V.P. Spot Seems Settled

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., in effect, withdrew from the Democratic vice-presidential race today and urged President Johnson to pick Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, his Minnesota colleague.

This appeared to all but seal up the second spot on the ticket for Humphrey, who already has been considered far out front in the only real guessing game of the national convention.

McCarthy was considered the primary obstacle in Humphrey's all but open bid for the No. 2 spot on the ticket.

Appears To Be Clinch

McCarthy appeared to clinch the selection for the former Minneapolis druggist.

He wired the President that the qualifications Johnson had listed for his running mate "would be met most admirably by Sen. Humphrey," McCarthy added.

"I wish, therefore, to recommend for your primary consideration Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey."

Announcement of the telegram to the White House came only a little over 12 hours before Johnson was due to get the convention's probable unanimous nomination for a full term.

Johnson had not—at least up to mid-morning—allowed his closely guarded secret to leak to this oceanside convention site. But McCarthy's announcement appeared to remove most of what remained of the suspense.

"Welcome, Vice President..."

Although no one in an official capacity would take responsibility for it, signs already were being prepared in Convention Hall basement proclaiming "Welcome, Vice President Humphrey."

And a Democratic National Committee aide, perhaps significantly, referred to Humphrey's headquarters a query by a reporter for details of a "vice president's party" scheduled late tonight.

As late as Tuesday night, McCarthy appeared to think he still had a chance to get the coveted nod from Johnson but today, in the wake of Humphrey's generally successful work as a mediator in the convention credentials dispute — they sent his declining wire to Johnson.

SCHOOL DAYS — Pampa students returned to the classrooms this morning for enrollment and short class periods. Their first full school day will be Thursday with normal school hours being observed. Participating in school activities during the first day were students campaigning for PTA membership with signs in front of Lamar Elementary school. The students from front to back are Diane Nicholl, Tanga Poronto, Karla Walters and Terri Daniels.

Auto Union to Set Target for Strike Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — The United Auto Workers union meets tonight to select the strike target for the 1964 auto negotiations.

The federal government's chief labor troubleshooter, William Simpkin, was scheduled to arrive from Washington and observe the talks and offer the services of his office to avert a threatened strike.

Simpkin, head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, made a similar appearance in the negotiations in 1961.

The selection of the strike target has been described by union President Walter P. Reuther as the key strategic decision of the negotiations. During 1961 auto talks, the union selected General Motors as the target.

The union was scheduled to pick its target last week at a Chicago meeting of the international executive board. But Reuther announced the board had decided to postpone its decision pending results of strike votes taken early this week at key GM locals.

Schools Plan First Classes For Tomorrow

Students of Pampa's school system will report for the first full day of classes tomorrow after enrollment procedure today.

Both students and faculty members had a busy time today as the major portion of Pampa's school-age youngsters reported to their respective schools for first-day registration and orientation.

School today was dismissed at 11 a.m., but full classes are scheduled tomorrow. Buses will run on regular schedule to get pupils to class at 8:45 a.m. and will be on hand when school is dismissed at 3:45.

Cafeterias in all schools will be in full operation tomorrow. Complete figures on registration will be available later in the week, according to Superintendent of Schools Jack Edmondson.

Viet Mob Breaks Into Hospital, 4 Patients Killed

Outburst Hits as Government Without Firm Leadership

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A mob broke into a hospital operated by an American doctor at Da Nang today and beat four patients to death in rioting that erupted in the wake of the resignation of President Nguyen Khanh.

The outburst of violence came at a time when the government was without firm leadership. A deadlock in the 62-man ruling military council balked at attempts for the second day to name a successor to Khanh.

Khanh, who quit Tuesday, was grim faced as he left the council chamber at the end of today's meeting.

"The situation is very serious," he said. Other council members said another attempt would be made Thursday to choose an interim chief of state.

Riots In Streets — Meanwhile, there was renewed violence in several cities, with mobs rioting in the streets of the coastal city of Da Nang, 375 miles north of Saigon. Buddhist rioters burned down the Da Nang suburban hamlet of Bo Thanh, occupied by Roman Catholic refugees who fled from the Communist north 10 years ago. The American doctor, whose name was not immediately available, was not injured. He is employed by the U.S. operations mission in Viet Nam. The doctor said he had heard that a Roman Catholic priest also had been beaten to death today by another of the gangs roaming the streets of Da Nang. Religious War Victims — The victims in the hospital were among a dozen under treatment there for beatings received during rioting in a "holy war" between Buddhists and Catholics. No Americans have been injured in the riots, but those temporarily billeted in Da Nang's Grand Hotel have been without food since the hotel's supplies ran out. UPI photographer Henri Huet, the only newsmen to enter Bo Thanh, reported that thousands of Buddhist rioters were wreaking havoc on the village.

Party Seeks to Halt Fuss

By RAYMOND LAHR
ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Democrats sought to suppress further public squabbling over Southern convention seats today and give Lyndon B. Johnson an unprecedented nomination by acclamation for the presidency.

Delegates to the 34th Democratic National Convention were set to do this tonight and also to ratify Johnson's choice for a vice presidential running mate in the campaign against the GOP's Barry M. Goldwater and William E. Miller.

The President still had not identified his choice for the No. 2 post, but a new development today made it practically certain it's to be Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

The man considered most likely to get the vice presidential nod, if Humphrey didn't, bowed out and in a telegram to Johnson urging selection of the Senate Democratic whip.

The telegram was sent by Humphrey's fellow Minnesota senator, Eugene J. McCarthy. He told the President that by Johnson's own standards Humphrey was the right man for the role.

Awakens To News — Humphrey himself was reported asleep in his hotel room when McCarthy made his gesture of renunciation. An aide said the senator was awakened to hear the report of the news. A member of Humphrey's staff said he did not believe McCarthy had told Humphrey in advance of his intentions.

In Washington, Johnson's press secretary, George E. Reedy, had "nothing to say" about McCarthy's telegram. But few delegates had any doubt that the choice would be Humphrey, the 53-year-old former small town druggist who became mayor of Minneapolis and went on to the Senate and a place of power in national politics.

That much was set. But still smoldering was the controversy over Mississippi and Alabama which turned Tuesday night's session into one of the most chaotic of modern times, and all on national television.

May Bypass Rollcall — To avoid possible repetition of the unruly scene, which featured a boycott by Mississippians and a takeover of their seats by rival Freedom Party members, Democratic leaders were considering bypassing the normal roll call on the presidential nomination.

