US Steps Up Aid In Congo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is stepping up its military and economic aid to the beleaguered Congolese government of Premier Moise Tshombe in an effort to shore up what appears to be a deteriorating situation.

Four big Air Force transport planes, with 40 paratroopers from the 82nd Airborne Division aboard as "guard personnel," were to arrive in Leopoldville today after a flight from Ft. Bragg, N.C.

The dispatch of the turboprop C130's followed a drive by Congolese rebels who claim they control half of the chaotic African nation.

The rebels demanded that the U.S. Embassy remove its consulate in Stanleyville, a city which the insurgents control. The State Department is making arrangements to do so. A spokesman said Consul Michael Hoyt and his four-man staff would be taken to Leopoldville "for their safety."

On the planes besides the 40 paratroopers, there were 10 other Army men and 56 Air Force maintenance personnel. It was understood the paratroopers would engage in no kind of operations in the Congo other than protection of U.S. property.

The aircraft are expected to be made available to U.S. Ambassador G. McMurtre Godley for such use as he deems. Presumably, they will be used in supply operations to support the Tshombe government.

ONE-CAR TURNOVER—Cleo Hoyler, 44, of 128 N. Sumner was seriously injured last night during a one car turnover nine miles west of Pampa on State Highway 152. Hoyler was driving this 1963 model Chevrolet west on 152 when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The auto ran off the highway, crashed into two guard posts and flipped over twice. The car was totally demolished.

White House Denies OK on A-Weapon Use

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House said flatly today that President Johnson had not given U.S. field commanders involved in the Vietnamese conflict authority to use nuclear weapons.

This question of authority over nuclear weapons arose at the White House in connection with a statement made Wednesday at Hershey, Pa., by Republican presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater.

Goldwater, in a press conference following the GOP unity meeting at Hershey, expressed the belief that Johnson's orders to the U.S. Seventh Fleet carried with them authority to "use any weapons."

White House Press Secretary George E. Reedy, questioned about the President's orders to American forces involved in Southeast Asia, said:

"I know of nothing in those statements or any of the supporting papers that would be relevant to nuclear weapons or would authorize the use of nuclear weapons and we would be very much interested in knowing precisely what language is being referred to."

Reedy was then asked directly if Johnson had authorized use of nuclear weapons in Vietnam.

"No," Reedy answered.

Goldwater had implied that Johnson gave the U.S. commanders involved in the Gulf of Tonkin retaliation authority to use tactical nuclear weapons if they thought it necessary.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara immediately issued a joint statement denying the Arizona senator's interpretation of the event and describing his implication as "both unjustified and irresponsible."

Goldwater said that was the way he interpreted Johnson's orders to the Seventh Fleet calling for aerial strikes against North Vietnamese torpedo boat bases in response to attacks on U.S. destroyers.

The senator said he understood that Johnson told the Navy to use "any weapons" in its Aug. 4 air strike against the bases. He added that "when you say 'any weapons necessary,' the public mind can imagine a lot of things."

He said, however, that he had not seen the President's orders to the Seventh Fleet.

The issue arose in the context of the senator's belief that the NATO commander in chief in Europe should have authority to use tactical nuclear weapons in case of attack without first consulting the President.

Pampa Resident Hurt Seriously In Car Accident

A 44-year-old Pampa resident was seriously injured last night when the auto he was driving careened off State Highway 152 and overturned twice.

Taken to Highland General Hospital and listed in good condition was Cleo Hoyler, 128 N. Sumner.

Hoyler was traveling west on 152 when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

Highway patrolman Vernon Cawthon said Hoyler's late model vehicle left the roadway, crashed into two guard posts and flipped over in the air twice.

Hoyler was taken to the hospital by a passerby who came upon the wreck.

Cawthon said the vehicle was totally demolished.

Hoyler is co-owner of the Cantrell and Hoyler Drilling Company and was en route to a well location when the accident occurred.

He was alone in the vehicle.

Refugees Returning To CONGO VILLAGES

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — Refugees were reported slowly returning to their villages today in the aftermath of "high priestess" Alice Len-shina's call to her Lumpa followers to cease their "holy war" against the government.

In the past month the fanatical religious sect's "holy war" has become a jungle bloodbath that has claimed almost 500 lives.

Alice, the 45-year-old former housewife who stirred the Lumpas to a murderous frenzy with her claims of reincarnation, surrendered to the government Tuesday.

From a jail cell, she immediately issued a plea for her followers to lay down their spears and return to peaceful pursuits.

Premier Kenneth Kaunda told parliament he planned to call up another battalion of troops on Saturday to prevent possible reprisals against members of the sect.

Kaunda sent 2,000 soldiers into the country's eastern regions last month under orders to put down the Lumpa uprising and bring in Alice "dead or alive."

According to government figures, 491 persons were killed and 344 wounded in the fighting that ensued. But unofficial estimates put the death toll closer to 1,000.

GOP Party Leaders Praise Goldwater's Unity Appeal

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Leaders of all segments of the Republican party joined today in applause — ranging from polite to hearty — for Sen. Barry M. Goldwater's unity appeal at the GOP's "summit" conference.

One appeal was delivered Wednesday at a Hershey, Pa., meeting attended by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and nearly all of the Republican governors and candidates for governor this year.

Rep. William E. Miller of New York, Goldwater's running mate, and other party leaders also attended the closed session.

