Goldwater Steps Up Charges Against LBJ

Attorney Wins Opening Round With U.S. Judge

Appeals Court Stays Order to Jail Prosecutor for Contempt

By United Press International
The Justice Department won the first round Monday in a legal fight with a federal district judge in Mississippi.

The U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, sitting in Jacksonville, Fla., stayed the judge's order to jail a U.S. attorney for refusing to sign federal grand jury indictments. The stay was issued pending a hearing on the case.

"It being a matter of considerable public importance, we will pass an order expediting the appeal," the Appeals Court said.

Federal Judge Harold Cox of Jackson, Miss., cited U.S. Atty. Robert Hauberg for contempt last Thursday after Hauberg refused to process indictments charging two Negro witnesses in a 1962 voting rights case with perjury. Hauberg said he was acting on orders from acting U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach.

Cox ordered Hauberg jailed and threatened to cite Katzenbach for contempt. The order was appealed by the Justice Department.

Asst. Atty. Gen. John W. Douglas said the Appeals Court there was no basis for perjury prosecution against the Negroes and to carry out Cox's order would cause "irreparable harm to the United States and the officials involved."

Douglas said the grand jury at Magnolia, Miss., could go ahead and issue a true bill of indictment against the Negroes without the signature of the U.S. attorney.

Elsewhere:
Jackson, Miss.: State troopers Monday arrested two white men at Natchez in connection with the alleged shooting of a Negro farm laborer last April.

Magnolia, Miss.: Pike County authorities arrested a biracial group of 27 persons, mostly civil rights workers, after they refused to leave the closed-off

Band Leaves For Contest

The Pampa High School Harvester Band left Pampa shortly before noon today en route to Canyon to compete in the annual marching contest.

The band, under the direction of Fred Stockdale, will compete for a Division I rating. This rating, along with a Division I rating in the concert and sight-reading contest next spring, will qualify the band for a Sweepstakes award.

The band will play "Bombardier," "Lover," "Festival March," and "Poinciana," during the contest.
The band will return late tonight.

Keating May Face Empty Chair in Television Debate

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N. Y., intends to go to a television studio here tonight to debate — either with his Democratic opponent, Robert F. Kennedy, or an empty chair. Accusing Kennedy of distorting his record in the Senate, Keating Monday night challenged the former attorney general to the face-to-face meeting before the television cameras in one-hour period offered by a national network.

The offer was made by the Columbia Broadcasting System for 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The Kennedy camp did not respond immediately, except to cry "foul" at Keating's assertions that his record was distorted by Kennedy.

Maneuvers Continue Despite Loss of Nine

By CHARLES C. CORDRY
HUELVA, Spain (UPI)—The U.S. Marine Corps carried on today with the largest peacetime amphibious landing exercise in history despite the loss of nine lives in a helicopter collision.

The men were part of a massive joint U.S.-Spanish landing exercise called Steel Pike I. The exercise involves 94 ships and about 60,000 men.

By the end of the first day, U.S. forces had put ashore 10,000 men. Another 2,000 Spanish marines landed safely at an adjacent beach along this Atlantic coastal area.

Details of the swift-moving tragedy which hit the 22 Marines in the two Sikorsky H34 helicopters were difficult to get because the survivors and the bodies of the dead were flown from the crash scene immediately.

Negro Athlete Files Suit in Rights Case

MARTINEZ, Calif. (UPI) — Baseball star Curt Flood of the St. Louis Cardinals charged Monday that he and his family were prevented from moving into a $35,000 house because he is a Negro.

Flood, 26, who plays center field for the world champion Cardinals, said he signed a year's lease at $290 a month on the house in the suburban community of Alamo in the east San Francisco Bay area. But, he said, he was prevented from moving in.

Flood filed a suit in Contra Costa County Superior Court, demanding $10,000 damages and the right to occupy the house.

'Will Do Anything,' Says GOP Candidate

United Press International
GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater, with one week to go until election day, today stepped up his charges that President Johnson is a power seeker who will "do anything" to achieve his ends.

Goldwater launched one of his strongest attacks yet on the Chief Executive in a speech prepared for delivery in Bristol, Tenn. He said that Johnson would not be satisfied with an election, but "wants to be crowned."

The President, meanwhile, was scheduled to depart on the first leg of a transcontinental campaign that was to carry him from Boston to Southern California by Wednesday.

Johnson planned speeches in Boston and Pittsburgh today, plus a brief stop in Evansville, Ind., to pick up Mrs. Johnson, who has been campaigning in Texas. They were to spend the night in Albuquerque, N.M.

Goldwater's attack on the President came during a swing through Tennessee and Kentucky before he headed north for an appearance in Cleveland, Ohio. In his Bristol speech he described Johnson as the "most power hungry man in American politics."

Billie Sol Quiet On Carr Ruling Over Penalties

AUSTIN (UPI)—Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr said Monday that Billie Sol Estes, the bankrupt farm tycoon, owes the state of Texas $547,500 in penalties for breaking state anti-trust laws.

Estes had nothing to say about Carr's statement. Although he is officially bankrupt and his $150 million fertilizer empire has evaporated, Estes lives in a sprawling home in Abilene, Tex.

Carr said the anti-trust judgment was a final ruling by the 106th district court in Amarillo.

Texas sued Estes and Commercial Solvents Corp. of New York, charging that Estes tried to wipe out the New York firm's competition by selling anhydrous ammonia fertilizer tanks below cost.

Commercial Solvents paid a $150,000 settlement May 14, but did not admit liability. The court fined Estes $500 per day for the period from Jan. 1, 1959 to March 30, 1962. He was arrested March 28, 1962 in his home in Pecos, Tex., and charged with fraud and swindling.

Estes faces a total of 23 years in prison—eight on a state court sentence and 15 by a federal court—on his conviction. He is free pending appeal on both convictions.

The Amarillo court also issued an injunction that forbids Estes from future shady trading in anhydrous ammonia.

Executive Session Set on Water Rates

A proposal to adjust Pampa's water and sewer rates to meet additional expenses not provided for in the recently adopted city budget will be discussed at an executive session of the Pampa City Commission at 5 p.m. Thursday.

City Manager Harold Schmitzer told commissioners at their regular weekly meeting today that the city will have to devise a method of raising some more money.

He pointed out that only $40,000 had been set up in the 1964-65 budget for dismantling, moving and installing the 80,000-barrel tank given to the city recently by the Phillips Petroleum Co.

The City plans to move the tank from Bowers City to Pumping Station No. 3 on S. Barnes St., a distance of approximately nine miles.

Lowest bid for handling the job was $77,794.39, submitted by the Atlas Tank Co. of Pampa. This amount is some $37,000 more than set up in the budget for the work.

City Manager Schmitzer told the commissioners today: "If you accept this bid, I feel that we are obligated to raise the water and sewer rates."

The bid was accepted unanimously by the commission.

Schmitzer said there were "some other items" in city expenditures that could be met only if the water rate is hiked.

In other business: The commission approved the payment of the following bills: Mobil Oil Co., $923.22 for oil and gas for city vehicles; $3,004.10 to R. A. Underwood & Co., Pampa's fiscal agent in the issuance of $950,000 in sewer bonds; $796.40 to Helms Printing Co. for printing illustrated bond issue prospectus; $1,883.40 to McCall, Parkhurst and Horton for legal service in issuance of the sewer bonds, and $117.05 to E. S. Lowry, water superintendent, and Homer Hollars, city warehouseman, for expenses in attending a meeting of the Officers Named For Christmas Seal Campaign

The 1964 Christmas Seal Campaign will be headed locally by Bob Clements, it was announced by Henry Gruben, president of the Gray County Tuberculosis Association. The action was taken at a luncheon meeting of the officers and directors of the association yesterday.

Mrs. Tex DeWeese was named publicity chairman for the campaign which is scheduled to start the first week in December and run through Dec. 31 and Jack Back will serve as bond chairman.

Gruben said the association looks forward confidently to a record Gray County Christmas Seal Campaign this year under Clement's leadership.

$45,231,400 Tax Valuation Listed for City

A total city tax valuation of $45,231,400 was revealed as the Tax Equalization Board met yesterday afternoon and approved the 1964 tax roll.

The total amount of the 1964 tax levy, based on the total assessed valuation, is $664,905.50.

The $45 million grand total assessed valuation according to Tax Assessor Collector Aubrey Jones, represents an increase of 0.497 per cent or $223,600 more than the 1963 valuation. The increase, he said, is due to new construction, or remodeled construction and new businesses and not to any general overall increase in total tax valuation.

The total assessed valuation of $45,231,400 is broken down to $36,156,370 in real estate valuation and $9,075,030 in personal property.

Of the $664,905.50 total tax levy, $531,502.56 is derived from real estate and $133,402.94 from personal property valuation.

