TO AID THE JOBLESS

Johnson Says Trip Will Speed Up Federal Action

By WILLIAM J. EATON
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—President Johnson moved into Pennsylvania on his four-state poverty tour today after telling a South Bend, Ind., audience that the trip would stimulate more federal action to aid the jobless.

Johnson flew by jet from Bunker Hill Air Force Base in Indiana after meeting unemployed auto workers who are training for new careers, following shutdown of the Studebaker plant. His plane landed at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport at 11:28 a.m. EST.

Construction Plans Studied By 60 Group

Plans to bring U.S. 60 to a four-lane highway across the nation were chief topic for discussion Thursday when the Texas Branch of the U.S. Highway 60 Association met at Coronado Inn.

G. K. Reading, resident engineer of the Texas Highway Department, told the some 30 persons present that a number of construction projects were planned for most cities along U.S. 60 and a number in the Pampa area.

Reading said that the cities along the Texas section of the highway could rest assured that the four-lane highway plans would be put into effect soon.

Sam Bell, president of the U.S. National Highway 60 Association, outlined details for the convention at Fairview, Okla., this weekend. He was accompanied by Bill Thompson of Herford, national secretary.

Delegates from California and New Mexico were also in attendance at the luncheon that saw the Texas group pay $1500 in dues to the national association and send a delegation to the national meeting in Fairview this weekend.

Howard Lane, president of the Texas branch, and Carl Johnson, secretary, were re-elected to a new term as chief officers as well as directors from their towns in the state.

Jim O'Conner, chairman of the Tourist Development Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, announced plans for a tourist clinic to be held in Pampa the latter part of May and extended an invitation for neighboring towns to attend along with Pampans.

He and Mrs. Johnson were caught up in a crowd crush for nearly five minutes on the first stop on the tour at a vocational school in South Bend.

He told them he was proud to see their determination to prepare themselves for available jobs as computer specialists and other skills.

The crowd at South Bend broke through security lines and hundreds surrounded the Johnsons as they made their way from the helicopter that had flown them from Chicago.

Johnson was greeted at the airport here by an enthusiastic crowd of several hundred persons, most of them steelworkers. He spent more than 10 minutes walking along a barrier shaking hands.

Johnson is an ebullient campaign mood, was unperturbed at the South Bend incident. He told an aide afterwards "it was pretty tight but it was wonderful."

And he told the crowd of 5,000 waiting to hear him in a high school football field "I'm going to tell Congress I wish they could come here in the heartland of America and see what the people of America are doing for themselves."

"I have been stimulated and inspired by what I have seen. (See ACTION, Page 3)

McNamara Closes 22 Major Military Bases

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara today announced the shutdown—complete or partial—of 22 military installations and facilities with the elimination of 10,956 jobs.

McNamara told a news conference that the shutdowns and reductions plus the sale of two industrial reserve plants, the consolidation of defense contracting offices in 29 cities and several other economy measures would save $63 million annually in the United States and abroad over the next 2½ years.

He also said that eight economy measures would be taken overseas—in Europe and the Western Hemisphere—but that these would not involve NATO forces. He said these actions would eliminate 3,600 military and civilian jobs and would save $21 million, he said.

The biggest single cutback announced today was at the Army's Watertown, Mass., arsenal where 1,849 jobs are to be eliminated by September 1967 at an estimated saving of $5.3 million. McNamara said only the Army's materials research agency would be retained at Watertown. He said most of the arsenal's facilities would be sold.

Tornadoes, Quakes Shake Texas Areas

Tremors Rake Gulf Border; Damage Slight

Louisiana School Records Four Temblors of Sonic Boom Size

HEMPHILL, Tex. (UPI)—A series of slight earth tremors jarred the Texas-Louisiana border area Thursday night and early today, scaring residents and causing minor damage.

No casualties were reported. Sabine County deputy sheriff W. J. Barlow said two distinct shocks were felt in Hemphill and at Pinedale, 11 miles away, about 7:30 p.m. and again at 1:30 this morning.

The Rev. Karl A. Maring, S.J., physics professor at Loyola University of the South in New Orleans reported four separate shocks recorded on his instruments.

Dishes rattled, walls shook. Some residents of the area thought at first it was caused by booms from supersonic planes.

Shook Real Big
"I was inside this old building (the court house) and it shook real big," Barlow said. "It seems like I heard a rumbling noise, but I couldn't be sure. It may have just been my imagination."

The officer said there was no loud noise accompanying the tremors which would have been the case had they been caused by sonic booms from jet aircraft flying over the area.

Barlow said the sheriff's office was "swamped all night" by phone calls from residents of this area just west of the Sabine River boundary with Louisiana. Hemphill's population is around 1,000.

"Most of them were just scared and wanted to know what was happening," Barlow said. "I was scared, too."

He said one resident, Charles Rice, reported the wallpaper cracked in his $70,000 home in the Hemphill city limits.

Dishes Rattled
Ross Parker, who lives at Pinedale (pop. 1,250) told Barlow, "it rattled every dish in the house."

Barlow said it wasn't the first earth tremor he had ever felt. "I felt one on Guadalcanal, once, in 1943, and it felt something like this one. I've lived in Hemphill all my life, though, and it's the first I've ever heard of here."

Nazi Escapee Reported in Switzerland

BASEL, Switzerland (UPI)—A fugitive Nazi mass murderer fled to Switzerland after escaping from a maximum security jail in Germany with the help of an old Nazi companion, authorities said today.

Hans Walter Zech-Neenwich, 47-year-old former SS officer, escaped from the red-brick jail at Braunschweig, West Germany, Wednesday night, possibly with the help of a "Nazi underground" that may be aiding hunted German war criminals.

Zech-Neenwich, sentenced Monday to four years imprisonment at hard labor for his part in the Pinsk massacre of 5,200 Russian Jews in 1941, slipped out of the jail with the help of a guard who once served with him in the 1930s in Adolf Hitler's Nazi ranks.

Grand Jury Eyes Heavy Number Of Complaints

Gray County Grand Jury members began studying a number of complaints this morning for possible criminal indictments as District Attorney Bill Waters moved to clean up his books before district court opens next month.

Waters said he would travel to Wheeler Monday to sit with the Wheeler County Grand Jury prior to the opening of a new term of court in that city.

The district attorney said he felt the Gray County Grand Jury would complete its business about 6 p.m. today.

Shreveport Struck By Black Twister

SHREVEPORT, La. (UPI)—Tornadoes spawned in an inky black sky today blasted through Shreveport and at least four neighboring communities, smashing homes and businesses and causing casualties.

