Johnson Gives Rosy Picture On US Future

'Economy Booming' President Says In Washington News Conference

By FRANK JACKMAN
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson says the nation's economy is booming and he wants business and labor to help keep it that way by holding the line against wage or price increases.

During the half-hour conference, Johnson also appealed for moderation from civil rights extremists; said he was pleased with the nation's military strength; disclosed plans to survey a sea-level Atlantic-Pacific canal route across Colombia; listed five bills he would like to see Congress pass before the political conventions; and said he believed true collective bargaining would lead to a settlement of the railroad dispute.

Hedgehogs Hedge On Sex Issue, Ball Up Research

LONDON (UPI) — The Henry Doubleday Research Assn., which wants to breed hedgehogs for pest-killing experiments, is having trouble telling he hedgehogs from the hedgehogs.

"The moment you touch a hedgehog it curls into a ball," said the association's secretary, Lawrence Hills, Wednesday night. "Then there's nothing you can do."

Hills said he hoped some expert can show his association how to tell the difference so that members can start work on their project.

Racial Unrest Sweeps Texas' Capital City

By DAVID ANDERSON
AUSTIN (UPI) — Civil rights forces, angered by the police shutdown Thursday of a "reverse filibuster" in the city council, threatened a campaign of racial demonstrations here "because it's President Johnson's race."

Nightstick-carrying police broke up the two-week-old filibuster, carrying a Negro candidate for the county commission out of the council chambers as his supporters protested and wept. Two other demonstrators, a Negro minister and a white university student, were also pushed outside.

Nikita Says No 'Break' With China

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev, warmed by an outpouring of tributes and honors on his 70th birthday, said today the Soviet Union will not "break off relations" with Communist China.

Surrounded by old comrades and his closest East European allies at a Kremlin ceremony honoring him, Khrushchev said the "disruptive activities" of his Chinese rivals "will suffer a failure because they have no foundation in life."

Without directly naming the Chinese, he said "what we shall do is not to plume ourselves on our successes but to fight and go ahead, not to break off relations with those with whom we have no full unity now, but always leave an opportunity for a rapprochement and understanding."

But Khrushchev warned, "this must not be achieved through concessions of principle but through a correct explanation and interpretation of the Marxist-Leninist teaching." The Soviets, he said "have always adhered and will continue to adhere to Marxist-Leninist positions."

His remarks at the ceremony, belatedly reported by the Soviet news agency Tass, were surprisingly conciliatory compared with his violent attack two days ago on chairman Mao Tse Tung and his fellow Chinese leaders.

At the same ceremony, Khrushchev said he has "not so much time" left but indicated he does not plan to retire.

Footloose Gator Turns Photo Hater

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—If wearing alligator shoes is distinctive, thought Tommy Price, 18, when it came time for his picture to be taken for the high school yearbook, how much classier would it be to wear the whole alligator — alive.

When the six stitches in his hand heal, Price will look around for a more co-operative prop.

Ex-Reporter Hits Attitude Of Officials

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A former newspaper reporter suggested today that the U.S. press ought to accept valid criticism to dispel the belief that it is "a bully when it attacks others, but a crybaby when someone pokes back."

Ben H. Bagdikian, a contributing writer for the Saturday Evening Post and former Providence, R.I., Journal-Bulletin reporter, called for a change of attitudes toward press criticism in a speech to the annual convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE).

Bagdikian told the editors that some individual newspapers are responsive to criticism but the "press as a whole ought to lower its threshold of righteous indignation at the idea of outside criticism and disinterested study and in what is largely a zone of silence in the news columns about basic problems of the press."

OK on 'Death Ray' Given by Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee, holding U.S. missiles dependable and ready to go, voted funds today to press work on the next generation of "ultimate" weapons, including a possible death ray.

At the same time, the committee agreed with Air Force arguments that the manned bomber deserved one final fling. It appropriated $52 million for design of a plane to replace aging B52s and B58s — a project for which President Johnson had asked only $5 million.

On the basis of heavily censored testimony by top scientists and military experts the committee said the death ray — a science fiction favorite for more than a decade — "might evolve" from current secret research on laser-light beams.

Lists Many Weapons
Among other possibilities as the strategic successor to the nuclear-tipped intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) the committee cited chemical or biological agents that could incapacitate without killing; weapons platforms orbiting in space, and orbiting H-bombs which could be routed to targets — on command from the earth.

The committee made its comments in recommending to the House a $46.7 billion defense money bill geared to continued predominance in nuclear weapons available for delivery both by manned aircraft and missile.

It said the number of nuclear weapons in alert condition had been increased by 2½ times in the past three years and said total destructive power—megatonnage — of these weapons in that period had been tripled.

Margin Of Strength
Stepping squarely into the controversy over the alleged undependability of missiles and a possible decline in the U.S. power edge over Russia, the committee said it agreed with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara that the missile force "can be depended on" and said testimony of all top defense officials was that this country retains its margin of strength.

In a report to the House prepared by Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., the committee said existing manned bombers will be around for many years yet; that missiles, though subject to continued improvement, are firmly established, and that the big question now is "what next?"

"There are, of course, many possibilities," the committee said. "A death-ray type of weapon might evolve from laser research. Efforts in chemical and biological warfare might produce incapacitation agents that could render persons helpless for short periods of time without causing large numbers of fatalities. It might be that future military systems will be some type of space-based system — either space platforms from which weapons can be launched or orbiting weapons which themselves can be caused to de-orbit and strike targets on command."

Store Sales Show Drop

DALLAS (UPI)—Department store sales declined 4 per cent in the 11th Federal Reserve District for the week ended April 11 compared to a similar period in 1963, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas said today.

Houston showed an increase of 6 per cent, and Dallas had no change. El Paso reported a decrease in sales of 20 per cent and San Antonio was a minus 12 per cent for the period.

Sheriff Eyes Three Counts

GLEN ROSE, Tex. (UPI)—Somervell County Sheriff Paul Bone, who left town presumably for Mexico on March 31, faced three indictments today of misapplying $26,791 in public funds.

The county grand jury returned the three indictments late Thursday against Bone, including $311 in school tax money, $935 in state funds and $25,544 in automobile license fees.

Dist. Atty. Bob Mahaney at Cleburne hoped to be able to prosecute the missing sheriff.

LBJ Pushes For Climax Of Rail War

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's mediators sought concessions from union and management negotiators today in a stretch drive to settle the 4-year-old railroad dispute by Monday.

The pace of bargaining quickened as Johnson's deadline for a report on prospects for a settlement drew nearer.

Both sides agreed a week ago to a 15-day truce to permit renewed mediation efforts under White House sponsorship, but a national strike could erupt at 12:01 a. m. (local time) April 25.

The White House said Thursday that day and night sessions would be conducted this week-end in a bid to break the deadlock in negotiations now that the issues are clear.

At his news conference Thursday the President repeated his deep desire for a settlement through collective bargaining and said a breakdown in that process could damage the free enterprise system.

Woman Loses $941 in Theft

Pest Impersonator Palls Police

A tall 27-year-old red haired man, who claimed to be an employe of a pest control company from Oklahoma City, was the subject of an areawide search today after he was charged in the theft of $941.50 from a Pampa woman.

District Attorney Bill Waters said a complaint against a man identified as Warren Arthurs had been filed before Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford charging the man with theft by false pretext.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said the man who identified himself as Arthurs appeared at the home of Mrs. Flora Enright at 425 N. Starkweather Wednesday and presented himself as a representative of the pest control firm.

He told the woman that the firm had overcharged her for some work done in the past several years and he had been asked to repay her. The man claimed he had placed a check in the amount of $1,500 in First National Bank of Pampa in her account. However, Mrs. Enright was told the amount of the repayment by the firm was only $600.

The suspect asked Mrs. Enright to give him a check for the amount of $941.50, which he claimed was the difference in the payment and his deposited check.

Mrs. Enright complied with the request and the man left. Shortly afterwards another man, believed to be a friend of the man sought, cashed the check at the bank.

The two men disappeared. Jordan said the charge was filed shortly afterwards when it became apparent that a deposit of $1,500 had been made in the woman's name.

Jordan said his officers were working on a number of leads, which might result in the arrest of the man and his friend within the next several days.

The officer said that Mrs. Enright, while minus her money, wasn't unhappy with the pest control company.

"She said they had done good work for her in the past," he declared. "But this is one pest that the sheriff's office had best control."

Seek Organizer
One of the participants in the filibuster, Jeffrey Shero, 22, said he and three other youths will go to Atlanta this week to ask the National Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to send a demonstration leader to Austin.

He said the SNCC has expressed an interest in taking part in Austin demonstrations "because it's President Johnson's home."

Three members of the five-member city council conducted their first city business in two weeks yesterday after police threw out the three demonstrators and formed a human wall between the council and the public seats.

The three were not arrested. The reverse filibuster, or "speak-in," was sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The council traditionally allowed citizens to speak without limit before it. The demonstrators used this to monopolize the floor since April 2, giving off-the-cuff speeches, and reading from the Bible and civil rights works.

Wanted Law
The demonstrators said they would wear down the council. They wanted a local public accommodations law passed.

Mayor Pro Tem Travis LaRue, who entered the chambers for the showdown meeting looking tense, asked for "the cooperation of all present until the council's business is completed."

"Then as always," he said, "the council will be willing to hear anyone who wishes to speak."

LaRue was standing in for Mayor Lester Palmer, who collapsed from exhaustion after the first four days of demonstrations and was still in the hospital.

