

White Deer Upset Tops Area Elections

A stunning upset in the White Deer mayor's election featured municipal voting in the Top O' Texas area Tuesday. Several record elections votes were recorded in cities around Pampa. Alin Williams, who didn't even become Mayor of White Deer when 195 write-in votes beat a field of three other persons seeking the post.

White Deer with 372 casting ballots, some 275 more than last year.

Area results by city:

WHITE DEER

Alin Williams elected mayor by 195 write-in votes while candidates Burl Caudle, Robert O. Eastham and J. B. (Ox) Fleming received 76, 65 and 35 votes respectively.

Aldermen elected were Bill E. Abbott and Joel Sewell with 210 votes and Josephine Milikien was named corporation court recorder.

SHAMROCK

Seibert Worley was elected Mayor with a record turn-out of 618 votes. Worley received 313 votes while his opponents George Barth and E. E. Hoffman received 223 votes and 108 votes respectively.

B. R. Mahnen, 342 votes, Joel Parrish, 298 votes, and James Coldin, 240 votes, were named to the city council from a field of five persons.

CANADIAN

Three city councilmen were named to posts in this Hemphill county town with voters turning down a 10 per cent tax levy on $100 valuation.

Named to the council were Bud Hoobler, 202 votes, Lawrence Teague, 190 votes and J. C. Clark, 156 votes. Bob Sessions had 130 votes.

The tax levy election saw 99 votes cast favoring the issue and 142 against it.

LEFORS

Leonard Cain was re-elected mayor of Lefors with Ben White, Ed Brock and J. C. (Red) Jernigan named to the city council.

Cain defeated Charlie Barnett by 140 to 71 votes. White polled 169 votes, Brock 135, Jernigan, 157. Other candidates were Paul Blankenberg with 86 votes and E. G. Fenno with 48.

There were no write-in ballots cast.

PANHANDLE

C. H. Bell was returned as mayor of Panhandle in Tuesday's city election as he downed H. G. Nealey, 192 to 47, in a heavy turnout of voters. Over (See ELECTIONS, Page 3)

Wallace Claims Win In Wisconsin Ballot

Rail Companies Combine to Hit Strike Threat

'Guerrilla Warfare' Claimed Against Unions on Warnings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's railroads announced today they will place new work rules into effect at 12:01 a.m. (local time) Friday despite union warnings that the action would set off a coast-to-coast rail strike.

The announcement was made by J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, after four rail unions struck the 14-state Illinois Central Railroad in the four year-old rules dispute.

Wolfe said neither the railroads nor the public could tolerate "this guerrilla warfare" in making public his plans to force a showdown on the issues.

Moratorium Over

The unions have been free to strike and the railroads have been free to place the new rules into effect since a six-month congressional moratorium on such actions expired Feb. 25.

Two major issues—use of firemen on diesel locomotives and the size of train crews—were settled by binding arbitration under the first peace-time arbitration law in U.S. history.

That law, approved by Congress last Aug. 28 to head off a nationwide strike threatened at that time, left many issues to be resolved through negotiations. However, bargaining has produced no progress on these

11-Story Titan-2 Goes Into Orbit

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States rocketed an unmanned Gemini capsule into orbit today in a major step toward a space voyage by two astronauts aboard a similar craft within one year.

An 11-story Titan-2, carrying the two-seater capsule on its nose, blasted into the sky at 11 a.m. EST to inaugurate the flight test phase of America's second astronaut program, Project Gemini.

Five minutes and 35 seconds later, the cone-shaped capsule with its burnished second stage still attached, streaked into orbit above Bermuda at a speed of more than 17,000 miles per hour.

"We've got an orbit," yelled a jubilant Walter C. Williams, the Gemini operations director who today watched his final flight as an official in the program.

Police Fight Demonstrators In Cleveland

By United Press International

Police battled an estimated 1,000 demonstrators Tuesday in Cleveland, Ohio, where a young white Presbyterian minister threw himself to the ground and was crushed to death by a bulldozer.

Violence continued into the night and civil rights leaders planned for more demonstrations today.

The minister, the Rev. Bruce William Klunder, 26, was killed at the site where a new school is being constructed which civil rights leaders claim would perpetuate school segregation.

Alabama Governor Takes 20 Per Cent

By GENE BERNHARDT

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace today claimed a major victory in his fight against the civil rights bill on northern battlegrounds by polling more than 20 per cent of the vote in the Wisconsin presidential primary.

Favorite son Gov. John W. Reynolds of Wisconsin, the Democratic primary winner over Wallace, said Republican invaders and prejudiced Wisconsinites had swelled the vote for the Alabamian who campaigns back home on the slogan of "segregation now, segregation tomorrow, segregation forever."

The bantam, black-haired southerner, who once defied the federal government by standing in the school house door of the University of Alabama, crowded over his showing.

Snapping his fingers and clicking his heels in his Schroeder Hotel suite Tuesday night, he said:

"We won a victory and they know it. We won without winning. We will carry on this fight. We have done more than any other group to break the centralized control of government."

With almost complete returns in from Tuesday's voting, Wallace had collected well more than 30 per cent of the Democratic primary vote and had almost outpolled the Republican favorite son candidate, winner Rep. John Byrnes.

Effort Urged In Campaign

Team captains in the two divisions of the Pampa Industrial Foundation, Inc., campaign to raise $200,000 to attract new industries to the city were urged today to check workers to see how V-Day efforts were coming along.

