Dear Abby...

Don't Censor Mother Don't Censure Mother

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How do you feel about a woman who is married and a mother returning to high school to complete her education? I understand in some states it is allowed if she is under 18. A 16-year-old mother (shotgunned) wants to return. The other girls will undoubtedly accept her and make a fuss over her, and by so doing, will appear to approve of her past behavior. She, in turn, can instruct them well in married life. I feel for the girl, but I also feel for the good girls who have been raised with high moral standards. I think if such a girl wants to complete her education she should go to a school outside her district. What do you think?

UPSET IN PENNA. DEAR UPSET: If the girl is legally entitled to return to school in the district of her residence, that's that. As for the commotion she might cause, that would depend on her behavior and that of the other girls. The school authorities are capable of judging fairly. Give the girl a chance.

DEAR ABBY: Is it okay to go out with a married man if you keep your distance?

TEMPTED DEAR TEMPTED: Why don't you ask his wife (and "keep your distance" when you do)?

DEAR ABBY: I am an 11-year-old girl and I love to draw. Especially horses. My piano teacher is a very good artist and that is what I want to be. If I have a good piano lesson my teacher teaches me how to draw horses and I like that a lot better than playing the piano. I asked my father if I could quit piano and take drawing lessons instead, and he looked at me like I was crazy or something. I can spend hours drawing, and never get tired, but when I practice the piano for half an hour I am worn out. How can I get my father to let me quit piano and take drawing?

LOVES TO DRAW DEAR LOVES TO DRAW: Stick to your piano lessons and draw on the side. If you have a real talent for art, perhaps your piano teacher will speak to your father in your behalf. But first talk it over with your teacher. He managed to become a pretty good musician and draw for fun, didn't he?

DEAR ABBY: We are at the end of our rope, so please print this and do a lot of people a big favor. We have a neighbor who lives alone except for her two dogs and we don't know how many cats. Her house stinks, her furniture is filthy, and there is cat hair all over the place. She complains that her friends don't want to visit her anymore. She has always been a very nice person and we don't want to hurt her, but we just can't go into that house, Abby. The odor is unbelievable. Even her relatives don't visit her anymore. If you print this, she might see it and take the hint. FRIENDS BUT NOT VISITORS DEAR FRIENDS: The poor soul needs more than a "hint," she needs professional help. Call one of her relatives and ask them to look in on her. If this doesn't bring results, your county Board of Health should be notified.

Coasters, bowls, ash trays, butterflies and other items made with cooking crystals baked into the various shapes, were shown by Mrs. Parsons.

Young Democrat Leader to Work For Goldwater

MARQUETTE, Mich. (UPI)—The head of the Young Democrats Club of Northern Michigan University, deposed after he voted for Barry Goldwater by absentee ballot, said Friday he plans to work with Young Republicans for election of the Arizona senator.

Jeff Mirate, 22, a senior from Schenectady, N.Y., freely admitted he had cast an absentee ballot for Goldwater in his home town. After the action was exposed, he was asked to resign as president of the Young Democrats at northern Michigan.

Mirate was twice president of the university's Young Democrats Club. He had been elected in 1962, and was elected to another term last spring.

Mirate said he had been a strong supporter of President Johnson last spring, but said he read Goldwater's book "Conservative of a Conservative" and had watched both conventions on television.

"After studying the situation and thinking things over," said Mirate, "I decided that Goldwater was the best thing for the country."

AWAITS STAMP OF APPROVAL—C. A. Dieman, Director of Maintenance for the Post Office Dept., examines a new aluminum mail collection box in Washington. The 68-pound, clear anodized box, made by Reynolds Metals Co., is undergoing tests. It was designed for maintenance-free service, eliminating present biennial removal and painting required for present boxes.

Cattlemen Organize To Back Goldwater

AMARILLO (Sp1)—Cattlemen of the Golden Spread, staggering under depressed cattle prices, brought about by record high foreign beef imports, and stricken by drought, have organized "Cattlemen for Goldwater," according to E.S.F. Brainard of Canadian, and W. N. Barwick, of Amarillo, co-chairman.

"We are giving cattle to Goldwater because most cattlemen have taken a beating during the past two years," said Brainard. "Most of us haven't made any money in a long time and with prices what they are now, we figure giving cattle to help elect Barry Goldwater and put an end to the disastrous policies of Johnson and Orville Freeman."

Cattle for Goldwater are being received at Golden Spread Packing Company, on N. E. Third in Amarillo, next to Hulbert Cattle Company. They will be held there until consigned for sale in the near future. All proceeds of the sales will go to the Goldwater Campaign fund, since all necessary feed and labor have been donated.

Joe Wright of Amarillo, who is in charge of receiving and selling the cattle said any cattlemen who needs transportation for his stock can get it by calling him at DR-44637 or DR-3-3409 in Amarillo.

Cattle may be delivered on Saturday afternoon, Sunday, or after 5 p.m. by getting in touch with Wright.

US Jury Eyes Kidnaping of Mafia Kingpin

NEW YORK (UPI)—A federal grand jury investigating organized crime broke off its underworld probe today to concentrate on the kidnaping of Mafia kingpin Joseph (Joe Bonanno) Bonanno.

U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau said the jury has been placed under tight security while it goes over all available information relating to Bonanno's abduction in front of a Park Avenue apartment Wednesday morning. Bonanno was taken by two gunmen only hours before he was scheduled to testify before a grand jury.

Bonanno was to have been the star witness, Morgenthau said, and his testimony could have provided important information on underworld activities.

He said the grand jury is primarily concerned with whether Bonanno's abduction was a matter of obstruction of justice. Police fear Bonanno was killed to prevent him from talking to the jury.

In another development, police revealed that they have been unable to find Bonanno's eldest son, Salvatore (Bill), 32.

Police said Salvatore has not been seen locally since his father was kidnaped.

Facts Available on Social Security

AMARILLO (Sp) — Don't rely on a well-meaning friend's or neighbor's advice about social security—it may prove very costly. Chances are that such advisers are not aware of the most recent changes in the social security law.

Hal Geldon, social security district manager in Amarillo, said today that two of the most important services of the social security office are to provide up-to-date information and to answer any questions for all residents of the twenty-six counties of the northern Panhandle.

The local district office also has films and speakers available for any interested group and booklets which give up-to-date facts about social security. These services are free.

You may write to the Amarillo social security office for the two most popular free publications which will help you understand the types of protection you have under social security.