Instead they planned to give the party's top honor to Johnson. (See PARTY, Page 3)

HOPES SOAR — Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota works his way through the Kansas delegation at the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City, stopping here and there to say hello to old friends. The Senator's hopes for the vice presidential nomination soared today with the withdrawal of his colleague, Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

Wallace Threat On Third Party Lacking Purch

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Delegates to the Democratic national convention appear largely unimpressed by Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's threat to form a third party if the major parties carry on a "me-tooism" campaign.

"What Gov. Wallace wants is for the birds," said Frank Theis, Democratic national committee man from Kansas. "We're not impressed with that at all — that third party business."

This was more outspoken than the majority of delegates polled on Wallace's proposal by United Press International. But his position appeared to be representative of most of them.

An aide to Texas Gov. John Connally said he saw no reason for a third party in his state.

"We certainly have every economic level, every race, creed and color in our delegation now, so I don't see how it will affect us. We don't want to deny anyone the right to vote now," the Connally aide said.

WEATHER

PAMPA AND VICINITY — Fair through tomorrow with increasing cloudiness. A little warmer tomorrow. Low tonight, mid 60s, high tomorrow low 90s.

CONVENTION TIMETABLE

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Today's program for the Democratic National Convention:

Convenes at 6 p.m. CST. Invocation by the Rt. Rev. Leland J. Stark.

Pledge of Allegiance. National Anthem sung by Mahalia Jackson.

Roll Call of states for nominations for president.

Balloting on nominee. Showing of film "The Road to Leadership" — a biography of President Johnson.

Benediction by Bishop Prince a Taulor Jr.

Partying Democrats Plan Fancy Hoedowns

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Democrats who like to view themselves as the fun-loving political party planned to prove it today and Thursday at Texas-size hoedowns honoring President Johnson and the man he picks to run with him.

Today's main blowout was arranged by a group called the President's Club, comprising some 2,500 Democrats Democratic enough and rich enough to have chipped in at least $1,000 each to the Johnson campaign fund.

Technically at least their guest list was a secret, since the guest was to be Johnson's still undisclosed choice as his vice presidential running mate. For practical purposes, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., seemed to be making plans to attend.

This affair was set for 11 p.m. EDT at the Dennis Hotel, with society bandleader Meyer Davis swinging out the dance tunes.

Rank-and-file delegates will make do at a Perle Mesta dance at the Claridge Hotel. Society's other band leader, Lester Lanin, will play. The band will sit in a "gazebo" decorated with several thousand carnations. A donkey also turned pink with carnations will add to the party.

Pro Rodeo Opens In Pampa Tonight

A gigantic street parade of wild and woolly activity a day through downtown Pampa of the 20th annual Top O' Texas rodeo today kicked off four Rodeo.

The first performance of the professional show will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the Rodeo Grounds in Recreation Park.

MEAN 'CRITTERS' — Pampa's 20th annual rodeo parade was held this afternoon and some of the nation's top professional riders will be competing tonight for prize money in the local R. C. A. rodeo. Looking over the lazy looking bulls which provide riders and spectators many thrills are Sonny Linger of Elk City, arena director, left, and Lefty Wilken of Hillsboro, N. M., who will pick the cowboys up after they have completed their ride.

Top cowboys of the nation will be contesting for prizes expected to amount to more than $7,000, which will be divided among winners at the rodeo's conclusion Saturday night.

Beutler Brothers of Elk City, Okla. will furnish the stock and direct the arena for the all-professional rodeo. This will be the third year the Beutler Bros. have produced the RCA rodeo in Pampa.

The street parade today was led by the Amarillo Air Force Band along with floats, riding clubs, and hundreds of horses participating. Other bands entered in the parade included the Pampa High School Band, the Lefors High School Band and Lou Walker and his Western Play Boys.

A sky-diving demonstration will precede each night's performance beginning at 7:15 p.m.

Top supporting acts will add variety to performances nightly, including the Hendricks family and their trained animals along with Jerry Olson, rodeo clown and bull fighter, who will also be featured in a comedy Roman jumping act.

An official American Quarter Horse Show is scheduled for Friday, Aug. 28, at 9 a.m. in the rodeo arena, featuring 13 halter classes and eight performance classes.

The Beef Calf Scramble contest featuring 4-H and FFA boys from Roberts, Carson and Gray Counties will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. (See RODEO, Page 2)

Encephalitis Shows Signs of Spreading

HOUSTON (UPI) — An outbreak of encephalitis that began in Houston last week today showed signs of spreading to all of Texas.

An outbreak was already reported in Plainview, hundreds of miles away in the Texas South Plains. State health officials said another outbreak was suspected in Lubbock County, also in the Plains, and Bowie County, in northeast Texas.

Houston counted more than 200 suspected cases of the disease, and 18 either suspected or confirmed deaths from it. Houston city health officer Dr. C.A. Pigford said two deaths have been confirmed as caused by it. Plainview County Health Director Dr. Joseph Marshall said there were 29 cases of the disease and one death caused by it.

The disease seemed to be spreading out from Houston to nearby counties also. One case in Houston last week today was reported in Brazoria County and one in Orange County.

The state sent 10 more truck-mounted insecticide sprayers for use in the campaign to rid the city of the carrier of the disease — the female culex mosquito.

The city now has 40 spray or fog trucks and one helicopter in use in the spray program. Encephalitis is spread when the mosquito carrier bites a person, infecting him with the virus. It is not transmitted from human to human.

Called "sleeping sickness," encephalitis attacks the nervous system and causes inflammation of the brain. There are 28 strains of it and the type found so far in Texas has been the "St. Louis" strain.

Police Offices Being Remodeled

City maintenance workers today began remodeling offices in the city police department.

The south half of the department's quarters, which has been an open room, is being partitioned into three offices and space for the fingerprinting department.

The three new offices will provide space for the chief of police, assistant chief and an interview room between the two. The office of the records clerk is being moved into the area now occupied by the police chief. Space for filing records will be available in the room adjacent to the records clerk.

Dispatchers quarters in the main entrance to the police department will remain the same. City Manager Harold Schmitzer said the changes will cost less than $200 for lumber and materials.

Bond of $1,500 Set on DWI Charge

A bond of $1,500 was set for a 21-year-old Pampa man today by Justice of the Peace G. L. (Nat) Lunsford on charge of driving while intoxicated second offense.

The charges were filed against Diamond D. Jones of 828 Beryl. Jones was arrested at 12:05 a.m. today in the 1000 block of east Campbell after observations by arresting officers.

Driving while intoxicated second offense constitutes a felony.