Fred Neslage, general chairman, urged captains to make a personal check of workers, reminding them that April 14 is the date for a victory celebration in the campaign.

Funeral Set For Jim Poole

Funeral services for Jim Poole, longtime resident of Pampa and well-known civic leader, are pending with Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home.

Mr. Poole died at Worley Hospital at 4:32 a.m. today.

Born Feb. 7, 1915, in Spearman, he moved with his family to Pampa in 1926. He was a 1933 graduate of Pampa High School and former member of the Harvester football team. He was a graduate of the University of Tulsa and served with the U.S. Army for 33 months in the South Pacific during World War II. He was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Everyman's Sunday School Class; the Masonic Lodge 966; Khiva Temple, Shrine Club, Optimists and Evening-Lions Club.

He had owned and operated Poole's Steak House for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel, of the home, 1715 Beech; five sisters, Mrs. Byron Hash, Miss Garnet Poole, Miss Jo Poole, Miss Jackie Poole and Miss Opal Poole, all of Pampa.

WASHED OUT TALENT — Hank Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Henry, pleads with Carline Marak to buy a ticket to "The Greatest Show on Earth" — Pampa High School's annual talent show set at 8 p.m. Saturday in Harvester Field House — but the pert young lady isn't having any of this. She's too busy "washing out talent" (Henry for example) to worry about entrance to the amateur talent event. When approached, Miss Marak promptly plopped Henry into the tub and began getting the water ready. As the photographer left, young Hank could be yelling "but it isn't Saturday night yet." Miss Marak is the daughter of Mrs. Tracy Marak of 1212 E. Browning.

Jurors' Names Given Today

CANADIAN — Names of the prospective Hemphill County Grand Jury members were released today by Tom Hill, District Court clerk.

The 16 persons will be summoned at 10 a.m. Monday for impaneling as the grand jury, but only 12 will serve.

Named to the list were Mrs. Neulan Anderson, Claude Barker, Leland Caldwell, Roy Eckles, Glen Nostutler, Cleo J. Ahnel, Mrs. J. P. Keeton Jr., F. H. McQuiddy, Mrs. Calvert Morris, Mrs. Jake Ramp, Tom Riley, Ray Risley, Jim Smith, Albert Thorne, Mrs. Clarence Walser and David Young.

Harvester Talent Event 'Greatest Show' Set For Pampa Viewing

By GLENN MCCASLAND

The "Greatest Show on Earth" will hit town at 8 p.m. Saturday when Pampa High School goes all-out for hidden talent at Harvester Field House.

Nineteen acts, ranging from jazz and ballet to folk music, will parade across the stage during the talent show program which comes once yearly.

The talent is composed of high school students showing their hidden wares, other than class room ability and athletic prowess, to make the general public laugh and enjoy its collective self.

Mrs. Otis Holladay, sponsor of the Student Council, is the adult ring leader for the giant array of home grown stars that will place their wares on the market Saturday night.

She and her student council members have gathered individual numbers, musical groups and dancers to fill the "arena" for the program, which the students so nimbly named "The Greatest Show on Earth."

Some of the performers include Terrie Watson, Karen Moore, Carletta Johnson, Paula Sealey, Leslie Watkins, Brenda Nickens, Susan Darling and Caroline Marak, to name a few individuals.

Miss Sealey will present a modern jazz number while Miss Watkins will do a ballet dance, arranged on modern lines, to put zest into the show.

Misses Nickens, Darling and Marak will offer a modern jazz dance in trio form while Misses Moore and Johnson will perform a duet on piano and organ. Miss Watson will do a solo number. Many other acts are planned.

Special musical numbers will be offered by "The Cobras" and "The Coronados", two musical groups comprised of high school musicians.

Light entertainment will come from the trio known as "The Rejects" with a take-off of folk music based on the Smothers Brothers Act and other well-known recording stars.

The big "circus" of local student talent has its final practice run Friday night before putting down the "see-rings" that will be used for the "main attraction."

The talent show, which is an annual affair, is expected to draw a large crowd to the Field House. Ticket sales are reportedly running high, but plenty of seats are still available.

The duets, which may be purchased from any student council member at Pampa High, or at the door Saturday are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

And as the old circus barker declared years ago, "Come one, come all but get your tickets fast. Hurry, hurry, hurry! The Greatest Show on Earth is about to begin."

New York Bids Brief Farewell To Nation's Grand Old Soldier

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York bid a brief final farewell to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur today before the body of the gallant old soldier began a last trip to Washington to receive the tributes of government leaders.

The high and the humble—a cross section of Americans—stood in long lines in the rain Tuesday to pay homage to this country's "fightingest general" who first saw combat 61 years ago and commanded brilliantly in three major wars.

From 10 a.m. until after 11 p.m., an estimated 35,000 mourners, some in tears, passed through the 7th Regiment Armory where the body was reposed.

At 8 a.m. EST today, the body of MacArthur was moved in a 50-minute military procession from the armory to Pennsylvania Station for the train trip to Washington to lie in state in the Capitol Rotunda.

Placed Atop Caisson

The general's body was placed atop a horse-drawn caisson for the final trip in the city that was his home, passing down Broadway and through Times Square at the peak of the morning rush hour en route to the station.

There, five brigades of West Point cadets—the Long Gray Line of which MacArthur was a member at the turn of the century—stood at attention as the fallen hero's four-block cortege passed.

