Turk Raid Reported In Spite of Cease-fire

Chinese Troops Seen on Move Into North Viet

Red Fighter Planes also Said To Be Located in Capital City

CAP. ST. JACQUES, Viet Nam (UPI) — Prime Minister Gen. Nguyen Khanh said today he had "definite reports" of Communist Chinese troop movements in North Viet Nam. Khanh at a news conference also reiterated that at least 15 fighter planes from Red China had moved into Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital. He said he was uncertain whether they were piloted by Chinese or Vietnamese. Khanh was asked if he had actual reports of Chinese Communist troop movements in North Viet Nam.

Barry Accuses LBJ of Slowing Arms Making

WASHINGTON (UPI) — GOP presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater accused today the Johnson administration of an "utter disregard for new weapons" which may lead to a cut of 90 per cent in the nation's atomic striking power over the next decade. The Arizona senator, in a wide-ranging speech prepared for delivery before the National Association of Counties, said, "sometime in the decade ahead, unless present plans are changed by the demands of an aroused public, America's deliverable nuclear capability may be cut by 90 per cent." Goldwater said the administration had inherited "the mightiest arsenal for the defense of freedom ever created on earth," but that it was now so depleted the United States faced the prospect "of going into the decade of the 1970s without a single new, manned bomber."

"We face the prospect of going into that decade with a worn and obsolete force composed only of those left-over planes still able to fly," said Goldwater, who is a major general in the Air Force reserve. "Let me also warn you against the public relations gimmick of parading versions of a single reconnaissance aircraft before the public and representing them as a whole series of new weapon systems," he said.

"Only with the strength to keep the peace can we ever hope for the time in which the ideological obsession of communism will be abandoned by the leaders of the nations which today we call Communist. Yet there are those who fear that strength may only provoke the enemy."

"Was it strength that was responsible for the attacks on our destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin? Or was it the enemy's doubt of our strength and our will to use it?" Goldwater asked.

The Arizona senator, said he backed President Johnson's action in ordering the retaliatory air strike against North Viet Nam last week. But he charged that the administration's Southeast Asia policies had become "so twisted with diplomatic red tape that the enemy might well have wondered if we would accept their attacks at sea on the same basis that we have been accepting their attacks on land."

HERBERT HOOVER
Herbert Hoover Today Becomes Nonaqenarian

NEW YORK (UPI) — Herbert Clark Hoover, the 31st president of the United States, enters the 10th decade of his life today, frail and ailing, but old enough to see himself in history and to see his place in the hearts of his countrymen. He will be known as an orphan who befriended orphans, a President and a servant of presidents, a humanitarian and a historian and an historic escapee.

Herbert Hoover was once scorned as no American President since Abraham Lincoln had been scorned. But, born four months earlier than Winston Churchill, Hoover today, if he chose, could paraphrase Churchill and say: "I did not become President to preside over the dissolution of those American ideals for which I have always stood."

History now takes a more generous view of Hoover than his contemporaries of 1933. A bitter year, were able to take. It will be one of history's enduring ironies that Hoover won the presidency on the strength of his reputation as a humanitarian who had fed a starving Europe and left the presidency denounced and dishonored on the charge of having failed a starving America.

With hindsight, it is now recognized that the seeds of the great depression, the disaster which struck America during Hoover's administration, predated his occupancy of the White House. They were found in the agricultural depression of the 1920s, which was ignored, and in the unregulated speculation of the day, which too was ignored.

Hoover could have brooded in bitter obscurity after his presidency. He did not. He carried on what he called "unending public chores" and carries them today, his 90th birthday, as far as his health permits.

Police on Hunt For Rent-a-Car Bandits, $10,000
ALBUQUERQUE (UPI) — Albuquerque police are looking today for three rent-a-car bandits who stole about $10,000 Sunday night from two Albuquerque grocery stores.

Police said it appeared the same persons were involved in both armed robberies. Only $150 was taken in the first stickup, but the bandits struck just two hours later at another store and escaped with an estimated $8,000 to $10,000. The bandits used a separate rented car in both holdups to make their getaway. The rented car was abandoned in both cases just a few blocks from the scene of the robbery.

Planes Again Hit Village of Polis

By RAY J. MOLONEY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — Turkish planes were reported to have raided Cyprus today for the fourth straight day despite agreement on a cease-fire.

Cyprus announced acceptance of a United Nations appeal for suspension of the hostilities that flared anew last week, and Turkey conditionally agreed to call off its air attacks.

But Cyprus reports said Turkish planes again hit the Greek Cypriot village of Polis this morning.

In London a spokesman for the Greek Cypriot high commission said the Turkish government had explained that the planes were part of a forward attack and had not been notified of the cease-fire.

In Ankara, the Turkish government acknowledged that its planes flew over Cyprus this morning but said they did not attack Greek Cypriot positions.

Conflicting Casualty Reports
Reports of casualties in Polis this morning were vague. The Cyprus news agency said 50 were killed and 50 wounded, but the Cypriot high commission in London said 10 civilians were wounded.

Diplomats worked feverishly to smooth out the Cyprus crisis that threatened a direct clash between Turkey and Greece, fellow members of the North Atlantic Alliance.

The background of the Cyprus crisis is a powerful U. S. Sixth Fleet carrier task group steamed across the Mediterranean today under apparent emergency orders to stand by off Cyprus.

The aircraft carrier USS Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the guided missile cruiser USS Boston, four destroyers and at least half a dozen other American warships left Naples at dusk Sunday.

The light cruiser USS Springfield, flagship of Rear Adm. William F. Ellis, sailed today with auxiliary vessels.

ANavy spokesman declined to state the task group's destination. But it was learned it was headed for Cyprus.

Shore patrols toured restaurants, bars and cinemas Sunday recalling sailors to their ships under emergency orders.

The Navy spokesman said Ellis' spent Sunday with Adm. commander of Allied Forces in James S. Russell, supreme southern Europe. He said, "They have been keeping abreast of the Cyprus situation by radio-telephone."

No Invasion Evidence
Sunday night the Greek Cypriot government accused the Turks of landing soldiers on the northwest coast, but later withdrew the accusation.

The United Nations said there was no evidence of an invasion. The chronic crisis ignited suddenly on Friday when Turkish jets shot up the center of Polis.

The church behind the Iron Curtain "speaks only by its sufferings, and with it speaks also the suffering of an oppressed and degraded society, in which the rights of the spirit are crushed by those who control its fate," the pontiff said.

The 15,000-word Latin-language encyclical, addressed to Roman Catholic prelates, will be known by its opening words "ecclesiam suam" (his church).

In addition to the attack on communism, it deals with such subjects as relations with non-Christian religious groups and the Pope's hopes for the current ecumenical council.

AMERICAN EVACUEES ARRIVE FROM CYPRUS
BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Thirty-five American evacuees, mostly the dependents of U.S. officials on Cyprus, arrived from the island today aboard a U. S. Air Force C140 cargo plane.

A U. S. Embassy statement said the plane had flown blood plasma to Cyprus at the request of the Cyprus government.

An embassy spokesman said the evacuees were expected to stay in Beirut and see how the situation develops. He said no further American evacuees were expected here at the moment.

ESCAPED ROBBER — Highway Patrolmen Vernon Cawthon and Paul Geiser apprehended an escaped armed robber from Denver last night. The man, 21-year-old Thomas Lange, was shot in Denver with a .38 caliber pistol during a robbery and removed the bullet himself, stole a car and drove to Pampa. When arrested he was under the influence of Benzedrine and highly incoherent. Shown taking him to jail is Highway Patrolman Cawthon. In background are Daily News reporter Ray Rodgers, left, and Patrolman Geiser. Lange will be held for Denver authorities and on charges pending by the FBI.

