DEAD IN THE SADDLE — A long ride is tiring to any cowboy and one of the youngest cowboys to ride in the Top O' Texas rodeo parade Wednesday afternoon found the going a little too smooth on a saddle and in his grandfather's arms. Seventeen-month-old Mark Goudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Goudy, fell asleep midway through the parade and rode down Cuyler St. sound asleep while his grandfather, Burt Kelly of Pampa, took charge of things and stayed in the file of riders participating in the annual event.

Rodeo Riders Find Stock Tough, Sassy

Pampa's third annual professional rodeo got off to a "rip snortin'" start last night in Recreation Park before an estimated 2,000 fans. The second performance of the four-day show will be held at 8 p.m. tonight. The first event of the evening,

Chrysler to Be Target of UAW Strike

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers (UAW) union has chosen Chrysler Corp. as the strike target for the 1964 round of auto industry negotiations and set a strike deadline of 10 a.m. Sept. 9. UAW President Walter P. Reuther announced Wednesday night Chrysler was the target following a 90-minute meeting of the union's international executive board. Reuther said he would ask for day-to-day extensions of contracts at Ford and General Motors. Big three contracts covering nearly 600,000 workers were scheduled to expire Aug. 31.

The union president also said he was asking the 450,000 workers at GM and Ford to remain on the job pending the outcome of Chrysler negotiations. Reuther's announcement came shortly before midnight to a packed news conference at the Solidarity House, the union's riverfront headquarters. It also came on the same day Reuther breakfasted with President Johnson in Washington. However, the labor leader denied that he discussed with President Johnson the status of the current negotiations. Reuther said the union would concentrate its bargaining efforts on Chrysler until a settlement was reached and then move to Ford and then to GM.

Cleo Rips Up Coast Of Florida

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Cleo battered the metropolitan Miami area with 100-mile winds for seven hours today, then struck a deadly course up Florida's East Coast toward the nation's missile center at Cape Kennedy. The storm, its intensity and forward speed picking up as it roared northward, heavily damaged the tourist resort of Miami Beach, Fort Lauderdale and other coastal cities. Looting was reported in smashed stores near the heart of Miami and at a shopping center near Fort Lauderdale. One looter was shot by Miami police.

At 11 a.m. EST Cleo was located near Stuart, Fla., 100 miles north of Miami, and churning a coastline course. Its center was expected to pass near Cape Kennedy early tonight, forecasters said. No Florida Deaths. Hurricane-wise Floridians battered down in advance of the storm — worst to hit Miami in 14 years — and by mid-day there were no reports of deaths in south Florida. This contrasted to the 122 known dead Cleo left in her wake in an assault on the Caribbean islands from Guadeloupe to Cuba. A hurricane watch was extended at 11 a.m. EST all the way north to Charleston, S.C. Hurricane warnings flew from Boca Raton, Fla. to Cape Kennedy where five giant rockets were secured on their launch pads and another was dismantled to await the blow. Miami forecasters called Cleo a "rather small but dangerous hurricane."

LBJ Gets Laugh About Lighting

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI)—President Johnson got his best laughs at the Democratic convention Wednesday night when he spoofed Republicans about columnists and commentators and himself about electric lights. "My fellow Americans, my fellow Democrats, columnists and commentators," the President said. "It is wonderful to be here with you tonight, but do we need all of these lights on?" The welcome to the columnists and commentators was in reply to criticism and jeering they received at the Republican National Convention. The reference to lights concerned his much talked about campaign to hold down the White House electric bill.

South Schools Making Moves To Integration

Montgomery Takes Lead in Throwing Down Race Barriers

By United Press International

School systems all over the South made moves today toward desegregation. The school board at Montgomery, Ala., Wednesday night assigned eight Negroes to three previously all-white schools and Shelby County, Tenn., one of the largest school systems in the South, prepared today to throw down racial barriers in all grades, 1 through 12. The action at Montgomery, considered to be one of the critical areas in school desegregation, was announced early today after a closed session of the Montgomery County Board. The board said 29 applications by Negro pupils had been processed, but only eight met requirements under an Alabama school placement law. The move must be approved by a federal court. School desegregation also is scheduled to begin today in four South Carolina counties—Oconee, Pickens, Spartanburg and Sumter—and at Marietta, Ga.

In all, 81 school districts in 11 southern states are expected to desegregate this fall for the first time, including 25 in so-called critical areas. City schools in Memphis start classes next Tuesday with desegregation through the sixth grade. Memphis's grade-a-year desegregation plan is similar to one currently being followed at Dallas, Tex., where a federal judge earlier declined to step up the pace. Viet Nam Mobs Beheld Victims

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—Howling mobs today battled in the street of Saigon with axes, clubs, and knives. A number of victims were beheaded. Law and order appeared to have collapsed. The rioting between Buddhists and Catholics broke out as the ruling military junta issued decrees designed to ease the political crisis created two days ago by the resignation of Gen. Nguyen Khanh as president. Two vaguely worded communiques said a three man committee would head the government. One of the three is Khanh, who apparently will be the principal administrator of the caretaker government. Although Khanh was not given a title it was presumed he would continue to call himself president. The other members of the triumvirate are Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, who was the chief of state until he was ousted by Khanh last January, and Gen. Ran Thien Kiem. The committee is to prepare for congressional elections in two months.

Farmers' Strike Breeds Wisconsin Violence

CHICAGO (UPI)—Wisconsin state police were on a 24-hour alert today to curb mounting violence in the National Farmers Organization's (NFO) faltering market rebellion. Gov. John Reynolds of Wisconsin ordered that state's police on a 24-hour alert Wednesday night to combat incidents of violence that have broken out with the market rebellion. "You are hereby instructed to use all means at your disposal under the laws to protect the lives and property of citizens endangered in the present withholding action," the governor said in his order to all Wisconsin sheriffs and the state patrol. Police threatened to call for help from a National Guard unit at Chippewa Falls, Wis., to clear a path for non-NFO livestock trucks through 400 NFO pickets before a packing plant. Police and fire officers used fire hoses, court orders and arrests to curb the demonstrators. Five NFO members were arrested at a blockade before a buying station at Waukon, Iowa, and two NFO members were arrested when they blocked a highway at Altoona, Wis. The American Meat Institute said the militant farm group's 23-state "holding action" was starting to collapse after major Midwest markets reported a surge of livestock arrivals Wednesday and prices started to skid. The institute, spokesman for the meatpacking industry, said boosted stockyard receipts cancelled out "most of the price gains initially attributed to the start of the holding action last week." But NFO President Oren Lee Staley and other leaders of the farm group from Idaho to New York state accused the meatpacking industry of "wishful thinking" and said the increase in marketings Wednesday was a "frantic attempt to weaken the holding action." "They're yelling like a stuck pig," Staley said. "They wouldn't be doing that if they really believed what they are saying."

Autographs at 3 a.m.

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI)—At somewhere near 3 a.m. EDT today Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey was barrelling around the corridors of the Shelburne Hotel here signing autographs and telling everybody "this is the most thrilling day of my life." Actually he meant Wednesday, when President Johnson finally and formally picked him to run for vice president. It was typical of Humphrey that he didn't realize that midnight and bedtime were long gone and then some. It also was typical that the Minnesota senator hadn't run out of either energy or talk, despite the fact his day had been the kind that lesser men spend a week getting over. The man who once conferred for 8½ hours with Nikita Khrushchev, and could have gone longer, admitted he had been "reasonably sure" he would be the other half of the Democratic National ticket 24 hours before Johnson formally told him. He would have been disappointed if Wednesday's word at the White House had reversed this impression. But he said he would not have been emotionally shattered, as he was four years ago when he sought for awhile the top spot on the ticket. "If Humphrey was happy today, so were a lot of other Democrats who concurred in Johnson's view that Humphrey was the best available stand-by for the presidency in event anything happened to Johnson. Opinions differed, however, on whether Humphrey was the

Candidates Picked By Unanimous Vote

By RAYMOND LAHR
ATLANTIC CITY (UPI)—President Johnson, a hand-picked and unabashed liberal as his running mate, sketched the battle lines today for the impending collision with the GOP's conservative Goldwater-Miller team. Johnson was handed the Democratic party's presidential nomination by acclamation Wednesday night by a happy, howling convention which went on to ratify his choice of Minnesota Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as the vice presidential nominee. It all went according to the script laid down by Johnson, although he insisted to the end that it was not until Wednesday afternoon that he finally tapped Humphrey — the "best man in America" for the job. Both nominees go before the delegates tonight to make their formal acceptance speeches and set the course for the campaign which they confidently hope will give Johnson a full four-year term in the White House and on his own.

Delegates Decry Parley on Return To Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—The first group of Mississippi delegates returned home Wednesday from the National Democratic Convention. One said what happened in Atlantic City has killed the Democratic party in Mississippi for the next 100 years. Other Mississippi Democratic leaders made it plain that the one thing that absolutely won't happen when the state convention resumes on Sept. 9 is the endorsement of President Johnson. None of the top state leaders immediately took a stand for Republican nominee Barry Goldwater but a number predicted he would get 70 to 80 per cent of the vote. Some predicted the Democrats would either put up a separate slate of Democrats pledged to Goldwater or to simply back the Republican electors and avoid splitting the vote. Gartin called the controversy over seating the Mississippi delegation a "disgusting exhibition" and accused President Johnson of "masterminding the insults against us." Gartin said he wanted to see Mississippi follow a sensible course to secure our votes count against him—in the most effective way. Bidwell Adam, 70-year-old chairman of the state party, said if Johnson "had given one wink, the regular Democratic delegates of Mississippi would have been recognized." He gave an "emphatic no" when asked if he would support Johnson. "If that be treason, then I am sorry." On the other hand, Adam would not say whether he would back Goldwater. He said he had little faith in any third party movement such as that hinted at by Alabama Gov. George Wallace.

