Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
 UPI Foreign News Analyst

Perhaps the greatest reason for Gen. Charles de Gaulle's ability to antagonize friend and foe alike is his bland assumption that only he can determine right from wrong, the correct course from the incorrect one.

He arrives at these conclusions through various steps in logic, in which, if the first step is accepted, then the second step must be also, etc.

In his July 23 news conference, the general demonstrated his capacity.

A contrast between a new conference conducted by De Gaulle and one, say by President Johnson, lies in the fact that in a De Gaulle news conference, the general asks himself the question and then supplies the answer.

The general asked himself about the present state of French policy on atomic policy. He related that "a man and a people can die only once."

Size Not Material

Having accepted this as a base, the general then proceeds to the argument that beyond a certain point the size of the arsenal is of less importance than a nation's known determination to use it against a potential aggressor.

The general also asked himself about European unity. He conceded that it might be possible one day that the continent of Europe would become one people, but his logic asserted that it was "ridiculous" to believe that such a day had come.

With this point established, De Gaulle declared that "France is pursuing by her own means that which a European and independent policy should be."

"People everywhere are pleased with it," he said, proving what logic can do.

The field of logic also extended to Southeast Asia.

Here it assumed that "locally (in South Viet Nam) a military solution cannot be expected" and that the United States would not take the risk of a generalized conflict.

BANK LISTING
 WASHINGTON — Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon is feuding with the New York Stock Exchange over proposals to list the shares of large banks. Saxon said he would discourage banks from listing their shares on the big board unless the exchange made some changes in the activities of stock specialists on its floor.

LUAU PAKE'

Luau is the Hawaii word for Ceremonial Feast. The Chinese, or Pake', took to this delightful custom from their earliest arrival in the Islands during the nineteenth century. Those who left Hawaii and headed for other parts took the spirit of the Luau with them. As they settled in other cities, the dishes served at the Luau took on a local flavor. We offer some of the more famous of these feasts from city or country of their origin.

Exotic foods prepared as if in the islands themselves.

Youth-Led Revival Scheduled in Lefors

LEFORS (SpI) — Lefors' first youth-led revival in years will be conducted at First Baptist Church beginning tonight.

The revival which features young people, will continue through Sunday.

Fellowships, held each of the evening services, will be a main feature of the week, according to church spokesmen. An all-church fellowship on Wednesday evening will begin these activities.

Seminar discussions will be conducted for both young people and intermediates. Fellowships also will be held for these groups.

Norman Ferguson of Tyler Junior College is the revival preacher. Ferguson, 31, is a Baptist student union director and professor of Bible at the college. He is an amateur magician, and begins each evening sermon with a magic trick.

Ferguson is a graduate of Weatherford High School, Bob Jones University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is married and is the father of a 3-year-old daughter.

Bob Wagstaff, 21, a senior at Sam Houston State College, will direct the music for the revival.

A youth choir, composed of Lefors youths, will be featured each night. The services begin each evening at 7:30.

"While the Baptist youth are planning the meeting, it is certainly for every person, in Lefors," Pastor Ed Spivey said.

"We hope to have such outstanding response to this type of meeting that we will be able to repeat it more often in future years."

New Astronauts May Get Outside Of Space Craft

HOUSTON (UPI) — Two astronauts scheduled to make America's longest voyage in orbit around earth next year may become the first to get outside their fast-moving capsule in space, officials disclosed today.

The ambitious experiment is one of 10 or 11 that spacemen James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II will conduct on their four-day journey next spring.

At a press conference today, Kenneth Kleinbeck of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that, at one point during the voyage, the astronauts may depressurize their two-seater Gemini space capsule, open its hatch doors and stand up to take a first-hand look at what is outside.

On the previous 12 American and Russian manned space flights, the hatches remained closed at all times. However, such "extra-vehicular activity" is important to future space projects which will involve linking up two or more objects to build stations in orbit.

Thefts of Cars Plague Police

Another rash of stolen cars confronted Pampa police today as three separate incidents were reported yesterday.

Crawford Atkinson told police someone drove off a 1957 model Chevrolet from the Motor Inn parking lot, 416 W. Foster.

G. W. Phillips, who gave his address as the Murphy Hotel, reported that someone drove off his 1961 model Chevrolet last night from the hotel parking lot. Patrolman A. J. Dickens located the car at 10 p.m. parked at the Garden Lanes Bowling Alley.

Mrs. Connie Williams, 1208 Garland, reported that her car was stolen from the Garden Lanes about 9:45 p.m. However, while enroute to her home to obtain the correct license number, Dickens located the car in the parking lot of Highland General Hospital.

The keys were left in the autos owned by Atkinson and Phillips.

Police Chief Jim Conner cautioned motorists to remove keys and lock their cars when leaving them unattended.

Obituaries

WWI Songwriter Dies at Age 71

CORRY, Pa. (UPI) — Alfred Montin, composer of the World War I doughboy song "Maidemoiselle from Armentiers," is being treated for cancer at Corry Memorial Hospital, it was announced today.

Montin, 71, who also wrote the music for the field artillery song "The Caissons Go Rolling Along," was reported in fair condition.

A native of Nice, France, Montin emigrated to the United States as a young man and toured the country as a baritone soloist with the John Philip Sousa band.

He served in the U.S. Army as a bandmaster and in later years held a similar position at the University of Oklahoma. He and his wife, a native of Barnes, Pa., moved here two years ago.

Jackie Not Sure About Attending Democrat Parley

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the President, is debating whether to attend the Democratic National Convention, a source close to the Kennedy family said Wednesday.

The source said that Mrs. Kennedy is "highly interested" in the possible candidacy of her brother-in-law, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, for the vice presidential nomination.

Mrs. Kennedy flies to New York today, her 35th birthday, to attend a meeting of the trustees of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

Then she planned to go to Newport, R.I., to join her children, before a flight to Greece Aug. 5. She will cruise the Greek islands aboard a yacht chartered by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wrightsman of Palm Beach, Fla., longtime friends of the late President and his widow.

She also planned a brief stop in Italy en route home, at the villa rented by her sister north of Rome. Her return to the United States would be before the end of the Democratic convention.

Junior College Plans—IV

Education Benefits Outlined by Resident

I believe that most of us are firmly convinced that a college education is a necessity for our young people. Just as universal a belief is the fact that a college education costs a lot of money. Another well-known fact is that our colleges are full to overflowing.

