COMMISSION TO SPEAK AT MASS MEETING

PUBLIC INVITED TO HEAR HIGHWAY OFFICIALS

Visitors from Dumas, Stinnett, Borger and Skellytown will be in Pampa on May 7, when members of the Texas highway commission and state engineers visit in Pampa. Plans for the Pampa meeting were made in Borger last night when Reno Stinson, member of the chamber of commerce highway committee, Garnet Reeves, manager, and County Judge Sherman White met with delegations from the above towns.

The commissioners will be given a dinner in the basement of the Methodist church at 1 p. m. Oil company superintendents and executives of all companies and firms using the Pampa-Borger-Dumas road will be guests along with delegations from towns and communities along the road. At 2:30 o'clock a mass meeting will be held in city auditorium to which everyone will be invited. The commission members will speak to the audience.

Plans call for the party to leave Dumas, after breakfast at 9 o'clock. They will go to Sunray and then to Pampa via Stinnett, Borger, and Skellytown.

John Roby, chairman of the highway committee, and President James Collins urge every Pampa and oil-field worker who can possibly attend the meeting to be there.

In the party will be Robert Lee Bobbitt, chairman of the commission, Harry Hines and John Woods, members, Gibb Gilchrist, state engineer, and W. J. Van London, division engineer.

Mr. Bobbitt and his party will be guests at a banquet in Amarillo on the night of May 6. Pampanas will be guests of the commission, an invitation having been extended to them while in Austin recently. On the night of May 7 the visitors will be guests at a banquet in Clarendon.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENTS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

DALLAS, April 28—More than 1,500 students and teachers are expected to attend the Fifth Annual Junior High School conference to be held in Dallas next Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the School of Education of Southern Methodist university.

"Guidance in the Junior High School" is the theme of the conference. Outstanding speakers at the Conference include Dr. George W. Frazer, president of the Colorado State Teachers' College, Greeley, and Eli Foster, assistant superintendent of the Tulsa, Oklahoma, schools.

In his talk Professor Foster will discuss the experimental program being carried on by the Progressive Education association in thirty leading high schools of the United States, of which Tulsa is one. Practically all the leading universities of the country have agreed to accept students from these thirty high schools, even though they have not completed the traditional units of work required for entrance into college.

Students from Pampa High who will attend the conference are Lester Clemmons, Billy Mounts, Willett Stark, Bill Coons, Bonnie Lea Ross, Aubrey Green, Hugh Stennis, Leland Finney, and Helen Harris. Mrs. Bonnie Rose will accompany them, taking a group in her car.

Teachers who plan to go are Mrs. T. E. Simmons, Tom Herod, and another not yet named.

I Heard... Pampa "on the air" and saw Pampa "in the papers" following the announcement yesterday that Sammy Baugh, all-American quarterback with the T. C. U. Horned Frogs last year, had joined Pampa's baseball club for the summer. Several radio stations broadcast the news and at least five papers coming in to Pampa carried the news.

Welcome, Wichita Visitors! AN EDITORIAL

Pampa welcomes you to the capital of the Top O' Texas. The keys to the city are yours. Every last resident of the city is happy to have the 100 or more good-willers from Wichita, Kas., here, and from official family down to private citizens we want you to have a good time during your stay tonight.

Your return to Pampa on the 1937 goodwill trip gives us a feeling of pride and the city is honored by your decision to come back year after year. Arrangements have been made to entertain you at the Country club tonight and there will be a crowd out there to make you feel at home.

Pampa Chamber of Commerce officials wish you to know that there is nothing shallow in the note of sincerity that they offer in extending you a welcome to the city.

Neighborly relationship, such as is exemplified by the Wichita Chamber of Commerce goodwill trip, is what makes inter-city and inter-state good-fellowship continue to grow.

Pampa businessmen and members of civic groups always feel benefited after a visit by an up-and-doing group of men from another city.

Likewise, friendly feelings are keyed up when Pampanas make similar visits away from home.

Again— Make yourselves at home, have a good time—and come back often.

Wichita Trade Trip Program To Go On Air

Pampanas will entertain and be entertained by the Wichita, Kas., trade trippers when they come to Pampa tonight on their annual goodwill trip. Their train will arrive at the Santa Fe station, from the west, at 7:45 o'clock.

An official chamber of commerce welcoming committee will be on hand but members urge Pampanas to be at the train and join in the welcome. The visitors, about 100 strong, will stay in Pampa until 1 o'clock tomorrow morning when they will leave for Clinton, Okla.

When the visitors step from the train they will be greeted by a local band which will join with the famous Wichita American band and quartet in a program, which will be broadcast over station KANS, Wichita, Kas., on KFDN. Hollister, station manager, will act as master of ceremonies on the 30-minute program. Many Pampanas will make brief remarks during the broadcast, arrangements for which are being made through cooperation of Pampa's station, KFDN.

Following the downtown program, at the station, the visitors will be taken to the Pampa Country club where a reception and dance will be held. Admittance will be by card only and Pampa business men may secure tickets from the chamber of commerce headquarters or from M. P. Downs, chairman of the committee on arrangements. Mr. Downs urged local citizens to secure tickets early. There is no charge for them.

Wichitans who will accompany R. E. Black, president of the Wichita Chamber of Commerce, will include: J. W. Rickman, Paul Corner, Paul Boston, Bert Strider, Russell Jump, L. B. Smith, G. W. ## YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barten

When Tommy is at home he must obey his mother and father. At school there is his teacher with almost complete dictatorial power. On the street, or at the neighbor's, there is no one actually on the spot to insist on good behavior, he is likely to throw off the ties of government and become—just Tommy.

Householders with property adjoining the schoolhouse are likely to complain to school authorities when their lawns are tramped or their walks paper-strewed. They figure that most of the papers are school papers, and that the thoughtless vandals must come under the jurisdiction of the teachers and principal. This is not the case, however. The child is responsible to his parents and to the city authorities unless he is on school property.

Schools May Only Persuade

Frequently the powers in the school building undertake persuasion of their charges, beyond the bounds of the building, because they feel that it reflects on their discipline if the children, as soon as released, forget their manners.

Yet all they can do is discourage or advise. Actually there is little they can do about vandalism on the part of any pupil. They may appeal to honor and civic spirit and decency, warn the children to be quiet because of the very sick man down the block, but here their authority ends. In former days, I got an occasional note from mothers, asking me to see that Johnny or Sue went straight home from school.

I would always speak to the child, but that was the best I could do. On the street, except on the school pavement, I was a powerless as any passing pedestrian.

The behavior of the child off his own territory is up to the parents, always. If it exceeds the boundaries of civic law, the policeman may step in and have a say-so. If it is serious enough to go before a justice, the parents must appear and answer for the young offender. The school is out of it, not only from a standpoint of law and order, but morally.

Must Keep Within Bounds

The child should be able to deport himself within bounds wherever he goes. It is his parents' responsibility to see that he does not throw papers, chalk sidewalks, spoil flower beds or

STUDY COURSE OF NEXT YEAR BEING PLANNED

Yearbook Committee Will Start Club Program

Suggestions for next season's study course were gathered in Twentieth Century Culture club yesterday by the yearbook committee, Mmes. R. M. Johnson, Lee Waggoner, and C. W. Stowell, who will outline the program soon. This was the chief business transacted yesterday at the home of Mrs. Waggoner.

A pretended plane trip along the Pacific coast of South America was described as the program feature. By Mrs. Stowell, Countries bordering the Pacific on that continent had been named in answer to roll call.

Mrs. H. P. Lusby spoke on Chile, its spirit and its wealth. She compared the capitol, Lima, with Mexico City. Nitrate plants, source of much of Chile's wealth, were discussed by Mrs. J. P. Wehring, who described the plant at Chiquimacata.

Those attending the meeting were Mmes. D. E. Robinson, C. H. Schulkey, Garnet Reeves, L. L. McToloh, Marvin Lewis, Ewing Leach, R. E. Lawrence, F. A. Howard, Johnson, Jim Collins, Joe Burrow, C. W. Briscoe, C. S. Boston, Stowell, Lusby, and Wehring.

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usages by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Has the practice made "crashing" parties an accepted form of conduct?
2. Should a house guest enter enthusiastically into all of the plans of the hostess?
3. Is it good manners at bridge for the confident player to say, "The rest of the tricks are mine?"
4. How many score pads and pencils should be on each bridge table when a hostess is making the arrangements for a party?
5. How long does a hostess usually plan for her guests to play cards at an afternoon party?

What would you do if—

- (a) You are a hostess serving a buffet meal and your guests, after helping themselves, stand around the table instead of going into the living room to eat?
- (b) Take your own plate in the living room and hope they will follow?
- (c) Leave your guests as they are?