Dallas Negroes Lose Court Plea

DALLAS (UPI) — A group of Dallas Negroes Tuesday lost their plea for full and immediate integration of schools and drew an admonition from a federal judge to slow down and "rise by excellence, not force."

U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson rejected the Negroes' plea in a suit seeking to force abandonment of the city's present grade - a-year integration plan in favor of immediate integration.

Norman Amaker, a New York lawyer who was sent by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to help local lawyers, said the decision would be appealed.

Davidson called lawyers for both sides to the bench for a "friendly discussion" before reading his decision but he was the one who did all the talking.

Klansmen Indicted by Georgia Jury Pampa Man Fined On DWI Charges

By United Press International
Three Ku Klux Klansmen were indicted by a grand jury in Danielsville, Ga., Tuesday on charges of murdering Negro educator Lemuel Penn and a Philadelphia, Miss., coroner's jury reported it was unable to determine how three civil rights workers there were killed.

The three Klansmen were accused of being the night riders who shot Penn on a dark north Georgia road on July 11 as he returned to Washington from Army reserve training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The white oak is the most valuable of the Texas oaks.

Bobby Ray McGinnis of 1000 W. Buckler entered a plea of guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated in county court today and was fined $150 and costs and three days in jail.

McGinnis was arrested by the Gray County Sheriff's office yesterday.

Figures Released on Winter Wheat Yield

With the harvest of all winter wheat completed and final yield figures in the five states of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico and Colorado have harvested a total of more than 402 million bushels of winter wheat in 1964, according to R. I. Cross of Amarillo, agent for the Santa Fe Railway Agricultural Department.

The report shows this year's yield to be almost one-fourth more than the 326 million bushels harvested in 1963.

The report adds that prospects of getting the 1964 - 65 crop off to a good start are not too favorable at this time because subsoil moisture supplies are very short in much of the main wheat territory in the Southern Great Plains. More than normal moisture will be needed before early November to get the crop up to a good stand.

As the tempo of harvesting spring-planted crops increases, the full effects of the hot, dry and windy weather during much of the spring and summer of 1964, together with the effects of normal moisture, are showing up in reduced per-acre yields from New Mexico, Texas and Colorado and through Oklahoma and Kansas.

The Santa Fe crop report adds that corn and sorghum fields are firing, and premature ripening of many fields is common. Shedding of bolls in cotton fields and a light set of beans in many soybean producing areas are reducing yield potentials.

It appears likely the total production of cotton in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma may not exceed 4.75 million bales this year. More than 5 million bales were harvested in 1963.

Mid-August reports indicate range feed conditions were the poorest since 1956 through much of the 17 Western range states.

son by acclamation, a rarely used procedure which would avoid the necessity for a roll call and an official ruling on the status of the Alabama and Mississippi delegations.

This could be done by recognizing one of a small group of "loyal" party members in the Alabama delegation when that state's name is called first in the alphabetical roll of states. Alabama then would yield to Texas to place Johnson's name in nomination.

With the seating fight thus "papered over" and a platform opposing Goldwater at every point safely adopted, the vice presidential nomination was the only remaining question mark along the Atlantic City Boardwalk.

There were indications the President might keep the delegates dangling until after his own nomination. The television networks had been alerted in case he wanted to speak to the convention on the TV screen in the great hall.

Two Passengers Injured Slightly As Cars Collide

A two-car rear end collision about mid-afternoon yesterday slightly injured two persons.

The accident occurred in the 500 block of W. Foster at 3:50 p.m., when an auto driven by Mrs. Lillian Newsom of Dumas rammed into the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Avis K. Baker of 1726 Chestnut.

Injured in the crash was a 62-year-old passenger in the Newsom vehicle, Mr. K. F. Murphy of Houston, and 6-year-old Kelly Baker, a passenger in the Baker vehicle.

Neither was seriously injured and did not require hospitalization.

Obituaries

Mrs. Lamont G. Miller

Graveside rites for Mrs. Lamont G. Miller, Oklahoma City, former Pampa resident, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday in Memory Gardens under direction of Duengel-Carmichael Funeral Home. Rev. Thurman Upshaw, pastor of Central Baptist Church, will officiate. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at Sooner Baptist Church in Midwest City, Okla.

Born Oct. 13, 1915, in Hominy, Okla., Mrs. Miller died yesterday morning in Mercy Hospital, Oklahoma City.

Survivors include her husband, Donald G. Miller of the home at 1109 S.E. Terrace, Oklahoma City, one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Thompson of Pampa; one son, Rodney C. Miller of Midwest City, Okla.; five sisters, Mrs. Zora Shook, Pawhuska, Okla., Mrs. Bernice Buttery of Muskogee, Okla., Mrs. Loretta Hawk of Lindsey, Okla., Mrs. Leona Presnell of LaHabra, Calif. and Mrs. Lowe Higgins of Blackburn, Okla.; four brothers, Bruce Rutherford of Mira Loma, Calif., Carl Rutherford of Carlsbad, N. M., John Rutherford of Wynona, Okla., and Bert Rutherford of Riverside, Calif., and two grandchildren.

Tire Stolen From Car While Parked

Theft of a $30 tire and wheel was the only item being investigated today by Pampa police.

Ralph Arms of Pampa reported that while his auto was parked in the 900 block of S. Reid someone stole the spare tire and wheel.

The tire was taken from the trunk sometime Monday night.

OVER THE CORNSTALKS—This young cornpoke rides herd over the stalks in a mechanized horse which doesn't eat the corn, just picks it. The rider is Douglas Lang, 10, who's maneuvering the corn picker through his family's Brodhead, Wis., farm.

Walter Rogers Reports:

New Bill Approved On Sanford Project

Another milestone has been passed in the history of the great Canadian River Project. The Senate has approved a bill sent to the President the bill had introduced to authorize an expenditure of up to $1,100,000 for planning and development of public recreation facilities at the Sanford Reservoir. The bill was passed by the House in November.

With construction of the dam, reservoir, and pipeline progressing so rapidly (indeed ahead of schedule in some phases), I felt it was vital that the proper steps be taken this year to insure that adequate recreation facilities be provided at the reservoir.

For persons within a radius of several hundred miles, for residents of five States (Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, and New Mexico), the Sanford Reservoir will be the major recreation area within driving range. Thousands upon thousands of visitors may be expected to come each year to enjoy boating, fishing, and camping and swimming at the huge lake.

As one of the steps in planning, three officials of the National Park Service will be in Amarillo Thursday to meet with former Amarillo Mayor A. F. (Judge) Madison and members of the recreation committee of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority board of directors.