John's Birthday

Today was also Johnson's 56th birthday. And Democrats were going all out to celebrate with parties, receptions and fireworks along the Atlantic City Boardwalk. The President was the typical candidate in the hours preceding his return to Washington Wednesday night. He shook hands and flashed his Texas smile at countless delegates and well-wishers, held news conferences almost non-stop and barely concealed his impatience to get on with the campaign. He made clear that the campaign against Barry M. Goldwater and William E. Miller would be an active one when a reporter asked how much politicking he would assign to Humphrey. "All he can take," the President flashed back. He said he and Humphrey planned to take their wives to Johnson's Texas ranch this weekend "and there in the shade of the live oaks on the banks of the Pedernales, we'll talk a bout our duty for the next few weeks."

Leaves No Doubt

The President's statements and actions left no doubt they will make every effort to convince the voters that the nation's security and well-being are safer in Democratic hands. By picking a vice presidential nominee whose congressional record is far more liberal than his own, Johnson made clear he has no intention of turning his back on the social-economic programs that have drawn some of the strongest conservative Republican fire. He made one gesture to the party's conservative wing by

Hospital Shortage In Amarillo Hits Top O' Texas Area

The increasingly serious bed shortage in the Amarillo hospital, and the resulting possible effect on Pampa residents is becoming a matter of acute concern to civic leaders, according to officials of the proposed High Plains Hospital in Amarillo.

More than 10,000 of the 30,000 patients admitted in 1963 to Amarillo hospitals came from Golden Soread communities outside the city. Of these, Pampa contributed 490 cases.

A statement released by John K. Barton, in behalf of the hospital fund says:

"Therefore the drive to add 200 general medical and surgical beds to the Amarillo facilities by building the new High Plains Hospital becomes as important to Pampa people as it is to the citizens of Amarillo. Last year, for instance, the 490 patients from Pampa spent an average stay of 9.5 patient days in these institutions. This is equivalent to occupying 13.6 beds the year round. Since a fully equipped hospital costs around $25,000 per bed, Pampa had the benefit of about $34,000 worth of hospital facilities last year.

"The hospital bed shortage at Amarillo and the need for the new High Plains institution take on added significance, too, when it is realized what a special position the Amarillo hospitals occupy in the Pampa health picture. As one leader puts it: 'The Amarillo hospitals do not supplant our own hometown hospitals and they are not there just to provide an overflow for our local institutions.'

"They are very largely referral hospitals which back up our own facilities. In many, perhaps most cases, people go from Pampa to Amarillo because they are referred there by their doctors. These doctors want to give their patients the benefit of Amarillo's greater resources in the medical specialties, and in the equipment and facilities which only these larger hospitals can afford."

Mrs. John Kennedy Attends Reception At Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy flew to the Democrats' convention today for a five-hour reception for delegates to the convention.

A small crowd greeted the former first lady enthusiastically when she stepped off the family plane.

She was greeted by Sen. Pierre Salinger, D-Calif., former press secretary to the late President John F. Kennedy and to President Johnson. She spoke to him briefly, then entered a limousine and was whisked to a hotel in downtown Atlantic City for the reception.

The NFO hopes to raise on the hoof prices paid to farmers by holding back cattle, hogs and sheep from market. Livestock receipts were generally lower until Monday. Tuesday they started to edge up and then Wednesday they shot to their highest level at Chicago for a Wednesday in nearly three years.

Retail price increases, however, continued to be reported with some wholesalers saying significant rises in butcher shop prices would not be felt until Friday or early next week — providing the NFO can keep meat from the market.

LBJ

cal of some aspects of U. S. foreign policy, to fly to Washington with Humphrey Wednesday for last-minute discussions of the vice presidency.

But when it was all over, Johnson reported that Dodd pointed out that he was running for re-election and that he preferred to be "counted out." There was no indication that Johnson actually offered him the job.

Already In Session
When the presidential plane landed here Wednesday, the convention was already in session, hearing speeches placing Johnson in nomination.

Alabama, its strength reduced by a walkout to a few loyalist delegates, had yielded to Texas for Gov. John Connally to make the Johnson nominating speech.

Connally, who was wounded when the late President John F. Kennedy was assassinated at Dallas, said that "shocking tragedy awakened the nation to the calm, unwavering strength, born of dedication and tempered by experience, of Lyndon Johnson."

A "co-nominator" was Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California. He pointed to Johnson "as America's best hope, as the world's best hope."

The delegates exploded. Giant balloons throughout the hall proclaimed that Massachusetts, North Carolina and other states were "For LBJ." There were sunshine placards for California and sunflower signs for Kansas. Two signs in the Ohio section declared "Ashtabula for LBJ."

Confetti Rained
Confetti in the form of tiny red, white and blue stars rained from the ceiling.

A string of seconding speeches followed the demonstration, and Alaska yielded to Florida. Mrs. Joan Damsy got up and moved that the rules be suspended and the presidential nominee chosen by acclamation.

The delegates thundered "aye" and this was the signal for the big moment. Johnson made his way to the convention from an adjacent motel and stood on the rostrum with Mrs. Johnson and their daughters, Lynda and Luci. A deafening ovation shook the hall.

The President's appearance may have taken the edge off his speech tonight but it put life into a convention not previously supercharged with excitement or drama. He was directing the show and he gloried in doing the job.

The beaming President finally began banging the gavel to silence the crowd so he could speak. He joked about the bright lights in the hall and greeted not only his fellow Democrats but "columnists and commentators." This was a not very thinly disguised reference to a gibe by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower at some journalists at the Republican convention last month.

Praises Platform
Johnson praised the Democratic platform as one on which he was "proud to stand, a platform built on solid performance and framed for a future of prosperity and peace."

And talking of the candidate he was about to recommend for vice President, he said: "If you select him, you can proudly say to the American people: This is not a sectional choice. This is not just merely the way to balance the ticket. This is simply the best man in America for the job."

"I hope that you will choose as the next vice president of the United States my close, my longtime"

The President paused and the delegates laughed at the feigned effort to keep them in suspense.

" . . . My trusted colleague, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota," Johnson shouted.

Roll Call Began
When the roll of the states began, Roy McCord of Alabama said his delegation wanted to nominate Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia, but Sanders bowed out immediately. Alaska yielded to Minnesota, and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, who also had been under consideration for the vice presidency, placed Humphrey in nomination.

Very few delegates could have been surprised by Johnson's choice. When McCarthy finished, Johnson-Humphrey signs began sprouting all over the hall.

Tonight's convention session will be more solemn. Before hearing the nominees discuss campaign issues, the delegates will hear memorial tributes to deceased democratic heroes — Kennedy, Speaker, Sam R. Rayburn and Eleanor Roosevelt.

Ancient Greeks called themselves Hellenes after a legendary ancestor named Hellen.

GOP Candidate Charges Foe With Instable Voting Record

A "flip flopper" is the way Bill Hayes, GOP candidate for congressman — at — large, described his opponent Joe Pool, yesterday at a barbecue fundraising dinner in the Lion's Club Park.

Hayes charged that Pool, a Democrat, has voted both sides on important issues such as foreign aid, civil rights and the poverty program.

Hayes and Pool face each other in the November general elections.

Hayes also outlined a three-point program he said would solve the Cuban crisis. It called for the United States to recognize a government in exile for Cuba; have a total, not token, blockade of Cuba, and stop the nonsense of our customs officials and Justice Department in commandeering and disarming Cuban patriots who are trying to return and re-take their own homes in Cuba.

The stopover in Pampa yesterday was one leg of a three-day campaign swing through the Panhandle.

Approximately 750 persons attended the barbecue.

Mrs. Lamont, a Pampa resident from 1947 to 1955 died Tuesday morning in Mercy Hospital, Oklahoma City.

'Lost' Billfolds Now Feared Stolen
Mrs. J. T. Allison of 1125 Sandelwood lost her billfold last last week, containing $75 in cash. . . she thought.

Yesterday she came up missing another billfold, containing $150 in cash.

She reported to police yesterday that she thought the first incident was just a case of her misplacing her billfold, however, the second time convinced her that someone has stolen both of them.

She said the second incident occurred sometime between 10 p.m. and Tuesday and 8:15 a.m. yesterday.

She told police that her daughter thought she heard someone walking inside the house about 4:30 yesterday morning, but thought nothing about it until the billfold was missed.

Mosquitoes

breaks in wide areas of the state had Texans jump.

The public works director said Pampa's chemical fogging machine is covering the city 16 hours a day in the mosquito battle.

"We keep a continuous pattern of running the machine in all sections of the city," Cooke said.

The fogging machine was out of commission for about a week due to mechanical failure, Cooke said, but it now is back in full use.

Officials also stated that city employees are cutting weeds in parks and alleys and along public streets as an additional effort in the war on mosquitoes.

Thief Makes Use Of 'Skinny' Body

What Police Chief Jim Conner described as a "skinny" thief smashed out a narrow window pane and crawled through jail bars to gain entry to C. R. Anthony's Department Store during the night.

The burglar made off with $90 in cash from a money box. The incident was reported to police this morning by J. E. (Duffy) Briscoe, manager of the store. The burglary apparently occurred sometime between closing time last night and 8 a.m. today.

