Present Show Tomorrow

Triple-featured, a program by students of Horace Mann school, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association, will offer unique entertainment at the high school auditorium tomorrow evening. A puppet show, Mexican fiesta, and dramatization of early Pampa history will be included.

The drama, Bridge of Memories, will be presented by 44 students from the fifth grades, directed by Miss Frances McCue. It concerns actual events of pioneer Pampa, with actual characters, many of whom still live here. The setting is the J. S. Wynne home, where friends are attending a party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ledrick. Those couples and many other old-timers are impersonated.

Mexican dances, songs, music and a playlet are included in the fiesta, directed by Mrs. M. K. Griffith. Singers will be Joe Raymond, and Angelita Hernandez. Ruth Sloum will play accordion solos, and Martin May violin solos.

In addition to the three features, entertainment will include a fairy dance in woodland setting, by 10 pupils, and a dance by Fred Cary and Freddie Jean Brock, pupils of the Vincent studio.

Gale Puts Whitecaps on Washington Flood Waters

Common was this scene in the vicinity of Washington, D. C., as flood waters of the Potomac washed over highways, isolating many residents. This view, made at Hains Point, near Washington, shows a cameraman atop an automobile, making pictures of the river's overflow, which was whipped into whitecaps by high wind. The flood was the result of constant heavy rains.

Virginia Beauty Bride of Earl

Another Virginia beauty has followed the footsteps of Lady Astor by marrying into the British peerage—the former Mrs. Dorothy Power Sands, seen with Earl Beatty after their secret marriage in London's Guildhall Register.

One of Railway Empire Buyers

When the Midamerica Corp., headed by George A. Ball of Muncie, Ind., sold its vast Van Sweringen railroad and real estate holdings, one of the three purchasers was Frank F. Kolbe, above, New York investment broker. Kolbe, 44 and stocky, joined his business partner, Robert R. Young, and Allan P. Kirby of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in the estimated $8,000,000 purchase.

As Flood Again Periled Johnstown

Water rushed through the streets of Johnstown again with heavy April rains, and residents watching the flood scene above, saw the rest of this bridge swept away by the surging waters a few minutes after this picture was taken. Recalling the terrible disaster of half a century ago and last January's high waters, many residents moved out of lowlands and stood ready to evacuate the town.

British Justice Is a Fight Fan

Coronation Workmen Doing 'Justice' to Jobs

High in the air above Old Bailey, which houses London's noted central criminal court, these two men should feel fairly safe, for they are literally in the arms of "Justice." In preparation for the coronation of King George VI, officials sent the men aloft to regild the statue. Making sure of his position, the man at left has a firm hold on the sword, while the man at right keeps his balance by standing in one of the scales of "Justice."

IN BESIEGED MADRID

Rather than raise the siege of Madrid, rebel forces have countered recent reverses by intensifying their destructive bombardment, spreading death and desolation over wide areas. In the bitterly fought Casa del Campo section, nearly every building bears battle scars, ruined by the fierce shelling like this once-magnificent house of a high government official.

A Hubby Has His Uses, Joan Finds

Oblivious of the premiere crowd that swirls about them, are Film Crooner Dick Powell and his wife, Joan Blondell, shown above. They're not dancing, during this intimate interlude, nor is Joan about to weep on her husband's shoulder. An autograph fan has just accosted them, it seems, and at the moment Dick is being used as a desk by the little woman.

Wreck Penn Relay Records

Indiana's relay team gave a fast pace on the opening day of the Four Relays on Franklin Field, Philadelphia. In top photo, Tommy Deckard gracefully clears one of the more troublesome hurdles and hazards in winning the 3000-meter steeplechase in 9 minutes and 21 seconds, breaking the carnival mark of 9 minutes and 28.5 seconds. In lower photo is the Hoosier intercollegiate distance medley relay team which bagged the event in 10 minutes and 47 seconds to tie the American record, set by the Olympic club team of San Francisco in 1935, and break the meet record of 10 minutes and 14 seconds. The first man runs 440, the second 880, the third three-quarters of a mile, and the last a mile. Left to right, the Indiana flyers who spreadleagled the field are Sam Miller, Mel Trutt, Jimmy Smith, and Don Lash. Lash ran the mile in 4:13.8.