Booker T. Bonner, Negro candidate for county commissioner, rose and said "any business you do will be out of order."

The council tried to ignore Bonner, but he shouted them down as they tried to discuss an annexation ordinance.

LaRue pleaded with him several times. "Mr. Bonner will (See ARREST, Page 3)

Police Begin Yearly Campaign To Move Unregistered Cars

Efforts to clear the streets of unregistered automobiles or cars with motor troubles were being planned today by Police Chief Jim Conner as part of the forthcoming citywide cleanup campaign.

Officers will be instructed beginning with the 3 p.m. shift today to make a list of automobiles which appear either disabled or unregistered.

The list will be turned over to Conner and owners of the property where the cars are parked will be contacted and first asked to move the cars.

If they fail to comply within a reasonable time, Conner said he would be forced to use a city ordinance which covers leaving of automobiles and trucks parked on public streets when they are not properly used.

Conner reminded Pampany that property lines governing streets in Pampa extend from sidewalk to sidewalk in most cases and parking of disabled automobiles on the area between the sidewalk and streets would not be allowed.

He said this drive was being done to allow street sweepers to be able to reach curbs in all sections of the city before the May paint-up, fix-up campaign gets under way May 4.

"The public has always cooperated in the past and I'm sure they will do so again, Conner said. "We just want our streets to be clear of unsightly automobiles and have everyone comply with the law."

He said officers would begin working on the list tonight and contacts would start at least by Monday.

Auto Reported Stolen in City

A Pampa man reported to police today that his keys, but not the automobile, had been stolen during the night.
Floyd Walker of 2314 Duncan said his 1958 White Chevrolet was taken sometime between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. today. He said the keys were not left inside the car, but it was unlocked.
The automobile had not been recovered at a late hour this morning.

Police Checking On Truck Theft

Pampa police today were checking the theft of three truck tires and some gasoline taken from a parked truck at a warehouse located at 625 S. Cuyler St. Wednesday night.
The tires were taken when burglars broke open the door to the warehouse and removed them. They were being held in storage, according to W. H. McDowell, a Pampa house mover, who operates the warehouse.
McDowell placed a value of $115 on the tires and gasoline taken from the automobile.

Lions Club Hears Speech Students

Members of the Pampa Noon Lions Club heard a program Thursday by the speech department of Pampa High School.
Secretary - Treasurer O. K. Gaylor gave the financial statement on the 1964 Minstrel Show. The year's show provided a gross profit of $1,981.04.
Visitors included Buck Worley, Ray Ainsworth, Rev. Hubert Bratcher and John Horn.

Two Candidates Speak Tomorrow

Two candidates for the United States Senate will be campaigning in Pampa tomorrow.
Dr. Milton V. Davis, Republican, will be honored guest at a public coffee at 10 a.m. in the Pampa Club at Coronado Inn.
Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Democratic candidate for re-election, will make a quick stop-over in Pampa tomorrow afternoon.

Finally, police were summoned, and they carried Bonner outside. The Rev. Wesley Sims, Negro pastor of Bethany Christian Church and Brad Blanton, 24, a white student from the University of Texas, were pushed outside by police after they tried to carry on the speak-in.
As Bonner was carried out, a middle-aged white woman in back row shouted "No, no no." Some whites hollered "take him out."
Claude Allen, a white English teacher from mostly-Negro Huston-Tillotson college, turned his face into a corner and wept as Bonner was carried out.
After the three were forced outside, Bonner's wife, Florence, and Mrs. Volma Overton, wife of the local NAACP president, stood up as if to speak.
Fourteen policemen moved between the women and the council and remained there, until the routine business was finished.
After the session ended, LaRue announced that the council had adopted new rules, requiring a citizen who wants the floor to give his name, his subject, and the amount of time needed before being allowed to talk.
The council then heard speeches from 14 people, including Mrs. Bonner and Mrs. Overton.

AN INTERNATIONAL CELEBRITY ARRIVES AT THE FAIR

The occasion is the New York World's Fair... the scene is the spectacular General Motors Futurama—and the car, of course, is Cadillac.
And the Cadillac car is a standout attraction even in this distinguished international company. Drive any of eleven 1964 models and you'll discover why.
There's Cadillac's magnificent and silent power. A 340-horsepower V-8 engine—most powerful in Cadillac history—generates performance so swiftly that we caution even long-time Cadillac owners to mind their speedometers. There is, in addition, the remarkable smoothness of our transmissions—an improved Hydra-Matic or new Turbo Hydra-Matic.
There is the luxury of elegantly appointed interiors, together with the great convenience of power brakes and steering (plus power windows on most models) that have turned the 600-mile day into a restful reality.
And there is also investment. Find a fine car, if you can, that returns more than your Cadillac when you choose to sell or trade it.
Visit your Cadillac dealer soon. His selection of international favorites has never been more tempting.

Prisoners Slug Sheriff With Pipe, Then Flee

GIDDINGS, Tex. (UPI) — Three men held in the Lee County jail on burglary charges slugged Sheriff Vernon Goodson with an iron pipe early today and escaped in his automobile.
The men were identified as Billy Lee Roe, 18, of Brazoria and Bobby W. Phelps, 18 and Henry Thomas Baker, 21, both from the Angleton-Clute area.
The men were armed with an automatic shotgun, an automatic pistol, and a revolver. The weapons were in the sheriff's car.
The sheriff was handcuffed by the escapers and locked in a jail cell. J. D. Jackson, a prisoner in the same cell with the jail jumpers, did not attempt to escape. Instead, he hailed down city marshal Ray Chamman and told him about the jail break.

Cuffed Policemen Shot to Death

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga. (UPI) — Three policemen, their hands handcuffed behind them, were found shot to death on a road near here today.
Gwinnett county police reported the officers were found on a dirt road about 20 miles northwest of Atlanta.
The FBI in Atlanta reported a team of agents was rushed to the scene at the request of the Gwinnett County sheriff.
The three officers were identified as Jessie M. Gravitt, 52; Jerry A. Everett, 28, and Ralph K. Davis, 49. They were all patrolmen and members of the Gwinnett County Police Department.

Cyprus Chief Asks Strategy Discussion

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — President Makarios summoned his cabinet today for a discussion of strategy to deal with the increased fighting between the Greek and Turkish Cypriots.
Informed sources said the ministers would weigh the possibility of a full-scale Greek Cypriot outbreak in the North-east.
Makarios returned Thursday night from policy conferences with Greek government leaders in Athens. During his week-long absence, communal fighting flared in Nicosia and in the Kyrenia Mountains in the north-eastern section of the island.

"pleased" with the nation's military strength and praised highly the work of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara. He said he had made no decision on Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Curtis E. LeMay's proposal for a new manned bomber LeMay says is needed.

Canal: He disclosed that the United States would join with Colombia to survey possible sites for a new sea-level Atlantic-Pacific canal. The Pentagon said later that the U.S. team would be under the command of Lt. Col. Anthony Kubelius of the Army's Inter-American Geodetic Survey.

Legislation: Johnson listed five bills he would like to see passed by Congress before the political conventions. Civil rights, medicare, the food stamp plan, a government pay raise bill, and the anti-poverty program. He said the government would lose the services of some of its best men if a pay hike were not forthcoming soon. A pay raise bill has been rejected by the House.

Rails: The President said intensive day and night negotiations were under way in the railroad dispute. "I am not an overly optimistic man, but I do believe that under our collective bargaining system a result can be reached. I hope and pray it will be by the end of next week," he said.

Foreign Affairs: Johnson said he would have liked to see France go along with the decision of the other seven members of the Southeast Treaty Organization (SEATO) to support the anti-Communist fight in South Viet Nam, but he was pleased the other members agreed with the U.S. position. He said he anticipated no major development "at this time" in the field of Soviet-American trade.

Politics: He all but declared himself a presidential candidate in the November elections, saying that he enjoyed the presidency and was "prepared to

Dear Abby
By Abigail
Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The woman who was "DISGUSTED" because her son and his wife named their little boy "HARRY" after having named their first two boys "TOM" and "DICK" apparently has never heard of the famous BYRD brothers of Virginia. TOM was a very successful fruit farmer and businessman who looked after his family's interests. "DICK" was none other than the famous explorer, ADMIRAL BYRD of South Pole fame. And "HARRY" has been a United States Senator for many years.

PROUD VIRGINIAN

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with naming three sons TOM, DICK, and HARRY? I named our first son. The second boy I named after his father, whose name was Harry. Then everyone kept asking me, "Where's Tom?" So, when we had our third son, "That settles it. There's Tom!" I can't see where there was anything "disgraceful" about it.

MRS. H. H. SKANEATELES
N.Y.

DEAR ABBY: If that grandma got all steamed up over her daughter-in-law naming her three sons, TOM, DICK and HARRY, I wonder what she would have thought of the woman in our town who named her three daughters, FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY. MOLLY IN BALTIMORE

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of inflicting peculiar names on helpless infants, my cousin in Birmingham named her daughters, DAISY, PETUNIA, GLADIOLA and ZINNIA. The next time she expected a baby, she was all set to add another flower to her garden of girls, but the baby was a boy. It didn't stop her. She went ahead and named him IRIS. How do you like that?

WILLIE MAE IN MONTGOMERY
DEAR WILLIE: The boy was lucky she didn't name him PANSY.

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in the mother's comment about her son naming his three boys TOM, DICK and HARRY. I think all three names are sensible. What would she think of a trio of little girls in Independence, Mo., who were named WELCOME, JOY and PLENTY? (Their father named the last one.)

