

Girl Reporter Describes Philadelphia Rioting

EDITOR'S NOTE: Tall and blonde Mary Lou Oates, United Press International staff correspondent of the Philadelphia bureau, sped to the scene shortly before midnight when a minor traffic arrest in North Philadelphia developed into a street incident, then flared into a riot as pillaging and looting Negro mobs battled police. Mary Lou, wearing a police helmet, worked in the riot zone until past midnight. Here is her first-person account.

By MARY LOU OATES PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Rock and roll music blared from the bars.

A screaming Negro woman with half a brick in one hand shrieked "Those cops are gonna kill us." She threw the brick at a policeman.

A group of teen-aged boys swept past. One paused, then threw a garbage can through a storm window. Another hurled a steel milk basket — the kind milkmen carry on deliveries — through another window.

That was the pattern at the start. I patted a steel helmet — given me by a policeman when I stepped from a UPI photographer's automobile — more tightly on my head.

The helmet was blue, with the blue lettering "police" across the front.

Survey Under Way On Parking Meters

The Downtown Business Association of Pampa is conducting a survey to determine the feasibility of removing all parking meters in downtown Pampa. The association recently investigated the following plan at Lawton, Okla.:

1. Should Pampa adopt Section 1 of the plan? YES NO

2. Should Pampa adopt Section 2 of the plan? YES NO

3. If this plan resulted in fewer parking spaces for shoppers, would you still favor it? YES NO

4. Is the fine adequate? YES NO

5. Is it fair? YES NO

6. Should the city black-top and mark the Santa Fe parking lot? YES NO

7. Should meter receipts be used to purchase off-street parking lots? YES NO

8. Should meter receipts be used to produce revenue for the general fund? YES NO

9. Is more than 1 hour required for your business downtown? YES NO

10. Would you cooperate with those who are responsible for enforcement of parking rules? YES NO

11. Are you employed downtown? YES NO

I didn't know then it was to single me out for outbursts of profanity, to make me a target for spitting by the rioters as I followed the breaking crowds and down the street.

A slim teen-aged girl wearing tight blue stretch pants and a sleeveless blouse stood on a refrigerator dropped by looters at a street intersection screaming "black men, unite."

She glared at me and said "I hate white women."

Negro women pressed past, pre-school toddlers held in one hand, bricks and stones in the other.

1) Two-Hour Parking Limit. All parking meter heads have been removed. Free parking is permitted for two hours, tires are marked by meter maids, and violators are fined $1.00 for each two-hour violation. Courtesy tickets are given out-of-town violators.

2) Monthly Parking Permits. Meter posts in the fringe areas are painted green. Applicants may purchase permits from the city for $2 monthly. The permits (windshield stickers) entitle the owner to park all day at any green meter post. Anyone, however, may park free for two hours. The number of permits sold are limited to the number of green posts.

Keeping in mind that removal of meters would result in loss of revenue to the City, the Downtown Association would like to know:

The women goaded the men into further rioting.

I went into a luncheonette to make a phone call. A Negro man in clerical garb stepped up and tole me "You better get out of here."

Two minutes later, the plate glass window beside the phone was shattered by a brick.

Streams of looters strolled past at a leisurely rate, their arms filled with liquor bottles from taprooms, with clothing, with household appliances and cooking utensils. They simply sauntered by.

Oddest was a Negro man carrying a cellophane-wrapped white couch on top of his head.

There was no need to scramble or hunt for a telephone. I merely stepped into the nearest store through the broken display window or the open door to use the store phone. Manikins in ladies apparel stores were stripped of display dresses and coats.

Deputy police Commissioner Frank Rizzo grabbed me and squeezed me into a police car.

Then he stepped in front of a solid phalanx of 150 patrolmen and led them straight down the glass-littered streets. His order — arrest any person who won't give way.

Police, outnumbered during the early morning hours, could only hope to smother the riot. It was impossible to halt the looting. No one patrolman could stand against the mobs.

When they made arrests, against violent resistance, the sidewalk mobs howled "police brutality."

Dawn, and more police, brought some relief. The looters were still racing around, breaking into stores in the off-streets.