Twisters thundered through parts of Shreveport and neighboring Bossier City. The towns of Dixie, Springhill and Greenwood were hard-hit.

Police said they had no reports of fatalities, but injuries were numerous.

BULLETIN
By United Press International
Tornado-jittery residents of West Central and North Central Texas apparently will not get the chance to relax much again today.

The U.S. Weather Bureau forecast scattered thunderstorms for the third consecutive day across a broad expanse of the state extending eastward from a Brownwood-Abilene-Wichita Falls line.

Threats of tornadoes tormented a wide area of the state Thursday and Thursday night, but of the five reported sighted only one was believed to have caused any material damage.

That one struck a rural area 20 miles northwest of Brownwood, damaging several barns. Another was reported near Coleman, near Breckenridge, 40 miles southwest of Wichita Falls and 40 miles north of Dallas.

Hail Batters Area
Heavy hail battered farm areas south of Abilene and northwest of Wichita Falls Thursday.

The same system was pushing eastward out of the state early today with the U.S. Weather Bureau reporting at 8 a.m. that there was an area of light showers and weak to moderate thunderstorms along and 110 miles east of a line from 10 miles southeast of Tyler to 40 miles northeast of Denison.

During the night, sections of deep East Texas around Hemphill got a different kind of scare when mid earth tremors shook the area about 7:30 p.m. and again at 1:30 a.m.

Lightning Hits Sign
At Fort Worth, a sign worker, Roy Gravit, 22, escaped serious injury when lightning struck the 45-foot tall sign on which he was working. Gravit managed to hang onto his ladder and climb down to call for an ambulance. He suffered some burns about the fingers.

Reports of 6-inch rains were received from isolated areas above Lake Brownwood and at Coleman.

Other rain reports included 1.26 inches at Arthur City, 1.05 at Anna, .62 at Hagansport, .96 at Jefferson, .26 at Denison and .61 at Abilene.

Early morning temperatures ranged from chilly 37-degree readings under clear skies at Dalhart and Amarillo to 76 at Victoria and Corpus Christi. It was 45 at Lubbock, 46 at Alpine and 49 at Presidio. Laredo's 95-degree high Thursday was the nation's hottest.

Officials and Leaders Due at Ribbon Cutting

Three more top officials of the Texas Railroad Commission have accepted invitations to Saturday's open house for the new offices of the Panhandle TRC offices.

Arthur H. Barbeck, chief engineer from Austin, George Singletary, administrative engineer, and Roy Payne, director of field operations, all of Austin, will join two of the Texas Railroad Commissioners in opening the spacious offices for the district division.

The trio will arrive Saturday morning along with Commissioners Ben Ramsey and Jim Langdon for the 10:30 a.m. ribbon cutting ceremony that will officially open the offices.

Jack O. Miller, district engineer for the 26 county TRC offices, will greet the five state officials and join them with Mayor H. R. Thompson at the ceremony.

The public is urged to be present at the ceremony and tour the offices before attending a coffee session with the commissioners in the Palm Room of City Hall, across from the Commission offices.

The Desk and Derrick Club will serve the coffee and donuts during the open house party.

Following brief remarks by the two commissioners and Mayor Thompson, the group will be escorted to Coronado Inn where they will attend a luncheon with some 300 oil and gas industry people under the joint sponsorship of the city, Chamber of Commerce and several oil organizations.

The luncheon, which is not open to the general public because of space conditions, will be held in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn.

During the program there the two commissioners and Mayor Thompson will make brief speeches.

The program at the Inn is being arranged for by Fred Neslage, chairman of the Oil and Gas Committee of the Chamber of Commerce; Billy (See RIBBON, Page 3)

Last Check Set in Drive For Concert

Final check-in for the Pampa Community Concert Association membership drive was scheduled for 4 p.m. today at the association headquarters office in the Southwestern Public Service Co. lobby.