Pampa's present tax rate is $1.47, up two cents from $1.45. Jones pointed out that the 0.497 per cent increase in total assessed valuation for 1964 over 1963, coupled with the 2 - cent tax rate hike, represents an increase in the 1964 tax levy over 1963 of 1.884 per cent or $12,292.40.

60 Per Cent Mark Expected by U.F.

The Pampa - Lefors United Fund campaign to raise $70,000 was expected to go over the 60 per cent completion mark today following a report meeting scheduled for this afternoon in the United Fund office.

As of this forenoon the total stood at $41,617.56, an increase of $724.75 over Monday's figure.

General gifts Chairman Hugh Peoples reminded his group that report meetings will also be held on Thursday and Friday at 4:30 p.m. in the United Fund office.

Slaying Suspect Remains in Jail

James H. Morris, 27-year-old Pampa Negro, remains in Gray County Jail today in lieu of $10,000 bond. Morris is charged with the Sunday night slaying of J. C. Avery, 43, of Pampa.

Morris was placed under the bond yesterday by 31st District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich, acting as a magistrate in the absence of Peace Justice G. L. (Nat) Lunsford.

In a statement to city police officers, Morris admitted shooting Avery one time with a .22 pistol following a brief argument on the porch of the Peppermint Lounge, 715 S. Gray.

The argument started after Morris slapped his girl friend to the ground in the presence of Avery, witnesses said.

He was charged with first degree murder.

Rhyming Signs Demise Deplored by Writer

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Not since my ill-fated campaign to stamp out folk singing have I run across a cause that is worthy of a good old - fashion crusade. But now I have one.

With all the fervor at my command I urge you and all of your poetry - loving friends to join me in a campaign to save the Burma Shave signs.

Perhaps you were not aware that the signs needed saving. I wasn't either until this week. Then I learned that one of the famous Burma Shave sign rhymes was being ensnared at the Smithsonian Institution.

The Smithsonian agreed to preserve for posterity a specimen reading:

"Within this vale
 'Of toil

"And sin
 "Your head grows bald
 "But not your chin."

The Smithsonian's cultural history section decided to make this bit of shaggy doggerel a museum piece after being told that Burma Shave signs were rapidly disappearing from the roadsides of America and soon would become extinct.

What is responsible for this shocking situation? Well, super-highways for one thing. Cars now whiz by the signs so fast that neither the driver nor the passengers have time to drink in the beauty of the lyrical couplets.

For another thing the tobacco company that bought out Burma Shave in 1963 doesn't care for this type of advertising.

Court Hears Testimony Against Judy

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Witnesses at a child custody hearing now in progress in Superior Court have sketched a portrait of Judy Garland, showing her as a heavy drinker and a user of barbiturates.
Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes was scheduled to hear additional testimony today in the petition by producer Sid Luft for custody of the couple's children—Lorna, 11, and Joseph, 9—pending outcome of a divorce suit.
The judge planned to meet with the children in his chambers before the hearing resumes.
The hearing was recessed Monday night after witnesses testified Miss Garland, now in London, drank heavily, used barbiturates, once tried to jump from a hotel window, and many times spoke to the children "in a loud and intoxicated voice."
One of the witnesses was the singer's former manager, Vernon J. Alves, who testified that in May, 1961, she tried to leap from a window of a hotel in Philadelphia.
Alves said Miss Garland had completed an engagement and began drinking. He said she was "running around without any clothes on... from room to room."
He said she was "screaming and accusing everyone of everything."
"I spent most of my time trying to catch her and she was bouncing off the wall," he continued. "The last thing I did was catch her before she got out the window, and threw her down on the couch."
Another witness, Albert Paul, former hairdresser for the star, testified that during a concert tour three years ago, Miss Garland would "pack a basket containing her personal belongings—four bottles of white wine and an ice bucket."
In May of 1962, Paul testified, Miss Garland telephoned him and said she had taken too many pills. He said he notified her London agent who had her taken to a hospital.

turned his campaign briefly back toward the East today with a visit to New York City. Tonight he was to head West again for speeches in Charleston, W.Va., and Cincinnati.
During a news conference Monday in Milwaukee, the Minnesota senator predicted he and Johnson would carry two thirds of the states in the election, but declined to go into specifics.
Rep. William E. Miller, the GOP vice presidential candidate, entered the Midwest today with appearances scheduled at St. Charles, Mo., Champaign, Ill., and Detroit.

Fire Department Answers Two Calls

Two minor fire calls yesterday were the only activity reported by the Pampa Fire Department.
The first blaze occurred at noon at the home of O. H. Price, 1024 S. Banks. Firemen reported slight smoke damage to the kitchen of the home when a pan of grease caught fire.
The second blaze yesterday occurred in the alley behind the Hughes Building. Firemen said the small fire started in a refuse container from an unknown cause. Only light damage to the interior was reported.

SEES RED

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Earl E. Cameron has decided today he won't blow his horn even if the driver ahead of him sits through three red lights.
Cameron, on his way home, honked once at a car in front of him sitting at a red light. The car started and Cameron drove home. When he got there, the other driver, who followed him, jumped out of the car and said: "Want to make something out of me sitting on two red lights."
"No," said Cameron. But the man hit him on the head with a flashlight anyway.

BOMB HARVEST

BURTON BRADSTOCK, England (UPI)—An army disposal squad was called Sunday when a farmer plowed up a box of Molotov cocktails.

NO WORD

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI)—A group of students at St. Andrews University has invited new Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev to accept nomination in the school's rectorial election.
Nominations close Friday, and written permission must be received from any nominee. There has been no word from Brezhnev.

Clerk's Office Police Investigate Set for Deluge Woman's Report On Attack Try

With only three days remaining for absentee balloting in Tuesday's general election, the Gray County Clerk's office is preparing for the last-minute deluge of voters.
As of 5 p.m. Monday, 492 persons had cast absentee ballots in the election. In the 1960 presidential election, 702 persons voted absentee.
County Clerk Charlie Thut said, however, that he expected this year to exceed the 1960 figure in absentee voters.
Absentee balloting will end at 5 p.m. Friday.

Pampa police were investigating the report today of a 16-year-old Pampa housewife who claimed two men entered her house last night and threatened to harm her small child if she didn't submit to sexual relations.
She said one of the men picked up her sleeping child and held it while the other man advanced toward her.
She said when she didn't submit the man laid the child down and both men started toward her.
She told authorities that her husband then came in the front door and the attackers fled out the back door. She said they drove away in an auto, parked nearby.
The men were described as blond-haired and about 16 and 25 years of age.

Vandals Destroy Rural Mailboxes

Vandals went on the rampage in the southwest corner of Gray County and southeast corner of Carson County over the weekend destroying mail boxes with shotguns.
Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan said that approximately 25 mail boxes were reported destroyed in the two counties.
He said the vandals would find a mail box some distance from a farm house, shoot it, and then speed away before they were noticed.
Jordan said the boxes were valued between $8 and $20 each.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

Saw Mrs. Lillian Bernard of Decatur at the 50th anniversary of the Pampa Chapter OES Saturday night. This was friendship night, and chapters from all over the district were represented. Ms. Bernard was raised in the Panhandle and a former Pampan, and is the daughter of Mrs. Williams from Decatur, who was a visitor at the center a couple weeks ago. Her father was an early Texas judge at Lefors.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Turner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner of Vici, Okla., and other relatives of Mrs. Turner.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Mollie Hethcock last week were a granddaughter, Miss Dewinna Dean Hethcock, and Allan Dall. Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Evans were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Oates and two sons and a daughter-in-law from Amarillo.

Mrs. Tudell Lightfoot of Amarillo is visiting her sister, Mrs. Noland, and was a guest at the center.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilkie enjoyed the foliage drive near Canadian Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Stator is visiting a cousin at Seymour this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hills attended the board meeting of the Top of Texas District at Wellington Oct. 15.

Mrs. Antonina Kempa from Bartlesville, Okla., is visiting her son and family. Frank Kempa, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Adams and was also a guest at the center Thursday.

T. W. McMillan was bidding farewell to friends, as he is leaving in a few days for his home in Springdale, Ark. for the winter. He has spent the summer here with a son, C. O. McMillan and family.

Mrs. Lillian Brunelle is still reported on the sick list.

Uncle Billy Frost made a short visit to the center, and is as chipper as ever. Mrs. Helen Gronigiar brought him over to say hello.

Mrs. Barnara Roop visited her granddaughter, Betty Conklin, in Plainview last week.

Houseguests of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor and daughter, Maurita, over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cawfield of Alanreed and Mrs. Jimmie Dunn and daughter of Lubbock.

Just learned that we have a poetess among us. Mrs. Alma Bailey handed me this poem which she has written.