The procession included massed military colors, cars carrying the general's family, friends and dignitaries, a symbolic riderless horse, an honor guard of flag officers, marching troops and the U.S. Military Academy band.

At the fore were the colors of the 42nd "Rainbow" Division in which MacArthur served as a brigade commander in World War I and the 77th Division which landed in Leyte in World War II, helping to fulfill the general's promise to the Philippines: "I will return."

The train carrying the old soldier's body to Washington was scheduled to stop in Trenton, N.J., for three minutes so military units from bases nearby could pay their last respects to the five-star general who was the nation's highest ranking officer until his death.

Slow For Salutes

The special train was to slow at Odenton and Aberdeen, Maryland, for similar salutes.

In Washington, President Johnson planned to meet the train at its scheduled 1:45 p.m. EST arrival. An hour-long procession was planned to carry the body from Union Station to the White House and then to the Capitol.

In the capital, where MacArthur died Sunday in Walter Reed Army Hospital, a solemn pageant of honor—muffled drums, a jet flyover, 19-gun salute, a horse-drawn caisson followed by riderless horse—was to be witnessed by thousands of government workers lining the streets and a nation-wide television audience.

Finally, the general's body will lie in state at the Capitol Rotunda until noon Thursday when it will be moved to Norfolk, Va., for funeral services and burial Saturday at the MacArthur Memorial.

Advertisements and Labels
Of late the law of warranties has placed heavy tort responsibilities on advertisers. Sometimes the buyer may treat what sellers say about their goods as promises to which the law will hold them.

In the old days a seller was responsible mainly to the buyer, but the product liability now goes beyond the first buyer. Warranties now sometimes protect the buyer's family, his friends, or innocent bystanders whom the product may hurt.

But the law is not all one way. Recently, in another state, a chemical firm sold an insecticide spray. Farmer Jones bought some, and sprayed his crops. Many plants wilted. Jones sued the firm for the loss of his plants.

The company replied that the label said "Seller makes no warranty of any kind, express or implied, concerning the use of this product. Buyer assumes all risk in use or handling."

Like labels, advertisements may limit as well as increase a seller's responsibility. In a famous case a car maker claimed that all his cars' windows had safety glass that would not shatter when hit by small rocks. Smith bought a car, but when a pebble struck the glass, it shattered, hurting him badly. The court held that the seller had made warranties by advertising his car windows' special features to consumers. He had to pay.

In another case, Mrs. Brown was famous for her chicken salad. She bought canned chicken which was labeled and advertised as having "no bones." This time her chicken salad contained several broken bones which hurt her mother. The court held that the canner had to pay Mrs. Brown for her injuries. She had a right to think there were no bones at all in the can.

This new feature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who if fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.

Wheeler Choice In District Track

MIAMI (Sp) — Although host coach Bill Hines insists that the Wheeler Mustangs have Saturday's district track meet sewed up, the only event that is actually hemstitched is by Miami, which is guaranteed the first three places in the 120-yard high hurdles.

"I have to admit that we can't miss in that event," chuckled the roly-poly one, "because no one else has any boys entered in that event and we have three. Regardless, Wheeler has to be considered the favorite in every way possible, on the basis of returnees from last year, times this year and depth. There just isn't any way they can lose!"

The readjusted district lost first-place Booker and also Darrouzett, leaving second-place Wheeler, Mobeetie, Kelton, Briscoe and third-place Miami.

"It's just a case of Wheeler being more track conscious than the rest of the district," explained Hines, "as well as their having some wonderful material. They haven't missed a meet this year and have competed strongly with such powerhouses as Booker and Lefors. Allison and Miami compete fairly regularly, but don't have the depth, and the other district teams just aren't too strong on track."

"Even so, Wheeler can win it just on the strength of their relay teams. Their sprint and a mile relays are among the best

VERSATILE — Big Ray Corcoran, Mobeetie's one-man gang, prepares to enter five events in district track meet Saturday.

Class B units in the area and most of the rest of us don't even have relay teams.

"They'll get some individual competition," promised Hines. "Each team has one or two real fine boys who will win or place in several events, but the Mustangs will still have the depth."

Among the top individual competition for the Mustangs will be Roy Bean of Miami, whose 5-9 1/2 high jump is the third best Class B mark in the state, also figured to place in the low hurdles. Jody Holland of Miami is favored in the discus and is expected to battle Neil Rogers of Wheeler in the shot, and figures to place in the pole vault.

Allison and Mobeetie each feature a one-man gang. Leaping Lonnie Richardson, who vaulted 11'3" at the Amarillo Relays, is a heavy favorite for the pole vault, and as a 20-foot broad jumper, is slated to take that event.

Entered in five events, and having placed in four last year, Big Ray Corcoran is expected to grab a chunk of points for the Mobeetie Hornets. Corcoran will go for the marbles in the 100, 220, discus and broad jump and run a leg on the sprint relay team.

High school and junior high events will be run off Saturday. Field events and some running preliminaries will start at 9 a.m., running event finals at 1 p.m.

Alas, Poor Casey! Mets Cellar-Bound

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the eighth of 20 dispatches on the 1964 prospects of the 1964 major league baseball teams.)

By LEO PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — The New York Mets appear doomed to finish in the National League cellar again.