The looting could not be halted immediately. Jeering mobs sauntered along the street in almost a holiday mood, jostling each other, laughing at the police.

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY
County Agricultural Agent

There are several new wheat varieties that have been released the past year. As a wheat farmer you will be hearing more about these.

Gaines, a semi-dwarf wheat from the Pacific Northwest which produces white grain, is not recommended because of its extreme lateness of maturity. It is an inferior in bread making qualities and extremely low in test weight. Because of the fact it is the poorest in bread making qualities it should not be planted in this area. The High Plains of Texas has an excellent record of producing top milling quality wheat. As a result we usually enjoy a 10 cent premium on our wheat because of its high quality. This reputation will be lost fast if one or two car loads of poor wheat are shipped out.

When you look at the performance of Gaines at the Bushland Experiment Station you can lose your enthusiasm for it real fast. In the dry land test at Bushland it was the lowest yielder of 16 varieties tested, yielding only 8.5 bu. per acre. The highest was Triumph with a 17.8 bu. yield.

Gaines fared better in the irrigated test and stood third from the top yielding 67.7 bu. per acre. Scout was second producing 69.8 and Tascosa first producing 73.4 bu. per acre. Scout was second producing 69.8 and Tascosa first producing 73.4 bu. per acre. However, Gaines had the lowest test weight of all irrigated varieties—testing only 55.5 lbs. per bu.

We hope Gray County farmers will let the farmers in surrounding counties chase the rabbits on new wheat varieties that have not been endorsed by our experiment station.

There are several other relatively new varieties that you might want to check. They are Caddo, Warrior, Gage, Lancer and Scout. Drop by the office and we will let you take a look at a new leaflet we have received on all these varieties as well as other barley and oat varieties.

You may also check with one of your neighbors that is serving on our Field Crops Committee of our Program Building Committee. They are: Robert Saylor, Jack Villines, Keith Davis, Amos Harris, C. W. Osborne, Jimmy McCracken and Lawrence Kurtz.

Coastal Bermuda Grass
At the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Balmorhea, a test on the value of grazing Coastal Bermuda was conducted in 1963.

Average daily gains were very disappointing even though a tremendous tonnage of forage was produced. Nitrogen fertilizer application was extremely heavy. From 84 lbs. to as high as 336 lbs. per acre were added.

There were six weigh dates from May 23 to October 23. Steers gained slightly less than one pound daily up to July 10th. From this period to mid-September gains were very low.

averaging less than 3 lbs. daily. Cattle lost weight from this date to October 23rd.

The above information is covered in a complete report that recorded in the Proceedings of the 14th Annual Short Course on Beef Cattle held at Texas A&M University this summer. We have ordered several additional copies and would pass one along to those interested. Subjects covered include grazing studies at Texas Experimental Ranch, Throckmorton, Maintenance of Beef Cows in Drylot, Spur Experiment Station, Types and cost of Fence Construction, Climatic environmental influence upon feedlot performance, Fertility Testing of Bulls, Pregnancy Testing of Cows and a number of other important topics.

This and That

Archie Walls, a new irrigation farmer, has one of the finest milo crops in the county. Abe Lewis was very late getting his well completed and he has an excellent crop. His maize had reached the boot before he was able to irrigate. Tri-State Fair Dates—September 21-26. If you have products to enter, call our office and we will tell you the quantity required. We will also be happy to take anything you have that would enter in the Agricultural and Horticultural Department. With as many good gardeners as we have in Pampa, we should have a long list of products at the Fair.

We will have a booth from Gray County. There are over 90 different agricultural products which you may enter. Entries are always short in such items as turnips, egg plant, beets, Irish potatoes, dry peas or beans, etc. Call me for the specific time and place to bring these products if you are interested.

Johnson Grass Problem
Barney Brummett says he has done an excellent job on eradicating Johnson grass using diesel and C-56. He wags you must be persistent and be willing to spray more than one time to get a good kill. We agree.

4-H NEWS

By JERRY HARLAND

Eight Gray County 4-H boys participated in the calf scramble at the Top O' Texas Rodeo Saturday night. Boys who catch a calf will be given one from one of the local sponsors. The boy must then feed and care for the calf and show him in Top O' Texas Livestock Show.