Answers

1. No.
2. Yes.
3. No. It is quite possible he is mistaken!
4. Score sheets and pencils for every player.
5. An hour and a half or two hours if refreshments are to be served afterward.

Best "What Would You Do?" solution—(a).

CLUB TOLD OF AUSTRALIA BY ONCE-RESIDENT

Howard House Gives Impressions of Country

A personal experience in far-off Australia, replaced the story-book tour of the world which El Progresso club members are making this year, when Howard House was guest speaker at their meeting yesterday. Mrs. W. Purviance was hostess and Mrs. L. C. Neely program leader for the afternoon.

Don't Sleep When Gas Presses Heart

If you want to really GET RID OF GAS and terrible bloating, don't expect to do it by just doctoring your stomach with harsh, irritating alkalies and "gas tablets." Most GAS is lodged in the stomach and upper intestine and is due to old poisonous matter in the constipated bowels that are loaded with ill-causing bacteria.

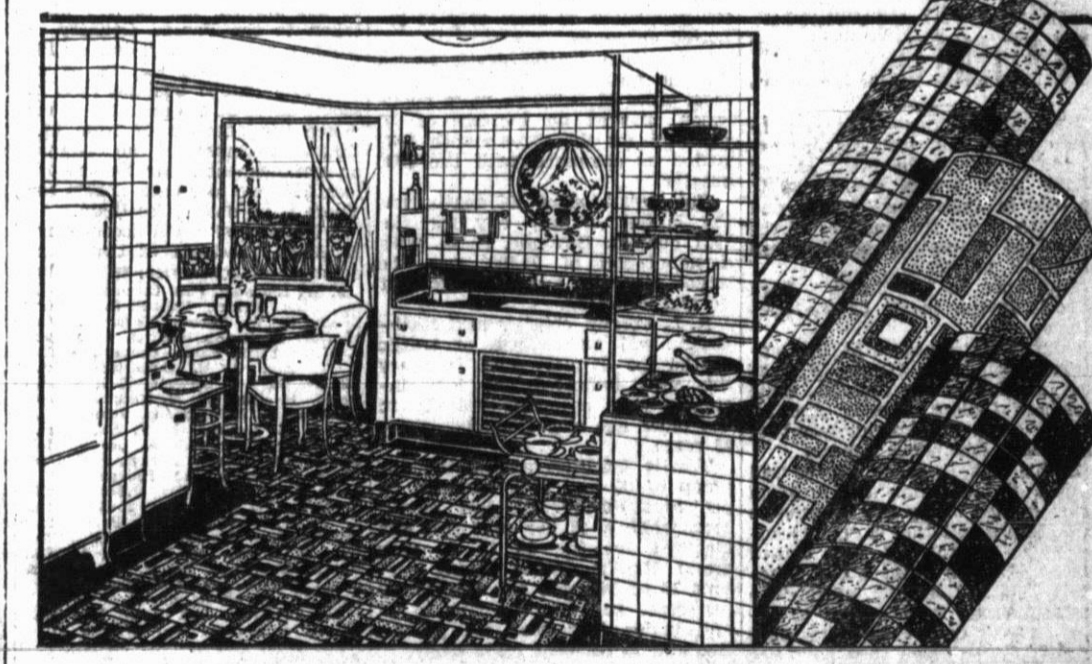

If your constipation is of long standing, enormous quantities of dangerous bacteria accumulate. Then your digestion is upset, your nervous system, heart and lungs, making life miserable. You can't eat or sleep. Your head aches. Your back aches. Your complexion is sallow and pimply. Your breath is foul. You are sick, gray, and worried. You are a sick, gray, worried, unattractive person. YOUR SYSTEM IS POISONED.

Thousands of sufferers have found in Adierika the quick, scientific way to rid their systems of harmful bacteria. Adierika aids you to eat and cleanses foul poisons out of BOTH upper and lower bowels. Give your system a REAL cleansing with Adierika. Gas rid of GAS. Adierika does not grip— it is not habit forming.

LEVI LYNCH IS SETTING PACE IN PGA MEET

Fort Worth, April 28 (AP)—Top notch Texas professional and amateur golfers in the P. G. A.-State open took out after two pace-setting competitors today—Levi Lynch of Dallas and par.
Lynch started the second day of play with a steady 144, a stroke head of his nearest competitors, but not even he had managed to achieve par on the baffling Colonial club's 6,680-yard course. He was four strokes over.
Behind him in the medal play were Jimmy Demaret of Houston, once champion, and Sammy Schneider, bespectacled Corpus Christi professional ace. They scored 145 for the two rounds.
Because only the first 72 holes county, Lynch, Demaret and Schneider will be Texas' three representatives in the national professional golf association tournament.
Among the amateurs, Reynolds Smith, Walker cup player, and Harry Todd, former state amateur champion, both of Dallas, were low, both shooting 146. George Aubach, Dallas pro, and Smith were the only two players to even par in one of the 18-hole rounds. Par is 70. Aubach shot 147 to put him among the leaders.
Others with formidable scores included: Henry Ransom of Bryan, Tom Sockwell of Dallas, Don Schumacher, state amateur champion from Dallas with 148; Jack Burke of Houston, defending champion, Tony Butler of Harlingen, Bryan Winter of Dallas and Rufus King, Southern Methodist University student, with 149's.
Today's 36 holes will conclude the tournament.

BEAUMONTERS BEAT DALLAS AS CATS WIN

(By The Associated Press)

North and south met on even terms in the Texas league yesterday. Fort Worth and Oklahoma City strengthened their claims on first division berths with decisive victories over San Antonio and Houston, while Galveston and Beaumont were successfully upholding the honor of South Texas with wins over Dallas and Tulsa.

The league-leading Beaumonters applied the bat with telling vigor against the Dallas hurler, Parker, and came out ahead 7 to 3. Galveston used the same tactics in downing the champion Tulsa Oilers 9 to 5. Fritz Dooley and Fleming hitting triples for the Bucs in a 10-hit performance. Bubba Jonnard, meanwhile, came to the rescue of Dutch Schaefer in time to cut the Oilers off with one hit after the third inning, at which point the game was tied up at 5-5.

Homer Peel's Fort Worth cats twice overcame San Antonio leads to win 11 to 5. The Cats coupled their 14 hits with poor Mission leading to win going away.

Oklahoma City, in second place, disclosed what the rest of the league may expect from Leonard Karjalain, a righthander who had the Houston Buffs swinging futilely every time the situation grew tense. He allowed seven hits. The score was 4 to 1.

Best Boxers to Fight at McLean

McLEAN, April 28.—The best high school boxers in the Panhandle will vie for honors at the McLean high school gymnasium, Friday and Saturday when the McLean Invitational boxing tournament will be staged. More than 100 fighters are expected to participate in the big affair.

Daniels of Goodnight with A. A. U. and Golden Glove experience, will most likely face "Dippy" Norman in the ring again. Norman won the decision but Daniels won the "Most Popular Fighter" award at the Wheeler meet. If the eliminations work out right there will be another thrilling fight between these two boys.

Harmon of Wheeler and Wells of McLean will meet again in the heavyweight division. Both boys tip the scales a few pounds over 200. The fighting of these boys has created considerable excitement at former tournaments and Wells of McLean is out to settle the dispute

Sports Roundup

By LDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—It's second down and 23 to go for Dizzy Dean, who promised the Cardinals 25 wins this season. Just in case you overlooked the dispatches, old Ty Cobb won himself a golf tournament out on the coast the other day. Mike Jacobs is sporting a new green overcoat that positively is the last word in Spring togger.

Superior, Wis., has a sports favorite to follow and root for in every season. Last fall it was Alphonse (Tuffy) Lemmans, the former George Washington football star, who starred with the New York Giants. In the winter Superior fans can brag about their powerful basketball teams or Bess Earhardt, America's sweetheart of the ice. Now they are all steamed up over the doing of Morrie (Snooker) Arnovich, young Philly outfielder, whose seven consecutive hits didn't hurt his chances of making the grade as a regular.

No matter what his earlier opponents may have been, they can't say Big Jack Torrance is getting a set-up in Abe Simon, tonight. Lou Heitz of the Giants is a crack spaghetti cooker. During one of the frequent showers in Portland, Ore., young Bobby Matlick, Los Angeles outfielder, observed: "Gosh, it sure rains easy here." Verdun, Quebec, is going to make a cop out of unemployed Walter Young who won the Boston Marathon last week. Tulane thinks it has a good chance to grab national honors in both golf and tennis this season.

Cleveland writers are urging the Indian Moguls to do some serious thinking about the case of Paul Dean, who they say has worked too hard at too early an age, and not make the same mistake with Bob Feller. Seems odd to read of ball games in the Southern Association being called off because of cold weather. It happened at Little Rock the other day.