High Court Gives Priority to Case on Public Accommodations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court assigned immediate priority Wednesday to a case testing the controversial public accommodations provision of the new civil rights law. It did so by setting Oct. 5 as the date for arguments on the challenge to the provision brought by an Atlanta motel owner. The action was unusual in that the hearing will be held on the opening day of the new term. Ordinarily, no arguments are heard in the first week after the court convenes. The action was announced by court clerk John F. Davis on behalf of the justices, who are on summer vacation. Davis did not explain how the decision was reached, but presumably it was done by telephone consultation between Chief Justice Earl Warren and the eight other judges. Both the motel owner, Moreton Rolleston, and the Justice Department had urged the court to hear the case as soon as possible. At issue was the section of the new law forbidding racial discrimination by privately owned businesses in interstate operations such as hotels, motels, restaurants and theaters. The Heart of Atlanta motel and the Pickrick restaurant in the Georgia city were the first two test targets of the public accommodations proviso. On July 22, a special three-judge federal court in Atlanta upheld the constitutionality of the anti-discrimination requirement and issued an order forbidding the two establishments from refusing service to Negroes. The order became effective Aug. 11 when Justice Hugo L. Black declined to intervene pending final appeal. The Pickrick restaurant, owned by Lester Maddox, has been closed and is not expected to figure further in the proceedings. Attorneys for Rolleston have until Sept. 21 to file their appeal challenging the lower court ruling. The Justice Department is to file a brief in reply by Sept. 28.

Bill Signed to Allow Release of Nuclear Items

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson signed into law Wednesday legislation that would allow the government to lease, sell or give away special nuclear material. The purpose of the law is to allow development of civilian nuclear power programs along more normal commercial lines. Presently the law requires all nuclear material to be owned by the government.

Texas' Story to Be Told in News Form

AUSTIN—Texas primary and elementary school students will find a real surprise awaiting them this year — a new weekly newspaper, The Story of Texas. The Story of Texas is the first school newspaper in the United States devoted to one state and its role in world affairs. Every other issue will feature the colorful history of Texas, with articles written in news-story form as if the event took place today. Alternate issues will tell "All About Texas Today"; its science, culture, industry, agriculture — its government and its great men in world affairs. Historical issues will reprint original maps and documents from Texas libraries and museums. The headlines will be printed in antique types, such as those used by early Texas printers.

A "fun-tier" page will also feature characters common only to the Lone Star State: "Pecos Bill" and "Slewfoot Sue" tells about a little cowpoke who can

Foreign Commentary

By K. C. THALER
 United Press International
 LONDON (UPI)—The American-backed embargo on long term credits to Russia is threatened with collapse because of growing interest in trade with the Soviets.

France is understood to be contemplating sizeable and long range loans to Moscow in return for orders from the Kremlin for a wide range of industrial supplies.

West Germany, which has been aligned with the United States in opposing long term credits to the U.S.S.R. may be compelled to follow the example of the other major European powers, the reports said.

The issue has strong political undertones and touches on the controversial problem of whether the West should help Russia out of her current economic difficulties without extracting appropriate political concessions.

The United States has stood and continues to stand for a policy which limits credits to the Russian bloc to a five-year period at the most.

The American stand, in the past backed by the bulk of the NATO allies, has been prompted by the view that to grant Russia long term credits over extended periods is tantamount to assisting her politically, by enabling her to ease her economic troubles.

The credit embargo is operated in addition to the security embargo which excludes the export to the Russian bloc of goods that could assist those countries in war. All NATO allies subscribe to the security embargo.

But on the credits side, Britain for one has refused to toe the American line. She has only recently been negotiating a large scale business deal with Moscow envisaging orders of some 100 million sterling ($280 million).

The Russians have made the orders—condition on extended credit—include entire industrial plant for fibres and fertilizers, among them a contract with the Imperial Chemical concern alone for some $120 million.

The government-controlled British export credit guarantee department has in effect provided a financial guarantee umbrella for this amount for a period of up to 15 years. Some obstacles remain to be settled but the deal is considered firm.

Earlier this month, reports from Paris said that a number of French banks have approved in principle long term credits to Russia of up to 10-12 years. This requires government approval which is now under active consideration.

WASHINGTON — A Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) document, which has disturbed Johnson administration officials because it implies that a compromise with the Communists may eventually be necessary in South Viet Nam:
"The counter-guerrilla effort continues to founder, partly because of the inherent difficulty of the problem and partly because Diem's successors have not yet demonstrated the leadership and the inspiration necessary. There remains serious doubt that victory can be won, and the situation remains very fragile."

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Joseph Cardinal Ritter, Catholic archbishop of St. Louis, conceding there is opposition among American Catholics to the use of English in the Mass:
"To be candid, there is among our people, among our clergy throughout the country, some slowness to accept the changes. It's the law. It's a Constitution. It's promulgated. It is as much a doctrine as any of the doctrines we have, any of our beliefs. It is not a dogmatic affair, but it is mandatory."

Rotarians Hear Rodeo Announcer And Musicians

Featuring Cy Tallon and Lou Walker and his Western Playboys, the Top o' Texas Rodeo held the spotlight at the Pampa Rotary Club luncheon meeting yesterday in Coronado Inn.
A rodeo announcer for more than 30 years, Tallon, of Denver, spoke of the growth in popularity and quality of rodeo performers in recent years. He emphasized that rodeos are a fine thing for communities such as Pampa, Rodeos, as well as being a clean sport, help people to relax and forget world tensions and personal problems. Economically speaking, he said that a rodeo leaves much more money in a community than it takes out. A total of 155 top performers will vie for $7,000 in prize money during the four-day rodeo.
Walker's group played several western musical numbers. They are appearing nightly at the National Guard Armory this week.
Program chairman Doug Carver also introduced W. D. (Buddy) Price, president of the Top o' Texas Rodeo Association and E. O. Wedgeworth, secretary for the organization.

TO RAZE HOTEL
NEW YORK (UPI)—Another of New York's older luxury hotels, the New Weston, will be torn down after the World's Fair to make room for a skyscraper office building, it was announced Tuesday.
The 700-room New Weston, a favorite gathering place of English visitors and literary and publishing figures, will be replaced by a 38-story office building. It was announced last week that the 1,000-room Savoy Hilton will be razed after the fair to make way for an office tower.

Approval Recommended for Huge Railway Merger

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) examiner has recommended approval of a proposed merger of five Western railroads, a move that would create the largest rail system in the United States.

Involved in the proposed merger are the Great Northern Railway, Northern Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, Pacific Coast Railroad, and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway.

Examiner Robert H. Murphy said this week that consolidation of the five roads into a 25,000-mile line would be "in the public interest." The merger would combine assets of more than $2.6 billion and annual revenues of $775 million.

The Justice Department, railway labor unions and other organizations have contended that the proposed merger would be monopolistic and would destroy competition in the northwestern United States. But Murphy said the merger is "another incident in the historical search for economic balance."

Murphy said the applicants have presented "a detailed plan for consolidation involving a multi-million dollar capital outlay for refining existing transportation facilities, reducing expenditures, enhancing transport schedules, improving car supply and extending transit privileges for the apparent purpose of meeting the demands of their customers and hoping to attract new ones.

"With due consideration to the modifications and conditions recommended," Murphy said, "an improved atmosphere of competition" would result.

LESS NEWS

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — If the output of news copy by reporters covering the conventions is a barometer, the Democrats aren't making as much news as the Republicans did in San Francisco.

Western Union reported late Tuesday that it had transmitted 1.5 million words written by convention correspondents — about 1 million fewer than at a similar point of the Republican National Convention.

WON'T QUIT WORK

DIGNE, France (UPI) — A who won one million francs who won one million francs ($200,000) in the French national lottery said Monday he won't quit work.

"Why should I quit working?" Francoi Lassaroto said. "I just might buy a meal for my buddies."

Sound, Lighting Show Entertains 400 in Park

CANYON (Spi) — Some 400 people saw and heard very interesting experiments with light and sound Friday at the amphitheater in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park. They heard the distant roll of thunder then followed it as it grew louder and swept over the theater, accompanied by flashes of lightning.

Just as the audience was ready to run for cover, the storm stopped, and proved to have been presented electronically. There were bugle calls from various parts of the canyon, and the audience hunted for the bugler, not realizing that he also was on tape.

Recordings of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and the Palo Duro High School choir illustrated the different effects in the Canyon. The final number was a recording of cowboys and Indians, where the sounds and a conversation of the people in the distance, and then coming closer, were so realistic that the listeners kept watching for the speakers to appear.

Master of ceremonies was Bill Rhew, well known in the Panhandle as the photographer and producer of the documentary films. In his introduction, Rhew said that in an earlier test, he had discovered that the theater and the bluff it faces actually form a kind of echo chamber, making effects possible which could not be duplicated in other situations. He stressed that fact that special recordings would be made to completely take advantage of this discovery, but that the tape at hand would give a good idea of the possibilities. With the peculiar terrain, the tapes had no mechanical quality, but kept the audience hunting for the performers.

During the demonstration, it no limit to the kinds of electronic effect possible in the amphitheater.

RECOVERY PROGRESSES

PRESS GETS COMPLIMENTS

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — The press was accorded compliments from the rostrum and applause from the floor at the Democratic National Convention Tuesday night.

Both House Speaker John W. McCormack and Mrs. Margaret Price, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, welcomed press, radio and television representatives to the convention.