When I think about the college situation and how it would affect a junior college in Gray County, I like to think of the following advantages:

1. Some young people would get, at least, two years of college that might not have a chance otherwise.
2. More young people would complete high school if they knew they could get some college training.
3. Many families would welcome the chance to save $500 to $1,000 a year now spent at a college away from home.
4. Some would welcome the chance to get additional college credits during summer school and night classes.
5. Businesses and industries in our community would have a local supply of better educated and trained personnel to draw on for temporary and full-time employees.
6. What better industry could we promote for our area? A student body of 40 students would be a potent spending force in our community.
7. Many companies would like to use a local school for their training programs. Constantly changing business and technical equipment demands constant training.
8. Vocational courses could be offered for many who are not otherwise interested in a college. Accounting, business machines, welding, auto mechanics, electrical work - these are just a few of the possibilities.
9. A junior college would be a major attraction for new industry. Many companies locate near a supply of personnel and continually use the training facilities of a college.
10. A junior college would change the whole spirit of our community. Young people would stay in our community and become vital forces in all our activities.

There are so many good reasons for a junior college that this is only a partial list. The need, the savings and the usefulness all make a junior college worthwhile for us.

Perryton Child Dies in Blaze

PERRYTON, Tex. (UPI)—Mrs. David McKinney rushed into the burning bathroom of her home Monday night and pulled out her two sons, Randy, 2, and Kenneth, eight months. But it was too late. Randy died with burns over 80 percent of his body.

Kenneth was in critical condition. Mrs. McKinney was in good condition.

Authorities said a can of gasoline was ignited by the pilot flame in a hot water heater while the two boys were bathing.

State Sovereignty Further Diminished

We say it so often — "United States" — that some citizens tend to overlook the true meaning. The United States consists of just that — united states — separate political entities joined together in common purpose, forming one nation in a complex "federal" relationship ordained by the Constitution. Our system is one of dual sovereignty. Our people stand in a twofold relationship to sovereign authority, as citizens of the national government and as citizens of their particular states. We are all familiar with the indisputable fact that the sovereign authority of the national government has become increasingly more powerful while that of the states has diminished. It is a trend many of us are doing our best to reverse.

A near-mortal blow to this system was struck one month ago by the United States Supreme Court. On June 15, the court held that legislatures of six states are apportioned in ways that violate the federal constitution, specifically the so-called "Equal Protection Clause" of the Fourteenth Amendment.

The effect of the court decision is this: States must structure their legislatures so that all the members of each house represent substantially the same number of people. While cases involving only six states were before the court, the decision undoubtedly means that legislatures in all but a few of the other 44 States are apportioned in ways contrary to the court's interpretation of the Constitution.

The June 15 decision has touched off a furor in Congress, which went back into session this week after a two-week recess. More than 80 proposals have been introduced in the House of Representatives in an effort to overturn the effect of the court decision.

Most of the proposals call for an amendment to the Constitution to permit States to apportion at least one house of their bicameral (two house) legislatures on a basis other than population. Typical of these proposals is that introduced by Honorable Wright Patman of Texas, the dean of the Texas delegation in the House, whose resolution is supported by the Texas members, including me. The wording of Congressman Patman's proposed amendment is simple and to the point: "Nothing in the Constitution of the United States shall prohibit a State, having a bicameral legislature, from apportioning the membership of one house of its legislatures on factors other than population." It is my hope that Congress will not adjourn until an amendment to the Constitution identical or similar to that advanced by Congressman Patman is adopted by the House and Senate and sent to the states for ratification.

The Supreme Court decision on State legislative apportionment denies to the states the employment of a principle of apportionment which is incorporated in the United States Constitution. The "Great Compromise" of 1787 settled a question that had threatened to block approval by the delegates of any compact establishing a national government. The "Great Compromise" satisfied the argument of the small states that a proportional system in both houses of Congress would fail to provide proper representation of their interests. Therefore, it was determined that the House should be apportioned by equal representation or population. The U.S. Senate was to have two members from each state, regardless of the size of its population or extent of its territory.

Justice Harlan, issuing a strong dissent from the majority opinion of the court, said these decisions "have the effect of placing basic aspects of state political systems under the pervasive overlordship of the federal judiciary." Why? Because if the state legislatures refuse to correct apportionment, the Federal courts themselves will set out to set legislative district boundaries. This is totally unconscionable with Federal-State relationships as determined by the Constitution, law, and custom.

Singly, one by one, the Supreme Court settles the questions of constitutionality. Thomas Jefferson advocated that the court be stripped of the right to determine constitutionality of acts of Congress or state legislatures. Until the people of this nation demand that the Constitution be amended to permit Congress to override decisions of the Court declaring statutes unconstitutional, the problem typified in the legislative apportionment cases will be repeated time and time again. I am continuing to press for the adoption of a constitutional amendment I have introduced to give Congress the power "by statute passed by two-thirds of each house of Congress" to overturn federal court decisions invalidating acts of Congress or state legislatures.

Negro Officers Appointed for Posts in Harlem

NEW YORK (UPI) — In a move to improve the racial balance of police in Harlem, five Negro sergeants this week replaced five white officers who had been stationed in the Negro neighborhood.

The order went out from Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy after four days of relative calm in Harlem. Negro civil rights leaders have urged that more Negro police be assigned to the area, torn early last week by racial violence.

Teamsters Union Local 816 Monday ordered its drivers to refuse to bring whisky into Harlem and the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, where widespread looting and battles with police took place last week.

Until it's "Safe" Lester Connell, secretary-treasurer of the local, said the embargo would remain in effect until the union "can feel certain that their members can go in and out of Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant without any fear of being injured."

The lull in the city's racial troubles was shattered briefly late Sunday night when three Molotov cocktails were exploded in Bedford-Stuyvesant. A white man, James Collins, 39, a patron in the Dol Ray Bar, sustained burns of the neck and arm in one of the attacks.

Owned By Whites The homemade bombs went off near the front windows of the bar and two other business places. All three establishments are owned by white persons in the predominantly Negro section.

Police patrols in both Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant, whose combined Negro populations total almost 800,000 were cut sharply during the weekend. A Police Department spokesman said riot-trained officers were ready to resume emergency working hours if violence should erupt again.

Bus Trip Set on Mexico Highway

SALTILLO, Mexico (UPI) — A recently opened highway that cuts 70 miles off the trip from Laredo, Tex., to Guadalajara, Mexico, will be travelled by three busloads of civic leaders from Laredo and her Mexican twin sister, Nuevo Laredo.