Booklet 35—Your Social Security—explains in plain language the main facts of the program. Leaflet 855—Social Security Benefits—tells how many credits a person needs to be eligible for benefits and how to estimate the amount of the benefit.

Grandma Saves Janitor's Life

NEW YORK (UPI) — After admitting the janitor to her apartment to putty the window, Mrs. Junia Bower, 85, turned back to her newspaper.

Hearing a sudden cry, Mrs. Bower looked up to see only the feet of the 250-pound man protruding over the window ledge. The rest of his body dangled outside the building—six stories above the street.

Mrs. Bower, a frail arthritis sufferer, grabbed the janitor, Aaron Kodish, by the ankles, braced herself against the window frame and both yelled for all they were worth.

For 10 minutes Wednesday, Mrs. Bower clung to the bulging 32-year-old man — too weak to pull him back inside but too determined to let him go.

Finally, another building employe and several tenants rushed into the Bower apartment and pulled Kodish back through the window. He had stumbled out when a metal guard broke loose behind him, but he managed to hook his knees over the sill and hold an end of the guard with one hand.

"Thank God for this lady," said the badly shaken janitor. Mrs. Bower, also emotionally overwrought by the experience, went to bed to regain her composure.

"She's not too well ... she's quite shaken by it all," her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Kurtz, said Wednesday night.

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Judge R. Wright Armstrong plans a court fight to uphold the legal maxim, to wit: "A judge's courtroom is his castle."

Tarrant County wants Judge Armstrong to move to another courtroom so a visiting district judge can use his. Judge Armstrong refuses because, he said, the other courtroom is too small.

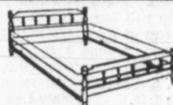

Armstrong said if the county goes through with a threat to start legal action against him if he does not move out by Friday, he will go to court himself—and demand a jury trial.

Leading Educator Visits Local Episcopal School

Miss Mae Carden of Glen Rock, N. J., the developer and founder of the Mae Carden Educational Method, will be honored at a "coffee" to be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, in the Episcopal Parish House. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Record to Speak Sunday at Central Baptist

Dr. W. Neil Record, assistant to the president of Wayland Baptist College, will be the guest minister at Central Baptist Church Sunday. He will bring the message at both the morning and evening services.

Before assuming his present position Dr. Record was pastor of First Baptist Church of Tulsa for ten years or more. He is one of the finest speakers in the area.

Services at Central Baptist Church begin with the Bible Study hour at 9:45 a.m. The subject for study this Sunday is "Disciplined Christian Living." The morning worship service begins at 10:30 and is broadcast over KHHH.

At 6 p.m. the training program is conducted. The Sunbeams, Girl's Auxiliaries, and Royal Ambassadors meet at this hour. The Training Union program is followed for those of 16 years of age and above. The evening worship service begins at 7 o'clock. A youth fellowship will follow the service.

Mr. Bob Ratliff has been elected to lead the annual stewardship emphasis in November. He will give general direction to all the emphasis and lead the various committees who work to lead the members in a fuller Christian stewardship.

Service Topic Set

The Gospel account of the resurrection of Christ Jesus (Matthew 28 and Mark 16) and selections from Revelation will be heard in Christian Science churches this Sunday, on the subject of "Probation After Death."

Readings from the Christian Science textbook will include this: "Jesus' deed was for the enlightenment of men and for the salvation of the whole world from sin, sickness, and death. His three days' work in the sepulchre set the seal of eternity on time" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, pp. 45, 44).

Members of St. Matthew's School and Church invite the public to meet Miss Carden and to hear her remarks at the "coffee" this Sunday afternoon.

Opportunity will be given to the public to inspect the new educational building which will house the Day School in the near future. Present plans are to move into the new building next week and to have the formal dedication and Open House in mid-November.

The faculty and staff of St. Matthew's Day School are joining in the nation wide celebration of Episcopal School Week, Oct. 25 through Nov. 1, with more than 1,000 other Episcopal Schools. The public is cordially invited to visit the school during this week and to see a class in action as well as get a first hand view of the new educational building.

St. Matthew's Day School follows the principles as stated by The Rev. Dr. John Heuss, when he speaks of the true Church school. He distinguishes the true Church school from independent schools in existence today where there is a chapel service of the Episcopal Church, or a priest was the founder, or churchmen are on the board of trustees.

The true Church school starts with the personal religious convictions and practices of the entire staff. Second, it offers not only good teaching in all subjects, it interprets what it teaches in the light of Christianity's ideological impact on the past and present. That is, mathematics, history, art, all subjects are taught in a way relevant to the reality of God and the Christian Faith.

Finally, the true Church school has a special atmosphere hard to put into words. It's a rugged simplicity, a fierce competitive spirit mingled with sportsmanship, a high value placed on sacramental living, a reverence clearly seen in Chapel. It is deeper than the usual school spirit. This kind of school leaves a distinctive spiritual mark on its graduates. It is a Christian lever in the community. Rev. William E. West, local rector, said.

Church school for all ages begins at 9:45 each Lord's Day and the junior high youth meet for fellowship, worship, study, and recreation at 5:30 p.m. each Sunday afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Official Board will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock just following the worship.

THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1964 5TH YEAR

Rev. Williams to Head Local CROP Project

The Pampa Ministerial Alliance has announced the appointment of Loren E. Williams as general chairman of the local annual Christian Rural Overseas Program Halloween Project in Pampa.

Contributions received through this youth effort of concern will be used to help provide for the handling and distribution of government donated foods of the Food for Peace program as well as to provide other assistance—high protein foods, emergency seeds—not otherwise available to the overseas programs of the churches. In some cases the contributions will help the local farm canvass to make commodity shipments.

In 1963 Texas young people collected over $57,000 for CROP and helped to provide 98,267,500 pounds of government donated food and other CROP shipments not otherwise available for the overseas ministry.

Early Schedule Up for Sunday Night Service

Evening Worship Service at Highland Baptist Church has been changed to 5:30 p.m. for this week only, with the Training Union hour to follow at 6:30 p.m.

Visiting Evangelist Concludes Revival At Baptist Church

Rev. Marvin Upton of Sunray, visiting evangelist, will conclude Revival services Sunday at the Pampa Calvary Baptist Church.

No Atheists in Foxholes, But Some Can Be Found in Churches

ed by two sociologists, Rodney Stark and Charles Y. Glock, of the Survey Research Center of the University of California in Berkeley.