Ex-Con Reveals Strange Story

By RAY RODGERS

An incredible story and chain-of-events unfolded in Pampa last night when two Pampa Highway Patrolmen took into custody a 21-year-old man. The story began to unfold when Highway Patrolmen Vernon Cawthon and Paul Geiser were approached by what appearedly was a drunk while on the parking lot at Fleetwood's Cafe, 1 1/2 miles west of Pampa.

Cawthon said the man was later identified as Thomas L. Lange, asked, "Do you want to talk to me?" Cawthon answered that he didn't and asked why he inquired. Lange replied, "Well, I want to talk to you, I've been doing some hot-rodding through town today and I figure you guys might want to talk to me."

The Patrolmen said Lange was incoherent and he thought he might be an escaped mental patient, but he told them he was an ex-convict.

Geiser said when he asked him for identification, Lange produced a driver's license that didn't match his height, weight, and color of hair.

Cawthon said they took him to the police department for further questioning where they found a .38 caliber slug in his pocket along with two pills.

Lange was booked on a charge of possession of a fictitious driver's license and carrying an unlabeled drug.

Geiser said they left the police department en route to a pharmacy to have the pills analyzed.

While en route, city police called them on the radio to return to the jail.

When they arrived they found Lange screaming, "I'm dying, I'm dying."

Lange pulled a bandage off his shoulder and revealed a bullet wound.

He told officers he had been shot while escaping jail in Denver, and had dug the bullet from his shoulder himself.

Lange was then rushed to Highland General Hospital for treatment. He was not seriously hurt.

The pills were analyzed and found to be Benzedrine tablets. Cawthon said Lange had taken two of the barbiturates minutes before he first approached them. He said this was responsible for Lange's incoherence.

While on the emergency room table, Lange told the officers, "I got a surprise for you." Geiser said Lange removed a makeshift key from the roof of his mouth.

Lange told the two patrolmen, "This will open any handcuffs." Geiser tried the key on his handcuffs and it easily opened them.

Denver police reported that a man answering Lange's description was held for questioning.

Integration Troubles Renewed

By United Press International
Racial violence broke out at widespread points of the country Sunday. A white youth was shot to death in Dallas, a Negro was stabbed to death in Alabama and racial gangs fought in Cleveland, Ohio.

The white youth, Billy Wayne Wallace, 18, was shot to death at Dallas after what Homicide Capt. Will Fritz described as a "teen-age name calling session" near the shores of the city's White Rock Lake.

Three others were wounded and four Negroes were being held for questioning.

In another incident near downtown Dallas, two 23-year-old white men were shot and wounded by Negro attackers who fled.

Fritz said two Negroes pulled pistols and fired in the White Rock Lake incident.

Near Bessemer, Ala., a Negro who authorities said cursed a white man after he stopped behind his parked car and blew his horn was stabbed to death in a fight between three Negroes and two whites. The remaining four combatants were wounded.

Jefferson County Sheriff Mel Bailey identified the dead Negro as Bennie C. Gates. The sheriff said he sent 18 deputies to block all entrances to the small Raimund community, near where the incident occurred, to keep out "curiosity seekers, and those who might be intent on ulterior motives." No racial incidents had preceded the fights.

Two unrelated racial gang fights broke out in two theaters in the Cleveland area Sunday. Authorities said three youths were slightly injured in one of the fights and received hospital treatment.

In other developments: Jackson, Miss.: Bishop R. C. Gerow, in a letter read in Catholic churches throughout the state Sunday, announced plans to desegregate Catholic schools throughout Mississippi in September. He urged members to exhibit acceptance and cooperation.

New York: More than 6,000 persons gathered Sunday for the funeral of Andrew Goodman, 20, one of the three civil rights workers killed in Mississippi. Several prominent civil rights leaders were present for the rites at the meeting hall of the Ethical Culture Society.

Chicago: The Christian Century magazine said Sunday many congregations have lowered their giving to churches whose ministers preach integration.

New York: The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) Sunday rejected a call from Negro leaders for a moratorium on civil rights demonstrations until after the November elections. The organization pledged itself to "militant and disciplined" demonstrations.

REPORT ON BODIES MAY BE MADE TODAY
JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Mississippi authorities said the official autopsies on three murdered civil rights workers may be made public today.

The report could possibly spin a further controversy around the three deaths.

A private autopsy performed by a family-retained doctor on the body of James Chaney, 22, Meridian, Miss. Negro disclosed he was savagely beaten with a blunt instrument or chain in addition to being shot.

NO OVERTIME
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has ruled out extra overtime pay at the South Pole.

That was the effect of the Chief Executive's veto Thursday of a private relief bill which would have provided for overtime pay for Anthony F. Bernardo and Ambrose A. Cerreto, two Navy Department civilian employees assigned to McMurdo Sound, Antarctica.

The two worked extra hours to complete their assignment at McMurdo, but because of a statutory ceiling on their basic pay they cannot be compensated for all of their extra hours.

Dear Abby....

Tell Him How You Feel
When — and If He Calls

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old girl. I had two dates with an 18-year-old boy I've had a secret crush on for a long time. He was an hour late both times, but I didn't say anything. Then he took me to a big party, and I wandered away. Nobody even knew who I was with. I had a horrible time. Later he took me to the Senior Prom and I never had a better time in my whole life. He said he had a great time, too, and I know he did. That was the last time I saw him. I heard that he is practically rushing another girl off her feet. I want him to know that after all I took from him, he can't treat me this way and get away with it, and if he were to call me up and BEG me for a date I would turn him down. How can I let him know how I feel?

"WHO NEEDS HIM?"
DEAR WHO: When he calls you up and BEGS you for a date, tell him!

DEAR ABBY: Our 22-year-old son has been married three times. The first marriage was a mistake because they were both too young. (The boy's mother had to sign for him.) They called it quits after a year. At 19 she married a 29-year-old Mamma's boy. That lasted two years. Her last husband was an older man. She had known him only a month and, after she married him, she found out that he hadn't even been free to marry her. It was a mess! Now she is back home and has started to date. She has no special training and has never worked a day in her life. Her father supports her. I think, under the circumstances, we should have some say about the company she keeps, don't you? Some of the characters she goes with would make you ill. She is our only child and we do love her. What can we do?

TROUBLED
DEAR TROUBLED: Tell your daughter she is old enough now to support herself, and that she must. She is still young enough to acquire "special training" if she wants it. If she will accept professional guidance, it would be worth the effort. It will have to come from outside, however, as she quit listening to you years ago.

DEAR ABBY: I recently married a man who likes dogs, but he can't stand cats. I have always had a cat. I love cats. At the present my mother is keeping my two cats, and when I told my husband I wanted to bring them home he said, "NO CATS in this house!" He says cats are for old maids and lonely widows who have nobody to love them. I don't agree with him on this, but don't want to make an issue of it. What can I do? This is my first marriage.

LOVES CATS
DEAR LOVES: Leave your cats at your mother's and go to visit them when you get lonely. Your husband sounds tough enough to live with WITHOUT an excuse.

Those are the qualities that women referred to over and over as being the ones they most admire. And though not one woman claimed all of these qualities for herself, many said they knew women who had them all. One woman ended her letter with this promise to herself:

"You have done us all a favor. Now that you've made me sit down and see clearly what I admire in others, I'm going to tape my list in my kitchen cabinet and read it every day for inspiration."

RUTH MILLETT

What gives a woman status in the eyes of other women?

A few weeks ago I asked my readers to help me find the answer to that question, raised by a correspondent who claimed that today women judge other women by such superficial standards as: How much money does her husband earn? Does she lead the pack in knowing what's "in" and what's "out"? Is she a best-dressed member of the "right" crowd? Does she spend her time and money where it will make the biggest show?

"Is that really how women judge other women?" I asked the women of America, and they answered with deep seriousness. It is a question that American women, in these changing times, consider important.

