WATER FUN — Overnight rains amounting to nearly an inch of moisture provided runoff water in ditches and streets for morning play time in addition to the benefits derived by crops and lawns. Water in the drainage ditch in Priest Park was a perfect place to launch boats for the younger set. Shown setting a boat in the water while their dog watches with curiosity from left are Mark Klepper, 7, Steve Timmons, 8, and his brother Gary, 6. Steve and Gary are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Timmons, 920 W. Buckler. Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Klepper, 639 N. Faulkner. The dog is appropriately called "Mutt."

Red Chinese Rebuff Communist Meeting

Action Broadens Split With Soviet

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW (UPI) — Communist China has rebuffed a new Soviet attempt to arrange a conference of Communist parties to deal with the Sino-Soviet split, it was disclosed today. Shortly after it was learned here that the Soviet Union had asked the Chinese Communists and 24 other Red parties to meet on the split the New China news agency disclosed the Chinese rejection.

The Chinese Communist party central committee sent a letter to Moscow two days ago refusing to take part in such a meeting, the agency said in a dispatch monitored in London. "We will never take part in any international meeting or any preparatory meeting for it, which you call for the purpose of splitting the international Communist movement," the Communist Chinese reply said. Under the Soviet plan the 26-party session would have been preliminary to a full-scale meeting of the world's more than 90 communist parties. The Communist Chinese rejection of the proposal had been anticipated.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev earlier was believed to have won approval for the preliminary meeting in talks earlier this month with the Communist leaders of Poland, Czechoslovakia, and East Germany. The sources said the proposal for the 26-party meeting was made in a letter sent to the foreign parties this month. Since Peking turned down the call to the meeting, it marks a crucial step toward a final and formal split between Moscow and Peking.

The increasing bitterness of the exchanges between the two Communist giants in recent months have pointed to a permanent rupture. Earlier reports of plans for the 26-party meeting said it would be summoned this fall, with the 90-party talks to follow.

Cloudburst Dumps Rain Over City; Most of State Hit

A cloudburst late last night dumped almost one inch of rain on Pampa, further alleviating the drought which had gripped the city most of the spring and summer.

The rain was fairly general over the city, however, and spotty over the county.

The official rainfall in downtown Pampa was .85. Other stations in the north and south portions of the city recorded amounts totaling almost one inch.

The rainfall in Pampa for the past 48 hours totaled between 1.4-2 inches. The rain poured down on cities from Dallas to Alpine and Beaumont to Wichita Falls.

Strong winds bent trees nearly double on the northeast edge of Abilene where an unofficial 5 inches were recorded. The Fort Worth suburb of Richland Hills was hit by up to 6 inches.

Gray County Agricultural Agent Foster Whaley said of the rain, "Where it fell it was of great benefit to dry and irrigated mile. However, too many areas in the eastern, southern and central portions of the county failed to get enough moisture to be of any value."

Around the state, Lubbock got .62, Wichita Falls, .32, College Station, .50 and Beaumont, .30. The rain was too late in the day to make much of a difference in temperatures in many places in the state.

Hottest temperatures were in Abilene with 101, Dallas and Fort Worth had 102 readings.

Johnson Wants Progressive for Running Mate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Without naming a choice, President Johnson today spelled out general criteria for his vice-presidential running mate, including the hope that it will be someone "attractive and prudent and progressive."

The Chief Executive, in a surprise news conference, also endorsed in general an appeal by leaders of national civil rights organizations for an end to demonstrations until after the Nov. 3 election, and to concentrate instead on a voter registration drive.

Malcolm X Asks 'Life for Life' In Race Fights

Black Muslim Chief May Fly To New York to Make Appeal

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI) — Malcolm X, American Black Nationalist leader, says he may fly back to New York to urge Negroes there to take "a life for a life."

He said he is considering holding a mass rally in New York Saturday. But he said he might stay in Cairo if he felt he could accomplish more here. During the Harlem riots, Malcolm X was in Cairo for the second annual conference of the 34-nation Organization of African Unity (OAU). He has been conferring with OAU leaders.

"Negroes should stand on their rights even if it costs them their lives, but they should not die without taking life," he told the press here. "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a life for a life—that's the only way this thing can be brought to a head."

Malcolm X said there are whites who want trouble "because this creates a climate in which (Sen. Barry) Goldwater can walk into the White House."

But he said if whites make trouble for Negroes asserting their legal rights, the Negroes "should fight back to any extent. I don't think there should be any limit to the nature of our retaliation."

Negro civil rights group leaders Wednesday asked their membership to end demonstrations until after the U.S. presidential election. Malcolm X disagreed.

"It's difficult to criticize from 6,000 miles away," he said. "But I'd die before I'd tell."

MASS DESEGREGATION SOUGHT IN ALABAMA

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — The federal government sought massive restaurant desegregation in its first court action under the new civil rights law Wednesday and Negroes asked for blanket school integration in the heart of Alabama.

The public accommodations suit was filed by the Justice Department against 15 restaurants at Tuscaloosa and requested a preliminary injunction preventing the establishments from pursuing "the policy and practice... of discriminating against Negroes."

Several defendants in the suit said they had not complied with the new law because of threats by whites. C. D. Davenport, executive vice president of the Tuscaloosa Chamber of Commerce, said it was "common knowledge that the management of more than one place has been threatened for complying with the law."

Gray Grand Jury Meets Tomorrow

Rain Bet Costs Arnie New Hat in 'Rainsburg,' Pa.

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Maybe it won't rain here next July 29, but don't bet on it.

Golfer Arnie Palmer had the same wager this year and it cost him a hat.

Wednesday, as it has on July 29 for all but 10 of the last 87 years, rain fell on this community, upholding a local legend and brightening the annual fair.

Palmer, who shuns headgear while playing in pressure-packed tournaments, lost a hat to John Daily, a local attorney who holds the title of "Rain Prophet."

The rain-day bet serves as the high spot of the community's fair.

Negro Leaders Seek Demonstration Halt

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Negro leaders of four civil rights groups have called on America's Negroes to forego further racial demonstrations until after the Nov. 3 presidential election.

Instead, the nation's Negroes were asked to work for the defeat of Republican presidential candidate Barry M. Goldwater. The statement, issued after a "summit conference" of the heads of six civil rights organizations, did not say so, but its implication was clear that the leaders felt further demonstrations could enhance Goldwater's chances of winning the White House.

A second statement was issued strongly denouncing rioting and looting by Negroes in recent weeks and rejecting the support of "extremist groups such as Communists."

Broad Curtailment
The call for a "broad curtailment, if not total moratorium, of all mass marches, mass picketing and mass demonstrations" was signed by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); the Rev. Martin Luther King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League; and A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the Negro American Labor Council.

The statement was not signed by James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, and John Lewis, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. Wilkins said both agreed personally with the statement, but postponed signing it until after they meet with their steering committees next month.

The leaders accused supporters of Goldwater of injecting racism into the campaign. Left To States
"The senator himself maintains his position that civil rights matters should be left to the states—clear enough language for any Negro American," the statement said.

"In our view," it said, "the election contest which is shaping up is a more imperative reason for a moratorium on demonstrations than any local or state condition that has confronted our forces heretofore."

The civil rights leaders said the "present situation" presents a serious threat to the implementation of the civil rights law. Because of that, the statement said, the moratorium was desirable.

Sides Square Off in Texas 'Monkey War'

DALLAS (UPI)—Texas educators and churchmen are choosing up sides in the "monkey war." Its battleground is the same tricky topic that kicked the famous Scopes trial of 1925 into the headlines—God and the theory of evolution.

The controversy is over three high school biology textbooks. They are on a list being studied for approval for use in Texas schools by the state board of education. Local schools are forbidden to spend tax money on books that are not on the approved list.

Opponents of the books say they present too strong a case for the theory of evolution—the idea that man evolved from simpler forms of life. "A minister said stress on the theory of evolution 'undermines faith in God,'" Hulen Jackson, Dallas minister of the Church of Christ, said the textbooks in question teach "atheism and materialistic evolution."

A University of Texas biology professor who worked with the editors of the three books in question fired back that church forces were trying to interfere with students' rights to accurate scientific teaching.

