CHAMP WELCOME — Brief welcome home ceremonies were held Wednesday night at Foster and Cuyler for Pampa's Olympic silver medal winner Randy Matson. The Pampa High School band was on hand for the welcome and added to the spirit of the occasion as the Chamber of Commerce representatives presented Randy with a key to the city. Matson and his father were kept busy long after the ceremony was concluded signing autographs for youngsters and showing the youths the silver medal won in Tokyo.

Government Troops Kill 30 in Bolivia

Miners Fired Upon In Demonstration

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI) — Army troops fired on a group of miners early today in Sora Sora, the national radio at Tuanuni announced.

First reports said 30 miners were killed and many injured by the machine gun fire. Sora Sora is about 12 miles from the tin-mining center of Oruro, 120 miles southeast of La Paz.

The clash at Sora Sora was the latest incident in a week of violence between supporters and Communist-backed opponents of President Victor Paz Estenssoro. At least 14 persons had been killed in earlier clashes. The radio station at Huanuni said the shooting at Sora Sora took place when the army tried to stop the miners' march on Oruro.

Pair Fined on Destruction of Rural Mailboxes

Fines totaling more than $400 were assessed two men yesterday by County Judge Bill Craig after they pleaded guilty to charges of destruction of property.

Herbert B. Smith, 20, of Amarillo and Jim B. Carney, 20, who lives 20 miles south of Pampa, were each fined $200 plus court costs on the charge. The men were charged with destroying approximately 20 mailboxes with a 12-gauge shotgun early Sunday morning. They were apprehended Wednesday morning by the Gray County Sheriff's office.

Rufe Jordan, sheriff, was high in praise for two deputies who cleared the case, Jimmy Bowers and D. L. Day. Jordan said, "This was not a big case by any means, however, destruction of mail boxes has plagued officers for some time and due to the efficient and conscientious work by these two outstanding officers the men were apprehended and brought to court."

WEATHER

PAMPA AND VICINITY—Fair to partly cloudy through tomorrow. Increasing cloudiness tomorrow. No important changes in temperatures. Winds light and variable. Low tonight low 40s, high tomorrow upper 70s.

Unpaid Poll Tax Law Ruled Null By U.S. Judges

Controversial Statute in Mississippi Declared Void

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — A controversial Mississippi law requiring an "unpaid" poll tax receipt to vote in federal elections was struck down Wednesday by a three-judge federal court.

The judges declared the statute "unconstitutional and void on its face in its entirety."

The legislature passed the law following the adoption of a new amendment to the Constitution outlawing the payment of poll tax as a requirement for voting for federal officeholders. Poll taxes still are a requirement to vote in Mississippi elections.

Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson said the ruling "simply says you cannot require voters to go to the sheriff's office and get a poll tax receipt marked 'unpaid'."

"All clerks have been notified accordingly," he said. He said the ruling would have no other effect on the Nov. 3 election, and that no appeal was planned.

The state law, passed this year, was viewed as an effort to hold down voting by Negroes.

Two separate ballots will be used in the Nov. 3 election in Mississippi, one for the federal offices and the other for state offices. Only those registered who have paid poll taxes will receive the state ballot.

Washington: Leroy Collins, head of the Community Relations Service, said Wednesday a victory for President Johnson next Tuesday would commit the nation to support civil rights.

Tuscaloosa, Ala.: Two Alabama National Guardsmen, sentenced to two years in prison for setting off explosives near the integrated University of Alabama last year, were placed on probation Wednesday.

Magnolia, Miss.: Pike County Sheriff R. R. Warren gave no explanation Wednesday for releasing 13 Negroes and whites arrested at the courthouse on trespassing charges. Release of the group, mostly civil rights workers, ended their plan to remain in jail to protest alleged segregation policies in this southwest Mississippi county.

Richmond, Va.: A federal hearing was scheduled today on a motion to strike down Virginia's anti-mixed marriage laws.

Former US Justice, Harold Burton, Dies
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Supreme Court Justice Harold Hitz Burton, who served on the bench for 13 years, died Wednesday at the age of 76.

Burton, a native of Jamaica Plain, Mass., retired from the court at the opening of the 1950-51 term when he began to suffer from the effects of Parkinson's disease. He was succeeded by Justice Potter Stewart.

Doctors attributed Burton's death to Parkinson's disease, along with kidney and heart complications.

Bank Robber Uses Cab in Holdup At Big Spring

BIG SPRING (UPI) — A new wrinkle hit the bank-robbery business Wednesday — robbery by taxicab.

Police said a pistol-packing bandit took a cab to the Security State Bank, told it to wait, robbed the bank of $4,960, and calmly departed in the cab.

He was quickly caught and the money recovered. Police arrested Herginio S. Soto, 35, of Santurce, Puerto Rico, at the Big Spring State Mental Hospital when the cab pulled up.

Eisenhower Recalls No 'Jenkins' Worries

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said today he had no knowledge of any "problem" during his administration comparable to the Walter Jenkins case.

On leaving Walter Reed Hospital after a week's treatment for bronchial trouble, Eisenhower was asked about a statement by President Johnson that "the same type of problem" as the current Jenkins episode involved an Eisenhower aide a few years ago.

Jenkins resigned recently as a top Johnson aide following disclosure that he had been arrested twice on moral charges.

Eisenhower said Johnson's remark was "very interesting" but said he knew of no similar case during his administration. "Can you give me any names?" he asked reporters. None was volunteered.

Johnson did not identify the person to whom he referred. The 74-year-old former president appeared in good health and spirits as he left the hospital. Army Surgeon General Leonard D. Heaton said the general had made a "nice recovery" from the bronchial trouble and laryngitis.

Lance said he was not bolting the party and wasn't necessarily endorsing or supporting Yarborough's opponent in the upcoming election.

Yarborough is facing Republican George Bush, Houston oilman and son of the former U.S. Senator Prescott Bush of Connecticut.

Science Awards Given to Four

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — The 1964 Nobel Prize for Chemistry today was awarded to Dorothy Crowfoot Hodgkin, Wolfson research professor of the Royal Society at Oxford University, England.

The 1964 Nobel Prize for physics was awarded jointly today to Prof. Charles Townes of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and to two Russian scientists.

The Russians are Nikolai Basov and Prof. Aleksander Prokhorov. The winners were chosen by a vote of the Swedish Academy of Science.

Kremlin Launches New Blast at Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Kremlin's rulers today launched a new attack on Nikita Khrushchev.

The new attack came after Communist sources disclosed that Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky took a direct part in Khrushchev's ouster.

The Soviet Union's authoritative magazine Kommunist accused Khrushchev — without mentioning him by name — of fumbling leadership and one-man rule.

The Kremlin leaders, trying to dampen down criticism from foreign Communists of Khrushchev's removal, ended talks with visiting French Communists today. The French delegation left by plane for Paris.

A French Communist source said the delegation went home "very satisfied" with its talks. A joint Soviet-French Communist communique was expected to be issued later.

The Communist sources said Malinovsky played a personal role in the ouster of Khrushchev.

The sources said Malinovsky was invited to the Presidium meeting Oct. 14 that discussed Khrushchev's shortcomings and laid the groundwork for his forced resignation. Malinovsky turned on Khrushchev and supported Leonid Brezhnev and others who demanded Khrushchev's dismissal, the sources said.

The disclosure was made as Soviet effort to win Western Communist support for the changes in the Kremlin needed a climax. Reliable sources said

Skellytown Man Dies in Air Crash

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Skellytown Junior High School principal E. A. McCreary was notified by the U. S. Navy that his son Robert has been killed in a plane crash at sea.

The McCreary family received an official telegram from the U. S. Navy which read in part: "The Navy regrets to inform you, that your son, Robert McCreary, AX3, USN, died Oct. 27, 1964 at sea as a result of an airplane crash."

No further details were available at this time and funeral plans are pending.

Robert played on the state champion White Deer football team of 1948, and graduated from White Deer High School the following year. He would have completed three years in the Navy this Saturday.

Negro Slain After Fight With Woman

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI) — A young Negro was shot and killed by a white man in an all-night restaurant here early today after the Negro allegedly cursed a white waitress and threw a sugar bowl at her.

Charles Morrow, 22, was shot once in the back with a .38 caliber revolver. He staggered across the street from the restaurant and fell dead on the sidewalk.

The restaurant is the Krystal. Amos Jones, 64-year-old retired railroad worker, was arrested and charged with murder.

City homicide detective Joe Hannah said the waitress told officers Morrow came into the restaurant, located on the fringe of a Negro neighborhood, and said:

"Hay, baby doll, how about a cup of coffee."

She said she told the Negro her name wasn't "baby doll" and asked him to leave.

She said he began cursing her and she threw a hot cup of coffee on him. He then threw a sugar bowl at her, she said, and started crawling across the counter toward her.

Jones told officers he then shot Morrow to protect the waitress.

The Krystal and other restaurants here were desegregated about a year ago. Chattanooga schools also are desegregated.