The caravan will leave from Saltillo Friday. The trip is being sponsored by the Saltillo Chamber of Commerce, the Coahuila state tourist department, and the Coahuila Hotel and Motel Association.

The highway cuts the distance from Laredo to Guadalajara from 706 to 636 miles.

Jackie Not Sure About Attending Democrat Parley

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy, widow of the President, is debating whether to attend the Democratic National Convention, a source close to the Kennedy family said Wednesday.

The source said that Mrs. Kennedy is "highly interested" in the possible candidacy of her brother-in-law, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, for the vice presidential nomination.

Mrs. Kennedy flies to New York today, her 35th birthday, to attend a meeting of the trustees of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

Then she planned to go to Newport, R.I., to join her children, before a flight to Greece Aug. 5. She will cruise the Greek islands aboard a yacht chartered by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wrightsman of Palm Beach, Fla., longtime friends of the late President and his widow.

She also planned a brief stop in Italy en route home, at the villa rented by her sister north of Rome. Her return to the United States would be before the end of the Democratic convention.

Average annual snowfall in Squaw Valley is 40 feet.

Junior College Plans—IV

Education Benefits Outlined by Resident

I believe that most of us are firmly convinced that a college education is a necessity for our young people. Just as universal a belief is the fact that a college education costs a lot of money. Another well-known fact is that our colleges are full to overflowing.

When I think about the college situation and how it would affect a junior college in Gray County, I like to think of the following advantages:

1. Some young people would get, at least, two years of college that might not have a chance otherwise.
2. More young people would complete high school if they knew they could get some college training.
3. Many families would welcome the chance to save $500 to $1,000 a year now spent at a college away from home.
4. Some would welcome the chance to get additional college credits during summer school and night classes.
5. Businesses and industries in our community would have a local supply of better educated and trained personnel to draw on for temporary and full-time employees.
6. What better industry could we promote for our area? A student body of 40 students would be a potent spending force in our community.
7. Many companies would like to use a local school for their training programs. Constantly changing business and technical equipment demands constant training.
8. Vocational courses could be offered for many who are not otherwise interested in a college. Accounting, business machines, welding, auto mechanics, electrical work—these are just a few of the possibilities.
9. A junior college would be a major attraction for new industry. Many companies locate near a supply of personnel and continually use the training facilities of a college.
10. A junior college would change the whole spirit of our community. Young people would stay in our community and become vital forces in all our activities.

There are so many good reasons for a junior college that this is only a partial list. The need, the savings and the usefulness all make a junior college worthwhile for us.

Perryton Child Dies in Blaze

PERRYTON, Tex. (UPI)—Mrs. David McKinney rushed into the burning bathroom of her home Monday night and pulled out her two sons, Randy, 2, and Kenneth, eight months. But it was too late. Randy died with burns over 80 per cent of his body.

Kenneth was in critical condition. Mrs. McKinney was in good condition.

Authorities said a can of gasoline was ignited by the pilot flame in a hot water heater while the two boys were bathing.

Esposa Joven Club Meets at Groom

GROOM (Spl) — Mrs. Ray Britten and Mrs. Curtis Whaley were hostesses to the Esposa Joven Club recently at the Groom Community club house. Those attending were Meses. W. H. Ollinger, Johnny Lee, Billy Jones, Donald Ritter, Clifford Fraser, John Quirk, Kenneth Hunt, and one guest, Mrs. Billy McKee.

Games of pitch were played with Mrs. Clifford Fraser winning high score and Mrs. Donald Ritter consolation prize.

Protect books from mildew in damp climates. Keep a small electric light burning continuously in the bookcase.

Bridge Party for Mrs. Paul Fields

GROOM (Spl) — Mrs. T. G. Fields, assisted by Mrs. Charles Harvey of Amarillo, honored Mrs. Paul Fields with a bridge party recently.

High score prize was won by Mrs. Bobby Wood and Miss Elizabeth Fields won the consolation prize.

Those attending were Miss Elizabeth Fields of Amarillo and Mrs. Wayne Stroope of White Deer; Meses. Ted Major, Donald Clark, C. J. Roberts, Max Ray Faulkner, Dan Witt, Bill Bohr, Bobby Wood, Max Summers, Billy Fields, T. G. Fields, Charles Harvey and the honoree, Mrs. Paul Fields.

Fashion Writers Fascinated With 'Pinhead Look'

PARIS (UPI) — Some of the audience called it a downright "pinhead look." But at any rate hair was out and small covered-up heads were in at the collection of Pierre Balmain today.

Fashion writers were fascinated by the new look of the mannequins above the neck because below was the same, beautiful Balmain collection with no fashion news. Balmain designs probably the most elegant, timeless clothes in Paris for royalty, socialists and the rich of the world. His style varies little.

For his fall-winter collection his new touch was covering the hair of the models, with daytime suits and coats they often wore matching jersey helmets, crossed in back and fastening under the chin. Sometimes jersey, fur or leather cloches completely hid the hair, showing only the usual Balmain large pearl button earrings.

For cocktails the "cover up" hats became wilder, with ostrich feathers or net, but still gave a small head look.

Only with evening gowns did the models reveal their boyish short and straight haircuts. For a dressier look they added false hairpieces like folds of hair to the top of the head.

Otherwise the variations in Balmain clothes were fewer collars on coats, suits and dresses; bulky tweed coats and lots of deep ruby red, particularly for evening.

Dear Abby....

Time Twelve-Year-Old Learned Important Lesson
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is planning her wedding. She has asked her 12-year-old cousin to be a bridesmaid. The problem is that this cousin has a 12-year-old sister who thinks she should be a bridesmaid, or have some special part in the wedding, so she can be in the wedding party, too. She has even begged to be a flower girl (she is five feet seven!) but my daughter doesn't want her. We aren't having any junior bridesmaids, so that's out. This little snip has always been jealous of her older sister and is extremely hard to handle. Her mother (my sister) has me on the telephone twenty times a day telling me that we MUST fit this child into the wedding party as she is becoming unmanageable. What do you suggest?

BRIDE'S MOTHER: DEAR MOTHER: I suggest that you tell your sister that in the wedding party. The 12-year-old girl needs to learn a very important lesson in life. "We can't always have what we want." Now would be as good a time as any to teach her.