"The only way to ignore evolution is to repeal the 20th century," said Dr. Irwin Spears. "And it's too late for that—much too late." The campaign against the books was kicked off by the Church of Christ. Spokesmen said they hope for aid from other religious groups, particularly the Southern Baptists.

Jewel Thieves Loot Exhibition

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UPI) — Jewelry and watches worth hundreds of thousands of dollars were stolen from the Swiss National Exhibition during the night, police announced today.

The robbery took place at an exhibition of watches and jewelry in the Beaulieu Palace at which 30 leading Swiss watchmakers and jewelers were exhibiting their masterpieces.

Investigation indicated that the burglar—or burglars—visited the exhibition Wednesday, hid somewhere in the building and was locked in when the exhibition closed for the day.

Police were also considering the possibility that the burglar may have obtained duplicate keys to the Beaulieu Palace.

The jewelry and watches were taken from a smashed showcase. They included luxury watches, bracelets and necklaces.

The robbery was discovered this morning when the exhibition was opened to the public.

Goldwater Flies West For Short Vacation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater headed west today for a short vacation, leaving a newly reinforced staff to begin the detailed planning for his campaign to win the White House.

The GOP presidential candidate planned to fly by private plane to San Francisco and then to motor about 80 miles north to Bohemia Grove, the summer encampment of the prestigious Bohemian club.

Goldwater was scheduled to make the feature speech at the last nightly program of the encampment on Saturday, then join his family at Balboa Bay in Southern California for a year string of 15 moonshot failures.

Ranger-7 thundered skyward on its 228,600-mile mission Tuesday from Cape Kennedy, Fla. A delicate midcourse maneuver early Wednesday aimed it toward a sausage-shaped target area 40 miles long and 15 miles wide on the moon's face, named the "sea of clouds."

One "terminal maneuver" to place Ranger-7's television cameras into the best position for photographing the lunar surface — may or may not be made. A decision on that was expected late today.

Ranger-7 was expected to collide with the moon at a speed of 4,668 miles an hour at 9:25 a.m. EDT, Friday. About 13 1/2 minutes before impact, television cameras will be activated and the spacecraft's six cameras should transmit back to earth the historic photos.

The pictures were expected to tell scientists whether the moon's surface is smooth enough for American spacecraft to land on it.

$1 MILLION DAMAGES SOUGHT

Harding Kin Files Suit

COLUMBUS (UPI) — A $1 million damage suit was filed Wednesday in Common Pleas Court here by a nephew of the late President Warren G. Harding, who asked that love letters Harding wrote to Mrs. Carrie Phillips be impounded.

Dr. George T. Harding III, of suburban Worthington, filed the suit against Kenneth W. Duckett, Westerville, a curator of the Ohio Historical Society; Francis Russell, a Boston historian residing here as a Guggenheim Fellow; American Heritage Publishing Co., Inc., Marion, Ohio; and McGraw Hill Publishing Co., Cleveland.

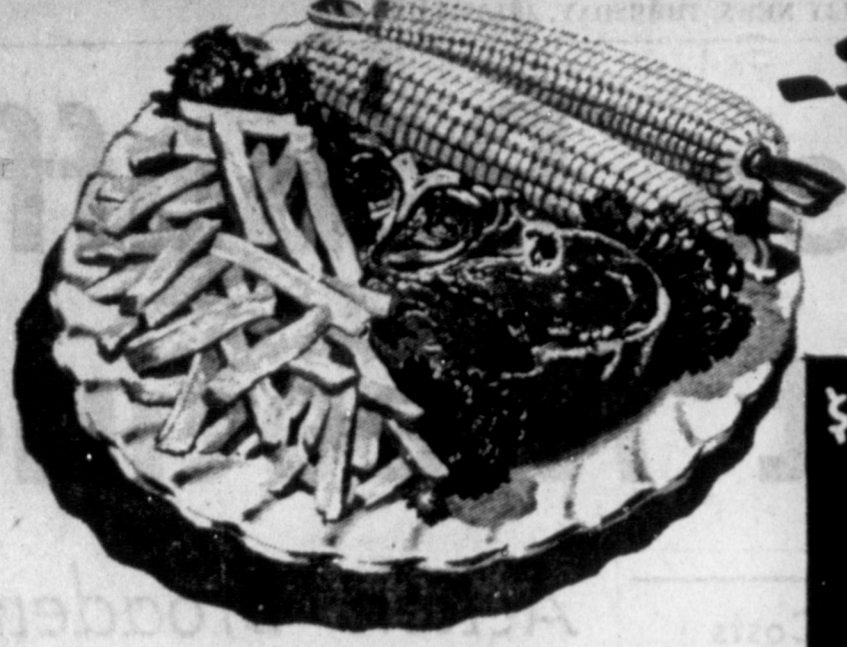

Harding charged that President Harding, while a U.S. senator, wrote certain private letters to Mrs. Phillips, then the wife of a Marion merchant. She died in 1960. The suit said her guardian, Don Williamson, a Marion attorney, gave the letters in 1963 to Duckett and Russell without consent of the heirs of President Harding or Mrs. Phillips. Later the letters were made part of Mrs. Phillips' estate and are now in a vault in Marion under control of the Marion County Probate court.

Damages are sought for the heirs at law of the late president. Russell disclosed recently that the letters indicated that Harding and Mrs. Phillips had a love affair before he was chosen for the presidential nomination. He also said Harding offered in the later letters to pay a substantial sum of money to Mrs. Phillips if he were elected president. Judge Henry L. Holden issued an order forbidding any of the defendants from "publishing, producing, copying, exhibiting or making any use whatsoever" of the letters pending a final hearing and decision on the suit. He set no date for such a hearing.

Gown Not Topless--Simply Transparent

PARIS (UPI)—Paris triumphantly today displayed its answer to the topless bathing suit: a transparent black hostess gown.

Underneath, the mannequin wore skintight, flesh-colored panties, but at first, second or even third look you'd never know it. So the audience at the salon of Jeanne Lanvin let out a yell.

The billowing, floor-length gown of crinkled organza had long sleeves and a demure white organdy schoolgirl's bib and collar that hid her bosoms. To add to the innocent air, the salon served pop-sicles just as the model swished in wearing "magpie," as the gown was called.

The entire effect, being beautiful and elegant, was more seductive than any bare-top dress ever could be.

Designer Jules Francois Cray (Mme-Lanvin has long since retired) also hopped on the trousers bandwagon and paraded a selection of all-in-one bermuda shorts and tops in tweeds and knits, worn with matching or fur jackets and matching ribbed or lacy stockings.

Barbecue May Become Symbol Of Campaign

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—"Lightning Barbecue Johnson?" That may be the next tag hung on the initials LBJ if the President goes through with a reported plan to turn Texas barbecue into a political weapon.

According to today's Milwaukee Sentinel, the White House is thinking of a cross-country series of barbecues, supervised by the barbecue chef from the president's LBJ ranch at Johnson City, Tex.

partment store mogul Stanley Marcus, told the newspaper a mid-August barbecue in Milwaukee—where Bratwurst is solidly entrenched and barbecue is a foreign dish—"is being considered and a decision will be made in a day or two."

Along with the barbecue, which Johnson has already provided in great quantities for newsmen visiting his ranch by the Pedernales river, the President may team one of his other political weapons—his daughters.

several barbecues are in the planning stage.

"The LBJ ranch barbecue chef will be flown to the parties to supervise the food," he said, "and one of the Johnson girls will be present. One is planned soon for Gracie Mansion in New York—the home of Mayor Robert Wagner."

The Sentinel said Luci Baines Johnson, the president's 17-year-old daughter, might attend the Milwaukee barbecue, to launch the Young Citizens for Johnson program in Wisconsin.

ALTERS DESK

LONDON (UPI)—Sir Harry Pilkington, chairman of Pilkington Brothers, Ltd., director of the Bank of England and 13 other companies, has had his desk altered so that he can work when he wishes without shoes.

The modern desk stood on legs which raised it nine inches from the floor. He ordered the legs chopped off.

"I certainly do kick them off on occasions," Sir Harry said. "But I did not know that anyone else had noticed."

Barry Denies Writing West Germany Article

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Barry Goldwater today denied any connection with an article that a West German weekly newspaper said he had written for this week's issue.