Court Rejects Plea for Time

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court has rejected Sen. Barry M. Goldwater's attempt to require the television networks to give him equal and free time to reply to President Johnson's recent broadcast on world affairs.

The court's 6-2 decision late Wednesday upheld a ruling by the U.S. Court of Appeals that the Federal Communications Commission was correct in deciding that the three networks did not have to allow the Republican presidential nominee equal time to answer Johnson's speech.

The lower court said that the President's discussion of the change in Russia's leadership and the detonation by Red China of an atomic bomb was exempt from the "equal opportunities" requirement in the federal law.

Justices Arthur J. Goldberg and Hugo L. Black disagreed with the Supreme Court majority in a three-page dissent. They said the high court should have granted Goldwater's request to review the appeals court decision in oral arguments.

The court is out of session now until Nov. 9, but could be convened for a legal emergency.

APPARENT SUICIDE PACT
NEW YORK (UPI) — The bodies of two men who died in an apparent suicide pact were found Wednesday in a furnished room.

The men had placed a bedsheet over an opened closet door, then each tied an end around his neck and kicked away the chairs they stood on. Police said the two men, Robert Kearney and Richard Greco, were in their twenties.

Deadline Nears On Absent Vote

Persons who will not be in Gray County for the Tuesday general election have until 5 p.m. tomorrow to vote absentee.

As of early this morning, 670 absentee votes have been cast in the election in the Gray County Clerk's office. In the 1960 presidential election, there were 702 absentee votes cast.

County Clerk Charlie Thut said that the heaviest influx of absentee voters should come this afternoon and tomorrow.

The polls will open Tuesday at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. There are 13 contested races on the ballot with the hottest, of course, being the Johnson-Goldwater battle for president of the United States.

The only locally contested race on the ballot is the battle for 18th District congressman between incumbent Walter Rogers and Bob Price, Pampa rancher.

A sample ballot will be printed in Sunday's edition of the News.

CROP DRIVE — Pampa's youth will be knocking on local doors to help raise funds for the Christian Rural Overseas Program. Local CROP representatives said the youths collecting funds will be identified by an arm band and will be carrying milk cartons for the donations. Funds will be used in the CROP program abroad and provide a Christian activity for local youths on Halloween. Studying the plans for the drive seated from left are Rev. Loren Williams and Paul Bowers, vice president of the local CROP board and a member of the Texas Board. Standing from left are Doug Altom, high school chairman; David Frashler, junior class chairman; Carletta Johnson, senior class chairman and Doc Cornutt, sophomore class chairman.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
As leader of Britain's Labor party, Harold Wilson made much during the last election campaign of the stop-go economy which had plagued the country through the 1950's and into the 1960's.

This week, as the new prime minister, he began putting into effect the policies which he believes will stop the potentially disastrous practice in which Britain spends more than she earns.

Britain's trade gap this year will amount to right around $2 billion, and Wilson's first step was to discourage imports by clamping on a 15 per cent surcharge on items which he believes Britons can do without or manufacture for themselves.

Recognize Stagnation

Despite pre-election fireworks, the measure probably was not much different than would have been taken by Wilson's Conservative predecessors had they, and not Labor, won the election. The stagnating effect of stop-go government economic policies had been recognized by the Conservatives in 1961 and the first steps taken to revitalize British industry and exports.

A national economic development council attacked bottlenecks in the transport and building industries. Location of new industry was encouraged in such lagging areas as the Northeast, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Old stop-go policies were abandoned. These had consisted of credit restrictions which slowed spending but at the same time halted industrial expansion and led to widespread unemployment. Running under a minimum of controls the country showed surface prosperity and unemployment fell to around one per cent.

Problem Remains

But the problem of outgo over income remained.

The effect of Wilson's first step will be felt both at home and abroad. U.S. businessmen recognized the need but felt less drastic measures would have sufficed.

A move to review "prestige" projects could have a disastrous effect on the 1,400-mile-per-hour jet airliner being developed with France and affecting the jobs of 80,000 workers. Britain already has closed down the gaseous diffusion plant in which it manufactured its hydrogen bomb material, and the new attitude also would seem to forecast a change in its participation with the United States in the operation of Polaris submarines.

At home, the Wilson policy of encouraging modern streamlined operation of industry well could run into opposition from both industry and labor.

Pampan Named To Head Texas Odd Fellow Unit

John Killian of 522 N. Starkweather was elevated to grand patriarch of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Texas at the group's state meeting in Houston this week. He will preside at the annual session in Dallas next October.

Others attending the session from Pampa were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Neugin. Neugin was appointed marshal, and his official duty is to accompany and introduce the grand patriarch on his official visits over the state.

J. W. Brummett of Pampa was appointed to serve on one of the state standing committees for the coming year.

While at the convention Mr. and Mrs. Killian, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Neugin and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. (Pud) Wharton of Paris, Texas, (formerly of Pampa) held open house in honor of Lady Marion Smith of Halifax, Nova Scotia. Lady Smith is president of the International Association of Ladies Auxiliaries to the Patriarch Militant of IOOF.

Other visitors were General Commanding Ramond Volk and wife of Pittsburg, Kan., and Chief of Staff General Blaine Walker of Atlanta, Ga.

During the session Mrs. Killian served as personal page to Lady Aletha Loeckle, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Texas.

Three Bands Win Marching Award

Three Pampa bands, who competed in the annual marching contest Tuesday at Canyon, received the highest rating given in the competition.

The Pampa Harvester, Lee Rebel and Pampa Reaper bands all received a Division I rating.

Pampa was the only city represented in the contest that had each band entered win a Division I rating.

If the bands receive a Division I rating at the concert and sight reading competition next spring, they will qualify for the Sweepstakes award, the highest honor a band can win in regional competition.

The Harvester band has won the Sweepstakes award for the past seven years.

Two twirlers for the band also received a Division I rating. Twillo Preuss and Donna Connor were given the rating for superior twirling performances.

Competing in the contest were bands from Amarillo, Borger and Pampa.

CATCHES BABY
SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — Contractor Ted Galeb spotted a baby teetering on the second-floor windowsill of a neighbor's home Wednesday, raced 25 yards and caught the little girl in his outstretched arms.

Doctor Blames Modern Music For Delinquency

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI) — Modern beat music is partly to blame for some of the increase in sexual delinquency among teenagers, Nottingham's chief school medical officer said Wednesday.

Dr. Ronald Sprenger said in his annual report that popular beat music was obviously stimulating, "as one can note in any gathering of girls when one of the many beat groups is in full session."

He said mass hysteria affects many teen-agers to the point where they lack any thought about their immediate welfare.

BEGIN EXCHANGE

MOSCOW (UPI) — American and Soviet weathermen Wednesday began their first direct exchange of meteorological information.

Weather charts were transmitted by photo-telegraph on a direct communications channel between the Washington and Moscow meteorological centers, the Soviet news agency Tass said.

Soviet specialists regard the new daily exchange agreement as "an extremely important contribution to the weather forecast service," Tass said.

Conoco Station Opens in Center

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies were held at 11:30 this morning for the Coronado Conoco Service Station, the newest business in the multi-million Coronado Shopping Center.

The ribbon was cut by Mayor H. R. Thompson. Tom Snow represented the Chamber of Commerce.

The station, constructed at a cost of $50,000 will be operated by Wallace Joutette.

Following the ribbon cutting ceremonies this morning, the Continental Oil Co., owners of the station, were host at a noon luncheon for all merchants of the shopping center.

Give Queen of Birds a New Dress This Thanksgiving

CHESTNUT SAUSAGE STUFFING glorifies the traditional Thanksgiving turkey.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Just in time for Thanksgiving, Jan Mitchell's "Cooking a la Longchamps" arrives to enliven our traditional festive menus.

We have known Jan Mitchell for many years. He is a man with a flair for good food with no nonsense and we have often dined with him in the excellent Longchamps restaurants which he owns. We asked him yesterday to select two recipes from his book on gracious dining particularly suited to the family Thanksgiving. He chose the following.

ROAST TURKEY WITH CHESTNUT-SAUSAGE STUFFING
(Serves 15 to 20)
2 pounds chestnuts
2 tablespoons butter

each chestnut and roast or broil until tender. Remove shells and inner skins. Cool and chop coarsely. This is a bit of a chore, so let us suggest you simplify it all by buying the chestnuts (marrons) imported from France (2 cans, 315 grams each). You simply drain these thoroughly and chop coarsely.

Melt butter in a large skillet, add onions and cook slowly 4 to 5 minutes. Add sausage meat, breaking it up with a fork. Cook until meat has browned lightly. Stir occasionally. Take off the stove. Mix milk into bread mixture. Then add thyme, parsley, cognac, eggs, salt and pepper. Finally add the chestnuts and mix thoroughly.

Stuff the turkey with this chestnut-sausage mixture. Then truss securely. Rub the bird generously with softened

Few celery leaves, chopped coarsely

2 onions, chopped coarsely
1 bay leaf, crushed
1 teaspoon dried thyme
4 cloves garlic (whole)
12 peppercorns, crushed
Continue roasting the turkey, approximately another 2 hours or until tender. You can determine doneness by squeezing the leg. It is soft and pliable when the bird is properly roasted.