Vertical Radio Beams Guiding 'Blind' Flyers

Claimed Mate Wed to Another

Freedom from the husband she claimed was never divorced from his previous wife was sought by chic Film Actress Marie Marks, above, in Los Angeles court as she sued Cecil Sillman for $200,000 and sought annulment of their marriage.

Odd Twins—One Dark, One Albino

The fact that one of these 6-year-old Rios twins has dark skin, eyes and hair, and the other is a complete albino puzzles California scientists, but doesn't bother the boys in the least. Umberto, left, and Rudolfo, born of Mexican parents on Santa Catalina Island, are healthy, normal and happy.

Takes Billiard Title 14th Time

Suddenly regaining the cue wizardry that had carried him to the world billiard title 13 times previously, Ralph Greenleaf, seen in action above, rallied in the eleventh inning of the championship match with Andrew Ponzi at New York and ran out an unfinished string of 53 shots to win, 125-107. Greenleaf last won the title in 1933.

3000 Workers, 1000 Clocks in Interior Building

Built to house all the scattered department units under one roof, the new Interior building, above, in Washington, was planned strictly along utilitarian lines, minus frills. It has a wide center wing two blocks long, six block-long wings on each side and will accommodate 3000 workers. It has 1000 clocks, escalators between the first, second and third floors, a 400,000-volume library, auditorium, cafeteria, conference rooms, basement garage and a broadcasting studio. The cost was $13,000,000.

WE MUST FEEL NEUTRAL TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

It would be hard to leave a rock at any public gathering these days without hitting some speaker who is telling his hearers just what America must do to keep out of war.

The speakers don't seem to agree very well, to be sure. One will declare that only a program of super-preparedness can save us; another, that complete economic self-sufficiency is the only answer; a third, that trade barriers must come down; a fourth, that the munitions makers and international bankers must be curbed.

But they all agree on one thing—that we must stay out of war somehow. And anyone who listens very long, and sees how popular this stay-out-of-war theme is nowadays, must believe that this country's feet are set in the path of peace as never before.

We have been raising all kinds of defenses to the danger of war, of late. We have neutrality laws of high and low degree; we have a great fleet and a strong air force; we have a law to keep us from lending money to our overseas debtors. We have, in fact, guarded against every danger; one, and it happens to be the only one worth talking about.

We have done nothing—for there is nothing much we can do—about the chance that we ourselves, as individual human beings, may get so that we actually want to go to war.

If you will go back and look at what happened between 1914 and 1917, you can see how that works.

When the World War began in 1914, not one American in a thousand dreamed that it could ever be any direct concern of ours. Europe was a long way off, and it was hard to see what the quarrel was all about.

And then, in spite of ourselves, the thing began to get hold of our emotions. The unspeakable drama of Verdun and Gallipoli and the Somme began to get under our hides. We began to get under our hides. We began to begin to pass judgment on moral issues of the contest. We began to get irritated at the way in which the chaotic mess slopped over on our own old privileges and rights.

The whirligig turned faster and faster, and we grew more and more impassioned about it. And finally, when the German submarine campaign got going, we slid blithely over the dam. We weren't taken into the war by the wiles of propagandists, munitions makers, bankers, or anyone else; we took ourselves in. We had ceased to feel neutral; eventually we stopped being neutral.

You can see the same sort of thing starting, in a modest way, in connection with the war in Spain. We are already beginning to take sides, to sympathize with one group and criticize the other. If that war spreads, so will our tendency to take sides. Carried far enough, this could get us into the war—just as it did in 1917.

There is where the danger lies: in our own emotions. Until we learn how to bridle them, we are unprotected.

TEX'S TOPICS

Many of you have read about and heard about one, Miss Gypsy Rose Lee, labeled "queen of the strip-tease art," and now in Hollywood to do a "take-off" on something.

After much conniving, we bring to Pampa, to brighten this Blue Monday, the story in which a strip queen tells the naked truth of her past.

Q—Your name is Gypsy Rose Lee? A—Well, yes. Originally it was Rose Louise Hovick, but my public began to confuse it with "Havoc," so I changed it to Lee.