The article appeared Wednesday in Munich's Deutsche National und Soldaten - Zeitung (German National and Soldiers Newspaper). A Goldwater spokesman here said the Republican presidential candidate did not write a signed article for the newspaper which, he said, twice tried unsuccessfully to get answers to a list of questions submitted to Goldwater.

"The senator has not talked to any German reporters," the spokesman said. "He has not written any article for German newspapers."

Editors of the German publication were not immediately available for comment on Goldwater's disavowal of the article.

In the article, which the newspaper said Goldwater had written, he was quoted as rejecting the concept of a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) multi-lateral nuclear fleet.

The article "proposed for discussion... the training of all NATO armed forces stationed in Europe in the use of tactical nuclear weapons, independent of their nationality."

It said if the United States continued to reduce its own nuclear strength in Europe, "Some day we'll face a local Communist invasion which will leave us no other choice than either inter-continental retaliation or capitulation before the Communist threat."

"A nuclear-equipped NATO, on the other hand, can meet local invasions on the spot with tactical nuclear weapons," the article said.

Referring to present Washington policies, the article said: "Consider for example the idea that multinational crews man NATO ships, to afford our NATO partners an appropriate share in the control of nuclear weapons. This nuclear bone is more a pacifier than a solution."

Ex-Football Cheerleader to Be Starlet

By VERNON SCOTT UPI Hollywood Correspondent HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Chris Noel, former cheerleader for the New York football Giants, is about to become a former Hollywood starlet.

Chris, aware that a starlet's day in the sun is as brief as the bikini she wears, plans to return to movietown a bonafide dramatic actress, at least to the extent that she can appear on the screen fully dressed for a change.

Looks Stunning Chris currently is in "Girl Happy" with Elvis Presley; absolutely stunning in a polka dot bikini.

Chris Noel, a Christmasy kind of name, is the product of a press agent's brainstorm. Actually, the curvaceous cutie was born Sandra Louise Botz during a West Palm Beach heat wave.

Our heroine fled Florida for Manhattan where she became a successful model. But modeling had a serious flaw—no audience. So Chris landed a weekly appearance playing before capacity crowds as a cheer leader for the Giants.

"It only paid $10 a game, and I never even got to talk to the players," Chris said during a lunch break in the MGM commissary.

COLLECTION DAY, TODAY

Silent House Hears Winnie's Statement

LONDON (UPI) — A hushed and reverent House of Commons Wednesday received grateful thanks from Sir Winston Churchill in a rare public statement on his retirement from government service.

Conservative members of Commons and opposition backbenchers alike fell silent when Churchill's message, in response to Tuesday's Parliamentary tribute to his 64 years of service, was read by Prime Minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home.

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL, rare statement

"I am deeply grateful to the House that it should see fit to honor its servant in this outstanding way," Churchill's message said.

"Among the different aspects and chapters of my public life it is my tenure as member of Parliament that I value most highly."

"Now at the time of my departure this resolution has set the seal on the many kindnesses the House has done me."

Churchill, frail and bent with the weight of his 89 years, made his last appearance in Commons Monday, taking his place in his usual front row seat for 45 minutes before shuffling out on the arms of two younger members. Churchill has announced he will not stand for re-election this fall.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Even under the late Jawaharlal Nehru, India's vast internal problems and the snail-like pace of her economic development were cause for concern for her future.

The fact that his successor, frail, 59-year-old Lal Bahadur Shastri, was a man virtually unknown to and unknowing of the world outside India could only add to the apprehension. And this apprehension was compounded when after only 17 days in office Shastri, too, fell ill, victim of what has been called a mild heart attack.

The attack bedded Shastri for most of a month and remains a source of the greatest worry.

Facing Shastri when he returned to preside over a meeting of his cabinet was another problem for India which Shastri has declared its "most formidable."

It is India's continuing inability to feed a population which already totals more than 600 million and is increasing by 10 million a year.

Face Great Threat
The state of Shastri's health and the food shortage, according to observers in India, together make up the greatest threat to Indian stability.

On the one side are the Indian Reds aiding and abetting food riots.

On the other are ambitious political leaders both inside and out of Shastri's ruling Congress party waiting to seize any opportunity that might arise as result of a prime minister too ill to rule.

On the administrative side, Shastri already has proved himself able, perhaps more so in that department, than the mystic Nehru who never seemed to come totally to grips either with India's communal or economic problems.

Delegating Authority
He has placed key men with a seeming readiness to get things done in foreign, food and agriculture and economic posts and he has shown himself willing to delegate authority.

India reached a record high production of 81 million tons of food grains in 1961, and has not equalled it since.

In 1960, the United States signed an agreement with India to supply 17 million tons of grain over a four-year period.

It involved $1.3 billion as compared to $250 million from Russia for last year's U.S. sale of four million tons of wheat. The Russians were required to pay in gold as compared to the rupees paid by India.

At the moment an Indian delegation is in Washington hoping to negotiate for a similar deal for 20 million bushels of grain.

Quick-Made Corn Flake Waffles for Easy Breakfast

Weekends are favorite times for families to enjoy a leisurely morning meal. Such a breakfast can be a delightful change of pace from the usual weekday rush. Quick-made Corn Flake Waffles with Dried Beef Eggs Sauce are a good choice for a main dish for breakfast.

Simply prepare the waffles, using a pancake mix as the base. For topping add dried beef and eggs to a white sauce mix. Round out the menu with citrus fruit cups, and milk for the beverage.

Breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes because they are inexpensive, convenient, add flavor and texture, and, at the same time, make important nutritional contributions.

QUICK-MADE CORN FLAKE WAFFLES
 1½ cups pancake mix
 2 eggs

1½ cups milk
 ¼ cup melted shortening or cooking oil
 2 cups corn flakes, regular or pre-sweetened, crushed to make 1½ cups
 Combine pancake mix, eggs, milk, and shortening or oil; beat until dry ingredients are moistened. Stir in crushed flakes. Pour batter onto hot waffle iron. Bake until done. Serve with sauce.

Yield: 2 9-inch square waffles.

DRIED BEEF
 2 envelopes (1 ounce each) white sauce mix
 ½ teaspoon dry mustard
 3 cups milk
 1 jar (5 ounce) sliced dried beef
 4 hard cooked eggs, chopped
 Combine sauce mix and dry mustard; mix. Add milk; heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Fold in dried beef and eggs; heat. Serve over Quick-Made Corn Flake Waffles. Yield: 4½ cups sauce.

Sandwiches Have Come a Long Way

Sandwiches have certainly come a long way since John Montagu, the 4th Earl of Sandwich, invented them in the 18th Century.

Today, sandwiches not only serve as a standard lunch dish, but are artistically arranged and used extensively for casual entertaining.

Triple Tempter Sandwich Loaf, made with circle white bread, is a recipe for such purposes.

This perfect treat for summer eating pleasure combines not one, but three appealing tasty sandwich spreads — a tangy chicken salad, confetti cheese spread and crunchy peanut butter spread.

Arrange alternately and heated to a golden brown, your guests will rush to sample each delicious sandwich.

TRIPLE-TEMPER SANDWICH LOAF
 1 loaf circle white bread
 Butter or margarine
 Tangy Chicken Salad
 Confetti Cheese Spread
 Crunchy Peanut Butter Spread

1. Arrange bread slices in stacks of 2; spread with butter or margarine.
2. Prepare 4 sandwiches using Tangy Chicken Salad; 4 sandwiches with Confetti Cheese Spread, and remaining 3 sandwiches with Crunchy Peanut Butter Spread.
3. Put sandwiches together to form loaf. Fasten with skewers from each end. Wrap loaf in aluminum foil and fold securely.
4. Heat in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20-25 minutes; unwrap. Garnish, if desired, with radish roses and ripe olives. Serve hot.

Makes 11 sandwiches.

Tangy Chicken Salad:
 1 cup finely diced, cooked chicken
 1 tablespoon finely chopped green onions
 ¼ cup finely cut celery
 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
 1 tablespoon capers
 1-3 cup mayonnaise
 ½ teaspoon salt

1. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly.