And so they sat down and thought about it — thought about the women they admire most and why they admire them. And then they wrote me their conclusions.

Here, from letters from small towns and big cities from every section of the United States, are the REAL standard by which women judge each other. "The woman I admire most," say American women: Likes her husband and lets others know it.

Is a good mother, whose children are being trained in the ways that will make them happy and responsible and kind human beings.

Is a good friend — the kind who respects a confidence, can be counted on in time of trouble, and isn't jealous of other women or quick to criticize them.

Has the kind of quiet poise which comes from being at peace with herself and those around her.

Gives of her time to her community and to her church, without neglecting her family.

Contributes ideas, instead of gossip when she is in a group. Takes pride in her appearance, without making it a full-time job.

Keeps alive her own individuality and pursues her interests instead of burdening her husband and children with the knowledge that they are her whole life.

Those are the qualities that women referred to over and over as being the ones they most admire. And though not one woman claimed all of these qualities for herself, many said they knew women who had them all. One woman ended her letter with this promise to herself:

"You have done us all a favor. Now that you've made me sit down and see clearly what I admire in others, I'm going to tape my list in my kitchen cabinet and read it every day for inspiration."

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

Whew! Was 109 degrees on my front porch when I returned from the Center Thursday afternoon, but was cool and pleasant at the Center, in Lovett Library, and a good crowd out despite the heat.

Mrs. S. D. Dodd of Clinton, Okla., spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. George Higgins, and Mr. Higgins.

Guest of Mrs. Jonye Spidell last week was her niece, Mrs. Vern Schnell of Dallas.

Mrs. Ollie Staton's son, Alvis White and wife, brought Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis home last week after their visit at Coolidge, Ariz., and other points. Mrs. White is Mr. Davis' daughter. After a short visit here, the Whites returned to their home at Coolidge.

Guests recently of Mrs. Cora Long was her brother-in-law, Collins Hukium and son, Talage Hukium and wife of Friona.

This being the first day Mrs. Iva Ward has been out since her release from the hospital, she and her friends Mmes. Alice Isbell and Mary Puckett celebrated the event by going out for dinner before coming down to the Center.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Frasier, east of town, was their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Frasier and daughters Alice, Elaine and Bonnie.

We missed Mrs. Lena Pearl Hobbs. Was sorry to hear that her husband V. L. Hobbs is confined in the Highland Hospital.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Verda Adair were her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Burgess, Steve and Ronnie of Oklahoma City.

Guests of Mrs. Lona Webster the first of the week were her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Edward Webster, and Tommy. Webster and Tommy have returned to their home at Houston, leaving Mrs. Webster for a longer visit. Also visiting was a granddaughter, Mrs. Patsy Martin of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moseley spent the first of the week in Oklahoma with their son and family and other relatives, and said "Talk about the hot weather here, it was 112 there."

This being the first Thursday in the month, all senior citizens having birthdays this month was given a nice gift by the Altrusa Club, who hosts the party once a month. Those present having birthdays were Mmes. Cora Yates, Stella Wagner, and Messrs. C. L. Adams, J. E. Adair and S. E. Barnard.

Altrusans serving cake, ice cream and coffee were, Mmes. Louise Sewell, Mabel Hukill, Jay Flannigan, Emily Coston, Marie Fitzgerald and Marion Jamison.

Was nice to have Mrs. V. E. Speed with us Thursday. She is one of our retired librarians.

The lovely floral centerpiece for the serving table was furnished by Mrs. Ann Kay, and the delicious and beautifully decorated birthday cake by Mrs. Emily Coston.

A helpful hint: — To remove pencil marks from books, rub the marks with a piece of light bread. The stain will disappear immediately.

See you next week.
Love, Mrs. Wagner.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Unique Way of Doing Two Chores at One Time

By POLLY CRAMER

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. DEAR POLLY — Reading about the lady who cleaned her bureau drawers while talking on the telephone reminded me to tell you of a timesaver of mine. Whenever I write letters, I always bathe my feet so I do two chores a lot of people never seem to have time for at the same time.

—MARY
DEAR POLLY — To remove wax from glass or window panes, rub lightly with fine steel wool. This does a perfect job.

—JAV
GIRLS — This hint from another of our ingenious boy friends certainly did a perfect job in removing candle wax from a glass table top.

—POLLY
DEAR POLLY — I cut off a piece of old sponge small enough to tie over the "hanger" part of my clothespin bag and I slide the bag on the line in front of me when hanging out my clothes. The sponge (which has been dampened) cleans the clothesline and thus saves that extra step of washing it off by hand. I have a small baby and must wash every day so if I save just a few minutes each day the minutes soon add up to hours.

—SANDRA
DEAR POLLY — Nothing is more annoying than a zipper that does not lock and is always coming unzipped. I found that a crocheted loop (made like a belt loop), the same color as the garment, fastened in the hole of the zipper tab can be looped around a button on a skirt or pedal pushers. Button the waistband over it and have no more trouble with the zipper sliding open. This has saved me from having to replace many a zipper.

—MRS. V. A. G.
DEAR POLLY — A baby's fitted crib sheet makes a good cover to slip over the chaise longue while sunning. The sheet protects the cushions from sun lotions, etc., and is much cooler to lie on, particularly when the chair has plastic covered cushions. The fitted corners slip easily over the back of the chair and keep the sheet from constantly sliding.

A long-handled (iced tea) spoon is perfect to use for feeding a baby from junior size baby food jars which are taller than those containing regular baby food. This spoon also holds what is a good size portion for a toddler.

—JOAN
DEAR POLLY — When my stretch headbands become a bit frayed and I no longer want to wear them as headbands, I machine stitch together three or four different colors to make a turban. This is wonderful to wear over my hair after setting it in pin curls or on rollers. The turban stretches very well and makes an inexpensive and colorful curler cover.

VIRGINIA
GIRLS — I suggest that you use a long, loose stitch when joining the bands so the stitches will not break when the turban is put on over the rollers.

—POLLY

DMF Auxiliary Has Regular Meet
Doherty Auxiliary, Cities Service Production and Gasoline Dept., met at 7:30 p.m., Aug. 4 in the club room west of town. Hostesses for the meeting were Mmes. Marvin Silliman, M. D. Milligan, H. L. Teel and Billy V. Keith.

Following the business meeting, birthday gifts were presented to members having August birthdays by the hostesses.

Mrs. Billy Keith won the door prize. Refreshments were served to the 28 members attending. Next meeting for the club is set for 7:30 p.m., Sept. 1, in Lefors Civic Center.

NEW PLANT PLANNED

NEW YORK (UPI)—Gulf Oil Corp. said Friday it will build a multi-million dollar plant at its Cedar Bayou, Tex. Petrochemical complex for the production of alpha olefins used in the manufacture of dissolvable detergents and plastics.

The plant, with an annual capacity over 100 million pounds, should be in production by the latter half of 1965, Gulf said.

Polis

A Cyprus government spokesman said 300 persons were killed in air raids along the coast and on six villages and towns: Polis, Khrysochous, Limni, Pakhyamos, Aylos Theodoros and Pamos.

The Turks announced Sunday that the raids were being called off but would be resumed if the Greeks continued their offensive in the northwest.

The Greek Cypriots charged that the Turkish jets used flaming napalm (jelled gasoline), bombs, rockets and machine guns in an indiscriminate attack.

The Turkish air raids stopped in late afternoon, only 15 minutes before Makarios' deadline for attacks on all 125 Turkish communities on the island if the Turkish strafing did not stop. Makarios later called off the threat after hours of pleading by American and other ambassadors.

At the same time that Makarios was announcing his acceptance of a cease-fire, the Turkish government announced its own acceptance—but on condition that Greek Cypriots withdraw from villages in the Kokkina area captured last week and that U.N. forces return to the battle area to protect Turkish Cypriots.