Despite the Herculean efforts of amazing Casey Stengel, the Mets' mixture of kids and discards simply does not measure up. And no one knows it better than the 73-year-old Stengel.

The Mets manager will promise only one thing — if they lose this year it will be with kids. He's going to keep some of his name players like Frank Thomas and Duke Snider, who are over the hill, but mostly he will go with youngsters.

"If you are gonna lose," Stengel philosophizes, "you might as well do it with kids. At least, there is hope they are going to make it some day. You can't improve your ball club playing fellows who the other clubs gave up on."

His big hope for the future is in his pitching.

"There we have youth and good looking kids," Stengel claims. "And we are going with three kids this year—win, lose or draw."

They are Ron Locke, Jerry Hinsley and Dick Selma.

Hinsley is a 19-year-old right hander the Pittsburgh Pirates tried to hide in the minors last year and has never pitched a game in organized baseball. Locke, a 21-year-old left hander, won 18 games with Auburn and Selma, a 20-year-old righty, won 12 games with Salinas.

As starters, Casey is counting on lefty Al Jackson (13-17), and right handers Carlton Wiley (9-14), Tracy Stallard (6-17), Jay Hook (4-14) and Jack Fisher, a six game winner with the San Francisco Giants last year.

The Mets' No. 1 relief man will be right hander Larry Bearnath (3-8). Then there's 23-year-old southpaw Gorver Powell, who came up late last season and won one game while losing one.

The weakest department of the Mets since they were created three years ago has been catching, but Stengel looks for improvement this year with Jesse Gonder the No. 1 man. Gonder can hit, but is not rated too well defensively.

Bob Taylor, obtained from the Milwaukee Braves, will be the No. 2 receiver with rookie John Stephenson, who hit only .261 at Auburn last season, having a chance to stick.

Thomas is going to be the Mets' third baseman this season.

"His outfield days are over," Stengel says, and Thomas says he is happy about that.

Ron Hunt is a fixture at second base and Stengel is leaning to Amado Samuel over Al Moran at shortstop. Samuel couldn't make it with the Braves and Moran never has been able to make it with the bat. Ex-Dodger Larry Burright may be retained for utility duty along with Rod Kanehl.

First base is a wide open scramble.

"I've got a lot of them," Stengel says. There's Tim Harkness, Ed Kranepool, Duke Carmel, Bill Haas and Dick Smith. All but Smith hit left handed.

Kranepool, Carmel and Smith also are listed as outfielders.

Major League Roundup

The Chicago Cubs have decided they were right in the first place and awarded the late Ken Hubbs' second base job to Cookie Jim Stewart.

The slim, 24-year-old native of Lafayette, Ala., was tabbed at the beginning of spring training to succeed Hubbs, who died in a plane crash just before he was due to report to camp, but then lost the job.

Stewart won it back Tuesday when the Cubs voted him the outstanding rookie in their camp and then proceeded to celebrate with a key single in the team's 4-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox at Mesa, Ariz. The 6-foot, 165-pounder, who is a switch-hitter, was given a watch before the game.

Glenn Hobbie yielded two runs in seven innings and Lindy McDaniel finished up for the Cubs, who bunched five of their eight hits for four runs in the third inning. Dick Bertell led off with a double and Stewart, Lou Brock, Ernie Banks and Andre Rodgers followed with singles to round out the frame.

Cards Top Pirates

The Pittsburgh Pirates lost a 3-2 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals but may have gained a pitcher as Vern Law pitched six perfect innings. Law, one-time 20-game winner for the Pirates, is trying to move from the voluntarily retired list to a spot on the staff.

Bob Allison's ninth-inning single capped a two-run rally and lifted the Minnesota Twins to a 5-4 victory over the Washington Senators. Lee Stange allowed the Senators only a fifth-inning homer by Don Lock and a sixth-inning single by Don Blasingame until the eighth inning.

TAKES GOLF MATCH

DENTON (UPI) — North Texas State defeated Texas Wesleyan in a golf match Tuesday, 15-3, the seventh victory in nine matches for North Texas linksmen. Jim Patterson was medalist at 70. Five of six North Texas players shot between 70 and 73.

BABE RUTH TRYOUTS

Babe Ruth League tryouts will be held Wednesday through Friday at Optimist Park from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. All boys 13 to 15 years of age who have not previously played on a team must register and make at least two of the tryouts to be considered. Boys who played last year do not need to attend the tryouts, but are to report to their regular teams after the rosters and practice times are announced in the News.

LA Angels Consider Moving to Anaheim

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Business manager Cedric Tallis said today the Los Angeles Angels will submit conditions under which the baseball club would consider moving its franchise to Anaheim, Calif., at a meeting Thursday.

The Anaheim city council and the Orange County board of supervisors have scheduled a joint meeting at Anaheim Thursday to discuss the Angels' letter of intent — conditions the American League club would require before accepting the proposal.

Tallis said the letter of intent in itself does not commit the club to any move but if the proposals it sets up are agreeable, then the offer would be submitted to the Angels' board of directors for final consideration.

"The letter leaves it up to the city and county to decide whether they can come up to the standards we feel would be necessary before a lease could be consummated," Tallis said. "That puts it up to them to see if they feel they can meet our needs."

These conditions include the location of the stadium, its size, parking facilities, rental and length of the lease, he added. Mayor Rex Coons of Anaheim and chairman of the board supervisors William Phil Tuesday disclosed to their governing bodies that the Angels would submit the letter of intent at Thursday's meeting.