"I am on his team," said Eisenhower after telling newsmen that any doubts he may have felt about the 1964 program had been satisfied.

Should Help Ticket

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who fought to the end to prevent Goldwater's nomination, said the senator's statement should help the ticket "throughout the country and in New York."

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho said Goldwater had "clarified quite a few things" and "made things easier for some of the people from the big industrial states."

Gov. John H. Reed of Maine, and John A. Volpe, a former governor of Massachusetts who is a candidate for the job again, both said their reservations about Goldwater had been answered and that they would support the national ticket.

After returning to Michigan, Gov. George W. Romney said Goldwater had "emphasized his intentions that this campaign will avoid racism and extremist support.

Will Cooperate

"The Michigan Republican party organization at the state and local levels will continue to cooperate fully with Sen. Goldwater's campaign organization," Romney said. "We will use every Republican asset available, including an unequalled record of state progress under Republican leadership, to achieve Republican victories in Michigan."

Goldwater, who virtually snubbed his GOP opponents after winning the presidential nomination, welcomed them all under the party umbrella Wednesday. His speech was clearly intended to answer critics who felt he was indifferent toward the civil rights issues, too willing to take support from extremist groups, and too reckless to direct defense and foreign policy.

Rockefeller cited Goldwater's comments on these and other issues in saying that the nominee's speech had "clarified" his position on questions of deep concern to the country.

Negroes Riot in Paterson Again; Violence Greater

Estimated 600 Demonstrators Also on Rampage in Elizabeth

By United Press International

Hundreds of Negro youths went on a rampage in the streets of Elizabeth and Paterson, N.J., Wednesday night, throwing fire bombs, bricks and bottles at helmeted police.

It was the second night of violence. At Paterson, a policeman said the violence was greater Wednesday night than the night before.

At Elizabeth, an estimated 600 Negro youths, many wearing black headbands, shattered store windows overturned automobiles and cursed loudly.

Sections of both northern New Jersey cities were turned into armed camps. At least 30 Negroes, including a woman, were arrested in Paterson and six Negroes were taken into custody at Elizabeth.

In New York Wednesday, President Johnson vowed that racial violence will never keep his administration from enforcing the new civil rights law and preventing lawbreakers from turning parts of America into a "jungle where the weak are the prey of the strong and many."

Johnson demanded that acts of racial violence and civil disorder "be stopped and punished whether they occur in Mississippi and New York."

Johnson made his remarks in a speech before the American Bar Association convention, hours before new violence broke out in New Jersey.

In Mississippi, Gov. Paul B. Johnson pointed at racial unrest in the North and accused northern states of practicing "de facto segregation" showing a lack of racial harmony.

Gov. Johnson, speaking at a county fair at Philadelphia, Miss., near where three civil rights workers were slain and buried under an earthen dam, noted that Mississippi had the lowest crime rate of any state which, in view of the large Negro population "points out that the segregated way of life is the way to peace."

Paterson Mayor Frank X. Graves, who met with Negro civil rights leaders in an effort to solve the pattern of racial violence prior to Wednesday night's outbreak, said that "there had been a great deal of Black Muslim activity in the city during the past month, and if new violence breaks out it could possibly be blamed on them."

Elsewhere:

Atlanta: Lester Maddox, a segregationist restaurant owner whose anti-integration exercises have drawn crowds of up to 500 persons, was ordered Wednesday to appear in federal court next Thursday to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court under the civil rights law. Maddox turned away five Negroes from his restaurant Tuesday.

Dallas: A group of demonstrators, led by a Negro minister, showed up at a school board meeting Wednesday and told the board that its integration plan for Dallas schools would have been sufficient four years ago, but does not meet present needs. The group, members of the Congress of Racial Equality (See PATERSON, Page 3)

Ram Proves to Be Tough Adversary For 'Bullfighter'

ASH, England (UPI) — El Alf, the British bullfighter, scowled at Bimbo, the pet ram. Bimbo scowled back at Alf and charged.

Alf ended up in bed, nursing a bruised shin and wondering what he will do when he stops practicing with rams and faces a real live bull in the back yard of his pub here Sunday.

Alf — Alfred Marvin, 46-year-old keeper of the King's Head pub — has promised to fight a 2-year-old Jersey bull, with all proceeds going to charity.

The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has threatened to prosecute if Alf kills the bull.

"We'll see," said Alf. "It all depends on the bull. If he gets nasty with Alf, Alf will get nasty with him."

"My wife thinks I am mad," he said. "She's probably right."

Action Threat To Truce

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — Greek Cypriot forces were reported today to be cutting off water and food supplies to Turkish Cypriot towns, creating a new threat to the shaky Cyprus truce.

A top United Nations source said the Greek Cypriot blockade had left several Turkish Cypriot communities without water and with severely restricted stocks of petroleum supplies. It was reported the Turkish Cypriots were forced to drink brackish water.

Canadian U.N. troops tried to deliver food and water supplies to Lefka in northwestern Cyprus, but were turned back by Greek Cypriots.

It was feared the blockade could be a new tactic aimed at wiping out Turkish Cypriot resistance on this island. It was a move that could trigger new violence in the communal warfare that has brought Greece and Turkey to the brink of war and imperiled the NATO alliance.

Turkish jet planes made machine gun and rocket attacks against Greek Cypriot positions around Kokkina in northwest Cyprus last weekend in an effort to relieve pressure on the Turkish Cypriot defenders.