They questioned nearly 3,000 church members of all denominations. The respondents constituted a random sample of the membership of all church congregations in four counties in the San Francisco area.

If the same survey were conducted in other parts of the country, the results might differ by a few percentage points. But the California sample included small town and big city churches, of every theological coloration from Roman Catholic to Pentecostal, and there is no reason to doubt that it is fairly representative of the nation as a whole.

Corroborate Warning

The Stark - Glock findings strongly corroborate a warning which many pastors and religious educators have sounded in recent years: The biggest task which confronts churches today is converting their own members.

The postwar boom in church membership brought into churches millions of people who were not convinced Christians, but who were looking for a faith to live by and were willing to listen to what the churches had to offer.

It is evident from the Stark-Glock survey that many of them are still looking—or have settled for a set of religious attitudes which fall far short of the orthodox Christian faith.

It is also strikingly apparent that skepticism about major Christian doctrines is much more widespread in such Protestant denominations as the United Church of Christ, the Methodist Church and the Episcopal Church than it is in fundamentalist bodies such as the Southern Baptist Convention and the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church.

Although Roman Catholics tested fairly high in orthodoxy compared to Protestants as a whole, one of the surprises of the survey was the substantial number of Catholics who acknowledged doubts or disbeliefs about basic dogmas of the faith.

In response to the question, "which of the following statements comes closest to what you believe about God," 81 per cent of the Catholics and 71 per cent of the Protestants affirmed that "I know God really exists and I have no doubts about it."

Thirteen per cent of the Catholics and 17 per cent of the Protestants chose to say: "While I have doubts, I feel that I do believe in God."

Three per cent of the Catholics and 7 per cent of the Protestants subscribed to a deist position: "I don't believe in a personal God, but I do believe in a higher power of some kind."

One per cent of the Catholics and one per cent of the Protestants were frankly agnostic: "I don't know whether there is a God and I don't believe there is any way to find out."

Flat Disbeliefs

Finally, one per cent of the Congregationalists (United Church of Christ) and somewhat smaller numbers of Methodists and Episcopalians (fewer than one-half of one per cent) said flatly: "I don't believe in God."

Divergences from orthodox were much more marked in beliefs about Jesus. Taking Protestants as a whole, 86 per cent were ready to affirm that Jesus is the divine Son of God.

GOD'S GOOD GOVERNMENT

"What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it." Deut. 12:32

Come into the social laboratory and analyze some cases. Raising a "false report," and spreading slander is always unjust; garbling a person's words or giving them another slant, impugning a person's motives, are misrepresenting him and robbing him of his right to speak for himself and to be judged by what he really is. You would resent that kind of treatment.

Following a "multitude to do evil," declining "after many to wrest judgement." Standing with the majority instead of with the right is unjust to the minority who have the courage to be "in the right with two or three;" they deserve your support. It is unjust to the good man you were too cowardly to defend. It is unjust to your own soul, which you have robbed of its convictions.

There is real safety in God's laws. So the pattern goes: consideration for the man who has no "influence;" generosity to the enemy who has done you harm; kindness to the stranger and to the poor. The impartiality that treats all persons fairly regardless of personal consequences is tied up with the integrity that refuses to be bought with a bribe. You cannot refuse justice to others and still be just to yourself. When you refuse to take a risk to defend the right, you rob yourself of moral stature. We are part of one another; we grow as we help others to grow. One of those universal laws!

God's laws are not arbitrary. Nor are they based on him. They are founded in universal truth, so never can be outdated. But one thing sure — they strike clean across the grain of selfish human nature.

"There's a kindness in His justice
Which is more than liberty."

Monterey Wins In Last Minute

By JEFF COHANE
News Sports Editor

The Monterey Lancers scored with 42 seconds left to come from behind at Harvester Stadium yesterday and take a 12-8 win over the Pampa Shockers to maintain their district lead.

The Shockers, to the stirring accompaniment of the Harvester band practicing next door, the shouts at the junior high game being played in the next field, and the strains of the Lee and Pampa Junior High bands as well, dominated the field offensively in the first half and put up a stone wall defense in the second half, only to have Lancer quarterback Bob Jones plunge over from inside the one-foot line for the winning score.

The stubborn Shockers refused to come right back to the Monterey 12-yard line before time ran out, but suffered their fourth loss against three victories.

Highlight of the game was the magnificent defense put up by "Bull" Heiskell and "Big Daddy" Cary and the tremendous all-around play of tackle Glen Lewis. Three times a Charlie Walker fumble gave the Lancers the ball in Pampa territory in the second half and three times Heiskell and Cary led the rush that threw the visitors back with minus yardage.

Walker made several long runs and rowdy Rowden an quarterback Smisson Goodlett both made key yardage, behind the blocking of Cary, Heiskell and Gary Butler, while James Matney, David Smith, Davis Blackmon and Monk McDonald aided Heiskell and Cary with the defense.

It took the Shockers over 16 minutes to score the first touchdown and the Lancers exactly 16 seconds to match it. Pampa threatened throughout the first half, going down to the Lancer 15 the first time they got the ball, and to the 22 as the first quarter ended.

Pampa got rolling early in the second quarter when Gary Hyatt returned a punt to the 40. John Budd, and Walker moved the ball into Monterey territory, but Greg Vaughn intercepted a pass on his 30, falling back to the 19 as he was headed the wrong way. The Lancers punted out to the Monterey 42 and two plays later, Walker hit over left guard, bounced off two tacklers, then another, then twisted away from a fourth and all the way to the goal with 5:02 left in the half. Goodlett fired a jump pass to Matney for the conversion.

Ron Chaney then proved why he is the leading scorer in the district as he took the kick on the five, went straight upfield to the 40, cut right and then down the sidelines for a touchdown with 4:46. A conversion run handoff was bobbled and Lewis smeared the ballcarrier to keep the Shockers in an 8-6 lead.

Monterey threatened constantly in the second half, moving to the Pampa 25, to the 15, to the six, to the 27, to the 35. Again and again Heiskell, Cary and Lewis, aided by Matney, Skeeter Ginn, Rowden and Billy Scribner smothered them back and took the ball away.