The accolades obviously were in reply to jeers directed at the press section at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco when former President Dwight D. Eisenhower scorned "sensation-seeking columnists and commentators."

KEEPING CLOSE CHECK

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — President Johnson and his White House aides are keeping close tabs on the Democratic National Convention via six telephones installed directly behind the platform. They are direct lines to the White House and a key Johnson aide is reported to be manning each.

Steaks Cooked by Man of the House

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
For the man of the house who wants to show off at the barbecue grill, here is a prize-winning recipe for him.

And what's wrong with showing off if the result delights his family and friends?

SPICED HAWAIIAN HONEY STEAK

- (Serves 4)
- 1 pound ground lean beef
 - 1 fresh pineapple
 - 1/4 cup honey
 - 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1/4 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/4 teaspoon curry powder
 - 1-16 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 1 banana, sliced

- 4 Maraschino cherries
 - 4 green stuffed olives
 - 1 bunch fresh parsley
- Line firebox with quilted broiling foil. While coals are burning down, peel and core pineapple. Slice off 4 rings.

In a 1 1/2-quart bowl, combine beef, honey and spices. Shape into 4 patties. Place patties and pineapple slices on a sheet of foil; place on grill and cook to desired doneness.

Remove steak patties to warm serving platter; top each with a grilled pineapple slice. Toothpick a cherry and an olive through the center of the pineapple slices. Surround with pieces of banana. Garnish with parsley. Serve hot.

Tray of Meats Welcomes Drop-In Guests

Food, no matter how simple, has a gracious way of saying, "You're welcome," or "We like you, thanks for stopping in."

Friends who drop in for an evening's visit will be delighted when you bring out a tray of ready-to-serve meats, assorted breads and a beverage. It's a casual but warm gesture and it doesn't need to cut into your visiting time.

What could be more appropriate for an "August is Sandwich Month" theme than to give a "make your own" sandwich party?

Relishes add variety to the platter. Select those which go well with sandwiches like olives, pickles, onion rings and green onions with green pepper strips to "bundle" them.

Dieters or those guests who simply aren't hungry will enjoy nibbling on pickle strips wrapped in very thinly sliced corned beef or a small piece of salami.

BE ADVENTURESOME
If you want some fascinating adventures in the world of food, try some new varieties of cold meats this season. Many have foreign accents which are certain to intrigue.

It's fun to see what kind goes best with a favorite bread, which you prefer topped with mustard, how good something is with mayonnaise and what teams best with something else. For example, you've probably tried one kind of salami, a dry sausage, which originated in the Mediterranean area. But have you sampled salami which is a salami in miniature (same flavor but smaller links)?

Salami cotto is round and varies in size with the larger ones a little more frequently seen. It has mild flavor and a whole peppercorn.

Pepperoni is also a salami but stuffed in small casings usually linked in pairs. It's made very hot with pepper. Delicious as an appetizer, it can also be served by adding as wafer-thin slices to zucchini, green beans or spinach during their cooking.

MEAT SPECIALTIES
This country's contribution to the world of cold or ready-to-serve meats is the cooked meat specialty: spiced luncheon meat minced ham, veal loaf, jellied corned beef, or old-fashioned meat loaf, to name a few.

Generally the meat is very fine textured because it's ground or chopped fine. The cooked meat specialties listed above use only meat but often they are paired with other foods like pickles, pimientos, peppers, macaroni, cheese and spices like coriander, cinnamon, nutmeg and ginger.

Primarily mild in flavor, meat loaves like these are favorites among children for sandwiches. For the person who likes two kinds of meat for a generously filled sandwich, slices of these ready-to-serve loaves go well with one of the spicier sausage varieties.

Chip Dips Provide

Did you ever hear of "Instant Entertainment"? That's what you get when you serve chip dips. There's almost no work to the delicious concoctions, but much appreciation from the diners. Here are two chip dip recipes guaranteed to make that party a success.

PEP-THEM-UP CHIP DIP

- 1 Edam cheese (or Gouda cheese)
 - 1 tsp. prepared mustard
 - 1/2 cup sour cream
 - 2 tsps. Worcestershire sauce
 - 2 tsps. minced herbs; few grains cayenne
- Scrape cheese from shell, chop fine. Mix well with other ingredients. Refill the cheese shell. Serve surrounded by large potato chips.

HAPPY CHATTER CHIP DIP

- 1/2 cup Roquefort cheese

Fast Entertainment

- 1 pkg. cream cheese (small)
 - 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 - 1 tsp. mayonnaise
 - 1 tsp. butter
 - 1 cup sour cream
 - 1/4 cup ground nut meats
- Cream first 6 ingredients well. Beat in nut meats. If too stiff for dipping, add more sour cream.

Chop leftover celery with an onion and cook to make a freezer item for future use in stuffing or soup.

Restore walnut meats to freshness by placing them in a flat pan in a 300-degree oven for 10 minutes.

Starvation Diets Not Recommended

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—Some of my fat friends—I'm fat too—tell me the only way to start a reducing diet is to starve yourself for two or three days first. Live on nothing but water, tea and coffee. Is that good advice?

A—Dr. Philip L. White, secretary of the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association, wrote recently, "Starvation as a means of inducing weight loss has been practiced for ages. Despite this experience, overweight persists; thus, starvation by itself cannot constitute an entire program for weight control."

"A number of physicians have incorporated periods of short-term starvation into their overall programs of weight reduction. It is reported that the desire for food subsides after a short time so that hunger is not acute. There is probably no harm from abstinence for a day or two for the normal individual. However, research workers in the field have pointed out that the desire of the starving but unhappy patients to effect a drastic weight loss quickly may induce him to extend the period of starvation.

"A more reasonable approach for accomplishing weight reduction consists of a modified diet including foods high in nutrients but low in calories. Starvation, in addition to causing a depletion of body fat and protein, can induce other hazardous effects not readily recognized.

"A form of gouty arthritis, low blood pressure, and anemia have been reported in some patients after relatively short periods of food privation. There are individuals with certain diseases who should never attempt starvation. It has been stated that about the only advantage of obesity is that fat people can withstand starvation better than lean ones. Nevertheless, starvation, even for short periods, should not be attempted without medical supervision."

Breakfast Can Be

Refueling Session

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — Breakfast can and should be a family refueling session, a Texas A&M University consumer marketing specialist says.

Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, with the school's extension department, said research has shown that without an adequate breakfast, fatigue sets in earlier, irritability is increased, work output is reduced and virtually all reaction time slows down.

Skipping breakfast is especially bad for youngsters and teenagers, Mrs. Clyatt says. She recommended a family breakfast to help children form healthy eating habits.

If you expect a crowd for coffee, prepare it in advance, using at least three times as much ground coffee as usual. When you are ready to serve your guests, dilute the coffee extract with boiling water.

Wryness 'In', Humor Out for Anchorman

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you tune in the Democratic National Convention on television this week you will likely meet an anchorman coming through the wry.

Wryness is more abundant than ever now that CBS-TV has replaced Walter Cronkite, its veteran anchorman, with the team of Roger Mudd and Robert Trout.

Although Cronkite had a lot going for him, it is generally agreed that he was a little short of wryness. This may be one reason why his ratings weren't as high as those of David Brinkley and Chet Huntley of NBC-TV.

When Brinkley first began covering political conventions, I thought he was cracking jokes. But later I learned that he was making "wry comments," which is a lot different.

Wry Comments Encouraged
It probably would be considered bad from a network anchorman to make jokes about the convention proceedings. But wry comments apparently are quite acceptable. Even encouraged.

Presumably, wryness was one of the qualities CBS-TV was seeking when it signed up Mudd and Trout. At any rate, it got it.

Mudd quickly demonstrated that he is a fast man with a wry comment. Once after Mudd had given the viewers some information, Trout added a contradictory tidbit which he described as "the exception that proves the rule."

"You seem to be finding exceptions to all of my rules, and I wish you would stop it," Mudd remarked.

Sevareid Follows Suit
Trout also came through with a few wry comments, and when they switched over to Eric Sevareid, some of his comments were a bit on the wry side, too. I did a bit of channel hopping to see how Mudd's wry comments compared with Brinkley's wry comments. Comparison is difficult, however, mainly because of environmental factors.

Monopoly Charged Bubble Gum Maker

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Federal Trade Commission (FTC) examiner says the world's largest bubble gum manufacturer is illegally monopolizing the baseball player card industry "contrary to the public policy of the United States."

Examiner Herman Tocker charged this week that Topps Chewing Gum, Inc., had entered into exclusive long-term contracts with the majority of major league players and a considerable proportion of minor leaguers thus preventing other firms from offering pictures with their gum.

Tocker's decision may be appealed, stayed or reviewed by the FTC. He said Topps signed exclusive picture card contracts with 446 out of 450 major league players in 1961, plus another 6,000 minor leaguers. The agreements were for five years but additional payments by Topps extended the contracts for as long as nine years of more, the examiner said.

Tocker issued an order prohibiting Topps from entering into a contract with any baseball player, manager or coach which grants the bubble gum firm exclusive rights for more than two years. Effective date of the order will be next Nov. 1.

He also prohibited the company from enforcing any contracts now in existence after Oct. 31, 1966.

Indians' Use of Drug Held Legal by Court

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Supreme Court held 6-1 this week that the use of peyote, a hallucinatory drug, by Indians in their religious rites does not violate state narcotic laws.

The ruling came in a case which arose with the arrest of Jack Woody and two other Navajos April 28, 1962, at a Hogan 24 miles west of Needles, Calif.

Officers said they were among a group of Navajos sitting in a circle and performing a religious ceremony involving peyote.