Confetti Cheese Spread:
 ¼ pound (4 oz.) sharp Cheddar cheese
 ¼ cup pitted ripe olives
 ¼ green pepper
 ¼ medium onion
 1 hard-cooked egg
 2 tablespoons catsup
 1 teaspoon prepared mustard

1. Put cheese, olives, green pepper, onion and egg through medium blade of food chopper. Mix well.
2. Add catsup and mustard, blending well.

Crunchy Peanut Butter Spread:
 4 slices crisp cooked bacon, crumbled
 ½ cup smooth peanut butter

1. Combine bacon and peanut butter; mix thoroughly.

Cornish Hens Roasted on Coals

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
 Plump, tender Cornish hens appeal to the outdoor week-end chef.

CORNISH HENS BARBECUED
 (1½ cups)

¼ c. finely chopped celery
 1 large clove garlic, minced
 2 T. butter or margarine
 1 c. (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
 ¼ c. orange juice
 2 T. grated orange rind

In saucepan, cook celery with garlic in butter until tender. Add remaining ingredients. Cook over low heat for 10 minutes, stirring now and then.

CORNISH HENS (Outdoor Method)
 Prepare sauce. Truss 4 Cornish hens (about 1 pound each) on spit, close together. Balance; tie securely. Place drip-pan under hens. Cook 30 minutes. Baste; cook 1 hour or until tender, basting every 15 minutes.

CORNISH HENS (Indoor Method)
 Truss 4 Cornish hens (about 1 pound each) on spit, close together. Balance; tie securely. Place in rotisserie unit of oven. Cook at 400 degrees for 1 hour. Meanwhile, prepare sauce. Baste hens. Cook an additional hour, basting every 15 minutes.

A half lemon on the shelf of the refrigerator helps absorb odors.

CORNISH HENS barbecued on a spit is a summer specialty.

White Bread Is Nutritious Food

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—Isn't it true that the white bread in my supermarket has no food value?

A—Many people still cling to the belief that white bread and white flour are unfit for human consumption, according to Dr. Elizabeth Munves, Nutritionist, New York University. That is not so. Most white bread and flour in this country has been enriched because it appeared impossible to change food habits of Americans who prefer white bread.

By replacing the iron, niacin, thiamine and riboflavin through the enrichment process, white bread becomes a very nutritious food, she explains.

Q—Isn't blackstrap molasses far more wholesome than sugar?

A—No. In their excellent "Modern Diet and Nutrition," Dr. Henrietta Fleck and Dr. Elizabeth Munves, both of New York University, state:

"This thick, dark syrup represents the leavings of sugar manufacture. It is not the excellent source of iron, copper and B vitamins that faddists proclaim it to be. The iron present comes from contact with factory machinery and the calcium from the lime water used in processing."

FOOD BUYING GUIDE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With summer harvest in full swing, produce counters abound with fresh fruits and vegetables. Meat counters continue to offer plenty of good selections for indoor or outdoor eating.

For main dish fare there's plenty of beef roasts and steaks as well as ground meat. There are various fresh and cured pork cuts that offer pleasing variety. Turkey and broiler-fryer chickens are available a plenty for cold buffets or the outdoor grill. Among plentiful fish items are canned pink salmon, fish sticks and fish portions.

Vegetable abundances at fresh produce counter include cabbage, celery, corn, cucumbers, lettuce, onions, squash and tomatoes.

A colorful variety of fruit is also on display — blueberries, cantaloupes, lemons, nectarines, peaches, plums, and watermelons.

SIRLOIN SOURCE ...

CHICAGO (UPI) — Some authorities credit the origin of the word "sirloin" to the English. Legend has it that a British monarch became so enthusiastic about this cut of meat that he pulled out a sword and dubbed it "Sir Loin," reports the American Meat Institute. Others say that the word comes from the French "surlonge" — that is, over the loin.

BACON-CHEESE SPREAD

For a nippy cheese spread for sandwich or crackers, try this combination. Combine 1 cup of cream-style cottage cheese and ½ cup (3 oz.) of blue cheese with a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Beat until blended. Stir in 2 slices of crumbled cooked bacon until the bits are blended in the cheese mixture.

GOING A LONG WAY TO BEAT HEAT—Even tall girls want to cool off on a breezy beach, but even Amazons don't grow this tall... or do they? This long, tall Sally on a Cleveland, Ohio, beach is indulging in a little bit of mild deception, or so the photographer says.

Texas' first Capitol was at Bell's Landing on the Brazos River. Honolulu, capital of Hawaii, is situated on the island of Oahu.

BOTTOMLESS SUITS

NEW YORK (UPI) — Paris, a Greenwich Village designer, reported Tuesday he has designed a bottomless bathing suit for men and has sold seven dozen of them for $4.95 each. The suits Paris has on display in his shop resemble basketball shirts with long tails. He said he has sold quite a few to girls.

AUTO KILLS GIRL

HEREFORD, Tex. (UPI) — Sally Pacheco, 6, of Hereford, was hit by a car and killed Monday night in Hereford.

The youngster was running across a street in front of a grocery when she was hit by a car driven by 15-year-old Michael Davis. Police said the accident was unavoidable.

Lawmaker Blasts Television On Excessive Crime Programs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., charged today that prime television time is still "permeated with programs featuring excessive crime, violence, and debased moral standards." Dodd, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on juvenile delinquency, said there was no appreciable reduction of violence in new shows and that the most violent shows of 1961-62 still dominate the home screen. Dodd's harsh criticism of television scheduling was included in an opening statement prepared for delivery as the subcommittee resumed its hearings into crime and violence on television.

The subcommittee held hearings in 1961-62 which, according to Dodd, showed that "network executives consciously fostered a trend toward violence by ordering more of it to be included in action-adventure shows presumably to assure the maintenance of high ratings for these programs."

Summons Executives
Dodd summoned executives of the three networks, American

Broadcasting Co. (ABC) National Broadcasting Co. (NBC) and Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), to explain why there has been no appreciable reduction in violent shows despite their pledges two years ago. The senator said that of the three networks, only CBS showed an improvement. "Not only did we fail to see an appreciable reduction of violence in new shows but we also found that the most violent shows of 1961-62 season have been syndicated and are now being reshown on independent networks and stations," Dodd said. "We discovered that unjustifiable violence and brutality permeate new shows which center around college campuses, hospitals, psychiatrists' offices and other unlikely locations, in addition to the presence of violence in its earlier habitat — adventure, western, and detective programs," he added. —New Dimensions In addition to the violence, the medical and psychiatric shows have added a new dimension, the violence of those beset by physical and mental illness, Dodd said. Dodd said the outlook for the future was bad. He said this was especially true of today's shows with the "heavy diet of psychological dramas, loaded with brutality, homosexuality, rape, incest, and so forth." He said these are syndicated and next year will be shown to after-school audiences. Dodd said that monitoring by the subcommittee staff showed that among the networks the percentage of films featuring violence in prime time is: ABC, 55.3 per cent; NBC, 55.1 per cent and CBS, 26.5 per cent.

Dear Abby....

Don't Be Offended, Maybe It's Occupational Hazard
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago I went to a hospital and stayed there for six weeks. Last week I had to go back to the same hospital for a little corrective surgery, and what do you think the head nurse greeted me with? "Oh, no, not YOU again, Mrs. So-and-So!" When the nurses hear you're back they'll shoot themselves!" Then she laughed. I failed to see anything funny in her remark. When I saw my doctor I reported the incident to him, and he laughed, too. Then he patted me on the shoulder and said, "Oh, don't pay any attention to her. She's a little screwy." Why would a hospital hire a "screwy" head nurse?

OFFENDED
DEAR OFFENDED: She probably wasn't "screwy" when they hired her.

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and baby-sit to earn money for clothes. About once a week I sit for a lady who is getting a divorce. She has two small children. She has all her bureau drawers and her desk drawers "sealed" with big wide strips of adhesive tape. Every closet in her house is locked, and she even keeps a padlock on her refrigerator. She told me that she trusted me, but in case I got bored or curious she didn't want me going through her things. Abby, I would never think of doing such a thing. Last time I was there she said if I tried to remove the adhesive tape and seal it back, my fingerprints would be on the tape and I'd never get away with it. This hurt me. Do you think there is something wrong with her? I'm afraid if I tell my parents they won't let me sit for her any more, and I need the money. What should I do?