(Turkish Premier Ismet Inonu has sent Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev a message asking him to use his influence on Greek Cypriots to restore peace in Cyprus.)

Meanwhile, it was announced that Greek Cypriot military leader Gen. George Grivas set up a conference with the U.N. command today to discuss establishment of new U.N. outposts in the battle-scarred northwestern section of Cyprus.

Congressmen Postpone Trip To Panhandle

WASHINGTON (SpI) — The likelihood that beef import legislation will come to the floor of the House of Representatives late this week has forced three members of the House committee on interior and insular affairs to postpone a scheduled inspection trip to the Texas Panhandle.

Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa said he, Congressman Tom Morris of Tucumcari, N.M., and Congressman J. Edgar Chenoweth of Trinidad, Colo., deeply regret having to postpone plans to visit Friday the northeastern Potter County site of the proposed "Alibates Flint Quarries and Texas Panhandle Pueblo Culture National Monument."

"The beef import problem is of vital importance to the farmers and ranchers and total economics of the districts represented by each of us," Rogers said. "It now appears that the House may be able to take up late this week legislation to impose quotas on the excessively high level of beef and meat imports reaching the United States."

MOBILE UNIT — Mrs. O. F. Kreimeyer, 1028 E. Francis, is shown removing a Red Cross first aid mobile unit from the trunk of her car. Mrs. Kreimeyer, along with 18 other Red Cross first aid instructors have their cars equipped with the units. Last year the units were used in 22 car accidents to help 30 injured persons.

(Editor's note . . . this is the first in a series of articles on participating agencies of the Pampa - Lefors United Fund. By LIBBY SHOTWELL

Gray County Chapter of the American Red Cross, a participating agency in the Pampa-Lefors United Fund, has provided mobile units for the cars of the first aid instructors who have current cards in first aid. These mobile units are made up of a blanket, flashlight, three sets of flares, splints and 3 sterile bandages. Each unit has its own 16-piece first aid kit and each car carries a sticker showing that the person driving the car has the equipment and the knowledge to use it.

The chapter has 19 cars with mobile units and last year helped in 22 car accidents with 30 injured persons receiving emergency help until a doctor arrived. These units cost approximately $30. Mrs. O. F. Kreimeyer, first aid instructor, had her unit two days when she came upon a wreck and helped the injured party before the ambulance arrived. All of this is made possible by the contributions through the Pampa Lefors United Fund.

Gridders Opening 'Foot' Ball Season

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—Eleven football players will have to go 44 miles Saturday just to get their kicks.

The lads from Deming, N.M., will attempt to boot a football from Mesilla Dam, N.M., to the new Sun Bowl Stadium in El Paso. They're hoping to make it in seven hours and 4,000 kicks.

Under the rules of a contest set up by officials of the Southwestern Sun Carnival, sponsors of the annual Sun Bowl game, a player must kick the ball at least 10 times before passing it over to another kicker.

The ball must be kicked from the spot where it is retrieved.

Refueling Plane Crashes in Japan

TOKYO (UPI)—A U.S. Air Force air-to-air refueling plane crashed in a mountainous region of northeastern Japan today.

First reports said its 11-man crew parachuted to safety.

"As far as we can tell, everyone aboard is okay," an Air Force spokesman said, adding rescuers had established contact with at least part of the crew.

The four-engine propeller-driven aircraft, used for mid-air fuel replenishing of the Air Force's long distance planes, was heading south from Misawa Air Base to Yokota Air Base near Tokyo. Misawa is located on the northern portion of Japan's main island of Honshu.

The Kyodo news agency reported from Morioka, near the crash site, that one of the 11 crewmen aboard was injured seriously and that two others were missing.

Air Force spokesmen said military information was that all aboard were reported safe.

Yard Policemen Search Buildings For Train Robber

LONDON (UPI) — Scotland Yard police raided hotels and homes today in a futile search for one of Britain's "great train robbers" who made good on his boast to escape from jail.

Charles Wilson, a 32-year-old, tough-talking bookmaker who was sentenced to 30 years in prison for his part in last year's $7.3 million train robbery, made a sensational escape from Winslow Green Prison in Birmingham early Wednesday morning.

The jail break was one of the most daring in British prison history.

Three men got into the jail by using a ladder stolen from a construction yard next door. They blackjacked Warden William Nicholls, 50, and slipped into the cell block with copies of the prison's master keys.

Next the gang unlocked Wilson's cell and waited while the robber changed out of his prison clothes.

Then all four men climbed out of the jail on a rope ladder and made their getaway in a waiting car. Officials said the whole escape took only 10 minutes.

District Governor Visits Rotarians Of Pampa Group

H. Hicks Allen, governor of Rotary International District 573, paid his official visit to the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday noon at the Coronado Inn.

A resident of Snyder, Allen urged members to carry out the theme, "Rededicate to Rotate" during 1964-65. He said that each member should rededicate himself to Rotary principles and work at whatever his position in Rotary, from the president of the club to its newest member.

Club president Gordon Lyons introduced Allen and his wife.

Tuesday evening, Allen attended a Rotary workshop held in the Southwestern Public Service Building.

WAR ON RATS
BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI)—Hungary sought a Pied Piper Tuesday to rid its wheat field of rats.