LOVING GRANDMOTHER

DEAR ABBY: Twenty-four years ago I married a man named Harry. He had two brothers whose names were Tom and Dick. Tell "Disgusted" not to worry. If her son's boys turn out to be half as wonderful as these three boys, she will be lucky.

Family Nutrition Discussed During Meeting of Lamar School P-TA Unit

A program on family nutrition was presented by Mrs. Jack Williams, Pampa Junior High home economics teacher, during a recent meeting of the Horace Mann P-TA. She stated that good nutrition maintains life and that it is not inborn and that good nutrition holds a place in world politics. Students helping with the program were Gail Gilpatrick, who gave the seven basic foods and explained them with the use of a chart. Marsha Jewel, who explained budget wise buying, advised use of a list, watching food ads and study of labels and brand comparing. She suggested that the shopper stay aware of new foods; select fresh fruits and vegetables wisely and learn prices of meat which constitutes a large part of the food dollar. She suggested establishment of a regular eating routine within the home to develop good eating habits early in life.

Begert presented Mrs. Paul Turner with a Life Membership, noting her service in offices. She is currently treasurer of the unit.

The opening prayer was led by Mrs. Thelma Groom, and the Pledge of Allegiance was conducted by Cub Scout Pack 22. Rev. Pruitt gave the devotional, and Mrs. Gene Snell read the secretary's report. Treasury reports were given by Mrs. Turner.

Mrs. Goss' first grade class won the room count with the third grade class of Mrs. Hobbs and the second grade class of Mrs. McCoy tying for second place.

Mrs. Earl O'Neal won the door prize cake which was baked by Mrs. Neal Webb.

The executive board meeting prior to the general session was attended by Mmes. Paul Turner, Walter Davis, Jack Roberson, W. A. Jenkins, Foster Whaley, E. Southard, Gene Snell Jr., Warren Copenhaven and Mr. Sam Begert.

Past Matrons Gavel Club Holds Meeting

Members of the O.E.S. Past Matrons Gavel Club voted to send a love offering to Mrs. Emma Lee Gray, a member who is confined to the John Sealy Hospital in Galveston during a recently conducted meeting of the group.

Mrs. J. L. Burba was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. J. E. Wheeler gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Howard Warner read the treasury report.

Table games were played following the covered dish supper. Mrs. Guy Andis, hostess, was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. S. Fuqua and Mrs. O. C. Rice, co-hostesses.

Members attending the meeting were Mmes. Oscar Shearer, Ethel Alexander, Wilson Hatcher, Floyd Pennington, W. R. Morrison, Bill Flewelling, W. L. Parker, Katie Vincent, W. M. Voyles, J. D. Fleming, Dennis Stillwell, J. E. Wheeler, Howard Warner, Wood Osborne, Rosalie Wedge, J. L. Burba, O. A. Wagner, O. C. Rice, J. S. Fuqua, Ruth Sewell, Aubrey Jones and G. C. Crocker.

Book Review Highlights Delta Kappa Gamma Meet

Mrs. Otis Holladay gave a review of Harriet Arnow's book, "The Doll Maker" during a recent meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma conducted at Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church, in Canadian.

Mrs. Holladay commented that she had chosen this review in preference to some thirty books she had read in the past year. "The Doll Maker", according to Mrs. Holladay, shows that beautiful stories are still being written. Gertie, the main character, is the wife of Clovis and the mother of five children. She possesses unusual sensitivity, courage and understanding. Her ability to carve, or as she calls it, "whittle", gives the book its title.

The dominating theme is Gertie's love for her family and the expression of this love through her artistic ability of carving. Gertie gives of herself to others; but expects neither money nor praise in return. For Gertie, beauty prevails in the everyday problems of living. She wants "beauty for the sake of beauty. Most of us sell our birthrights rather than lose them."

Garden Club Sets Benefit Bazaar

The Mr. and Mrs. Garden Club completed arrangements for a bazaar and plant sale scheduled for April 25 during a meeting conducted Tuesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Moore, 2000 Mary Ellen.

The bazaar proceeds will go to a fund to landscape a bird sanctuary near Highland General Hospital and to provide upkeep for the hospital courtyard. Gifts will include bird houses, bird baths, red wood planting tubs and baked goods as well as handmade gifts.

Ira Carlton presented a slide show of Colorado and local gardens.

Installation of officers will be conducted May 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Lamar P-TA Program Presented by American Field Service Students

Mrs. Sidney Largen, program leader of the Lamar P-TA introduced Mrs. Aubrey Steele, representative of the American Field Service Students attending Pampa High School. Exchange students, Evelyn Roberts and Junhani Karmonski presented geography, industrial, agricultural and customs that are outstanding in their native countries. New Zealand and Finland.

A Life Membership certificate was presented to Mrs. Riley Walters by the unit, noting her work, interest and devotion to Parent-Teachers Association.

Announcement of the tea for pre-school mothers set for May 7, was made. All pre-school mothers in the Lamar School area are invited to attend the 2:30 p.m. social.

Mrs. Melvin Watkins, City Council president, was welcomed as a guest.

Spring Conference delegates elected to attend the Spearman meet are: Mmes. Roy Franke, Sidney Largen, R. E. Warren, Riley Walters, N. L.

Nicholl, L. Paronto, Delbert Daniels and Ernie Pulse.

The auditing committee was selected. Named on the list were Mrs. C. E. Jefferies, Mrs. Bill Cois and Mrs. A.C. Parsley.

Brownie Troop I, led by Mrs. Delbert Daniels, presented the Pledge to the Flag and Mrs. F. T. Pepper led in the opening prayer. Reports and communications read included the secretary report given by Mrs. Daniels; treasury report by Mrs. Paronto and thank you notes from teachers and Boys Ranch for services and observances offered by the P-TA unit.

The third grade class of Mrs. B. L. Smith won the room count and will be served ice cream. Mrs. J. R. Poston, third grade teacher, won the door prize, a cake baked by Mrs. Paronto.

During the executive board meeting conducted prior to the meeting, the Spring Conference, parliamentary course, leadership course and Hospital Auxiliary were discussed.

Coffee Honors Mrs. J. Watson

LEFORS (Sp) — Mrs. Joe D. Watson, was honored with a coffee recently in the home of Mrs. Tony Bivins.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth edged in pink. A white baby sock tree centered the table and cake and coffee were served in crystal appointments.

Favors were tiny pink and blue diapers filled with pastel mints. Pink napkins completed the decorations.

Guests registered in a white guest book tied with pink ribbon, saying, "Welcome Lori Nan."

The nation's teen-age girls are giving the bikini the cold shoulder. Only 1.8 per cent of them favor the mostly-bare swimsuit, according to a survey by one magazine (Seventeen). Most popular with the under-20 swimmers: the one-piece suit.

Former Official Draws Sentence

GALVESTON (UPI)—A former Agriculture Department agent broke into tears Wednesday when he was convicted of accepting bribes from farmers in return for fraudulent rice acreage allotments.

A federal jury convicted David Clifton Stephens, former agent in Angleton, on four counts of an 18-count indictment. He and his wife and daughter broke out in tears when the verdict was read.

He will be sentenced later this month, and could receive up to 18 years in prison and $30,290 in fines.

Stephens was accused of giving false allotments to rice farmers in Brazoria, Matagorda and Jackson counties in return for cash payments. He was specifically convicted of accepting a $2,740 bribe.

His attorney said he planned to ask for a new trial and for an acquittal.

This was the second trial for Stephens. The first ended in a mistrial because the prosecution would not furnish the defense with some of its planned evidence.

Plan Given for Freeing Cardinal

LONDON (UPI)—Informed sources said Thursday that a 10-point plan approved by the Vatican has been presented to the Hungarian government listing the terms under which Jozef Cardinal Mindszenty would agree to leave Hungary.

The Roman Catholic prelate has been in the American legation in Budapest since he sought refuge there when the Hungarian revolution was crushed by Russian military forces in 1956.

The terms reportedly include the demand that the Communist Hungarian regime recognize the Vatican's right to appoint bishops in the country and acknowledge the right of parents to obtain religious education for their children.

The acceptance of these conditions, the reports said, would make it possible for Cardinal Mindszenty to leave the American legation and get out of Hungary. The government is now trying to get him to go.

The indications so far available were that the Budapest regime would not accept the terms because they would amount to restoration of religious freedom.

Premiere Set On Oswald Film

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The world premier of "The Trial of Lee Harvey Oswald" will be held at the Warner Theater here next Wednesday.

Producer Harold Hoffman, 34, and director Larry Buchanan, 38, said the film is a dramatization of the trial of President Kennedy's alleged assassin as it "might have occurred."

It was filmed in Dallas during February by the two independent movie makers using a cast of unknown actors recruited out of Dallas. Charles Mazyrack, a Dallas actor, plays Oswald.

Buchanan said Milwaukee was selected for the premier because "we felt we could get an honest premier here. We wanted a certain type of theater and city and we wanted to avoid Dallas. We have no bookings after this one. We want to get the reaction here first."

"We read everything we could get and interviewed witnesses," Hoffman said. "We think our information is completely factual."

Most of the film is set in the courtroom, with some location shots from Dallas used.

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Many parents now are considering summer camps for their children. There are several important considerations before a final decision is made. These involve evaluation of the child's needs as well as what a particular camp program can offer.

Some children can gain a great deal from a camp experience while others would benefit more by spending the summer with their families. The answer involves the child's personality, interests, age, home situation, and neighborhood.