NERVOUS GIRL
DEAR NERVOUS: Yes, I think there is definitely something wrong with her. Tell your parents and abide by their decision.

DEAR ABBY: I have been employed in this office only a short time, but it is an ideal place to work and I would like to remain here. I am not the kind of person who indulges in gossip, but: The telephone operator here told me that the boss, a family man, is carrying on an affair with a woman who calls him at the office and uses a phony name. The telephone operator listens in on all his calls, so she is not guessing. The boss is a fine man, and seems so proud of his family that it is hard to believe that he is leading a double life. I am afraid his wife will find out about it and their home will be broken up. Should I tell the boss what I know so he can be more careful?

NEW GIRL
DEAR NEW: Mind your own business, and tell the telephone operator that if she knows what is good for her, she should mind hers. If the boss chooses to skate on thin ice, let him take his chances.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CAN'T SLEEP" IN TROY: Tell your husband what's on your mind and give him a fair chance to defend himself. You could be wrong.

Problems: Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MATURE PARENT

By MRE. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Fathers leave children's discipline to mothers instead of assuming their share of it because:

We American women have scared them out of asserting their masterfulness by scolding it; by saying to men, "Who needs you to take care of us? Just give us the justice you have denied us."

Their mothers did everything for them. They may regard as trivial the issues of children's misbehavior which are important to us.

These are some of the causes of fathers' disinterest in discipline, as offered by Dr. Benjamin Spock to a group of mothers whose question-and-answer meeting was reported in a recent issue of Redbook magazine.

There's another cause that was not mentioned.

Fathers lose interest in children's discipline because mothers can squelch any argument they raise by quoting the uncontestable authority of "experts" like Dr. Spock. All his ardent devotees have to do to shut fathers up is to say, "I know much more about child training than you do because Dr. Spock says..."

Ah, well, I suppose it is unrealistic to expect any "expert" to ever say to American mothers, "Dear ladies, your dependence on me makes your claim to independence a fantasy in your heads. Where your grandmothers leaned on their husbands, you lean on me. So wouldn't it be sensible to look at the fact that you are not self-sufficient at all but simply feel obliged to pretend that you are to your hypnotized men?" Perhaps it's just as well that the "experts" don't say that. Because, if they did, we American women would be confronted with the "why" of our dependence on them. We would have to look at our craving for the absolute rightness we derive from their support. We'd have to break down when our children make us uncertain of absolute rightness and maybe cry, confessing ourselves to be insufficient humans to our men.

That we couldn't possibly afford, could we? No, no. There'd be nervous breakdowns and heaven knows what else were we ever to entertain the possibility we could be wrong.

Jets Make Background Music

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Today we have a horse opera story, with jets making the background music.

The leading characters are Anna Moffo, young singing star of the opera, concert stage and television, her trotting horse named Fury Hanover, and the planes the two have been using to "commute."

It all began six years ago when the Pennsylvania-born Miss Moffo and her husband, Mario Lanfranchi, a television producer and director in Italy, started buying horses.

Today, they own 18 trotters including Fury Hanover who's been getting around far flung race tracks.

Fury recently was flown from Europe to New York for his U.S. debut at Yonkers Raceway in a couple of invitational international races. He didn't finish in the money but Miss Moffo said one factor could have been because of an earlier appearance by the horse in Stockholm.

"Fury was accustomed to 95 degree temperatures in Rome," she said. "In Stockholm it was zero and the horse wasn't feeling well. On top of that, his groom became ill. But Fury perked up and I thought did very well at Yonkers, considering."

Manners Make Friends

Toothpick users might not agree, but etiquette decrees: use the toothpick in privacy.

"Horses and singers are very much alike. Both have their good days and their bad days."

Now, Fury has been returned to Rome — Alitalia flies him on its DC8 VIC (very important cargo) service—to rest and be readied along with a stablemate, Captain's Boy, for an international race in Moscow, August 2.

Miss Moffo said she will be going to Russia soon too, to sing. But she isn't sure yet of the dates. The soprano has homes in both New York and Rome and will be in Europe for the opening in the fall of the Vienna and Paris opera seasons and appearances at London's Covent Garden. Then it's back to New York for her sixth season with the Metropolitan Opera Co. where she made her first appearance in November, 1959.

Anna Moffo was born 27 years ago in Wayne, Pa., the daughter of a shoe repair shop owner who migrated from Italy. She was always singing in school, at church and at civic functions in the Philadelphia area and in grade and high school studied piano.

At the same time, she was acting as captain of basketball, hockey and rifle teams and playing tennis, lacrosse and softball.

A four year scholarship to the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia started her on a serious music career. She was graduated with honors from Curtis in 1956 and went immediately to Europe for further study on a Fulbright scholarship.

South Texans Warn of Disaster If CAB Should Halt Air Service

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) heard warnings today that a regional airport in the lower Rio Grande Valley could spell economic disaster to Brownsville and McAllen, Tex. The CAB reviewed during oral arguments a CAB examiner's ruling that the area in Southwest Texas should continue to be served by separate airports at Brownsville, Harlingen and McAllen. Spokesman for both McAllen and Brownsville warned that convention business in their towns would drop drastically if air service stopped. Braniff Airways, Eastern Air Lines, the city of Harlingen and the CAB's Bureau of Economic Regulation supported a regional airport, presumably at Harlingen, which would serve all three communities located within a 30-mile radius of one another.

Against Regional Airport
Braniff and Eastern presently serve Brownsville and Trans-Airways serves McAllen and Harlingen. Trans-Texas argued against a regional airport but said it was willing to serve Brownsville if the trunk carriers were removed.

On April 6, CAB examiner Thomas L. Wrenn ruled against a central airport concept but on June 4 the CAB held up that ruling and decided to review the situation.

William Driscoll, representing the CAB Bureau of Economic Regulation, urged the board to establish a regional airport at Harlingen for the three communities to be served only by Trans-Texas with the elimination of trunk service from those three cities.

Driscoll said "significant cost savings are possible for Trans-Texas because of the present and prospective high-speed highways."

Bulk of Traffic
He said Trans-Texas could expect not only to retain the bulk of the McAllen traffic but also would carry most of the Brownsville traffic now using the two trunk carriers.

"Elimination of trunk competition will mean an immediate improvement of almost $400,000 each year in Trans-Texas operating results," Driscoll argued that "passenger inconvenience from a termination of trunk service will not be of major import since the trunk lines today provide only a token service which duplicates that of Trans-Texas."

Driscoll said "Braniff will barely be affected economically by such a termination and

Amarillo Firm Gets Canadian Aqueduct Bid

AMARILLO (UPI)—The R.H. Fulton Co. was the apparent low bidder to build the main aqueduct system for the Canadian river dam project in Northwest Texas. The company offered Tuesday to build the system, estimated by engineers to cost about $8.1 million, for $8.7 million.

The dam will provide water for 11 Texas Panhandle and South Plains cities. It was started two years ago and is expected to be completed in 1967.

Eastern will actually be better off by almost $100,000 a year."

Sees Disaster
Morris Atlas—the spokesman for McAllen—predicted removal of air service from his town would spell "disaster."

"We are fearful you are going to cause us to return from the air age to the car age and private airplanes," Atlas said.

He noted that McAllen was the largest of the three communities and needed air service. Between 1950 and 1963, he said income from conventions amounted to $3,300,000 which resulted in a turn-over of money in the community of $16,500,000.

He said that was a "tremendous amount of money to us" and "we are facing a fiscal disaster to McAllen" through a regional airport concept. He also said it would take 6-to-10 years to develop the expressway system.

Brownsville Atty. Vincent L. Gingerich argued against a regional airport and sought retention of Braniff and Eastern service in Brownsville. He said if the trunk carriers leave the city two businesses will go with them carrying an annual payroll of $1 million.

In addition, he said that Brownsville would lose convention business estimated at $15 million annually.

The CAB took the arguments under consideration and at a later date will issue its findings.

Russians Seek Political Asylum
HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI)—Two Russian soldiers who defected to the West from East Germany have asked for political asylum, the U.S. Army announced Wednesday.