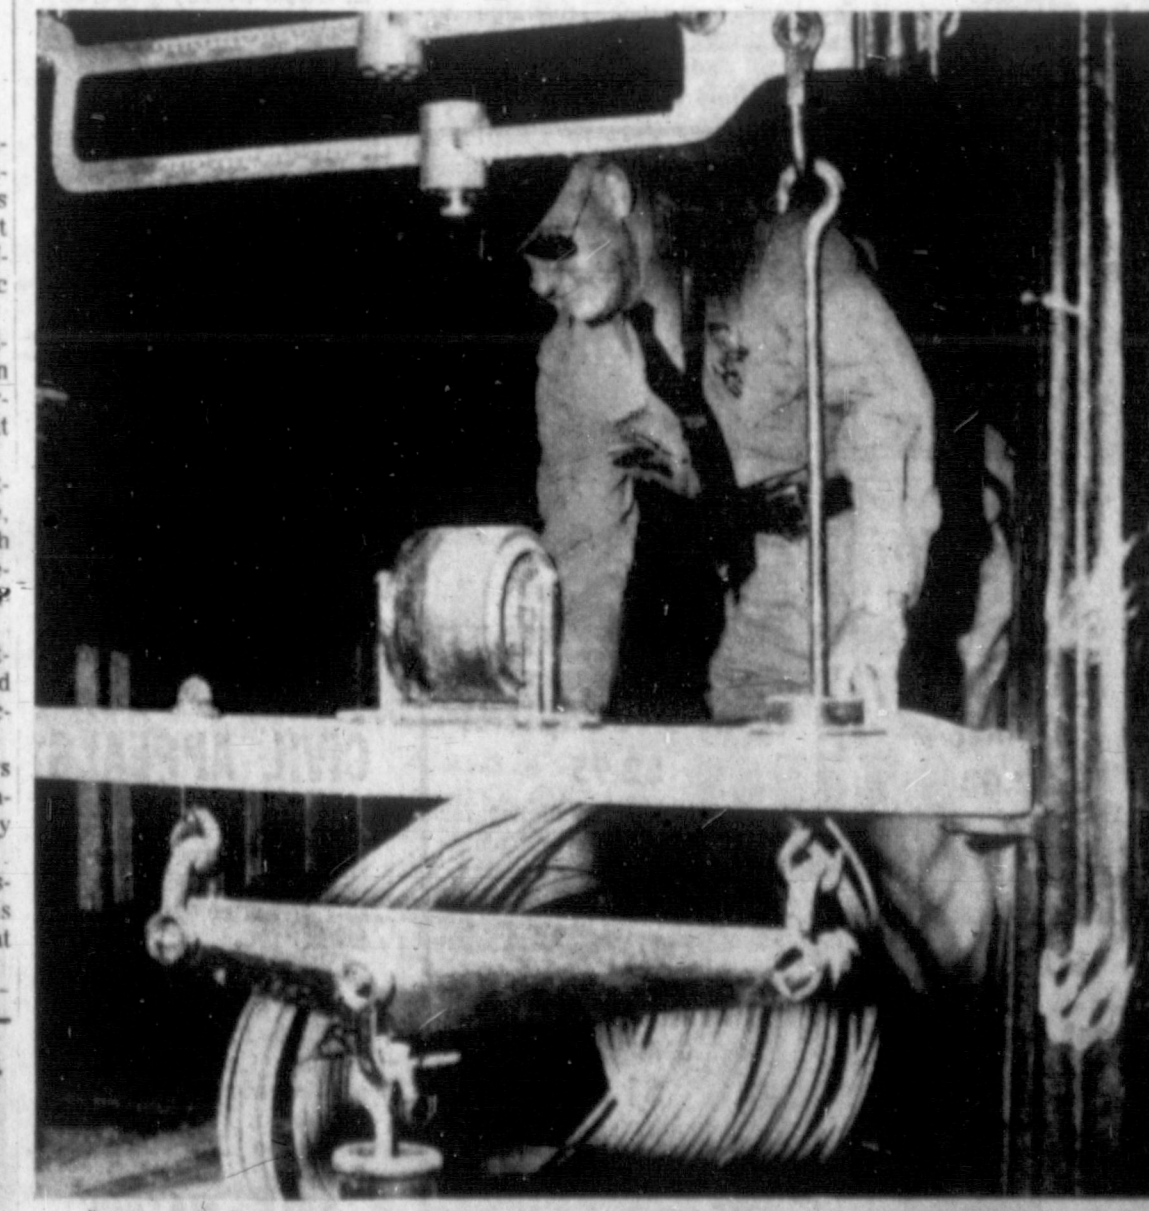

Drive officials said the headquarters office will be open from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday for workers who found it impossible to check in today.

All memberships are expected to be sold out by that time, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Columbia Artists representative assisting with the campaign.

"We are in the final count-down," Mrs. Taylor said, "and the campaign should end successfully tomorrow."

Approximately 150 workers have been engaged in the membership drive since last Tuesday morning.

A meeting of the concert association board of directors is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. today at the First National Bank.

MISSING ANY WIRE?—Patrolman Preston Bailey displays a portion of the 260-pounds of heavy duty cable found some eight miles from Pampa under a Santa Fe Railroad bridge by workers this morning. Officers reported that no stolen or missing report had been received at the police department here or the Gray County Sheriff's Office. Anyone missing wire of this type is asked to contact Chief Jim Conner at police headquarters. The wire will remain at the Santa Fe Depot for several days.

Slide Rules Go To Top Students

Spring high school graduates from approximately 130 Texas schools will receive slide rules from the Texas Chemical Council, an association of 53 chemical processing firms operating in Texas. Presentations to the winning students will be made during Chemical Progress Week, which ends Saturday.

Slide rule winners were selected by school principals and science teachers on the basis of scholarship, scientific aptitude, and imagination. Only one senior per school could be nominated.

Tom Anderson, President of Texas Chemical Council, said awarding of slide rules is an annual affair that is designed to recognize and reward achievement by high school students who are preparing for careers in science. This marks the ninth year that TCC has made slide rule presentations.

The slide rule winners are also being invited to participate in an essay contest sponsored by TCC. Winner of the essay contest will receive a plaque, and his school science department will receive $500 for the purchase of needed laboratory equipment. Subject of the essay is "What Can Be Done About the School Dropout Problem?"

Pampa area students receiving the slide rules include Carol Chase of Pampa High and Richard Ulrich of White Deer High.

Paper Has Idea To Aid Alaskans In Recovering

The Cordova, Alaska, Times has hit upon a novel idea to help boost Alaskan economy so badly hurt by the Good Friday earthquake.

The newspaper, in a front-page editorial, appealed to all residents to go to the store and buy some item of seafood canned in Alaska.

"If every reader," the paper said, "would do this and suggest it to their neighbors, the idea would snowball into something great."

A copy of the Cordova paper was sent to Mr. and Mrs. John Kramer of Skellytown by their daughter, Miss Anna Kramer, who is a missionary in Alaska.

Serves as Industry's Friend

'Watchdog' No Longer Status Of Texas Railroad Commission

By GLENN McCASLAND
The watchdog of the oil and gas industry in Texas.

That's what the Texas Railroad Commission became when it came into being in 1917.

Today, it is no longer a "watchdog" but acts as a part of the oil and gas industry as well as a state governing body.

The giant oil and gas industry actually sets the work for the Texas Railroad Commission when it comes to decisions in that field.

And many employees of the TRC feel that should it cease to operate, the oil and gas industry would continue to do the same things as it does today without having to be told that the rules are sound practices.

Just what is the Texas Railroad Commission and what does it do pertaining to oil and gas?

Many years ago the Texas Legislature felt it would be good to have an organization to handle the railroads of the state and the Texas Railroad Commission still does — even with as few railroads as still operate on a state basis.

The trucking business came into being with the advent of the automobile and the Texas Railroad Commission became its governing body, handling movement of freight, rates to be charged and other things.

Then in 1917 the state's lawmakers passed a series of bills that tied the common carrier rates for movement of oil by rail into the business of the Texas Railroad Commission.

This little dribble of business began to grow until it reached gusher size and today the Railroad Commission is 90 per cent involved in the oil and gas field.

The giant state agency, which is the most powerful of its kind in the Southwest, if not in the oil and gas industry, is broken into five divisions.

Pampa houses offices for one of those five divisions and it throws a heavy impact on the economy and growth of the oil and gas industry in the Texas panhandle, as well as the growth of Pampa.

Saturday those offices will be thrown open to the public in an open house marking the expansion and revamping of the office space once used. This expansion came at a cost of some $11,000.

It assures Pampa a place as the oil center of the Panhandle to boot.

Broken down into five divisions, the Railroad Commission looks like this:

Oil and gas, liquidated petroleum Gas, motor transportation, rates and gas Utilities.

The oil and gas division operates on one of two basic ideals which were set forth sometime ago by the state lawmaking bodies. Every action the group takes must be based on the idea of conservation of oil or prevention of waste.