Boys participating from Gray County 4-H clubs are Danny Searl, Gary Richardson, Andy Cole, Dale and Tommy Teague, Kin Engle, Clayton Meadows, Allen and Kenneth Stone.

We were very proud of the Horse Club and their participation in the parade, grand entry and setting of the pivots for Saturday night's rodeo. Their leaders, the Alvin Reeves' and the John Winter's, have done a fine job.

County Harvest Operations SCD News Continue, Despite Rain

By ARNEAL SCOTT

W. H. Ollinger developed irrigation on the Walter Ollinger farm northeast of Groom. He plans to do some land leveling to improve application of irrigation water. W. H. has produced a good milo crop this year due to efficient use of his irrigation system. Presently 200 acres are being irrigated.

Eakin Bros. laid out an irrigation system on the Rex McKay farm southwest of Pampa. Rex plans to install 1620 feet of irrigation pipeline on his farm west of Pampa.

Lawrence Kurtz plans to do some land leveling on the Earnest McKnight farm southwest of Pampa. Irrigation pipeline and leveling will aid in distribution of irrigation water.

AUSTIN (UPI)—Cotton and grain sorghum harvesting pushed on normally last week despite rains in nearly every part of the state, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

The cotton was 14 per cent harvested compared to 19 per cent the same date last year. Coastal Bend and upper coast crops were turning out more cotton than gins in these areas could handle.

The sorghum harvest was 45 per cent complete with dryland acreage in the southern High Plains hurting for water. Corn was 51 per cent harvested, slowed slightly by showers.

Early carrots were in full harvest on the High Plains, the USDA reported, and lettuce seeding was completed. Onion harvesting nearly ended and potato volume was light.

Terraces will control water erosion and conserve moisture for the use of growing crops.

Four Yule Stamps Set for This Year

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski said Monday he expects quadruplets for Christmas — four different 5-cent postage stamps printed in bright holiday colors on the same sheet, according to O. K. Gaylor, Pampa postmaster.

Gronouski unveiled a design for the four — to be printed in traditional red and green against a white background — at the convention of the National Association of Postmasters of the United States held in New York.

The four regular-size stamps portray holly, mistletoe, poinsettia and pine cone. They will be sold in sheets of 100, each sheet containing 25 blocks of the four different stamps.

City Youth Leaves For Ocean Cruise

Joe Fisher Jr. of Pampa is due to leave Pampa today for Tinker AFB at Oklahoma City, where he will depart Monday for San Diego, Calif., and a week cruise aboard a Navy craft.

Fisher, who graduated from Pampa High School in May, won the trip for his display in the Amarillo Science Fair. He is one of 200 teen-agers who received Navy Cruise Awards as the result of displays entered in science fairs across the Nation.

Fisher will fly from Tinker AFB to San Diego aboard a Navy jet. He will board either the USS Preble or the USS Wilson for the week-long cruise off the coast of Southern California. The trip will end Sept. 7 and Fisher will be flown back to Oklahoma City.

The Texas Panhandle Science Fair is held annually under the sponsorship of the Panhandle Science Council.

Soviets Concede Little Progress For Party in US

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet press conceded Saturday that the Communist party in the United States has failed to make any dents in the American two-party system.

The Soviet magazine International Affairs made the admission in trying to explain the U. S. presidential election to the Russian people.

"The Communist party, established in 1919, is yet to become a mass party," the magazine said. "The repeated attempts to build up a mass party... of toiling farmers or a mass worker-farmer party have so far failed."

"As a rule, the workers and the farmers — white and black — still vote either for Republican or Democratic candidates."

International Affairs blamed the situation on the rise of the bourgeoisie (middle class) during "the high rate of U.S. capitalist economic development" in the 19th century.

"The very favorable conditions which prevailed in the 19th century substantially strengthened the bourgeoisie's social position and its political and ideological influence on the people," the magazine said.

"The huge profits made by the financial oligarchy in the first and second world wars, of which the exploited got a little bit too, enabled the ruling class to retain its influence."