The Budapest newspaper Magyar Nemzet said a plague of rats has struck several areas. In some regions, it said, up to 50 per cent of the crops have been destroyed.

Hungarian Agricultural official Oliver Nechay said 514,325 acres have been ruined by the rats, making the plague almost as bad as the 1948-49 onslaught, in which 584,500 acres were destroyed.

HOUSE PASSES BILL
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House passed a bill Wednesday which would permit an estimated 4,000 Americans to file claims totaling up to $1.5 billion for property seized by Communist Cuba. The measure now goes to the Senate.

The claims would not be paid until the United States could enter into negotiations with a new Cuban government replacing the regime of Premier Fidel Castro.

MORE CENTRAL HEATING
LONDON (UPI) — The National Federation of Builders Merchants said today that 45,000 of the 300,000 new homes built in Britain last year had central heating.

This figure showed an improvement over previous years. Despite Britain's cold and clammy winters, only an estimated 5 per cent of the nation's homes are centrally heated.

Delight Guests - Have Ginger Spiced Spareribs for Rotisserie

SPICED SPARERIBS — Wonderful eating awaits those who have been watching these spareribs turn on the spit. Touched with ginger, this spicy marinade is brushed over the meat after it's threaded accordion fashion on the rotisserie rod.

Lazy summer days are ideal for casual entertaining. Are you having guests who like to idle time away in patio chairs watching the rotisserie spit turn as the meat cooks?

One of the most popular cuts for outdoor cooking is spareribs. Not only are they a nice change from the usual fare but they're perfectly delectable!

Spareribs are often attractively priced and they lend themselves nicely to roasting or cooking on the rotisserie. Since the lean look has become a reality in pork cuts, spareribs are meaty enough for good eating. Allow at least 3/4 pound per person for serving.

In this recipe the ribs are not cut into pieces for serving until after the cooking. Before inserting the rod into them, it may be helpful to fold the ribs in accordion fashion. This little step "bends" them into shape, making them easy to "thread" on the rod.

GINGERED SPARERIBS
3 1/2 to 4 pounds spareribs

1/2 cup brown sugar
1 envelope (8-10 ounce) dry Italian Salad Dressing Mix
1 teaspoon celery salt
1 1/2 teaspoons ginger
1/2 cup catchup
1/4 cup vinegar
1/2 cup water

Combine brown sugar, Italian Salad Dressing Mix, celery salt and ginger. Combine catchup, vinegar and water. Add to dry mixture and mix well. Thread ribs, accordion fashion, on rotisserie rod. Brush with mixture. Cook ribs over moderate heat for 2 hours (or until done) brushing with mixture every 30 minutes. 6 servings.

Green onions are usually immature early white or bulbless onions. Leeks, larger but similar, have broad dark green leaves and straight, thick white necks. Shallots grow in clusters and have only slight bulbs.

Family Favorite

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wiener-mustard muffins are a family favorite any time. To your favorite corn bread or corn muffin mix, add 2 thinly sliced wieners and 2 tablespoons prepared mustard along with milk and egg. Bake in greased muffin cups according to package directions. Serve as an accompaniment to soup or salad. Makes 12 large muffins.

Broiled Mush

NEW YORK (UPI) — Serve broiled mush for breakfast. Broil a whole pan of mush slices at once. Just make corn meal mush according to your favorite enriched corn meal package recipe; chill several hours or overnight and cut into 1/2-inch slices. Dip slices in flour; brush lightly with melted butter. Broil on foil 5 to 10 minutes on each side or until golden brown. Serve hot with syrup or honey. Serves eight.

Chicken Stuffed Tomato Salad

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
We dined recently in The Rainbow Room, an elegant restaurant 65 floors atop Rockefeller Plaza in New York.

Because the day was stifling, we chose from a salad cart of chicken-stuffed tomato salad, hard-cooked eggs with truffles, shrimp with dill on ice and a beautiful fresh pineapple, berries and cottage cheese salad.

CHICKEN STUFFED TOMATO SALAD (6 Servings)

6 medium-size firm, fresh ripe tomatoes
1 large hard-cooked egg yolk, finely chopped
Chicken salad
6 stems of parsley, 1 1/4 inches long
Head lettuce

Wash tomatoes and flash dip in boiling water and then into cold water. Remove skins with a knife. Cut a slice from the bud ends of tomatoes 1/4 inch thick and save for later use. Scoop out a small amount of the tomato pulp from the centers, leaving a cavity about 1 inch in diameter. Cut each tomato into 4 or 5 petals, beginning at the bud ends and cutting to the stem end, being careful not to cut through the tomato at the bottom. Spread the petals slightly and fill with chicken salad. Cut 1 1/2 inch round tops from the slices cut from the bud ends of tomatoes. Place one on top of each tomato. Sprinkle with chopped, hard-cooked egg and insert a parsley stem in the centers to simulate a stem. Serve on lettuce.

CHICKEN SALAD

1 cup diced, cold cooked chicken
1 cup finely diced celery
1 teaspoon finely chopped onion
1/2 teaspoon salt or salt to taste
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
Combine all ingredients and spoon into cavities of tomatoes prepared as in above directions. Want more picnic recipes?

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Plenty of attractively priced meats, fruits, and vegetables await this week's shoppers. Produce of all kinds is especially appealing.

Beef, particularly roasts and steaks, still tops the list of good red meat buys. Hams, broiler-fryers, turkeys, canned pink salmon, fish sticks, fish portions, and eggs complete the list of best buys for proteins this week.