At Austin there is a chief engineer and his staff along with departments that includes examiners, product and proration personnel, machine accounting, research and inspection, administrative services and field operations.

From this massive operation come major decisions and little ones. Many rules changes begin when a group in the industry asks for investigation pertaining to the possibility of making a change.

This is done by the examiners and is followed by a hearing before the commission with various evidence for and against the change presented, just like a court of law, until a decision can be reached.

The decision is where the Pampa office and nine others across the state come into the picture.

The field office must enforce the rulings of the commission.

The Pampa field office covers 26 counties, one of the largest divisions in the Texas Railroad Commission set-up.

Jack Miller, the Pampa engineer, finds that the Oil and Gas industry has few "cheats or bad apples" in it today and that if it were not for the industry's continuing effort to improve itself and willingness to work hand-in-glove with the Railroad Commission it would not even need the commission anyway.

This giant operation, of which so few people really know exists, is one of the major cogs in what makes Texas the greatest oil state in the nation.

GOP Plans Its Own Poverty Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republicans who do not like President Johnson's anti-poverty program are planning to offer their own bill to help the needy.

It was learned today that the GOP aid program being drafted would give states more administrative and financial responsibility than Johnson's anti-poverty package.

The GOP measure also would provide an alternative for Republicans who are fearful that opposition to the President's bill would hurt them at the polls.

As its key feature, the GOP package would require states to submit plans for combating poverty to the federal government for approval before grants would be given.

By-passes State Offices

Under the Johnson program, local or private welfare agencies may submit a community anti-poverty plan for direct approval to the federal government, bypassing local and state offices.

The current session closed with the April meeting when DeMille, world renowned mentalist, gave the program. Meetings will resume in early October.

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:

"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man — Judge Jim C. Langdon."

Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates auto truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.

Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

Jim Langdon's Opponent Is a 10-Time Loser!

Don't Send Him Home, Take Him Home!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is an eight-year-old neighbor boy who plays with my seven-year-old. He comes to my house after school with my son. We eat supper at six o'clock and the neighbor kid just stands there watching us. When I ask him to eat with us, he never refuses. Sometimes I've asked him to wait in the other room, but he always ends up back in the kitchen watching us. My son is eager to play again, so he gives us a hard time and does not eat very well. I've sent the neighbor boy home because of this, but in 15 minutes he is back again. On school nights they let him stay at our house until I send him home so I can get my son ready for bed. Can you help me? I am a nervous wreck.

JACKIE'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: It's not the boy's fault. He has no rules to follow. Tell his mother that YOU have rules and you need her cooperation. Tell her precisely what hours your son has for playtime, mealtime and bedtime. Explain that he isn't permitted company at mealtime or afterwards. And if she doesn't respect your wishes, don't SEND the boy home — TAKE him home.

DEAR ABBY: A serviceman came to repair our washing machine and said he had to take it to his shop to fix. When he brought it back, I was at work. A neighbor saw him trying to get into my house so she called me at work and told me what was going on. I called his employer at once and told him I did not appreciate people going into my house while I was gone. He said that's the way everybody did nowadays. They always searched under mats, in mailboxes and all over for keys, and let themselves in. Am I out of step, Abby, or did he have a right to do this?

JUST PLAIN MAD
DEAR MAD: You are very much "in" step. And if you want to get technical, the serviceman is guilty of breaking and entering.

DEAR ABBY: My husband insists that when a man and a lady go upstairs, the woman goes first, and when they go downstairs, the man goes first. I say it's the other way around. Who is right?

ETTA KET
DEAR ETTA: When a lady goes up the stairs, the gentleman should follow her so that he can catch her should she descend, for the same reason.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "B" IN SACRAMENTO: Watch out! The person who ducks the blood test is usually the one who needs it most.

Amazing Hostess Reveals Secret to Party Enjoyment in Newest Book

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Theresa A. Morse is an adventurous cook and an amazingly at-ease hostess. Her newest book, "Never In the Kitchen When Company Arrives," explains her know-how in a way to make every woman send out invitations to a dinner party and face the event with enthusiasm.

Believing that hospitality may be the last haven of human sanity and happiness, Mrs. Morse demonstrates in her crisply written book how to plan and prepare wonderful food that will require no last-minute fuss after the guests have arrived. Her many recipes and menus point the way to delightful parties without tensions.

Try this dinner from "Never In the Kitchen When Company Arrives": Roast Beef Louis, Roast Potatoes, Eggplant Clementina, Cucumbers in Sour Cream, Frosted Mocha Cake, Coffee.

ROAST BEEF LOUIS
Standing rib roast (first 3 ribs)
Salt and fresh-ground pepper
Seasoned salt
Worcestershire sauce
½ bottle of catsup
3 onions, sliced
Oven thermometer
500 degree oven (to start)
Remove beef from refrigerator two hours before roasting. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and seasoned salt. Sprinkle with Worcestershire sauce, then shake catsup over entire roast. Spear slices of onion to the fat with toothpicks. Insert thermometer and be careful that it does not touch bone. Place in preheated very hot oven (500 degrees) for 25 minutes, then reduce heat to 325 degrees for the remainder of the time. Roast until thermometer registers rare, medium, or well done — whichever you prefer. Because of the high temperature at the beginning, meat roasts quickly. For rare, it takes about 1 hour and 45 minutes — but trust only your thermometer! Cook enough ahead so that roast can rest on warm platter, beneath aluminum foil, at least half an hour before serving.

POLLY'S POINTERS

DEAR POLLY — My letter is prompted by the one from the gentleman who likes to dress for an evening out. How refreshing to hear of at least one man who believes in being elegantly dressed for the theater or a dinner party. I have seen men at summer theater wearing short-sleeved, open-neck shirts. Perhaps we girls are to blame by walking along the streets with sheep dog hairdos and tight-fitting pants which look ridiculous on most women. Some of us forget what a dress is for until we go to a dance when we stretch our means to buy an expensive dress. Isn't there a happy medium? This man says he owns two tuxedos, which certainly make a man look his best, but, lacking those, a plain dark suit is always proper. There is too much neglect in dress these days by both sexes.—BLANCHE

GIRLS — The following letter came from a gentleman who operates a chain of stores renting men's formal attire. He, too, feels we could do a bit more to help this cause.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — We agree that it would be delightful if ALL men liked to wear formal dress when the occasion required it. We do feel that in many instances the woman could be more insistent that her escort dress at least as correctly and formally as she. After all, a lady's finest accessory is a formal escort. Formally yours—R. A. F.