Anheim previously had closed that it hoped to end the Angels here from Los Angeles with a 50,000-seat stadium to be built at a cost of $10 million.

The Angels for the past years have played their home games at the Los Angeles Downs' stadium in Chavez Ravine and are committed to there through 1965.

Lucas Stops Bill Royals Top Celts

By United Press International

The Cincinnati Royals still alive in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division playoffs because of a tenacious fender rookie of the year, Bill Lucas, to neutralize Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics.

As a result of the 6-foot, 102-93 and will take best-of-seven series back to Boston on Thursday. The Royals trail three games to one. Coach Jack McMahon said all when he commented, "I go with confidence because we finally played our usual game."

Lucas, who often went out to shoot when he wasn't playing, Russell even inside, had points, 25 rebounds and a season high of 10 assists, plus he blocked shots. Lucas' great play held Russell to one field goal on 12 shots.

Sam Jones scored 34 points for the Celtics in the first half but was held to nine in the second half due to the combative defensive efforts of Arlen Horn and Jay Arnett. O. Robertson had 33 points, including 25 in the second half, the Royals.

The St. Louis Hawks will take a 3-1 lead over the Francisco Warriors tonight their Western Division series St. Louis.

Palmer Gets Old Feeling As Pros Set for Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — A word of warning to other golfers in the Masters: Arnold Palmer is getting that old feeling again.

Palmer, who hasn't won a tournament so far this year, came in from a practice round at the Augusta National Tuesday confident that he is getting back on his game and that the course here suits him to a tee.

Despite the fact that the course was soaked by two inches of rain Monday, Palmer thought it was just great. "It's never played better. I'll take it like it is right now."

Palmer's 71 was a couple of strokes higher than rounds reported by others, but Palmer said his score wasn't important. "I was making the shots I want to make," he said. "I've been improving my game where it needed improvement—that's what counts."

Palmer, who was followed by the day's largest gallery and mobbed by autograph seekers when he came off the 18th hole, predicted it would take a 278 or 277 to win the Masters which gets underway Thursday and runs for 72 holes through Sun-

Harvester Golfers Aiming for Third

Only two of the outfield positions are set — Jim Hickman in left and George Altman, acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals, in right. Other outfielders include the veteran Duke Snider, who may be playing his last year, Joe Christopher and rookie Ron Swoboda.

Harvester Golfers Aiming for Third

"We're going to move up," again was PHS golf coach Eural Ramsey's promise, but this time with good reason, as the Harvester linksters move into familiar territory for the last two rounds of district 3-AAAA action, playing at the familiar Huber course in Borger this weekend and winding up at their own Pampa Country Club the following weekend.

"It's almost impossible for us to finish first or second," admitted the smiling one. "Monterey and Tascosa would literally have to fall apart for that to happen. But... we're only seven strokes out of third place and two good rounds, especially with the last one on our own course, can put us right up there."

Monterey leads the loop after three rounds with a 908, followed by Tascosa with 917. The Rebels, playing on their own home course, wrapped up the Amarillo Relays tournament last weekend as the teams took a week off from conference play, but will be playing out of their own ballpark.

In third place with a 941 is Borger, Amarillo has 946 and Pampa 948. Tascosa's hot-firing B team is actually sandwiched in ahead of Borger with 938. The Bulldogs, of course, are expected to gain ground on their own course this Saturday, but the Harvesters hold the case for the final weekend.

Steady improvement by team captain Grover Heiskell has put him in striking distance of medalist honors. James Conine of Monterey leads in the race for individual honors with a 220 total, but Heiskell, who has a low single round of 77, is shooting 229 and is figured to pick up at home.

Sophomore George Snell follows with a 237, Richard Ellis with 238, Skip Warren and Chuck Worley each have 240. Snell and Warren have single-round lows of 78, Worley and Ellis 79.

Big Cat Williams Wins Easy Fight

HOUSTON (UPI) — Houston heavyweight Cleveland (Big Cat) Williams had to content himself today with just another boxing victory instead of the 50th knockout of his career.

The "big cat" failed to counter the scampering, mouse-like tactics of Tommy Fields of Los Angeles for 10 rounds Tuesday night enough to put him away, although the Houston fighter scored a knockdown and an easy unanimous decision.

The unranked Fields, who weighed in at 192 pounds to Williams' 213, started backpedaling and crouching when the bell rang in the first round. He never stopped until the last bell rang in the 10th.

"Man, I didn't know that man was that big," Fields said after the fight with Williams.

Williams, ranked fifth among the world's heavyweights by both the World Boxing Association and Ring Magazine, called Fields "one of the cleverest fighters I've met."

The crowd of 4,500 apparently didn't appreciate Fields' cleverness. They booed from the 6th round to the finish.

Williams came close to his 50th knockout in the 9th round when he caught Fields against the ropes with several good combinations and sent him down for an eight count. Fields got up as the bell rang.

"I wasn't really hurt," Fields said later. "I just got trapped and couldn't bob and weave any more so I went down on one knee."

Williams had a swooping left hook going at the time Fields went down and it landed on the Los Angeles fighter's chin just as he sank to his knee.

The referee and one judge gave Williams every round while another judge gave the local fighter every round but one, and called that one a draw.