Have you ever walked down the country lane,
In the fall of the year when the trees aflame
With their colors of scarlet, purple and gold
It's a beautiful and lovely sight to behold.
The fragrance of the air is like cherry wine
And before you know it, you are feeling fine.
I wouldn't trade the experience for a castle in Spain
And it is yours to enjoy over and over again.
The leaves rustle and flutter and gossip a bit
Before waving bye bye and the ground to hit.
I believe it's my favorite time of the year
So let's take a walk in the country, my dear.

Several of our Gray Ladies and members belong to the VFW and asked me to mention that the VFW is having a public benefit at the VFW Hall at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 31 and the public is invited. These ladies help the veterans and their families.

Guests in the H. M. Norris home is a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Norris of Trinidad, N. M. and were guests at the center Thursday.

Hostess was the Pampa Garden Club. Those serving apple sauce cake with whipped cream, Halloween candy and coffee to 77 seniors and guests were Mmes. Milo Carlson, W. R. Campbell, Joe Weaver, W. R. Purviance, Lee Moore, W. L. Hinton, Bert Robinson and Bud Hogan.

Altiruzans serving were Mmes. Marie Fitzgerald, Louise Sewell, Lena Pearl Hobbs and J. Flannigan.

Gray Ladies serving with transportation were Mmes. Jess Hatcher, George Benham, Chris Byerly and A. D. Hills.

Door prizes went to Mmes. Noland, L. Henderson, Williams and Mr. Kayhey.

Mr. Lewis displayed a 23 lb. squash that could pass for a watermelon, from his garden.

Pampa Girls Will Represent Council

Becky Brewer and Susan Davis, Senior Girl Scouts of Pampa, were included in the recent selection of eight girls for a patrol, and Margaret Brewer and Prudence Skelly were chosen as alternates, to represent Quivira Girl Scout Council at the National Girl Scout Roundup to be held on the 5,000 acre tract of land on the shore of Lake Pend Oreille midway between Coeur D'Alene and Sand Point, Idaho, from July 17 to 26.

A selectee for a Roundup opportunity must be endorsed by her troop advisor and troop members; be in excellent health; have the ability and skills to participate as a member of a patrol and a troop in camp living, in planning activities and in hosting, and must agree to share her experiences with Girl Scout and community groups before and after Roundup.

A Roundup girl has earned the privilege of saying, "Hi! Where are you from?"

These five simple words with which a Roundup friendship begins are the culmination of years in scouting. These five words and millions more echo through the camp from morning to night, for Roundup is doing and seeing, and sharing skills and comparing cultures. But most of all Roundup is 10,000 Girl Scouts and adult counselors from 50 states and approximately 20 countries talking and becoming acquainted with each other.

Other selectees for the patrol from Quivira Girl Scout Council are Elmonette Branigan, and Glenda Bruce, both from Memphis; Sharol Hawkins, Cheryl Hensley and Mary Lynn Wright, all of Fritch; and Pamela Purcell of Borger.

Other alternates selected are Regina Hoover, Memphis; Lynda Sherman, Turkey; Martha Snyder, Fritch; Carol Ann Voyles, Memphis; Merry Holdaday, Borger and Carol Anne Howe, Shamrock.

NEW STYLE KERCHIEFS

DEAR ABBY...

Views on Guilt Confessions

DEAR ABBY: I, for one, agree with you 100 per cent when you say that a husband and wife should not tell everything just to clear their own consciences. First of all, it doesn't make the sin any less, so why hurt someone by confessing? A few years ago I became a restless housewife, and thought that an affair with another man was the answer to everything. So, after becoming involved, I became pregnant. That woke me up and I broke off with him without telling him why. Instead, I vowed to be a better wife and mother, and I worked toward that end and prayed daily for forgiveness. We now have a little daughter. My husband worships the ground she walks on, and she idolizes him. We have other children, but there seems to be a closeness between this little girl and her "Daddy" that does not exist between any of the others. So why break his heart by telling him that she is not his child? This secret is between God and me, and it will always be that way.

DEAR ABBY: Re-confessing infidelity to one's mate: I agree with you wholeheartedly, Abby. It has been said, "The truth shall set you free." Rubbish! The truth has enslaved me. I would give everything I own never to have heard my wife's "confession." Sign me.

A MAN IN PASADENA

DEAR ABBY: So now you are giving spiritual advice? Who are you to say that a husband and wife should not confess the sin of unfaithfulness to one another? When one has broken his marriage vows, the only way to wipe the slate clean is to make a full confession to the spouse and ask forgiveness from the wronged one. If my mate has sinned against me, it is to me that he should confess, and it is my forgiveness he needs in order to cleanse his soul. I think you should print a retraction, Abby. Many people read your advice and take you seriously.

"SAVED" IN JOPLIN

DEAR ABBY: I still believe that a confession that will hurt an innocent party should be withheld. There are better ways to make restitution. Prayer, keeping a silent vow never to repeat the act, a special measure of kindness and consideration. The punishment is greater when the guilt is born in silence by the guilty one. There is nothing noble about cleansing one's conscience in the tears of another.

COULD NEVER TELL

DEAR ABBY: Of all the despicable people I will ever meet to contend with, deliver me from the "kiss and tell" hypocrite. Confessions to clear the conscience? Baloney! Most confessions are motivated by a wilful desire to injure an innocent party, guilt transference, and the wish to boast.

Confession to God is good. Likewise, confession to a clergyman. Even to the bartender or the barber. But never to one who will be hurt by it.

To have an affair is one thing. It is wrong, to be sure. But it is a human weakness and the flesh is weak. But to inflict pain on an innocent person, needlessly, is quite another. Christ has been known to forgive the DETROIT—More than three fourths of General Motors' car capacity remained idle Monday despite a halt in the 31-day strike by the United Auto Workers union. Crippling local walkouts forced the delay.

GM Vice President Louis G. Seaton said some GM plants resumed partial production as soon as the strike ended "but full production cannot be resumed at all plants until the strike has been terminated and a final settlement reached."

VFW Calls for Dolls to Fix As Yule Gifts

Veterans of Foreign Wars Pampa Post No 1657 are in need of dolls to be repaired for their annual Christmas party for underprivileged children of Pampa.

The VFW Ladies Auxiliary will be in charge of the dolls, making clothing and dressing them. Any one who has dolls their children have out grown or no longer use that can be repaired and would like to share with another child, please take dolls to the Doll Hospital at Phyllis Laramore, 716 N. West, or phone 4-7574.

Wheel toys and other toys to be repaired by the firemen are not needed at this time as they are not ready to start their work. But toys will be needed later.

the 1956-57 March of Medicine TV film, "Monganga."

Going to the Congo in 1950, Dr. Ross took up work in Lotumbe, a settlement of about 1,000 Congolese some 800 miles east of the mouth of the Congo River, or 100 miles up the Mombovo tributary. For most of the intervening period he has been the only medical doctor in an 18,000 square mile area extending 250 miles upriver and 50 miles downriver.

Dr. Ross travels by motorboat. Though highways now criss-cross much of the Congo, the present roads around Lotumbe are mostly forest trails and water routes usually are shorter.

He attended California Christian College in Orange, Calif. Before beginning his training to become a medical missionary, he was a pastor in West Coast churches for seven years and in India churches for six years. He graduated from Butler University, Indianapolis, and received the M.D. degree in 1947 from the Indiana University School of Medicine.

In addition, Dr. Ross was associate student, London University Tropical Medical School, and attended L'Institut de Medecine Troncale du Prince Leonold in Antwerp, Belgium, receiving a D.T.M., and Colonial Institute Brussels, Belgium, receiving a 1950 Certificate of Colonial Studies.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross have a son, Ernest Edward, born in London, in 1948.

As missionaries, Dr. and Mrs. Ross serve with the United Christian Missionary Society, a major agency of the Christian Churches.

Dr. Ross's message will be broadcast over KPDM at 9:35 a.m.

Foreign News Commentary

By WILLIAM J. FOX
United Press International
Notes from the foreign news cables:

Nuclear Force Talks:
The question of the American-proposed mixed-manner nuclear force — popularly termed MLF — will figure in this week's discussions in Washington. But British Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker will try to steer clear of any commitment on behalf of the force by his government. Gordon Walker can be expected to skirt gingerly around the subject in his talks with President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Reason is that the new British Labor government wants to put off any substantive discussion of the MLF until after the American presidential election. Prime Minister Harold Wilson prefers to discuss the proposal directly with President Johnson if he is re-elected. Wilson, who opposes the idea of MLF, plans to fly to Washington late next month on a mission he hopes may keep the United States from going ahead with its nuclear-armed surface naval force proposal.