Allen's protegee has been training hard and is out to take the 175-pound crown away from Kilman, won at the Wheeler tournament. All communities near McLean will be represented in the tournament and considerable interest has been created on some of the fights that will evidently come off.

DENUNCIATION OF ROOSEVELT HEARD BY C-C

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—

President Virgil Jordan of the national industrial conference board contended today the Roosevelt administration has built "a vast political organization designed to maintain it in permanent power."

His general denunciation of the President's policies, prepared for the convention of the United States chamber of commerce, was the first of the meeting. Asserting that governmental mechanisms forged by the administration are designed to bring about "a system of state capitalism," Jordan said: "The most important thing to remember about this governmental juggernaut is that it is irreversible. No matter how many there are who may desire it reversed, no political leader or party today would try to reverse it."

Reciting various administration policies, Jordan said these set up governmental machinery "that has been operating during the past four years to undermine and destroy the (private) enterprise order. "It is practically complete, but a few more gadgets are being forged and will be fitted into place as soon as all constitutional obstacles are removed." During the next decade, he declared, the government may cripple the working capacity of the people, dissipate the private capital resources of the community, grind up the enterprise organization in

WHEN WE STOP GREASY INDIGESTION WE FEEL JUST FINE

Our stomach can't digest grease. Neither can our bowels. Only our pancreatic juice, working with our bile juice, can digest grease. When we get bad taste, headache and that nasty grouch feeling which comes from greasy indigestion, take 1 Carter's Little Liver Pill before each meal and 1 after. Carter's Little Liver Pills bring a large flow of our pancreatic juice and bile juice into our bowels. The large flow of these juices digests the grease we have eaten. Then we burst into life and into our work like a joyous skyrocket. But if you want this glorious relief from greasy indigestion, ask your druggist for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and stubbornly refuse to buy anything else.

It has headquarters in New York. P. W. Litchfield of Akron, O., president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, urged establishment of a democratic basis between labor and management. "There can be no assurance of economic stability under conditions approximating a labor-dictatorship," he said, "nor can we achieve progress with the working man oppressed by autocratic capital. These paths lead to communism or fascism."

THE PRESIDENT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED

News dispatches tell us that the President will insist upon retrenched government expenditures for relief and economy in the administration. There will be almost unlimited political pressure brought to bear on the President by all the politicians, mayors and governors, in opposition to retrenchment of government expenses.

The only possible way of saving our money system is by economy. If our money system is wrecked and people with insurance and credits and preferred stocks are wiped out, it will cause untold suffering.

It is the duty of every patriotic citizen to unite against the politicians who are demanding from the Federal Government more and more appropriations, even if they think they can pay off debts with cheap money. In the long run every one will suffer.

If the President has the courage to ward off these wreckers of government, there should be a united effort supporting him. It is a critical condition.

PAYING THE PENALTY

The present administration has had four long years in which to take an accurate, complete, and fully documented census of the unemployed in this country. It has not yet done anything about it—and the fruits of this do-nothing policy are now being reaped.

President Roosevelt says the government will need to spend some $1,500,000,000 on relief during the coming year. Two groups in Congress are rising to oppose this. One group declares that $1,000,000,000 will be ample; the other insists that at least $2,500,000,000 is absolutely necessary.

The trouble is that exact, indisputable facts about the extent of the unemployment problem today are not at hand. There are plenty of estimates, but they are estimates and no more, and they all vary.

If the government had taken the trouble to find out just exactly how many people are out of work, how long they have been out of work, the rate they are going back to work, and the number that are apt to remain out of work during the next 12 months, it would be a lot easier to decide on the relief appropriation.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—Thumb prints of Marriner S. Eccles, the little giant of the federal reserve, were all over the Presidential budget message that talked to congressmen of retrenchment and hinted of taxes.

Eccles gave the public a strip-tease sample of what was in the offering when a month ago he said, in effect: The time has come for cutting down federal spending, for balancing the budget, and for putting on taxes to retire debts.

Actually his words were a bit misty and distant and were designed not to upset the congressional digestion. In turn the President's discussion of what was ahead had no immediate sting. He told the lads on the hill that while it was true that some money had to be saved they were to think nothing of it. He would do the cutting here and there and pare off $418,000,000 to bring the 1938 budget into balance.

But there was a deferred kick in the Presidential message. He told 435 representatives and a third of the senate that when they come up for election next time they must explain to the electorate why it was necessary to put on taxes. That will be 1938.

Roosevelt said the treasury would have a tax bill ready by November for delivery to congressional committees. Then would come the job of enacting it in an election year.

True enough, congress did it in 1936 but sugar coated it with the idea it was a "soak the corporation" tax. The 1936 tax bill was a "soak the rich" tax and neither it nor the "soak the corporation" tax raised enough really to dent the deficit.

The President said one purpose of tax revision would be to eliminate loop holes. But "soak the loop holes" doesn't look so frisky as a slogan for sweetening a tax bill.

A much-overlooked paragraph in the President's message seemed to express a tone of surprise that various members of congress had introduced bills seeking $500,000,000 more highway money.

Already, he suggested, more than one billion has been spent in the last four years on highways and another $450,000,000 is authorized for the next two years.

What is often overlooked in sizing up the benefits of these public works is that maintenance falls on the states and local governments. The federal government builds them, but the locals must finance operation and repair. The more spent locally for maintenance the less is left for new roads. That helps to explain pleas for federal money.

Pampans should take civic cognizance of the very splendid suggestion dropped yesterday at the weekly luncheon of the Junior Chamber of Commerce by J. P. Osborne, nationally-known Hereford breeder, when he indicated that Pampa can just as well as not become one of the stock show centers of the Top O' Texas area. . . . There is no better authority on the possibilities of Pampa's becoming a stock show mecca than Mr. Osborne. . . . By virtue of his vast experience in the business he is one of the first who should be able to realize what can be done with the proposal in this section of the state.

Mr. Osborne, willing to practice exactly what he preaches, told the Jaycee audience yesterday that he stands ready to lend any assistance he can and to cooperate with any group which is willing to tackle the show promotion. . . . With so capable a man on the advisory committee, one ventures to say now that the show could not be anything but successful, even in its swaddling clothes of a first production. . . . Mr. Osborne is an F. F. A. booster and also suggested that through the cooperation of school vocational agricultural heads and the county agent, the place to start would be with a calf show next spring. . . . Pampa's F. F. A. group no doubt would jump at an opportunity to aid in the promotion of a community-backed calf show. . . . It is a suggestion that should be followed through.

Committeemen are lining up to a bang-up two days of entertainment for all the people at the Top O' Texas and Pampa is planning to play host to thousands of visitors from surrounding cities and towns. . . . This is not to be an event for Pampans alone. . . . June 3 and 4 have been set aside for visitors to the city. . . . They are to be days when Pampans take the back seat and turn the city over to those from the outside, inviting them to come to Pampa for a good time and an early summer holiday or two. . . . Pampa is making every plan to more than live up to its reputation as the "Friendly City."

The fire department asked citizens who had "borrowed" boots and coats belonging to the department, to return them. The firemen were reorganizing, and checking equipment.

A report of a dance recital said that Melba Graham in her solo "showed grace, charm, and talent" while Katherine Vincent and Mrs. Fern Bain "deserved special mention" for "their clever dance."

A PRETTY KETTLE OF FISH

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Jon Whitcomb is one of New York's more energetic illustrators. He doesn't sit around in his studio until he is visited by a sure-fire idea. His chief enemy at the moment is the clock, because there are only 24 hours to each day, and his growing problem is an endeavor to crowd more work into the seemingly decreasing working hours.

The editor of a great monthly magazine wanted him to illustrate a special story. Whitcomb said, "wait a minute," consulted his book, and went back to the phone. "I'm sorry," he said "but I can't touch it until May 15th." Thus he dismissed an assignment that would have run into the hundreds of dollars.

However, the ones occupying him now are worth just as much—as, for instance, "Castle Key," in Colliers. This is a long continued story, and in the midst of his illustrations, Whitcomb found it necessary to hurry down to Florida for some accurate landscape stuff. Being an Ohio boy, he wasn't familiar with the curl of palms and the drape of Spanish moss as it grows in the deep south.

Down there he had to do some boating, taking photographs from the choppy sea. "I was a very bad sailor," he recalls gingerly. "I had to cling to the rail with one hand and my camera with the other, while becoming ill in a most undignified fashion."

For all his current affluence, Whitcomb doesn't plan to become carefree. Three bad illustrations, and you're through—just as a bad picture or two will kill an actor.

Whitcomb is a driving worker with an almost sadistic passion for fidelity in detail—even the smallest, most unimportant matters. Hence his rush jaunt to Florida.

Now that he is occupied so heavily, his recreation is limited to midnight rides in the park, to clear the cobwebs out of his brain, and to playing the piano in his Beaux Arts apartment, for his own amusement, which he does raucously but well.