Harvesters Walk Over Borger Bulldogs, 8-4

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

The Pampa Harvesters literally "froze" the Borger Bulldogs to their first loss of the season, 8-4, yesterday at Optimist Park.

Some two dozen hardy fans shivered in their blankets as the Harvesters got five runs without benefit of a hit in the opening frame, after which, to all intents and purposes, it was a battle of survival, with both teams sending in their reserves early in the game and huddling in their dugouts in an effort to keep from freezing.

CARL HARNBERGER

For the first time in two years, the Dogs allowed someone else beside Big Joe Robinson, Mike Hyatt and David Parkhurst to pitch, and immediately regretted it, as two sophomores walked the first seven Pampa batters in a row.

Backed by the five-run bulge, Carl Harnsberger coasted to the win, with the Dogs getting a solid piece of his knuckleball only in the fifth inning.

Pampa Netters Pop Spearman

SPEARMAN (Sp) — Coach Roy Kieval again juggled his tennis lineup like a hot potato at a barbecue, and ended up with a 3-2 victory over strong Spearman, with his converted doubles teams pulling out the victory.

Switching two early-season A singlists to doubles, the Harvesters won the match as Tim Adsit and Gene Eads pulled out a come-from-behind victory, 8-10, 6-0, 6-4 over Lin Gibner and Burton Williamson.

Tim Eller was switched from doubles to singles, but ran into Spearman's district favorite, lefty Bill Blackburn, and was downed, 6-3, 3-6.

Evelyn Roberts was never extended as she smashed to a girls' singles win over Gloria Ricketts in love sets.

B singlist Rick Maxie lost to another of Spearman's good

Phils Picked To Win Flag

By LEO H. PETERSON
UPI Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — The Yankees, the favorite, in the American League; the Phillies, a dark horse, in the National League.

That's the way the 1964 major league baseball pennant races shape up to this observer.

After six weeks of personal observation of the 15 teams training in Florida and first hand reports on the five clubs working out in the Far West, this is how they are picked to finish:

- | | |
|----------------|---------------|
| American | National |
| 1. New York | Philadelphia |
| 2. Minnesota | San Francisco |
| 3. Chicago | Los Angeles |
| 4. Detroit | Cincinnati |
| 5. Baltimore | St. Louis |
| 7. Boston | Pittsburgh |
| 8. Los Angeles | Chicago |
| 9. Kansas City | Houston |
| 10. Washington | New York |

The surest bets in that lineup are for the Senators and Mets to finish last again in their respective leagues.

Next Best Bet

The next best appears to be the Yankees. The only thing they have going against them is history. They never have won a pennant in a year ending in 4.

Otherwise, they appear to be the class of the majors, their four straight World Series defeats at the hands of the Dodgers last fall notwithstanding.

They have the best defense in baseball; the best catcher in Elston Howard; the strongest bench; enough power and enough pitching. As one veteran American League observer:

"If Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris are sound, the 1964 American League race will be strictly for second place."

No serious challenge to the Yankee dynasty — they have won 13 American League pennants in the last 15 years — appears on the horizon.

Minnesota has the most powerful hitting club in the league, but is poor defensively. They also may find their pitching out of balance — too many left-handers and not enough good right-handers to go along with Camilo Pascual.

Lopez Is Optimistic
Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox is, as usual, the most optimistic manager in the majors, but his team lacks power although it has gilt-edged pitching. The White Sox may be hurting in the catching department and there are many who claim rookie Don Buford, who swings a major league bat, may not fill the bill in the field at second base.

The Tigers and Orioles have both improved, but not enough. The Tigers may lack pitching, the Orioles hitting. The Indians may be handicapped by the loss of Manager Birdie Tebbets, sidelined for the season by a heart attack. The Red Sox have too many gaps; the Angels lack power and pitching; the Athletics added power but lost pitching strength and as for the Senators — they have a real nice guy in Manager Gil Hodges, but he has few major league ball players.

The feeling here is that the Phillies are going to do this season what the Dodgers did last — win on pitching. They won 87 games last year and had to go without their ace left hander, Dennis Bennett, for more than half the season because of a broken left ankle. And they didn't get much help from Art Mahaffey, a right-hander, who won only seven games. Both are potential 20 game winners along with Jim Bunning, acquired from the Tigers.

They have problems—rookie Richie Allen must make it at third and they must find an outfielder to platoon with veteran Wes Covington in left — but so do the other contending clubs.

Giants Have Power
There is no doubt the Giants are the power club of the league, but they have defensive shortcomings and may come up short on pitching again, although Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley, obtained from the Braves, should help. They may be counting too heavily on rookie Jim Hart at third base.

The Dodgers will be little changed — heavy on pitching, short on power and defense. There are indications that not all is serene in the Dodger scheme of things. Sandy Koufax, their hurling ace, isn't likely to forget the contract negotiations which upset him so this spring and just how much help balking Frank Howard is going to be is a question mark. Without his big bat, the Dodgers would be sunk.

Mike Glascock singled, moved up on a sacrifice bunt by David Brannon, with Jackson scoring on a wild pitch. Stan Walsiak walked and Dale Cornelius singled, with the Harvesters then throwing away the ball on a run-down play and all hands except Cornelius ending up across the plate.

Pampa got the final tally in their half of the inning as Claude Middleton walked, stole second and scored on an error.

Harnsberger allowed seven hits and one walk, striking out six.