For a smaller turkey, 9 to 10 pounds, dressed, cut all ingredients in half and roast turkey, at the same temperature, for about 3 hours or 18 to 20 minutes per pound.

CAULIFLOWER POLONNAISE
(Serves 4 to 6)

1 medium-sized cauliflower
Juice of 1 lemon
3 tablespoons of butter
1/2 cup bread crumbs
2 tablespoons of chopped hardboiled eggs
1 tablespoon freshly chopped parsley

Trim the cauliflower of its green leaves and the tough section of the core. Wash thoroughly. Then cook in boiling salted water to which the juice of 1 lemon has been added, from 20 to 30 minutes or until tender. Remove from pot. Drain. Place on hot serving dish. Heat the butter in a frying pan until it is light brown. Add crumbs and toss a few times. Then pour the sizzling butter and crumbs over the cauliflower. Sprinkle with the chopped eggs and parsley.

6 THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1964 57TH YEAR

2 onions, finely chopped
1 1/2 pounds sausage meat
4 to 5 tablespoons milk
1 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
5 or 6 springs parsley, chopped fine
1/4 cup cognac
2 whole eggs, slightly beaten
Salt and pepper
1 turkey, 15 to 18 pounds
Cut gashes in the flat side of butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Roast in a preheated 350-degree (moderate) oven, allowing 18 to 20 minutes per pound. Baste occasionally. You may find you have to add more butter during the roasting period for basting purposes. At the end of the first 2 hours, add the following to the roasting pan:

2 carrots, chopped coarsely

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Weekend food shoppers will find plentiful supplies of meat and poultry as well as a good selection of fall fruits and vegetables at local food stores. Meat counters will offer abundances of beef, particularly roasts, bacon, ham and pork roasts. Poultry departments will feature both broiler-fryer chickens and turkey. For fish eaters, there are good supplies of canned pink salmon and fish sticks and fish portions. At fresh produce counters there's plenty of apples, avocados, cranberries, oranges, and carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, pears.

Vanilla Wafer Cake Is Impressive

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
As the holiday season approaches it's time to collect recipes for festive cakes. Try this particularly impressive recipe for your next party.

VANILLA WAFER CAKE
3/4 cup margarine
1 1/2 cups sugar

potatoes, pumpkins, squash, sweet potatoes, and tomatoes. For salads and fruit bowls, there's plenty of apples, avocados, cranberries, oranges, and pears.

6 eggs
3 cups vanilla wafer crumbs (12-ounce package)
1/2 cup milk
1 cup chopped pecans
1 1/3 cups (about) flaked coconut
Creamy Sugar Frosting
Chopped pecans, or toasted coconut (optional)

Cream margarine: gradually add sugar. Then beat until fluffy. Add eggs one at a time; beat well after each. Alternately fold in crumbs and milk. Stir in pecans and coconut. (Batter may appear curdled.) Spoon into 9-inch tube pan which has been greased, floured and lined on bottom with waxed paper. Evenly spread batter in pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour and 10 minutes. Cool in pan 15 minutes. Remove cake to rack and remove wax paper. Cool thoroughly. Frost, letting some of frosting run down sides of cake. If desired, sprinkle pecans or toasted coconut around edge. (Cake may be stored in refrigerator, in covered container, or may be wrapped in rum-soaked cheesecloth before storing and before frosting.)

Cake may be baked in 13x9-inch pan 45-50 minutes.

CREAMY SUGAR FROSTING
(1 cup)

2-3 cup light cream
2-3 cup sugar
1/4 cup margarine

Combine ingredients. Boil 3 minutes. Let cool; then beat until of spreading consistency—5 to 10 minutes.

Add sugar to frozen fruits before freezing to retain the natural color and vitamin content longer.

Make meat loaf or hamburgers with evaporated milk to form a rich brown crust.

501 doctors requested 10,200 COMET RICE DIETS for their patients!

Only COMET, the Modern Rice, is both Vitafied and Enriched to protect your health while dieting. That may be one of the reasons hundreds of doctors have requested thousands of copies of the COMET RICE DIET for their patients. More than 90% of those who reported that they followed the COMET RICE DIET faithfully state that they lost a pound a day, yet never were hungry. Weight reductions range from a few pounds to more than one hundred pounds, according to some users. Of course, some did not like the Diet. COMET makes no claims, no guarantees. # Election Net Not New to Texas

DALLAS (UPI) — You will hear a lot in the next two weeks about NES — Network Election Service. It is not exactly new. Texas has had one for 49 years.

The Texas vote tabulating service is the Texas Election Bureau. Without surrendering its autonomy or changing its methods, it will become part of NES the night of the general election Nov. 3.

NES is an organization composed of United Press International, The Associated Press, and the television networks—ABC, CBS and NBC—to tabulate presidential, senatorial, congressional and gubernatorial returns on a national basis.

Forty-nine years ago, Texas newspapers set up the TEB to count returns on a statewide basis. Texas was then the biggest state in the union, communications were slow and it took a big organization to count returns.

Johnson Director
R. L. (Rob) Johnson, who retired recently as advertising manager of Texas Power and Light Co., has been with TEB through most of its history and is its director.

Johnson and a staff of about 40 will gather in the offices of Service Bureau Corp., where there is a huge collection of computers, on election night and count what Johnson expects to be a total of about 2.5 million Texas votes.

The job should be substantially finished by 2 a.m. Nov. 4. Johnson believes that he should have a fair idea by 9 p.m.—two hours after the polls close—about which Presidential candidate won Texas.

The computers will deliver a fresh Texas total, listing the vote for each of the state's 254 counties, every 15 minutes. The press associations and television networks divided up the 50 states among themselves for responsibility in tabulation.

CBS drew Texas and has about the easiest vote tabulating job in the country. Every 15 minutes Johnson will hand a CBS representative a tabulation which he will telephone in to a national counting headquarters in New York.

Wire Services Decide
United Press International and AP will decide—with Johnson's advice—when a presidential, senatorial, congressional or gubernatorial candidate is elected in Texas.

TEB is run by a board of eight managing editors of Texas newspapers. In 1945, Texas radio stations started using TEB returns and in 1952 television stations entered the picture.

Newspapers, radio and television stations are assessed by TEB to pay for election return tabulation. It does not make money; if any is left over after elections are over, it is returned.

The press associations distribute TEB returns. In 52 of the most populous counties, daily newspapers count the returns and funnel them in to TEB headquarters in Dallas.

In the remaining 202 counties, Johnson depends on one man in each county to collect returns and telephone them in. Johnson started with TEB in 1922.

He was a journalism student at Southern Methodist University and A. F. Henning, a professor at SMU, was TEB director. Henning let Johnson help him. Henning had a heart attack in 1936; Johnson took over the election bureau and has run it ever since.

At the beginning, returns were telephoned to four collection centers over the state and sent on four telegraph wires to Dallas. Now everything is telephoned directly to Dallas.

And at the beginning, returns were totaled on adding machines. It took 75 or 80 persons and then, as now, every tabulation was checked.

Headquarters of the TEB then was the library of the Dallas Morning News. From adding machines, the TEB went over to digital computers—that is, computers operated by hand.

Computers Used
That was faster, but communications being what they were, it sometimes took two or three days, sometimes a week, to find out who won an election.

Now the results are known within hours. Computers are still used, but the kind that operate with cards with holes punched in them.

The TEB operates on a county basis. Every time a new return comes in for a county, a new card is punched. The computer automatically throws out the old card and uses the new one to make the newest tabulation.

Johnson and his workers check every return that comes in and every tabulation before they release it.

President Johnson has given the TEB its two roughest counting jobs. The roughest was the 1948 senatorial election, which Johnson won by 87 votes over Coke Stevenson.

"We had a 101 - vote margin for Johnson and the official count was 87 votes ahead," Johnson said.

The next roughest election count was in 1941 when Johnson, then a congressman, ran against W. Lee (Pass the Biscuits, Pappy) O'Daniel for the Senate.

Bad weather that knocked out communications was the villain that time. O'Daniel won by 1,300 votes; Johnson had his job as a congressman to fall back on.

Never Wrong
While the TEB's tabulations are never wrong as far as who wins and loses is concerned, they frequently do not agree with the official canvass. There sometimes is a couple of hundred votes difference.

"The reason for this," Johnson said, "is that in the official canvass the votes are mailed in and carefully counted. We get them by telephone, frequently added by pencil and it is awfully easy at midnight for a correspondent to say '956 when he means 596.'"

Sometimes, for himself and his co-workers, Johnson will project election returns—that is extend them by percentages and by using factors from past elections and name a winner long before the actual returns justify it.

He never makes his projections public.

The TV networks plan to project returns by using computers this year and say, perhaps, within an hour or two after the polls close in the east, who the new president is.