DEAR ABBY: Here's a bit of information which doesn't amount to a "damn," but perhaps you can use it. Your correspondent who claimed that the expression, "Don't give a damn" was not improper because a "dam" was a small Indian coin, may have been right. But the origin of the "dam" used in that sense came from the old-time traveling "tinker," or fixit man. When mending pots and pans, he used a small ridge of clay around the edge of the hole of the vessel to prevent the solder from running off the area for which it was intended. The little clay ridge was called a "tinker's dam." After the hole had been mended it had no further use. Hence the phrase. Best regards.

J. F. WEADOCK

DEAR ABBY: I had company last Sunday. Mrs. A. stopped by with her four-year-old son. A few minutes later Mrs. B. came with her six-year-old daughter. The children played together while we ladies talked. Mrs. A. casually said, "I hope Jackie isn't coming down with measles. He was exposed to them in our neighborhood and he does look rather feverish." Mrs. B. shot out of her chair like an electric current went through it, and then she shouted angrily at Mrs. A. "A fine time to tell me! Janie just got over an ear infection and if she catches measles it could settle in her ear!" Then she grabbed her daughter by the arm and flew out the door. Mrs. A., and her little boy, left shortly afterwards with tears in her eyes. That evening Mrs. A.'s husband called and said I should ask Mrs. B. to phone his wife and apologize for hurting her feelings. Well, I called Mrs. B. and gave her the message, and she said Mrs. A. owed HER an apology for exposing her child to measles. Who do you think owes whom an apology?

IN THE MIDDLE: DEAR IN: Both edgy mothers should apologize to each other for behaving even more childishly than their children.

CONFIDENTIAL TO YOUNG AND IN TROUBLE: I cannot help you unless you tell me where to send the information. PLEASE confide in your parents at once. I promise you they will understand and help you in spite of what you have done.

Problems? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How To Write Letters For All Occasions."

An ideal sandwich: Peanut butter mixed with honey and raisins.

A washable mattress pad protects the mattress.

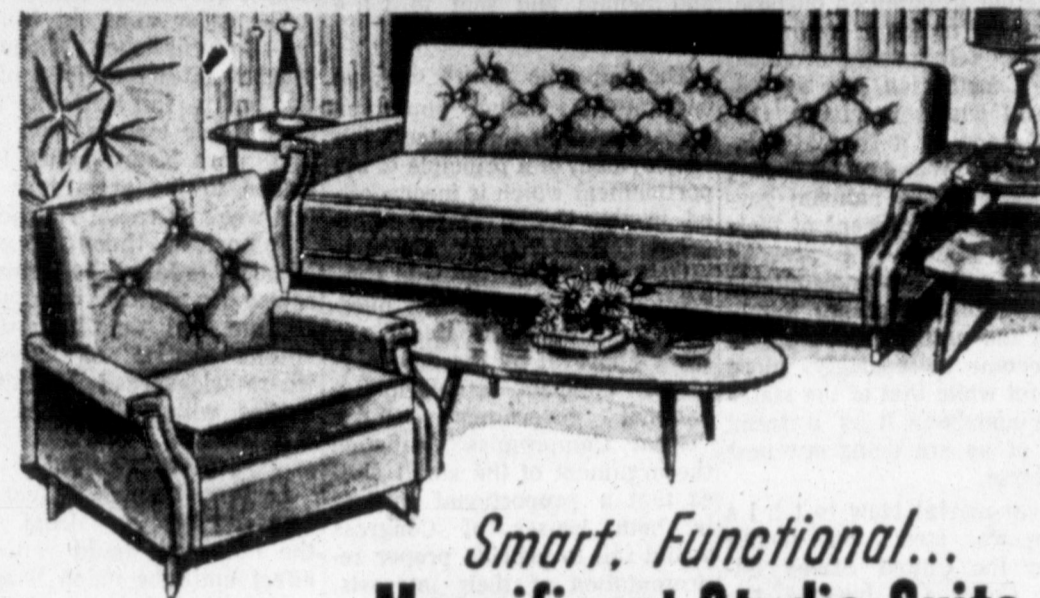

Use a vacuum cleaner to remove dirt and dust from edges of aluminum window screens.

Ink spills on wood furniture should be blotted immediately to prevent permanent marking.

The self-adhesive lashes, says the maker, can be worn three to five times before the adhesive needs renewing.

So You Really Want To Be A Companion?

One way to keep a marriage from becoming humdrum is for the couple to put to stimulating use the leisure time they share. The wife who stays at home shares little in her husband's career. It takes him away from home all day and when he returns at night he is reluctant to talk about it, either because anything he tells will require too much explaining, or because he has had enough of business during the day and wants to escape from it. His wife's daytime existence, if she spends her full time keeping house, is much too routine to interest her husband. What she can tell him about her day that he will find interesting can be told in 10 minutes.

That means that if they are to enjoy each other's company and feel any sort of comradeship they must find it in the way they spend their leisure time together. Many couples ignore that fact and squander their free time together. One evening is just like another. They sit and read, or watch television, or they play cards or she sits upstairs and sews while he tinkers in the basement. But mostly they just sit. Is it any wonder they are bored with each other's company? Or that they have little to say to each other?

A planned use of that same leisure time would pep up many dull marriages. The leisure could be used to learn something together, or to enjoy some new kind of recreation.

A couple that is working side by side in the yard, refinishing furniture, learning a foreign language, playing golf or working on some community welfare project isn't bored.

They have a common interest to discuss and projects to share. They don't work at killing time and so their leisure hours pass companionably.

Popularity of Hootenany and Folk Music Brings Back Gospel Singing

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — The popularity of hootenany and folk music is a forerunner of another music revival — gospel singing, says a woman who calls herself a "Pied Piper of gospel music."
Bette Stalnecker, her husband Ed, and their accompanist, David Tyson, are giving New York World's Fair visitors daily tastes of this type of singing at the Protestant and Orthodox Pavilion.
They're also showing how to beat any New York housing shortage. The Memphis, Tenn., couple live on a 75-foot houseboat they brought up from Boca Raton, Fla., on the intercoastal waterway, giving free concerts from it at city piers along the way. Now the craft, dubbed "The Gospel Ship," is tied up at the Fair's Marina.