The crisis was having worldwide repercussions. President Johnson sent urgent appeals to Greek, Turkish and Cypriot leaders urging them to stop the fighting before it degenerated into general war.

The United Nations Security Council had met in urgent session Sunday and voted 9-0 for the cease-fire request, with the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia abstaining.

Cyprus informed the United States it was asking for Soviet military intervention.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev sent a telegram to Makarios early today, repeating his "sympathy" with the Greek Cypriot cause but making no mention of tangible Soviet aid to Makarios' government.

TO PLANT OAKS

One will be a willow oak and the other a Darlington oak. It is a tradition for each president to plant a tree or so on the grounds. The oaks will be planted during the "planting season," the White House said.

Baltimore Takes Series from N.Y.

By United Press International
Baltimore skipper Hank Bauer doesn't want to appear over-confident but consider some of his moves over the past week-end:
—He brought Steve Barber out of the bullpen to successfully pitch the opening game of the crucial series against the Yankees.
—Benched regulars Boog Powell, his leading home run producer, and Norm Siebern in Saturday's contest which the Orioles came from behind to win 6-5 in 10 innings.
—Inserted Earl Robinson into the lineup for the last three games and was rewarded with five hits and flawless fielding.
—Withheld his winningest pitcher, Wally Bunker, from the four-game set but used youngsters Dave Vineyard and Frank Bertina effectively in relief in Sunday's doubleheader which the Orioles split, losing the first 2-1 and taking the nightcap 4-2.

Orioles Win Series
In short, the crucial series which the Yankees 'always' rallied to win formerly went to the Orioles three games to one and left the Birds 1½ games in front of Chicago in the American League race.
Meanwhile, Yogi Berra, Bauer's counterpart, suffered on the home team bench Sunday with some thoughts of his own.
—Whitey Ford is out indefinitely with a calcium deposit on his right hip.
—Mickey Mantle's fragile condition remains a day-to-day affair. The switch-hitting center-fielder was limited to a pinch-hit appearance Sunday due to a pulled groin muscle.
—Unlike years gone by, there is no Joe Page, Luis Arroyo or even Marshall Bridges Berra can summon from the bullpen in the late innings.
Downing Hurts Four-Hitter
The major league's largest crowd of the season, 58,102, saw southpaw Al Downing hurl a four-hit win in the opener while fanning 10. Singles by Bobby Richardson and Elston Howard accounted for the Yankees' runs.
In the nightcap, Powell's 29th homer, a two-run belt in the third, offset Yankee blasts by Roger Maris and Johnny Blanchard and helped Robin Roberts to his 267th career victory and ninth of the season.
Elsewhere in the American League: Washington nipped Los Angeles 6-5; in doubleheader action, Boston beat Chicago 6-3, then lost 4-1; Cleveland blanked Minnesota 7-0 before dropping a 3-1 decision; and Detroit swept two from Kansas City 4-2 and 5-2.

Baseball Men Seek Leader

CHICAGO (UPI)—Baseball's brain trust met today to decide how and when to pick a new commissioner when Ford Frick retires next summer.
Executives of both major leagues also plan to map plans for a player draft similar to that used by the pro football leagues.
National League President Warren Giles said he expected the council meeting to be brief on the matter of determining how to select Frick's successor.
Frick, commissioner since 1951, announced last week that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself when his present term expires on Sept. 21, 1965. Frick will be 70 later this year.
Two meetings were scheduled and both were expected to devote time to discussion and a vote on a proposal for a draft of free agents like the draft of college players by professional football clubs.

Surgery Successful
SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—Knee surgery on football star Linus Baer was satisfactory Saturday, but he was left wearing a cast from his left ankle to his knee.
Physicians said they were able to perform the operation without going into vital areas, working around the knee joint.

Mackie Still Leads
AMARILLO—Dwight Mackie retained his lead in the eight-game handicap sweepstakes division of the Hawley Classic bowling tournament with a total of 1,821 yesterday.

Panhandle Sets Practice Dates

The Panhandle Panthers open fall football drills Aug. 17, according to Superintendent of Schools Freeman Melton.
Panhandle is at the top of the Class A enrollment classification and is expected to go into Class AA after this season.
Changes in the classification of various schools in the area have placed the Panthers in District 1-A with Stratford, Claude, Sunray and Gruver. Claude is new to the district. Sanford-Fritch moved up to Class AA but is still on the Panther schedule.
The schedule calls for five games at home and five on the road, with the initial contest at Fritch Sept. 4. The Panthers open district play in Claude Oct. 16.

Old, New Pros Win For Houston Oilers

By United Press International
Something old and something new should prove to be a winning parlay for the Houston Oilers this season if Sunday's exhibition tilt with the Boston Patriots is any indication.
The Oilers gratified their home town fans with a 38-7 demolition of the Patriots and the explanation in a two word nutshell was George Blanda.
The 14-year pro veteran uncorked three touchdown passes, a 25-yard field goal, and five points after touchdowns to average the two 1963 regular season defeats suffered by the Oilers at the hands of the Patriots.

The something new was the result of some tall off-season drafting by Houston owner Bud Adams in the person of Don Trull, the nation's top college passer at Baylor last year, and the addition of Coach Sammy Baugh.
Throws First TD Pass
Trull connected for his first pro TD pass in the third period with a 15-yard bulis-eye to Charlie Hennigan.
It looked like another Boston success story in the opening minutes of the game when Patriot signal caller Tom Yewcic found end Jimmy Colclough open with a 44-yard pass that sent Boston ahead 7-0.

But from there on in the first half it was Blanda's party as he kicked a 25-yard field goal, threw a spectacular 71-yard touchdown pass to Hennigan and another of 15 yards to end Bobby Janick.
The youngsters took over in the second half. Trull connected and then understudy Jack Lee tossed an 11-yard touchdown pass to Charlie Frazier, with Blanda kicking both points after. Big George wound up the day with a five-yard pass to Janick.

Chiefs Beat Raiders
The Kansas City Chiefs used the old one-two punch with fine results in their game with the Oakland Raiders as they chalked up a 21-14 win at Oakland.

Capitalizing on two first half interceptions, the Chiefs racked up 10 points when rookie booter Herb Travenio kicked a 37-yard field goal and fullback Jack Spikes bucked over for a one-yard score. Travenio also put one through the uprights from the 25-yard line and the Chiefs went into the second half leading 13-7.

Kansas City quarterback Eddie Wilson added an 11-yard touchdown pass to end Solomon Brennan in the third quarter.

Phillies Retain National Lead

By United Press International
The luck of the Irish—in this case general manager John Quinn — is helping keep the Philadelphia Phillies on top of the National League.
Virtually every move Quinn has made this year to strengthen the Phillies has turned out A-okay—such as the acquisition through trades of Jim Bunning and Frank Thomas, plus the recent recall of Alex Johnson.
All three men figured prominently in the Phillies' 6-0 victory over the New York Mets Sunday as Gene Mauch's men retained their 2½-game lead over the San Francisco Giants.

Rams Rip Cowboys

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Coach Harland Svare, whose Los Angeles Rams have tended to look more like sheep in recent years, basked in the praise of a season-opening exhibition victory today and worked on strengthening the ground attack of his revived herd.
Svare's comment after the Rams beat the Dallas Cowboys 17-6 Saturday in Memorial Coliseum was "we didn't move the ball on the ground the way we wanted to, but it's coming."
Dallas coach Tom Landry, whose team meets Los Angeles again Aug. 22 in Portland, Ore., was more positive in his praise.
"The Rams are hitting much harder than they did last year," he said. "The whole club looks much tougher this season."
The sole injury in Saturday's pre-season encounter before a crowd of 57,450 was Ram defensive end John Mims, who suffered a sprained knee.