The high court majority, in an opinion written by Justice Mathew O. Tobriner, said the case was covered by the federal constitution's protection for religious beliefs. The three defendants are Navajo members of the native American Church, which is incorporated under California law.

HAS FLOOR MANAGER

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — Although President Johnson is unopposed and may be nominated by acclamation, he still has a floor manager.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield will fill the job. He will direct such matters as communication with state delegations, assisted by Sens. Clinton P. Anderson, N.M., George A. Smathers, Fla., and Abraham Ribicoff, Conn.

Peyote is a non habit forming drug, which is produced from a cactus specie. The Indian church believes that peyote "embodies the Holy Spirit and those that partake of peyote enter into a direct contact with God."

DISCOUNT TO NEUROTICS

LONDON (UPI) — Clothing salesman Tony Gold said he would offer 10 per cent discounts to neurotics.

"If I think they are genuine cases, they get a discount," Gold said. "But if I don't, they go away happy after being assured they are not neurotics."

GETS NEW POST

MOSCOW (UPI)—Yevgeny F. Loginov, former head of the Soviet Aeroflot Airline, has been named to the newly-created post of minister of civil aviation, it was announced Wednesday.

from a cactus specie. The Indian church believes that peyote "embodies the Holy Spirit and those that partake of peyote enter into a direct contact with God."

The court majority said that the practice does not "frustrate a compelling interest of the state," and that application of narcotics laws to the state "improperly defeated the immunity of the first amendment" of the U.S. Constitution.

It was noted that peyotism has been practiced in Mexico, Canada, and parts of the United States, since at least 1560 when it was first observed by Spanish explorers.

Anthony's

Drug Company, Former Officials Indicted by Jury

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The drug firm of Wallace & Tierman, Inc., of Belleville, N.J., and two of its former officials have been indicted by a federal grand jury for keeping silent about a product linked with three deaths.

The product, a mild tranquilizer named "Dornwal," was withdrawn from the market in 1961.

The indictment handed up named the company, Dr. Charles E. Hough of Morris Plains, N.J., formerly the firm's medical director, and Robert T. Conner of Los Angeles, formerly its director of pharmaceutical research.

The agency first learned of the alleged side-effects of Dornwal through Dr. Frances O. Kelsey, the FDA medical officer credited with keeping the baby-deforming drug Thalidomide off the American prescription market. She heard about Dornwal at a medical meeting in 1961 and an investigation was begun shortly thereafter.

The company and the two men were charged specifically with withholding from the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) information on the adverse effects of Dornwal on several patients, including three who died.

Robert T. Browning, president of the drug firm, denied that it wilfully withheld from the FDA information on the cases of harmful side effects. He said that, in accordance with practices followed generally by the drug industry and the law in effect at that time, his company was not required to turn over "raw, unvaluated information" to the government.

"The facts are that the company suppressed nothing," Browning said in a statement. "Instead, it had exerted every effort to obtain consultants for the express purpose of studying this material in depth and evaluating it so that the company could then make a meaningful report to FDA."

He said the great preponderance of patients taking an estimated 160,000 Dornwal prescriptions found the drug to be safe and effective, with reported side-effects extremely low.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Robert T. Allen of Shearson, Ham-mill & Co. says it does not seem realistic to look for anything but a reasonable firm but lack luster stock market until the vacation season and the possibility of an auto strike are out of the way.

However, Allen feels that after some interest comes back into the market, stock prices should resume the upward trend that has been in progress for the better part of the past two years.

Bache & Co. says the market may pause and consolidate in light of the uncertainties in several areas. The firm says that while the near term trend appears nebulous, the long term favorable outlook remains intact.

A favorable break in what appears to be a stalemate in the auto-union negotiations may be required to stimulate renewed interest in the market, according to Thomas P. Doherty of Harris, Upham & Co.

Washington Window

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International
During the past 12 months of Kennedy-Johnson administration of government, the public debt has increased by approximately $8 billion. That raises the question of when, if ever, the political leaders of the United States will make an effective effort to control spending?

The government spending rate is slightly higher this year than last. The public debt is enormously swollen and the taxpayers continue to pour their substance into the Treasury at the rate of nearly $6 billion each month.

President Johnson is proud of his New Deal background. He is proud that Franklin D. Roosevelt was his mentor, model and idol. LBJ could underline his new dealership by going back to the 1932 Democratic presidential platform for a solid statement of policy on government spending.

First Class Document
That 1932 platform was the one on which FDR was first elected. It still is rated as a first class political document. It proclaimed that a platform was a solemn covenant with the people by which the party was bound if voted into power. Having so stated, the 1932 Democratic platform laid down a stern fiscal policy, as follows:

"We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction in government expenditures to accomplish a saving of not less than 4 per cent in the cost of federal government."

"We favor maintenance of the national credit by a federal budget annually balanced. We advocate a sound currency to be preserved at all hazards."

"The government was spending about $3 billion a year. A 4 per cent cut would have brought expenditures well below revenue. But FDR never made it. Government spending began to climb in the first New Deal months and never changed course. The hard money plank of the 1932 Democratic platform is as good as new, having never been used at all by FDR and his congressional majorities.

The national credit suffered perhaps from Democratic deficit spending policies. But the big loser was from the first and continues to be the U.S. dollar, that beautiful item once the envy of soft money citizens throughout the world. But the U.S. dollar is a soft item now. FDR swept the U.S. buck off the gold standard. Deficit spending and other factors began to rot the dollar's purchasing power.

Dollar Buys Less
The dollar will buy today less than half of the goods and services it would purchase 25 years ago. Compared to its real value in 1939, the dollar today is worth about 44 cents. No one is more aware of these facts than Lyndon B. Johnson. His first policy move on succeeding to the White House last November was to project a public image of himself as an economizer, a close man with the taxpayers' buck.

But the government spending figures, actual and projected, are likely to dim the image of LBJ the economy man. Government costs continue to rise. This higher trend has been in effect now for more than 30 years. During most of those years times have been good, profits high, employment down some but not disastrously.

If government cannot pay its way in times of high profits and good business it is reasonable to believe it never will pay its way. That is the broad highway to calamity and national disaster.

Top Hands in Top O' Texas Show

Some of the top riders in professional rodeo today are entered in this year's Top O' Texas Rodeo.

The Rodeo Office here also reported that a record number of cowboys have entered.

Entered in the bull riding is the 1963 World Champion bull rider Bill Kornell of Palm Springs, Calif. Carl Nafzger, 22, of Olton, will also compete. Nafzger placed third in national standings in the event last year. Also entered in bull riding is Joe Green of Sulphur, Okla., fourth in '63 national standings.

In the bareback bronc riding event, another world champion will compete in the Pampa arena, John Hawkins of Twain Harte, Calif. Also entered is Jim Bausch of Rapid City, S. D., who placed fourth in national standings last year.

C. R. Boucher of Burkburnett, who placed third in the steer wrestling event last year, also has entered the Pampa Rodeo.

GRAND ENTRY — Members of riding clubs from the Top O' Texas area and several clubs from Oklahoma participated Wednesday night in the grand entry to open the 20th annual Top O' Texas rodeo. Upper left, members of the various teams thread their way through pickets in the opening event.

SKY DIVERS — Two Pampa sky divers jumped from a plane flying 2,500 feet above the rodeo arena just before dark to entertain the gathering crowd. Shown preparing to land in the upper right picture is Larry Johnson who missed the arena by about 100 feet. The other diver, Terry Blackwell, landed east of the arena.

WILD STOCK — Professional cowboys competing for prize money during the first night's performance of the Top O' Texas rodeo found the stock to be wild and rough. In the left center picture Shawn Davis stays on Roly Poly for the required time and places second in the saddle bronc competition.

CALF ROPING — Thirteen professional cowboys entered the calf roping competition and came out of the chute in hot pursuit of the black calves as shown in the lower left picture. The event was won by Sam Brown with a time of 15.9.

BITES THE DUST — The bull rider above found the wild Brahma bulls a little too much and lost his seat near the fence on the east side of the arena in the right center photograph. Dickie Cox and Joe Green tied for first place in the event which drew nine riders.

QUEEN LEADS — Queen of the Shamrock riding club led the club down Cuyler St., in the procession of riding clubs and floats during the pre-rodeo parade Wednesday afternoon. Crowds lined both sides of the street, lower right picture, to see the 20th annual rodeo parade.

Boss-Secretary Relationship Is Informal in U. S.

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — In Belgium, the secretary calls her boss "Mister." In the United States, like as not, she calls him "Mac."

This informal relationship between boss and secretary is the most striking difference in secretaries in the two countries that Gisele Vanderputten found on a three-weeks visit to the United States.

"In Europe we would never address the boss by his first name," said Miss Vanderputten. "Nor would he address us as anything other than Miss whatever the last name is. You're more familiar."

Miss Vanderputten came to the United States for her first visit as part of her reward for being named "the best secretary of Belgium."

The 32-year-old blonde miss out-typed, out-memoed and out-thought 218 entries to get the title in a contest sponsored by the Brussels office of Manpower, Inc., an international help and business firm.

In Miss Vanderputten's notebook, a good secretary is one quick in mind. "If a boss has to explain things three times, he gets nervous," she said.

An alert mind topped the list also in a Manpower survey of bosses on the qualifications sought in an efficient secretary. Then, the men wanted a good sense of organization and initiative, a good memory, an ideal filing system, some technical skills in addition to shorthand and typing such as a knowledge of foreign languages (Miss Vanderputten knows Flemish, French, English and German), and a secretary who would be herself and not be overwhelmed by her surroundings.