A child who loves sports, other children, and is generally self-sufficient probably will love camp and gain a great deal from it. A child who dislikes sports and tends to be a loner may find camp distasteful. It is possible that he could benefit from camping but this will depend upon his own attitude. If he would like to try camping, he could learn much if he is given encouragement by the counselors and attends a camp which emphasizes some activities to match his interests. He may like sleeping outdoors, music, etc.

Age Is Important

Age is an important factor. A day camp is more desirable for the younger child ranging in age from 3 or 4 to 7 or 8. A resident or sleep-away camp should not be considered much before age 7 or 8. Of course, this depends on the individual child. Some may be ready at age 5 or 6 while others would not be ready until age 9.

Plan Given for Freeing Cardinal

LONDON (UPI)—Informed sources said Thursday that a 10-point plan approved by the Vatican has been presented to the Hungarian government listing the terms under which Jozef Cardinal Mindszenty would agree to leave Hungary.

The Roman Catholic prelate has been in the American legation in Budapest since he sought refuge there when the Hungarian revolution was crushed by Russian military forces in 1956.

The terms reportedly include the demand that the Communist Hungarian regime recognize the Vatican's right to appoint bishops in the country and acknowledge the right of parents to obtain religious education for their children.

The acceptance of these conditions, the reports said, would make it possible for Cardinal Mindszenty to leave the American legation and get out of Hungary. The government is now trying to get him to go.

The indications so far available were that the Budapest regime would not accept the terms because they would amount to restoration of religious freedom.

Grand Canyon Baptist Choir To Sing Here

Since the early days of the Hebrew people, music has been an integral part of worship. During the days of King David the organized music program reached a high peak. Music continues to be a vital part of Christian worship.

The Grand Canyon Baptist College Choir of Phoenix, Arizona, will be guests of Central Baptist Church at the 11 o'clock worship hour. This choir, consisting of 39 members, is on their Spring tour. The choir is directed by Mrs. Marjorie Psalmonds. They will have 25 minutes of concert.

The Pastor, T. O. Upshaw, will bring the message of the morning. He will continue the series of sermons on doctrine. He will speak on the subject, "Security of the Believer."

The Sunday School meets in 34 departments studying the Bible. Adults will be studying the subject "Facing Family Tensions." The younger ages will study appropriate subjects.

The evening services begin at 6 with Training Union. All groups are studying the heritage of faith which belongs to Baptists. At the evening hour of worship at 7 o'clock the message will be brought by Carroll B. Ray, Area Missionary of the Top O' Texas area.

If your life is missing the spark that makes it worth living, find your place in God's House of Worship this Sunday. For life abundant appropriate the sacrifice of Christ to your soul and find your life abundant. See you in Church Sunday.

'Hallowed Living' is Sermon Topic Sunday

"The Art of Hallowed Living" is the sermon topic Dr. Hubert Bratcher, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preach on at the two morning services this Sunday. The 8:45 a.m. service is broadcast over radio station KPND.

The special music for the first service will be by the Junior Choir who will sing the two-part anthem, "The Darkness Now Has Taken Flight." At the second service the Sanctuary Singers will sing the Robert Shaw arrangement of "For All The Saints" by Ralph Vaughn Williams.

Special speakers for the Stewardship Campaign will be Sam Bergert for the 8:45 a.m. service, Aubrey Steele for the 11:00 a.m. service and John Curry for the 7:15 p.m. evening service.

The Youth Choir meets at 5:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon, followed by the Evening Fellowship at 5:45 p.m. with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:15 p.m. children, youth, and adults will separate for 45 minutes of Fellowship Groups activities according to interest and needs. The Adult Fellowship group will meet in the church parlor. The Sunday night service at 7:15 p.m. will be conducted by the pastor who will preach on the subject, "Helpers or Meddles."

Smorgasbord To Be Held at Methodist Church

Plans are being completed for the Smorgasbord Dinner at St. Paul Methodist Church. The dinner will be Saturday night, April 25, from 5 to 8 p.m. Children 12 and under can eat for 50 cents and all over 12 and adults for $1.25. The official board has approved the money to be spent improving the parking lot at the church.

The services at church Sunday will be under the leadership of Dr. Tilden B. Armstrong. This is commitment Sunday and all members are requested to be present.

For other information on the dinner call the church office MO 4-8551 or Mrs. Betty Boyett MO 4-7608.

6 THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1964 56TH YEAR

CHOIR — The Grand Canyon Baptist College Choir of Phoenix, Ariz., will be guests of Central Baptist Church at the morning worship. The 39 voice choir is on its spring tour and is directed by Mrs. Marjorie Psalmonds.

Rev. Dan Vestal Conducts Revival At First Baptist

The First Baptist Church, Pampa, is beginning a revival Sunday, under the leadership and direction of Evangelist, Dan Vestal. Vestal received his training in Baylor University and the Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. Vestal is one of the best known and most successful evangelists in the Southern Baptist Convention, entering evangelistic work two decades ago, he has averaged twenty revivals a year in eight different states with an average of 1,000 conversions a year.

Vestal, a preacher whose messages are always Bible-centered, gives credit to Almighty God for saving him both physically and spiritually.

Joe Whitten, director of music in the First Baptist Church for the past nine years, has been asked by the Church to give direction to the music in the revival. Mr. Whitten worked six months in the evangelistic field with Mr. Vestal before he came to the First Baptist Church, Pampa.

The Pastor and congregation invites the cooperation of all the people of Pampa in praying for and supporting the services daily.

There will be a revival choir consisting of the Chapel and Church Choirs for both services Sunday and throughout the week. The selection for Sunday morning will be "How Great Thou Art" and at the 5 o'clock service, the choir will sing "Send Down the Spirit." On Monday evening the graded choirs of the Church will combine and sing Fred Waring's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Rev. William E. West, rector of the St. Matthews Episcopal Church, will preach at the 11 a.m. Worship Hour at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday and will officiate at the baptism of the infant son of the Pastor. His sermon subject will be "Two Kinds of Shepherds," based upon the 10th Chapter of John's Gospel. The Children's Choir will sing "Steal Away," a spiritual, at this service, accompanied by Mrs. Alden Reeder.

At the 8:30 a.m. Worship Hour the Pastor, Donald S. Hauck, will preach on "The Three Levels of Life." The Sanctuary Choir will sing "Open Our Eyes" by Macfarlane as the Anthem and Ruling Elder Will Graham will assist in the Worship at this service as well as at the second Worship Hour.

Evening Worship will be conducted by Ruling Elder W. A. Morgan at 7:00 p.m., following Youth Fellowships at 5:30. The Junior High Fellowship, under the leadership of the John Brewers and the Allan Strokers, are preparing dinner for their parents at 5:30 in Fellowship Hall and will lead a program at 6:00 p.m.

The Senior High's will meet for a snack supper at the Cock-O-The-Walk at 5:30 p.m. and then meet at the John Brewer Home, 127 E. 26th for the program at 6:00 p.m.

Both groups will attend Evening Worship at 7:00 p.m.

NEW PASTOR — Rev. A. C. Purvis and Mrs. Purvis have assumed pastoral duties of the Hobart Baptist church. The couple have two children and live at 1044 S. Sumner.

Rev. Purvis Assumes Pastoral Duties Here

Rev. A. G. Purvis has moved to Pampa to begin his work as pastor of the Hobart Baptist Church. The church is located at the corner of South Banks and W. Crawford St. in Pampa. Rev. Purvis will fill the pulpit for both services Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Purvis have two children, Randall who is Music and Youth Director at the First Baptist Church in Dumas, and Glenda, who is a senior in the Gruver High School. They live at 1044 South Sumner.

Rev. Purvis was educated at Howard Payne College, Brownwood, and at Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth. For the past six years he has been pastor of the First Baptist Church at Gruver. Before going to Gruver, Rev. Purvis had held pastorates at Santa Anna and at Freeport.

Sunday School starts at 9:45 a.m. The lessons this Sunday are on the subject of "The Christian Facing Family Tensions." All members are urged to be in Sunday School and remain for the preaching service at 11 o'clock.

Training Union starts at 6 p.m. and the evening worship service follows at 7 o'clock. The Adults in Training Union are having a series of discussions about "Our Baptist Heritage." The topic for this Sunday night is "Baptist Beginnings in the South." This is an interesting and profitable way to spend an hour and all members should attend. We extend a cordial invitation to visitors to all our services.

Dr. John Baird To Fill Pulpit at Christian Church

The guest minister at the First Christian Church this Sunday will be Dr. John E. Baird, Professor of Practical Theology and Speech at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma. Before taking the position at Phillips he was a minister in Greeley, California.

Rev. Glen B. Adsit is attending the State Assembly in Houston.

All youth groups will meet at the regular time 4:45 p.m. for a snack supper with programs following. There will be no Evening Service.

Quaker Scholar Claims Many People Misunderstand Christ

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International

People often misunderstand the sayings of Christ because they take seriously what He meant as a joke.

So says the great Quaker scholar, Dr. Elton Trueblood, in a provocative new book entitled "The Humor of Christ" (Harper & Row).

Somehow, says Trueblood, we have developed a stereotyped picture of a "Christ who never laughed." But the Biblical evidence shows clearly that Christ was a very witty person, who loved to evoke a chuckle from his listeners with remarks which they would recognize as being preposterous.

"We do not know with certainty how much humor there is in Christ's teaching, but we can be sure that there is far more than is normally recognized," Trueblood declares.

"There are numerous passages in His recorded teaching which are practically incomprehensible when regarded as sober prose, but which are luminous once we become liberated from the gratuitous assumption that Christ never joked."