The provision for recreational facilities will not affect the basic purpose of the project, which is to supply municipal and industrial water to the 11 Panhandle and South Plains cities of the Canadian River Municipal Pampa, Borger, Plainview, Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa, Levelland, O'Donnell, Slaton and Tahoka. The Canadian River Project has a larger repayment allocation than any other Bureau of Reclamation project. The project will repay approximately 94 per cent of its cost over a 50-year period, with interest.

The Canadian River project is scheduled for completion in 1967. The dam near Sanford is expected to be "closed" this winter and water from the river will begin to be impounded in the reservoir. It will be some months before other work, primarily on pipelines and operating facilities, is completed.

In the public works appropriations bill cleared by the House and Senate and sent to the President Aug. 14, an appropriation of $22,100,000 was made to continue work on the Canadian River project in the 1965 fiscal year ending June 30. From this you can see total construction cost estimates for each aspect of the project, the amounts allocated to each for fiscal year 1965, and the percentage of completion expected to be attained by next June 30. You may note also that the total cost estimate is well below the estimate originally made when the project was started.

Recent visitors in the nation's capital: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barber of Amarillo with their children Sandra and James; Joe Nisbett with sons Tom and Rick, from Dalhart; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Hicks of Hereford with their sons Dennis, David, and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Robbins of Amarillo with son Greg; Don Teague of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sims of Amarillo with their daughter, Pamela.

Foreign Commentary

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Secretary General Thant is handling the latest Congo crisis with extreme caution.

But reports that the government of Premier Moise Tshombe is recruiting white mercenaries to put down Communist-inspired rebellion in the central and eastern Congo are causing misgivings among some high ranking members of the U. N. secretariat.

And ambassadors of several African nations have made it clear in private conversations that the hiring of mercenaries can only deepen the gulf which already separates Tshombe from many other African statesmen.

U. N. spokesmen have been cautious in their comments on the reported arrival of mercenaries in the Congo. The U. N. still gets daily reports from its technical assistance mission in Leopoldville on goings on there, but spokesmen have so far declined to say how much information on the reported arrival of mercenaries has reached here.

Press reports that Tshombe is recruiting white South Africans, Southern Rhodesians and Britons to put down the rebels have caused concern however. The men involved are, in many cases, the very mercenaries who fought the U. N. in the protracted Katanga campaign, which ended with the collapse of Katangese secession in January 1963.

Thant himself has made no public comment on the measures being taken by Tshombe to put down the rebellion. His only comment, in fact, on the assumption of power in Leopoldville by a man who less than two years ago was the U. N.'s arch enemy, was a remark that "a country gets the kind of government it deserves."

Since then Tshombe and Thant have been in touch by letter. Tshombe asked for U. N. assistance in halting what he termed "subversive activities" directed from across the borders of the neighboring states. Thant has already replied—but his reply has not been made public.

It was understood he had promised to pass on Tshombe's request to the two governments but no guarantee of any further U. N. involvement. The secretary general has made it clear the U. N. is not prepared to intervene again militarily in the Congo. This sentiment is shared by his senior advisers, particularly Maj. Gen. Inderjit K. Rikhye of India, his military aide, who is understood to feel nothing short of a major military intervention would pacify the country.

There is no chance of such intervention coming about. The U. N. is still deep in the red as a result of the last Congo operation and any further involvement would only increase the debt. U. N. sources feel, however, that the arrival of mercenaries would kill any chance Tshombe has of enlisting the aid of other African states militarily. The world organization therefore is adopting a strict "hands off" policy while awaiting developments.

DEAR ABBY...

Wife Wages Cold War on Mate

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a wife who keeps asking her husband, age 64, when he is going to retire? The husband is a successful businessman who enjoys being in business, is in good health, and never thinks about retiring until his wife brings it up.

Also, what would you think if this wife took out TWO additional policies on her husband's life while she was his bookkeeper and was authorized to sign his checks? (This wasn't discovered by the husband until several years later.) This same wife reads every magazine article she can find on things a widow should know. She claims she is only being "realistic." I would like your opinion.

SOMEBODY'S HUSBAND
DEAR HUSBAND: Your wife's waging a war of nerves—and winning! Relax, or you'll accommodate her sooner than you both think.

DEAR ABBY: I am mad! I just returned from a friend's house and she slyly accused me of having amorous feelings about my doctor! What's with people? They think the milkman, postman, salesman and repair men are all the secret lovers of every woman who looks at them sideways. Some people can't forget about sex for one minute!

Why can't people be motivated by art, music, world peace or something else?

"VIVA LA SENSE" IN FT. WAYNE
DEAR VIVA: Some people ARE! What's with you?

DEAR ABBY: I enjoyed the letter in your column from a pair of identical twins who said they didn't like to be called "Twin" or "Twinny," and they were disgusted with people who asked, "Are you twins?" That last complaint is so familiar to me because I have an identical twin brother, and when we were young we were dressed alike, and still people would ask, "Are you twins?" My mother told us that when we were about three years old she was walking down the street with one of us on each side of her, when a strange woman stopped us and asked my brother, "Are you brothers?" And he replied, "No, ma'am, we're sisters."

A TWIN
CONFIDENTIAL TO ROSS: Ulcers are something you get from mountain climbing over molehills. Take it easy.

Gardening News

By THELMA BRAY

Seems that most people in this part of the country use the word "yard" in referring to the outside part of their property. After the Ronald Peares of England were in Pampa last summer as exchange pastor for the First Methodist Church and mentioned they had never heard the word "yard" used for garden area, I looked up the definitions in the dictionary.

For your information here are the definitions. Yard—a tract of ground enclosed or set apart. Garden—a piece of ground set apart for the cultivation of flowers, fruit, vegetables, etc.; a place specially delightful or fertile; a place of amusement ornamented with plants. Therefore, for those of us who work to improve our home grounds, the word "garden" is more appropriate.

Pampa Garden Club members met in the back garden of the H. H. Boynton's last week and saw something of special interest to people in this area. A barn owl spends several months each year in an enormous elm tree just outside the back door of the Boynton home. He was first discovered when balls of fur were found on the ground around the tree. Seems that the barn owl eats mice, chews them up and spits out the fur, bones and other matter, which have been rolled up into little balls together.

An invitation was received to visit a most interesting garden at the home of Dub Howsley, 329 Doucette. Through the use of evergreens, Howsley has created a very beautiful effect. There are two rows of Ponderosa and Austrian pines down through the center area of the garden, thus making three lanes with a neat lawn and light posts placed at the end of each lane. These pine trees have been pruned so that you can walk under them, thus eliminating any wasted space. Other varieties of evergreens form a background for this most unusual and delightful garden. Howsley extended an invitation to others who would like to see his garden. His number is in the book so call him.