Pampa (6-5) and Borger (6-1) both open district play at Lubbock this week end, the Harvesters at Lubbock Friday and Monterey Saturday.

Willie Wants Heavy Title

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — As champion Willie Pastrano and Argentina's Gregorio Peralta completed sparring preparations today for Friday night's light heavyweight title fight, Pastrano said:

"I'm very confident of beating Peralta this time — and next I want a shot at the big apple—the heavyweight crown."

Willie of Miami Beach — who spent his youth in New Orleans — was finishing his glove-grooming today with two rounds at Curley's Gymnasium.

Handsome Gregorio of Buenos Aires, who outpointed Pastrano in a non-title 10-round fight at Miami Beach last Sept. 20, also was contented with a final two rounds at Curley's punchnasium.

Because of that September victory and because of his impressive combinations against sparmate Calvin Campbell in Tuesday's two rounds, Peralta is a slight favorite at 13-10 to win their nationally televised 15-round match at the New Orleans Municipal Auditorium.

Peralta also is favored because his last three victories included two decisions over contender Wayne Thornton of Fresno, Calif.

Harvesters Walk Over Borger Bulldogs, 8-4

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor
The Pampa Harvesters literally "froze" the Borger Bulldogs to their first loss of the season, 8-4, yesterday at Optimist Park.

Some two dozen hardy fans shivered in their blankets as the Harvesters got five runs without benefit of a hit in the opening frame, after which, to all intents and purposes, it was a battle of survival, with both teams sending in their reserves early in the game and huddling in their dugouts in an effort to keep from freezing.

For the first time in two years, the Dogs allowed someone else beside Big Joe Robinson, Mike Hyatt and David Parkhurst to pitch, and immediately regretted it, as two sophomores walked the first seven Pampa batters in a row.

Backed by the five-run bulge, Carl Harnsberger coasted to the win, with the Dogs getting a solid piece of his knuckleball only in the fifth inning.

Borger picked up a single run in the first on a wind-blown single by Vince Langen, an error and a solid single by Joe Coffey. Pampa then got their seven free passes and worked them for five tallies in their half.

Rick Stewart led the Harvesters as they ran wild on the basepaths and personally picked up a run in the second inning, singling, stealing second and third and scoring as the catcher tried to throw him out.

Pampa picked up another tally in the fifth as Kenny Hebert slammed a triple to the deepest corner of left field and scored on a two-out single by Shotgun Gregory.

Borger bats and Pampa miscues combined for three runs in the fifth. Willie Jackson and SPEARMAN (Spl) — Coach Roy Kieval again juggled his tennis lineup like a hot potato at a barbecue, and ended up with a 3-2 victory over strong Spearman, with his converted doubles teams pulling out the victory.

Switching two early-season A singlists to doubles, the Harvesters won the match as Tim Adsit and Gene Eads pulled out a come-from-behind victory, 8-10, 6-0, 6-4 over Lynn Gibner and Burton Williamson.

Tim Eller was switched from doubles to singles, but ran into Spearman's district favorite, lefty Bill Blackburn, and was downed, 6-8, 3-6.

Evelyn Roberts was never extended as she smashed to a girls singles win over Gloria Ricketts in love sets.

B singlist Rick Maxie lost to another of Spearman's good

Phils Picked To Win Flag

By LEO H. PETERSON
UPI Sports Editor
TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — The Yankees, the favorite, in the American League; the Phillies, a dark horse, in the National League.

That's the way the 1964 major league baseball pennant races shape up to this observer.

Pampa got the final tally in their half of the inning as Claude Middleton walked, stole second and scored on an error.

Harnsberger allowed seven hits and one walk, striking out six.

Pampa (6-5) and Borger (6-1) both open district play at Lubbock this week end, the Harvesters at Lubbock Friday and Monterey Saturday.

After six weeks of personal observation of the 15 teams training in Florida and first hand reports on the five clubs working out in the Far West, this is how they are picked to finish:

American	National
1. New York	Philadelphia
2. Minnesota	San Francisco
3. Chicago	Los Angeles
4. Detroit	Cincinnati
5. Baltimore	St. Louis
7. Boston	Pittsburgh
8. Los Angeles	Chicago
9. Kansas City	Houston
10. Washington	New York

The surest bets in that lineup are for the Senators and Mets to finish last again in their respective leagues.

Next Best Bet

The next best appears to be the Yankees. The only thing they have going against them is history. They never have won a pennant in a year ending in 4.

Otherwise, they appear to be the class of the majors, their four straight World Series defeats at the hands of the Dodgers last fall notwithstanding.

They have the best defense in baseball; the best catcher in Elston Howard; the strongest bench; enough power and enough pitching. As one veteran American League observer:

"If Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris are sound, the 1964 American League race will be strictly for second place."

No serious challenge to the Yankee dynasty — they have won 13 American League pennants in the last 15 years — appears on the horizon.

Minnesota has the most powerful hitting club in the league, but is poor defensively. They also may find their pitching out of balance — too many left-handers and not enough good right-handers to go along with Camilo Pascual.

Lopez Is Optimistic

Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox is, as usual, the most optimistic manager in the majors, but his team lacks power although it has glib pitching. The White Sox may be hurting in the catching department and there are many who claim rookie Don Buford, who swings a major league bat, may not fill the bill in the field at second base.