Stack of Work Faces Post-Parley Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 88th Congress reconvenes Monday to finish work on a stack of controversial election-year legislation. It includes medical care for the aged and a move to block the Supreme Court's state legislature reapportionment order.

There was no indication Saturday how long the post-convention session would last. But all signs pointed to a politically stormy wind-up.

Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater and both vice presidential nominees will help shape party strategy on the measures to be considered. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, running mate to President Johnson, will be operating in the Senate while the GOP No. 2 candidate, Rep. William E. Miller, will be completing his service in the House.

A similar post-convention session was held four years ago. This was when the late President John F. Kennedy and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon were active in the Senate, along with Johnson as Democratic leader. Virtually nothing was accomplished then.

This year however, administration forces are hopeful of obtaining Senate action on the medical care for the aged program as part of a bill to increase Social Security benefits. Chances of success seemed dim but the Democrats hope to at least make medicare a campaign issue.

A major stumbling block to speedy action was the fight over the court's edict ordering state legislatures apportioned on an equal population basis.

When Congress recessed for the Democratic convention, northern senators were dug in for what shaped up as a filibuster to prevent passage of a compromise amendment which would give the states additional time to comply with the court decision.

Enrollment Increase Noted In Pampa's School System

Supt. of Schools Jack Edmondson said Saturday that at the end of the first two days of classes, Pampa schools have shown a noticeable increase in enrollment over the same period last year.

As of Friday afternoon, 6,011 students had enrolled in Pampa's 12 public schools. This is an increase of 120 students over the same period last year.

Edmondson said that high school enrollment accounted for most of the increase while elementary and junior high schools reported about the same as last year.

A total of 1,282 students enrolled at Pampa High School; 1,486 at the three junior highs and 3,243 at the eight elementary schools.

Edmondson also pointed out that students who have not yet enrolled in school should do so as soon as possible. The first full week of school will begin Monday.

SUPERMARKETS SOLID

COLOGNE, Germany (UPI)—Supermarkets, their display ranging from assorted food to mens shirts, have become firmly established in West Germany, the West German Supermarket Institute reported.

Supermarkets have been mushrooming most in densely populated areas.

Many 18-Year-Olds Missing Draft List

AUSTIN (SpI)—An estimated 6,000 to 8,000 18-year-old males, legally required to be registered under the draft law, are not registered in Texas currently.

That was the conclusion reached here Saturday by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state director of Selective Service.

The estimate, Colonel Schwartz said, was based on 1946 male births in the state and rates of increase in the number of males at the 18-year-old level. More than 45,000 males registered with Texas draft boards from January through July. The figure should be 51,000 to 53,000, Colonel Schwartz says, based on the best analysis of statistics at his disposal and current experiences of local boards.

One Texas draft board recently began a special project of investigation through the school census as well as taking other special actions and doubled its current registration rate of 18-year-olds, the state draft director said. He indicated some other boards were considering similar action.

Colonel Schwartz pointed out that the draft law makes it the responsibility of the 18-year-old male to register at the nearest local board on the day he is 18, or within five days thereafter.

"If he waits as much as six days to present himself for registration, he is late," Colonel Schwartz said, "and is subject to penalty of the law."

Maximum penalty for failure to comply with the draft law, upon prosecution and conviction of an individual subject to it, is five years in prison, $10,000 fine, or both.

Local boards may, if they decide to take the action, select men out of turn for immediate military service if they fail to comply with draft law provisions, including registration on time.

Practically all males born after Aug. 30, 1922, except those under 18, are legally required to be registered under the current draft law.

Miller Charges President With Evading Issues

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—Republican vice presidential nominee William E. Miller charged Saturday night that President Johnson "sidesteps the issues which would tend to irritate the Soviet Union."

Miller cited two recent developments which he said emphasized the Johnson administration's reluctance to come to grips with some of the basic issues concerning the question of freedom.

The New York congressman, in a speech prepared for delivery before the 28th annual convention of the Midwest Federation of American Syrian Lebanese Clubs, referred to the President's Captive Nations Week proclamation for 1964 and a Johnson statement about the Berlin wall.