"Hootenany and folk are leading up to gospel," said Mrs. Stalnecker, who with her husband and other musicians have spent the last three years touring the country singing it. Last year, she said, they travelled 80,000 miles by plane and car to give concerts before church and civic groups and at religious and other conventions.
They're at the fair until its closing Oct. 18. And as an indication of gospel singing's growing popularity, she said they're booked in 38 states in the 1965 concert year.
"I just hope," said Mrs. Stalnecker, "that national television won't be ashamed to present religious music." The Stalneckers already are featured in a "Songs of Faith" television series sold to stations throughout the South. Their recordings of sacred music are among the top selling ones in the country.
Gospel music, Mrs. Stalnecker explained, is "music that tells of the love of God. Gospel means good news." She said that from her repertory of 365 songs sung from memory, the universal favorites are "His Eye Is on the Sparrow," "Peace in the Valley," "Roll, Jordan Roll," and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot."
Mrs. Stalnecker, a tall handsome blonde of 34 years, was born in Ripley, Tenn., some 50 miles north of Memphis and can't remember when she wasn't vocalizing.
"I used to end my prayers at night with 'and please make me a great singer,'" she said.
Mrs. Stalnecker, a contralto, averages 18 appearances a day at the pavilion, each lasting about 10 minutes. "I just come out with a mike and with David at the organ," she said, "and start singing. It doesn't take long for a crowd to gather. I call myself the Pied Piper of gospel music."

Take It From Kathy

By KATHY PETERSON
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Dear Kathy: Our gang of girls goes to ball games and parties together. My older sister says we frighten away fellows by traveling in a pack. She also says we shut out chances for dates if we continually refuse a boy because we plan to do something with our friends.
Dear J. S.: Yours is a sticky wicket. Most girls stick together so they won't sit home alone while others take part in the school whirl. But, you miss a lot of dates and new acquaintances if you cling together.
Talk it over. Perhaps you can melt some of the ice you've formed with your tight little corps by having a party. Then let nature take its course.

Former Yugoslavia Resident Speaks To VFW Auxiliary

Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 1657, met at 7:30 p.m. July 21 in VFW Hall.
Mrs. Tony Smith, president, introduced Mrs. Lia Willis who spoke on "Americanism." Mrs. Willis lived in Yugoslavia under Communist domination. Now a resident of Pampa, she escaped to America and became an American citizen. She urged those present not to take freedom for granted and to support America and the United States Constitution.
Following the program, reports were given on ill members and the death in a member's family.
Those present were Mrs. M. Jess Hatcher and May Muse, guests; and members Mrs. George Benham, Jack Boyd, Emmett Gee, Leslie Henderson, O. F. Kreimever, Lloyd Laramore, C. D. Malone, Jesse T. Rodgers, Tony Smith, Vernon Stuckey, Ben Ward, A. L. Walling, Carl M. Wright, Chester

4-H Club Studies Good Grooming

A clothing subject matter group from the Top O' Texas 4-H Club met recently at the home of Miss Judy Cox to complete unit one of their sewing project. In discussing good grooming Miss Cynthia Hogsett, junior leader, said that cleanliness and good posture were the main essentials of good grooming. The hair should be brushed daily and washed at least once a week. Miss Hogsett also discussed how to purchase and care for stockings.
Present at this meeting were Judy Cox, Mignon Nickel, Wilona Chisum, Duane Cox, Cynthia Hogsett, Mrs. Bill Cox, and Williams and Frank Yates.
Next meeting for the group will be a business meeting at 7:30 p.m. August 4 in VFW Hall.

Mrs. Derrel Hogsett, adult leader.
During a recent meeting at the home of Miss Mignon Nickel this group made cross stitch aprons. They learned to put the hem in with the cross stitch border, and how to mark a pattern onto their material. A boy's the border each girl cross stitched either an apple or a poodle.
Present for this meeting were junior leader, Cynthia Hogsett and Mignon Nickel, Judy Cox, Suzan Hunt, Cara Thomas, Nikki Hunt, Jackie Nickel, Linda Hunt, Mrs. K. L. Nickel and Mrs. Derrel Hogsett.

San Antonio Scene of State Redistricting Talks

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—San Antonio was cut in two from north to south, from west to east, and punched with a hole like a doughnut Tuesday.

All the imaginary lines severing the city were drawn by speakers at a public hearing, called to listen to suggestions on solving the state's knotty congressional redistricting problem.

Texas is under orders from a special three-judge federal court in Houston to come up with new boundaries for the districts which ration out the state's 23 seats in the U.S. House of Representatives. The court held the present districts gave too much weight to lightly populated rural areas, at the expense of more numerous voters in city districts.

State-wide Elections? It ordered the state to redraw the boundaries so each district has roughly the same number of people, or face the possibility of statewide elections for all 23 seats in 1966.

The hearing Tuesday was conducted by the Legislative Council's Committee on Redistricting, which is charged with devising a plan to present to the legislature.

Bexar County Democratic chairman John Daniels suggested splitting Bexar County—the San Antonio area—in half. He said the eastern half could be joined to Guadalupe, Wilson, Comal and Caldwell counties in one district. The western half could join with Banderas, Uvalde, Medina, Frio and Atascosa counties. He said his plan represents Democratic party thinking.

Kazen Disagrees

Disagreeing with him was State Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, a member of the committee, who read a prepared statement by Rep. Henry Gonzalez, the San Antonio Democrat who currently represents the area in Congress.

"The urban character of the 20th District should be preserved," said Gonzalez.

Kazen said each county wants to be treated as a single unit, not split. But State Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, head of the committee, said county lines would have to be ignored in many instances if districts were to be made equal in population.

'Doughnut Plan'

State Rep. Rudy Esquivel suggested the "doughnut plan." He said metropolitan San Antonio itself could be made one district. Surrounding it in a ring would be another district made up of the rest of Bexar County and the counties that touch on it.

W. F. Patton of Corpus Christi, Republican candidate for Congress from the 14th District, supported a plan that would divide Bexar county on an east-west axis, and consider economy as well as population in redistricting.

The committee held hearings earlier in Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston. When the hearings are completed, probably about Sept. 1, the group will decide on a redistricting plan to present to the legislature.

Washington Window

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

It is strike one, called, on Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the 1964 Republican nominee for president.

President Johnson fire balled the 1964 fiscal year spending-deficit figures past Goldwater so fast last week that the senator must have misread them, if he saw them at all. The senator would not have permitted the President free choice to claim a great economy victory on a record of another year of deficit spending despite collection of more than $88 billion from the citizens in taxes and other revenue.

Goldwater didn't even swing at the fiscal year figures and, bat on shoulder, took a called strike in the first inning of his presidential campaign. Neither elections nor ball games are won that way.