Q—I HAVE asked the Hayes Office, Miss Lee, and it says that you will not do any stripping for the screen.

Q—No, no—please Miss Lee! I know that you were No. 1 on the list of Ten Best-Undressed Women of the American Stage.

Q—Will you tell your Pampa fans how you happened to take up the art of strip-teasing?

Q—A million dollars, Miss Lee? A—Well, maybe not a million. Maybe you could say "barely a million." Anyway I did all right.

That's all, Miss Lee. . . . The bailiff will please clear the courtroom.

SPRING FOOTBALL TRAINING CLOSES TOMORROW NIGHT WITH SCRIMMAGE

ELEVEN BESET BY INJURY OF FOUR PLAYERS

DEWEY INELIGIBLE FOR EITHER FOOTBALL OR BASKETBALL

Spring football training for the Harvesters will close tomorrow night at 8 o'clock with a full length scrimmage game between the Mitchellmen and ex-Harvesters still in school. An admission charge of 10 cents will be made to start a team activity fund. First use will be to purchase a couple of destroyed sweaters.

Watching the game from the sidelines will be Captain J. W. Graham. The little signal barger was injured in an automobile accident two weeks ago and will be unable to play. A captain for the game was to be named at a practice session this afternoon.

Also out of uniform will be Norman Cox, end, and Claude Heiskell, back. Cox wrenched a knee a month ago in scrimmage and doctors ordered him to rest until fall. Heiskell is out with foot trouble.

Harvester hopes were dampened last week with the announcement that James Dewey, promising full-back prospect, would be ineligible for future competition. A check by school officials revealed that he was the victim of the eighth semester rule. It was a real blow to basketball hopes next winter because Dewey was expected to be a real power on the hardwood.

Coaches would not name a starting lineup until after today's practice. They said there was a chance that Jack Wear would be unable to play because of an injury received in an intra-squad game last week. Loss of Wear and others will necessitate many changes in the lineup.

Little Don Smith, spinner man, will be the quarterback with Williams and Carr flanking him. With Wear out, it might be Dunaway, Hubert or Freeman who will get the fullback call.

The end assignments will probably be handled by Reynolds and McMahon or Turner. Tackles and guards will be the hard ones to select with Coslow and Nelson ready for either position and Mathews. Stiles and one or two other guards in the midst of a fight for starting honors. Solomon, Brown, the Dull brothers and one or two more boys are starting material. Harding will likely be the center.

The exes will have available such former stars as Showers, Enloe, W. J. Brown, Teeney Reynolds, Clemens, Maxey, Ayer, Morgan, Noblitt, Roy Lee Jones, Lewis Jones, Smith, Scott and others.

Huber Noses Out Oilers 7-6 In 13th Inning At Borger

Consecutive singles by Chody, Story and Eash in the last half of the thirteenth inning, after two were out gave the Huber Blackfaces a 7 to 6 victory over the Pampa Oilers yesterday in a thrill-packed game at Huber park in Borger.

Up to the final barrage, Red Evans had kept the Blackfaces completely under control. The giant from Valdes, N. C., relieved Dailey in the sixth and although hurling his first game of the season, and in a strange climate, the big fellow gave a great exhibition of mound work.

The Blackfaces pecked away at the offerings from Dailey to get a run in the second inning, another in the third, one in the fifth. The Oilers collected three in the fourth, one on the sixth and a pair in the ninth to knot the score after Huber had scored in the sixth and seventh.

Pampa had a real chance to win the game in the first half of the thirteenth when McNabb, first hitter, singled and stole second. Summers then scorched a liner that should have been good for one and maybe two bases but Eash fell in front of it and doubled McNabb off second. Scallin walked out Brickell popped out.

Singles by Chody and Story, followed by Eash's single to center scoring Chody, ended the ball game. Pampa's first three runs came as a result of McClary's double with the bases loaded in the fourth. McClary also bagged another double and a single to lead the willow work for both clubs. Scallin helped things along with a triple and single and Cox poled out a timely double which tied the score in the ninth.

Catcher Polvogt, the Blackfaces hit a homer and a single. Manager Story, working in left field, grabbed off three singles. Beason had a great day at shortstop, handling everything that came his way. The rest of the Oilers also played errorless ball while the Blackfaces committed five errors.