Midway in the fourth period, Monterey got rolling for the last time on the running of Travis Flanagan and Chaney. Flanagan went on a weaving, smashing 20-yard run to the Pampa 41, then broke loose unopposed until shoestringed from behind by Matney on the 19. On a vital fourth and inches on the 10, Chaney went to the seven. Three plays later, Chaney shook off three tacklers, but went out of bounds inside the one-foot line. With fourth down and 53 seconds to go, Jones went diving across. Matney stopped Chaney on the conversion.

The Shockers stormed back as Rowden returned the kickoff to the 40. Pass interference gave the Shockers a first down on the Lancer 30. Little Sherman Mitchell scooted to the 12. Walker was held and Goodlett fired the bomb to Matney, only to have a pair of defenders knock it down.

Posse Pops PJH Reapers

The Perryton Posse defeated the Pampa Reapers, 28-12, in a 9th grade football game played yesterday at the Pampa High practice field.

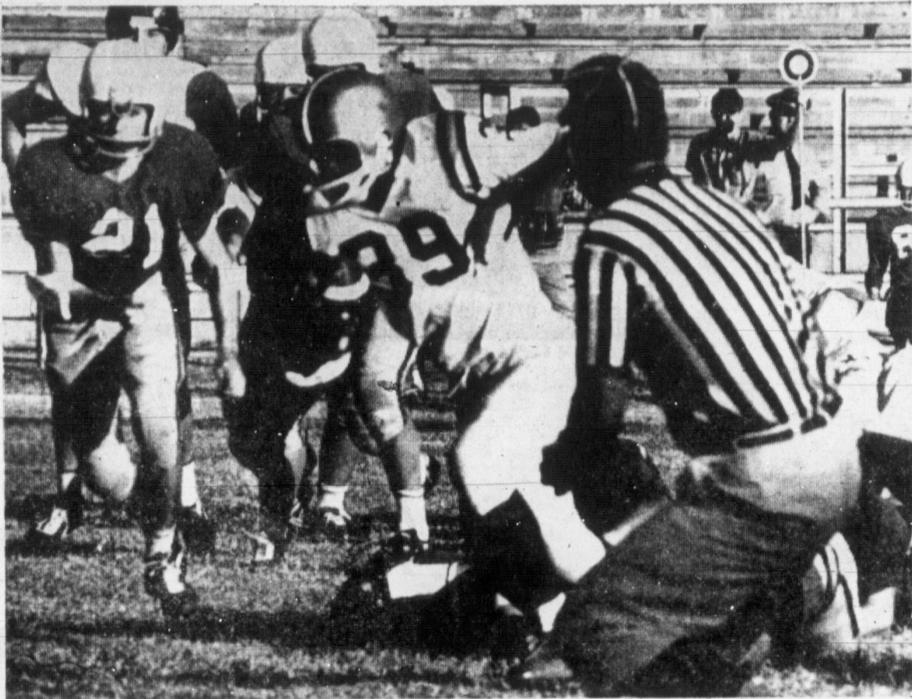

Perryton grabbed a 14-0 lead in the first half before the two-platooning Reapers got rolling in the second quarter. Pampa's first score came on a 30-yard pass from Johnny Carlos, which was batted in the air by a Posseman, and picked off in the end zone by Alvin Achor.

Perryton scored again to open the second half and then Al Gomez made a smashing run up the middle, pulling away and then cutting left for 60 yards and a TD behind good downfield blocking.

Perryton wrangled it up on a short pass in the final minute of the game. Mike Taylor was the defensive standout for the Reapers, who play Austin Berger next Thursday.

MUSTANGS SOLD
SCRANTON, Pa. (UPI)—Cosmo Iacavazzi, 28, purchased the Harleyton Mustangs of the Atlantic Coast Football League for $25,000 last night.

In making the announcement of the franchise shift, league Commissioner Joseph Rosentover said that the team will continue to play in the Southern Division of the league, but will move to Scranton and be known as the Scranton Pros.

BREAKING LOOSE — Shocker back Charlie Walker breaks loose off left guard for 42 yards and a Pampa touchdown yesterday. Pursuing in vain is Greg Vaughn

(21) of the Monterey Lancers, Walker's TD stood up until the last 43 seconds of the game, when the Lancers pushed across a tally for a 12-8 win.

Yanks Clinch Gold Medal Race

TOKYO (UPI)—The United States clinched the gold medal race against Russia in the Olympic Games tonight with a 73-59 basketball victory over the Soviets and a triumph by heavyweight boxer Joe Frazier of Philadelphia.

With those two gold medals, the powerful American team lifted its total victories in all sports to 36 and topped the Russians in that regard for the first time since the 1952 games at Helsinki.

The Soviets had only 30 gold medals with two events to go Saturday but clinched the overall medal lead in total gold, silver and bronze medals over the U.S., 96-20.

Last-Minute Substitute
Frazier, a last-minute substitute on the U.S. boxing team, outpointed Hans Huber of Germany for the heavyweight medal in a bout that was dull in everything but the outcome to Americans present.

The Russians, in their surge on the next to last day of competition, hauled in 19 medals today including gold awards in men's volley-ball, men's team saber, three in boxing and two in gymnastics.

But they had 10 silver medals in that list and many of those the Soviets had confidently hoped would be gold for another triumph over the American team.

Polish boxers did the most damage, winning three boxing bouts from the Russians. Gymnasts from Japan and Czechoslovakia scored over Soviet stars and only Russia's two great veterans—Larisa Latynina and Boris Shakhlin—were able to come through with gym triumphs in the five events winding up that phase of the games.

Coming up on the final day Saturday are two equestrian events in which neither the U.S. nor Russia figures to score.

U.S. Clinches Race
The U.S. actually clinched the gold medal race when the Yank basketball team, coached by veteran Hank Iba of Oklahoma State, caught fire midway through the first half and maintained its record of never losing a game in the Olympics since the sport went on the calendar in 1936.

The Americans slipped behind at 14-11 and 16-13 but rallied on a spree by Bill Bradley of Princeton, Luscious Jackson of Pana-American College and Joe Caldwell of Arizona State to win going away. Jackson had 17 points, Caldwell 14.

All told the U.S. piled up its 36 gold medals this way: 12 in men's track and field, two in women's track and field, nine in men's swimming, seven in women's swimming, two in rowing, two in rifle shooting, one in boxing and one in basketball.

The Russians led the American basketballers at 14-11 and 16-13 in the first half but Bill Bradley of Princeton, Luscious Jackson of Pan American College and Joe Caldwell of Arizona State rallied the Yanks with a point barrage and that was it.