Grooming and personal appearance were way down on the bosses list, she said.

Miss Vanderputten visited offices and talked with other secretaries in New York, Boston, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago and Milwaukee. She found a lot of sameness in secretarial jobs on each side of the Atlantic. Most Belgian secretaries work a 40-hour week although she, as executive secretary for Rene Foch, manager of external affairs in Euratom, part of the European Common Market, doesn't always keep within that limit.

Secretaries in Belgium have their coffee breaks too. And their salaries average pretty much the same when you consider what a U. S. dollar compared with a Belgian franc will buy, she said.

Dear Abby... Bury Relationship if Fiancee Doesn't Dig Work
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Like the taxidermist whose problem was a fiancee who couldn't stand the sight of stuffed animals, I have a problem. I am a mortician, and my fiancee can't stand my work, although I never discuss it after hours.

After having gone to mortician college and investing much time and money in my profession, I've become somewhat successful, and don't want to give it up. My fiancee refuses to marry me unless I change my profession. I love her, but if I am going to support her, unlike the taxidermist, I can't store my zoo in the attic.

IN DEAD EARNEST
DEAR IN: If your fiancee doesn't dig your profession, it's time to bury your relationship.

DEAR ABBY: Saturday night I was asked to baby-sit for some neighbors who had just moved into our neighborhood. They agreed to pay me 50 cents an hour and asked me to be at their house at 7:30 p.m. sharp. I got there at about 7:25. They didn't leave the house until 8:30. They came home at 12:30 that evening and paid me two dollars. I didn't say anything. My mother said that since I was asked to be at their home at 7:30 I should have charged them for the time I sat and waited for them to leave. Do you agree with her? Should I mention to them that they owe me 50 cents if they ask me to sit for them again? Or should I refuse to sit for them? They were very nice otherwise. I am a 17-year-old girl.

CHEATED
DEAR CHEATED: Since you accepted the two dollars and said nothing, your silence implied that you were satisfied. Say nothing, but should they ask you to sit for them again, tell

Girls Auxiliary Feted by Party

LEFORS (Spl) — Junior Girl's Auxiliary of First Baptist Church were honored Friday evening in the home of Mrs. H. L. Teel with a "before school starts slumber party". Counselors, Mrs. Archie Chisum and Mrs. Teel, took the group to Pampa to watch the All-Star Little League ball game at Optimist Park.

Following the trip to Pampa, a back-yard wiener and marshmallow roast was held and yard games were played for some time. After a brief devotional period, the girls presented a talent show.

The counselors prepared breakfast for the girls before they returned home the next morning.

Present were Linda Gilbreath, Sandra McGlothlin, Sandra Cain, Susan Cain, Virginia Danley, Pat Moxon, Connie Thacker, Guyla James, Mary Jane Adams, and guests Linda Florence and Jan Florence of Pampa, Mrs. Archie Chisum, Mrs. H. L. Teel, Lonnie, Connie and Billy.

Manners Make Friends

There is a difference between being relaxed and being sloppy.

you charge from the time you are asked to be at their home.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you'd settle something for my husband and me. About two years ago we went to a housewarming party for two of our closest friends. We gave them an expensive present. We visit them in their home often and we have never seen our gift in any room. I want to ask about it but my husband thinks it would be rude. What would you do?

LIBBY

DEAR LIBBY: I'd listen to my husband.

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I were first married we were so broke our wedding party consisted of us, our witnesses and the preacher. After the ceremony we took them out for dinner. They ordered the most expensive steaks on the menu, so we had to shorten our honeymoon by one day.

A year later, on our anniversary, we had a beautiful wedding with all the trimmings. I had a white gown and veil. White stands for purity, not virginity, and a married woman can be as pure as any virgin. The only difference between this and a first wedding was in our wording of the invitations, which read, "To the renewal of their vows" instead of "To the marriage of." Our minister said couples can stage a wedding and renew their vows as many times as they wish. In fact, he recommends it. Sincerely,

"A RENEWER"

Sox Near Lead As Orioles Lose

By United Press International
The story of the Chicago White Sox so far this season is that when Manager Al Lopez reaches for the bullpen telephone it's time for rival hitters to reach for butterfly nets.

Because butterflies — better known in baseball as knuckleballs — are what the hitters are going to get.

Lopez' bullpen butterflies come in two varieties — big, gorgeous ones served up by Hoyt Wilhelm and smaller, plainer but equally dangerous ones served up by Eddie Fisher. Either way, those butterflies are driving hitters daffy and may be carrying the White Sox to the American League pennant.

The White Sox moved to within one percentage point of the first-place Baltimore Orioles Wednesday night when Lopez employed both Wilhelm and Fisher to pull out a 2-1, 12-inning victory over the Minnesota Twins. The win gave the White Sox a .605 percentage compared to the .606 mark for the Orioles, who suffered a 3-2 loss to the Cleveland Indians.

Halts Uprising
Wilhelm, appearing in his 58th game, halted an eighth-inning uprising in which the Twins tied the score at 1-1 and pitched 1 1/3 innings of perfect ball. Then Fisher, appearing in his 40th game, pitched three hitless innings to gain his sixth victory when Don Buford broke up the game with a bases-filled single in the bottom of the 12th.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Washington Senators blanked the New York Yankees 2-0, the Los Angeles Angels beat the Kansas City Athletics 5-2, and the Detroit Tigers defeated the Boston Red Sox 4-1.

The Indians beat the Orioles for the 10th time in 15 games with a two-run eighth-inning rally featured by two bunt singles and climaxed by Vic Davalillo's doubles. Lee Stange went eight innings to beat the Orioles for the fourth time this season and for the sixth straight time as a starter going back to the 1963 season.

Throws Five - Hitter
Les Narum turned in a five-hitter for the Senators as the Yankees suffered their 10th shutout defeat of the season. Mike Brumley's double and Don Zimmer's single touched off the Senators' two-run rally in the fifth.

Singles by Jim Fregosi, Joe Adcock, Lou Clinton and Bob Perry plus Bob Rodgers' sacrifice fly produced three Los Angeles runs in the fourth inning and Felix Torres homered to round off the scoring. Barry Latman went 4 2/3 innings in relief to win his fifth game for the Angels.

Don Demeter hit his fourth homer in five games and Don Wert, Al Kaline, Bill Freehan and Norm Cash had two hits each to lead the Tigers' 16-run attack that brought Dave Wickersham his 18th victory. Bob Heffner dropped his fifth decision for the Red Sox.

Independent Baseball
The Bandits scored in every inning but one to take a 13-8 victory over Miller's Grocery last night.

Alonso Gomez survived a three-run rally by Miller's in the seventh inning to get the decision. Donnie Ship was the losing pitcher.

Mike Velasquez and Jim Baker of the Bandits had the longest hits of the game, a triple each.

Bandits Joe Tavera and Butch Rodriguez were three for four. One of Rodriguez' hits was a double.

Mike Stone of Miller's was the game's most consistent hitter as he singled twice in two tries. Ship doubled and singled in three at bats and Jim Tarr did the same in four attempts.

WBA to Decide Liston's Future
NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — This is the day for Sonny Liston's big fight.

Official friends and foes of the former heavyweight champion are scheduled to battle it out "on the floor," over his status as challenger, at the opening business meeting of the World Boxing Association's convention here.

If his friends win, the meeting will sanction his contracted return title bout with champion Cassius Clay in November at a site to be selected soon. That contract was signed at Louisville, July 27.

But if the powerful opposition triumphs, the WBA doubtless will refuse to permit a return Clay-Liston title bout until after Liston proves himself a "worthy challenger" by defeating one of the top ten contenders.

That would be delaying 30-year-old Sonny's come-back shot at the title for perhaps another year — even if he whipped the contender. Neither Liston, Clay nor the promoters of the estimated $4-million fight will stand for that.

FINGERED!
Mel Stottlemyre has been fingered for a task of great importance by manager Yogi Berra of the Yankees, left. The righthanded pitcher was brought up from Richmond, where he was 13-3, to help the New York team in its pennant stretch run. The 22-year-old native of Mabton, Wash., had the best earned run average in the International League with 1.42.

Chris Short Wins Fourth Straight for Philadelphia

By United Press International
Chris Short is typical of the Philadelphia Phillies in that at first glance you wonder why he ever wins and on closer inspection you wonder why he ever loses.

A baby-faced, 26-year-old left-hander from Milford, Del., Short started the 1964 season with a four-year record 10 games—under .500—32 wins and 42 losses—plus an unimpressive lifetime 4.03 earned run average.

But, like so many of his teammates, Short's past problems have no meaning in terms of his present ability.

Because today Short is one of the best pitchers in baseball and anyone who doesn't believe it can gaze in awe at a 1.65 earned run average that is the lowest compiled by a National League pitcher in 48 years! That's right, to find anything better than Short's current ERA it's necessary to roll back the clock past Sandy Koufax ... past Warren Spahn ... past Carl Hubbell ... all the way back to 1916 when Hall of Famer Grover Cleveland Alexander led the NL with a 1.55 ERA.

Wins Fourth Straight
Short, who is getting better with the pressure of the pennant race, turned in his fourth straight victory Wednesday when he beat the Milwaukee Braves 6-1 to end a two-game Philadelphia skid. Short pitched a six-hitter and carried a shut-out into the ninth when a double by Joe Torre and a single by Denis Menke ended a string of 28 consecutive innings in which he had not permitted an earned run.

against 10 victories. Lou Brock tied the score with an eighth-inning homer and the Cardinals went on to score the decisive run when Dick Groat tripled and Ken Boyer singled. Lefty Mike Cuellar pitched a six-hitter to win his fifth game while Frank Bork suffered his first loss after two wins.