"President Johnson in his issuance of the Captive Nations Week proclamation for 1964 did not even mention communism or the Soviet Union in the text," Miller said. "This is a mockery of the joint resolution of the House and Senate as approved July 17, 1959."

He said "the whole intent of the Captive Nations Week resolution is to let the people behind the Iron Curtain know that we Americans do not accept the domination of the captive nations by Communist tyranny as final."

Miller also mentioned an Aug. 15 news conference held by Johnson in which he said the President was asked whether there was any chance of tearing down the three-year-old Berlin wall.

The former GOP national chairman quoted the President as replying: "We are constantly concerned with improving the conditions of the free world. We are proud of our relationship with the Federal Republic of Germany. We are going to continue in cooperation with them to do everything possible to bring about the unification of the great people of Germany at the earliest possible date."

To this, Miller said, "In other words, forget the Berlin wall."

"America simply cannot have a president who sidesteps the issues which would tend to irritate the Soviet Union," Miller said.

He said Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, has clearly and consistently shown a devoted concern for freedom and peace in his statements on the captive nations and on the Berlin wall.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A television rating organization reports that President Johnson's nomination at the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City, N. J., Wednesday night was seen by a TV audience of 41 million.

The American Research Bureau estimated Thursday that TV sets in more than 20.5 million homes were tuned to the Democratic convention.

DALLAS (UPI)—Redman Industries, Inc., a manufacturer of mobile homes, announced it has agreed to purchase the assets of Mobile Engineering Co. of Tulsa, Okla. for an unspecified amount of cash.

Pampa's Junior Service League this week opened a country store, "The Golden Eagle," at 216 N. Ward St., which will operate as a non-profit institution for charity by selling used clothing, household goods, furniture and appliances on a consignment basis.

Members of the organization said the profit made by the store will be used by the league for helping charitable projects which benefit the City of Pampa.

Merchandise will be received anytime during the regular store hours which are 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday and from 9:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Saturdays.

CASHIER — Mrs. David Gantz, upper right picture, makes out a sales ticket and concludes the sale of a sport coat during the first afternoon the store was open. Members of the league record each sale and keep track of the original owner's percentage of the sale price.

ARRANGING — Mrs. Bill Mateowsky, lower right, photo, arranges a set of glassware on shelves near the rear of the store. All glassware sold by the store must be in excellent condition. Other items offered by the league store include household glassware and antique pieces.

Aftergut And Sterling Rites Performed at Coronado Inn

Mrs. Harris Joe Sterling ... nee Frances Ellen Aftergut

Double-ring vows performed by Rabbi Hyman Solomon of Amarillo at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 23, united in marriage Miss Frances Ellen Aftergut and Harris Joe Sterling of San Antonio.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aftergut, 1615 Williston; parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jules Sterling of San Antonio.

Starlight Room of Coronado Inn, scene of the ceremony, was decorated with a flowered canopy suspended from the ceiling, candelabra, lemon leaves and flowered baskets.

At the organ was Mrs. Hugh Carson, who presented traditional wedding selections and accompanied soloist Hugh Carson as he sang "This Is My Beloved" and "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee."

BRIDE
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk peau de and white carnations. Steve Sterling served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Myron Aftergut, James Siegel of San Antonio and Chuck Heilbron. Seating the wedding guests were ushers Ronald Goldman of Fort Worth, Sheldon Oster, Joe Westheimer and Keith Klein, all of San Antonio.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sterling chose a dress of gold crepe with beaded top. Mrs. Sterling selected a pink peau de soie dress with beaded top and both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

RECEPTION

Starlight Room, Coronado Inn, was the scene of the reception which followed the ceremony. Orchestra music was provided throughout the receiving hours. A buffet dinner was served from a table covered with white linen and centered with white mums. The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth and centered with an arrangement of white roses flanked by matching tapers. Serving the bride's cake was Miss Betty Williams of Dallas and Miss Linda Watson served the bridegroom's cake. Presiding at the guest register was Mrs. Betty Mumper of San Diego, Calif.