Johnson does not approve of this. He thinks that sooner or later a projection is going to turn out wrong and that the projection of a winner based on eastern and central time zone returns could influence the vote in the rest of the country, where the polls are still open.

But Johnson looks with favor on the new idea. He hopes it will catch on. Previously, the two press associations have compiled the vote in presidential elections.

"They have spent millions to find out the same thing," Johnson said. "It is a tremendous waste of manpower and money."

TEB can tabulate a primary, a runoff and general election for a total of about $18,000. NES is contributing this year and Johnson is giving the NES money to his county correspondents for extra effort.

Washington Window

By LYLE WILSON

United Press International
On the record of past elections, the Nov. 3 presidential vote count probably will be crooked in spots. Your ballot may be stolen. If you have been voting long it is likely that your vote has been stolen before this.

The National Municipal Review (NMR) some years ago publicized an Honest Ballot Association (HBA) estimate that at least 1 million votes were stolen in the 1952 election.

HBA chief investigator George Abrams warned at the time:

"Election frauds are increasing. Nearly every area in the United States—big city, small town—cracker Barrel village—has some type of election frauds. It may be in a national election or one involving local school boards, judges or highways."

Samuel H. Still, an election investigator for Congress, said in a 1956 report on election scandals that:

"Approximately 50 public figures who occupy high state and municipal offices today would not have won them had the elections been carried out according to law."

Abrams and HBA fingered the 1928 election of Franklin D. Roosevelt to be governor of New York, citing "the famous long count." FDR beat Republican Albert Ottinger.

"Democratic boss Ed Flynn's cronies," said Abrams, "sat quietly in the Bronx counting ballots at snail's pace until 2 a.m., when the traditionally Republican upstate returns showed Ottinger's exact margin."

"When the (Bronx) boys knew how many votes were needed, they went to work. Republican ballots (in the Bronx) were thrown out under a pretext. Lead concealed under the finger nail and every other trick (to invalidate Republican ballots) were used. Mr. Roosevelt woke up governor with a 26,000 state-wide plurality. He had a whopping 95,000 vote margin in the Bronx."

NMR recalled that in 1950 Harry F. Kelly was believed to have defeated Democrat G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams in Michigan for governor by 4,000 votes out of about 1.8 million cast. A recount gave the election to Williams by a margin of 1,154 votes. NMR commented like this:

"A comprehensive, non-artisan study made four years later by the University of Michigan's Samuel J. Eldersveld and Albert A. Applegate concluded:

"The law's requirements for ballot security were disregarded by election officials in precincts involving more than 12,000 votes. In one case, testimony of election officials indicates that boxes and ballots were violated after having been properly sealed on election night."

NMR cited a report by a U.S. Senate subcommittee after the 1952 election in which Democratic Sen. Dennis Chavez defeated Republican Patrick J. Hurley for the Senate in New Mexico. NMR quoted the report:

Kerr-Mills Passage Sought

Medical Coverage for Aged on Ballot

By DAVID ANDERSON

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Proponents of "Medicare" will have to decide Nov. 3 whether to give aid and comfort to the enemy or cut off the nose to spite the face.

The "enemy" in this case is the Texas Medical Association (TMA), and the aid and comfort it seeks is passage of a Texas Constitutional amendment extending Kerr-Mills medical coverage to aged Texans who are needy but are not receiving old age assistance.

The TMA, key backer of the proposal from its inception in the 1963 legislature, knows it has "Medicare" fans "between a rock and a hard place." If they vote against the amendment, the added medical coverage for oldsters will give more substance to the TMA's claim that "Medicare" is unnecessary because aged Texans' medical needs already are adequately cared for.

If they vote against the amendment in hopes of encouraging passage of "Medicare," they may deprive 23,000 Texans of help with their medical bills.

AFL-CIO Takes Stand
The Texas AFL-CIO, one of the state's most vigorous champions of "Medicare," took note of this dilemma Oct. 10 when its executive board decided not to take a stand on the Medical Care Amendment or two other proposals to be presented to Texas voters this year.

The other two amendments would prevent the legislature from transferring money from the permanent school fund to the available school fund and make it more difficult to create new reclamation and conservation districts.

Proposed Amendment No. 3 would allow the state to participate in "phase two" of the Kerr-Mills program, which is financed 76 per cent federally and 24 per cent by the state.

Under "phase one" a group Blue Cross plan paid for with Kerr-Mills money pays medical bills for the 229,000 Texans on old age assistance.

Extend Coverage
The amendment would extend this coverage to any needy Texan over 65. The federal definition of "needy" includes individuals with an income of less than $1,800 a year and couple who make less than $3,600.

The requirements and benefits of the extended program would be determined by the legislature, which could set the income limits even lower.

The TMA estimates that the category of aged Texans not on old age assistance but living on less than $1,800 a year includes only 3 per cent of the state's aged population.

Nevertheless, the doctors' organization considers passage of the amendment a step in its fight against medical care under Social Security — "Medicare."

TMA Goes On Air
The TMA has begun buying radio and television time for commercials prepared by the praise the Kerr-Mills approach (AMA). The announcements praise the Kerr-Mills approach to medical care and argue against the Social Security approach.

It's The Law In Texas
"FINDERS KEEPERS"
Few people realize that a dirty-faced urchin is responsible for the main principles behind our law governing the ownership of lost articles.

Percy Army was a chimney sweep's helper who lived in London shortly before the birth of our own George Washington. Trudging home one day from his grimy work he found a diamond ring in the public street.

Percy took the ring to a goldsmith's shop to find out what it was. There he placed it in the hands of the goldsmith's apprentice, who, under the pretense of weighing it, stole the diamond from its setting. When he told Percy that the ring was of very little value, Percy demanded the return of the jewel as well as its setting. The goldsmith and the apprentice, thinking that Percy was just a simple-minded boy, refused to give him back his treasure.

But Percy was not the kind to be badgered about. He sought the services of a lawyer to sue for recovery of the ring and its jeweled set. The results of his suit have immortalized Percy's name in the common law.

The goldsmith and his apprentice claimed that since Percy had only found the ring, he had no better right to it than they did. The court felt differently about the matter and ordered the finder of a lost article has the right to hold it against the whole world except the true owner. This principle established by Percy's case remains as effective today as it was over two centuries ago.

However, as far as the owner who lost the property is concerned, the finder of lost goods is merely regarded as a depositor, holding the goods for the true owner.

Dear Abby....

Another Voice Heard on Ethics of Clergymen

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Although I read your column regularly, I missed your letter criticizing the clergyman for asking the prospective bride if she were pregnant or not. However, if the letters which appeared from some clergymen today are representative of the Protestant clergy, I am ashamed to be numbered among them. A nyc clergyman who performs 556 marriages in one year, unless he has a congregation of 5000 or more members, is not a clergyman, but an operator of a marriage mill, and can expect the abnormalcy he reports. I am aware, of course, that some brides are pregnant. But the number of brides who are not pregnant is so far in the majority that a clergyman can assume that she is not. Neither I, nor any pastor of my acquaintance, has ever felt the necessity to ask a bride routinely if she is pregnant. Should I be the only one to uphold your right to criticize the clergyman for having asked that question, please let me know so I can update my conscience. Sincerely yours,

REVEREND D. DEAR REVEREND D.: No need to update your conscience. It is as modern as tomorrow. Because so many more people wrote at first to say, "Shame on you," than "Good for you," I pulled in my claws. But in the final tabulation, more readers agreed with you.

DEAR ABBY: I wonder how many women are not on speaking terms with their daughters and daughters-in-law because they had the nerve to say no as I did when asked to babysit with my grandchildren? This generation of grandchildren is wild and uncontrollable, and it is an exhausting job to run after them. Will I'm too old for that sort of nonsense, and I said so. I refuse to buy my children's affection by looking after their children while they do all the things I would like to have done but couldn't because I was too busy raising them.

PHILADELPHIAN DEAR ABBY: I am at my wits' end trying to decide how to handle this problem. I have a cousin who is 50, unmarried, and employed by a well-known religious organization. She lives in a large city and comes to visit me every few months for a week - end. She was always quite careless about her person, but each time she visits me she's worse. She has been here during the hottest spells without taking a bath once! I have hinted that we have plenty of hot water, but I got nowhere. When she leaves, the room she occupied smells to high heaven. It nearly kills me to have such a sloppy, dirty creature in my home. And I know it isn't fair to my family. She has always been one of my favorite relatives, but I can't take any more of this. What can I do without hurting her feelings?

COUNTRY COUSIN DEAR COUSIN: Forget her feelings and think of her future. One of these days she'll lose her job unless someone tells her how offensive her carelessness is. If you truly like her, for her sake, tell her.

DEAR ABBY: Please help me in my crusade against companies that provide their customers with a return envelope marked, "place stamp here" printed in the upper right - hand corner. This has bugged me for years. I have known where to place a stamp on an envelope since I was in second grade.