A particular boost to Ram hopes was the cool signal-calling by quarterback Roman Gabriel, starting his third pro year. Gabriel maneuvered the Rams to touchdowns in the first and second quarters to recover a deficit and go ahead to stay.
Gabriel's 159 yards in the air on 16 of 26 passes was one short of the 160 yards piled up by Cowboy Don Meredith. But Meredith hit on only 12 of 29 tries, meanwhile losing a total of 59 yards.

The Cowboys made their sole score in the first quarter with a 70-yard march highlighted by a 38-yard pass from Meredith to Tommy McDonald, recently acquired from the Philadelphia Eagles. But it was nullified late in the quarter when Ram fullback Art Perkins plunged one yard to the goal to end a 77-yard drive.
The Rams went ahead to stay in the second quarter when Dick Bass burst through center for a 17-yard touchdown run. Rookie free agent Bruce Gossett from Richmond University closed the scoring.

Giants Keep Pace
The Giants kept pace with Philadelphia by downing the Cincinnati Reds 7-5, the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Houston Colts 8-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0, and the Milwaukee Braves turned back the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-2.

The Cubs scored four runs off John Tsitouris (7-9) before two were out in the first inning.

Hickey Defeats Hatcher for Title

FRIONA — Max Hickey repeated as champion of the Friona County Club Tournament yesterday with a lengthy medal victory over fellow Pampian Johnny Hatcher.
The two were tied after 36 holes with 147's and then parred six holes of a sudden death playoff. Hickey parred the seventh hole of the overtime round but Hatcher bogeyed it with a four.
Hickey sank a three-foot putt on the deciding hole after chipping onto the green with his second shot. Hatcher also missed the green with his first shot and then missed a six-foot putt.
Match play rounds Friday and Saturday put the two Pampians, Russell Bryant of Muleshoe and Jeff Skarda of Clovis into yesterday's final round. The other two tied for third with scores of 156.

Austin Captures Babe Ruth Title

LEVELLAND, Tex. (UPI)—Austin blanked San Antonio Sunday night 14-0, winning the state Babe Ruth Baseball tournament and the right to enter the southwest regional playoffs in Arkansas.
The Austin youngsters scored eight runs in the fourth inning and five in the fifth. Rod Davis blasted a grand slam homer in the fifth.
The state playoffs started in Levelland last Monday with teams representing 12 districts in Texas. Saturday, Levelland and Dumas were eliminated.
The regional playoffs at Paragould, Ark., start next Monday and the national playoffs will be held the week after in Woodland, Calif. Babe Ruth Baseball is for boys 13 to 15 years old.

with the help of successive homers by Willie Mays and Willie McCovey. Mays wound up with four hits and three RBI while McCovey had three hits and two RBI. Billy O'Dell (4-5) was nipped for only one run—a solo homer by Frank Robinson—in 5 1-3 innings of excellent relief.

Chi Chi Rodriguez Makes 'Long' Putt for Open Win

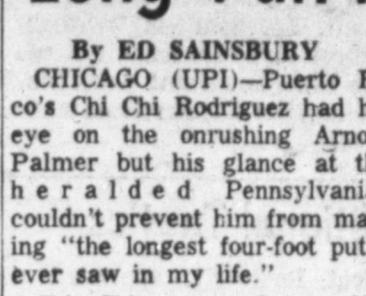

By ED SAINSBURY
CHICAGO (UPI)—Puerto Rico's Chi Chi Rodriguez had his eye on the onrushing Arnold Palmer but his glance at the heralded Pennsylvanian couldn't prevent him from making "the longest four-foot putt I ever saw in my life."
Chi Chi, a carefree golfer

But Chi Chi made it the hard way. Palmer, second in money winnings, made his usual closing rush. But he and all of "Arnie's Army" couldn't catch Chi Chi and his bandidos.
Rodriguez, trailing Palmer by one stroke with nine holes to go, birdied four of the last eight.
"I was watching Palmer on the scoreboard every hole," Rodriguez said. "I wasn't wishing him bad luck either. But I was thinking the worst I could do was to finish second, which is not too bad."
Chi Chi, playing two holes in front of Palmer, nearly lost his big chance on the final green when his nine iron approach was trapped.
"I thought I was going to hole out from the trap," he said. But instead, his shot rolled four feet beyond the pin. Then, he dropped his payoff putt.
Palmer, a stroke behind, had a chance on the 70th hole. But he missed a seven-foot putt, and he lost out on the 71st. His approach was over the green and he chipped past the pin, missing the putt to take a bogey and give Rodriguez a two-stroke lead.
Palmer could have tied by holing out his pitch shot on the last green, which would have duplicated a 104-yard wedge for an eagle by Lew Worsham 31 years ago to the day to win the 1933 "World Tournament."

Chi Chi Rodriguez
who puts his hat over the cup to keep the ball from coming back out, sank the putt for the biggest pay day of his life, ($11,000) for victory with a record score in the 61st Western Open golf tournament.
He was 268 for 72 holes, 16 shots under par and one better than the mark of 269 on the par 71, 6,686-yard T.A.M. O'Shanter layout by Byron Nelson in 1945. Rodriguez' total also improved the best previous mark on the PGA tour this year by two strokes and it equaled the Western Open record set by Sam Snead in 1949.

Palmer, a stroke behind, had a chance on the 70th hole. But he missed a seven-foot putt, and he lost out on the 71st. His approach was over the green and he chipped past the pin, missing the putt to take a bogey and give Rodriguez a two-stroke lead.

Amarillo Team Out of Tourney
LUBBOCK — Arlington beat Amarillo's Graham Plowboys 8-2 yesterday to eliminate the Panhandle team from the state semi-pro tournament.
Borger, which replaced Pampa as a tournament entry when the Colts elected not to go, played Merkel in a late game last night after a 9-3 first-round victory over Reese Air Force Base of Lubbock.
Jerry Glover, the Colts' ace hurler, saw action on the mound for Amarillo in the seventh inning of yesterday's game, an inning in which Arlington scored two runs. The game was already lost by that time, however.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Politicos Pursue Traditional Tactics

In customary election-year fashion, Congress appears ready to expand that old phony, Social Security benefits. But it is still reluctant to endorse any major innovations in the system, such as financing medical care for the elderly through higher Social Security taxes. The Social Security system, which will be 30 years old next year, has been amended in every election year since 1946, and in one-off years, 1961, 1962, and 1963. Benefits have been raised, coverage expanded to take in more people, retirement ages lowered and disability benefits brought under the program. However, benefits under the old-age insurance, or retirement plan, of Social Security have not been boosted since 1958, and Congressmen, with an eye on November, are talking about the need for such a raise. Social Security legislation must originate in the House Ways and Means Committee, whose chairman, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark.), has always opposed Social Security financing for hospital insurance. In view of Mills' position, backers of Medicare have been talking about a possible "double-decker" compromise plan. The plan calls for a first "deck" providing a 5 per cent increase in Social Security cash retirement benefits to those 65 and over. The second deck of benefits would be offered in optional form. The recipient could either take an extra bonus of $4 or $5 in cash benefits or the bonus in the form of federally financed hospital care. Committee sources say there are not now enough votes on the 25-member committee to assure approval of the optional hospital plan, but the straight raise in benefits is likely. The Social Security Act of 1935 set up five major programs: Old-Age Insurance, Old-Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Dependent Children and Unemployment Compensation. The Committee on Economic Security which President Roosevelt appointed in 1934 to draft the recommendations for the program also proposed eventual creation of a national health insurance system, but the President did not include this recommendation in his message to Congress. Two approaches were used for financing the programs: "insurance," which was supposed to be self-financing through a payroll tax; and assistance, which was financed through annual appropriations from general revenue. In the first system, the person participating paid his own share during his working years and in the second, the recipient of the benefits received what was essentially charity. Old-age insurance was based on a federal payroll tax imposed originally on most industrial and white collar employees and their employers and later broadened to include most of the labor force. The tax began at 1 per cent each for employers and employees on the first $3,000 of workers. The tax rose to 3 per cent by 1949, and is now 3 1/2 per cent of the first $4,800 of the employee's annual earnings. Under existing law it will go up to 4 1/2 per cent in 1966 and 4 3/4 per cent in 1968. A raise in benefits this year would almost certainly involve another rise in the percent taken from a worker's salary and imposed on his employers (probably 5 per cent by 1970), based on the first $6,600 of an employ's earnings. A retired individual over 65 now receives between $40 and $127 per month, depending on his earnings during his working years. Even conservative Republicans are quick to approve increased benefits every election year. Social Security is an involuntary tax, not an insurance plan. It is actuarially unsound, of course, and its real benefits shrink when the paid-in dollar is compared with the paid-out dollar.