The newlyweds traveled to Las Vegas, Nev. and San Francisco, Calif. on their wedding trip. The bride chose a brown and white knit suit complemented by brown alligator accessories and lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet for traveling.

Mrs. Sterling attended the University of Texas, Austin, where she was a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority. She will be a senior at Trinity University, San Antonio, this fall. The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of Texas where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity, is now a stockbroker associated with Shearson Hammill in San Antonio where the couple will make their home at 3737 Fredericksburg.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES

Among the pre-nuptial courtesies given the bride were a shower with Mmes. Floyd Watson, Malcolm Hinkle, Terry Culey, O. K. Gaylor and Jack Vaughn serving as hostesses; a breakfast given at the Pampa Club hosted by Mmes. B. M. Behrman, Leonard Hudson, Leon Gilbert and Mary Williams. Several courtesies were shown the bride in San Antonio.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner given in the Starlight Room, Coronado Inn.

Kappa Kappa Iota Plans New Year

Members of the Kappa Kappa Iota executive committee attended an informal coffee and called meeting at Lewis Buffateria Aug. 22.

Plans for the coming year were discussed, and tentative committees were assigned. Many interesting programs and social events have been planned for the coming year.

Those attending the coffee were: Mmes. Roy Sparkman, Perry Gaut, Truett Ross, D. L. Mackie, Leroy McDaniels, Lee Heaton, Elizabeth Enns, Mildred Hogland, J. Aaron Meek, Hugh D. Sanders, M. L. DeFev-er, Houston Price, Teresa Humphreys and Fred Stockdale.

The first meeting of the year will be Sept. 27 when members will attend a patio party at the home of Mrs. Floyd Smith. Sweaters for the college set are long and lean for fall, often ribbed, and often paired with slender skirts or well-tailored trousers. Blazer jackets, pleated skirts and jumpers still are big on the campus but this year's college girl might team them with plaid stockings, checked gaiters or tall, polished boots.

New Look For Crowning Glory

A new look for your crowning glory is one of the most exciting and attractive ways of starting the fall season with a fashionable flourish.

Every woman should have at least three hair styles that are completely flattering to her face, says Fred Fredericks, director of Max Factor's hair creations division. One style should conform to the hats you wear, one for the days a hat is not necessary, and one for glamorous evening occasions. If you enjoy the excitement of changing your hair-dos for each season, it's advisable to make use of a wonderfully effective hairspray, such as Spray-A-Wave. Regardless of how complicated your new coiffure is, it will keep it beautifully in place.

Remember that your new hair-do should make your face appear as nearly oval as possible and, at the same time, balance your features. Before attempting your new style, be sure to analyze the contours of your face and then work to create the hairstyle that gives the most flattering results.

When you are going to have your hair cut, advises Mr. Fredericks, be sure you know how you wish it to be styled. If you plan to wear it up or very full, have it cut in layers. Hair should be in one length, if you plan to wear it down.

New Cleaning Methods Help Prolong Life of Mattress

Mattresses, like most things, can age before their time if you don't give them the care they deserve. When they become worn, even on the sides, they don't give the comfort and support you need for healthful, restful sleep. A new innerspring mattress should be turned about once a month for the first 6 months to make sure the upholstery materials continue to be well distributed. After that, twice a year is enough. Turn it from side to side and from end to end. Remember, you usually sleep in approximately the same place every night and your mattress is eventually going to take on your shape in that spot. Turning helps to prevent this and keep it level.

Be careful to avoid bending or crushing the mattress when it is being turned. This can cause buckling.

Airing and vacuuming of your mattress shouldn't wait until spring cleaning time. Both should be done about once a month. Strip the bed, open a window and air the mattress for a few hours. Then, go over its surface with the upholstery attachment of your vacuum cleaner or a wisk broom. Be sure to get around the borders and in crevices where dirt can collect unnoticed. Don't forget the box-spring underneath. It can be a real villain when it comes to hiding dirt and dust.

Your mattress should be covered with a protector pad. Most people don't realize that they give off a half-pint of moisture during the night. A mattress pad will absorb this moisture and protect the mattress. It is easily laundered as often as necessary.