BUGGED DEAR BUGGED: It doesn't take much to bug you. "Place stamp here" is only to remind people that a stamp is necessary. Don't look a gift envelope in the upper right - hand corner and slimmer down.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Pointer Saves the Day When Zipper Breaks

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — This broken zipper Pointer has saved the day for me many times. When the lock pulls off the teeth and is hanging to one side, pull the lock down as far as it will go. Take a sharp scissors. On the opposite side cut in between the teeth deep enough so that you can slide the teeth back into the top of the lock. Pull lock up and stitch three or four times right above the cut so that when the zipper is pulled down it does not come off again. The girls will really go for this way to repair a broken zipper.

OLGA DEAR POLLY — To double space in my drinking glass cabinet, I put paper cup cake liners between the glasses. They can be stacked without sticking together.

HELEN. GIRLS — I use paper napkins, cut in fourths, between stacked glasses.

POLLY. Taper TOPS*Have Regular Meeting Top of Texas Taper TOPS met at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Citizen's Bank Hospitality Room with Mrs. Gladys Burger in charge.

Meeting was opened by members repeating the pledge and singing the club song. Following roll call, a loss of six pounds and a gain of three pounds was reported.

Mmes. Hazel Yates, Charlene Yeager and Alice Malloy tied for weekly queen honors with Mrs. Malloy receiving the fruit bowl.

Mrs. Myrt Leigh, leader of TOPS Pampa Pound Pirates, visited the club and reported on the night club's progress.

BE A 'LONER' Any girl who has a twin sister should dress completely differently from her twin. Individuality is an important part of fashion. So it's best to go it alone.

LEGS ARE WELL-DRESSED To look well-groomed, stockings are mandatory for town wear during summer unless your legs are free of fuzz and tanned to a golden brown.

Halloween Party Held by TOPS

TOPS Pampa Pound Pirates met Monday night in Southwestern Public Service Co. Reddy room for a regular meeting. Mrs. Gene Leigh conducted a short business meeting and minutes were read by Mrs. Ralph Patterson.

Mrs. Elzie Teague reported a loss of eight pounds and gain of four pounds by club members. A three way tie for weekly queen was shared by Mmes. Judy Rollins, Lois Teague and Leon Brown.

Mmes. Ray Ramey, Gene Leigh and O. C. Gist won game prizes with Mrs. Brown winning the door prize.

Following the business meeting the group enjoyed a Halloween party. The serving table was decorated with a witch and black cats with skeletons hanging from a black and orange net covered table. A full course meal was served which consisted of pictures of food cut from magazines and placed on the table. As each member came by, they picked up a pair of scissors to cut a portion of what they wanted.

Low calorie drinks and jelly beans were served to the nine members present. Hostesses for the party were Mmes. Gene Leigh and Leon Brown.

Lawson Shaw Speaks on High School Dropouts at Skellytown P-TA Meeting

SKELLYTOWN (Sp1) — A re- cent meeting of the Skellytown P-TA during the Lawson Shaw, speaker for the evening, was introduced by the Parent Teachers Association program chairman, Lloyd Biggers. Shaw's subject was "High School Dropouts." Using an overhead projector, Shaw showed what a dropout was, what caused dropouts and how they could be helped, stating that there was 37.2 per cent dropout in Texas from the fifth to the twelfth grades, from 1951 to 1961 there were 12 million dropouts in the United States.

Meeting closed with Mrs. McCloud giving this thought, "remember to be thankful for the rich blessings we enjoy in America."

November meeting for the Skellytown P-TA will be an Open House for American Education Week.

Pampa Welcomes Randy Matson Home

Young Admirers Surround Giant

By JEFF COHANE
News Sports Editor

The people of Pampa proudly welcomed home the Pride of Pampa yesterday as Randy Matson, the world's greatest shotpunter, returned from the 1964 Olympics.

Long into the night, after the red carpet had been rolled back and everyone else had gone home, the tall athlete wearily, but willingly, continued to sign autographs for an ever-growing horde of young worshippers, and allow them to look at, touch and admire his silver Olympic medal.

The young Pampa Giant, completely unchanged by his recent elevation to the ranks of the gods, came home happily to his family and friends, waiting for him at Amarillo Air Terminal yesterday.

Some 50 relatives, friends, former coaches and teachers, high school teammates, admirers, met him at the airport. First one to spring into the arms of the young Matson was his favorite young nephew, the second was a local office-holder seeking reelection.

While the Harvester victory flag, which has seen several lean weeks, waved proudly over the flashing cameras and poised pencils of newsmen and TV reporters, Randy Matson hugged his father, was soundly kissed by his mother, and welcomed home by his friends.

Matson displayed the silver medal, and then his high school coach, Norman Phillips, proudly hung it about his neck as he posed for more and still more pictures.

The convention finally broke up and the caravan, escorted by Gray County deputy sheriffs, rode back to Pampa and to further festivities here, as the entire city, and outlying areas, all swarmed around the First National Bank Building.

The Pampa High Band played the school song despite Texas A&M exes loudly calling for the Aggie fight song, and again the victory flag hung high under "Welcome Home, Randy" banners.

A brief welcome by Dr. Joe Donaldson and the presentation of a key to the city by Chamber of Commerce president Gene Green precluded a speech by Randy.

Calmly, with dignity and sincerity, the Pampa Giant thanked the people of his home community for their support, which helped him on to his goal.

Matson, who plans to work this year and reenter Texas A&M next semester, meanwhile participating in more track meets, probably beginning in January, started to leave the platform. One more picture again, and Matson brought out his Olympic medal.

That was the beginning of the end for the festivities, but just the beginning for Randy, as he settled down to displaying the honor and signing autographs for a thousand youngsters who went home dreaming of the day when they, too, would win an Olympic medal.

Three players missed the workout. Two of them—center Ernest Erickson and defensive guard Dwight Hood—are starters, and regarded as doubtful for Baylor's appointment Saturday with Texas Christian.

MOTHER'S PRIVILEGE — Mrs. C. W. Matson gets a once-in-a-lifetime thrill that few mothers can enjoy as she decorates son Randy with his Olympic medal for the edification of the welcoming crowd when the great shotpunter returned home to Pampa yesterday.

Jimmy Brown Nears Record, Lions Pick Up Sonny Gibbs

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Jimmy Brown is slated to go over the top Sunday—and he should take the Cleveland Browns right along with him on another giant stride toward the Eastern Division title in the National Football League.

With 9,986 yards gained during his N.F.L. career, the great Cleveland fullback needs only 14 more to become the first 10,000-yard rusher in pro football history. It looks like a cinch if only because he'll be running against the Pittsburgh Steelers who have the poorest defense in the league against rushing so far this season.

The 230-pound Brown has gained 664 yards on the ground this season while the Steelers have yielded 1,124 yards rushing in their seven games.

The Browns are favored by seven points to beat the Steelers and raise their season record to 6-1. A win is almost imperative for the Browns, however, because the high-scoring St. Louis Cardinals are playing the New York Giants, who have won only one of seven games. The Cardinals, despite the loss of offensive end Sonny Randle, are likely to be five point picks by game time.

A Cleveland defeat and a St. Louis victory would throw the Eastern race into a tie—a fact which the Philadelphia Eagles will be bearing in mind when they play the Washington Redskins. A victory would raise the Eagles' record to 5-3 and put them very much in the Eastern race—especially if the front-runners stumble.

The two big games in the Western Conference find the Baltimore Colts entertaining the San Francisco Forty-Niners and the Los Angeles Rams playing the Lions at Detroit. The Colts are seeking their seventh straight victory after an opening loss and will be favored by at least two touchdowns.

The Forty-Niners have lost five of their seven games.

The Rams and Lions are facing each other in a pivotal game. Each enters the game with a 4-2-1 record and the knowledge that another slip or two will make it virtually impossible to catch the Colts. The Rams go into the game following last Sunday's smashing 27-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers while the Lions will be seeking to bounce back from their 34-0 shellacking at the hands of the Colts.

The Lions, taking advantage of the N.F.L.'s liberalized roster limit, placed quarterback Earl Morrall on the injured reserve list Tuesday and activated 6-foot, 7-inch Sonny Gibbs, former Texas Christian star.

The Lions added Gibbs simply by picking up his contract from the Dallas Cowboys, who had signed the towering, quarter-back to a three-year $100,000 contract but didn't use him for a single play during the 1963 season.

In Sunday's other games, the Cowboys play the Chicago Bears at Chicago and the Packers play the Vikings at Minnesota. The Cowboys and Bears are no longer factors in the division races but the Vikings would "hang in" in the Western Division race by beating the Packers and raising their record to 5-3.

Jerry Garrison Second In District 3-4A Punting

Despite last week's low offensive showing, the Pampa Harvesters again placed a player on the statistical leaders list in district 3-4A released today.

Jerry "Chinky" Garrison, punting the ball well and often last Friday night, moved into second place in the district punting race behind Tom Sawyer of Plainview. Garrison actually leads all regular punters as he has batted the ball 18 times for a 36-yard average, while quick-kicking Sawyer has toed the ball only four times.