Jon's sole hobby, beyond the confines of his studio, is clothes. He does like to dress. Recently he was talking to his tailor and his name came up.

"He was just in here," his tailor said, "with something new in the line of a coat. He always has something new. As a matter of fact, he keeps about three months ahead of Esquire."

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

There were three people loitering among your lilacs one night last week, C. P. Buckler. There were three people who walked up and down both sides of your long, trac, redges many times, pausing now and then to sniff and to exclaim and to reach out and hold an armful of the lilacs in embrace, then release the massed lavender beauty. All that has ever been said or written in praise of lilacs was meant for yours, Mr. Buckler. Their beauty is ineluctable, unsurpassable. As for quantity, it seems there were all the lilacs in the world blooming on those waist-high, neck-high, head-high lilac trees. The rows of bushes curved several times across a city block of ground that in itself is not of the city but pastoral, quiet. Why did you set out so many, Mr. Buckler? You could not have created so much beauty in any other way. So many blossoms were strange that night with the moonlight lying pale on the banked blooms. In a high plain country where no floral beauty is supposed to exist it was a strange sight, indeed, and was far removed from dust storms, high winds, rainless weeks and months. The day before our visit to your lilacs you had said this year was the first in several when the frost stayed away entirely. The lilacs are your own reward, Mr. Buckler, but we bless you for setting them out to grow.

HOLLYWOOD—You've heard of gag men and you probably have wondered just exactly what they do. . . . There is a concrete example of what one of them—one of the better ones, Bobby Vernon—did in "Walk-kil Wedding." . . . One day, on the set—whittling, whittling, thinking away his time—conceived the entire sequence between Bob Burns and Martha. . . . One of the town's everlasting arguments concerns the value of directors. . . . One side holds that the director makes the picture and the other insists he doesn't do a thing but read directions from the "script."

The lanky Arthur Treacher takes violent exception. . . . "The director," he says, "does EVERYTHING. . . . I'd rather work with a good director on a poor story than with Joe Gootz on the best scenario ever written."

"But do you want to know who I consider the most important man in pictures?" he asks. . . . "He's the guy who gives me my pay check every Saturday. . . . A new way of stating a Hollywood adage."

New Carole Lombard contracts—three for Paramount and one annually elsewhere for three years—will reportedly pay her a total of $1,800,000. . . . Local girl once named Jane Peters is doing all right. . . . And Dixie Dunbar gets $400 a week for being cute.

This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM HUSLEY CLARE

Parents should not think their children necessarily dull when they make poor grades, or even flunk, in a particular course. It is quite possible for a student who is unusually bright to flunk a course in school, especially if the subject does not interest the child. I have known parents who thought it nothing short of a family disgrace when one of the children failed to pass a subject in school.

Students do not all have the same interests, and just because one finds a certain subject uninteresting to the extent that he neglects it, is no sign that he is dumb. One of the inconsistencies of our present educational system is our insistence upon every student doing excellent work in all his school subjects. I know a certain student who is excellent in all his school subjects except history, yet he has to measure up to a good standard in that subject before he is permitted to finish his college course. This student has found history so distasteful that he has given up the idea of finishing work for a degree.

It would be a wonderful improvement on our present system if the requirements were made more elastic in order to meet the needs of individual students.

READING And Writing

By John Selby

Please resign yourself to finding the gifted William Maxwell writing a trick novel, and using pastel shades. Having done so, you will be free to enjoy "The Game Like Swallows." The title comes from W. B. Yeats' verse, as does one of the subtitles. The rest is Mr. Maxwell.

This is a triple portrait of Elizabeth, the wife of James Morrison and the mother of Bunny and Robert Morrison. It begins with Bunny, who is the typical sensitive boy of literature, who uses his fragility and his charm to get what he wants, and cries when he fails. To Bunny, Elizabeth Morrison is a center of light and a source of energy.

The second portrait is drawn through Robert, whose young life was warped but not broken by an accident which cost him a leg. Robert is a Bunyan type, a stubborn, unyielding tyrant to be outwitted, or perhaps out-charmed would be the world. But Elizabeth understands Robert, and to a certain extent Robert appreciates this. His great gratitude is earned by her steadfast refusal to make obvious allowances for Robert's "affliction."

This last is something James Morrison, Elizabeth's husband, is not quite subtle enough to understand. Neither of his sons understands him any better than he understands them. Elizabeth understands, however, it is she who steers him, who knows intuitively what reaction will be demanded by what he is about to say. For this and for much else, James loves her.

It is the "flu epidemic of war time which shatters this delicate, but not unusual, balance. Quietly, Mr. Maxwell builds up a climax which he wishes to make poignant rather than shattering. It is perfectly suited to his method, which eschews strong emotion, strongly expressed. But it puts a burden on the reader. There really is no reason why the reader should do Mr. Maxwell's work for him. Three major tragedies which lead up to a fourth and crowning tragedy should be strongly expressed, or the effect may be anti-climatic. Some readers will feel that this is true of "They Came Like Swallows."

Strong Huber Team Will Be Pampans' Foe Friday Night

Pampa's 1937 baseball season will be officially ushered in Friday night at Road Runner park when Pampans' new team and the Huber Blackfaces of Borger "cross bats." Game time will be 8 o'clock. Admission will be 40 cents for men and women from now on.

Opening night will be more spectacular than usual. The name of the Pampa team will be revealed for the first time and winners in the contest to name the team will be released and the two prize winners declared.

If more than one person registered the selected name, and there was, names of the persons will be placed in a box and one will be drawn. If that person is in the grandstand he or she will receive $20 cash and a second name will be selected and that person, if in the stands, will be the recipient of a season box seat to home games. If more than two persons turned in the winning name, each of them not winning a major prize will be given a free ticket to the next home game, providing they are at the Friday night battle.

The first ball will be hurled by Mayor W. A. Bratton, a pretty fair chucker in his younger days—and he's not so old now that he can't burn 'em across. Mayor Bratton's battery mate has not been named, but M. P. Downs will have a good man behind the plate.

A new pitcher named "Red" Evans should be here for the game. He left Valdes, N. C., yesterday morning according to a wire received by Business Manager Harold Miller. Evans was formerly with Seattle in the Pacific Coast league and with Omaha in the Western league. He comes highly recommended.

Sammy Baugh, all-American football star, will join the club but not until he receives his diploma from T. C. U. He will report about June 1. The singer was in Pampa yesterday and was impressed with the city and its wide-awake prosperity.

Although Manager Fred Brickell of the Pampans has not definitely named his starting pitcher, it is believed he will use J. B. Goodell, new left-hander who joined the club last Sunday. Goodell had two trials with Chicago but because of his stature was farmed out. He gave every indication of being the hurler the Pampans have been seeking in workout.

Lefty Carithers will likely be the Blackface mound artist with Cy

Jack Doyle Whips Chi Fishmonger

LONDON, April 28 (AP)—British heavyweights, long the subject of impolite laughter, are moving back toward the traditions of the British prize ring, much to the delight of British fight fans and the discomfort of American enthusiasts.

Irish Jack Doyle's decisive victory over King Levinsky, the Chicago fishmonger, coming on top of Tommy Farr's triumph over Max Baer, has given the British heavy-weight boxing a prestige not enjoyed since the Halycon days of the London prize ring rules.

The King, who met many American heavyweights with more stuff than he showed against Doyle, didn't have a chance against the Irishman. Doyle, a fair boxer, stayed away from Levinsky's swings and cut up the Kingfish at long range throughout 12 rounds.

TOPEES' WIN GRID BATTLE FROM 'JAYPEES'

YOUNGSTERS LOOK GOOD IN TRAINING TUSSELE

Coach Odus Mitchell's "Topees" won a 6 to 0 intra-squad football game from Coach J. C. Frejahn's "Jaypees" yesterday afternoon on wind-swept Harvester field.

The on-scene of the game came in the first quarter when Turner, playing end for the "Topees", broke through and grabbed a loose ball on an attempted reverse and ran 45 yards for a touchdown. The "Jaypees" backfield tried to work the reverse around left end but the ball flipped out of someone's outstretched hands and was blown directly into Turner's arms and he had a clear path to the goal line.

Play of newcomers to the Harvester squad was outstanding. Many of the boys trying out for the first time, or coming up from the Guerrillas, gave coaches chances to smile. Among the boys noticeable were Brown, Coshaw, Freeman, Leavitt, Dull, Carr, Dunaway, Wear and others.

With Norman Cox, end, out of the game with a bad knee, Turner had to be used at end. The former backfield man played a stellar game and he may be kept at the wing position. Coshaw, transferred from guard to tackle, also looked good in his new position.

Freeman featured the work of Leavitt and Freeman in the ball toting department. Wear also made some nice runs.