Trueblood does not mean that the Gospels are full of funny stories. Christ was no modern comedian striving for a big yank from the audience. He used humor deftly and incisively to illuminate a truth, to deflate a pretense, or to make a contrast vividly clear.

A classic example of Christ's humor, cited by Trueblood, is the famous saying that "it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

Tomes of learned commentary have been written trying to "explain" what Christ meant by this startling statement. A favorite explanation of Bible scholars is that He was referring to a gate in Jerusalem, known as "The Needle's Eye," which was so low that a camel could wobble through it only after shedding its load.

Spill The Message

To Trueblood, this tortuous exegesis is simply nonsense.

"Christ MEANT His words to sound preposterous," he says. "We spoil the figure and lose all the robustness, when we tone it down. Christ had a revolutionary message to give and He knew that He could not make Himself understood by speaking mildly."

The camel is an inherently ridiculous creature, and it is not surprising that we find the ungainly beast featured in another of Christ's sayings, in which He pokes fun at the legalistic, hair-splitting Pharisees for "straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel." The humorist intent of this metaphor is too plain to be missed even by the authors of Bible commentaries.

Convincing Case

Trueblood also makes a convincing case for the proposition that Christ was really joking in several of the "hard sayings" which have caused great bafflement to straight-faced scholars because they sound so unlike Him.

This, he believes, is by all odds the simplest and most reasonable explanation of the so-called parable of the unclean just steward, in which Christ seems to be commending the conduct of a thoroughgoing scoundrel.

Sound Film Set For Sunday at Lamar Christian

Lamar Christians will be privileged to see the spirit of Christ at work throughout Texas. Sunday evening at 7:00 a sound film strip produced by Jerry Spearman of Amarillo under the direction of the Texas Association of Christian Churches will be shown. Jerry is a 1962 graduate of Texas Christian University, an artist with the camera, taped recorder, and a dedicated member of the Peace Corps in South America. His pictures and sounds bring to life much of the work of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) at worship, growth, and service in camps, Negro church work, Spanish speaking churches and New Church Advance. It also includes typical views on occasions on the campuses of Jarvis Christian College, Texas Christian University and Inman Christian Institute. Scenes and activities at Juliette Fowler Homes are also included. "Our Commission" will be the theme of this evening worship hour.

Lamar Christians at the Sunday morning worship hour will meditate with their ministers, Loren E. Williams on the subject of "The Return of the Exile." His texts will come from John 20:24-26 and 1 Peter 1:8, 9. The regular monthly meeting of the Official Board will meet Sunday at 8:00 p.m. and the General meeting of Christian Women's Fellowship will be held at the church Monday night at 7:30.

The men of Lamar Christian Church will be in a dinner meeting with the same Spirit at North Amarillo Christian Church. A district rally of Christian Men's Fellowship is being held there beginning at 7:00. District No. 1 includes some twenty-one Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) throughout the northern part of the Texas Panhandle, and is under the capable leadership of the Rev. Joe Frederick, minister of the First Christian Church of Perryton.

At the 8:30 a.m. Worship Hour the Pastor, Donald S. Hauck, will preach on "The Three Levels of Life." The Sanctuary Choir will sing "Open Our Eyes" by Macfarlane as the Anthem and Ruling Elder Will Graham will assist in the Worship at this service as well as at the second Worship Hour.

Evening Worship will be conducted by Ruling Elder W. A. Morgan at 7:00 p.m., following Youth Fellowships at 5:30. The Junior High Fellowship, under the leadership of the John Brewers and the Allan Strokers, are preparing dinner for their parents at 5:30 in Fellowship Hall and will lead a program at 6:00 p.m.

The Senior High's will meet for a snack supper at the Cock-O-The-Walk at 5:30 p.m. and then meet at the John Brewer Home, 127 E. 26th for the program at 6:00 p.m.

Both groups will attend Evening Worship at 7:00 p.m.

TICKET SALES — Mrs. Betty Boyett, chairwoman of the St. Paul Methodist church Smorgasbord dinner kicked off the ticket sale drive by selling several tickets to H. M. Dees, general chairman of the Stewardship Emphasis month. Information about the dinner can be obtained by calling Mrs. Boyett or the church study.

PASTOR — REVIVAL CENTER

Hebrews 9:27 And as it is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgement.

Notice the words — "after this" after what? — after death, then comes the judgement.

Ecc. 11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgement.

Romans 14:10c For we shall all stand before the judgement seat of Christ.