The Cubs ended the Colts' six game winning streak behind the six-hit pitching of Larry Jackson and homers by Ernie Banks and Ron Santo. Hal Brown suffered his 13th setback for the Colts.

Mickey Favorite In Provo Tourney
PROVO, Utah (UPI)—Thirty-four lady pros and overseas amateur champions teed off today in the first round of the $10,000 LPGA tournament at Riverside Country Club with leading money winner Mickey Wright as a top favorite.

The rounds today and Friday also featured a pro-amateur with the individual pro scores counting along with the final rounds Saturday and Sunday for the championship. A four to 10 under par score for the 72 holes was expected to be necessary for victory.

Miss Wright has pocketed more than $19,000 this year, winning eight of the 17 tour events. She is followed at $15,000 by Ruth Jessen, who won last week's tourney at Albuquerque, N. M.

The defending champion is Kathy Whitworth, who won the 1963 Utah tournament at Ogden where Miss Wright was runner-up.

Bowlers Meet
The Harvester Couples League will meet tomorrow night at 8:30 at Harvester Bowl. All interested couples are invited to attend.

STRETCH STRIDE
NEW YORK (UPI) — Man O'War, one of horse racing's greatest champions, covered an average of 27 feet with each stride.

Catcher Gus Triandos hit two homers and Tony Gonzalez and Ruben Amaro one each to lead a 13-hit Philadelphia attack that enabled Short to raise his season won-lost record to 14-6. It also boosted the Phillies' first-place lead to seven games over the Cincinnati Reds and to 7 1/2 over the San Francisco Giants.

The Reds were tripped for the seventh time in 13 games by the New York Mets 3-1. The Giants bowed to the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs beat the Houston Colts 3-1 in the other NL games.

Tracy Stallard pitched a five-hitter to win his eighth game for the Mets, who ended Joey Jay's five-game winning streak. Ed Kranepool drove in two runs and Ron Hunt knocked in one to lead the Mets' seven-hit attack. Don Pavletich homered for the Reds' run.

The Dodgers dealt the Giants' pennant hopes another devastating blow when Doug Camilli's ninth-inning single drove in the run that gave Don Drysdale his 14th win. Frank Howard singled with one out in the bottom of the ninth and pinch runner Les Parker moved into scoring position on an infield out. Bob Hendley suffered his ninth loss

Little Leaguers In Second Round

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (UPI) — Semifinal play in the 18th annual Little League World Series unfolds today with Monterrey, Mexico, opposing Mobile, Ala., and Staten Island, N. Y., meeting Tachikawa City, Japan.

Monterrey is the only team of the four with a background of experience in the classic. Nines representing the Mexican city won the title in 1957 and 1958.

Monterrey and Mobile moved into the semifinals with opening day victories on Tuesday.

Staten Island and Tachikawa City reached the bracket Wednesday with triumphs over Wiesbaden and Valleyfield, Canada, respectively.

With Dan Yaccarino and Ed Godnie hurling one-hit ball, Staten Island romped, 8-1, over Wiesbaden, composed of sons of Army and Air Force personnel in Germany.

A bases-loaded walk in the final inning gave the Japanese team a 1-0 triumph over Valleyfield, making its fourth visit here in the past six years.

Dennis McSweeney was charged with the defeat although allowing only one hit, a single.

It came off the bat of Tomohiko Saeki with one out in the sixth and went into leftfield but Pierre Viau's relay was wild, enabling Saeki to go to third. McSweeney fanned Yuki Shishido but then walked pitcher Nagotshi Shumizu. Kunio Saito was passed intentionally, filling the bases. Susumu Koto walked on four consecutive pitches to force in the lone run of the game.

Shimizu fanned 11 while limiting Valleyfield to three hits.

Carling World Open Golf's Richest Event

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UPI) — The richest tournament in golf history, the $200,000 Carling World Open starts today with the United States favored against the best links competition the world can offer.

There are 48 foreigners in today's starting field of 155, but the names banded about as most likely to win the $35,000 top prize, fifth biggest in history, were Americans.

Naturally, Jack Nicklaus, the leading money winner, and Arnold Palmer, runner up in earnings, were the top picks.

But handicappers listed several others in the top ten, notably National Open champion Ken Venturi, British Open champion Tony Lama, and improving Chi Chi Rodriguez as potential victors.

Nicklaus has earned $99,117.83 and Palmer $93,743.37. A victory for either would set a new earnings record for a pro golfer in one year. Palmer set the current mark with $128,230 last year.

None of the genuine foreign contingent boasts earnings anywhere near those figures, but Rodriguez and Gary Player, a South African, who play the U.S. tour regularly, are in the top 10 money winners and are considered members of the foreign brigade. Rodriguez from Puerto Rico ranks seventh in earnings with $46,728.85 and Player sixth with $52,949.54.

Colts, Redskins Collide Tonight

By United Press International
The Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins kick off the National Football League's fourth weekend of pre-season games early when they engage in an exhibition version of their famous inter-city rivalry tonight at Washington's D. C. Stadium.

The Colts have a win, a loss and a tie to their credit, while the Redskins boast only one victory, but that was over the Eastern Division champion New York Giants, in their three tuneups.

The Cleveland Browns invade Detroit to battle the Lions, and the Chicago Bears play host to the St. Louis Cardinals, once their intra-city rivals, Friday night.

Four Games Saturday
Four games will be played Saturday as the winless New York Giants pit their revamped squad against the Philadelphia Eagles at Princeton, N. J., in the NFL's only day contest. The Dallas Cowboys host the Green Bay Packers, the Pittsburgh Steelers and San Francisco Forty Niners engage each other at Omaha, Neb., and the Minnesota Vikings journey to Los Angeles to battle the Rams in Saturday night tilts.

Buddy Parker, Steelers coach, is having a frustrating time trying to land newly-acquired players.

First he traded top end Buddy Dial for Scott Appleton of Texas, the lineman of the year, and Appleton defected to the Houston Oilers of the American League.

Traded Draft Choice
New Parker has traded a top future draft choice to the New York Giants for halfback Phil King and King, a six-year NFL veteran, has decided to retire rather than report to Pittsburgh.

Sports Parade

By MILTON RICHMAN
NEW YORK (UPI) — Baseball bachelors have it all over the married men.
The authority for that statement, by one of those freak coincidences, happens to be a baseball bachelorette.

He's 26-year-old Hal Reniff, a rather carefree and outspoken citizen who makes his living pitching for the New York Yankees.

"Playing this game is 100 per cent easier for a bachelor than it is for a married man," said Reniff, acutely aware that more than 85 per cent of all major leaguers are married.

No Outside Distractions
"We single guys have no outside distractions or worries," he pointed out. "All we have to do is play the game. Married men have much more pressure on them because they've got a lot of other responsibilities."
Reniff conceded he gets lonely some at times.

Doctor Defends Athletic Program

AUSTIN (UPI) — The assets far outweigh the injuries in sports play, a Houston surgeon wrote in an article in "Texas Medicine," the Texas Medical Association magazine published Monday.

Dr. Ross Davis, an orthopedic surgeon, said much was to be gained from a well-administered athletic program.
Davis wrote on "The Athletic Toll."

"During the 1962 season for which the figures are complete there were 925 schools participating in league football," Davis said. There were 2,181 boys injured, or 10 per cent of the 21,197 participating in football in the reporting schools.

No Deaths
He said the two most important facts to consider were "there were no deaths as a result of athletic injuries," and "there was only one injury that could be considered a threat to life."

The one injury, resulting in skull damage, healed satisfactorily, Dr. Davis said.

"It is noteworthy that a large number of teeth were injured," the doctor said, adding "this probably could be eliminated by the cooperation of players, parents and coaches to assure that all players wear proper mouth pieces."

Medical expense and injury notwithstanding, "the advantages of participating in this program outweigh the toll," Dr. Davis said.

Take No Chances
State commissioner of health Dr. J. E. Peavy said he agreed, but warned that football can be fun only "as long as you're not gambling with unnecessary injury."

SOMETHING'S MISSING — Billy Williams seems to have lost his head after the Cubs' outfielder took a third strike and then brought the bat down on home plate with an angry thud.

Oilers Trade With Patriots

HOUSTON (UPI) — The Houston Oilers dipped into their talent laden roster and sent another man away on a trade — center Bob Schmidt was traded to Boston in exchange for a crack at one of Boston's high draft choices in the winter college player draft.

The trade had echoes of the Aug. 14 deal that gave outstanding quarterback Jack Lee of Houston to Denver's Broncos in exchange for veteran tackle Bud McFadin, cash, and a top draft choice.

Lee came back and led Denver to an exhibition victory over the Oilers last week.

Schmidt will give the Patriots a center they have been needing for some time. The 246-pound Schmidt, 28, came from the University of Minnesota into professional football with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1958. He went later to the New York Giants in the National Football League, then to the Minnesota Vikings, then to Houston, which signed him as a free agent in 1961.

Schmidt does his best work at pass protection blocking. The Oilers' Tom Goode, converted from linebacker, had worked into the regular center's post, leaving Schmidt on the bench most of the time.

Lefors Pirates Face Big Schedule With Small Stick

By KARL O'QUINN
LEFORS — Unsettled is the word for the football situation in Lefors, as almost every position on Dean King's team is up for grabs.