The two Russians fled over the Communist barricaded border to West German Bavaria near Neustadt on the Saale River last Friday at 2 a.m.

They were unarmed except for knives, but wore their Red Army battle dress.

"The Soviet soldiers are now in American control," a spokesman at U.S. Army European Headquarters here said.

"American authorities have received their request for asylum."

The Army announcement was the first official confirmation of a Bavarian border police report Monday that two Russian soldiers had fled across the Iron Curtain frontier.

Machine Creates Modern Day Cleopatra

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A 20th century Cleopatra—"Miss Formula"—has been created on paper by an electronic computer in a dramatic visual demonstration of the thinking machine's ability.

Scientists and engineers at California Computer Products Inc. of Anaheim, Calif., worked for a week on what the perfectly formed feminine beauty's statistics should be.

When the statistics were agreed upon, one of the firm's Cal Comp. plotters was programmed to react by processing the figures and spewing forth a finished drawing of the femme fatale's figure.

Company officials hired a hotel room Tuesday and invited newsmen and newswomen to meet "Miss Formula."

In went the figures, around went the gears and out came a nearly life-sized sketch of the 20th century Cleopatra.

What's she like?:
—Height, 5 feet, 6 inches.
—Weight, 115-118 pounds.
—Dimensions, 36-24-36.
—Incidental figures, neck 12 inches; thighs 20 inches, knees 12.5 inches, calf 13 inches and ankles 8 inches.

Company officials said the machine also has more valuable applications, such as visual display from computer information of weather maps, road designs, oil field findings, molecular structures, medical substances and brain waves.

Barry Clobbers LBJ in Stronghold Of Democrats

OCILLA, Ga. (UPI)—GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater overwhelmingly defeated President Johnson Tuesday in a barber shop poll in this town in south Georgia, a traditional Democratic stronghold.

Goldwater got 354 votes to 7 for Johnson during the five days of voting in Hayes' Barber Shop. Barber Russell Hayes said six votes were discarded as illegible.

SUNG TOO LOUDLY
ST. HELIER, Isle of Jersey (UPI)—A 15-year-old boy was sentenced to 12 strokes of the birch Monday after being convicted of singing loudly in a St. Helier street last Sunday night.

"Mommy, you forgot...every litter bit hurts!"

It happens in the best of families! Mom or Dad forgets that every litter bit hurts. And forgetting is the main cause of the litter mess that mars America's highways—your highways. That first bit of trash you thoughtlessly toss away is the beginning of a pile-up that costs millions of tax dollars to clean up. But that's not all that's bad about littering. Remember—as the twig is bent, so grows the tree. A bit of your children's good citizenship training goes out the window with every litter bit you toss away. Birthday Brings Remarks Pro and Con on Ol' Case

By TIM MORIARTY
NEW YORK (UPI)—Stamina, vitality, enthusiasm, baseball savvy... total recall. These are the qualities most frequently mentioned by friends and foes alike whenever the name of Casey Stengel is mentioned.

The still frisky manager of the woebegone New York Mets, who celebrates his 74th birthday Thursday, already has become a legend in his time.

When he was managing the New York Yankees, more than a handful of his players used to make fun of the old man behind his back. When ole Case got the hook as Yankee field boss in 1960 because he was considered too old, not too many Yankees were moved to compassion.

Admire Stengel
With the Mets, a few players may not always agree with Stengel, but they admire him to a man, especially those who played against him for so many years and now find themselves on the same club with Casey.

Tracy Stallard, the ex-Boston Red Sox pitcher, is one of Casey's greatest supporters.

"He's been wonderful to me," Stallard said in the Mets dugout at Shea Stadium Tuesday night. "I have great admiration for him."

"The thing that impresses me most is his baseball savvy. There are times in games when we can't always see who's warming up in the other team's bullpen. Stengel, though, will watch the other manager for certain signs. If he sees the other manager signal with his left hand, he knows a southpaw is getting ready and Casey plans accordingly."

Likes "Common Sense"
Frank Lary, who came to the Mets from Detroit earlier this season, likes Stengel's "common sense."

"He knows what each guy can do at any given time," said the old Yankee killer. "That's what I call good common sense and savvy. Not every manager has it."

Over in the visiting team's dugout, Los Angeles Dodger Coach Leo Durocher was bemoaning the fact that former Dodger Jackie Robinson and Jim Piersall of the Los Angeles Angels recently claimed that Stengel was too old to manage a major league team.

"Why those unmentionables," Durocher barked. "How can they put the rap on a guy like Casey? They should be half the man he is."

Cardinal Manager Sees No Repeat

CHICAGO (UPI)—The St. Louis Cardinals might rack up the National League's longest winning streak of the season today, but Manager Johnny Keane doesn't expect a sudden surge into first place against well-balanced competition.

The Cards clubbed the Chicago Cubs 9-1 Wednesday for their fifth straight, equalling the longest winning streak in the league so far, and a win over the same team today would set a season high for the circuit.

But Keane was pessimistic about the future and had little anticipation that his team would come close to duplicating last year's stretch run of 19 wins in 20 games which brought the Cards into close contention with the pennant winning Los Angeles Dodgers.

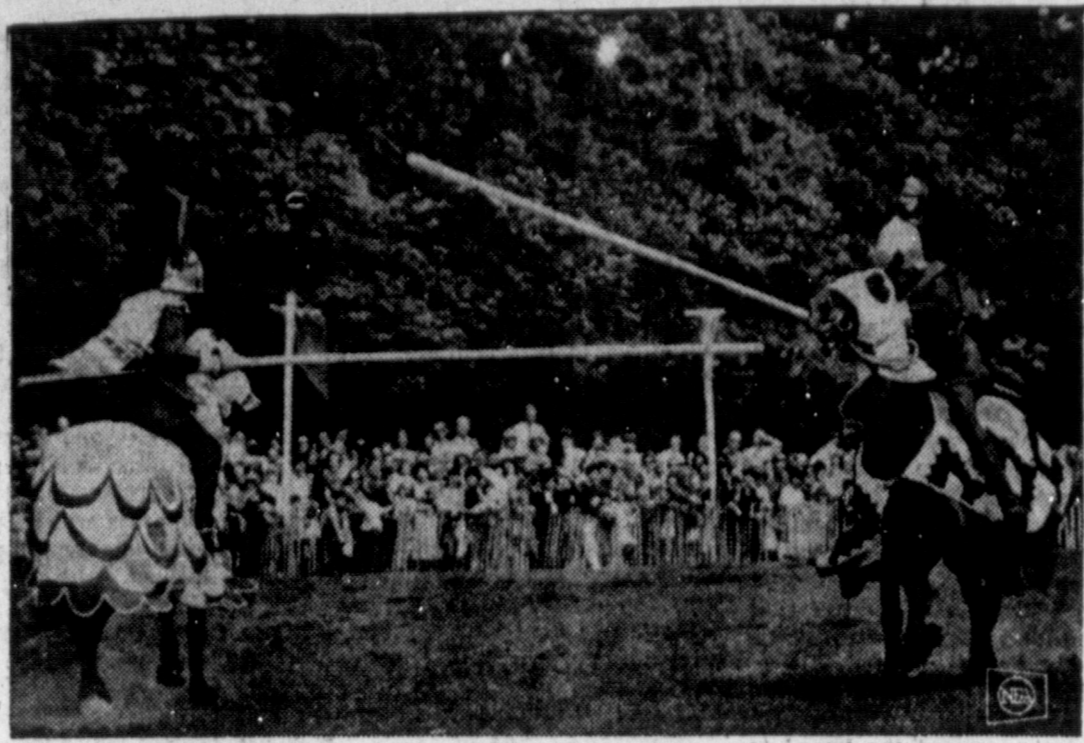

"Nobody's hung up a long one this year," he said. "Best there's been in the league is five. You can't build up any momentum, and every time you get something going, somebody comes up and knocks you back."

"If we could get 19 out of 20 now, we'd sure be in it, but nobody's been able to get much going."

Whitworth Defender

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Kathy Whitworth, Jal, N.M., began defense of her title in the $12,500 Milwaukee Jaycee women's golf field of 37, including some of the top money winners in the Ladies Professional Golf Association.