LBJ had every right to interpret the fiscal year end figures in his own way and to his own advantage, and that he did. LBJ found great comfort in these closely related facts:

—The 1964 fiscal year deficit had been estimated 18 months ago at $11.9 billion and in January, 1964, at $10 billion whereas it proved at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, to be only $8.3 billion. Only!

—Expenditure estimates had been for nearly $99 billion in fiscal '64. The actual figure on June 30 was only $97.7. Only!

A conservative-minded candidate for president would be expected to seize the big spending, planned deficit issue offered last week by Johnson. Much of the conservative rebellion in the Republican and Democratic parties, such as it is, must be attributed to the big government, big spending policies of the successive administrations from FDR through DDE and JFK.

Johnson has cut government spending from the heights to which the late President Kennedy projected it. But there is no promise of a balanced Johnson budget any time soon or even a beginning at a Johnson reduction of the public debt which costs more than $10 billion a year in interest.

There is a limit to the debt burden which can be sustained even by the rich-rich Americans. But the politicians seem not to be aware of that. The Roosevelts, Trumans, Kennedys and now LBJ have spent money as though it were going out of style. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower did his part during two White House terms in one year of which he rang up an eye-popping $12.4 billion deficit.

The shocking, shameful truth about the Treasury's 1964 fiscal year, is that it recorded the 28th Treasury deficit since 1930. The refusal of Americans to tax themselves for boons and benefits they demand from their federal government is matched in its foolhardy blindness only by the cowardice of politicians who refuse to lay on the taxes to pay for the boons and benefits they promise to the voters in order to be elected.

There is not merely the enormous hazard of currency inflation risked by the endless deficit financing of government costs. The dollar has lost more than half its purchasing power. There is another hazard, even more deadly than inflation. It is this: If the United States now were thrown into World War III, this great country would not be able to finance the war without building up a public debt so massive as to compel repudiation if and when the war were won.

The newspapers report unexampled prosperity in the United States. In such good times we should be able to pay cash for our government.

Fondling Charge Made by Waters

District Attorney Bill Waters has charged Henry B. Bagwell, 69, of 501 N. Starkweather, with fondling a child.

Bagwell made a voluntary statement about the incident, which allegedly occurred Saturday afternoon, according to Waters.

Bond was set at $2,500.

American Wins, To Meet Dumas

By KARL O'QUINN
Daily News Sports Editor

Pampa American League beat its fellow townsmen from the National League 8-4 last night and advanced into the Babe Ruth District Tournament finals against undefeated Dumas.

The tourney's last game will be Thursday at 8 if Dumas wins, Friday at 8 if Pampa wins and drops Dumas into the losers bracket.

The National League was hurt by errors but kept the pressure on the entire game and forced American manager Walden Haynes to abandon his plan of saving Dickie Henley to pitch against Dumas. Henley relieved Steve Williams in the fourth when the National League tied the score at 3-3.

Texans Practice Under Lone Star

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI)—The Texas and Pennsylvania high school teams who will play the Big 33 football game Saturday worked out under the Texas flag today.

The flag was planted on the front lawn of the Hershey Golf Clubhouse by a group of Texas players who first announced they would do so. The teams, composed of the best players from each state, both live there.

Jack Pierce, a Pennsylvania linebacker from East Conemaugh, said it could stay "until Saturday, and then we'll stuff it down their throats."

The Texans would say only that "Betsy Ross Klingler made the flag for us," and left its origin at that.

The Texans are expected to emphasize a passing attack, and all three Lone Star quarterbacks were hitting their receivers regularly in practice yesterday.

The Texas boys are the first coaching assignment for former University of Texas and Detroit Lion star Bobby Layne and he's working hard at it.

Williams got himself in a hole in the first inning as he walked two and hit a batter after Gary McCarrel got on first on an error, thus forcing in a run.

The American League took a slim lead in the bottom of the first with two runs. Rick Foster singled and came all the way home when the ball got through the fight fielder. Williams put himself ahead as he walked and came home on another error in right field.

McCarrel tied the score in the top of the second with a triple which drove in Larry Stephens, but American got it back in the third frame.

Poster was safe on an error and came in on Lawrence Jones' double.

National evened the game for the last time on singles by Larry Turcotte, Mike Pursley and Larry Stephens. Henley came in then and struck out McCarrel and Jim Cornutt to end the inning without further scoring.

Two errors allowed Teddy Phillips to score and send American into the lead to stay in the bottom of the fourth.

Singles by Jones and Gary Hyatt and two errors pushed in two American runs in the fifth and three straight singles scored two more in the sixth.

A double by Stephens and two errors allowed National pitcher Mike Pursley to score in the sixth but Henley retired six straight batters after that to ensure the victory. He struck out five of the six.

The National League had seven hits and seven errors. American picked up nine hits and committed five errors.

Henley turned in his second sparkling pitching performance of the tournament in relief. He came in with one out in the fourth and struck out 10 batters out of the 11 he retired. He gave up one hit and one run.