Green beans, carrots, celery, eggplant, peppers, potatoes, and tomatoes are good vegetable buys. Corn and lettuce are especially abundant this week.

Plums are the outstanding buy in fruits this week. Additionally, the shopper will find attractive prices on large supplies of apples, bananas, cantaloupes, grapes, honeydews, nectarines, peaches, and watermelons this weekend.

Immature Green Tomatoes Will Not Ripen if Placed in Too Much Sun

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—Why won't slightly green tomatoes ripen when I put them on the window sill in the hot sun?

A — This explanation from food specialists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture: "Too much sunlight prevents development of normal, even color. Immature green tomatoes won't ripen in the sun and are likely to rot if kept there too long. The best way to ripen picked tomatoes is in the cellar or garage — some place where the temperature is from 60 degrees to 70 degrees Fahrenheit. Light is not needed to produce good red coloring in underripe tomatoes."

Q—Can you tell me how to select good meat? I'm a young bride and know very little about meat buying.

A—These simple facts about meat may help you. According to marketing specialists, the more tender cuts come from areas that aren't exercised much. Meat from the rib and loin sections, for example, is more tender than from the leg, neck or shoulder.

Ten Bad Habits Women Dislike in Other Women

What do women dislike most in other women?

I can give you the answer to that question because a great many of the women who recently answered the question, "What qualities do women admire most in other women?" went a step further and also told exactly what traits they didn't like in other women.

When one woman dislikes another it may very likely be for one of these reasons:

1. She turns her children loose on the neighborhood — and doesn't care where they are or what they are doing, so long as they aren't bothering her.
2. She is rude to her husband in public, or belittles him behind his back.

3. She thinks she is "too good" for the neighborhood she lives in and refuses to have anything to do with her neighbors.
4. She's changeable — friendly one day and distant the next.
5. She's a joiner, but never a worker.
6. She has a sharp, critical tongue.
7. She brags. She's a name-dropper, a label mentioner, a price-tag reporter.
8. She's lazy.
9. She is careless about her appearance — the kind of woman who wears hair curlers to the supermarket.
10. She talks and talks, but never listens.

Judging from my mail, any woman who wants to be admired by other women would do well to check herself on those 10 items.

Teen-Agers Need Goal to Develop Nutritional Habits — Not Preaching

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — You can't preach nutrition to teen-agers. The way to teach proper eating habits is for them to have a goal for developing them.

So says David Wynn, program director for the Boys Clubs of America, which represents 635 clubs and 600,000 members.

Wynn got on the subject of teen-ager eating patterns when asked what were current fad diets with the younger set. Pizza and Sloppy Joes are high on the list, but more about the favorites later.

Said Wynn, "I think most of us are concerned with nutrition. But we know it will get us nowhere to try to talk nutrition in a preachy way.

"There is no point at all in saying, 'Someday you will get fat if you keep on eating this food or that which may be high in calories but low in body building content.'"

"Teens are simply not interested in 'someday,'" Wynn continued. "Therefore," Wynn continued, "we associate the values of good nutritional food balance in direct relation to improving a skill of fulfilling an achievement in which teens are particularly interested."

"Then they will listen," he said. "For example, a boy who wants to make a football or basketball team will hear you when you talk to him about keeping up his good training by not eating junk."

Wynn said that through working with the clubs' 210 resident camp and 150 day camp programs he has concluded that with young people "pizza seems to be the big replacement of the old-fashioned hamburgers and hot dogs."

"For parties, a Sloppy Joe is strong, especially in the Midwest. You make it simply by frying hamburger meat loosely in the pan, brown, and add tomato sauce and simmer. Serve on cut, slightly steamed hamburger buns."

In the main course department, teen-agers are "pretty fond" of fried chicken, turkey, roast beef, steak and meat loaf, with hamburger and hot dogs still well received. Spaghetti and meat balls are "very popular."

Courtesy Given Miss Caron Terry

LEFORS (Sp) — Miss Caron Terry, bride-elect of Joe Gilbert, was honored with a bridal shower Thursday evening in the Lefors Civic Center.

Theme for the shower was, "Two Hearts Beat as One." Miss Terry's chosen colors of red and white were carried out in the decorations.

The serving table was covered with white lace over red, centered with a large heart of white net covered with tiny red and white plastic heart favors, flanked by tall red candles in white holders. Crystal appointments were placed at one end of the table and a large white sheet cake, with inter-lacing red hearts, inscribed "Caron and Joe", was placed at the other.

White mints, red and white napkins completed the refreshments. Mrs. Garrel Roberson served the cake and Mrs. Danny Wilemon poured the red punch.

Mrs. Hugh Terry, mother of the bride and Mrs. C. O. "Slim" Gilbert, mother of the bridegroom, sat at the receiving table with the honoree. The table was covered with white, centered by a red table runner and white heart-shaped net bow bag. Miss Terry was presented with a corsage of kitchen utensils set in a red mit and tied with a red and white bow.

Mrs. James Alexander registered the guests from a table covered in red, centered with a white bud vase, which contained a single red rose. The guest book was of red satin covered with white net, tied with red ribbon and sealed with a white wedding bell, set in pearl.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Rob Roberson, Garrel Roberson, Danny Wilemon, Earl Lane, Iva Alexander, James Alexander, Gladys Paford, Delmis Kindle, Jeff Davis, Tom Florence, Bud Cumberland, Curtis Eudy, Tad Gustin, Hoyt Pruett, O. L. Presley, Ross Simmons, M. F. Tibbets, Claude Nichols and Buster Cable.