A first place prize of $2,000 will be awarded Sunday after the 72-hole showdown on the par 72 North Shore Country Club course, 6,508 yards long.

The top five money winners on the women's tour this year are entered in addition to Miss Whitworth, who is in fourth place.

The field includes top money winner Mickey Wright, San Diego, Calif.; Ruth Jessen, Seattle; Betsy Rawls, Spartanburg, S.C.; and Clifford Ann Creed, Alexandria, La.

Miss Wright has won $16,912 in winning seven of the 16 tournaments she has played on the current tour. Miss Jessen, the second leading money winner, has won $10,552.

Miss Rawls is near the $10,000 bracket and Miss Whitworth is just into the $9,000 class. Miss Creed is over the $8,800 mark after winning her second victory of the year last weekend at Rockton, Ill.

Marichal Keeps Giants in Fight

By United Press International
The San Francisco Giants would be the last team in baseball to question Sandy Koufax' greatness, but you can't blame 'em for being the first team to sing the praises of Juan Marichal.

Because the simple truth is that the 26-year-old righthander from the Dominican Republic is keeping the Giants in the National League race virtually single-handedly. And, in the bargain, he's matched the great Koufax victory for victory over the last two seasons.

Marichal, who equalled Koufax' 1963 total of 25 wins, drew even with Sandy's 1964 total of 15 triumphs Wednesday night when he pitched a 10-inning, 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and moved the Giants back to within a half-game of the beaten NL leaders.

Offers Fine Statistics
Statistics can lie but not the kind Marichal offers. His Wednesday night victory (1) made him the second pitcher in the league to beat every rival at least once (Larry Jackson is the other pitcher). (2) gave him five of the 12 wins the Giants have scored since June 30 and (3) gave him seven of the 21-night-game wins San Francisco has achieved.

Marichal struck out nine and walked only one but needed the late-inning slugging of Willie McCovey to win. McCovey, a mid-game replacement for Orlando Cepeda, doubled home the tying run in the eighth inning and singled in the winning run in the 10th. Relief ace Jack Baldschun suffered his fifth loss against four wins for the Phillies.

Elsewhere in the NL, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds 6-2, the St. Louis Cardinals routed the Chicago Cubs 9-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Houston Astros 5-2, and Los Angeles and New York were rained out.

Strikes Out 11

had four straight hits for the Braves, who tagged Joe Nuxhall with his sixth setback against eight wins. Pete Rose and Chico Ruiz had two hits each for the Reds.

The Cardinals equalled the NL's longest winning streak of the season with their fifth straight win behind the six-hit pitching of Curt Simmons, who scored his 11th victory. The Cardinals won the game with a seven-run seventh inning rally during which 12 men went to the plate and Ken Boyer and Bill White had two hits each.

Bob Friend pitched an eight-hitter and struck out five to win his ninth game for the Pirates, whose big blows were a homer by Jim Pagliaroni and a triple by Willie Stargell. Roberto Clemente, Bob Bailey and Dick Schofield had two hits each for the Pirates while Eddie Kasko had three for the Colts.

Championships Draw Net Stars

NEW YORK (UPI)—Upwards of 300 players representing 33 countries will compete in the national tennis championships at the West Side Tennis Club, Sept. 2-13.

Wimbledon champions Roy Emerson of Australia and Maria Bueno of Brazil will lead the foreign delegation. They will be joined by Rafael Osuna of Mexico, the defending men's singles champion.

Heading the United States entries are former Wimbledon champ Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., the No. 1 ranked U.S. player; second-ranked Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif.; Billie Jean Moffitt, top-ranked U.S. women's player, and Karen Hantze Susman.

PARKS TO TRY
CHICAGO (UPI)—Bill Parks, U.S. bronze medalist in the 1960 Olympics, will be among the yachtsmen seeking to qualify Aug. 3-7 in star boats for the 1964 Olympic games.

Colts Rip Borger In NBC Tourney

By KARL O'QUINN
Daily News Sports Editor
BORGER — Pampa's Colts, a second division team in both halves of Tri-State League play, beat loop champion Borger 10-5 last night and won a berth in the state semi-pro tournament in Lubbock next month.

Jerry Glover gave up two hits in six innings to win his fourth game of the year against two losses. He also scored three times although he did not appear at the plate officially. He walked all three times he batted.

Three Borger pitchers allowed only five hits but walked nine. There were just three errors in the game but they made all 15 runs unearned. Pampa scored eight runs in the fourth after right fielder Dick Wackerman dropped a fly which would have made the third out of the inning. Pampa's only error, by Bobby Price at first base, kept Borger alive in the sixth and Bob Meyer hit a three-run homer after three would have been out.

Pampa rests tonight while Borger and Amarillo, which hopped Stinnett 13-3 in a losers bracket game last night, play for survival tonight at 8:15. The Colts take on the winner of that game at the same time Friday night. The top two teams are eligible for the state tournament.

Glover started slow and put himself in trouble in the first inning. He walked Dick Wackerman and wild pitched him to second. A passed ball sent him to third and he stole home. Two other Braves walked in the first inning but died on the bases.

Pampa went in front in the second inning and stayed there. Glover walked and Claude Middleton attempted to sacrifice him to second. Third baseman Vernon Welch picked up Middleton's perfect bunt and threw wild to first base, allowing Glover to score and Middleton to go to third. Losing pitcher Ken Knapp's wild pitch scored Middleton.

In the fourth, Glover walked to open the inning but Middleton fled out to center field and Royce Harnsberger struck out. Harnsberger protested the called third strike and was given a stiff warning by the plate umpire when he threw his bat to the ground. Third base coach Jess Middleton protested even more strongly and was chased from the game.

After this diversion Bobby Price hit a ground rule double over the right field fence on the bounce and Glover had to stop at third. Merle Terrell lofted a short fly to right field and Glover and Price raced home as the ball bounced out of Wackerman's glove. Mike Stewart singled to score Terrell. Roy Stephens singled and Ray Dean walked to load the bases. Keith Gregory scored all three of them with a triple.

Glover, Middleton and Harnsberger were walked by Mike Hyatt, who had relieved Knapp after Stephens' single. The walk to Harnsberger forced in Stephens and a passed ball allowed Glover to score his second run of the inning.

Borger scored on another bit of strange play in the fifth. Hyatt walked and Glover worked the count to three balls, one strike on Wackerman. The umpire apparently indicated Wackerman had walked on the next pitch when in reality he called a second strike. Hyatt started to second as if forced there by a walk but Glover threw to the bag and he had to slide. In doing so he injured his leg and was replaced by pinch runner Carl Williams, who went to third on Wackerman's groundout and scored on an unassisted out at first.

Borger closed out the game's scoring in the sixth on Meyer's home run with two on.

The game was called in the sixth because of a two-hour time limit.

HE MIGHT AS WELL GET USED TO IT

Texans Favored by Two Touchdowns

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI)—Bobby Layne looks like a satisfied man today, and he has good cause. Most observers see his team of Texas high school football stars as a two touchdown favorite over a similar collection of brawny young Pennsylvanians.

The two teams clash Saturday in the annual Big 33 high school all-star game, a kind of world series of high school football.

Layne, former University of Texas and Detroit Lions star in his first coaching assignment, commented on the Texans' progress after holding a second scrimmage Wednesday.

He said he "believed the boys are catching on to the defense better." Layne has been drilling them in a man-to-man pass defense, generally used by professionals.

But he's steered clear of much contact work in an effort to avoid injuries. Already, tackle Dick McCallum of Dallas has been sidelined by an ankle injury, and isn't expected to see action Saturday.

Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton has wagered Texas Gov. John Connally a hunk of Pennsylvania coal and a lamp-carrying miner's helmet the Pennsylvanians will win. Connally staked a pair of silver spurs and a set of Texas longhorns on the Lone Star squad.

Yanks Remain Game in Front

By United Press International
Things have reached an odd pass in the American League when the symbol of the lordly New York Yankees is a bulldog.

Yet that's the way it is these days with the Yankees hanging doggedly onto first place in the face of two persistent challengers and worrying from hour to hour over the physical condition of such super stars as Whitey Ford and Mickey Mantle.

It's determination that's needed to keep Yogi Berra's ship afloat and no one in the AL epitomizes determination more than Jim Bouton.