Not FTC Dish of Tea

Entrance of the Federal Trade Commission into the government's effort to frighten cigarette smokers into swearing off - while continuing its subsidies to tobacco growers - reminds us that the Advisory Committee to the Surgeon General, in its damning Report on Smoking and Health failed to pass judgment on cigarettes equipped with filters. While, as Surgeon General Terry has pointed out in replying to queries by Kentucky's Senator John Sherman Cooper, the Committee did mention that tars and nicotine, "it ducked move a variable portion of the tars and nicotine," it ducked any finding on the subject because of insufficient evidence. Thus, we would expect the Federal Trade Commission, as a quasi-judicial body, to hesitate in its headlong urge to brand all packages of all cigarettes with the warning that they are hazardous to health and may cause death. Irrespective of FTC's authority to take

National Outlook

By GEORGE HAGEDORN

The three-and-a-half year old business expansion continues with no discernible loss of momentum. But a significant change in its character is occurring. A consumer-durables boom has changed into a capital-goods boom—but not, as yet, into an inventory boom. In its early stages the rise was sparked chiefly by increased consumer spending for durables (automobiles and household appliances) and for housing. Currently, however, the leading factor is the rise in business expenditures for plant and equipment.

Follow the Leader?

Of course, both consumer spending—including non-durables and services as well as durables—and business spending have been rising throughout. Generally speaking, in any movement in business conditions consumer spending and business spending move in the same direction. But we can usually see certain particular sectors of the economy leading the procession, while other sectors move in the same way but at a slower pace. We then conclude, at least in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the fastest moving parts of the economy are creating the conditions in which the other economic sectors are participating.

In the first stage of the business rise which began in 1961 consumer spending led the rise, while capital spending increased less rapidly. Between 1961 and 1962 the gross national product increased by 7.2 percent. Expenditures for consumer durables rose by 10.8 percent and residential construction increased by 11.8 percent. But expenditures by business for plant and equipment rose by only 8.6 percent. The story during the past 12 months has been somewhat different. In the second quarter of 1964 consumer spending for durable goods and for housing was 8.2 percent higher than in the same period a year ago. This was approximately in line with — no longer much ahead of — the 7.1 percent rise in gross national product.

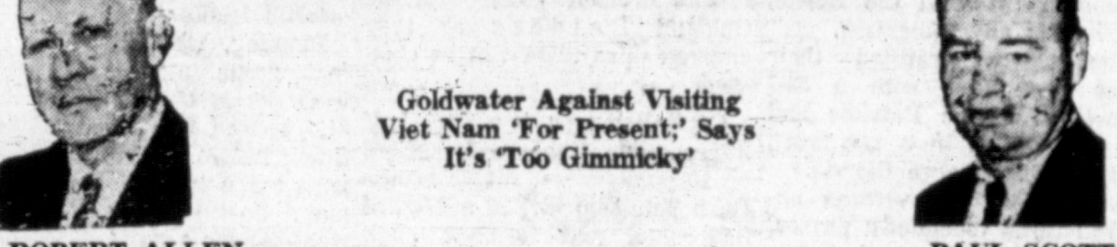

The real leader during this latter period has been capital spending. Outlays for new plant and equipment have increased by 13.9 percent. This is almost twice as fast as the growth in the economy generally. Thus our economic expansion gradually assumes the character of a capital goods boom. This was to be expected as production levels began to encroach on available capacity. Inventory Trend During a prolonged expansion economists usually watch for the point at which it turns into an inventory boom. This is the phase when an increasing proportion of current production goes into stockpiles rather than out to final purchasers. Our current rise, however, gives no indication that it is even approaching that point. In fact, during the first half of 1964 the rate of inventory accumulation was lower than at any time since 1961.

There is no reason to suppose that capital spending is about to reach unsustainable levels or that this new stage in the business rise is necessarily a step toward its termination. In fact, an expansion in productive capacity is essential to provide the base for further growth. Wit and Whimsy AVERAGE MAN The average man, as his neighbors see him: If he is poor, he is a bad manager. If he is prosperous, everyone wants to do him a favor. If he is in politics, it's for pork. If he is not in politics, one can't place him, and he is no good for his country. If he gives not to charity, then he's a stingy dog. If he does give, it's for show. If he is active in religion, he's a hypocrite. If he evinces no interest in matters spiritual, he's a hardened sinner. If he shows affection, he's a soft sentimentalist. If he seems to care for no one, he's cold-blooded. If he dies young, there was a great future ahead of him. If he attains old age, he has missed his calling. What we really need is a new child labor law to keep the kids from working their parents to death.

Goldwater Against Visiting Viet Nam 'For Present,' Says It's 'Too Gimmicky'

WASHINGTON — Top Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress still are just as much in the dark as the public as to what was behind those provocative North Vietnamese attacks that caused the U. S. to blast their torpedo boat bases. The congressional chiefs got no answer to this mystery at their meeting with the President when he told them of his decision to resort to armed retaliation. The President and all of his attending State Department and Pentagon authorities frankly admitted they were baffled by the Reds' surprise PT boat attacks in the Gulf of Tonkin, Ill., and Assistant Democratic Leader Hubert Humphrey, Minn., who directed the administration's successful fight to put the new civil rights law through the upper chamber. They heartily endorsed the President's determination to immediately retaliate with armed force. "It's fatal to trifle with aggression," said Humphrey. "Failure to strike back hard and fast is certain to lead to more aggression. We cannot afford for one moment to let the Communists get away with these attacks. They must be dealt with immediately and in kind." "Those are exactly my sentiments," declared Dirksen. "That is the only sound and effective course you can pursue, Mr. President, and I'll back it to the hilt."

Throughout the conference, the President was serious but gave no sign of being uneasy. He told the congressional leaders that the air attacks against the Red PT boat bases were timed for 8:00 p.m. EDT, but extremely bad weather might cause delay. "That's what happened—Which explains why the President did not make his nationwide radio-TV broadcast until close to midnight. He did not want to start until the air strikes actually were underway. When he got that word, he immediately went to the microphones. BATTLE FLASHES — Those attacking North Viet Nam PT boats were Soviet - made. They are of the so-called Komar class, have a speed of some 40

Barry Makes Odd Imprint On GOP

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Goldwater imprint upon the Republican party at the national level already has produced some curious configurations. Sen. Barry Goldwater's presidential candidacy got a tremendous lift from the South, but his managers have abolished the Republican National Committee's southern division and assigned its head, I. Lee Potter of Virginia, to campaign scheduling work. One committee staff man now on the way out comments ruefully: "The whole committee has become the southern division."

Obviously, John Grenier of Alabama, new executive director of the committee, is being depended upon for knowledgeable judgments about Barry's southern prospects. Odd it is that Potter should come off no better than this, since he was always considered a pro-Goldwater man on a national committee staff which had fewer of them than was often rumored. Another alleged pre-San Francisco Goldwater supporter was William Warner, former executive director of the committee. But he has gained reward not from the senator, but from the GOP vice presidential nominee, Rep. William Miller of New York, the former national chairman. Warner will manage Miller's campaign. It is no surprise, of course, that a triumphant Goldwater should be installing his own people in top committee echelons. This is the law of political life. Yet, some of his major choices are not only new to national political management but reputed to be less than totally enchanted with the grubby business of negotiating steadily with politicians across the country.