Unleash the Nationalists:
Political observers in Taipei expect new pressure from the Nationalist Chinese government on the United States in the wake of Red China's first primitive nuclear explosion of more than a week ago. The Nationalists are expected to renew their efforts to get the United States to release their armed forces and help them cross the Formosa Strait for an all-out attack on Red China. The reasoning is that this is the only way to keep Peking from becoming a real nuclear power. The Taipei leaders are reported to feel that the Nationalists must destroy the Communist regime as soon as possible. Nationalist legislators and newspapers have been clamoring for an early attack on the mainland in unsuccessful Red blast. But the U.S. Navy would have to provide the necessary ships and planes for any invasion — and current policy is against such a move.

French Recession:
Economic pounders are forecasting a recession in France's production for the rest of this year and the first few months of next year. A fifth economic plan, covering five years from the beginning of 1964, is slated to go into effect then. But it may be revised because it does not take sufficient account of the level of France's technical capabilities.

Texans Overcoming Straight Vote Idea

AUSTIN (UPI)—Texans over the past 16 years have emerged from an old habit of automatically voting Democratic and developed a keen art of ballot-splitting which may have a profound effect on the Nov. 3 general election.

Ever since they got their voting rights back following the Civil War, the Texas electorate mostly shunned "Republicans and scalawags" — that is, until a candidate by the name of Dwight Eisenhower came along in 1952.

That was the year when something like half a million Texas Democrats suddenly decided to split their votes and place their marks in the GOP column.

Ike Carried Texas
Eisenhower carried Texas that year by a margin of nearly 150,000 votes, and did even better four years later.

Many more practiced the same tactics in the 1960 presidential election, although the Democratic ticket of Kennedy-Johnson carried the state by 46,000 out of 2.2 million votes cast.

Richard Nixon, the GOP presidential candidate that year, has the distinction of having received more votes in Texas than any other Republican in any race. The Nixon-Lodge ticket received over 1.1 million votes.

Political observers and pollsters all predict there will be less ballot-splitting in the presidential race this year when they expect the home-grown Democratic ticket to prevail.

But there is one statewide race—that for U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough's seat — where a considerable amount of split voting is expected.

Some observers give Republican George Bush an even chance at ousting Yarborough. In order to do so, Bush will have to attract the half million or so conservative Democrats and others who have crossed over party lines in the past.

Texas still is not a two-party state, although the state has one Republican U. S. senator in John Tower and two GOP congressmen.

Straight Ticket
Yarborough himself is aware of the growing trend to ignore party lines in recent Texas elections. He has been sounding off in recent weeks for faithful Democrats to stick to their pledges and vote a straight party ticket.

Records show that in the last three general elections, 56 Texas counties, including Harris, Dallas and Tarrant, went Republican for president. Seventy three counties did the same two out of three times and 36 more voted Republican once during the period.

This sort of thing has brought a new look to elections in Texas. In years past, if a candidate won the Democratic primary nomination he could forget the general election. But not any more.

Candidates — both Democratic and Republican — in some statewide elections of recent years have spent literally millions of dollars selling themselves to the voters.

This has been especially evident this year. Both presidential candidates have paid close attention to Texas and the Republican nominee, Barry Goldwater, has made half a dozen swings through the state.

Bush has been campaigning against Yarborough almost constantly since he won the Republican nomination last June. He has openly courted conservative Democrats while pointing out what he calls Yarborough's liberal voting record in the Senate.

ND Irish Challenge Ohio State

NEW YORK (UPI) — Notre Dame moved into second place Monday to challenge top-ranked Ohio State in the United Press International major college football ratings.

Notre Dame, one of seven unbeaten-untied teams in the coaches top 10, replaced Alabama, which dropped to third. Nebraska edged Arkansas out of fourth place, pushing the Razorbacks down to fifth.

The scarcity of unbeaten and once-defeated major college teams resulted in an unprecedented concentration of balloting in the top 10. Only 18 teams were given votes by the 35 coaches on the UPI rating board.

Texas remained sixth but the lower part of the standings underwent a major shakeup.

Georgia Tech jumped from ninth to seventh. Michigan vaulted from 12th to eighth. Illinois, ranked 13th last week, took over ninth, and Oregon also advanced four notches from 14th to 10th.

Ohio State received 26 of 35 first-place votes and Alabama was awarded five. Four teams — Notre Dame, Nebraska, Arkansas and Georgia Tech — were given one first-place ballot each. Only two points separated second-ranked Notre Dame and third-rated Alabama. Nebraska nipped Arkansas by three points for fourth place, the same margin Michigan, No. 8, held over Illinois.

Two unbeaten but once tied teams, Louisiana State and Duke, ranked 11th and 12th, respectively, followed by Florida in 13th and Oregon State, a 31-13 conqueror of Syracuse, in 14th. Purdue advanced from 17th to 15th. Utah State jumped from 19th to 16th and Florida State and Yale tied for 17th.

SWC Roundup

By United Press International

University of Texas coach Darrell Royal said Monday his Longhorns have suffered almost all the injuries they can take. Several of his men were shaken up Saturday night in the Longhorns' 6-3 squeaker over Rice University.

"Those injuries just keep hacking away," Royal said. Hardest hit was end Sandy Sands, who suffered a severe knee injury. Tim Doerr missed the Rice game and will not be able to play this week in the Southern Methodist game.

Also hurt in the Rice clash were Phil Harris, Diron Talbert and John Elliott.

"We will have to fight for lives to win any one game from here on in," Royal said. "And that will be true this Saturday," he said, talking about SMU. "They're tough to score on. Defensively, they are a lot like Arkansas."

SMU had a short, no-contact workout Monday in light rain. The Mustangs watched movies of their game last week with Texas Tech.

Red Stallion

The films showed linebacker Billy Bob Stewart helping with 30 tackles. Stewart was given the red stallion award for his efforts. He missed the Mustangs' first games this fall because of an appendectomy.

The Arkansas Razorbacks worked out for 45 minutes Monday in mist and drizzle. It was a no-contact session.

Hogs coach Frank Broyles said his next foe, Texas A&M, was a much better team than its scoring has indicated.

Defensive coach Wilson Matthews took the Razorback defense aside Monday for a session behind closed doors. Reporters were not told what went on.

Arkansas came out of the Wichita game with no injuries. Only end Jerry Lamb, who pulled a muscle against Texas, remains a doubtful starter against A&M.

Recovered

More than three inches of rain fell Monday in College Station, so the Aggies went inside to practice up for Arkansas. Coach Hank Foldberg said guard Ronny Moore and tackle Ray Gene Hinz will play this (See SWC, Page 11)

Harvesters Can Beat Lubbock

"It will take a real good effort to beat Lubbock," warned Pampa assistant coach Brown Smith as he reviewed the lineups and abilities of the Lubbock Westerners, Friday night's final Harvester Stadium foe.

Although Lubbock, with a 1-3 district record, is even with the Harvesters in loop play, they have the district's top passer, also one of the loop's best all-around, one of the top punters and several of the top pass receivers.

Mike Bowman, 166, understudy last year to the great Greg Lott, has taken over much of Lott's status in loop play. Although passed in the race this week due to an open date, Bowman, after Lubbock's last game, led the district in passing with 248 yards and two touchdowns on 20 of 52 passes completed; was first in total offense as he added 260 yards rushing, and fourth in scoring with three touchdowns and seven conversions for 25 points.

Halfback Roy Farmer, 155, is third in the loop in pass receiving with 14 catches for 157 yards and a touchdown, right end Don Burrell, 160, is seventh in the loop with five for 84 yards and a TD. Joe Mack Lott is second in the district in punting with a 35.5 average.

"They've got fair size," summed up Smith, "probably outweigh us overall, but not by too big a margin."

By the voting committee while Villanova got an 8.6 log.

VIKING CHANGES

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Minnesota Viking rookie end Bob Lacey has been activated to the club after having missed the first half of the season due to an injured knee.

The Vikings also lost spread end Paul Flatley for an indefinite period because of a shoulder separation suffered Sunday.

TWO PLAYERS SUSPENDED

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — Two Denver Bronco football players, field goal kicker Gene Mingo and defensive halfback Willie West, were suspended Sunday for conduct detrimental to the team.

Syracuse received a 9.0 rating

ARCARO HONORED

NEW YORK (UPI) — Retired jockey Eddie Arcaro was honored by the Monmouth Park Jockey Club Monday night after having been selected by the Jockeys' Guild as "Man of the Year."

Arcaro served as president of the guild for 13 years.

TIBBS TAKES LOSS

PARIS (UPI) — Lightweight Angel Garcia stopped Tommy Tibbs of Lancaster, Ohio, in the sixth round of a scheduled 10-rounder Monday night.

SYRACUSE HOLDS

NEW YORK (UPI) — Syracuse held on to its first place standing this week in the battle for the Lambert Trophy despite a 31-13 loss to Oregon State last Saturday, but the Villanova Wildcats, who are undefeated in five games, moved into second place within close range of the Orangemen.