Approximately 75 attended the event.

The Doctor Says:

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—Are injection treatments for hernia of the groin successful?

A—The injection of an irritant chemical into hernias was tried about 25 years ago and abandoned by all top flight surgeons as an unsafe procedure. In order to repair what is essentially a defect in your abdominal wall, the surgeon must be able to see what he is doing. The injection treatment, still practiced by very few surgeons, is truly a shot in the dark. With the modern choice of effective anesthetics, increased surgical knowledge and precautions for avoiding infection, hernial repair can now be safely performed on persons who used to be considered poor risks because of their age or other adverse factors.

Q—What causes a ruptured diaphragm? Will an operation correct this condition?

A—A diaphragmatic or hiatus hernia is a protrusion of part of the stomach through a weakened diaphragm. Many persons have a mild form of hiatus hernia that causes them little or no discomfort. In others' persistent pain makes it necessary to seek relief. The operation to repair this type of hernia has been greatly improved in recent years. Another form of treatment, the gastric freezing that has been used to treat peptic ulcers, has been used to correct these hernias with excellent results. But this treatment is still considered experimental.

Q—My daughter, 29, has multiple sclerosis and can't move her hands or feet. Her doctor is giving her Doriden pills to relax her so she can sleep. Do these pills contain any narcotic? Is it dangerous for her to take them?

A—Doriden, a brand of glutethimide, is a habit-forming drug that should be used only under close medical supervision. Q—Is the daily use of a sun lamp harmful? What if it is used for an hour or longer at a time? What effect would it have on the eyes if they are not shielded?

A—Daily exposure to the sun or a lamp that emits ultraviolet light can be beneficial if the exposure is not too great. Eight or 10 minutes a day is enough to satisfy your body's needs. Exposures of an hour or more can be tolerated only by persons who have developed a deep tan. The eyes should be shielded at all times because this type of light will irritate the retina and over-exposure can cause blindness.

Pupils must not be encouraged to think that there are short cuts to knowledge.

Timely Beauty Hint

If you are in the exciting process of acquiring a tan or fading it for the new season's fashions, three well-chosen shades of make-up will beautify all the day-by-day complexion color changes.

Regardless of the foundation make-up you use, select one color to harmonize with your natural skin tone. One in a rich deep shade to match the darkest tan your complexion finally becomes, and the other in a medium shade just between the two. Apply the natural color until a golden tan begins to appear. Then, during the make-up application blend in a small amount of the medium shade.

Once you use two make-up colors together, you'll realize how easy it is to match each complexion change. As the sun deepens, apply the medium shade alone, and then begin to mix it with the darker make-up until you are using it altogether.

The moment you decide to lose your suntan, simply reverse the process and blend in the lighter shades as required.

The Mature Parent
Children's Dawdling Not Always Waste of Time
By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: My boy, 6, has caught the dawdling habit from his older sister who always has to delay doing things. I have had to take a toy boat away from him because he locks himself into the bathroom with it, fills the tub with water and plays with it instead of taking his before-supper shower. He keeps me waiting in the car because he has to do something at the very last minute.

Answer: Isn't your real concern your fear that you have contributed to this dawdling resistance in your children? I wish you would admit it because it might reduce the tension under which you are living and make possible a more relaxed treatment, not just of the children but of yourself. Almost always the parents of dawdling children are victims of an exhausting, subsurface but driving conviction that everybody but themselves is unreliable. As children they were entitled to this conviction because their parents were unreliable people — promise-breakers, parents who did a lot of ordering around like "Get me my glasses. . . see what your brother is doing. . . find me my pocketbook."

Constantly delegated to caretaker responsibilities, they not unnaturally came to the conclusion that nobody could be expected to do any caretaking but themselves. This, I expect, the conclusion that operates in you and expresses itself in the caretaker's supervising "hurry up" attitude to which your two youngsters have responded by dawdling.

Your son is not your unreliable parents. In fact, he is much more reliable and competent than your credit him with being.

He resists using water merely to wash himself with because he is familiar with this use of water. By delaying his shower to sail his boat in the tub, he is discovering another function of water — its buoyancy. I can quite understand that the time he spends exploring this discovery inconveniences you but it cannot be called a "waste" of time.

Do you want him to attend to the washing function of water? Then attend to his enterprising interest in its buoyancy function. Stop forcing him to fight for this interest — or you may turn him into a lazy, incompetent child. If you are willing to learn how water holds up boats, he will be willing to remember how it can also clean dirty little boys.

Dear Abby....
Reader Requests Repeat Of 'Very Poor' Letter
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I once read a letter in your column back in 1958 which I thought was so inspiring that I cut it out. It was signed "VERY POOR" and I wish you would print it again because I read it every day and it has helped me more than medicine. God bless you.