No mattress can go through its lifetime without getting stains on its surface. Vacuuming won't remove these, so the best thing to do is use a dry detergent bath. Beat up some detergent with a little water and take up some of the suds on a cloth. Then scrub the mattress with a light circular motion over a small area at a time. Scrape off the excess suds and use another clean, damp cloth to wipe off the area. But no extra water, please. You might want to keep the windows open or a fan going to speed drying. Above all, do not cover your mattress while it is damp.

Dressing Is Hard For Disabled

By HELEN COOKMAN
NEW YORK (UPI) — How long did it take you to dress this morning?

Getting dressed every day is a fairly simple matter for most of us. But there are many persons who don't think so at all and I don't mean the ones who open the closet and wail, "I don't have a thing to wear."

I mean the millions of Americans for whom daily dressing is an actual physical problem—often a very serious one.

The statistics are startling: Some 30 million Americans disabled.

For them, dressing is never easy. For many, it's impossible to tie a shoelace without assistance. And having to be dressed by someone else whittles away self esteem.

Dr. Howard A. Rusk, director of the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at New York University's medical center, was among the first to recognize this — and the first to act.

Because of my reputation as a designer and manufacturer of functional clothing, he asked me, in 1955, to volunteer as official coordinator of a clothing research project at the institute.

After three years of research, and observing the disabled trying valiantly to manage the buttons on a blouse or struggling to pull on trousers and over leg braces, I designed and developed the "pilot collection" of functional fashions.

An 11 months' market test of several models from this collection resulted in an avalanche of mail from 700 organizations. To meet an obvious need, the clothing research and development foundation was launched in 1961.

So far, more than 272 stores in 43 states, the nation's capital, Canada, and England have ordered "functional fashions" for fall.

The foundation has committees consisting of rehabilitation and marketing experts to carry on the work by assisting in research on the whole range of clothing items for the disabled. The foundation has made a great beginning. But it is only a beginning. As funds expand, so will the foundation's work.

Advice Helpful When Shopping for Beef

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Even seasoned shoppers seldom can visualize the place on the animal carcass from which a piece of beef comes, according to Mrs. Clara Leopold, University of Nebraska home management specialist.

She said the more tender cuts come from areas that are not exercised much. Meat from the rib and loin sections, for example, is more tender than that from the leg, neck or shoulder.

However, each cut is no better than the animal itself, Mrs. Leopold said. To know and understand quality rating must be a part of the shopper's knowledge about meat cuts. Government grades are the best guide, according to the specialist. The best is prime—then choice, good and standard.

Grange, Hal Brown, Weldon Bates, Gene Harlan, T. C. Coffey, Irvin Brown, Bob Heaton, Hardy Boyd, Bud Biggers, and Miss Joan Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kaiser, parents of the bridegroom, honored the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner at 8 p.m. Friday in the dining room of the Ward's Cafeteria, Tulsa, Okla.

Wedding Rites Performed

Mrs. James Lawson Rollins
...nee Sharon Ann Hackley

Miss Sharon Ann Hackley became the bride of James Lawson Rollins of Lefors Aug. 11 in Wichita Falls with Justice of the Peace H. M. Newman performing the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Lewis B. Hackley, 1806 N. Banks, and Mrs. Hackley of Tulsa, Okla. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rollins of Lefors.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white sequility with a soft blue background and a small pillbox hat with nose-length veil. She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Mrs. Rollins attended Pampa High School and was employed by Tri-City Office Supply Co. Rollins attended Lefors High School and Pampa High School. He is presently stationed with the United States Army in Munich, Germany, where the couple plan to make their home for the next two years and continue their educations at the University of Maryland in Munich.

The newest fashion for the college and young career girl is the pants suit. The National Cotton Council said the pants suits, fashioned of corduroy, cotton sudee or velveteen, are featured in all the major college and career collections. Sylvia de Gay of Robert Sloan, for instance, endorses the day-length culotte versions. Typical is one in antelope brown, wide wale corduroy that teams with pants skirt and blouson jacket.