Despite an open date, Lubbock, this week's Pampa foe, places strongly in statistics, mainly on the all-around ability of quarterback Mike Bowman. Bowman is third in district passing and second in total offense, averaging 127 yards a game. Halback Roy Farmer, his pet target, is fifth in the loop in pass receiving, having caught 14 aeriels for 157 yards.

Joe Mac Tilson and Farmer split the Westerners' punting. Tilson right behind Garrison in the stats.

Mobeetie's Hornets Visit Patton Springs

MOBEETIE — The Mobeetie Hornets, after a week layoff, get back into action Friday night as they travel to Patton Springs for a district 4-B game.

Hornet coach Cecil Reynolds pointed out that, contrary to previous reports, this was Patton Springs, Texas, not Patton Springs, Kansas.

Pressed as to the exact location of Patton Springs, the tall coach explained that it was in Afton. Where is Afton? Right near Roaring Springs! After lengthy conversation, it was deduced that Mobeetie fans who drive due south of Clarendon will find the football field.

"They beat Roaring Springs, 14-0 in their first game," reported Reynolds. "They're average size, but they don't have any real small boys. They have a real good quarterback. He's very versatile, he likes to throw and run both. When they use both a ground and air attack, they are very tough. Against Estelline last week they tried to stick to nothing but passing, and lost, 14-6.

"Despite a week to rest up, we're still minus one of our regulars, Cary Jack Johnson, due to a death in the family. Bill Ridgeway or Duncan Seitz will probably take his place at guard.

"As far as Booker B. they just outplayed us and they got the breaks of the game. We were badly hurt when the score was 20-12 and we had a 70-yard touchdown called back on what I feel was a bad call...a technicality. That could have made the difference.

"Hornet of the Week is 130-pound sophomore center Jimmy Barton. He reached his tackling peak against Booker and threw some good blocks on offense.

"If my boys go out and play a real good defense, we can play Patton Springs a real tough game."

Sporting Sidelines

By JEFF COHANE

HERE WE GO with the upsets, scrambles and surprises again. I surprised myself as I stuck my neck out on several of them. Only three games behind Blinky Howard, I should play it close to the vest and eat chalk. Ray will fall sooner or later. Otis the Hat Holladay, in third place for the first time in his career as an expert, is picking some way-out specials to try to get back on top again. . . . that way can lead to disaster however."

BORGER 28, MONTEREY 7 . . . No sweat for the Bulldogs, who are growing stronger every week.

PALO DURO 14, TASCOSA 7 . . . This is my upset of the week. I'm going to be sorry,

GP First, Tascosa 3 In Ratings

DALLAS (UPI)—Galena Park replaced defending state champ Garland as Class AAAA's No. 1 team in the United Press International's Top 10 schoolboy football ratings today to mark a general reshuffle of the state's top two divisions. . . . Dumas, Phillips and Hull-Dasetta retained their No. 1 spots in the other three divisions, but defeats of top-ranked Garland, fourth-ranked Tyler High, ninth-ranked Port Neches and 10th-ranked Kingsville brought about major changes in the AAAA ranks.

And, in AAA losses by second and third-ranked Brownwood and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo—second of the season for both—dropped them out of the ratings and made room for the return of two previously fallen powers, McKinney and Palestine.

Garland dropped to fifth in AAAA, but Tyler, Port Neches and Kingsville dropped out to make way for Nederland, Texarkana and Borger. It was Texarkana's first appearance, but the other two had been in the Top 10 before.

For the third straight week, Class AA remained unchanged in name or rank with Iowa Park, Ballinger, Denver City, Taylor, Rockwall, Palacios, Sinton, Crane and Gladewater trailing Phillips.

Victoria, which knocked out Kingsville, moved up to AAAA's No. 2 spot, followed by Amarillo Tascosa, Spring Branch High, Garland, Dallas Hillcrest, Pasadena, Nederland, Texarkana and Borger.

Andrews jumped to AAA's No. 2 berth and was followed in order by Sweetwater, Vidor, Clear Creek, Weatherford, Bonham, McKinney, San Marcos and Palestine.

Jefferson replaced Ozona in A's Top 10, but in 10th place in contrast to No. 2 for Ozona until it lost to third-ranked Big Lake, which moved up a notch. The other teams each moved up one notch in the changes.

I'm afraid, PD has kicked levelled off from the great team I saw against Pampa while the Rebels are now number one in the state. Ouch!

PLAINVIEW 21, CAPROCK 14 . . . Bulldogs getting tougher every week.

WHITE DEER 22, WELLINGTON 16 . . . Coaches suggested I pick against 'em to fire the Bucks up, but Randy Elliott and Little Donnie Powell have been trying to throw me in the show-ers all season.

PATTON SPRINGS 22, MOBEETIE 14 . . . Just a wild guess. PS played a good game in a losing effort against Esteline.

MEMPHIS 20, CANADIAN 16 . . . Could be a jossup, I'm letting Dwain Currie talk me out of it.

WHEELER 28, GROOM 14 . . . Tigers will play 'em tougher than their last two foes. But the mighty Herd can't be stopped. Notice the rest of the Experts have learned their lesson.

BOOKER 28, LEFORS 20 . . . bounce back. . . far too much Bill Hughes and company bounce back. . . far too much speed for the Pirates.

MCLEAN 20, CLARENDON 16 . . . (Tigers will ride high after last week's win. Fred Hedge-coke can't talk me out of it.)

RICE 21, TEXAS TECH 7 . . . Notice all the TT alumni chick-ening out? And Otis, of all peo-ple, going with the Raiders!

TEXAS 28, SMU 0 . . . ho-hum.

BAYLOR 21, TCU 14 . . . I'll let Hal Gamble talk me into it, he's been batting 1,000 so far.

ARKANSAS 28, TEXAS A&M 0 . . . Understand the alumni are organizing a "Bundles for Feld-berg" drive.

OKLAHOMA 21, COLORADO 14 . . . Might pick one up on Howard.

WEST TEXAS 14, SAN JOSE STATE 13 . . . Here's one I lose for sure. I was thinking of an-other team instead of SJ when I picked this, when I saw their record I got sick. Maybe Ker-bel can unveil a new secret weapon, otherwise here's a loss for me.

IOWA STATE 21, ARMY 18 . . . Here's another pickup. . . . even a doormat Midwest team can whip the pride of the East. Eat your words, Paul Dietzel!

NOTRE DAME 35, NAVY 0 . . . And the same goes for Jolly Roger. . . he'll be hung at the yardarm!

KANSAS 28, KANSAS STATE 7 . . . So says Bill Treloggen.

PITTSBURGH 21, SYRACUSE 14 . . . A tossup, feel Pitt has played a little tougher this year.

NEBRASKA 28, MISSOURI 7 . . . Cornhuskers keep rolling along.

Michaels Hurt

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Balti-more Colts' place kicker Lou Michaels was injured slightly Wednesday when the car he was driving crashed into a traf-fic island in downtown Balti-more.

Michaels, 28, received lacerations of the mouth and tongue.

Groom at Wheeler Friday

Another traditional football night, their two long runs. . . . There isn't anybody to single out in the line, no super-stand-outs, they all did a terrific job. . . . Our pass defense was out-standing too. Jamie Moore, Dunk Porter, Little Bobby Van-pool, Gene Watson. . . and espe-cially Richard Wallace. . . Wal-lace was playing there for the first time, replacing Don Burks who turned his ankle, and he was fine.

"Offensively, the Kiowas key-ed on Vanpool and Porter tore them apart up the middle. Wal-lace did a real fine job faking and quarterbacking, and John-ny Hutchison did a good job re-placing Burks.

"As far as Groom is concern-ed, it's going to be a lot tough-er. They're big. They haven't really jelled yet and I hope they don't this week. They al-ways come to play against Wheeler. Our kids know this is going to be as tough as any game we've played. They hit us pretty hard last year and they have a fine passing attack to go with their ground game this year."

Over at Groom, Sobbin' Jack denied that there was anything to cry about. "We've had a good week of workouts, a great week. Bob Garmon missed the Miami game with that same leg in-jury, but it's okay now. . . he's been looking like the Garmon of last year in workouts. We're really hitting people and this could be our week. I feel like we're gonna show up."

York praised his team for last week's win over Miami, also praising the Warriors as well.

tough, and are literally spitting defiance."

Pessimistic Wheeler coach J. T. Hill tried to softpedal the comparative rankings, worrying that "they'll be fired up enough without writing THAT!"

Usually pessimistic, but sud-denly transformed Groom coach Sobbin' Jack York said "I feel real sure that you ought to pick us to win this week!"

The high-kicking Horses reached their acme of football perfection last week in an awe-some 49-0 blanking of vaunted Booker. The Kiowas had lost only to Class AA Spearman and had rolled over five other op-ponents by overwhelming scores, using the fastest backfield in the state.

Their vaunted backfield crum-bled to pieces however before a hard-charging Mustang line, while their speedy backs were caught by the equally fleet-foot-ed Herd backs.