Little Don Smith called signals in place of the injured Captain J. W. Graham and he did a fine job at his new assignment. He also scooted with the ball to advantage. Reynolds and McMahon looked good as ends with Mathews and Stiles shining at guard jobs. All the boys showed signs of great football at sometime during the game.

Next week will be spent in polishing up rough spots and on May 5 the spring training season will close, probably with a game against the exes who want another crack at the "greenies."

Substitutes: "TOPEES"—Bailey, Leavitt, Candler, Nichols, Kemp, JAYPEES—G. Dull, Hubert, Fleming, Cunningham.

FASTEST AUTO RACE MAY 31 IS PREDICTED

180,000 EXPECTED TO SEE SPEEDWAY THRILLS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 28 (AP)—Eddie Rickenbacker, war ace and head of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Corporation, predicted today the 500-mile automobile race here May 31 would be the fastest in history.

He estimated 180,000 persons from all parts of the nation would view this year's race, compared with last year's record-breaking crowd of 168,000.

Lou Meyer, only three-time winner, set a new record of 109,069 miles an hour in capturing last year's grand.

Rickenbacker said there were reasons why Meyer's record could be shattered.

"One of these is the elimination of a mental hazard at the turns in the way of resurfacing the track with rock asphalt," he pointed out.

"The drivers will be able to sweep through these turns at lightning velocity and know that their tires will take hold without skidding before they hit the bricks at the straightaway."

"Another mental hazard which has been cast into the discard is that of fuel supply," he continued.

"In the race this year there will be no limit on the amount used, although economy is to be encouraged in the way of a special prize among the winners."

Cards Lead National League After Victory Over Pirates

BY BILL BONI, Associated Press Sports Writer.

If you catch Manager Frankie Frisch smiling today, don't blame the man. It's a wonder he isn't laughing out loud.

For one thing, his St. Louis Cardinals are leading the National League after beating the Pirates into 3-1 submission yesterday as rain washed out every other major league game.

But that's not all.

In pre-season ratings, experts summed up the Cards' pitching staff with a "Desh, Warnick, and then what?" Frisch believes he may have the answer in Robert Weiland, six feet, four inches and 215 pounds of left-handed pitcher.

The gangsters need a capable southpaw and Weiland, who broke the Pirates' four-game winning streak with a six-hit National league debut, looks like that man.

He has size. He has experience—first in the majors with the White Sox in 1928, since then with Louisville, the Red Sox, Indians, Browns and Rochester. He has speed—tops in strike-outs last year in the International league with 171. He fanned six Buccaneers yesterday. He's a horse for work—23 victories and 13 defeats with Rochester in 1936, appeared in the most games, 55.

Weiland was behind only at the start of yesterday's game. He served Johnny Dickshot, Pittsburgh recruit left fielder from Buffalo, a home run ball in the first inning. The Cards tied the score in the second, added another run in the fourth and the final one in the fifth.

But even that wasn't all that pleased Frisch: his Cardinals are running riot in all departments of the game.

Jerome Herman (the one and only) Dean is heading the pitching parade with Wayne Lamaster of the Phillies at two triumphs. Then there's Ducky-Wucky Medwick, second in the batting race with an average of .500.

Stan Bordagaray is tops in scoring with 8 runs. Right behind Frenchy, at 7, comes Joe Medwick, who also is pacing the circuit with 13 hits, and is tied for the lead in doubles at 5.

Johnny Mize and Pepper Martin are running neck-and-neck for driving in runs with seven apiece.

JAMESON AND GOLDTHWAITE SOLVE WICKED GOLF COURSE

BY W. T. RIVES.

TEXARKANA, April 28 (AP)—Sixteen women vigorously assaulted the dog-legged Texarkana Country club course today in the Texas Women's Golf Tournament, but so far as the gallery was concerned, only two were playing—Betty Jameson, blond young champion, and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, pretender to the throne.

Only the two favorites apparently have solved adequately the baffling puzzle that makes up the course—6,900 yards of doglegs, traps, trees and unacceptably rolling greens.

They came through first round matches yesterday in rollicking style as three highly-regarded entrants found the course too much, and were eliminated.

Slightly perturbing Betty and Mrs. Goldthwaite was the possibility they might run into tartans today. The 17-year-old San Antonio lass met Mrs. Jake Hamon of Dallas, who sprang one of the tournament's upsets in defeating Mrs. John Parrnell state municipal champion, in 22 grueling holes.

Mrs. Goldthwaite, hard-hitting Curtis Cup star, teed off with Miss Helen Warren, who played with marked confidence in eliminating Mrs. Karl Hohlitzelle of Dallas, 8 and 6.

Mrs. J. Lee Wilson of San Antonio, twice state municipal links queen, and Jo Henson, raven-haired youngster from Paris, were victims in the other gallery-gasping reversals.

Mrs. Wilson lost to Mrs. W. T. Stafford of Dallas in 19 holes. Miss Henson was confounded by a misbehaving driver and the calm perseverance of Miss Kathryn Pearson of Houston, 3 and 1. Miss Pearson deserted tennis, at which she once was intercollegiate champion, for golf only seven months ago.

Her form attracted many, however, and Club Professional Don Murphy tagged her as "a darned

Martin has stolen four bases in five games.

good golfer and one to watch in the tournament."

Miss Jameson coasted to a 9 to 7 victory over Mrs. Frank McNally of Longview yesterday and Mrs. Goldthwaite won handily from Betty Edwards, Dallas, 4 and 2.

The gallery observed that the principal difference between the two favorites' golfing and that of the remaining contestants was in the long game. Far, accurate drives when they meant much gave Miss Jameson and Mrs. Goldthwaite a big edge.

The San Antonio girl had a fine 39 on the front side, amply proving she had shed the erratic tendencies of her qualifying round.

In other matches today Miss Pearson met Mrs. Ike Handy of Houston; Mrs. H. A. Peterson of Dallas played Mrs. E. R. Hury of San Antonio; Mrs. E. H. Wohlfahrt, Dallas, met Mrs. W. T. Stafford, Dallas; Mrs. Ralph Randolph, Dallas, met Mrs. F. E. Pharr, Texarkana; played Mrs. J. S. Tate of San Antonio; and Mrs. R. E. Winger, Fort Worth, met Mrs. C. F. McCauliff, Dallas.

BICYCLE RACE ENDS
LOS ANGELES, April 28 (AP)—The American team of Bobby Walthour, Jr., and Oscar Juner won the 6-day bicycle race ending early today, scoring 1,182 points. The Italian team of Andy Devito and Frank Turano duplicated the lap stealing stunt of Walthour and Juner in the final minutes and finished on even terms in laps but took second place with a point score of 848.

ROSEBLOOM BATTERED
LOS ANGELES, April 28 (AP)—Slapstick Maxie Rosenbloom, a tired shadow of the man who won and lost the light heavyweight championship of the world, had his battered face repaired today after a ten-round defeat by Alberto Lovell, Argentine negro.

TEXAS TECH GRIDDERS TO PLAY COLLEGE OF MINES FRIDAY NIGHT

LUBBOCK, April 28 (AP)—Out here where the west already has begun and football knows no season, there will be a full-fledged football game Friday night.

Not content with roaming wide over the nation during their regular fall season, the Red Raiders of Texas Technological College are all set for a springtime tussle with the College of Mines gridders from El Paso.

The game will serve as something of a climax to five weeks of strenuous spring practice in which the Raiders sought to balance the Notre Dame offense and an unnamed defense. The Tech team has its eye on Kenneth Heineman, Mines quarterback with a reputation for sensational passing.

MAN ONCE FRIGHTENED BY OIL ADS

CHANGES TO OIL-PLATING

In spite of everything, it paid him to take ads seriously, you see, else he might never have tried Oil-Plating. First of all he was impressed by the explanation of Oil-Plating.

Simple enough, if you'll think what happens as Johnny's dirty little hands touch the wallpaper. Anything greasy or oily on his hands becomes quite a permanent part of the paper. You'll say permanent!

In much the same way—forgetting technicalities—Conoco Germ Processed oil forms a lasting attachment for every working part of your engine. This union of oil and metal to produce a genuine, enduring Oil-Plating is brought about only by the Germ Process—patented.

Thus the Germ Process not only multiplies the strength of the usual flowing type of oil-film, but creates Oil-Plating besides. And once Oil-Plating goes on, Conoco Germ Processed oil does not let it come off in minutes, hours, days... or any number of miles.