Jackson led the scorers with 17 points and Caldwell had 14. Russia won in men's volleyball and saber team fencing during the daytime competition to close the gold medal gap but Polish boxers upset Russians in three weight classes early in the evening and a Russian scored only one gold medal in the first four gymnastics events.

The veteran Boris Shakhlin of Russia proved he still was master of the horizontal bar and won that gold medal but by then Russia's gold medal cause was hopeless.

Cosimo Pinto of Italy dealt the Russians another blow by winning the light heavyweight boxing medal.

Russia won the volleyball championship by downing Brazil 3-0 in its final game, finishing with an 8-1 record. Czechoslovakia, also 8-1, had to settle for the silver medal because it had lost more sets than Russia along the way. Japan won the bronze.

Henri Chammartin of Switzerland won the individual Grand Prix dressage by a single point over Harry Boldt of Germany with Russia's defending Olympic champion Serge Filatov third by one point over another Swiss, Gustav Fischer.

Upset Japanese
Hulking Anton Geesink of The Netherlands won the unlimited judo gold medal with a victory more or less expected but nevertheless shocking to the Japanese. Geesink bested Japanese champion Aiko Kaminaga, who finished second. Klaus Glahn of Germany and Ted Boronovski of Australia each won bronze medals.

Glahn gained his place in the final tournament by defeating the only U.S. entrant, Ben Campbell of Sacramento, Calif., who had to be helped from the arena after re-injuring his right knee.

The California school teacher tried to stay in the match af-

Harvesters Host Plainview Dogs

"We better be ready for a tough one," promised coach Otis Holladay as his Pampa Harvesters prepared for Tom Sawyer and the Plainview aerial circus tonight at 7:30 at Harvester Stadium.

Sawyer, the district standout in a losing cause, completed 10 of 23 passes for 220 yards and ran for 61 more last week as the Bulldogs racked up five touchdowns against undefeated Palo Duro, only to lose, 40-35.

Holladay warned that Plainview is definitely not a one-man ball club. "Stopping Sawyer does not mean that we can stop Plainview by any means. They have another good quarterback who can throw and a number of good receivers and they have two big, tough running backs. We have to be ready for anything."

Only change in the Harvester lineup will be the return of Myron Scribner to a starting position. "Scribner bounced back with his good play at Monterey and his showing in workouts this week," explained Holladay.

Two reserves will be out of action for the tilt. Scatback Lewis Meers, knocked cold on the last play of the Monterey game, is out with a bruised side, while Larry Eckroat suffered a broken hand and is probably lost for the season.

57TH YEAR FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1964

WD Takes 'Em 'One at a Time'

WHITE DEER — The White Deer Bucks are still taking them one at a time.

Despite WD's 12-6 defeat of powerful McLean in the district 2-A opener last week, making the 5-1 Bucks the loop favorite, "all we know is that we have to beat Clarendon Friday night!" said head coach Colie Huffman.

The Round Man of the Panhandle, with one of the best teams seen in White Deer-Skellytown in some years, shrugged off all thoughts of future games and district titles. "We're just taking them one at a time and we know we have to play a very tough Clarendon team Friday night."

Using incomparable Huffman logic, the Crying One then figured that Clarendon was five touchdowns better than White Deer on comparative scores. Example... "we beat McLean one touchdown. Wheeler beat Canadian one and Clarendon just beat Canadian 39-12... that makes them five touchdowns better."

"Listen," Huffman said earnestly, "Clarendon is real good, the most improved team in the league. We have to stop both their passing and running or we can't stop them at all. They have the best passer, pass receivers, pass blocking and pass defense in the district. They're not real large, but they're quick and they like to throw that football a lot."

"And where do you get that stuff about big and experienced? We have six boys whose weights are 135-135 - 158 - 157-145-140. True, the other five go 165-180 - 175-172 - 203, but six of these people are sophomores... we're not very seasoned and we're not very big. And we still have to play Clarendon Friday night!"

Huffman was full of praise for both his own squad and a tough McLean team last week. "Dickie Crockett is a real fine football player. He carries that ball with a great deal of authority... he can run very well with the football."

"Both teams played it pretty tough. Vernon Marlar had our highest offensive score and Donnie Powell topped the defense. Otherwise we were pretty well spread out, everyone did a fine job. Our defense contained everyone but Crockett, but he probably carried about 30 times."

"I don't care, we still have to play Clarendon Friday night. You know that's my old home town, and when I was visiting last week, all I heard was 'we are gonna beat the heck out of you next week.' Queried as to his answer, Huffman replied... "Mmmm... I hope not!"

DONNIE POWELL... little?

ELLIS ACES

W. E. "Bill" Ellis inaugurated the cold-weather golf season with the first Fall hole-in-one at the Pampa Country Club yesterday.

Ellis got the first ace of his career on the 145-yard, par three seventh hole, using a seven iron.

Ellis was playing in a four-some with W. T. Fain, A. D. Prichard and C. F. McGinnis.

SWC Roundup

By ED FITTE
UPI Sports Writer

The corralled Texas Longhorns, facing a do-or-die situation each week now in their bid to retain at least a share of the Southwest Conference title, travel to Houston Saturday night to face Rice, a team they have been unable to beat in the Bayou City since 1952.

The Longhorns jolted to a shocking halt by the Arkansas Razorbacks last week in a 14-13 upset that toppled Texas from No. 1 to No. 6 in the national rankings, must win the remainder of their games and hope Arkansas stumbles somewhere along the trail.

Hogs Safe
Arkansas will not be involved in any intraleague skirmishing this week and its 3-0 loop record cannot be tarnished. The Porkers will play Wichita at neutral Little Rock Saturday night.

Elsewhere around the league, Baylor will entertain the Texas Aggies at Waco in an afternoon game. Southern Methodist visits Texas Tech at Lubbock for a nocturnal clash and Texas Christian hosts Clemson in the afternoon at Fort Worth.

Rice, 2-2 for the season, boasts the only other unblemished conference record in the wake of its 7-6 triumph over SMU last week and was the pre-season choice to be Texas' chief threat until it ran into defeats against Louisiana State and Stanford.

The game, however, is a sell-out of 73,000, attracted by the past history of the Rice-Texas series in which Rice holds an 11-5-1 edge in Houston since 1920. Rice handed Texas its only loss in an 8-1-1 season in 1930, knocked Texas out of co-championships in 1940-46-60 and out of an outright title in 1944.