A smallish, rugged righthander from Newark, N.J., Bouton clicked off 21 victories for the Yankees last season and so far this year has compiled an 11-8 record. He recorded win No. 11 Wednesday night when he turned in a four - hitter that gave the Yankees a 5-0 victory over the Los Angeles Angels that enabled them to retain their one - game lead over the Baltimore Orioles.

Knocks In Two
A crowd of 39,866 saw Elston Howard drive in two runs with a pair of singles and Mantle deliver a run - scoring single that helped the Yankees hand Bo Belinsky his sixth loss against nine wins. Vic Power had two of the Angels' four hits.

The Orioles remained a game behind the Yankees with a 4-3 decision over the Minnesota Twins, the Detroit Tigers shaded the Chicago White Sox 3-2, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics 3-2 and the Washington Senators scored a 4-1 12 - inning win over the Cleveland Indians.

The Orioles dealt the Twins their 15th loss in 18 games behind a 10 - hit attack that featured homers by Sam Bowens and Norm Siebern. Milt Pappas went five innings before retiring with an old knee injury to win his ninth game despite Harmon Killebrew's 35th homer of the year. Harvey Haddix and Stu Miller finished up for the Orioles.

Hits Decisive Blow

Gates Brown's two - run eighth - inning homer was the decisive blow for the Tigers, who were shut out by Chicago's Ray Herbert until Norm Cash hit his 15th homer of the season in the seventh. Fred Gladding, who shut out the White Sox for the last two in-

Humble Champ, Tops Panhandle

Weathered Humble averaged two regular season games last night with a 13-3 playoff victory over Panhandle packing and in doing so won the industrial softball League championship.

Both teams now await the opening of the Top O' Texas Tournament, which opens in Optimist Park Monday.

Humble pitcher DuBert Daniels put himself in the lead with a home run in the second inning. Jerry Wright hit a four-run homer with two on in the third and Humble led the game with six runs in the 8th.

Raymond McKinney took a loss for the Packers as he struck out seven but gave up 12 hits.

nings, raised his record to 3-1 while Frank Baumann suffered his third setback without a victory.

Bill Norris was the winning pitcher. Butch Rodriguez was the loser.

Luther Sober and Don Fox hit home runs for the City Slickers and Johnny Williams tripled.

Chico Ramirez and Alonso Gomez tripled for the Bandits and Butch Rodriguez had two doubles and two singles in four times at bat.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Dixie beat Cabot 8-2, Windsor surprised Etal 5-1, Hi - Land Pharmacy edged Ruff 12-11 and Your Laundry beat McCathern 6-1 in games this week.

Vernon Johnston struck out nine and gave up five hits to beat Cabot for Dixie last night. Billy Cowles was the loser. He was relieved by Carter in the fourth inning.

Windsor pulled the upset of the year Tuesday night by beating Etal 5-1 to spoil Etal's perfect record. Clifford Gage struck out 11 and walked just one but was tagged for seven hits and the loss.

Windsor's Larry Kotara struck out nine and walked two to best Gage with a five-hitter.

Billy Blaylock of Windsor and Gage and Larry Yearwood of Etal each had two hits in three at bats.

The game ended a series of frustration for Windsor. Etal had beaten Windsor 1-0 and 6-5 in extra innings in previous games.

Hi-Land won a see-saw battle from Ruff by outscoring its opponents 3-2 in the last inning. Hi-Land led four times in the game but had to choke off a late rally to preserve the win.

Hickey was the winning pitcher. Brantley the losing.

Ross Holman had the only home run of the game.

Your Laundry took a one-run lead in the first inning against McCathern and four runs in the third iced the game.

Winning pitcher Ricky Harris walked in McCathern's only run in the bottom of the sixth but gave up only three hits and struck out 11. Rod Porter was the loser.

Hoover tallied six runs in the second inning and coasted in for a victory over One Bull.

Ammons won a four - hitter. Wilbon struck out 10 batters and allowed six hits, but wildness beat him.

Junior College Plans—V

Changes Bring New Needs in Education

To say that "times are changing" in America today has become an understatement.

Education is changing just like everything else. Graduation from two years of college may soon take the place of high school graduation as the highest rung on the education ladder available to most Americans. This will come about through the growing importance of the two-year institution called the community or junior college.

The emergence of the junior college may be the most important development in American education of the last quarter century, just as the junior high school grew in importance. If the expected goal of education for every American changes to include two years of college, we can expect an acceleration of technically trained persons to meet the needs of industry and a higher standard of living for Americans as a whole.

Reports from industry show that most of the national defense contracts, those calling for long-range research and technological study, have gone to New York, California and Florida. These states have the best educational systems, and these three states include top-grade junior college programs in their state school system.

There will be no room for mediocrity in the educational system of tomorrow. We need to provide the best for our graduating high school seniors today. We cannot allow the natural resources of these young people to be wasted without college training, either for a profession or technical education for a job. A junior college could be the facility of a community nursing training program — a service needed by the community. Texas needs more junior colleges, and one should be in Gray County.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson sent to the Senate Wednesday his nomination of James L. Greenfield as assistant secretary of state for public affairs to succeed the retiring Robert J. Manning.

Greenfield, a 40-year-old native of Cleveland, was chief diplomatic correspondent for Time magazine before being named a special assistant to the secretary of defense in 1962. He moved over to the State Department shortly thereafter.

Our opportunity to "speak up" and get this junior college for Gray County comes at 10 a. m. Monday, Aug. 3 in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn. I plan to be there and I sincerely hope you will be there, too.

Body Recovered At Buffalo Lake

CANYON, Tex. (UPI)—Five boatloads of rescue workers dragged Buffalo Lake for nearly four hours Wednesday night before locating the body of Amarillo fisherman Jimmy C. Richardson, about 38.

Clair Engle of California Dies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Clair Engle, D-Calif., 52, died today after a 11-month battle against the effects of a brain tumor. Death came at his Washington home shortly after 3 a. m. EDT.

Engle reluctantly decided last spring not to seek re-election to the Senate seat he had held since 1958 because of his slow recovery from brain surgery. He was partially paralyzed and his speech was greatly limited.

The veteran senator, a member of Congress for 21 years and of the Senate for 16 years, had failed to respond fully to at least two operations although he was able to make a few rare appearances in the Senate for important votes—such as on the civil rights bill. He was brought to the Senate in an ambulance to vote for a move to cut off a southern filibuster against the bill. His presence made it one of the few times that all 100 senators were present.

Withdrew From Primary

The California Democrat had intended to seek re-election in spite of his illness, but ultimately decided to bow out of the Democratic primary. Former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger won a close race with California state Controller Alan Cranston for nomination to Engle's seat in the primary last month. Engle had served in the Senate since 1958. Prior to that he served 15 years in the House where he was chairman of the Interior Committee just before his election to the Senate. He was recognized as a leading spokesman for the West in the conservation and development of water and other natural resources.

In the Senate he served on the Commerce and Armed Services committees.

As a licensed private pilot and colonel in the Air Force Reserve, he took a great interest in matters dealing with aviation. In recent years, he also took particular interest in efforts to expand trade with the Pacific rim countries.

Known For Energy

With Engle's death, congress lost one of its most colorful figures. Known for his boundless energy and razor sharp tongue during his fire-eating days in the House, the one-time cowboy had mellowed only slightly since being elected to the more august Senate.

In the House he sometimes was called "Congressman Fireball" by colleagues who marveled at his energy. A Western colleague once likened him to a mountain quail—"when he lights, he starts running." Engle took to flying back in the days when he had to campaign throughout the length and breadth of the Third Congressional District of California, stretching 600 miles south from the Oregon border along the Nevada state line.

In 1942, he was elected to the California state Senate, but ran successfully for the U.S. House of Representatives, the following year after the death of Rep. Harry Englebright, a Republican. Starting in 1946, he consistently won both the Democratic and Republican nominations under California's unique cross-filing system in use at that time.

He is survived by his wife, Lucretia Caldwell Engle; a daughter by a previous marriage, Yvonne Engle Childs; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Engle Sr., Red Bluff, Calif.; and two brothers, Fred J. Engle Jr., and Robert E. Engle, both of California.