Because of this, reports persist that Robert Carter, the Colorado airline official, who served the GOP convention as sergeant-at-arms, may hook on to Goldwater's traveling campaign staff as key political liaison man. Carter has worked with Leonard Hall, everybody's prototype of the party professional. Carter is, however, being considered also for another assignment as an assistant to Clifford Folger, Republican money man, who has agreed to stage a series of big fund-raising dinners this fall. There is some evidence that Goldwater's intimates, having chosen Dean Burch as national chairman, are a secondary role upon F. Clifton White, pre-nomination co-director of Goldwater's field operations. White is rated one of the most seasoned political figures in the senator's camp. That seasoning could have been most useful in the top national committee strata. If such an offer were actually made, it may not have appealed to White, who earlier had marked in for the national chairmanship. He is now being tapped to run Goldwater's extra-curricular campaign effort designed to lure doctors, lawyers, independents and others who may not wish to identify too closely with the GOP as such. The committee will, of course, have the professional assistance of Hall and Ray Bliss, Ohio national committeeman. Still, Bliss will be heavily preoccupied with Ohio problems. And there have always been some skeptics who have questioned the weight of Hall's contributions to past campaigns. Goldwater's managers, tinged then with some amateurism, may in the months ahead find themselves looking often to an unheralded professional they have drawn into their circle — the veteran Albert B. Hermann, a politician's politician working at Dean Burch's side.

What's In a Name Is Confusion Compounded We have received another of those letters which always chill our spine. This one is from a salesman in El Paso, Tex., and like the rest, he wants to know how to pronounce our name. It would seem to be a simple enough question to answer. The name is spelled Cannel. It obeys all the rules of grammar. It is pronounced exactly the way it looks. But he will not believe it. We have had a lifetime of this question and we know he will not believe it. Or if he believes it, he will not be able to do it for himself. Or if he can do it, he will be plagued forever with the suspicion that it can be done better.

We have seen this happen time and again, and with men of great ability, too — college professors, elected officials and other people especially adept at reading who will look directly at a list, a note or a calling card which bears the name Cannel and then say cordially: "Ah yes, Mr. Cullen. . . . But as this pronunciation does not conform to the spelling, they almost always add, "Do I have that name right?" And if you take this question at face value and offer a correction, they will try another, such as Camel, Camwell, Carroll, Connell, Randal or McCalley, but they will not like you for it. Once in a while somebody makes a mistake and mispronounces the name correctly, adding quickly, "Do I have that name right?" But you do not dare say "yes" as he has already determined it is wrong and is so embarrassed that he will repronounce it Candel, Cordell, Carnal, Carson, Collar or Lamin as soon as he can. Well, it is a pretty sad thing when one man's name is another man's shortcoming. A person can live through a thousand trials and never know the anguish of being a gnawing doubt in the next fellow's mind and everybody's constant reproach on the tip of his tongue. And there is absolutely no way to set his mind at ease, except by violating good taste with business cards engraved: WARD CANNEL? Why this problem exists at all we cannot say, although we have devoted many years to the study of it. If we did not know better, we would think the name quite easy to use, being only two syllables (Can-nel) and consequently running only a 50-50 risk of mispronunciation. But there seems to be something about either the opening "C" or final "l" that slaps a speaker's confidence. We have tried to relieve the condition by moving the final "l" inboard one stop in the manner of other similar words in the language. But people who can readily say bottle, candle, paddle and fiddle will look at Cannel and say, "Ah yes, Mr. Cannel. . . . Do I have that name right?" The only other alternative we have found is poetry, wherein you give your name and tell immediately what it rhymes with. This is all right for cocktail parties but sounds a little silly at embassy receptions. In addition, it is rather confusing as we get a lot of Christmas cards addressed to Ward Flannel.

matter of fact Hyenas are principally scavengers and in many of the regions they inhabit in Africa and Asia they depend largely upon the remains of carcasses left by lions. Although they are quite generally cowardly, they will attack helpless animals and may become quite daring when hungry.

Business Over State Goes High for June

AUSTIN (UPI) — Business in Texas reached its second highest level in history in June, the University of Texas Business Research Bureau reported Saturday.

The bureau's seasonally adjusted index of business activity was 16 per cent higher than in June 1963.

"It is apparent that the state of business in Texas is very healthy," the bureau said. "There is good reason to believe that it will remain prosperous during the second half of the year."

The bureau said the current business upswing, the longest since the Korean war, shows no signs of weakening.

The only indexes to drop from June 1963 to June 1964 were miscellaneous freight car loadings and average weekly hours worked in manufacturing industries. In both cases the decline was small.

The biggest 1963-64 increases were in life insurance sales, 22 per cent, bank deposits, 16 per cent; industrial electric power consumption and urban building permits, 11 and total power consumption, 7 per cent.

Retail sales gained 5 per cent and crude petroleum production was up 6 per cent. Industrial production was up 6 per cent.

Every metropolitan area shared in the business boom.

The leader was Amarillo with a 28 per cent increase in business activity from June 1963 to June 1964. Other front-runners were San Angelo, 25 per cent; Abilene 24 per cent and Houston

Columnists Say Bob Kennedy Will Run for Senate

By ROBERT S. ALLEN And PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Attorney General Robert Kennedy has definitely made up his mind to run for the Senate in New York.

This will be formally announced within a week.

The 38-year-old head of the Justice Department made this decision after President Johnson publicly eliminated him as a possible running mate.