On Friday night the Oilers will return to Borger for a night game with the Phillips 66 crew who yesterday downed the Lubbock Hubbers 14 to 2 in Lubbock.

AMERICANS TO PLAY AUSSIES IN 2ND ROUND

The United States and Australia emerged as the finalists in the American zone Davis cup play over the week-end while four teams reached the second round of European zone play.

The Americans, fresh from a 5 to 0 victory over Japan, will meet the Australian team, which trimmed Mexico by the same score, at First Hills, N. Y., May 29-31. A year ago, the United States' hopes of winning the cup were smashed when the Aussies won the zone final.

Belgium and Switzerland won in the upper half of the European zone; Belgium on a 3-2 score over Hungary, and Switzerland through a victory over Ireland by the same count. In the other European matches South Africa shut out the Netherlands, 5-0, and New Zealand defeated China in England, 3-2.

The South Africans will play New Zealand in their next match. Other European zone pairings are: Upper half: Germany vs. Austria, Sweden vs. Greece, Italy vs. Monaco; lower half: France vs. Norway, Poland vs. Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia vs. Romania.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3 (AP)—Conqueror of Japan with a clean sweep in the first round series, the United States Davis cup team looked forward with increased confidence today to its clash with Australia and the determination of the North American zone finals of the international tennis battle.

American's first and second ranking players, Lanky Donald Budge of Oakland and Frankie Parker of Milwaukee provided the anti-climax of the series by winning the two concluding singles events. The competition ended 5-0, 3-0.

Competition in the second round already had been assured through Saturday's doubles win. In last Friday's opener Budge and Parker also turned in two singles triumphs. Parker, chess-struck artist, yesterday posted a convincing victory over Fumiteru Nakano, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2.

Budge's powerful shots blasted Jiro Yamagishi, Japanese champion and team captain, into submission, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

Pirates And Detroit Snatch Lead From Yanks, Cardinals

Maybe Jack Doyle wasn't so far wrong at that. The Broadway "commissioner" who will take any kind of a bet on the pennant races, recently cut the odds on the Pittsburgh Pirates and Detroit Tigers to 3 to 1 each. Folks couldn't see the reason for it with the Cardinals Giants and Cubs in one loop, and the Yankees in the other.

But Jack isn't taking many chances where the family bankroll is concerned. And the fact that the Bucs and the Bengals are in first place in their respective leagues today prove it.

Although the first two weeks of the season are about as conclusive as a one run lead in the fifth, the tip is definitely out—don't sell the Bucs and Tigers short.

Boostered by their best pitching staff in years, the odds on the Pirates have been dropped all the way from 8 to 1. With Joe Bowman, recent acquisition from the Phillies, making his starting debut as a Pittsburgher, the Bucs rode into the National league lead yesterday on a 7-2 win over the roughhouse Reds from Cincinnati. St. Louis Gas House Gang couldn't do a thing against Bill Lee's three-hit pitching, and dropped out of first with a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the Cubs.

Although victorious, the Cubs increased their hospital list when Billy Herman went out for several days with a finger injury, joining pitchers Tex Carleton, Larry French and Curt Davis, and catcher Gabby Hartnett, all drydocked for repairs.

Lou Gehrig finally found the range and produced homer No. 1 but the Yankees, generally, still were in their run making slump and went down 5-4 before the Red Sox, thereby losing the American league pace to Mickey Cochrane and his heavy hitting Detroit. Gerry Walker again was the big noise, belting a seventh inning homer for the winning Detroit run to wallop the White Sox 6-5.

In addition to Lee's three-hitter over the Cards, two other fine flinging performances featured the National league problem. Van Lingle Mungo had his fire-ball smokin' and stopped the Phillies with three hits and nine strikeouts, as the Dodgers put on a five run spree in the eighth for a 5-1 victory Cliff Melton, southpaw rookie hope of the New York Ginals, also whiffed nine and finished on top with a four hit 3-1 win over the Boston Bees.