Top O' Texas Wildlife

By STARKEY WHITEHORN

The season on deer and turkey will begin November 14 and last through November 29. The majority of deer hunters in the top part of the Panhandle go elsewhere for their hunting excursions. The reason is that there aren't enough ranches that cater to the hunters on a fee basis to help accommodate the demand. The number of bucks in this area, and they are gradually increasing, isn't anywhere large enough to meet the demand. So, it boils down to supply and demand.

Recent information from east Texas reveals that the price to hunt bucks in that area runs from $50.00 to $100.00 per day for day hunters on the farms there. Leases run from around $150.00 to $250.00 per hunter per year. So it seems that there are others in the Lone Star State who enjoy hunting the wild bucks as much as do the Panhandle hunters.

There is a certain amount of limited hunting on a fee basis in the Panhandle. For day hunting the fee seldom runs more than $50.00 per day for both deer and turkey. Usually the cost is more like $25.00 per day. Here we are in a one deer area, and for this autumn it is a one turkey area also. Either sex is legal for turkeys this fall in the top part of the State. The license is $3.15.

Hunters will find more ranches available to them on a fee basis in Hemphill County than others in this area. For more complete information, write John Wilkinson, Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 65, Canadian, Texas. Mr. Wilkinson is well acquainted with ranchers who have deer and turkey leases. It would be wise to make reservations now instead of waiting until the day before the season opens. The supply of bucks should be slightly more than in the past.

Your chance of getting a turkey should be more than 100 percent better than in the past, due to the either sex stipulation. During the nesting season of 1962 and 1963, the turkey population barely held its own, if that much. The nesting success in 1964 was not the best, but there were many young seen during the summer and later months. We did have an increase and the hunters will reap the benefits. If you don't get a buck you have a good chance to get a turkey. Many hunters will get both in Hemphill County in November.

Hemphill County will accommodate more deer and turkey hunters than any other county in this part of the State; however, there is from good to excellent hunting in some other choice areas. If interested, either contact the area game warden or write or call the District Office in Amarillo for added information. The address is Parks and Wildlife Department, 3802 B. Bowie, Amarillo, telephone FL 5-0821.

According to oldtimers, in the early day some of the major field trials were conducted in Wheeler County. Rumor is that some of the nationally recognized dogs used to run in the chicken country in Wheeler County.

Be it as such, by far the largest trial ever conducted since the horse and buggy days will take place on the State Parks and Wildlife Management Area (the old Studer Ranch), northeast of Canadian, starting November 4. Pointers and setters from all over the State will be competing. This is a panorama of top dogs in the southwest displaying their bird finding and bird handling ability under the watchful eyes of two of the most noteworthy judges of pointing canines, none other than Ed Lambert and Jim Anderson of Dallas, Texas.

The first contest on the agenda is the open shooting dog stake, followed by the amateur all-age, then amateur derby. The main feature will then start, which is the Region 7 amateur shooting dog championship, followed by the amateur shooting dog stake.

Maybe you don't know a state from a steak in the way of the annals of fieldtrailing. If that is the case, then you aren't far behind many of us other amateur handlers. The Panhandle Bird Dog Club came into being not too many years ago, and, most of the members, were as green as a gourd but we learned by participating.

Shadowed by the championship stake is the open gun or shooting dog stake, but to me this is the second best on the agenda. The reasons are simple. Amateur means strictly for the amateurs, whereas open means that it is open to all contenders. In this open stake, we amateurs can take on some of the best in the nation. Probably we won't have a chance, but if we do win, it will be something to think about for the rest of our lives.

In the amateur gun dog stake the prizes, as well as laurels, are cherished. The top prize is a 12 ga., Browning automatic, plus all the trophies, dog food, etc. The prizes for the open gun dog stake are equally rewarding, plus the recognition. I don't know if I will go, but if I do I will compete with the professionals as well as the amateurs.

HARVESTER OF THE WEEK — Jerry Goodwin wins the honor this week as the Fighting Harvester, based on his outstanding defensive play against Plainview. Goodwin is the first lineman to get the award this season.

"Bowman is a real good passer. He has fair speed and runs that option real well. Farmer and Tommy Jenkins, 145, are the halfbacks. . . small, but quick and as fast as anyone we have. They've got the big full-back, Ronnie Webb, 195, carries most of the inside load. They like to run outside and throw mostly, but Webb carries the mail when they need that short yardage.

"Their offensive line are all real good, it's hard to pick one out as a standout. . . I think that left end Ricky Hagood, 165, is their best pass receiver. . . he was last year and opponents have been covering him strongly, letting Burrell open.

"They like to run from several formations, using spreads and flankers a lot, they'll split either end. They give real good pass protection and the quarterback throws well on the run.

"Defensively they line up mainly in a 5-2. Best defensive boy is linebacker Chuck King, 172, with Tilson, 166, also very good."

Offensively the Plainsmen line from the left has Hagood, Kenneth Medline 186, Johnny Chapman 180, Tonky Murphy 183, Alan Mattison 206, Rufus Crow 210, Burrell.

The Plainsmen two - platoon chiefly, with tackles Crow and Medline and backs Bowman and Farmer going both ways. Defensive line from the left has Charlie Evans 190, Medline, Tilson, Ted Ratcliff 188, K. i. n. g. Crow, Bo Boren, 152. Cornerbacks are Bowman and Johnny Hunt 148, halfbacks Farmer and Jenkins.

"If we can play the whole game like we did the second half against them last year, we can win this game," concluded Smith.

West Texas In Last Home Tilt

CANYON — Thirteen West Texas State seniors will make their final appearance in Buffalo Bowl this Saturday night when the Buffs play San Jose State, an outstanding West Coast independent.

Bill Bundy, Boerne; Charley Daves, Mineral Wells; Dennis Flanagan, Garden Grove, Calif.; Woody Gilliland, Sherman; Bruce Kimery, Dallas; Jerry King, Olney; Wilton Manley, Abernathy; Jerry McGill, Marietta, Okla.; Russell Mundy, Harrisburg, Pa.; Larry Patterson, Beaver Falls, Pa.; Doc Rowell, Odessa; Bobby Walton, Littlefield; and Earl West, East Orange, N. J. are the Buffalo seniors. Gilliland will not be in uniform due to a knee injury and Daves will see light duty for the same reason.

The Buffalo offense enjoyed its best day of the season in last Saturday's 21-6 win over stubborn Trinity. Don "Preacher" Dennis was one of the offensive sparks against the Tigers, catching a 35 - yard pass from Bundy for the first touchdown and running five yards for another.

West Texas State is no 3-3 for the season with four to play, the last three of which are on the road.

The Buffs will need to sharpen their pass defense for the upcoming Spartan invasion. Ken Berry, younger brother of Oregon's Bob Berry, is the San Jose State quarterback. Although not at full speed because of an injury, Berry hit six of 11 passes for 119 yards giving him 53 of 91 for 615 yards this (See WEST TEXAS, Page 10)

Tigers Ride High After Upset Win

MCLEAN — Tiger football coach Fred Hedgecock, despite an upset 20-18 victory over Memphis last weekend, was already singing the blues for this Friday's game at Clarendon.

"They're tough. . . the best team I've seen in five or six years, and they're getting better every game. They're not as good overall as White Deer, but they have some fine individual standouts. They're capable of beating anybody with that offense. That David Moring is as fine a quarterback as there is around, and that team has a tremendous amount of confidence."

Each game in district 2-A is virtually a battle of survival from here on in. White Deer heads the loop with 2-0, Canadian is in the cellar with 0-2, and the rest must go from week to week, striving to keep from another loss while hoping the Bucks can be beaten.

McLean, which gave WD its toughest game in a 12-6 loss, proceeded to come back against the Memphis team which had been touted as the one that White Deer would have to beat for the marbles.

"We were lucky to get it," disclaimed Hedgecock. "After all, we only won it by a conversion. In any case, we were tickled to death to get it. I'll say that things we did I'm proud of. . . we were behind 6 at one time and we came all the way back.

"Much of the praise again goes to Dickie Crockett, who couldn't be stopped. Memphis coach Charles Chambless said that Dickie was the best back they had faced this season.

"Actually, it was the best

RONNIE HUNT — always tops

team effort we produced all season. Our backs ran good, Steve Fuller joining Dickie in ground - gaining, but they really got places to run behind blocking from John Bible, George Green and, as always, Ronnie Hunt."

Asked if the Tigers, low after the WD game, wouldn't be high, morale - wise, for Clarendon, Gloomly Fred said "it will help. . . IF the kids don't underestimate Clarendon. Dadgum, they're tough!"

Bill White, Mick Mantle Lead UPI All-Star Team

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees were the only members of championship teams named Monday to the United Press International 1964 major league All-Star team.