Unable to run off while the car stands, Oil-Plating kills the old fear of starting "dry." Likewise Oil-Plating refuses to let go it: all the fury of 5,000 revolutions per minute. That's why your "good old car" or the latest model will stay more like new, with its engine Oil-Plated. And your whole Summer's driving will take less Conoco Germ Processed oil. # BASQUES FIRE ON INSURGENTS FROM CHURCH

HENDADO, Franco-Spanish Border, April 28 (AP)—Criminally determined Basques burned a Durango church into a fortress today in a dramatic attempt to stem the march of strong insurgent northern armies on Bilbao, their regional capital.

The Basques, members of three decimated battalions, crammed the church of Santa Maria in Durango, just 16 miles from Bilbao, dragged their cannon within the walls and blasted at insurgent attackers in ferocious salvos.

But insurgent advisers indicated their stand might be in vain. These reports said the vanguard of one of three insurgent columns which are marching to the sea had encircled Durango and, already, was hurrying virtually unopposed along the broad highway toward Bilbao.

In that Basque capital, seat of important munitions industries and one of the last government stands on the Bay of Biscay on Spain's northwest ledge, authorities began to consider evacuation of every woman and child.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—With ammunition provided largely by Washington news, selling forces today blasted stock market leaders for losses of 1 to more than 7 points in one of the sharpest onslaughts in about a year.

Many new lows for 1937 or longer were registered in an exciting early downturn when the high-speed ticker tape at times fell four minutes or so behind floor dealers.

Offerings dried up somewhat at intervals and extreme declines were shaded moderately. Momentum again picked up on the downside in the final half hour.

Wall Street's attack of nerves followed advice from the capital indicating a move by the administration to tighten monetary laws as one means of putting brakes on an inflationary boom in commodities and other prices. Heed was also paid to the President's warnings on public stock speculation and the dangers of spiraling living costs.

Further liquidation by London and continental houses badly hurted up slumping staples as was a factor in the set-back.

Transfers approximated $2,500,000.

CRUDE SUPPLY IS WORRYING OIL INDUSTRY

TULSA, Okla., April 28 (AP)—Good business in motor fuel, accompanied by a rise of an eighth of a cent a barrel in the Midwest tank wagon price and a steady demand was a bright spot today in the petroleum picture.

Otherwise, executives here were agreed, things were a bit dull over the crude situation, hoping for better factors joggling along placidly.

All interests hoped for better weather with a resultant swing into the heavy consumption season.

As a whole, the industry fretted over the crude situation, hoping for a preview of the expected demand were correct and that the unprecedented production, which reached another new peak of 3,496,400 barrels daily would not flood the market.

Those who held the market justified the production were gratified by the American Petroleum Institute figures showing that despite the crude increase, gasoline supplies had dropped to 82,303,000 barrels from 82,703,000 the previous week.

"I told you the market would absorb the production," said one operator here over Texas' May allowance of 1,411,236 barrels daily, 790,346 barrels daily over the Bureau of Mines estimate.

There was no immediate prospect of an increase in the basic price of crude oil though talk of its possibility was in the air.

Field work continued at a steady pace with Texas leading the list of producing areas and extensions of producing areas. Spring weather intensified operations in the Rocky Mountain west.

The Oil and Gas Journal's chart showed 57 wells completed in the nation for the week, 66 less than the previous week.

Judge Refuses to Delay Trial of Parker and Son

NEWARK, N. J., April 28 (AP)—Federal Judge William Clark refused today to postpone the conspiracy trial of Ellis H. Parker and his son, and ordered a jury drawn to hear the case which grew out of the Lindbergh kidnaping.

Counsel for the chief of Burlington county detectives and his son, Ellis Parker Jr., sought the delay after a charge of attempted jury tampering was made at yesterday's opening session.

They contended the trial should not proceed until the jury tampering charge was "settled." It is now being investigated by a federal grand jury.

Defense counsel planned to press for a separate trial for the Parkers. They are charged, with Martin Schlossman, Harry Weiss and Murray Bleefeld, with a conspiracy to abduct and torture Paul H. Wendel, former Trenton attorney, to obtain from him a false confession to the Lindbergh kidnaping.

Schlossman, Weiss and Bleefeld were arranged and all pleaded innocent to the indictment.

The selection of the jury then proceeded.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28 (AP)—Cotton prices reacted early today and opened nine to eleven points above the previous close. Profit-taking by recent buyers and disappointing over foreign cables were the main influences behind the decline.

May contracts started at 12.90 bid, July 13.07, October 12.90, December 12.98, January 12.90, and March 13.01.

Demand was light and offerings continued after the start. Toward the end of the first half-hour, October and December positions showed losses of 14 points.

There was some ring discussion during the morning on prospects of an announcement from Washington on the government's plan for loan cotton. The present release program was extended through April 14.

Business was moderate in early trading.

ROOSEVELT IS EN ROUTE TO GULF WATERS

ABOARD ROOSEVELT TRAIN EN ROUTE TO NEW ORLEANS, April 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt traveled across rain-swept Virginia and the Carolinas today toward the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico and his long-planned rendezvous with tarpon.

He will embark on the U. S. S. Potomac at New Orleans late Thursday for 10 days of angling off Louisiana and Texas. He will return to Washington on May 12.

The President told associates he would seek a complete rest, mixed with plenty of fishing.

He took along a report from Attorney General Cummings recommending creation of a special committee to study revision of the anti-trust laws with a view to clarifying them and improving their enforcement.

He also had a brief case of mail that arrived too late for him to read before leaving the White House in the rain last night. The train, however, did not leave until after daybreak in order to avoid a lay-over along the route.

The train is due at Atlanta tonight and Montgomery early tomorrow morning for operating stops before reaching Biloxi, Miss. There the chief executive will leave the train to motor 12 miles along the coast to Gulfport, visiting on the way a veterans' home formerly used as a residence by Jefferson Davis.

Senator Harrison (D., Miss.), whose home is at Gulfport, and District of Columbia Commissioner George E. Allen, a native of Booneville, Miss., were aboard the special train for the trip to Gulfport.

Wide-eyed with apprehension, Lawrence Howard (center), Harlan County, Ky., miner, stands at the door of the Senate Civil Liberties Inquiry room at Washington, D. Howard said a death threat had been telephoned him.

Both Sides Scored Gains In Injecting Religious Angle Into Court Fight

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The attempts at play and counter-play on religious groups by opposing forces warring over the administration Supreme Court plan have been among the most interesting behind-the-scenes phases of the struggle.

No large religious denomination or group has taken any position for or against the plan. But the contest has been marked from the beginning by:

The effort of anti-Roosevelt forces to persuade members of all creeds that the bill was a threat to belittle such persuasion.

Men of various religious beliefs have been caused to testify for and against the plan as part of a conscious program of appeal to church groups.

Backstage, the men who have been running the opposing campaigns have privately congratulated themselves and colleagues on their ability to capitalize or discount the religious angle.

This sort of thing isn't new in politics, but it seems fair to suggest that if religious men had played in politics to the extent politicians save sought to play with religion, there might be a loud howl as to the proper place of gentlemen of the cloth.

Answer Right Back.

The opposition scored early with testimony against the judiciary plan by Dr. Norman J. Gould Wickey, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran church; and Prof. Theodore Graebner, professor of theology at Concordia college, St. Louis, and editor of the National Journal of the Lutheran church.

But soon administration forces were circulating a statement by Rev. J. W. Behnken, president of the Missouri Lutheran Synod, which has a national membership of 1,000,000. He said: "If, by the appearance of two Lutheran ministers before the judiciary committee in opposition to President Roosevelt's proposal, the impression has been created that the Lutheran church is engaged in political activities, I would like to state emphatically that such is by no means the case. . . . The church's work is spiritual, not political. . . . The court proposal is a political matter."

House Party Canceled.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shouse—the former remembered as head of the American Liberty League—were going to have a large party. They engaged the concert master and second violinist of the National Symphony Orchestra to play.

The musicians happen to be members of that race whose life has been made miserable in Germany by Adolf Hitler. They heard the German ambassador was to be a guest and canceled the engagement. For that or some other reason, the party was called off.

FDR Leads 1940 Poll.

Some time ago this column reported that a national Catholic magazine had shown Roosevelt to be far ahead in its poll of Washington correspondents as to whom they believed would be the Democratic presidential candidate in 1940. Final returns showed 19 correspondents picked Roosevelt as most likely; 13 Gov. George Earle of Pennsylvania; seven Secretary of Agriculture Wallace; five Gov. Murphy of Michigan; and three Philippine High Commissioner Paul McNutt. Counting second and third guesses, however,

POLLUTION OF WATERS UNLIKELY SAYS GROUP

AUSTIN, April 28 (AP)—A majority of a House subcommittee said Monday they believed existing laws were sufficient to temporarily prevent pollution of waters over sub-surface lands which might be drilled for oil.

The sub-group, returned from Louisiana where they inspected drilling operations in water, had been appointed to consider a proposal to compel companies to build concrete walls around such wells.