Perhaps the most surprising result of the day was that turned in by the Senators. Shortly before announcing the release of catcher Shamus (Pat Mann) Hogan to Indianapolis, Washington won its first victory in five starts against Connie Mack's youngsters, but the Nats had to put on a five run rally in the ninth before finally doing it, 10-1. Cleveland's battle with the St. Louis Browns was rained out.

HOUSTON, May 3 (AP)—Skipper Jimmie Kitts hoists the following storm warning for 1937, come next football season: "Rice Institute's team this fall will be the largest and best in several years."

Wary as most grid mentors, however, Kitts added an "insurance" caveat, muttering something about having "the toughest schedule in the United States."

The Owls' row won't be too easy, for they meet, on successive weekends, Oklahoma at Norman, Okla.; Louisiana State at Houston; Tulsa at Houston; Texas at Austin; Auburn at Houston; Arkansas at Houston; Texas A. & M. at College Station; Texas Christian at Fort Worth; Baylor at Houston, and Southern Methodist at Dallas.

Reserve strength will be the most plentiful in years at the Owl camp and the loss of a few veterans from the '36 team will be balanced by the discovery of several sparkling sophomore in spring drills, Kitts said.

"I am more than satisfied," quoth the little mentor. "We had our best spring work in years. He expects Jim Hance to blossom into the best end of the conference and looks for big things from a couple of backfield veterans, James Schuehle and Johnny Neece. Two big soph, Ernest Lane of Mexia and Cogdill of Big Spring, will be pushing for ball-carrying positions. New comers who impressed in spring drills, and likely to win regular line posts, included Ross McBrayer, Amarillo Junior college guard; Bill Haner, Pampa, guard, and J. R. Green, Pampa, tackle. Two brothers, Bob and Bill Brandon, the latter a soph, are in the batch of good-looking backs. The Owls will be exceptionally strong at center with Harry Arthur and Herman Price, veterans, scrapping to beat off the challenge of three sophs, Sam Flowers of Big Spring, Ken Whitlow of Wichita Falls, and Hal Husband of Greenville.

ONLY AGGIES BLOCK WAY OF LONGHORNS TOWARD CROWN

BEAUMONT IS WAY AHEAD IN TEXAS LEAGUE

The Texas Longhorns drove down the home stretch in the Southwest conference baseball race today, boasting a game and a half lead over the field and faced with but two tilts that are considered in the category of crucial tests.

The Longhorns enter the final two weeks with the pre-season favorites, Baylor's Bears, safely disposed of, and with only the Texas Aggies barring their way to an often-held championship. Texas plays five more games, meeting Southern Methodist, now tied with Rice for the cellar, in two, the Aggies in two more and Texas Christian in one.

The Longhorns' series with Southern Methodist comes this week, the Steers and Mustangs clashing at Austin Thursday and Friday. The Aggies may be practically eliminated before meeting Texas as the Farmers play Baylor at College Station Tuesday.

Other games on the schedule have Texas Christian playing Baylor at Waco Friday and Saturday, and Rice meeting the Aggies at College Station Saturday.

Baylor took two games from Southern Methodist the past week but lost to the Aggies. Texas downed Rice in two and Southern Methodist dropped one to Texas Christian.

150,000 SOFTBALL TEAMS. CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—The Amateur Softball Association of America, which expects to have 150,000 teams in action this season, at an executive meeting yesterday decided to divide the country into 10 regions, with a commissioner for each, to spread out handling of business affairs. It also was decided to hold the annual championship tournament at Soldier Field for the second straight year, with Sept. 10, 11, 12, and 13 as the dates.

Galveston used home runs to nab the skidding Dallas Steers 10-3 behind the six-hit hurling of Frank Anderson. George Susce, Buc catcher, drove two over the fence and Don Curry smashed a 380-foot four-bagger with two on in the fifth.

Johnny Grodzick held the Fort Worth Cats to two hits while his mates gave Houston a 20-0 victory. Fort Worth got but one ball out of the infield. Lee Stebbins hung up both Cat hits, one of them scratchy variety.

Van Mungo, Dodgers: Allowed 3 hits and struck out 9 in 5-1 win over Phillies.

Gerald Walker, Tigers: His seventh inning homer provided winning run for 6-5 conquest of White Sox.