The Tigers and Orioles have both improved, but not enough. The Tigers may lack pitching, the Orioles hitting. The Indians may be handicapped by the loss of Manager Birdie Tebbetts, sidelined for the season by a heart attack. The Red Sox have too many gaps; the Angels lack power and pitching; the Athletics added power but lost pitching strength and as for the Senators — they have a real nice guy in Manager Gil Hodges, but he has few major league ball players.

The feeling here is that the Phillies are going to do this season what the Dodgers did last — win on pitching. They won 87 games last year and had to go without their ace left hander, Dennis Bennett, for more than half the season because of a broken left ankle.

And they didn't get much help from Art Mahaffey, a right hander, who won only seven games. Both are potential 20 game winners along with Jim Bunning, acquired from the Tigers.

They have problems—rookie Richie Allen must make it at third and they must find an outfielder to platoon with veteran Wes Covington in left — but so do the other contending clubs.

Giants Have Power

There is no doubt the Giants are the power club of the league, but they have defensive shortcomings and may come up short on pitching again, although Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley, obtained from the Braves, should help. They may be counting too heavily on rookie Jim Hart at third base.

The Dodgers will be little changed — heavy on pitching, short on power and defense. There are indications that not all is serene in the Dodger scheme of things. Sandy Koufax, their hurling ace, isn't likely to forget the contract negotiations which upset him so this spring and just how much help balking Frank Howard is going to be is a question mark. Without his big bat, the Dodgers would be sunk.

Willie Wants Heavy Title

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — As champion Willie Pastrano and Argentina's Gregorio Peralta completed sparring preparations today for Friday night's light heavyweight title fight, Pastrano said:

"I'm very confident of beating Peralta this time — and next I want a shot at the big apple—the heavyweight crown."

Willie of Miami Beach — who spent his youth in New Orleans — was finishing his glove-grooming today with two rounds at Curley's Gymnasium. Handsome Gregorio of Buenos Aires, who outpointed Pastrano in a non-title 10-round fight at Miami Beach last Sept. 20, also was contented with a final two rounds at Curley's punchnasium.

Because of that September victory and because of his impressive combinations against sparmate Calvin Campbell in Tuesday's two rounds, Peralta is a slight favorite at 13-10 to win their nationally televised 15-round match at the New Orleans Municipal Auditorium.

Peralta also is favored because his last three victories included two decisions over contender Wayne Thornton of Fresno, Calif.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Back in June, 1953, Colombia's highest ranking military officer, a man who had served with the Colombian forces in Korea, moved in at the head of the army and installed himself president of Colombia "for the peace of the nation and the future of Colombia."

Since 1948 Colombia had been torn by the bitter strife between its liberal and conservative political parties.

In five years their undeclared civil war had cost the nation more than 100,000 lives.

Under the iron-jawed, extreme rightwing President Laureano Gomez, Colombia was moving rapidly in the direction of becoming a fascist state.

It was into this situation in June, 1953, that Lt. Gen. Gustavo Rojas stepped, first to overthrow Gomez and then, within the next three months to halt the guerrilla warfare wracking the country.

Rojas Overthrown
But such was the turn of the wheel that Rojas himself became a dictator, the liberals and conservatives patched up their differences and Rojas in his turn was overthrown in 1957.

But now it is feared that the liberal-conservative agreement which restored political peace to Colombia also may have sapped the nation's political vitality.

In last Sunday's elections, less than a third of the eligible voters bothered to go to the polls.

And most damaging to the liberal-conservative coalition was the surprising political comeback of Rojas, even though he legally is banned from participation in Colombian politics.

Endanger Balance

His forces with those of other political dissidents could endanger the political balance of the Colombia congress which requires a two-thirds majority on all political decisions.

It also could endanger the stability of the national front, now scheduled to run until 1974.

When Rojas took office in 1953, he did so to the cheers of both liberals and conservatives weary of years of violence and tension.

But as a ruler he quickly proved himself both impatient and inflexible.

Colombia occupies a special place in United States hopes for Latin America and any threat to its stability is therefore of concern.

Under the Alliance For Progress, the United States has allocated hundreds of millions of dollars to the aid of Colombia agriculture and industry. The gains have been important but political chaos could wipe them out.

WANTS TO SURRENDER

BESSEMER, Mich. (UPI)—Lee H. Perry, proprietor of Perry's Fun Park in this Michigan Upper Peninsula community, is distressed about the economic conditions in the area.

Dear Abby... Globe Trotter Should Come Home Before You File

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Several days ago a letter came to our home addressed to a 15-year-old boy our daughter knows. It was sent in care of our daughter. My husband saw it and started to question her. He wanted to know what right the boy had to instruct someone to send him mail in her care. She said she didn't know anything about it, and didn't see where it was any of her father's business. I sided with my daughter. Her father allowed her to give the letter to the boy, but he instructed her to tell him that it was not to happen again. What is your opinion on this? We can't judge the boy as we hardly know him.

DEAR ABBY: Re the letter from the person asking what you thought about folks whose Christmas cards arrived after Christmas, I was pleased with your reply: "Better late than never. Who counts?"

Bravo, Abby! What has happened to the spirit of Christmas? I shall never forget a Christmas gift I once received. It was a bottle of home-made perfume that smelled strangely like vanilla extract. It was crudely wrapped in Christmas paper that had obviously been used on another gift, and tied with a second-hand red ribbon. But there was so much love in its manner of presentation I almost wept. It was from a ten-year-old girl whose family