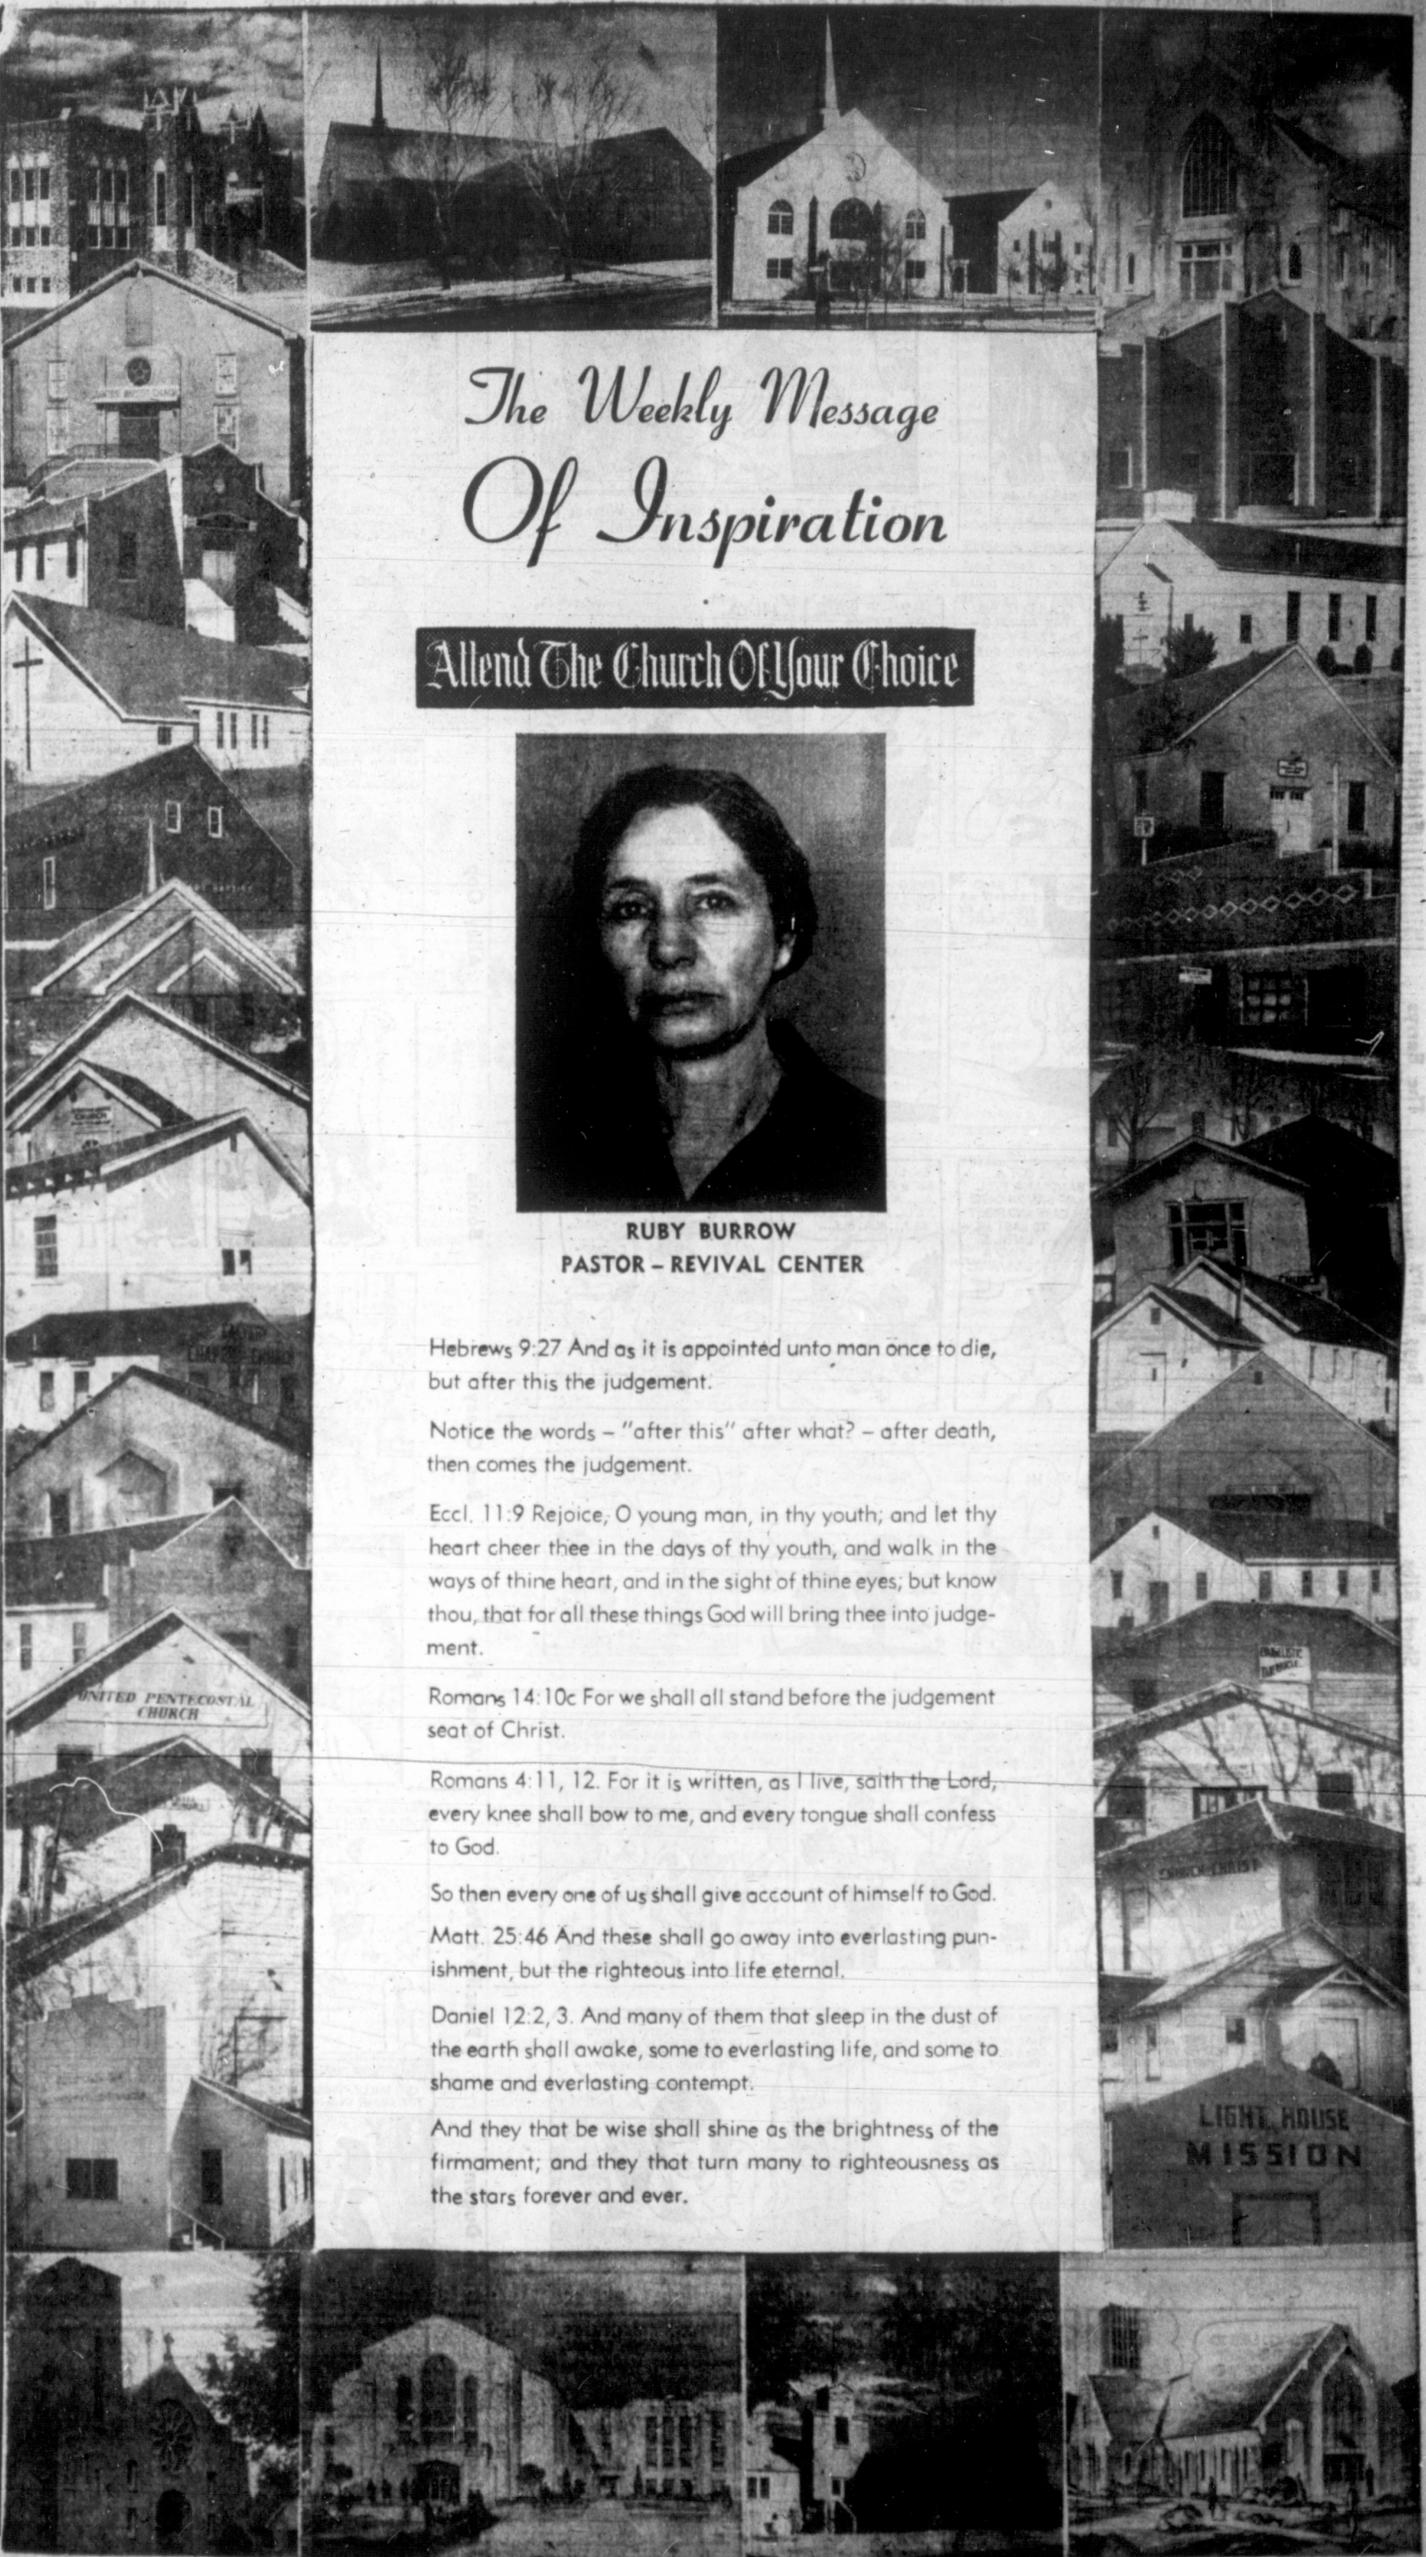

Romans 4:11, 12. For it is written, as I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Matt. 25:46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

Daniel 12:2, 3. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.

Harvesters Have Slim Chance District 3-4A Track Meet

Pampa Harvester track team, for the past two years a force in district 3-AAAA, appears to have only a slim chance to put more than one athlete into regional competition.

Two field events men have the third best mark in district, and with an extra effort, could make it into regional. Sophomore Gary "Little Dutch" Crossland has posted a 21'9" broadjump, but will have to face the talented Tim Garrison of Lubbock, who has twice passed the 23-foot mark.

San Williams has a 5'10" high-jump, but two Palo Duros, Henry Frizzell and Tommy Cook, have both gone over the six-foot mark. Frizzell with 6-3 1/2.

In the hurdles, Pampa's top man, Waylon Bullard, has times of 15.5 and 21.6, but Art Carroll and Garrison of Lubbock, share the best mark in the lows in the state, 19.0, and have respective times of 14.6 and 14.7 in the highs.

In the 100-yard dash, Pampa's ace is Dave McDaniel, with a 10.2, but there are three consistent 10-flat and under runners in the loop. In the 200, Mac has a 22.9, but David May of PD is a full second better, and two others have topped McDaniel's time by a small margin. A surge by the tall junior could make him Pampa's fourth good bet for a placing.

Pampa's already-slim chance in the 440 was completely nullified when Jimmy Jamieson (52.6) came down with a strep throat, leaving Rock Hill (53.4) as the Big Green's best, with five district contenders under 51 seconds, headed by Dean Melton of PD (49.7).

Jesse Washington has the best 800 time, 2:07, far off Ronnie Payne of Palo Duro's 1:57.6, with four others under 2:02.

Neither the sprint relay or mile relay teams can compare with such times as Tascosa's 4:7 sprint, fourth best in the state, or Palo Duro's 3:25.0.

Field events find the Harvesters, minus Martin and Matson, chiefly relying on sophomores and juniors, most of them promising, but all of them at least a year off the best marks posted by district rivals. Robert Melton's 45-foot shot put is nearly 10 feet behind Jimmy Simpson of Palo Duro, Carl Johnson's 137.3 discus throw is almost 20 feet behind Steve Manning of Palo Duro. The four 13-foot pole vaulters in the loon will get absolutely no competition from the Harvesters, who lost both leapfrogers, Hank Henry and Larry Johnson, with injuries.

Pampa's coach, Norman Phillips, admits that his "bunch of young kids" cannot threaten on the basis of the year's results, but has high hopes for a number of them to make it to regional, and even higher hopes for them to live up to their potential next year.

