The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing ir?ormation to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Playrooms Perk Up When Dressed In New Vinyl and Plastic Items

By KAY SHERWOOD No method of toy storage and playroom upkeep will ever be mutually satisfactory to mothers and children. Children prefer to scatter their playthings around on the floor Mothers, stuffily, prefer toys neatly stored to permit the floor to be swept. Play tables suffer from the same conflict of opinion. Children like to paint and model clay on a big table or sprawl on the floor. Mother would like to buy a pretty little table and cunning little

What wakes everybody up is that there is precious little for any activity. In our home, young Tyler's indoor play is invariably followed by a long, chiding lecture from her older sister and roommate on "picking up the room."

Lacking space and the room, the effort is to make the available space more adaptable at low cost. An ingenious friend points the way with such wonderful, cheap, easily obtained materials as boxes, plywood, clinging plastic cover and a new vinyl cloth. I am delighted with our progress.

The new vinyl cloth which is only now being nationally distributed is an improvement on oilcloth although it costs about the same. It is thinner and much easier to handle and just as washable.

Using this, we covered plywood shelving to make a narrow but serviceable table top.

This is supported, when room play is planned, on two excrates which have been covered in wood-grain self-adhesive plastic (to guard against splinters).

To make a couple of seats, inexpensive metal wastebaskets up-ended are used. If you like an orderly effect, the baskets can be covered in matching plastic. When school is in session or bedtime comes, the play table can be taken down and stored in the

Unless you are well-equipped with toy chests you may want to make your own boxes as we did. The base for one is a sturdy cardboard carton which is used to transport breakable bottles. In truth, the local liquor store dealer is apt to have them in quanti-

Grocery stores get this size, too, (about 18 by 14 inches.) The trick is to ask that the tops be left intact to provide a lid when needed.

To hide the message on the box and to give it greater strength, cover it. Cling plastic adhesive-backed and in bright colors and patterns, is easy to apply and wipes clean. It may be the economy that beguiles me, but I think it is easier for Tyler to pick up the afternoon's jumble when certain things go in certain boxes and the boxes themselves can be stacked in a corner or on

Dear Abby

Ignorance is the Least Of This Man's Shortcomings

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Since we out, his clothes were a mess, moved to this state, seven and he looked as though he years ago, we've bought our hadn't had a haircut in six eggs from the same egg man. months.