"It was our best team effort ever and our finest defensive performance," smiled Hill. "We just did everything right. . . we only made two mistakes all

Howie Pollet Joins Colts

HOUSTON (UPI)—Howie Pollet, who was pitching coach of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, has been named pitching coach of the Houston Colts, club General Manager Paul Richards said Wednesday.

Pollet replaces Cot Deal on the Houston coaching staff. Deal, who was released by the Colts in late September, has re-cently been named pitching coach for manager Johnny Keane's New York Yankees.

Pollet now lives in Houston. He formerly pitched with the Houston Buffs in 1939, 1940 and 1941, and has been pitching coach of the Cardinals since 1959.

Harris said he will meet with Pollet in a few days to discuss the Colt pitching staff.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Why Didn't Bobby Run For V.P.?

Why didn't Bobby Kennedy run for vice president under LBJ? Because LBJ didn't want Bobby, just as he didn't want John F. Kennedy to be President. In any case one wonders how Bobby could have run on the same ticket with LBJ. John F. Kennedy felt the sting of LBJ's associates and actions on the White House. How else can you explain the investigation of LBJ's friends, Billie Sol Estes and Bobby Baker during President Kennedy's Administration? How else can you explain John F. Kennedy's policy of giving LBJ little administrative power other than that prescribed by law? In fact LBJ was often sent out of the country to visit our allies in so called "good will" trips. Those who were intimates of both men were aware of a growing hostility which would have removed LBJ from the ticket in 1964.

Then how can you explain the unbelievable fawning of LBJ on the memory of John F. Kennedy? If we study the record, it is simple. For example, statements the men made about each other may give us a clue to the real situation as it existed. Rowland Evans, Jr., on TV confrontation, Kennedy and Johnson, eve of convention: Senator Johnson... painted the 41-year-old Kennedy, without naming names, as "a callow youth" who sought the highest office with unseemly haste and pressure, as a Senator who failed in his Senatorial duties by missing scores of vital roll-call votes while piling up the primary votes. He emphasized that whereas Senator Kennedy has supported price supports for 4 years, Senator Johnson has supported them for 24 years. (New York Tribune, July 13, 1960) His voice was soft and dramatic as he promptly went to work on Jack Kennedy, saying "I'm not against young people, I'm for 'em - for Vice-President. I don't think age matters as such, but I can't help but remind you that neither party ever elected a President under 45. (Richmond Times Dispatch, July 9, 1960, by C. McDowell, Jr.) At a news conference, Johnson renewed his charges that "pressure tactics" were used by Kennedy and twisted his right arm with his left hand to show what he meant. (Washington Post, July 14, 1960, by J. A. Goldsmith) "Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts told me, Lyndon has personality, vitality, tireless energy. His weaknesses are that he fluctuates and is not a heavy-weight thinker. But, like Franklin D. Roosevelt, he has the faculty of attracting brilliant people to work for him and this would offset his weaknesses." (Bill Davidson, "Lyndon Johnson... Can a Southerner be elected. President?" Look August 8, 1959, p. 71) Bobby Baker? Walter Jenkins? Politics makes strange bed-fellows when election time comes around, but even so, Bobby Kennedy never publicly expressed a desire to run under Lyndon B. Johnson. We wonder whether the American people have thought about this. Perhaps we shall have the answer November 3.

The Unorthodox Politician

The following are excerpts from an editorial in the Milwaukee Sentinel, endorsing Sen. Goldwater for President: "Barry Goldwater is a phenomenon. Before California's grand finale presidential primary, he was counted out. But now... "Now, Goldwater is being counted out once more. But he goes on doggedly - even cheerfully - leaving President Johnson to fret because things look too good to be true. "What makes Goldwater phenomenal, that is to say, a unique politician? Basically, it is because he is unorthodox. He breaks the rules by daring to make the political icons - criticizing the sacred cow of social security, talking about the unmentionable subject of nuclear strategy, questioning the economic holiness of the TVA, declining to join the chorus that says equality can be legislated, refusing to accept the proposition that the supreme court, and not the people, is the last word on what is constitutional. "That Goldwater has the courage and integrity to defy the rules of political expediency has, at one and the same time, bewildered and delighted his enemies. "The efficiency with which the Goldwater - Miller campaign has been organized and is being run bespeaks well of the way a Goldwater administration would organize and operate the federal government. Infinitely more than the Republican Party, our federal government is in need of the revitalization and reorganization that a Goldwater administration would bring. "We look forward to Goldwater's victory in the belief that it will breathe new life into the spirit of America and restore the vitality that once characterized the nation but which we seem to have fumbled and added away."

We're All for IQSY

A Happy IQSY to You! IQSY, we're quite certain you didn't know, is the International Quiet Sun Year, currently being observed by scientists concerned with outer space and the things that whiz around in it. The scientific reason for IQSY is that the sun is behaving itself with remarkable restraint. No temper tantrum sun spots which play hell with the orderly observance of space phenomena. Well, let the scientists observe the IQSY for professional reasons. It is our point that the observance of an International Quiet Year (omitting the Sun) is about the best idea in an age. If Russia would shut up; if Red China would keep still; if our domestic politicians would keep quiet - ah, wilderness! Ah, Paradise! The conscientious observance of International Quiet would rule out any atomic explosions - indeed, any explosions at all. It would probably put the Beatles and the Animals on ice for a while and there'd be no reason to call Congress back into session next January. Radio and TV might go on a two-hour day; say, between 3 and 5 a.m. We might be temporarily inconvenienced by the grounding of jets; but if there weren't so much noise and clutter, people wouldn't be in such a hurry to get from one commotion to the next. The wail of the newborn and the last gasp of those departing this coil might be excused; but all in-between noise, such as the roar of newspaper presses, would be suspect. It's a simple idea; but all great ideas are basic. Our feeling about the IQSY is that if you can't whip a quiet sun, join it. Maybe the other residents of outer space would welcome the chance to study us through their telescopes.

CAPITOL EYE:

NEA Editors Are Split on Senate Races

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Sharply divided opinions exist among Newspaper Enterprise Association client editors as to major party prospects in the 35 separate U. S. Senate races now reaching the climatic stage across the country.

Of the 35 seats at stake (two in Tennessee), 26 are now held by Democrats and nine by Republicans.

Among the 380 editors who responded to NEA's fall election survey, 127 or just about one-third thought the Republicans would gain seats Nov. 3. Only 91 made specific guesses as to the number the GOP might pick up. The average gain suggested was roughly four seats. This response matches the widely held notion that the coattails of a winning presidential candidate are no magic carpet lotting lesser candidates to victory. For only 51 editors think Sen. Barry Goldwater will defeat President Johnson, yet 127 believe Republican senatorial nominees can best Democrats running with Johnson.

On the other hand almost as many editors - 122 - think the GOP will lose senatorial seats this fall. Just 69 made specific guesses, and the estimated average loss was three seats.

Another 107 editors concluded that the present Democratic advantage of 66 seats to 34 would be exactly maintained after the balloting is over. Twenty-four hazarded no forecast.

Editors in their respective states predicted that Democratic incumbents (or their replacements) would hold onto their seats in 23 states: California, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee (2 seats), Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Responding editors from Ohio believe that incumbent Democratic Sen. Stephen Young will be unseated by his GOP challenger, Rep. Robert Taft, son of a famous father. There were two few responses to make a judgment on the Democratic seat held by Sen. Quentin Burdick of North Dakota.

Editors from the areas involved predicted that Republicans in Nebraska, New Mexico, Pennsylvania and Vermont would retain presently occupied Senate seats.

Despite contrary evidence of current polls, the editors think former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy will carry away Republican Sen. Kenneth Keating's seat in New York.

Evidence was too limited for judgments on seats now held by Republicans in Arizona, Delaware, Hawaii and Maryland.

Independent evidence beyond this survey suggests that Sen. Hiram Fong of Hawaii and Sen. J. Glenn Beall of Maryland are in serious trouble from Democratic rivals. Nor is Gov. Paul Fannin, running for the Arizona seat being vacated by Goldwater, free from difficulty.

NEA's client editors also were asked to weigh the impact this year of the major party vice presidential nominees.

A bit more than 40 per cent of the responding 380 editors - 154 - thought Johnson's choice of Sen. Hubert Humphrey would do him more harm than good. But another 122 thought the Minnesota would help the Democratic ticket, and 102 said the choice would have no material effect.

As for the Republican vice presidential choice, Rep. William Miller of New York, a whopping 219 editors - 57.6 per cent - said he would have no impact at all on Goldwater's race against the President. Ninety thought he would hurt the Arizona's chances, and 71 thought he would help.

A young man who was plainly nervous and fidgety looked with considerable apprehension at the woman with a baby in her arms, who took the only vacant seat in the car - the one beside him. The baby gave an occasional cry of pain, which the woman evidently tried to suppress.

Finally, after many anxious glances, the young man spoke. Young Man - Has - has that baby any... anything... contagious?