Cecil Collum, president of the Pampa Rose Society, has been working in the rose garden in Aspen Street Park. Collum has been helping to take care of these roses for several years and his contribution to the beautification of Pampa is appreciated.

Working in Aspen Street Park Thursday morning were Gladys Osborn, Maybelle Carlton, Irene Moore, Lena Mitchell and your columnist. This Thursday morning work will be done in Yeager and Starkweather Park at 8:30 a.m. Notice that work time has been changed to 8:30 a.m. and we are still looking for anyone who would like to help beautify Pampa. Working hours are short and rewards are great.

GARDENING TIPS
The Horticulture Tips used by Mrs. Ira Carlton for garden club meeting last week are given here:

Order peonies now for September planting. The proper way to plant a peony is to dig a hole 18 inches deep and 18 inches wide; fill 9 to 12 inches of barnyard manure in hole; finish filling hole with dirt and soak with water a few days before planting. When planting the peony root, do not cover more than 2 inches deep or it will not bloom.

Plant Madonna lilies now. Divide and move oriental poppies.

Cut gypsophylla (baby's breath) while in full bloom for dried bouquets.

Feed dahlias and chrysanthemums now. Disbud dahlias for larger blooms.

Start geranium cuttings now for winter bloom.

TRAVEL LIGHT

Clean out your make-up kit every once in a while. You'll never have a slim, flat purse if the make-up you carry in it is cluttered with four half-empty lipsticks and six shades of eye shadow. Take with you only the cosmetics you need each day.

Mrs. Nash Hosts Merten HD Club

Mrs. A. M. Nash, 721 N. West, was hostess to Merten Home Demonstration Club when the organization met at 9:30 a.m. Aug. 18.

Mrs. V. Smith, president, called the meeting to order and led the group in prayer. Members answered roll call by stating what they would like to have repaired in their homes.

The program on the care of household equipment was led by Mrs. Jack Howard and a discussion of hobbies was conducted by the members.

Mrs. Rena Hahn and Mrs. Hazel Mulanax were welcomed as new members. Others attending were Meses. Jack Howard, T. G. Groves, E. P. Templin, A. M. Nash, V. Smith, Irene Umberson, Lloyd Laramore, Jack Prather and Ed Wiley.

Next meeting of the club will be at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 1 in the Court House Annex with Mrs. Lloyd Laramore serving as hostess.

Rho Eta Chapter Has Weiner Roast

The social committee of Rho Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi served as hostesses to a family wiener roast held at 4:30 p.m. Aug. 20 in Central Park.

The menu consisted of hot dogs, marshmallows, potato chips, chili, iced tea and lemonade.

Attending the event were Messrs. and Meses. Leroy England, Don Stafford, Don Bruner, Allen Self, James Whatley, Al Stroker, Doyle Beckham and Jack Chisum.

Top O' Texas Taper

Top O' Texas Taper Tops, local affiliate of TOPS, met at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Citizen's Bank Hospitality Room with three new members joining the club.

Mrs. Sarah Blain was elected secretary of the organization by the seven members attending. Members were asked to be prepared to answer roll call at the next meeting with their calorie count.

Ladies interested in joining this club in an effort to lose weight are invited to attend the next meeting to be held at 1:30 p.m. Aug. 31 in the Hospitality Room of Citizen's Bank.

A sprinkling of parma moth crystals or nuggets will keep carpet beetles from attacking and damaging upholstered furniture, the Chemical Specialties Manufacturers Association reports.

New 'Expose Fashions' for Fall Put Focus on Skin

Backless, as inspired by the thirties, or topless, as inspired by (believe it or not) Paris in the early twenties, current fashions are a rebirth of the most daring trends in recent history. But, even if you don't wear the extreme "expose fashions," you can still be sure that many of your new fall clothes are going to put the fashion focus on your skin. One of the best aids in body skin care is the back brush. The gentle stimulation of the bristles is good for your circulation and will prevent overly oily or blemished skin. Keep front and back skin silky and beautiful by giving it a nightly application of hand creme.

White Sox Gain Game on Orioles

By United Press International
Ask Chicago White Sox pitchers to name their best friend and chances are they'll select a .250 hitter named Ron Hansen.

Hansen is the wide-ranging, 26-year-old shortstop from Oxford, Neb., who is the backbone of the classy White Sox defense. For that reason alone, Hansen would rate high with Chicago hurlers.

But there's another reason, too, because Hansen is one of those rare .250 hitters who connects in the clutch and drives in key runs. He's been doing it all season for the White Sox and he's doing it now in the stretch run of the three-cornered American League pennant race.

Hansen drove in the winning run for the White Sox for the 12th time this season Tuesday night when Al Lopez' popgun hitters shaded the Minnesota Twins 1-0 and crept to within one game of the first-place Baltimore Orioles, who bowed to the Cleveland Indians 5-3. The New York Yankees also gained ground on the front-runners with a 4-1 triumph over the Washington Senators.

Deals Orioles Blow
Hansen, acquired from the Orioles in early 1963, dealt his former teammates' pennant hopes a heavy blow when he singled off Al Worthington with two out in the ninth inning to drive in Jim Landis. Landis and Floyd Robinson had singled off loser Dick Stigman before the right-handed pitching Worthington was brought in to face righty-hitting Hansen.

Juan Pizarro pitched a five-hitter and struck out four for the White Sox to win his 17th game — tops in the league. The shutout also was his fourth of the season and the Sox staff's 16th.

The Indians fell on relief ace Harvey Haddix for four hits in two-thirds of an inning — including successive homers by Bob Chance and Leon Wagner — to beat the Orioles for the ninth time in 14 games. Pedro Ramos received credit for his seventh win although Don McMahon shut out the Orioles and fanned three batters in the final two innings.

Whitey Ford pitched five-hit ball and struck out seven in eight innings to win his first game for the Yankees since July 15. Mickey Mantle doubled with the bases filled to give the Yankees a 2-1 lead in the eighth and Joe Pepitone followed with a two-run single. Claude Osteen suffered his 10th loss for the Senators.

Other AL Games
The Los Angeles Angels defeated the Kansas City Athletics 5-3 and the Detroit Tigers drubbed the Boston Red Sox 11-6 in other American League games.