Texas Favored
Texas, 1-1 in league play, will be favored by a touchdown to bounce back from last week's loss—when they were two-touchdown favorites.

Texas Tech, itself a victim of a 28-10 beating at the hands of Baylor last week, will be favored by a touchdown over SMU, which is 1-3 for the season and 0-1 in league play. Tech, 2-2 for the year and 2-2 inside the circuit, will be trying to finish in the loop's first division for the first time. A crowd of 33,000 or more is expected.

Baylor, 1-3 and 1-1, will be hosting an Aggie team that has yet to break into the win column in five starts, including two to league rivals. Baylor's steadily improving Bears will rate an 11-point edge before a crowd of around 30,000.

That crowd will be about double that expected in Fort Worth for TCU's interconference clash with Clemson despite the fact TCU snapped a four-game losing streak last week by beating the Aggies 14-9. Clemson has won two of five starts.

Law Nips Braves Transfer

NEW YORK (UPI) — National League President Warren C. Giles and Milwaukee Braves officials were confident today the way soon will be cleared for the club's transfer to Atlanta.

A decision by club owners on the shift had to be tabled Thursday because of a restraining order issued by a Milwaukee court that prevented an immediate vote of approval.

The Braves, however, lost no time in establishing "rights" to territory in Georgia. They filed with baseball Commissioner Ford Frick's office a notice of intention to draft the Atlanta area from the International League.

"A temporary restraining order issued by a Milwaukee court without notice to the Braves prohibits officials of the team from visiting Atlanta at this time," announced Braves General Manager John McHale after a three-hour and five-minute meeting.

"However," McHale quickly added, "counsel for the Braves has been instructed to proceed immediately to have the restraining order lifted."

Predicts Early Decision
Giles said he anticipated another league meeting as soon as the order was lifted, which he said "should be soon." The National League president said the usual three-day waiting period would be waived to convene an emergency session to act on the Braves' franchise move.

Lee Drops Three Shutouts

It was a black day for Lee Junior High yesterday as all three football teams got shut out for the first time in history, the 9th grade Rebels dropping a 16-0 decision at Houston. Borger, the 8th grade Johnny Rebs being downed by Houston at Lee, 34-0 and the 7th grade Confeds being turned back by host Lefors, 26-0.

The long, long afternoon saw the Rebels outgain the host Poodles, 209 yards to 185, but fumble away two scoring chances in the shadow of the goal line for defeat.

Houston took an 8-0 lead and then Lee drove in the second quarter on the running of Dickie Henley, going to the Poodle 12 before bogging down.

In the fourth quarter, a 41-yard pass from Junior Jenkins to Larry Turcotte took the Rebs to the three, where they fumbled. A 22-yard run by David Schaub took them back to the same place, again to fumble.

Houston made their clinching touchdown in the final frame when the Rebels gambled on fourth down from their 20 and failed.

Steve Summers again was Lee's line stand-out.

The Johnnies were simply out-weighted and outmanned by the powerful and undefeated Houston squad. Borger scored on the last play of the first quarter, in the middle of the second quarter, returned the kickoff for a score to open the second half and then drove all the way in the final frame, wrapping it up with a 50-yard run on the last play of the game.

Johnny threats were a 35-yard pass from Kirk Vann to Darrel Sublett and a 45-yard return of a pass interception by Gary Parrish. A 40-yard scamper by Dan Craig was nullified by a penalty.

Good defensive effort was provided the Johnnies by Hoppy Hopkins, Johnny Stokes and Jay Johnson.

DOUBLE BETTING
CHERRY HILL, N.J. (UPI)—The Garden State Park race track will install twin double wagering starting Thursday and running through the end of the meeting Nov. 22 on the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh races.

FIRST AND SIXTH
NEW YORK (UPI) — Harness racing driver Bob Farrington has already won an American record, of 266 races in 1,105 starts this season, but he is only sixth in money earned by his mounts with $405,058. Stanley Dancer tops the money winning list with $868,180.

The powerful Lefors Bandits ate the Confeds for dinner on the running of Butch Jernigan and the defensive play of Russel Barnes. The Confeds' closest threat was to the Bandit 17 on the passing of Denny Johnson to Teddy Trice and Bobby Jeffers. Lee defense was led by Randy Cantrell, Steve Scott, Steve Hall and Roger Gibson. The Confeds finish their season next Friday against Pampa Junior High.

ARRIVAL DELAYED
Laurel, Md. (UPI) — The arrival of Anilin, Russia's sole entry in the Nov. 11 Washington, D.C. International at Laurel, has been postponed from today until Friday. Anilin's flight from Frankfurt, Germany, was delayed pending clarification of documents.

MR. EUGENE GUNNERSON, Topeka, Kans., a car owner who tried a sample of Skelly's additive, Keotane, reports: "With Skelly Keotane, I improved my mileage from 1 to 3 miles to a gallon, and the power was stepped up considerably." (From Keotane Report #2)

Sandies Rate Threat To Tascosa Streak

By United Press International
Only two games match undefeated-untied teams this week, but Texas schoolboy's list of 42 perfect record teams will probably undergo some sharp trimming.

The top game on the program will send Class AAAA's 10th-ranked Kingsville to third-ranked Victoria in a game which probably will decide the north zone champion in 14 AAAA. They are two of the seven unbeaten-untied survivors in that division.

Untarnished
In AAA, which has eight untarnished teams, eighth-ranked Vidor travels to Liberty in the other perfect-record match.

Class AA has 18 and Class A nine such teams. There are 13 teams which are unbeaten but which have been tied—two each in AAAA and AAA, three in AA and six in A.

The teams appearing in the most danger of being knocked off are:

Class AAA's fourth-ranked Tyler High, which meets Texarkana (3-2); fifth-ranked Amarillo Tascosa, which plays Amarillo High (5-1); sixth-ranked Dallas Hillcrest, which meets Dallas Adams (3-3), and ninth-ranked Port Neches, which plays Nederland (5-1).

Class AAA's Slsbee, which plays AAAA Orange (3-1-1) and John Foster Dulles, which meets El Campo (1-4).

Class AA's second-ranked

Iowa Park, which plays Quahog (4-2); third-ranked Ballinger, which meets Winters (4-3); fifth-ranked Taylor, which plays Round Rock (6-1); eighth-ranked Sinton, which meets Mathis (6-1); Atlanta, which meets Linden-Kildare (6-1), and Hallettsville, which plays La Grange (6-1).