Miss Sandra Delores Weaver

Weaver, Skellytown, parents of the bride-elect. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Melvin Beum, 1405 S. Barnes. Vows will be exchanged in Fellowship Baptist Church.

Miss Judy Stephens

Nelson. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Folmar, 412 Cook. Vows will be exchanged in First Baptist Church.

Color Blending Helps Bring 'Outside Inside' Many Homes

Nature's greens and golds can be as important colors as reds in rugs and white in walls in planning the interior decoration of homes having indoor-outdoor living features.

Where a window wall links indoor comfort with outdoor beauty in an unbroken feeling of spaciousness, skillful blending of natural and artificial coloring gives the home an added customized appearance.

"The trend to indoor-outdoor living not only has made the homemaker more aware of the landscape when she plans her interior coloring, but also has opened up many new ways to create color schemes surprisingly individualistic," according to Margaret Pilliod, interior designer of Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company.

"Flowers in your garden, lawn and shrubbery — even the exterior of the house itself — can be a basis for an indoor-outdoor color panorama that is an integral part of your overall living scheme," Miss Pilliod emphasized.

For example, soft pastel shades of living room walls can be blended with flowers and shrubbery when the room and garden or lawn are visually linked by a window wall. Furniture fabrics can be blended with the tints and hues of outdoor plants.

ities for an indoor-outdoor transition through the common bond of color. Many homemakers are using sliding doors of tempered safety plate glass to join the patio with the interior for a feeling of informality and casual living. They then are blending the material of the patio or the color of the patio furniture into the interior scheme.

Exterior building materials can be used for guidance in planning interior decor. When exterior portions of the home are easily seen indoors, try continuing the color or texture of the outdoor building material in your furniture or fireplace. Exterior siding material of a certain wood and interior paneling of that same wood offer a pleasing arrangement.

Don't overlook the kitchen as a place for blending indoor and outdoor colors to add new beauty. If a pleasing outdoor view is a highlight of your kitchen, skillful use of color can add to the living theme.

"In the past, homes and gardens rarely showed any evidence of pleasing color coordination. The few standard colors accepted as usable were repeated in home after home. But with the awareness of how expanses of glass can bring outdoor beauty into home life has come the development of color to carry out this theme of indoor-outdoor unity," Miss Pilliod concluded.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of sheer organza over taffeta. POLLY'S POINTERS

By POLLY CRAMER

Ice Pick Has Different Use as Kitchen Tool

DEAR POLLY — I keep a short, sharp ice pick (stored with a cork over the point) in my utensil drawer and use it to make a minute opening in the broad end of an egg just before boiling it. This lets the air in and it does not break.

Dishes washed in detergents are better rinsed in cool or cold water. The foam rinses off better and everything dries without spots.

—MRS. E. W. H.

GIRLS — Of course, you have to allow a longer period of time for the drying. Colored glass salad plates that always dried with a streaked, smeary look were clear and shiny.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — Honestly, it doesn't matter when you dye your stockings to make those lovely sweaters out of nylon hose. Try my method. I carry a white thread, usually No. 50 sewing thread, along with the strip of hose as I knit. Hold the nylon just a bit loose. This makes a lovely, fluffy stitch and the thread relieves the nylon from so much strain and prevents a runner becoming a hole.

If the hose are different in color when stripped, use them without dyeing for a muted tweed effect. If you do not plan to dye the finished sweater, use a colored mercerized thread to carry along with the nylon. The little it shows will add an attractive glint. With nylon stocking sweaters so popular, it looks like I will soon be sockless. I bet I have had my name, or rather nickname, longer than you have had yours.

—AUNT POLLY

Don't be too sure about that. And why not use nylon sewing thread instead of cotton sewing thread to carry along with the knitting?

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — The other day I discovered an easy way to keep a bandage in place on a finger or toe so that the salve stays. Simply apply nail polish to the nail, wrap and as the polish dries, it secures the bandage.

—T. T.

DEAR POLLY — When changing the water in a small fish bowl, put a hair net over the top of the bowl before pouring the water down the drain. It keeps the goldfish from following the water.

—MARY

GIRLS — If you do not have a hair net, try a piece of window screen wire to keep the fish in the bowl.