NL Chief Denies Dodger's Charges

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Mury Will's claim that National League umpires are under orders not to enforce the balk rule this year drew a scoffing denial today from league president Warren Giles.

"No umpire was deprived of a Christmas bonus because such bonuses are not paid by the National League to its umpires," said Giles in reply to the Dodger base-stealing whiz's comments of last Sunday.

Will had charged an umpire told him he lost his Christmas bonus because he refused to enforce a league order not to enforce the balk rule. He said he understood another umpire's salary was cut for the same reason.

Bums Drop Faltering Giants From Second

By United Press International
Having already seen to it that there'll be no World Series in Los Angeles this year, the Dodgers are out to make sure there'll be none in San Francisco either.

After losing 11 of 14 games to their traditional rivals, the Dodgers turned on the Giants Tuesday night to score a 3-1 victory that dealt San Francisco's waning National League flag hopes a staggering blow. The loss not only prevented the Giants from picking up on the first-place Philadelphia Phillies—who had lost—but also dropped them into third place behind the persistent Cincinnati Reds.

As a result, the Phillies hold first place by six games over the Reds and by 6½ over the Giants.

It was a particularly bitter loss for the Giants because it ruined the return to action of 15-game winner Juan Marichal, who had been sidelined for a month, and also came at the hands of Howie Reed, who won his first major league game for the Kansas City Athletics in 1958 and hadn't won another one since.

Got Relief Help
Reed couldn't quite go all the way but Manager Walt Alston called on Ron Perranoski to retire Ron Lanier and Bob Miller to strike out Willie Mays for the final two outs of the game. Marichal, who yielded all three Los Angeles runs and seven hits in five innings, suffered his sixth loss. Tommy Davis led the Dodgers' 10-hit attack with three hits, including a single that drove in the decisive run in the third inning.

The Phillies had given the Giants a chance to gain a full game by dropping a 7-5 decision to the Milwaukee Braves, the Reds whipped the New York Mets 7-2, the St. Louis Cardinals scored a 7-6 13-inning victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colts nipped the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in other National League action.

Susman Upsets Mexican Champ

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (UPI) — Rod Susman of San Antonio, Tex., produced a remarkable upset Tuesday by beating U.S. singles champion Rafael Osuna of Mexico 6-3, 6-4 in the first round of the Meadow Club International Tennis Tournament.

Osuna, a senior at UCLA, was top foreign seed, but he was playing on grass for the first time since Wimbledon.

There was only one service break in the first set and it came because of Osuna's mistakes. In the sixth game he muffed two easy forehand returns, then double-faulted.

Susman is the husband of Karen Hantze Susman, who won the U.S. Women's doubles crown Monday with Billie Jean Moffitt.

Tuesday, he concentrated on holding his own service throughout the match. In the second set he broke Osuna in the seventh game, which went to three deuce points, lost his own service and then broke right back when Osuna fell, missed an overhead and could not reach two soft returns.

Cliff Buchholz, also of San Antonio, pulled an upset by beating No. 7 American seed Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, 6-4, 6-4 in a second-round match.

Wheeler Solid Choice To Repeat as Champ

By KARL O'QUINN
WHEELER — The Wheeler Mustangs are loaded. Even Coach J. T. Hill, in his first year at the eastern P a n-handle school, can't think up a good excuse to get him out from under the favorite's tag.

He has 18 lettermen back from the team that won the district 5-B championship under Grady Burnett last year, eight of them starters. He has 11 seniors to give his team a steady influence and an outstanding all-state candidate in Dunk Porter, the big fullback who scored 88 points and averaged 5.8 yards per carry last season.

He also has two other backs who averaged over five yards per carry and two backs who scored four or more touchdowns last year.

His starting team averages 170 pounds. A number of teams in this area do not have a half dozen men on the entire squad weighing that much.

His backs are fast, with several of them able to negotiate 100 yards in 10.5 or better.

His depth is enough to make most Class B coaches turn green.

In short, the number two ranking in the state given the Mustangs by a Dallas rating service may not be wrong.

Heading up the team, of course, is Porter, the 185-pound senior. He will be a starter for the fourth straight year. Last year he scored 14 touchdowns despite sitting out a good part of most games because the Hosse didn't want to completely humiliate the opposition. He has ankle trouble but should be able to rest quite frequently this year, also.

Bobby Vanpool, a swift halfback who scored seven touchdowns and averaged 5.3 yards on 70 carries last year as a freshman, returns to diversify Hill's attack and dismay opposing coaches.

Johnny Hutchison and Gary Hardcastle, two more freshman whizzes last year, return to strengthen the halfback picture but will have trouble beating out Tom Smith, who will not be eligible until the next-to-last game of the season, and Don Burks, a senior who reported for practice late but may work into a starting position.

Hill finds little difference in the quality of these men and has four other halfbacks to back them up.

The situation at quarterback is equally pleasant with Richard Wallace, who will be a starter for the third year, heading up a crop of four. Wallace scored four touchdowns and passed for six more last year.

Mike Goad, a junior letterman, and David Jamison, a sophomore letterman, will also see plenty of action. Freshman Bobby Ware is promising but is an unknown quantity due to his youth.

Senior starter Terry McCasland and sophomore Ricky De Arment will handle the center position in more than adequate fashion.

Two more seniors, Gene Watson and Bill Overcast, add experience to the guard position as starters. Backing them up are a senior, Larry Garrison, and two freshmen, Dwight Ford and Mike Holt. Only Garrison and Holt weigh less than 156 pounds.

The starting tackles are hefty and experienced. Jimmy Adams, a regular on defense last year who will likely go both ways this year, weighs 209 and is a senior. Jimmy Jamison is 205 and a senior.

Senior Roy Lanning, sophomore Richard Porter, junior Kenneth Daugherty and Gary Montgomery, a freshman who may be held out of action by a heart murmur, back up the regulars at tackle.

Two six-footers, Jamie Moore and Danny Dorman, hold down the end positions. Dorman, a junior, is the only starter in the line who is not a senior.

Eight other ends, mostly sophomores, add depth to the wing position.

Hill may have inherited a dynasty. He loses 11 seniors but has 12 sophomores and four juniors on this squad of 38. They are likely to log quite a bit of playing time this season and form the nucleus of another tough club next year and the year after.

Hill can hardly keep a grin off his face when he thinks about it.

Two fellow West Texas graduates, Bill Harle and Richard Gaines, assist Hill in his duties. They teach the straight T with a few wing variations.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

"The Big Question Mark"

"Although President Johnson hasn't asked our advice, we have a suggestion for a ballot symbol for him — the sure Democratic nominee — to run in this fall's campaign. Discard the rooster or the donkey on the ballot and substitute a great, big question mark."