Residents on the Texas coastline, with Gov James V. Alford and game commission officials, have protested the Humble Oil company's proposal to drill near High Island in the Gulf of Mexico between Galveston and Port Arthur.

Members of the sub-group expressed the opinion potential value to school children through out-reach to a production program "at least in the protected bays and bayous of the state."

They said also danger of pollution, if laws were strictly enforced by the Railroad Commission, General Land Office and the game commission, was insufficient to withdraw inland waters from lease or development and suggested passage of new legislation be delayed until after a more extensive investigation.

WOODRING NOMINATED AS SECRETARY OF WAR

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt nominated Harry H. Woodring, of Kansas, yesterday to be secretary of war.

The former Kansas governor has been holding down the war post since the death last fall of George H. Dern, of Utah.

While the President's original nomination of Woodring from assistant secretary to the secretaryship was regarded at the time as only temporary, the appointment today was interpreted at the war department as making it permanent.

Woodring automatically became acting secretary when Dern died last August, but due to the law stipulating he could not serve in that capacity for longer than 30 days, the President gave him a recess appointment as secretary.

Unless the nomination was submitted during the present session of the Senate, Woodring's recess appointment would have expired when the Senate adjourned.

He nominated John J. Keegan of Indiana, for the United States Em-

80 PER CENT OF TEXAS BEING DEVELOPED FOR OIL AND GAS

DALLAS, April 28.—Eighty per cent of the land surface area of Texas is being actively developed for oil and gas, Tucker Royall, chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Dallas, told the East Texas Chamber of Commerce convention today.

He said there is a mistaken idea that the problems of the Texas oil industry are matters of concern only to those engaged in the oil business and related enterprises, and only to those sections immediately near oil production. No section of the state fails to benefit from oil, Royall said.

"That the oil industry of Texas benefits practically the entire population of the state is evident from the fact that more than 80 per cent of its entire land surface area is being actively developed for oil and gas," Royall said.

"Thus, while 127 counties of the state's 254 are now productive of oil and gas, nearly every county in Texas shares in the distribution of money paid to landowners in the form of lease rentals and bonuses."

An oil development map of Texas, illustrating the widespread activities of the state's oil industry, was distributed among the delegates attending the convention.

Royall said that the income of the Texas oil industry is not taken outside the state as many people believe, but is actually spent within the state.

"The attitude of the public toward the oil industry," he said, "has not kept pace with progress. Few Texans appreciate the magnitude of the petroleum industry and its vital bearing on the general welfare of our state. Fewer still appreciate the changes brought about by our conservation laws which no longer make it possible to recover oil investments almost over night."

On Capitol Hill

BY HARRELL E. LEE.

AUSTIN, April 28 (AP)—The contest in the House on legislation to "hard liquor by the drink under local option was, in a measure, a "city vs. country" fight.

The proposal was killed, 78 to 62, but representatives from the larger cities voted heavily for it.

All five members from Houston cast their vote against killing the amendment as did five from San Antonio. Dallas A. Blankenship was the only one of the six Dallas county Representatives on the other side. The three Tarrant county Representatives present were against the motion which killed the proposal.

Also on the losing side were all three members from El Paso, the two Jefferson county Representatives who were in the hall, both Galveston county members, two of the three Representatives from the Waco district and G. H. Little, the sole Representative from Amarillo.

Charles H. Tennison, the only Wichita Falls member present, voted against sale by the drink and the Austin delegation of two members was split.

Some wets were surprised that their proposal received as large support as it did. They predicted two more years of poor enforcement of the drink sale prohibition would enable them to pick up the double handful of votes needed.

Others in the legislature are of opinion the liquor law will not be liberalized further. They foresee a trend the other way with the possibility there will be considerable support two years hence for submission of another constitutional amendment providing state-wide prohibition of intoxicants.

Senate advocates of sale by the drink succeeded in obtaining a favorable report from the state affairs committee. Senator Weaver Moore of Houston, author of the proposal, had a chance to bring the matter to a floor vote on one occasion but concluded the Senators present at that time would not approve it.

Herman Jones, young Representative from Deatur, glanced at the gallery while the House was debating a proposed constitutional amendment lengthening terms of office from two to four years and remarked that "this would be a good day to rob a bank."

The gallery was filled with district and county officials, including sheriffs and district attorneys. The amendment proposed to spare them the necessity of making campaigns next year.

SOIL CONTROL ACTS PASSED BY 11 STATES

CHICAGO, April 28 (AP)—Millions of acres of farm land, unprotected today against the ravages of wind and water erosion, will become subject to voluntary soil conservation practices within the next year by virtue of recently enacted state legislation.

At least 11 states have passed enabling legislation in response to President Roosevelt's appeal to conserve soil two months ago for soil conservation laws to bulwark the federal fight against dust storms and floods.

Virtually all of the laws provided for the organization of conservation districts, aided by federal funds.

Conservation practices included: Terracing of sloping fields to prevent rapid water run-off, construction of check dams to halt the rush of small streams, planting of trees and increasing acreage of grass land.

Other states which have enacted laws included: Delaware, which in 1936 had 433,386 acres under the federal conservation program; Georgia, Arkansas, Vermont, Oklahoma, Maryland, Montana, Washington, and North Dakota.

The bill passed by the Texas House orders diversion of 10 cents on $100 valuation of state and ad valorem tax, and a $75,000 appropriation to provide the state's share of financing.

ICKES ASKS CONNALLY OIL LAW BE PERMANENT

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Secretary Ickes recommended today that Congress make the Connally "hot oil" act a permanent law for conservation of the nation's oil and gas resources.

The act, passed in 1935, will expire June 15 unless extended. It prohibits shipment in interstate commerce of oil and gas and petroleum products produced in excess of the amount permitted under state laws.

A bill making the act permanent has passed the Senate and is before a House interstate commerce subcommittee for study.

Describing "wasteful" production methods that prevailed before the act was passed, Ickes told the subcommittee the measure had done much to establish orderly production.

He warned that the United States had been using up its oil reserves faster than the rest of the world. "As a nation," he said, "we should not exhaust these resources and be forced to depend upon the more costly substitute fuels in advance of the rest of the world, or be required to pay the higher price for oil which foreign producers will demand when production fails to meet our needs."

COURT TO HEAR SOCIAL SECURITY ARGUMENTS

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—The Supreme Court arranged today to hear arguments early next week on constitutionality of the old age pension provisions of the federal social security act.

A final decision on the major administration legislation will be given before the justices adjourn for the summer early in June.

Arguments already have been heard on litigation involving the unemployment insurance provision of the federal act and on supplementary state legislation to aid the jobless.

Since the tribunal did not rule on the latter litigation during its session yesterday, some observers expressed the opinion that both cases might be decided at the same time.

LET'S KNOW TEXAS AND TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES.

In this column answers will be given to matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquiries must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. When did the State of Coahuila and Texas enact the empresario colonization system?

A. Under authority granted by the national Mexican constitution of 1824 and the national colonization law enacted Aug. 18 of that year, the state of Coahuila and Texas adopted the empresario (contracting) system, March 24, 1825.

Q. Who was Flaco?

A. There was a friendly Lipan Indian chieftain of that name, who had a son of the same name, a warrior, scout and spy, who was with Capt. Jack Hays in service on a Rio Grande expedition, when he was killed by white men, who claimed they mistook his identity. The Lipans denounce the killing as murder, could not be reconciled and joined the hostile prairie tribes, even though Houston wrote the elder Flaco in an effort to console and placate him. The father in his great sorrow, refused to be known longer as Flaco and adopted the name, "Senior Yawnee".

Q. In what is the greatest value of the cedar brakes, oak shinneries, and other small timbers in the hills and along the streams of west and north Texas?

A. While their commercial values are small compared with the forests of East Texas, these timbers, though covering areas of rough topography and thin soils are highly important in reducing soil erosion and in stimulating the absorption of precipitation, and will be the most valuable factors in reducing siltage in the reservoirs now being constructed and planned along the upper courses of several Texas rivers.

Q. Who is the director of the McDonald Observatory on Mt. Locke?

A. Dr. Otto Struve, who is also director of the University of Chicago's Yerkes Observatory, which operates the McDonald Observatory under a working agreement with the University of Texas.

ANOTHER NEW PEAK IN OIL PRODUCTION SET

TULSA, Okla., April 28 (AP)—Another new crude oil production peak, 350,000 barrels daily for the week ending April 24, was reported today by the Oil and Gas Journal.

The figure was 38,932 barrels daily higher than the new high established a week ago.

Oklahoma had an increase of 13,250 barrels daily to a total of 670,650 barrels daily. East Texas was up 2,252 barrels to 462,350 barrels daily and the total State of Texas increased its production 9,660 barrels daily to a total of 1,365,585.