Nine teams were represented on the 10-man squad with pitcher Dean Chance and shortstop Jim Fregosi making the Los Angeles Angels the only team with more than one representative.

Rounding out the squad as chosen by 20 baseball experts were catcher Joe Torre of the Milwaukee Braves, second baseman Ron Hunt of the New York Mets, third baseman Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles, outfielders Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs and pitcher Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Mays was the most popular vote-getter with 18 of a possible 20. Chance had 17, White 16 and Mantle, Williams and Koufax 15 each. Then came Robinson with 14, Torre with 12, Fregosi with 10 and Hunt with nine.

Seven of the 10 players are under 30 years of age with Mays and Mantle the "senior citizens" at 33. White is 30 and Koufax is 28. All the others range between Fregosi's 22 years and Robinson's 27.

White, a key slugger during the Cardinals' late drive for the National League pennant, batted .303 with 21 homers and 102 runs batted in while Mantle, playing most of the season on chronically ailing legs, wound up with a .303 average, 35 homers and 111 runs batted in.

Chance and Fregosi, the Angels' pair of All-Stars, are among the most exciting new stars in the game. The 23-year-old Chance compiled a 20-record and a 1.65 earned run mark that is the second lowest of the lively ball era. He also pitched 11 shutouts—more than any other pitcher since 1916.

Fregosi batted .277, hit 18 homers and knocked in 72 runs in addition to fielding his position with a grace and assurance that marked him as a future great of the game.

weekend. Both have been injured.

Texas Tech worked out under the lights Monday night, and coach J. T. King warned his Red Raiders that the Rice Owls would be tough opponents this weekend. He said Rice was "very, very improved" and outplayed Texas in their 6-3 loss to the Lohghorns last week.

In Waco Monday, Baylor trainer Sam Ketcham said the Bears are still troubled by injuries, particularly in the defensive line. He said it was too early to say how many would see action Saturday in Fort Worth against Texas Christian.

End Jack Eisenhart, guard Dwight Hood, flankers Lawrence Elkins and Paul Becton and center Ernest Erickson all missed practice Monday.

Auburn Wins Frosh Game

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI) — Auburn's freshman football team defeated the previously unbeaten Georgia frosh 20-0 Monday.

Auburn drove 69 yards in seven plays for a touchdown the first time the Baby Tigers had the ball.

The key play in the drive was a 46-yard scoring pass from quarterback Bucky Ayers to Freddie Hyatt, Ayers' father.

Phillips In Toughie

By United Press International

Top-ranked Phillips and ninth-ranked Crane run into unbeaten but tied district rivals in the feature games on this week's Texas schoolboy football's Class AA schedule.

Phillips, nearing the District 1 crown, plays a Spearman team that has only an 8-8 tie with Class A Stratford against its record. Crane, in a district that boasts three unbeaten teams, plays once-tied Marfa in a crucial district tilt. Alpine, the other district team without a mar, plays McCamey.

Several other members of the state's unbeaten list also may be in for trouble this week. Only two teams were cut from the ranks last week—Hallettsville and Los Fresnos—to leave 16 perfect record teams and three unbeaten but tied.

Second-ranked Iowa Park tackles Olney (5-2) third-ranked Ballinger faces Stamford (5-2) in a district show down, fifth-ranked Taylor plays Georgetown — (5-2) and can clinch a tie for its district title by winning, sixth-ranked Rockwall tries to make Seagoville (3-4) its 21st straight victim, eighth-ranked Sinton meets Goliad (5-2) and 10th-ranked Glade water plays Linden-Kildare (6-2) in major contests.

Among the other unbeaten teams in for possible trouble are West, which meets Marlin (5-11), and Atlanta, which plays Gilmer (4-3).

Fourth-ranked Denver City also can clinch a district title tie by beating Post (1-6), while seventh-ranked Palacios is idle.

Perfect record Dublin and Canton—the latter also unscored on—are not expected to have any difficulties against Comanche and Grand Saline, respectively.

Harnsberger At Wayland

PLAINVIEW — Royce Harnsberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harnsberger of Pampa, begins his fourth and final year with the Wayland Baptist College Pioneers when they open their basketball season November 24, against Panhandle A&M.

Harnsberger, a 6-2 senior, graduated from Wichita Falls High School, where he made all-district in basketball and baseball. He lettered four years in basketball and received the outstanding player trophy in baseball as highlights of his high school career.

At Wayland Harnsberger has won the varsity blue and gold each season since his freshman year, manning a forward position most of the time.

Last season Royce turned in some fine offensive games as a part-time starter for the Pioneers. He is again expected to see plenty of action, as the Pioneers experience what should be their most successful season under Coach Clifford C. Ozmun.

season. In all, the Spartans completed 10 of 26 for 281 yards in defeating traditional rival University of the Pacific last Saturday by the largest score ever, 37-13. This left the Spartans 2-3 for the season, but they easily could have been 5-0. All their losses have been by three or less points, 3-0 to Idaho, 10-8 to Stanford and 16-14 Washington State. A 50-yard field goal attempt against Washington State hit the crossbar and the Spartans missed a 27-yard field goal against Stanford and had a TD called back the same day.

This will be the first Texas appearance for San Jose State since 1964 and their first appearance ever in the Panhandle. In 10 games against Texas schools, the Spartans have won five, lost three and tied two.

No changes are planned in either the offensive or defensive alignments for the Buffaloes unless Daves is ready to go full speed in which case he will replace Rowell at center.

When your telephone receiver is off the hook, your phone can't ring. It's closed to incoming calls. This kind of trouble we can't prevent.

But when it happens, a signal is sent over the line to attract your attention. All you do is replace the receiver properly on the cradle. Now your phone can ring.

We hope this will make your telephone even more useful and of greater personal value.

If you are a little fed up with Lyndon and Barry, there is still hope. With a bit of arranging, you might be able to vote for Clifton DeBerry for President — or Earle Harold Munn Sr., or John Kasper, Joseph B. Lightburn or the Rev. Kirby James Hensley, or Eric Hass. All of these are offering themselves for the supreme sacrifice of public service in the White House. Mr. Hass is the Socialist Labor Party candidate in Arizona, California, Colorado, Delaware, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Washington. In Kansas he's on the Labor Party ticket; in Minnesota on the Industrial Government ticket and in Wisconsin on the Independent Party ticket. Incidentally, his vice presidential running mate is Henning A. Blomen, a Somerville, Mass., machine assembler. Mr. Hass himself is editor of the Socialist Labor party's publication. The Socialists are running Clifton DeBerry, a 39-year-old Brooklyn house painter, and a Negro. He and his partner, Ed Shaw of Brooklyn, appear on the ballot in California, Colorado, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Jersey, New York and North Dakota. The Prohibition Party has nominated Earle Harold Munn Sr., 60, assistant dean of Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. The Rev. Mark Shaw, a 75-

Congressional Elections Important

In the excitement of a presidential election campaign, it is easy to lose sight of the fact that Congress, in the final analysis, determines the course the nation will follow. Thus, the qualifications and political beliefs of those who aspire to seats in the Senate and the House of Representatives are no less important than those of the candidates for President and Vice President. Our nation was set up with a system of checks and balances, so that no individual, whether he be a Lyndon B. Johnson or a Barry Goldwater, can get his own way and impose his ideas on the country without having them subjected to intense analysis and scrutiny. A "rubber stamp" Congress, subservient to the wishes of a strong Chief Executive, has always been viewed with misgiving by the American people, and in the few instances in which this situation has resulted from a landslide election, the voters have acted to redress the balance within a short period of time. Therefore, it is important for all citizens to study carefully what Congressional candidates stand for and to vote for those who best represent their own political beliefs. Simply voting a straight ticket all across the board is not necessarily the answer to these times, especially for the great majority of citizens who desire a truly representative government and whose personal means of livelihood are not wrapped up in the success of a particular political party. Balanced government should be our goal for in that way excesses in government can be avoided. Major changes in the laws and conditions under which we all must live should never be undertaken lightly, and the best way to assure this is to have a Congress in which all viewpoints are adequately and strongly represented. We urge all voters, therefore, to examine closely in these final days of the campaign the qualifications and record of the Senate and House candidates who seek their votes and to cast their ballots for those who truly represent what they themselves believe.

No, Thanks

A few weeks ago the first public mention was made of an idea new to the U. S. We hear it mentioned more and more often now. It is no more attractive now than it was the first time we heard of it. The proposal is that the Federal Government give part of its income from taxes to states, with few or no strings attached. Those who are urging this program declare that the states could use it to reduce their own tax needs, to prevent tax increases, or to expand their services. It all sounds mighty generous. The states would have the money, and it is suggested that the taxpayers would save money. Politics being what it always has been, taxpayers would save nothing. As things now stand, when a state wishes to spend money it must consider the taxpayer, because the taxpayer is also a voter. Voters tend to resent spending on unpaid projects, when they're paid for from identifiable taxes, and to vote against them when they're offered on the ballot as bond issues. This makes for some measure of economy in state and local

THE MORALS ISSUE

Historians, surveying the nations of the past, time and again have traced the downfall of great states to a decline in moral values. Nations can lose on the battlefield and suffer poverty on the home front, but from such setbacks recovery usually is possible. On the other hand, when a country falls under a government that is morally corrupt, there is no hope of salvation unless that government is promptly discarded.