So writes MacLellan Smith, Washington correspondent for the State News of Dover, Del. in the lead editorial for his paper in recent days. We continue to quote in full an editorial that has our hearty endorsement.

Whether the past is indicative of anything, L.B.J. qualifies as the largest mugwump ever to sit on an American political fence. We name a few examples:

In the area of foreign policy, Johnson was emphatic in 1960, declaring, "We must have a complete global policy. . . a national strategy for the war in which we are presently engaged."

Four years ago he said of our defenses, "I don't think we're going far enough fast enough (in armaments) . . . Stack the rifles, ground the planes, scuttle the fleet and Communist aggression will not have been halted."

In 1959 L.B.J. said of relations with Russia, "It would be tragic if we suffered from the delusion that Mr. Khrushchev can be charmed into changing his course."

In 1959 L.B.J. said of relations with Russia, "It would be tragic if we suffered from the delusion that Mr. Khrushchev can be charmed into changing his course."

This November the American people will have to decide just what L.B.J. REALLY stands for — that's the Big Question Mark!

Why? We had held high hopes that harmony existing between this newspaper and City Hall would be of a lasting nature.

But — All of a sudden and out of a clear sky came the word that the newspaper was not wanted at last Friday's meeting of the commission to "study city problems."

A Pampa News representative had been attending executive and study sessions of the city commission for more than a year.

This has enabled the newspaper to receive background information on matters to be given final action at regular meetings of the council.

Asked in 1960, "Do you believe much in labels — liberal, conservative, radical?" L.B.J. answered no. Yet, this same Lyndon Johnson, as reported by Columnists Evans and Novak, declared in 1963, "No matter what you may think, I am a Roosevelt New Dealer."

It was in 1959 that Johnson piously said, "We must not play politics with human misery." But in 1964 Johnson went on "poverty tours" during which his advance men told people in the areas to be visited to go barefoot and hang washing on the line to "look poor."

In a 1957 rap at President Eisenhower, L.B.J. said, "I believe we could expedite legislation a great deal if all outside forces would refrain from attempting, by telephone calls, to direct Congress in its activities."

It was in 1957 that L.B.J. called civil rights legislation a "sham" and a "farce," said in a letter later made public, "I don't know where you could have gotten the idea that I am supporting the so-called bill for Civil Rights."

Ten years ago, Mr. Johnson defended the right of citizens to criticize their government, declaring in a Senate speech, "We will not abdicate our right to make legitimate criticisms."

The examples are almost without end. The only clear thing about L.B.J.'s views is this: Since he entered public life, he has been on BOTH sides of nearly every major issue before the country.

City Hall struck the first blow last Friday by closing the door in our face.

If harmony has gone out the window, don't forget that City Hall made the first move.

We always have one question to ask when public officials meet to discuss taxpayers' business and do not want representatives of news media to be present.

Why? We don't understand the sudden change of heart.

There's an old saying that "you can't fight City Hall."

We have no desire to fight City Hall. Neither do we have any desire for City Hall to fight us.

VIET NAM REPORT

Sabotage A la Viet Nam? Look!

By RAY CROMLEY Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) — Mr. X shall be nameless for obvious reasons. He is a Nung tribesman from a North Viet Nam province on the China border.

He speaks Chinese, French, English, Lao, Cambodian, Vietnamese and two North Viet Nam tribal languages. He looks like a Chinese. He has lived in China. He has 253 followers trained in guerrilla warfare and in security.

For five years Mr. X fought against the Reds as a Viet Nam officer in the Communist-infested Delta region of the south. His father is a major general in the Vietnamese Army.

X has close connections with several religious sects in North and South Viet Nam. Once given the go-ahead signal, X and his men are prepared to infiltrate into Cambodia, then drift northward through Laos and slowly work their way to the northern border regions of North Viet Nam.

He estimates it would take several months to reach their working areas. Once there, X and selected members of his group would pose as Chinese Communists. As "Chinese" they would have a considerable amount of freedom and not be subject to the tight security which makes movement difficult for ordinary North Vietnamese.

Some of X's men would infiltrate certain tribal areas where there is growing dissatisfaction with Ho Chi Minh's Red regime. Others would drift to cities and towns, make contact with unhappy Catholics and other dissatisfied groups.

The first mission of the X group would be to exist. Then X and his men would slowly, cautiously build up cells of anti-Communist citizens.

For months, perhaps a year or more, this quiet organizational buildup would be the major function of the X group. Once they had secured their existence and had built a basic organization of friends, they would begin to collect intelligence.

They would set up way stations and hideouts for successive groups of agents brought in by air and sea. The agent apparatus large enough, they would begin to develop sabotage.

They would teach farmers how to hide their rice from the Communist authorities, teach them how much rice they could safely hide.

With enough farmers co-operating, this could significantly slow rice deliveries in North Viet Nam, where food is already short, poor deliveries could give the authorities fits.

The X group would teach factory workers how to slow down their work and to sabotage machinery without being caught. They would teach city people how to start rumors, set fires, interrupt phone and telegraph communications, blow bridges.

At the proper time, these cells could co-operate with other projected U.S.-South Vietnamese activities in the north. X says he would have no trouble getting additional volunteers. There are hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese and tribesmen from the north now living in South Viet Nam.

Also Frederick Dutton, who recently moved from the State Department as an Assistant Secretary, to become research and planning head of the committee; National Chairman John Bailey, who was a figurehead under the late President, and would continue in that role in the campaign.

Intermingled among these experienced Kennedy intimates are a number of handpicked "Johnson men" — some with a lot of know-how and others not so much.

Off and Running

BACKSTAGE WASHINGTON Johnson to Run, Taut Ship' in Campaign With All the Strings at His Fingertips

ROBERT ALLEN

ATLANTIC CITY — President Johnson is keeping the reins of his campaign firmly in his hands and is bent, in effect, on being his own campaign manager.

That is the characteristically "taut ship" way he has always run his election battles, and this year, seeking the greatest political prize of all, will be no different. His apparent aim is to be both the entry and the jockey.

Whether he can pull off this unique trick remains to be seen. Meanwhile, authoritative word of this operational plan is being passed to state and local Democratic leaders assembled here at the national convention.