Cliff Melton, Giants: Fanned nine and pitched four-hit ball to beat Bees 3-1.

Jimmy Fox and Bob Doerr, Red Sox: Fox tripled and Doerr doubled to drive in four runs in 5-4 victory over Yankees.

Lee Handley, Pirates: Hit single, double and triple and batted in two runs in 7-2 win over Reds.

Sid Cohen, Senators: Came in as relief pitcher with bases loaded in ninth and retired side to protect 10-7 edge over Athletics.

Bill Lee, Cubs: Handcuffed Cardinals with three hits for 4-1 win.

GABBY STREET'S CLUB LOSES TO MINNEAPOLIS

CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—Gabby Street's St. Paul club, in the American Association title, is having trouble keeping out of the cellar. After losing 7 to 6 in 10 innings, to the Minneapolis Millers Saturday, the seventh place Saints took another smacking yesterday—a 4 to 0 whitewash from the Millers.

The victory left the Millers only a half game behind the pace-setting Milwaukee Brewers. The Brewers and Kansas City were kept idle by rain yesterday.

Louisville's Colonels were victims of the whitewash brush twice during the week-end. Indianapolis won Saturday's tussle, 2-0, and after losing the first game of a double header yesterday, 9 to 6, came right back and shut out Bernie Neihoff's men, 6 to 0, in the second game.

Roy Cullenbine made only one hit for Toledo against Columbus yesterday but it was a home run in the thirteenth inning that gave the Mud Hens a 3 to 2 triumph.

TOMMY MURPHEY WINS INVITATION TOURNEY

MINERAL WELLS, May 3 (AP)—Tommy Murphey of Mineral Wells was the home town boy who made good today. He held the championship of the Mineral Wells invitation golf tournament, defeating Frank Foxhall of Memphis, Texas, two up in a grueling 36-hole final match yesterday.

Foxhall waged a brilliant comeback and almost overtook the brilliant Murphey. He was five down at the end of the first 18 holes and once during the afternoon round was six down.

GETTING THE RUN-AROUND CHICAGO (AP)—Breaking out of a pen at the stockyards, a steer ran wild over a large section of the south side, twice swimming across the Chicago river while police and yards' cowboys tried in vain to lasso it. When they finally caught up with the animal it was lying quietly on someone's front lawn, apparently tired of it all.

EVERY hunter who has lived in coyote territory will attest to the fact that, without a doubt, coyotes know when a man is harmless and when he is not. Numerous experiences are recorded along this line by many famous hunters of the west.

MONUMENT ERECTED TO JAMES GILLASPIE

HUNTSVILLE, May 3 (AP)—The memory of Capt. James Gillaspie, a Pampa Texan soldier who led a company at the Battle of San Jacinto, was further honored today with a granite monument unveiled yesterday by his descendants.

Walker county citizens and descendants of soldiers who served under Gillaspie were present at the dedicatory services in which Judge Ben H. Powell of Austin was the principal speaker, paying tribute to the Texas patriot as one of the bravest and most courageous soldiers who ever shouldered a musket or drew a sword.

Mrs. George Kearce and her daughter, Miss Georgia Kearce, daughter and granddaughter of James Farris, one of Gillaspie's soldiers, unveiled the monument which bears the name of all those who served under the valiant captain. It stands near the grave of General Sam Houston.

The marker was dedicated under a tree where Rev. Teas Reed in 1836 preached the historic sermon. Rev. J. A. Derrick of Timpson delivered the memorial sermon and A. A. Seale, Nacogdoches attorney, the dedicatory address.

There was dinner on the ground and a singing convention at the church.

ORDINANCE NO. 180.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting the parking of motor and other vehicles on the south side of West Foster street between Russell and Frost streets; prescribing a penalty for violation, and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to park or leave standing, whether attended by any person or not, any motor or other vehicle, on and along the south side and curb of West Foster Street, between Russell Street and Frost Street.

Section 2. Whoever shall violate this ordinance or any provision thereof, shall upon conviction be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

Section 3. The fact that the municipal fire station is located on and front the south side of West Foster street between Russell and Frost streets, and that motor and other vehicles are now being parked near the entrance of said fire station, and thus endangering life and property during fires and when the fire trucks are leaving and entering said station, creates an emergency and therefore the rule requiring an ordinance to be read upon three separate dates is hereby suspended and this ordinance shall become effective upon its passage and publication.