FAITHFUL READER
DEAR FAITHFUL: Thank heaven for a good filling system. Here it is:

"DEAR ABBY: I've been reading the 'problems' sent to your column, and I hope you print this because it might do a lot of people some good. I'm in a charity hospital with arthritis, T. B., heart trouble, and I am gradually losing my eyesight. I'm only 38 but I can't remember being free from pain in 22 years. If I could wake up one morning feeling good again I wouldn't care if the neighbors' dogs barked, if their kids made noise, or even if my wife (if I had one) flirted with another man. What I am trying to say, Abby, is, if a person can get up in the morning and go to work on his own two legs, he should get down on his knees and thank God, for, without health, you have nothing. Even if you are rich."

"VERY POOR"

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend and I both work and have had a joint account for a year. We've been going steady for two years and plan to get married as soon as we can afford it. I'm 20 and he's 22. We're saving toward the things we'll need to set up housekeeping, at least that was the idea when we opened the account. My problem is that my boy friend wants to use the $1200 we have saved as a down payment on a sports car. He says it will be for both of us. He says he can get a real good deal on it, if he lets the guy know right away. I don't think he should buy it. He says if I loved him I wouldn't hesitate. I do love him, but I can't see us buying a sports car right now, but I can't put into words why. Can you help me?

HESITATING
DEAR HESITATING: I'll "put it into words" for you. "Look, Dear, our joint savings are to start a home. YOU may want a vine-covered sports car but I don't. Even though your happiness is important to me, our life together had better start off right or not at all." (P.S. If you're wise, you'll take a long, hard, second look at this fellow. He sounds immature and self-centered to me.)

Decorative Coffee Cans Make Colorful Home Containers

Those new coffee cans with plastic lids needn't be retired after the coffee's gone. Instead of throwing them away, turn the cans into decorative canisters, flower pots or cookie jars.

Cover the coffee containers with decorative Marvalon adhesive covering to match or contrast with your basic kitchen color. You can choose a patterned covering or use a solid color and decorate it with lettering or cutouts of contrasting Marvalon. Matching one, two and three pound containers will give you an attractive set for storing tea, coffee, sugar or flour.

Of course, the canisters don't have to be confined to the kitchen. As flower pots, they can be attractive accents for a den or bedroom. In a child's room, they make perfect containers for small toys such as balls, jacks, marbles and blocks.

Cassius Vows He'll KO Liston

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—Cassius Clay, heavyweight champion of the world, stopped in this Panhandle city Wednesday night and announced he will eliminate former champ Sonny Liston in the second round of their rematch.

Promoter Criticizes Contender

NEW YORK (UPI)—Independent promoter Al Bolan today blasted heavyweight contender Doug Jones.

Bolan's denunciation was designed to force Jones of New York into a "high-contenders" battle with former champion Floyd Patterson.

Daniels was selected early this morning to substitute for Tony Alonti against Jones.

Daniels lost a close decision to Jones last June at Teaneck, N. J.

Patterson is scheduled to return over the weekend from Europe, where he scored his second comeback victory on July 5 at Stockholm, Sweden.

Since then Floyd has been giving exhibitions and traveling.

Koufax Another Dizzy on Hitting

By United Press International
Sandy Koufax has a shot at becoming the National League's first 30-game winner in 30 years but all he wants to do is talk about his hitting.

That's precisely what he did Wednesday night immediately after recording his 18th victory by pitching the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Sandy calculated he has 12 more starts left this season and that naturally raised the question whether he felt he could match Dizzy Dean's 30 victories of 1934.

Koufax replied "no predictions," then promptly steered the conversation toward his hitting.

To keep the record straight, when it comes to pitchers there are none better than the dark-haired Dodger left-hander; but when it comes to hitting, there are few worse.

Nevertheless, he loves to dwell on his hitting.

"I really thought I had it tonight," he said smugly.

He was talking about his hitting, not his pitching.

Koufax hit a screamer into the left field screen with the bases full off loser Jim O'Toole in the fourth inning but the blow was foul by two feet.

"Too bad you didn't make it," chimed in Manager Walt Aulton. "No one's hit a grand slam for us all year."

That was all the encouragement Sandy needed.

"Did you know I hit a homer off (Warren) Spahn in 1962?" he inquired. "And I hit another one off (Denny) Lemaster last year. I'm trying to make it an annual affair. I sure would've liked to get one tonight."

Oh well, you can't have everything.

As it was, Koufax ruined Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson's 45th birthday party, held at home plate before the game, and would have had a shutout too had it not been for Deron Johnson's 17th homer in the seventh inning.

Home Free
By that time, the Dodgers were home free. They capitalized on two errors to register a pair of runs in the second inning and Maury Willis singled home two more in the fourth, handing O'Toole his fifth defeat compared with 12 victories.

PHS Hires Alumnus As Coach

Gary Griffin, 27-year-old former Pampa High School and Rice Institute basketball star, will replace Roy Kieval as assistant basketball coach at Pampa High School.

He will coach the Shockers in basketball, be head tennis coach and teach American History in addition to his duties as assistant to head coach Terry Culley.

This will be Griffin's third coaching assignment, although he has been in the insurance field for the past two years. He has been with Prudential in Pampa since March, 1963.

After graduating from Rice in 1959 with three varsity letters, Griffin taught physical education and coached the ninth grade basketball team at Cullen Junior High in Houston for a year.

His next position was as assistant to Hal Lambert at Spring Branch High School in Houston.

Griffin was a starter for the Rice Owls under Don Suman for three years. He played with Temple Tucker and Tom Robitaille on the strongest Rice team since the Owls' last championship squad in 1953-54.