They have already seen evidence of it in their bailiwicks. As outlined to the party pros, the President's formula for ensuring his personal over-all control of the campaign is as follows:

At the National Committee level: Retain Kennedy hold-overs in the key positions in which they have demonstrated their ability and effectiveness. Foremost among them are:

Treasurer Richard Maguire, long-time close lieutenant of the late President, who has built up a record high campaign chest variously estimated as between $3.5 and $7 million; Kenneth O'Donnell, another inner-circle Kennedy veteran, who has been shifted from the White House staff to executive director of the committee; Lawrence O'Brien, also a Kennedy intimate, who is relinquishing his job as chief of congressional liaison to become the committee's director of organization.

X says he would have no trouble getting additional volunteers. There are hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese and tribesmen from the north now living in South Viet Nam.

Also Frederick Dutton, who recently moved from the State Department as an Assistant Secretary, to become research and planning head of the committee; National Chairman John Bailey, who was a figurehead under the late President, and would continue in that role in the campaign.

Intermingled among these experienced Kennedy intimates are a number of handpicked "Johnson men" — some with a lot of know-how and others not so much.

Outstanding in the first category is James Rowe, a veteran of national campaigns going back to the New Deal in which he was one of the "bright young braintrusters." In 1960, Rowe won a successful Washington attorney with big business clients, was active in the Humphrey-Johnson pre-convention drives against Kennedy.

Notable in the still unproven class is Clifton Carter, 46-year-old rangy Texan who is among the President's closest assistants. Johnson brought him to Washington shortly after taking office, and he has been known as the "President's man" in the National Committee ever since — displacing Stephen Smith.

PAUL SCOTT

PENNSYLVANIA — David Lawrence, former Governor and now special assistant to the President.

SOUTH CAROLINA — Governor Donald Russell and Senator Olin Johnston. The state narrowly went for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket and Senator Johnston played a leading role in that victory.

TEXAS — John Crooker, Jr., Houston lawyer and boyhood friend of the President. Crooker has been quietly working at the National Committee for some time and acts as liaison between the President and Governor John Connally.

WASHINGTON STATE — Senator Warren Magnuson, long close to Johnson and chairman of the Senate Democratic Campaign Committee, which has more than $500,000 to dish out to party senatorial candidates.

WISCONSIN — Senator Gaylord Nelson, assisted by State Chairman Louis Hanson.

WYOMING — Edward Boland, young Casper oilman, with close ties to Senator Gale McGee, who is up for re-election.

CONVENTION FLASHES — Senator Daniel Inouye, Hawaii, much-decorated World War II veteran who lost his arm in combat, has been personally chosen by the President to head the National Committee's speakers bureau. Long a Johnson supporter, Inouye will take over this important campaign job immediately after the convention. How much he knows about it remains to be seen.

GEORGIA — Governor Carl Sanders, a civil rights moderate in high favor with the President.

INDIANA — State Chairman Manfred Core.

LOUISIANA — National Committeeman J. Marshall Brown and Mrs. Earl Long, wife of the late governor and National Committeewoman.

MAINE — Donald Nicol, administrative assistant of Senator Edmund Muskie.

MARYLAND — Herbert O'Connor, Jr., son of the late Senator who was a close friend of the President.

MISSOURI — Morris Shenker, St. Louis lawyer and long-time Johnson supporter.

NEVADA — Senator Alan Bible and State Senator Mahlon Brown, both of whom vigorously supported the President in 1960 and carried the state for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket in that hair-breadth election.

NEW MEXICO — Former Governor John Burroughs, closely allied with Senator Clinton Anderson, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

NORTH CAROLINA — Senators Samuel Ervin and B. Everett Jordan, with a vigorous assist from Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges, former Governor.

OHIO — Governor James Rhodes, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

OKLAHOMA — Governor Henry Bellmon, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

OREGON — Governor Tom McCall, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

PENNSYLVANIA — Governor David L. Lawrence, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

RHODE ISLAND — Governor John Chafee, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

TENNESSEE — Governor Buford Ellington, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

TEXAS — Governor John Connally, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

UTAH — Governor Frank Meyer, who was the President's floor manager at the 1960 convention.

Educator and top-level executives agree that the man who reads more achieves more, but many persons find reading an exacting chore. New York City's Reading Laboratory Inc., whose developmental reading program is widely used by schools, college and industry, recommends five steps to better reading.

Today's smile: That little girl who used to hold a nickel in her hand and press her nose against the glass of a candy counter has grown up and can be seen at the meat counter in any supermarket with the same look on her face as she clutches a $10 bill.

Escalators are now common in many buildings, particularly department stores where merchandisers favor them for safety, efficiency and because they give customers a panoramic view of the store, which frequently serves as an eye-catcher for goods on display. They were invented more than a half-century ago and the first was exhibited at the Paris Exposition in 1900 by the Otis Elevator Company.

Thoughts while shaving: Never knew 'til now that Massachusetts leads the world in growing carnations. A mathematician at the state university figured out that the annual carnation crop, if laid end to end, would circle the earth 12 times.

Wit and Whimsy

Mr. Younghusband (reaching home late for dinner) — I got pinched for speeding on the way home. Have to appear tomorrow morning and get ten dollars or fifteen days.

Mrs. Younghusband (fervently clapped two blistered little hands) — What a Providence! You must take the fifteen days, John! The cook just left!

Mrs. Erwin was showing Selma, the new Swedish maid, the ropes.

Mrs. Erwin — This is my son's room. He is in Yale.

Selma — Ya! My brudder ban there, too.

Mrs. Erwin — Is that so? What year?

Selma — Ach! he ban got no year! He ban punch a man in the eye, and the yoodge say, You, Axel, sixty days in jail.

There is one thing more exasperating than a wife who can cook and won't, and that is the wife who can't cook and will.

Client (to his lawyer) — Your office is as hot as an oven.

Lawyer — So it ought to be. I make my bread here.

Teacher — Johnny, if a coal is selling at $6 a ton and you pay your dealer $24 how many tons will he bring you?

Johnny — A little over three tons, ma'am.

Teacher — Why, Johnny, that isn't right.

Johnny — No, ma'am, I know it ain't, but they all do it.

Little Nellie was visiting her uncle for the first time, and he was so indulgent a gentleman that she at once climbed up into his lap and began to play with his whiskers. These had begun to show traces of age, and Nellie carefully tugging at one white hair, smiled into her uncle's face and said:

Little Nellie — 'I'm pulling out the basting threads.

In A.D. 97 the nine aqueducts of Rome provided 38 million U.S. gallons within the walls and 20 million U.S. gallons outside the walls. The system was organized under the republic by contractors who both built and ran it, and under the emperor by a board of curators with a slave staff directly supervised after A.D. 52 by an imperial procurator.