In Class A, second-ranked Ozona faces once-beaten third-ranked Big Lake, Lorenzo could be in trouble against Spur (3-4), Wylie against Pilot Point (4-2), James Bowie against Bogata (4-1), Buffalo against Groesbeck (4-2), Rosebud against Fairfield (4-2), Academy against Thorndale (4-2), and Calallen against sixth-ranked Ingleside (5-1).

Brownwood Threat
At least two of the ranked teams which are not among the select group of unbeaten teams also may be in for trouble.

Class AAA's second-ranked Brownwood could be one against Wichita Falls Hirsch and fourth-ranked George West in A could be against Dille.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper
EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

U.S. Day vs. U. N. Day

Today is United States Day. It is a day to observe. You have been told, and you will be told, that tomorrow is the day you really ought to celebrate. Tomorrow is United Nations Day. It is the anniversary of the day on which final ratification of the United Nations Charter was accomplished. Somehow, we are out of harmony with the idea of any kind of remembrance of United Nations Day. If you want to commemorate that day, you might hang a small piece of black crepe on your door. For the United Nations instrumentality, by being born, marked a day of international infamy. In theory, the United Nations was to be a mechanism to preserve world peace. Since the U. N. was born, more than a score of new nations have come into existence, most of which have joined the U. N. In virtually every case, such national emergence into the artificially created international community has been marked with bloody war, insurrection, and violence.

Since 1945, when the U. N. was created, we have had one of the bloodiest passages of time in all the history of the world. Indeed, not at any moment since the U. N. was formed has there been a period in which swords were sheathed and all guns silent. As a result of U. N. intervention we have seen the war in Korea, the war in Katanga, the war in Viet Nam, the war in Egypt, the war in Jordan, the war in Cuba.

We have seen internecine conflict in South Africa and something resembling it in Southern States of this nation. We have seen Mau-Mau atrocities and we have seen a near-war going on constantly between the island of Formosa and the mainland of China. There has been unrest in almost all border areas; betrayal of principles and boundaries has continued. Erosion to integrity and to all property concepts has continued. And all to the purpose that the now deposed Mr. Khrushchev was able to take off his shoes at the U. N. building so that he could more effectively pound on the table. The American people have been deprived of much treasure, including the financing of $100 million worth of U. N. bonds. Domestic rules in the United States have been overridden in favor of a world order. And still the people seem deluded into hoping that the U. N. is going to bring in the millennium with the lion and the lamb lying down together in the U. N. state. Through our commitments to the U. N. we now favor a world court. We now permit our governments outside our borders. We are at the brink of bankruptcy, both financially and insofar as personal value and merit is concerned. Through U. N. suggestion, government schools are favoring teachings which downgrade the role properly played by parents and upgrade the idea that the government should be the guardian of young people by means of a vast and growing government school bureaucracy. Thus, on the record, the United Nations has failed miserably. It is a costly, wasteful bit of vanity resting upon the idea that by means of taxation and a world-army of no loyalty at all, peace can be forged on the altar of war.

Pardon us, but we're going to reserve our loyalty for this country and for the principles which made this country great. So, we're suggesting that you celebrate today. We hope you go out Old Glory, and run it proudly up the pole. Keep in mind that the purpose of that flag is to depict a land of free men who are not beholden to any government including their own. If you feel that you must do something tomorrow, keep in mind the black crepe for the unsung heroes who have died in U. N. - managed wars. Shed a tear for those who cherish the false hope that a world government will solve our problems.

One Man, One Vote

To conform to the High Court's formula of "one man one vote," the eminent Justices - if correct in their opinion that State apportionments as they now exist are unconstitutional, because they do not conform to that formula - would seem to conclude that the Constitution itself is unconstitutional through the process of the Electoral College in the naming of a President. Accepting the Court's "one man, one vote" as being the "supreme law of the land" (as interpreted in school segregation), let's have a look at the 1960 election when John F. Kennedy became the Nation's twelfth minority President; that is, received less than one-half the popular vote, but moved on into the White House just the same. The popular vote for Mr. Kennedy was 34,226,096, a scant 119,450 more than the 34,107,647 cast for Mr. Nixon while another 190,539 voted for five "splitter" candidates. Add these splinter ballots to those received by Mr. Nixon, and we find that a grand total of 34,309,987 voted against Mr. Kennedy. One man, one vote? We don't think so. Turning to the Electoral College, Mr. Kennedy received 303 of that body's votes. Mr. Nixon, 219, and Senator Harry Flood Byrd, Virginia Democrat garnered 15, but not on the basis of any popular or write-in vote. In a State with an uninstructed slate of electors cast its ballots for the distinguished Virginian. Divide Mr. Kennedy's Electoral College total of 303 by Mr. Nixon's 219 and we come up with 1.39, meaning that a popular vote for Mr. Kennedy was worth 1.39 times that of one for Mr. Nixon. So, one man, one vote? Don't be naive.

Seems to me the only chance Goldwater has in winning the election is just how much dirt he can dig up on Johnson. Now I'm sure everyone in their life has something they would like to keep hidden. But Goldwater is such a good old boy he has never done anything wrong. I'm sure Johnson could dig up a few hair-raising things about Goldwater if he wanted to. But, he really don't have to because he can stand on his own two legs. No matter how hard a person is trying to knock him down, he doesn't have to say such underhanded things about another man. I have never heard of a Democrat - Republican till tonight. I think some people are really confused. Editor: There has been a great deal of concern expressed in recent months about problems of corruption in our society.

Since this is an election year, perhaps it is to be expected that most of the attention should be centered on the allegations by the rascals who are out that they should replace the rascals who are in.

But this routine election campaign feature has been intensified this year, until one almost fears to ask: Is there an honest man in the race?

It seems to us that entirely too much emphasis is being placed on the failures and fancied failures of public officials. It has been said that a people, especially in a democracy, get the sort of government they deserve.

We, therefore, should encourage the best people to enter public service. Election to public office by popular vote should be a great honor. But not only do we limit the material rewards of public office to a fraction of what honest government is worth, but we dishonor our officials by challenging their integrity, honesty and intent every time to even notice they are there.

Are we entitled to the high level of morality in government which we demand?

Is such a level of morality earned by our willingness to bribe? For, as a much discussed public servant of the present has said, "for every corrupt official in government, there is a corrupter outside."