AFRAID TO LOVE

Chapter XI

Bob returned from California the following Wednesday. Joan had developed a sore from him that morning saying that he would be delayed a few days so it was a surprise to pick up the phone and hear his voice. She was in Mr. Hendry's private office.

"Bob!" she cried delightedly, forgetting her business dignity. "Bob!" Then, aside to Mr. Hendry, she announced sedately: "Mr. Andrews is back from California."

"Good!" the old man beamed. "Tell him to come right in... Er, no, you go outside and wait for him in your office. Get your Hello's over... then send him in to me."

A moment later Bob bounded thru the door, and, without a thought for business priorities, he caught her in his arms.

"I missed you, Joan! It seemed a year."

"I didn't expect you today, your letter..."

"I caught a special plane. How've you been, darling?"

"Fine. A little lonely, of course. Did the Bella Terra come up to expectations?"

"Pretty nearly, is J. H. in? I'd better see him."

"He's expecting you."

"He put her down unwillingly."

"Have dinner with me?" he suggested.

"With nobody else..."

"They dined early that evening, at a small downtown hotel."

"I have news for you," Joan announced after a while.

Bob looked across the table, drinking in the exquisite loveliness of her—the golden curls peeping out below the pettli black turban; the blue eyes, radiant and exciting now; the soft cheeks, inviting a caress...

"You've found the apartment?"

"I haven't really looked for one. I've been too busy moving myself."

"Don't tell me," he said in mock distress. "that you've deserted the Lovely Ladies' Lodging Club. Where did you move?"

"Green Hills."

"To Green Hills? Boy that's fine! With Sybil?"

Joan shook her head kindly. "No. With an old friend..." She told him of meeting Dorothy at Sybil's and of Mr. Down's subsequent invitation. "So," she concluded, "Dorothy and I are living alone in the huge Downs house while the family is in Florida."

Bob smiled approvingly. "At Peter Downs', eh? You're certainly meeting the best of my friends."

"I haven't really looked for one. I've been too busy moving myself."

"Yes, in Seattle."

"Seattle?" he repeated in surprise. "You never told me you lived in the West?"

"You never asked me," Joan countered, smiling disarmingly.

"No, I guess I didn't. I've always been too busy telling you what a fine fellow I was. I never thought to ask about you."

"Perhaps it's time I told you about you." She spoke lightly and even Bob could not detect the serious undertone in her voice. "I was born in Sacramento, and later went to Seattle to live. After I left school, we moved—Mother and I—to Chicago. Mother died in Chicago, and somehow I haled the city after that. I came to New York as soon as I saved enough money."

Bob listened caudally.

"Your father's dead too, isn't he?" he inquired kindly.

"Yes. He died when I was very young."

She was surprised at the calm manner in which she was able to tell the story. Ordinarily she would have flinched at the very mention of the places. But Dorothy had made a habit of telling her and Dorothy had pointed out it was all so very probable that there was no reason at all to hesitate. There was her background, simple and straightforward, and if people asked any further questions, she was within her rights in tactfully changing the subject.

"It is so good," she said, realizing how much Dorothy had helped her already, "having Dorothy here. I've always been lonely in New York."

Bob nodded understandingly. "I imagine you have, dear. New York is a hard place to make friends. I remember when I first came down from Connecticut, I used to talk to myself at nights because I was so lonely. That was until I got the job with Mr. Hendry. He's been fine. Joan, almost like a father to me. I don't have any folks either, you see. Sybil has been swell to me, too. By the way, how did you enjoy the tea?"

"It was a lovely party, Bob." Joan said. "It was a bit formal, and—well, I'm still in awe of Sybil. And of her friends, too, I guess."

"I know," Bob grinned. "I felt like a bull in a china shop the first few times Sybil entertained me. Everything was so damnably correct. And that fish-faced Jennings watched me like a hawk, as if he suspected I intended to make off with the silver. However, Sybil means well enough."

"You'll like Dorothy, Bob." He patting her hand, as it lay beside her.