The woman returned his glance with a mixture of scorn and pity. Woman - It wouldn't be for most people, but maybe 'twould be for you. He's teething.

Whose Finger Y'Want "On The Button"?

ROBERT ALLEN

Backstage Washington

Johnson - Humphrey Campaign Co's Estimated to Run $15 Million to $12 Million for Goldwater

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON - The Johnson-Humphrey campaign is outspending the Goldwater - Miller slate by several or more million dollars.

Up to the home-stretch, rival expenditures are around $8 million to $6 million.

It will be some time after next week's balloting before the two national committees have an idea of their total outlays.

But on the basis of plans and commitments, party insiders estimate the Democrats' spending at $15 million as against $12 million by the Republicans.

These totals will not include funds raised and spent by numerous supporting committees - citizens, businessmen, labor, farmers, lawyers, etc. etc. Whatever their nature and purpose (some are solely to raise money which is channeled to electioneering activities and organizations), all are required by law to file separate reports.

This means it will take a detailed study of all reports - by the two national committees and their many temporary auxiliary committees - to ascertain the over-all cost of the presidential struggle.

Neither party is having difficulty obtaining funds, particularly the Democrats. Being "ins" is helping greatly on that.

On the other hand, Senator Goldwater's militant "crusade" is being devotedly supported by his ardent partisans throughout the country. A recent appeal by Republican Chairman Dean Burch produced more than 6,000 telegraphed money orders and nearly 55,000 letters with money and checks - some sizable.

Contributions to the Goldwater-Miller headquarters amount to $50,000 to $60,000 a day. A distinctive feature of the GOP contributions is the thousands of small sums, $1 to $10, being sent by "grass roots" voters. In contrast, Democratic contributions are larger and chiefly from party sources.

OTHER FINANCIAL DIFFERENCES - Johnson-Humphrey campaign managers expect to go into the red, but are unconcerned about that. (Editor's note - That would seem to be running true to form.)

They anticipate a deficit of not less than $3 million, as in 1960, and probably more. The Democratic National Committee is not stinting; in fact, some party veterans are privately complaining about free-handed spending.

They are hinting at costly blunders, several of them laid at the doorstep of press director Sam Brightman.

Reason for the backstage lack of concern about a big campaign deficit is that the $3 million deficit from the Kennedy-Johnson drive was cleared by 1962, and by the start of this year's election battle the National Committee had some $5 million in cash reserves.

Not since the Roosevelt era 20 years ago had the Democrats embarked on a presidential race in such flourishing financial state.

Not only was the National Committee literally "loaded," but the Senate and House Democratic Campaign Committees were equally well heeled. Each had more than $500,000 - a record high for them.

The Senate Committee, headed by Warren Magnuson, Wash., allocated a minimum of $15,000 to each Democratic senatorial candidate, and more later "as funds and circumstances permit." Some of the candidates have received as much as $25,000. The House Committee, headed by Representative Michael Kirwan, O., has used its money "where it will do the most good," particularly in marginal districts where incumbent Democrats are having tough fights.

POLITICALS - Small Business Administrator Eugene Foley has his eye on the top job in the Commerce Department. Foley is ambitious to succeed Secretary Luther Hodges, who is reputedly planning to leave the Cabinet after the election.

Justice Department officials are priming a friendly newsmen with inside information about gangster influence in business. This is being done at White House orders. The revelations will be published after the election. The head of an important government agency has conferred with this correspondent twice in the past ten days.

While motor mogul Henry Ford is supporting President Johnson and has contributed $5,000 to his campaign, other Ford officials are letting it be known they are backing Senator Goldwater and Governor George Romney. Ford vice president Allen W. Merrell has written letters saying that although his boss is for Johnson, "other officers of the company, myself included, are supporting Senator Goldwater, and Mr. Ford is for George Romney."

Both President Johnson and Senator Goldwater have personally sought to win the backing of Ohio's Senator Frank Lausche. Although nominally a Democrat, he has kept aloof from the presidential battle. Johnson has telephoned him and so has Goldwater. But as of this writing, Lausche hasn't declared for either.

The Clearing House

Articles for this column are preferred to be 300 words or less in length. However, longer articles may be printed. All letters must be signed.

Editor: Are you ever surprised at the American people, and especially a Texan? Sometimes I am really amazed. Would you like to be called a "sucker"? Do you believe all you hear on the radio, see in print or on television? Does just my, or any other individual, making a statement, make that statement a fact?

I am a Texan, not by birth, but by choice. I have lived in Gray County more than 50 years, long enough to be called "an old timer." I have, and still do, believe basically in the honesty (that quality of man that shows him fair and truthful in speech) of the American citizen. I hope I never lose that belief. Yes, I have always prided myself on being an American, and a Texan.

However, I have become alarmed, recently, at a campaign, "fodder," "propaganda," "smears," and, "hate materials" being circulated by "so called Conservatives." By "so called" I mean those who have taken this name to "themselves" exclusive of any other American or Texan. I have always considered myself rather "Conservative." I try hard to observe the commandment which says, "Thou shalt not bear false witness. . . ." Is it Christian, or even good citizenship, to originate a lie against a fellow citizen? Is it any more Christian, or good citizenship, to "peddle" such gossip?

Recently I heard a man make a statement, which he said he believed to be a fact, "that President Lyndon B. Johnson was spending $1,000,000,000 per day. (yes please note per day) more than any president that we have ever had." When asked to consider his statement he said, "I must have been mistaken." My point is, a lot of gossip. . . or down right "slander" is being circulated. Some of this is being done by persons who call themselves "Christians." God has ordained civil government. May we keep ourselves "civil" in this election. Let each of us be sure we are stating facts, not fiction. . . and certainly not slander.

Yours for good government and clean politics.

off the scandal in Washington 5, D.C.
Ernie says but Mae dear you cannot be series. Them two things could not possibly be related.

Ha. That is also what he said about that little girl and her grandfather we had in 2B that time we called the cops and now have to give them Xmas gifts each Xmas.

O yes it is a Commie plot alright. That is the only way they know to run the show. Spying. Plotting. Smearing one and other. Running things from the police station instead of with a Dem. and Rep. convention where everybody can get heard.

Now I am not somebody to tell the next person what kind of a life they should leave. But I think it is a real crime what they do with their Ex Leaders instead of keeping them around like we do if only for laughs.

Because who has to pay for it. The U.S. of A. that is who. You look in the papers at all them ousters. They come running here like this nation was some kind of dog lb. for govts. without countries. And of course you have got to put them up being they are refugees from a Commie country.

In fact I said to Ernie right after them recent events in the Kremlin Ernie I would not be in the lease surprised if they was all sitting on our doorstep tomorrow a.m. in their Red underwear.

Well they will not get no apt. here until the first of next month as we have finally got 3A coming vacant and expect 3B to move across the hill yielding a 15 pct. rent increase on both.

You people do not realize how hard it is to operate a property nowadays. The taxes. The regulations. Do you know what it costs to pay off a bldg. inspector in this neighborhood. To say nothing of what them tenants do to your furnishings.

In fact I do not think I would rent to this here K anyhow. I seen where he hits the table with his shoe when mad. Besides they say he is well passed 70 yrs. And out of a job. You people do not know what it is like when that type falls into arrears on the rent. This is not Russia. You cannot get these Senior Citizens evicted so easy.

Editor: As election time is drawing so near, I am sure that you receive many letters, mostly about politics. I have never written an editor of a newspaper or magazine before, but this morning I felt compelled to share a thought or perhaps you would say a feeling with you. As I went about my morning work, I heard bells ringing. I don't know what church they were from. I went to the door and listened while they played two songs of faith. As I stood there listening, I had a few moments to stop and feel the presence of God around me. It was in the cool crisp air, the changing color of the leaves, the children playing on the playground.

How wonderful to pause in the midst of all the troubles of our times and just feel the peace and serenity in your heart because the Lord is there and everywhere.

I feel sure if all the nation would ask God's help in choosing the leaders of our country next week, that all the dirt and mud - slinging, hate and anger would not be so prominent in this election.

Thank you for letting me share this thought with you.
Mrs. Jack F. Clark
1013 Charles

Editor: Mr. Bob Price calls Congressman Walter Rogers a "professional" politician.

Webster defines a professional as "one who conforms to the standards of a profession." He also defines a politician as "one versed or experienced in the science of government."

So, thanks to Mr. Price, the choice is very clear November third. If you want a job well done, choose a professional.

God help us all if the "amateur" politicians ever get the chance to run this country.
Billie J. Dunham

Editor: It seems that many voters are now thoroughly confused about the real issues in the presidential election. But there is a good way to clear up this confusion without wading through all the smear campaign propaganda. Simply read what our present or potential enemies are saying and you will see that they obviously want Senator Goldwater defeated. They want to continue toward their unchanging goal of world-wide communist domination.

Since these Godless communists "liquidated" millions of Chinese, Hungarians, Cubans and others are AGAINST the election of Barry Goldwater, every thinking voter certainly will be FOR him.

Could the issue be any clearer?