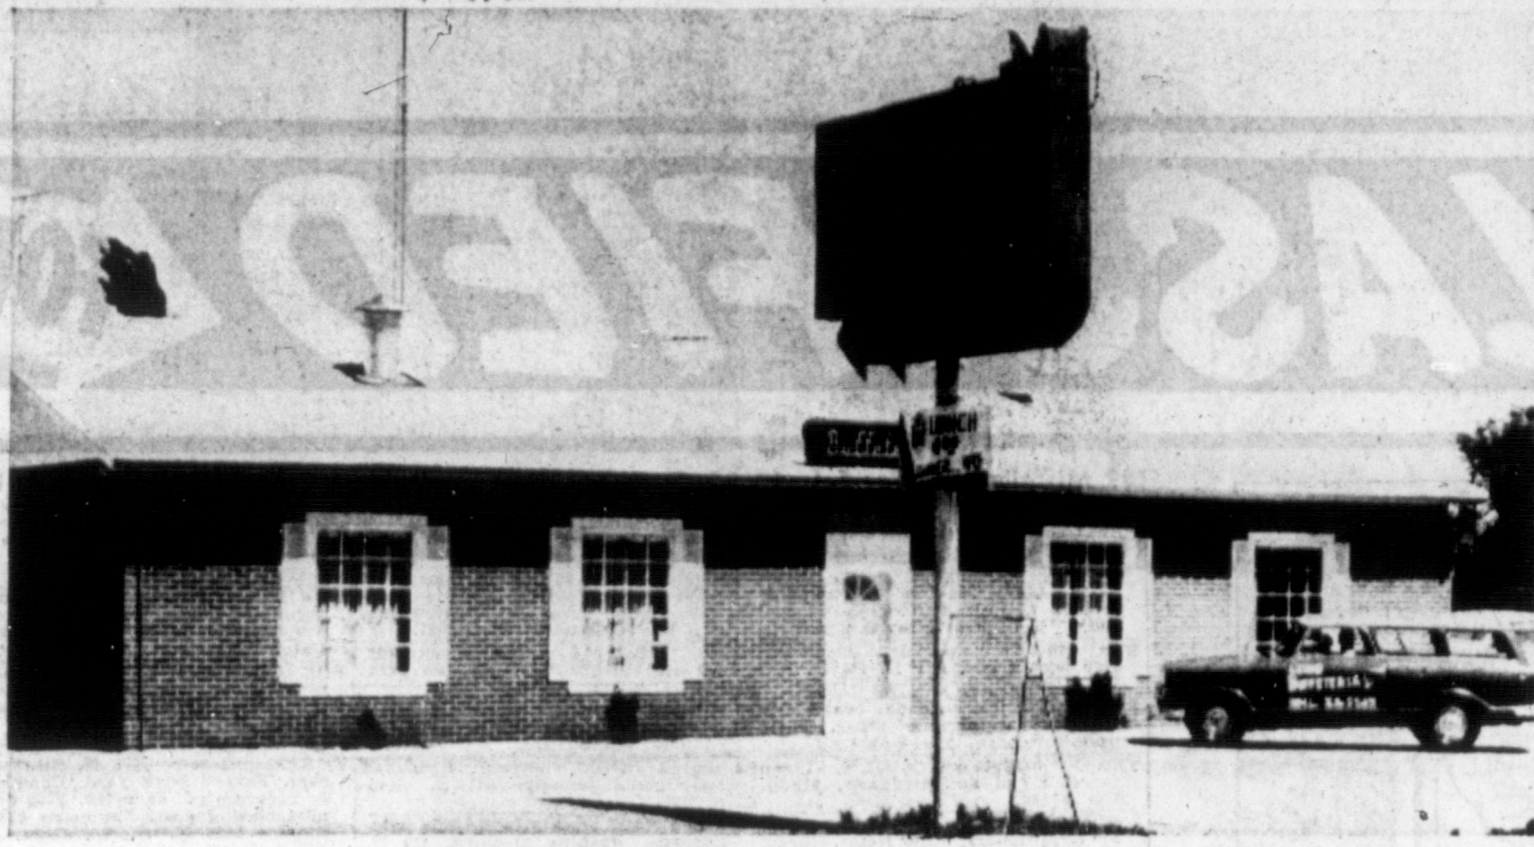

The President has been informed of Kennedy's intention to run for the Senate and heartily approved it. The matter was discussed by him and Mayor Robert Wagner during the latter's White House visit last weekend.

It is authoritatively understood Kennedy has personally talked to Wagner, and he indicated his endorsement.

Similar discussions have taken place with other influential New York Democratic labor, civil rights and business leaders. With a few exceptions, they urged Kennedy to seek the seat held by Republican Senator Kenneth Keating.

Kennedy has been blowing hot and cold on this for some months. But the extraordinary success of his one-time press assistant, Pierre Salinger, in winning the California Democratic senatorial nomination, followed by being appointed to the seat of the late Senator Clair Engle, and the President's slamming the door on the vice presidency, persuaded Kennedy to try for a Senate career himself — even though he has never been a New York resident.

WASHINGTON — Stock reform legislation cleared the Senate and the measure is expected to be signed into law promptly. The bill, the first major securities legislation in 24 years, is aimed at giving the investor reliable information about some 20,000 stocks that are sold in the over-the-counter market.

HOME COOKING — Lewis Buffeteria at 2014 N. Hobart, specializing in home cooked meals, fast service and reasonable prices, offers the family a chance to eat out at low family rates.

Eating Out at Buffeteria Is Real Treat

Taking the family out for lunch or dinner is always a treat. It gives the family a chance to get out and gives mother a break from cooking and cleaning up, plus saving her several hours of hot work.

But the best thing about eating out at Lewis' Buffeteria is the excellent home cooked food and low prices. It's not nearly as costly as you would imagine. The entire family can eat out at a cost almost as low as it would cost them for the same food prepared at home.

The food is always prepared in the same manner as home cooking. It is wholesome, and delicious and folks have a choice of several wonderfully prepared meals. Everybody is sure to find exactly what they like, because the choice is large and varied.

Full meals at Lewis Buffeteria are only $1.25 for evenings and Sundays, plus drink and dessert. Weekday noon meals are only $1. Tuesday is family day and meals are only $1 all day. Children under eight only 65 cents, and there is no charge for children under two.

You are in for another real treat when you order buckets or half-buckets of delicious fried chicken to go out. The cost of full-buckets of chicken, enough for an average family is only $3.50. Half-buckets are only $1.75. This includes rolls and salad.

Lewis Buffeteria is open daily from 11 to 2 and 5 until 8 evenings. Sunday they are open 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

They are conveniently located at 2014 N. Hobart. Next time you plan to eat out try them. You'll like the atmosphere, the courteous service, the fine food and the reasonable prices.

Even Lovely Cleo Had Cockroaches

Glamorous Cleopatra lived in a palace on the Nile, entertained Mark Antony on river barges, but poor Cleo had cockroaches in her kitchen. What's more... Cleopatra was troubled with cockroaches her whole life long, because she couldn't buy Johnston's No-Roach.

All the wealth of the Egyptian empire couldn't keep roaches out of the Ptolemy kitchens. Modern housewives enjoy the blessings of chemical research, and all housewives agree that the most effective, cleanest, and surest way of controlling cockroaches and ants is with Johnston's No-Roach.

No-Roach is:

- 1) Effective against all crawling insects, including ants, spiders, palmetto bugs, and silverfish.
- 2) Clean and easy to use.
- 3) Harmless to pets.

4) One application stays effective for months. No need to move dishes or food when you use No-Roach. Just brush the colorless, odorless coating where you want it. Dries quickly to form an invisible film that stays effective for months.

Brush No-Roach in cabinets, on baseboards, door sills, garbage pails, window sills, wherever you see roaches and ants. Use No-Roach and forget about bugs for the season. Get No-Roach at Wards, I d e a l's, Furr's, and all grocery stores. Distributed by Panhandle, Kimbell.

Wildcatters Hit 20 Discoveries

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas wildcatters had five oil and 15 gas discoveries last week, the state railroad commission reported Saturday.

The activity gave wildcatters 220 oil and 511 gas finds so far this year compared with 206 oil and 383 gas wells in the same period last year.

Regular drillers completed 113 oil and 37 gas wells last week, giving them 5,230 oil and 1,708 gas wells this year compared with 5,412 oil and 1,533 gas completions to this date last year.

Oil discoveries were three in the Corpus Christi district and one each in the Houston and San Angelo districts.

Gas finds were 10 in the Corpus Christi district, two in the San Antonio district and one each in the Houston, Kilgore and Midland districts.

Easy Way to Kill Roaches and Ants

Control roaches and ants the modern way — brush on Johnston's No-Roach. This colorless coating is effective for months, easy to use. Harmless to pets. Available at: Wards, I d e a l's, Furr's, and all grocery stores. Dist. by Panhandle Kimbell. Adv.

Freed Defendent Needs Defense

HERTFORD, England (UPI) — Sharon Timms, 18, was fined 10 pounds ($28) for hitting Joseph Lee on the head with a policeman's nightstick after he had been acquitted of raping her.

Miss Timms admitted she waited outside the courtroom for Lee after his acquittal and knocked him out with the nightstick because he was "looking pleased with himself."

"I am not sorry I did it," she said. "The law was not fair so I took it into my own hands."

TO BUILD PLANT
NEW YORK (UPI) — Air Reduction Co. said it will build a "multi-million dollar" oxygen-nitrogen plant in Buffalo, N.Y. to serve Republic Steel and other customers. Completion is scheduled for the third quarter of 1965.

How? Through my State Farm Mutual agent. He helped me get financing through a local cooperating bank. And that low cost bank financing really saves you money! Then I insured the car with State Farm too, and enjoyed the extra value of their insurance. Guess a lot of car owners save like this through State Farm. Say... why don't you call your State Farm agent?