The classical case is the history of the Roman republic. In its day, Rome was the strongest nation on earth. Like the United States in our own time, Rome had far-flung military commitments. It had a great system-of-law, and Roman citizenship was prized throughout the ancient world. The Roman republic should have endured for many centuries, but its fate was to be cut down not long after the opening of the Christian era.

The reason for Rome's decline and fall was moral corruption. It suffered defeat within its own government. Ambitious men, with a thirst for personal power, brought the lowest types of Romans into the government of the empire. There was corruption involving thievery, and there was corruption involving influence peddling. Ancient Rome had its Walter Jenkins and Bobby Bakers, to be sure. But the darkest stains on the Roman nation came when men of ugly personal vices gained places of power near the summit of the Roman government. These ugly vices were overlooked or concealed from the Roman people. Men with deeply corrupt moral characters occupied the seats of power or served as the principal advisers and lieutenants to the leaders charged with defending the interests of Rome. Because they were corrupt, they were more concerned with their pleasures and their vices than they were with the security of the Roman republic. Ultimately, the barbarians overran Rome, where liberty had been nurtured, and the Senate had been the glory of republican government in the ancient world.

What happened to Rome should have special meaning for Americans as they ponder the moral mess in Washington in the fall of 1964. The United States of America could suffer its own decline and fall if men of ugly vices are not rooted out of government and if the people do not dismiss those who have tolerated corrupt men. The pages of history, contemporary as well as ancient, clearly show that the enemies of freedom are skilled at preying on corrupt men who are vulnerable to blackmail. The Soviets, for example, frequently use their hold over corrupt men in reveal defense secrets. Everyone who occupies a post of high responsibility in the U.S. government should know that he has a solemn obligation not to employ a person who is a potential security risk because of his personal peculiarities. A high government official cannot afford a show of excessive toleration for some psychologically weak individual, for the government is charged with the duty of defending the public interests which transcend the concern for individuals. No man in government should be more aware of this truth than the President of the United States. For a President to neglect his duty to maintain regular security checks on his aides and advisers constitutes neglect of presidential responsibility. Immediately the question is raised whether any man who so neglects his duty is fit to be President.

Moreover, if the President surrounds himself with men who peddle influence or who have dark personal vices, he sets an example for the government. If corruption is tolerated and protected at the top of government, it is only a matter of time before it spreads, like cancer, throughout the entire governmental structure. In this critical time, the American people should think long and hard about the deteriorating moral climate in this country and the causes for it. They should be concerned, first of all, that the Presidency is free of any stain or question of neglect of duty. This issue — the issue of the moral character of the American government — transcends any matter of personal popularity, economic programs, or whatever. If the American government is not a clean government, the United States cannot survive. And if there is

Soviet Arms Shipments to Cyprus to Be Followed by 'Training Mission'; JCS Want 'Hard Line' Now

WASHINGTON — The new Soviet leaders are turning Cyprus into another Cuba. While publicly preaching "peaceful co-existence" with the West, the Kremlin rulers are secretly shipping large amounts of arms to the Mediterranean Island forces of pro-Soviet Archbishop Makarios. Russian-made mortars, light artillery, rifles, small arms, communication and motor equipment are arriving almost daily aboard Russian and Egyptian aircraft and Soviet bloc ships. According to the latest U.S. intelligence estimate now on President Johnson's desk, these arms will be followed by a Soviet military training mission similar to the one that preceded the shipment of IRBMs to Cuba. This two-faced Russian policy, negotiated with Cyprus leaders while Khrushchev was premier, has backed President Johnson into a corner from which he doesn't know where to turn. The new Soviet arms venture also has split the President's policy-makers down the middle on what the U.S. should do.

With the election only a week away, the President's chief foreign and political advisers, led by McGeorge Bundy, has national security counselor, are urging him to follow a "wait and see" policy — the same line that lost China, Cuba and Zanzibar to Communist rule. These "soft line" advisers argue that if the U.S. moves to block the Soviet arms shipments before November 3 many voters might construe the action as confirming GOP challenger Barry Goldwater's charge that the new Kremlin leaders can't be trusted and that the administration's policy of "accommodation" toward Russia isn't working.

"THE CYPRUS TIME-BOMB — The Joint Chiefs of Staff favor a "hard line" policy on Cyprus and want immediate action to bar the covert Soviet arms shipments. These military advisers, concerned about the military threat a Soviet-controlled Cyprus would pose for NATO defenses, are warning that if the arms shipments aren't stopped the island could go the way of Cuba "within a matter of weeks." They frankly told the President that the State Department's diplomatic "backing and filling" on cracking down on Archbishop Makarios is driving both Turkey and Greece closer to Russia. UN presence on the island has been no deterrent to the Soviets. Their report to the White House characterizes Archbishop Makarios as a "modern Rsputin" surrounded by a number of moral uncleanness in Washington today, then the U.S. electorate should exercise its right to restore decency before it is too late.

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

Losing a little weight is something most of us should do, but it's difficult to do it on your own. Maybe we should copy a group of Texans who have formed an organization called KOPS, but before it admits members they are required to serve an apprenticeship in something like TOPS, which means Take Off Pounds Sensibly. The latter group simply check on each other while shedding pounds through exercise or diet. There are others in the Lone Star State such as the Weight Wranglers, the Square Shooters (who won't cheat on their diets), the Slick Chicks and the Trimmim Wimmin. When they've lost the necessary pounds, they're eligible to join KOPS, which means Keeping Off Pounds Sensibly. Today's smile: The late John Barrymore frequently lived beyond his means. One day a frugal friend called the spendthrift actor saying: "Did you hear the news? My bank has failed and I had more than $100,000 on deposit there." "Serves you right," said Barrymore, "I always told you to keep your account overdrawn."

The inscription "In God We Trust" first appeared on a U.S. coin a 2-cent piece, 100 years ago, but it was not until 1955, almost 100 years later, that Congress got around to putting it on all U.S. currency and make it the nation's motto. Now that we're in the midst of the political season it's okay to remind you there's not much new under the sun. Political campaign buttons probably date back to Alexander the Great in the 4th Century B.C. He gave silver buttons to his subjects and constituents seeking their support for his world conquests. Thoughts while shaving: If you think mention of "law and order" is out of order, consider that last year there were upwards of 2 million serious crimes reported in the U.S., according to the FBI, ranging from murder, rape, and robbery to simple larceny. Some of the crime stories reported in the daily newspapers around the country make Jessie James and even Dillinger look like sissies. Ceylon has the smallest navy in the world with only a single fighting ship. It had two others, but sold them for scrap metal. According to a supermarket executive it costs an average of five cents per pound to wrap meat for self-service display cases. And, you pay for the wrapping, too. Just learned cal writers to dinner. They have two stock questions: Who is going to win the election? What will be the margin of victory? GOP National Chairman Dean Burch has sent a memorandum to all Republican state chairmen urging them to circulate during the last week of the campaign a series of twelve pamphlets titled "The Debate That Never Was." The pamphlets present the views of President Johnson and Senator Goldwater in debate form.

Question Box

QUESTION: What is the most important decision one has to make?"

ANSWER: It is our opinion that the most important decision one has to make is that he wants to continue to develop his mental, moral, and physical faculties. After he makes that decision, then the very important decision is to learn that he must so live that other people can have confidence in him, that he is dependable and self-reliant. Then he must learn to judge who is worthy of his confidence, whether he can trust his own judgment, or whose judgment he can trust. It would seem that one of the best ways to know whether a man is worthy of one's confidence is whether the man is able to rationally and without aversion or contradiction be able to answer questions about what his convictions are and on what he is advocating or doing. Quite often when some socialist is asked a question that he can't answer his aversive reply is that any fool can answer more questions in a minute than a wise man can answer in a year. But the questions should be limited to what the man is doing and advocating or opposing. If he cannot answer questions on what he is advocating without evasion or contradiction, then he should change his conviction. If he does not do this, then he is not worthy of your confidence. Since we are largely products of our environment and those with whom we come in contact, it is very important that we come in contact with those people who will stimulate us to think rationally. We should try to come in contact with those who are good examples and who thus stimulate others to have the will to learn and those who will be willing to answer all questions on what they are advocating or opposing.