While a Harvester, Griffin played under Clifton McNeeley on two of Pampa's state championship teams. The Harvesters beat the Austin Maroons 61-47 for the 1953 title and repeated in 1954 with a 47-44 victory over Crozier Tech of Dallas. Griffin graduated from high school in 1955.

He and Johnnie Lee Smith, a 1956 PHS graduate, married in 1958 in Houston, where Johnnie Lee was attending the University of Houston. They have two boys, Lee, 4, and Bob, 1½.

He and Johnnie Lee Smith, a 1956 PHS graduate, married in 1958 in Houston, where Johnnie Lee was attending the University of Houston. They have two boys, Lee, 4, and Bob, 1½.

St. Paul, Minn. (UPI)—The $65,000 St. Paul Open golf tournament got under way today with National Open champion Ken Venturi and PGA King Bobby Nichols the favorites to gain the $11,500 first place money.

Conspicuous in its absence was the "famous foursome" of Arnold Palmer, Tony Lama, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez, the Western Open champion, had originally indicated he would play here, but after his victory in Chicago Sunday he decided to skip this tourney in favor of an exhibition.

Jack Rule Jr., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who hasn't won a tourney since he tied the 72-hole record with a 266 last year, will defend his crown.

Among those entered were Canadian Open champion Kel Nagle of Sydney, Australia, former National Open champion Julius Boros, 1963 British Open king Bob Charles, Gene Littler, Fred Hawkins, Bruce Crampton, Doug Ford, former PGA champion Bob Rosburg, former St. Paul title holders Don Fairfield and Dutch Harrison, Phil Rodgers, Charley Sifford, Dave Hill and Tommy Jacobson.

The $65,000 purse is an increase of $30,000 over the 1963 total.

Austin Remains in Ruth Tourney
PARAGOULD, Ark. (UPI)—Austin, Tex., powered by some fancy hitting from Danny Covert, eliminated Paragould from the Babe Ruth regional tournament Wednesday night 14-4.

Covert hit a home run with two on in the second inning. In all, he accounted for seven runs with the homer, a double, a single and a sacrifice.

OLTON — Johnny Hatcher will open defense of his Olton Country Club Invitational Tournament championship tomorrow.

Match play rounds tomorrow and Saturday will cut the field to four golfers, who will play 18 holes medal Sunday to determine the championship.

The Olton course hosts a West Texas PGA pro-amateur event today along with qualifying for medalist honors for the tournament proper.

Independent Baseball
The City Slickers rallied for four runs in the final two innings to beat the Bandits 6-5 last night.

The Bandits scored four runs in the sixth to take a 5-2 lead but couldn't hold on to it.

In contrast to most of the games in the series between the two teams, this one was a pitcher's game. Winner Larry Daniels struck out 14 and loser Mike Stone fanned 12.

The hurriers were also hitting stars. Stone hit two doubles and a single while Daniels tripled and singled.

Bowens Powers Birds to Victory

By United Press International
For a guy they're paying the minimum, the Baltimore Orioles sure are getting the maximum out of slugger Sam Bowens.

Bowens is working for about $7,500, which is pretty close to the lowest figure a major leaguer can be paid.

Most rookies draw that same salary and since the 25-year-old Bowens also is a rookie he didn't raise any fuss at contract signing time. He'll have a much better talking point this coming winter, though.

If things get a little sticky, he can tell the Baltimore front office how his bat kept the club atop the American League during those August dog-days when both the White Sox and Yankees were breathing down the Orioles' backs.

He now has belted four homers in the past five days and his 15th and 16th of the season not only powered the Orioles to a 7-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox Wednesday night but also stretched their league lead to two games.

Not Too Concerned
Bowens, who is batting a solid .282 and has taken over the regular right field job, might have had a shot at rookie of the year honors were it not for Minnesota's spectacular Tony Oliva but that doesn't concern him too much.

What pleases him most is that he's supplying the big bat in Baltimore's lineup at the moment although he's at a loss to offer any particular reason.

"You can't explain when you're doing good or bad," he said after his performance against the Red Sox Wednesday night. "Right now everything seems to be coming down the middle. Everything looks good."

Throws Five-Hitter
Bowens' pair of homers were more than enough for Milt Pappas, who set down the Red Sox on five hits and never permitted a Boston base-runner past second in turning in his 11th victory against five defeats. Ed Connolly (2-9) was the loser.

The Yankees, who meet the Orioles for the last time this year in a three-game series starting Friday night at Baltimore, beat the White Sox 7-3 Wednesday. Detroit defeated Minnesota 6-2. Washington downed Kansas City, 4-3, and Los Angeles topped Cleveland 4-2.

Mickey Mantle slammed his 24th and 25th homers, one of which was a 500-foot tape measure job, as Mel Stottlemyre made his major league debut with a fine five-hitter for the Yankees over the White Sox. Mantle's big blow came off loser Ray Herbert (5-4), the ball landing 15 rows up in the centerfield bleachers at Yankee Stadium. Clete Boyer and Roger Maris also hit homers.

Killebrew Hits 40th
Bill Freehan's three-run homer and Mickey Lolich's four-hit pitching carried the Tigers to victory over the Twins. One of the hits off Lolich, now 12-7, was Harmon Killebrew's 40th homer. Jim (Mudcat) Grant (9-8) was the losing pitcher.

Two-run homers by Don Lock and Jim King provided the Senators with their winning margin.