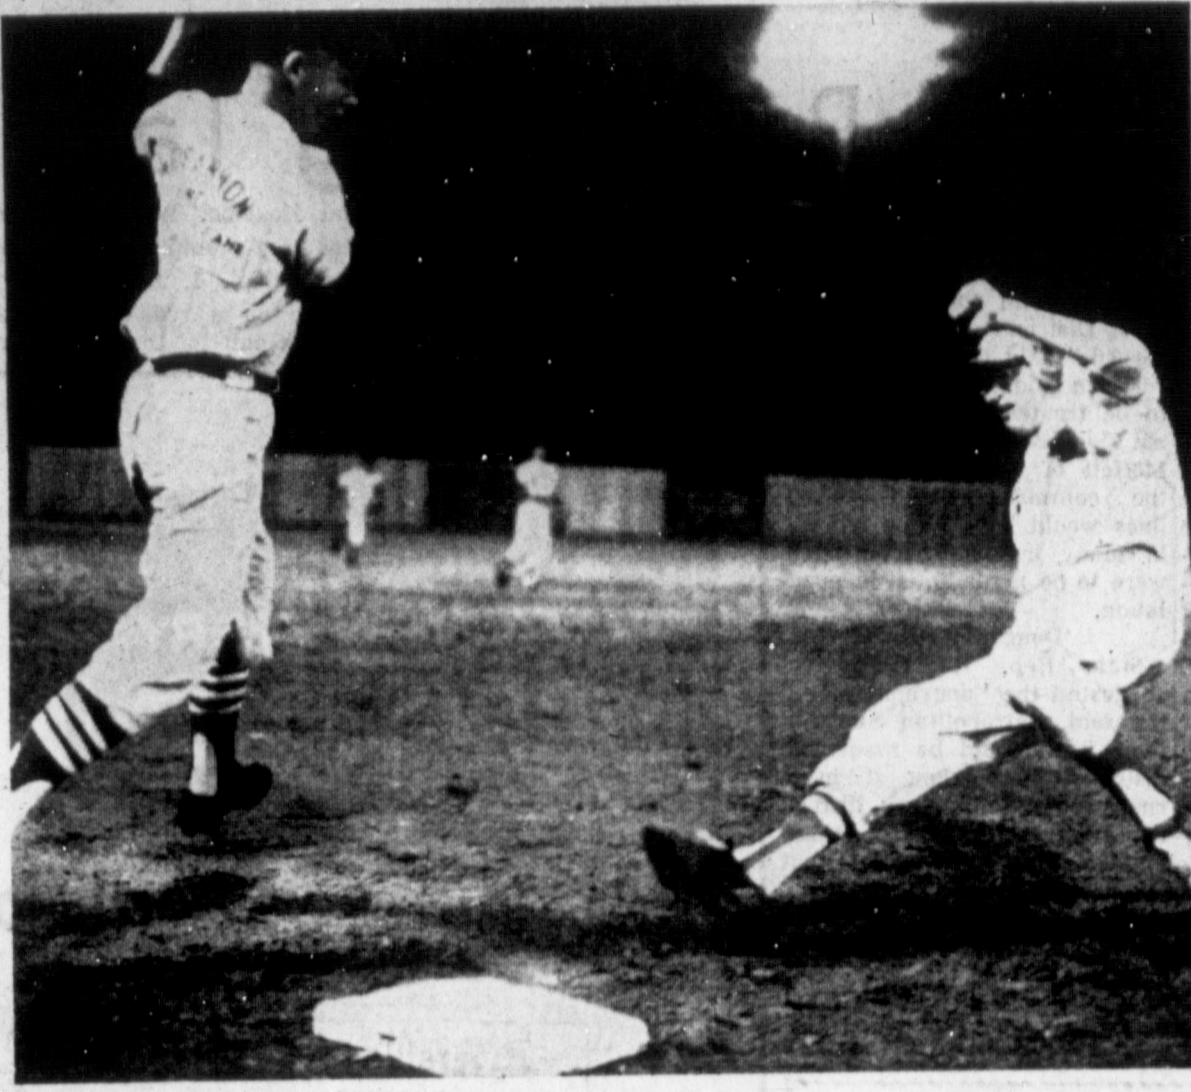

In an earlier game Henley fanned 15 Canyon National batters, still the high for the tournament.

He will not be able to pitch against Dumas Thursday because of the tournament rule which prohibits a pitcher appearing in two successive games.

Williams Surgery Hoped Success

BOSTON (UPI)—Medical authorities say they have "very good hopes for the future" of Ted Williams following successful spinal surgery on the former Boston Red Sox slugger.

"We hope he'll be able to do anything he wants in the future if all this comes out all right," Dr. Martin L. Tracey said after the operation Tuesday. Tracey is Williams' personal physician.

INTO THIRD — American League first baseman Lawrence Jones slides safely into third base in the fifth inning of last night's 8-4 victory over the National League. Larry Turcotte has the throw from left field too late.

Angels Topple Yankees, White Sox, Orioles Lose

By United Press International

There's a new breed in the American League — A breed that won't roll over and play dead for the New York Yankees.

Its members are the products of years of planning and bushels of bonus money and you couldn't find a more representative pair than Dean Chance and Jim Fregosi of the Los Angeles Angels.

They're young lions who think Yankee Stadium is a nice place to visit but they wouldn't want to see the World Series played there. They talk big and they act big, too — big enough to slap down the Yankees just when it seems the haughty champs are going to bust open the league.

Chance, 23, and Fregosi, 22, combined Tuesday night to brake a Yankee five-game winning streak with a 3-1 victory that prevented New York from gaining a full game on both the second-place Baltimore Orioles and the third-place Chicago White Sox.

Allows Two Hits
Chance, a baby-faced right-hander with a curve that crackles, allowed only two hits and struck out eight while Fregosi hit for the cycle — a homer, triple, double and single in four tries — to the delight of a crowd of 35,976 in Los Angeles.

For Chance, the victory was his 10th of the season against five losses. Until the seventh inning when Mickey Mantle hit his 20th homer of the season, he had pitched 37 consecutive scoreless innings against the Yankees, including 29 this season. The brilliant effort reduced his earned run average to a glittering 1.73 — lowest in the AL. He had gone 69 innings without yielding a homer when Mantle connected.

Fregosi hit a two-run homer in the third inning and scored after tripling in the sixth to account for all three Los Angeles runs.

Twins Beat Orioles
The Minnesota Twins whipped the Orioles 7-4, the Detroit Tigers beat the White Sox 6-3, the Washington Senators nipped the Cleveland Indians 2-1, and the Kansas City Athletics tripped the Boston Red Sox, 2-1.

ANGELS RECALL GREEN
LOS ANGELES (UPI)— Outfielder Lennie Green has been recalled by the Los Angeles Angels from their Hawaii farm team in the Pacific Coast League. Ed Kirkpatrick was sent to the same club to make room for Green.

Arnie, Nicklaus Tune Up Today

MONTREAL (UPI)— Arnie's army and Jack's pack will join forces today to watch golf's two glamor boys in a preview of what they hope to see Sunday in the final round of the $50,000 Canadian Open championship.

Masters champion Palmer and leading money winner Nicklaus were paired in a tuneup round today for the tournament starting Thursday over the 7,090-yard Pinegrove course. Neither one was scheduled to show up until today. In fact, most of the touring pros didn't show up for practice rounds Tuesday.

CLOSE RACE
NEW YORK (UPI)— Bob Barrington and Stanley Dancer are running neck and neck for the top harness racing driver crown, the Harness Racing Institute announced Tuesday.

Colts Beat Stinnett, Play Borger Tonight

BORGER — The Pampa Colts moved into the finals of the NBC District 7 Tournament winners bracket with an 11-1 victory over Stinnett last night.

