Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign News Analyst An angered West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard stepped off a train in Bonn one day last week and peremptorily ordered his old boss. Konrad Adenauer, into session for a dressing down.

The reason - that while Erhard was off in Denmark on a mission promoting unity among his Common Market partners. back in Bonn Adenauer busily was stirring up a party revolt at the behest of his old friend Charles de Gaulle whose ideas on European unity are far different from Erhard's own.

The differences between the two were those which also separate France from its other partners within the European Common Market and France and the United States on such matters of international concern as disarmament, the nuclear test-ban agreement, recand NATO.

Adenauer Disappointed

In back of Adenauer's action was his disappointment and dissatisfaction at the way Erhard has been conducting West Germany's part in the 1963 Treaaty of Cooperation with De Gaulle's France.

When the treaty was concluded in Paris in January, 1963. Adenauer emotionally referred to it as the crowning achievement of his career.

De Gaulle just had vetoed British membership in the Common Market and refused a share in the United States' nuclear-tipped Polaris missile.

But to Adenauer this seemed a small price to pay for the end of centuries of Franco-German enmity.

The treaty provided that France and Germany would "consult each other before taking any decision on all major questions of foreign policy" and in the eyes of the two leaders was to pave the way for Paris-Bonn axis which other members of the Common Market could join or not as they Pennsylvanian's repeated insistence that he was not interested.

Ironically, it was Scranton's own Pennsylvania delegation which sealed his defeat in the civil rights fight.

With the tally standing at 653 to 308 against the amendment. the Keystone State cast 62 votes in favor of the proposal and two against. But the two were enough to give the Goldwater forces 655 votes-the same magic majority needed for the presidential nomination.

It was just before this vote that Goldwater's press aide, Edward Nellor, issued the senator's statement asserting that the GOP was wrapping itself in his conservative principles.

Fastern Defeat It was a humilating defe for Republican leaders of big industrial states as I sylvania, New York and Ne. Jersey who long have dominated GOP national politics.

It means that such names as Lodge, Dewey, Scott and Rockefeller will take second billing in GOP councils to new faces who will rise to power with the new candidate.

The civil rights test came after the Scranton camp was defeated on an amendment to condemn extremist groups, including the ultra - conservative John Birch Society, which the amendment identified by name. This proposal was rejected on a standing vote which appeared to be more than 3 tol.

Rockefeller led off the de bate for the anti - extremism amendment and had to pause several times because unfriendly delegates were shouting him down with cries of "We Want Barry.'

"You may not like this but it's the truth," he said in calling for a denunciation of "purveyors of hate."

Has No Place Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin spoke against the amendment, saying it was dangerous, demeaning and has no place in a Republican platform.

A Watchful Newspaper EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneselt, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

By HOWARD KERSHNER

In his book, DIPLOMAT AMONG WARRIORS, Under Secretary Robert Murphy tells of having warned General Eisenhower against following the theory of not offending the Russians, but the General was determined to show friendship and trust to the Communists. He had had little patience with Murphy's criticism of that attitude.