The Harvester roster for the meet at Amarillo Saturday will be:

High hurdles — Bullard, Randy Johnston, Randy Smith
Low hurdles — Bullard, Johnston, Phil Massie
100-yard dash — McDaniel, Red Griffith, Lewis "Mighty" Meers
220-yard dash — McDaniel, Washington, Charlie Walker
440-yard dash — Heil, Roy Williams, Don "Dynamite" Dixon
800-yard run — Washington, Phil Hall, John Paul Bowers
1 mile run — Westbrook, Carl McLoughlin, Tommy Brewer
Sprint relay — McDaniel, Griffith, Meers, Walker
1 mile relay — Heil, Williams, Washington, Griffith
High jump — Williams, Teddy Bird
Shot put — Melton, Phil Klearner, Big Billy Quarles
Discus — Johnson, Myron Scribner
Broad jump — Crossland, Griffith

Coach Ray Howard announced this morning that Ricky Maynard had received the doctor's okay to play, and could definitely see outfield duty this weekend. Howard also reported that second baseman Rick Stewart, who missed today's game against Palo Duro, would be able to play tomorrow at Borger. Lefty Jerry Garrison will start one of the two games this weekend, said Howard, with Jim Arthur or Carl Larnberger the other probable starter.

Roswell Takes Houston Lead

HOUSTON (UPI)—Bob Rosburg, a 37-year-old pro, took a lumpy ankle, a pain in the neck and a one-stroke lead today to the second round of the Houston golf classic.

Rosburg, who has not finished a tournament in two months because of aches and pains and on his last first place money pay back in 1961, fired a four-under-par 67 Thursday on the windy Sharpstown Country Club course.

Rosburg began ailing last February in the Phoenix Open when a painful pinched nerve in his neck forced him to change his swing.

Rosburg had to drop out of the New Orleans and Miami tournaments because of the pain, and sat out the Greensboro and Wilmington.

MIAMI SPORTS FANS WILL BE IN FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT THIS SATURDAY NIGHT, WHEN COACH OLLIE "THE HAT" HOLLADAY OF PAMPA AND THE OI' SWAMI ARE THE SPEAKERS AT THE ANNUAL ALL-SPORTS BANQUET.

Although The Hat and the Swami have worked well together sportswise and argued furiously, football selection-wise, this will be the first time the duo have ever been paired together on the dais. Whichever one gets to speak first, that's all, brother!

★ THINGS ARE SHAPING UP FOR THE PAMPA TRACK CLUB THIS SUMMER. RANDY MATSON HAS INDICATED TO COACH NORMAN PHILLIPS THAT HE MAY REJOIN THE LOCAL GROUP TO KEEP IN PREPARATION FOR OLYMPIC TRYOUTS. RAPID RALPH PALMER AND HIGHJUMPER BILL MARTIN OF OU ARE STATED TO BE BACK, AS IS HIGHJUMPER AND HURDLER JIMMY FLOWERS OF HOWARD COUNTY JC, EX-MIAMI HIGH. A NUMBER OF WHITE-DEER'S GREAT TRACK MEN OF THE PAST FEW SEASONS, SUCH AS CURTIS CAMPBELL, JIM THURMOND AND CARROLL RUSSELL, NOW OF FRANK PHILLIPS AND CLARENDON JCS, WILL JOIN WITH THEM IN THE COLLEGE DIVISION, AS WELL AS SEVERAL MORE LOCAL AND AREA POSSIBLES.

In the high school division, in addition to the already-stated cream of the Pampa, Lefors, White Deer, Wheeler and Miami track squads, it appears that the entire Booker track team, including their record-holding mile relay squad, will run under the aegis of the Top O' Texas team. Sprint man Shayne Slovacek visited the OI' Swami recently and said that the Klows, all juniors but one, had their sights set on a state title in '65 and wanted all the summer experience they could get. Welcome aboard.

The freshman division, frankly, shapes up as possibly the best that could be put together in any area. In addition to the outstanding boys in Lee and Pampa Junior High which coach Phillips is keeping a fond eye upon, such outstanding area frosh as 11'3 pole vaulter Randy Elliott and 15.7 high hurdler Otis Wheeler of WD, 10.2 dashman Bobby Vanpool of Wheeler and 19'4" broadjumper Kenneth Steine of Canadian are expected to join the ranks. Combined with Cousin George Smith's fine youngsters such as Debbie Bennett, the PTC will definitely give the Lubbock and Abilene Track Clubs a battle royal in meets this year. In addition to defending champ Matson, it is also thought possible that Mark Westbrook, Lightning Coleman and the mile relay team of Curtis Campbell, Curtis Fletcher, Ralph Palmer and Jim Thurmond could very well be at the USTFF finals this year.

★ RED DOG HATCHER, THE BASEBALL CZAR, REALLY PUT HIS HEAD INTO IT INSTEAD OF HIS FOOT FOR A CHANGE. THE RED DOG CAME ROARING INTO AN OPTIMIST MEETING RECENTLY SHRIEKING THAT ALL THE LITTLE LEAGUE CAPS HE HAD JUST RECEIVED WERE TOO BIG EVEN TO FIT HIS HEAD! Man, that's a lotta hat! Incidentally, plans for the biggest Opening Day in Pampa history are underway with a very, very big name in the sports world being sought as a guest. (Newt Secrest threatened to shoot both the Swami and the Pixie if they let the name out, however.)

★ PHOTOGRAPHER BILL TRELLOGGEN and the Swami are planning to assassinate tennis coach Roy Kieval. Kieval, rotating his players like Casey Stengel in the throes of a pennant race, has ruined at least three rolls of pictures already. Every time we take a picture of a doubles team, Kieval splits them up into singles players and every time we take individual shots, he makes doubles players out of them! Oh, well, as long as Tim Adair and the Swami can beat Rick, Maxie and Roy Milliron, we can't complain. Kieval played switch and took a picture of the Swami playing Milliron the other day. At least I hit the ball, coach!

Overcast Named Miami Grid Boss

MIAMI — Lawrence Overcast, head basketball coach and assistant football coach at Miami High School, has been named as head football coach, replacing Bill Hines.

Superintendent of Schools Weldon Snodgrass announced that as the result of a special school board meeting last night, Overcast was named as the new head coach for football, basketball and track. Hines has resigned, effective with the end of the school year, to take over the head coaching job at Silverton.

This will be Overcast's first head football coaching job, although "the long-time" cag coach has been an assistant grid coach at several schools while compiling a brilliant basketball record.

A native of Samnorwood, where he was an all-state basketball player and district shot put and discus champion, Overcast went on to West Texas State, making All-Border Conference in basketball and graduating in 1956.

Overcast became head basketball and assistant football coach at Vega, and then went into the Army as an officer in the physical education program.

After service, he went to Quail as head coach in basketball, baseball and track, setting an all-time school record for cage victories in one year, 27.

Moving to Canadian as head basketball and assistant football coach, he won the first boys basketball district championship in Canadian history, setting an all-time school record of 26 wins and six losses.

Overcast came to Miami in 1962, as assistant to Hines in football as they won the district 5-B grid championship, and then producing both boys and girls district basketball champions that year, with the boys going to regional finals before losing to state Class B champion McAdoo.

This year, Overcast's Warriorettes went to regional finals, losing to Roosevelt of Lubbock.

Overcast is married to the former Betty Jean Reed of Clarendon. They have two children, Ronnie, 7, and Tamara, 5. "I hope I can do them a good job and I'll do all I can to organize a good program and produce good teams," said the tall, black-haired Miami mentor. Overcast added that he had not made any decisions on assistants as yet.

REISER HAS ATTACK

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Pistol Pete Reiser, once one of baseball's most daring and dramatic players, battled a heart attack today with the same assurance and enthusiasm he used to save for racing into cement walls to catch fly balls.

Reiser, 44, now a coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers, suffered what doctors called a "mild" heart attack Thursday night just before the game with the Cincinnati Reds.

Twins Have No Room For Slugger

By United Press International
Rookie Tony Oliva is hitting .500 for the Minnesota Twins and is causing Manager Sam Mele nothing but problems.

Oliva is trying to crash an outfield which boasts such power hitters as Bob Allison, Jimmie Hall and Harmon Killebrew. No easy task for anyone, especially a 22-year-old rookie.

But the lefthanded Cuban slugger has drilled five hits in the Twins' first two victories, including a single, double and triple good for two runs batted in Thursday night as the Twins clipped the Washington Senators, 6-2, at Washington.

Mele now figures he must find a place for Oliva, but where? He could move Allison to first base, but then he would have the best defensive first baseman in the league, Vic Power, on the bench. And the Twins need all the defensive help they can get.

Played Right Field
Mele played Allison at first base in Minnesota's opener but shifted him back to centerfield Thursday night and benched Hall, who slugged 33 homers as a rookie last year. Oliva played right field both games.

Zoilo Versalles' bases loaded triple broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning to give Minnesota the victory. Jim Kaat went the distance for the Twins, allowing only six hits and fanning seven. Starter Carl Bouldin was the loser. Don Lock and Ken Hunt homered for the losers.

The Boston Red Sox routed the official managerial debut of Yogi Berra with the Yankees, clipping New York, 4-3, in 11 innings. Baltimore defeated the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, in the only other scheduled game in the American League.

In the National League, Milwaukee tripped the Colts at Houston, 6-5; St. Louis shut out San Francisco, 2-0, and Cincinnati defeated the Dodgers, 5-2, at Los Angeles. The other four NL teams were idle.

John Orsino capped a four-run fifth inning for Baltimore with his second home run of the season, a two-run blast. Three of the tallies off starter Ray Herbert were unearned, following an error by rookie second baseman Don Buford of the White Sox.

Hansen Homers
Ron Hansen accounted for two of the Chicago runs with a homer off winning pitcher Dave McNally in the second.