The Colts play Borger tonight at 9. The winner will lay off until the losers eliminate each other.

Jim Arthur, up from the Rebels, pitched a six-hitter in winning his first semi-pro decision.

The Roadrunners scored first in the second inning, but the novelty of being in front was too much for them and Pampa took the lead in the bottom half of the frame.

Ray Dean walked to open the Pampa second inning and moved to second on an error which put Keith Gregory on first. Arthur sacrificed them along and Merle Terrell singled to put the Colts in the lead.

Pampa added two more runs in the next inning on Roy Stephens' double, a sacrifice, walks to Dean and Arthur, and Claude Middleton's single.

Terrell and Jerry Glover doubled in the fourth to bring in another run and the Colts closed out the night's scoring with six tallies in the fifth.

Keith Gregory, another player added to the roster for the tournament, opened the inning with a home run over the left field fence. Middleton walked and Royce Harnsberger and Terrell singled. Mike Stewart walked and Stephens singled to drive in the fourth score of the inning. Glover went to third on an error by the right fielder but Stewart was thrown out. A fielder's choice brought in Glover with the last run.

Glover will be the pitching choice against the Braves tonight against an unnamed Borger hurler.

Bricka Upset Victim In Eastern Tourney

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (UPI) — The Eastern grass court tennis championships moved into the third round today with all the seeded men and women still in the running but with upset victim Justina Bricka missing.

Miss Bricka, ranked 13th nationally from St. Louis, Mo., lost to Kathy Harter, a cute 17-year-old blond, 7-5, 5-7, 6-3, in the second round Tuesday.

Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and Billie Jean Moffitt, of Long Beach, Calif., the top-seeded players, scored easy triumphs. Ralston defeated George Sokol of Louisville, Ky., 6-2, 6-3, and Miss Moffitt, in her first match since Wimbledon, beat Christine Safford of Lans-

Bunning Victory Pads Phillies' Lead

By United Press International

The Philadelphia Phillies have found their winning touch again now that Jim Bunning has recovered from his "lost month."

And just in time, too, because it looked like the Phillies were headed for a long plunge down the National League roller coaster. Three straight losses to the St. Louis Cardinals had reduced their first-place lead to a mere half game on the eve of a three-game series with the second place San Francisco Giants.

The situation cried for an "old pro" pitcher and that's just what Gene Mauch picked when he named the 32-year old former Detroit righthander to face the Giants in Tuesday night's opener. The perfect game pitcher of June 21 had won only one game in July but he responded with 8 1-3 innings of four-hit pitching that gave the Phillies a 4-0 victory and restored their lead to one and a half games.

Baldschun Stops Rally

Bunning faltered when Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda singled with one out in the ninth but red-haired screwball pitcher Jack Baldschun came out of the bullpen to throw a double play pill to dangerous Willie McCovey and end the game. Baldschun's two-for-one toss thus protected Bunning's 10th win of the season compared to four losses.

The Phillies scored all their runs against lefty Billy O'Dell in the fifth inning, which opened with singles by Tony Taylor and Alex Johnson, an error by McCovey and a late throw by second baseman Hal Lanier. Gus Triandos, who hadn't hit a homer since April 26, chose this opportune moment to create the left field foul pole with a three-run round tripper.

Braves Stop Reds

The Milwaukee Braves halted the Cincinnati Reds 3-2, the St. Louis Cardinals outslugged the Chicago Cubs 12-7, and the Los Angeles Dodgers routed the New York Mets 9-0 in other games. Houston at Pittsburgh was rained out.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

On The Witness Stand
By far the most vital people in our system of justice are the witnesses. Everyone else in a trial exists to hear what they have to say.

Our courts need witnesses. A jury to find the facts. The judge to apply the law. The lawyer to telling your story in court.

Chances are you worry about stepping up, taking an oath, and telling your story in court.

On some rare occasions you could be called upon to testify about something affecting your own standing in the community.

As a witness you too may have the right, for example, not to testify against yourself in somebody else's lawsuit or crime trial.

If you are ever in such a bind, consult a lawyer of your own choice on what to do. The lawyer who called you to testify has a sworn duty to protect his client, not you. But your lawyer is sworn to keep what you tell him secret and to advise you in your own interests within the law.

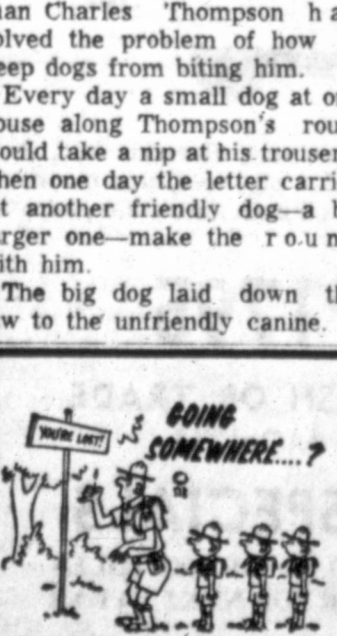

Wise lawyers tell their witnesses to obey twelve rules:

1. Go to the place (say, the scene of an accident). Check your memory before you go to court. People forget and get caught up on details. But if you check what you saw and heard you are on solid ground.
2. Visit a court. Hear how other witnesses testify. It will help you see your role on the witness stand.
3. Wear clean, conservative clothes.
4. Don't memorize your story word for word. That is the surest way to sound bad. But think of what you saw and heard.
5. Listen to the questions you are asked with care and answer thoughtfully.
6. Give a simple, direct answer in your own words. Don't be rushed.
7. If you err — and people often do — correct yourself at once. If you can't remember some detail, say so. Don't bluff.
8. Tell the truth. Don't figure which side you may help. Don't identify yourself with either side.
9. Stop when the judge breaks in, and don't try to sneak an answer in before he can stop you. What you might say could end in a "mistrial."
10. Keep cool and don't sass back.
11. If they ask you: Certainly, you have talked to other people — the lawyer, for example; and yes, you may be reimbursed for certain of your expenses incurred in attending the trial.
12. Remember, without witnesses our law would fail to do justice. If you are called, be a good witness.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever rely or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

DOGGY DEFENSE
BONHAM, Tex. (UPI)—Postman Charles Thompson has solved the problem of how to keep dogs from biting him. Every day a small dog at one house along Thompson's route would take a nip at his trousers. Then one day the letter carrier let another friendly dog—a bit larger one—make the round with him.

The big dog laid down the law to the unfriendly canine.