DEAR POLLY — When we wrap presents for a family birthday party, we decorate one big box to hold all the gifts. Each gift has a long ribbon that comes out of the box to create a sort of grab bag. There are no more "Open mine first" arguments in our family — SUE, the oldest of six.

DEAR POLLY — I cannot wear rubber gloves so I always keep worn cotton gloves and use them for household tasks such as painting, and paring fruits and vegetables that stain or have a strong odor. Peaches are not so slippery when held in a gloved hand. Any holes in the gloves are covered with iron-on tape. I wash the gloves in the machine with bleach, and they come out clean. If my hands or nails are rough, I wear cotton gloves when putting on my hose.—CORINNE

Sporting Sidelines

by JEFF COHANE

LENGTHY MISSIVE received from Ralph Palmer, one of Pampa grads who summons energy to write, explains he didn't have time to call the Kansas Relays, but the winning time posted by OU freshman sprint relay was 3:18.5, not far off the record of 3:17.1. The OU will be at Colorado this weekend while the varsity goes to the Drake Relays.

Rapid Ralph reports expectations of another triangular meet OCC and OCU, with date yet to be announced. He promises a full report on the Colorado Relays.

He's still wondering what happened to Bill Martin Sr. in the report he was supposed to have on the Relays and the city-Exes football game. He probably bragged so loud they let him back across the line!

CHARLIE PRICE, Pampa's district cager, expects to make his choice of college scholarship in the very near future. He is strongly interested in Harvard Country JC, which he is visiting on and on, and on an out visit, met up with Jimmy Wiers of Miami. Charlie plans room with Jimmy if he goes and reports that Jimmy holds a state Class B record in the high jump, 6'3", seems to be having trouble this season, only 5-10.

IT APPEARS as if plans for Optimists to co-sponsor the Pampa Rebels are not working, and the Rebels will go for their eighth straight year under banner of the American Legion, Kerley-Crossman Post Pampa. The Legion team can't seem to have had a loss since the season under the leadership of Lloyd Summers, Deck Weidt, Fred Gregory and Yours Truly. May have bitten off a chunk though. With our first game slated against powerful Woodward, Okla., we figured that we needed a "breath" to start, and scheduled the opening game of the season against Caprock May 31. Caprock showed they were anything but a pushover when they beat the Harvesters, 8-5, 4-1, before going down 8-5, 2-2.

THE OL' SWAMI Employment agency is still job-seeking. If you have summer employment any kind for high school or college athletes, please contact us. We have a list a foot long of hard-working youngsters who need money to get through school. Scholarships can go just far, you know, and that summer money is what makes it for the best boys through school. We guarantee you'll get your money's worth. Harvesters work as hard as they play ball!

DWAIN CURRIE, the tobacco-chompin' coach of Canadian, has invited the Swami to speak at the Canadian Sports Banquet May 12. That should account for all about everybody in the area at Groom and Lefors, and I know Sobbin' Jack York and Annie Goode aren't going to let me get away with anything! With all these graduations coming up, looks like I'll have to wear that instrument of torture down as a tie pretty regularly next month. ### Captains Named For Pampa Golf Junior Grover Heiskell and lone senior Bill McKinney were elected as captains of the Pampa High Golf team, reported coach Eural Ramsey yesterday.

Heiskell was elected for the second straight year, having served as team captain this past season, when the Harvesters finished fifth in district 3-AAAA, their highest placing in the past six years.

Also lettering were Skip Warren, Richard Ellis, George Snell and Chuck Worley. B teamers were Bobby Prichard, Fred Tinsley, Tom Warren and David Fain, with George Etheredge a squadman.

Heiskell topped two teammates by a fraction of a stroke as low man on the totem pole for season play, ending up with an average of 80 4-9 to Ellis' 80 5-9 and Snell's 80 7-9. Skip Warren averaged 81 3-9, Worley 83 4-7, McKinney 86 1-6, Prichard 86 1/4, Tinsley 88 1-6, Tom Warren 88 5-6, Fain 98.

Skip Warren led the Harvesters in five rounds of district play with a 392 total. Three teammates tied for second with 395 apiece. Heiskell, Ellis and Snell, Worley had 406, Prichard 413, McKinney 418, Tinsley 442, Tom Warren 444 and Fain, shooting four rounds in district, had 393.

DRAFT RESCHEDULED

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Basketball Association has rescheduled its annual player draft from April 28 to May 4 at New York's Hotel Plaza. The new date was caused by the extended period of time it is taking the league to complete its championship playoffs.

THE WESTERN JC conference track meet will be held in Amarillo tomorrow. Competing for Frank Phillips will be Curtis Campbell, former White Deer ace, in the sprints, and another WD champ, Tommy Elliott, in the pole vault. Still a third Pampa track club member, Jimmy Flowers, will be competing for Howard County.

TOP MAN — PHS golf coach Eural Ramsey smiles proudly as he announces that Grover Heiskell had been elected team captain by his teammates for the second straight year. Heiskell led the team in low-scoring average for the season.

ACC, Dumas Pampa Women Tie Gals Golf In Trans-Miss

Amarillo Country Club and North Plains Country Club of Dumas tied for the team leadership Thursday in the first one-day play of the Panhandle Women's Golfers Association season with 261 totals.

Mrs. Troy Badgett of Amarillo Country Club and Tascosa Country Club's Mrs. Preach Rogers shot 81s for low gross honors. Mrs. O. T. Henderson of Borger's Huber Course was the net winner with 62.

In the nine-hole division, Mrs. Jerry Henderson of Tascosa Country Club shot a gross 39, 300.

Low gross for 18 holes for Pampa was Mary Myatt with 82. Low net was Mrs. Scott Hall with 64. The field of 138 players was the largest ever competing at a one-day meet of Club 267, Ross Rogers Course of the PWGA.

Second in Total Shutouts

Roberts Blanks Boston

United Press International Robin Roberts, who once specialized in throwing bullets, now is tossing blanks — much to the delight of the Baltimore Orioles.

Roberts, the 37-year-old work-horse righthander who banked on a fine fastball in his prime with the Philadelphia Phillies, has lost some zip from his arm. But opposing batters hardly notice the difference.

The onetime Whiz Kid, now in his 17th major league season, tossed the 38th shutout of his career at the Boston Red Sox Thursday night to earn the Orioles a 1-0 victory and a split of their two-night doubleheader. Boston won the first game, 3-1.

Roberts' nine-hit performance now places him in a tie for second place with Billy Pierce of the San Francisco Giants for total shutouts among active players. Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves leads with 62.