Is it earned in the rising rate of violent crime in our city and state and throughout the nation? We have seen lately shallow efforts to lay all the troubles of our society on the heads of the politicians, or of the U. S. Supreme court, or of organized labor, or of big government. Such efforts be the question.

There are dishonest politicians, court decisions that seem to protect the crooks, labor leaders who exploit those they should protect and rules and regulations enough to frustrate a saint.

But there are also misleading advertisements, price fixing businessmen, fraudulent packaging, tax dodgers, crooked policemen, and embezzlers operating in our midst in unprecedented numbers. If we would determine a level of morality for our society we should know if it is honest to manufacture shoddy equipment planned for quick obsolescence. Is an employe honest when he gives his job less than his best? Is an employe honest when he pays less than a living wage or permits unsafe conditions on the job?

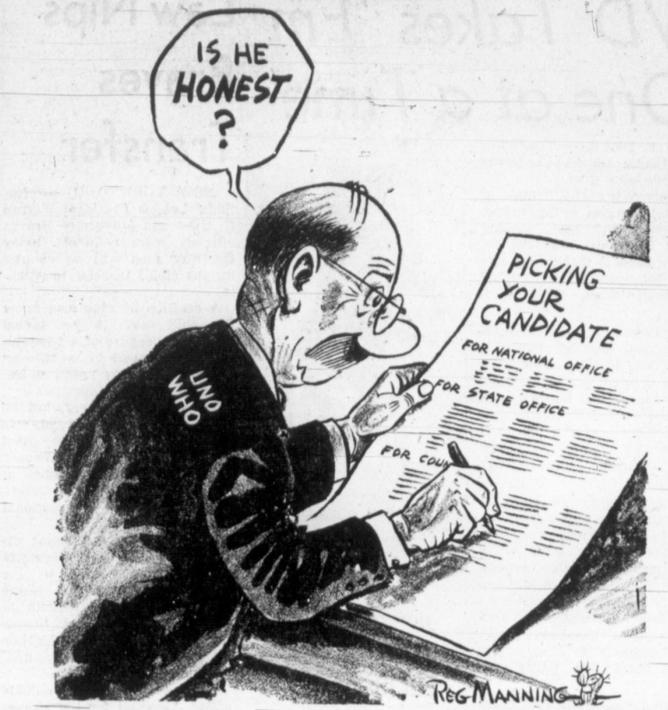

There surely is a crisis of morality in our society. It is stimulated by each person who rolls past a stop sign, fudges on the speed limit and fails to fulfill his civic duty to vote. For after all, morality in government, or social life, or business is but a composite of the morality of each member of the group.

It might be said that like charity, morality begins at home. If anyone is interested in improving it, he might well be attempting to shore up the American home. It seems that the average politician is not at home or out of the home in our nation. Is he? If anyone meets Mr. Average-Average Politician, please, may we meet him?

Key To Future Kremlin Policy in Eventual Winner of Current Power Struggle - Some Possibilities

ROBERT ALLEN PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON - Intelligence authorities are now convinced Nikita Khrushchev was overthrown by a three-man cabal, but only time will tell who emerges as the next Kremlin czar. It could be one of the currently ruling triumvirate, or another of the inner Red moguls. There is no lack of ambitious aspirants. One thing is certain: Sooner or later, the controlling reins will wind up in the hands of one individual. That's the way it has always been in Russia, under the czars as well as the Communists.

Throughout the country's long and gory history, with the exception of a few brief interludes, it has never been governed by a group or parliamentary system of any kind. In one form or another, Russia has always been ruled by some type of absolutism. Only question in the latest upheaval is who will attain that dominance, and how. Of the three-man cabal, deemed the most likely prospect for this role, in the opinion of intelligence experts, is the best known - Leonid Brezhnev, the 55-year-old new possessor of the all-powerful job of First Secretary of the Soviet Communist Party.

In this key role he is in a position to exercise decisive sway over everyone and everything in the Soviet. Brezhnev has yet to nail down this potentially immense power. It took Stalin a number of years and ferocious purges to do so. How Brezhnev gets about it and how far he goes remains to be seen. Brezhnev starts with one incalculable advantage. He is in the job, and able to use its vast controls for his own ends. POSSIBLE RIVAL - Of the two other members of the cabal, one played a major role in Khrushchev's hectic and bloody rise to dominance. Mikhail Suslov, 62, whose shadowy and fateful maneuvering and conspiring dating back to the despotic Stalin era have caused him to be known as the "mystery man of the Kremlin," is rated by some intelligence authorities as probably the most potent of the triumvirate. Suslov knows where the bodies lie, and how and when best to use that.

He did it in behalf of Khrushchev in the fierce inner battling in 1956 that enabled him to ax Malenkov and Molotov, one-time close Stalinist associates of Suslov, and he did it again as a member of the cabal that knifed Khrushchev.

Similarly, any enhancement of Ponomarev's position would be interpreted as foretelling attempts to again exert iron Kremlin rule over the increasingly dissident foreign communist parties. Above all, most intently watched is what the triumvirate does regarding Red China. In the final phases of Khrushchev's violent verbal altercations with Peiping, he dropped hints to Western diplomats that the Soviet would be at war with the Chinese by the end of this year. It remains to be seen whether he was merely fulminating or if there was something to his startling intimations. In this fateful question the following may have significant bearing. When Brezhnev made his unpublished trip to East Germany last week, he conferred with a Red Chinese delegation there, which subsequently accompanied him back to Moscow - a few days before Khrushchev's ouster. Suslov early this year spent several months in Peiping endeavoring to patch up the bitter feuding, but apparently without avail. He had made previous trips to China, and is known to be on cordial terms with all top Communist rulers there. Podgorny made a little-noticed trip to Paris last summer and talked with key De Gaulle officials about Chinese relations. The De Gaulle regime has been noncommittal about these discussions.

MORE SENSATIONAL SCANDALS - Republican members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee are planning to raise questions about a high diplomatic appointment pending before the committee for confirmation. The GOP senators have been told this career State Department official was twice turned down by the White House, after scrutiny of his security file, on appointments recommended by the department. President Johnson named him to this latest appointment at the request of the department. The Republican senators want to know why that was done, and if Johnson knew of the information in the official's security file. Administration authorities have launched a detailed examination of the personal records of numerous officials to ascertain if they contain any politically explosive data. Democratic campaign leaders are making no bones they are highly fearful of another Jenkins-type scandal in the closing weeks of the campaign.