So it might be said that one of the most important decisions is to learn how to determine who is worthy of your confidence; we think we have outlined how this can be done in the above.

WASHINGTON:

U.S. Weak Under Hit By Missiles

BY RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The flight of the Soviet three-man satellite Voskhod has again raised the question as to how good are U. S. defenses against unfriendly military satellites carrying missiles. Answer: Poor. There is a strong behind-the-scenes Pentagon debate on what the United States should do to improve that capability. Says the representative of one group: "Satellites are easy to knock down. We already have two operational stations. The Russians aren't likely to put missiles into satellites because it's much cheaper to fire a missile from the Soviet Union to the United States than to put it into space orbit and then send it down to earth again. The Russians are much more likely to keep on improving their ICBMs so they will be invulnerable to improved anti-missile defenses." Says a representative of the other group: "The two anti-satellite stations we have can handle satellites in certain orbits only. The Russians aren't likely to be co-operative with any missile satellites they put up and put them in just those orbits. Besides, you can't knock down enemy satellites in peacetime any more than you can shoot up enemy warships in international waters. By the time war starts, the satellites will have launched their missiles and it will be too late to shoot them down. Our research hasn't made any real progress in learning how to handle missiles fired from space." This group says that missiles shot from space orbits theoretically can be fired at incredible speeds and from points much nearer their targets than ICBMs can be placed. An ICBM fired from the Soviet Union may take about 30 minutes to reach a target in the United States. A missile fired at a speed twice that of an ICBM from a space station 1,000 miles away could reach the United States in about two minutes. No defensive system presently dreamed of could react in that short a time. No defensive system presently thought of could handle a missile moving at that speed. (Theoretically, a missile from space orbit could come in at speeds three to four times the speed of an ICBM if the problem of overheating when entering the earth's atmosphere can be solved.) The men who favor a speedup of research on satellite-carried missiles and defenses against them say that highly efficient defenses against missiles fired from land or submarines are certain to be developed by the early 1970s. They believe this will give the balance of missile power to the nation with satellite missiles.

Editor: President Johnson has done a "delightful" job of shaming the G.O.P. He will surely have the elephant's tail stretched far between its legs by election day. Now this "don't know what they're saying" group must realize they should never speak against our government (it is flawless) or their fellowman. Instead they should say, "A thief is a cunning man, a liar is an interesting speaker, a cheat is smarter than the honest — and anyone who believes this is full of wisdom." Can we recall James Otis, Patrick Henry, and Samuel Adams, the "pen fighters" who by their writings and speeches spurred the American Revolution, also the fact that overthrown kings and rulers were rightfully called untruthful, dishonest, profane and tyrannical by the ones who overcame them? We must speak against what we don't want as well as for that we do want. Or is our motto to be, "In silence we stand," which is evidently Johnson's? Francis Rodman truthfully wrote, "when in deep water, much depends on keeping the mouth closed." Mrs. Ann Caviness Box 731 Pampa, Texas from the Wine Institute that dinner wines are usually made from fermented grape juice, but desert wines are fortified with alcohol. Never gave it much thought but a fellow in the business tell us that greeting cards are the only product made which must reflect the personality of the sender as well as the recipient. He adds that no matter how pretty the picture the words must be right. Did you know Soviet Russia is the only country that hasn't made any payment on its World War II debt to Uncle Sam? Uncle is holding the bag on that one for $11 billion, and we wonder why he doesn't ask for a little something on account. He shows no hesitancy in putting his hands in our pockets for petty cash. The Seattle (Wash.) POST-INTELLIGENCER recently headlined a story: "Beatles Drive Girls Silly In Philly." All silly ditties aren't in Philly. The Beatles would be the first to admit you'll find lots of them in Piccadilly. Country Editor speaking: "A lot of people spend only a few minutes talking themselves into trouble and then have to spend hours trying to talk themselves out of it."

matter of fact

The cardigan, a knitted worsted jacket, is named after the Seventh Earl of Cardigan, the English general famous for leading the charge of the Light Brigade. He inherited his father's earldom and by spending an estimated 10,000 pounds a year of his own money he made his regiment the smartest in the service. The cardigan, a loose type of overcoat, was named after Lord Raglan, who originated the charge.

On Nov. 3 Ballot

Amendment Would Alter School Fund

AUSTIN (UPI)—Texas legislators will have one less "easy way out" of sticky revenue-raising problems if voters approve constitutional Amendment No. 1 on the Nov. 3 ballot. The amendment would prevent legislators from dipping into the principal of the state's permanent school fund to finance public school operations. Proponents of the amendment know of no organized opposition to other amendments, making it more difficult to create conservation and reclamation districts and extending the federal Kerr-Mills medical care program for the aged, also have little announced opposition. Proposal No. 1 on this year's ballot would repeal the 1891 "Jester Amendment," which gave the legislature authority to transfer up to 1 per cent annually from the permanent school fund to the available school fund.

Millions in Trust
The permanent school fund, created in the early days of Texas' statehood, holds in trust millions of acres of land and mineral rights. The income goes into the available school fund, which partially finances the state's public schools. Since 1956, legislatures with a shortage of funds and an unwillingness to impose additional taxes have used the Jester amendment five times to withdraw about $20-million from the permanent school fund. The fund is now worth about $550 million, so about $5.5 million could be withdrawn each year under the Jester amendment.

The legislators themselves decided in 1963 to put an end to this practice, and proposed the current amendment.

Amendment Explained
The amendment provides that all income from the permanent school fund shall go to the available fund, and adds, "no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever."

It retains the section of the Jester amendment that prohibits use of available school funds "for the support of any sectarian school."
The amendment has the support of Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who administers the permanent school fund, and the State Board of Education, which has control over the available school fund. Virtually all the state's professional educational organizations, including the Texas State Teachers Association, the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Texas Association of School Boards, have endorsed the proposal.

Hollywood

Producer Has Nikita-Size Headaches

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Think Khrushchev has troubles? Consider the case of producer Robert Aldrich.
He began a motion picture, appropriately enough on April Fool's Day, with a 32-day shooting schedule and it isn't finished yet seven months later. "Cleopatra" and "Mutiny on the Bounty" had equally disastrous delays, but they were multi-million dollar epics involving the likes of Liz Taylor and Marlon Brando. Aldrich, on the other hand, had set aside a measly $1,200,000 for his film.
Aldrich's picture is "Hush... Hush, Sweet Charlotte," and last April it costarred Joan Crawford and Bette Davis (billed in alphabetical order). Here it is October and the unfinished picture now stars Bette Davis and Olivia DeHavilland (still in alphabetical order).
Comes The Trouble
Trouble began April 1 when Miss Crawford was unable to report to work because of a soft drink sales meeting in Hawaii. Aldrich postponed the starting date to June 1.
In the interim the principal writer walked off the picture, forcing Aldrich to send to England for Lucas Heller to rewrite the script—an eight-week delay.
"Finally shooting began," said Aldrich. "We'd completed 80 of the 140 pages of script when Miss Crawford became ill. We waited around for 3 1/2 weeks before finally closing down for a full 3 weeks. Miss Crawford's condition improved and we cranked up again, shooting about two hours a day, as her health would allow.
"But we limped along for only a week when Miss Crawford got sick again, and we closed down for six more weeks."
Most producers would be beating their breasts or chewing the rug relating these events. But Aldrich was perfectly calm. Resigned would be a better word.
Budget Balloons
Aldrich isn't sure whether the insurance company will come through with $700,000 he hopes to collect for delays on the picture. But he's worried about it.
"Our budget has blown up to $2,100,000," he said, "and we've had 59 shooting days instead of the original 32. And what was supposed to have been a six-week picture has become a five-month picture."
"It could be worse, I guess. But I'd like to know how."

Johnson Hits Heckling on South Tour

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—President Johnson ran into some of the most persistent heckling of his current election campaign here Monday in a three-state tour of the South.
Generally, the jet-hopping swing into Florida, Georgia and South Carolina brought ringing applause from swarming crowds estimated to total more than 200,000 persons.
About 50,000 turned out Monday in Augusta, regarded as a Barry Goldwater stronghold.
Here, as earlier in Macon, Johnson was met by chanting of "we want Barry" from teenagers at the rear of the crowds.
The Chief Executive silenced the chanting by likening them to "diseased" taunters who spat on him and his wife in Dallas during the 1960 campaign.
"I would like to come and say to the people of America that these tactics that we have read about and that we have seen don't represent a majority of Americans. They represent a minority of poor, unfortunate souls that ought to be pitied instead of criticized," Johnson said.
Before Johnson reached the speaker's platform at the Augusta-Richmond County Municipal Building, two eggs were hurled through the air. They splattered on four drum major-ettes and a middle-aged woman.
Johnson gave no indication that he was aware of the incident. But he was aware of the rear by youngsters waving Goldwater signs.