Increases String The victory by Roberts, his first of the season, also increased his string of scoreless innings to 14. The game was scoreless entering the bottom of the eighth when consecutive singles by Jack Brandt, Luis Aparicio and Norm Siebern off Boston starter Dave Morehead clinched the victory.

In the opener, Jack Lamabe, a former relief specialist, won his second straight game in a starting role although he needed help from Dick Radatz in the eighth. Lamabe scattered 11 hits over seven innings. Defending league batting champion Carl Yastrzemski smashed a solo homer over the center-field wall and Dick Stuart doubled home two runs for the Red Sox scoring.

In other American League games, Ken McBride hit Woodie Held with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to force in the winning run and give the Cleveland Indians a 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Angels, and the Washington Senators edged the Minnesota Twins, 5-4.

In the only games scheduled, NL Action

In the National League, Ken Johnson pitched a no-hitter for the Houston Colts, but lost to the Cincinnati Reds, 1-0; the Philadelphia Phillies rallied to nip the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5; the Los Angeles Dodgers stung St. Louis, 7-5; and the Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets, 5-1.

McBride also hit three other batters during the evening to equal the modern American League mark. With runners on first and second in the ninth, McBride plunked catcher John Romano for the second time in the game and then winged Held for the deciding run. Winning pitcher Dick Donovan accounted for the Tribe's other two runs with a two-run single in the fifth.

Free Hawaiian leis will be given to everyone present. Orchid corsages and leis flown from Hilo, Hawaii, will be given in special presentations. A "Mystery Guest," chosen from the ladies present who are 12 years and up, will receive a 32 orchid blossom lei made by an islander.

Tropical candy, made by Evangelist Goetz, will be given to all following the 11 a.m. service.

Millard Lunsford, Sunday School Superintendent, has set a goal to break all previous attendance records.

The Rev. Mr. Goetz, who came to the U.S. as a refugee during World War II, will read the 23rd Psalm in Pigeon English, a language used by many residents of Hawaii. He will tell of the 50th state, teach the audience Hawaiian phrases and choruses and have on display objects collected during his recent trip. Hawaiian hymns will be sung by the choir under the direction of the Evangelist, with Mrs. Dorothy Marsteller at the organ and Rev. Marsteller at the piano.

Art of Worship To Be Theme Of Sunday Service

Sunday morning and evening services at Lamar Christian Church will follow the general theme: The Art of Worship. Loren E. Williams, the minister, will speak Sunday morning on "The Glad Heart at Worship" taking his text from Psalms 122 and Romans 13:8. Joyous response, acceptance of truth, and personal preparation will be the steps along the way to this glad-hearted worship.

The subject for the evening service will be "Utopia," or finding the "Mountain of God" as was the account of Exodus 3:1-5. To arrive at this destination will be guided by the seeking of answers to three basic questions: "Who are you, Lord?" "Who am I?" and "Who are they?" The Lord's Table will be spread at both services.

Church School begins at 9:45, morning worship at 10:45, and evening worship at 7. Chl Rho Fellowship for Jr. HL youth will meet at the regular 5:30 hour. Each Wednesday night is visitation night with a short meeting at the church beginning at 7:30 and moving out into the community. All adults and youth are urged to take part in this evangelistic and membership nurture visitation program.

Wonderful crowds have been present for all of the services of the revival during the week both morning and evening.

The Sunday School and Training Union leaders are planning for and expecting a record attendance on the closing day of the revival: Mr. Joe Whitten, will sing for both services Sunday and also present the choirs in special music. At the morning worship the revival choir will sing "No One Ever Cared for Me Like Jesus" and "Revive Us Again" at the evening worship.

A cordial and hearty welcome is extended to all the people of Pampa to attend any or all of the services of the revival in the air conditioned auditorium of the First Baptist Church, Pampa.

Word 'Grace' Proves Mystifying To Laymen

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Of all the words bandied about by preachers, none is more mystifying to the average layman than "grace."

But it is a word he cannot afford to ignore.

According to one prominent theologian, "Grace is unquestionably the most significant single word in the Bible."

Another says, "It lies at the very heart of the Christian Gospel, and is one of its most distinctive features."

Some of the popular confusion about grace stems from the fact this word has a radically different meaning in Christian theology than it has in everyday usage.

In non-theological conversation, grace may mean charm of bearing, an attractive trait, a short prayer of thanksgiving said before meals, or a special favor such as the extension of a time limit ("grace period").

In theology, however, grace is the accepted English translation of the Greek word "charis," which is used by St. Paul and other New Testament writers in speaking of God's merciful and forgiving love for sinful man.

The biblical writers seem to think of "charis" both as an attitude (God's eagerness to be reconciled with His wayward children) and an action (His outreach in Jesus Christ to bring about that reconciliation).

Both thoughts are present in St. Paul's classic statement to the Christians at Ephesus: "By grace you have been saved. It is not your own doing; it is the free gift of God."

The fact that grace is something which man does not deserve, but which God gives him anyway, is emphasized throughout the New Testament. It makes clear, says the Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, that grace is "quite the reverse of a reward for good conduct; it is rather a means of rescuing man from his own deep failure and from his helplessness to overcome it."

God Within Man

In many passages of the New Testament, grace seems to be synonymous with the power of the Holy Spirit. It is God-within-man, enabling him to rise above his weak and self-centered nature, supplying him with the will and strength to love, to believe, to suffer and to serve.

Christians believe that the grace of God is mediated, or made available to man pre-eminently through Jesus Christ, the "Word of God made flesh." While they differ in their understanding of what happens and why, most Christians also believe that the sacraments instituted by Christ — particularly baptism and holy communion — are effective means whereby grace is imparted.

Attitude And Action

The biblical writers seem to think of "charis" both as an attitude (God's eagerness to be reconciled with His wayward children) and an action (His outreach in Jesus Christ to bring about that reconciliation).

Both thoughts are present in St. Paul's classic statement to the Christians at Ephesus: "By grace you have been saved. It is not your own doing; it is the free gift of God."

The fact that grace is something which man does not deserve, but which God gives him anyway, is emphasized throughout the New Testament. It makes clear, says the Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, that grace is "quite the reverse of a reward for good conduct; it is rather a means of rescuing man from his own deep failure and from his helplessness to overcome it."

Rev. Gee Fills Presbyterian Pulpit Sunday

Ruling Elder Owen Gee will be preaching the sermon this Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church at the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Worship Services, in the absence of the Pastor, Donald S. Hauck. He will be assisted by Ruling Elder Jack Beale.