Louisiana reported a drop of 1,399 barrels daily to 249,200. California increased 8,850 barrels daily to 629,350 while Kansas had a hike of 5,350 barrels daily to a total of 197,825.

'BEST FISHING' Awaiting FDR. ON GULF COAST

HOUSTON, April 28 (AP)—The signs are right.

Old-timers said today President Roosevelt should find "the best fishing in 10 years" when he comes to the Texas gulf coast early next month to battle tarpon, kingfish and other fighters of the deep.

Skelly Skelton, who has handled fishing tackle since he quit playing with rattles, said the President will be "on the spit," and that if he doesn't catch fish, plenty of them, it will be the fault of the angler.

Skelton, veteran of many fishing expeditions in all parts of the gulf, based the statement on gulf-wide survey of conditions and the various "signs." The chief "sign" was the appearance of kingfish the earliest in the memory of old-timers and fully 30 days earlier than last year.

"That means an early spring," Skelton said. "We have them that way about every 10 years and this is the year for another banner crop. It's either the end of the cycle or the fish are just being Democratic in a cooperative way."

Tarpon have been plentiful all along the Texas coast several days before the kings came as a surprise.

One small party of anglers went to the snapper banks off the coast from Freeport and got 20 mackerel, eight kingfish, which averaged from 10 to 15 pounds each, and one 85-pound warsaw. The kings were the first of the season.

Skelton said mackerel and kingfish offered about as much sport as the big tarpon.

"They're all good fighters," he said. "And the sport depends on the angler. You can have lots of fun with a mackerel or king on a light tackle, but there's not much sport in going after them with a wagon tongue and well rope. It takes a handy man with rod and reel to land a 200-pound tarpon with a light outfit, but it's done every day."

WALLIS SIMPSON ENDS GOOD BEHAVIOR PERIOD

LONDON, April 28 (AP)—Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson completed today the required six months of "good behavior" in her divorce action and became all but free to marry the former King of England.

Only legal technicalities were necessary before her divorce from Ernest Aldrich Simpson became final and these, it was expected, would be fulfilled within a fortnight.

Then the Duke of Windsor, who has not seen Mrs. Simpson since she fled from London at the height of the abdication crisis will be legally privileged to marry "the woman I love."

NACOGDOCHES CAPITALIST IS FATALLY HURT

GUY A. BLOUNT KILLED IN AUTO CRASH AT KAUFMAN

NACOGDOCHES, April 28 (AP)—East Texas today mourned the death of Guy A. Blount, wealthy lumberman and landowner, who died last night a short time after a car in which he was a passenger overturned at a sharp curve on the Dallas-Nacogdoches highway.

Overnight his body was held in an undertaking establishment at Kaufman and an ambulance had been sent there to return it to his Nacogdoches home.

Blount died in an ambulance rushing him to a Dallas hospital soon after the accident a mile from Kaufman. He died as the ambulance reached Segoville. It then retraced its course to Kaufman.

Ford Simpson of Nacogdoches, driver of the car, escaped injury. He said the car was unable to make the sharp curve and rolled over. Previously the turn in the road has been the scene of serious accidents. Simpson returned to Dallas, where he said he believed Blount was not injured in the accident but died of a heart attack.

Blount, who would have been 53 next August, formerly was president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, from whose convention he and Simpson were returning. The convention, in Dallas, ended yesterday.

Simpson is president of the Nacogdoches board of education and utilities manager there.

Blount was president of the Sabine-East Texas civic forefront. He served as head of the Nacogdoches chamber and later became president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, a potent regional organization operative throughout the richest oil sector of the nation.

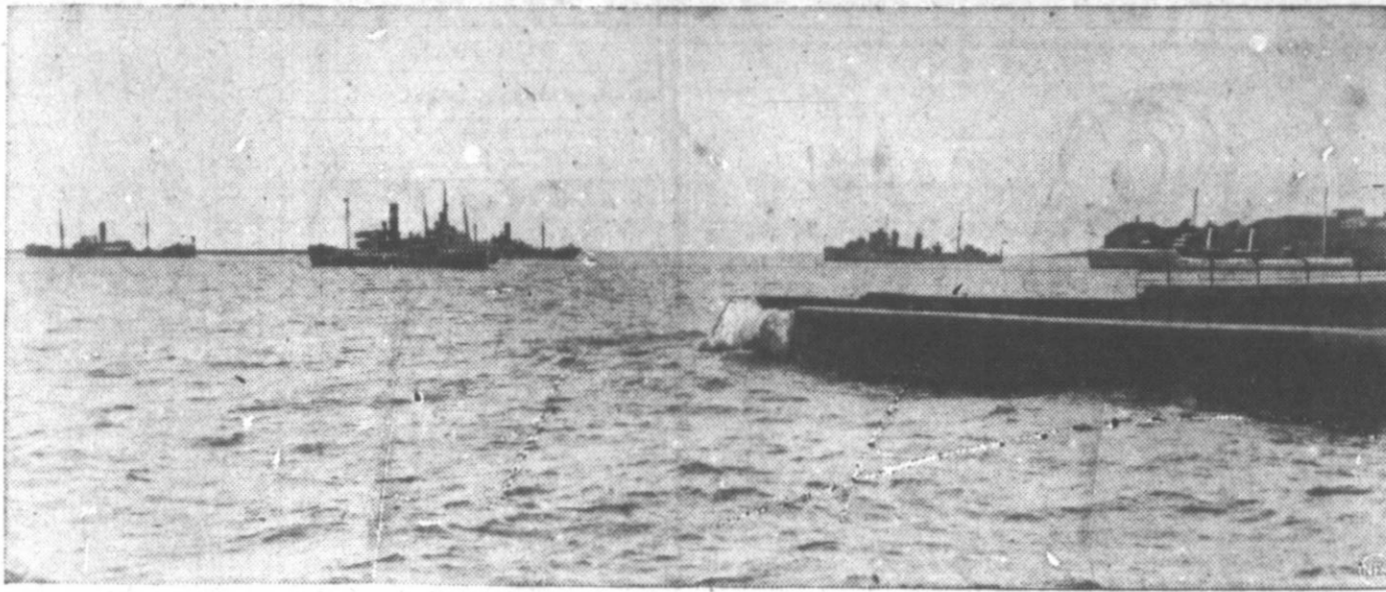

He came here in 1895, 11 years after his birth in San Augustine, Texas. He became a leader in the lumber industry of the region, well stocked with pine forests. At his death his land holdings were considerable and in addition he was a pipe line builder. He was interested in the development of the currently proposed paper mill in which publishers have shown interest.

Blount was president of the Sabine-Neches conservation district. His schooling included attendance at Texas A. & M. college, the University of Texas and the University of the South at Sewanee.

His grandfather, S. W. Blount Sr., was a signer of the Texas declaration of independence.

His widow and five children survive: Mrs. Lois Foster Blount of Nacogdoches; daughters, Mrs. Edward B. Tucker, Lois Alicia and Tascia, Nacogdoches; sons, Edward Augustus and Guy Blount Jr., Nacogdoches. Blount left a sister, Mrs. Graham P. Stewart of Graham, Tex. Tascia Blount is a student at the University of Texas.

British Food Ships Wait Chance to Run Blockade

Four British merchantmen, loaded with cargoes of food consigned to the Spanish government, sulked in the harbor of St. Jean de Luz, France, under the ever watchful eye of two British destroyers as this picture was made. The destroyers, Brazen and Beagle, may be seen at right, with the port's jetty in the foreground. Only a few miles of the blue water of the Bay of Biscay lies between the four merchantmen, at the left, and Bilbao, their destination, but those waters are Nationalist territorial waters, heavily mined and grimly patrolled by General Franco's Nationalist warships. Britain will not protect its commercial vessels within that imaginary rebel line.

Tarpon Anglers at Brownsville Still Shouting to FDR

BROWNSVILLE, April 28 (AP)—The wordy pulling and hauling among Texas anglers as to where President

Roosevelt should cast his hook for tarpon became international today.

At this end of the Texas gulf coast, where the Rio Grande empties into the ocean, a tarpon "rodeo" has been arranged to impress upon the chief executive what great fishing might be in store for him—if he decides to come this far. A team of American fishermen will stand on the north bank of the river, competing with a Mexican team on the other bank.

By their combined catch they hoped to prove that all the tarpon are not converging on the Galveston sector, at the other end of the Texas coast. Already, Brownsville anglers said, 29 tarpon have been caught by casual fishermen in one week.

The precursor of the cigar was a roll of tobacco leaves smoked by primitive South American Indians.

LEBANONO, O.—W. B. Foreman, local farmer, gave his 20-acre field its usual spring plowing. Then he plowed again, and not not satisfied, turned the earth a third time.

He had lost $60 in cash the first time. The next two plowings were searches, the final one successful.