King has plenty of time to decide on his lineup. The Pirates' first game is Sept. 18, at least a week after any other team in the area.

The respite will be a needed one, however, for Lefors' early schedule is murderous, with Happy, McLean and Stratford popping up the first three games.

It's King's own fault he has to play Happy, the Region I-B favorite, for he scheduled the game while he was head coach at Happy last year. His 1962 Cowboys won the regional title and he expects them to do it again.

To face this list of powerhouses, plus a couple of toughies in his own district, King inherits six lettermen from a 6-4 squad for his debut season at Lefors.

Heading up the list is Keith Jernigan, a junior left guard with two letters to his credit already. He weighs 153 and is the heaviest guard available. Sophomore Glen Hix, up from the B team, and freshman Charles Day back up Jernigan. Gary Smith, a 151-pound freshman, is currently heading the list at the other guard position ahead of junior Marvin Finney, 127, and soph Dennis Dunn, 121.

Tackle is one of the brightest, and dimmest, spots in the Pirate picture. Half of King's lettermen are at this position but depth is lacking. Two of them, senior Glen

Rookie Speedster To Start Tomorrow

By United Press International
Now is the time for J.D. Garrett to live up to his press notices.

The rookie from Grambling, reputed to be one of the fastest backs in the American Football League, will fill in for injured fullback Larry Garrison when the Boston Patriots meet the Bills at Buffalo Friday night.

Coach Mike Holovak revealed Wednesday he will alternate Garrett with five-year vet Jim Crawford at Garrison's spot. Jernigan is still recuperating from a kidney ailment.

The Patriots will be seeking their first victory after three straight setbacks in pre-season games.

Henderson, 140, and senior Danny Robbins, 152, are listed at right tackle and senior Edgar Brown, at 198 the heaviest man on the roster, has the left tackle spot.

Danny Hill and Billy Earls, neither of whom have experience, are running behind Henderson and Robbins. David Dunn and Ricky Cates back up Brown but neither weighs 100 pounds.

Dickie Archer, 136, a senior letterman, has the left end spot ahead of Mase Furgerson, a 130-pound freshman, and Jerry Warner, 100, a sophomore.

Right end is manned by Dave Roberts, a 147-pound senior who played with the B team last year. He's backed up by two freshmen, Hal Sims, 135, and Allen Stone, 153.

Larry Pruet, a 134-pound senior, heads up the list at center. Glen Henderson, the letterman tackle, may be shifted to center to help with the depth problem. Freshman Ronnie Bogle will also play at center.

Senior Bill Nichols, a 150-pounder, returns at quarterback and is the only letterman in the backfield.

Junior Terry Sanders, a B teamer last year, and freshman Dennis Keith are listed behind Nichols.

Tony Pittman, a sophomore with B team experience, will be the right halfback. Marvin Finney may play here as well as right guard.

Two juniors up from the B team, Dickie Sims and Johnny Dunn, compete for the fullback slot but both are light.

Two more of last year's B teamers, junior Billy McBee and sophomore James Todd, round out the squad at the right halfback position. McBee weighs 109, Todd 140.

King is only half joking when he cracks, "If we have a strong point it's our facilities."

The facilities are good, but King's questions far outnumber his answers.

Depth and size are acute problems, as is obvious from the above listing. King is still familiarizing himself with his personnel and trying to find the right slot for each of his men. He and assistants Eddy Clemons, Harley Lewis and Bob Golfehene make changes in the three-deep roster after every day's practice.

Lefors has been picked as high as second in the 5-B race, but King can't see it. In fact, he'd like very much to be rated underdog in every game.

He'll probably get his wish in more than half his games.

If Goldwater Wins

We must admit to a few moments of sheer joy as we saw the skill with which the Goldwater forces in San Francisco derailed the king makers of the east...

Frankly, we hope so. But not for the reasons many will suppose.

We believe in freedom and the right of each man to manage his own affairs. We do not believe that even so amiable a gentleman as Barry Goldwater ought to manage anyone's affairs but his own.

One of the most encouraging factors in recent years has been the growing awareness in the minds of millions of Americans of the danger they face from their own government.

Because Mr. Goldwater now symbolizes this concept, we hope he has a chance to gain the high office so that once and for all the American people can learn that the solution to their problems will not be found in Washington, D.C., nor in the sacred halls of even a Republican legislature.

Experience is a costly teacher. But it provides one with unavoidable lessons. And possibly the lesson about to be administered if Goldwater wins, could be administered in no other way.

Quite frankly, if Goldwater wins, we expect some serious difficulties to embroil this nation. Even assuming that the policies of the Goldwater machine are not simply shunted aside once the seat of power is reached...

Thus, there appears to be only two courses for Goldwater to take. He will adhere to his policies, and perform drastic revision of every federal program from the Agriculture Department to foreign aid...

If he elects the first course, he will find himself opposed on

Nu Alfabet Wud B Ezyr on Chldrn

Johnny may soon be reading faster and better than ever before thanks to a nu alfabet.

Words are spelled just as they sound. Thus, "new" is "nu."

Experimentally, some 20,000 American schoolchildren will start learning to read this fall with a 44-character alphabet devised by a British educator.

The new or Initial Teaching Alphabet (I.T.A.) was first introduced to the United States in 1963. A test group of 600 first-graders in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, was reading I.T.A. books at the third and fourth-grade level after only seven months of instruction.

English is such a crazy-quilt language that it spells its 40 odd basic sounds of vowels and consonants in some 2,000 different ways. For example, the sound "t" has 22 different spellings in such words as aisle, bay, buy, by, style, choir and island.

The I.T.A. avoids such inconsistencies by making each letter represent only one sound. The 44 characters include 24 of the existing 26 Roman letters (omitting q and x) and 20 newly designed characters, mostly typographically plain and di-graphs.

LOSING A CONTINENT

As the American electorate looks forward to the presidential election in the fall, voters undoubtedly will be reviewing the administration record of the last four years. It is a record of error, folly and disaster.

Nowhere is this more clearly illustrated than with respect to U.S. policy on Africa. This vast continent is of immense importance to the United States and to our allies in Europe. If it were to fall into the hands of the communists, Europe would be gravely endangered.

Tragically, the African policies of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations could not have been more hurtful to our national interests.

Vast sums have been extracted from American taxpayers to build dams for Dictator Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, who nevertheless continues to vilify the United States and proclaim his friendship for the communist world.

There are two main immigration bills which would nullify our present immigration laws: the Hart - Celler Bill (S. 747), and the Kennedy - Johnson Bill (S. 1932; H.R. 7700).

These bills have the same objective in view, the unlimited entry of immigrants into the U. S. from any country or area, especially from Africa and Asia.

Not only did the New Frontiersmen upset the apple cart in the Congo, but they have continually abused every European element in Africa.

If we are correct, then the wisdom of the men who drafted the Declaration of Independence will be vindicated. If we are wrong, then those who believe in the philosophy that some men must control other men, will again have carried the day.

THE ECLIPSE OF SECURITY Today, concern for internal security in our government is being downgraded. It is just not politically fashionable even to advert to the very effective Soviet penetration of our society.

When the Communists were on the defensive in the United States in the early fifties, they contrived the ploy of "McCarthyism." I once had the research assignment to trace down the origin of that term and found it to be of direct Communist coinage.

THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS are foolishly being isolated in the Soviet firmament as the only real villains. Yet, among our policy planners today there are those who, after World War II, were instrumental in bringing those brigands to power.

Master of Fact

Saint Peter Claver is said to have baptized more than 300,000 slaves during his lifetime as a missionary in Spanish America. The Spanish Jesuit spent most of his life at Cartagena (modern Colombia), which was the chief slave market of the new world in the early part of the 17th century. Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not insure anarchy.)

QUESTION: Why do you contend that collectivism, state socialism, and communism start in the local community?

ANSWER: The reason is that we believe these things start in the minds of men and women in the local communities. When men in the local communities believe in initiated force, which is a form of collectivism and is the essence of state socialism and communism, it is only natural for this belief to spread out from the center and gravitate to the state capital and finally to the federal government.

Now what are the real trade marks of state socialism and communism? State communism is based on initiated force. They make people comply to it.

There are ten planks in the Communist Manifesto and those people who don't think that state socialism and state communism start in the local community, we wish they would name one of the ten planks which they oppose.

We do not have the figures but it is doubtful whether one out of fifty people do not believe in tax-supported schools. Of course, they are not free, nor are they education. They are indoctrination to believe that we get our rights from the state rather than from nature or from God. It would be impossible for state schools to teach respect for the Kingdom of God which is in each person.

In the first place they deny God or nature and put man or the majority of the proletariat as superior to every other individual. But under a free enterprise system all people are equal before the law as they are before God and they have an equal right to own property and help establish values.

That is the reason that state socialism and state communism start in each community and spread to the state capital, and federal government. And if we continue it will spread to the United Nations and we will all be pawns for those in control of the United Nations. That is, those who have the most guns and the most power.

posed a complete embargo on the Free China. This proved to be the death blow to Chiang. A year later, the Soviet juggernaut rolled over the Nationalist Chinese we thus disarmed.

All of this was authoritatively spelled out by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, unanimously. Later, it became an official Senate report, also unanimously.

Yet, these lessons were lost when Cuba was being besieged from within our own borders. We are still being lost today. Perhaps the new wind that is approaching election has prompted will even reach down into Internal Security and allow those laboring in this vital field to carry on with their appointed tasks.