His sermon subject will be "Journey with Christ," based upon the 1st chapter of John's Gospel. Mrs. Geo. Budd and Mrs. Kenneth Reeves will sing a duet, "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit," by Meredith, at both services, accompanied by Mrs. Fidella Yoder.

The Junior and Senior High will meet for the usual Snack Supper and will have as their guest speakers the two Exchange Students at Pampa High, Evelyn Roberts of New Zealand and Juhani Karmakoski of Finland.

There will be no Evening Worship Service this Sunday Evening.

Texas Baptists Meet At State Convention

BEAUMONT, Tex. (SpI) — Nearly 2,000 Baptists from throughout the state attended the Texas Baptist Training Union Convention here Thursday and Friday at the First Baptist Church of Beaumont.

The state-wide convention, which meets every two years, featured 72 separate age-group and leadership conferences were designed to help Baptist Training Union workers to improve their Sunday night programs.

The two-day convention also featured addresses by Dr. James E. Coggins of Fort Worth, pastor of Travis Avenue Baptist Church; Dr. James L. Sullivan, top executive of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville, Tenn.; and Dr. Philip B. Harris, secretary of the Southern Baptist Training Union Department in Nashville.

Other major speakers for general sessions included Dr. C. E. Autrey of Dallas, director of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board's Division of Evangelism; Dr. Merrill D. Moore of Nashville, executive director of the Southern Baptist Stewardship Commission; and Dr. Sterling Price, pastor of Third Street Baptist Church, St. Louis, Mo.

Final competition in a state-wide Baptist speakers tournament for young people, and in a teenagers' speed contest for finding Bible verses will climax the final Friday night youth rally at the convention.

Morning and evening sessions were held in the main auditorium of the church and afternoon sessions were devoted to the leadership conferences.

Major business conducted during the convention will be the election of the new state Training Union Convention president to succeed the Rev. James K. Neyland, educational director for the Columbus Avenue Baptist Church in Waco.

Most of the convention, however, was aimed at helping Baptist church workers to improve their Sunday night programs, said the Rev. Edward E. Laux of Dallas, convention director and secretary of the Training Union department for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, which is sponsoring the meeting.

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICH
UPI Education Specialist

Parents and teachers have the responsibility to prepare children for accident-free lives. Training in this area is important since statistics show that accidents are a leading cause of death and disability. Industry has recognized the large economic loss caused by accidents and spends extensive sums of money for accident prevention.

The most effective approach to accident prevention is through the development of individuals who act safely under all circumstances. Schools have programs which teach safety precautions. Teachers emphasize safety throughout the program. They constantly show students how to perform activities properly to avoid hazards.

The shop teacher is always demanding care in the use of tools. The classroom teacher tells students to keep their feet out of the aisle and not to tilt their chairs back. In addition, teachers are aware of safety factors in every class activity.

Learn From Skills

Safety actually is being taught whenever a child learns a skill. Skillful and knowledgeable performances result in safety. An obvious example is the proper use of a hammer, saw, or knife as versus careless handling of these same tools.

Students should be taught to consider the dangers of an activity. If they are taught to be aware of hazards as youngsters, they will continue to do the same as adults.

This brings us to the area of safety habits. Habits tend to be unconscious actions. The individual who closes a match book cover before he strikes the match doesn't stop to think of the dangers of leaving it open. He has performed this activity so many times that he doesn't think about it any more. The time to teach him safety was when he first began lighting matches.

Some other factors which seem to prevent accidents are neatness, politeness, respect for others and careful workmanship. There also are physical factors which affect safety. Poor vision or hearing, fatigue generally poor physical condition, and poor coordination are contributing causes of many accidents. These should be considered before entering into any activity. Corrective measures should be initiated as soon as possible.

Provide Safe Methods

It is more effective to provide safe methods than to criticize dangerous ones. A child who is told not to hold a hammer a particular way because it is not safe has learned very little unless he is shown the proper way.

Parents and teachers should teach safety in TV ways. The first is through direct instruction such as a film on bicycle safety or a discussion concerned with running stairs.

The second approach is through living safety in daily activities. This would involve putting toys away, watching ball game from behind screen, crossing streets at corners, and generally learning necessary skills before attempting a task.

Safety must be a natural part of one's activities. An individual cannot constantly think about avoiding accidents. Accidents are not intentional. They can only be avoided if each individual has developed what might be called safe attitudes.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

Rev. Earl Maddux, Fellowship Baptist Church

WHAT DOES THE CROSS OF CHRIST MEAN?
Galatians 6:1-14

What does the cross of Christ mean? It means more than Christ being crucified on the old rugged cross. It means that the world is crucified unto me, and that I am crucified unto the world. There are three crucifixions. First, the crucifixion of Christ. Oh what a picture is given us through the Holy scripture of that awful scene that took place some 1900 years or more ago, when the Prince of glory was slain and hanged on a tree. What a description is given of how wicked men gathered around and mocked Him, laughed and sneered Him. They blindfolded Him and spat upon Him and smote Him, plucking out His beard. What an awful scene! Not only that, but in the sixth hour when darkness veiled hiding His awful suffering and His being from the eyes of them that sat comfortably by, looking and gazing upon Him in His agonizing hour. The scripture does not give us the insight of what actually took place, neither the suffering of His final moments of agony while hanging on the tree. We do hear His words, we hear His groans as they fall, even to the last dying drawn breath, and we hear Him saying that last final breath, it is finished. The work had been finished that He was to do the work of the Father, the work on the cross, the work of salvation, the work of blood redemption. All has been finished. The fulfillment of the law was finished on the cross. Many things were offered . . . animals were offered before Him, but none of these could take away sin. None but the blood of Christ could do that, the scripture declares that His blood cleanseth from all sin. At one stroke this destroys all arguments about the suffering after death in purgatory for the children of God. My friends, the scripture plainly declares that the blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son takes away or blots out ALL sin and is sufficient to cleanse us from ALL sin. There is no other perfection to be made. And what other perfection could be made must be of God. It is not through suffering, it is not through the works of the flesh. It is not through keeping of the law or the goodness and righteousness of man. No, all of that has been through the suffering . . . through the death and through the shed blood of the Son of God, and He became dead to the world and the world knew Him not. Not only that, but the cross of Christ means more than blood redemption. It means something else. It means that you and I are crucified unto the world and the world looks on you and I as peculiar people, as a strange religion, as fanatics. They are dead to the work of the cross. We do not live their life and do not fellowship with them, so there is a vast difference between a Christian and the world. The reason for that is the world is crucified unto me and then, not only that but I am crucified unto the world. There is a death to the world, a death unto me from the world. There is a cavern . . . a great gulf which separates us as far as the east is from the west. What does it all mean? It sums up in the death of Christ. Christ was crucified . . . put to death on the cross. It means that I died with Christ on the cross. I was crucified with Him, in Him was my suffering. He is my sin bearer and in Him was I put to death, for the scripture declares if ye be risen with Him. Therefore we must have been dead with Him. We must have been crucified with Him. Not only that, but we are risen with Him, by whom the world is crucified unto me. Now we live not unto the world, but unto Him that died for us and gave Himself a ransom for us in that hour when the Son of God was crucified. Therefore my friends, you and I are dead to this world and the world is dead unto us. The world holds no more of its charm for us. It has no more of its magnetism . . . its pulling influence to separate us from the love of God. It has no more power to persuade and to lead astray those that are crucified unto the world. That has been taken care of through the death of Christ on the cross. Not only that, but I am dead to the things of this world. I am not swept away, it holds no more charm for me. I am not looking to the world for faith, love, mercy and righteousness. No, not at all, because I am crucified unto the world. So the cross has a three fold meaning. Not only the death of Christ on the cross, crucified, taking our place for our sins and paying our sin debt, but the world is crucified unto me and I unto the world. Thank God for the wonderful and great work that Christ did on Calvary's tree. Bless God for such a saviour as our's! He is wonderful! It is beyond describing what matchless love He had for us. Let us strive to please Him!