Comebacker Curt Stops Giants, 2-0

By United Press International
Crew-cut Curt Simmons has spent the last two seasons keeping the St. Louis Cardinals air-borne in the first months of the National League pennant chase. Thursday Simmons served notice he's ready to get the Cardinals aloft again.

The 33-year-old former Philadelphia bonus baby, who has made more "comebacks" than he cares to remember, stymied the explosive San Francisco Giants, 2-0, to begin his 17th year in the majors. In each of the last two seasons Curt has won his first five decisions for St. Louis.

Simmons yielded only three singles and didn't allow a base runner past first base after the second inning. He retired the last 13 Giants in order.

Simmons considered the performance against the Giants, a team which scored 18 runs in its first two games, proof to Manager Johnny Nease that he is ready to carry the Cardinals, again if necessary.

Julian Javier singled home the first Cardinal run in the third after an error by losing pitcher Bob Hendley on a sacrifice bunt by Simmons. Later in the inning, Dick Groat scored Simmons with a sacrifice fly. Hendley, a former Milwaukee Brave, allowed only four hits in his eight-inning stint.

The Cincinnati Reds belted the Los Angeles Dodgers pitching staff for 13 hits and a 5-2 victory and the Milwaukee Braves shaded the Houston Colts, 6-5, in the only other National League games scheduled Thursday.

Three games were played in the American League. The Boston Red Sox tripped the Yankees, 4-3, in 11 innings at New York; Baltimore defeated the host Chicago White Sox, 4-3, and Minnesota beat Washington, 6-2, in the nation's capital.

LBJ Family TV Station Involved in Touchy Case

By LOUIS CASSELS
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The seven members of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) are being called upon to make rulings which could have a substantial effect on the family fortune of the president of the United States.

The situation, involving a Texas television case is believed to be unique. Never before has a president had his family fortune concentrated in a business enterprise whose profitability can be directly affected by the actions of a government regulatory agency. President Kennedy disposed of all his personally held corporate stocks and bonds, and put the money into government bonds. President Eisenhower placed his private funds in trust with a New York investment banker under circumstances which made it impossible for Eisenhower himself — or any subordinate federal official — to know in what companies or industries they were invested.

Rail Commission Schedules Hearing

AUSTIN (UPI) — The Texas Railroad Commission, which oversees the state oil industry, has set a hearing May 26 to determine if the Permian Corp. of Midland is a common carrier and subject to its regulations.

The commission ordered the hearing Wednesday after independent operators complained because the firm set a 5 cent per barrel charge on oil transported in its 212 mile pipeline system in Wichita, Wilbarger and Archer counties. The independent operators said this cut the price of crude oil.

The system carries about 4,000 barrels a day. Permian argued that it is a private carrier, but the other operators said it should be considered a common carrier.

Among those complaining were the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, North Texas and West Central Texas Oil and Gas Associations, and several Wichita Falls operators.

Despite trying for centuries, man never has been able to make an artificial pearl that even begins to resemble the oyster's product.

Major Stockholders
But it is well known in Washington — and particularly well known at the FCC — that President Johnson's wife and daughters own most of the stock in Texas Broadcasting Corp. (formerly known as the LBJ Co.) which operates station KTBC-TV in Austin, Tex.

When Johnson entered the White House last November, Mrs. Johnson resigned as president of the corporation, and the stock was placed in trusteeship. But it will revert to the Johnsons' control as soon as his term as president ends, and the president's family stands to gain or lose from any fluctuation in the value of the broadcasting enterprise in the meantime.

The delicacy of this situation, from the FCC's viewpoint, is heightened by the fact that KTBC-TV is currently involved in a sharp dispute between two rival companies seeking to relay television programs into Austin by cable. The FCC has to refer to this dispute. It has already issued, on Dec. 10, a ruling potentially favorable to the Johnson interests. The loser has appealed to the commission for reconsideration, however, charging that the original ruling was improperly influenced by considerations which do not show in the hearing record. This appeal is now pending before the commission.

Here are the basic facts in the complex situation:

When the FCC in 1952 distributed standard-band (VHF) television channels among American cities, Austin was awarded a single channel. FCC officials say the distribution was made entirely on the basis of population, and that Austin, with a 1950 census of 132,459, got its fair share. They point out that there are, even today, 45 cities larger than Austin which have either a single VHF channel, or none at all.

Corpus Christi Cited

There also are communities smaller than Austin which have two or three VHF channels. For example, Corpus Christi, Tex., with a population of 110,000, got two channels in the original distribution, and has since been awarded a third.

The LBJ Co. was the only applicant for Austin's VHF channel, and its permit was granted in the very first batch issued by the FCC in July, 1952, after a four-year freeze.

Today the Johnson station claims an area audience of 200,000 homes, which would make it one of the richest markets in the country served by a single TV station.

Although there has been some public grumbling by critics of the FCC (and critics of Johnson) about the lucrative "monopoly" enjoyed by KTBC-TV, no proceedings have ever been initiated before the FCC to award additional VHF channels for Austin.

Austin has been awarded three UHF channels — which require special receivers. Two are for commercial stations and one for an educational station. Construction permits have been issued for both of the commercial UHF stations, but neither company has begun work, apparently in the belief that no UHF outlet could compete successfully with KTBC-TV, which has affiliations with all three television networks.

Powerful Magnet

However, Austin has become a powerful magnet for promoters of so-called community antenna systems. These enterprises erect huge towers to pick up television signals from distant cities, and relay them to subscribers by cable for a monthly service charge. Thus people living in a one-station town like Austin can have a choice of three or four programs at a time, just like people who live in multiple-channel cities.

Two community antenna companies are currently vying for the Austin market. One is called TV Cable. The other is called Capital Cable.

The Johnson family has a financial interest in the success of Capital Cable, because their company, Texas Broadcasting, has an option to buy a 50 percent share in Capital Cable if it should begin to look like a money-maker.

The FCC got involved in the competition between TV Cable and Capital Cable because it adopted in 1962 a policy of "protecting" television stations from damaging competition by community antenna systems. The protection takes this form: If a community antenna system comes before the FCC for a permit, it must "voluntarily" agree to observe a 15-day blackout of any network television show that the local TV station plans to tape for later broadcast.

Agrees to "Blackout"
TV Cable needed an FCC permit because it uses the airwaves — a microwave relay transmitter — to get its programs from its mountain-top antenna to its cable network in Austin. So, it had to agree to the "blackout" rule — which means that it must wait 15 days before giving its subscribers any program which KTBC-TV says it plans to show eventually.

The other community antenna outfit, in which the Johnsons hold an option interest, does use microwave relays. He does not require an FCC permit, and is not subject to blackout rule. It can — and does — compete for Austin subscribers by advertising that its programs are fresh off the net, griddle and haven't been in storage for 15 days.

Seeks Release

Finding itself at a severe not fatal competitive disadvantage, TV Cable went to the FCC and asked to be released from the blackout. It argued that KTBC-TV is in a money and doesn't any "protection" from a single little community antenna system. KTBC-TV told the FCC that it would not make a similar concession to other television stations similarly situated.

On Dec. 13, the FCC by a vote of 6 to 1 rejected TV Cable's plea for exemption from the blackout rule. It is that ruling which TV Cable is now asking the FCC to reconsider.

Buick has a great transmission.

An automobile transmission, we grant you, isn't the most soul-stirring subject on earth. Nothing to look at either. But if you'd like for your next new car to give you a better break on performance and gasoline mileage, something happened last week to be your guide.

The Los Angeles to New York Mobil Economy Run proved one thing for sure. There's quite a difference in the transmissions of new cars.

Three out of four for Buick

The long-time champion in the transmission league—Buick—walked off with the 1964 economy pennant. No edge, single make of car won at many events as Buick. Four entries, three winners.

The winning Special carried the new Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission; the LeSabre was equipped with the Super Turbine 400 (both optional at extra cost). They're the latest in a long line of Buick transmissions well known for their smoothness and absence of "shift feel". The Super Turbine is a refined and improved torque converter type to help you safely pass cars and trucks as well as gas stations.

You'll hear a lot about it in the next couple of years as this modern kind of transmission is adopted by more and more car builders.

What about engines?

Of course, an efficient transmission gets more efficient when teamed up with a lean, agile engine. The winning Buick power plants were our new V-6 and V-8. The 300 cubic inch V-8 in the winning Buick Special (the lowest priced of all Buicks) and the Buick LeSabre (the lowest priced big Buick) is like a well-conditioned fighter. All muscle, no fat. Weighs in at far less than other V-8's of similar punch. It took every other V-8 in the Economy Run.

Your type of driving—regular gas

The Run was through cities and towns, across super highways, in traffic, out of traffic. This was not race track driving or proving ground driving. This was your kind of driving—even though you can't expect to get as good mileage as these expert drivers in their finely tuned production cars. The distance was 3,243 miles, about what most families log in four months. All three Buicks used regular gas.

So the Economy Run is not just a cross country tour for the Mobil people and a few car buffs. It's a reliable test of a car's power team and what it's able to squeeze out of its fuel.

We don't expect everybody to rush out this week-end to buy a new Buick just because we won a few economy trophies. There are so many other good reasons for leaning on Buick that economy usually gets second billing. There's styling, naturally. An unusually great ride. Extraordinary engineering and workmanship. And very young performance. Small wonder Buick sales are running at 11.5% over last year.

But it's nice to get economy as a plus in a Buick. Beyond the dollars saved on gasoline, there's a certain pride in knowing you have a car that's built to get the most out of every tank of gasoline.