After the wonders of the birds and the bees and the flowers, it would be good for American kids to learn something equally basic about the social and political confrontations of the world in which we live.

They should learn, for example, about the great confrontation now prevailing between the open society of free men and the closed society of communism.

The idea that American kids should know about that originated with the kids themselves. Young people by the tens of thousands visit Washington, D.C., every year. Top attractions include the White House, the Capitol, cherry blossoms in season and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Groups of visitors move endlessly through the corridors and exhibits of the FBI. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover recently told a congressional committee:

Most Are Students
"Of the record high of 520,816 people who toured the bureau during the fiscal year 1963, over half were young people, most of them students at various levels. Other young people write to the bureau for information regarding communism. So that they may have a better understanding of the menace of communism we have prepared a pamphlet which we make available to them."

The pamphlet is titled: "What Young People Should Know About Communism." It presents a brief, meaningful message regarding the extent of communism and some suggestions as to positive steps which young people and every citizen can take to combat this subversive influence.

Hoover testified that the youth of America was a primary target of the American Communist party. Communist party spokesmen appeared in calendar year 1963 before 45 student groups, mostly at on-campus sites. The Reds consider American youth a field for recruitment because so many of them may be unable to find jobs on entering the labor market.

It is not necessary for a young American to visit the FBI in Washington to obtain a copy of "What Young People Should Know About Communism." J. Edgar Hoover will send you a copy. Address him at:

Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Department of Justice,
Washington 25 D.C.

American Communists seek to infiltrate at all levels, official and non-official. They are busy-busy among Negro groups. They are trying to get their operatives into the State Department, the CIA, the FBI, the Pentagon. You name it. The American Reds are trying to infiltrate it.

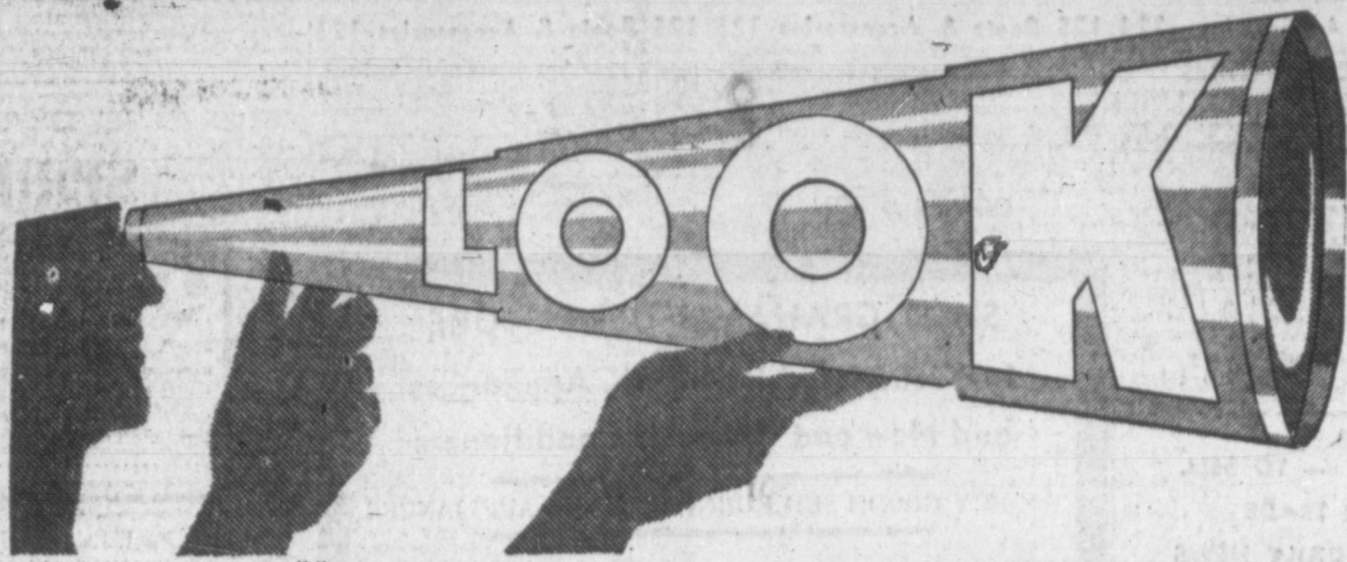

Before falling for the line that maybe the Commies aren't so bad after all, an American should ponder this from Hoover, the best informed American on communism:

"It is the avowed purpose of the world Communist movement, of which the Communist party, U.S.A., has always been an integral part, to destroy our free society by violent means if need be and to supplant our constitutional government by a Soviet-styled dictatorship.

"To counter Communist reasoning we must have a basic understanding of Communist concepts and practices, plus a thorough understanding and appreciation of our own principles, traditions and objectives.

"It is vitally important that we know what we stand for and why." Vitally important, that is, to our survival.

James Gibbs invented the chain-stitch sewing machine.
